RAIL MANAGERS DECLINE WAGES SHOULD ADVANCE

Raise in Pay Should Be Granted to Many Workers to Enable Them to Meet High Costs, Executives Say

EMPLOYERS' ATTITUDE MAKES FOR SETTLEMENT

Statement to Labor Board Says Some Part of Demands Made By Two Million Employees is Probably Justified

CHICAGO, (P)—Wage advances should be granted to many railroad workers to enable them to meet the high cost of living, the Association of Railway Executives declared today in their joint statement before the railroad labor board.

E. T. Whiter, chairman of the conference committee of rail managers of the executives' association, told a board that some part of the wage demands being made by two million rail-way employees probably would be found to be justified by the rise in the cost of living.

Expeditious Settlement

Agreement of the railroads themselves that at least a part of the men should have more money to enable them to go far toward expediting early settlement of the controversy which culminated last month in the series of strikes by disgruntled employees.

The demands now before the board aggregate more than a billion dollars a year, in addition to a billion dollar advance during the war and a $300,000,000 advance in the two years prior to government control, according to Mr. Whiter. He presented figures to show that the payroll had increased from 29.5 per cent of the gross earnings of the roads in 1915 to 53.9 per cent last year.

"We appreciate fully," Mr. Whiter said, "that the increases received by some employees in the last five years have not been commensurate with the increases in the cost of living. We appreciate also that there are other employees who are receiving rates which cannot be considered at all low in an absolute sense, yet which do not compare favorably in some localities with the rates received by occupations outside industries."

Argues Wage Not Off.

"We cannot of course hope to compete with outside rates, cent for cent, but we should try to keep wages as near as possible to the level necessary. Consideration must be given to the greater regularity and continuity of employment in railroad service, to the greater stability of railroad rates of wages when once established, and to other attractive features of railroad employment."

The great increase in the cost of living, Mr. Whiter said, was an evident fact, and wage adjustments must take this factor into account. But, he said, the peak in the cost of living had probably been reached, and that the board must consider the situation which would be brought about when the cost of living declined. On this subject, he said:

"It is not at all intended here to say that any wage advance that your board might award to meet the increased cost of living should be taken away again as fast as, and in the same percentage as, the cost of living comes down. This would in effect decree that railroad employees should remain in the same comparative situation they were in before the war. We are not asking or suggesting this, but as costs of living go down towards the pre-war level, a less than proportionate increase in the cost of living would mean, for the employees would be better and better off, as compared with pre-war conditions, in spite of such reductions."

Adds to Service Rates.

The new transportation act provides, Mr. Whiter said, that any substantial increase in wages must result in increased rates to the public for railroad service. For every $100,000 added to the payroll, about three per cent must be added to freight rates, he said. The carriers are now before the interstate commerce commission asking for an increase of 25 per cent, largely to provide for the billion dollar payroll advance under governmental control and operation.

Following the reading of the executive's statement the railroad board adjourned until tomorrow. All members were present at the opening session.

RAILROADS LOOK TO GOVERNMENT FOR ASSISTANCE

Interstate Commerce Commission Expected to Take Charge in Situation Caused by Inadequate Equipment

WASHINGTON, D. C., (P)—The nation's railroads, swamped with business and not yet on their feet after the long period of federal control, turned hopefully to the government today for relief. With reports from industrial centers showing several hundred thousand cars held up because of insufficient equipment and labor, interest in the commerce commission was expected to heighten the appeal of the carriers and take charge of the situation.

Non-essentials Clog Roads

Railroad officials said there was slight hope of early improvement. The great need to clear the tracks of non-essentials and open the way for the necessities of life, they said, is the greatest in the traffic congestion, according to reports that there is immediate danger of wholesale closing of big industrial plants and the consequent cut in production.

Should the commission find, on the strength of reports laid before it by the railroads, that the emergency justifies it, orders taking over virtually complete control of the movement of freight probably will be issued today. Railroad officials, meeting with members of the commission today, suggested several details for inclusion in its traffic plan to break the congestion. One of these was a general scheme for the movement of grain cars westward and coal cars eastward to meet current requirements. Cars for food and perishables, however, would have full preference over all others under the plan.

It was also understood that it was decided Germany would be permitted to issue bonds covering her indebtedness to the allies, payable in annual installments. Such action it is pointed out, would enable France to discount a part of her claim on Germany and permit her to settle her debts to the United States and the allies.

