CIVIL WARFARE RAGES IN GERMAN INDUSTRIAL REGION

CROWDS GATHER FOR OBSEQUIES OF CORK MAYOR

Mystery Still Enshrouds Motive for Murder of Irish Official at Hands of the Unknown Assassin

INTENSE SENSATION IS GENERAL THROUGH ERIN

Tragedy Closes One of Blackest Weeks Since Rebellion of 1916 Culminating Long List of Outrages

CORK, (AP)—Thousands of persons assembled in this city today in preparation for the funeral of Thomas MacCurrtain, lord mayor of Cork, who was shot to death by an unknown assassin early Saturday morning.

Trains brought great crowds to the city this morning and the shops were closed in order to afford the citizens an opportunity of testifying their respect for the late lord mayor.

There is a gravely tone feeling in the city. Bishop Colahan has appealed to the population to preserve order.

LONDON, (AP)—Despatches from Ireland show the murder of Thomas MacCurrtain, lord mayor of Cork, to have produced an intense, if subdued sensation throughout Ireland.

This tragedy, says the London Times correspondent in Dublin, closed one of the blackest weeks since the rebellion of 1916. It gives a long list of outrages in various parts of the island, including five murders of policemen and others and an attempt to kill Professor Stockley of Cork.

Motive Still Mystery The motive of the murder of the lord mayor continues as mysterious as ever. Among the theories advanced is one that MacCurrtain was murdered as a warning to others because he recently had the courage to publicly prosecute an attempt to murder a policeman in Cork.

London newspapers declare Ireland for the moment is largely under the domination of secret murder societies, the members of which are sworn to kill those whom they believe to stand in their way.

It is remarked as a phenomenon that murder societies members after a while begin to be suspected of murdering each other. Existence of these supposed societies is declared possible owing to the "moral cowardice of the Irish public." The crimes the societies commit are repugnant to the better sort of Sinn Feiners, who, however, keep silence, fearing the consequences if they condemn assassinations, the papers say.

CITES GROWTH OF U. S. NAVY

House Committee Chairman Points to Prospect for Supremacy of Seas

WASHINGTON, (AP)—America's navy will equal that of Great Britain in fighting power by 1924, Chairman Butler of the naval committee told the house today in defending the provision for a new fleet of battleships.

"In the next four years," said Mr. Butler, "the United States will probably have the most formidable armada of the world has ever been produced in a similar period."

In 1924, he continued, Great Britain will have sixty battleships, the United States 47; France 20; Japan 15 and Italy 13. While England will have more ships, he added, those of the United States will be about equal in power. Representative Mondell, the republican leader, said that considering foreign exchange values, the $25,000,000 total of the proposed American naval appropriation exceeded the British estimate for the year by $10,000,000.

"For the first time in many years," he said, "the only naval establishment and program in the world is all comparative with ours is that of England. No other navy or naval program is of a size and strength even remotely approaching ours. In fact, since the practical wiping out of the German navy, all the remaining navies and naval programs of the world, exclusive of England, do not equal ours."

Bolshevist Move Foment Disorders Throughout World

Organ of Dutch Communists Makes Public Proceedings of Extremist Conference

THE HAGUE, (AP)—A full page account of the resolutions adopted at the conference of international communists held in Amsterdam early in February, when that city, at the direction of the Russian bolshevik premier, Lenin, was selected as the site for the bolshevik international clearing house, was printed Saturday by the Amsterdam Tribune, organ of the Dutch communists.

A secret account of this conference, obtained by the Dutch police and made public by the Handelsblad several weeks after it was held, said resolutions adopted called for action by the masses and strikes in all countries.

The official report in the Tribune admits these facts and says also that a branch of organized bolshevism in both Americas is located in Mexico.

BRITISH EDITOR REGRETS PEACE TREATY REJECTION

Calls Wilson's Deficiency as Manager of Men Unfortunate Factor in Deplorable Result

LONDON, (AP)—Profound regret is expressed by the Liverpool Post that the Versailles treaty was rejected by the United States senate.

"Many things contributed to this deplorable upshot of the president's diplomacy," it says. "It is not for outsiders to sit in judgment on America's decision, nevertheless, it seems thoughtful plain the senators have spoken and voted under a great deal of misconception as to the treaty as a league of nations, and that unfortunate mental atmosphere might have been markedly improved had Mr. Wilson shown himself an skilled manager of men as he undoubtedly has shown himself a lofty idealist."

The Post thinks America may have a more successful future if she had immediate test regarding herself, as she is technically at war with Germany, and asks:

"May not the league be instructed to smooth out that difficulty?"

BUENOS AIRES, (AP)—The former German steamship Bahia Blanca will sail for the United States March 31, according to a semi-official announcement here. STRIKERS VIOLATE ORDERS

Deep Sea Longshoremen Walk Out in Disregard of Union's Instruction

NEW YORK, (AP)—The strike of longshoremen engaged in coastwise traffic today extended to deep sea longshoremen when 750 men went on strike at the piers of the United Fruit company. The walk-out was in violation of the instructions of V. O'Connor, president of the international longshoremen's association, issued Saturday, union leaders declared.

At New York were expressed in sharp circles that the strike would affect other deep sea longshoremen who were in sympathy with the strike of the coastwise workers.

POLES REPULSE FIRST ATTACKS OF REDS' DRIVE

Renewed Hostilities are Regarded as Preliminary to the Long Heralded Bolshevick Spring Offensive

WARSAW, (AP)—The bolsheviks Friday and Saturday launched repeated attacks along various parts of the Polish front. These are considered by the military authorities to be preliminary to the long-heralded general spring offensive. The attacks were repulsed by the Poles, nine hundred bolsheviks being taken prisoners in the two days' fighting.

