SENATE ACTION THRUSTS TREATY INTO CAMPAIGN

Unratified Pact Goes Back to President While Move to Declare Peace Takes Place on Floor

TWENTY-ONE DEMOCRATS QUIT WILSON AS FOUR MONTHS' NEGOTIATION RESULT

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The treaty of Versailles was referred to President Wilson today by the senate after it had failed of ratification last night for the fourth time. There was no intimation as to what President Wilson would do with the treaty. White House officials said the usual procedure would be to send it to the state department for "burial" in the archives here.

Mr. Tumulty, who was given the treaty, said there would be no statement from the president.

Propose Peace Declaration The senate was not in session today but when the house met, Representatives Flinn, republican, Massachusetts, offered a joint resolution declaring a state of peace between the United States and Germany.

Under the resolution Germany would recognize all rights which the United States might have had under the Versailles treaty. Should Germany fail to agree to this, the president would be authorized to prohibit resumption of trade relations or the extension of loans or credits.

With the peace treaty on its way back to the White House today, accompanied by the notification to the president that the senate had finally refused to ratify and consent to its ratification, Senator Knox's resolution to declare a state of peace with Germany will take its place on the senate floor. Consideration last night after the adverse vote on ratification, was blocked by adjournment until Monday.

Treaty in Campaign Republican leaders expect some such measure to be passed. The treaty question was regarded as almost insignificant in the presidential campaign as one of the main issues on which republicans and democrats will fight for national endorsement this fall.

Ratification was defeated last night by a vote of 49 to 35, the lineup being 28 republicans and 21 democrats for and 23 democrats and 21 republicans against. The next round of four months of compromise negotiations was the addition of 17 democrats to those voting for ratification.

Five of the representatives would be necessary to consummate a declaration of the peace by resolution, as contemplated by Senator K. Knox. His resolution proposes the repeal of the joint resolution declaring war and provides that unless Germany notifies the United States of its acceptance of all undertakings contained in the treaty of Versailles, the president would have the power to prohibit by proclamation commercial intercourse between the two nations or the giving of any assistance to Germany.

21 Democrats Quit Wilson On the roll call 21 democrats broke away from the administration ranks and voted for ratification. The roll call follows: For the resolution: republicans—Baird, Clegg, Copeny, Colt, Curtis, Dillingham, Edge, Elkins, Fringhuyssen, Hale, Jones (Washington); Kellogg, Kenyon, Koyne, Leavort, Long, McCreary, Barry, New, Fago, Phelps, Smoot, Spencer, Sterling, Swadlow, Wadsworth, Warren, and Watson—republicans, 23.

Democrats—Ashurst, Beckham, Chamberlain, Fletcher, Johnson, Callaghan, Kendrick, King, Myers, Nugent, Owen, Peardon, Pittman, Pomeroy, Ransdell, Smith, (Georgia); Smith, (Maryland); Trammell, Walsh, (Massachusetts); and Walsh (Montana)—21.

Total for ratification, 39. Against: Republicans—Borah, Brandegee, Ferrand, France, Grann, Johnson, Callaghan, Knox, LaFollette, McCormick, Moses, Norris and Sherman—12.

Democrats—Cramer, Culberson, Dial, Gray, Glass, Harris, Harrison, Hildcock, Johnson (South Dakota); Kirby, McKeller, Overman, Reed, Robinson, Sheppard, Shields, Simmons, Smith (South Carolina); Stanley, Swanson, Thomas, Underwood and Williams—23.

Total against, 25. Compares Linenp The lineup of the entire senate today was 57 for ratification to 29 against, including members paired.

Eighteen democrats today changed from their position on November 19. Seventeen who then voted against ratification favored it today while one, Senator Shields of Tennessee, who voted for ratification November 19, since France's speech on an irreconcilable today voted against ratification.

ILLINOIS MINERS BACK HOWATT IN STRIKE THREAT

Workers Representatives Give Unqualified Support to Program for General Walkout in Defiance of Kansas Law

PEORIA, Ill., (AP)—The unqualified support of 90,000 Illinois miners, through representatives in session here, today gave unqualified support of state President Alexander Howatt of Kansas when he announced a program for the launching of a general miners' strike in Kansas in defiance of state laws there which are said to prohibit strikes of any nature.

Howatt was one of the leaders of the coal miners recently cited for contempt of federal Judge Anderson at Indianapolis.

The action of the Illinois miners convention came after a lengthy address by Howatt in which he reviewed the strike conditions in the coal fields of Kansas and called together and the industrial relations court was established.

Defies Law Enforcement "The law calls for imprisonment of two years and a fine of $5,000 for any one who participates in or calls a strike," Howatt said, "but come what will, whether or not my bones rot in prison, call it any going, I will fight this law to the bitter end. 12,000 miners in Kansas and regardless of consequences given Governor Allen cause to remember that organized labor will not have the right to cease work at its will.

"Be the consequences what they may, there is no power on earth, in heaven or otherwise, that will make me call off this strike. This strike will be called by me in the very near future.

Kansas suffered a four-year strike before representatives of organized labor won recognition and this fight is to be repeated soon, repeated solely because the rights of free men to cease work have been denied by Governor Allen."

Delegates Cheer Speaker In pledging Howatt their support the delegates rose to their feet and cheered him. The convention adjourned until Monday when the debate on the question of calling a strike in the Belleville district will be resumed.

