CONVENTION POSTPONES NOMINATION SPEECHES FOR PLATFORM REPORT

Republicans Retest Third Day Sessions when Word Comes that Unanimous Agreement Promising Union of Party and Victory in November is Reached by Committee on Menacing League of Nations Plank

CHICAGO, CHICAGO, (P)—When the republican convention resumed its session this afternoon, an agreement was pending, said to have the approval of the various managers, to dispose of the platform report and then adjourn until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning with the understanding that all the nominating speeches and the balloting for president would be finished before the convention adjourned again.

There had been a plan to run under forced draught tonight and begin disposing of the platform, finish all the nominating speeches and take one ballot for president before adjourning the evening session. Frank H. Hitchcock, field marshal of the Wood forces, however, objected to that plan because, he said, his expected General Wood to poll his minimum of votes on the first ballot, and he did not want the voting stopped at that juncture.

Four o'clock, the hour for reconvening passed and the convention was not in order and there was no attempt to call it to order because the word had come that the resolutions committee was not ready to report on the platform.

CHICAGO, Chicago, (P)—While awaiting the report of the platform committee the republican national convention held a brief session this morning and then much of the afternoon of the galleries took a recess until 4 o'clock this afternoon. When the convention assembled the platform committee was expected in the struggle over the plank on the peace treaty and it looked as if much time might be lost. There was a consideration of plans to go ahead with nominating speeches while awaiting the platform report, but there was objection to that and it was abandoned.

Agreement Clear Situation. While the convention managers were debating what to do with the word from downtown that the platform committee had agreed on a report and a few minutes later Senator McCormick of Illinois, one of the sub-committee members, appeared on the speakers' platform and announced that an unanimous agreement had been reached by the sub-committee to support the union of the party and victory in November.

Mr. McCormick presented a motion for a recess until four o'clock but there was a roar of ayes and noes from the delegates and galleries and Chairman Lodge was compelled to call for a standing vote on which he decided that the majority wanted the recess.

Bigger Show Downtown. Behind its schedule and still awaiting the outcome of the platform fight the republican national convention assembled today for its third session. The resolutions committee fight downtown was a bigger show than the convention itself and there were prospects of a small house. The band and the songsters went through the motions of attempting to amuse the delegates and visitors while they awaited the opening hour. The sun was beating down mercilessly and giving foreboding of a sweltering day.

Cardinal Gibbons who was to offer prayer today was among the early arrivals. A committee escorted the venerable churchman to the platform, and as the delegates and visitors caught a glimpse of his red cap and saw a ripple of applause sweep the hall.

Enthusiasm Sweeps Convention. The news that the platform committee was about to agree and let the waiting convention go ahead put new life into convention hall and a wave of enthusiasm extended up into the bandstand. Members of the national committee who got the news went into a brief conference to arrange the day's plans accordingly.

Eleven o'clock, the opening hour, rolled by and the convention was not called to order. Delegates were arriving rapidly and the big hall was full of talk about the agreement on the platform. Apparently there was to be no hurry in beginning the session now that a report from the platform committee was in sight.

Cardinal Offers Invocation. Chairman Lodge got the convention in order at 11 o'clock by the whisking of the gavel and calls to the delegates to clear the aisles and sit down. Cardinal Gibbons offered the prayer.

The tenor, wearing a gown in his flowing red robe and his gray head crowned by his red cap made a striking figure as he stood under the snow-white sounding board. He looked over the audience as he delivered his prayer and closed with the Lord's prayer, as did the Episcopal clergyman who led the convention in prayer yesterday.

McCormick Reports Agreement. Immediately at the conclusion of the prayer Senator McCormick of the sub-committee on resolutions took the platform and reported that the committee had agreed on a platform which would

Convention Rejects Proposal to Create Department to Distribute Propaganda in Support of Proposed Policy

REJECTS EXPENDITURE OF BIG CAMPAIGN FUND

Authorizes Charter to International Policemen's Union as Soon as Local Unions Membership Reaches 6,000

MONTREAL, (P)—The American Federation of Labor in annual convention here today rejected a proposal to create a permanent educational department to distribute propaganda urging support of the federation's policy of non-partisanship in politics.

The delegates unanimously adopted a report of the committee on organization which recommended that this step proposed by the Central Labor Union of Popular Front, Me., not be taken at this time, because it was unnecessary and would entail unjustified expense. The proposal included provision for a large campaign fund.

Rejects Food Department

The convention committee refused to concur in a resolution presented by the Chicago Federation of Labor which urged the executive council to appoint a special committee to investigate the feasibility of combining all workers in the food and catering industry of America into a food producing and distributing department.

Blair Hayes, Chicago, declared that the "giganteo labor interests" of the country had combined against union workers and must be met by a similar organization.

The convention authorized the executive council of the federation to charter an international policeman's union as soon as the membership of local policeman unions totals 6,000. A petition that an international union be chartered was presented by the Oklahoma City local.

After bitter debate the federation adopted a resolution requesting the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks to eliminate the "color line" from its constitution and give the negro full membership.

A message message from the executive committee of the Irish Trades Union congress was read urging the federation to demand release of "comrade" James Larkin, an Irish labor leader, and to "use every effort to secure for Ireland the principles for which Larkin now is serving."

After a round trip fight across the country after conviction in New York

Howatt Attacks Allen. Alexander Howatt, representing the Kansas delegation, introduced a resolution condemning Governor Allen for "his despicable efforts to enslave the working class of Kansas, and finally the working class of the United States, in protest against his restoration as governor of Kansas to the work of crucifying the working class."

