

HARDING IS CHOICE OF G.O.P. FOR PRESIDENCY

Ohio Candidate Put Over After Lowden Releases Delegates During Ninth Ballot

GOVERNOR COOLIDGE IS NAMED AS RUNNING MATE BY REPUBLICANS

CHICAGO, (AP)—Warren G. Harding, United States senator from Ohio, was nominated for the presidency Saturday by the republican national convention after a deadlock which lasted for nine ballots and which finally forced out of the running all the original favorites.

As his running mate, the convention named Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts, upsetting a plan of a combination of the Harding backers to nominate for the place Senator Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin.

The collapse of the forces of Governor Frank O. Lowden and their transfer in large part to Senator Harding put the Ohio candidate over.

General Wood lost heavily, however, when the Harding drift began, and Senator Johnson, the third of the trio of leaders on the early balloting Friday, also went steadily down hill.

Entering the convention four days ago as a candidate distinctly of the "dark horse" class, Senator Harding got only 64 votes on the first ballot Friday and on the second he dropped to 50. When the convention adjourned Friday night at the end of the fourth ballot he had 61.

In all night conferences among the party chiefs, however, he was mentioned many times as the most likely to break the nomination deadlock should neither Wood, Lowden nor Johnson take a commanding lead Saturday. They all failed to do so, Wood and Lowden running a neck and neck race for leadership on four ballots while the strength of the California candidate dwindled steadily.

Harding Pushes Total. Meantime Harding pushed his total to 153, individual delegates from many states swinging to him. In the columns of the leaders and of various favorite sons. The Johnson managers, fearing a landslide was impending, took a last play to save the fortunes of their candidate. They moved to recess for a couple of hours in order to take an inventory and seek a new combination. The Wood and Lowden forces, both virtually at the peak of their strength, but disheartened at the long string of ballots without material gains, fell in with the recess plan and the convention adopted it.

In the dramatic success of conference that followed, the fate of the candidates virtually was sealed. Some of the Wood and Lowden managers tried to get a Wood-Lowden-Johnson agreement to adjourn till Monday without making a nomination. There also was a conference between Johnson and Harding supporters in which the Ohioan's supporters tried without success to have the remaining Johnson strength swing to Harding.

It was the parleys between the Harding and Lowden men, however, which apparently bore the most fruit when the balloting began again, for Governor Lowden came to the convention during the ninth roll call and, reversing a previous plan to go before the convention itself, instructions from behind the scenes releasing his instructed delegates. Senator Harding also was in the rear of the Coliseum platform during the voting and conferred with Chairman Hays.

Unable to Stop Harding Tide.

Almost as soon as the alphabetical roll of states began after the recess the ground swell for Harding demonstrated that it could not be forestalled. Conscientious when her name was called, took 13 of her 14 votes from Lowden and gave them to Harding. In Florida he got seven from Wood, and then Kentucky, almost from the first a solid Lowden state, flopped completely into the Harding column.

Amid scenes of rising enthusiasm other blocks of Lowden delegates followed suit while many of the routed Wood supporters also went into the Harding camp. By the end of the roll call Senator Harding had rolled up a total of 374, putting him far into the lead and several scores of votes nearer the nomination than any candidate had been before.

Lowden, at the end of the ninth had only 123 votes left, and 207 with which he ended the eighth and General Wood's strength had fallen from 209 on the eighth to 249 on the ninth.

As the tenth roll call began delegates quit Lowden, Wood and Johnson right and left, and the big hall was almost in continuous applause as state after state announced accession to the Harding standard. It was reserved for Pennsylvania to add the crowning touch of enthusiasm. When the Keystone state was reached the Ohio senator needed 32 votes to nominate him, and Pennsylvania gave him 60. It was Governor Sproul, himself, the candidate of his state on every preceding ballot and mentioned many times as a possible dark horse to break the deadlock, who announced the big Pennsylvania vote for Harding. Entering the Coliseum floor for the first time since the balloting began, he made his way to the Pennsylvania stand and amid cheers, released the delegates from longer supporting him. Then he took a poll, got the count and threw in the winning Harding vote.

A demonstration of several minutes followed, most of the delegates and managers standing and cheering while a procession carrying large pictures of the candidate and standards of some of the states that supported him took up the march around the hall. But it was too tired a convention after the gruelling excitement of two sweltering days of balloting to long keep up such a demonstration. Senator Lodge, presiding, rapped for order, and the delegates did not argue with him.

When it was seen that a candidate had been nominated, the customary changing of votes began with a half dozen who had voted for other candidates switching over so as to appear in the winning column. But it had no effect. Most of Illinois deserted its governor and many of the Wood men, too, came to have their votes recorded for Harding.

The final check up showed 692 for Harding, with only 12 left supporting Lowden during the ninth roll call. At their best, earlier in the day, the Wood people had mustered 312 votes and the Lowden forces 311. Johnson, who was 245, on the third ballot Friday.

A motion to make the nomination unanimous was passed in a great chorus of approval.

OPEN SHOP STRUGGLE IS UNDER WAY IN ILLINOIS

Quincy Trades and Labor Assembly Names Committee to Resist Movement

QUINCY, ILL. (AP)—The open shop struggle is now well under way in Quincy.

The announcement of the Quincy American Open Shop association has been followed by the appointment of a committee by the Trades and Labor Assembly of the city to resist the open shop movement.

Quincy is a strongly organized labor city, the assembly counting a membership of over 4000 and embracing even the fire department. The labor committee has succeeded thus far in securing the withdrawal of several of the original signers of the open shop agreement. On the other hand, the open shop association reports the recording of some 50 names in addition to the original list, and these, it is said, more than offset defections.

Retail houses thus far have been slow to endorse the plan, owing to the large number of union men.

