

CAMPAIGN YEAR DIFFICULT FOR NEWS GATHERER

Associated Press President Details Attitude of Institution Toward Aspirants Accuracy and Fairness Aims

NEW YORK, (AP)—Frank B. Noyes, of the Washington Star, was re-elected president of the Associated Press at a meeting of the board of directors here today. Calvin Cobb of the Boston Herald-Examiner, was elected first vice president and J. Lawrence Horne, Jr., of the Rocky Mountain (North Dakota) Telegram, second vice president.

All members of the executive committee were re-elected. They are:

Frank B. Noyes, Washington Star; W. L. McLean, Philadelphia Bulletin; Adolph S. Ochs, New York Times; W. B. Hallahan, Providence Journal; Victor E. Lawrence, Chicago Daily News; Charles A. Hook, Pittsburgh Courier; Charles Hopkins Clark, Hartford, Courant.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Members of the Associated Press met at the Waldorf Astoria hotel here Tuesday to elect five directors for advisory boards, and auditing and nominating committees. At a luncheon in connection with the meeting, President Frank B. Noyes, of the Washington Star, proposed a toast to President Wilson saying: "In offering a toast, the formal wish for health is usually of little significance. With us this year, in our only toast it is our custom to offer the toast, 'I am profoundly different for very earnestly, very hopefully and very sincerely we drink to the health, the full and rapid health of the president of the United States.'"

Everlast, Not Master

"Every servant of the year is an open season for the critics of the Associated Press," said Mr. Noyes, before giving his address to the banquet. "We are accustomed, through long experience, to the railings against our service of the uninformed, the notoriety seeker and the commercial advertiser who charges bias or suppression in the report of the Associated Press."

"Every newspaper man, every informant, every person, every newspaper, every newspaper that their news service should be owned and controlled by themselves and themselves alone, that it should be their master and their master, that it should give an adequate and truthful record of the day's world happenings, free from bias and from opinion, free from propaganda. We do not claim to be infallible, our service has been singularly in attaining the objects we sought and the line 'By Associated Press' has become a badge for its accuracy, whether the event recorded is the election of a president, the signing of an armistice, a decision of the supreme court or the making of a peace treaty."

Special Period of Tribulation

"While at all times this open season continues, every four years comes a special period of tribulation. When the presidential campaign begins, we are candidates for the nomination and the resulting presidential candidates and every manager of every candidate finds his audience, his report of bias against every candidate mentioned—until after the election and then all agree that the Associated Press has been so fair. There has been our experience in the past and there is every indication that the present campaign will be no exception."

"I say this for there is a measure of truth in the charge, for on the theory that 'He who is not for us is against us,' The Associated Press is against every candidate for it surely is not, for any one of them."

Mr. Noyes explained that while every one of the candidates will have the support of his own newspapers, the Associated Press will continue serenely indifferent as to the outcome of the nominating conventions and elections, contenting itself with reporting the members with the news as it happens, playing no favorites and punishing no enemies.

Product of Infinite Care

"The report of the Associated Press does not grow or simply come into being without effort," continued Mr. Noyes. "Every line, every word is the product of an individual. There is of whom hundreds toil and adventure daily to supply a fair picture of the world's happenings, every one of you know that at bottom these changes of bias are charges against our accuracy and our workers—who if we are betrayed are the betrayers, who if these charges are true, are reluctant to the trust we have placed in them."

"You know them, you know them all, division chiefs, bureau chiefs, editors, correspondents, reporters, operators, working tirelessly, faithfully, efficiently, intelligently. You know that these men are the salt of the earth, the pride of our country, and that your opinion nor mine can be flatter expressed."

Dr. Kendrick declared that 90 per cent of the natives were suffering from the disease. He plans to return there shortly to continue his work.

Introduces Marshall

Mr. Noyes, introducing Vice President Marshall, the principal speaker at the luncheon, said:

"Some men shrink in stature on further acquaintance, while a few grow as the people of the United States have observed one of the chief of their servants from day to day and from year to year there has been an increasing appreciation with each day and each year not only of his delightful personality and of his great tact in a very trying and difficult position, but of his resolute character and sturdy good sense—and that is saying a great deal in these days and especially of a man who has been in precise geographical position."

