DENMARK'S KING UNDETERRED BY STRIKE THREAT

Refuses to Comply with Ultimatum of Social Democrats Demanding Reinstatement of Dismissed Zehle Ministry

CROWDS RAISE CRY FOR REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT

Slight Disturbances Occur while Troops Occupy One of Public Squares in the City of Copenhagen

COPENHAGEN, (AP)—King Christian announced today his refusal to comply with the ultimatum of the social democrats demanding the reinstatement of the Zehle ministry, dismissed by the king, and other action in connection with the government crisis.

The demand was made under the threat that the Danish trade unions would meet today with a view of declaring a general strike of the throne did not comply.

Call for Rigorous Summoning

The action demanded included the immediate summoning of the rigding and the restoration of constitutional conditions.

Socialists and trade union representatives conferred with King Christian last night relative to the crisis which has arisen in Denmark as a result of the dismissal of Premier Zehle's cabinet.

Crowds in the public squares up to an early hour this morning were raising cries for the establishment of a republican form of government for Denmark. Slight disturbances occurred while officers were occupying one of the squares.

Intends Holding Elections

M. Rowing, one of the ministers in the new cabinet formed to take the place of the Zehle ministry, was reported today as saying the new government intended holding elections before the question of the disposal of the second zone of Flensburg, the principal town in the second plebiscite zone. The Zehle ministry considered the question of disposition of the second zone settled in favor of Germany by the recent plebiscite. The opposition, however, insisted there should be at least provisional internationalization of Flensburg and the second zone.

MINERS TO SEEK GREATER WAGES

Bituminous Coal Workers Accept Commission Award—Only Tentatively

NEW YORK, (AP)—Representatives of bituminous coal workers announced today that they had tentatively accepted a 27 per cent increase in wages by the joint conference of operators and workers pending a new agreement. The sub-committee appointed by the conference to arrange a new agreement began its sessions today and the workers' representatives pointed out that their acceptance of the award of the bituminous coal commission was only to enable the mines to continue operation from April first during the negotiations.

William Green, international secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America, and P. H. Penna, secretary of the Indiana Coal Operators' association, were named by the sub-committee as members of a contract committee to draft a tentative wage agreement, based on the recent award of the bituminous commission. The contract committee will report a tentative agreement to the sub-committee tomorrow morning.

At the close of the sub-committee meeting today bituminous operators declared that as a result of the 27 per cent increase in mine workers the price of soft coal probably will be advanced over present prices from $1 to $1.25 a ton at the mines.

BRANDS SOCIALIST PARTY ORGANIZATION MADE UP OF PERPETUAL TRAITORS

Majority of Judiciary Committee of New York State Assembly Transmits Report to Lower House Recommending Expulsion of Five Suspended Assemblymen; Action in Case to Be Made Special Order of Business on Wednesday

ALBANY, N. Y., (AP)—Branding the socialist party as "an organization composed exclusively of perpetual traitors," a majority of the judiciary committee of the New York state assembly, in a report, transmitted to the senate today, recommended the expulsion of the five socialist assemblymen, August Claessens, Charles Solomon, Louis Waldman, Samuel Orr and Sam A. Dewitt. Minority reports were submitted by members of the committee who dissented from the findings of the majority.

Action on the reports will be made a special order of business in the assembly tomorrow. While no concerted action has been taken by those who are opposed to the expulsion of the socialists, Majority Leader Simon L. Adler, of Monroe and Assemblyman Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, will speak and vote against that program.

Roosevelt Gives Position

"I cannot approve of the expulsion of the entire representation of a party from the legislature," Colonel Roosevelt said today. "Whatever I may do or say, I shall do so as an individual and not as a part of any movement agreed upon with others."

Would Declare Seats Vacant

Charges of unfitness against the five socialist members of the New York state assembly—Louis Waldman, August Claessens, Charles Solomon, Samuel E. Dewitt and Sam Orr—have been sustained by a majority of the assembly judiciary committee in a 20,000 word report submitted to the legislature today. "Whatever I may do or say," says their seats should be declared vacant.

Enactment of a law to prevent any organization which admits aliens to its membership from occupying the position of a political party, advised in the official ballot of the state is advocated. The report reviews evidence heard during the recent 24 days' trial, purporting to show that the party opposed prosecution of the war, opposed all legislation for industrial and military conscription, pledged its members to work for the repeal of the conscription law, advised its members to desert from the army and urged the repudiation of war debts.

SOVIETS WOULD DISCUSS POLES' TERMS OF PEACE

Fighting Goes Against Bolshevik Forces with Poles Holding Own on All Fronts and Inflicting Losses

LONDON, (AP)—George Tchitcherine, the Russian Soviet foreign minister, has notified Poland of his willingness to open peace negotiations on April 10, as Poland has suggested, according to a wireless message from Moscow today. M. Tchitcherine suggests that the meeting be held somewhere in Estonia.

The Poles had asked that the negotiations be conducted at Borsivo, between Minsk and Smolensk.

WARSAW, (AP)—Russian bolshevik forces which have been attacking the Polish front in Podolia have suffered severe losses and at points have withdrawn to the eastward, says an official statement issued at army headquarters here today. Polish troops have pursued the enemy and have taken territory which was lost in the savage fighting of last week, it is said.

DEATH LIST OF SUNDAY STORMS MOUNTS TO 165

Reports from Isolated Regions and Deaths Among Injured Regarded as Likely to Increase Total Fatalities

STRICKEN COMMUNITIES EMERGE FROM WRECKAGE

The Property Damage in Nine States Swept by Tornadoes Runs into Millions According to Estimates

CHICAGO, (AP)—Scattered reports as wire service is restored to isolated sections, said by the committee providing funds for the immediate needs of the sufferers. Estimates of the total damage done range from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000.

Fatalities Totals

Tabulated reports by states at noon today gave the number of dead as follows: Indiana 37; Illinois 27; Ohio 20; Michigan 13; Georgia 38; Alabama 17; Nebraska 2; Wisconsin 1. The death toll of Sunday's tornadoes which ripped paths of destruction through sections of eight states stood early today at 168 with fears expressed that reports from isolated regions and deaths among the injured would increase the total.

Property Damage Heavy

No accurate estimate of the total property damage, which runs into the millions, could be made today. In Illinois it was estimated that the material was $4,000,000; in western Ohio $2,000,000; Michigan $2,000,000, and Georgia more than $1,000,000.

OHIO COUNTS TOTAL OF 30 KNOWN FATALITIES

COLUMBUS, O., (AP)—Additional casualties resulting from the storm which swept western Ohio in Dayton, Ohio, today, the list of known dead to 30. Other deaths from injuries are expected.

NEBRASKA GIRL DIES FROM INJURY IN STORM

LINCOLN, Neb., (AP)—One fatality occurred when 8-mile an hour wind whirled through Lincoln today, it was learned here today. Florence Benablossom, aged 12, was struck on the head by a gate blown shut while she was assisting with chores on a farm near Shelton and died the following day.

CALLS CONFERENCE IN LONGSHOREMEN'S STRIKE

Secretary of Labor Seeks to Bring About Settlement in Walkout Trying Up Atlantic Shipping

NEW YORK, (AP)—A conference with a view to settling the longshoremen's strike that has tied up shipping along the Atlantic and Gulf coasts has been called by Secretary of Labor Wilson to meet Friday morning in Washington. It was threatened today by T. V. O'Connor, president of the Longshoremen's union, unless the United Fruit company, operating using Atlantic shipping, is to fight. Deep sea longshoremen are on strike against the company which is employing strikebreakers.

ACCUSED NEGRO LYNCHED

Prisoner Taken From Officers by Crowd and Hanged to Telegraph Pole

PARIS, Ky., (AP)—Sweeping down unexpectedly upon officers who were taking Grant Smith, negro, to jail at Paris, last night, a crowd of forty men captured the negro and hurried him in an automobile out of the Maysville-Lexington pike at Mays Lick, Fleming county, where he was hanged to a telegraph pole.

FRANCE READY TO MOVE ALONE AGAINST GERMANY

Millerand Declares for Independent Action if Germans Violate Terms of the Treaty of Peace

TROOPS IN RUHR DISTRICT WITHIN PACT ALLOWANCE, TEUTONS AVERSE

PARIS, (AP)—Assurances have been given by the German government that it will not send into the Ruhr valley more regular troops than are allowed by the terms of the Versailles treaty. A German delegation called on Premier Millerand late last night, told him the German troops in the Ruhr district did not exceed the number allowed and declared no more such troops would be sent there without authorization from the allies.

Receiving members of the French press last evening, M. Millerand declared if the Germans violated the terms of the treaty by sending a strong armed force into the Ruhr district, France would occupy part of the neutral zone, whether the allies agreed or not.

Germans Drop Idea of Reinforcements

PARIS, (AP)—The German government has abandoned the idea of sending strong reinforcements to the Ruhr valley, in view of the conditions imposed by the French government. Wilhelm von Meyer, German chargé d'affaires, requested Premier Millerand to authorize dispatch of troops last Friday, and following several conferences, the French premier on Sunday agreed to approve the move subject to serious guarantees.

