WARSAW, (P)—Along a front of approximately 720 miles the Russian Bolsheviki have launched the greatest attack they have ever hurled against the Polish lines. On the northern and southern flanks the Poles are retreating in the face of superior enemy forces, the attack on the northern sector forcing the most severe of the struggle on this front.

WOULD ENJOIN SUFFRAGE ACT ENFORCEMENT

American Constitutional League President Institutes Suit Against Officials; Claims Ratification Fraud

WASHINGTON, (P)—Proceedings asking that Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, be enjoined from enforcing the amendment ratifying the suffrage amendment were instituted in the District of Columbia supreme court today by Chas. S. Fairchild, of New York, president of the American constitutional league.

Mr. Fairchild also seeks to prevent Attorney General Palmer from enforcing the amendment. Justice Bailey issued a rule on Secretary Colby and the attorney general to show cause July 13 why the motion should not be granted.

The basis of the proceedings is the claim that the ratification of the amendment by the West Virginia legislature was illegal because accomplished by fraud and that the proposed ratification by the Tennessee legislature also would be illegal on the ground that the legislature lacked authority under the state's constitution to act on the measure.

Only thirty-five states have ratified the amendment and as ratification by one or more is necessary the attack on the amendment through the courts at this time came as a surprise in suffrage circles here. An attack on the legality of the action of the Tennessee legislature had been expected but not until the legislature actually had acted.

NORTH CAROLINA GOVERNOR CONVENES SPECIAL SESSION

RALPHIGH, N. C., (P)—Governor Bickett, of North Carolina, today issued a call for a special session of the legislature for August 10, at which ratification of the suffrage amendment will be considered.

Governor Bickett did not mention suffrage in the call for the special session, but he has telegraphed to President Wilson that he will recommend to the special session that the amendment be ratified.

A bitter fight is looked for by state officials. The North Carolina branch of the I. O. O. F. has been extremely active for a month and thousands of citizens have pledged their opposition to ratification. The national woman's party already has workers on the ground.

COX DECLARES LOUISIANA'S DUTY RATIFY SUFFRAGE

DAYTON, O., (P)—Governor James M. Cox, democratic candidate for president, today expressed his opinion that it is the duty of the Louisiana legislature to ratify the woman suffrage amendment immediately.

The democratic candidate expressed view on suffrage ratification was contained in a telegram replying to Frank J. Looney, chairman of the democratic state central committee of Louisiana, in which he was asked to express his opinion.

WASHINGTON KEEPING EYE ON TROUBLE HINT

Ricardo Gonzales Revolts and Leads from 50 to 200 Men in Raid on Berreterran Mines

FEDERAL FORCES ARE DISPATCHED FOR ATTACK ON INSURRECTIONISTS

EAGLE PASS, Texas, (P)—Reports that twelve bridges had been burned in Mexico south of Monclova, gave rise here today to rumors that a new revolution had broken out in the southern republic. Adolfo Gonzales is said to head the new movement.

Reports from below the border yesterday were that a Mexican government paymaster's train had been robbed of $50,000 Mexican gold by bandits controlling Monclova.

Troops were reported hurrying there from Torreon. No trains were running beyond Sabinas.

WASHINGTON, (P)—Revolutionary movements in various parts of Mexico were reported in dispatches received at the state department from American officials in that country. The movements apparently are unrelated and of minor importance, but are being carefully studied.

Consular officer at Piedras Negras, opposite Eagle Pass, telegraphed the department that General Ricardo Gonzales, a nephew of General Pablo Gonzales, with a force estimated at between 50 and 200 men, had revolted against the present government on July 1, and had advanced as far north as Berreterran, where they are now looting and holding out mines. Federal General Morales left Piedras Negras last night with 200 soldiers to attack the revolting army. Another federal column is reported to be advancing from Saltillo.

Osuna and Agadir Rebel

The American consul at Tampico wired that it was officially acknowledged that General Ricardo Gonzales and General Laureano Agadir were in rebellion. General Osuna is reported to be between Tampico and Monterrey, and General Agadir on the San Luis Potosi border.

There also were reports at Piedras Negras that General Jesus Guajardo had revolted at Gomez Palacio, near Torreon, with 300 men and had advanced towards the American border over the old Mexican international railroad line.

Cardena Under Arrest

General Porfirio Cardena, who was appointed military governor of Chihuahua by General Pablo Gonzales, was reported to be under arrest at Piedras Negras.

Only one bid for the former German passenger ship Von Stueben was received today when tenders on the vessel were opened by the shipping board. It was for $1,300,000 from F. Eggens of the foreign trade development cruise and action on it was deferred.

