BETTER GUNNERY AIDS GERMANS IN JUTLAND BATTLE

Admiral Plunkett Makes Sensational Declaration in Testimony as to Need for Maintaining Navy Personnel

DEPARTMENT IS CHARGED WITH SUPPRESSING FACTS

Captain Taussig Says Secretary Daniels Disregarded Estimates of General Board in Making Report in 1914

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The Germans, by their superior gunnery, "turned the British on their head," at the battle of Jutland, Rear Admiral Plunkett declared today in a sensational committee investigating the navy's conduct of the war.

Admiral Plunkett was testifying as to the need for keeping the navy second at full strength, as once might be adequately trained. He did not go into details as to the Jutland battle and was asked no questions regarding it.

Charges Reports Concealed

Charges that the navy department took steps to prevent reports reaching the public regarding a shortage of personnel in the navy before the United States entered the war, were made before the committee by Captain James H. Taussig, who was on duty at the navy department prior to the war and later served on destroyers overseas, said Secretary Daniels.

FLETCHER TELLS OF DIFFICULTIES

Evidences of Friction at Breast Headquarters Come Out in Inquiry

WASHINGTON, (AP)—First evidences of friction at the headquarters of Rear Admiral Wm. B. Fletcher at Breast came with the arrival here of Captain Thomas E. Magruder, commandant of the fleet of American craft sent to that port, Admiral Fletcher testified today before the navy board of inquiry investigating the removal of the fleet from the coast by Rear Admiral Sims after the sinking of the transport Antilles in October, 1917.

On his arrival Captain Magruder showed great disinclination to shore service, Fletcher said. Subsequently, a letter from Sims said Magruder was to be retained at sea, but Fletcher said command suitable for an officer of his rank was available.

I. W. W. CHARGED WITH TAMPERING WITH VENIRE

Prosecuting Attorney at Seattle Investigates Activities of Radicals

SEATTLE, Wash., (AP)—Charges that industrial workers of the World are tampering with jury venires are being investigated by Prosecuting Attorney Fred C. Brown, it was announced today.

Some of the investigators, it was charged, were stars and represented themselves as being sent by the prosecuting attorney to find out what jury he would have to deal with. Several criminal syndicalism cases are to be heard in the superior court within the next few weeks.

EXCHANGE RATE ADVANCES

NEW YORK, (AP)—A brisk rally in sterling exchange at the opening of the market here today sent demand bills up to 83 1/2 and 3 1/4 cents above the high mark of yesterday and a new high in the present upward movement. The low record is 3.19, made February 4. In the afternoon demand sterling advanced to 3.04 1/4. This, the highest quotation since last December, represents an advance of 16 cents in one week and 28 cents in two weeks. If this rate of increase should continue, sterling would be at its normal figure in about two months.

Missionary Dies in Defense of Women

PEKING, (AP)—The death of J. R. Menzie, a Presbyterian missionary of Toronto, Ont., who was killed by robbers at Hanking, Honan, China, occurred yesterday. He was defending the women's quarters in the mission from an attack by a large band. Menzie, answering calls for help, grappled with one of the robbers who was attempting to force an entrance, whereupon the others fired a volley, killing the missionary and the robber.

HOOVER GIVES HIS VIEWS ON BIG BUSINESS

Declares Proportions of Commodity Handled by Corporation Rather than Its Size Should Determine Regulation

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Proportions of a commodity handled by a corporation rather than the concern's size or capital should determine government regulation, Herbert Hoover said in a letter to Representative Anderson of Minnesota, read today by the agriculture committee in connection with hearings on legislation for the control of the meat packing industry.

Makes For Free Play

"When businesses grow to an extent that they can control the handling of more than a certain percentage of a given commodity," said Mr. Hoover's letter, "they then become dangerous to the public interest and it upon the growth beyond that point they were placed under stiff regulation as to profits and other features of their business, the natural tendency of such businesses generally is to hold themselves below the official limit. Such a plan of licensing would leave free play of all competitors of moderate size."

The experience of the food administration, the letter added, showed the very great difficulty of licensing all members of a given trade, big and little, because the degree of regulation imposed of any character upon the big members of a trade may work great hardship upon the little ones, and under some conditions, may stimulate the growth of monopoly. For instance, we found in the packing trade that if we regulated the big packers down to a point of profits that would seem entirely reasonable, we would probably crush out many of the small packers, and get just the reverse social result that we had hoped to obtain.

Calls It Thorny Subject

"On the plan above suggested, the secondary concerns in a given industry would have entirely free action, and could themselves probably compete better by association," he announced here by the Great Western Sugar Refining company in a period of four days. The California-Hawaiian Sugar Refining company announced on March 24 it would not change its tariffs for at least three weeks.

World News Events

NAPLES, (AP)—The chamber of labor yesterday decided to call a twenty-four hour general strike as a protest against the measures adopted by the police and military to put down the strike in the iron works. During the disorders incident to the strike a dozen workmen were wounded and one hundred were arrested.

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Circulars urging measures to prevent emigration of Mexican workers to the United States were sent to all administrations yesterday by the interior department. It is pointed out that many Mexicans are in a miserable plight in southern states, where they can find no work. It is also said that unrestricted emigration endangers Mexican agriculture and industry.

LONDON, (AP)—The lord mayor of Dublin has applied to the authorities to furnish police to protect the mansion house, according to a dispatch to the Central News from Dublin. Mayor O'Neill's request, it is reported, was due to the fact that the mayors of Limerick and some other towns had received threatening letters such as the one said to have been sent to the lord mayor of Cork, Thomas Mac-Curtain, before he was shot.

NEGOTIATING BUILDERS' WAGE SCALE AT SPOKANE

Unions and Employers Association Near Agreement Except in Cases of Carpenter

SPOKANE, Wash., (AP)—Wage negotiations between building trades unions of the city and the Master Builders' association, the contractors' organization, practically reached a satisfactory conclusion at a conference last night, according to announcement of representatives of both sides, except in the case of carpenters and building laborers. In the case of these two crafts, 29 cents a day was said to separate the two sides, the men having asked for $1 a day increase and the contractors having offered half that amount. The matter was referred to local unions for consideration tonight.