Chief among conditions imposed was the allied occupation of the cities of Darmstadt and Frankfurt, within the German neutral zone. The French conditions were transmitted to Berlin and Herr von Meyer yesterday delivered the answer of Germany, which consisted of Chancellor Mueller's declaration to the national assembly yesterday in which he declared that the German government does not propose to subject Frankfurt and Darmstadt "to the terrors of occupation."

The German charge also informed Premier Millerand that the German troops now in the Ruhr district do not exceed the number permitted by the agreement of August, 1919. Herr von Meyer promised that the soldiers would be increased without the permission of France.

German Reds Adopt Defiant Attitude

ESSEN, (AP)—All but one stipulation of the Berlin government relative to a cessation of fighting in the Ruhr district have been accepted by the central committee in charge of anti-government operations here, according to a notification sent to Berlin last night. Exception was taken to the fourth condition regarding the surrender of arms and ammunition. The government was informed that this condition would be accepted constructed in accordance with the Bielefeld agreement.

Otto Bownesson, military commander of the Reds, has filed a complaint from the front, told the correspondent that the continued existence of the reichswahr would mean another European war. Another member of the directing committee said the committee was thoroughly determined to subject the mines to sabotage if the reichswahr marched into the Ruhr district. The Reds, he declared, would kill their families and themselves before surrendering.

Dutch Give Grain to Revictual Ruhr Area

THE HAGUE, (AP) (Havas)—The Dutch government is reported to have given Germany 4,400 tons of wheat and barley for revictual towns in the Ruhr valley.

STANFORD BOASTS MOST MIOCENE FOSSIL FISH

David Starr Jordan Contributes Hitherto Unknown Species to Collection

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, (AP)—60 hitherto unknown species of fossil fish of the Miocene age that lived in bays which in prehistoric times covered the land now included in Los Angeles, Orange and Santa Barbara counties, Cal., have been added to the scientific world through the recent efforts of Dr. David Starr Jordan, chancellor emeritus of Stanford University. Stanford collection of fossil fishes of this age is now larger than that of all institutions put together, numbering about four hundred.

CALL ON WILSON FOR BACKING OF TURKISH POLICY

Ejection of Ottoman from Europe Would Require Force of Several Thousand Men, the French Officials Declare

PARIS, (AP)—It was said at the foreign office today that the French point of view regarding Turkey and Armenia is in agreement with that of President Wilson as to the desirability of the largest possible Armenian state and the expulsion of the Turks from Constantinople. The question is raised, however, as to how these ends can be achieved without the force necessary to deal with the trouble certain to result from the Moslem population. (President Wilson's note on the Turkish question was delivered to Premier Millerand by Ambassador Wallace during the session of the council of ambassadors in Paris yesterday.)

It would require a force of several hundred thousand men to back up a decision to eject the Turks entirely from Europe, a high official said.

The establishment of an Armenian state of large dimensions also would involve the necessity of a military force to protect it, said a great portions of the new state the Armenians would be in the minority and exposed to the hatred of their enemies. This case, it was declared, was the reason why the French always had been considered the great humanitarian task for President Wilson to perform. The question was, it was added, whether he was ready to furnish the required force.

MISSISSIPPI SENATE RATIFIES THE AMENDMENT TO EXTEND FRANCHISE TO WOMEN

JACKSON, Miss., (AP)—The Mississippi state senate today ratified the federal woman suffrage amendment, thus reversing the action of several weeks ago when the amendment was rejected.

The vote on the ratification resolution was a tie and Lieutenant Governor Casteel cast the deciding vote. The roll call showed that ten senators had returned their presence along the unfavorable vote several weeks ago.

The house rejected the amendment February 18 by a vote of 106 to 25. House leaders, learning of the senate's action, said the session which was to adjourn Saturday, might be prolonged to allow another vote in that body.

Suffrage leaders who had abandoned hope of favorable action, immediately notified their supporters throughout the state to return at once to the capital and renew the battle. Should the house act favorably on the resolution of ratification, Mississippi's 36 states for ratification of the amendment and would permit women to vote in the November presidential election in most of the states. Last week the legislature passed, without dissent, a bill permitting women to vote both in primary and general elections, to become effective in (Continued on Page Four)

CONSTANTINOPLE, (AP)—Messages in entente journals from Angora state that Mustafa Kemal, nationalist leader, was greatly surprised and apparently nonplussed by the allied occupation of Constantinople, and has issued orders to the nationalists to restrain themselves and protect minorities. The nationalists have destroyed the important railway bridge at Fliedjik, between Constantinople and Aleppo. The British are restoring the bridge.

ARIZONA LENDS AID TO RECLAMATION PROJECT

State Has Almost Parameter Interest With Owners of $15,000 Acres Under Lyman Dam

PHOENIX, Ariz., (AP)—The state of Arizona has almost a partnership interest with the owners of 15,000 acres in the Apache country under the Lyman Dam. According to Governor Campbell, when the state gets through financing the construction of the dam and water distribution system it will have an interest in the land worth about $700,000 an acre. The landowners will repay the state the money advanced for reclamation by the state land board.

WILY BOOZE PURVEYOR DEALS IN WHITE MULES

Liquid or Animal, Each with Kick, is Offered Depending on Character of Customer

DURANGO, Colo., (AP)—A mule was used by a wily dealer in illicit liquor here, according to officials. The animal is white. In front of the owner's home a sign was placed reading: "White Mule for Sale." If the prospective customer was able to prove he was "all right," the dealer showed him a liquid with a real kick in it. If the visitor was not known, he was shown an animal with a real kick. The price of the animal was set at a figure which insured its retention by the moonshiner dealer.

WOMEN'S VOTE IS MINORITY IN ELECTIONS

Estimates Show Possible Total 2,500,000 Short of Potential Ballot Cast by Men in the Choice for President

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Ballots cast by women in the coming presidential election will fall far short of the potential men's vote by over 2,500,000, provided the suffrage amendment is ratified and state registration laws are given time to become operative all over the country to participate, according to estimates by the National Women's Party.

With the 1910 census as a basis, the woman's party estimates the number of men eligible to vote at 29,277,090, and the possible women voters at 26,383,560. In 1910, however, the actual vote cast for all various presidential candidates was 18,228,745, omitting ballots thrown out for cause which leaves over 11,000,000 possible votes unregistered. As indicated by the 1910 census, men voters remain indifferent in the coming election, women political leaders here say that the eager ness of women to exercise their citizen's privilege was more than off set the disparity in number between the sexes.

ARRAIGNS PACKERS FOR DIMINISHING FISHERIES

Seattle Witness Tells Senate Committee Extinction Threatens the Salmon

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The big salmon packing company which is responsible for the threatened extinction of the Alaskan salmon fisheries by Maurice Leehy, of Seattle, counsel of the Alaskan Territorial shipping board's in testifying before the senate commerce committee on legislation designed to promote Alaskan shipping. The "big packers," through overwise and crafty means, Mr. Leehy declared, have a financial advantage over the smaller ones who use the regular boat lines which are subject to legal requirements not imposed on the private lines. The packers are more desirous of record production than of safeguarding the supply, he said.

By charging a tax on tonnage of all ships entering the Alaskan trade, Mr. Leehy told the committee, the small packers would be nearer equality with the larger one and the salmon industry would benefit.

Use of the tonnage tax in contracting with ship lines for regular service, Mr. Leehy argued, would result in diversion of much of the tonnage to Prince Rupert, to American ports and over American-owned rail lines instead of the Canadian routes to the eastern portion of the United States.

FINDS VICEROY OF INDIA INCOMPETENT FOR OFFICE

Board of Inquiry into Punjab Disturbances Denies Proof of Conspiracy and Demands Recall

DELHI, India, (AP)—The special commission appointed by the national congress to enquire into the recent disturbances in the Punjab has published its report. It is a report which the commission finds Baron Chelmsford, viceroy and governor general of India, incapable of holding his high office and demands his recall.

The report declares that no conspiracy designed to overthrow the British government has been proved. It finds that other incidents, named in the report as the Stuyvesant and Rowlett incidents were not anti-British, and that the facts did not justify the proclamation of martial law in connection with them.

ODD COINCIDENCE FORMS BASIS OF AN INTERESTING GLIMPSE INTO THE PAST

Speech in Congress of Nearly a Hundred Years Ago Inveighs Against State of Affairs which Do Not Differ Greatly from Those of Today—Students of American History are Asked to Name the Author

EDITH'S NOTE—With a voice of almost prophetic wisdom, and in terms which are as clear today as in the period between 75 and 100 years ago when their author delivered them, the following paragraphs from two separate Congressional speeches are offered as of more than passing interest by way of comment upon current events, then and now.

In order that no hint of their significance may be lost, The News would invite those able to do so to name the speaker. The names of the 25 persons reading in correct regular will be published together with the name of the American patriot and statesman who first gave utterance to these remarkably interesting comments.

"Sir, I deny that there is any instance on record in history, of a man not having military capacity being at the head of any government with advantage to that government, and to his credit to himself. There is a great mistake on this subject, and that those talents which enable a man to write books and make speeches, that qualify him to preside over a government. The wisest of us has told us that.