The International Ladies' Garment Workers' union asked that the convention call on congress immediately to investigate the "deplorable conditions of the women's garment industry and to enact effective legislation to cope with such conditions and to protect the workers in that industry."

Urges Strike for "Freedom." The garment workers also asked that the federation call for the immediate release from prison of "social idealists" and taken up for an hour or more. Unanimous action was taken to prevent the text of the compromise from being public. Senator Borah kept all copies in his possession.

Discussion of the treaty compromise had not been reached at 2:30 o'clock and it was thought that it might not be reached before the convention adjourned. Some were being taken to prevent the text of the compromise from being public. Senator Borah kept all copies in his possession.

ALBANIAN INSURGENTS ATTACK ITALIAN FORCES

Dunkati Bridge on Vjosura River Scene of Continuing Fighting

LONDON, (P)—Fifteen thousand Albanian insurgents attacked the Dunkati bridge on the Vjosura river and captured a party of Italian carabinieri, according to the dispatch from Rome to the Central News today quoting the Brindisi correspondent of the Giornale d'Italia.

The telegraph and telephone lines were cut and about were exchanged with Italian troops who are organizing to attack the insurgents, the dispatch adds.

ROOT'S PROPOSAL CLOSES THREATENED PARTY SPLIT

Upholds Position of Senate and Does Not Declare in Specific Terms for Ratification of Treaty

BASIS OF COMPROMISE ACCEPTABLE TO FACTIONS AT LOGGERHEADS ON ISSUE

CHICAGO, (P)—A league of nations plank declared by leaders to be "acceptable to everybody" was unanimously adopted today by the republican resolutions sub-committee apparently ending all threat of a party split over the league issue.

The plank upholds the senate in refusing to ratify the treaty of Versailles, declares that any future international peace understanding must square with American traditions and ends the affirmation declaration for a league which had been urged by the mild reservationists.

Originally drafted weeks ago by Elmer Root, the plank was revised at an all-night series of conferences and was adopted by the sub-committee after Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican senate leader, had appeared in the committee room and declared if the mild reservation proposal were accepted he would go on the convention floor and fight it.

Taft Will Not Stop To Visit Convention

CHICAGO, (P)—Former President Taft will arrive here tomorrow morning from the west and will stop over a few hours before leaving for New York. It was said today he probably would not visit the convention or attempt to take part in platform conferences.

Shortly before noon the work of the sub-committee was completed and members said they thought there would be no further action on the league plank-draft by the full resolutions committee.

While the Root plank commands the senate's rejection of the Versailles covenant, it is understood to contain provisions for approving in general terms the party's approval of some international conference for peace. It was that feature it was said, which led the mild reservationists to accept it.

News of the agreement started lively speculation whether the chances of any presidential candidate would be added to the Root plank. It was generally expressed first impression was that it would affect none of them except perhaps Senator Johnson. He immediately called it a victory for the principles he had advocated but it was pointed out that it probably would reduce the opportunity which would be greater than he had for an impassioned debate on the subject on the convention floor.

Root Is in Europe. While the plank accepted today was drafted originally by Mr. Root, it was said that some modifications had been made in the pre-convention conference of the leaders and in the meeting this morning in the senate chamber.

From the beginning of the league of nations fight, however, Mr. Root has been in close touch with developments, and the plank was said to be a victory for the principles he had advocated but it was pointed out that it probably would reduce the opportunity which would be greater than he had for an impassioned debate on the subject on the convention floor.

Candidates Silent. Lowden, Wood, Butler and Harding headquarters refused to issue any statement at once on the plank. It was said that some modifications had been made in the pre-convention conference of the leaders and in the meeting this morning in the senate chamber.

Senator Borah withheld comment, but Ogden Mills of New York, who has worked with him, said Mr. Crane was "perfectly satisfied."

To this statement Senator Borah, a leader of the irreconcilables said his own secret omission of provisions in another plank submitted yesterday by Mr. Mills—the Crane plank.

Inferential Mention of League. It is understood there is no specific mention of the league of nations, but there is inferential reference to it in a dispatch from Rome to the Central News today quoting the Brindisi correspondent of the Giornale d'Italia.

The telegraph and telephone lines were cut and about were exchanged with Italian troops who are organizing to attack the insurgents, the dispatch adds.

WILSON FOREIGN POLICIES COME IN FOR REBUKE

Tentative Draft of Republican Platform Declares for Maintenance of Order in Mexico; Opposes Mandate

COMMITTEE BEGINS WORK WITH SPLIT THREATENED

Irreconcilables Make Fight on Plank Framed After All Night Conference Favoring Treaty Acceptance

CHICAGO, (AP)—When the resolutions sub-committee went into session again this morning with the league of nations plank still threatening a party split, a tentative foreign relations plank was under consideration declaring opposition to the treaty without reservations—but favoring ratification with American rights safeguarded.

The plank was framed after all night conferences in which former Senator Murray Crane of Massachusetts, leading the mild reservation group, prevailed. It contained in substance the declaration submitted by Senator Crane yesterday and had not been accepted by the irreconcilables.

Condemn "Watchful Waiting."

The tentative draft also condemned President Wilson's Mexican policy, declared no Mexican regime should be organized until willing and able to give adequate guarantees for protection of American rights and pledged the republican party to "a consistent firm and effective policy towards Mexico that shall enforce respect for the American flag" and protect American citizens and property.

There was no direct reference to intervention in Mexico but it was declared that the party should stand for "instantaneous upon the maintenance of order" in Mexico. The proposal for a mandate over Armenia was condemned and the action of congress in passing a peace resolution approved.

It was indicated that although references to the league of nations still were in a formative stage the sub-committee probably would accept the tentative draft so far as it related to Mexico, Armenia and the peace resolution.