SUSPENSION OF ILLINOIS COAL MINES FORECAST

Mine Workers State Executive Declares Cessation of Work at Least Temporarily, is Unavoidable

PEORIA, Ill., (AP)—"There will undoubtedly be a suspension of work in the coal mines of Illinois April 1," Frank Farrington, president of the United Mine Workers of Illinois, said today.

"Understand, it will not be a strike," he said, "but an unavoidable suspension of work. It may be for a short time or a long time. Our agreement expires at midnight March 31. I believe it will be impossible to keep the men at work after that time."

"It is possible, of course, that some sort of an agreement will be reached at the meeting in New York Monday to keep the mines running, but at that early suspension of work will occur."

OPERATORS UNLIKELY TO OPPOSE REFORM PROVISIONS

ST. LOUIS, (AP)—No opposition to the majority report of the coal commission, which grants miners a wage increase of 13 per cent, in addition to the last advance of 14 per cent, is expected, according to the operators, Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the coal operators' scale committee in the central competitive field asserted last night.

The operators' committee will meet in New York Monday to discuss the report and following the meeting will confer with the miners' scale committee in an effort to end the coal controversy as requested by President Wilson.

PROBES PACIFIC COAST SUGAR PRICE ADVANCES

Federal Attorney Collects Evidence on Deals of Refiners and Jobbers

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Announcement that he hoped to present evidence to the federal grand jury next week, possibly on Tuesday, in relation to recent advances in the price of sugar by refiners, which serve the whole Pacific coast from this city, with a view to determining if the Lever food control act has been violated, was made here today by Ben Guiss, acting United States district attorney.

Recent sugar transactions of both the refiners and the jobbers are to be investigated thoroughly, Guiss said. The investigation was announced here by the Great Western Sugar Refining company in a period of four days. The California-Hawaiian Sugar Refining company announced on March 24 it would not change its tariffs for at least three weeks.

CAMPAIGN OF DESTRUCTION IS SPARTACAN ALTERNATIVE

Failure to Capture Wesel to Be Workers' Signal for Despoiling of Western Germany

GOVERNMENT TROOPS IN POSSESSION OF STRONGHOLD AFTER DAY'S BATTLE

LONDON, (AP)—Workers forces entrenched along the Lippe river, threaten, if they fail to capture Wesel, to destroy all factories and mines in western Germany, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company filed in Berlin this morning. The Reds have established great headquarters similar to that of the old German army.

ENTENTE DELAYS DECISION UPON RUHR SITUATION

Request for German Troops to Enter Zone of Occupation or Neutral Area is Neither Given Nor Refused

PARIS, (AP)—The allies have not as yet given or refused permission for German regular troops to enter the allied zone of occupation or the neutral zone to the east established by the treaty of Versailles, according to semi-official information today in Paris. According to the same source, there is no further question of interallied intervention in the Ruhr district.

FOUR PERSONS DIE IN SNOWSLIDE AT BINGHAM

Family is Wiped Out Under Avalanche in Utah Copper Mining Settlement

SALT LAKE CITY, (AP)—Four people, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Parr and their two sons, Harold, aged 14 and Earl, aged 3, were killed early this morning when their family was buried under a snowslide at Bingham, Utah.

The Bingham snow has been falling continually since early last night and transportation today was considerably hampered. At 10 o'clock the local weather bureau forecasters declared the fall general throughout the state and said it was likely to continue throughout the day. In Salt Lake city proper the fall at 10 o'clock today was estimated at one foot.

ALLEN CRITICISES WAR EXPENSE OF GOVERNMENT

LANSING, Mich., (AP)—Governmental expenses during and after the war were described by Governor Henry J. Allen of Kansas in an address here last night as a "carnival of extravagance which was accompanied by no effort to obtain for the government an honest return."

The governor touched upon the expenditure of $150,000,000 on port terminals at Charleston, S. C., Norfolk, Va., and other places, "from which not a ship sailed during the war," and mentioned a number of other government projects.

He asserted the history of the expenditures "when fully recorded" will be "the most shocking revelation of mismanagement and deliberate waste that has ever been recorded in the people back into the channels of typical American endeavor."

ORGANIZING HOOVER CLUB

SEATTLE, Wash., (AP)—Bishop Frederick W. Keator, of the Episcopal diocese of Olympia, will be the principal speaker at a meeting here today called for the purpose of organizing a "Hoover for president" club. Charles F. Riddell, former United States district attorney here, will preside.

BAUER CABINET MINISTERS HAND IN RESIGNATION

Inter-Party Deliberations Looking to Reorganization of German Government Prove to Be Without Avail

WIDE BREACH DEVELOPS OVER QUESTION OF NOSKE

Berlin Party Leaders Declare Men from Stuttgart Have Too Roseate Idea of Labor Situation in Capital

BERLIN, (AP)—Dr. Hermann Mueller, foreign minister in the Bauer cabinet, has been requested to form a new cabinet. It was unofficially reported today.

PARIS, (AP) (Havas)—The German cabinet headed by Franz von Papen, has received a message from Berlin today.

BERLIN, (AP)—Inter party deliberations looking to the reorganization of the German government had been fruitless up until 7 o'clock Thursday evening. Unexpected attacks on Vice President Brüning, increased discussion in the wing of the socialist party led by Philipp Scheidemann, former chancellor, featured the day.

A wide gap developed between the Berlin cabinet and the right socialists and the party's representatives who had supported Gustav Noske, former minister of defense, at Stuttgart. Party leaders here increased discussion in the wing of the socialist party led by Philipp Scheidemann, former chancellor, featured the day.

CAPTURE ALLEGED STORE BANDIT IN MOTOR RACE

San Francisco Police Automobile Runs Down Another Car Carrying Fugitives

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Following a wild pursuit of three miles through thickly populated sections of the city in the early morning hours, during which a police car was fired at and each car, a police automobile ran down another car alleged to have been occupied by three store bandits, and the chase ended in the arrest of Fred E. Wootton, charged with kidnapping of Andrew Ashley, under arrest. The other two escaped in the darkness. A complete safe cracking outfit was found in the tool box of the pursued car.