All a rhetorician's rules. Each only how to make his tools. We have seen professors of rhetoric who could no doubt descend fluently upon the use of these said tools, yet sharpen them to so wily an edge as to cut their fingers with those implements of their trade.

"Sir, the Duke of Marlborough, the greatest captain and negotiator of his age, the savior of Louis the Fourteenth, and who may rank with the greatest men of any age, whose irrepressible manners and address triumphed over every obstacle in council, as his military prowess and conduct did on the field—this great man could not spell, and was notoriously ignorant of all that an undergraduate must know, but which it is not necessary for a man at the head of affairs to know at all. Would you surpass him by some Scotch schoolmaster? Gentlemen forget that it is an able helmsman we want for the ship of state, and not a professor of navigation or astronomy.

"Sir, among the vulgar errors that creep into Sir Thomas Browne's book, this ought not to be omitted: that learning and wisdom are not synonymous, as is so often said. Knowledge and wisdom, as one of our most delightful poets sings—

"Knowledge and wisdom, far from being one, Have oftentimes no connection; Knowledge dwells In hearts replete with thoughts of other men; Wisdom is the gift of heaven to some, and is not to be had by any other means. Knowledge is proud that he has learned so much; Wisdom is humble that he knows no more. Books are not solid tallmans and spells, By which the magic arts are shrewdly wits Hold the unchangeable enchained. And not books only, Sir. Speeches are not less deceptive. I not only consider the want of what is called learning, not to be a disqualification for the commander-in-chief in civil or military life; but I do consider the possession of too much learning to be of most mischievous consequence to any man, and to make the learning of others, or whatever other qualities they may possess, subservient to his more enlarged and vigorous views. Such a man was Cromwell; such a man was Washington; not learned, but wise. Their understandings were not clouded or cramped, but had fair play. Their errors were the errors of men, not of school boys and pedants."

"As Anacharsis was the orator of the human race, so was determined to be president of the race when I am not willing that he should be president of my name and race; but he is and must be the third day of this month, and he is not willing that he should be president of my name and race. He has come out with a speech and message, and with a doctrine that goes to take the whole human family under his special protection. Now, Sir, who made him his brothers' keeper? Who gave him, the President of the United States, the custody of the liberties, or the rights, or the interests of South America, or any other America, save his, they, the people of America, or any other country under the sun? He has got himself, we know, into the way, and I say, God send him a safe deliverance, and God send the country a safe deliverance from his policy."

ITALIAN PREMIER OFFERS FIUME PROBLEM SOLUTION

Expresses Hope that Jugo-Slavs May Soon Partake of Cultural Advantages

ROME, (AP)—Premier Nitti declared in the chamber of deputies Sunday that he had never regarded the Jugo-Slavs as enemies, but had regarded them as friends. He expressed hope that they would partake of Italian economic and cultural advantages and deplored what he described as a "dangerous press campaign wide in calculating multiple distrust among the Jugo-Slavs."

"While anxious to bring about a friendly understanding with the Jugo-Slavs," he declared, "there is another solution to the question of the enforcement of the pact of London. France and Great Britain have stated that if Italy desired the application of the pact they would not refuse, as they hold themselves bound by it. If Italy is compelled to demand the carrying out of the convention, it will be necessary to ask its complete enforcement without including Fiume. The press condemned the pact and also Fiume, and said he had told the supreme allied council in London that if Italy requested the enforcement of the treaty, she would concede autonomy to Dalmatia.

"If no other agreement can be reached," he continued, "a third solution of the Adriatic question may be accepted, which is the one which I have proposed formulated by Great Britain and France. This solution is desired still less by Jugo-Slavs than by Italy, but nevertheless it is necessary to keep it in mind while continuing our efforts to reach an adjustment by an amicable understanding with the Jugo-Slavs."

The premier was applauded by the whole chamber, with the exception of a few extremists who called for a "clear and unmistakable vote of confidence." With his address the debate was adjourned.

DENIES DRY LAW CONSTITUTIONAL

New Jersey Attorney General Attacks Prohibition Measures in Court

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The eighteenth amendment to the constitution, known as the prohibition amendment, is legislative in nature and revolutionary in character, according to Attorney General Thomas F. McLean, of New Jersey, in opening his argument before the United States supreme court in New Jersey's suit to have the amendment declared void and the Volstead act unconstitutional. Eight points were raised and discussed in the argument.

Attorney General McLean's brief declared that the eighteenth amendment was not constitutionally proposed; that the proposal is subject to judicial review; that congress did not by two-thirds in nature and revolutionary in character, affirmatively vote for the proposal of the resolution; that three-fourths of the states have not ratified in the constitutional sense.

Attack Prohibition Act The brief also declared that the national prohibition act is not appropriate legislation; that there is no right in congress to legislate outside the words of the amendment; that the words "beverage purposes" sufficiently describe the limit within which congress will legislate and that the term "intoxicating liquors" is its own definition; that the Volstead law fixing the standard is oppressive and unconstitutional; that the Volstead law is unconstitutional in that it attempts to interfere with the rights of physicians and druggists to furnish liquor; that the institutions owned and conducted by the state of New Jersey are hampered and restricted by the arbitrary act of congress. The history of New Jersey and its relation to the federal government, both before and since the adoption of the constitution, was discussed in the brief, while the rights which the states surrendered for the purpose of forming a more perfect union are detailed at length.

The brief also stated that the seven teen amendments to the constitution prior to the eighteenth, "prohibition amendment," are subjects relating to the structure and form of the government and are not amendments revolutionary in character and which deprive the states of their sovereign powers.

POLITICS TENSE IN MEXICO CITY

Obregon Partisans are Arrested Because of Demonstration at Capital

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Five members of the Mexican chamber of deputies, two generals and other army officers and more than 50 civilians were arrested in Mexico City because of a demonstration in favor of General Obregon on the occasion of the recent public reception to Ambassador Bonillas, according to advices received here today through official channels. The arrests are said to have added to the tenacity of the political situation in the Mexican capital.

According to the advices the five deputies were released only after great excitement in the chamber of deputies and after the adoption of a resolution of protest. The police were said to have demanded that the deputies were not protected by the constitutional privileges.

The war department announced, the advices said, that all the Captains Jaimez, General Victor Rio and the other army officers arrested would be tried for violation of military regulations forbidding members of the army from taking part in political meetings.

COMMUNIST WOULD SPEND HOLY WEEK IN PALESTINE

PARIS, (AP)—Former premier Clemenceau, who has been in Egypt for several weeks on a tour of recreation, has returned to Cairo from the Sudan and is proceeding to Palestine. It is announced in Cairo messages. He will spend the greater part of Holy Week in Palestine, planning to be in Jerusalem on Good Friday, and will sail for France from Alexandria on April 22.

In a supplemental brief filed by New Jersey's attorney general an entirely novel plea is made, "that the right to amend the constitution is a right of the people of the United States as distinguished from the people of a particular state; that the people of the United States have only national powers, the police power being reserved to the states, and the right of internal police being a right of the people of New Jersey over which the people of the United States have no control. This right may not be taken from them without their consent."

TO TAME SNAKE IS IDAHO PLAN

Statistician of U. S. Reclamation Service Discusses Big Irrigation Scheme

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho, (Special)—Every resident of southern Idaho is interested in the article "Taming the Snake," which was published in a recent number of the Reclamation Record and reprinted by the Pacific Engineer, by C. J. Blanchard, statistician of the United States reclamation service.

The Snake River valley offers an engineering and sociological problem of a magnitude which calls for all the wealth of experience gained by the irrigation engineers during the past fifteen years," the article says.

The statistician asserts that the eventual Snake River valley development will cost $100,000,000 in all, that it will rank as one of the great irrigation works in the world, comparable with the tremendous achievements of English engineers in Egypt and India.

It is a "challenge to the capacity of democracy," the article says.

The development is being worked out by the federal government, the state government, Carey act people and private companies of the Snake River valley, Mr. Blanchard asserts.

The sentiment of the land owners, he adds, is that the reclamation service shall construct the larger works rather than private interests, while all interests shall share proportionately in the cost.

Paragraphs indicative of the scope of the Blanchard article, too long for full publication here, are given below:

"The plans, outlined as briefly as possible, are to begin at the headwaters of the Snake river in Wyoming, and by constructing necessary reservoirs in high canyons and also at advantageous points in the valley in Idaho, to store approximately 4,000,000 acre-feet of water which now flows over Miller dam and is wasted.

"One controlling feature of the engineering work to be done is the construction of a mile-long dam 100 feet high at American Falls, where a reservoir covering 35,000 acres of bottom land and with a capacity of 3,000,000 acre-feet, is to be built. This will be the largest reservoir for irrigation in the world.

The cost of this dam is estimated at $15,000,000. The construction of the dam dooms the present city of American Falls to destruction, as a large part of it lies within the area which will be behind the surface of the lake created by the dam.

"Large as the cost estimates are, the faith-hearted who are likely to predict failure should not forget that in the Snake River valley today its irrigated sections, from the Wyoming line to where the Snake river forms the boundary of eastern Oregon, are the show places of the great American desert.