Bolshevick officers who deserted to the Poles report that the soviet army is preparing for a general offensive in an effort to recapture Mowil, Rovno and Proskurov.

DELAY ATTENDS DELIVERY OF POLES' PEACE TERMS

Principal Points of Proposals to Bolsheviki are Laid Before British and French Premiers

WARSAW, (AP)—A week or more may elapse before Poland's terms of peace are sent by wireless to the bolshevick government in Moscow. The principal points of the terms have been laid before Premiers Lloyd George and Millerand, of Great Britain and France, respectively, and conferences between Polish delegates and representatives of the Baltic states are continuing here.

Poland demands the right to supervise the destiny of provinces situated west of her eastern frontier as it stood 148 years ago, and asks that the future status of these provinces be determined by the people themselves. It had been suggested that this section of the treaty might be interpreted as concealing imperialistic aims.

CHICAGO CITY EMPLOYEES THREATEN TO WALK OUT

CHICAGO, (AP)—Chicago's city hall will be closed Thursday by a general strike of clerks, stenographers, typists and other employees unless the city council grants a five percent increase of $25 per month, councilmen were notified this morning.

Representatives of the Municipal Employees union served notice on the council this morning.

As the Aldermen entered the hall they were confronted by 30 employees of the municipal laboratory, garbed in white and with white masks over their faces. Each bore a placard.

Eight-hundred city chauffeurs and teamsters struck this morning.

CHILE REPLIES TO AMERICA

BUENOS AIRES, (AP)—Chile has replied to the United States' note asking that the former county to "leave nothing undone to prevent a conflict between Peru and Bolivia," according to Santiago dispatches.

Chile has no other desire than for peace, says the note, which expresses full confidence that Bolivia will appreciate her duties in respect to foreign conflicts in her territory.

The Peruvian charge d'affaires here, interview today by La Nación said: "Official dispatches received at the legation give the impression of a disappearance of the possibility of a serious conflict between Peru and Bolivia."

Government Troops Retire

Pitched battles had been fought, the ministry's information showed, and two crack regiments of government troops had been forced to evacuate from the fortress of Weesl, on the right bank of the Rhine, 25 miles northwest of Essen, after heavy losses had been sustained on both sides. Ten officers in one regiment were killed.

BERLIN PRESENTS SCENE OF BELEAGUED CAPITAL

Two Crack Regiments of Government Troops are Defeated in Pitched Battle on Rhine

SITUATION CANNOT BE PAINTED TOO BLACK DECLARES DEFENSE MINISTER

(By the Associated Press)

Berlin, notwithstanding the return of the Ebert government to control there, still presents pretty much the aspect of an armed camp with the food supply short and sanguinary fighting occurring at intervals in the suburbs. There is little change in the strike situation.

Serious trouble occurred in the Moabit industrial quarter Sunday night and in one conflict reported Sunday, twenty Spartacans were killed in an engagement and twenty-four others who were captured were summarily executed.

In the Ruhr industrial region, immediately adjoining the allied zones of occupation there is active civil warfare, with opposing armies of communists and government troops drawing up their forces in line for battle. Government detachments have been defeated in some preliminary skirmishes.

Leipzig has quieted down after the government victory there. Among the agricultural population in some sections of northern Germany there is increasing unrest.

Southern and eastern Germany are reported fairly quiet. There is a threat, however, of a renewal of the general strike in Bavaria because of dissatisfaction over some of the terms of settlement.

Communist Movement Spreads in Germany

BERLIN, (AP)—Conditions in Germany were described by the minister of defense this morning as extremely serious.

"You cannot paint the situation throughout Germany too black," an official at the ministry declared to the correspondent after a survey of the reports that had come in during the night.

The situation in Berlin itself was characterized as "bad." In one case a company of volunteers had been overpowered by Spartacans, five officers killed and their bodies mutilated.

The southern and eastern parts of Germany are reported quiet.

To the north of the Spire, in the Berlin district, the outbreak of the strike has been withdrawn, leaving detachments to guard the stockyards and railway station.

Govt on Baltic Troops

The marine brigade and the Baltic troops which occupied Berlin during the Kapp regime, have been cleared out from Charlottenburg and have joined their other military units at the Doberitz camp, where all are retreating. These units are those of the chief protectors of Berlin, Neukosel and Tempelhof, the workmen's residence quarters in the suburbs, where disorders occurred Saturday, have been quelled by government troops.

The ministry of defense informed the correspondent this morning that the conditions in the Ruhr district were becoming worse. The towns of Oelde, Hiltrop and Hammel, had been taken by the communists, in Westphalia, and the movement was spreading north and east.

FIGHTING WITH SPARTACANS IN RUHR EXPECTED

Opposing Armies of Communist and Government Troops Drawing Up Forces in Line for Battle

GENERAL STRIKE CALL IS ISSUED IN MUNICH

Spread of Dissention Throughout Bavaria and Wuerttemberg is Feared Unless Negotiations are Successful

Munich, and it is expected that the demands of the Spartacans will be in the hands of the communists, has been recaptured by the reichswehr. The government troops have been forced to evacuate Bremen.

Fighting continues in Leipzig between workmen and troops and there is also fighting in Halle.

STUTTGART, (AP)—Troops from Sielonia are officially reported to have arrived in the Ruhr district, and fighting with the Spartacans army there is expected tomorrow. It is officially stated here that the estimates placing the size of the red forces in the Ruhr region at 70,000 are exaggerated.

A general strike has been called in Munich, and it is expected that the negotiations now in progress to settle the demands of the working men to be during the period of the strike against the Kapp regime. Meetings are to be held in the Wuerttemberg factories by the councils of workmen to consider the plan which should be taken throughout Wuerttemberg.

Reports received here from Nuremberg said that city was quiet on Sunday, following some disorders that previous night.