Shortly after midnight a woman telephoned that she had seen three men break into a tailoring shop and load a sack of goods on a pack mule. The chase followed, both cars going over long stretches of street at break-neck speed and revolvers continually popping. Ashley said he lived in Sacramento.

POINTS OUT ACTIVITIES OF I. W. W. IN ARIZONA SITUATION

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., (AP)—The miners' strike in the Warren mining district began June 26, 1917, and in force with the deportations of I. W. W. alleged to have occurred, was called by the Metal Mine Workers' union, an I. W. W. organization, Fred W. Brown, prosecution witness in the trial of Elizabeth C. Stanton, charged with kidnapping in connection with the deportations, testified here today.

ALLEGES BOLSHEVIK BACKING OF SPARTACAN MOVEMENT IN GERMANY

ROTTERDAM, (AP)—The Spartacan movement in the Rhine provinces has long been organized with the co-operation of Russian aid and the offensive against Poland, with the joint object of the Spartacan movement in the winter of war, would be at the gates of Berlin at the beginning of July, according to a Munster dispatch to the Courant, Russian red army officers, and Wesel, the correspondent, are already directing the German Spartacans, whose army is being rapidly organized and armed on the exact model of Trotsky's. The revolution was originally planned for May first, but the leaders believed that the Kapp government gave them an opportunity to hasten their plans, which included the capture of Munster and Wesel.

According to the Telegraf, the Dutch government is taking care to prevent red activity. LONDON, (AP)—The Munster Anzeiger gives further details of the plan for a Spartacan movement in the Rhine provinces on May 1, according to a Rotterdam dispatch to the London Times. It says that a conference attended by three Russian officers decided on March 13 that the time had arrived to start a red mobilization in Germany which had been planned for the winter. The details of the march on Munster. Wesel also was to be taken and a strong red army was to guard the Rhine. The program was carried out in more or less accordance with schedule.

KIDNAPED BOY RETURNS HOME

Twelve Year Old Son of Kentucky Capitalist Makes His Whereabouts Known

LEXINGTON, Ky., (AP)—Paul Little, 12-year-old son of E. R. Little, Lexington capitalist, who has been held for ransom by kidnapers, was found this morning locked in a room at a hotel here.

Mrs. Little first learned the whereabouts of their son when he telephoned his home from the hotel room. He said he had been kept a prisoner there for a week or eight days. Investigation disclosed that the room had been reserved in advance by a man registered as J. C. Cox of Cincinnati.

The boy disappeared Wednesday afternoon when playmates said he had been in conversation with a man. They said they had been given a dollar to deliver a box of candy. Soon afterward the father received a note stating that his son, Paul, was being held for ransom. Little indicated that the amount asked for was $25,000. He declared he would abide by the kidnapper's demands, that he did not mind paying the money and only wanted the safe return of his son.

At 7:30 o'clock last night, Little deposited a package containing the ransom money in a Main street garbage can. When he returned a half hour later, the package remained intact. Believing the kidnapper failed to show up for fear of being "double-crossed," Little pocketed the money.

At 7 o'clock this morning the key for the room in which the boy was found was turned in at the hotel desk. At 7:15 Mrs. Little was called to the telephone and heard her son's voice. Nothing has been heard of Mr. Cox, since he left the hotel at 7 o'clock.

Extend Search for Servants to Europe

SPOKANE, Wash., (AP)—To relieve the shortage of domestic servants in this city which it is declared is acute, local business men are planning the organization of an association to bring 250 young women from Europe according to announcement by C. E. Cadin, president of a large industrial concern here.

"It is our plan to send a responsible woman as our representative to select these girls, act as our agent in booking their passage and chaperone them on their trip," he said. "We will pay their passage and all expenses.

"The girls will sign no contracts to work until they arrive in Spokane and look over the situation for themselves."

To give the plan official standing, the consent of the families of the girls employed, the approval of the mayor and city council will be asked, Mr. Cadin stated.

PAGANT POSTPONED.

Telegrams received this morning by the Rev. A. G. Bennett announce the postponement of the missionary pagant which was to have been presented at this evening at the First Methodist church. The missionaries who have been staging the pagant, Messrs. E. G. Osborne and E. E. Herman, have both been taken ill in Gooding and have cancelled all engagements.

High School News

Honoring the members of Twin Falls' winning basketball team, a dance is to be given this evening at Cotton hall. High school students and members of the faculty will be present.

Some 40 members of the H-Y club entertained themselves at a sing social last night at the high school. A feature of the program was a boxing match between Victor Strobeck and Theodore Schwarz. Refreshments and a general social time followed the program.

Ogretta Murray and Ida Hogg, Twin Falls declaimers, accompanied by Miss Ida Brown of the public speaking department, left this morning for Burley where the two speakers will participate in the district declamatory contest tonight.

The average grade of 82 has been set by the student council as one of the requirements for admission of students on the council.

Choice of a play for class presentation toward the end of school this spring will soon be made by the seniors. Several comedy-dramas are now under consideration.

Chameleons' Food.
The proper diet of chameleons and lizards consists of flies and other insects; also meal worms, and the common idea that sugar and water will serve in winter is incorrect. A good many of these animals refuse food in the winter months and all of them need warmth and sunshine, as well as water. They are difficult to keep in health, and if not given their natural food will starve to death in time, though their ability to fast for long periods is well known.

Perhaps This is Worth Trying.
Should a child grow up bad in China the parents are said to have forgotten to bind its wrists—aluding thereby to a superstition that if a red cord is tied around an infant's wrists it cannot fall to grow up quiet and obedient.

VETERAN GRAYS CALM IN BLAZE

Rebel Yell Sounds Alarm of Fire that Destroys Confederate Home

LOUISVILLE, Ky., (AP)—A rebel battle yell sounded throughout the Confederate home at Pewee valley, Kentucky, 15 miles from Louisville, at 6 o'clock last night, as the first alarm of a fire that three hours later had destroyed the institution.

Commanded by Sergeant Gus Head, who during the civil war was the keeper of John Morgan's mount, the one hundred veterans of the home able to walk filed from the building with precision similar to that which made the army of the confederacy famous. Calmly the hundred grays marched to the hospital building, made litter of the cars and carried fifty invalid comrades to the little stone church nearby.