Confidence Expressed.

As the platform conference began in a desperate effort to conclude its work and lay a completed platform before the convention at today's session leaders on both sides of the league of nations row expressed confidence of an agreement but conceded that material obstacles remained. At the same time the remainder of the full resolutions committee began its consideration of other planks agreed on last night by the sub-committee.

These included an industrial relations declaration from which reference to anti-strike legislation had been omitted, a plank blaming the depreciation of money values for the high cost of living; one opposing government ownership or operation of railroads; and one expressing in general terms, with out mention of a cash basis, the gratitude and generosity of the party to former service men.

Urges Suffrage Ratification.

There also was a plank asking for prompt ratification of the woman suffrage amendment, but the sub-committee voted against inclusion of any direct reference to prohibition.

The tentative foreign-relations plank under consideration in the sub-committee provided in part:

"We approve the action of the republican senate with respect to the proposed treaty of peace with the covenant of the league of nations. We declare our opposition to the treaty and the league of nations as submitted by the president and approve the action of the republican senate in refusing ratification without safeguarding reservations.

"We favor the ratification of the treaty of peace with the league of nations with reservations which are in accord with the American principles which protect the liberty and independence of the people of the United States and which in no case shall be less effective in these respects than the reservations proposed and adopted by the republican senate.

"Those portions of the tentative plank relating to the peace resolution, Mexico and Armenia follow:

Peace Resolution.

We approve the action of the republican party in congress in passing a resolution to repeal the declaration of a state of war with Germany which would have brought peace and relieved the people of the United States and which in no case shall be less effective in these respects than the resolutions proposed and adopted by the republican senate. We also favor the codification and extension of rules of international law.

Mandate for Armenia.

We condemn President Wilson for asking congress to empower him to accept a mandate for Armenia. We condemn the republican senate for refusing the president's request to empower him to accept a mandate for Armenia. The acceptance of such mandate would result in the United States into the very midst of European quarrels. A commission organized by authority of President Wilson, we would be called upon to send 50,000 American boys to police Armenia and to expend $275,000 in five years. This estimate is made upon the basis that we would have only roving bands to fight, but the cost of a permanent force of 200,000 would be necessary.

No more striking illustration can be given of the United States into the very midst of European quarrels. A commission organized by authority of President Wilson, we would be called upon to send 50,000 American boys to police Armenia and to expend $275,000 in five years. This estimate is made upon the basis that we would have only roving bands to fight, but the cost of a permanent force of 200,000 would be necessary.

We deeply sympathize with the people of Armenia and stand ready to help them in all proper ways, but the republican party will oppose now and hereafter the acceptance of a mandate for any country in Europe or Asia.

Mexico.

The ineffective policy of the present administration in Mexican matters has been largely responsible for the continued loss of American lives in that country; upon our border; for the enormous loss of American and foreign property for the lowering of American standards of morality and social relations with Mexicans; and for the bringing of American ideals of justice and national honor and political integrity into contempt and ridicule in Mexico and throughout the world.

The policy of words, futile, written protests against the acts of Mexican officials, explained the following day by the president himself as being meaningless and not intended to be considered seriously or in force, has but added in degree to that contempt, and has added insult to the insult of Mexican bandits, and added insult upon insult against our national honor and dignity.

We should not recognize any Mexican government unless it be a responsible government willing and able to give sufficient guarantees that the lives and rights of American citizens are respected and protected; that wrongs will be promptly corrected and just compensation will be made for injury sustained. The republican party pledges itself to a consistent, firm and effective policy toward Mexico that shall enforce respect for the American flag and that shall protect the rights of American citizens lawfully in Mexico to security of life and enjoyment of property in accordance with established principles of international law and our treaty rights.

The republican party is the sincere friend of the Mexican people. In its insistence upon the maintenance of order for the protection of American citizens within its borders a great service will be rendered the Mexican people themselves. For the continuance of present conditions means disaster to their interests and patriotic aspirations.

Approves Senate Stand.

We declare our opposition to the treaty and the league of nations as submitted by the president and approve the action of the republican senate in refusing ratification without safeguarding reservations.

The judicial settlement of international disputes has always been a policy of the republican party, and the first general arbitration treaties were negotiated by a republican administration. We favor the ratification of the treaty of peace with the league of nations with reservations which are in accord with American principles which protect the liberty and independence of the people of the United States and which in no case shall be less effective in these respects than the reservations proposed and adopted by the republican senate. We also favor the codification and extension of rules of international law.

CURBS TORTURE OF KOREANS BY LAW'S MINIONS

Japanese Governor - General Takes Action when Appraised of Complaints of Extreme Methods Employed by Police

SEOUL, Korea, (AP)—Complaints that the police in Korea "sometimes go to such an extreme as to put the Koreans to torture," have reached the governor-general of Korea and Director Aikake, of the police bureau, has issued an order to the provincial governors to put a stop to it. The director announced that it was with great regret that he had heard, now and then, a criticism that "even of late, policemen often fail to behave properly toward the people."

Referring to reports that Koreans had been tortured, he told the governors that "it is said the people are apt to think the police and torture are inseparable, the idea of the one being inevitably associated with that of the other." He pointed out that even if torture were practiced only in a few cases it naturally discredited the whole system of the police. He added:

"As you know very well, in modern courts, judges rely on evidence rather than on the confession of offenders, and therefore torture has no place in our police system. I trust that in acting against any offenders you will do your best to collect evidence and not attempt to extort confession from them by the brutal means of torture."

