PAVES WAY TO ADVANCE WAGE OF COAL MINER

Wilson Withdraws Government Control of Price so that Higher Pa will be Absorbed by Consumer

ENDORSES REPORT OF COMMISSION MAJORITY

Warns Operators Against Violating Laws Against Combinations in Restraint of Trade and Profiteering

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Wilson today withdrew government control of the price of bituminous coal so that the 27 per cent wage advance for miners recommended by the majority of the coal strike settlement commission may be absorbed in the price the consumer will pay after April 1. The commission estimated this wage advance at $200,000,000 a year. At the same time the president made public the majority and minority reports of the commission created by the operators and miners asking that they reach an agreement on the basis of the majority report alone as speedily as possible so that the uncertainty regarding the fuel situation might be removed.

Warns Operators
The operators were warned by President Wilson against violating laws against combinations in restraint of trade and profiteering and also not to exact "unreasonable prices for coal." "I am aware," said the president, "that at present, as a result of the strike created by the operators and of the consequent interference with transportation and as a result also of the exceptionally unfavorable winter, the demand for coal continues active. I desire to impress upon the coal operators the extreme importance now of their complying to the fullest extent with the laws against combinations in restraint of trade and against profiteering, but also of their exerting themselves affirmatively to prevent exacting of unreasonable prices for coal. I am confident that the public fully appreciates the desirability, where practicable, of leaving commercial transactions untrammelled but at the same time I am confident that the public will find ways to protect itself if such liberal policy shall appear to result in unreasonably high prices."

Urges Early Agreement

The president wrote the operators and miners that it was "essential that the public welfare that the agreements be concluded at the earliest date practicable so that the uncertainty as to the fuel supply may be ended and the consumers may be able to make contracts for their coal supply." The president said he assumed that neither party would raise any question and that he was sure that no question could properly be raised as to the binding character of the award by the majority of the commission notwithstanding the fact that it was not unanimous. The executive order withdrawing government control of prices removes virtually all government control of coal, placing the fuel administration in the status that it was before its first action was rescinded when the miners struck last November 1. The president said there was no provision of law for fixing new coal prices for a period of time longer than six months and until some grave emergency shall arise, which in his judgment has a relation to the emergency purposes of the Lever act. It would not feel that it is in fixing coal prices with reference to future conditions of production.

To Collect $200,000,000

The majority report of the commission said that the government had absorbed the 14 per cent increase allowed when the miners returned to work and that in dollars it would approximate $200,000,000.

Government Indicates Purpose to Manage to Take Action

MADRID, (AP)—A strike on all railway lines of Spain will take effect at noon today. This decision was reached unanimously by representatives of the railroad employees at midnight following the failure of the managers of the railway companies to accede to the demands of the men. The cabinet urged the railway management to grant the employees demands, warning the managers that in the event of failure to grant a strike the government would take action. Any train which has not reached its destination by noon will be sidetracked at the nearest station. The strike follows the demands of the railwaymen for increased wages and better working conditions.

VOTE BONDS OR NOT, AS YOU PLEASE, BUT DON'T BE FOOLED BY VICIOUS LIES

Those who feel that the St. John Skinner tract of 35 acres on Blue Lakes Boulevard is not suitable for Park purposes, or that the price is too high, or that some certain local interests will in any manner benefit financially through the passage of the Park Bonds and the turning of the tract into a Public Park, should by all means vote against the Bonds.

But those who have reached this conclusion through the vicious and unscrupulous campaign of misrepresentation indulged in during the past day or two by the Twin Falls Times, will do well to check up on the source of their information.

The Times has insinuated that the property was mortgaged and that only through the sale of the property to the city could the mortgagee hope to collect the amount of his mortgage.

The Times has sought to make the public believe that the Park Bonds were simply a scheme for the benefit of a few men and that the people of Twin Falls were to be asked to lend their endorsement to a confidence game.

It is a fact that there is no mortgage of any kind against the land in question.

It is a fact that the owner has in his possession an offer for the land at a higher price than that at which it is offered to the City.

It is a fact that one of the outstanding stipulations in the matter of the purchase, if a purchase is made, is that no commission of any kind will be paid to anybody.

The Twin Falls Times is a yellow dog.

In its present role it is a menace to the public good and to the future of Twin Falls. In offering its lying insinuations it has sought deliberately to set up a state of feeling in the public mind based, not upon facts, but upon falsehood. And either it has been fooled by someone else's lies or has deliberately distorted and misrepresented facts on its own account.

And in either case The Times is a yellow dog.

Settle the question on the basis of the needs and the best good of Twin Falls. If land for park purposes can be purchased cheaper somewhere else, the advantages being equal, all well and good.

But Twin Falls land is not apt to be cheaper, and the particular site selected is worth more money than is being asked, today.

Twin Falls needs such a Park now, and in the future this need will be multiplied with each succeeding year's growth.

Settle the question for yourself, not upon a basis of lies but upon facts and let reason and common sense assist in the conclusion.

TURNING POINT IN WAR WAITED UPON AMERICA

Admiral Sims Declares Beginning of End for Central Powers Came when United States Finally Entered Upon Co-operation with Allies to Make Convoy System Effective; Denies Any Good Reason Existed for Delayed Action

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Cross-examination of Rear Admiral Sims was continued today before the senate committee investigating the navy's conduct of the war and that the allies had to wait for American co-operation before the plan could be made effective. "Our destroyers and other ships should have sailed the night we declared war and there is no good reason why they should not have done so," he said. "If they had, 2,500,000 tons of shipping would have been saved, and the United States would have had an army of 1,000,000 men in France by May 1, 1918. The fact is that after we declared war many American ships had to be placed in dry docks and repaired before they could be sent to the war zone."

Senator Pittman told the admiral he had not presented any evidence to support his assertion that failure of the navy to properly co-operate during the war had prolonged the struggle at a cost of 500,000 lives.

"I notify you here and now that at the proper time evidences will be introduced to show that the army did not ask for ocean transport."

"If you do you know that it is to prove General Pershing's own report in which he said that he could not get the troops that he wanted."