After Sergeant Head, in terse manance had called the roll, the men sat cross-legged upon the grass and with typical southern stolidism, waited until the smoldering ruins resembled but a bivouac of days gone by, then traded slowly to the little church, spread their blankets and slept.

PASS DIVIDEND BECAUSE OF LABOR DISTURBANCES

Tonopah Mining Company Declares Inability to Disburse Stockholders Checks

PHILADELPHIA, (AP)—The Tonopah Mining company of Nevada, a Philadelphia corporation, announced today that the directors had decided to pass the dividend usually paid at this time.

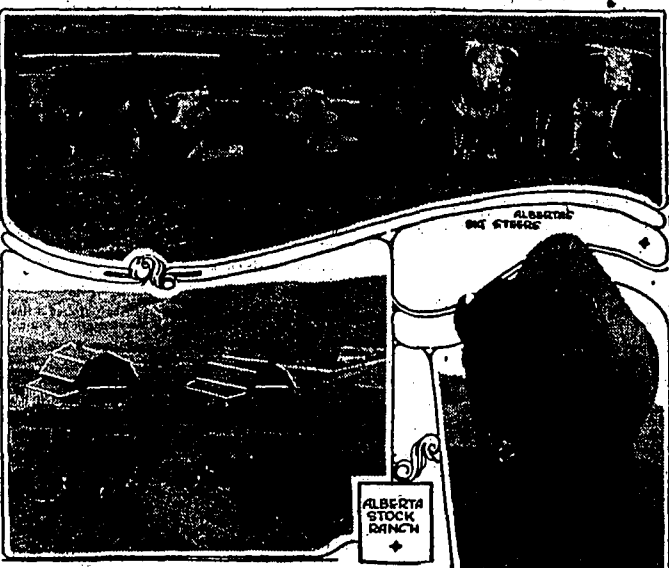

Six months ago the company paid a dividend of 15 per cent or 15 cents a share.

The president announced recently that due to labor troubles the earnings in the last five months were only $10,340. In the nineteen years of its existence the company has paid fourteen millions in dividends on a capitalization of $1,000,000.

Mrs. Cooley says she cannot speak too highly in praise of this remedy.—adv.

BEEF CATTLE FATTEN WHERE BUFFALO ROAMED THE PRAIRIE

The American Bison, or buffalo, disappeared from the plains of Alberta in western Canada many years ago, but the same fertile area which once fed and fattened millions of these shaggy beasts now feeds and fattens for the world's market vast herds of pure bred and grade steers. Alberta breeders are justly proud of their cattle and overlook no opportunity to show the live stock world what they are producing.

Recently thirteen of them donated thirteen calves, mostly pure breeds, to the Department of Animal Husbandry of the University of Alberta for show purposes at exhibitions, and ultimately for exhibition at the International Live Stock Show, Chicago. Experts representing Prof. A. A. Dowell, the department's chief, spent three months in visiting twenty-four herds and from them culled the very choicest from the standpoint of uniformity, quality and size. Grades were not discarded, but pure breeds were preferred for the reason that in selecting young calves breeding must be given much emphasis. Each of these thirteen calves was assigned a nurse cow, and all are now putting on 100 pounds of expensive beefsteak per month.

The University of Alberta has them on exhibition at its stables constantly, and over each stall is a placard giving the name of the breeder and the pedigree of the animal. Next fall two or three animals of each breed will put on their very best company manners and appearance and take a little outing to Chicago to show the experts at the International Live Stock Show what the classiest Alberta steers look like when they get to the penterhouse and filet mignon state of perfection.

While devoting her main energies to the breeding of fine cattle, Canada has not forgotten her old first citizen of the live stock world, the plain bison. A splendid herd is viewed by thousands of tourists each year at Banff, in the Canadian Pacific Rockies. In the same province of Alberta is a herd of cattalo, a cross of buffalo with domestic cattle. The cattalo has great beef and robe producing possibilities because the buffalo has one more rib on each side than ordinary cattle and a much thicker back.

THEY HOLD TITLE

SPOKANE, Wash., (AP)—Ted Thye, claimant of the middleweight wrestling championship of the United States, defeated Charles Rentrop, claimant of the European title, in two straight falls here last night. The first fall was gained in one hour and 37.2 minutes with a toe hold, and the second in 11 minutes with a toe hold and cradle lock.

MASON HAS HEADS

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., (AP)—Frankie Mason, flyweight champion of America, shaded Solly Epstein of Indianapolis in their 10-round no-decision fight here last night, in the opinion of newspaper critics at the ringside. Both fighters put up a fast contest, and aside from a slight cut over Mason's right eye, were going strong at the finish.

Bit of Ancient History

According to old Anglo-Saxon chronicles Edward the Confessor made a verbal will. On January 3, 1066, he recovered his power of speech and laid with those around him, among whom were the queen, the archbishop of York, archbishop of Canterbury and Harold and Tostig, his nephews. He prophesied the Norman invasion and then, stretching out his hand, bequeathed the crown to Harold. This act was ratified by the ancient British parliament and Harold was crowned the next day.—Exchange.

Lincoln's Little Joke

Once in his law days while Lincoln was in Chicago trying a suit, his wife had the roof taken off their house to make the house higher. On Lincoln's return he manifested great surprise and asked a passerby, "Stranger, can you tell me where Lincoln lives?" Receiving the desired information, he then gravely entered the domicile.

Bees Do Not Sting Skunks

That skunks will eat bees is the testimony of E. L. Denalow of Coates town township. He came upon one in the act of moving his hives enough to bring out the bees, and when they came out the skunk ate them. Denalow fired at the animal but missed. Later the skunk came back and repeated the performance, again getting away.

Dogs in Warfare

Alfreds are described as one of the best breeds of war dogs. When the Alfrede detects the foe he makes no fuss; he merely makes a low growl and stiffens his body—hints sufficient for the human sentinel, who immediately puts his dumb friend's advice to good account.

