

BOURBONS VOTE APPRECIATION OF PRESIDENT

Resolution of "Appreciation and Greeting" is Unanimously Adopted by Convention at San Francisco

AUDITORIUM, San Francisco, (AP)—The democratic national convention Monday, on motion of Governor Gardner of Missouri, directed Chairman Cummings to send to President Wilson a resolution of "appreciation and greeting" which was unanimously adopted by the convention.

The resolution, adopted just before adjournment, praised the achievements of the president in the conduct of the war, "rejoiced in the recovery of the president's health and strength" and "deeply resented the malignant conceits of the president's partisan foes."

Here to Jefferson.

The telegram to the president sent by Chairman Cummings follows:

"In recognition of the fact that the mantle of Jefferson and Jackson has fallen upon your shoulders as the unquestioned leader of our party, the hosts of democracy in national convention assembled have directed me to send you the following resolution of appreciation and greeting:

"The democratic party, assembled in national convention, extends to the president of the United States its admiring and respectful greeting.

"For seven of the most fruitful years in the history of our country Woodrow Wilson has occupied and by his character, learning and power, has adorned the highest office in the gift of his countrymen.

"He has initiated and secured the adoption of great progressive measures of immeasurable benefit to the people of the United States.

"As the commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States, he has led the patriotic forces of his country through the most momentous struggle in history, and without check, reverse or retardation, to an honorable peace, the immediate restoration of liberty and democracy, won by the free nations of the world.

"We hail these achievements, sir, and are proud that they have been accomplished under your administration.

"We rejoice in the recovery of your health and strength, and your ability to suffer and affliction which you have borne with courage and without complaint.

Resents Partisan Onset.

"We deeply resent the malignant attacks which you have more undesignedly been called upon to sustain from partisan foes, whose judgment is warped and whose perceptions are obscured by the malignant and malicious libelous and disgraceful page in our history.

"At this moment, when the delegates to this convention are about to enter upon their formal proceedings we pause to send you an expression of cheer, of admiration and of congratulation.

"We rejoice and felicitate you upon your speedy recovery from your recent illness and congratulate America that though temporarily broken in body that you have been able with unclouded vision and undaunted courage to press on for the great reforms which you have fathered for the preservation of peace throughout the world in the interest of humanity and the advancement of civilization. Long may you live to serve America and the world."

HOSPITALS THREATENED BY SHORTAGE OF NURSES

Institutions May Be Forced to Curtail Operations Unless Remedy is Found

BUFFALO, (AP)—Unless some remedy is found for the acute shortage of nurses, many hospitals of the country will be compelled to curtail their operations, asserts Mrs. Annie L. Hanson, superintendent of the Buffalo District Nursing association, in her annual report. A recent campaign to induce more young women to take up the profession of nursing was a failure, Mrs. Hanson said, and as a result one Buffalo institution was compelled to close one of its departments.

"Hospital training schools of the United States have reached a high state of efficiency and new hospitals and new systems for nursing the sick in their homes are arising everywhere," Mrs. Hanson said, "but the necessary pupils fail to appear. The country needs another Florence Nightingale."

CHOW LATE AND GOLD F SCORE RUNS TOO HIGH

Fans Complain at High Counts Because It Makes "Old Lady" Peevish

By I. E. SANDORF.

Coincident with the increased action in baseball games, this year has reappeared the old problem of cutting out delays. In recent years when the pitchers as a rule dominated the sport, the games have been of about the right length to suit the demands of the average fan who likes to please friend and foe by getting home in time for dinner. With low scores in the great majority of the games few of them lasted over two hours in spite of dilatory tactics by the players.

This year with the barmen coming back into the arena and the scores running close to double figures quite often one sees dozens of fans slipping out of the ball yards before the games are over even if the score is high. They can wait for the finish without eating cold stuff for dinner and perhaps have to get it themselves out of the ice box.

Two Hours About Right.

One hour and a half is about the "tired business man," or the retired laborer, wants to sit in a ball park unless there is some unusual attraction. It is that dark town where the promoters aim. They are not keeping inside of it this year because the players have become so accustomed to stalling that it is difficult to make them cut it out.

There are simple ways to keep the action more continuous than it is. One of them, in the National league particularly, is to enforce the rule that compels the next batsman to be prepared to step to the plate as soon as the man who is batting is disposed of or gets on base. Some teams in the league make a practice of waiting until the batsman at the plate is out or reaches first before the game starts from the bench. This is not true of all teams.

Managers at Fault.

The reason assigned is that the manager wants to tell each batsman what to do, and can't do definitely until he sees what the situation is when a batsman goes to the plate. It is true many ball players have come to depend so completely on the brains of their managers that they have to be told as a rule just what to do, but even the modern brand of player ought to have brains enough to master a simple set of signs by which the manager could tell him what to do without having to spell it out in simple language.

You don't see Fred Mitchell of the Cubs going into executive session with every batsman in turn, yet he conveys his orders when necessary by simpler signs.

In the American league this sign language is compulsory as the umpires are much more strict in compelling the batsman who is "on deck" to be out near the plate ready to go into action as soon as it is his turn.

Another Stalling Method.

There is another method of stalling that could be cut out very easily if the umpires would enforce a rule compelling the batsman to remain in his box once he takes his position at the plate except in case of accident. At present the batsman is allowed to leave his box as often as he wants to, and almost all of them make a practice of delaying action unnecessarily.

It is against all tradition in baseball to permit that. In the early days of the sport the batsman stepped out of his box at his peril for the pitcher was allowed to deliver the ball and strike a batsman out during the latter's absence. Then umpires began permitting batsmen to leave the box if they lost their bats and restrained pitchers from taking advantage of a batsman who fell down dodging a new ball pitched.

New Believed Privilege.

That gradually resulted in the present belief that the batsman is privileged to stop the game any time he wants to and without any known reason. Baseball traditions are based on cricket and you probably know what would happen to a wicket if the man defending it stepped away to scold an umpire.

IMMIGRATION AT LOW EBB

New York Falls to Retain Much of Incoming Foreign Tide

NEW YORK (AP)—Marked deflection of immigration from New York city to inland centers during the last year is given by immigration officials at Ellis Island as one explanation for the fact that this city's population was shown by the 1920 census to be only 5,821,121, instead of the 6,100,000 expected.

Rowe, official money changer for incoming aliens, asserted that money exchanged for immigrants whose destination is New York city does not amount to one-hundredth part of the amount exchanged for those giving other points as their destination.

"In former years," said Mr. Rowe, "immigrants poured into New York city by the hundreds of thousands. They are now going to manufacturing centers such as Pittsburgh, Detroit and Akron, O., or to the coal and iron mining regions. We are exchanging a hundred times more money for aliens in transit than for those coming to New York city."