COSTS FIGURE IN DEBATE ON SENATE FLOOR

Proposed Agricultural Bill is Attacked and Defended in Discussion of Governmental Expenditures

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Government expenditures were discussed in senate today. Senator Lodge, the republican leader, and Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, attacking a proposal in the agricultural bill for creation of a new government bureau in charge of farm management.

Senator Smith, democrat, South Carolina, said the department was having difficulty keeping its scientifically trained men at present salaries and that "the honor of being a bureau officer would make up the difficulty in some cases."

Resemble Mexican Army
"That reminds me of the Mexican army," Senator Lodge retorted, "with more officers than men."

Tending some estimates, Senator Smoot said congress was asked to appropriate $1,000,000 for maintenance of the government next year.

Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, agreed that the sum was "impossible," but said the agricultural bill had been passed by any other measure of legislation had been.

Argues for Necessities
"The amount granted," he said, "is less than the department ought to have. The reasons for this change are good ones. There has been almost a minimal waste. I'll admit, but the necessities must be met."

Senator Smoot, predicting that the federal government's expenditures for the fiscal year ending next June would exceed receipts by at least $1,000,000,000, advocating establishment of an efficiency bureau to make up appropriation estimates.

Senator Capper, republican, Kansas, said that if passing the bill was to mean in its provisions. During the last three years, he said, the farmer had been the goat of law makers, with the sheep being the government.

"Unless the farm problem is considered with more sympathy by the public generally, and especially by congress, a substantial part of our country may go hungry before many years," he continued. "Farmers have been handicapped by the disgraceful agricultural economic system until the soil has been worn out by over-cultivating the farms this spring by the tens of thousands."

Makes Recommendations

Senator Capper argued for a curb on profiteering, elimination of market manipulation and gambling, federal control of the railroads, and more closer co-operation with the farmer, and a constructive study of land questions.

DUBLIN RIOTING COSTS LIVES OF TWO PERSONS

Woman Domestic Servant and Unidentified Man Victim of Clash with Troops

DUBLIN, (AP)—One of the two persons killed in last night's riot here was a woman, a domestic servant, and a domestic servant. The other was an unidentified young man. Several persons were wounded, including one of the soldiers who was shot through the hand.

The conflict, according to one correspondent, had its origin in boisterous conduct of the party of soldiers who had been ordered to bring up the Theatre Royal. On leaving the theater they attracted the attention of civilians by their conduct and a steady growing crowd followed them to ward the barracks. When they approached the vicinity of South Richmond street the firing began. After a few shots had been fired the soldiers entered their barracks, but soon reappeared, it is declared, firing several volleys, as the result of which the fatalities occurred.

Official reports issued by the military and police do not say that the soldiers entered their barracks and then returned to fight the crowd. One hundred and twenty soldiers were in a serious mood, it is stated, when a patrol was sent from the barracks to assist them, according to the official reports. Four soldiers were wounded, one with a bullet wound in the chest.

GERMAN TROOPS BATTLE WITH REDS ABOUT ESSEN

Spartacans Outflank Regulars in Fighting at Wesel in Rhenish Industrial Region.

PEACE CONFEREES DEBATE STEPS TO BE TAKEN IN RUHR AREA SITUATION

AIX LA CHAPELLE, Rhenish Prussia, (AP)—Another battle is reported to be going on between Spartacans and troops of the regular army at Wesel, twenty-two miles northwest of Essen. The regulars, the report says, appear to have been outflanked by the Spartacans. A detachment of Uhlans was surprised on Monday between Dusseldorf and Duisburg, southwest of Essen. The officers and young soldiers of the detachment were shot as enemies of the working classes, according to a wounded Uhlans who was rescued by a Belgian.

ESSEN, Germany, (AP)—The local executive council today announced that the entire industrial region hereabouts is in the hands of the revolutionary workmen and that a red army of fifty thousand men is victoriously advancing on Wesel where "the last remnants of the regular troops" are concentrated.

The Ruhr Echo announces that the left wing of the red army's front stretches from Dinklage, 24 miles from Dusseldorf, through Holteln to Dronstein, 36 miles southwest of Muenster. In the vicinity of Haldern an armoured train on the way to the industrial region from Muenster was halted by the blowing up of a stretch of road bed.

Quiet prevails on the front between Dorton and Dortonmund. The general military situation, it is declared, is favorable to the revolutionaries.

Treaty Gives Entente Opening in Situation

LONDON, (AP)—The situation in the Ruhr valley, the stronghold of the German reds, is expected in diplomatic and military circles here to remain virtually unchanged until the peace conference in London decide whether German government troops shall be allowed in that district.

The conference had before it yesterday a protest by Czechoslovakia against the reds. It failed to reach a decision, and put the question over to today. This is the only instance where the reds have taken a hand in the German disorders, and then only because Germany under the provisions of the treaty of Versailles does not control that section of the country.

This morning's officials messages state that the reds in the Ruhr valley possess no effective artillery or tanks, but are plentifully supplied with rifles.

Stuttgart Entertains Hope for Settlement

STUTTGART, (AP)—There appear to be hopes of a settlement in the peaceful settlement of the troubles in the Ruhr region will be effected. Such hopes were expressed by officials in commenting upon the situation late last night.

Official confirmation was given of news dispatches announcing the resignation of Gustav Noske, the minister of defense, and its acceptance by President Ebert.

Disaster Inevitable if Troops Interfere

OEFENHAEGEN, (AP)—The whole western industrial district of Germany is held solidly by radicals and disaster is inevitable if the government troops interfere there, according to information received from Berlin this morning by telephone by the Berlinkke Tidende. The Social Democracy of Germany has urged the government in on point of formation without co-operation with the bourgeois parties.

