MEXICAN REOLT IS ATTENDED BY RARE EPISODES

Discovery of Fraud Netting
Somebody 1,000,000 Pesos
One of Most Notable of Incidents Revealed in Coup

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—The revolution which overthrew President Carranza and culminated in his death was attended by many interesting and exciting episodes which could not be reported to the outside world as the coup was in progress. Some of the discoveries which have followed the installation of new authority in the capital city, too, have been extraordinary.

Notable was that revealed by an interim officials of the treasury department who announced they had found evidence of a fraud which had netted somebody an amount estimated at about 1,000,000 pesos. The papers here say that, when the infallible paper money with which the country was flooded during the last previous revolution) were burned, about one-quarter of the total, it was finally reported to have been destroyed had been previously extracted and sold at the current rate of 10 centavos on the peso. The Carranza government had been taking the old paper money in as a sort of super-tax on import duties and other taxes. Later it was supposed to be burned.

Profiteers Active
While no disorders occurred in the capital during the evacuation by the Carranza government and the occupation by the liberal revolutionary forces, nor did public services cease functioning for the instant, the inhabitants of the capital were victims both of inconvenience and profiteers. Food prices increased and a famine which has been the bugbear of everybody since silver began its sensational rise months ago, sold at 15 per cent premium.

The Indians who sell produce in the markets demanded metal currency and got it. Many farmers, who had been attracted struggle and a food shortage, laid in ample supplies. One American housewife bought 30 chickens which she put to roast in the kitchen of her apartment. She was too excited to heed the advice of the Indian woman who sold the fowls that she should try duck.

The spectacle of a city of 1,000,000 inhabitants absolutely cut off from communication with the world for almost nine days was not the least interesting phase of the evacuation by Carranza. Both cable and telegraphic communication ceased about 8 p. m. on May 4. Until May 15 the cable lines were useless. An unreliable line was set up by the government to the American border in the afternoon of May 8, but it was devoted exclusively to military and outgoing business. Nothing was received from the outside world until the cable lines were restored.

Communication Tangle
Because of numerous relays and other wire troubles, those sending messages from the capital could not learn at their messages reached their destination. The same conditions obtained more or less throughout those parts of the republic distant from the border and the coasts.

Foreign press correspondents filed stories on the national lines, trusting to luck that part of them might see print. As safeguards they left summaries with the military authorities for possible transmission by government wires, filed other summaries with the cable company and still others with travelers leaving in attempts to reach the border.

FOX FARM PROPRIETOR IS BESET WITH DIFFICULTIES

TAHOE CITY, Cal., (AP)—The first litter of fox puppies born at the Kirman fox farm, established near Lake Tahoe last fall, survived only a few days, due, it is believed, to improper feeding.

This again reduces the fox population to two. Of the four silver gray animals brought from Prince Edward Island, two escaped, one being killed in the wilds later and the other never heard of.

Richard Kirman, the proprietor, plans to bring four additional animals from Prince Edward Island next fall.

WOMAN MAYOR RULES IN JACKSON HOLE COUNTRY

Entirely Feminine Administration Sworn in Office as the Election Result

CHEYENNE, Wyo., (AP)—A woman mayor, Mrs. Grace Miller, now rules in Jackson, the population center of the Jackson Hole country, which long was famous in fact and fiction as the resort of outlaws, cattle rustlers, horse thieves and other bad men of the west; that once was said to be the first time in history, there is not a man in the city hall of an American municipality; for a city administration composed entirely of women has been sworn into office as a result of the election in May. There is not a man in Jackson city hall.

Jackson is a diminutive city, with a population of not quite 300. Perhaps no other section of the United States is so far isolated from the railroads and from all-year traffic. The nearest railway station is 75 miles away, and from November until May the highway to that station is virtually impassable. Surrounded by the high mountains in the range south of Yellowstone National Park, the residents of Jackson make little or no attempt to travel during the winter months.

It was in Jackson's Hole that the bad men made their last stand against the advancing wave of civilization 30 or 40 years ago. There they flocked after stealing cattle or horses or other robberies and hold-ups and headed themselves together for mutual protection. Today Jackson itself has surrendered to the feminist movement and made a clean sweep of its male police holder. The only explanation thus far given for the overturn comes from the editor of the Courier, the city's sole newspaper, who says in his paper: "It is thought the novelty of being the first city on record to be governed entirely by women helped them to secure such a complete victory."

The editor who was himself a candidate, accepts the results without repining, but says the women were surprised even themselves by the result.

There was no unusual campaigning, no special issue at stake, nor was there an unusually close campaign.

defeated Fred Lovejoy for mayor by a vote of 56 to 28. Four women were elected members of the city council over four men candidates by about the same relative vote.

