New York Reporter Tells Senate Inquisitors Member of Democratic National Committee Gave Out Information

SAYS BOURBONS PLANNED $10,000,000 CAMPAIGN

Declares Scheme of Financing Outlined at Atlantic City Contemplated Nomination Former Cabinet Officer

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—The senate campaign investigating committee made further efforts today to get light on what Chairman Keynon described as "this invisible McAdoo boom."

"I know there is a McAdoo campaign," interjected Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri. "I move we go ahead and let the witness with some information and let the statement go until we find out why this secrecy."

McAdoo declared that he did not know there was a McAdoo boom in Washington or in the Pennsylvania hotel, New York, and that the McAdoo literature sent to democratic delegates.

He finally recounted a conversation with Mr. McAdoo as to the North Carolina delegation. "I told Mr. McAdoo there was an overwhelming sentiment in my state for him," he said.

"I do not know anything about plans to use the Liberty loan publicity campaign organized for McAdoo," asked Chairman Keynon.

Comparing McAdoo to Rabbits. "I want to apologize for being rough with you," Senator Reed put in. "I'm glad some man is letting the presidency seek him, not chasing it."

STOCKMEN ASK CREDIT RELIEF

Appeal to Senate Banking Committee to Provide Temporary Assistance

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Representatives of the Farmers' National council appealed today to the senate banking committee for emergency legislation setting up a temporary rural credits system to relieve farmers and cattlemen from the effects of efforts toward rural credit ultimate in increased cost of foodstuffs to consumers.

The specific proposal was for creation of a revolving fund of $25,000,000 or more to be available for loan to farmers under federal farm loan board administration.

Attack Miller's Bill. Senator Hitchcock, democrat, Nebraska, joined by Senator Capper, republican, Kansas, asserted that Governor Miller, the Kansas City federal reserve bank had been effecting a discount rate in connection with deflation efforts that made agriculturists present and future victims.

Governor Harding of the federal reserve board said the rate had been recommended by the directors of the Kansas City reserve district and also by the Dallas district.

Senator Kendrick, democrat, Wyoming, agreed with Senator Hitchcock that the Kansas City and Dallas discount rates had presented "a shock" to the cattle grazing industry particularly. Local banks would not accept cash for the sale and were calling loans on such security.

He said the price of cattle on the hoof had dropped 37 per cent in the last few months but that this was not reflected in the cost to the consumer.

HOUSE FAILS IN ITS EFFORT TO OVERRIDE VETO

Two Republicans Vote to Sustain President's Objections to Peace Measure while 17 Democrats Join Majority

WASHINGTON (AP)—An effort to override President Wilson's veto of the Republican peace resolution failed today in the house. The vote was 210 in favor of overriding the veto to 163 against or 29 less than the required two-thirds majority.

Two Republicans, Representatives Kelly of Michigan, and Fuller of Massachusetts, voted to sustain the president's veto while 17 democrats joined the republican majority in an effort to override it.

There was less than an hour's debate on the motion to override the veto. Chairman Porter, of the foreign affairs committee, opened discussion with the declaration that members in the veto message had the president questioned constitutionality of the resolution.

Representative Connally, democrat, Texas, challenged the republicans to put in a straight-out resolution for repeal of war time legislation and promised democratic support to repeal it over a probable veto. Much of Mr. Connally's speech was a rebuke to the republican leadership.

Defends Wilson Stand. Representative Flood, of Virginia, declared the president had given full reason why the veto should stand, and characterized the peace resolution as "hypocritical and insincere" and said that among other things, it would cause the United States to lose all German ships seized in this country.

Representative McCall of Wyoming, the republican leader, declared that the resolution if adopted, would establish peace and fix the date for repeal of war time legislation.

The resolution adopted by the convention declared that the anthracite miners are forced to accept the commission as "industrial class legislation" makes it "almost humanly impossible to wage a successful strike."

The protests bear the signatures of hundreds of heads of religious orders, doctors, lawyers and merchants.

