NEW COALITION IN GERMANY IS VOTING RESULT

Nationalists Likely to Co-operate with Majority Socialists in Formation of New Government; Centrists Approve

BERLIN, (AP)—Official party discussions on the situation created as a result of the parliamentary elections of Sunday will begin today.

The Lokal Anzeiger says it understands the nationalists are willing to co-operate with the majority socialists in a new coalition government on certain conditions. The German people, partly also in reports to be willing to co-operate on condition that statesmen who are not party men shall be sent to the allied-German conference at Spa and generally that politics shall no longer be the determining factor in appointments to public offices.

Centrist circles, it is stated, would view a coalition, including the nationalists, with some reserve, but they would co-operate with the independent socialists.

LEAGUE ISSUE IN A. F. OF L. MEET

Irish Sympathizers Declare War on Covenant Ratification Program

MONTREAL, (AP)—Irish sympathizers in the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor today declared war on the league of nations ratification program recently adopted by the executive council. They asserted they were against any covenant "that binds the American people by solemn obligation to respect and preserve the territorial integrity of Great Britain."

The Irish delegates, headed by Dan MacLoughlin of Los Angeles, threatened to fight the executive council's proposal that the federation call upon congress to ratify the league without reservations.

The convention was stirred today by a resolution presented by the national committee for organizing Irish and steel workers, which cited the alleged unlawful acts of western Pennsylvania authorities in suppressing free speech and free assembly, and asked that the federation invite President Wilson to make an address at Duquesne, Pa., on the subject of "Free Press, Free Speech and Free Assembly."

The National League of Federal Employees today asked the convention to call upon congress to "reclassify the civil service and adopt a program commensurate with the skill, training and responsibility involved in the work performed, and with just relation to the increased cost of living."

Voluntary Arbitration Proposed to A. F. of L.

MONTREAL, (AP)—Recommendation that workers and employers of the United States create a voluntary arbitration body to settle labor's grievances was placed before the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor today as a means of bringing about a "more harmonious relationship" and reducing the high cost of living.

The resolution declared that establishment of the commission would end the present cycle of wage advancing and price increasing, "which it seems utterly folly to continue."

STORM EXACTS TOLL OF LIVES

Four Dead and More Than 100 Injured in Path of Northwestern Hurricane

ST. PAUL, Minn., (AP)—Four or more persons were killed and more than 100 injured in the widespread wind, rain and electricity that swept in from the eastern part of North Dakota last night and swept over northwestern and central Minnesota.

The town of Foxholm, Minn., reported wiped out in last night's storm which swept through northern Minnesota and western North Dakota and which resulted in the death of four persons, was unharmed, according to advices received today.

SIoux CITY, Ia., (AP)—Property damage estimated at $100,000 was done in Sioux City last night when the city was swept by a 90-mile an hour gale. The heaviest damage was in the business district where plate glass windows were shattered. No one was injured.

LADY ASTOR TALKS ON WOMEN'S OPPORTUNITIES

Feminine Member of British Parliament Delivers Frequent Applauded Speech at Suffrage Congress

GENEVA, (AP)—In a frequently applauded speech at today's session of the international women's suffrage congress, Lady Astor gave the delegates her view of how women could and would be great influences for good in the world under their civic responsibility. She said the fact that she was responsible herself, as a woman member of the oldest parliament in the world entrusted with representing Great Britain.

Discussing the league of nations as one of the outstanding questions of the world Lady Astor suggested:

"Let us avoid talking about the league. The idea is fine, but great peoples and nations are just toward each other the league is utterly useless."

"Women's opportunities are great," Lady Astor continued. "We must not flatter ourselves, however," she added, "that the world will ever be put right by woman as she now is, but as she is going to be."

DRIVES TRAIN INTO SLEEPERS; ELEVEN DEAD

Michigan Central Express Special Disregards Signals and Crashes into the Pullman Coaches

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., (AP)—Thirteen persons were killed and 21 injured today when a train of express cars crashed into the rear end of a passenger train which had stopped at a point in Schenectady because of engine trouble.

All but one of those killed were asleep in two Pullmans at the rear of the passenger train. The body of Martin Doyle of Albany, engineer of the express was found in the wreckage with one hand fast to the throttle.

A Michigan Central special carrying ten cars of express material, disregarded signals and went at high speed into a New York Central passenger train, bound from New York to New York, according to the story of C. Robinson, brakeman of the passenger train. He said he waved a red lantern in vain and finally threw it into the cab as the express dashed by.

The Pullman at the rear of the train had 12 passengers and was demolished.

RUNS BY THREE SIGNALS

NEW YORK, (AP)—New York Central officials here said that Martin Doyle, engineer of the express that crashed into a passenger train near Schenectady early today, had run by three signals in meeting death at his post on his fifteenth birthday.

He disregarded a distant signal, one and three quarters miles from the standing train, they said; then passed a home signal, three quarters of a mile from the passenger train and finally ignored the flagman of the passenger train who had gone back with a red lantern.

Railroad officials announced that the black signals had been inspected after the wreck and found to be in working order and set against train No. 34.

STANFORD TO SEND FIFTEEN TO ARTILLERY SCHOOL CAMP

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, (AP)—Fifteen Stanford students will attend the summer artillery school camp to be held at Camp Artillery, Kentucky, June 17 to July 23, it has been announced. This camp is part of the government's new plan to keep up the strength of the officer's reserve corps. Men who attend the camp are to be trained officers before their college careers will be commissioned upon their graduation from the university.

HONOLULU RECOVERS FIRST POST-WAR EUROPEAN CARGO

HONOLULU, T. H., (AP)—The barkentine ship, the Alia, has arrived here with a cargo of fertilizer from Norway, was the first ship to bring a European cargo to Hawaii since the outbreak of the war.

The Alia made her first trip to Hawaii shortly after she was launched in 1900. At that time she was under Chilean registry.