SANGUINARY CIVIL WAR PRECEDES STRIKE END

Large Sections of Country Resound with Rattle of Gun Fire with Loss of Life Estimated at 2,000

ULTRA-RADICAL FORCES CAPTURE IMPORTANT CITIES IN RHINELAND

BERLIN, (AP)—The general strike has been ended, it was announced here today.

LONDON, (AP)—The general strike in Germany has been called off, according to Berlin advices received here this afternoon. The government, it is stated, has accepted the workers' demands, including far-reaching concessions to the independent socialists, which will be made public shortly.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS) Large sections of Germany are resounding to the rattle of machine guns and rifle fire in the civil warfare which so far since the beginning of the Berlin revolt last Saturday is estimated by some Berlin commentators to have cost two thousand lives.

The industrial district in the Rhineland appears to be the stronghold of the ultra-radical forces, which are reported to have captured Essen, the home of the Krupp plant, the important industrial centers of Dusseldorf and other towns in this region.

Advices from Cologne reflect worryment by the allies over the situation in the Rhine district, close to the occupied area. One report, which is unconfirmed, declares there are indications that they are preparing to advance further into Germany if the situation does not improve.

In Leipzig the Ebert forces appear to be regaining control after a bloody conflict. At Kiel, where the workers recently gained control, conditions are reported quiet for the moment.

Reports of the still disturbed conditions in Berlin, it is said in dispatches from Stuttgart that the national assembly will continue its sessions there until the capital becomes quieter. The Ebert government apparently still maintaining its headquarters in that city.

Ebert Administration Returning to Berlin

STUTTGART, (AP)—The entire Ebert government, including ministers of justice, interior and education for Berlin tonight on a special train General Seecht, in command at Berlin, has sent a wireless message saying that everything is quiet in the capital.

Premier Bauer, Foreign Minister Mueller and Herr Gleibertz, minister of posts and telegraphs, accompanied the train. The government, arriving in Berlin this morning where they immediately opened negotiations with the unions.

Fear of Communists Spreads in Berlin

BERLIN, (AP)—The strike is being enforced more strictly and the socialists and Spartacist organizations are picketing the city thoroughly. Cabmen are being held up and their passengers forced to alight. The streets consequently are devoid of traffic save for a few private conveyances and military and police vehicles.

Fear of the communists and their red guards seems to be spreading increasingly among the security police. An armored train was sent from Berlin yesterday as a result of serious unrest in the police and the strike which occurred at various railway stations, such as Niederchoenwille, Strauberg, Fredersdorf and Hoppegarten.

A decree by President Ebert issued today prohibits Berlin and the province of Brandenburg in an intensified state of siege. The regular troops and the security police are ordered to search motor cars for arms. If occupants of these cars are found carrying arms without permits they are to be shot on the spot, the decree orders.

The decree also warns the population of Greater Berlin against being in the streets after nightfall. Extraordinary courts martial are established, including drumhead court martial.

Another decree permits meetings to be held in closed rooms but gives strict directions that meetings will require permission from the military commander.

ALLIES PREPARE TO MOVE TROOPS ON GERMAN SOIL

Indications Point to Advance of Armies of Occupation if the Country Does Not Quiet Down Soon

RELIEF TRAIN SENT TO AMERICANS AT LEIPZIG

CORLIENZ, (AP)—A special train made up by local German authorities at the direction of American army officers left this city at 7:15 o'clock this morning for Leipzig to bring out two hundred American allied business men who are stranded there and reported in danger.

It is in charge of Lieutenant Hans Frischmann, the adjutant of the German military mission with the allied army of occupation. By skipping way stations it would be possible to make the run to Leipzig and return in twelve hours.

They assured Herr Schieffer, it is said, that enemies representatives had not recognized the leaders of the revolt.

CHATEAU DE RAMEZAY ONE OF MONTREAL'S HISTORIC RELICS

The running of the sands of time alone can give the proper perspective and value to historic buildings. Societies spring up to preserve these relics of the past. As a result of their activities Faneuil Hall in Boston, Independence Hall in Philadelphia, Lincoln's home in Springfield, Washington's home at Mt. Vernon and many other buildings are preserved for America's future generations. In Canada, too, this custom is followed, particularly in the eastern provinces, whose early histories are rich in dramatic events.

Perhaps the most famous of these memorials in the past is the Chateau de Ramezay in Montreal, which has remained almost untouched since the days of the old French regime. It was built in 1705 by Seigneur Ramezay, eleventh governor of Montreal. Here he kept open house with his wife, whose hand was the reward of his gallant sortie with 800 men in aid of Quebec, when the Comte de Frontenac, governor of Canada, fended off the English fleet of Sir William Phipps.

The Chateau stands in what was once the fashionable part of old Montreal, amid mansions and gardens that merged into the neighboring forests. Today the homes of Montreal have forsaken the busy waterfront and climb, their charming gardens still clinging to them, up the slopes of Mount Royal.

From the days of de Ramezay the Chateau has been the scene of many historic assemblies. Its roof sheltered not only the governor-generals, the armies of fair women and brave men and their illustrious guests, but fur traders, scouts, militia leaders and Indians.

In 1746 it passed into the hands of the Campagnie des Indes and as India House became the center of a great fur trade, filling this picturesque and important role for nearly twenty years.