MARY PROMINENT WOMEN CONVENTION DELEGATES

Roll Call at Chicago Sessions
Will Include Well Known Names

NEW YORK, (AP)—Forty years ago Miss Helen Varick Boswell, lawyer and one of the pioneer women republicans of the country, attended the republican national convention with a chapter. One June 8, Miss Boswell, who is vice chairman of the New York county republican organization, and well known as a humorous speaker, Mrs. Florence E. S. Knapp of Syracuse, N. Y., and 20 alternates, none of whom will have chapters, will attend the republican national gathering in Chicago as the representatives of the women topicals of New York state. They will go, they say, to participate in the proceedings "in the independent spirit which should characterize every woman at a convention. This is the tenth national republican convention I have attended," declared Miss Boswell, "but it will be the first time I have occupied a place among the 'boys' on the convention floor. Women from all over the United States this time are going to be in and not merely at it." The convention, more than 25 of us are delegates and fully 75 are alternates. Among the more prominent women delegates from other parts of the country will be Dr. Helen S. Peabody, of Sioux Falls, S. D., a delegate-at-large, well known as an educator and lawyer. Another delegate is Mrs. Katherine E. Edson of Los Angeles, who was instrumental in having passed the California welfare laws protecting women and children. She has been a member of the state industrial commission of California and was the first chairman of the republican women's state committee in California after women were enfranchised.

Mrs. John Glover Smith, delegate-at-large from Kentucky, is chairman of the women's division of the republican national committee. She is a cousin of Governor Morrow of Kentucky and a daughter of the late Frank O. Bradley, the first republican governor of Kentucky ever held. Kentucky in selecting Mrs. Smith as a delegate to the convention set the pace for other states to follow. Tennessee immediately elected a delegate-at-large and two women as alternates-at-large.

Miss Manley Boswell of Minneapolis, has the honor of having been unanimously elected a delegate-at-large from Minnesota by the republicans of that state. She is head of the women's republican organization of Minnesota and has been actively engaged in combatting the Non-Partisan league.

Mrs. Arthur L. Livermore, chairman of the republican women's executive committee of New York, is an alternate-at-large from that state. She is the founder of the Women's University club of New York and is the daughter of Senator Henry Wells who was the treasurer of the Massachusetts republican committee for a quarter of a century.

HAWAIIAN SCHOOLS CROWDED AND TEACHERS UNDERPAID

HILO, Island of Hawaii, T. H. (AP)—The legislative committee of the Hilo board of trade has recommended that the board petition Governor Charles J. McCarthy of Hawaii to call a special session of the territorial legislature to relieve the school situation in the islands.

The board committee pointed out that there is an inadequate force of qualified teachers in the territory, that the schools are overcrowded and the teachers underpaid.

COURT CLERK ACQUIRES FAMILIARITY WITH TITLE

SEATTLE, Wash., (AP)—Frank M. Hardberger, clerk of the United States district court, can read off the correct name and title of any living sovereign or ruler of the countries on the eastern hemisphere without error.

This knowledge was gained through eight years service as clerk of the federal court, in which applicants for citizenship must renounce allegiance to the rulers of their native lands.

REPRESENTS CANNERS

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—F. E. Booth, sardine, fruit and vegetable canner of California, has been selected to represent the American canning industry at the organization meeting of the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris this month. Booth is expected to urge that other countries lower their tariffs on canned products.

PLESTINA PUTS FIVE MEN DOWN IN QUICK TIME

Offer of $250 Attracts Five to Stage—Theatre Manager
Forces Wrestlers to Work

Marin Plestina, the heavyweight grappler who lays claim to the title which Joe Stecher insists is his, relates one of the funniest incidents in his career.

"It happened in Minneapolis last spring," he said. "I appeared at a theater there for a week's engagement, agreeing to give $250 to any man that I couldn't throw in 15 minutes and $1000 to any one who secured a fall over me."

"While I was fooling around with the man who took me up on my challenger, I heard an argument back of the stage between J. C. Marsh, my manager, and the owner of the theater. I couldn't get enough of the conversation to know what it was all about, but I saw four big husky fellows standing around in wrestling togs."

"Usually, in such matches, I don't try to throw the man right away. The crowd likes to see a little action. So I continued to let my opponent play around until Marsh came out of the wings and said to me: 'Plea, get busy in a hurry. This theater manager says you must throw all the men he sends at you in a total time of 15 minutes. And there's four more waiting.'"

"Plea, get busy in a hurry. This theater manager says you must throw all the men he sends at you in a total time of 15 minutes. And there's four more waiting."

"That was a rather large job to tackle—throwing five men in a total of 15 minutes. But orders were orders. I got busy and downed the fellows."