PLATFORM RATHER THAN NOBILITY MAKES FOR PROLONGED CONVENTION

Second Day Sees Temporary Organization Made Permanent and Credentials Report Adopted

RADICALS GET FULL LEeway TO AVERT POSSIBLE CHARGE OF STEAM-ROLLING

CHICAGO, (AP)—The republican national convention in session only an hour today and devoted itself entirely to routine preliminaries.

The temporary organization was made permanent, the report of the credentials committee was approved, with the change made last night, some of which reversed previous decisions of the national committee.

For its second day session the convention heard a woman speaker, Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter of Kansas, the first woman to address a national convention.

Reports Progress in Platform

The platform committee was not ready to report and only sent word that it was making progress.

Chauncey M. Depew entertained the convention with a brief address and apparently the convention management had decided to do away with the string of speakers who in previous years have entertained the convention while the committee went working for there were no other "entertainment" speakers on the next session.

The next session will be at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning when the platform committee will report.

The rank and file of convention visitors alone likes a lot of music and oratory, and this year they are certain to get it.

Earliest Adjournment Saturday

"Saturday noon, at the earliest," is the estimate of leaders when asked when adjournment may come.

The day may be more attributable to platform committee working for there was no adjournment. The word has gone out to give the radicals every chance to present their views and stop any possibility of a charge of steam-rolling, or as some call it, an "excuse for a bolt."

And until the platform is built there will be no one named to stand on it. The fact that more than half of the delegates are working for the platform of nominating speakers. There are three or more for some and in a few instances six or more speeches in sight for each candidate. Between these speeches and the platform contest it would not be surprising if the actual nominations of the ticket would be carried over till Saturday.

Vice Presidency to Wait

The reply to inquiries as to "what is in the air" on vice president are met with the unanimous response: "Nothing," it depends on who is put over to head our ticket. "But there are a lot of budding candidates for second with the leaders for first place dodging to those who fear any they will not win." The reply is "We heard that from Theodore Roosevelt, Charles Warren Fairbanks and others, and we'll see."

Escape Second Speech.

While committees continued to grind away at organization preliminaries, the republican national convention went through the motions of a second day's session, except a second keynote speech by the selection of Senator Lodge as permanent chairman, thus following the plan of 1912 and 1916 of making the temporary organization permanent.

Today's business consisted of hearing a report of progress from the committee framing a platform and a report from the credentials committee which makes up the permanent roll.

Missouri got back her two last delegates, through last night's action of the credentials committee which the republicans had added to the list of delegates. The credentials committee's decision that conditions in the state of Missouri were so bad it would not send any of the delegates. That restored the total number of delegates in the convention to 94 and the number necessary for a nomination to 49.

After the evening of the national committee's meeting in the Tennessee contest also came as a surprise. Robert R. Church of Memphis, reputed to be one of the most influential negroes in the south and had been sent by the national committee after a straight out black and white fight in which the whites charged that church had bolted the convention. Church, said to favor Lodge, was seated by the national committee, and had the reputation of being a member in his fight. The credentials committee threw him out. The white contestants appealed to the committee to add the republican to the list of delegates. But out of the hands of negro domination.

Fine Weather Continues

Ideal convention weather continued today. A cool rainy breeze from the north and the sun was shining. It was the remark of every one

CONFIDENCE IS EXPRESSED BY PLANK WRITERS

Convention Resolutions Committee Feels Certain of Ability to Find Way Out Through Haze of Proposals

CHICAGO, (AP)—The league of nations plank still was undecided today 24 hours before the republican national convention was presented to the national convention.

Members of the sub-committee of 13 when they went into session to smooth out the remaining plank troubles expressed confidence that they could agree, but all of them were somewhat hazy on how it was to be done.

Senator Watson of Indiana, head of the sub-committee, maintained that in the end the Indiana plank, with some modifications, would get the support of all republican elements. Senator Borah of Idaho, and McDermott of Illinois, thought there would have to be material modifications to pacify the irreconcilables. The mild reservation group also wanted changes made, but in the opposite direction.

Would Settle League Issue

Boistering the predictions of an agreement, however, was a feeling in many quarters that the league question must not be permitted to reach the convention floor, where everyone realized it might set off fireworks of a destructive nature.

Crane for Ratification

During the day it developed that former Senator Crane of Massachusetts had united with the forces favorable to the ratification of the peace treaty. Crane's influence has always been so potent in conventions that the element opposing ratification were at first taken aback by the news that they expressed the view that they would be able to control the action of the committee. The question will be postponed until other subjects have been decided.

Aside from the treaty issue, most of the platform material was in such shape that only the finishing touches had to be made. The league question was still remained to be determined, however, some details of the Mexican declaration and some questions of party reservation.

RECESS APPOINTMENTS FILL COMMERCE BOARD

President Installs Men Nominated but Failing of Senate's Approval

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—President Wilson today made recess appointments of Henry Jones Ford of New Jersey, Mark W. Potter of New York and James Duncan of Massachusetts to be members of the interstate commerce commission.

Max Baer of Robert of New York and Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts, were named members of the United States tariff commission.

Charles Kelley of New York, was appointed assistant secretary of the treasury.

The appointments to the interstate commerce commission were made a few weeks ago but the senate failed to act on them. When they take office all vacancies on the commission will have been filled.

The appointment of Mr. Baer to the tariff commission is a new one. Mr. Baer is a chemist and a member of the Senate Commerce committee, the general munitions board; the United States board on gas warfare and the committee on chemicals of the council of national defense.

Mr. Kelley, who is an official in the treasury department, will succeed Norman Davis, who is to be appointed under secretary of state, vice Frank L. Polk, resigned.

CARUSO'S HOME GUARDED

AFTER $500,000 JEWEL ROBBERY EAST HAMPTON, N. Y., (AP)—Although all roads leading from the home of Enrico Caruso, opera singer, have been closely guarded since the $500,000 jewel robbery there last night, detectives expressed belief that the singer was in an "inside job." The way in which they worked, the police say, indicates that the burglars were familiar with the inside of the house.