ESTHONIA AND LIVONIA ARE PREPARING FOR WAR

COPENHAGEN, (AP)—Estonia and Livonia, two of the former Russian Baltic provinces independent nations, are preparing for war, says a dispatch to the Berlinkke Tidende from Kovna. CONDITIONS AT GERMAN CAPITAL NEARING NORMAL

Spartacans Continue Appeals while Postal Service Operates, Stores Open and Some Railways Resume

BERLIN, (AP)—The city now is becoming normal. The postal service is working, stores are open and electricity is available to enable small factories to operate. The city and circle roads have resumed operation but the elevated has not resumed. The following provincial reports were received Monday:

Socialists Augment Dusseldorf Radicals

DUSSELDORF, (AP)—Small squads of independent socialists, wearing red brassards and carrying arms, after taking over their shoulders, are arriving here to strengthen the forces, numbering several thousand men, which are holding this city while awaiting a threatened attack from government troops. The red army, in which many communists have enlisted, is now drilling near town. Socialist forces are patrolling the streets, but are not molesting the public. No disorders were reported Monday but the people of Dusseldorf expect government troops, which were forced to retire to Wesel, to make a new effort to capture the city within a week.

SOUTH DAKOTA MAKING CHOICE OF CANDIDATES

Primary Elections in Progress to Instruct Delegates Whom to Vote for a National Political Convention

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., (AP)—South Dakota voters will in the primary today instruct the delegates to the national convention whom to vote for as a presidential preference on the first three ballots in the democratic and republican caucuses. They will also nominate senatorial and congressional candidates and complete state tickets.

Three Sets of Candidates

There are three sets of candidates for presidential nomination in each party. General Leonard Wood, endorsed at a republican meeting last December and President Wilson, similarly endorsed by a democratic meeting, are designated as majority proposal candidates. The republican minority slogan is as announced in eight words, the legal limit, is "Patriotism, progress, prosperity, honesty, economy, law and order." The democratic slogan is "For lasting peace under the league of nations."
Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, republican, and James W. Gerard, democrat for president, are the official nomination by delegates to the December conference who were not satisfied with the majority choice and they are known as minority proper candidates. The republican minority slogan is "Economy, efficiency, protection, peace, agriculture promoted; one flag." The democratic minority candidate is "For lasting peace and keep the world safe for democracy."

Filed by Petition

Senators Miles Poindexter of Washington, and Hiram Johnson, of California, are known as republican minority candidates having been named by filing a petition of at least one per cent of the total vote of their party at the last election. James C. Monroe of Illinois, is the democratic candidate so nominated for the democratic ticket. Poindexter's slogan is: "American government free from class or foreign control; Jeffersonianism; Americanism; freedom of speech, press, justice, with law and order." Monroe's is: "Prevent coal, oil and transportation monopoly by taxation."
The name of William Grant Webster of New York, the only one filing for vice presidential preference, will not appear on the ballot as there is no opposition.

In Race for Top

Candidates for the republican nomination for United States senator are Peter Norbeck, of Bedford, and D. Haney, of Huron. Democratic candidates for senators are Louis N. Crill, of Elk Point; W. B. G. Cherry, of Sioux Falls, and Tom Taubman, of Plankinton.
For the congressional nomination in the first district, the only one in which there is a contest is Charles Christopherson, of Sioux Falls, is the republican majority candidate and his opponent is C. H. Dillon, of Yankton. W. H. McMaster, of Yankton, is the majority republican candidate for governor. His opponent, R. O. Richards, of Huron, is the petition candidate. Mr. McMaster has chosen the majority slogan while Mr. Richards is running on a temperance platform proposing that only persons over 21 who conform to the rules of morality as defined by the courts be permitted to buy, sell or making intoxicating liquor and that all electors who violate such rules shall be deprived of the right to vote.
The Nonpartisan ticket will have no names on the ballot other than for presidential electors.

AMELIA PALACE RETURNS TO MORMONS' POSSESSION

Home of Favorite of 23 Wives of Brigham Young to Be Razed to Make Way for Church Pile

SALT LAKE, Utah, (AP)—Amelia Palace, or Cardo House, home of Amelia, favorite of the 23 wives of President Brigham Young of the Mormon church who died in 1877, and famed as a landmark in Salt Lake city, was acquired Saturday by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormons) from Mrs. E. H. Fisher, of Los Angeles for the sum of $100,000. It is underrated church authorities contemplate tearing it down and erecting upon the site a huge office building.

The structure was built in 1876 and was the family residence of President Young up until his death in 1877. The property then reverted to the church and was occupied by various church officials until its purchase by Mrs. Holmes many years later. In recent years, or since the Amelia Palace has been the headquarters of the local Red Cross. The residence, which is one block distant from the temple, was designed after an Italian structure, and from it derived the name of Cardo House.

CHINESE SERVE AS EXECUTIONER

Russian Bolsheviks Make Use of Imperturbable Oriental in Campaign

AMSTERDAM, (AP)—The correspondent of the Handelsblad who recently returned from a trip to soviet Russia gives the following account of his investigations of the activities of the Chinese employed there by the bolsheviks as executioners.

"Such horrible stories were being told in Europe about these Chinese that I thought it worth my while to learn more about them. As a joke, I asked someone who asked my opinion of the bolsheviks to show me some 'real man-killing Chinese,' but I was always told that they couldn't be got any just now because they had all gone to the Denkinke front."

"I was told the Chinese, if commanded by their own officers were excellent soldiers, but they run like hares if their officers were killed. Executions are now very rare in Moscow, but, in August, when thousands of 'counter-revolutionaries' were slaughtered, it was carried out by the Chinese because the authorities feared the Russian soldiers would refuse to do the work."
"The Chinese do this work indifferently—like they do all other work they are ordered to perform. They are blind, conscienceless tools in the hands of their masters and will do anything and what they raled them from the position of coolie in which they come to Russia, to the rank of soldier of the front."
"If the 'bolsjak,' his name for bolshevik, orders something, the Chinese does it, and he does it in his typically practical way. He first made the victim dig his own grave and then shoots him with his revolver. He is not cruel about it, just practical."
"When bolsjak says kill, then he kills with an unflinching face. And when bolsjak says 'you may stop now,' with the same cool face he lets his victim go."

"The correspondent after some weeks in Russia left when he was refused permission to make investigations freely as he pleased."