"I had been playing with the total time consumed for him was three and a half minutes. They sent the second fellow into the ring, and I tossed him in one minute flat."

"The third one was a little tougher. And, furthermore, he tried all the tricks he could think of to evade me. He was pretty slippery but finally I got the double wrist lock—and he was through in a total of four minutes."

"That meant eight and one-half minutes gone and six and one-half left to throw the remaining two. The whole bunch of wrestlers had agreed among themselves to split the $250 five ways no matter which was the last man to go on. So, they were all working together against me."

"The fourth fellow tried the run away game and tried to put on a marathon race. But I caught up with him, lifted him, dumped him to the floor and before he could roll away I pinned him—total time two minutes."

"I had four and a half minutes to throw the last man. When he came on he looked every inch a wrestler. I learned later that his name was Johnson, that he weighed 210 pounds, had been wrestling for years and had never lost a match."

"They had saved Johnson for the last, figuring he'd get me when I was tired and that not only would he be able to stay out the balance of the 15 minutes but they had banked rather heavily that he would secure a fall—and the $1000."

"Johnson came forward and sneered something about 'here's where you are going to lose some money.' I grabbed for his arm, got the wrist lock, floored him, turned him around—and put his shoulders to the mat in exactly 18 seconds."

"It took me less than 11 minutes to down all five men—and it wasn't awfully hard work either. But from then on I always was careful to have Marsh specify that the 15 minutes applied to only one man—not an army."

Probably the purchase you have planned to make "soon" ought to be made now. Get light from the ads

Of course Babe Ruth cannot be expected to make three runs every day in the week.

There are days when the Yankees do not play at all, you know.

Young Chaney won a decision over Johnny Kilbane the other night, but Johnny was a wise guy, all right, all right, and did not hang up his title for the Philadelphia to shoot at a-tall.

But the next thing is to sustain the accusations.

POLK RESIGNS POSITION IN STATE DEPARTMENT

Plans to Take Rest Before Returning to Practice of Law in New York

WASHINGTON, D. C., (P)—Frank L. Polk today resigned as under-secretary of state and his resignation was accepted by President Wilson.

Mr. Polk's resignation will take effect June 15 when he will leave Washington to take a rest before returning to the practice of law in New York city. His successor has not yet been selected.

The under-secretary's letter of resignation was not made public, but the president's reply was given out at the White House. It said:

"My dear Polk:

The argument of necessity on account of your health in the matter of your resignation is one which I am compelled to accept. I feel that I have in confidence and warm friendship no choice but to accept your resignation, though I do so with the utmost reluctance and wish again to express the admiration I have felt for the devoted and intelligent way in which you have performed your duties in the department. We shall all miss you very much, and the public service will be poorer on account of your loss. With the warmest good wishes,

"Cordially and faithfully yours,

"WOODROW WILSON."

Mr. Polk is the third high official of the state department to resign this year.

Mr. Polk entered government service on September 16, 1915, as counselor for the state department. Later he was made an assistant secretary of the state and last year was elevated to the post of under-secretary when that office was created by special act of congress.

When Secretary Lansing returned from the Paris peace conference last summer Mr. Polk was sent abroad to take his place and he acted as head of the American delegation until the conference adjourned last November.

Before entering government service Mr. Polk was corporation counsel for the city of New York and before that he was a member of the New York civil service commission.

FARMERS WOULD SHIFT FREIGHT RATES BURDEN

Farm Bureau Federation Committee Urges Equalization of Traffic Charges

CHICAGO, (P)—Equalization of the proposed increased freight rates, between passenger and freight service was the first item on the agenda of the executive committee of the American Farm Bureau Federation. It was declared that the farmers pay from 70 to 80 per cent of the freight revenue received by the railroads and that the passenger service should bear an equal advance in rates. This opinion was expressed following a report by Attorney Clifford Thorne on the railroad hearing conducted by the interstate commerce commission.

A budget of $35,000 was set aside to establish a bureau of economics and statistics, and $1,000 was appropriated to complete the census of the number of stock and grain cars in the United States.

It was decided that the purpose of the educational department, which was established with the setting aside of a budget of $40,000 for its work, would be to get in closer touch with members of farm bureaus throughout the country, to ask the co-operation and moral support of city people in the campaign to better conditions during the reconstruction period and to "forestall the present tendency to beat down food prices."

A referendum will be conducted, it was voted, on the compulsory arbitration of strikes and the Adamson bill, which provides for an 8 hour law and, it was claimed, would cut production of farmers one-third. It was also decided that the bureau would conduct a special investigation of the effect of the Townsend bill on the road building system from farm to market centers.

World Conflict Unites Old Time Sweethearts

PEORIA, Ill., (P)—Before the Spanish-American war Reginald D. Pitney, cashier of the First National Bank of Rock River, Wyo., and Mrs. Myrtle Brewster, of New Farmington, Ill., were sweethearts. They were married here today.