Fifty Dollar Day is Reality in California

GRASS VALLEY, Cal., (AP)—The stories of $50 per ton hay which pluckers of the very early days have been bent for 70 years to amuse their auditors, now are matched by fact, as hay has again touched the $50 mark.

Since October of last year the price of hay has exactly doubled on the local market.

Realling that it had serious party history to write down the awful delegates, took up quarters in a secluded hotel bedroom, laid orders that it was not to be disturbed, and while full of reality, took off its coat literally as well as figuratively, and settled down to its job.

Members predicted it would not really quit before midnight at the earliest.

POLAND AGAIN IS DISCUSSING DRY MEASURE

Example of America is Pointed Out by Proponents of Prohibition; Women Members of Diet Take Active Part

WARSAW, (P)—Prohibition is being agitated in Poland. It was again discussed in the diet recently after the idea had lain dormant several months. America was referred to repeatedly by the advocates of temperance as a splendid example of a nation determined to do away with strong drink.

A public health committee of the diet reported prohibition for Poland was impracticable at this time owing to the virtual impossibility of prohibiting the manufacture of alcoholic liquors. The committee, however, favored, passage of regulations which would prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors to men of the Polish army so long as Poland was at war with soviet Russia.

The chief contenders for prohibition were three of the five women members of the diet—Miss Sophie Moczyslowa of the national popular union; Mrs. Sophia Moraczewska, socialist; and Helena Balicki, national democrat. Speaking of the part, taken by the women of America in bringing about prohibition there, Mrs. Moraczewska referred several times to the "great work of our sisters of the west."

STORK WAST IN ENGLAND

Nurses Booked Up Months Ahead and Doctors are in Great Demand

LONDON, (P)—The stork has been busy in England just recently, nurses are booked up months ahead and doctors are in great demand. The Lancashire midwives committee chairman said the birthrate had risen in almost every district and is now up to pre-war rate. Figures issued by the registrar general show that births recorded in eight weeks in 1920 exceeded those of the same period last year by 1432.

The births in London in the last few weeks show an enormous excess of baby boys, indicating that nature is restoring the population to its normal male and female constitution.

WOMEN HOLD REINS OF GOVERNMENT IN JEWETT

Feminine Administration of Texas Town Maps Out Energetic Program

JEWETT, Texas, (P)—Women who now hold the reins of government in Jewett have mapped out an energetic program for their administration. They came into power at the spring election. Mrs. Hattie Adkinson is mayor and she has five sister aldermen. The only man remaining in office is the town marshal. He used to be supported by force but the new regime put him on a salary.

The women have already started a cleanup campaign. They are considering street improvements and the collection of back taxes, or new taxes if necessary, to pay for them. Revision of the traffic laws and enforcement of the stock law are also projected.

The women came into office by slight majorities, 20 votes in several instances being sufficient to overturn tradition.

REFERS HUNGARIAN BOOK BUYER TO FOOD MARKET

Colorado Mathematician Author Refuses to Fill Order for Textbooks while Nation Goes Hungry

GREELEY, Colo., (P)—Dr. G. Bruce Halsted of Greeley, has refused to fill an order from Hungary for as many copies of his Non-Euclidean geometry as he could finish, on the ground that Hungary should spend its money for food rather than books.

The book is a translation of the work of John Bolyai, a famous Hungarian mathematician. Dr. Halsted, who is a member of the London Mathematical society, the French Societe Mathematique and the Italian Circolo Matematico, discovered the work during a tour of Hungary a few years ago. The order which he refused to fill came from a Hungarian nobleman named Paleky, acting as agent for the Budapest museum library.

Due to the rate of exchange a book costing $1 in the United States would cost $25 in Hungary, Dr. Halsted said.

RAILROAD BUILDING HUMORS ARE PREVALENT IN FLORIDA

CRESTVIEW, Fla., (P)—The presence of large parties of railroad construction engineers along the west coast of Florida is giving rise to reports that the seaboard line is contemplating extending into that territory. It is reported that the seaboard and the Georgia Central working in common are reaching from Town Point, opposite Pensacola, where there is deep water and a land locked harbor.

COMPLETES ROLL FOR CONVENTION

Credentials Committee Works All Night at Forced Draft Speed; Three Changes

CHICAGO, (P)—Working all night at forced draft speed, the credentials committee completed, the permanent roll of the republican national convention at 4:30 this morning. Previous rulings on contents by the national committee were sustained in all but three cases.

In disposing of 103 appeals from the decisions made last week by the national committee, two delegates were taken from Governor Lowden—one in Georgia and one in Tennessee and given to General Wood, but in the fifth Missouri (Kansas City) district, where the national committee refused to seat any one, the credentials committee seated two Lowden men, leaving the standing of the two candidates unchanged.

The permanent roll was ready for presentation to the convention when it met at 11 o'clock this morning. Robert B. Church, negro Lowden delegate, was the Tennessee case in which the national committee was overruled. He was ousted in favor of Chas. B. Quinn, white, instructed for Wood, when Quinn's counsel declared the church faction had bolted the district convention.

Other cases decided early today and completing the roll, all confirmations of the national committee's finds were: Eleven Lowden delegates from South Carolina seated.

The entire Texas delegation, headed by National Committeeman H. F. MacGregory and reported as split up among Wood, Lowden, Johnson and Harding, seated.

The fifteen Virginia delegates headed by Representative C. B. Simpson were seated.

BAPTISTS START APOSTOLIC TOUR OF CENTRAL EUROPE

LONDON, (P)—The Rev. C. A. Brooks of the United States, accompanied by the Rev. J. H. Bushbrooke have left for what has been described as an apostolic journey to the Baptist churches scattered throughout Central Europe on behalf of the Baptist world alliance. They will visit Germany, the Baltic states, Poland, Czech-Slovakia, Rumania and perhaps, Russia.