GOVERNMENT FORCES FAIRLY WELL ORGANIZED

PARIS, (AP)—Spartacans forces in the Ruhr valley of Germany number at least 20,000, some estimates being at 40,000, according to latest advices received at the foreign office here. They are well organized, being composed of all kinds of troops and are supplied with artillery, machine guns and mine throwers and having batteries of 77 centimeter field guns with plenty of ammunition.

Werner, a relative of Maximilian Hardin, is commander of these troops. He was prominent in the Spartacist troubles at the time of armistice and in January, 1918, he was in the Ruhr valley.

The government authorities are concentrating troops and planning to surround the Ruhr valley and force the Spartacists to capitulate. These men are the younger and best trained than the reds.

The occupation of the Ruhr district by German troops is in direct violation of article 42 and 43 of the treaty of Versailles, it was pointed out at the foreign office, which added that the comment that this was the first act committed by Germany in violation of the treaty, the other violations being those of omission.

Two German officers have been sent by the Ebert government to acquaint the French with the situation in the Ruhr district. These officers are expected to reach Paris this evening.

The foreign office advices regarding the composition of the red army in the Ruhr district are that it was recruited for the most part among the iron workers.

GERMANS PREPARE PROPAGANDA FOR REVISION OF VERSAILLES TREATY

PARIS, (AP)—Germans are preparing a formidable propaganda in favor of the revision of the Versailles treaty and the holding of a new international conference at which vanquished nations might be represented for the object of eliminating from the many clauses of the present treaty between the allied nations and Germany, according to a Geneva dispatch. A book entitled "The Great Origins of Humanity" has been printed in three million copies printed for free distribution in America, England and France.

The reactionary revolt in Berlin on March 18 put a temporary stop to the movement, it is said.

RATIFICATION OF SUFFRAGE IS INDICATED

Washington State Legislature Convenes in Special Session to Take Action on Proposed Amendment

OLMPIA, Wash., (AP)—Ratification of the proposed suffrage amendment to the federal constitution probably will be one of the first acts to be completed at the special session of the Washington legislature which convenes here today.

Legislators and other state officials said they believed there will be very little, if any, opposition to the ratification. Washington was one of the first states to vote suffrage to women and the last legislature petitioned congress to submit the question of ratification to the states.

In addition to the amendment, the special session of the legislature will also vote funds for the state's educational institutions. Money voted last year for the purpose has not been enough, on account of rising prices, to carry the schools over until the next regular session.

Governor L. E. Frazier hopes the special session will require only about two days to complete its work. The session probably will occupy only two days, it is said, if a flood of bills does not come in an agreement may be reached to keep out extra bills and to confine the work to necessary business.

MEXICAN CONVICT SAVES HATED FOREMAN'S LIFE

Secretary to Arizona Governor Escapes Circumstances at State Penitentiary

PHOENIX, Ariz., (AP)—How a physically powerful Mexican convict saved the life of his own life is a story P. B. Milnes, private secretary to Governor Campbell, has on his return from a trip to the state penitentiary at Florence, Ariz.

The convict, Pete Salinas, serving a term for burglary, was in a fight against his foreman of the road construction gang, "Shorty" McDonald, because of the discipline which the foreman had to impose, according to Secretary Milnes. On the other hand, Salinas was considered troublesome, powerful enough to be a source of danger, and spoiling under restraint.

His act of saving the foreman's life just after a premature explosion knocked Foreman McDonald unconscious. Salinas was out of the danger zone, rushed before all his own body had stopped falling, threw his rock body on top of that of the foreman.

A rock fell on Salinas' head and dazed him, the secretary said, but, realizing another blast was due to explode immediately, the convict struggled to his feet, picked up the still unconscious foreman and dragged him out of danger.

FIGHT ON DRUG HABIT GETS ENCOURAGEMENT

Los Angeles Municipal Clinic Supplying Addicts with Narcotics Sees Light Ahead

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—A fight against the drug habit, waged by supplying addicts with the narcotics they crave, has brought about encouraging results, according to John Nevius, who directs a daily distribution here to victims, at a "municipal drug clinic."

The drug is sold to the addicts at a trifling cost to them. After this became known to them, man and woman stood in line waiting a chance to get a "shot." They were told the city was helping them and in return asked that they help themselves. "Can't you cut it down a little?" was a question asked each person applying. If the answer was "No," the desired amount was given. But the attendants at the clinic declare there has been a number of reductions that is gratifyingly large.

"It's only to make predictions," said Dr. Nevius. "But they seem to want to try and that's the biggest thing of all."

NORTH SIDE INN TO BE IMPROVED

O. P. Bethune Proposes to Spend $100,000 in Additions and Alterations

While in Boise during the present week P. O. Bethune, of Twin Falls, who recently purchased the North Side Inn at Jerome, told of his intention to extend and alter the hotel building with a view to making it modern in respects. Mr. Bethune is now in Boise to consult with architects relative to new plans.

The inn is to be made a three-story structure with the additions and alterations, it is said, will require a cash outlay of $100,000.

According to a statement made public after Mr. Bethune's interview with the architects, the first floor will be for business firms and the two upper stories will contain 40 or more rooms, each with bath, furnished in the most up-to-date approved hotel style.

This building will have a ground floor space of 60 by 150 feet and will connect with the present inn, which is moved to a temporary structure. At present the dining room, lobby and kitchen of the old inn will be used. The new structure will be in the form of a U-shape and it plans to add to the town the present inn and add to the new building, a modern hotel lobby, dining room and kitchen, with two more stories for rooms. Much of the equipment for the hospital, which is to be for rehabilitation is here and some of the staff is on the ground, while the old fort, a pioneer of Helena, was killed in a fire, eventually will be about 150 employees and more than 1,000 patients will be provided for, it has been announced.