"It gives me great pleasure to present to you the vice president of the United States, Thomas R. Marshall."

MAKE ATTEMPT TO PICK UP SIGNALS FROM MARS

Omaha Wireless Expert Explains Interesting Experiment in Progress

OMAHA, Neb., (AP)—An attempt is being made this week to pick up wireless signals which the alleged inhabitants of the planet Mars are believed by experts to be sending out to the earth. This announcement was made today by Dr. Frederick H. Millener, wireless expert of this city.

Dr. Millener explained that during this week the earth and Mars will be closer together than at any time during the year and for that reason the experiment will be conducted now.

In his statement today Dr. Millener said: "A wireless signal is a form of an invisible light wave of a definite rate vibrations and oscillations. With the modern means of interpreting these definite rates it is not impossible to believe that some rhythmic mathematical signals made by light waves or some spectral modification of some character might be intercepted by means of radio apparatus upon this earth."

"On account of the very delicacy of these instruments, no indication that they have been able to interpret a sound which we have heretofore been unable to hear, weather conditions, atmospheres, thunderstorms and other natural phenomena may absolutely prevent even the slightest long distance communication from being received. But given fair conditions any sounds unusual in the United States will be observed."

DECLARES SIMS STRAINED POINT

War Time Assistant Chief of Naval Operations Refutes Admiral's Charge

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Rear Admiral Sims "strained a point to make a case against the navy" when he charged that its failure to cooperate fully with the allies during the first few months of American participation in the war was the result of "four months, Captain Pratt, war-time assistant chief of operations, declared today before the senate committee investigating the Sims-Daniels row.

Pratt said only one charge made by Sims could properly be considered grave. That, he said, was the assertion that failure of the navy to throw its full weight into the struggle from the start cost $15,000,000,000 and 500,000 lives.

"What does Admiral Sims mean?" the witness asked. "Can we, a nation at peace, no matter what our inclinations may be, perform exact acts of preparation which are only justified, acts of war? I deny the charge."

Pratt told the committee that during the war he kept 111 destroyers and four anti-submarine craft were kept at home to protect the Atlantic coast, while during the same period the British admirals kept 111 destroyers and the grand fleet and entirely out of anti-submarine operations.

Sims was under a "misconception of his position" he compared with the duties with those of General Pershing," Pratt continued. The admiral was not an independent commander-in-chief, he said, but the representative in London of the chief of operations.

Some of the factors that caused delays and mistakes that might be avoided in the future, the captain declared, were lack of material preparation of adequate supplies and repair bases, of sufficient personnel and training facilities, and of modern methods of organization and administration.

"I ask you to consider the navy of April 1917, then the navy of November, 1918, and finally the navy of today," the witness said. "With men leaving the service in droves and ships lying idle at the navy yards, your navy of today is but a battered hulk of what it was on armistice day. Were war to be declared today would it be the navy's fault that we were not instantly prepared?"

CHICAGO'S 'CELLIST' COMING HERE ON MAY 4

Bruno Steindel, eminent Violinist Artist, will be in Twin Falls Soon

Announcement that Bruno Steindel, Chicago's famous "cellist" will appear in recital in Twin Falls soon, has caused a decided furor among supporters of better music in this community. Steindel stands supreme of all the violinello artists of this country, and his appearance is awaited here with great anticipation.

The Chicago artist will be in Twin Falls May 4 and will give a concert at the Lavering theatre. Twin Falls is one of five points on Mr. Steindel's itinerary.

OVERALL PLEDGE ORIGIN GOES TO TAMPA, FLORIDA

Insurance Company Official Institutes Movement Protesting Against High Clothing Costs Now Sweeping Country

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Whether the wearing of overall and galicos instead of blue serge, native Palm Beaches, home-spuns, velles and other expensive clothing will bring down the high cost of dressing is an experiment first started here and spreading through all Florida and into Alabama. The whole country now knows of it and has characterized it as "the Tampa idea."

