

BORAH ATTITUDE GUESSING THEME FOR POLITICIANS

Announced Intention of Remaining in State of Radical Variance with Custom Provokes Much Speculation

INDICATIONS POINT TO NON-PARTISAN TICKET

League Leaders' Expressions Favor Divorce from Old Parties and Running Alone; Would Hold Republicans

By PHIL REAMS.

BOISE, Idaho, (Special to The News).—Senator William E. Borah is in Boise and announces his intention of remaining in the state for two or three months, also his intention of visiting all sections of the state before resuming his duties in Washington. This is a decided departure from the policy pursued by the senator heretofore that it is giving rise to much speculation. In other campaign years a few hardy souls have started out on an outline of what he had to say to the people of Idaho through the newspapers of the state, but this time he is considered the proper campaign tactics.

In this case he comes directly to Boise, in not many days by a number of his lieutenants, is given a reception on his arrival at the capital and announces that he is "home to stay."

Two Explanations.

Two explanations are advanced for this change in tactics. One is the 16th anniversary of the death of William E. Borah in 1910 in Senator Borah's home state. In the light of all that has transpired since, that 10,000 plurality must be especially galling. Another explanation is that he would be unbecomingly to him to have anything of the kind happen again. And he is too shrewd a politician to underestimate the strength of the man in the White House even in this day, with the changed conditions and the changed public sentiment. He knows that President Wilson's party has completely dominated the coming San Francisco convention, especially on the league of nations issue, and he is not so sure about Idaho or that Wilson as he would like to be. Having made the fight of his life against the league of nations, and having won a remarkable victory in his own party on this issue, it would be humiliating to the last degree to have his own state turn him down and inforce his dearest enemy.

In this connection Senator Borah claims credit for converting his party in the nation to his position on the league of nations.

It was a tremendous victory for Senator Borah, and now that a clean-cut issue is to be raised with this same league of nations as the line of cleavage it is incumbent upon the Idaho senator to line his home state up solidly on his side. This, then, is the first reason given out by the wise ones as to why Senator Borah is to spend two or three months of his summer vacation in Idaho.

Bolt Would Be Surprised.

Another reason assigned is more personal. It is to the effect that after his long and strenuous fight in the senate that even so strong a man as William E. Borah must feel the need of relaxation and rest. It is the opinion of many that the senator will browse around quietly among friends in the state resting up until he is later drawn into the maelstrom of the presidential campaign. Nobody expects Senator Borah to bolt his party or even to bolt in his tent. He got too much that he was after at Chicago to make a bolt on his part seem decent.

Even should Wm. Johnson bolt and run for president on a third party ticket or as a political maverick Senator Borah will remain regular, or at least do as he did in 1912—keep everybody guessing as to his position until the fight is all over. It looks now as if William Randolph Hearst is to take his string of newspapers over into the third party whatever it may be called and this may give Senator Borah a jump because Borah and Hearst were like twin brothers in the fight leading up to the Chicago convention, and Borah even went so far as to "write" up the republican national convention for the Hearst papers.

But as Senator Borah now insists that he was for Taft in 1912, so he will insist, after the present campaign is all over, that he was for Harding.

What some of the aspiring republican politicians in Idaho would like to know above all else, is what Senator Borah is to do for the state ticket in Idaho. There is a widespread impression that he is against Frank E. Smith for United States senator, and that he is against D. W. Davis for governor. What would happen should these two men be elected? Would they be altered? Will Senator Borah take the stump for them, or will he treat them as he treated John M. Haines in a previous campaign.

Questions Up to Senator.

Or will Senator Borah take a hand in the same and prevent the nominations of Gooding and Davis? Every body concedes that he could do this if he so desired. And if he decides to pursue this course and save his party from these nominations, where he will throw his strength? Will he support Colonel E. G. Davis, Colonel L. W. Hatch or Captain A. H. Connor, United States senator as against former Governor Gooding? Will he support John W. Engelson, M. A. Kiger or other horse as against Governor Davis? These are questions that will be forced upon the senator during his stay in his home state.

It is interesting to note that the democrats are praying for the nomination of Frank L. Gooding for senator and for the nomination of E. W. Davis for governor. Some of the most astute democratic politicians at the state capital he figured out that this is their only hope of winning in Idaho this year.

Everything at this time points to a complete state ticket in Idaho by the Nonpartisan League. A committee of the league met in Boise, July 17. This will be long enough after all the regular party conventions, and after the convention of the non-partisan league in Chicago, July 10, to enable the league to know just what is best for them to do. Judging from the temper of their leaders here and general expressions heard they will cut loose from all connection with the old parties and run a state ticket, winning their own way.

Each county is to determine for itself as to the running of county tickets and the support that is to be given candidates for local offices. This promises to complicate matters but a third state ticket in the field would seem to be to the advantage of the republicans.