EL PASO, Texas, (P)—Confirmation of the reported capture of 24 trains and other government munitions and the flight of President Carranza by automobile with a great quantity of gold, was received today by revolutionists here, they announced.

General Obregon's message which was dated May 14, corroborated previously reported details of Carranza's dash to the mountains, saying that before leaving the main body of his troops, Carranza ordered that the trains which carried the national archives, should be burned, but that the revolutionary forces prevented the entire execution of the order.

Gonzales Holds Back from Agua Prieta Plan

WASHINGTON, (P)—General Pablo Gonzales has refused to recognize the "plan of Agua Prieta" under which the entire Carranza army would be repudiated, according to the Mexico City newspaper reports received today by the state department. General Gonzales' refusal to recognize the plan of Agua Prieta, is being offered daily, the Chihuahua chief of staff added.

The agreement was reached at a conference in Mexico City, under the leadership of General Obregon and other generals in Mexico City on May 12, and under it Governor de la Huerta assumes command of the Carranza army, while Carranza, under General Obregon and the "liberal revolutionary army" under General Gonzales.

Objections Called Technical.

General Gonzales' objections to the plan of Agua Prieta were regarded by officials and the de facto government agents here as little more than technical. The Mexico City newspapers of May 11 reported measures taken to obtain taxes due from the oil companies and the advance payment of the state's share in the capital to pay their taxes in advance.

Communication Restored.

Cable communication with Mexico City has been restored. The Mexican Telegraph company advised the state department today that it had one land wire in order between the capital and Vera Cruz and would begin moving the submarine cable in the next few days. FILIPPINOS COMPLAIN AT LOW PRICE FOR PRODUCTS

Surplus of Hemp and Coconut Oil Results from Adverse Market Conditions

MANILA, P. I., (AP)—Cargo ships are leaving Manila frequently with their holds practically empty, shipping agents say, because of the adverse market conditions in the United States. The low price for hemp and coconut oil, two of the leading articles of export from the Philippines, is one of the principal factors in causing the surplus of cargo space shippers assert.

Because of the large stocks of these products accumulated during the war, both here and in the United States, a surplus has been created and it is said they may now be purchased at a lower price in the United States than in the Philippines.

NATIVES LOYAL TO AGUINALDO

Progress of Filipino Insurgent Leader from Hospital Lined with Admirers

MANILA, (AP)—General Emilio Aguinaldo, long fought for the independence of the Philippines and was captured by General Funston, still holds a strong place in the affections of the Filipino people. This was demonstrated when he left the hospital the other day to pay a visit to his farm at Kawit about 50 miles from Manila. Aguinaldo has been in the hospital recovering from an operation for appendicitis but was permitted to go to his home to celebrate his fifty-first birthday.

Accompanied by his physician and a nurse, he made the 50-mile trip by automobile. Although his visit was not announced in advance, the news of his coming spread and the people of the villages along the way gathered at the roadside and the children threw flowers into his automobile. At one village the children waved American and Filipino flags and sang "Aguinaldo's March." At his home he was met by nearly all the villagers headed by a band and speakers gave him welcome.

After spending a night at the farm he returned to his hospital to buy satisfaction instead of regret and vexation. Study the ads.

When he was captured by General Funston in 1901 after leading his campaign for independence, he gave his promise to the Americans that he would not again take up arms and he has kept the promise. He declares however, that, in his opinion, the time for granting independence to the Philippines has arrived and that the people of the islands are ready to maintain a stable government.

ADVOCATES PACIFIC TO AMAZON AERIAL ROUTE

Former Squadron Commander of British Royal Naval Air Service Offers Suggestion

LONDON, (AP)—Establishment of an aerial route from the Pacific to the Amazon as a means of surmounting difficulties of road travel among the Andes, is advocated by the author of a recently a squadron commander of the British Royal Naval Air Service.

"There is no serious difficulty in the way, so far as the scheme's practicability is concerned," Mr. Dwyot told the Royal Geographical society. "We have heard of the great height of the Andes, but there are low altitudes at which they may be crossed. One of the Andes ridges can be negotiated at a height of 7000 feet, but there is one other rising to 15,000 feet.

"Peru," he continued, "is peculiarly suitable for aerial traffic. Aerial highways will undoubtedly play a large part in the future development of that country. It is of importance that rapid communication should be established between the interior and the coast, and in order to do this the air plane must come to the rescue."