Pitney enlisted when the Spanish-American war broke out and when he returned three years later he found his sweetheart wed to another.

The world war came and Pitney entered an officers' training camp at Camp Pike. Mrs. Brewster's husband had died, and she entered war work.

Yesterday Pitney arrived here and called Mrs. Brewster on the telephone. She said "Yes" and came here this morning.

Props on Hand for Show

By all comparison of previous conventions, all the scenery and props are on hand for this year's big show. There are miles of building display, and fluttering in the late spring breeze of Lake Michigan; there are buttons, badges and souvenirs by the hog-hundred; there are bands by the score all ready to begin blaring the campaign anthems; there are rosters and boosters preparing their speeches for the speaker; there are enthusiasts ready to parade at a moment's notice and to cheer with the winners and mourn with the losers.

While all these preparations are going on, the republican national committee in its meeting room at the Coliseum continues to grind away deciding contests among state delegations. The Georgia case which contains delegates for Wood or for Lowden is on the calendar for disposal today and there are suggestions that yesterday's decision in the Florida case—with somewhat similar aspects—might furnish the solution. There are some indications, however, that when the case is called, it may be passed down the list to the bottom of the calendar and wait there until all the remaining contests are disposed of.

At the present rate of progress, there is hope among the national committeemen that they may finish their work Saturday.

The lineup of delegates in the various columns stood this way at the close of yesterday's work:

Wood 117; Johnson 112; Lowden 66; Harding 33; Pinckney 14; Sprout 70; Sutherland 15; Pritchard 25; remaining in contest 75; unallocated 445—total 682.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, (P)—Trading on the stock exchange today was marked by a steady diminution of operations after the first half hour. Sales dwindled almost to the smallest total of the year, approximating 325,000 shares.

The usual irregular price changes were recorded at the opening of today's stock market, indications pointing to another uneventful session. Baldwin Locomotive, Crucible Steel, Atlantic Coast and other favored stocks were conspicuous for their one-point gains while American Woolen represented the reactionary issue at a two-point decline. ## Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (P)—Free selling on the part of commission houses led to sharp breaks in the price of corn today. Belief that receipts would show considerable enlargement next week was chiefly responsible. Country offerings were reported to have increased to a material degree. Opening prices, which varied from unchanged figures to 4-6 higher, with July $1.72 7/8 to 1 7/4 and September $1.60 to 1 60 1/4, were followed by a slight general gain and then by a fall to well below yesterday's figures.

Later there was no pressure on the market, and prices advanced in sympathy with cash grain. The close was nervous 1-2 to 1 1/2 net higher, with

July $1.74 1/4 to $1.74 1/8 and September $1.60 1/4 to $1.60 1/8.

Oats like corn were subjected to heavy selling pressure. After opening 1-8 off to a like advance, the market hardened a little, and then underwent a decided setback.

Provisions weakened with hogs and grain. Byers were scarce.

Subsequently, gossip that foreigners were after provisions brought about a rally.

A Sailor Chased A Jackrabbit 16 1/2 Miles

But not until after he had caught it and brought it back did he learn that 'twas only a jackrabbit and not the stray sheep the farmer had sent him out to get. His zeal was truly laudable, but his knowledge of domestic animals somewhat lacking.

There are lots of people to-day chasing the jackrabbits of "20 per cent reduction" and "special sales" only to find, sooner or later, that the goods are not quite up to their expectations, if, indeed, they are worth considering at any price.

But we have a different story to tell—not one of price alone, but of good merchandise, the best there is, at prices that are remarkably moderate in view of the vast increase in the cost of labor and materials in men's clothes.

We Sell Good Suits at $20, $25, $30, $35

Excellent all-wool and worsted fabrics, in exceptionally attractive patterns, designed in the most approved models, and tailored and trimmed as good suits should be. Not just a few at this price, but a tremendous stock in all sizes and a wide range of color effects.

And those who want still finer qualities will find plenty such here, too, at considerably lower prices than they're asked to pay for equally good suits in any other store we know of. The House of Kuppenheimer furnishes a large proportion of suits we're selling at

JOHNSON CALLS FOR REJECTION OF LEAGUE PLAN

California Senator Outlines the Campaign Policies; to Urge Plank on High Cost of Living and Industrial Problem

CITICAZO?—Outlining his campaign plans, Senator Johnson of California today declared the Johnson forces would present a league of nations plank denouncing the present covenant and urging a plank on the high cost of living and another on labor legislation, "dehumanizing" the republican party. Prohibition, he predicted, would not be mentioned.