Returning once more to the question of Senator Borah's power and influence it is noted that John W. Hart is not only re-elected republican national committeeman for Idaho, but he is elevated still higher in party councils by being placed on the executive committee for the entire nation to play an important part in the direction of the national campaign. This is of course another testimonial to the prestige of William E. Borah.

Thorn in Nugent's Side.

It is reasonably certain, too, that the presence of Senator Borah in Idaho for two or three months is going to make it unpleasant for Senator John F. Nugent. It is now as certain as anything can be in politics that Senator Nugent will be forced to lead the fight in Idaho for the league of nations as the paramount issue of the campaign. This will bring him into direct conflict with Senator Borah and should add immensely to the interest of the campaign. It will certainly have a tendency to break up the interlocking politics of the two senators.

OUTLOOK FAVORS BUCHAREST FOR TRAFFIC CENTER

French and British Plans for Wireless and Aviation Communication in Europe Meet Approval

BUCHAREST, (P).—This city will become a huge communication center for south Europe, both for wireless and aviation, if present French plans are carried out. The Marconi company has offered to build a huge wireless station in Rumania, which would handle business from the east as well as local business to the west, but it appears likely that the Rumanians will either continue their own wireless service in connection with the Eiffel Tower and other stations in France, or else permit the French to establish such a station.

Both British and French firms, backed up by their governments, are attempting to arrange a complete airplane service. The French propose to connect Paris, Vienna, Budapest, Bucharest and Constantinople, and Greece. It is hoped later to extend this service into Russia.

French army aviators began last summer to establish a tentative post service between Constantinople and Bucharest, connecting with the express train to Paris. This service is being now developed, but owing to its great cost it is felt necessary to have each of the governments over whose territory the airplane service will be conducted, to contribute a pro-rata share to maintain the service.

It is estimated that the cost averages $100 for each hour the machine is kept in the air.

In view of the poor conditions of the railway systems in south Europe, business men have generally given their support to these plans.

Due to the mountains of central and southern Europe and waters of the Black sea, the Adriatic and the Mediterranean, practical aviation is constantly severely tested.

Flying into Russia does not present the same difficulties. Since the armistice huge German machines carrying the passengers and contraband money and other articles of a speculative nature, have made frequent trips between Moscow and Berlin. Now and then, these machines come down, but it is generally because of motor trouble. During the Bolshevik regime in Hungary, frequent trips were made to Moscow, though the aviators had to cross the Carpathian mountains from Budapest.

From a passenger's point of view, such trips do not present any difficulty once the passenger has overcome the preliminary apprehensions of danger. This apprehension is much diminished by the new limousine type of machine, where the passenger suffers neither from cold nor wind nor motor noise.

The establishment of these wireless and airplane communications are a continuance of the French policy of keeping eastern and western Europe connected. It is due to the French that since the armistice express trains have been run between Paris and Warsaw, passing the intervening cities of Prague and Vienna, and also between Paris and Bucharest, and finally between Paris and Constantinople. These three which are known as the Warsaw, Silesian and Orient express, were first under French army control and are now under commercial control of the International Sleeping Car company.

WORTH MORE THAN FORTUNE

Power Gains Eighteen Pounds Rheumatism Disappears After Taking Tanlac

"What Tanlac has done for me is worth more than a fortune," said George Power, of 213 E. Broadway St., a life-long resident of Halifax, Nova Scotia, and well known employee of the Nova Scotia Tram and Power Co. "I have gained eighteen pounds and feel better than for twenty-eight long years," he continued.

"I don't believe anybody in the world suffered from rheumatism as bad as I did. It was a sharp shooting pain that would go through my knees, down my legs and into my ankles just like somebody was sticking a knife through me. I couldn't work at all in damp weather and suffered so intensely I would turn white as a sheet. When the attacks came on I wouldn't be able to sleep a wink, my joints would swell and my knees would get stiff as boards and I wouldn't be able to walk for two or three days at a time—just lay up in bed flat on my back.

"Tanalac was so highly recommended by people right here in Halifax that I tried it and now I wouldn't take anything in the world for the good it has done me. My rheumatism is entirely gone, my appetite has picked up, too, and I sleep fine every night, and feel like a different man altogether. Tanlac is the greatest thing I have ever seen and I want to let everybody know what this wonderful medicine will do." Tanlac is sold by Twin Falls by City Pharmacy and by the leading druggists in every city—adv.

CHILE CAUGHT IN SWIRL OF LIVING COSTS RISE

SANTIAGO, Chile, (AP)—All people coming from abroad remark on the general abundance and cheapness of necessities in Chile as compared with other countries. Residents are nevertheless suffering from the gradual increase in the cost of life as the movement of increase felt over the world cannot be avoided here. Foreign products rise, salaries increase, prices of domestic products advance.

There have been some labor movements in the nitrate region in the north and in the coal fields in the south, both strikes ending with arbitration of the demands of the workmen. Trade appears to be very active, and although the market appears to be well stocked by the leading firms, good orders are being placed for British and American goods for the coming winter.