In 1763, after the cession of Canada, it was again the residence of the governor and invitations to receptions held there during the following century are still in existence.

The Chateau was headquarters for the army of the Continental Congress in its fruitless effort to hold Canada for the thirteen colonies. After Benedict Arnold failed in his treason he retired to Montreal and stayed there for a time, Benjamin Franklin lived in the Chateau when he visited Montreal in 1776 in his effort to persuade the French Canadians to join the new nation to the south, but his was a vain hope. During his stay there he established the Montreal "Gazette," which is still running. Needless to say, he did not find this paper for the purpose of propaganda.

After 1849, the Chateau was for thirty-five years used for government offices. When the government removed to Ottawa, the city presented the Chateau to the Numismatic and Antiquarian Society for a museum, and as such it is unique. Its collection contains all sorts of things ranging from crude homemade utensils fashioned by the clumsy hands of frontier habitants to portraits done by world-renowned artists. One of the most precious things among the thousands cataloged is the Louisa bell, hung in the church there in 1724.

Most of the increases are effective April 1.

TURKS PLAN TO DEFEAT ALLIES

Nationalists Organize Opposition to Peace Terms Unfavorable to Turkey

CONSTANTINOPLE, (AP)—Leaders of the Turkish nationalists from Azerbaijan to Palestine seem to be co-operating in a movement to oppose allied proposals for a peace unfavorable to Turkey. Men closely associated with Mustafa Kemal, leader of the nationalists, have been skillfully promoting opposition to all foreign interference, it is asserted, and the Arabs, Kurds and other tribes are said to be aligned with forces planning to checkmate any movement on the part of the entente looking to the partitioning of the country.

The whole movement seems to be political rather than religious. Whether bolshevism enters into the situation has not as yet developed.

Turkish newspapers frankly say the allies cannot muster sufficient strength to force an unacceptable peace upon the country. They point to Captain Gabriele O'Annunzio's defiance and other instances in which the allies have been powerless to enforce orders.

With the exception of the Marsh incident there have been no massacres of Christians, although there are large numbers of Armenians and Greeks at the mercy of the Turks in Asia Minor. These people are living in terror lest they be attacked when the peace terms are made known. French detachments are reported to be meeting stubborn resistance in their effort to occupy districts northeast of Aleppo, where British troops were formerly stationed.

Americans in Asia Minor have been requested to remain absolutely neutral in the event of disorders in districts occupied by foreign armies.

DIFFERENT DAYS.

"I wouldn't like it at all," said Sally, "if every day were like this."

"Neither would I," said Lucy. "I have my rainy-day dress, and my muddle-day dress, and my party dress, and my school dress, and my make-believe nurse's dress."

"Yes, we can wear the different dresses on different days, and it makes the days more important. Of course," said Sally, "my rainy-day dress and my muddle dress are the same."

"They are with me," said Lucy, "but when the day is a rainy day I call my dress a rainy-day dress, and when the day is one when I can make mud pies I call my dress my muddle dress."

"If there weren't different days," said Mr. Sun, "what would I do when I wanted a rest? Goodness only knows. Ah, yes, it is most important to have different days; most important. And then once in a great while I like to have a visit from old man Neptune, who hides me from the earth. There really must be different days for everyone and everything to have changes and chances and all such things."

"If there weren't different days," said the acornnut, the little white flowers of the autumn which grow on bravely after it is quite so cold, "we probably wouldn't know what nice piece the earth is, and how we love the garden; and now we enjoy being cut and going into the houses."

"We're about the only flowers around in the garden now, except a few little jolly Johnny-Jump-Ups, and it does make things nice."

"If there weren't the autumn days there mightn't be us."

"And if there were not different days we wouldn't be able to wear our little pink blossoms in the spring and our white berries later on, and to keep our white berries way on into the fall, straight into the winter," said the snowberry bush.

"We can stay so long, even after the snow comes. If there weren't different days it is quite a lot of things and change and have pink buds one time of the year and white berries the rest of the time we're enjoying ourselves."

"If it weren't for the days of the autumn, when it is getting cool, we'd never know when it was time to go to bed," said the rosy-cheeked, laughing happily. "It is nice that there are different kinds of days, and when the cold ones begin to come we know it is time for us to go to sleep."

"Ah," said the toads, "we like the different days, the nice damp, rainy days, and the warm days, too! We like to help in the gardens and to do splendid work, even if we are ugly little creatures."

"It is fine that there are the autumn days," said Grandpa Frog, "goog-a-rum, goog-a-rum, it is a good thing all the days aren't alike and that the summer days aren't the days that come in the winter, too. If that were the case we'd never get any sleep at all, at all; that would never do."

"It is weren't for the rainy days, and the misty days," said old Nurse Fog, "I'd have nothing to do with my time. But as it is I have my days for looking after the Army of Raindrops and the Mist grandchildren."

"If it weren't for the cold days," said a boy, "we'd never have any skating."

"If it weren't for the hot days," said another boy, "we'd never have any swimming."

"If it weren't for the frost the chestnuts wouldn't get ripe and we wouldn't have chestnut buns," said another boy.

"And we wouldn't be able to store away so much for the winter," said the squirrels.

"Taking it all in all," said Monday, "I'm glad I'm different at different times of the year and in different weeks. One week I may be windy and the next I may be quiet and warm."