CRIMINALIST HOLDS KEY TO MYSTERY CRIME

Result of Expert Investigation to Figure in South Dakota Trial

DEADWOOD, S. D., (AP)—The case of Mr. and Mrs. George Bonies, charged with the murder of Mrs. Bonies' mother, Mrs. Hilda Neimi, of Lead, will be called on Wednesday with the opening of circuit court here.
Whether Mrs. Neimi ended her own life by crawling into a burning furnace in the basement of the Neimi apartments, whether she was murdered by unknown persons and her body thrust into the furnace, or whether she came to her death at the hands of her daughter and son-in-law, are questions which Dr. A. L. Bennett, criminalist attached to the office of District Attorney Wm. W. Foley of Denver, is expected to answer when he appears before the jury as a witness.
Mrs. Neimi's charred body was found in the furnace in the basement of the Neimi apartments in Lead the morning of December 7 last by her daughter. At the suggestion of Dr. Bennett, who was called into the case, the body was disinterred at Lead and sent to Denver for the criminalist to investigate. He is expected to make public his findings at the trial.

CLAIMS EVIDENCE TO IDENTIFY MURDERERS

DENVER, Colo., (AP)—The death of Mrs. Hilda Neimi of Lead, S. D., was caused from a cerebral hemorrhage and her body was forced into the furnace of her apartment after she had died, in an effort to destroy all traces of the crime, according to a statement made here by Dr. A. L. Bennett, criminalist attached to District Attorney Foley's office, who has completed an examination of portions of the body sent him.

"I have evidence in my possession which I believe will establish the identity of the murderers," Dr. Bennett declared.

WILLINGNESS TO FIGHT BRITAIN BENSON NOTION

Admiral Sims Gives Congressional Investigators Details of Instructions

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Rear Admiral William B. Benson, then-chief of naval operations, was the official who told Rear Admiral Sims "not to let the British pull the wool over our eyes. We would as soon fight them as Germany." Admiral Sims testified Monday before the senate committee investigating the navy's conduct of the war.

Admiral Sims said the remark was made just after he had received his instructions from Secretary Daniels preparatory to his departure for England on the eve of the entry of the United States into the war. He added, however, that it was not made during the course of formal instructions, but during a conversation in the office of Rear Admiral Palmer, chief of the bureau of navigation.

UNIONS FORM AN ALLIANCE

Railroad Brotherhoods United with Marine Workers for Joint Action

Pruett, president of the marine workers, announced here Monday.
Pruett explained the agreement provides "for unity of action of all railroad unions employed in transportation in any policy concerning the welfare of the sevenselves, railway brotherhoods and obligates workers on railway boats, tugs and ferries, who are members of the national association of masters, mates and pilots, to support the brotherhoods."
Under the agreement Jersey City local No. 3, National Association of Masters, Mates and Pilots, was organized Saturday night with 900 members, it was announced.

APPROVES SALE OF FLOUR

Senate Passes House Bill without Opposition for European Relief

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The house bill authorizing the United States grain corporation to sell 5,000,000 barrels of soft wheat flour in Europe for credit as a relief measure, was passed yesterday by the senate without opposition.

Senator Gronna, republican, North Dakota, said the fact that the government had this flour on hand was "another illustration of what happens when the government interferes in private business."
Except for the emergency in Europe, he added, the government would have faced a loss of from fifty to sixty million dollars, as the American people would not use the flour.

PROPOSES SEPARATE PEACE

Representative Britton Would Reopen Trade with Central Powers

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A bill proposing a separate peace between the United States and Germany and Austria for the purpose of "peaceful commerce" was introduced yesterday by Representative Britton, republican, Illinois.

Creation of a trade council to promote trade with Europe generally also was proposed. The council would be directed to report to congress "in the shortest practicable time" on a general plan for "financing European credit through the federal reserve banking system, pending such time as the exchange value of foreign money reaches something like its former status."

Demoted Up

By VIRGINIA L. MAXWELL

Somehow Janet's mother could not quite forget the stigma which she accused her daughter of putting on the family name when she married Gerald Cummings, their neighbor's chauffeur.

"Janet, my child, do you realize what you have done?" she remembered her mother saying with an awestricken face when they both came back from the short honeymoon trip, and Janet's family had since had time to digest the telegraphed news.

And Janet, then a girl of twenty, had faced her mother resolutely. "Of course I know what I've done, mother. I've married the best man in the world."

"What's the use?" Mrs. Hemingway complained that same evening when Janet's father looked in at the young people seated in the drawing room, and she said knowingly.

"And it is too young to know that she has committed a grave social error in marrying beneath her class," Mrs. Hemingway continued. "And as for the man she chose, well—he will never be anything but a chauffeur."

But the idea rankled in Mrs. Hemingway's mind for a long while after. Janet took a firm stand. They furnished a comfortable, though plain little flat and began to live the "happy ever after" kind of their lives.

True, the furnishings of the modest flat did not compare with the cheapest in the Hemingway household, but as Janet reminded her mother, "wasn't it the love behind a household that made it a home, and not the mere material things?"

And after that Mrs. Hemingway decided to let the matter rest.

Two years later found Janet and Gerald more comfortably established than ever. Gerald had got a better position in an automobile firm and the work gave him more regular hours. But there was a lot of study entailed. Gerald within a short time became an expert mechanic and got another raise.

It was not money, however, that finally bred the sore spot in Janet's heart that had been forming unconsciously for months. It was her mother's silent influence. She never said anything about the affair ever since the day of Janet's last outburst, but the silent influence was there just the same.

Once when she had invited a number of girl friends to tea Janet's mother very tactfully displayed the fact that her daughter had no telephone, and pressed for a reason by her inquisitive friends. Janet had lied calmly that it was a source of annoyance.

"Well, sweetie," Gerald said coming in enthusiastically, "I'm going—the big day is coming—Netty, when our country is calling all its red bloods, and I enlist—tomorrow."

"You—what?" Janet could scarcely believe his words. "Jerry boy, tell me you are fooling. You are—why—she laughed frivolously and turned away as though to belittle the idea as a mere passing fancy."

The next moment she turned toward her husband faintly. But the expression on his chiseled features made her realize there was no joking to it.