Department of Labor Conciliator to Lead Aid Toward Tie-Up Adjustment

BUTTE, Mont., (AP)—Thomas Barber of Los Angeles, Cal., commissioner of conciliation, United States department of labor, arrived in Butte this afternoon as a direct representative of the United States government to lend the tie-up in the local building industry which has continued for 8 weeks. He has made no arrangements for any conference.

Mr. Barber's fifth visit to Butte. He was here twice in 1918 and was also here during the metal trades strike.

"Like every American," Mr. Barber said today in a statement, "I hope for industrial peace. We are only starting in the period of reconstruction for our country needs industrial peace and I feel satisfied that if common sense and good citizenship prevail there is no problem that cannot be solved."

Washington Senator Opens Campaign in Michigan with Attack on Administration Policies

KALAMAZOO, Mich., (AP)—Senator Miles PoinDEXTER of Washington opened his campaign here yesterday for the support of the Michigan delegation for the presidential nomination at the republican convention with an attack upon the administration in dealing with domestic problems.

"While these vital problems await solution," he said, "the administration continues to center its attention on the issues unopposed in Jugo-Slavia, and other nations in which we are not directly concerned. What we must do is to bring the attention of the government home and center it on our own affairs."

The senator opposed assumption by the United States of a mandate over any European or Asiatic territory.

Imitation of Precious Stones. The opal is more difficult to imitate than is the diamond. But from artificial corundum, stained with chrome alum, red rubies can be made, and very cheaply. If the coloring agent is titanium oxide, the product becomes a genuine artificial sapphire.

Social Notes

Mrs. A. L. Stone entertained the Entro Nous club yesterday. Bridge was played, Mrs. B. A. Hiltner winning the honor. A delicious silver buffet and a dainty two-course luncheon was served to the nine members present.

Mrs. C. H. Stinson entertained the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist yesterday afternoon at her home on Second avenue north. Mrs. J. M. Wall had charge of the lesson topic, which was on the work of the missionaries in Africa.

Mrs. William O. Taylor entertained at a musical tea yesterday afternoon honoring her daughter, Miss Susan, a bride of the coming month. During the afternoon Hamilton Park, of Salt Lake City, a delightful baritone, gave a number of vocal selections. Mrs. Taylor and Miss Susan also gave a number of songs. Miss Julia Taylor accompanying. The tea table was charming with decorations of small bohemian bowls of violets and jonquils, and violet tapers in silver candlesticks. Mrs. T. O. Boyd presided at the tea table. The guest list included Mesdames Frank Engel, J. D. McLean, Homer Craven, John Graham, G. E. Sprague, M. J. Swallow, J. L. McLo, L. C. Huron, R. E. Morse, H. W. Wilson, T. O. Boyd, R. H. Stevenson, E. L. Macdunn, D. D. Alvord, W. H. Greenhow, H. H. Schildman, F. W. A. J. Povey, R. S. Passer, and C. B. Channell.

The ladies of the Twentieth Century club will serve refreshments in the Parish hall tomorrow afternoon during the card party and will be glad to have all ladies who do not care for cards and would like to assist in the club house food come in.

Mrs. T. E. Schwartz entertained the Episcopal Guild yesterday. A short business session was held, followed by a program on the work of Christian Americanization from the standpoint of the Episcopal church, and was in charge of Mrs. Chester S. Child. Dainty refreshments were served.

Today's Markets

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Strength developed in corn today owing to lack of any confirmation of rumors that the 200,000 bushel limit on trading was about to be put into force again. Opening prices, which ranged from 1.40 decline to a like advance, with May $1.83 1/8 to $1.84 1/8 and July $1.48 1/4 to $1.48 3/4, were followed by substantial gains all around.

Subsequently export demand for the wheat and rye helped to rally the corn market after setbacks due to liquidation by small holders. The close was nervous, 1 1/4 to 2 7/8 not higher with May $1.56 1/8 to 1.56 3/8 and July $1.50 1/4 to 1.50 5/8.

After opening a shade off to 3-8c up, including July at 78 1/2c to 78 3/4c, the market scored a moderate general advance.

Lead and tin reflected a rise in sterling and the strength of grain.

SATURDAY'S AUCTION EVENT OF INTEREST

Considerable speculation has developed over the auction sale of the Corbett lot facing the postoffice. This unique way of disposing of a city lot is now to this section, but is quite general in the middle west for a year or so. This valuable lot should appeal to the investor, having an unique position of being directly across from the postoffice, giving a business a powerful advantage in advertising a business.

The question has been asked by many what price the lot would bring. Considering the fact that a near-by lot recently sold for $15,000, no doubt this piece of property will share in proportion. The sale will be conducted by Auctioneer Lue at 4 o'clock Saturday at the property.—adv.

LET ON PHASE MAKING

Maynard Keynes's making of Economic Consequences of the Peace... may leave one silenced and unconvinced, or may provide to back arguments against the peace.

es speaks from knowledge gained hand at the peace conference... undoubtedly has caused more than any other treatise on the subject published, and it is worth every where the tone of the article breeds furious resentment, to for the descriptions of the men on.

His walk, his head, his voice not lacking in vigor, but his eyes, his expression, especially his attempt upon his life, the air of a very old man concerning strength for important occasions.

He spoke boldly, leaving the impression of the French case as a minister; he closed his eyes and set back in his chair with oppressive face of parchment, his gloved hands clasped in front of him, looking with a certain security of France was forward toward in his grey frock, an ornate chair, dry in soul and of hope, very old and tired, and the scene was a study in almost English air."

his portrayal of President Wilson interesting if not complimentary.

The first glance at President Wilson suggested not only that the man might be his best friend, but that he was not much over that culture he world which marks M. Clemenceau as Mr. Halfour. But more than this, he was not only sensitive to his surroundings in external sense, he was not sensitive to his environment at all.

at which could such a man have that Mr. Lloyd George's manner, almost medium like sensibility to everyone immediately around him.