"Yes," said Tuesday, "I'm glad I'm different, too. Every one likes us all to be different really. They'd never like it if each day of each week were just, just the same."

"It's a good old world," said Wednesday.

"It is," shouted Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday all in a chorus.

Song of 10,000 Lines Being Written for India's Pariah Water Drawers

Missionaries quote strange problems in their work of spreading the doctrine of Christianity. But usually they are able to work out a good solution. Deedee Walker, Y. Scudder, for years a missionary of the Dutch Reform Church in India, has attached to the Foreign Survey of the International Year, a poem, tale of one current problem well solved.

"I have contacted the Pariah water drawers of India has measured the number of buckets of water he draws by means of a song of 10,000 lines. Unable to count much less to add or subtract, the water drawer had to give some method of measurement. So this song was adopted. It runs:

"Three Hundred and Thirty Million Gods have I
 "Five Hundred Million Rich have I"
 and so on for 10,000 variations.

The employer, desiring a certain number of buckets to be drawn, calls the water drawer to stop his song at such a verse or line. The drawer pulls up one bucket or another, having exactly the number wanted.

Now that many of these humble laborers of India have converted to Christianity, they are faced by the problem of how to count without cheating a song which no longer represents their religious belief. So the missionaries are writing a song of 10,000 lines dealing with the life and teachings of Christ to be substituted for the chant now used.

DEVELOPES NEW INDUSTRY

Demand for Commercial Mica Opens Up Profitable Field for New Mexico

SANTA FE, N. M., (AP)—The commercial mica industry which is just being opened up in New Mexico, promises, it is said, to be one of the most extensive of its kind in the United States. For years this deposit, which stretches over the eastern and southern portion of Rio Arriba county and extends into Santa Fe county, has lain dormant, but it is now being developed after tests have fully demonstrated that the mica is equal in quality to that produced anywhere else in the country.

Ground mica is used in the manufacture of paints, axle grease, roofing material, wall paper, tin powder and as an adulterant in rubber, as well as for the manufacture of washers. Sheet mica is extensively used for stoves, electrical purposes, picture slides and phonograph diaphragms.

DENIES BRITISH COLUMBIA LUMBERMEN FAVOR U. S.

NELSON, B. C., (AP)—Denying that British Columbia lumber manufacturers are in any way favoring United States buyers over Canadian ones, and characterizing as absurd the allegation that United States mills are holding back their own product to boost their sales by buying up the available Canadian supply, I. B. Poole, secretary of the Mountain Lumber Manufacturers' association, stated that recent dispatches from Ottawa and Winnipeg suggesting the possibility of a lumber embargo to prevent further lumber exports to the United States, were misleading.

SOCIALISTS' CLAIMS TO LINCOLN ILL-FOUNDED

Emancipator's Utterances Prove Friendship to Labor, with Fervent Regard for American Ideals Making Advancement Open Path to Individual Ability and Initiative

(The National Republican)
"If Abraham Lincoln were living he would be a socialist," wrote a contributor to the socialist Appeal to Reason.

The name of Lincoln has been invoked in behalf of every sort of revolutionary radicalism, the only apparent excuse in most cases being that Lincoln is dead and unable to prevent, by injunction or otherwise, the misuse of the prestige of his great name and fame. But it happens that in a strong statement in behalf of free labor found in Lincoln's message to congress of Dec. 3, 1861, the great emancipator anticipated and refuted the claims which form the basis of the socialist appeal to reason, and class and class prejudice. Lincoln said, in referring to the aristocracy which the southern democracy of that day sought to erect upon a basis of slave labor: "It is not needed or fitting here that a general argument should be made in behalf of popular institutions; but there is one point, with its consequences, not so unimportant as most others, to which I ask a brief attention. It is the effort to place capital on an equal footing with, if not above labor, in the structure of government. It is assumed that labor is available only in conjunction with capital; that nobody labors unless somebody else, owning capital, somehow by the use of it induces him to labor. It is assumed, it is next considered whether it is best that capital shall hire laborers, and thus induce them to toil by their own consent, or buy them and drive them to it without their consent. Having proceeded thus far, it is naturally concluded that all laborers are either hired laborers or what we call slaves. And, further, it is assumed that whoever is once a hired laborer, is fixed in that condition for life.

"Now, there is no such relation between capital and labor, nor is there any such thing as a free man being fixed for life in the condition of a hired laborer. Both these assumptions are false, and all inferences from them are groundless.

"Labor is prior to, and independent of capital. Capital is only the fruit of labor, and could not exist if labor had not first created it.

"Labor is the superior of capital, and deserves much of the higher consideration. Capital has its rights, which are as worthy of protection as any other rights. Nor is it denied that there is, and probably always will be, a relation between capital and labor producing mutual benefits.

with capital, that is, they labor with their own hands, and buy, or hire, others to labor for them; but this is only a mixed and not a distinct class. No principle stands in disturbed by the existence of this mixed class.

"Again, as has already been said, there is not, of necessity, any such thing as the free hired laborer—none in that condition for life. Many independent men everywhere in these states, a few years back in their lives, were hired laborers. The prudent, valiant beginner in the world labors for wages awhile, saves a surplus with which to buy tools or land for himself; then labors on his own account with good success, and at length hires another new beginner to help him. This is the just and generous and prosperous system which opens the way to the poor, gives hope to all, and consequent energy and progress and improvement of condition to all. No men living are more worthy to be trusted than those who toil up from poverty—none less inclined to take or touch aught which they have not honestly earned."