General Enriquez had been asked by the consulate to confirm the report that Homer Carr, examining engineer for the American Smelting and Refining company, had been taken from a train at Jimenez by Villa's soldiers.

BOOSTS TARIFF ON BEANS

Democratic Congressman Object to the Growers' Proposal on High Cost Score

WASHINGTON, (P)—Increase of the tariff on beans from 25 cents to $1.20 a bushel is provided by a bill, ordered reported favorably Thursday by house ways and means committee. Democratic committeemen declared the measure would increase the cost of living. West-ern bean growers, particularly those of California, have urged the enactment of this bill, declaring they were unable to compete with Japanese growers.

The interested grower will find just as attractive offerings in a period of high prices as when prices are low. For price, after all, is a relative thing. Value is a fixed-point thing.

DECLARES PLOT TO WRECK NATION STRIKES CAUSE

Steel Corporation Chairman Denies Existence of Classes in America Except in Schemes of Destructive Agitators

NEW YORK, (AP)—Employers in America—referred to as the "capitalist group"—heretofore have been backward in claiming the rights and insisting upon proper consideration, Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, declared here today in opening the eighth annual meeting of the American Iron and Steel Institute.

"The present so-called labor strikes, involving riot and injury to property and person, are instigated as a part of the campaign to divide and demoralize the social and economic conditions of the country," said Mr. Gary.

Depreciates Class Legislation

Mr. Gary deprecated class legislation. He declared there are no classes in the United States such as have existed in other countries.

In America, he said, those who are seeking to establish classes are composed of a comparatively small minority of the population who have adopted the word "labor" with the congenial design of forming a class which they hope finally will attract a majority of the people and thus enable them to obtain legislation which would ultimately destroy the constitution.

"These men have already proposed certain legislation which is wrongfully discriminating," Mr. Gary said. "Some of them know what the final consequences of their designs must be that all would be lost in the ruins of the constitution. It is to them sufficient justification."

"Employers must and will realize," continued Mr. Gary, "that their advancement and contentment depend upon the progress and prosperity of the employees; that, except for the willing and free investment of capital up to the requirements of business demands, together with full co-operative assistance on the part of the best talent, enterprise and initiative would languish and disappear and that indifference and idleness would be substituted.

Agitators Insincere and Selfish

"Agitators who are trying to create trouble between employees and their employers as a rule are insincere and selfish. . . Their business is better . . . when others are in trouble. They promise reforms, but their methods lead to trouble and loss to others. In this list are included a few writers, lecturers, public speakers and self-appointed labor leaders, so-called.

"The great mass of employees, if left to decide for themselves, are loyal to their country, to the public interest and to their employers; and to the extent of this loyalty they will be awarded up to the full measure of their deserts."

STOCKS TO TALK OF McADOO FUND

the writer of an article purporting to tell of a $5,000,000 underwriting for a fund to back a campaign to bring about McAdoo's nomination at San Francisco.

He refused to disclose the source of his information.

A member of the democratic national committee was with my informant when I was told the story, Mr. Lang said.

Chairman Konyon announced that several members of the democratic national committee had been subpoenaed to appear during the investigation.

Mr. Lang discussed a meeting of the democratic national executive committee at Atlantic City last September. He said that plans were made to raise $10,000,000 for a democratic national campaign. Thomas F. Chadbourne and R. M. Baruch were at Atlantic City at the time, he said.

Mr. Lang testified that he had been informed that a member of the national committee had stated that Frederick A. Wallace, a deputy police commissioner of New York was representing Mr. Baruch in collecting finances for the McAdoo campaign and the $10,000,000 financing as planned at Atlantic City contemplated Mr. McAdoo's nomination by the democratic convention.

"Members of the national committee," Lang said, had corroborated the story later.