The crops have been good but prices are going up owing to inability of the railroads to transport the crops to the great centers. Great prices mark the scarcity of foreign products like sugar, print paper, rice, which are not produced in the country.

DANIELS AGAIN IS UNDER FIRE

Row over Navy's Conduct of War Revived by Admiral Decker's Letter

WASHINGTON, (P)—The Sims-Daniels row over the navy's conduct of the war was revived today when the publication of a letter from Rear Admiral Benton O. Decker, commander of the seventh naval district, Florida, in which he charges that Secretary Daniels in his testimony before the senate investigating committee "intentionally and deliberately" misrepresented certain facts of the war.

The letter, dated June 17 and addressed to Chairman Hale of the committee, was published in the Army and Navy Journal, a newspaper which was owned by Daniels. It also had sent a copy of it to Secretary Daniels.

Admiral Decker formerly was naval attaché at Madrid but was removed during the war. Secretary Daniels has stated that his removal followed representations from Ambassador Winland to the state department that he was engaged on diplomatic functions in his activities there.

Charges Perverted of Facts

The admiral declared in his letter that "from my personal knowledge of Mr. Daniels' character, I am led to believe that whatever is cited in his statements to the discredit of the officers is so perverted and twisted as to give the actual facts a false meaning."

"It is probable and more than likely," Admiral Decker's letter said, "that if these officers had bowed down and had served the gods that Mr. Daniels worshipped they would today have been fettering on the navy as commanders of fleets on active duty or in pleasant jobs in Washington. To me, as to other high officers of the navy, it has come that if we would bow down and do the wishes of Mr. Daniels we would receive the rewards therefore—titles, decorations, money by circuitous routes and underhanded, making ways so that no one can take hold of them."

"My explanation of the incidents set forth by Mr. Daniels is based upon my personal experience with him. This explanation is that Mr. Daniels found these officers would not follow him to the limit of demoralizing and degrading the navy; that, even though they honestly desired the rewards and promotion of their career which all honorable men reasonably desire, they were not willing to sacrifice their character, their manhood and their country. And as a result Mr. Daniels determined to break them by the use of all the power of his office, by the use of the power of ridicule, sarcasm and half truths, that as a newspaper man he has learned how to use so skillfully; by the use of strength of publicity secured through his newspaper connections, all the weapons which Frankenstein used to destroy his enemies, and autocracy has used through the ages to maintain its power."

All Credits Due Fighters

"In my opinion all credit is due to these men that they have fought unto the end and upheld the standard of uprightness, loyalty to country, self-sacrifice, hard work and gentlemanly conduct, attributes that the ideal naval officer has always revered."

"I have no desire in this letter to bring out my personal experiences with Mr. Daniels, but he knows of them, and he knows, if he knows the difference between right and wrong, that he has been dishonest; that he has been autocratic; that he has abused his power; that he has done all this for unworthy motives."

DEMENTED YOUTH ATTACKS FAMILY

Uses Knife and Iron Bar in Assault on Wife, Baby and Parents-in-Law

CHICAGO, (P)—Nolan B. Robinson, 23 years old, fugitive from an insane hospital at Elgin, Ill., was captured here this morning and held on charges of attempting to murder his wife, their five-month-old baby and his parents-in-law late last night at Wheaton, near this city.

Robinson stabbed all four with a butcher knife, then crushed their skulls with an iron bar. Robinson, dressed in a suit and tie, was found with his clothes covered with blood, calmly discussed the attempted murders and declared he was crazed by love for his wife.

Wheaton police reported the wife, Vera Robinson, 24, the baby, the father-in-law, L. B. Brown, 75, a jeweler, and his wife, 70 years old, cannot recover.

Robinson served four years in the navy and crossed 18 times during the war. He was on the Cyclops when it was attacked by a German submarine in 1918.

PRIOR HOMICIDAL ATTACKS LEAD TO INCARCERATION

ELGIN, Ill., (P)—Nolan B. Robinson escaped from the Elgin state hospital three days ago. He was committed to that institution May last following repeated efforts to kill members of his family.

His first attempt to kill was made the day following the birth of his child when he attacked his sister-in-law and his mother-in-law. When the baby was only six weeks old he kidnapped the child and fled with it to Texas where he was arrested and returned. While in jail he attempted suicide by cutting his wrist.

A few weeks later he attacked his wife after he had broken down a barricaded door at her parents home. This assault caused the courts to have Robinson placed in the state hospital.

primary," showed back Senator Hardwick. He claimed that Palmer received less than one third of the popular vote in the state, though he had the most county unit votes, and argued that this was against democratic principles for a man receiving less than a third of the total vote to be the hands of the other two-thirds.

Albert Howell, Atlanta, closing for the Palmerites, said the executive committee executed the functions of the state committee between conventions. He claimed the executive committee was the creation of the convention and its functions were limited to those prescribed by the body creating it. Mr. Howell was applauded when he humorously illustrated the case by a game in which one set of players wanted to change the rules of the game after the chips were on the table.