WILL MAKE AMMONIA FROM NITROGEN OF ATMOSPHERE

LONDON, (AP)—A syndicate has been formed to establish a nitrogen factory for the manufacture of ammonia synthetically, from the nitrogen of the air, says the American Chamber of Commerce in London. The syndicate has purchased the extensive site in County Durham which the British government acquired more than two years ago for the purpose of building a factory. The capital required will be 5,000,000 pounds sterling.

The process to be adopted, says the American chamber, will be on the principle of the German chemist, Haber. Nitrogen and hydrogen will be combined into ammonia, then being converted into nitric acid, or other nitrates as may be required either for the manufacture of explosives or for use as fertilizers.

TRAVELED OVER ALL THE WORLD

But Tanlac Helped Him More Than Treatments Here, Europe and South America

"I have been treated for indigestion in France, Italy, Switzerland, North and South America and in fact all over the world, but Tanlac is the only thing I have ever found to do me much good."

Mr. H. L. Flaniger, watch maker for Nathan Dohrmann & Co., San Francisco, Cal., living at 38 Flato at.

"Always after eating," continued Mr. Flaniger, "I would have such cramps in my stomach that I could hardly stand it. I had taken all sorts of medicine but nothing helped me. I weighed only ninety-eight pounds and was so nervous the least little thing would upset me. I could sleep but little and got up in the morning feeling all fagged out. My strength and energy left me and I felt like I would have to give up entirely. Besides taking everything in the way of treatment and medicines I tried dieting and the rest cure, but never got more than a little passing relief."

"The way Tanlac brought me out is marvelous. I can eat anything now without any trouble afterwards, I have gained twenty pounds and my nerves are steady as a clock. I sleep fine every night and get up in the morning ready for a good breakfast and a full day's work, and am enjoying better health than I have in years."

Tanlac is sold in Twin Falls by City Pharmacy and by the leading druggists everywhere.—adv.

RUMANIA BEING SWEET BY WAVE OF SPECULATION

Necessity for Importation of All Manufactured Goods the Primary Cause for Higher Price of Necessities

BUCHAREST, (AP)—Rumania is being swept with a vast wave of speculation, the object of which is to convert the high cost of living, which hampers the richest and poorest alike. The primary cause of the advanced price of necessities is found in the fact that all manufactured products have to be imported whereas there is sufficient amount of food grown in the country to support the population and this food has not risen in proportion of dress goods.

The wealthy women of this country make bi-annual trips to Paris and return with their trunks filled with shoes and silk stockings and dresses of the latest fashions, which they bring into the country despite the prohibition against the importation of such articles and also a twenty-five per cent customs duty which is paid when special permission is obtained to bring in goods. When such permission is not obtained, the goods are smuggled in automobiles over the frontier.

Princess Elizabeth went to Paris last winter and bought herself three huge trunks full of new clothes, but she was home heart-broken. While passing through Jugo-Slavia during the customs examination, the trunks were stolen. The American Red-Cross has contributed to the clothing of a good many thousands of people in Rumania. Some of this clothing found its way to the shops. It is not uncommon to find women who have converted American army shirts into skirts, first dying them another color. Blankets have also been used for the making of cloaks and overcoats.

The American shoe is practically the only article to be found in the shops. These shoes sell at a price of $4 to $6, cheaper than in the United States. The prices of clothing have been increased about tenfold, as compared before the war. Women's dresses which formerly cost 200 lei or about $35, now cost 2,000 lei.

The actors and actresses are still undisciplined. Rumania's greatest comedienne, Mme. Marie Giurgiu, receives 3,000 lei per month, or half the price of an expensive dress. Music hall artists receive 20 to 50 lei a night. It is difficult for them to live and dress themselves well, as they have no means of making money in side lines, such as in the moving picture industry, which has not yet been developed in Rumania.

Cabinet members are practically the only ones who have not had their salaries raised. They still receive the equivalent of about $200 a year. The former minister of the interior, Nicholas Lupu, was nearly bankrupted on one occasion when he was compelled to buy a silk hat to appear at a royal ceremony.

Republican Policies Raked by Bourbon Chairman's Fire

Senator Robinson in Speech at Convention, Assails Opposition for Its Platform, Expenditure of Money in Pre-Convention Contests and Particularly Attacks Solons who Fought Ratification of Peace Treaty with League of Nations Covenant

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Senator Robinson of Arkansas, permanent chairman of the democratic national convention, in his speech today assailed the republican party for its Chicago platform, for the disclosure of large sums of money in pre-convention contests, and particularly attacked the republican senators who fought the ratification of the peace treaty with the league of nations covenant.

Predicts Democratic Landslide.
"I predict by every standard which voters usually apply," said he, "the democratic party is entitled to victory in the coming campaign. Comparison of the democratic and republican records, contrasts of political policies and of party leadership justifies the belief that the republican party will be driven from power in both branches of congress and that complete control of the government will be restored to the democratic party in the November elections, because that party has earned the public confidence."

"The republican platform adopted at Chicago is an amazing jumble of ambiguities, inconsistencies, evasions, misrepresentations, 'straddles' and 'slanders.' It is deliberately unfair in charging upon the democratic administration all responsibility for military unpreparedness. Everyone knows that the republican party controlled the government for a long period prior to the inauguration of President Wilson. When the democratic party went into power March 4, 1913, both the army and the navy were in a state of authorized unpreparedness. If criticism of the pre-war national policy as to military preparedness is justified, the course must fall upon the republican party."

Gals Tax Plank Insincere.
"The plank in the republican platform respecting taxation is manifestly insincere. They promised no substantial relief from the crushing tax burdens necessarily imposed during the war. There are many vexatious taxes that should be repealed now that the war is over. The big jobs in the amazing document in the plank in the republican platform concerning profiteering."

"We condemn the democratic administration for failure impartially to enforce the anti-profiteering laws enacted by the republican party. This absurd pretense that the republican congress enacted no anti-profiteering laws. The amendments to the food control act were suggested by the president and supported by the democrats in congress. The president recommended for additional measures to prevent and penalize profiteering."

"All these measures were pigeon-holed. Nothing was proposed by the republican in place of them. In the democratic administration to be denounced for failing to enforce measures which the republicans refused to pass."