Grains and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Favorable export demand for wheat brought about higher prices today in the corn market, notwithstanding bearish news regarding corn. European bids for wheat were said to be 7c a bushel higher than yesterday. Under such conditions, the fact that the supply of railway cars in the corn belt showed an increase and that country loadings of cars were larger had only a transient depressing influence. Opening corn prices, which ranged from 3-8c to 1 3/4c lower, with July $1.07 to 1.07 1/2c and September $1.54 1/2 to 1.55 1/2c, were followed by a rapid upturn that carried July and September sharply above yesterday's figures.

Liquidation and short selling on the advance led subsequently to a severe break in prices. The break which in some cases amounted to 8 1/4c was accompanied by unfounded rumors that the switchmen's strike had been settled. Prices closed nervous, 4 3/8 to 1 1/4 net lower, with July $1.03 to 1.03 1/8 and September $1.51 3/8 to 1.51 1/2c.

Oats hardened with corn. After opening unchanged to 3-4c lower including July at 30 5/8c, the market sagged a little further, and then secured something of an advance.

Provisions were inactive. Owing to absence of demand, quotations averaged lower.

Today's Markets

New York Stock Exchange

NEW YORK, (AP)—Business on the stock exchange today was light in anticipation of the holiday but leaders of the industrial and railway groups made additional advances.

Sales approximated 500,000 shares. Leading issues extended recent gains at the opening of today's stock market. Reports that further gold imports are impending and favorable crop prospects were among the encouraging factors. Steels, equipments and oils were the outstanding features, but leather and food specialties also strengthened with rails, notably Reading, Atchafalaya and New Haven. There were no indications.

Monday, May 31, will be observed in Twin Falls throughout the State in a manner befitting the solemnity and importance of the occasion. On Decoration Day fitting ceremonies have been arranged in commemoration of the lives and the example of those men who, many years ago, offered their bodies for the last supreme sacrifice for the benefit of their fellow men and the good of the Republic.

Twin Falls today owes a debt of gratitude to both those who fell and those who survive. There are not many of the latter now, and in a few short years the last private in the ranks of this vanishing army will have passed to his final reward.

Decoration Day means much to these men—it should mean much to us all.

"LASCA"

THE BEAUTIFUL STORY "LASCA"

A Six Part Production of Texas and the Cattle Ranges

Out of the famous poem of "Lasca," written more than thirty years ago by Frank Despres, then a young newspaper man in the west, has been produced a photoplay that should serve as can few other things to bring back to memories of the old school commencement days or the church entertainment. No such gathering in the years gone by was complete without a youthful orator reciting in puerile intonation the dramatic lines:

"Once let the herd at its breath take fright
Nothing on earth can stop its flight;
And woe to the rider and woe to the steed
Who falls in front of their mad stampede."

And like thunder in the mountains, came the roar of stampeding cattle.

Remember "Lasca"

Who does not remember the old time school entertainment; the entertainment where the trustees draped themselves around the half-circle of the rostrum and the teacher sat well down in front to prompt the little rascals who forgot what came next?

What were the old stand-bys of that day?
"Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight," "The Hells," "Paul Bovero's Ride," "Barbara Frietchie," "How We Brought the Good News from Ghent to Aix," and the undying "Lasca."

"Lasca"—what memories the old ballad brings back through the mists of yesterday. Everyone knows that it is about the Rio Grande country. Everyone in Texas has brought up on it but—who in the world wrote "Lasca"?

Come to think of it, wasn't it Frank Despres?
It was indeed. Let's see—how did it start?
"I want free life, and I want fresh air?"—yes, that was the way it started, and those stirring lines at the end were:
"Does half my heart lie buried there, in Texas, down by the Rio Grande?"
"Lasca" has been made into a photo drama by Universal. It features the beautiful Edith Roberts as Lasca and Frank Mayo as Senor Moreland.

LET'S GET THE FACTS

"It helps discussion somewhat to know what we are talking about."

This is the dictum of William Howard Taft, sometime president of the United States. It was delivered in connection with a lecture he gave in Spokane the other day. The lecture was an exposition of the league of nations from the viewpoint of Mr. Taft.