Personally, Senator Johnson announced, in his daily talk with newspaper representatives, he would make a straight-out fight in the open market, with no trades, no deals, no compromise. "I'm tickled to death with the situation," said Senator Johnson. "I have a feeling of confidence that it is delightful to me."

The league of nations, Senator Johnson stated, now in other hands but will be presented to the convention resolutions committee. He said it would declare absolutely against the present league covenant. The present covenant, he stated, would have to be "redrafted entirely" to meet his acceptance. "Would that be possible by reservation?" he was asked. "No, it is not to be thought so," Senator Johnson replied.

Sensor Johnson said he had heard rumors that efforts were being made to wear away delegates pledged to him under state primaries. He deplored any such effort and said he did not believe his adversaries were engaged in such practices. Delegates who do not follow primary instructions, he said, would be guilty of "dishonor and breach of faith" to their states.

"I expect instructed delegates," he said, "to remain with me until beyond peradventure of a doubt I am out of the fight and that would mean, substantially until I should release them."

MISSOURI NEGROES ATTACK CANDIDACY OF LOWDEN

ST. LOUIS, Mo., (UP)—The Missouri republican league club, an organization of negroes, today made public a memorial being sent to Missouri delegates to the republican national convention asking the defeat of Governor Lowden for the presidency. The negroes, said Lowden failed to protect them during the East St. Louis race riots three years ago, and did not appoint a negro to public office in Illinois.

ORIENTAL TAKES ORDERS

BISHOP TOURET WILL VISIT HERE JUNE 27

Head of Idaho Episcopalians Arranges Official Call in Parish This Month

That Bishop Frank Hale Tourret, of the Missionary district of Idaho, will make his first official visit to Twin Falls on Sunday, June 27, is the word brought here by delegates returning from the Episcopal convention closed in Boise last Monday.

Bishop Tourret personally made the arrangements to fill that date in Twin Falls, and commissioned Captain O. L. Longley to so advise the people of the local parish. A committee is to be selected without delay for the purpose of completing arrangements for the reception of the bishop and his entourage as well as the service on that occasion. It is probable Archbishop Howard Stoy will accompany Bishop Tourret here to introduce him to the parish.

Special services will mark the visit. Bishop Tourret, during the convention, advised the Twin Falls delegates that a minister of high ability has practically agreed to come to this place to take charge of the parish. He will not, however, be able to come before September 1.

During the Boise convention Twin Falls churchmen were named on important standing committees for church work.

LUTHERANS DEDICATE NEW CHURCH AT EDEN

Sectarian Members Do Their Own Building and Erect Model House of Worship

Lutherans of the Eden district have during the past week, dedicated a new church to worship purposes. The church building was constructed by the members themselves and is a model of modern architecture. It is located about three miles south of Eden town and has ample seating capacity.

Dedication exercises, conducted last Sunday, were attended by a considerable number of Lutherans from Twin Falls, as well as from Buhl and Pocatello. The Rev. G. F. Polack is the minister in charge.

DISTRICT RESIGNS

Harry G. Dietrich, who since the inauguration of the county administration has been engaged in a child deputy connected with the sheriff's office, has resigned to engage in other business. His resignation was accepted by the board. Harry McKinley is filling in temporarily.

DIVORCE HEARING

FEATHERWEIGHTS WILL FIGHT HERE FOR HIGH HONOR

Pacific Coast Boxer to Battle Eddie McKenna for Boxing Title of the West

There is to be another boxing match provided for Twin Falls fight fans by the Twin Falls Athletic club. The program will be staged on either July 3 or July 5.

This is the plan of the directors of the club who are now making arrangements for a championship fight for the Pacific coast featherweight title. Two or three other interesting matches will be staged preliminary to the main tilt. According to Tom Berrington, one of the wheel horses of athletics in Twin Falls, a featherweight scrapper is to be brought here from the Pacific coast to fight Eddie McKenna for the title of the west. McKenna showed here for the first time last Friday, knocking out Tom Norris in the fifth round. He is not only fast and clever, but possesses a wicked punch, as was demonstrated when he broke Morris' nose in the fourth round and then landed a sleep-producing smash in the next spasm.

The championship battle will be billed for 20 rounds in order that a true index of ability may be arrived at on which to make the award if a definite decision is not reached prior to the end of the twentieth.

The management of the club is already laying lines for the matching of some good preliminary fighters.

JUNE 13 IS TWIN FALLS DAY AT STATE GAME FARM

Bickel Preserve Will be Opened to All Visitors from This Section

Sunday, June 13, has been selected as Twin Falls day at the Bickel game farm. Selection of that date was made at a general meeting of Twin Falls members of the Idaho Game Breeders' association, held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce last night. There was a representative attendance. To-night another meeting will be held to decide the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Nellie Glandon, June 13. This association board of directors. The meeting will convene at 7:30 o'clock.