In Transylvania the condition of the Presbyterians and Unitarians was, he said, worse under Rumania than under Hungary, and he hoped to be able to help them as well as the Baptists.

MAKES ANNUAL COUNT OF PRIBILOF ISLAND SEALS

California Scientist Detailed by Government for Unique Census

SAN FRANCISCO, (P)—Dr. G. Dallas Hanna, member of the staff of the California Academy of Sciences, has just left here for Alaska where he will make a census of the fur seals on the Pribilof islands under direction of the United States bureau of fisheries.

Dr. Hanna has been connected with this work each year since 1913. In 1919 it was reported that there were 450,000 animals in the herd. In 1920 when the government first took over the operation of the island industry there were less than 200,000. During the time when this increase was taking place enough surplus and useless males have been killed and their skins sold at auction to provide the national treasury with $3,000,000 above all expenses, according to W. W. Sargent, secretary of the California Academy of Sciences.

The purpose of the census is chiefly to determine how many animals can be safely removed each year and still provide for a maximum percentage of increase of the herd. If the increase in 1920 continues as heretofore, it is said that there should be about 600,000 of these amphibious fur bearers, by far the largest herd in existence, as well as a surplus of about 30,000 males which can be killed for their skins. At current prices of these furs they will be valued at about $3,000,000.

"Since the cost of operation will be less than $200,000 it is quite evident that this industry is one of the best if not the best financial enterprise the government has," said Mr. Sargent, "and it is capable of almost unlimited expansion provided the females are protected and the surplus males are removed from the herd. The fighting of such males on the crowded rookeries causes a large mortality among the females and young."

"The carcasses of the animals killed were formerly allowed to waste but last year a by-product plant was put into operation by means of which it is expected a very superior oil and animal meal will be placed on the market. The census which will be taken in 1920 will enable a close approximation to be made of the quantities of these products which will be available in the immediate future."

CRIPPLE STARTS LONG WALK

OAKLAND, Cal. (P)—William Stone a rallo, although a cripple, recently started to walk 3000 miles from here to Buffalo, N. Y., to see his mother, Mrs. Mary Stone. Stone said he would reach Buffalo in six weeks.

STOWAWAY ENDS FRUITLESS TRIP

Youthful Singer Lacks Birth Certificate to Support Citizenship Claim

NEW YORK, (P)—Francis O'Brien, a young strapping fellow on Ellis Island and as a stowaway and as a tenor of promise, who is on the high seas today on his return voyage to Ireland, is a living proof that a birth certificate may sometimes prove an essential document in the pursuit of a career as a singer.

Were it not for his lack of such a document as proof of his contention that he was born in Philadelphia and that his parents took him to Ireland when he was 4 years old young O'Brien might now be winning the hearts of American music lovers, as did John McCormack the emulation of whose career led the lad to secrete himself on an American-bound vessel some three weeks ago.

Instead, immigration officials, who have only cold legal instructions to guide them in making decisions, saw fit to place him on an outgoing ship and let him try to establish the essential facts concerning his birth after his return. O'Brien, however, despairing of being able to prove much about his origin, begged his father and mother are both dead and he has no relatives in Ireland.

The young tenor's fame as a singer probably would never have started to spread had it not been for a slight illness contracted on Ellis Island, causing him to be placed in the hospital for treatment. The nurses there became enchanted with his singing, and before he was deported he was giving concerts for the other inmates of the hospital as well as for the inhabitants of the island generally. As a result O'Brien's name today is on the lips of all Ellis Island. The hospital attendants were calling his name with tender eulogy and expressing extreme sorrow that he had to go back.

O'Brien is only one of hundreds of such cases that are sent back to their original place of embarkation every month. There are 50 stowaways on the island now awaiting orders to go back, never having seen more of New York than its enchanting skyline. Every incoming ship from no matter what port, according to immigration officials, brings from two to ten stowaways, and almost all of them have a fruitless voyage to this country.

Do you think you have a lot to be said about Do you believe that Old Man Gloom has chased you out of your life forever? Are you bowed down under a heavy load of business responsibilities that have a tendency to pessimize your good nature? Has misfortune tried to make a pal of you?

If such is the case, don't fail to see Mary Pickford in "Pollyanna." This is Miss Pickford's first photoplay since she joined the "Big Four." It is being released by the United Artists corporation and is being shown at the Gem theatre today and tomorrow.

If it can be bought for less the fact will be advertised.

ADD MORE WEIGHT AND CADDOCK WOULD BE GREATEST OF WORLD WRESTLERS, CHAMP STECHER SAYS

Leader of Grapplers Pays Glowing Tribute to Lighter Man from Whom He Won the Title Few Months Ago—Uses Brains with a Defense that's Hard to Combat — Hammerlock Best Hold

Earl Caddock's ability to spoil the other fellows leverage is his greatest wrestling asset in the opinion of Joe Stecher of Dodge, Neb., as expressed in an interview printed by Edward W. Smith of Chicago.

"You ask what is Caddock's strongest point," Stecher is quoted as saying. "Well, that's a mighty hard point to answer. You see, he has a whole lot of strong points in his work. I know one thing that makes him a great man. He wrestles right with you. That's something it's hard to explain to anybody but a wrestler.

"When you get a hold on him and crowd him, he goes right the way you do, thus nullifying your efforts. The average wrestler will go against you and thus it becomes a test of strength. Not so with Caddock, however. He 'gives' with you and the first thing you know he has slipped out of your hold and has put one of his own on you.

"Did you notice his defense for the several double wristlocks I got on him in our last match. He went right along with me without much resistance, and just seemed to slide out of them."

With more weight Stecher says Caddock would be the greatest wrestler of all time. Most of his strength, according to the Nebraska man, is from his waist up. His fore arms and his hands are especially strong.