In no other connection could Mr. Taft's remark serve to better purpose than in relation to the league of nations question. It is good any time and in any connection; but with the league of nations being pushed into the forthcoming campaign at the insistence largely of Mr. Wilson, it is advice that is of paramount importance during the next few months.

With the league of nations as an issue in the campaign, fertile field is opened up for continuation on larger scale of the flood of oratory that has characterized its consideration in the senate.

Without imputing purpose of deliberate misrepresentation to either of the parties contending over this issue; it is to be remembered that the question has its two sides. It is hardly to be expected that the question when it is thrust forward as a campaign issue, will be handled by campaign orators in a wholly impartial manner. Mr. Taft, himself, being president of an organization that stood foremost in the fight to secure ratification at first of an unaltered treaty and covenant and later for the covenant and treaty with reservations, is hardly to be accepted as an impartial adviser.

There are just two ways in which the truth that lies between the two extremes likely to be stressed in the campaign, is to be approximated. One is to hear all of the arguments on both sides. That method is more likely to breed confusion than to clarify the issue. The other is to study the text of the covenant itself.

The political party which contends itself with placing a copy of the covenant in the hands of each elector, leaving it to the elector's own intelligence and judgment to decide the issue, would seem, at this juncture, to be making a long step toward ingratiating the support of the public that is entitled to credit for ability to make its own decisions on the basis of the facts presented.

Peace Measure Veto Message

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Wilson's message setting forth his reasons for disapproving the republican peace resolution follows:

"To the house of representatives: I return, herewith, without my signature, House Joint Resolution 327 intended to amend the joint resolution of April 6, 1917, declaring a state of war to exist between the United States and Germany, and the joint resolution of December 7, 1917, declaring a state of war to exist between the United States and the Austro-Hungarian government, and to declare a state of peace, I have not felt authorized to sign this joint resolution because I cannot bring myself to become party to an action which would place unfavorable stain upon the gallantry and honor of the United States. The resolution seeks to establish peace with the German empire without exacting from the German government any action by way of settling right the infinite wrongs which it did to the peoples whom it attacked and whom we professed to be our purpose to defend when we entered the war. Have we sacrificed the lives of more than 100,000 Americans and reduced the lives of thousands of others and brought upon thousands of American families an unhappiness that can never end for purposes which we do not now care to state or make further steps to attain? The attainment of these purposes is provided for in the treaty of Versailles by terms deemed adequate by the leading statesmen and experts of all the great peoples who were associated in the war against Germany. Do we now not care to join in the effort to secure them?"

War for Civilization.

"We entered the war most reluctantly. Our people were profoundly disinclined to take part in a European war, and at last did so, only because they became convinced that it could not in truth be regarded as only a European war, but must be regarded as a war in which civilization itself was involved and brought upon thousands of kind as against a belligerent government. Moreover, when we entered the war we set forth very definitely the purposes for which we entered, and because we did not wish to be considered as merely taking part in a European contest. This joint resolution which I return does not seek to accomplish any of these objects, but in effect makes a complete surrender of the rights of the United States so far as the German government is concerned. A treaty of peace was signed at Versailles on the 28th of June last, which did seek to accomplish the objects which we had declared to be in our minds, because all the great governments and peoples which united against Germany had adopted our declarations of purpose as their own and had in solemn form embodied them in communications to the German government preliminary to the armistice of November 11, 1918. But the treaty signed at Versailles has been rejected by the senate of the United States, though it has been ratified by Germany. By that rejection and by its methods we had in effect declared that we wish to draw apart and pursue objects and interests of our own, unhampered by any connections of interest or of purpose with other governments and peoples.

An Inconceivable Peace.