On another occasion Lincoln warned the terrors of the evil consequences of those and the spirit of expropriation, saying that instead of seeking to tear down the house of him that hath, the toiler should look forward to building one of his own, and that respect for the rights of property would be the best guaranty of the security of his own property when accumulated.

In Lincoln's day we had the same competitive system of agriculture which the socialist rails today. It is true that it has become much more complicated, and its problems much more intricate, because of the growth of industrialism, but the principles Lincoln laid down are as true today as when he gave expression to them. Nothing would have been more repugnant to Lincoln than the reduction of the citizen to the status of slavery, under state socialism, with the politicians in power taking the place of master.

PREPARES FOR WAR ON HESSIAN FLY OUTBREAK

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Anticipating the possibility this spring of another outbreak of the numerous destructive outbreaks of the Hessian fly in the wheat fields of the country, the department of agriculture has made ready to combat it. Through appropriation by congress, funds for the work were increased sufficiently to provide for the principal needs and three stations for the purpose of systematic study have been established at Carleisle, Pa., Centralia, Ill., and Wichita, Kans.

Through these stations it is hoped more will be learned this year about the Hessian fly than in any year since the British General Howe's hired Hessian troops were supposed to have brought the pest to Long Island during the revolution. Exhaustive investigations are under way on parasites of the Hessian fly to determine what effect the presence or absence of any particular parasite has on periodical visitations of the fly. The last great outbreak came five or six years ago.

Member Audit Bureau of Circulations

VAIN HOPE

It is to be observed that an occasional member of the so-called Non-partisan league who has not yet been brought wholly under the intellectual domination of its leaders will admit glaring and conspicuous imperfections in the personnel of the organization's guiding hands, excusing, at the same time his own membership on the grounds that each particular interest or industrial group is entitled to its own organization.

Such an individual may even go so far as to express hope that the elevation of new leaders in the organization is a highly desirable thing.

Differ as one may with the aims of this or any other group organization, its right to organize and push those aims to the best of its ability is hardly to be gainsaid, but any notion that the so-called Non-partisan league can continue to exist and function in its present form under the leadership of others than those now directing it must be based on premises not established in view of an unobscured appreciation of the articles of Association of the National Non-partisan League.

A revealing light is thrown on the manner in which the socialist leaders of the "Non-partisan" league control the organization in the statement of one George T. Murray, a resident of Berthoud, North Dakota, and a former member of the league. He says:

"It is a daily thing to hear leaguers apologize for the radicals in the league, and confess that there will have to be an elimination of the bosses, radicals, ultrarads and so on. I am sure such persons are honest in their opinion and mean well, yet such persons least suspect how the league is controlled at the top. That is, such persons have NEVER read the Articles of Association of the National Nonpartisan League. I often wonder why such leaguers do not petition the boss at the top of the league to publish in the Nonpartisan Leader these articles. From the court in the Townley bankruptcy case, and I have access through a friend, to these articles construed by Walter Thomas Miller."

"Here is a brief of the power of the Executive committee:
 "They nominate their own successors (Sec. 7). They nominate the members of the committee (Sec.
 4) which approves their own nomination (Sec. 6). They have authority to remove any member of any committee which might refuse to endorse them (Sec. 12). They can appoint such friends as will endorse them and their policies (Sec.
 16). They constitute a part of the committee which approves themselves (Sec. 3). No person except their own appointees (Sec. 3) and themselves may examine the books and records (Sec. 10). They have full and complete power to remove any member displacing to them,

 and his position in the league,
 whether elected or appointed (Sec.
 13).

"Hence, NO WAY to reform the league from within.
 "It is to be noted that Oscar of Germany and Emma NEVBE attempted such concentrated power as A. C.
 Townley has delegated to himself, nor has any tyrant in history ever recorded such exercise of authority as that A. C. Townley wields.
 "Clear water never comes from a muddy stream, nor does democracy find its source in tyrannical power."

"Lemine and Trotsky do not rule Russia with as strong hand as is used by A. C. Townley in ruling the league, even though the League records of 1917 show that they are his ideals as rulers. While discussing his right to criticize our government while at war, Mr. Townley said in his Fargo speech, 'Wagner-or I find that I have not the right of free speech I will go to the gallows or I will go to Russia where I can get it.'

"I make the assertion that A. C.
 Townley cannot, at least he has never attempted to, analyze the wrongs to the farmers' marketing system. This being true he can offer but guess remedies. In about thirty speeches over the state, I have been able to find one leaguer who would dispute or criticize my analysis or remedy; not even the Courier News, G. F. American and
 W. D. Leader offered any criticism.
 The nearest criticism they could produce was that 'Geo. T. Murray had quit and gone home.' Bear this in mind, that Geo. T. Murray will never quit as long as Townleyism is in control in this state."

Experience in North Dakota where the Townley organization has held sway for some four years, demonstrates quite conclusively not only that the founders and present leaders are firmly entrenched at the helm, but that the policy of their craft quite often is at wide variance with the fulfillment of promises with which their followers are regaled. These are questions of fact which may be verified as readily as the fact that Governor Frazier lent his office to the assistance of Mrs. O'Hare.
 The excuse that any industrial group must needs organize under the banner of Townleyism falls flat when consideration is given the political and other activities devoid of the taint of beneficent leadership.