GAMBLING HOUSE TO BE MADE CHARITY HOSPITAL

Chinese Authorities Announce Intention to Confiscate Notorious Shanghai Establishment

SHANGHAI, (AP)—The great gambling establishment in this city notorious for years under the name of "The Wheel," which originally cost more than $500,000, is to be converted into a charity hospital. The Chinese authorities have announced that they intend to confiscate the huge building which now stands dark and empty. Its owners, however, threaten to fight this program.

Up to about three years ago when the place was closed by Chinese authorities "The Wheel" in Shanghai was one of the biggest gambling establishments in the Far East. It was located in Chinese territory on North Homan road, a 15-minute automobile ride from the heart of the city. In the days when the establishment flourished, three roulette wheels with six layouts, beside fare and other games were operated.

After this establishment was closed as the result of the efforts of missionary interests no open gambling on any large scale was permitted in Shanghai until last fall when the interests that formerly operated "The Wheel" opened near it a smaller roulette establishment which in turn was closed after a few weeks.

Richie Mitchell Loses Decision to Lew Tendler

Philadelphia Gives Milwaukee Lightweight Boxing in Ten Round Contest

MILWAUKEE, Wis., (AP)—Lew Tendler, Philadelphia, was given the newspaper decision over Richie Mitchell, Milwaukee lightweight boxer, in a ten-round no-decision bout which went the limit. Tendler showed to advantage in a majority of the rounds.

Each boxer scored a knockdown, from stiff blows to the chin, the Milwaukee boy being upset in the first round and Tendler biting the canvas in the ninth round.

Each boxer was guaranteed $15,000 and the auditorium which was packed to capacity showed receipts of approximately $37,000.

Georges Carpentier, the French scrapper, boxed an exhibition bout with his Belgian sparring partner. An effort is being made to have the proposed Carpentier Lovinsky bout staged at Milwaukee.

PRAY FOR GOOD WEATHER

NEW HAVEN, Conn., (AP)—Yale men were asked "to pray for a fair day" by Yale News today in a forecast of arrangements for the Yale-Harvard regatta at New London, June 25. It displays the chances of a dreary delay complicated with uncertainty as to whether the variety race will be upstream or down.

DUBUQUE, Ia., (AP)—Winning two falls in less than 30 minutes, Johnny Myers successfully defended his title as world's middleweight champion wrestler against Heinle Engel, local contender Wednesday night.

Brief Bits of Sport

SPORT BRIEFS
Can't blame Salt Lake fans for being a bit boisterous.

With the bees already on top and going as they are at present there's reason for jubilation.

Our parson pal predicted a win for Caddock over Strangler Lewis long before the Des Moines bout was pulled off.

Lewis won the last time, didn't he? philosophed the preacher person.

Therefore it was quite to be expected that the Iowa would get the decision in the next bout; that is according to the eternal fitness of wrestling things.

Bell seems to have picked up a "ringer" in a third baseman who claims his name is O'Byrne.

This chap stepped off a train last Sunday in time to step into the game against Rupert and he distinguished himself with the club, and everything.

Of course the league has a rule against employing recalcitrant professionals from other leagues, but if you don't know their names' when they play what's the difference?

Also Paul was able to pick up three perfectly good players. "Bill" is against Buhl a week ago, when the Paul club seemed short of men. It just "happened" that they fell off an O. R. L. rafter in the time of emergency.

All of which may prove that you can't beat these bun league managers when they want to dodge an issue.

Benny Leonard and Frankie Callahan have been matched for a 6-round go during the Shrine carnival in Portland this month.

The bout will be staged in the Coast league ball park on the afternoon of June 22, and is planned to be the first of a series of tuning up outs for the champion.

By the way you didn't know Benny is a Noble of the Ancient Order of the Mystic Shrine, did you?

Sim Smith, sagebrush sage, says: "They're a hot lot of candidates, but they're only one presidential job."

Earl Caddock will next be matched with Champion Joe Stuchor. We'll have to ask the parson pal for the dope on this one.

The old dog is snapping everything that goes toward center field territory, and is stinging the ball hard and often. Four hits for this patriarch against the Seals Tuesday.

Jiu-Jitsu Not Japanese.

Jiu-Jitsu is supposed to come from Japan, but an art of self-defense virtually identical with it was taught in Europe during the seventeenth century. Its principles are expounded in a book by one Nicholas Petrus, published at Amsterdam in 1674, which bears the long explanatory title: "The Art of Wrestling, and how one can protect oneself in all kinds of quarrels that may occur; how one can with agility and rapidly repel all unfair attacks, and meet one's adversary with science."

COURT TO HEAR DEMPSEY'S WIFE

Rules Testimony to Non-Confidential Relations Admissible in Trial

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—United States District Judge M. T. Dooley ruling today that Mrs. Maxine Dempsey might testify to her confidential relations in the trial of her divorced husband, William Harrison (Jack) Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, on a draft evasion charge. Yesterday the court barred Mrs. Dempsey's testimony as to her confidential marital relations. Judge Dooley announced "there would be no general rule as to what was non-confidential matter and the questions which it gives rise to will be settled as they arise" following this statement the prosecution questioned Mrs. Dempsey regarding her visits with her husband and alone to various parts of the country.

The defense was overruled when it objected to a question to Mrs. Dempsey's support from July to November, 1917, during which period they were separated, according to her testimony. She testified according to her testimony that she had been in Salina, Colo., and Salt Lake City. She testified she returned to Salt Lake City at Dempsey's behest and they came to San Francisco together. There she practiced her calling as a woman of the underworld, according to her testimony and once Dempsey struck her in the jaw because she did not bring him enough money. Mrs. Dempsey said that at various times she was in the underworld of Pasco, Spokane and Yakima, Wash., and Cairo, Ill. She also mentioned having been in Salina, Colo., and Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Dempsey admitted she signed the draft questionnaire of her husband, attempting to her dependence upon him. She testified that after the signing of the questionnaire January 23, 1918, Dempsey sent her money until November, 1918.