Question of Voters' Rights

This closed the Georgia case and the committee immediately proceeded to hear the Reed case.

Francis M. Wilson, United States senator from the western district of Missouri, presented Senator Reed's case. He said it was his understanding there was no question for solution by the national committee was "not the man or the manner" but rather whether the fifth Missouri district was to be permitted to name, not once but twice, a delegate of its own choosing.

He explained that under Missouri rules the congressional district permitted to select their own national delegates who are passed upon by the state convention. The state convention rejected Reed's selection and referred back to the fifth district without any qualification or restrictions. The state convention adjourned and subsequently the fifth district delegates re-elected Senator Reed. Mr. Wilson asserted that Senator Reed's title to a seat in the convention was as clear as that of any other delegate.

Vouchers for Regularity

Asked in the event Reed were seated would the senator abjure by the actions of the national convention, Mr. Wilson said he has known Reed thirty years and that his democracy has never been brought into question. This drew applause from different parts of the committee room.

Joseph B. Shannon, the other delegate from the fifth district, supported the claim of Senator Reed.

"If I am entitled to my seat in the convention, Reed is entitled to his," said Shannon. "In fact, he is more entitled to his seat than I, because I sought the place and he did not. If the national committee disfranchises the fifth district, he declared, 'democracy in the fifth district would be injured.'"

Senator Reed's claim for a seat was supported by Edw. G. Goltz, national committeeman from Missouri. Delegate Shannon in his speech said Goltz had been in the fifth district not more than three times. Goltz, referring to this, said he had been in the district many times and never saw Shannon and requested that the next time he went there he hoped Shannon would be there to see him.

"We don't need you there," was Shannon's quick reply.

Argues Re-election Invalid

Mr. Goltz agreed with the principal facts in the case. He said the fifth district delegates were entrusted with a certain mission. They performed that mission, the convention rejected part of their recommendation and when the convention adjourned Mr. Goltz said the mission of the fifth district delegates ended and Reed's subsequent selection was irregular.

Affects John Policies

Colonel John Cogswold, a delegate from the eighth Missouri district, declared that if Senator Reed had not opposed the national administration in the ratification of the league of nations, there would not have been a vote cast against him in the state convention. He said he did not speak in the interest of any presidential candidate but he did not think the party should allow the present administration in the face by Senator Reed, and that the chances of victory in the coming campaign.

The question, Cogswold said, is whether the committee shall stand by the president who will go down in history as a great president, or by his traducer who soon will be forgotten.

Mrs. W. W. Martin, a Missouri delegate, also opposed the seating of Senator Reed.

BURLESON PLEDGES VOTE OF TEXAS DELEGATES FOR M'ADOO

SAN FRANCISCO, (P)—Postmaster General Burleson, who arrived here during the night, declared that he and the entire Texas delegation would vote for the nomination of William G. McAdoo. The action of the republican convention in adopting a platform which, he said, would definitely settle the questions confronting the country, would not be repeated in San Francisco. The democratic convention, as predicted, would definitely settle the questions confronting the country, and emphatically, he would not forecast its attitude regarding a liberalization of the Volstead act, labor or the tariff.

He said that the party would action might be taken the party would abide by the will of the majority.

NEW YORK DELEGATION CAUCUS IS POSTPONED

SAN FRANCISCO, (P)—The New York delegation met today but adjourned until tomorrow night without transacting any business. Governor Smith, chairman of the delegation, and that the postponement was due to the non-arrival of a number of delegates from the up-state districts.

At tomorrow night's meeting it is planned to re-elect Norman E. Mack as the member of the democratic national committee and to assign W. Bourke Cockran to the committee on resolutions.

Enthusiasm was aroused by the reading of the declaration of the French democratic club of New York city urging the delegation to work for the nomination of Governor Smith as the presidential candidate.

Today's Markets

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, (P)—In keeping with the previous days of the week, today's stock session was characterized by a very extremely dull and featureless. The attendance of members was unusually small and commission houses reported an absolute cessation of outside interests. Oil, chemical and tobacco companies represented the most active groups with such nifty as Union Pacific, American Express, and the steel and iron groups also figured in the sluggish movement. The clearest of the steel and iron groups was the steel and iron groups on London showed no material alteration.

The week-end session began with a continuation of the dullness and featureless. The week-end session began with a continuation of the dullness and featureless. The week-end session began with a continuation of the dullness and featureless.

Grains and Provisions

CHICAGO, (P)—Decline in price of corn resulted today from definite announcement by the railway labor board that a wage award retroactive to May 1 would be made on or before July 30. The announcement was the first of many traders meaning improved efficiency in the traffic operations from now on. Selling pressure, however, did not become urgent and a rally ensued. Opening prices, which started from 1-1/2 to 1-3/4 lower, with July 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 and September 1 1/2 to 1 3/4, closed 1/2 to 1 1/2 higher, with July 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 and September 1 1/2 to 1 3/4.