"I'm going Netty; surely you're glad. Don't stand there and gaze as though I were mad. Don't you realize what it means, coming over to protect you, other women, over there and over here. God, girl—"

But Janet had stopped him with her gesture. "You are mad. Stark mad—"

ARMED KENTUCKY MINERS—ON DETECTIVES' TRAIL

Blaine Agency Operative for Clash Incident to Strike in Which Three Are Killed

MIDDLEBORO, Ky. (AP)—Harlan county, Ky., on the Kentucky-West Virginia border, was the scene today of a clash between armed miners and operatives of a detective agency, who were alleged to have started a fight at Walden, where three miners and two operatives, which resulted in the killing of three persons and wounding of several others.

The clash was the outgrowth of ill-feelings because of a reportation last week of a group of private detectives by the Kentucky Steam Coal company, where a strike is on.

THIRTY-NINE OPERATORS AND MINERS ARRESTED

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Indiana coal operators and miners who have been arrested on charges of striking by a special federal grand jury here following an investigation of the coal industry today totaled thirty-nine. Twenty-one other Indiana miners are under indictment charged with violating the Lever law and conspiracy sections of the federal criminal code. Seventy-three men in other states are under indictment on similar charges.

WASHINGTON CANTS VOTE FOR SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP)—Ratification of the federal suffrage amendment was completed by the Washington legislature today when the house unanimously passed a ratification resolution. It had first been passed by the house, Washington is the thirty-fifth state to ratify.

Following action by the senate the two houses joined in sending a telegram to the legislature of Delaware asking that body to ratify the amendment.

turn of the Ebert government and protested against military control of the city. The principal burden of the text was that the army should disarm the troops or give its weapons."

Another proclamation was addressed to the Berlin proletariat and exhorted workers to continue the strike.

Crowds Drink in Rumors

Crowds in the streets eagerly drank in the usual output of rumors. The makeshift employed during the last few days of the strike for conveying wearyd politicians were introduced Monday. One of these was a wagon having benches along its sides.

Many horse cars and taxis were in use, but the municipal authorities were serving the public, shops were reopening and there was a general resumption of activities.

Views Military Preparations

An automobile trip made by the correspondent of the Associated Press Sunday afternoon through the industrial district in the eastern outskirts of Berlin, which during Saturday night was the scene of several clashes between troops and Spartacists, brought to one of the principal military preparations that had been made to cope with the activities of the reds there.

The suburb of Kopenick, just eastward of Johannisthal, and Altesohl, had become a big military camp. The correspondent saw at least a dozen camouflaged field pieces and numerous machine-guns and supplies of ammunition and stores of all kinds.

Bombing Fight Fighting Center

The principal fighting Saturday evening was accomplished by an attempt of the soldiers to seize a banking plant near Altesohl. The banking was quiet today but further trouble was expected.

The automobile passed a long string of machine-guns and machine guns, and truck-loads of soldiers going to reinforce the encamped troops. Only in the outlying districts was the military conspicuous.

ers for a 30-hour week, the majority of the commission said that if the work day were shortened by one hour it would be equivalent to an additional cost of more than $100,000,000.

The minority report of John P. White, the miners' representative held out for a higher increase for all day labor and monthly one that were granted by the majority, but he concurred in the recommendation for a five cents a ton increase on pick and machine-mining. His report was transmitted to the operators and miners by the president for their information.

BREWSTER SAYS REPORT WILL RAISE COAL PRIOR

ST. LOUIS, (AP)—Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the coal operators' scale committee, in the central competitive field today refused to discuss the coal commission's report other than to say it would increase the cost of production approximately forty cents a ton if accepted.

Political Notes

FARGO, N. D. (AP)—William Lange, attorney general of North Dakota today announced that he is a candidate for the republican gubernatorial nomination in the state primary to be held on June 30.

BRENTON, N. J. (AP)—United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson of California was formally entered here today in the New Jersey presidential primary which will be held April 27. A petition containing 1,800 names was filed with the secretary of state today in his behalf.

ONE SUGAR ADVANCES ALONG PACIFIC COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Cane sugar was advanced along the Pacific coast today from 15 to 16 cents a pound wholesale, according to refiners, making the total price 181-2 cents a pound. The raise, the second within four months, is the highest price sugar has sold at along the coast since the civil war.

SUFFRAGE RATIFICATION IN DELAWARE IN DANGER

Adoption of Amendment to Enfranchise Women Seems Doomed in Legislature of Key State

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—A dispatch to the Evening Bulletin from Dover, Delaware, where the legislature met in special session yesterday, says ratification of the suffrage amendment by Delaware seems doomed unless something unexpected develops to influence members now apparently against such action.

Failure of the Delaware legislature to ratify the suffrage amendment will probably mean that women will vote in the coming presidential primaries and elections. Thirty-five states only have ratified, while thirty-six are necessary to make the amendment a law. No other state legislatures are expected to be in session before the presidential election, hence upon Delaware hinges the hopes of the suffragists.

"Paradise Regained" on Cabbage.

It is said that John Milton often used to have nothing but a few olives for dinner, and we do not wonder so much since learning this that he so seldom wrote anything cheerful. We do not think we could write anything cheerful ourselves after dining on a few olives, though we have done it not infrequently on boiled cabbage and prune whip.—Ohio State Journal.

Excess of Food Blamed.

Dr. Pritchard, an English practitioner, believes that most of the digestive troubles of infants and young children are due to excess of food. And, besides the direct damage to the stomach and intestines, these have an effect upon the whole system and may in the long run make it more susceptible to catching other diseases.

A Mad Cart

Myself and family were out for our usual Sunday ride. We were driving along a fairly smooth road, which gradually became rough. Finally little Rose, who had become tired of being bumped about, exclaimed: "Oh, mamma, has the car lost its temper?"—Exchange.

Theodore's Bright Idea.

Theodore was fond of olives, but his father had forbidden him to eat them. At dinner one day, during his father's absence, a large dish of olives had been placed near Theodore's plate. He looked at it longingly and said: "Mamma, let's play a joke on daddy and eat some olives."

A Woman will sometimes remark of an acquaintance—not in envy but in admiration—"How does she manage to always dress so well?" The habit of reading the ads is responsible for much of the good dressing we see.