Today's Markets

New York Exchange
NEW YORK, (AP)—Motor shares and their accessories were the seasonal features of today's short but lively stock market session.
 General Motors, on enormous dealings rose 1 to 2 points between values of $112.50 and $115.00. The stock points to its recent remarkable advance at the new maximum of $117 3/4.
 Oils, which usually keep pace with any spectacular movement of motors, were inclined to react, as were also most of the representative steels, equipments and rails. Pronounced strength was shown by some of the copper and shippings. Profit-taking provoked moderate reactions from high est quotations in the final dealings, although General Motors continued to soar. The closing was irregular.
 Sales approximated 600,000 shares.

Liberty Bonds
NEW YORK, (AP)—Liberty bond financial prices today were 3 1/2% 907; first 4s $90.40; second 4s $89.10; first 4 1/4s
 $90.78; second 4 1/4s $89.40; third 4 1/4s
 $92.48; fourth 4 1/4s $89.88; Victory
 3 3/4s $97.52; Victory 4 3/4s $97.50.

Grain and Provisions
CHICAGO, (AP)—Free selling on the part of commission houses had a weakening effect today on the corn market.
 The selling was based largely on options that the recent advance had been overdone, and that corn was no longer profitable to feed. On dealers, however, shorts covered freely, and the market rallied. Opening prices, which varied from unchanged figures to 2-3c lower, with May $1.01 1/2 to $1.02 and July $1.04 to $1.05 1/2, were followed by upturns all around from the initial bottom level.

Later the market bulged sharply, influenced more or less by dry weather reports from the southwest and by week-end evening-up. The close was strong, 2-3-8 to 3c not higher, with May $1.65 1/4 to $1.65 5/8 and July $1.45 3/4 to $1.48 7/8.
 Oats were easier in sympathy with corn. After opening 1-4c off to 1-8c advance, including July at 77 to 77 1/2c, the market sagged a little further before beginning to react.
 Provisions reflected the course of grain. Besides, accumulating stocks tended to depress values.

Mahoney Never Expected to Get Out of Bed Again—Now Back at Work

"It was talked among my friends that I was going to die and I don't believe any one ever had a much closer call," said James Mahoney, well known foreman of the Richard-Hausstadt Construction Co., living at 22 East 16th St., Los Angeles, Cal.

"Closely following an injury to my back, my whole system seemed to give way," he continued. "There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and I could not eat a thing without intense pain afterwards. My appetite left me completely and I got so weak I could not even lift my feet to go up the steps. I was in misery all the time and could not straighten up for the pain in my stomach. Then I became constipated and my kidneys began troubling me so I could not sleep sound at night. Before these troubles started I weighed a hundred and forty-five pounds but dropped off until I actually did not weigh but sixty-five, and if there was ever a living skeleton I was. I could hear my friends who came to see me say: 'Poor Jim! He can't last much longer,' and I had no hope of ever getting up. Finally I was told that nothing more could be done except to operate and I was too weak to stand that."

"A friend urged me to try Tanlac and agreed to slip me a bottle as my wife objected to anything but prescribed medicine. Well, to make a long story short, I soon improved so much that I quit taking everything but Tanlac and now I am back at work feeling as strong and fit as I ever did in my life. I weigh one hundred and thirty pounds and I haven't an ailment of any kind. My wife now thinks as I do that Tanlac is the greatest medicine in the world."

LOS ANGELES, (Special)—In her statement to the federal grand jury in this city, making an investigation into the charges that she had "been induced" to leave the country in order to avoid testifying in the slacker case against the pugilist, Mrs. Dempsey of Madeline Wayne, as she is better known, made a clean breast of the transaction in which it was said she was paid a sum of money to repudiate her first statement involving Dempsey in the slacker charges. Mrs. Dempsey said she was given $1,500 in cash in Los Angeles. It is claimed by the department of justice investigators that she later received other money to leave the country in order to avoid testifying in the slacker case. Arrangements were being made, she said, to send her out of the country when department of justice operatives contacted the scheme. Offers to pay her money to leave, and to have been made in telegrams sent to her over fictitious signatures, will be substantiated, it was claimed, by the messages themselves. They were seized by the government. Mrs. Dempsey frankly stated that she had been a woman of the underworld in San Diego with Mrs. Dempsey, involved in the plans to get Mrs. Dempsey out of the country, according to the federal authorities.

SWEDEN ACCEPTS PLAN OF LEAGUE WITH MISGIVINGS

Conservatives Fight Proposal on Grounds that It Would Mean Surrender of Country's Independence

STOCKHOLM, (AP)—Sweden's recent decision to join the league of nations was not reached without opposition in parliament. Conservatives fought the proposal to join on the ground that it would mean the surrender of the country's independence. They declared that articles 13 to 17 would compel Sweden to take military measures against any power which the league considered to have opened hostilities without due cause.

The army and navy chiefs asserted that adherence to the league would not contribute to the country's military or political safety; but that it would impose responsibilities and burdens for which the general support of the league would not compensate. Appropriations were expressed that Sweden's adhesion would prevent the nation from radically decreasing its military budget.

Judge Hellner, the minister of foreign affairs, who introduced the government's bill, said that the league would not actually diminish the risk of wars in Europe and the rest of the world. Sweden, he added, would continue to maintain a policy of absolute neutrality.