In January 1918 Dempsey's household consisted of the pugilist, herself, and his parents, she testified. She said there were three grown brothers and two grown sisters, who were not living at home.

POLISH CABINET RESIGNS

Opposition to Buffer State Between Poland and Russia

WARSAW, (AP)—The cabinet of Premier Skladkowski resigned Wednesday. The ministry assumed office December 15 last. The resignation of the cabinet is understood to have been brought about chiefly by opposition to the government's policy with regard to the creation of a buffer state between Poland and Russia. It is expected that President Pilsudski will designate some one Friday to form a new ministry. The national democrats, it is reported, will refuse to participate in a government activity. The conservatives are insisting on peace, but will consent to co-operate with the conservative and popular parties and several other working groups.

FANS GET QUEER IDEAS ON RULES FOR BALL GAMES

Patrons of National Game Get Badly Mixed While Trying to Solve Points

By I. E. SANBORN.
Frequently there crops out an odd misunderstanding regarding baseball rules which compels the holder of the rule book to explain the rule. The diamond sport is extremely small by comparison with the interest in the game and the thousands who play it. Before the act of printing it was necessary to transmit information and transfer by word of mouth, and, if the necessity of white paper increased, fear that may be necessary in the near future, but just at present there is no reason why the code that governs the national pastime should be transmitted like the traditions of old, as seems to be the modern practice.

Mixed on Slide to First

A case in point in the positive assurance recently received by a baseball devotee that in the making of a decision at first base the umpire's verdict depends, in some mysterious way, on whether the runner slides or not. I have been asked to specify the rule governing this play and the slide, and the answer for information what changes were made in it last winter, and the answer for information was so eager that he hunted me up to press his inquiry after being told that the rule said nothing about sliding to first base. Even a perusal of the entire rule book, revised and corrected to April, 1919, failed to satisfy the disputant that there was not something in the book of rules, or something, a definition of when a runner is out or safe if he slides to first base in distinction from when he runs straight over it.

O'Day's Remark Too Deep

This is a clear case of tradition, the source of which I happen to know. It is based on a bon mot pulled by Umpire O'Day back the days when he was renowned for his combacks. And the mistaken tradition grew out of the fact Hank's comeback went over the head of a lot of folks, including the ball player who furnished the target for it.

Years ago practically every player kicked on over a decision that was at all close, no matter whether or not it cut any figure in the game. O'Day was umpiring behind the pitcher, because there was only one runner in those days. The batsman, who has since passed beyond the reach of criticism, hit a slow bouncer and hustled to beat the ball to first base, finding his head with a slide. O'Day ran over from behind the slab and declared the man out.

"What for?" yelled the victim.
"For sliding, of course," replied the ump.

Too Deep for Player.
O'Day was correct. If his comeback for he knew that if the runner had gone straight over the bag at top speed instead of slowing up to make the slide, he would have beaten the ball. But the player understood he was being penalized for sliding to first and told his friends that he was the first he ever knew of such a rule. Moreover, the anecdote was published widely at the time as a proof of O'Day's quick wits and sharp tongue. But it was published without a diagram for slow thinkers and so went over their heads. Dozens of fans have offered to bet me large sums of kale that a runner is out for sliding to first base.

HUNGER IS ONLY RUSSIAN TERROR

British Labor Delegates Report on Investigation of Bolshevik Regime

LONDON, (AP)—Fifty per cent of the people of soviet Russia are hungry, although everybody is getting a certain allowance of food, declared Benjamin Turner, member of the British labor delegation to Russia, in describing to the house of commons, returned to England yesterday. "There is no terror in Russia, except hunger and that is a very real terror in the cities," said Mr. Turner.

There had been a red terror, according to the British labor man, and official figures showed that 8500 persons had been shot, mostly, he was informed for acts of treason. He also declared the line between the Bolshevik and Kolchak campaigns. Bolshevik leaders told Mr. Turner that force would be used as long as the Bolshevik government was in power, and while the war with Poland lasted. They said they were surrounded by spies and supporters of the old regime.

Mr. Turner declared he disagreed with the Russian view of Bolshevism, but thought the system well arranged. The majority of the people of Moscow and Petrograd, he said, support the Bolshevik government. The population is not opposing the authorities but is not fully in agreement with communism.

Members of the British labor delegation to Russia urged the British government to abolish the blockade, resume trade and make peace with Russia and cease assisting Poland or any other enemies of Russia.

And that, the rules say so. All because O'Day once said so to a ball player who did not know that may a decision is lost at first base because of the loss of time in taking a slide.

The Idea All Wrong

Wherever ball players acquired the idea they could beat a throw to first base better by sliding than by accepting the privilege to throw them of running straight over the bag is a mystery. Veteran managers have tried to break young players of the habit of sliding to first with success, in some notable cases, and most of them have given up in despair, permitting their players to handicap themselves in close plays unnecessarily.

The only case where a slide to first base is justified is to avoid a bad collision with the batsman in a close play, when the ball is thrown so that it draws the batsman into the path of the runner.

Tests Prove the Truth

If any one doubts it, there have been practical demonstrations of the fact that runners can steal second or third more easily if permitted to overrun these bases than if they have to slide in, and years ago there was agitation to permit it, to increase base running.

Theatro

Again Nazimova has come to the screen and carried her audience fairly out of itself by the sheer power of her emotional depths and the finish of her performance. Last evening at the Idaho Theatre, this great Russian star justified once more her right to be acclaimed the world's greatest actress when she appeared in her most recent production, "The Heart of a Child," a photoplay adapted by Charles Bryant from the novel by Frank Danby.