"The Minidoka and Twin Falls projects, containing 48,000 acres of irrigated land, produced in 1918 a crop valued at $59 per acre, according to the state engineer. The Boise and Fayette valleys are equally well known for their abundant and valuable crops.

In the upper valleys, where the season is somewhat shorter, the crops are restricted to cereals, sugar beets, hardy vegetables and forage crops for livestock, which latter constitutes an important and profitable industry.

"The accumulated data, by careful investigation and study, furnish irrefutable evidence that if the engineering works can be constructed within the estimate of $100 to $125 per acre to furnish a guaranteed water supply, the lands benefited can easily bear the charge, together with interest on payments spread over a term of years."

GEM
Geraldine Farrar, America's most famous operatic star, comes to the Gem today in her latest Goldwyn dramatic photoplay, the "Flame of the Desert," from a story by Charles A. Logan, directed by Reginald Barker. A powerful love story of mystic Egypt filled with the color and romance that is bred deep in the heart of the desert swept far east. A magnificent spectacle revealing a great uprising in the far east, and a woman's courageous fight for love and happiness supported by a superb supporting cast including Lou Tellegen, Sidney Ainsworth, Casson Bee-guson and Macey Harlan.

DAKS
Do you believe in luck? Is there a "destiny that shapes our ends," or do things just happen by chance that mean a life-or-death difference to us? Marguerite Clark's new Paramount-Argenta picture, "Luck in Pawn," which is being shown at the Idaho theatre today doesn't discuss the question in a serious or learned manner, but the old argument suggests itself to the thoughtful spectator who sees anything but a highly amusing comedy behind the story of the aspiring young country girl who wanted to be an artist, and had to be content with the lesser destiny of becoming a milliner's wife just before she happened to encounter the rich young man shortly after being told her artistic ambitions were vain.

NATIONAL BIRD IS THREATENED

Museum of Natural History Warns Against Extinction of Bald Eagle

NEW YORK, (AP)—A warning against the threatened extinction of the bald or American eagle, the national bird of the United States, was issued here today by the American Museum of Natural History, which states that reports indicated that "more than one-half and, perhaps, three-quarters of the entire species already have been sacrificed."

Destruction of the birds is attributed to hunters in Alaska who are killing them for bounty paid by the territorial government. Never numerous, the museum authorities say, more than 5,000 eagles were slain in a few months in their favorite breeding ground, the Alaskan peninsula. Hunters have extended their operations into the British provinces adjoining Alaska. It is said to swell their gains.

After declaring that the American eagle preys chiefly on large rodents harmful to farm crops, for the control of which the government annually expends large sums, the museum declares that "titles of the American eagle's destructiveness to game or domestic animals are for the greater part pure fiction." The bird, it says, is migratory and therefore no state or territory can claim the right to destroy it, that right being vested in the federal government.

Recalling the fact that the wild pigeon, formerly found in incredible numbers in certain parts of the United States, had been "utterly wiped out by unrestricted shooting and the destruction of its nests," the museum says only the prompt passage of a federal law will save the American eagle from the same fate.

A Mighty Industry at your Service

Over thirty-five years ago two far-seeing men established in Oakland, California, The Paraffine Paint Company, the parent of The Paraffine Companies, Inc. They had discovered that "black paraffine," as asphalt was then called, could be made into an excellent preservative paint. With that same broad vision which was the outstanding quality of the early Pioneers, Pierce and Beardsley, a chemist and an oil expert, planted the seed of a tremendous industry.

One of the Great Industries of the West

Today The Paraffine Companies, Inc., has grown into an institution which has made "P & B" and Pacbo Products names known throughout the world.

Fourteen large plants have been welded into a single organization which ranks among the greatest industries of the Pacific Coast.

High Quality Built Into Pacbo Products

From raw materials to finished products the process of manufacturing is contained within the one organization. This enables The Paraffine Companies, Inc., to watch every process with the greatest care in order to see that only the highest quality is built into everything that goes forth as a Pacbo Product.

"Rub-er-oid" and "Malthoid" Worldwide Names

Whoever has had anything to do with building construction knows that The Paraffine Companies' Rub-er-oid and Malthoid Roofings, two of the most widely known of the Pacbo Products, are the recognized standards for ready roofing.

All materials which go into their manufacture are gathered by the Company. Refineries are operated to produce the asphalt and associated products; rags and other materials of which the felt is made are gathered together from all parts of the world. Then, in one of the largest and finest equipped plants in the world, under the constant supervision of experts, Rub-er-oid and Malthoid Roofings are produced.

Known Throughout the World

Rub-er-oid and Malthoid are shipped to many parts of the world. Their merit has built their reputation wherever building goes on. They have become the standard of ready roofing on the Pacific Coast, in South America, in the Orient, in Australasia, in India, in South Africa.

With the constant growth of The Paraffine Companies, Inc., the highest standard of quality has always been maintained. Completely equipped laboratories keep constant watch over raw materials. Long experience and complete facilities have enabled the Company to turn out products exactly suited to every climatic or other condition.

This Organization is at Your Service

STRIKE RESULTS IN EMBARGO ON STOCK SHIPPING

Chicago Packers Face Shutdown if Union Stockyards and Transit Company Remain Out for Week

CHICAGO, (AP)—Livestock shipments to the Chicago market, with the exception of horses, were under an embargo today as the result of a strike of 900 members of the Livestock Shandlers union employed by the Union Stockyards and Transit company.

Provisions were being made to divert hundreds of cars of stock on the outskirts of the city to other markets. Cattle receipts dropped yesterday to 1,500 head and hog receipts to 2,000 because of the embargo.

Demands for increases of from $30 to $40 a month with elimination of Sunday work were presented by the strikers. They now receive from $115 to $145 a month, according to company officials.

The union heads have telegraphed Washington asking that federal mediators be sent here, following refusal of Federal Judge Alschuler, who had arbitrated other stockyards troubles, to act unless the men first went back to work.

Calling of the strike caused an increase in meat prices here, although the five big markets were entirely shut down within a week if the strike continues.

Average hog prices yesterday were $16.75, as compared to $16.10 last week and $19.07 a year ago.

PRISON SENTENCE METED WELATHY DRAFT EVADER

Bergdoll Must Spend Five Years at Hard Labor and Forfeit Citizenship

NEW YORK, (AP)—Cleveland Bergdoll, wealthy young Philadelphia resident, recently convicted for desertion because of his alleged failure to report for military service under the draft, was sentenced to five years in prison, according to a decision of the board made public here today.

The sentence, effective today, is for hard labor in the jail at Governors Island. In addition, Bergdoll's rights of citizenship are forfeited as a result of his conviction.

The findings of the court-martial were approved today by Lieutenant General Robert Lee Bullard, commander of the department, and immediately communicated to Bergdoll, who has been in a cell at the island.

Bergdoll was guilty of desertion from August 8, 1918, when he failed to report under the draft. He was arrested at his home January 7 last.

In addition to the prison term, the sentence provides for deprivation of discharge from the army and the forfeiture of all pay and allowances.

MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES IN CHICAGO OUT ON STRIKE

Office Forces Walk Out Demanding Higher Pay, Threatening Paralysis of City's Business

CHICAGO, (AP)—Clerks, stenographers and bookkeepers employed in the municipal offices went on strike today for higher salaries, threatening a paralysis of city business. In addition 136 garbage handlers were on strike, shutting down the municipal garbage reduction plant and causing a suspension of garbage collection.

At the same time a general strike of groups of the 18,000 municipal employees threatened as the result of a decision of the city council early today in rejecting a revised budget carrying $4,000,000 to meet salary raises.

After an all-night debate over the city's financial tangle the council recessed until 3 o'clock this afternoon when it will take up the original budget which carries no pay advances.

Three hundred of the 1,000 clerks voted for the strike last night. They receive $1,500 a year and demand a $300 raise.

GREET EASTER AT CROSS

Surprise Services to be Held at Memorial for Transcendent Pioneer

RIVERSIDE, Cal., (AP)—Thousands of residents and tourists are planning to attend the sunrise services to be held Easter morning, April 1, at the Father Serra cross on Mt. Rubidoux, near Riverside.

For years an increasing number of persons have climbed the mountains and lifted their faces reverently to the east, to meet the sun, while in anthem and prayer the rising of Christ from the tomb was memorialized.

Many will ride this year but the great mass will make the pilgrimage on foot in a spirit of pilgrimage, as it was designed to be by Jacob Riis, author and social worker, to whose mind first came the idea of greeting the Easter morn at the cross erected in memory of Fr. Junipero Serra, famous Franciscan priest and pioneer of California.

CASE OF DEPORTATION IS FILED AGAINST MARTENS

Self-Styled Soviet Ambassador is Surrendered to Department of Labor

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Following completion of his examination by the senate investigating committee, Ludwig Martens, agent of the Russian soviet government, was surrendered last yesterday to the department of labor Assistant Secretary Post released him in custody of his counsel, former Senator Harold G. Pomeroy, to answer a warrant of deportation when a preliminary hearing will be held.

Assistant Attorney General Garvan said the department of justice had submitted a "perfect case of deportation" to immigration authorities.