BULGARIA MUST HAVE SEAPORT GUESHOFF SAYS

Former Premier Gives Reason for Refusal of Economic Outlet; Argues for Avenue to the Aegean Sea

SOFIA, Bulgaria, (AP)—Bulgaria must have a territorial outlet on the Aegean sea, Ivan E. Gueshoff, one of Bulgaria's most brilliant statesmen and formerly prime minister, now a deputy of the National Assembly, said today. "It is not only a matter of national pride, but also a matter of economic necessity," he said. "A nation like Bulgaria, which is a member of the League of Nations, must have a direct outlet to the sea. The Aegean sea is a matter of far more vital importance to Bulgaria than Fiume is to Yugoslavia."

Grateful to Americans

"We know," continued Mr. Gueshoff, "that the question of the Aegean sea is a territorial claim of Bulgaria, the United States was overruled at the peace conference. We are nevertheless grateful to the Americans who, in the commissions appointed to study the questions of Thrace and the northern and western frontiers of Bulgaria, have shown to the League of Nations the peace of the whole Balkan peninsula."

(Bulgaria ended western Thrace under the peace treaty and the peace conference awarded it to Greece. This cut Bulgaria off from its former port of Devedagatch, on the Aegean sea; but the allies promised her that the League of Nations would give her an outlet on the Aegean.)

The former prime minister, who was educated in England and who is leader of the strong nationalist party, then discussed what he termed "the allies' flagrant betrayal of the principle of nationality." "We were deceived," said Mr. Gueshoff, "when we heard that Bulgaria was condemned to lose districts of the Bulgarian character of which we never contested and that while for certain disputed German regions the plebiscite was permitted, the principle of self-determination was refused the Bulgarian population which was awarded to Serbia and Greece."

Betrayed Into War

"In order to explain this flagrant betrayal of the principle of nationality," Mr. Gueshoff continued, "it was alleged that the Bulgarians deserved to be punished, first, because they had fought against the Serbs and then because they had committed atrocities. The Bulgarians people were against the war, the faithful king had betrayed them into it."

"Had the entire landed troops at Saloniki before the Bulgarian mobilization of 1915, as it then insisted, had Bulgaria the geographical situation of Greece, the Bulgarians would have done what the Greeks did in 1917 and Bulgaria would never have gone with the central powers."

Mr. Gueshoff concluded the interview with a reference to the alleged Bulgarian socialist, "As president of the Bulgarian Red Cross society," he said, "in January, 1919, I proposed that an international commission should inquire into those so-called atrocities and those committed by the other Balkan states. But the conference of Paris had decided to throttle Bulgaria without giving her the opportunity of defending herself."

Asks Women Delegates to Wear Old Clothes

DES MOINES, Ia., (AP)—The wearing of old clothes by the delegates to the fifteenth biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs, which opens here June 16 for a week's session, is urged by Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, president of the federation.

"War-time thrift must prevail if we are to help right conditions. There is no need for a denim or gingham dress rage which would finally make it harder for the women who really need such things, make over what you have. Come to the convention with a spirit of thrift that will thrill other women into doing likewise," said Mrs. Cowles' appeal.

PRICE OF WHISKY GOES TO HIGHER LEVEL IN MANILA

MANILA, P. I., (AP)—The price of whiskey has gone up from twenty to forty per cent in the last two weeks in Manila, due partly to the increase in the local internal revenue license and partly to the dwindling supply of American liquor.

Brands of American whiskey which sold in the United States at $1.35 a quart before war prohibition saw prices soaring there, may be had here still at $2 a quart, which is about fifty cents higher than the price a few weeks ago.

The popular brands of Scotch whiskeys bring from $2.50 to $3 a quart.

VIRGINIA OYSTER MEN PROFIT BY DISCOVERY OF GREEN GLASS

PROVIDENCE, R. I., (AP)—How Virginia oyster men are protected by the discovery that green glass oysters which they had discarded as worthless were identical with the famous Marrennes green oysters which are considered a great delicacy in France is one of the interesting facts disclosed by Professor Philip H. Mitchell, of Brown university, in an informal resume of his researches in oyster culture.

INDIANS, UNDER LEADER SPEAKER, SHOWING SPEED

Cleveland Displaying Proper Wares as They Get Manager's Idea of Playing

By JAMES J. CORBETT

Changing managers frequently serves as a tonic for a baseball club. Perhaps that's why Detroit fans suddenly have decided they'd like to see someone else at the helm of the Tigers.

The Pirates, with a new leader in the person of George Gibson, are cutting a wide swath in balltown. They are the only club in the National League which has exhibited since Fred Clarke's days as chief of the band.

Cleveland Betting Pace

The Cleveland Indians, after several years of Joe E. Mauer, are being hoped for by the fans. The only playing manager in the game. It's about the same team that Fuhl had and could do nothing with. But Speaker has the outfit breaking along at a whirlwind clip and giving every indication of maintaining the pace.

Pat Wynn's Pennant

The Phillies led for many years by Charlie Doherty, landed nowhere. Pat Moran assumed control in 1915 and "abandoned" them into a pennant. And Pat, his first year at Cincinnati, landed the Reds on the crest of the baseball world. But after his first year with the Phillies, Pat couldn't accomplish any further. Quaker penmanship.

George S. Alling, after a year or so of becoming acclimated, sent the 1914 Braves into a world's championship class since 1914. But George hasn't won any flags and for a few seasons hasn't even been close.

Fred Mitchell won a pennant soon after he took charge of the Cubs. But Fred hasn't been conspicuous in flag fights since then. And it's much the same story with Wilbert Robinson. In 1916, when he was a coach, he came to the Dodgers' helm, he "gintered" them into winning a pennant. But Wilbert's Dodgers haven't done much of anything since then.

Old Tigers Showing Up

Mack, McGraw and Jennings constitute the three great leaders of the game. Mack has been at it since the Athletics came into existence—in 1901. McGraw assumed the Giants command in 1903 and led them to the top of the league in 1907. Each of the trio met with spectacular success at the outset.

McGraw landed the Giants second in 1908, first in 1909, although he had almost the same club that landed in the cellar the season before. In 1903, McGraw's Giants won the National League pennant and repeated in 1905. Then followed several barren years. But in 1911 McGraw came back with another flag and team to win the flag in his second year—1902. He won again in 1905, 1910, 1911, 1913 and 1914. But since then his clubs have finished in the rut.