WILSON TO RE-CONSIDER ACTION ON POCKET VETO

Palmer Rules President Has Ten Days after Adjournment to Sign Bills

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Attorney General Palmer has made an informal ruling, which has been communicated to President Wilson, that the chief executive has ten days after the adjournment of congress in which to sign bills and resolutions.

This rule may change the status of a number of bills which the president killed by a "pocket veto" explaining that he had not had sufficient time in which to consider them. These measures include the water power bill and the resolution repealing most of the special war-time income tax.

(Secretary Tumulty said today that the president would consider action with regard to these measures, some of which reached the president on the day congress adjourned, June 5, as soon as Attorney General Palmer presented his written opinion.

Under the attorney general's ruling the president would have until midnight tomorrow to sign the water power bill and until midnight June 17 to sign the other measures, it was at the White House.

BOOTH'S PROPOSAL

The provision makes specific declaration in favor of the support of all American obligations and announces the determination of the court which would only devote itself to the promotion of justice among nations without committing the country to entangling alliances.

Summarizes Root Plank

The Root plank was summarized by a member of the sub-committee as follows:

"The plank is a condemnation of the action of the president, both in his negotiation of the treaty of peace and the league and in his insistence upon its acceptance without change by the senate.

"It is a complete ratification of the action of the republican senators, without distinguishing between either group. It pledges the country to a continuation of the policies of Washington, Madison and Monroe, and also to a fulfillment of all its international obligations by the establishment of international courts for the promulgation of rules of international law and conduct, and suggests that future war be made impossible by the establishment of law and agreements whereby all international controversies may be settled by international agreements.

"The plank makes no mention of disarmament. The length of nations is not specifically mentioned.

Prospect Called Bad

As the platform makers resumed their work this morning they described the prospects for an agreement as "pretty bad." The irreconcilables on the league of nations issue continued their threats to leave the party if the platform affirmed in any way.

Conferences of leaders began early this morning, long before 9 o'clock, when the full resolutions committee was to assemble.

The treaty fight revolved around three proposals—the Johnson-Borah demands for flat declaration against the league, the Crane plank for ratification with reservations and Senator Smoot's proposed compromise, approving the republican senators, both ratifying ratification without reservations and for seeking ratification with them.

Smoot's Proposal

The text of the Smoot plank follows: "We approve the action of the republican senate in relating ratification without safeguarding reservations and in seeking ratification with reservations in accord with American principles which protect the liberty and independence of the people of the United States."

When Senator Watson of Indiana, chairman of the sub-committee, entered the meeting he expressed confidence that there would be an agreement. Senator McCormick of Illinois, also an irreconcilable group, also declared that in his opinion progress was being made but Senator Borah of Idaho, another irreconcilable described the outlook as

"not encouraging, but not hopeless."

Borah Makes Objections

Ogden Mills of New York and Senator Smoot of Utah, held a brief conference with Senator Borah outside the committee room to hear his tentative draft framed during the night. But the Idaho senator made many objections and wanted it modified.

Senator Lodge had no statement to make when he emerged from the conference, but immediately went into consultation with Senator Watson of Indiana, head of the sub-committee, who with Senator Smoot of Utah, had been at work all night to bring the battling elements into harmony.

The league plank was the only one remaining in dispute, and the day's agreement was halted as pressing a harmonious turn to all the various national proceedings of the big conference.

How the agreement would affect the nomination of a candidate except to hasten it by removing the big cause for delay, did not become immediately apparent. Senator Borah didn't say definitely whether the solution would be satisfactory to Senator Johnson, but the two have been so close together in the senate and convention fights that few doubted that the plank would be satisfactory to the California candidate.

Agreement Comes Suddenly

The agreement came as suddenly today as did yesterday's crisis, when the irreconcilables must open their eyes to leave the party if the plank offered by Senator Crane endorsing the league with reservations was adopted.

Mr. Mills and Senator Smoot caught Senator Borah just as he was entering the sub-committee room, and the three sat down on a couch outside and put their heads together over the Root proposition. Mr. Mills took the lead in urging the Idaho senator to accept. At first Senator Borah was obstinate, though, he said the principle was acceptable. Pressed for an acceptance, he protested that no one was more anxious than he to have harmony, reminding his conferees that an agreement would mean as much to him personally as to any man in the convention.

Borah Is Convinced

Encouraged, Senator Smoot and Mr. Mills took Senator Borah to a nearby room where they were joined by Senator Lodge and Senator McCormick of Illinois, another irreconcilable member of the sub-committee. In 15 minutes the agreement was reached and within the half hour the Root plank had been given unanimous approval by the sub-committee. The committee members then sat down, however, to be sure they had the proposition in the simplest and most exact language before they let its text leak out.

It is understood that in touching up the literary polish of the plank, Colonel George Harvey helped the sub-committee members. Senator Lodge also helped, remaining in the sub-committee session while it put on the finishing touches.

After the agreement, Senator Borah said the unanimous compromise would be submitted to the full committee within an hour with every prospect of approval and that it was planned to present the completed platform to the convention at 4 o'clock.

Borah Reviews Compromise

The compromise plank was described by Senator Borah as establishing these three principles for which the irreconcilables had contended: Omission of any pledge for ratification; Commendation of the senate for refusing to ratify.

"A statement that any future league must be in accord with American ideals and the principles of Washington."

Senator Borah said the treaty plank had been approved by Mr. Mills. He presumed it was also acceptable to former Senator Crane, who was understood to have kept in touch with Mr. Mills by telephone.