TO BUILD HONFLEUR PORT

New York Engineer Enters Into Contract with French Corporation

PARIS, (AP)—A contract has been signed by representatives of the Transatlantic syndicate, a French corporation, and John M. Ewon, a consulting engineer of New York city, for the construction of a new port at Honfleur, eight miles southeast of Havre. It is the intention to eventually join the port of Honfleur to that of Havre by a bridge, thus connecting between the mouth of the Seine and the important cities of Normandy and the interior of France.

Expenditures totalling several hundred million francs will be involved in the carrying out of the contract and a great deal of American capital will be invested in the project.

SUGAR COMPANY TO GIVE BONUS

Amalgamated Changes Form of Contract to Give Farmers Better Returns

According to statements emanating from company headquarters, the Amalgamated Sugar company has changed contracts established on January 29 covering the coming season. In addition to the $12 per ton to be paid for beets, as guaranteed in the contracts, a bonus will be paid on each ton of product delivered at the factory.

This bonus, it is stated, will be equal to the average beeting price for which sugar sells above $11 per hundredweight during the months of November, December and January next.

The additional bonus will be paid on February 10 on all beets delivered at factories in the Twin Falls, Paul and Burley districts for the previous season.

Under this modification of contract terms if the average price of sugar during the months mentioned is $11 or less per hundredweight, the producer will receive the contract price of $12 per ton for beets. If sugar sells for $12 per hundredweight beets will bring $13 per ton and so on up.

The contract offered by the Amalgamated is said to be better than that offered by other important sugar producing companies in the west in that, according to claims of the producers, it makes their bonus contingent upon the production of a certain amount of sugar during the season. These bonuses will be paid on the same terms as are adopted by the amalgamated, with the exception noted.

JEROME BANK TO ERECT "SKYSCRAPER" EDIFICE

Three Story Building Will House Financial Institution—Work Soon to Start

JEROME.—(Special)—The Jerome National bank will have a new bank building this year. Definite plans to that end have been decided upon and work on erection is to be started without delay.

The size of the building will be 50 by 125 feet and will be located at the corner of Main and Lincoln streets. The structure will be three stories and will have a full basement. Exterior finish will be light terra cotta.

MODEL FOUR OVERLAND MAKES NEW TEST MARK

The Overland has set another endurance test mark, according to John Taylor, manager of the Browning Automobile club of Twin Falls. Running 24 hours a day for seven successive days a model four Overland recently covered a total distance of 5,452 miles. This distance, Mr. Taylor says, is equal to a year's wear and tear by the average motor car operator.

Mr. Taylor, speaking of the feat, noted that the car was equipped with a regular stock model four machine. The driving was fast and furious and is said to have been one of the hardest test a machine could possibly be subjected to. A large share of credit for the wonderful feat is due, Mr. Taylor declares, to the triplex springs protecting the machine from road shocks and most of the natural vibration. The machine was driven at an average of 22 1/2 miles an hour, giving the motor car owner a better idea of what to expect from one of these cars than if it had been driven at a lower speed.

Sentiment Is Bitter Against Reactionary

BERLIN, (AP)—Stormy incidents are expected when the national assembly takes up the question of amnesty for the leaders of the reactionary revolt against the Ebert government. Public sentiment here is bitter against the Baltic troops, and proposals to grant pardons to the revolutionists are certain to be opposed.

Reorganization of the Ebert cabinet will bring half a dozen new men into the ministry, it is said, but the national liberals and conservatives will not be represented. These two organizations have decided to await the result of the elections in June before consenting to take part in the government.

LADIES, DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dingy, faded or streaked appearance, wonderful mixture.

THE PARK BONDS

Editor the News: The action of a local evening paper in coming out in its Saturday issue against the proposed park bonds might be suspected of being an honest conviction of right action were it not for the fact that the article is so full of errors that it is almost unrecognizable as a newspaper article.

THE PARK BONDS

A modern Daniel has again come to judgment and cries out from the throne of self assurance "Vote against the park bonds." Having begun such dictum by declaring a belief in public improvements, it became necessary to give some reason for opposing a public debt. This reason is that the city has admitted that if a town is growing, expects to grow or deserves to grow, it must provide amply and well for schools and churches.

The anti-home rule Morning Post again attacks the government today and denounces Field Marshal French and James Ian MacPherson, saying: "They are bringing to the world the necessity of reconquering Ireland by force of arms," and "civil war is within sight."

JOINT ORGANIZATION IN INDUSTRY PROPOSED AS REMEDY FOR DIFFICULTY

Conferees Named by President Modify Tentative Plan for Adjustment of Disputes in Endeavor to Develop Method of Preventing Misunderstanding and Securing Co-operative Effort

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Joint organization of management and employees "as a means of maintaining mutual understanding and of securing co-operative effort" throughout American industry is proposed by the industrial conference appointed by President Wilson. The facts are that the president made public here Sunday.

The conferees in their report state that they have modified the tentative plan to provide for a system of inquiry and arbitration, announced by the conference on December 29, 1919 and that they have endeavored to develop methods of prevention rather than adjustment of disputes. The modified plan, devised since the conference reconvened last January 12, is said, makes machinery available for "settling disputes by means of arbitration and limited arbitration."

The plan has been extended to cover disputes affecting public utilities other than steam roads, and also to government and other public employees. In addition the report analyzes the development of industrial relations, hours of labor, woman in industry, child labor, housing, wages, profit-sharing and labor-sharing, thrift saving, and other subjects. It also discusses agriculture, unemployment and a public employment clearing house.