Yesterday Martens discussed the status of Boris Baidouk, the United States who, he said, still was recognized as the Russian ambassador, though "he represents no government."

Introducing state department letters to show that all the diplomatic representatives of the former Russian regime still were recognized by the United States, Martens said the purpose of the letters was to discourage American business men from dealing with him "as the representative of Russia."

The union heads have telegraphed Washington asking that federal mediators be sent here, following refusal of Federal Judge Alschuler, who had arbitrated other stockyards troubles, to act unless the men first went back to work.

MAVO TESTIFIES ON MISTAKES IN NAVAL POLICIES

Atlantic Fleet Never Better Prepared for War Than after the Winter Practice in 1917, Former Commander Declares

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Rear Admiral Mayo, war-time commander of the Atlantic fleet, before the senate naval investigating committee today said many of the charges made against the navy by Rear Admiral Sims.

Mayo told the committee that the Atlantic fleet was never better prepared by the people in the presidential election in November, 1916, was primarily responsible for the inability of the United States to throw the full weight of its resources into the war immediately upon entering it.

Participation Scope vague

There was a feeling, he said, "not only among our legislators but extending to some extent to our military establishments" that the participation of the United States would consist largely of furnishing money and supplies.

Taking up Sims' charges that the navy did not have a broad general policy when war was declared, he said the office of chief of naval operations responsible for preparing such plans, was not organized until 1915 and that without the aid of conditions in the navy immediately preceding and during the war would have been "chaotic."

The admiral testified that the impression given "in the press" testimony that such submarine movements were not followed from the time the United States entered the war and that consequently no destroyers were needed to screen and protect the Atlantic fleet was not correct.

Never Better Prepared.

The Atlantic fleet never was better prepared for war than when it came into being in 1917, after the winter battle practice, Rear Admiral Henry T. Mayo told the committee.

The personnel was on a peace basis and was somewhat inadequate, the admiral said, but officers and men were confident and well trained and target practice in southern waters had shown gratifying results.

HARDLY KNOWN HER AT SIGHT

Friends of Kansas City Woman are Astonished at Her Wonderful Improvement

"I have gained some eight or ten pounds since I commenced taking Tanlae and feel perfectly splendid in every way," said Miss Annie Peck, living at 1421 Charlotte st., Kansas City, Mo. "I just can't think of enough good things to say about Tanlae," she continued, "and I am sure it will be continued."

"My troubles began about a year ago with nervous indigestion and my stomach finally got in such bad condition that everything I ate disagreed with me. After every meal I would be perfectly miserable from gas forming, and this gas would press up against my lungs and near enough could hardly get my breath. I also suffered from severe headaches and became so nervous I rarely ever got a good night's sleep. Finally I became so ill and exhausted that I was had to give up trying to do any work at all."

"My brother had gotten fine results from Tanlae so I began taking it too, and right from the first I could just feel my strength coming back. I continued to improve and now am as well and hearty as any one could wish to be and never have a sign of stomach trouble or nervousness any more. I am looking so much better that my friends who haven't seen me since I began taking Tanlae hardly know me at first sight, and I am feeling so perfectly well that I am sure to tell everybody about Tanlae."

Tanlae is sold in Twin Falls by City Pharmacy and by the leading druggists in every town.—adv.

BRANDS SOCIALIST PARTY.

ca," says the report, "is not a loyal American organization or political party, designed to accomplish by the traitorous act or declaration of a member, but is a disloyal organization composed exclusively of perpetual traitors."

Two republicans, William W. Pellet of New York, and Theodore Hill, of Brooklyn, signed a report expressing the belief that the socialists were entitled to retain their seats.

They state that no evidence was produced to show that the attitude of the socialists during the war was not other than negative, withholding aid and comfort to their government, rather than a positive one of giving aid and comfort to the nation's enemies.

Defends Right to Think Wrong.

Two democratic members of the committee, Maurice Bloch and Wm. S. Evans, of New York, hold that the members of the assembly cannot use the title of traitors who are not violating their own oath of office.

Evans contends that under the constitution of the state the assembly "is forbidden from imposing upon any member any test of loyalty."

"Radical minorities," says Evans, "must not be driven from the legislature. It is better to have them in the legislature than in secret meetings in cellars."

"Liberty involves the right to think wrong," says Assemblyman Bloch in his report.

New York Exchange. NEW YORK, (AP)—The smallest turnover of any full session in several weeks accompanied today's professional stock market. High-priced specialties were active, but to a moderate extent.

Grain and Provisions. CHICAGO, (AP)—Approach of month-end settlements had a slightly bullish influence today on the corn market. Reports were also current that foreign wheat buyers had a considerable amount of breadstuffs, including some corn flour.

Corn and oats rallied slightly near the end of the session as a result of a little local short covering, prices holding within relatively narrow limits. On the advance March corn touched a new high of 1.14 1/2, but closed at 1.14.

May corn closed 1.18 1/2 higher at 1.17 to 1.17 1/2 and July 1.15 1/2 to 1.15 1/2. Oats were easier, owing to progress in seedling wheat, closing at 1.14 1/2 to 1.14 1/2, including July at 78 1/2 to 78 5/8, the market hardened a trifle.

Absence of support allowed provisions to decline. Most of the business was in lard.

The Printing business of the Twin Falls News is second only in importance to the publication of the Daily News.

In the program of activity which the News has mapped out for itself the Daily News must come first, but,

The printing business of the News, always of heavy volume, grows steadily day by day—

This was the reason why The News found it necessary to double its floor space. The growth of the printing and publishing business of the Twin Falls News could no longer be confined to the quarters of the past four years.

In speculating upon the reason for this growth one fact stands out with startling clearness. It is this:

The product of the Twin Falls News, both newspaper and printing, is Quality Product. It is never cheap, never hurried, never slighted, no matter how few the dollars of actual cost to the buyer.

News products in the way of printing, via with the Daily Editions of the Daily News in point of quality and workmanship.

We give the utmost for the money that it is possible to give, and we invite and compel for business on this basis and on this basis only.

A True Woman

By WALTER JOS. DELANEY

There never were three girls like Aida, Valeria and Bertha Holcomb, in the estimation of Mrs. Jennie Dunn. She was a widow of forty, but association with "those dear children," as she had called them, had kept her young. Warren Holcomb, their uncle, who had taken care of them since their widowed father had died, shared in the opinion of the brisk, bustling matron. He never ceased to bless the day when Mrs. Dunn purchased the other half of the duplex house.

The first time she saw the dazzling trio of beauties she fell completely in love with them. Mr. Holcomb had adopted them only a month previous, and began to doubt his ability to care for three growing, active young ladies, as he called them, when he discovered Mrs. Dunn under the giant tree that shaded the double garden, with Aida at her feet, Valeria's sunny head resting on her shoulder and the more matured Bertha's arm lovingly encircling her waist. A sensation of immense relief surged in his brain, as he hoped this was the beginning of an association of those young spirits with one who could act as guide, counselor and true and tender friend.

With Joy Mrs. Dunn accepted the task without a word being spoken about it. It came to be a regular event for at least once a week to have a guest at the Dunn home the greater part of the day.

Evenings in the summer time they formed a coterie their uncle loved to watch, seated in the corner of the porch on a garden bench, comfortably smoking his pipe. When winter came he was only too happy to be their escort to entertainments or to join the little circle about the piano and be one of the most charming company in the world.

Almost before he realized it, they were grown-up young ladies, indeed. Every time he passed to think what a model, well-ordered household the diligent, constant industry of Mrs. Dunn had created, he dared scarcely to meet her engaging glance or allow his eyes to rest upon a face fair and velvety as that of a girl of twenty.

"She is a jewel among women!" he self-commended, "and she has been more than a mother to those dear girls. Soon they will be married. He is in search of life mates, so I had better enjoy my treasures while they are with me, and be prepared for the parting wrench when it comes."

That hovered at last. The graduations were fairly imperceptible, until one afternoon Mrs. Holcomb experienced a shock when Mrs. Dunn said abruptly:

"Mr. Holcomb, those young men who have been regular callers on the girls for the past year have settled down each to a choice."

"You mean that they are engaged? I guessed that," and then he looked so helplessly forlorn that Mrs. Dunn cast a sympathetic, consoling look upon him that showed the true, tender woman she was.

There followed a full consideration of the theme that now became uppermost in all minds involved. Naturally, the six young people were immersed in their own special affairs. The triple wedding, the first of real interest to all their many friends, and the house was the center of rare bustling activity and interest.

Mrs. Dunn fairly shone in her new province of directing the arrangements for the wedding. The three married couples were to settle down after the honeymoon with a short stay at Belleville. The day after they had departed Warren Holcomb stepped across the yard to where Mrs. Dunn was seated on her own porch. There were traces of tears on her cheeks. She, however, affected a brisk, smiling animation.

"Bertha told me you were thinking of selling the house and going to live with a sister," remarked Mr. Holcomb.

"I wish it were not necessary," was the reply, "but, being all alone, with our dear girls gone, makes such a difference."