Jennings Unable to Repeat

Of all the managers, Jennings made the most remarkable debut. He took the same Tigers which had finished sixth in 1906 and won three straight pennants. But in 1909 his winning career ended. Since then Jennings has been unable to reach the goal.

And so Detroit fans, after more than three years of hope, have come to the conclusion that Fugle has lost his charm—and they are pleading for someone else to guide the Tiger crew. So it may come to pass that before another season goes under way, the most picturesque managerial figure in baseball history will have passed along—and someone else will be trying his luck in the Detroit town.

Eyes of Plants

Of course we know that trees have circulation, not of blood but of sap, that goes upward in the spring and downward in the autumn. It has been demonstrated also that plants have eyes, certain epidermal cells being really convex lenses filled with clear sap that brings the light rays to a focus somewhere within the cells. These little lenses are able to form images just as the eyes of insects do.

TITLE OF CHAMP NOW IS SESAME TO BIG FORTUNE

Jess Willard Reputed to Be Millionaire; Jack Dempsey is Nearly So

They are boasting today of the fact that Jack Dempsey, who was riding the rails not much over three years ago, is now close to a millionaire to show how quickly the prize ring leads to wealth and fame.

But the career of Jack Dempsey is little different from that of heavyweight champions. He came before him nearly all of whom acquired wealth in no time.

Jack Johnson, from whom Jack won the championship so quickly. Big Jess five years ago was on the hummer. He was so poor a year or two before he whipped Johnson that his wife was compelled to wash dishes in a Kansas restaurant to support herself and her two children. Now Jess is rated a millionaire and is down as one of the wealthiest as well as one of the biggest men in Kansas.

Jack Johnson Made a Fortune

Jack Johnson, whom Willard whipped an act that led to fame and wealth, for two years before winning the championship worked a lunch route in Galveston, Texas, where he was married. Jack, after winning the championship, made loads of money and would be a rich man today if he had taken even fair care of his earnings.

Jeffries was only a poor boiler-maker, working in a boiler shop in San Francisco, until he went in to help Jim Corbett train for his fight with Fitzsimmons.

Big Jeff hadn't a bean then. But he had the physique, and after Corbett taught him how to box and all the tricks of the game big Jeff went in and whipped his teacher.

John L. Scatters Fortune Away

Of the last half dozen champions Fitzsimmons was the only one not to pay away money for the rainy day which comes to rich and poor fighters alike. But even at that, Fitz was earning big money in vaudeville just before he died.

John L. Sullivan, starting out as a tinmith's helper, made and gave away two or three fortunes before he died.

Paddy Ryan, from whom Sully won the championship, like John L., came from poor parents.

TEXAS RETURNING CATTLE

Livestock Driven Out by Drought Goes Back to Native Pastures

SAN ANGELO, Texas, (AP)—Gold train loads of well conditioned cattle have arrived daily from the Salt Lake West Texas over the Santa Fe, Orkut and Texas & Pacific railroads for native pastures in the northwest. They are from among the 175,000 or 200,000 animals that were brought into Texas last autumn when a drought laid-it withering hand upon Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, Nebraska and neighboring states, and caused a failure of summer feed crops upon which the herds depended for sustenance during the winter.

This recalls the movement of cattle from Texas into the northwest pastures under very similar conditions during 1916, 1917 and 1918, when Texas was drought-stricken, and the country which Texas served during the past winter offered hospitable pastures to starving Texas cattle.

Demand for Wool Also Slight with No Buyers, Oklahoma Men Report

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., (AP)—Hide dealers here declare the bottom has fallen out of the hide and wool markets. "The market is so bad," they say, "that we are dropping to 12 cents a pound for hides, and 10 cents a pound for wool."

URGES BOORBONS TO NAME HOOVER

London Daily News Offers Advice to Democrats Campaign Strategy

LONDON, (AP)—Warren G. Harding's personality and record being critically unknown here, newspaper comment this morning expresses neither satisfaction nor disappointment with the republican choice of a presidential candidate. Several newspapers refer to him as a "dark horse" and infer that he represents a compromise. Two or three journals assume the result of the Chicago convention has opened the possibility of the election of a democrat to the presidency.

Recommendations

Among those taking this view are the London Times and the Daily News, the latter telling the democrat "the best card they can play is to persuade Herbert Hoover to accept their nomination in spite of everything." The Times of the league of nations and of British-American relations are points much discussed. The Morning Post, which is a stern opponent of the league, says: "Mr. Harding is a politician, not an idealist, and may command himself to the American people, who now so much desire for a leader governed by edict from Mount Sinai," and predicts that if the republicans win, "the league will fall to the dusty stage of pious revolution." The Times, which thinks it will not be surprised "if this ambiguity was deliberately cultivated on the principle that the least said the soonest mended," as it will be much more likely to Wilson's failure than to suggest a satisfactory alternative."

Prepare for Readjustment

The Times, referring to a statement by its Chicago correspondent that the British must be prepared for a thorough readjustment of their relations with the United States, and his prediction that the process will not be easy, says: "That depends, in a great measure, upon ourselves. If we have a straight, clear and honest policy in world affairs affirmatively based upon those principles which we claim to be ours and Americans, we may have tireless disputes to reach an agreement, but there can be no doubt as to the result."

"The vagueness of the republican platform," the newspaper continues, "leaves plenty of scope for the favorable interpretation in honest and strong hands. We have much faith in the American audience, and if we appeal to it we must come into contact with clean hands."

The Express believes that "friendly relations with Great Britain will undoubtedly be part of Mr. Harding's policy."

SOVIET PROPAGANDIST PRISONER IN MEXICO

Extradition Charged with Carrying of Bolshevik Literature, Denies Former Allegations

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Gabriel Sanchez Geli, an Ecuadorian, arrested February 10 last and charged with carrying Bolshevik literature is still facing judicial proceedings here but has all allegations of American and allied espionage in Mexico during the war, which were carried under many columned headlines as interviews with him were under arrest before being brought to Mexico City, have dwindled into vehement denial of his guilt and protestations that "he never said it."