"Notwithstanding the fact that upon our entrance into the war we professed to be seeking to assist in the maintenance of common interests nothing is said in this resolution about the freedom of navigation upon the seas, or the reduction of armaments, or the vindication of the rights of Belgium, or the satisfaction of wrongs done to France, or the release of the Christian populations of the Ottoman empire from the intolerable subjugation which they have had for so many generations to endure, or the establishment of an independent Polish state, or the continued maintenance of any kind of understanding among the great powers of the world which would be calculated to prevent in the future such outrages as Germany attempted, and in part consummated. We have now in effect declared that we do not care to take any further risks or to assume any further responsibility with regard to the freedom of nations or the sacredness of international obligations or the safety of independent peoples. Such a peace with Germany—a peace in which none of the essential interests which we had at heart when we entered war are safeguarded—is, or ought to be, inconceivable, is inconsistent with the dignity of the United States, with the rights and liberties of her citizens, and with the very fundamental conditions of civilization.

"I hope that in these statements I have sufficiently set forth the reasons why I have felt it incumbent upon me to withhold my signature."

Treatment of Common Cold.

"If all who catch cold could be persuaded to remain in bed for the first twenty-four hours of such an attack," says a well known physician "there would be fewer cases dragging on with distressing symptoms for weeks and often ending in some more serious disease." To make sure of a prompt recovery you should also take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Whether sick or well the bowels should move each day.—adv.

Pitcher Shawkey Slaps Umpire and is Slapped Back

While Babe Ruth Drives Out Two Homers with Arbitrator and Player Fight

BOSTON, (AP)—An assault upon Umpire Hildebrand by Pitcher Shawkey of New York in the fourth inning, resulting in Shawkey receiving a scalp wound from the umpire's bat, created excitement in the first game of the series with the Red Sox yesterday, which New York won 6 to 1.

Babe Ruth made two home runs, sending the ball once into the right field bleachers and the second time over the left center field fence, this giving him a total of 19 for the season.

New York players protested strongly when Hildebrand enabled Boston to make its only run in the fourth by sending Shaughey into the field with the bases full, forcing in a run. After Harper, next man up, had been called out on strikes, Shawkey approached the umpired, bowed up and doffed his cap in mock thanks. Hildebrand ordered Shawkey off the grounds whereupon he rushed at the umpire and struck him several times about the head. Hildebrand defended himself with his mask and opened a wound on Shawkey's forehead.

Umpire Ed Smith, Captain Hooper of the Red Sox separated the men and Shawkey was conducted from the field, Mary finishing the game.

THIRD TRIAL, FOUND GUILTY

Woman Jury Sustained in District Court Verdict Against Man and Woman

Sustaining both the decision of a woman jury and that of a jury of men, impaneled in the probate court in April, a similar body in the district court last night declares P. R. Shriver and Elzio Hilder guilty of misconduct. They are to be sentenced by Judge W. A. Hancock Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Shriver and Elzio Hilder were originally arrested on complaint lodged by Mrs. Shriver, wife of the first named accused. The case was tried before Judge O. P. Davall of the probate court before a jury composed entirely of women. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty as charged, but the finding was set aside when counsel for the defense showed that according to the Idaho statutes such a panel is not legal. A board of male justices was then impaneled with the same result. Appeal being taken to the district court the trial was held yesterday before Judge Hancock with the foregoing result. Testimony in the case was concluded at 5 o'clock and after recess for lunch arguments were submitted these carrying to about 8 o'clock. The jury verdict was rendered at 9:45 p. m. Homer C. Mills appeared for the defense and Frank L. Stephen for the state.

LARGER SCALES NEED OF TOWN SAYS OFFICIAL

State Sealer of Weights and Measures Recommends 15-Ton Machine

The state sealer of weights and measures thinks the city of Twin Falls needs a new public scale. He has advised the local administration in the opinion of the state official the city needs equipment having a capacity to measure accurately a 15-ton load. The present device goes no higher than eight tons.

Just what the city will do about this recommendation has not been finally determined, but the link has received some consideration at the hands of the municipal board of legislators. In fact the matter has been placed with a regular council committee to investigate prices of weighing machines of this magnitude. To install such a set of scales as is recommended by the state inspector the city would not only be required to purchase a new weighing device but would have to construct an entirely new pit, on bigger and broader lines for its reception. The committee is expected to make a report on investigation at a near future meeting of the council.