The causes of industrial unrest are set forth as including "the rise of the cost of living, the spread of speculation, spectacular instances of excessive profits, excessive accumulation and misuse of wealth, inequality and readjustment of wages schedules, the loss of ideas and emotions by the war, social revolutionary theories imported from Europe, the belief in free speech is within the industrial plant itself. Primarily the settlement must come from the bottom, not from the top."

Offers Adjustment Plan "If the joint organization of management-and-employees in the plant or industry fails to reach the collective agreement," says the report, "without such joint organization, disputes arise which are not settled by existing agencies, then the conference proposes a system of settlement through a national industrial board and local regional conference and boards of inquiry."

This plan which the conference says is "based upon American conditions" is national in scope and operation and yet decentralized. It is said to be different from any thing in operation elsewhere and provides no local authority except the right of inquiry. Its basic idea is stimulation of settlement of peace by the parties in conflict and the enlistment of public opinion in enforcing that method of settlement.

The regional adjustment conference proposes a board to consist of four representatives selected by the parties in dispute. The board is to be chosen by them and familiar with their problems. It would be presided over by a trained government official. The board would act as a conciliator. If an unanimous agreement were reached, it would result in a collective bargain having the same effect as if reached through a national industrial board.

Falling to agree unanimously on the matter, with certain restrictions, would go to the national industrial board, unless the disputants preferred a mutually chosen umpire.

Safeguards Production Meanwhile both parties to the dispute have agreed that there shall be no interference with production pending the processes of adjustment. If the parties, or either of them however, refuse voluntarily to submit the dispute to the processes of the plan of adjustment, a regional board of inquiry is formed by the regional chairman of two employers and two employees from the industry in question to hear the dispute. This board may subpoena witnesses and records and publish its findings as a guide to public opinion.

The national board in Washington would have general oversight of the workings of the plan which in addition to being applicable to public utilities, provides machinery for "prompt settlement of wages and working conditions of government employees." The plan involves no penalties, it is said, other than those imposed by public opinion. It does not deny the right to strike. It does not submit to arbitration the policy of "closed" or "open" shop.

Industry and others, but the conference says it prefers the generic term having in mind the successful application of the principle to various activities outside, as well as within the purely industrial field.

"These suggestions," says the report referring to the help which the conference received from both employers and employees, "clearly proceed from a genuine desire that the movement for democratic representation in a substitute for direct personal contact, may spread in accordance with sound principals and be kept from perverting usefulness by making it an agency of attack rather than a means to peace."

Two Opposition Sources

The idea of "employee representation," the report says, has aroused opposition from two sources, viz: Employers who still adhere to the theory that labor is a commodity, the view which is said to be steadily disappearing, and trade union leaders who regard shop representation as a subtle weapon directed against the unions.

"Employee representation," the conference says, "offers no royal road to industrial peace. No employer should suppose that merely by installing some system of shop representation that he can assured, without continued effort, of harmony and increased production. Doubtless there will be failures where the plan is adopted as a fad or a panacea."

Relative to collective bargaining, the conference "sees in a frank acceptance of this principal the most helpful approach to industrial peace," and states that it believes that the great body of the employers of the country accept that principle. The difference of opinion, it says, appears in regard to the method of representation: Bargaining of certain kinds between employers and employees do not lend themselves readily to legal enforcement and the conference therefore expresses the belief that, for the present, at least, enforcement must rest substantially upon "good faith."

Gives Views on Hours and Wages

Regarding hours of labor, the conference states that experience has demonstrated that they should be fixed in industrial establishments "at a point consistent with the health of the employees and with proper opportunity for rest and recreation, there being in all cases provision for one day's rest in seven."

The conference further finds that from the standpoint of public interest "the fundamental basis for the wages of all employees should be adequate to maintain the employe and his family in reasonable comfort and with adequate opportunity for the education of his children. When the wages of any group fall below this standard for any length of time, the situation becomes dangerous to the well-being of the state."

As for profit sharing being regarded as a complete solution of industrial problems, the conference says that while it has "promise in some directions, it cannot, by itself, be considered to be of far-reaching effect." "Nevertheless," the report says, "the field is one in which sincere experiment may add a real knowledge of desirable procedure."

Prohibition Negative Attack

Touching on the subject of child labor, the conference says "short prohibition of child labor is, at best, only a negative attack upon the problem. It is not thoroughly effective in promoting the economic welfare of the nation unless the time spent by the child in industry is devoted to adequate schooling and to actively which will develop his physical well-being. The report announces the "startling fact" that of the 5,216,183 illiterate persons over ten years of age in the United States, more than 88 per cent were native born. Attention is called to the fact that the federal government up to the present "makes no provision which assures the nonemployment of children in street trades and various blind alley occupations during the time they should be at school."

The conference states that in presenting its recommendations "they are not merely designed to tide over a troublesome period of economic readjustment. Many of the evils pointed out," it says, "were in existence before the war and will remain in existence if steps are not taken to remedy them." In conclusion, the report says, the reforms advocated are urged "not with any feeling of panic, but with the belief that they will not only contribute largely toward the elimination of the causes of industrial strife, but that they will make for the introduction of a more democratic industry of those democratic principles which constitute the most precious heritage of the American citizen."

The report is signed by Secretary of Labor Wilson as chairman; Herbert Hoover, as vice chairman and the following other members of the conference: Martin H. Glynn, Thomas W. Gregory, Richard Hooker, Stanley King, Samuel W. McCall, Henry M. Blanton, J. Edgar Hoover, George T. Gladd, Oscar S. Straus, Henry C. Stuart, William O. Thompson, Frank W. Taussig, Henry J. Waters, George W. Hackenschmidt and Owen D. Young and Willard E. Hutchins and Henry H. Seeger, executive secretaries.

Political Notes

ST. PAUL, Minn., (AP)—Minnesota will send four unimpaired delegates at large to the national republican convention in Chicago next June. The delegates were selected at the state republican convention held here Saturday.