Sanchez Geli, in what he now denies were interviews, was quoted as revealing means which he alleged were used by Americans in securing a military map of Mexico from the Mexican war department files. The war department denied that any such map was missing.

Germans Among Captives

On various parts of the front recently German hand grenade throwers have been captured and also a number of orders written in German. Some of these Germans were brought up against the Poles after the defeat of General Denikin.

The last word from the American Red Cross workers was that they would evacuate Kiev with the Poles. It is believed they are safe.

$50,000 Bull Travels East in Special Car

WOODLAND, Cal. (AP)—Alta King, a 64-day-old Holstein bull belonging to the A. W. Morris & Sons Corporation of Woodland, was sold recently for $50,000 in St. Paul, Minnesota, to A. C. Hardy and W. R. Shaw of Ontario, Canada.

He is the eighth calf of Tillie Alcantara, holder of the world record as a milk and butter producer. The sire is Carnation King Byrnie, who was purchased at public sale several years ago by the Carnation Stock Farm of Seattle, Washington, for $100,000.

Alta King Byrnie was sent east in a special car attached to a limited passenger train.

GOMPERS MAKES

Secretary Frank Morrison, of the federation, announced this afternoon he had telegraphed a protest to the department of labor against the importation of laborers from Mexico to "break the longshoremen's strike at Galveston, Texas.

Urges International Union

International organization of the World Union Workers to further their aims and prevent another world war, was advocated by J. W. Ogden, fraternal delegate of the British Trade Union Congress, in an address here before the American Federation of Labor.

Mr. Ogden, however, warned the federation that it must ignore any "international" similar war that formed in Russia or other countries.

"The only international we can recognize is the one that is formed on the right, proper and legal basis," he said. "The only way we will be able to prevent useless conflict is by linking the workers of the world into a great international organization."

The spirit of organization is spreading in England and the "non-unionist" is almost extinct in that country, Mr. Ogden asserted. He predicted that the British congress would have a membership of 6,000,000 by next August, an increase of 1,000,000 members in twelve months.

Bargain on Price Smashing

British workers, Mr. Ogden said, have assured the government if it would "smash" prices and profiteering, the workers would ask no further wage advance and no wages will strike their proper relation."

Mr. Ogden asserted that the labor party in England is the second in power, only being outstripped by the coalition party, which is "now threatened by the great labor party."

Condemns Outlaw Strike Aid

T. C. Cashem, of Cleveland, gave unanimous consent to the resolution, on behalf of the International Switchmen's union condemning central labor bodies which recently aided the "unauthorized" railroad strike in the United States. The resolution was referred to committee.

J. A. McClelland, fraternal delegate from the trades and labor congress of Canada, urged the federation to appoint a committee to investigate the Catholic labor union movement and take steps to end its activities in Canada.

The Catholic union, which has been in existence about ten years, he asserted, is opposed to any international labor organization and has been organized of labor's "greatest enemy in Canada."

"If you see fit to make this investigation," he continued, "I am sure you will find conditions due to this organization are bad and to say the least appalling."

Conquering "One Big Union"

Mr. McClelland declared that organized was slowly "conquering the one big union movement." He pointed out that there are now 2300 local unions in Canada, with a membership of 200,247.

In outlining the growth of the labor party in Canada, Mr. McClelland said: "We are growing slowly, but are assured success."

HARDING WILL

ed with a telegram from John Philip Sousa, which said:

"Be sure you must soul. May God's harmonies be with you forever."

Other messages received were from Senator Pommeroy, democrat, Ohio, and Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth of Ohio.

No engagements were made today for Senator Harding, who desired to rest as much as possible. The senator said he probably would leave Washington the last part of the week. He plans to confer before Monday with Chairman Will H. Hays, of the republican national committee, and other republican leaders, and then will take a rest before going to his home at Marion, Ohio about July 1.

Office Force Appreciative

When Senator Harding reached his office today he found there a large American flag, a vase of flowers, gifts from Miss Cora Nellie Mattern and Mrs. Bruce Land, members of his office force, and George Christian, his secretary.

On arriving at the capitol, the senator visited the senate barber shop to see Elmer Sims, one of the negro barbers. "He's the barber who prays for me," Senator Harding said. "It did me good to see him."

Senator Harding declared that being a presidential candidate was "more strenuous than anything I have ever known."

Today's Markets

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, (AP)—Selling pressure affected additional depreciation of quoted values in the stock market today. Recent political events seemed to play no part in the reaction. Sales approximated 475,000 shares.

The outcome of the republican national convention and the improved showing of the local banks at the close of last week's business exerted no perceptible influence upon the stock market at the opening of today's session. The undertone was steady, although a few leaders soon became reactionary. Shippings, textiles and rails featured the firmer issues, Atlantic Gulf, American Woolen and Northern Pacific averaging one point gains with United States Steel preferred. Mexican Petroleum, Republic Iron and Steel and Studebaker fell back about as much as gains among other prominent stocks were confined to fractions.

Although money rates eased later, leaders continued to lose ground, Mexican oil showing pronounced weakness. The closing was heavy.

Liberty Bonds

NEW YORK, (AP)—Liberty bonds financial prices today were: 3 1/2's $91.90; first 4's $80; second 4's $84.80; first 1-4's $85.70; second 1-4's $85.02; third 1-4's $85.74; fourth 1-4's $85.44; Victory 3's $84.45; Victory 4's $90.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Although the corn market displayed weakness at the opening today, prices soon advanced. Rain and larger receipts counted at first in favor of the bears, but the moisture was not deemed sufficiently general to be an important factor. Besides, the increase of arrivals here did not amount to as much as had been predicted. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 7-8c lower with July $1.71 to $1.71 5/8 and September $1.61 3/8 to $1.62, were followed by a moderate general decline and then by a rise all around to well above Saturday's finish.

Subsequently, commission house buying became more and more persistent, with shippers also purchasing freely. The close was strong 7 7/8 to 7 9/8c higher, at $1.74 1/8 to $1.74 1/4 July, and $1.64 1/8 to $1.64 1/4 September.