The President was like a comfortable million. His comment and thought were essentially theological and intellectual, and all the strength and the weakness of that manner of thought, being and expression. But in fact President had thought-out nothing when it came to practice his was more nebulous and incomplete.

had no plan, no scheme, no concrete ideas whatever for the dealing with the flesh of life the commitments which he thundered in the White House. He could preach a sermon on the any of a few of these things after the Almighty for the fulfillment, but he could not frame their concrete application to the actual life of Europe."

picture of Lloyd George is of a man with but a meagre foundation of information, which charge is also made by the President, but with an exuberant agile mind. He writes:

"To see the British Prime Minister, watching the company with or severe accents not available to ordinary men, judging character, intuitive and subconscious impulses, guessing what each was thinking and each was going to do next, and expounded with (debatable) the argument or appeal about the vanity, weaknesses or self-interest of his immediate neighbor, and to realize that the poor President would be playing blind man's bluff in that party."

GEORGINA BUZZ ARMOUK

Joe J. Greens, United States congressman from North Dakota, has had acquaintance with the Associated Press and in it is Greens that has come out the encounter second best.

celebrating yesterday on the floor of the senate that "perhaps it would be well to have a few funerals" to end the misrepresentations he alleged referred to his war record, Gronna charging that the Associated Press during the war had sent out a dispatch "charging me with voting against the appropriation of $400,000,000," provided in one of the war bills.

The bill referred to is the first aviation appropriation bill. The Associated Press dispatches of July 21, 1917, the day the bill was passed in the senate, stated that the bill was passed "without amendment or a record vote."

The same dispatches, however, chronicled the fact that Senator Gronna was one of twelve senators voting to insert an amendment by Senator Hardwick of Georgia, prohibiting the drafting of men for the aviation service. The amendment was defeated 66 to 18.

The facts as stated in the Associated Press dispatches agree with the official report of the senate proceedings as given in the congressional record for that day. The record also shows that during the debate on that day Senator Gronna made another attack on the Associated Press charging misrepresentation of its attitude.

In view of undisputable records bearing on Gronna's war records in particular, it would seem that the subject is one which good sense on his part would prompt him to leave severely alone.

His latter outburst serves just two purposes. It calls public attention back to the part he played during the war; and it vindicates the enviable reputation for accuracy of the Associated Press.

Codfish Had Swallowed Watch.

The fishing smack Hooedengast, Captain Skidmore of Essex, Conn., had, among several interesting marine relics, a lady's gold watch taken from the stomach of a codfish near the reef off Nantucket, Mass. The timepiece is marked on the interior of the case, "George, No. 5722 London, England," with no date. It is in a perfect state of preservation, with the hands marking 12:15 o'clock.—The New England Fisherman.

Here's Ears Better Than its Eyes.

Although the hare has beautifully large and prominent eyes, devoid of eyelashes, and adjusted so that it can see backward and forward, they are not good eyes. Perhaps for this reason it keeps a great part of the time and always with its eyes open. There is some compensation for poor eyes, however, in the fact that its hearing is extremely keen.

Solitudes of the Earth.

The Bushmanland desert, in southwest Africa, is but little known. A few nomads—some of European and some of mixed descent—hang on its fringe. Here and there nomads of the large, whose dwellers depend on the sparse bounty of the sky, will perhaps be found for a season. Otherwise it is a barren desert of 50,000 square miles.

You can sell that lot or plot of ground—at a small advertising cost—through the classified.

EMPLOYERS' ASSOCIATION

THE SITUATION IN TWIN FALLS

The industrial conditions in Twin Falls at the present time are practically normal as compared to conditions in the city in recent years. There is an acute demand for skilled mechanics in the Building Trades at present. Has there not been the same unsatisfied demand for the past three years? As long as the labor unions refuse to allow apprentices to learn the trade except under union restrictions that shortage will continue to exist.

There is Labor Trouble in Twin Falls

HOW LONG has it been since we were FREE FROM LABOR TROUBLE in Twin Falls? All of LAST YEAR under the domination of the CLOSED SHOP strikes and walkouts were of almost weekly occurrence, and the year before conditions were practically as bad; and the year before that. If Twin Falls HAD NO LABOR TROUBLE the situation would be abnormal and unusual.

Who Is to Blame?

Last year there was no Employers' Association in Twin Falls and yet industrial conditions were such that both the INDUSTRIOUS WORKERS and the BUSY EMPLOYERS were DISGUSTED with lost time occasioned over strikes and walkouts. There was no Employers' Association the previous year and the conditions were just as unstable.

What About This Year

There is a strike on in Twin Falls now, certainly. But here is the difference. LAST YEAR where there was a strike, everything stopped until the matter was adjusted to the satisfaction of the unions. THIS YEAR there is a strike on, but NOTHING IS STOPPED. The lumber yards are selling lumber, the merchants are selling hardware, ALL business is going along AS USUAL.

Do You Get the Point?

Mr. Citizen of Twin Falls, DO YOU SEE THE DIFFERENCE? The city is NOT PARALYZED. We are DOING BUSINESS at the old stand. The radicals and agitators are emigrating and the conservative union men and the conservative citizen bid them God-speed. Twin Falls IS PROSPERING NOW and we are not going to have conditions as they were LAST YEAR.

HOUSING TEAMS TOUGH PROBLEM FOR MAGNATES

Cases of Major League Clubs
Have Difficult Task Finding Players Homes

By I. H. SANBORN

CHICAGO. (Special)—Housing the precious athletes is one of the stiffest problems baseball club owners of all degrees have to face this year. It was a tough one last year, and promises to get worse for some time to come. In the major cities at least.

When the thousands of compulsory denizens of a city have extreme difficulty obtaining living quarters even on long term leases, what chance does a transient athlete stand for getting a flat or a place to sleep for the six months of a baseball season? This is one of the elements of the salary problem.

Pack Quarters Not Practical

From a minor league source has come the suggestion to provide living quarters for the players in the back yards by utilizing some of the waste space of the various plants. There is no doubt every plant of the kind contains plenty of space which could be devoted to such purposes, but the idea merely lends itself to the jokemith, so utterly lacking is it in the elements of practicability.

Imagine a bunch of temperamental athletes to reside in the baseball park at Kansas City or at Cincinnati, for instance. These plants are located in hollow streets, and during stray zephyr can penetrate during warm weather, and those two towns certainly have their share of the superheated humidity the city's surest known antidote for athletic peevishness.