"Our dear girls, yes, Mrs. Dunn. You can indeed lay claim to all their love. I hardly think I do, it will be terribly lonesome. To accommodate all this happy group when they come to see us, and when the little ones appear on the scene later."

"Why don't you cut through the partition and make it into one big, comfortable house?"

There Mrs. Dunn paused, flushed and drew back embarrassed.

There Warren Holcomb's eyes flashed with a new suggestion. She was like a woman who had committed herself unwarily, and flushed and tremored like a shy young girl.

"You mean you will sell me your half of the house?"

"I did not; but, but—"

"You don't mean to say that you would stay—that after bestowing the care of a mother upon our dear ones—"

"Oh, Mr. Holcomb!" she broke down utterly. "Let them remain 'our' dears."

"And this house, 'our' house, and you and the rest of the family, and those happy ones? Oh, blessed woman! Can the crowning joy of life be mine—that you care for me?"

"If you had not been blind you would long since have known that," softly whispered this woman among women.

High School News

High school debaters are speeding up work in preparation for the inter-scholastic debate to be held Friday evening, when Boise negative and Twin Falls affirmative met at Pocatello. On the same night Boise affirmative and Pocatello affirmative debated.

This will be the first triangular debate held in several years. In the past an annual debate has been held between Twin Falls and Boise, but Pocatello has been admitted this year and three debates will take place on the same night. The question for discussion is: "Resolved, that boards of arbitration should be appointed by the government to settle all labor disputes."

Principal M. C. Mitchell, who has had charge of debating teams for several years past is coaching the men this year. Twin Falls has a record for debate victories in the past, having met Boise without a defeat in three years. Both teams are in good condition now and should win both debates Friday night. Twin Falls debaters are Glenn Schneider, Harold Porterfield and Jacob Irwin, affirmative; Boise trainer, coach, Glenn Wilkison and Walter Kregel, negative.

Twin Falls matmen will meet Boise next Monday evening at the capital city in the second round of the inter-scholastic boxing and wrestling tournament. About seven athletes will make the trip. Coach, Nick Collins. Boise trainer, has asked for six wrestlers and two boxers. An extra man may be selected to fill the lineup.

Local athletes are getting ready for the tournament, and will likely trip up Boise again, since the Boiseites were badly defeated here a month ago. D. L. Holly is putting the men through the preparatory work for the contest.

HIGHWAY BOARD WILL DO WORK

Decision is Reached, when Bids are Too High, to Reject the Contract Proposals

County road surfacing will be done on "force account" instead of by contract, and on these roads bituminous macadam will be used for the surfacing instead of bitulithic.

These measures were decided upon at a public meeting of citizens with the Twin Falls Highway District commissioners this morning. The meeting was held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce with approximately 25 business men in conference with the commission.

Decision to do construction by "force account" means the rejection of a number of construction proposals received by the district commissioners and opened at a meeting last night. All bids were considered too high. Formal rejection will probably be made this afternoon.

Consensus of opinion at this morning's mass assembly favored more surfaced roads with a lighter grade of material than less mileage with higher quality. Bitulithic had been proposed. The work will be done on "force account" if a contractor cannot be found to assume the task at a price the highway board feels it can do the work. The state highway will, of course, be surfaced with the better grade of material.

Bids were submitted last night by the following contractors: For construction of 15.28 miles of road to the west of Twin Falls, Thomas Owens & Co., Warren Construction company, Reed & Paysee.

Contract of 15.3 miles of road east of Twin Falls, Warren Construction company, Reed & Paysee, J. C. McGuire, Thomas Owens & Co.

On the first district the engineer's estimate was $250,000, on the second $271,877.30. All bids were much above this amount.

HAPPY COMPTON.
"In the first place," said Happy Compton. "I must tell everyone what I think. He and I are in the second place I must tell everyone what I am."

"In fact perhaps it would be better," to tell everyone what I am not of all. "I have been asked to tell my story, to tell myself, and that if I do so, lots of boys and girls will hear of me. It's not that I'm so specially I want boys and girls to hear of me for I wouldn't want to leave my mistress for anything and I don't want a home by any manner of means."

"Both my mistresses, one named Louisa and the other named Ada, have asked to have me tell my story so others would know what a nice creature I am. That is, they say I'm nice and I've met their fine friends I've rather a good idea of boys and girls."

"If I must get started, mustn't I? People and creatures of all sorts shouldn't take forever about telling their stories, I've been told. "Yes, I must tell who I am, in the very first place of all."

"I'm a dog. I'm not any special creature, but I'm a chance to win a big prize. I'm not that I'm a bright one, but I'm a very thoroughbred. I'm glad they think I'm bright, and that they like me."

"I was a little waf dog first of all. Louisa and Ada had promised a dog. Their daddy had told them that the best chance he had he would go and buy them a dog. I'm just along, a lovely, beautiful little waf dog."

"They took me in and fed me and loved me and made me warm and happy. "When their daddy asked them about the dog he was to buy for them Louisa said:

"I don't like dogs as these, in kennels, which are for sale, will get hames, for they will be in good condition, but this is a homeless little dog and I'd rather have him. He will be happy here and he will be loved here. No one could love him more than I do."

"Except the way I love him," said Ada, "she put me down by her on the pillow and covered me up and then Louisa stroked my head and I went off into the dreamland of dogs."

"They both loved me so right away and they still love me so, and I know how much they always will love me. "Because they could see how happy I was to be no longer homeless and miserable they called me Happy. It's such a nice name, and they have given me their last name, too—Happy Compton. Isn't that fine?"

"I am brown with little white touches on my paws. The hind toes on all of my feet greatly amuse my mistresses, because of the little white touches on my neck, like a cravat or a necktie, you know. I never change it of course, because it is a part of me."

"My eyes are brown and the tip of my nose is brown and my whiskers are brown. All a soft, pretty shade of brown, too. Yes, I look as brown and soft as a dog could look and I'm satisfied."

"They say I'm just a nice animal to love and to play with. "Oh, I do have such a good time! First I lived with them in a little place near the sea. I was so happy there, and then they came to a big place, where I went out in an automobile a great deal."

"Like all dogs, I'm devoted to an automobile. Then I go for walks in the park and I always have a good time. "No one ever quarrels or fesses where I live. No one is cranky or horrid or spiteful."

"They gave me a good name and I live up to my name. I certainly am happy. It's an easy name for a little brown dog in a lovely home to live up to. I'm glad they didn't call me Beauty or Good Boy or something like that. Such names would have been harder to live up to."

"My name is so easy, and I shall always live up to it, for there is no reason why I shouldn't. I'm a happy little brown dog for I belong to Ada and to Louisa, and they're just as nice and just as wonderful as they can be. And Happy knows!"

INDIANS CONSIDER RED STRONG CONTENDERS FOR 1920 PENNANT

Cleveland Players Show Great Confidence in the Training Camp and Speaker's Pitchers are Lining Up as well as Conditioning Season Advances—Nothing but a Gonfalon will Satisfy the Club

By JAMES GRUNNABERRY.
NEW ORLEANS, La., (Special)—Nothing but a pennant will satisfy the Cleveland baseball players this year, if they finish second, they will consider the season a total failure. They believe they can win the flag. They are all set for it and eager for the race to start. The Indians have all the confidence in the world, and are quite sure of it. They are a most harmonious machine that looks as if it might turn the trick. Barring an over-throw of bad luck the Indians are sure to be in the fight. One needs to spend only a day in this camp to realize it.

All Depends on Harter.
Before training began, every expert was giving Cleveland a chance to win the flag, and it was saying that it depended upon Speaker's pitching staff. The experts figured he had Stanley Coveleski as a sure start, but Speaker's brilliant play as a manager, Speaker himself was a bit doubtful of his pitching strength when he first went to Politan park. His hopes for success are high since that first practice, because he has seen splendid possibilities in his hurlers and he believes he will have four or five first-class men to help Coveleski. The only real danger of the others, Bagby with favor because he has been through the mill with credit. Now it looks as if Bagby has gained some additional strength and not only that but that some of the other doubtful ones seem sure of success, thus enabling Bagby to have his needed rest between games.

Uncle Big League Calibra.
George Uhla, who had picked off Cleveland lots, who already has shown big league stuff with the team, now seems just about ready to be a real big leaguer. Then there is Ray Caldwell, formerly left fielder at the other team, or less eccentric jumps and weird exploits, Ray seems to have settled down and become filled with that same pennant fever. There's no doubt about his ability to pitch. If he does, he will become more important in his mind than outside things, he is sure to be a high-class man.

A couple of three years ago, Guy Morton was a slab worker. Afterward he fell down in his work because of a bad arm. Speaker even holds a great hope in the return of Morton to the mound. He is a right hander. If he is good enough to take a game a week, will game every ten days and finish up some other, he will be of great service.

Myers Looks Great.
Elmer Myers two or three years ago was one of the pitching phenoms dug up by Connie Mack. He is a tall and lean right hander who had a good curve. He went to war last year and joined the Indians late in the season. He wasn't a great success. This year, he looks great, having had a winter to build up and with a spring training it seems he's likely to make things hum April 1.