Stecher also picks the hammerlock as Caddock's best weapon of offense and does not believe Lewis' headlock will bother the Iowan as much as it does other wrestlers for the reason that the hammerlock which Caddock can apply like a flash, is the best counter for the "Strangler's" pet grip.

MAGEE'S REMARK DENIED IN FULL BY COAST PLAYER

Hal Chase Declares Former Cub Tells Falsehood Implicating Him

SAN JOSE, Cal., (AP)—Hal Chase in a statement tonight said there was "absolutely no truth" in the statement of Lee Magee, made yesterday on the witness stand in Cincinnati, that Magee and Chase in July, 1918, bet $500 on the Cincinnati baseball club to win from Boston.

Chase, who is playing at first base with the San Jose club of the California Mission league, said: "There is absolutely no truth in this statement by Magee. I was exonerated of all charges of betting by the national commission after it made a full investigation. I do not know what Magee did at the time of the game he mentions, but I do know that I did not place any bets and the statement is untrue from start to finish."

BEE GETS OUTFIELDER.

SALT LAKE CITY, (AP)—Wallace Hood, outfielder, was purchased yesterday by the Salt Lake club of the Pacific Coast league from Pittsburgh. Hood was formerly with Moosejaw in the Canadian league and joined Brooklyn last season. When the Brooklyn club asked waivers on him this season, he was taken by Pittsburgh.

The "Z" Lives a Long and Useful Life

"Z" Engine endurance is proverbial—it's a lifetime engine. That's because every part liable to wear is case hardened. Push rod rollers—valve stems and cams—contact parts throughout—are made immensely hard by heat treating. They will not wear—nor will they break.

The "Z" has an extra large crankshaft. Not one has ever broken. All "Z" bearings are cast and removable. Every "Z" part so carefully made that it is absolutely interchangeable. Ample lubrication—positive—well-balanced, correct mechanical design—help make the "Z" the "lifetime" farm engine. On the job—dependable—powerful—always.

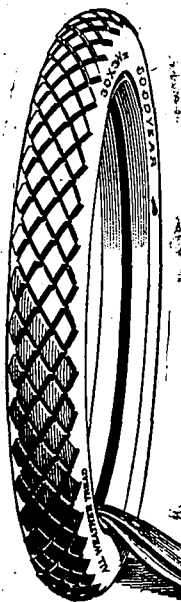

Other "Z" features are: Runs on kerosene; coal oil, top, as well as gasoline; built-in Bosch high tension oscillating magnet; more than rated power; every part interchangeable; clean-cut, efficient design.

LABOR DEMANDS ARE PUT BEFORE POLICY WRITERS

Opposition to Federal Legislation Similar to Kansas Industrial Court Law and Use of Injunction Figures

CHICAGO, (AP)—Vigorous opposition to federal legislation similar to the Kansas industrial court measure, to the use of injunction proceedings in strikes was contained in a resolution adopted by the American Federation of Labor, submitted today to the resolutions committee of the republican national convention.

"It is essential," said the statement, "that legislation regulating immigration should be based on two fundamental principles, namely, that the flow of immigration must not at any time exceed the ability of the country to assimilate and Americanize foreigners coming to our shores, and that at no time shall immigration be permitted when it would result in an appreciable degree of unemployment."

Other demands included: Immediate relief from high cost of living; extension of the farm loan act to give credit to all properly organized co-operatives and individual farmers; issuance of a money statement by the department of treasury; prompt federal investigation of profits and prices and the making available of all income and other tax returns; observance, enforcement and extension of the federal maximum eight-hour law in all civil departments of the government; revision of the federal compensation law to care for those not reached by state laws as well as sufferers from industrial accidents; exclusion from interstate commerce of products of convict labor; repeal of the labor provisions of the Smith-Cummings law; and election of federal judges by the people for terms not exceeding six years and action to prevent federal legislation being held unconstitutional.

The statement also declared against the use of force by the United States in Mexico to compel Mexicans to meet the demands of persons who purpose to exploit Mexican resources.

PLATFORM RATHER THAN NOMINATION

on hand early and as they scattered about the floor photographers sought them. There was no fashion display, it was too warm. One woman with furs wrapped about her neck finally had to shake them.

The delegates began early and cool, but it took a sudden shift as the convention began assembling and it looked as though the delegates and visitors would be without the first of June convention weather. The sun heating down on the big drum-like roof of the Coliseum, radiated its heat down the space below. The ladies began appearing, colorful shawls signs of willing, and came back to come off. The band and the entertainers didn't seem to mind the growing heat, however, and kept up a constant program of music and songs.

Many Seats Vacant

At 11 o'clock, the opening time, the convention hall was not half full. It looked as if the convention would get away at least a half hour late as it did yesterday. The principal candidates, however, knowing that today's proceedings were largely perfunctory, were in no hurry in coming, and remained downtown, rounding up forces and strengthening their lines. Many of the important figures of the convention, too, were engaged in the work of the resolution committee framing the platform.

At 11:15 Chairman Lodge arrived on the platform with Chairman Hays. A song leader tried to get the audience to sing the "Long Long Trail," but had a hard time getting out the notes. The song leader stripped off his coat and rolled up his sleeves, called for more pep. He got a little better response and then took a hand at three cheers for the republican party. He had better luck with that than he did with the song.

Lodge Gets Ovation

Chairman Lodge stepped out to the speaker's space at 11:30 and he got three cheers and a tiger. John Timothy Stone was today's chaplain. The convention stood while he offered prayer.

In closing, Dr. Stone led the great audience in the Lord's prayer. The song leader was immediately on the job again and led the audience in the Star Spangled Banner.

They brought out a stout oak table for Chairman Lodge to which his gavel on. He called for the report of the resolutions committee. Charles Duffield, of New Jersey, came to the platform to present it.

Church Bows to Bulling

The report recommended the changes decided upon at last night's meeting of the committee. Dr. Stone read the adoption of the report. Robert R. Church, of Memphis, who had been invited by the credentials committee, said he would not ask the convention to consider a minority report.