Discussing the difficulty of traveling by road, Mr. Dwyot said that it took him five days to travel from one part in the Andes to another, whereas the airplane would cover the distance in 15 minutes, and in another stage of the journey it took him exactly a week to travel a distance which would be negotiated by the airplane in 30 minutes.

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The buds of a tremendous vintage are on the grape vines in California and the growers are taking a chance that prohibition restrictions will be modified before the grape crushing time next September.

Last year, Sheehan said, "the wine grape yield was 30,000,000 from 170,000 acres, with an uncertain market. This year the yield, weather permitting, will be equally as great with a market that must be brought into existence. The growers have staked a fortune estimated at twelve million dollars, the value of the vintage, on the hope that the prohibition statute will be swept away or modified to the extent that they will allow wines of the moderate and the costlier formerly manufactured here."

If prohibition remains two avenues, both highly uncertain, according to the growers, are open for disposal of the grape yield. One is through manufacture of grape syrup and the other is the wine raisin grape market. Of the two the grape raisin is said to be the more promising. Wine grape raisins to the extent of about 10,000 tons were turned out of California vineyards last year and it was reported that when the growers learned eastern and other consumers were said to be converting them into wine, they stopped the sale as they did not want to create an illegitimate market. Unsettled the wine grape raisin is good for little but wine making, however, is declared to be a close rival to the little currents brought from the Grecian vineyards, but the seedling process is costly and the market uncertain.

The wine grape syrup is an intense concentration of the crest from any one or from a number of grape varieties. The raw juice is subjected to a vacuum condensing process which draws off the water while preventing caramelization, "browning." The process reduces the liquid to one-fourth of its original quantity and creates a sugar content averaging 68 degrees, chemical measurement. This, together with the absence of water prevents fermentation. The syrup may be used for a number of purposes, one of the principal ones being the creation of a variety of soft drinks.

The syrup market, however, still is in the embryo and has a number of other commercial elements to compete against. There is no reason to believe, according to growers, that it will absorb even a small quantity of the enormous vintage, therefore, they say, wine appears to be the only relief. Syrup condensors have been established at Benicia, Sacramento, and Eureka, Cal., and the process is so simple that it is said they can be established almost anywhere on short notice.

Growers now are being offered from $50 to $70 a ton for this year's yield, but they are taking all the chances. The contracts hold good only if the grapes can find a market, and the growers in addition must bear all the risk of securing transportation. They are being urged not to sell at these inflated figures, which we deem to be purely speculative.

The Grape Growers' exchange is being formed to develop if possible new markets for the wine grapes, the big purpose being a light wine market if it can legitimately be established.

CALL FOR BANISHMENT OF MINISTERS OF CZAR

Soviet Authorities Undertake to Make Situation Clear to Chinese

BEKING, (AP)—The soviet authorities at Irkutsk, Siberia, have asked the Chinese government to banish from China the diplomats and consuls of the old Russian government who have continued to live in China since the overthrow of Emperor Nicholas. The request is signed by M. Janson, delegate of the council of commissaries in Siberia and the Far East.

The soviet note declares that those diplomats and consuls still are being supported by the payment to them by the Chinese of that portion of the Boxer indemnity allotted to Russia but this source of support would be cut off by the soviet government's renunciation of further payments of that indemnity. The soviet note adds: "The powers given to these officers of the former emperor have long ceased to exist but the officers continue to live in their houses and to fool the Chinese with the assistance of Japan and the allies. The Chinese people should take cognizance of this fact and banish these liars and fools from their territory."

The reason given is that this is the first totally dry year in Missoula.

Brief Bits of Sport

Salt Lake ball fans assume a particularly sporty and even cocky attitude as they scan the performance of their Bees during the past week.

Of course it is a record of which to be proud and one cannot blame the Bees supporters for the showing against Oakland.

But there are other weeks a-coming.

Another reason why everybody is for the "under dog," is because the "underdog" isn't in position to do anybody any harm, while the upper dog is.

Speaking of weeks to come reminds us that the Cleveland Indians are still at the top of the heap.

Mike Gibbons wants a battle with Johnny Wilson for the middleweight championship.

Proving that the former title-holder is an astute Irishman.