A resolution instructing them to vote for General Leonard Wood for president was voted down by the convention, 595 to 395, after a hard fight. Resolution adopted endorsed Governor J. A. A. Burzult and United States Senators Nelson and Kellogg and favored women suffrage.

HELENA, Mont., (AP)—Major General Leonard Wood's name will be placed on the presidential preference primary ballot in Montana for vote April 23, Fletcher Maddox of Great Falls, assistant attorney general of the United States during the Taft administration, said today.

CUMMINGS GIVEN PLACE ON LABOR'S BLACKLIST

Author of Discarded Anti-Strike Provision of Railroad Bill is Listed for Slaughter at Falls

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Senator Cummings, republican, Iowa, is one of the members of congress organized labor will attempt to defeat in November, according to L. E. Sheppard, national president of the Order of Railway Conductors, who is in Washington today attending the railroad wage conference. Senator Cummings was the author of the anti-strike provision of the railroad bill which was thrown out in conference. Mr. Sheppard indicated that union officials were carefully studying the record of every member of congress with respect to his stand on this provision and other labor matters with a view to opposing in the elections those regarded as inimical to organized labor.

COMMON SENSE AND MARKETING
 There are just two ways to get a thing done. Either you must do it yourself or you must get someone else to do it for you.
 Since time immemorial, with a few outstanding exceptions, it has been the policy of the farming industry in this country to let someone else take care of the marketing of its product.
 This policy has given rise to a fulsome measure of complaint, both from the producer and from the consumer.
 The middleman—the man who undertook to fill the gap between the producer and consumer—has borne the brunt of this complaint. Much of it is highly justifiable, but it is inevitable that some should be middlemen so long as his gap remains.
 Divers suggestions have been advanced for the betterment of this situation.
 On the one hand there is a considerable number of producers who seem to have no particular wish to bridge the gap. They are pretty well organized in some sections for the purpose of maintaining the middleman system, only appearing in condition that the state shall be converted into the role of the middleman.
 On the other hand there are producers who are coming to appreciate that the business of farming need not stop at production but may well be extended into the field of distribution. The raising of the crop is only half of the farmer's business; they assert, declaring that there is no justifiable argument against the farmer engaging in the business of marketing his product on his own account.
 The notions of this latter group contain much that is attractive to many people who are persuaded that the elimination of needless go-betweens in the transfer of wares from producer to consumer is a highly beneficial thing. And particularly attractive feature of the proposition is the fact that it is practicable and has been put into successful operation.
 It is unnecessary to go outside the Twin Falls country for an example of successful operation of direct from producer to consumer marketing. The activities of one Twin Falls man in this field are pretty well known hereabouts, and growing interest attaches to his continuing and increasing success from small beginnings with the sale in a middlewestern state of the produce from his own farm to which has been added during the past two years the product of several of his neighbors fields and orchards.
 Last year this man conducted a business that ran well into $50,000. There is no reason why, with the machinery of distribution he has set up and with the experience he has gained, he cannot carry on a business of many times that figure.
 Nor is there any reason why any other producer cannot profit through his example.
 Common sense dictates that one's interests are best safeguarded by himself. Certainly this method has much to recommend it as against any wild scheme for political machinations in the field now too largely given over to the middleman.

NEARING THE GOAL
 Legislative action in two states today is expected to complete ratification of the Susan B. Anthony amendment to the United States constitution extending the right of franchise to women.
 Suffragists now have but "two to go" in their campaign for ratification of the federal amendment. Already 34 state legislatures have ratified the amendment, but two more are needed to give it the required two-thirds.
 While 34 states have ratified, only five have refused to ratify. They are Maryland, Virginia, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi.
 The remaining nine states which have not acted, are: Washington, Louisiana, Vermont, Connecticut, Delaware, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina and Florida.
 The problem of the suffragists is to get two votes out of these nine states.
 Washington already has a suffrage state law, but the governor there was unwilling to call a special session unless it was necessary. He has finally been prevailed upon to do so, and it will meet and doubtless ratify the amendment on March 22. Vermont and Connecticut, as northern and Republican states,
 could probably be counted on to ratify, but local complications have made it impossible as yet to get special sessions called. Delaware was therefore selected as the next most promising, and the Delaware legislature will meet on March 22 to consider suffrage. The suffrage workers profess to be confident of getting both Delaware and Washington and the fight will then be ended.

 It is significant to note that the only states west of the Mississippi river which have not ratified, are Washington and Louisiana, and the former will do so. The suffrage map also shows that all the remaining states which have either not acted or have refused to ratify, with the exception of Vermont and Connecticut are south of the Ohio river.
 In other words, of the 16 states which have either turned down suffrage or refused to act, 10 are east of the Mississippi and south of the Ohio. The "Solid South" has a new significance.

BETTER THAN EVER
 After that the Milwaukee promoters couldn't escape (featuring him in bouts in the big auditorium there. His surprising comeback had set everybody talking, and they are still talking for Mitchell is today fighting better than ever before. Some of the wise followers of the game say that his reversal seldom has been equalled, and this appears true, judging by the way Ritchie is traveling at the present time.
 The Milwaukeean gave first evidence of his return to form by trimming Johnny Sheppard, lightweight champion of England, in ten rounds.
 Then, to demonstrate there wasn't any fluke about that, he stopped Lew Edwards, lightweight champion of Australia, in six rounds. These performances have made him so strong in his own home town that the pro-motors of the Cream City Athletic club cannot do otherwise than bill him in the windups of their shows.