Options fluctuated with corn. After opening unchanged to 7 3/4c lower, including July at $1.71 1/8 to $1.71 3/4, the market sagged a little further, and then scored a decided gain. Provisions, were, dull but steady. Higher hog values acted as a sustaining influence.

FRENCH PAPERS FAVOR HARDING

Paris Newspaper Has No Fear that Republicans will Neglect Europe

PARIS, (P)—French newspapers here comment on the action of the republican national convention at Chicago, although they all devote considerable space to the nominations.

It is a triumph of the machine of the party organization, or its bosses over personalities sufficiently powerful or well-supported with funds to be in a position to appeal directly to the nation," declares Portinax; political editor of the Echo de Paris.

Finds Friendship for Europe.
In examining the platform of the republican party, Portinax pays special attention to the possible neglect of the Panama controversy and the Canadian wood pulp question.

This posture relative to England and Canada, he finds, to a certain extent symptomatic, but he adds:
"We need not fear that such an attitude will degenerate into abstention from European affairs or hostility toward Europe. Too many elements of the republican party are bound up into its affairs and our preoccupations. The alliance observed regarding Ireland shows the desire felt at Chicago to keep on good terms with England."

Party Discipline's Triumph.
Saint Brice, in the Journal, thinks the nomination was a triumph of party discipline, remarking: "The congress had to steer between two rocks—a battle between persons and a clash of principles—and they maneuvered with remarkable skill."

"Mr. Harding is a champion of the international political point of view which raised the American senate against the Versailles treaty," says the Journal. "But all Frenchmen are greatly satisfied with the elimination of Hiram Johnson, whose heart and spirit have never been true to France."

Mr. Harding is of a type made up of uprightness and kindness and work. He deserves our respect and our generous sympathy."

The newspaper comments on the fact that Mr. Harding is an intimate friend of Myron T. Herrick, former United States ambassador to France, and a real friend of this country.

Comment of Dominion Papers in General Favorable to Republican Nominee

MONTREAL, (P)—Canadian papers today devoted considerable space to comment on the nomination of Senator Warren G. Harding for president of the United States and in general this comment favored his candidacy.

"Mr. Harding has a good reputation, is not an extremist, has shown business enterprise and is thought to have qualities that will commend him to the voters," said the Montreal Gazette.

The Toronto Mail and Empire, (conservative) said:
"Senator Harding has been chosen for no other reason than that those responsible for his choice believe he will win because the party will unite behind him. Under Harding, the people of the United States may expect the sort of government they received under McKinley, and which they have not received since."

The Toronto Globe (liberal) recognizes Mr. Harding as a "second choice" and says:
"Public sentiment was echoed in the cheers for Hoover from the gallery, but the 'Old Guard' is always poor against popular impulses. Hoover is not of the professional type of politician, and the 'Old Guard' prefers a man who is 'safe' from its own point of view. Harding has no less than a hundred qualifications and he illustrates in his own career as a self-made man the qualities which appeal to the bulk of his countrymen."

The Toronto Star comments on the large sum of money spent on behalf of men defeated and says "yet, Harding, perhaps, as sound a candidate as could have been chosen."

The Manitoba Free Press says:
"Senator Harding's candidature is not likely to make much appeal to the voters and unsatisfied voters in the United States, and the democrats, who have the tactical advantage of the last word in making platforms and electing a candidate, may find in Mr. Harding another, a candidate that may appeal to these elements."

TIMELY RAINS IN NORTH HELP

Up-State Counties Report Precipitation—Wheat Crop Reports Encouraging

On June 1 Idaho had in sight a total wheat crop of 23,124,000 bushels, according to the report just issued by Julius H. Jacobson of the Idaho crop reporting service at Boise. Winter wheat acreage in the state is 1,100,000 acres and the spring wheat crop made up the remaining 15,907,000 bushels. Last year's crop was 23,640,000 bushels. A year ago the prospective wheat crop was 23,640,000 bushels. The heaviest drought made possible a harvest of only 17,705,000 bushels. Spring wheat acreage is 644,000 or a decrease of 66,000 acres from last year and the present condition is 95 per cent a year ago.

There is a note of optimism in practically all reports received this month. Soil moisture and weather conditions have been generally favorable and the outlook is bright for good crops. There have been timely rains in northern counties, while ample water for the irrigated sections is promised, except for the Idaho irrigation project, where trouble may develop before the season is over. Dry land winter wheat looks particularly good in southern and eastern counties.

The United States wheat crop is estimated at 781,000,000 bushels or 160,000,000 bushels less than 1919. While this is about one-fifth less than the big crop of 1919, it is practically equal to the 1914-1918 average crop.

Q3—The oats crop shows up better than last year with a present condition of 97 per cent compared with 92 per cent last year. The acreage is 210,000, a reduction of 5 per cent from 1919 and the yield is 9,800,000 bushels against 7,700,000 bushels harvested in 1919.

The United States crop is placed at 1,315,476,000 bushels as compared with the harvested crop last year of 1,248,310,000 bushels.

HARLEY—A decrease is also reported in the barley acreage from last year. It being 108,000 acres or 90 per cent of the 1919 acreage. Conditions point to a 3,800,000 bushel crop, compared with 3,200,000 bushels last year.

The June 1 condition of barley for the United States forecasts a yield of 3,800,000 bushels, or 1,257,000 bushels, the December 1919 estimate.

RYE—Blowing soil this spring caused severe damage in Lincoln and Minidoka counties but elsewhere conditions are favorable and 170,000 bushels are promised against 135,000 bushels last year.

HAY—The outlook this year is much improved over 1919. With a condition of 84 per cent of normal, a crop of 2,100,000 tons is forecast and with the favorable irrigation water outlook, prospects promise to improve. The crop last year amounted to 1,700,000 tons. Clover for hay shows a decreased acreage but alfalfa acreage increased somewhat in spite of more or less damage from winter killing. The first cutting of alfalfa has been delayed due to a backward spring.

For the United States, a total crop of 108,000,000 tons is forecast which compared with 115,007,000 tons harvested in 1919.