Social Notes

The Mountain View club met at the home of Mrs. Grace Graham on Wednesday afternoon. There were 12 members and one visitor present. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Nellie Glandon, June 13.

Mrs. E. E. Robey entertained at a 5:00 party Thursday afternoon at her home in the Colonial apartments. Sweet peas were used for decorations. A dainty two course luncheon was served. The guests were Mesdames J. H. Wier, W. F. Fisher, E. L. McVick, L. Robinson, Bert Keaster, T. P. Murray, A. Seligman, Tracy Journey and Price.

Mrs. R. C. Cole was hostess to the Episcopal Guild yesterday afternoon. A short business meeting was held at which it was decided to discontinue the meetings for the summer. Captain C. L. Longley gave a report on the sessions of the convocation at Boise. Mrs. Cole assisted by Miss Inez Wheeler served dainty refreshments.

Mrs. E. A. Walters entertained the Lutheran club yesterday afternoon. The nine members present were seated at one table which had as a centerpiece a Japanese bowl of purple and white iris, the place cards which were also used as tallies for the bridge games following the luncheon were in the same colors. Mrs. L. Cole won the honors for high score.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid was entertained Thursday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. A. J. Green. A short business session was held and the remainder of the afternoon was spent socially. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mesdames H. E. Bailey, A. J. Green, Burt, Herbert Carlson, and W. J. Young. There were about 40 present.

Mrs. G. R. Ludlum was hostess to the Kimberly Road club Wednesday afternoon. The program in charge of Mrs. H. C. Alexander was on the history of the United States, which subject will be used for the club meetings during the summer. A study in parliamentary law under the direction of Mrs. Ivan Price was both interesting and instructive. Several new members were added to the club, about 20 being in attendance.

Mrs. F. P. McAtee entertained at a ten yesterday afternoon, complimenting her house guest, Mrs. Bowman of Seattle. Those present were Mesdames A. E. Soaver, E. B. Meehan, B. H. Atkinson, I. E. Joelyn, E. Hibbard, C. S. McMartin, H. F. Sheehan, Holman and Ray, and Miss Ellison of Oakley.

Today is the last day upon which property owners may pay up in cash for paving. All such improvements not paid for today will be payable over a term of ten years under the regular terms for such improvements.

There is a distinct chance for saving here which those who are in a position to profit by should not neglect.

City streets are active these days and driving or walking about the City is attended by the inconvenience impossible to avoid when work of this sort is going on on a large scale. But think of the days to come when the paving is finished.

DUTY TO BE DONE

People who are familiar with the economic plight of postal employees learned with satisfaction that the House of Representatives yesterday had passed by unanimous vote of all members present, the postal pay increase bill. This is an initial step toward effective amelioration of the lot of nation's postal employees. It marks a beginning toward correction of a policy of brutal stinginess or careless indifference and a substitution for it of a fair and liberal American policy.

Just how bad the situation has been is perhaps not generally known. It is common knowledge that postal employees are underpaid and that the system under which they work offers little that is attractive to the type of men that are needed to make the service efficient in its discharge of enormous responsibilities.

Translation of this general indictment into terms of ordinary appreciation has been lacking, and it is because of this lack that a disgraceful situation has been allowed to continue so long. Here is evidence brought out by the Literary Digest, which needs but momentary consideration to bring about the conversion of a hitherto indifferent American into an ardent advocate of reformation:

"Letter carriers are converted into pack animals and loaded down with burdens often weighing sixty to eighty pounds. Through driving rain or blizzard, in burning heat or stifling cold, they must cover their routes on schedule time. The steaviest often succumb to the inhuman strain; yet the highest salary they can earn, after years of similar pay, is $38 a week."

"* * * The highest salary paid to the 'big four' superintendents at the head of the four main departments of the great New York postoffice is only $3,360 a year, or less than $26 a week, and not one of these men attained his position in less than twenty-seven years' of service. The superintendents of the great railway terminal postoffices receive less than $40 to $50 a week after serving an average of thirty-five years each. And we pay more than that to longshoremen and window cleaners and drivers of milk wagons."

The legislation designed to relieve this condition having received the approval of the House, goes now to the Senate where favorable action is expected before adjournment Saturday.
 Finally it must receive the approval of the President.

There are few pieces of proposed legislation more meritorious, and none that will entitle those responsible for it to greater credit than this.

NO MANDATE FOR ARMENIA

(The Sun and New York Herald)

President Wilson's request to the United States Congress to grant him the license, the money and the power for all these things are embraced in his proposal—to exercise a mandate for Armenia—merits from the legislative branch of the American Government not much more than a respectful hearing. The scheme of internationalism itself deserves no money at all.