Purchase of the vessel is sought for around the world cruise to stimulate American foreign trade and develop American commercial interests in foreign markets.

The Von Stueben was the former German liner Kronprinz Wilhelm of 14,000 gross tons, built in 1901 at Stettin, Germany.

GERMAN BUDGET PROVIDES FOR MERCHANT SHIP BUILDING

BERLIN, (P)—The budget committee of the reichstag today set aside 100,000,000 marks in the supplementary estimates for the construction of merchant shipping. The council of the senate sanctioned the expenditure of 5,500,000 marks for the upkeep of an army of 100,000 men.

ROOSEVELT IS NOMINATED FOR SECOND PLACE

Assistant Secretary of Navy Becomes Running Mate of Cox by Vote of Acclamation without Ballot

SAN FRANCISCO, (P)—Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, assistant secretary of the navy, was nominated for vice president Tuesday by the democratic national convention and became the running mate of Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, the democrats' choice for the presidential nomination.

The first cries of "Cox and Roosevelt" rang through the convention hall and were mixed with the shouts of the vote of acclamation by which he was nominated without a ballot.

All Others Withdraw. Despite the disinclination of the Tammany organization to accept him, Roosevelt's name went over with a wagon movement during which all other candidates were withdrawn.

James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois was withdrawn early by former Governor Danahy. Governor Stewart of Montana announced his own withdrawal; Edward L. Dole of California, and former Governor Hawley of Idaho were withdrawn. General L. D. Tyson of Tennessee in person announced that he would not be a contender, as did David R. Francis of Missouri. No nomination of W. T. Vaughn of Oregon, who had received state primary endorsement, was changed into a second for the successful nominee.

Tammany Accepts Roosevelt

Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, who was considered as a candidate and asked to allow his name to be used, finally was urged to consent if he should be "drafted." As it fell out, the Tammany crowd decided to accept Roosevelt, who brought to the ticket his nephew, General L. D. Tyson, a former congressman from Ohio, who sat as a Cox delegate in the District of Columbia delegation. Second sprang from all parts of the convention hall, and although Roosevelt was formally nominated until well after the business of nominations was taken up, there was never any doubt about it and never at any time was there any opposition. The seconding of his nomination by Governor Stewart of New York from the Tammany delegation clinched it.

To Notify Nominees

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, permanent chairman of the convention, was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Governor Cox of his nomination. Chairman Homer S. Cummings of the democratic national committee was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Mr. Roosevelt.

After its tumultuous session of 44 ballots the convention re-assembled at noon to finish its work. There was at first a delay utilized by the Cox men to suggest to leave from the government of Washington the vice presidential nomination. E. H. Moore of Youngstown, O., who managed the governor's fight, let it be known that Cox was willing to let the selection of the running mate to the convention. With that the forces easily and quickly recoiled and after Mr. Roosevelt's nomination appeared an appreciation of him by his chief, Secretary Joseph E. Daniels.

Final Proceedings

During the closing moments of the convention the usual formal resolutions affecting the national committee and the convention organization were adopted. A resolution expressing the thanks and appreciation of the convention to the city of San Francisco.

LONDON PRESS WARNS AGAINST TOO SERIOUS VIEW OF CAMPAIGN TALK

LONDON, (P)—Newspapers of London, in commenting on the Chicago and San Francisco conventions, this morning, devote more attention to future relations between the United States and Great Britain than upon the bearing the conventions will have on the domestic affairs of America.

There is nothing in the declared policy of either Mr. Cox or Mr. Harding to disturb the most cordial relations between the two countries," says the Morning Post. Several journals make the people here get to take a too serious view of utterances inevitable during the campaign by certain groups of Democrats who are now writing the lion's tail a favorite amusement.

American Engineer Incurs Displeasure of Soviets Because He Relates Plain Facts, Russian Refugee Says

LONDON, (AP)—Fryal C. Keely, an American engineer, recently arrested by Bolshevik authorities as he was about to leave Russia where he had executed an industrial commission for the soviet government, incurred the displeasure of the soviet because he "told the truth, plain and unvarnished," Nicolas Isnard, chairman of the All-Russian Central Council of Trade and Industry, said upon his arrival here. Isnard fled from Russia, where he declared, "the misery and dislocation of life is complete."

The fate of the American has not been learned. According to Isnard, Keely went to Russia in September, 1919, at the invitation of the soviet government, and as an expert on technical and industrial organization "was asked to make a complete report to the soviet government 'on ways and means to save the Russian industrial situation.'"