Significant Omission.
"Perhaps the most significant omission from the republican platform is in respect to the excessive use of money in federal elections. In spite of the general indignation aroused by the expenditure of more than one million and one-half dollars in behalf of Governor Lowden and the nomination of a weak horse as the result, no mention of the subject is found in the Chicago platform. The November elections however, will demonstrate the fact that the republican party can be auctioned for the sake of power. It has been said that partisanship ceases at the water's edge. The political record of the last few months bears this declaration. The republican party in the senate and in its recent convention presents to the world the humiliating spectacle of discordant and conflicting factions seeking to discredit the president in his efforts to maintain the respect and confidence of our allies. The Chicago platform declares that the policy of the Wilson administration towards Mexico is responsible for the loss of lives and property resulting to American citizens in Mexico. Nevertheless, the provisions of that platform regarding Mexico are ambiguous and indefinite. Does the plank in the republican platform on Mexico mean that if the property or lives of American citizens in Mexico are hereafter endangered this government will make war on Mexico and establish a protectorate? A protectorate? Why was the convention not frank enough to announce a definite policy? Why was its meaning concealed in a multiplicity of ambiguous words?

Armenian Mandate.
"The president is condemned for asking authority of congress to extend a mandate for Armenia. It has never been contemplated by any one that the United States should assume that responsibility without first prescribing the terms and conditions of the mandate. It would not be difficult for the United States to so safeguard its responsibilities as to proceed with the United States of England, France, Italy and Japan, as well as every other member of the league. The mandate may readily be made self-sustaining. Why then should the president's request be treated as audacious? The republican party would deny any encouragement or assistance to Armenia and would force a protectorate on Mexico. They are deaf to the appeal of the oppressed but they are also they are sensitive to the call of wealth. They are unwilling to incur expense or danger to protect millions of God-fearing Christians from massacre, but they are anxious to invade a foreign land for the protection of property rights."

"Great republican leaders including Mr. Lodge and Mr. Roosevelt, in public addresses prior to the war, championed the establishment of a league of nations. They then stood aside and watched with irresistible logic the arguments they now advance against the league."

League's Enemies Control.
"The plain fact is that the enemies of the league dictated the policy of the majority in the senate and controlled the platform declaration at Chicago. While the league plank in the Chicago platform is full of ambiguities, it is an endorsement of the positions of the irreconcilables and a repudiation of the Lodge reservations. The league plank is a willful device. The convention should have displayed the courage clearly to declare its policy, but the Chicago convention was frank on only one subject, in singing a hymn of hate for the president."

"The chief issue is whether the United States shall contract with other nations to prevent unnecessary wars; whether the waste and sacrifices of unjustifiable conflicts shall be superseded by orderly tribunals for the settlement of disputes among nations. If the republicans win, the small nations which obtain their independence through association in the war with the allies will be overcome by their recent enemies and Europe quickly will collapse into its pre-war condition of oppression and threat of anarchy. Our country will leave the distrust and contempt of her former allies and our people will earn a reputation for selfishness and irresponsibility which will require centuries to counteract."

Heritage of Bloodshed.
"If this war ends and the allies go their separate ways without substituting justice for force in the settlement of international disputes, the generations to come will be born to a heritage of waste and bloodshed. The world wants and must have some substantial advice, some compensation for what it lost and suffered in the war. If the delegates in this convention do their duty as our soldiers have done theirs the voters of the nation will not fail them. If we make this issue boldly we will win."

"With the women of America who gave their men to our uniform prove indifferent to the cause of forever ren-

Theatres

IDAHO.
A new type of screen "vampire" is introduced in the new Thomas It. Ice production, "Dangerous Hours," which is now at the Idaho theater.

The movie public is told the "tiger lady" who lures more men in an atmosphere of soft draperies, leopard skin rugs, and perfumed cigarettes. But the latest Ice "vampire" works amid the most world atmosphere—cheap boarding houses and underground dens. Moreover, she is heart and soul for the Bolshevik cause and people who imagine that all Reds are long-bearded, hawk-nosed villains like Trotsky and Lenin will have a pleasant awakening when they see this radiant creature.

Seriously, "Dangerous Hours" is declared to be a thrilling love story, filled with spectacular scenes and with the underlying theme of the current radical current. It is a Paramount Aircraft picture directed by Fred Niblo.

He Passed.

"At one of our examinations," says a member of the faculty of a western university, "a nervous student had been instructed to write out examples of the indicative, subjunctive, potential and exclamatory moods. His efforts resulted as follows: 'I am endeavoring to pass an English examination. If I answer 20 questions, I shall pass. If I answer 12, I may pass. God help me!'—Harper's Magazine.

Why That Headache?
When you know the cause of a case a cure may often be effected. This is particularly true of headache. Headache often results from constipation of a disordered condition of the stomach, which may be corrected by taking a dose or two of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. These tablets are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.—adv.

GENUINE FIGHT OVER PLATFORM IN COMMITTEE

Bryan, Excluded from Personnel of Plank Writers, Declines to Submit His Proposals on Pet Measures

the commission would be blinding on either side but would be a guide to public opinion.

At the beginning of the public hearings a plan for enforcement of the citizens of the District of Columbia was made by commercial and civic associations.

Gompers Presents Petitions

Presenting the petitions of the American Federation of Labor, Mr. Gompers said his program was designed to aid all wage earners, organized or unorganized. He told the committee that unless the democrats took a progressive attitude they could not hope "to compete with a party that has written 'reaction' across its banners."

"The republican party," said Mr.
Gompers, "formulated a declaration so lacking in principles of progress and safety that there must be some avenue in which the latent unrest among our people can find its expression and enforcement."

"Already the enemies of labor and the enemies of the democratic party are spreading an insidious propaganda according to assume that we are coming here to hold a gun at your heads. But we do not come in a spirit of compulsion, but as your fellow citizens asking for a declaration of progressive human rights."

Lauds Keynote Speech

In the main, Mr. Gompers said, the proposals submitted by labor were the same as those written into the democratic platform of 1908, 1912 and 1916.
He paid tribute to President Wilson and declared the keynote address of Chairman Cummings at the opening of the convention yesterday was one of the most masterful in recent American politics.

"There was not a sentence in that keynote," the labor leader said, "which could be objected to by any red blooded American."

The federation's plank as read to the committee by Vice-President Matthew Woll was the same as that presented to the republican platform committee at Chicago. It provided for full protection of wage earners to organize and bargain collectively, declared against anti-strike legislation and "unwarrantable" injunctions and proposed guarantees for free speech, adequate propriety, a curb on profiteering, prohibition of child labor and enforcement of the eight hour day.

Court injunctions, Mr. Gompers declared, had annulled provisions of the Clayton anti-trust law protecting labor.

"Labor is practically in the condition as before its enactment," he asserted, declaring courts had required men to do things they had no right to do. The labor hearings were closed with Mr.
Gompers' address.

State Senator Nelson of Utah presented a number of demands, backed, he said, by the "radicals" of the democratic party. He assailed Attorney General Palmer for abuse of the laws guaranteeing freedom of speech and the press. Applause greeted a statement that prohibition was not a political issue and should be barred from the platform. He also urged government ownership and operation of railroads, other public utilities and natural resources.

Asked if the federation's program provided for the right of the government employees to strike, Mr. Woll said:
"We favor the right of public employees to organize and to have their grievances considered for adjudication, but we do not advocate their right to strike."