Mike apparently believes in himself as middleweight championship material against a man of Wilson's known call, but he's hardly be induced to step into the ring against Mike O'Dowd, Los Angeles, 4-7; Portland, 0-7; Sacramento, 7-1; Vernon, 6-3.

By the way eastern fight critics are busy compiling Wilson's record by which they hope to prove that he always has been a better man than all the O'Dowds, Gibbonses, Clabbys and the rest of them. They attempt to prove that Johnny has won 108 battles in his career, most of them by the corner route.

Oh, hum! yawns Benny Leonard as he scans the list of lightweight possibilities.

Then Benny's press agent sends forth word that since his man has no further worlds to conquer he will retire to the seclusion of the screen, where he will be alone, restful and making more money, anyhow.

Sim Smiley, agecrush sage, who's been vacationing a bit, comes back with the statement that "when a man announces 'We're all human,' he's did somethin' he's 'shamed of.'"

Notwithstanding the succession of wine-recorded by Jimmy White since the last meeting Jack Sharkey, who gave the Briton a beating as a start-off to the latter's American career, says he is willing to meet Jimmy before the National Sporting club in London any time.

But Jack says it must be for a purse of $25,000 instead of $15,000 as has been offered.

So, you see, there is a condition attached to the contract.

A despatch from Cincinnati makes much ado over the fact that the world championship pennant, which is to float from a match on the Reds' field this season, contains 250 yards of all-government standard bunting, and its colors being Red, White and Blue.

Now what other colors are there for a real American pennant? Would you make it green with a golden harp in the center after looking over the personnel of the Cincinnati pennant winner?

"The Tigers are not hitting," bawls a Detroit sports writer.

There are others.

Natives Find Use for Profits from Sale of Island Products in Buying Cars. MANILA, P. Through high prices received for sugar, hemp, rice, copra, pineapples and other products of the islands, many of the natives have largely increased their resources and they are demanding high priced cars. From the price of the soil it is said more than a dozen millionaires among the natives have developed within the last three years.

DANIELS PLAYS STAFF PROPOSAL

Objects to Project of Making Secretary of Navy "Rubber Stamp"

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Secretary Daniels today let verbal broadsides against the advocates of a general staff for the navy, declaring that they sought to "frustrate" the navy department and make the civilian secretary a "rubber stamp." He told the general committee investigating the navy's conduct of the war that "one of Rear Admiral Sims' chief objects in writing his letter of January 7 and bringing about this investigation, was to remove the navy, so far as possible, from civilian control."

Rear Admiral Sims' original charges against the navy department showed hostility toward certain officers and a desire to damage the ranking officers who directed naval operations during the war, the naval secretary declared, adding that "the evidence has shown a desire to discredit the secretary of the navy because he was not a 'rubber stamp' secretary."

If congress wished to depart from the "traditional American policy" of civilian control of the navy it should do so "directly and clearly and without pretense," said Mr. Daniels, by making an admiral secretary of the navy and a member of the president's cabinet. The most ardent advocates of the general staff system had not advocated going so far, however, because they wished to keep a "rubber stamp" civilian as a figurehead in the secretary's office, he declared.

The witness quoted from reports and writings of other naval secretaries to show, he said, that they, too, struggled against substitution of the general staff system.

Propose Organization Outside of Conference

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ind., (AP)—A plan to form a new athletic organization which will include colleges of Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, and Kentucky, has met with favor among Washash athletic authorities. The new organization as planned would be comprised of institutions outside of the western conference that have shown unusual strength in sports.

De Pauw university and Washash college are among the Indiana schools which are reported to favor an organization. These schools have withdrawn from the Indiana Collegiate Athletic league.

Others considered as likely material for membership are James Milliken university, Knox college, Monmouth college in Illinois, Marquette and Bollet in Wisconsin, and the Michigan Aggies.

DELAYS DRY LAW DECISION

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The supreme court again becomes without passing on prohibition acts.

With the court's failure to act in the prohibition cases today, only two more decision days remain before adjournment June 1 of this term. While the court has given no indication of what it will act, a decision before adjournment generally is expected.

Reargument of the government's dissolution suit against the Lehigh Valley Railroad company and its subsidiaries was ordered today by the supreme court.

As arguments for this term have been closed, the Lehigh Valley case cannot be heard until next fall. It is at the top of the docket, however.

Bees as Architects.