SUGAR BEETS—The outlook for this crop is very much better than last year. Spring conditions were particularly favorable for good germination and early perfect growth has occurred. A condition of 95 per cent of normal compares with 85 per cent last June. The following are percentage conditions figures by counties, June 1 and year ago, respectively: Blingham 115:80, Bonneville 101:50, Fremont 98:100, Jefferson 98:00, Madison 101:00, Cassia 99:85, Minidoka 88:85, Twin Falls 92:98, Bannock 100:100, Franklin 103:85, and Oneida 95:75.

LAVERING.

For singing and dancing none can excel the colored race, and it seems the cream of the colored talent has been brought into the famous Georgia minstrels, at least this company has established itself as a top line attraction and is that of the present "big show" it being in the same class with character as any white minstrel, unless it be that it is superior, and the white people appreciating the efforts of these deserving people are very liberal in their patronage.

So far this season, reports verify the fact that five nights out of the week hundreds are turned away from the famous Georgia minstrels.

The minstrel will be here at the Lavinger theatre Monday and Tuesday, June 14 and 15.

IDAHO.

The southwestern frontier in the olden days is the scene of William S. Hart's new picture, "The Toll Gate." It is the first of the big productions made by Mr. Hart's own company under his own supervision to be released by Paramount Pictures. The Idaho theatre will show it today and tomorrow.

As Black Deering, the hero, Mr. Hart has the role of the leader of a gang of bandits who are betrayed by one of his own men. He dashes away from his captors and losing the sheriff's posse after a series of thrilling episodes, he comes upon the lonely cabin where the wife of his betrayer lives. He slays the traitor and then, touched to the heart by the kindness of the woman and her child, he gives himself up to the law. And a understanding sheriff allows him to depart over the Mexican border to freedom.

BLUE LAKES PAVING

Proposed paving of Blue Lakes boulevard involves perplexing problems.
 The boulevard, which is the eastern boundary of the original townsite, runs due north and south. Radiating at acute angles run other thoroughfares, streets running to the southwest and avenues to the northwest, so that property abutting on the west side of the boulevard in general is of triangular form. Such property has considerably larger frontage in proportion to its area than property otherwise situated; and frontage is the basis on which the property owner is assessed for the proportion of expense of paving to the property owner is computed.

 The situation, with respect to the owners of these triangular properties is analogous in certain respects to that of owners of corner lots. It is to be assumed that the owners of such property purchased it with an eye to the probability of future improvement of this nature. At the same time the expense involved in paving of one or more sides of such property is so great that it is no wonder that owners feel justified in asking a measure of relief.

Whether such relief might be given by assessment against the whole community or by increasing assessment against owners of adjacent properties is a question which no doubt will be brought rather prominently to the fore before the problem is solved.

The problem is a difficult one. It involves the question of whether or not one of the principal thoroughfares of the city will be improved in connection with the general improvement program in progress at this time, and it is of vital concern to more than those owners of property actually abutting on the boulevard. A solution no doubt will be reached on equitable lines, because it is eminently desirable that the improvement should be made. There seems to be no disagreement about that.

NOT THEIR KIND OF OPPOR-TUNITIES

From 40,000 to 50,000 Russians are reported assembled in Constantinople with the view of emigrating to the United States, but they are finding that entry into the country is not going to be as easy for some individuals as in the past. For instance, in connection with their applications for passports, they discover that would-be immigrants from Russia are now being examined rigorously as to whether they have leanings toward Bolshevism. The experience the American government has had with some Russians it afforded a haven from persecution by the czar naturally compels it to exercise greater care in admitting others.

While the country must be kept a land of opportunity to foreigners who would come here in good faith as prospective citizens, it must never be one of opportunities to the anarchistic types. Practically all of the undesirable types deported from the United States in connection with the war and after-war troubles hailed from Russia.
 It would be inexcusable if, after having to deport a number of Russian immigrants any should be received from that country without the greatest precautions against admission of more of the anarchistic and ingrate brand.

 36:
 In this matter, a petition heretofore filed asking for change in boundaries for School Districts Nos. 53 and 36 was again called up and after a short discussion the Board decides to do so and view the ground in question, and thereupon declared a recess for the purpose

In the Matter of the Petition for Changing School District Boundaries:
 In this matter, a delegation from School District No. 36, appeared before the Board, and the question of changing the boundaries of said district was again taken under consideration. After due deliberation, it is decided to deny

In the Matter of the Consolidation of School Districts Nos. 26, 46 and 51:
 In this matter, numerous petitions,
 signed by residents in School Districts
 Nos. 26, 46 and 51, asking for the consolidation of the said three districts, and recommended by the County Superintendent, were presented to the board for their consideration. After due consideration it is ordered that a notice of said petitions be published in the Twin Falls News and in the Buhl Republican for two consecutive issues and that a hearing of said petitions be had on June 19th, 1920, at 2 o'clock
 P. M.

Notice is hereby given, that certain petitions for the consolidation of School Districts No. 21 or "Poplar Grove," District No. 28 or "Sunset View," and District No. 46 or "Castleford," into One District, as provided by Section 470, Article V, of the Idaho School Laws, 1915, and that such consolidation appears to be for the best interests of all concerned.

It is therefore ordered, that a hearing on said petitions be had before the Board of County Commissioners of Twin Falls County, at 2 o'clock P. M. on June 19th, 1920, at which time and place objections to said consolidation will also be heard.
 (Signed)
 T. E. MOORE,
 Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners.

In the matter of Securing New Supplies for the County Auditor's Office:
 In this matter, it appearing to the Board, by representation of the Clerk of the District Court, that storage room for the records and archives of the County, is inadequate, and that more room must be secured at once, to keep said records safely. A representative of the firm of George D. Barnard Stationary Company of St. Louis, Mo., being present the Board deems it for the best interest of all concerned that a contract be made with said firm for the appliances needed and it is ordered that George D. Barnard Stationary Company, furnish the needed appliances for that purpose as follows:
 102 Book Units, C-11-111-298 1-2,
 Plain Back, 17 Base Units and 17
 Top, all for the sum of $350.00 delivered.