Chairman Watson said in his opinion the treaty plank would not aid nor hurt any of the candidates. He said all could stand on the agreed provision.

Prohibition Final Problem

The final problem of the sub-committee was that regarding prohibition, the question was revived.

The Mexican plank, it was stated, was agreed upon with little difficulty. Members of the sub-committee said it was a strong declaration for protection of American life and property in Mexico, but more moderate than the plank proposed by Senator Fall of New Mexico.

The sub-committee's action today re-

PATRIOTIC WOMEN PASS RESOLUTIONS

Lack of Patriotic Interest in Memorial Day Proceedings Charged by Committee

Deploping an attitude of supposed disrespect a committee of Ladies of the G. A. R. in a meeting Tuesday passed the following resolutions dealing with the apparent lack of interest in the Memorial day exercises in Twin Falls. The resolutions were drafted by Dan McCook Circle, No. 3, Ladies of the G. A. R. by a committee composed of Laura R. Keniston, Elizabeth R. Ault and Laura B. Coffey.

"Whereas, During the Memorial day parade the failure of so many men to remove their hats while the flag was passing; and

"Whereas, The memorial service held in the high school on that afternoon witnessed to a seeming lack of patriotic interest on the part of the public in general and the failure of the committee having the matter in charge to provide and carry out a suitable program, including special musical numbers; and

"Whereas, This meeting has been in correctly reported, announcements made concerning a program which was conspicuous by its absence; and

"Whereas, This attitude and apparent carelessness on the part of the public generally, and the American Legion specifically, whose duty it was to provide the program shows a marked disrespect to the members of the local G. A. R. and discourtesy to the speaker of the day who should have had a large audience intelligently interested in so vital a subject, particularly in a town as patriotic as Twin Falls; and

"Be it Resolved, That Dan McCook Circle, No. 3, Ladies of the G. A. R., do sincerely deplore this occurrence and respectfully call the attention of the public to the situation in and upon which we find ourselves, and for a new and better patriotism and for a larger interpretation of American ideals, which consists not only in closing our places of business on Memorial day, but also in pledging our loyalty and heartfelt co-operation in making memorable and patriotic a day so fraught with significance, and to which it is a privilege to attest to the honor in which we hold not only the dead—but these old soldiers who are for a brief time our men and be it further make for union among republicans which would make for victory in November. "I have to report that the committee has unanimously agreed upon a platform including a paragraph dealing with the treaty of peace." "The chair is in doubt," said Senator Lodge and he asked for a rising vote.

Resolved, That these resolutions be recorded upon the minutes of this meeting, and a copy be furnished each newspaper for publication.

On that showing the chairman announced the convention in recess until four o'clock.

Calls for Rising Vote

There was a roar of votes from all parts of the hall at the proposal for adjournment. Senator Lodge put the motion for adjournment and got a roar of aye and a wave of noses.

"The chair is in doubt," said Senator Lodge and he asked for a rising vote.

On that showing the chairman announced the convention in recess until four o'clock.

CROYDON, England, (AP)—Walter Hagen and Jim Barnes, American professionals defeated the Englishmen George Duncan and Abe Mitchell in a four day match on the Epsom course of 36 holes for a stake of 500 pounds today by three up and two to play.

TOOK DAUGHTER OUT OF SCHOOL

Mrs. Uhlemann Was Unable to do Housework—Gains Thirty-five Pounds

"I am one of the healthiest and happiest women in the state and I owe it all to Tanlac," said Mrs. W. B. Uhlemann, a well known woman of Kansas City, Mo., who lives at 4446 Scottt Ave. Mrs. Uhlemann's husband is foreman of Jackard's, one of the largest jewelry stores of the middle west. "Several times my neighbors expected me to die, but I am so changed now they hardly know me," continued Mrs. Uhlemann.

"I suffered from nervous indigestion a year and for the last three months was unable to do anything at all and I had to take my daughter out of school to care for me. Even a drink of water would sour on my stomach and cause me to gasp for breath. For days at a time I would not be able to eat anything at all and I fell off until I was almost skin and bones. I was so weak and dizzy I could hardly walk and when I would have my worst spells of indigestion I would have to lie down and come in and work with me and I would just gasp for breath. Nothing did me any good and I knew I could not stand the attacks much longer.

"One day my husband brought me some Tanlac but I was so bad off I took four bottles before I could see it was doing me much good. I have now taken thirteen bottles and my health is perfectly wonderful. My appetite is fine and I can eat anything. I have gained thirty-five pounds and feel so well and strong I now do all the work required to take care of my family and our six room home without the slightest trouble. I want the public to know what Tanlac has done for me, for it may help others back to health.

Tanlac is sold in Twin Falls by City Pharmacy and by the leading druggists in every city.—adv.

FICTION BECOMES FACT

Readers of popular novels and patrons of movies will recognize in the story describing how Gregory Zatkowitch, a Pittsburgh steelworker, has become ruler of Ruthenia, a little nation in "the wild Carpathians," a favorite plot of the authors of fiction.

The war and its aftermath have produced in Central and Eastern Europe many curious events which, if they had been made the basis for the plots of novels and scenario writers prior to the great world war would have been regarded as entertaining fiction but utterly beyond the range of probability.
The story demonstrates that the romantic and the realistic can be made to coincide.

OWN A HOME
(Winston-Salem (N. C.) Union Republican).

Through the length and breadth of America today a spontaneously organized movement, little advertised but gathering momentum as it travels, is in progress that promises to do more for the future than all the reconstruction legislation, however good it may be,
which is discussed in Congress, the legislatures and the public prints.