Composition of Pennies.
Pennies are made of 95 per cent copper and 5 per cent nickel and zinc. The material which goes into them costs about 25 cents a pound and this pound makes up into 120 one-cent pieces. They are distributed to banks at their face value, so the profit is $1 a pound, less the cost of manufacture, which is not great.

You can count upon the classified to sell your real estate—and the cost of the advertising will figure surprisingly small.

SPORTS

States should encourage clean, skillful boxing. In fact, they should allow a properly equipped gym where young men could learn to box scientifically under expert instructors.

Health in Boxing

This would cause the youths to lead a better and far healthier life, for to attempt boxing can hold their health and indulge in any wild dissipation whatsoever.

Every fairminded army or naval officer can tell how boxing helped to soldiers and sailors to get on to greatly in their training for the big war.

Brief Bits of Sport

Fort Wayne fight scribes say Jimmy Wilde has but one bad fault, he plays golf.

Jimmy seems to have one bad habit; he kicks most of his opponents.

Pitcher Bill James, whose hastening out of the majors was halted last summer when Comiskey took the big Boston job, after a year at wolver price, has been added down to the Minneapolis club of the American association this spring.

Jack Curley, who manages the "wrestling trust," says Ed (Strangler) Lewis and Champion Joe Stecher have been matched for a titular battle.

The winner will be matched with Wladek Pityzko, and that winner with Caddock, and that winner will be matched with Lewis; and that winner will be matched with Stecher, and so ad infinitum.

Bob Maesel, tall Pacific Coast, is being tried at both infield and outfield positions by Manager Miller Huggins of the Yankees.

Muscel looks so good at all points that Huggins doesn't know wottil.

Sim Smiley, sagobruah sage, says: "Dodge th' issue in a perillous arguement, an' th' flation in th' debate wi' th' old woman; th' latter air very important."

Just add another episode to the baseball tale by Hy Jasper. The Cleveland club has just made him a free agent, along with Clark Dickerson. Jasper might have been kept, but he was too much wedded to the spitter.

Looks as though Georges Carpentier, not that he has arrived, will be busier than the armed man with his dodging challenges from America's rising fighters.

Everybody's after the fire-eating Frenchman.

Shuffling Phil Douglas has reported to McGraw, but has found thus far to sign his Giant's contract.

But the former Northwestern right arm twirler will sign his contract, all right, all right, because there's more money in playing baseball for him than in any other walk of life along which he could tralpe.

The KITCHEN CABINET

Drink less and breathe more. Eat less and chew more. Waste less and save more. Fresh less and do more.

DISHS WITHOUT MEAT.

Peanuts are the cheapest form of nut protein if purchased in large quantities. A nut loaf if well seasoned makes a very wholesome dish.

Not a loaf—Take one and one-half cupsful of mixed ground nuts, two cupsful of bread crumbs, one egg, five teaspoonful of poultry dressing, one tablespoonful of minced onion, one cupful of milk, one and one-half teaspoonful of salt, a few dashes of pepper and half cupful of hot water with a half teaspoonful of beef extract. Mix thoroughly and stand for twenty minutes, then pack into a bread pan, brush with corn oil and bake in a moderate oven.

Nut and Bean Sausage—Take one cupful of cooked beans, one cupful of finely ground peanuts, one cupful of cooked rice, one cupful of finely ground peanuts, one cupful of cooked rice, one cupful of finely ground parsley, one teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of sage, one-fourth teaspoonful of pepper, and one-half cupful of milk. Mix well, form in flat cakes, roll in finely ground peanuts or peanut flour, and fry in vegetable fat.

Vegetable Cutlets—Take two cupsful of cooked, sifted squash or mashed parsnips, two-thirds of a cupful of bread crumbs, one beaten egg, half a teaspoonful of fat, one and one-half cupsful of coarsely ground black wheat meat. Season with salt and pepper and shape into cutlets. Fry in hot vegetable fat and serve with a white sauce and minced green pepper.

Peanut and Sweet Potato Cakes—Combine the following ingredients in the order given: three cupsful of mashed sweet potatoes, one table-spoonful of peanut butter, one table-spoonful of sweet fat, one egg and one and one-half cupsful of ground peanuts with a bit of sage. Shape into flat cakes and fry as usual. Serve with baked apples or tart apple sauce.

A handful of walnut meats, an apple or two or a pear, with a bread and butter sandwich and a glass of milk, furnishes a well balanced meal sufficiently nourishing for the average adult.

FARMER'S BODY FINALLY FOUND

Remains of Fred Eggergraus Taken from Canyon—Authorities to Investigate

Over the rimrock of Rock creek, a short distance from Twin Falls, the body of Fred Eggergraus, farmer and artist was recovered this morning. A man had been dead some days. Eggergraus has been missing from his farm home since last Tuesday night. The authorities were notified last Thursday by members of the city. The body is now at the office of P. J. Grossman, county coroner. An inquest will be held this afternoon.

Discovery of the location of Eggergraus' body was made late yesterday morning by persons passing that way. The coroner and sheriff were notified about delay and visited the scene. A body lay down the canyon a distance of 250 to 300 feet. Owing to the narrowness of the declivity it was deemed inadvisable to make any attempt at recovery until daylight today. This morning Coroner Grossman, Sheriff A. Sprague, the sheriff's deputies and the city fire department proceeded to the site and installed a heavy boom over the declivity, the coroner and assistants being the body by that means. The remains were hauled to the top of the canyon by rope and tackle and immediately conveyed to the Grossman garage.

According to some of the authorities there are many theories connected with the finding of Eggergraus' body that must be investigated before cause of death is determined. Although Eggergraus had been on a cliff, no bones were found to be broken. It is said that there are black marks on one leg and other portions of the body indicating it was bitten by fire. The body, however, was fully clothed when taken from the top of the canyon. The clothing was damaged by fire, apparently. The canyon is about 20 feet from Rock creek's water flow.

Eggergraus is said to have been slightly deranged mentally. Records said to show that he was in the insane asylum of the state in the fall of 1917. It is said by members of his family that he secreted treasure in Rock creek canyon and visited the spot frequently. It was assumed that while on one of those surreptitious excursions of his he accidentally met his death.