RICHIE MITCHELL ONE BOXER WITH REAL COMEBACK
 Milwaukeean, After Bad Year, Displays Battle in Every Big Fight This Year
 By Ray Pearson
 The boxing game has many peculiar twists and the angles are as numerous as the wrinkles in the hide of a rhinoceros.
 Now take the case of Richie Mitchell, the Milwaukee lightweight who before the United States entered the world war was considered as good a scrapper in his class as there was through the broad expanse of these United States, barring that sterling champion, Benny Leonard. Richie did most of his scrapping in Milwaukee, but he could have fought classy lightweights before any club in the country had he desired to leave his own bailiwick.
 Enlisted in Navy
 When it came time for the young fellows to "do their bit" Mitchell doffed the pugilistic top and donned the raiment of a bluejacket. He enlisted at Great Lakes Naval Training other cities. He fought a couple of station, and until after the armistice remained there in the naval service, except for a trip to London, where he fought a brief bout in the Inter-Allied boxing tournament. In that London bout he was adjudged the loser on a decision in three rounds.

 But the twist in Mitchell's case did not come until after he had left the navy and returned to Milwaukee more to put on his ring clothes. When he did that and got into action, it caused many of his Milwaukee friends to lament. They saw Richie box, but it wasn't the Mitchell they had watched wallop opponents before his war service. They saw a fast slipping lightweight and the comment after several of his bouts generally expressed at the ringside was that "Mitchell is through."
 Takes Bouts in Other Cities
 It really looked as if the Cream City would have to dig up another lightweight of class to take the place of Mitchell. The general opinion was that Richie had lost his grip on boxing, due to his service in the navy, that his cunning and punching fore-were gone. But it was here that another twist came about.
 It was made evident for several months after these bouts, in which Mitchell showed little of his old-time skill, that the promoters of the Cream City were not any longer figuring on Richie as the big card of their bouts. For a long time Mitchell did not appear in the contacts in Milwaukee. But he didn't figure he was through by a long way, and to prove it to his own satisfaction he accepted matches offered him by promoters in other cities. He fought a couple of good boys in Detroit and sprung a

IN CONNECTION WITH NEWBERRY
 Senator Truman H. Newberry of Michigan and sixteen of his political associates have been convicted by a jury of criminal conspiracy in the 1918 senatorial election because of their expenditures of something like $50,000 to secure Senator Newberry's elevation to the senate. Senator Newberry has been sentenced to spend two years in Leavenworth prison and to pay a fine of $10,000 and his convicted associates have been sentenced to pay fines or to serve terms of imprisonment.
 It would be interesting to ascertain to just what extent the law under which the men accused at Grand Rapids were convicted would apply to expenditures for political purposes in Idaho and in particular, in Twin Falls county where, it is reliably reported, a certain so-called "non-partisan" political organization has already collected some $14,000 out of a campaign fund of $25,000 to be used in the county this year.
 At least there is basis for interesting conjecture over what this organization might expect to gain, even if successful in an election, that would be worth the price it proposes to pay.

Star Backstop of the White Sox Has Burning Ambition
Ray Schalk Wants to Get Into Thousandth Game of Career During This Season
 CHICAGO, (AP)—Ray Schalk, the crack catcher of the White Sox, American league champions, expects to complete his one thousandth major league game before the summer is over. The plucky little backstop now is within about 40 games of that mark. This record has been made in less than eight years.
 Schalk is regarded as the best catcher in the majors, his closest rivals being Bill Killefer of the Chicago Cubs and Steve O'Neill of the Cleveland Indians.
 Few big league catchers have reached the one thousandth mark.
 Schalk is of the type that keeps on working all the time, seldom taking a rest, and then only when he is forced out of the game through injury.

Veteran Baseball Player is Manager of West Texas Club
 Charlie Stis, Battle-Scarred, Showing Rooks How to Play War Horse of Diamond,
 ST. LOUIS, Mo., Charley Stis, last season a scout for the St. Louis Cardinals, and who has been in the minor leagues for several years, has accepted the management of the Mineral Wells, Tex., club of the West Texas league.
 Stis' first job as pilot was at Peoria, in 1911 when he won the Three Eye league pennant. The next year his club finished sixth. While with Peoria he sent up such stars as Fleet of the Chicago Nationals, Holke of the Boston Braves, Veach and Yelle of the Detroit Tigers.
 In 1913 he played with the St. Louis Federals and the next season managed the Regina club of the Western Canadian league. While in charge of the Aberdeen, Wash., club, he was responsible for the sending to the majors of Jack Smith of the Cardinals and Ward of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Y-S BASEBALL LEAGUE LINES UP FOR SEASON

Eastern State Circuit Ready for Bell with League Players on Each Club

IDAHO FALLS, Ida., (AP)—The Yellowstone-Snake river baseball league, which embraces the cities of Idaho Falls, Blackfoot, Rigby, Sugar City, Rexburg and St. Anthony, Idaho, has completed arrangements for the opening game on May 12. St. Anthony will open with Rexburg at Rexburg, Idaho Falls and Rigby at Idaho Falls, Blackfoot and Sugar City at Blackfoot. This league promises to put on some real baseball this year as the clubs have signed many players of national reputation, including Chick Gandil, who is playing with St. Anthony; Ed Willie, "Tubby" Spencer and Tommy Flanagan, Rexburg; Mike Kennedy, Kelly and Harry Treble and "Nig" Perrine, Idaho Falls. The season is to be a split-season, the winner of the first half to play the winner of the second half in a series of three games for the league championship.

BASEBALL

SUNDAY GAMES Boston American 4; New York Nationals 3. Chicago Americans 2; Fort Worth, Texas league 5. Philadelphia Nationals 10; Chattanooga, South association 1. Orleans, Southern 4; New Orleans, Southern 4; San Antonio, Texas, 2.