The new style movement, its originators say, is dictated in the spirit of public duty and necessity and does not indicate any lessening of desire on the part of either men or women for good and stylish apparel. They think, however, that it is worth while to try to popularize overalls for men and galicos and gingham for women and that it is no secret that the feminine experimenters are still looking for the return of silks, satins, organdies and the like to the limitations of their purses.

So it came about that Hartford Jones, secretary of an insurance company, organized the Overall club of Tampa. Each member pledged to wear overalls as a regular thing until clothing prices tumbled. Hundreds have joined and many are making good. Others say they are keeping the pledge just as faithfully by taking advantage of the clause which allows them to wear all clothes in lieu of overalls—just so they don't buy any new stuff.

When the men organized the women took up the battle, the New Thought and Daily club, headed by Mrs. Clara Lawton Metcalf, pledging its membership to call dresses. All of this had its first public demonstration on Easter Sunday.

Men and women, correctly garbed to harmonize with the new idea, gathered in the court house square. Addresses were made, new pledges received, and petitions signed asking city, state and national officials to take notice and give aid. Merchants looked on and frowned, and later announced that their sales had not fallen off a bit. They are not the only ones who smile knowingly at the movement and predict that just as the foregoing of the lu-rious porterhouse steak and cholee rib roast increased the cost of brokiet chuck and rump, the abandonment of beautiful silks and all wool garments will raise the cost of deans and call-cos.

"This overalls business is only a fool joke," says one of the leading clothiers. "Just as long as folks who work for wages demand fifteen-dollar silk shirts, three-dollar silk neckties and two and a half-dollar silk socks, they will get them. And while they're buying that sort of stuff you may buy your heaviest bet on their also buying the best suits of clothing the market affords."

The overall club, however, insists that the war has only begun and that they'll stick it out and are gaining recruits in bunches.

You can count upon the classified to sell your real estate—and the cost of the advertising will figure surprisingly small.

TURKISH REBEL LEADER OPENS FURNISHED ARMS

Practically Open Smuggling Goes On at Black Sea Port Under Surveillance of British, Relief Worker Says

NEW YORK, (AP)—Mustapha Kemal Pasha's Turkish nationalist army, which has been a disturbing factor in the efforts of the allies to solve the Turkish peace problem, is being regularly supplied with arms and ammunition from Constantinople, according to information received here from J. P. Ryan, of Muncie, Ind., near East relief worker in that district.

"Arms are smuggled in regularly, and with almost no attempt at concealment," writes Mr. Ryan. "A Turkish schooner makes a trip every few days from Constantinople, and anchors right here in Trebizond. The cargo is discharged at night, and loaded on to the relief workers' trucks. You can see almost any night following the same road out of town that the lines of Greek refugees were driven to their death in 1914 and 1915. They pass right by the Near East relief orphanage on their way to the interior.

Social Notes

The ninth annual breakfast of the Twentieth Century club was given yesterday at the Regency Hotel. Present at 3 o'clock members and guests numbering 116 took their places in the dining room which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion.

Mr. A. Beaver was toast mistress and introduced each speaker in her usual delightful manner. The invocation was given by Mrs. P. W. McRoberts. These were followed by the vocal: "The Team," Mrs. H. J. Young; toasts: "My Sister," by Mrs. W. H. Dwight; "Adam," by Mrs. J. J. Taylor; "The Train," by Mrs. C. A. Emer; and a prayer of the month's work of the club; "The Forward Look," by Mrs. H. W. Clouche.

The wedding of Miss Suzanne D. Taylor and Lynce O. Ulm was solemnized promptly at 9 o'clock Monday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Taylor on Eighth avenue north. The music room which had been reserved for the occasion was most gorgeously covered with a white satin altar cloth and was ornamented with brass candlesticks containing white tapers with a pink group of palms at the front.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle and carried a large bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses. Mrs. William Thompson presided at the piano. The bride's gown was of white tulle and carried a large bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses. Mrs. William Thompson presided at the piano.

High School News

Reversing its decision of last week, when a majority vote of the class was recorded in favor of two groups of cluster lights to be placed at the entrance to the high school as the graduates' memorial gift, the senior class yesterday changed its mind and decided that a drinking fountain should be left to the local institution.