ITCH IN ALLEY TROUBLE CENTER FOR ITS MAKERS

Blue Lakes Addition Residents Complain that Waterway is Menace to Safety

Where once in all of its pristine beauty and splendor lay an alley, now runs irrigating ditch. And there around ponds trouble. Said ditch was originally cut by the Pocatello Sewerage company. The ditch is located in Blue Lakes addition, daily reaching and distributing irrigation water to 360 acres of land outside the city proper.

Blue Lakes addition in recent months has been the scene of much realty activity, the Pocatello Security company being the main agent.

For some reason the realty company seemed to having a ditch on one of the main boulevards in the section addition, and diverted the course a block and a half from the originally planned alley. The waterway now traverses the alley between Lincoln avenue and the Blue Lakes boulevard from Addison street to Heyburn street, crossing Park street. The entire distance is two blocks.

Objection to the maintenance of the ditch in the alley was lodged with the city administrators last night by J. E. Dille and W. E. Sanger, residents of a section involved. The objectors expressed opinion that the ditch is a menace to public safety in its present location and unprotected condition. Plans are submitted to prove the place of the ditch, and figures presented showing the ditch is not a menace to public safety. Normal size will be about three feet deep, carrying 325 inches of water.

City Attorney Berg explained that the Pocatello Security company had expressed a measure of anxiety to place the ditch in the alley, but only on condition that within a reasonable period would be pipelined. Council expressed the opinion that the "reasonable period" had long ago passed the statutory limitations and the city is expected to instruct the company to either fill the ditch or conduit it in 30 days.

PATHY MARKS MORNING VOTING ON PARK BONDS

Balloting at Playgrounds Election Finds Small Interest in Early Hours

Pathy marked the morning voting at the city's park and playground election today. Up to noon the votes had been cast at the two polling places. Polls were opened at 9 o'clock this morning, with First ward headquarters at the municipal hall, and Second ward headquarters at the Auto Sales company on Shoshone street north. In the First ward up to noon only 10 votes had been cast. In the Second ward, however, balloting was lively, with 60 registered up to the noon whistle. There was a decided flurry after 12 o'clock at both places, the rush being occasioned by voters on the way to and from lunch. A. W. Mowbray is judge at the First ward polling place and William Grossman at the Second ward.

PAVING ENGINEER'S QUESTION PUTS COUNCIL IN A QUANDARY

W. L. Hoffedeitz Wants to Eliminate Raised Crossings with Covered Gutters — Saving of Nearly $10,000 Has Its Appeal, but Consideration is Given Mothers Pushing Baby Buggies

To do or not to do; that is the question. Whether it were better that women boost baby buggies over water-filled gutters, onto high curbs, or that the city obviate this sea of approaching trouble? And build up the crossings to level with curb. Save the women. The thousand shocks that flesh is heir to 'tis a communication. Devoutly to be wished.

By eliminating raised curbs at street crossings and letting water in those channels have free courseway. Falls as a municipality can save approximately $10,000 in paving improvement expense. The question with the municipality board is whether elevated crossings shall be made and the people the benefit of the dropless curbs at crossings. The question was raised at last night's council convention by W. L. Hoffedeitz, special paving engineer for Twin Falls, who recommended the elimination of raised crossings approaches with the narrow iron-covered gutters and water-courses. He submitted engineering figures and statistics to prove the contention that money could be saved and water would have freer course to run by the adoption of his plan. Hoffedeitz said that the people of his jurisdiction scheme. There proved to be so many sharp angles to the question that the council board, as represented last night, determined to hold the matter in abeyance pending a meeting of the streets and alleys committee with the engineers in charge. This meeting will be held this afternoon.

During the recommendation of Engineer Hoffedeitz the fact was developed that in many portions of the city, involved in planned paving improvement, much of the necessary work has already been done on the ground and contractors are prepared to start building curbing during the present week. The question of how crossings shall be constructed will be decided without extraordinary delay.

The weekly session of the city legislators was somewhat abbreviated, owing to the fact that the matter of importance had accumulated since the session of a week ago. Discussions were plenty, however, and covered a wide area of consideration. Most were concluded by the council's decision before any conclusion was reached, and in some instances there was no conclusion; in others a decision to "pass the buck" increased pay for firemen employed in the municipal fire-fighting department came up last night, as per schedule arranged a week ago. The chief of fire department, Chief Worrall, presented a petition at the former council gathering urging an increase in stipend. The matter was then laid over until such time as Chief Worrall could be brought into a meeting for a statement on the points involved. The chief presented himself last night and stated that he had been opposed to the presentation of the petition at this time because of the near approach to the fiscal year's end. He admitted that Twin Falls men were being paid less than Pocatello men, but he stated, however, that a year ago Boise was paying less than Twin Falls. Double systems, however, are in operation at those places. Mr. Worrall stated that he desired that permit the same length of time off duty as in. The matter was ordered held over pending an investigation of the rates and conditions in other towns of the state.

Chief Worrall's presence in the further discussion of the fire department equipment. Chief Worrall presented a petition for the purchase of a new fire engine. He recommended retention of the present engine in anticipation of need for city pumping, and suggested a new fire engine. Asked as to the contention of fire department workers that the bedding provided at the fire station sleeping quarters was not as good as that of Worrall stated that a year or so ago new blankets—the best obtainable in the city—had been purchased. He explained that the mattresses needed replacement.

Discussion of the merits of fire apparatus was given in charge of the finance committee to thresh out and reach a solution. Judge Davies, city attorney, called attention to the approaching trial of civil actions against the city for damages alleged to have been caused by the fire department last June. He asked authority to make excursions to Salt Lake and into the far south to seek and procure certain depositions, deemed necessary to the successful defense of the actions. No official action was taken last night, the consensus of opinion being that the depositions might be procured by mailed questionnaires handled through the authorized attorney at the point where the witnesses are at present located. The matter was laid over for one week. This case, five in number, are scheduled for trial late in April. The city engineer presented a plat of Schurger's sub-division No. 3 for adoption as a part of the city proper. Consideration of street and alley layout was presented on the drawing, and that Mr. Schurger's residence interferes with laying out one of the principal streets of the section to a 60-foot width. The residence project over the sidewalk survey on the plat was accepted with certain modifications requiring changes when the future requires. The city engineer also submitted a communication explaining that trunk line sewer No. 3 has been completed and is ready for service. Later in the session Mr. Berg proposed that the council accept deeds proffered by property owners in block 1, Jones addition, the deed covering property 20 feet in width for alley purpose, through the block. The alley is complete at a 20-foot width except at one end where an owner on one side has declined to donate his share. There is a 40-foot outlet at that end. The city administrators decided to accept all deeds submitted. The Eighth avenue street crossing property was also in for its share of discussion again. Engineer Berg explained that the canal company has advised water would be turned into the ditch Thursday. There remains about 200 feet of concreting to be done.