"On his arrival in Russia, Keely was received with great honors and exceptional facilities were afforded him to travel all over the country," Isnard said. "He visited the industrial concerns of Petrograd and Moscow, traveled to the great textile center of Ivanovo-Voznesensk, and to the coal mines of the Donets, and completed his trip by a tour in the Ural."

"Upon his return to Moscow in January, 1920, Keely was lodged in the commissariat of foreign affairs. Here the American committed his first and greatest mistake. In his report he told the soviet the truth, plain and unvarnished. The gist of his report can be summed up as follows:

"The industrial concerns of Petrograd and Moscow are ruined completely, and it will need years to get them into some sort of working order. The machines and tools are in a wretched condition, rapidly deteriorating, and many vital parts are lacking. All skilled labor seems to have disappeared completely. The Donetz coal mines are in a very bad position also, and will need two or three years to get them straight. The work in the Ural is in a better condition and could be turned up quickly. But nothing useful can be achieved until internal security and personal security are annulled."

Ismard declared Keely, in an explanatory note gave "extraordinary examples of Bolshevik administrative incompetence," one of which was that he had of the electric station in Petrograd were kept going for some time by stocking them with all the great stores of machinery accumulated in the ear building shops there."

After this report Keely's position changed completely, Isnard continued, and although he prevailed upon the commissariat to give him a passport to leave the country, he was arrested at the frontier, and since then nothing has been heard about him.

SUGAR NOT NEEDED
IF TIGHT JAR USED

C. E. Munson Gives Some Timely Hints about Canning while Preservative is High

Many people will find when the canning season arrives that sugar will be high priced and short in supply and will hesitate about canning fruits and berries with this condition prevailing, says C. E. Munson, of the Southern Idaho Wholesale Grocery company, who adds:

"It has been proven by practical experience that sugar is not needed for the actual preserving of fruits, and when used only adds flavor. There is no trouble in packing fruits for home canning without the use of sugar, provided the product is perfectly sterilized and packed in air tight jars. In canning without sugar use the same rules as for canning when sugar is used and fill the cans with boiling water in place of hot syrup."

"In order to preserve fruits it is essential not only to sterilize them but to seal them in sterilized cans so as to exclude the air. A perfectly sterilized and securely sealed jar of fruit will keep indefinitely, and sugar is not required as a preservative."

It will be found that the desired flavor may be obtained by adding the sugar in the form of syrup when the fruit is served.

"Sugar will no doubt be cheaper when the new crop of beet sugar comes on the market in September and new cane sugar in December and the supply will be more plentiful. Thus fruits canned now can be sweetened later with sugar, cheaper and more generally."

Factory canned fruits packed with sugar will be very high and scarce, due to the advanced prices of fruits and high priced sugar and the outstripping, economical housewife will this year put up her fruits without sugar and insure having a supply for winter use at satisfactory cost.

EDUCATOR URGES HIGHER
STANDARD IN TEXT BOOKS

Professor Searson of Kansas
Agricultural College Presents Argument

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, (AP)—School book presses of America were charged with "re-creating the innocent child, poisoning young minds and moral lawlessness" by J. W. Searson, English professor of the Kansas Agricultural college, in an address at the national education convention here today.

"Plan for a higher standard in text book publication were voiced by Professor Searson.

"The evil must be attacked at the source," he said. "No new text book should be published that does not offer a distinctive, constructive improvement over texts already in use."

Professor Searson suggested several definite steps which he said "should be followed in making distinctive text books which answer the highest need of the pupils, teachers and the public."

One suggestion was that no manuscript, regardless of merit, be published merely for the sake of sale. Another proposed that publishers locate and cultivate text book authors with scholarship and real vision. A third suggested that the author's manuscript be tried before publication.

LESSONS GAINED FROM AVIATION IN SHAMROCK IV

Designer Nicholson Says Quicker Lines of Challenger Bespeak Speed to Lift Cup

"In deck shape, Sir Thomas Lipton's America's cup challenger is like a family ironing board. Shamrock IV is shaved down a bit and rounded out at the end. That is its bow. The other end is chopped off straight."

Charles E. Nicholson, who designed the Lipton yacht, was discussing its rather homely appearance, in this respect. "She is not such a bad looking when she is dressed," he remarked.

Regarding the changes made in Shamrock IV, Mr. Nicholson said: "The cup yachts are all six years old. There have been many changes since they were built. We have learned much in the meantime, particularly from aviation, and much of this could be applied to yacht sailing."

He did not say what secrets the British boat builders had learned from flying, and adapted to a canvas flier set in the sea.