Later the market scored a material advance because of week-end covering by shorts. The close was 1/2 to 1 1/2 higher, with July 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 and September 1 1/2 to 1 3/4.

Options developed strength owing to bullish reports. After opening, wheat advanced 1-1/2 to 1-3/4 higher, including September 1 3/4 to 1 1/2, the market continued to ascend.

Barley, too, was firmer with hog, pork, though, was weak.

The weakness of pork was accounted for by the fact that packers had lowered their fresh meat prices this morning.

The Best of 80 Years Experience in this New Small Ideal

His accumulated manufacturing experience of over three-quarters of a century—and the judgment of over 20,000 Iowa farmers—has back of the new small 22 x 36 Ideal Thresher.

You know the record and reputation of the larger sizes of the Ideal—there's no farming community that hasn't Ideal outfits with their satisfied customers. When we were called upon to build a smaller size separator, we didn't just "run one out"—we built along the same lines as the Ideal, determined that our small threshers would be leaders in their class just as are the larger.

So in the small as well as the larger made you will find those features that mean the difference between a "run-out" and a "gem-quality" job. A small thresher owners will tell you that.

Bunching, or cylinder-winding is unknown in the Ideal—because the Ideal is designed on the principle of a steady, even flow of straw through the machine from the time it enters the cylinder until, free from all grain, it leaves through the stacker.

First of all, we placed the Ideal gears exactly right in relation to the cylinder. Then we designed the Ideal traveling slatted race to take the straw from the cylinder and carry it to the straw rack. Result—more gear surface and a steady even flow of straw, making choking impossible.

Shaking alone wasn't a guarantee of complete separation. So, we put sets of lifting fingers on the straw rack that lift the straw—rather than beat it from beneath. Result—complete separation and no waste.

Then, to take care of the increased capacity due to these innovations and to make the Ideal do a perfect job of cleaning, we put in extra chaffer area. The chaffer in the cleaning shoe, with the adjustable sieve and our special system of wind control, guarantees a perfect job of cleaning without waste. Result—the kind of cleaning that gets "top dockage" at the elevator.

Such construction shows why the small 22 x 36 will handle up to 900 bushels of wheat in a day's run—the 28 x 44 up to 1,500 bushels.

The Ideal is built in five sizes—22 x 36, 28 x 44, 36 x 48, 44 x 52 and 52 x 60—followed in design and construction, meeting all needs, from the man who owns his own power and wants to do his own threshing, to the custom thresher.

There's an Ideal in your neighborhood.

The guaranteed oil-burning Outfall Thresher is built in sizes to fit every size Ideal.

SPACIOUS HALL IN READINESS FOR SESSIONS

Democrats to Assemble in San Francisco for First Time Under One Roof Housing All Activities of Session

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—When the democratic national convention meets here June 28 it will have available for the first time accommodations in the exposition memorial auditorium building sufficient to house under one roof not only the convention proper but committee meetings and headquarters for candidates as well.

These are largely to be utilized, according to J. Bruce Kremer, of Butte, Mont., vice chairman of the national committee, thus avoiding the inconvenience and delay attendant upon holding minor conferences away from the convention hall.

Two Auxiliary Halls. In addition to the main auditorium, the maximum capacity of which Mr. Kremer estimated at 12,500 persons, the building contains two auxiliary halls, one that will seat 900 persons, and the other 700. There are 10 rooms that may be used for smaller meetings. A fence around the entire building, with entrance gates for ticket holding spectators, delegates, and news writers, will be used by police and convention authorities to prevent crowding from rushing doorkeepers to obtain admittance. This has occurred several times during national party conventions.

The auditorium for three weeks past has been a scene of noisy activity. Carpenters have erected the speaker's platform, 30 by 40 feet and 10 feet high, on the south side of the big hall, just in front of the great organ and opposite the main entrance. Several feet lower and extending along the greater part of that side of the auditorium is the press section with seats for 510 working news writers. Back of the speaker's platform is sound proof rooms and telephone booths and fully equipped accommodations for press associations and newspaper men.

Center for Delegates. The central portion of the main hall is reserved for the 1002 delegates and a like number of officers. Around this space a solid railing has been erected to keep back spectators that are admitted to this floor. To add these outlookers a platform one foot high has been built over the entire space they will occupy. The balcony, sweeping around three sides of the auditorium, will seat 410 persons.

Covering the dome is a canopy weighing 6 tons that forms a false ceiling. Rails and draperies on the walls and in the corners are designed to improve the acoustics. The auditorium will be equipped with all modern electrical devices, including sound carrying wires and a telephone system that will enable the chairman to transmit orders from the platform to the sergeant at arms and other officials and these in turn to speak to their deputies in any part of the great hall.