"I know I am entitled to sit," said Church, "but I shall take my fight back to Tennessee."

The report of the credentials committee was adopted without dissent and the convention next heard the report from the committee on permanent organization. It was presented by Governor Morrow of Kentucky, its chairman. As agreed upon it recommended that the temporary organization be made permanent. The convention liked the idea of saving time and expediting another keynote speech and adopted the motion with cheers. Senator Lodge, who had demonstrated his ability to step forward, this time as permanent chairman of the convention.

"The best way to show my gratitude to the convention for its action," said Senator Lodge, "will be to tell you there will be no speech by the permanent chairman."

The convention acknowledged its appreciation of that with more applause.

Makes Places for Women

Paul Howland of Cleveland, Ohio, presented the report of the committee on rules and order of business.

The report recommended seating delegates' representation in the national convention at four delegates at large from each state, one delegate from each congressional district, and one delegate for each district in which not less than 7,000 votes have been cast for a republican candidate at the last election.

The only new material in the rules, Chairman Howland announced, was an increase in the executive committee of the convention from 15 to 25 members and a new assistant secretary.

Without saying so in expressed terms, he said, "this is to take care of our reinforcements to the republican party—the ladies." The understanding is that the national platform will go to women. The convention speedily adopted the report.

Puts Limit on Oratory

Chairman Lodge announced he would enforce the rule limiting speakers to five minutes and one speech on the subject at any one time, unless the convention ordered otherwise. The resolutions committee, sent word it could only report progress and was not ready to present a platform yet.

Chairman Lodge asked the convention what it wanted to do in the meantime, and there were cries "De Pew, De Pew!" from the floor. Mr. Hume was on the platform waiting to speak and some had thought the honor of first address would be his. He went to a woman. Mr. De Pew walked out on the speaker's platform to an accompaniment of applause and cheers.

"He has seen no instance of a republican convention," said Senator Lodge, introducing him.

De Pew Denies Age

"Senator Lodge says I'm an old man, but he's mistaken," said Mr. De Pew. "A man down south who heard me speak recently wrote me a letter and said he'd heard I claimed to be only 80. All I have to say is, 'Is he?' or 'No?' you are either a miracle or a damned liar."

Mr. DePew said the country needed experienced statesmen and that was the problems growing out of the war, declaring the republican party had handled it with ability, after the civil war, and has proven its ability to do so. Mr. De Pew took successive flings at President Wilson's trip to the delegates. Other presidents, he said, had dealt with foreign nations but had selected the best brains and men in the country to go and do it.

"What you want to do is to rope and the politicians and diplomats said to him 'What do you want?' he replied, 'I want a league of nations, a league of states, of which I shall be the recording angel.' The convention got a good laugh out of that."

The league of nations is there and there is no man who can add one word to the description which was given by our chairman, Senator Lodge. As I travel about, man after man comes to me and says, 'I always have been a democrat but Mr. Wilson has taken away every principle of the democratic party and I intend now to nominate a good man and win.'

Expects Democratic Votes

"I think during the summer, millions of these democrats will vote our ticket."

At that point, Mr. DePew couldn't resist the temptation to tell a story.

Then, in a serious vein, Mr. DePew, speaking a veteran of 65 years on the republican platform, proclaimed that out of the convention would come wisdom and enthusiasm, and that the nation "standing for the principles of Washington, Lincoln and Roosevelt, would take its place as a leader for the peace and unity and civilization of mankind."

Woman Speaker Cheered

There were calls for various speakers after Mr. DePew had retired and amid a whirlwind of cheering, Mr. Lodge introduced Mrs. Margaret Hill McCarter of Kansas, who got rounds of cheers.

The convention stood while Mrs. McCarter took the platform. She wore a close-fitting turban with a neck-piece of monkey fur and a taupe gown. Mrs. McCarter was in good voice and evidently reached the farthest part of the hall.

"The women of America," said she, "are organized and trained and ready for the duties of citizenship. We stand by the party that never has failed in its loyalty to the good old Stars and Stripes. The women of America must follow that banner and I pledge you that the womanhood of America will not be found wanting in upholding republican ideals. At the ballot box we stand ready to fight with you that in all coming years that our nation may all its ideals of republicanism, shall endure and the Star Spangled banner in triumph shall wave over the land of the free, and the home of the brave."

Today's Markets

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, (AP)—The reactionary tone of rallies, due to reduced dividends on Chicago and Northwestern issues, occasioned further liquidation of transportation in today's stock market. Sales approximated $50,000 shares.

A firm undertone was shown by popular issues at the opening of today's stock market, although rallies, with the exception of Reading, continued under moderate pressure. Most of the steel, equipment, motor and oil scores were fairly gains. Shipings, utilities and miscellaneous specialties made fractional advances.

Liberty Bonds

NEW YORK, (AP)—Liberty bonds first prices today were: 3 1/2's $91.90; first 4's $86.14; second 4's $85.10; first 4 1/4's $86.80; second 4 1/4's $85.82; third 4 1/4's $85.22; fourth 4 1/4's $85.22; Victory 3 3/4's $85.50; Victory 4 3/4's $85.50.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—There was notable strength and activity in the grain markets today. The July delivery of oats brought $1 a bushel. Oats scored corn prices, which ranged from 1-2 to 1-3-8 higher, with July at $1.71 1/2 to 1.72 3/4 and September at $1.58 to 1.59 1/2, were followed by material higher gains. Oats took the lead and even more conspicuously in the subsequent trading, and July oats reached $1.04 5/8, an overnight jump of 7-8 cents. Corn syrup in stilling cases, 1-2 to 4c net higher, with July at $1.74 3/8 to 1.74 5/8 and September $1.61 to 1.61 1/4.

Oats started 3-8 to 1 1/2c up, with July at $1.15c and continued to make a swift ascent.

Provisions were dull and steady.