This Government and this nation need to get our own affairs in order before we set ourselves up in the business of trying to manage the affairs of anybody else, East or West. Managing the affairs of Armenia means becoming tangled up with the affairs of eastern Europe. Becoming tangled up with eastern Europe would mean becoming tangled up with pretty much the whole of the Old World. This is exactly what they all over there want to get us into—get us into it up to our necks. Then they will take good care that we shall never be able to get ourselves out.

Mr. Wilson regards it as providential that the conference of statesmen at San Remo made this appeal to him. All the rest of us can regard it as providential that the American people and the United States Congress are agreed that while Europe is settling its own business we should continue to devote ourselves to the job of settling our own business.

Unless Congress went clean off its head—something not liable to happen it could never grant to President Wilson the mandatory power he seeks for the purposes and the advantages of the Old World against the desires and the interests of the United States of America.

SAYS GERMANY CANNOT PAY

Indemnity Amount of Small Consequence Berlin Newspaper Declares

BERLIN, (AP)—Whatever may be the size of the indemnity to be demanded from Germany by the entente,
 the newspaper Germania says Germany
 cannot pay it.

Taxation, it adds, has already reached its utmost bearable limits and further burdens would be tantamount to confiscation.

The paper asserted there was danger that German delegates to the conference at Spa would be forced to sign undertakings which they know could not be carried out.

POSTPONES ACTION ON PACKER

REGULATION LEGISLATION

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The house agricultural committee voted Thursday to postpone action on legislation regulating meat packing industry until next session of congress. Six committee men opposed the delay.

SAYS GERMANY CANNOT PAY

Indemnity Amount of Small Consequence Berlin Newspaper Declares

BERLIN, (AP)—Whatever may be
 the size of the indemnity to be demanded from Germany by the entente,
 the newspaper Germania says Germany
 cannot pay it.

Taxation, it adds, has already reached its utmost bearable limits and further burdens would be tantamount to confiscation.

The paper asserted there was danger that German delegates to the conference at Spa would be forced to sign
 undertakings which they know could not be carried out.

Beck of Denver Tells of Highway Holdup Experience while Seeing Western Road

Always interested in good roads, J. M. Beck of Denver, western representative of the Indiana Truck corporation, took a trip out of Portland last Saturday night with a view to inspecting some new road work. Mr. Beck and a friend brought their car to a stop with a view to descending and inspecting the work on foot only to find themselves staring into the muzzle of a couple of revolvers in the hands of as many determined looking men.

Mr. Beck came to Twin Falls from Portland and spent three days this week in consultation with his local connection, the Idaho Automobile & Supply company, leaving on Thursday to tell the yarn in his own way and declares that while he still believes in good roads, such work on highways makes him nervous, even in broad daylight.

"There wasn't much to it," he says, "but there wasn't a chance for either of us. Neither of us had a gun, although my friend would probably have used it if he had carried one. He had $500 in cash, the first payment on a truck we had just delivered, and I had considerable cash myself. We listened politely to what the gentlemen had to say and then we shelled out. There wasn't anything else to do. When the little ceremony was over they told us to get in again and drive. It was just about dark and there wasn't a soul about. We drove, and when a couple of shots whistled over the car after we had gone about five miles it got still harder. I am still in favor of good roads, and I want to compliment the people of the Twin Falls country upon their magnificent program now in progress here, but naturally road building is to some extent interwoven with recollections, too recent to be entirely lost sight of."

LOCAL DELEGATION TO PORTLAND 19TH

Shriners will Make Trip to the Coast Convention Place by Special Coach

The Twin Falls delegation to the National gathering of Myrtle Shriners in Portland, will leave for the convention place of June 10 for the convention place. Special accommodation plans have been made for the trip. Eld H. Graves and V. H. Decker are in charge of the plans for the junket. Arrangements include the chartering of Pullman transportation facilities sufficient to accommodate comfortably all those persons who will make the trip from here. A Pullman car has already been chartered and its space is rapidly being assigned. There is still a limited number of berths available in this coach, and since the railroad company has been able to guarantee only one car for the Twin Falls delegation it is reasonable to expect that the remaining space will soon be taken up. Besides the Shriners themselves many of their ladies will make the trip. The coach will be at the service of the delegation chartering it throughout the entire period between leaving Twin Falls and returning. It will be set out in the Portland station yards to serve as a sleeping quarters for the company during the three days of the ceremonial. Rates made by the railroads for this trip are said to be more than commonly reasonable this year.

"Independent" Stand of Local Newspaper is Source of Distress to League Membership, According to Views of One—Letter to Times is Given Publicity at Request of Union Business Agent

Editor News:

By permission of the writer, I am handing you a copy of a letter addressed to the Twin Falls Times some days ago, but which the newspaper has not seen fit to publish. If you care to do so I would be glad to have you publish this in The News.