HARDING BACK AT OFFICE

Republican Presidential Nominee Returns after Week End of Rest.

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Senator Harding, republican presidential nominee, was back at his office today after a week end rest in New Jersey. During the day the candidate made a pho-nographic record on Americanism to be used for campaign purposes and posed for moving pictures.

Stanley H. Howe of New York, director of the national budget committee, one of the visitors today told the senator that the committee was preparing a bill to substitute for the measure recently voted by President Wilson. It will provide, he said, for a reorganization of the multiplicity of government bureaus.

"You have a considerable job on your hands," said Senator Harding. "Economy, as you know, is a part of my program."

Edward M. Martin of Woodfield, O., official tally clerk of the republican national convention, presented the nominee with the original tally sheet of the tenth ballot on which the senator was nominated.

OHIO REPUBLICANS MEET

COLUMBUS, O., (AP)—Ohio republicans were to meet in state convention to adopt a platform and nominate presidential electors to be voted upon at the November election.

SHAMROCK SHOWS HERE

SANDY HOOK, (AP)—Shamrock IV which will meet Resolute for the America's cup off Sandy Hook next month, today defeated her trial horse, the 23-meter Shamrock-by three minutes and seven seconds in a 15 1-2 mile race.

MOTHER GRAY FOX.

"I can't understand these creatures," said Mother Gray Fox, "who will not be good to their children; like the snakes, for example."

"Angry."

"I cannot understand it either,"
said Grandmother Gray Fox.
"Of course, you take after me, and I take after other gray foxes. The whole family has always cared for their children,
and we cannot see how some creatures can be heartless."

"The fox family is part of the dog family, a nice family. It's true we hunt and we go after poultry and we're very fond of chicken dinners. But then aren't people pretty fond of chicken dinners?
Of course they are; so they shouldn't scold us for liking them."

"Of course they shouldn't," said Mother Gray Fox. "For they would find us as nice and sensible and sociable and they really should ask us to their chicken dinners."

"I don't believe though," said Grandmother Fox with a sly smile, "that they ever will. They don't care to have us like chicken dinners. They're a bit snobbish about their chickens and their chicken dinners."

"I should say so," said Mother Gray Fox. "They are angry when we get their chicken. Very angry, indeed.
They go after us then if they get the chance."

"It is true," said Grandmother Gray Fox, "that we do not feed the chickens first as they do. They're kind to them in the first place."

"I don't know that I think it is so kind," said Mother Gray Fox. "For they only feed them so they'll be nice and plump when they eat them."

"Oh, well," said Grandmother Gray Fox, "I suppose the chickens like people better than us, for people treat them nicely when they are alive and if they're not alive they don't care so much, if they care at all, which, come to think of it, they don't."

"Dear me," said Mother Gray Fox.
"I thought you never were going to finish that sentence."

"I wasn't so sure about finishing it myself," said Grandmother Gray Fox.
"We not only like chickens," said Mother Gray Fox, "but we like big juicy insects and bugs. We polish nice and think that rabbits and squirrels and birds are all very good."

"Well," said Grandmother Gray Fox.
"People don't make them chicken dinners. They eat other dishes, too."

"Ah, but they're not ahead of us there," said Mother Gray Fox.
They both stayed still for awhile, thinking and not speaking, and after a time Grandmother Gray Fox looked at Mother Gray Fox and said, "What are you thinking about?"

"I'm thinking of the three or four or five little ones who will come in the springtime. They will be so young and so helpless and they will need their mother so. They will be quite blind and they will be little blackish creatures—they won't be gray until they're older."

"They'll be born with the wonderful power to smell dangers and comforts, but even though they will have the sense of smell they will be very helpless."

"Ah, how I will watch over them and love them! I will do everything in the world for them and they will come to me in my cave den, which is now ready for them."

"You're just like all the foxes," said Grandmother
er Gray Fox.
"We're all devoted to our young and we watch over them
so carefully and see that no harm
comes to them.
They're such helpless little blind creatures
when they're born and they make them strong and teach them how to look after themselves, but for a long, long time we watch them. I remember when you were a little helpless thing, my daughter."

"And because you were so good to me and taught me what a wonderful thing it was to have a mother, so I will try to give my little ones the same happiness and then they will want to care for their children in turn.
So that foxes will be good to their young because they come by it naturally, from mother to daughter, from daughter to child."

Today's Markets

NEW YORK, (AP)—Trading on the stock exchange today was the smallest in volume since December of 1918. The movements of leaders were in keeping with this excessive dullness. Sales approximated 255,000 shares.

Trading at the outset of today's stock market indicated a continuance of recent excessively dull and featureless sessions. With the exception of Consolidated Gas which gained 1-4 points on a favorable legal decision and the further decline of 1-2 points in Barrett, advances and declines; the market was dominated by moderate further sagging and withdrawal of funds from local banks today and tomorrow to meet federal payments is expected to find reflection in the firmer money tendencies.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Opening corn prices, which ranged from 3-8 to 3-12 1/2 lower with July $1.75 3-4 to 1-7 1/4 and September $1.77 3-4 to 1-7 1/2, were followed by moderate further sagging and then by something of a rally.

Corn prices closed unsettled, 1-2 to 1-7 1/2 net lower with July $1.75 7-8 to 1-7 1/8 and September $1.71 to $1.71 1-4.

After opening 5-8 to 1-1 1/2 lower, including September at 87 1-2 to 87 3-4, oats underwent a moderate further sag before beginning to react.

Provisions were firm with hogs.

Peculiar Wedding Ceremony

One of the most curious wedding ceremonies in the world is that in-vogue among a certain race of dwarfs inhabiting the Annam Islands. The two parties climb two flexible trees growing near each other, which an old man then makes bend toward each other. When the head of the man touches that of the girl, they are legally married.

ANTI-LIQUOR SPEECH JULY 8

Pussyfoot Johnson Will Make Trip to Twin Falls by Air- plane—Side Trip

At the Laving theatre of the morning of July 6, Pussyfoot Johnson, world-renowned advocate of and worker for prohibition of intoxicating liquor as a beverage, will address a Twin Falls audience at 10:30 o'clock.

Johnson, appearing in the interest of permanent national prohibition, is making a tour of the country, stopping only as a rule, at towns of 100,000 population. Twin Falls, in this respect, has been highly favored, and will be made the object of a special side trip by the great anti-liquor figure of America. He will come here by airplane and will leave Twin Falls at the conclusion of his address and reception, by the same mode of passenger.

The Furbert-Barker Aircraft Corporation of Gooding, will bring "Pussyfoot" Johnson to Twin Falls on July 6. The plane is a biplane, carrying 10 passengers and $600 deposited with the secretary of the chamber of commerce. This money will be paid over on the safe arrival of Mr. Johnson.