Red Cross on Ground. A complete hospital under the direction of the Red Cross and a large restaurant and lunch room have been installed. Despite the fact that the $2,000,000 four-story granite and concrete structure was erected only five years ago, the interior has been entirely renovated and repainted. Flags are to be used in the decorations, which with a secret decorative effect to be presented opening day, are described as "typically Californian."

Weather records running back to 1871 indicate cool "top cast" weather for the convention period. Overcasts and late of spectators and participants may be checked free of charge in permanent stations scattered throughout the building.

The auditorium stands in the open city center that offers much space for parking automobiles. One corner touches Market street, the city's principal thoroughfare, which has two surface street car lines running in each direction, and it is 11 blocks from the Palace hotel where national committee headquarters have been located.

The San Francisco committee that pledged $125,000 to bring the convention here is headed by Charles W. Fay, postmaster; George F. Maize, of Bridgeport, Conn., representing Homer S. Cummings of Stamford, Conn., chairman of the democratic national committee; has been here for nearly six months overseeing arrangements for the convention.

Cummings is to be temporary chairman of the convention. He will be presented by Kramer, vice chairman of the national committee.

E. G. Hoffman of Fort Wayne, Ind., secretary of the committee, will act in a similar capacity for the convention, being assisted by W. R. Hollister of Jefferson City, Mo., executive secretary of the committee. Colonel John L. Martin of St. Louis is honorary sergeant at arms and J. J. Hughes of Oklahoma City, Okla., is active sergeant at arms.

Wilbur W. Marsh of Waterloo, Ia., is treasurer of the national committee, and W. B. Jamieson of Washington, D. C., is director of finance. The press section will be in charge of James D. Preston, superintendent of the United States senate press gallery, assisted by William B. Donaldson, superintendent of the house of representatives press gallery.

W. Maytorena and Eugenio Paroles, as well as properties which have been expropriated for public purposes.

CORN LOWER FOR WEEK

Grain and Provisions Show Setback in Chicago Trading

CHICAGO, (AP)—Corn quotations this morning, compared with a week ago, were 3-4 cts. lower. Oats showed a setback of 1 to 1-7-8 cents, and provisions of 47 to 56.

Although many had been positive that a revival of supplies would be realized and that of lifting the market perhaps to about 10 cts. a bushel, evidence tonight that more grain was in transit than many traders would have deemed creditable. However, urgent shipping requirements here gave signs of having been overruled and it was said that the market had also been fairly well provided for.

Grainers selling did a good deal to weigh down provisions.

TRADE IGNORES POLITICS

Large Interest and Dividend Payments Exert Small Influence

NEW YORK, (AP)—The advent of the mid-year, with its extraordinary large interest and dividend payments, effected no change this week in the financial market, beyond a further contraction of time funds and materially higher rates for call money.

Resumption of the railroad strike at the eastern terminals acted as further check on production and intensified freight congestion with consequent heaviness in the railroad shares.

In other branches of industry, authorities reported further reduction or absolute suspension of work. Politics seemed to exert little influence, though increased interest was shown in the coming convention at San Francisco.

BUTTE, Mont., (AP)—Seven large signs, each 16 by 10 feet, and 350 smaller signs are being placed by crews representing the Silver Bow County Good Roads association, in conjunction with the route of the roads between Yellowstone and Glacier National parks.

"Follow the Black and Yellow trails" is a portion of the legend on the big signs, and distances to various cities and points of interest are placed conspicuously on the big boards. The same idea is carried out on all the signs, large and small.

TIME WILL TELL

The Non-partisan league convention in Great Falls, Montana, this week, adopted resolutions declaring among other things, its endorsement of Eugene V. Debs in his course.

Debs, convicted and imprisoned violator of the espionage act, when officially notified the other day of his nomination as the candidate of the Socialist party for the presidency of the United States, took occasion again to declare himself a bolshevik, and to say, "I am heartily in favor of the Russian revolution and think we should support it with all our power."

Debs' declaration was prior to that of the Great Falls convention which, it is to be presumed, adopted its resolutions with full knowledge of the opinions and desires of the Socialist nominee.

The development serves its most hopeful purpose in that it indicates the disposition of "birds of a feather to flock together."

Persons who have been disposed heretofore to minimize some of the more serious charges made against the organization that holds sway in North Dakota may be expected in the light of this development, to begin to inquire as to where in a combination of this kind, the American citizen is to get off, and how far he can go with it and not be smirched.

PASSING OF RENTED HOUSE

A speaker at the national real estate convention in Kansas City made the startling prediction that the rented house is passing, that the day is at hand when men must own their own home or live in apartment buildings. Men of moderate salary or wage, he said, will no longer be able to pay the rentals that must be demanded because of the high cost of building a house or bungalow, even of five rooms. Another speaker saw no relief in sight from lowered building costs. In fact, he thought the rents had been too low before the war and would never get back to anything like that basis.