Each senior class upon graduation leaves some useful article to the high school as a memorial. Last year's bronze tablet dedicated to former Twin Falls high school man who died in the world war was left by the class of 1919.

It is expected that the drinking fountain, which will be placed at the high school entrance, will be installed within a short time, possibly before the close of school. Suggestion has been made that the gift be dedicated to high school men who volunteered in the army during the war, and it is likely that this will be done.

Yesterday's Buhl-Twin Falls baseball game called off because of unfavorable weather, will be played this afternoon at Lincoln park, beginning at 3:30 o'clock.

All departments of the high school will exhibit work of high school students at the annual exhibit which will be held Thursday afternoon, April 29, at 2:30 o'clock. The time in the several rooms of the building under the work of the year will be open for public inspection.

No exhibit was held last year, due to enforced closing of school for ten weeks which interfered with the usual studies, so this year's showing will be the best in the history of the school work program during the past two terms.

Departments which will participate in the exhibit are history, English, science, sewing, cooking, manual training, mathematics, art, social science and agriculture.

During the past month students have been working on themes and drawings for the showing, and a large and interesting display is promised school parlors next week.

By a sufficient margin of votes, the two upper classes yesterday afternoon decided to stage a flag rush within the near future to determine class supremacy. This event is an annual affair, but this year it will have the sanction of school authorities behind it.

According to tentative plans for the occasion, the flag rush will be held probably the first week in May. A wooden flag pole will be placed near the regular pole, and the senior flag hoisted upon it. Seniors will defend their position from the juniors, who will attempt to take it down and hoist their own in its place within a stipulated time. Failure of the juniors to remove the '20 flag will result in the latter being permitted to remain on the pole for two days. Should the juniors succeed, their bunting will be

Break Develops in Utah Striker Ranks

SALT LAKE CITY, (AP)—The first break in the ranks of the striking employees of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad here occurred late today when 30 switchmen reported for work.

Get out tomorrow and do your bit! Where? At the site of the new Auto Tourists' Camping Park at the end of Fifth and Sixth Avenues East.

Twin Falls people act quickly once they make up their minds. On Monday evening it was decided to have the work of cleaning up the grounds, laying the necessary water mains and installing electric lighting facilities done by volunteer labor on Thursday, April 22. All day will be consumed in the work and it is hoped that everybody will give as much time as possible so that the program may be carried out without a hitch and everything placed in readiness with as little delay as possible against the time when the Spring Antosts begin to arrive.

Twin Falls has lost much through her failure to provide adequate facilities for campers in the past. Now that the situation is corrected much of real benefit will accrue to Twin Falls and Twin Falls people.

Brief Bits of Sport

By virtue of winning the first game of the season and the permanent invasion of the westward since, the Chicago White Sox still lead the American league clubs.

Only one full game has been played by Comby's mob since the opening of the season. That was the first day when the Hose were returned winners.

Yesterday the Sox started off like winners against the Browns, but darkness fell over the park and the players could not proceed.

Slim Smiley, sagebrush sage, says: 'Fastidiousness among the poor air as much responsible for the high cost of everything as the shortage of materials.'

To date Babe Ruth has not earned salt as a slugger.

Georges Papin, countryman of Carpentier, will have his first fight on these shores May 10 at Jersey City.

The French lightweight champion on that date will take on Willie Jackson, which to us seems like undertaking a real task. Just who will be Papin's second antagonist has not been decided, but it is stated he will have Benny Leonard for his third.

It is proposed to suggest that the swiftness must have found another place to sleep since the strike was started.

We are informed that 60 per cent of the Dempsey fight picture contracts have been canceled by picture show operators.

Cancellations were due, it is announced, to poor patronage for the first showings. Proving that the American public is not as unpartisan as showmen and promoters of picture schemes may have considered them.

One of the Salt Lake sports sheets yesterday carried an excellent illustration of Johnny Kilbane, Alvie Miller and Jimmy Dunn. The thing would have been more excellent if the latter light "make-up man" had not forgotten to put the picture in.

Unless Babe Ruth starts soon Old Man Eppert may call on the Red Sox management for a rebate on that $125,000 purchase price.

Met a local citizen the other day who actually avers that wrestling is a square sport.