The airplane will go to Granger, Wyo., on the afternoon of July 5 and await the Denver train, which arrives there daybreak. Mr. Johnson will leave Granger at his breakfast in Twin Falls. A big meeting will be held in the Laving theatre during the day and then "Pussyfoot" will take the aerial car to Gooding where he will catch the same train he left in the morning.

This will be Mr. Johnson's first ride in an airplane, and he is expected to take photographs of Mr. Johnson while in the air. The Dry League will feature this ride all over the world. Arrangements have been made for him to take photographs of Mr. Johnson while in the air. The Dry League will feature this ride all over the world. Expenses of the airplane trip have been guaranteed by a coteries of business men of this city.

UNCERTAINTY OBSCURES PROSPECT FOR FIGHTS ON CONVENTION FLOOR

Convention Unready.

One o'clock, the assembling hour, came and passed, and the convention was not ready for business. Delegates were arriving rapidly, however, and the galleries were better filled, and then yesterday afternoon, delegates and managers were busy in the upper rooms of the big building working with the committees.

The band and pipe organ filled in the time and the song leaders got into action to amuse the gathering crowd. Popular airs sprinkled with patriotic airs and invariably winding up with "Dixie" never failed to bring out the inevitable rebel yell from the southern delegates. The platform too was slow in filling with the usual notable. With some of the delegates they had been cruising around San Francisco as guests of the city and were slow getting back.

Yells for Palmer and Cox.

Fifteen minutes more and the convention gave no more signs of being ready to start up. Delegates, however, the noise, chatting and laughing, and applauding the efforts of the singers and the musicians. Today's session was expected to be a time when they would carry the convention further ahead. The convention managers wanted plenty of time for the committee workers. There were neither yells for Palmer and Cox from various corners as rosters got into position loaded with pennants and flags.

The probabilities of a fight over the report of the election committee which had voted not to seat Senator Reed as a delegate from Missouri diminished with reports that Reed would not be seated. The Reed case was the only ripple in sight on the smooth waters of the convention and its decision not to carry the controversy further robbed the day of its only prospect of excitement.

Administration Forces Press Home Victories

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—After a night of successes in the formation of committees, administration forces in control of the democratic national convention pressed home their victories today when the delegates gathered for the second session.

Whether a combination of the opposition forces can be accomplished to stem the tide of the success of the administration men was not revealed. With the situation apparently well in hand, close observers of convention developments would not be surprised to see the next move to be a definite trend toward some particular candidate for the presidential nomination.

While administration forces have worked in concert to control the machinery of the convention, there is no assurance that the community of interest among them will continue when the balloting has reached the end of the preliminary stage of complimentary voting. There are many who believe there will be no definite drift of presidential sentiment until after the platform has been adopted and the candidates fully know upon what character of party principles they are expected to stand. There was no surface indication when the convention met in the relative standing of the presidential candidates.

Platform Makers Busy.

The full committee on platform occupied the hours before the opening of the convention, which was set for 1 p.

in, in giving hearings to various interests that had plans to offer for the platform. The subcommittee meanwhile remained inactive.

The committee on rules also met early and threatened the unit rule question, an effort being made to adopt some regulation that would not come in conflict with state primary laws.

Unit Rule Question Committee's Problem

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The committee on rules of the democratic national convention tackled again today the knotty question of whether a state delegation could be bound by the unit rule. The New York delegation came to the convention with its 90 votes bound by such a rule passed at a state convention. The committee on rules of its members, who are renewing their fight here against the rule.

The question came up on a motion to adopt the rule under which the convention of 1912 operated, placing all states under the unit rule, except those in which there is a statutory statute providing for the nomination and election of delegates in congressional districts are contending for the right to act independently of the delegation as a body.

Committee Gives Aid to Administration

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Administration supporters strengthened the hold on the democratic national convention through the action of the credentials committee which decided three hotly fought contests. One of these was the denial of a seat in the convention to Senator Reed of Missouri.

The credentials committee, however, overruled the national committee in the Oregon case where it had rejected Turner and John MacSwyngham giving each one-half a vote. Turner, who was selected by the Oregon state committee to fill a vacancy caused by the death of George T. Baldwin, was forced to yield half of his vote to Schuylerman, described as a strong administration supporter. Schuylerman claimed a seat on the ground that he was the next highest man in the primary having fifth in the race for the four places.

M'Adoo Headquarters at Convention Opened

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Such headquarters as William G. McAdoo will have at the convention were opened here today. Delegates of three rooms rented by personal friends of McAdoo, and are to be used solely for conference. No one is in charge of the McAdoo headquarters, although it is being planned. Conference nights, perhaps, will be held by McAdoo's supporters during the remainder of the convention.

No claims are being advanced by the McAdoo supporters as to the votes on the first or subsequent ballots. Reports made by men on different state delegations, however, claim anywhere from 250 to 350. These figures represent the minimum and maximum reports.

GERMAN SHIPPING MEN VISITORS IN NEW YORK

Arrival of Heineken and Others Strengthens Reports of American Activities Abroad

NEW YORK, (AP)—Arrival here today of Director General Philip Heineken of the North German-Lloyd Steamship company, with other directors and assistants gave significance to reports that American interests in the near future are to have a big hand in Germany's former great sea transportation line and routes.

Heineken refused to discuss the immediate object of his visit but an important conference is looked for in view of the recent announcement by the United States Mail Steamship company that the shipping board allocated to Germany German steamships that was negotiating with the North German-Lloyd for use of its Bremen terminals.

A representative of the shipping board and the director of the North German-Lloyd here met Heineken and his party. In connection with the arrival of the Heineken group, it was pointed out that the American ship and commerce navigation corporation, control of which was acquired by the Harriman interests here, recently asserted it had entered into contract with the Hamburg-American line for operation of its trade routes through the world.

Sure-Footed Goral.

Among the strange animals that came under the observation of Roy Andrews, who conducted an expedition into farther China for the American Museum of Natural History, was the goral, a mountain goat. "It was seen a goral," says the explorer, "run at full speed down the side of a cliff that appeared to be almost perpendicular."

Probate Judge of Twin Falls County whose nomination for re-election, subject to the Republican Primary election, was filed today.

O. P. DUVAL WOULD SUCCEED HIMSELF

Probate Judge Will Ask Nomination for Re-Election on G. O. P. Ticket

Oliver P. Duvall is to be a candidate to succeed himself for the office of probate judge of Twin Falls county. Judge Duvall filed nomination papers today. He will go before the county convention for nomination on the republican ticket.

Claude Stewart, another republican, has intimated a desire for public office and will try for nomination for the office of county assessor.

Two delegates filed nomination papers this morning. One of these was Guy L. Kinney, for office of county attorney, and George M. Deering, for constable.