Yours truly,
F. D. TURNER,
Executive Secretary Building Trades Council.

The letter follows:

May 29, 1920.

Dear Sir: When the Twin Falls Times changed managers a few weeks ago the Times said it was going to represent "a large number of the citizens of this locality," or words to that effect, in regard to political beliefs.

Then when The News said that the Times had now come out in the light and had quit its "belabored" struggle to seem independent, or something of the kind, the Times said in an editorial, "Yes, we are an advocate of the Nonpartisan League."

Now, I am interested in what course the Times will take in politics. I believe the Nonpartisan principles will win here easily if we have a paper speaking straight out for us. So now I have heard several people say that the Times will be independent for a year and then become Nonpartisan. That is, built up on local advertising, I presume, and then be an advocate of the Nonpartisan ideas.

Mr. Editor, I do not believe that will work. Certainly the merchants will not advertise in the Times any quicker, not even as quick, I believe, if they know that it was intended to be Nonpartisan later, after the merchants had helped it to get well on its way.

Why not stick to the statement of policy you made at first, Mr. Editor? As a Nonpartisan subscriber I ask that. It is not clear to me that saying you are now strictly independent is going to do any good if the farmers do buy the paper and you change to Nonpartisan. What could you say to your patrons then, how would you square yourself, with your now saying that you were always going to be independent?

For the good of the Times I would urge this on the stockholders, if I were one.

Hoping that you will agree with me so that we can all line up as one, I remain,

Yours truly,
GEO. TAYLOR.

Taft Lauds U. S. Constitution WHILE RENOUNCING SOVIET PLAN

Former President Provides Interesting Analysis of Governmental Form in America in Comparison with Doctrine of Social Hatred and System of Plunder now Controlling Russia

Summing up his own ideas of Americanism and comparing in concrete style the benefits of the American form of government with the alleged advantages of Russian Bolshevism, William Taft, former president of the United States, last night gave the clearest exposition of the foundation and aims of the republic of the United States which has yet been given to a Twin Falls audience to enjoy.

Mr. Taft spoke to one of the largest audiences ever gathered for any purpose in Twin Falls. His remarks were frequently punctuated by hearty and sustained applause and his audience followed him with the closest attention throughout his entire lecture. Dr. A. G. Bennett of the Methodist church introduced the speaker, briefly but forcefully and a wave of approval brought warm applause upon his conclusion.

Lauds Constitution

Mr. Taft devoted the first half of his remarks to an analysis of the American constitution, the Declaration of Independence and other state papers which constitute the foundation of American government, referring to the British Bill of Rights as a similar bulwark of public defense in England. He illustrated in striking style the benefits which accrue to the American people as a result of the broad fundamental policies of government of which the constitution is the foundation and then launched into a description of Russian Bolshevism which shed much of light upon present conditions in Russia.

Russian Dictatorship

Mr. Taft's definition of Russian government was a dictatorship of the soldier and workmen, in other words the proletariat. He declared that under existing conditions the right of suffrage was so amended and curtailed as to provide a voting power upon the basis of one vote to each farmer, ten to each workman and eighty to each soldier. This by reason of the fact that the Lenin government exists only by reason of the strength of its soldiers. He stated that the present dictatorship was not one bit better than that of the Romanoffs and that, in fact, the only change as between the new and the old conditions was to be found in the fact that while the Romanoff government was a dictatorship of wealth and heredity, that of the present was a dictatorship of blind and brutal greed at the hands of groups of soldiers and workmen.

Baron Soviet Plan

Mr. Taft referred in interesting style to the statement of Eugene V. Debs that the Russian government of today constituted the best example of real democracy the world had ever seen and then proceeded to tip the scales down to the bones and present the facts to his audience. He declared property rights to be one of the essential guarantees of American liberty and stated that the progress of America was largely due to the work done by men

Threatened Rain is Merely Dust as Wind Shifts

RAIN that seemed about to fulfill the promise of dark clouds, gathered in the eastern sky this morning, developed only a heavy shower, borne on the bosom of a stiff westerly wind at noon. A sprinkle of precipitation accompanied the shower.

It will be cooler tomorrow, if prophecies are true; also fair. Seventy-nine degrees of temperature was registered at the peak of yesterday's heat, the mercury slipping 37 degrees during the night.

Mr. Editor, I do not believe that will work.

At a luncheon given by the guarantors of the Lyceum course, under the auspices of which the lecture was given, at the Perrine hotel Thursday, Mr. Taft spoke informally upon the subject of the League of Nations. About 50 were present to hear him.

Mr. Taft will leave this evening for Burley, spending the day sightseeing in and about Twin Falls.