CONFIDENCE IS EXPRESSED BY PLANK WRITERS

start, although the league plank was not to be taken up for several hours. He picked out a comfortable berth on a bed and waited.

At the outset of its meeting the sub-committee read through the report of Chairman Hays committee of 171 as it had been revised in pre-conference conference. It dealt with virtually no controversial subjects and most of it was written into the platform without extended discussion.

Prohibition Groups In.

Prohibition crept into the hearing when Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, and four other drys urged the committee to take a firm stand for enforcement of the dry laws under the Volstead act. Wheeler said that the democratic party would be "compelled to take a similar stand."

"It is pure patriotism and good politics to stand fast for the home and effective enforcement of the eighteenth amendment," he said, amid ringing cheers.

When Wheeler finished, Committee Chairman Richards, turned to his foot and insisted that he be heard in opposition, but he sat down again when he was advised that he would be heard in executive session. Obergfell of Cincinnati, urged a modification of the present dry laws.

Others Submit Proposals.

Others who spoke at the morning session included James H. Jones, of the Women's International League for Permanent Peace; Miss Graham, Dr. Robert Lovett and Miss Grace Abbott for a lifting of the Russian oil embargo, and John Kelly and James Eads Howe, for the enfranchisement of illiterate labor.

Measures to restore agricultural production to pre-war levels and check the depopulation of the farms were advocated by representatives of 17 farm organizations, led by John A. McPherson of Pennsylvania. He said that while "we seek no class legislation, the nation must realize the danger confronting it and act or the price of neglect now and in later years as well."

Give Farmers' Suggestions.

Mr. McPherson submitted the farmers' suggestions for planks covering "practical and constructive" representation in the cabinet; the right of co-operative marketing without restrictions; federal control over the packing industry and other combinations of capital doing an interstate business; a strengthened farm loan system with a tenancy study and "uncensored" publication of farm production costs; consideration of farm interests in tariff legislation similar to that given other industries; conservation of coal, oil and water power and other natural resources; repeal of laws restricting "free speech" and freedom of the press; and restoration of our fundamental rights; opposition to compulsory military training in times of peace; stringent laws covering immigration and especially with respect to importation of Oriental labor and a retention of the graduated income and excess profits taxes with a supplemental grant-in-aid tax on inheritance.

Urgo River Development.

Supporters of inland waterway development were before the committee with plans for planks pledging the up-building of the Mississippi enabling it to meet the water transportation needs of the territory traversed and for a deepening of the St. Lawrence for ocean carriers may reach Duluth.

While the waterways advocates were before the committee, E. J. Gross, Wisconsin member, sought to have the hearings concluded in order that all members could begin the work of formulating the platform. This was opposed by Senator Spofer, Utah, who asked that members of the sub-committee, named earlier by Chairman Watson, continue their work. The chairman then announced the hearings would continue as long as necessary.

VAN COTT ACQUITTED.

By a jury impaneled in the municipal court, Dr. E. R. Van Cott was yesterday afternoon acquitted of the charge of speeding while driving an automobile down Main avenue. The defense introduced testimony to show he was answering a hurry call.

According to suggestion made lately to the city council by W. A. Minnick, city clerk, opportunity lies before Twin Falls in the establishment here of an aviation field. Twin Falls is on a direct route from Salt Lake to Spokane, Seattle, Tacoma and other northwestern cities, and this fact would make for importance of such a station here. Other cities are taking advantage of this opportunity. Proper effort directed to this end at this time would no doubt, work to the advantage of Twin Falls.

SOUND ADVICE

Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts, has put his finger on the sore spot at the center of economic disturbance in this country which some people attribute to profiteering and others to other causes, depending largely upon the individual point of view.

Governor Coolidge's diagnosis is particularly valuable at this time when so much of chaff surrounds the kernel of real thought on the subject. It serves as a guide post pointing toward first principles that cannot be stayed away from if the problem presented is to be solved. He says:

"We are making a great deal of effort to restrain the profiteer. That is a commendable effort. But we ought to look back to the teachings of George Washington, when, facing a situation not dissimilar, he taught the men of his day out of the clear vision and wise counsel, that it was not by undertaking to fix prices, but by undertaking to push them down, that we charge excessive prices, that we could secure some alleviation. The profiteer is not so much the cause as the effect of the condition we are in. All the laws we make will not build a house or make a pair of shoes."

"The first thing we can do is to get the government out of business. That in itself will do more to settle prices and curb unrest than any other thing. It will stimulate production, now our greatest need, and when we have approached something nearer that adequate supply of our wants we shall not be troubled by the profiteer. We are troubled also by new found wealth. People with money are not properly trained in spending it, and in their extravagance comes excessive demand. These are the fundamental, and through their application order will again come."

"We must get away from the idea of arbitrary authority which has grown up in some high places. No one man is qualified to dictate to a great nation, nor can 1,000,000 men do so. A government must function on the will of all the people. We must teach all men the observance of the law, and that the right to hold property is as sacred as the right to acquire it. In other words, let us have a government under the constitution, my friends, and in that way America will go forward, in a better condition than ever before."

The governor's advice aligns closely with the theory of "the less government the better" that has safely guided political thought of several American generations. It is in close accord with the conception that entails to government the business of safeguarding to its citizenship physical protection and equality of opportunity to an extent where no one man's activities encroach upon the rights of any other. And there has been no better conception of the proper functions of government than this.

DOLLARS IN YOUR POCKET

Dollars carried around in people's pockets represent just so much money withdrawn from circulation. Dollars deposited in the banks provide money for industrial and commercial use. There is much demand just now of a strong demand for money, which is a well known fact. The high cost of everything, from the simplest raw material to the labor expended in making that raw material into a finished product, makes it necessary to employ more capital in the carrying on of business than was the case before the war, when prices were on what might be called a normal level.