LOSE RANKS TEMPORARILY

March, Liggett and Bullard Wait Two Days for Return to Higher Place

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Formal announcement of the discharge from their temporary war ranks of General Peyton G. March, chief of staff, and Lieutenant General Hunter Liggett and Robert L. Bullard, was made today by the war department. They will return to their permanent rank of major generals on the regular army lists on July 1.

Generals Liggett and Bullard went to France as division commanders and later were promoted to the command of army corps.

A CAMPAIGN OF ISSUES

The unanimity with which the Harding nomination is being acclaimed angels will for the success of the campaign. Prior to the convention individual preferences were divided among many candidates but it is apparent that since the contest is over, all who believe in Republican principles are getting behind the nominee. Although the campaign will be fought chiefly on issues, yet the personality of the Republican nominee is such as to bring enormous strength to the cause. The nature of the man will make him as popular with the great masses of the people as he has always been among his neighbors in his home town and state.

The first act of the Republican convention was to adopt a declaration of principles by which its subsequently chosen candidate would be bound. Its next duty was to select as head of the ticket a man of unquestioned integrity, fearless courage, and dauntless energy to make those principles a part of our government. That man they found in Senator Harding. No man, whatever his political faith, will question for a moment that Senator Harding is amply qualified to realize the program of reformation and reconstruction that his party has laid out for him. Criticism, attack, or his candidacy must be an obstacle to that program. And, conversely, support of his candidacy must involve primarily the vigorous presentation of its policies before the people.

In a campaign of that sort the Republicans will have a tremendous advantage over their Democratic opponents. For the last seven years the government has revolved around the personality in the White House. Democratic pre-election promises, constitutional limitations upon executive authority and established precedents have all been given way before the imperious dictum of the executive autocrat. His re-election in 1916 was accomplished by continually impressing upon the people that the salvation of the nation depended upon keeping Woodrow Wilson in the White House. Issues played little part in that campaign; in fact, the Democratic text book was adorned with a picture of the President, with the words
"Thank God for Wilson."

The Democrats will be forced to conduct the 1920 campaign along similar lines. Every plank of their 1916 platform was a mass of splinters. If a platform were to be constructed it would,
of necessity have to follow much the same lines as that of four years ago.
And if it were not before the people in a plea for their votes it would imply a repudiation of the man who has not hesitated to alter his declaration to suit the exigency of the moment. Democracy and Wilsonism are totally at variance, and one or the other must be chosen. Wilsonism will be the watchword and the campaign will be waged on what has been done by Wilson rather than what has been accomplished through adherence to the principles of democracy.

The voters will not be slow to discern the radical difference in the two contests. Neither will they hesitate to make their choice between them. For seven years they have been forced to bear the burden of a government by men, and they know what it means and the costs that it involves. They will welcome the opportunity to substitute for it a government of laws, administered with impartiality and thoroughness. They see in Senator Harding, as exemplified by his long service as a legislator and executive in both state and national affairs, the man who will vi-talize the issues of the republican platform and bring to the nation the sort of government it must have to survive.

MILLER IS INDISPENSIBLE

There are two outstanding reasons why Twin Falls county can ill afford to spare Carl J. Miller of Castelford, as a member of its delegation to the next session of the Idaho House of Representatives.

In the first place, Mr. Miller's record as a legislator made in discharge of his officials as one of Twin Falls county's representatives sent to Boise two years ago, is one on which he is entitled to stand with assurance that the electorate of the county is so appreciative of faithful service that it will reward its servant with further political preferment.

And in the second place, Mr. Miller is the only available candidate for re-election with legislative experience gained in the last session of the state legislature. Twin Falls county cannot afford to assume the handicap of sending an inexperienced delegation to Boise this year; nor to overlook the advantages certain to result to the county in consequence of Mr. Miller's heightened ability to work during his second term in the legislature for the betterment of the state at large and of Twin Falls county in particular.

Mr. Miller is reluctant to ask further favors at the hands of the county's electorate. He will not make the race for re-election unless he is persuaded that the people claim such service from him.
Enlightened self-interest of the county, it is thought, should dictate publicly insistence that Mr. Miller forego his personal inclination and once again place himself at the service of the county and its people.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

Twin Falls county, in the judgment of The News, cannot do better than to send to Boise next fall as one of her representatives in the lower house of the state legislature, Hal G. Blue, superintendent of Twin Falls public schools.
As a schoolman, Mr. Blue has gained a reputation and a standing that is more than state-wide and firmly established. In the discharge of his official duties, Mr. Blue has for several years exercised the management of one of the most important phases of the public's business, and he has done his work in a manner above reproach.

But in addition to his attainments in his own chosen field of endeavor, Mr.
Blue has proven himself a broad-gauge, public-spirited citizen, one who is invariably foremost in any undertaking looking toward the betterment of the community in which he lives and serves and for the country and its people at large.

Mr. Blue has lived and worked here long enough so that he has gained an intimate familiarity with the problems and needs of this district and of Twin Falls county in particular. Furthermore, he is eminently qualified to assist in the solution of these problems and meeting of these needs, in the capacity of a member of the state legislature.

Mr. Blue has not been consulted as to whether or not he will make the political race suggested; but his record of public service here is one to convince his friends that if persuaded of the desirability of further extension of his sphere of service, he will not decline.

The News takes profound pleasure in proposing for a member of Twin Falls county's next delegation to the Idaho House of Representatives, Hal G. Blue of Twin Falls.

THE ARCTIC TERN

Although the golden plover makes a longer continuous flight than any other bird, the Arctic tern travels farther, breeding far North. It winters on the edge of the antarctic continent, 11,000 miles away. Incidentally, it enjoys more hours of sunlight in a year than any other living creature.

Work Hard and Avoid Worry.
It is not work that kills men; it is worry. Worry is healthier; you can hardly put more than a man than can bear. Worry is rust upon the blade. It is not the revolution that destroys the machinery, but the friction.

Ever Hear of Air Flight?
An air flying tribe of Igorite recently was discovered north of Manila by a hiking detachment of United States marines. They fly queer-looking kites, with baited kites at the end of the tails every evening about dusk.
They dash for bats in the air.

You may know certain stores well-used lines of goods. And yet you must know your acquaintance with them continually if you would keep in touch with the buying opportunities they offer you. You should visit the stores as often as you can—for your pleasure and profit. And you should read their ads all the time. For it is only through his advertising that the merchant may keep his customers posted, that he may give them quickly all the good news that there is.

BEFORE THEY GROW BIG and annoying, classified advertising will solve your little worries. If you find it to your immediate interest to sell property, classified advertising will enable you to cut out the worry which long delay might occasion for you.