JOE'S GETTING SMART

COLUMBUS, O., (AP)—Baseball fans in this city will not have to be calling up the ball park to find out whether the "Babes" club is going to play ball, because Joe has conceived a novel way of telling the fans when the game is on or off. A wire will be strung across the main corner in the downtown section and a huge red flag will be hung in the middle of it on days when the team is playing. When the ball is hung close to the building it will indicate that there is no game.

GETS A STAR

PEORIA, Ill., (AP)—Manager Jackson of the Peoria club of the Three Eye league, has acquired a promising youngster in Johnny Osborne, an infielder. He has been named out to Peoria by the St. Louis Cardinals, Osborne while in the navy played on the navy team between such stars as Johnny Lavon of the St. Louis Americans and "Babbit" Maraville of the Boston Braves.

ZBYSKO TAKES BIG JOB

BOISE, (AP)—Wladek Zbyzsko, heavyweight wrestler, left Chicago Saturday for Boise where he will meet Ad Santel, light heavyweight champion of the world, on the night of March 25. Zbyzsko has agreed to throw Santel twice in two hours. Should Santel get one throw, he wins the match.

BATTERIES ORDERED UP

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., (AP)—Pitchers and catchers of the St. Joseph Western league club have been instructed to report March 29. Other players will report March 28. Seven players have signed contracts for the season, according to Charles Hunter, secretary of the club. He announced that a manager for the St. Joseph club would be selected March 25.

Brief Bits of Sport

William Harrison (Jack) Dempsey says he's not guilty.

The country at large, however, will not believe it even though the federal court pronounces him innocent.

John McGraw says the Giants' club only needs a new infield.

We know at least one town that needs a whole new club and a lot of gingery fans back of it to give support.

Twin Falls is being accused of being too "stuck up" to match with Burley, but, serene and the likes of these town in a Southern Idaho ball league this year.

Which is spiteful of the neighbors, isn't it?

The fact is, Twin Falls has not recovered from the system of last year and a year's rest will do a lot of good.

Meanwhile the South Idaho league looks good to last to July 4 and should provide some rare sport up to that date.

A Salt Lake sports editor kicks through with the statement that "Yankee athletes outrank Briton."

Which is our idea of superfluous talk.

Slim Smiley, sagebrush sage, says: "An old-fashioned, circus bareback rider ain't in it 'til some o' his' bare back stunts we've seen at some o' these here masai'ly functions.

Walter (Dutch) Reuther, star twirler of the Reds last year, said to Pat Moran, sezze: "Gimme more spondu-lic this season!" Just like that. Pat replied, sezze: "Go jump in th' lake!" in the same manner.

Now "Dutch" is dickering with Coze Gandil, recalcitrant White Sox first baseman, for a job with the St. Anthony club in the Yellowstone-Snake Valley league.

Reuther may get on with the league, but it is a lead pipe cinch there's a lot of big leaguers in that circuit who will be looking for their old jobs back before the season is ended.

On Saturday the Cincinnati world's champion bull tossers, tried to make up for the beatings they took during the last week at the hands of some major league clubs. But they had to pick on a minor league bunch to get revenge.

Pat Moran's proteges defeated Indianapolis 21 to 2.

RICHMOND'S SKELETON FOUND ON BANK OF M'MULLEN CREEK

Bacterie of Fishermen Whipping Stream for Trout Accidentally Discover Bones of Twin Falls Newsdealer Missing Nine Months in a Clump of Willows—Clothing and Possessions Positively Identified

After nine months search the body of J. J. Richmond, former Twin Falls newsdealer, has been discovered. The skeleton, fully clad as the man when last seen by his wife in the fall of 1919, was discovered by a party of fishermen yesterday in a clump of willows on the rim of McMillen creek, a few miles south of Kimberly. The effects found on the bones have been fully identified by coroner J. J. Crossman.

Coroner P. J. Crossman will direct an inquiry to disclose the probable cause of death. Suggestion of suicide have been made ever since the mysterious disappearance last summer. J. J. Richmond, who was about 70 years of age and not enjoying the best health at the time, left his home in Twin Falls at 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, June 22, last year. Although official posse and private party conducted steady and intensive search for weeks no trace or track was made of the missing man. Yesterday's discovery was made by the nearest agent. The party consisted of Paul Smith, a barber, Jake Saunflicht, a lumber man; L. C. Peterson, a carpenter. The men were following a deer, and cattle trail along the bank of the creek and stumbled onto the skeleton.

The body is now at Grassman's shop, where it has been identified through the clothing, and Elgin watch chain and set of false teeth by E. M. Herriott, Jasper Kerr, O. Markel and Manager Clifford of the Mutual Crematory. At the time of disappearance of her husband, Mrs. Richmond, who is now

FARMER PAYS FINE

Horshel Hale, a farmer near Arden city, allowed the carcass of a dead animal to remain lying too long near a running stream. High School News

At the H. Y. club's meeting Thursday night, the members voted to change the name slightly, from High-Y to H-Y to conform with the generally accepted name throughout the country. An attempt to affiliate the club with the national H-Y organization was defeated, the belief being that it should work independently of other associations in view of the fact that no aid was given to the local organization by any other society when the H-Y club was launched. Plans are being made for a sing social at the high school next Thursday night.

Rain or Snow of "Meby" is Tuesday Guess

RAIN OR SNOW; what shall it be? The south end of this sovereign state is promised one thing or the other tonight or tomorrow, and since the weather operator won on his Saturday vaticination, there's a pretty good chance that he is not far off on the guess for tonight and Tuesday, especially since the spec doc's weather indicating dings and all atmospheric suggestions support the theory that the district is in the midst of a storm period. It's an easy guess, as we view it. Saturday's temperature hit the high water mark for the season with 68 for top. Yesterday it was six degrees below Saturday, but the low on Sunday night was higher by four markers than on Saturday night.