SPORTS WRITERS TO DECIDE BEST MEN WITH MITTS

Home Paragaphers Have Been Selected to Judge Merit in Tonight's Tilts

Sports writers will act as judges of merit at tonight's mitt mixup in Lavington arena. Decision to let newspapermen give the winners on this occasion was made recently by officials of the club. Those acting will be George Hart of the Times, Harry Barrett of the News and Ed Harold of the Chronicle. These men promise to call 'em as they see 'em. Announcement was made yesterday of the inability of Ray Beas to fight Tom Norris of Butte. Beas could not be passed by the state medical examiner on account of an injury sustained in a recent fight. The Boise battler sustained a cracked jaw when a husky mitt smothered the right to the jaw in a most unceremonious, though highly efficient and decisive manner.

In the place of Beas Matchmaker Harry McKinley has substituted Ed McKeena, a Salt Lake featherweight, who is in prime condition and gives a good account of himself. Mack is a favorite wherever he performs, faster than a flash and, with a hard left. He battles on the same style as Norris, and a rare joust is looked for when the two meet.

Nelson arrived in Twin Falls yesterday in fine fettle and "rainin" to go. He does not say he so many words that he will whip Frankie Beas, his opponent of tonight, but he assumes a most significant smile when the question is broached. "Sure I'll win," the Celt confidently asserts, and one can scarcely deny there is a fine chance for the words to come true when condition and ability are considered.

All the men are in prime shape and the two big bouts promise to give the judges something to do to guess the winner. Knockouts may save them a lot of trouble, though. A four-round bout will be staged between a couple of ambitious local youngsters as a curtain raiser.

ATTORNEYS WITHDRAW

Announcement was made today of the official withdrawal of Hazel B. Beas, and Wolfe & Martin, as counsel in the Ramseyer case. Turner K. Hackman has been retained to carry the case on. H. P. Ramseyer was this week found guilty of causing the death of J. R. Abel, a rancher neighbor.

MOONSHINE IS FOUND IN RAID

Two Booming Houses in Foray Yield Officers Quantity of 'Home Made' Bootleg

Two Twin Falls booming houses, raided yesterday evening, netted material results and also material evidence of bootlegging, according to civil authorities. The evidence is held under lock and key by the county sheriff. Complaint is to be lodged in the probate court.

The foray was conducted by Chief of Police William J. Taylor, with Officers Frank Ham and W. A. Austin. The first place raided was the Spanish rooming house on the west side. The other place was the Weaver house on Main avenue east. At the first place the officers found nobody at home, but discovered a five gallon keg half filled with a "moonshine" concoction. Besides this two quart bottles filled with a similarly stimulating drink were discovered. All were confiscated.

At the Weaver the foray yielded seven bottles containing a muddy, reddish-brown liquid, said to be of an intoxicating sort. In addition a can, shaped like a large bottle, plugged at the mouth with a cork, filled with liquor, was taken in charge. The can, it is said, is a part of a recent raid on the Spanish rooming house. One arrest has been made.

INSPECTING DAMAGED STOCKS OF DRYGOODS

Wrights Come to Look Over the Fire Loss—Merchandise to Be Offered for Sale

The former two are parents of Luke and Clarence Wright. All are guests at the Clarence Wright home. Speaking with respect to the result of inspection made in the past 24 hours Luke Wright stated the goods, which are all damaged by water and smoke, will be put in the best possible condition and put on sale for the benefit of patrons of the store. "Nothing will be skipped away," he declared.

Heat Wave Hits New High Mark for the Season

THIS season's heat struck a new high mark yesterday; the record being three degrees above the next highest of the year. Eighty-four degrees in the shade was registered. The night season was also fairly warm, the low point reached being 45. Diaphanous nebulae fills across the horizon, but seems not to presage drought relief. Tonight and tomorrow are to be marked by "fair weather," according to official dictum. He also says "cooler."