Young Secretary to Lloyd George Looming as New Power in Britain

Sir Philip Sassoon, M. P., who, a few months ago, when he was selected by Premier Lloyd George to act as his chief private secretary, was unhappily in British political circles today stands as one of the most prominent officials of the Coalition Government. His great wealth, his aptitude for statecraft, and his great diplomatic ability prevent him from being an embryonic premier of Great Britain. Sassoon is thirty-one years old and is a Jew. His father, Edward Sassoon, was known universally as "the friend of King Edward." A brilliant future is predicted for Sir Philip, who in a few months has become the leading figure in British politics.

ROBBER BANDS INFEST CHINA'S TRADE ROUTESExtent and Flagrance of Outlaws' Depredations Occasions Appeal for Use of Troops to Combat Menace

CHENGTEU, China, (AP)—Depredations of robber bands along trade routes in Szechuen province have become so flagrant and widespread that urgent appeals for the use of troops to combat the menace have been sent to the Chinese provincial authorities by foreign firms operating in Szechuen. The bands of robbers are said to be made up of large extent of groups of deserters from troops that have been stationed in Szechuen. The outlaws have become so bold that mail consignments, hitherto immune from them, have been seized.

One recent report that was brought to Chengteu was of the robbery of a mail train on the "big road," which is the main highway between Chungking and Chengteu. In this 40 bags of mail were opened and rifled by the outlaws and "the whole hillside was covered with stolen mail."

In another case a caravan had been held up and robbed by a band of bandits when a second stronger band of brigands appeared and compelled the return of the stolen goods. The leader of the snar band was then shot. The chiefdom who did this declared that he had guaranteed the safe passage of this particular caravan, having received a large bribe for the occasion.

The activities of the bandits are felt as much by the individual as by the large commercial interests in the opinion of one Chengteu mission worker who said:

"It is a grievous hardship to send to

THE UNEXPECTED GUEST

Two frequently read of the capable and systematic housewife who, having an unexpected group of friends drop in, goes to her ice chest or pantry and greets a cold fowl, a bunch of celery, a bunch of carrots, a bunch of radishes, which she quickly prepares into a most delectable salad. With rolls, cake, coffee and preserves she bids her guests a most dainty luncheon.

This ready-made dinner is the simple fact is this presiding isn't sanctioned by practice, for most women in such an emergency do not meet a cold cooked fowl face to face, but a bare cupboard and the necessity of beginning with a clean slate, rather than a well-stocked larder, to prepare a meal.

Anybody, efficient or otherwise, with a well-stocked pantry might prepare an acceptable meal, but the woman who finds a dish of cold potatoes, flanked by a bunch of carrots, a bunch of celery, and a bunch of radishes, and still looks out, on-life cheerfully, is both an optimist and a genius.

To fortify this optimism an emergency shelf is indispensable. Even where the corner grocery is near or the telephone at hand one cannot always provide for an emergency. Each housekeeper will stock her shelf with the foods, accessories and relishes especially adapted to her needs.

A few cans of fish such as salmon, tuna, sardines and lobster, which may be served hot, cold or in salads or in combination with vegetables as a main dish, cans of corn, beans, peas, cans of soup, olives, pickles, a jar of salad dressing, a bottle of nutmegs, with fel-lies, jams and a package or two of crackers and a jar of cheese. When any food is used it is replaced at the earliest opportunity, so that the supply will always be full for the chance guest.

Two or three kinds of cookies stored in air-tight jars will keep for a long time. A few cookies with a dish of fruit, a cup of tea or coffee is a desert which is sufficiently satisfying for the most exacting.

The fortunate ones who live in the country and have plenty of milk, cream, butter and eggs, find it easy to prepare delicious dishes in short order.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals will be received by the Commissioner of Public Works of the State of Idaho, at the office of the Commissioner, Boise, Idaho, until two (2) o'clock P. M. on the 7th day of July, 1920, for the construction and paving of 8.83 miles of IDAHO-PACIFIC Highway, Federal Aid Project No.
24, in Twin Falls County.

Proposals will be opened and publicly read at the above stated hour.
Plans, specifications, forms of contract, proposal forms and other information may be obtained at the office of D. P. Olson, Director of Highways, Boise, Idaho, and from A. N. Ashline, District Engineer, Shoshone, Idaho. A deposit of Ten Dollars ($10.00) is required for each set of plans and specifications. The deposit will be refunded if all plans are returned intact.
All proposals must be made on the forms furnished, and must be signed by the bidder, with his name and post office address.

No proposal will be considered unless accompanied by an acceptable Proposal Guaranty in an amount equal to five per cent (5%) of the total amount of the proposal. This Guaranty may be in the form of, (a) cash; (b) a certified check; or (c) a bidder's bond. If a certified check accompanies the proposal the check shall be drawn on some bank in the State of Idaho and made payable to the Commissioner of Public Works.

The Proposal Guaranty will become the property of the State of Idaho, not as penalty, but as liquidated damages, if the bidder, upon the acceptance of his proposal by the Commissioner, fails or refuses to enter into a contract in accordance with the terms of his proposal within ten (10) days, (not including Sundays), after presentation of the contract to him for execution.

CADDOCK ACCUSES CHAMPION OF DODGING MATCH FOR HEAVYWEIGHT RESTLING TITLE—IS DISGUSTED

Iowan Declares He Had Met Every Condition Imposed, and Has Conceded Others but Cannot Get Stecher to Agree to Mat Battle for Grappling Crown—Is in Condition

OMAHA, Neb., (Special).—Joe Stecher, accompanied by his manager, Tony Stecher, Earl Caddock and Gene Melady, held a meeting Monday night at the hotel where they were staying, lasted all afternoon and well into the evening. The object of the meeting was with a view of staging a match for the world's wrestling championship. Caddock, who is a well known manager for Earl Caddock and as a bidder for the match, Caddock motivated over from Walnut, Ia., to press his claim for another match with Stecher.

The attendance of the Stecher brothers is a matter of viewpoint. They claimed before leaving for their home in Dodge, that they came here in a receptive mood to accept terms with Caddock. On the other hand, Caddock left for Maine early in the evening, disquieted over the prospect for a match and even Gene Melady could not induce him to remain for the Carpenter show.

According to Melady, the Stecher brothers have reached the prime condition stage, and a very temperamental prima donna at that. The following is Gene Melady's statement:

"For several weeks I have been quietly seeking a match for Caddock with Joe Stecher. I refrained from making much of it, for I knew Stecher was stalling as long as I intended. First he said for Caddock to rebuild his reputation. This we did by defeating Zhyazko and Lewis. Next time I called for an answer I was told that Joe was ill. I stood for that but I wrote that Joe was well enough to wrestle others."