All of the pitchers mentioned are right handers. Speaker has only four southpaws in his camp and none of them stand out prominently. Perhaps such a condition may cost him the pennant. There should be a couple of strong left handers on a team that expects to win a flag. Some clubs are notably weak against left handed pitching.

Petty Best Southpaw Prospect.
Of these on hand, the best prospect is Jess Petty, originally from the Texas league. After his war work, Petty went to Milwaukee and went over nicely last season. He is a swarthy fellow with plenty of arm and stuff, but not a lot of experience. Dick Nicholas, also with Milwaukee last year, has seen more baseball service, and is a much more valuable. Joe Bevilging, once with Washington, then with Cleveland, and last year out of baseball, is back. He knows considerable baseball and seems to be regaining his old time deceptive curves. Tim Murch-inson is a youngster from Florida who needs more time. Six right handed youngsters are among the recruits. Tom Phillips and Tony Faith, made good with Milwaukee last year. Otis Lambeth did some good turns at Columbus and George Cykoski and Jim Lindsay are splits from the semi-pro field seeking fame.

Chance for Star Stuff.
On that list of sixteen men, it seems that Speaker will be able to pick eight or nine hurlers to handle the club properly and if just one of his left handed hurlers will go through for him, he may have a staff that will rank pretty close to the star staffs of the major leagues.

So far as one can see, there's no cause for worry about the balance of the team. There's Steve O'Neil as first catcher and "Not more than" one other in the league excels him. He has Thomas and Nunamaker to assist him. Both have had plenty of big league experience and are capable of going into a game any time and doing things correctly.

Infield Classy One.
On the infield is Doc Johnston at first, Bill Wambugano at second, Ray Chapman at short and Jerry Gardner at third. Chapman is the best shortstop in the business today, a great hitter, one of the best base runners in the league and a wonder in fielding. He's a great power on a ball club both in defense and offense. The others rang with the topnotchers. Johnston may not hit as well as a first baseman should, but he should wallow the ball but he fits into the Cleveland machine beautifully and has more pop than any of them.

For utility work Speaker has Joe Evans, Harry Lunte and Otto New, the last named being a soldier who played at Omaha before he went to fight here. Frank Grabfelder, a Cleveland semi-pro, is trying for a position.

Only One Holdout.
The only holdout on the club is Joe Harris, who took Johnston's place at first last season during the race. So far he hasn't come to terms, and may not as he has a big offer from the industrial league. His ability to hit might drive in a few balls during the grind for the pennant.

With Speaker in center, Eddie Graney in left and Elmer Smith in right, the Indians have a great trio of outfielders, both in hitting and fielding. It looks like a championship set. Speaker still is the peer of them all in his position. Graney is a great fellow after a fly ball, a pretty fair hitter and a splendid leadoff man and Smith is a slugger. Joe Wood seems to be chief utility man and is likely to be in many games against left handed pitchers. Charley Jamieson, once with

Polish Heavyweight has Little Trouble with Finn—Londos Wins Greek Crown

NEW YORK, (AP)—Stanislas Zbyszko, Polish heavyweight wrestler, threw John Olin, of Finland, in a catch-as-catch-can contest last night in 63 minutes and 27 seconds with a combination body and toe hold. The bout preceded one between Jim Londos, Greek title holder, and William Demetral, challenger, who lost the title to Londos recently.

Londos was declared the winner over Demetral, when the latter claimed to have been injured by a fall from the title body and toe hold. The men had wrestled one hour, 53 minutes and 50 seconds.

Both men resorted to painful toe holds and head locks. The match was bitterly contested. Honors were about even for an hour and a half, with Londos the aggressor most of the time. Demetral appeared to show up near the end of the contest, and while both had toe holds, made a quick shift to free himself. He rolled over the edge of the ring and bounced on the reporters table to the floor. After a doctor had declared that his collarbone had been injured, Referee George Bothner proclaimed Londos the victor.

DOUBLE UMPIRING.
CHICAGO, (AP)—The double umpiring system will be restored in the Western League this season, President Kearney announced last night. Joseph Becker and "Mickey" Jacobs will be retained from last season's staff. New members will be: P. H. Lippe and E. F. Lanson of the Southern league; Jack Daly and Matty Fitzpatrick of the Three-I league, William J. Buckley of the American association and Frank W. Olson of the International league.

I. C. FOOTBALL.
NEW YORK, (AP)—An advance course in which college coaches may learn more about baseball, football, track work, basketball and wrestling will be given at Columbia university this summer, it was announced today. Modern methods of coaching will be taught in the lecture room and on the field.

Fred Tenney reported at San Antonio weighing 225 pounds, which was 10 pounds lighter, he says, than he weighed most of the winter. Tenney expects that when he is hunting in Tennessee one day he was taken for a government agent by moonshiners. They were about to put him off with when he explained who he was. "I weigh off ten pounds before they let me go," says the pitcher of the Giants.

Clubby Charles Murphy, professional at Memphis, Tenn., has been released. Charlie a short time ago in-joined the National league from making a 1920 schedule until the Chicago club had made a settlement with sweet off ten pounds before they let me go," says the pitcher of the Giants.

Attorney General Palmer says that meat prices have been dropping for the past three months.

Receiving this information from the authority, Twin Falls consumers naturally will ask "Where?"

MITCHELL BESTS JACKSON.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., (AP)—Richie Mitchell, Milwaukee lightweight, last night outboxed Willie Jackson, New York, in a fast 10-round, no-decision bout according to an almost unanimous opinion of sporting writers. Mitchell appeared to have the advantage in a majority of the sessions not considered even.

OREN KNOCKED OUT.
IDAHO FALLS, Ida., (AP)—Jack White of Idaho Falls, middleweight, knocked out Jess Oren of Salt Lake city, here last night in the eighth round.

RECOMMENDS $60,000,000 FOR ARMY AVIATION SERVICE.
WASHINGTON, (AP)—Appropriation of $60,000,000 for army aviation in 1921 was recommended today to the house military today by Major General Charles Menoher, director of air service.
Of the total $23,714,000 would be used for production and purchase of airplanes and $750,000 for balloons, airships and lighter-than-air machines. General Menoher recommended an air service personnel of 16,000 officers and men.

An Ideal Remedy for Constipation.
It would be hard to find a better remedy for constipation than Chamberlain's Tablets. For the best effect they should be taken immediately after supper. They are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.—adv.

NORTHWESTERN CIRCUIT WILL OPEN UP AGAIN

Organized Baseball Territory from Spokane to Coast Has a New League

SEATTLE, Wash., (AP)—Baseball fans of the Pacific northwest this summer will be able to attend games of two organized ball leagues, the Pacific Coast and the Pacific Coast International, a new Class B circuit which has taken over the territory of the old Northwest league.

Portland and Seattle, the northwest clubs of the coast organization, are hard at work at their California training camps. Seattle is at Hanford and Portland at Ontario. They will open the season in the south.

Big clubs will be in the new international league. Two of them, coming from the Canadian cities of Vancouver and Victoria, will give the league its international touch. The other clubs will represent the Washington cities of Spokane, Tacoma, Yakima and Seattle.

The league will open May 5 with Seattle at Vancouver, Victoria at Tacoma and Yakima at Spokane. The league schedule will run until September 15.

Several veteran players are piloting clubs in the organization. Cliff Blankenship, manager of the Spokane club, has seen service with the Washington American league. Bobby Vaughn, who had a short term with the majors, has charge of the Tacoma team. Bill Leard, former Northwest league infielder, will direct the Victoria club. The Yakima club will be headed by Tully Raymond, Seattle veteran. Dave Hilliard, a player, will manage Seattle. Bob Brown, veteran pilot of Vancouver's club, is one of the promoters of the circuit.

ARGUE BISBEE STRIKE SYMPATHETIC MOVEMENT

Defence in Deportations Trial Offers Letter to Shed Light on Motive for Tie-Up of Mines

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., (AP)—Efforts to show the reasons for the Butte Montana, strike of 1917, in sympathy with which it was asserted the Bisbee strike was called, was unsuccessful Monday in the trial of Henry E. Wootton charged with kidnapping in connection with the Bisbee deportations.

Judge Samuel L. Patton refused to admit the evidence offered, explaining that conditions in Bisbee must be more fully shown before outside strikes could be considered.
An unsigned letter purporting to have been addressed to Wm. D. Heywood, head of the Industrial Workers of the World, from Columbus, New Mexico, written by one of the men deported was introduced by the defense. The letter said the Bisbee strike was called "more in sympathy with Butte than for better conditions for ourselves."

REQUEST OF CITY FIREMEN FOR WAGE RAISE DENIED BY COUNCIL

Petition for More Salary to Department Employees Ordered Tabled Until Time for Making Up Next-Fiscal Budget of Expense—Dr. Faalon Tells of Tubercular Condition of Slaughtered Hogs!

City fire fighters of Twin Falls will have to stretch their salaries to meet expenses for the remainder of the present fiscal year. The municipal administrators have so decided. Later the petition for an increase in monthly pay will be considered, but nothing doing just now.