Here's a Question

There is plenty of room in the cavernous region beneath the grandstands of any modern baseball plant to provide two, three or four room "flats" enough to furnish housekeeping quarters for not only the players on the home team but for the visiting athletes as well. But would any respectable player with an income of $15,000 per six months consent to live in a "basement flat" when a mere janitor whose income is only $10,000 per six months refuses to accept such quarters free of rent?

In the heated spell it is about all the athletes will stand for to do his angles and change back to citizenship in the morning and after a game in the clubhouse now provided for that purpose at the grounds. The concrete slabs collect the heat from the ambient cavernous region and retain it as the miser user to hoard his shekels before the war had made him a spendthrift.

Disaster in This Idea

It might save the club owners a lot of trouble and worry in one way if they would purchase apartment buildings, furnish them, and rent flat at cost to their players during the season. That would be a more practical idea, and in the event one could not it would not be difficult to make said apartments produce revenues the year round. But the result of corraling all the players of one team and their families under one roof for a period of six months would be disastrous.

Ninety per cent of the dissensions and disorganization in baseball in the last half century have been, or could have been, traced back to the female of the species. Jealousies among the wives of ball players are the handicaps which cannot be overcome by any known method, except by separating the combatants, and that has been the underlying reason for many a trade of players which has puzzled the public and some of the experts in the past.

Something Must Be Done

That something has to be done, however, is admitted, for the situation promises to grow worse before it is better. The shortage of housing is nationwide so far as cities large enough to maintain a professional team are concerned.

It was a frazzled life last year for the traveling secretary of a ball team to obtain hotel and Pullman accommodations for the players belonging to his entourage. More than once the athletes would arrive at a hotel in the morning and have to wait until evening for the rooms that were reserved months ahead.

It may be the best solution will be buying or erecting exclusively baseball apartments or hotels in the major cities.

Lumberjack's Appetite.
We heard some time ago that the managers of the lumber camps had decided to refuse free feeds to the ravenous lumberjacks, drifting from camp to camp, but not till we saw a lumberjack eat did we understand the fine impulse that led to the decision. After eating his fill, if one of the fellows should try to push his way down a logging road, he would get stuck between the trees and probably stay there until he starved.—Detroit News.

"Nolesse Oblige.
The new social order demands that those who have the highest talents, the greatest mental endowment, devote them to those who are less fortunate, in service that will elevate and ennoble those with whom we live.

Turkish Antiques.
There is a law in the Turkish empire prohibiting the exportation of relics and antiques more than a hundred years old. Real objects of art of sufficient age to be of value are rarely to be purchased.

DRESS WARM AND KEEP FEET DRY

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Take Salts and Get Rid of Uric Acid

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. It not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

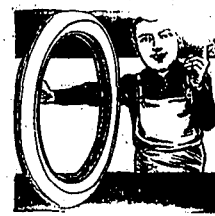

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from mite acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.—adv.

Holds Picture Nail Solid.
When a wall is so soft that it will not hold a picture nail, mix a little plaster of paris in a tawcup; enlarge the hole to a fair size and insert the plaster—and, a minute after, the nail—and let it dry. The nail will be perfectly secure after it has dried.

Interest Unchanged in 200 Years.

LOYD GEORGE IS BRITIC'S TARGET

Former Premier of France Charges His Country Left Alone Facing Germany

PARIS, (AP)—A bitter attack upon Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain was delivered in the chamber of deputies yesterday afternoon by Jean Barthelemy, the former premier, in a speech with the discussion of the new foreign policy of which he is given notice.

Barthelemy declared that the British premier was in agreement with allies in the sending of stores to Germany and that he had been literally benefited in England from vigorous policy toward Germany.

Barthelemy added "when the stern notes were sent to Germany they bore the signatures of Clemenceau or Millerand, while when concessions were allowed Germany notes were signed by Mr. Lloyd George. France is left alone facing Germany, as the country which has been obliged to prepare her revenge."

"France is not a military dictatorship. There is no military dictatorship in France. She gives no commands to the world."

Barthelemy advocated the resumption of relations with Russia, saying that all the neighboring countries had agreed to work for resumption of relations and that Italy's standing upon this line was being supported by Great Britain.

"Great Britain knows how to defend her interests," he added to the organ.

"France is still stronger, if they defend hers with her allies, if they do, and without them, if they withdraw."

In addition to the attack upon Premier Lloyd George and advocacy of resumption of relations with the Soviet government, the outstanding feature of the speech was Barthelemy's insistence upon the strict application of the peace treaty and the pursuance of a hands-off policy towards Germany so far as a choice of a government for herself was concerned.

ASSAILS WILSON PARTY'S RECORD

Republicans of New Mexico Turn Heavy Artillery on Political Opponents

SANTA FE, N. M., (AP)—The republican party of New Mexico, through a keynote address delivered today by George W. Pritchard of Santa Fe, temporary chairman, to the state republican convention meeting here to name delegates at large to the national convention turned its heavy artillery on the record at home and abroad and urged the delegates to work to elect a republican president of the United States so that "order will be brought out of chaos."

He promised that if a republican president and a republican congress will restore confidence, taxes will be reduced; the high cost of living will be cut down; normal conditions will be resumed and the country will become prosperous.

Paying tribute to General Leonard Wood, Mr. Pritchard said the general "is worthy of wearing the mantle of Lincoln and of that long line of republican presidents who have served the nation so much, and reflected so much credit, honor and glory to our country."

The chairman described the treaty of peace with Germany as "the only treaty or covenant so far as this government is concerned, that was ever planned and brought forth in a spirit of enlightenment and good will. He declared "from the date of President Wilson's second fruitless trip to Paris his relation to that un-American document has been peevish, spiteful and vindictive."

Article ten was called "a war measure pure and simple, a pledge to furnish military force to preserve the territorial integrity and political independence of any member of the league."

Women voices were urged to support the republican party.

"They should not be afraid of politics," Mr. Pritchard said. "Government could not exist without politics."

Post Office Nerves

According to the testimony of some hospital authorities "post office nerves" are due partly to the frequent changes from day to night duty, with consequent irregularities of meals and sleep, partly to the changes of work whereby the same clerk may be standing all day for another, with diverse occupations, each needing special knowledge.

Hence, in the opinion of some medical authorities, it is not surprising that it is so frequent.