It is the "Own Your Own Home" movement, self-starting and self-propelling. Once it was a reproach to an American not to possess his shelter in fee simple. A home was personal. To rent a house was like hiring a daughter or a son. The professional landlord was not an evil for he scarcely existed.

Then the disease of tenantry secured a hold and became epidemic, particularly in cities. In New York, for example, according to the last survey, are a million apartments, few owned by their occupants. More than 4,000,000 persons are renters and live with little sense of residential permanence. It is an evil community habit, nomads miss a large part of the joys of life.

Now throughout the country the landlord system has broken down. There are not enough dwellings to go around.
A new supply comes but slowly, for while the tenant finds the cost of material and labor so high that he shrinks from building despite the lure of high profits.

The "Own Your Own Home" movement should have started sooner. If it had begun ten years ago a large part of the present unrest would not exist.
The gains of the wage earners would be less easily slip away. The cost of his shelter would be stabilized. He would share in the advance in land and edifice values, and could laugh as the rent collector went by.

Own a home. Make arrangements to this end at once. Buy a lot and make a first payment on a house without delay. Whatever site you select, you can hardly lose, for it will take years for commercial buildings to satisfy the housing shortage. You will not be comfortable unless under your own roof. For some things a family can afford to go into debt. To possess a home is one of them, especially under present and probable future conditions. It is as easy to pay interest as rent.

The community, the state and the nation could employ their credit no better than by financing home owning. It will not be long, let us hope, until revolving building funds will be provided, as in Great Britain and other countries.

Home owning, besides its obvious moral and social dividends, is economic.
It keeps down the repair bill. It gets rid of the loss from the vacancies that a landlord must count on. It cuts out commissions and expenses. New York yesterday many millions a year because nearly 90 per cent of its population are renters and the cost is cumulative. No better undertaking is now afoot than the one to stimulate home owning. Get aboard.

CRIPPLE CREEP SHORT LINE QUILTS STRUGGLE

Famous Scenic Railway Turns Last
Train into Roundhouse and Closes Functioning

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)— Famed the world over for the scenic wonders along its mountainous route, the Cripple Creek Short Line for years drew tourists to this state, but now the last train has turned into the roundhouse and the road has ceased functioning. A portion of it may be opened July 1 to run tourist specials; however, if plans of the receiver materialize.

The last train in the regular service completed its run early in the evening of May 17. Permission to cancel service was granted by a United States district court and the only possibility of order to resume route with the utilities commission of the state. However, that body has shown no inclination in that direction despite the fact that an action has been started to set away with the order from the federal court. If that is accomplished, it is said a similar order will be given by the utilities board.

The Short Line ceased two years during the war because of bridge which had been destroyed. After a fire a receiver was appointed a little more than a year ago, repairs were made and business resumed. The line was successful for a time.

One shipment has always provided much of the financial support of the road, but these have dwindled lately.
Miners say that the cost of production has reduced the output.

BAND CONCERTS START TONIGHT

Director J. G. Thorpe Announces Initial Program—Wants Patrons to Help

The first of the season's open-air concerts will be given by the Twin Falls band in the city park this evening. The band organization will be directed by J. G. Thorpe. The program will be composed of selected numbers of the best popular pieces, with one from the classics. The first number will be played promptly at 8 o'clock.

Speaking with respect to the coming band series in the park Director Thorpe says the programs all will be made up to suit popular taste. The organization is well supplied with standard numbers and he urges that the people themselves, patronizing the concerts, help select the pieces that will make the selection generally pleasing and popular. Director Thorpe wants the people to request such selections as they desire. These will be played.

The band, as it stands now, is composed of 30 musicians, and will be increased ten more immediately. A number of bandmen are now about to leave the college where they have been enrolled the past year, and will engage with Twin Falls band as soon as they are released from academic duties.

"The success of these concerts depends largely upon the attitude of the people toward them," Director Thorpe says, and he expects to receive the full cooperation from the people in bringing about the success of the effort. "I am going to ask that guardians of children within the park during the progress of the concerts keep their wards in line until the closing number is finished. We will close tonight's program with the national anthem, 'The Star Spangled Banner,' which respect is to be given to the flag and the band during this rendition we shall not attempt it again. The people of this city should know the marks of respect they are expected to show during the playing, and I must urge especially that they stand still during its playing."

Today's committee circulated with business men for the purpose of gathering subscriptions to the band fund, which this year will need to be raised to $2100 to insure continuance of the concerts throughout the season. This is tonight's concert program:

March, Worthy Sons of America (Barnhouse).
Medley, Witmark's Song Hits (arr. by Taylor).
One-step, Razzle Dazzle (Lonsberg).
Overture, Faust (Gounod).
Fox trot, Who Discovered Dixie (Antone Silver).
Selection, High Jinks (Prinl).
Waltz, Jolly Fellows (Vollstedt).
One-step, Swanee (Gershwins).
Star Spangled Banner.

This sale is being held in the old City Marketing Company store, at 135 Main Street.

This room we have rented until July 1st. All the damaged stock must be sold by that time. No time to be lost.

You'll find some stock very little hurt; you'll find some of it very badly hurt, but you'll find prices ridiculously cheap.

People who want to buy wholesale quantities may do so. Dozens and full bolts will go out in quantities.

We advise early shopping. Afternoon crowds will be enormous.

SKAGGS

The action of Federal Reserve Banks, in calling the loans of food speculators, is a step in the right direction.

We at least may hope for the law of supply and demand to work unhindered.

If this action should be the means of bringing cheaper prices, all incident inconveniences should be cheerfully borne.

When cheaper prices obtain, SKAGGS STORES will be the first to put them into effect. WE HAVE NO LOANS TO MEET.