Financiers in government circles and bankers in all cities and towns are warning the people about the necessity for speeding up production and curbing extravagance. Borrowers at the banks are told that money is scarce, and they must give a good account of what the money is to be used for if their applications for loans are successful. Now there would be more money in the banks for business use if people would carry less in their pockets and more in the banks. It is dangerous to carry money about the person or to hoard it at home.

It is said that one manufacturer recently found on investigation among his workmen that the average amount of cash in each pocket was $23, a sum which carried by the employees of the Bell Telephone company, would withdraw $5,500,000 from circulation. Going a little further in the general practice, if half of the American people were to carry around $23 each, $1,500,000,000 would be the amount of currency actually withdrawn from banking resources with which business might be developed and carried on. Bank your cash and help business!

BRITISH FEAR AMERICANS

WILL LURE AWAY MARINERS

LIVERPOOL, (P)—Fear that better conditions in the American mercantile marine service may lure British seamen away from British to American vessels was expressed at the annual meeting of the Mercantile Marine Service association. W. C. Bridgman, parliamentary secretary to the board of trade, said a poster was being put up in all the ports of the United States offering every conceivable temptation to the British sailor to leave the British service and to join the American.

PETALUMA POSTOFFICE IS

SWAMPED WITH LIVESTOCK

PETALUMA, Cal., (P)—The Petaluma postoffice is swamped with live stock.

The shipping of baby chicks by parcel post has become such a large part of the work that a large force of girls has been added to the regular force of clerks to handle the work. One day nearly 60,000 chicks went out from the postoffice, and the daily shipment during the freight transportation congestion averages 45,000 to 60,000 a day.

NEWSPAPER ANNOUNCEMENT

SAVES LOST DOGS' LIVES

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., (P)—A local newspaper's recent announcement that 50 dogs in the city pound were to die in the gas cages, brought a mob of men, women and boys to take the dogs out. They paid the required fee of $3 license tax and in half an hour all the dogs were gone. Curs and thoroughbreds sold alike.

WOMEN CAPTURE SEALS AFTER MEN'S FAILURE

Wives and Daughters: Score Catch and Kill of Size in Off Season

RAY OF EXPLOITS, N. F., (P)—The women of Tilt Cove are the pride and the envy of the bay today. In a season of failure in the sealing industry, they have scored a catch and kill of size. Wives and daughters succeeded where the men of the bay had failed.

The ice was still running on this northern coast, and the men had gone far out to find the seals that follow it. The wife of the light keeper on Gull island saw signs of the herd on the ice, sent word ashore to the women of Tilt Cove and marshalled them into a sealing crew.

They went in boats, armed with clubs and gaffs, and climbing on to the ice cakes, set out to round up a catch. They found the seals sprawled on all sides, and learned later that they had struck the main patch, the hope of all seal hunters.

The women went about their work with vim and had captured or killed 100 seals when exhaustion and approaching nightfall compelled them to cease their labors and make their catch secure. When the men came back they were given the task of stripping the pelts and rendering the oil.

FRENCH LIKE JAZZ MUSIC

Marked Rhythm and Uniform Tempo of American Scores Create Demand

WASHINGTON, (P)—The French public likes American jazz dance music so well that dancers, contrary to custom, encore selections three and four times. Moreover, American dance music sells in France at prices three times as high as at home.

The American vice consul at Nantes reports that dancers in France are "starving for 'Jazz of American music,'" and that American publishers are overlooking a golden opportunity. The marked rhythm and uniform tempo of American dance music, introduced in France by the soldier bands, have created an appetite for more, the vice consul says.

The operators were caught at the time of the raid and taken by the officers were two barrels of corn mash, some in the early stages of fermentation, some raining, a 30-gallon kettle and a sufficient amount of copper worm to make the distillery complete. ## SWINE DISEASE EXPERTS GONE

Dr. W. A. Sullivan's Staff Curtailed Through Lack of Funds to Carry On Work

Action of congress in making general reductions in appropriations for carrying on agricultural work has resulted in the necessity of curtailing the forces assigned to hog cholera control in the Twin Falls district. Two men have been cut off, leaving Dr. W. A. Sullivan alone to supervise the work of the entire state of Idaho.

Dr. Sullivan was made yesterday by Dr. Sullivan, who is in charge of the department of agriculture having special supervision over hog cholera control. He will, it is assumed, continue headquarters here but will have no assistants. He urges that all persons interested in any way with the swine industry in this state make it their business to keep him informed on all matters relating to the condition of herds throughout the state.

Dr. L. C. Henderson, who has been Dr. Sullivan's assistant in Idaho Falls, has been taken into that branch of work looking after the control of scabies in sheep. He will remain in Idaho Falls. Dr. D. B. Bishop, who has been connected with the hog cholera control department at Caldwell, will also go into the sheep scabies department, but in Utah. He reports immediately in Salt Lake.

Dr. Sullivan explains that while two-thirds of his staff has been taken in the curtailment effort, Idaho has not suffered to any greater extent than other states in the union where hog raising is made a specialty. Until recently 184 veterinary inspectors were employed in the various states. This force has been cut to 50.

EVIDENCE OF COMMON LAW CONTRACT ABSENT

Judge Babcock Denies Appeal of Woman as Beneficiary on Consent Marriage

The application of Jennie Larson, made in the district court, for judgment awarding her alimony and property rights against Paul Larson, has been denied by Judge W. A. Babcock, of the district court. The application was based upon allegations that a common law marriage contract existed between Larson and the woman. The court found no proof that such a contract ever existed.

Larson is a wealthy north side property owner. He has a house which is rental property, living himself in a shack at the rear of this place. Testimony taken at the time tended to show that the woman and a daughter rented the house, and while Larson was absent one day in the winter the woman moved his goods from the cabin to the larger house. Larson admitted he lodged an objection since the woman explained she made the move for her personal comfort. He continued to live in the house with the woman and her daughter. Testimony also showed that on several occasions the woman got goods on credit identifying herself as Mrs. Paul Larson. The man admitted having paid all these claims.