MILK BOTTLE MAY FALL KERTUNK ON SOMEBODY'S PATE

Policeman Graham Calls Attention of Danger from Window Sill Cooler Menace

Milk bottles hanging precariously on window sills above the heads of pedestrians must not hang.

That's all there is to it, so the city council has decided, and the police must see to it that orders are obeyed. The milk bottle menace abounds greatly in Twin Falls, according to R. A. Graham, city patrolman and traffic cop. Mr. Graham has complained to the administrators of the municipality that some of these days a milk bottle is going to fall from one of those improvised hanging coolers and hit a pedestrian. Mr. Graham said that he and there will be slow music while marchers keep rhythmic tread back of a black wagon.

Particular attention is directed to a custom involving mere carelessness of split-milk and disaster to walking folks practiced by third floor habitues of a commercial building on Main avenue south. Mr. Graham says the window sills are crowded with milk cans and such, and he fears for public safety. The council finds it is the duty of the "hobbies" to abate the menace if such be.

MURRAY'S DUTIES PILE UP; COUNCIL SUGGESTS RELIEF

Plumbing Inspector May Be Relieved of Some Responsibilities Immediately

Taking the stand that A. W. Murray, whose original official position with the city was that of plumbing inspector, and who now bears the burdens contingent upon the office of health man and milk law prosecutor, the city council last night determined to relieve the executive of some of his most burdensome and exacting obligations. He is to be relieved of the office of milk inspector.

Murray's manifold duties came in for forensic discussion following a request for help in the prosecution of his administrative labors. Mr. Murray had appealed for a deputy to carry on milk inspections, and even submitted the names of two candidates for office. One of these offered to take the position of assistant at salary of $150 per month, while another asked a flat salary of $5 for each day worked. Mr. Murray suggested that another man would provide an automobile at a fixed sum per month, but required that the city keep the car in fuel and lubricating oil and also in repairs.

Expense of operating the milk inspection department perplexed the council, one of whom expressed the thought that expense seemed out of proportion to the pecuniary returns from the department. It was after a forensic discussion of the question that the council decided to confer with Dr. W. Falcon, meat and milk department head, and procure from him a statement as to what help he will require to carry on the work of both sections.

Officially and Actually Spring Has Made Debut

Officially and actually spring is here. No longer does the folks worry, fret and stew about the failure of the robin to arrive and announce the annual season.

Spring's coming; and in advance of the noted and notable harbinger. As a matter of truth the big event was yesterday—definitely, for that was the vernal equinox, and the hours of day were as many as the hours of night.

Also—put this in your hat—the sun crossed the equator at 2:50 p. m. You may not have noticed the jump, but the crossing was made.

From this time on to the middle of summer the days will be longer than the nights. In addition Aurora Borealis did some dancing last night in commemoration of the equinoxial event, Aurora pulling a nocturnal soiree of sky-highlights that shed an effulgent radiance all over the north horizon.

This may have been missed by the majority of folks hereabouts, but it had Ruth St. Denis' concert dancers faded as a terpsichorean feature. Temperature tip yesterday was 52, and bottom last night 28.

Weather boss says fair tonight and tomorrow.

MASTER MASONS PROPOSE A CLUB

Members of Masonic Fraternity Plan Elaborately to Further Social Features

Attention of every Master Mason in Twin Falls is called to the general meeting of Masons to be held in the temple Saturday night at 7:30. The session is called by the committee on organization of a Masonic club, program on which has been made during the past three weeks.

Proposal to institute a club department for Masons was made several weeks ago by members of similar organizations from outside of Twin Falls. These proposals led to the selection of Harry M. Baratt, a member of the Salt Lake Masonic club, as directing genius of the organization effort. Sufficient progress is reported to warrant the assumption that the Twin Falls Masonic club is assured, and for the purpose of selecting permanent officers Saturday's general meeting has been called.

Club plans include the furnishing of an apartment sufficiently large to afford all necessary features of light amusement and recreation. It is the plan of the committee to lease temporary quarters within the coming month and to occupy those until such time as a sufficient area for club purposes is available at the regular Masonic temple. The club will have a complete Masonic library, reading and music room, together with a department for light exercises, games and baths. Space will be arranged for exhibitions of athletic prowess, lectures and dances, and it is also planned to have a section of the rights and privileges of the department apart for gymnasium purposes.

The Twin Falls Masonic club will be a part of the National League of Masonic clubs. Membership in the department will vest in members all ment in all cities where clubs are operated.

By public Masonic subscription the club will be founded here, one-half of the amount deemed necessary for establishment purposes having already been subscribed. Following Saturday's meeting an intensive canvass of members of the Masonic order will be made to put the club institution in a position insuring success. Every Master Mason is asked to attend the coming meeting.

RICHMOND: A SUICIDE IS FINDING OF JURY

Coroner's Panel Concludes that Newsdealer was Victim of His Own Act

At a coroner's inquest, conducted by P. J. Grossman in the Grossman undertaking establishment last night, a verdict of suicide while mentally unbalanced, was reached in the case of J. Richmond.

Richmond's body was found Sunday, after nine months, in a clump of willows on the bank of McMillen creek, 10 miles below Kimberly, a party of Twin Falls fishermen making the discovery. Richmond, who was about 62 years of age, disappeared from Twin Falls on June 22, 1919, leaving neither trace nor word. He had been engaged in newsdealing for some years here. Finding of the remains sets at rest all rumors that the man met death by drowning in the canal supplying the city with water.