"A few days ago I specifically invited them to be present at last night's show. When they arrived they were surprised to find Caddock here. We held a meeting, gave in to all their terms and the more we agreed, the more they changed them and added new impossible terms. I wanted the match for July 4 and Caddock urged me to grant them every wish. Earl became convinced that Stecher was insincere to give him a match and left for home about 7 o'clock."

"Late last night I again cornered the Dodge boys into a meeting and got out satisfaction. They and I agreed with the final remark to me that there is nothing doing."

"Here are some of the points we willingly conceded:

"To pay Joe Stecher $20,000 guarantee. Any referee they wanted. If they did not want me to promote to let Earl Holmes or any other promoter handle it. If they preferred Chicago, Des Moines, New York, Boston or any other city, it would be O. K. with us. The only thing they wanted was the match, and the articles to call for a finish best two in three falls."

"And I want the public to know that Caddock is not a match while everything points to Stecher side stepping."

ST. PAUL BATTLES DOESN'T ADMIT WILSON WON CHAMPIONSHIP —Was Overweight

POCAHONTO, (Special).—Mike O'Dowd of St. Paul, king of middle weights, who with a record of 100 wins in 100 fights, was in Pocahonto July 27, was in Pocahonto thirty minutes recently en route to Portland where he will meet Kid Ortega on June 28.

Looking fit and ready the fighting Harp showed a lively interest in the city and eagerly asked questions concerning the fighting ability and the "style" of Gordon. O'Dowd was accompanied by his manager, Paddy Mullin and F. B. Costain, trainer. Asked concerning the alleged claim of Pug Wilson of Boston to the middleweight championship, Manager Mullin did not mince words.

"That took up affairs," he exploded. "The majority of sport writers have not handed Wilson anything at all."

"In the first place Wilson weighed 160 pounds—five pounds above the middleweight limit. The referee, if he felt so disposed, could give Wilson a decision over O'Dowd, but he could not transfer the championship, especially as Wilson was not eligible for the middleweight division."

"You'll find that the majority of fight experts will agree with this statement. Leonard, lightweight champion, knocked out Edwards, featherweight champion, but Leonard could never claim the featherweight championship because he was not eligible for the division."

"Immediately after the referee had given Wilson the decision over O'Dowd, offered his manager a $20,000 side bet on a return match. Wilson won't meet Mike."

"Mike is still the champion—a disputed champion but certainly a champion."

"Although O'Dowd, despite his record of having won more fights and scored more knockouts than any other champlon, is modest and unassuming, his comment regarding Wilson was curt and pointed."

"I can lick that fellow every day in the week," Mike said firmly. "He knows it and won't meet me again."

"That will return to Pocahonto June 27 or 28 to put on the finishing touch of his training for the mix with Mike."

"There was plenty of work," O'Dowd commented with a laugh, when asked about his army experience. O'Dowd was in Company F, 66th Engineers, and participated in building narrow gauge railways from the railroads to the fighting front while ducking artillery shells."

"I was a luck private," O'Dowd volunteered with a grin.

This is a wild year for homers. A four-hitter is now as common as a two-bagger in other years. But what else can you expect with two-bit seats selling at four-bit each!

O'Dowd has reached Pocahonto and says he is in form for the battle of his career.

If that's the case then Gordon McCoy had better prepare himself for the very worst.

The Boise club stands first in the percentage in the All-Iowa league, with eight won out of nine games played.

Nobody publishes club stands in the South Idaho Crap league, so one cannot tell which club is the best, according to standing.

Anyhow Jerome whipped Buhl at Jerome Sunday, 24 to 3, while rupert wallowed Burley, and Twin Falls lapped the hands of nominal ball players masquerading as the Paul club.

The Boise Steamboat sports paragraph, speaking of Al Nelson, says: "In the last six months Nelson has made himself recognized as a conner, not only in the hands of nominal ball players, but in the hands of nominal ball players."

Fred Fulton and Harry Wells the latter being a boxer, have been made up for an elimination bout in New York about the middle of July.

The winner, it is reported, will have a chance for a fight with Dempsey.

The Reds yesterday repelled attempts of the Cardinals to board the Cincinnati craft. Slim Saltee set the invaders back, perhaps only temporarily, though.

The Pocahonto fight promoters have offered Ray Rose a match on the preliminary card of the O'Dowd battle. Ray lastly July 5. Rose is asked to fight Spud Myers of Pocahonto.

FINALS PLACE

WON BY TILDEN

Yankee Establishes Himself Among the Best in British Tennis Meet

WIMBLEDON, England, (AP)—William T. Tilden of Philadelphia and Zeno Colman of London will be the competitors in the finals of the British lawn tennis singles championship. Tilden won his place today as a finalist by defeating Charles S. Gailard of Pittsburgh in the finals 6-4, 8-6, 6-2.

Shimizu earned the right to oppose the Philadelphia by beating Theodore Mavrogian of the English Davis cup team, 8-6, 6-4, 6-0, 6-2.

The winner of the finals must meet Gerald L. Patterson of Australia in the challenge round for the championship. In the semifinals for the ladies singles championship Mrs. Lambert Chambers, former champion, beat Miss Ryan of California in straight sets. The score was 6-0, 6-3.

DAVEY BANCROFT EQUALS PHILADELPHIA. (AP)—The feat of making six base hits in six times at bat in one game, performed here yesterday by Shortstop David Bancroft of the New York Nationals, has been equaled in the major leagues only once since 1902.

In 1916, George Cutshaw of the Brooklyn Nationals succeeded in hitting the ball safely in six attempts. Three players equaled the mark in 1906 and nearly a score previous to that time.

The best batting record is seven hits in 7 tries, made in 1893 by Wilbert Robinson of the Baltimore Nationals, now manager of the Brooklyn Nationals.

STOPS BOAT. JEREMY CUTTY. (AP)—Gene Tunney, heavyweight boxing champion of the American expeditionary forces, scored a technical knockout over Andy Anderson of Tacoma, Wash., in the third round of a 12-round match here last night, when the referee stopped the bout.

MARATHON. NEW YORK, (AP)—Selection of the American representatives for the Olympic marathon race will be made here July 6 by the American Olympic committee, it was announced today. Members of the swimming and boxing teams will be chosen at a meeting July 14.

BRANT STOPS FORMER CHAMP. BALTIMORE, (AP)—Dutch Brant of Brooklyn was stopped by Kid Williams of Baltimore, in the third round of a bout here last night. Brant's seconds threw up the sponge.

MASON SLEEPING. CINCINNATI, O., (AP)—Frankie Martin, of New York, was headed off by Benny Chick, a light fighter, in ten rounds here last night.

PUSHTOOT JOHNSON COMING. Tuesday, July 6th, Pushtoot Johnson will lecture in the Lavering theater. Subject: "What I Can See with My Eyes." Tickets 10c, 25c, 50c, on sale at Majestic, 75c each—adv.