CHICAGO RIVER GRAVEYARD FOR FIGHTING SHIPS

Government Assembles Strange Fleet Including Pride of Von Tirpitz, Ancient Wooden Hull, Gunboat and Chasers

CHICAGO, (AP)—There is a graveyard of famous fighting ships in the heart of Chicago's manufacturing district. In the Chicago river is assembled one of the strangest fleets ever assembled on the Great Lakes.

The submarine, once the U-87 and one of the pride of Admiral von Tirpitz, has little in its appearance to indicate its war record of seven allied ships sunk by torpedo and gunfire and no one knows how many destroyed by mines, for the U-87 was a mine layer. On the deck she still boasts a long range naval rifle, but below is only a shell. Her main engines and all her principal working parts have been stripped out and shipped to Annapolis, where future officers of the navy will receive their education on machinery donated by the late Imperial German government. The U-87 was surrendered at Scapa Flow after the armistice and was one of five U-boats allotted to the United States. She toured the Great Lakes during the Victory Loan drive before coming to her last rest here.

In this strangely assorted fleet is the Essex, whose ancient wooden hull was designed to break up the slave traffic on the African coast. The Tancito was built as a yacht for President Lincoln, then remodeled as a naval corvette. Her most famous exploit was the vain attempt, in company of the Proteus, to rescue Lieutenant Greely's arctic exploration party at Discovery Harbor in 1883.

The Hawk, formerly a yacht, was sold by the late Mark Hanna, of Ohio, to the government at the outbreak of the Spanish-American war. She captured the Spanish liner Alfonso XIII off Havana and brought her prize into port. The gunboat Wilmette, still in her gray war paint, bears little resemblance to her former self when she was the passenger liner Eastland, which turned over at its dock in 1915, drawing 813 tons displacement. Remodeled and armed by the navy department she is now what her officers claim is the finest gunboat in the service and is in use as a training ship.

Half a dozen submarine chasers stationed here, all of which saw service overseas during the war, are to be sold, if the government can find purchasers. Two have already been disposed of, bringing $12,000 and the other $20,000. They cost the navy department about $50,000 each.

"George," she said, "before I give you a final answer you must tell me something! Do you drink anything?" A smile of relief lighted his handsome countenance—was that all she wanted to know? Proudly, triumphantly, he clapped his hand on his chest and pored in her shell-like ear. "Anything!"—Dollar Bill.

The Man Republicans Pick for Presidency

Warren G. Harding has always been a resident of Ohio, which state he has represented as United States senator since 1914. In private business life, he is publisher of the Marion, Ohio, Star. He was born on a farm, near the village of Blooming Grove, Morrow county, Ohio, November 8, 1882, the oldest of eight children. His father, George T. Harding, was a country doctor whose forebears came from Scotland. Before going to Ohio, the Hardings were revolutionaries of Pennsylvania, where some of them were massacred by Indians. Ohio fought in the revolutionary war. The mother of Warren, Mrs. Phoebe Dickerson, was descended from an old-time Holland Dutch family, the Van Kirsks.

Farmer in Youth

In his youth Warren Harding lived the life of a farmer boy attending the village school until 14 years of age, when he entered Ohio Central College of Iberia, from which he was graduated. As editor of the college paper he first displayed a talent for journalism. He was obliged to stop school now and then and earn the money with which to pursue his college course. At one time he cut corn, at another painted barns and at still another drove a team and helped to grade the roadbed of a new railway. At 17 he taught a district school and played a horn in the village brass band. At odd times he worked in the village printing office, in time becoming an expert typesetter and later a linotype operator. He is a practical pressman and a job printer, and as a "make up man" is said to have few equals. The luck place he has carried as a senator is the old printer's rule he used when he was sticking type.

In 1884 Dr. Harding moved his family to Marion. A short time afterward the father purchased for Warren Harding The Star, then a small paper.

Devil to Managing Editor

On the paper Warren Harding performed every function from devil to managing editor. In all the years the senator had owned it there has never been a strike or a threatened one. Senator Harding is closely identified with many other large business enterprises in Marion and other parts of the state. He is director of a bank and several large manufacturing plants and is a trustee of the Trinity Baptist Church. Mr. Harding has twice represented the 13th senatorial district of Ohio in the state legislature and served one term as lieutenant governor. At the 1914 election Harding was elected United States senator by a majority of more than 100,000, running 75,000 ahead of the next highest on the ticket. In the senate he is a member of the committee on foreign relations. Senator Harding married Miss Florence Kiling in 1891.

ROAD BUILDING BIDS SUBMITTED

Public Works Board Scrutinizes Proposals for Work—All Are Considered High

Although proposals for the construction of state highway through Twin Falls county and other sections of the state were scrutinized Saturday by members of the board of public works, no contracts were awarded for any part of the work. It is probable no awards will be made before late today or some time tomorrow.

Total figures presented in the bids are regarded as high, and there is a probability that all will be rejected whether in favor of another or to do the entire work on "force account."

Following are the lowest bids offered:

Project No. 24: Nine miles in Twin Falls county, Idaho Pacific highway; Gibbons & Reed Co. $302,202.15
S. L. Lake. $347,542.30
Robert Payne & Co. $350,001.11
Project No. 23: Twenty-seven miles in Twin Falls county, Idaho Pacific highway; Gibbons & Reed Co. $1,077,795.70
Charles H. Helmer. $1,130,589.35
Warren Construction Co. $1,110,498.01
Project No. 20: Twelve and a half miles in Kootenai county, North and South highway; E. J. Chatham & Co. $330,138.82 General Const. Co. $329,138.82
John H. Nordquist. $304,830.89
Rich, Markhus & Crowe. $229,359.49
Otto Hansen. $243,481.25

BRYAN COMING TO GIVE ADDRESS HERE

Former Member of Wilson Cabinet Will Appear as Special Chautauqua Number

William Jennings Bryan will be in Twin Falls, Thursday, July 14, coming from the San Francisco national democratic convention. He comes as a special attraction offered by the Chautauqua-White Chautauqua company.