FAGEOL

Dominant Motor Trucks

FAGEOL TRUCKS are built to conquer transportation difficulties. They are manufactured on the Pacific Coast, where there is to be found almost every climate existing on earth, every road condition and every altitude from one hundred feet below sea level to eight thousand feet above sea level. A truck must be able to climb, with full load, a twenty-five or thirty per cent grade in torrid weather over poor roads, and a fifteen per cent grade for miles. To compensate for lowered efficiency due to high altitudes, which amounts to 25 per cent at 7000 feet, it must have reserve power beyond sea level requirements. An ordinary truck can operate with fair success in a country where a five or six hundred mile journey is required to find a hill five hundred feet high. To be a success under Pacific Coast and Intermountain conditions a truck must dominate.

LEVER DEFENDS PROFITS TAKING

Former Big Soap Manufacturer Arraigns Present Day Spirit of Jealousy

LONDON, (P)—Baron Leverhulme, formerly William H. Lever, the big soap manufacturer, has "broken a lance" in defense of the soap-making business man and refuted the popular clamor which brands him as a profiteer.

"The spirit of today," he said at a recent dinner, "is one of cupidity and jealousy. A feeling is running through the country that the primary aim of a business man is success. The man who has the ability to create, develop, organize and produce is considered as one who must be specially curbed, checked and controlled.

"Our war debts," Baron Leverhulme continued, "have to be paid by the patriotic efforts of all to build up an enormous home and an enormous export trade. Taxation of wealth only means taking money out of one pocket and putting it back into another.

"The greatest disservice we can do the nation is to preach the doctrine that success is profiteering. There should be no interference with the enjoyment of the fruits of industry during the life of their producers," he continued.

BARS INSECT PEST AS AN UNDESIRABLE ALIEN

Department of Agriculture Prevents Admission of Infested Corn from Italy into America

WASHINGTON, (P)—A large number of enemy aliens recently reached New York from Europe, but the vigilance of the department of agriculture prevented their admission into the country. These enemy aliens were not of the human variety, but were the European corn borer secreted in 97 bales of broom corn from Venice, Italy. Intercourse of the corn, experts said, prevented further spread of the pest, which now is known to exist in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New York and Pennsylvania.

The first regular savings bank in Great Britain was opened in Edinburgh 105 years ago.

WOMEN ARE PRACTICAL IN AUTO TRADE LINES

"The over-growing influence of women in American business and public affairs has been clearly felt in the automobile industry, and the effect of this influence upon the design and construction of motor cars is far-reaching," says Mr. Gordon of the Gordon-Davis Auto company, distributors for the Westcott car.

"This influence at first brought about efforts to bring out the unusual, to catch the fancy," says Mr. Gordon. "Now, however, the engineers are realizing that when it comes to motor cars women are becoming more practical, and an attempt to substitute a momentary fad for good, substantial comfort and motor efficiency meets with little success.

"The Westcott, both in the larger six and lighter six size, is a car that will make a special appeal to women because of the way in which it combines comfort with distinctly feminine beauty of appearance. In this year's models, for instance, a new two-tone color combination is used, a plan of design that is distinctly feminine; not flashy or gaudy, just a simple and pleasing use of two tones of the same color, a belt extending around the top of the car and including the upper part of the hood and cowl being in a lighter tone of the color used on the remainder of the car.

"In its construction are used the same high quality standard parts that have appeared in the car for a number of years, parts that have been accepted as standard by American motorists. In case of operation the car will appeal especially, for all controls are placed with regard to the driver's comfort."

SAN FRANCISCO TO OPEN HOUSE TO TRADE SESSION

Many Delegates Already Accredited from United States and Foreign Nations to Coast Convention

SAN FRANCISCO, (P)—More than 1,200 delegates already have been accredited from the United States and abroad to the seventh national foreign trade convention here May 12-15, 1920, and the Pacific coast committee in charge has announced. An attendance of at least twice that number is assured, it was said. Delegates will be brought to the convention from American points by three special trains routed over the northern, middle west and southern routes.

The general theme for the convention will be "The Effect of Being a Creditor Nation," according to James A. Farrell, chairman of the national foreign trade council.

All of the large cities on the Pacific coast have joined in preparing for the gathering.

Tomato Soup.—A simple tomato soup which is easily and quickly prepared: Put four table-spoonfuls of butter in a saucepan, when melted and bubbling hot add four tablespoonfuls of flour, cook until smooth; then add one cupful of milk and one cupful of strained tomato with a pinch of soda. Season with salt and pepper and serve at once.

Brown Stew.—Take three or four pounds of the shoulder of beef, with a generous piece of suet. Try out the suet and fry in it, one or two small chopped onions and a medium sized carrot, also chopped; add a meat and turn until well browned on both sides; season with salt and pepper, add water and simmer for three or four hours until tender. A half hour before ready to serve add a few small-sized potatoes to the stew and brown them by basting occasionally.

Tapoca and Peas.—Bake a dish of tapoca with cupped peas and juice, add a bit of butter and a grating of lemon if desired. Serve with a slightly thickened sauce made from the pea juice, or whipped cream and sugar may be used if preferred.

Peas, Pickles and Peanut Sandwiches.—Chop a few sour pickles, add a cupful of cooked peas, add a handful of minced peanuts. Arrange on slices of orange, garnish with parsley and serve with a hotted dressing.