With the United States short a million houses and building costs where they are those prophets have substantial ground for their predictions. Even now people are being obliged to "double up", one-family houses are being made to accommodate two, and thousands of others unable to obtain houses for rent have been compelled to find refuge in apartment buildings. Most of them have consoled themselves with the hope that this is but a temporary dislocation, that in a year or two matters will adjust themselves and the world will be back somewhere near where it was before the war. But the real estate experts at this national meeting were not of that opinion. They were inclined to agree with those doleful prophets and the general advice was that men should save and start to buy their own homes as early in life as possible.

EXAMPLE FOR EUROPE

The Canadian government makes official announcement of the appointment of a commissioner to define and mark the boundary line between the United States and Canada. If there is any uncertainty as to the location of the line it will be news to most of us. Few people in either the United States or Canada, however, are likely to become excited over the question. Any differences of opinion that may exist between the two nations as to where the boundary should lie unquestionably will be settled in a friendly manner.

How unlike is this from the situation prevailing in other parts of the world! Disputes over boundaries are one of the most prolific causes of war. In the Balkans it is a fruitful source of trouble. Some of the South American countries are almost constantly wrangling over boundary lines.

We would not wish to forego a single foot of territory to which we are entitled; Canada would be equally unwilling to abandon what she may regard as a just claim. But it is realized on both sides that no grievance over a tiny bit of territory would warrant the taking of steps which might strain our friendship. There would be no danger of war if adjoining nations in other parts of the world would model their intercourse with one another after the manner of the United States and Canada.

LINDLEY HALL NAME OF NEW DORMITORY FOR U. OF I.

MOSCOW, Idaho, (P)—Lindley hall is to be the name of the boys' new dormitory now being built by Moscow business men for the University of Idaho. The name was chosen at a recent meeting of the board of trustees of the dormitory in recognition of President E. H. Lindley's services to the university and the state. The dormitory is being rushed to completion and will be ready for use by the opening of the university in the fall.

SHAMROCK RUNS AWAY FROM HER TRY-OUT RIVAL

Lipton's Challenger, while not in True Form, Shows Clean Heels in Spin

BANDY HOOK, N. J., (AP)—Shamrock Lipton's Shamrock IV, challenger for the America's cup, defeated his 23-meter Shamrock in a 25-mile time trial, winning by 15 minutes and 31 seconds, actual time. The challenger, a 25-meter, 30-knot boat, was built by a local boat builder in a northeast breeze of nearly ten knots in 3 hours 18 minutes and 37 seconds. The Shamrock IV is still far from approaching true racing form, insofar as her sails are concerned. Nevertheless, her work today has given the impression that she will be a dangerous rival to the America's cup defender in light weather. ## Brief Bits of Sport

They call Gordon McKay "champ" in his own hall.

Sorter father to the thought system, or wishing a good thing on.

Fire Chief Hutchinson of Bull has issued a challenge directed against the Twin Falls fire department for a "water fight."

We like enterprise, but what's the use of wasting the water?

Anyhow Al Nelson must think he's a prima donna, displaying all of those temperaments. Perhaps it was temperature instead of temperament.

They give baseball managers short shrift in some of these leagues. For instance James Pierce was fired as manager of the Flint club in the Minn. league because he allowed a runner to be caught out third base.

It seems that the Indianapolis ball club has received a flattering offer for infielder Olio O'Mara the day before the player jumped out of organized baseball to the Oil City Independents.

New both O'Mara and the Indiana.

oil club are out, the player being barred for pumping a contract and the club the loss of his services, or those of players to have been given in exchange, brooks a bundle of cash.

The injury that put Ty Cobb out of the Tiger lineup has furnished Hugh Jennings a new ally for not winning more games since the accident.

Since the courts have declared him guilty, Dempsey has reassumed an attitude of superiority, even defiance. He says now he will knock out any fighter who confronts him in less than three rounds.

My goodness, what a little bit of whitewash will do for or to some folks. Swede Rieberg has left the White Sox on call from California where a member of his family is said to be very ill.

But oh gaww, what pitching Gleason is getting.

Sim Smiley, sagebrush sage, who has been vacationing, says: "When it comes to blindin' folks the little god of luck makes th' god of war look like a tramp with a leather nickel."

Now if this territory were protected under rules of organized baseball play, one of South Idaho ball clubs who jump to independent organizations might be properly punished.

But—since, in itself, the S. I. D. L. is an outlaw circuit the clubs comprising the league must take their medicine.

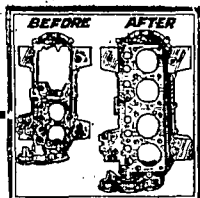

Perhaps it is the extraordinary demand for outfit boards that's making the high cost of lumber.

Somebody has just discovered that picture postcards sold at the Mount Vernon house of George Washington bear the trade stamp "Made in Germany."

DECIDES TO DEFEND TITLE. AMSTERDAM, (AP)—The decision of Dr. Emanuel Lasker to yield his title of world's champion chess player to Jose R. Capablanca, the Cuban expert, instead of playing a match they had arranged, was made known in a letter he wrote Capablanca.