This information was received late today by the local Chautauqua committee from headquarters in Portland. The subject on which Mr. Bryan will speak will not be announced until a short time before he comes. The topic will be decided by the local committee.

Although Mr. Bryan will appear as a number of the Chautauqua course he will not speak in the regular Chautauqua tent. For this special occasion he will occupy the speaker's stand in the city park. It is probable he will be asked to make an address on the latest political issues.

COMMISSIONS OPEN TO FORMER SOLDIERS

Men who Served in Old Army
Eligible to Make Applications for Commissions

Service men and former service men may now apply for commissions in the regular army according to official word received at the local army recruiting headquarters.

In connection with this announcement it is officially stated that applicants must call at the station for enlistment blanks and place them in the hands of the adjutant general before June 24.

These commissions, it is understood, are permanent. Applying for a commission does not bind the applicant to the service in any way. For further information on this subject, candidates are urged to make personal appearance at the recruiting station.

ADA COUNTY ORGANIZES PATCH, SENATOR, CLUB

BOISE, (Special).—Ada county friends of Colonel L. V. Patch of Payette have organized a Patch-for-senator club here which has for its purpose the promotion of the colonel's candidacy for the United States senate.

L. W. Ensign of Blaine, a prominent business man, is president of the club. Other officers are: Mrs. Anna Robinson, vice president; Carl Butler, secretary; and Charles W. Stewart, treasurer.

The executive committee is made up of leading business men, returned service men and men who have been active in politics.

The Ada county organization will place a full set of candidates for precinct delegates to the county convention in every precinct. The returned service men of the county are especially active in Colonel Patch's behalf.

DO YOU KNOW JAMES CLARK?

H. C. Woodrum, county recorder of Shasta county, California, has written the university extension division asking aid in finding James Clark, an Idaho farmer, who was born in Shasta county. The estate of Mr. Clark's uncle, J. F. Dismore, is being settled and although the recorder knows that Mr. Clark is a resident of Idaho, he does not know his address. The estate cannot be closed until Mr. Clark is found.

FLAG HONORED BY ELKS LODGE

Fraternal Order Observes Day Set Apart to Pay Respects to National Standard

Although this is the day officially designated by Governor D. W. Davis as Flag day in Idaho, the Benevolent, Protective Order of Elks in Twin Falls commemorated the occasion with appropriate exercises Sunday.

The program opened at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Elks' lodge room under the direction of the regular officers of Twin Falls Lodge, No. 1182. O. P. Duval being in charge as exalted ruler.

The program consisted of patriotic selections of instrumental, vocal and oral order. The history of the American flag was given by E. A. Chapin and Harry J. Benoit delivered a tribute to the American colors. Mrs. O. P. Duval sang "There is No Death," and Judge C. P. McCarthy, of the district court at Boise, delivered a stirring patriotic appeal for veneration for the flag of the country. Wilton Peck sang "My Own United States," and at the conclusion of the exercises the audience sang "America."

In his general proclamation of Flag day Governor Davis announced the occasion as one designed most particularly for disseminating knowledge concerning the proper respect and courtesy to the flag, and included in the mandate rules adopted by the military authorities of the United States with respect to the use of and deference to be paid the standard of the country. These are:

Flag Rules.
"Whenever the proper occasion arises, all citizens should pay respect to the flag."

"When the national colors are passing on parade, or in review, the spectator should; if walking, halt, and if sitting, arise and stand at attention and uncover."

"Whenever the 'Star-Spangled Banner' is being played or sung, all persons within hearing should rise and stand uncovered during its rendition."

"When the national and state or other flags fly together the national flag should be on the right."

"When the flags are used in unveiling a statue or monument they should not be allowed to fall to the ground, but should be carried aloft to wave out, forming a distinctive feature during the remainder of the ceremony."

"When the flag is flown at half staff as a sign of mourning, it should be hoisted to full staff at the conclusion of the funeral."

"Treat the flag as you would some precious heirloom. Do not place it on a building and leave it there day after day. Put it up in the morning and take it down at sunset. Do not use it for advertising purposes."

CRESS GETS SENTENCE

William Cress, aged 19, was this morning taken before Judge O. P. Duval in the probate court to receive sentence after having entered a plea of guilty to stealing an automobile. He was ordered to serve a term of 60 days in the county jail.

Sunday's Heat Nearly Reaches Season Record

THE mercury yesterday climbed to a point only one or two degrees below the season's record. The day's high was 80 with 50 low at night. Saturday's temperature had a range of 37 degrees, top being 84 with 47 low.

The paid predictor estimates a blustery night and Tuesday will be showery in this section. Country reports from outside the irrigated sections tell of a fire pined for water. On the Salmon, even, water is so scarce that some of the bigger farmers have abandoned a large proportion of acreage sown in order to concentrate the available water on contracted areas.

SITUATION IN IDAHO LEAGUE VERY COMPLEX

Paul Drops Players to Sign for Burley—Latter Sticks—
Former in Trouble

Apparently the Southern Idaho baseball league is tottering. Burley yesterday was on the point of disbanding the team, and Paul was compelled to cancel the opportunity to play Oakley in Twin Falls Sunday. Paul had not a sufficient number of players on the payroll to make up a complete team when it came time to start for Twin Falls. Oakley was here but found no opposition.

The situation in the S. I. B. L. seems to be particularly complex at this time, with Burley not sure of carrying on and Paul completely in the dumps. Oakley is not drawing and the franchise seems to be looking for an owner. Jerome is weak in the box and Buhl has found a need for strengthening lately in order to keep up its end of the play. Rupert seems to be the only club in the circuit having a measure of stability and backing to stick the season out. It is understood here that the Paul club expected to bring a strong team to Twin Falls Sunday but the management ran into an unforeseen circumstance which precluded possibility of play. According to information received here the Paul management heard that Burley was to disband its team, to pay off Saturday. The Paul officials, observing a chance to build a team with a par strength of the Super-outfit, arranged to take on five Burley players. To do this five Paul men were cut off the list and allowed to drift. Then word was received that the town had gone behind the Burley management and the players had been reassembled to continue play, thus leaving Paul five players short on the club's roster.