Botted Dressing.—Take equal parts of well beaten eggs and vinegar and cook in a double boiler until thick. For a vegetable salad, mix equal parts of dressing and whipped cream; for a fruit salad use one part dressing and three parts cream, with the proper seasonings.

Flo-Flo at the Lavinger. Thursday night drew a reasonably well filled house and a reasonably well pleased audience marvelled throughout at the versatility of the art of female costuming as presented by the "perfect 33" stars and others among cast and principals.

There is no lack of action in the Flo-Flo show and no hint of drag anywhere in the performance after the pieces got well under way. The musical numbers are bright and catchy, the entire cast well drilled and much of the comedy is of a high order.

An unusual number of out-of-town visitors witnessed the performance.

A car for those who have an eye for beauty and an ear for rhythm

TO stand and look at a new Chalmers is to admire it. For it has a grace of line, an elegance of finish, a care for little details that compel your attention.

The new coach is low in appearance, and therein lies the secret of its beauty.

You can sit in the car and feel yourself at rare ease.

Start the engine, turn loose the power stream, accelerate it, play with it as you will, you cannot help but detect a smoothness, a perfect rhythm that is pleasing to the ear.

There are no engine throbs, no vibration, no apparent effort. Hot Spot and Ram's-horn prevent them. Those two products of master intellects refine the gasoline, "digest" it, "break up the lumps," and make it easy for that magnificent engine to supply that rhythm of power which so quickly denotes a Chalmers.

Drive this car once, and you, too, will say Chalmers is one of the few great cars of the world.

From out the east is heard the plaintive wail of Martin Pletina that the wrestling trust won't let him inside.

Just for fun, why doesn't Jack Curry let some of his mat wallowers have a bit of a whirl with this nifty chap. Can't possibly be that Stecher, Lewis, Caglock, Wladok Zhyzsko and the rest of the trust maniacs are afraid of this Greedian?

Pletina flopped John Fereberg during the week and now demands attention from Curry and his hirlings.

Hardy Downing, the Salt Lake promoter who gave Jack Dempsey his chance, pulled a rare one on St. Patrick's night; one that right fans of the Salinets' city will remember some time.

A chap named Casey and another named Kid Dutch were matched for a windup. Casey hit Dutch with everything but the basket, and put him down so often in the first round that the count was lost. Hardy declared Casey winner when Dutch failed to straighten up after the last knockdown before the 15-count was done.

But Dutch wasn't done, and he ragged so bad that Downey called the boys back for more of the same. This time it was Dutch who was the hitting cyclone, and in a single round he laid the Mick low.

Now the crowd wants them to settle it.

Benny Leonard, lightweight champion of the world, is the hero in moving pictures. But Benny doesn't have to go into the pictures to be a hero; he can play the part equally well in the ring.

Wally Schang, Red Sox star catcher, is still a holdout, a fact which is griving Ed Barrow considerably.

Welterweight Champion Boxer Jack Britton has just completed plans for a $30,000 residence which he will occupy. The house will be built at Eye Beach, N. Y.

Now that's a lot of cash to put into bricks and mortar, but Jack has cleaned up twice that amount in the past four months in easy battles. So why shouldn't he build him a house.

Which reminds us that Jack Dempsey's publicity manager some time ago sent out a lengthy and highly eulogistic yarn about Jack and a purchase of a house made in Salt Lake, the house being bought for Mrs. Dempsey, mator, at a cost of $25,000.

Perhaps Dempsey did pay $25,000 for the house, but if he did he certainly got stung. The place is an ordinary looking cottage just below the hill on Center street, backed by the city gravel pits and edged on one side, the nearest town, by a colored community house with chickens running loose all about. In other words the house is not in a particularly desirable residence location. At $5,000 the purchaser would be paying a stiff price for it.

Johany Griffith, Akron, Ohio, welterweight, has returned from the continent of Europe and is on the trail of Champion Jack Britton.

Willie Jackson and Benny Alger will settle their differences at a boxing show in Newark, N. J., on the night of March 29.

Eastern folks are bemoaning the fate that yanked from under them the two-bit case in the blanchet. Prices have soared some.

Break! break! break! On thy cold gray stones, O Sea; But we'll be you could break for forty years And not be as broke as we.

A CLASSIFIED AD will find a buyer for your lot, lots or plots—if your offer will stand up under investigation.

CANYON IS SEARCHED FOR TRACE OF FARMER

Fred Eggergluse Mysteriously Disappears—Years Expressed for His Safety

Deputy Sheriff George F. Huffman, with a coterie of boy scouts as assistants, is today searching Rock creek canyon for a clue that may lead to locating Fred Eggergluse, a farmer and apiculturist who has been missing from home several days. Members of Eggergluse's family fear for his safety.

Although Eggergluse has been missing since last Tuesday no report was made to the authorities until last night, when Mrs. Eggergluse appealed to the sheriff's department in an effort to locate the missing man.

The Eggergluse place is six miles north of Twin Falls on Rock creek. The man is known to have hidden some money in a cache along the creek, and it is said to have been his habit to visit the cache daily. Tuesday he did not return from his visit. Eggergluse is a large man, weighing in the neighborhood of 225 pounds, is 50 years of age and at the time of his disappearance wore blue overalls, a black hat, cap and moccasins.