The Chinese cheerfully paid the fines imposed on them and were delighted when the confiscated gold was returned to them.

Representative Smith Advises Against Paying Fee for Making Collections

A former service man should not be induced into paying claim agents a fee for the collection of the $60 bonus, travel pay, clothing allowance, and similar due items the government, is a warning given by Representative Smith, a member of congress from Twin Falls.

Representative Smith says his attention has been directed to alleged unscrupulous methods employed by certain congressmen in Washington to extort from former soldiers a high rate of fee for making these collections. Mr. Smith says it is altogether unnecessary for claim agents to collect these bills and that delinquencies be reported.

Following is a letter addressed to the News on this score: "The information has reached me from a member of the returned soldiers unscrupulous claim agents in this valley attempted to charge a fee for their services for the collection of the $60 bonus, travel pay, clothing allowance, etc.

It is unnecessary for the soldiers to employ an attorney in the collection of these claims. If any of you who are readers of your paper have received their bonus, travel pay, clothing and will write me to that effect, sending me their discharge, I will bring the matter to the attention of the proper official and see that the return of their money and any amount due is promptly forwarded with the return of their discharge. Service men who were in the valley July 10, 1919, are entitled to additional pay for foreign travel under a recent ruling of the War Department.

It is unfortunate that the soldiers have been imposed upon by attorneys pushing their affairs with the government, sending me their discharge, and being unwilling and anxious to be paid in this or any other matter concerning their welfare."

MANAGER WHEELON GIVES TIMELY HINTS TO DISTRICT IRRIGATORS

Water is to Be Turned into Laterals for Land Service on March 28 and with This Announcement Comes Some Suggestions Founded on Experience of Last Year's Supply Shortage

"That water for general irrigation purposes will be turned into supply ditches and canals on March 28, is information contained in a letter to The News from J. G. Wheelon, general manager of the Twin Falls Canal company. Mr. Wheelon directs attention to experience of farmers in this district last year from water shortage, and the benefits derived by those working land in this section in 1919 through a study of conditions arising from this shortage.

"The splendid yields obtained last season, in spite of the shortage of water, reminds that the Twin Falls farmer needs no advice in the practice of irrigation."

Mr. Wheelon, however, addresses himself to the newcomer in this section on the question of irrigation, giving some timely advice on this important subject. The letter, which is addressed to water users, reads: "The Twin Falls Canal company plans to begin to increase the stream for use in irrigation on the twenty-eighth of March.

"The splendid yields obtained last season in spite of the shortage of water reminds us that the Twin Falls farmer needs no advice in the practice of irrigation.

"There are, however, many newcomers in the valley, there are many others who are using land and are changing farms, there are others who have sold and re-purchased, no doubt! all of these find a heavy demand on their time in doing much work that should have been done last fall.

"To these farmers we venture to advise that the irrigation should have the first consideration in the matter. How important the work may be it should not be allowed to be the cause of permitting the irrigation stream to run idly by, as often when the work is all done and ready an accident or break will occur and the lateral dried up for a time, and in irrigation, "once behind always behind.

"The benefit of winter snows and spring rains on the Twin Falls tract are more apparent than real as is so clearly shown in the attempts at dryfarming on the rim of the tract.

"Soil organisms do not thrive in very dry soil, and most soils that was not irrigated last fall should have from three to six inches of moisture as soon after the 15th of April as it can be feasibly applied.

"The reason for these remarks and our plans to start off the irrigation season early, is based upon the report of Mr. Markham, superintendent at the Jackson lake reservoir, just received."

Mr. Wheelon adds that from Sept. 1, 1919 to March 13, 1920 precipitation in this section had been 3.80 inches greater than for the same period in 1918-1919. He also points out that the total water stored now is 185,570 acre feet below the total for the same period prior.

BUHL MAN PAYS HIGH PRICE FOR SHORTHORN

J. G. Hayden Sets Top Mark at Livestock Auction with $875 for One Animal

Paying $875 for a single animal J. G. Hayden, of Buhl, set the high mark at yesterday afternoon's session of the Twin Falls Shorthorn sale. Thirty-five animals were disposed of at public auction. The sale is on again this afternoon, and should conclude tonight.

Much of the best Shorthorn stock ever signed is to be offered today.

The average price yesterday was $205, but it is expected that mark will be materially raised this afternoon. The sale is being conducted in the McManis & Son sales pavilion and has attracted Shorthorn fanciers from far and near. It is being carried on under the direction of the Twin Falls North and South Side Shorthorn Breeders' association.

BUREAU MEMBERSHIP

Community, Murtagh, Marcos, Cedar Draw and Poplar Grove was a few of the communities which have given a report that the membership drive for the farm bureau is planned and that the women selected to help are all ready to canvass on the various days determined upon for the work. Mrs. John Oliver of Poplar Grove sent in the report that the canvass was being made by three women yesterday afternoon and every farm was being visited and given an opportunity to join.

Spring's Lap is a Coolish Place to Sit Ones Self

IT HAILS, it rains, it snows, it blows. And shoots a chill right through our clothes; It mounds us some of stormy seas. And gives no chance for EVD's. At any rate not just yet, and so we'll cling to the tattered balbriggan stuff that the laundry rips and tears a bit more ever and anon.

Anyhow we wish the laundry's wife would send back the buttons said laundry pulls off even though she does not take the trouble to sew 'em back on.

The weather predictor guesses it will be fair tonight and fair and warmer Saturday.

Forty-six degrees was the apex of the temperature yesterday and slightly below the frost line for low last night. There was a trace of precipitation.

Spring whither art thou? Oh, goah! o

"WOOD FOR PRESIDENT" CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED

Republicans will meet tonight in the Commerce Rooms to Establish Movement

At 8 o'clock tonight republican enthusiasts for Leonard Wood will meet in the rooms of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce to formally organize a "Wood club." The meeting will be directed by W. S. Parkhurst of Boise.

Plans for this meeting were arranged late yesterday after a conference between Mr. Parkhurst and Sidney H. Graves. The latter is called the original Wood man in Twin Falls and for some time has been active in molding sentiment favorable to the Wood For President movement.