A famous mathematician of the early eighteenth century who perceived that the bottoms of the cells in a beehive were formed by three lozenge-shaped plates measured the angles of the lozenges. The greater were 109 deg. 28 min. the lesser, 70 deg. 32 min. Another man of science, marveling at the precision of the angles, propounded the following problem to Koenig, the geometer: What are the angles of a hexagonal cell with a pyramidal bottom formed of three similar and equal rhomboid plates that require the least possible material? Koenig, ignorant of what had suggested the problem, found by calculation that the greater angles of the rhombs should be 109 deg. 28 min. and the lesser angles, 70 deg. 34 min. He was wrong by two minutes in each dimension. What human architect has equaled the economy of the bees?—Youth's Companion.

Filer District has Paradoxical Situation in Paramount Products—Prices High

FILER, Ida., (Special)—A famine in alfalfa and potatoes, for the abundant products of the Filer district is noted throughout the entire west. Alfalfa is worth from $32 to $42 a ton, and potatoes are in particularly limited supply. Potatoes are equally scarce, and are quoted at $8 per hundredweight. Last year there were 450 carloads of "good" shipped from this place, many selling at $1.50 a hundredweight. Hay a year ago sold at 15 per ton, shipments amounting to 250 carloads last season.

Slowly but surely the state of Idaho is making progress in the matter of better roads. This is of course apparent in Twin Falls county but a survey of the country lying between this city and Boise shows that all the construction is not confined to Twin Falls and vicinity. Buhl, at all times, is to be congratulated upon her roads. Perhaps the pleasantest feature of an auto trip to the Capital is the ride through the Buhl country, into the Egerman Valley, and so on into Bliss. From Bliss to King Hill has always been the worst piece of road of the entire trip but even this is being changed now. A number of gangs are at work on the highway between these two points and while the grades are hard going now, within a few months this stretch will be equal to any.

There is no better advertisement for a country anywhere than first class highways, and in this, Twin Falls and the Twin Falls country will soon be well advertised.

Encourage extensive road building programs. A country is no better than its roads.

IT'S UP TO THE PEOPLE

In order to obtain relief from existing financial and industrial conditions the American people have got to set about deliberately to help themselves.

For the economic life of the world the remedy is chiefly in the hands of Americans. The committee recommends as a beginning diminishing home consumption.

And it is important to note the argument in the report supporting this conclusion. The business before the country is the people's business.

There is a warning for Europe as well as advice for America in the committee report. Too long has a belief prevailed abroad that we would distribute loans indefinitely in war-worn lands.

MAKING IT EASY

(Spokesman-Review)

Broadly speaking, the high price of sugar is due to increased consumption by the American people and diminished world production.

For the fiscal year to end June 30 sugar imports will approximate 3,000,000 pounds, as against 7,750,000, 000 pounds in the former high record year, the fiscal year 1910.

The average import price for foreign sugar in January was 19 cents a pound, as against an average import price of just 2 cents a pound in the fiscal year immediately preceding our entrance into the war.

Trade authorities estimate that world production this year will be about 15 per cent below that in the year preceding the war.

prices of sugar beyond which increasing consumption will stop and the sharp edge of demand be dulled. But so far the American people have stepped up to the counter and carried away more sugar as prices went up.

We are, in fact, running up the price against ourselves, and making it easy for the profiteer.

KIMBERLY FARM LAD DROWNS WHILE ON SUNDAY EXCURSION

Joe Kelly, 10 Years of Age, Goes to Death in Waters of Rock Creek when Plank Crossing Collapses—Adult Companion Escaped but is Unable to Reach Child in Turgid Torrent

Joe Kelly, a 10-year-old lad, whose parents own a farm a mile west and three miles south of Kimberly, was drowned late yesterday afternoon at the Rock Creek canyon nine miles south of Twin Falls, when a plank upon which he was attempting to cross the stream broke and hurled him into the water.

An adult companion, whose identity the authorities have not established, was also crossing the creek at the same time with the boy. When the board gave way both persons fell into the stream, but the companion was able to save himself. The boy, however, could not be rescued.

Sheriff A. N. Sprague and Coroner P. J. Greenman left shortly after noon today for the scene of the tragedy in an effort to locate the body. Should they be successful, an inquest will probably be held at the coroner's office with a coroner's jury.

Details concerning the accident reaching here are very meager. It appears that the boy and his party were on a fishing trip and while at the junction of the low line canal and Rock creek attempted to make their way to the other side by means of a plank.