This decision was reached by the council at a sitting last night when Chief W. W. Corbett was called into council to talk the question of the firemen's demand for more pay. The chief was asked to state specifically why the demand had been made in the present emergency, other than the fact that the department. Chief Corbett stated that the question had been submitted to him before it came to the city legislature and that he had done nothing to present it on the ground that the city budget for the entire year was still in effect and that the present pay of firemen had been based upon that budget. To increase the salaries would mean a deficit that would have to be made up out of next year's taxes, and would mean the drawing on money not yet earned. He said he had asked the men to wait until May 1 when the new budget would be made up. The petition was submitted two weeks ago by a fire department worker who explained that his chief seemed unfavorable to the request.

Although A. W. Murray, city plumbing and health inspector, submitted a lengthy document entitled "Regulation of Dairies," no particular action was taken regarding the present milk and dairy ordinance. The matter was laid over until such time as Mr. Murray, Inspector Dr. W. A. Faalon and the city attorney, J. E. Davies, can be brought together and consider the bill and work out all of the details of a regulatory ordinance. The document submitted last night covers about a score of legal and pages, closely typed, dealing with the general regulation of dairy dairies, and also providing specific rules for handling milk, dairy products, the sort of stall to use and methods of keeping that refrigerator clean and sanitary, providing for the removal of manure to be used in sanitation of dairy buildings and similar houses. The regulations even go so far as to define what cream is and what milk is, and explain the distinction between pasteurized and sterilized milk, and the penalties for violations of the terms of the ordinance.

While on this subject Dr. Faalon was asked to relate incidents and experience connected with his operations as a slaughter inspector. He started off with the startling announcement that 25 per cent of swine brought to the local slaughter house are tubercular. He reported on findings in the past week especially "Three out of four hogs brought in last week by one man I was compelled to condemn as unfit for human food," he said. He said the carcasses of the three hogs mentioned were so seriously infected with tuberculosis that the carcasses were ordered destroyed.

Dr. Faalon announced that two per cent of hogs brought here for export are consumptive, but not to such a degree as hogs. He said that in the past day or so he had found the carcass of a bull, killed, the butcher said, for botulism meat, and decided tuberculosis was the cause of the disease. The inspector who not lodging official complaint against the butchers of Twin Falls, explained that the character and quality of animals brought for slaughter are on a fair basis. He said there is no best of prime quality butchers for Twin Falls consumption.

Louise discussion by members of the council and Faalon, Engineer J. F. Hoffeditz called to bring any definite conclusion as to how crossings shall be constructed; whether elevated and the gutters covered with cast iron, or whether the gutters shall be covered with water courses. Figures presented by the engineer proved that to carry out plans for elevated crossings would have a deficit of about $10,000. Mr. Hoffeditz was asked to scrutinize the plans and specifications for building interlocking crossings and, if possible, a way to reduce expense so as to absorb the extra $10,000. He will report next Monday.

J. T. Chapman presented a plat for the subdivision of 10 and one-half acres on the east side of Blue Lakes boulevard, south of the railroad tracks. The plat was ordered back for revision that will make the streets conform to the existing crossing regulations.

A delegation of property owners in blocks 29 and 30, on Sixth avenue north, appeared to protest against the maintenance of an open ditch along that avenue. Mr. Hoffeditz explained that the ditch was a temporary affair, designed for the purpose of carrying the water into the street. The ditch was the greater part of the time, anyway. Protestants declared the ditch to be a menace to public safety. Arrangements are being made to supply protection.

Mayor Eldridge was vested with authority to seek out and arrange for employing an assistant for Dr. Faalon. This assistant will look after the milk and dairy department.

Dr. Faalon stated that in his opinion all groceries handling meats of any sort should be subjected to inspection at stated periods. This plan will doubtless be adopted.

An ordinance was passed on final reading ordering the vacating of an alley in block 63. The property abutting it is owned by J. E. Davies.

Arrangements have been made to have attorneys in remote southern cities take depositions of certain witnesses whose testimony will be needed in the defense of water damage suits

CARVER GIVES BOND
 M. W. Carver, Elms district farmer, was yesterday morning released from the sheriff's custody on bond of $5,000. Carver is held to appear on April 12.

Robin Here at Last—Does Not Seem Satisfied

YESTERDAY afternoon a rust-colored robin rustled on a fence.

The last word in spring harbingers acted sort of apologetic; just as though it had come but didn't know why.

Kinda reminded one of the decept, myopic old fellow who saw what he took to be money lying on a sidewalk. He sidled up to the spot and when he thought nobody was looking, bent his creaking old bones until his fingers touched the place.

With all the apryness he could muster the old man straightened up. There was a disgusted and dispirited look on his face as he nervously wiped his fingers on his pants pants.

"Somebody rounded myer spits like a raisin," he remarked as he passed on to the next.

A raise of nine degrees in yesterday's temperature is the report of the local observer, but the mercury fell to 24 last night. Tonight Wednesday probably rain/colder in southwest portion Wednesday.

This having been a fair sample of spring weather the foregoing prognostication was expected.

Today and Tomorrow Alteration Sale

Our alteration sale has proved such a success that we have decided to continue it for today and tomorrow. If you were in the store last week you could have seen that we were doing what we set out to do—turn a lot of merchandise into cash. We know that people came because we were offering real items at the right price.

Two Days of Garment Sales

These prices shall continue today and tomorrow only. At these prices your Easter clothes will not be so expensive after all.

- Suits at $39.50
 Only ten of them. Suits of silvertone in all of the most wanted shades of brown, blue, tan and blacks. These are smart belted models—diffuse trimmings. The linings are of a very pretty pearlywillow taffeta. Friday and Saturday ..... $39.50
- Sport Coats
 In a day or two you'll see on the streets many handsome sport coats—many of them are from this store. A sport coat is the thing to wear on the streets now—to wear in the motor all summer—to wear early in the fall. Come in for inspection.
- Suits at $49.50
 Here are a few suits that are especially priced for these two days. They are of navy blue. Attractive button trimmings. Some belted styles. Any materials are tricotone and serge. All dealer will tell you that these are worth this price wholesale ..... $49.50
- Sport Skirts
 And this season seems to be a season for sport garments. The new sport skirts are wonderful—offered in a variety of plaids and checks—some very loud plaid, if you please. Knife pleats and accordion pleats. Jaunty lengths. Moderate prices.

- For Large Women
 Many large women have complained to us that they never could buy suits in their sizes in Twin Falls. We have remedied this trouble. Big new ones have in stock a world of handsome suits that are specially designed for large women. If you wear a "stout" come in for a look.
- Silk Frocks $29.75
 Twenty-five smart silk dresses set aside for selling Friday and Saturday. Any good dressmaker would ask this price for the sewing. Taffetas, foulards, Georgettes. Dresses that have come out of New York within the past week. Worth double. Priced ..... $29.75

TAKE VOTE ON AMERICAN PLAN

Extension of Opinion Overwhelmingly Favorable—Questionnaires to Be Sent Out

Although a vote of chamber of commerce present at a meeting last night was overwhelmingly in favor of endorsement of the American Plan, as at present in operation among employees of Twin Falls, executives of the chamber decided to dispatch questionnaires to obtain a true index toward the disposition of the entire membership.

At last night's meeting not quite half the members of the organization were present. The vote taken then stood 89 for and 9 against the plan's endorsement. The questionnaires are to be mailed out without delay, and on next Monday night the vote will be canvassed.

Expression of opinion last night was reached only after a long discussion, following declination of the board of directors to endorse the American Plan for the chamber of commerce. There developed a real issue, and the matter taken out of the jurisdiction of the board and have the meeting take official action. Expression was reached through a test vote.

A committee representing the American Legion post sought aid in the production of plans for the coming Legion convention. This assistance was unanimously pledged. The chamber of commerce will send a check to the student body may participate in the parade.

Questions pertaining to entertainments and reception of the State Fair business men, scheduled to be here today in the coming month, were discussed, and a tentative program outlined.

Gingham Dresses Cheaper Than Making $2.95

Women's home dresses of good gingham for less money than you can make them. There's a reason, of course. These are from a former season. The materials are a good quality of gingham, well made. Values to $4.50. Friday and Saturday ..... $2.95

Patch of Twin Falls District Land, Near Oity, is Disposed of at Good Price

W. J. Ray, living one mile northwest of Twin Falls, had just disposed of a 6-acre tract of land for $9,000. The tract was acquired by V. W. Sloan recently coming here from Kansas. The purchaser has taken possession of the land and is now making arrangements to build a Livestock agency of Twin Falls. Mr. Ray, who has resided here 10 years, will go to Buffalo, Mo., for a time.

DEVOTIONAL SERVICES

The subject for the midweek devotional services on Monday evening will be "Christ a Disappointed King." As we near the season that does honor to the greatest tragedy that the world has ever seen an appeal will be made for renewed devotion. For those who are weary of heaven's pious sacrifices, that in this time when the faith of many is growing cold, that the bride of Christ be not found flirting with the devil.

FINDS FOR PLAINTIFF

In the probate court yesterday afternoon judgment was rendered by Judge E. D. Duvall in favor of the plaintiff who sued Harry Boyd on an unlawful detainer claim. It was found that Boyd was withholding from Hartwell certain rights in a postpaid property, known as 'The Louvre'.