FOR HIGH SCHOOL TITLE. CHICAGO, (AP)—A world's baseball series atmosphere will be in evidence at the Cubs park today when the Lane team also meets the High School of Commerce team of New York for the inter-city high school championship.

PAVING RECORD IS BROKEN HERE

Twin Falls Bitulithic Forces Set New Mark for 28-Hour Work Period

Plant and paving forces employed by the Warren Construction company in Twin Falls on Thursday and Friday established a world's record for amount of bitulithic surfacing mixture laid in a period of 28 hours actual working time.

In that period the plant produced and the street forces spread 5580 square yards of bitulithic mixture on city streets. A. J. Hill, superintendent of paving operations here for the Warren Construction company is authority for the statement that the figure is 2500 square yards more than the former record for the same period in the class of operation.

According to Superintendent Hill the work was accomplished by forces employed in two shifts each day. The force at the mixing plant comprised 15 men per day, 35 men on the street and five hauling trucks having an average of three and a half-ton capacity.

The total weight of mixture spread was 1,017,200 pounds.

Mr. Hill expresses the belief that the record made here Thursday and Friday will probably stand for some time to come, but admits that attempts will be made to break it at the Twin Falls plant before paving operations are concluded here.

CITY IS RESTRAINED BY ORDER OF COURT

Elm Park Water Company Filled Affidavits Upon Which Judge Baum Issues Mandate

Upon showing made by the complainants in the action of the Elm Park Water company against the city of Twin Falls, wherein the municipality sought an injunction restraining the city or its agents from interfering with the company's water system, Judge O. B. Baum yesterday afternoon decided to grant a temporary, or limited restraining order against the city.

Affidavits were filed with the court showing that threats had been made by city agents to tear up a part of the private water system. The court's injunction restrains the municipality from interfering with the system except as such interference is necessary in the operation of paving improvements. In this the city is under bond to replace the system without crippling the plant.

BISHOP OF IDAHO

The Rt. Rev. Frank Hale Touret, bishop of the missionary district of the Episcopal church in Idaho. With the Very Rev. Archdeacon Howard Stoy he is in Twin Falls for an official visit to Ascension church parish.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH LEADER HERE FOR OFFICIAL VISIT TO PARISH

Rt. Rev. Frank Hale Touret, D. D., will be Guest at Dinner and Reception by Communicants of Ascension Parish Tonight—To Conduct Special Services Sunday Here and Buhl

Accompanied by the Very Rev. Howard Stoy of Pocatello the Rt. Rev. Frank Hale Touret, bishop of the Episcopal missionary diocese of Idaho, will arrive in Twin Falls this afternoon to remain here tonight and Sunday.

Although Bishop Touret has been in charge of the church work in Idaho since the first of the present year this is his first visit to Twin Falls. On a former occasion arrangements were completed for his official appearance, but illness, coming on suddenly, prevented the call and he was represented here only by proxy the Very Rev. Archdeacon Stoy and Dean Alward Chamberlayne coming in his stead.

Entertainment
Arrangements have been made for entertainment of the ecclesiastical party, together with the full membership of Ascension church vestry, with invited guests, at a dinner, to be served at the Perrine hotel at 6 o'clock this evening. This phase of entertainment is provided for the visitors and other guests by George Sprague, one of the leading members of the church and vestry. Following dinner the party will repair to the Parish hall where a general public reception will be tendered in compliment to the heads of the church in Idaho.

Church Services
Tomorrow holy communion and such other ecclesiastical offices as are required will be celebrated by Bishop Touret and Archdeacon Stoy during the morning and early afternoon. Baptism will be performed and confirmations, if requested. Later in the day the party will motor to Buhl for a church visit at that place and to perform such church ceremonies as are required.

Communicants of Ascension Episcopal parish hope to hear officially from Bishop Touret relative to a rector for the local church. Bishop Touret, it is generally understood, has agreed to the employment of a minister to take charge of the parish September 1. Who he is and where he comes from, his qualifications and record will be reported, be detailed at tonight's reception.

Biographical
The Rt. Rev. Frank Hale Touret, D. D., was born March 25 1875, at Salem, Mass. He is an alumnus of the Harvard university, class of '97, and of the Episcopal Theological school at Cambridge, 1903. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts in that same year and served his decanate at St. John's church, Providence, R. I., and was advanced to the priesthood in 1904. He was at Christ church, Detroit, Mich., from 1904 to 1906, and was then rector of St. Luke's church, Fort Collins, Colo. From 1910 until his election to the episcopate he was rector of Grace church, Colorado Springs. He has served as a member of the diocesan board of missions and has held other offices within the gift of the church. His consecration took place in his parish church at Colorado Springs in 1917 having been elected bishop by the general convention which met at St. Louis in 1918. Bishop Touret, the venerable, presiding bishop of the Episcopal church, was the consecrator. He was assisted by the bishops of West Texas, Montana, Colorado, eastern Oklahoma and Utah.