Then, speaking again of the snub nose and flat stern of Shamrock, he added: "What was the use of extra weight and carrying her ends out. The Vanitie is one of the most beautiful yachts I have ever seen."

Burton Is Fine Skipper.

"We have a fine crew and it will not take them long to get their hand back in the racing game once the challenger is under sail again. Captain Burton, who will sail Shamrock, is the best amateur in European waters. It will be no fault of his if Shamrock loses. I understand, however, that Mr. Adams, on the Resolute, will take a lot of beating. It will be a great match."

"It is too bad that the 23 meter Shamrock III, which will be used as a trial horse for the challenger has had so much trouble getting under way for this country. I am not even sure it has made another start. It is the only yacht we can get a line on the challenger from."

Raced on Other Side.

"They raced together on the other side, and by racing them here for a time we can tell whether the challenger has been made faster. It will arrive here so late anyway that we will not attempt to race on the sound any, but will take the challenger down to Shady Hook."

as soon as the 23 meter arrives and can be changed from jury to racing rig."

Mr. Nicholson said that the former American schooner Westward had been bought from her German owner by an Englishman and would race in English waters this summer. He also said that Scandinavians made wealthy during the war had bought about 10 of the motor class boats in England.

Milton Averages 95 Miles an Hour in Annual Racing

TACOMA, Wash., (P)—Tommy Milton, reeling off 225 miles in two hours, 23 minutes and 28 seconds, won the ninth annual speedway automobile race here Monday afternoon. He averaged 95 miles an hour, the fastest time yet made on the local track in a race of more than 100 miles, and won the $10,000 first prize.

Mulford was second and other drivers finished in this order: Thomas Klein, Charles Murphy, Gaston Chevrolet and O'Donnell.

Chevrolet, winner of the Indianapolis race on Memorial day, had motor trouble. Ralph de Palma was the victim of bad luck all day. His French car was unable to start the race and he started in the American car of Eddie Miller but was forced to quit on account of engine trouble. Durant, Thomas and Boyer were also forced out.

There was not an accident.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES

CLEVELAND, (P)—The 1920 grand circuit harness horse racing season was opened at North Randall track Tuesday before the largest crowd that ever attended a meeting here. With a program of seven events it took seven hours to finish the feature event of the card, the Edwards stake, the 2:08 class pacing, divided into two divisions, each worth $2000. Red Lancelot, driven by Charles Valentino, of Columbus, O., won the first division and John Henry, driven by Tommy Murphy of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., won the second division. The best time of each division was 2:03 1/4, which equaled the track record for the stake.

Valentino was awarded the Edwards cup because Red Lancelot won in straight heats and in the fastest average time.

Bolla Forest, driven by Murphy in the first division, finished second to Red Lancelot and Edna Early was third. The judges fined Murphy $300 for laying back with the gelding in the third heat. Ray Grattan, winner of the 2:04 pace, and Red Lancelot were the only winning favorites.

PIGNOT SAYS THIRD PARTY'S OUTLOOK GOOD

Declares that Democratic Convention Like Republican, is Highly Satisfactory to Advocates of New Organization

CHICAGO (AP)—Several members of the executive board of the committee of 48 arrived today to perfect plans for the convention here Saturday which will prepare for the organization of a third political party, according to leaders in the movement.

A. W. Ricker, manager of the Chicago headquarters, said today that credentials already have been sent in for more than 700 delegates.

CHICAGO (AP)—Amos Pinchot of New York, a member of the Committee of 48 which meets here Saturday, in a national convention, issued the following statement today:

"The democratic convention like the republican convention, was highly satisfactory to the men and women of America who want a new party. We could have hoped for nothing more evasive or less calculated to meet the needs of the public either in the matter of the platform or the candidate.

Full of Sound and Meaningless. "The democratic platform is a decidedly eloquent document that is full of sound sense and nothing but truth in the republican platform. It has no constructive policy or program. It is the expression of a few politicians who if they had ideas, dared not offend Wall Street by expressing them, even on the theory that the public's appetite for buncombe was not fully satisfied by the republican performance and so it offers another full meal.

Wall Street Wins Both Ways. "There has been created quite skillfully a situation in which this group, which we speak of as Wall Street, will win whether we win or lose, or republican victory. This is a triumph of political maneuvering which the public should pause to admire. The new party will hold its convention in New York. My advice to the public would be to read its platform carefully, and if it is not clear, brief, practical and constructive to retire to their homes next election day and steer clear of the polls."

BRANDeis IS PRESIDENT OF ZIONIST CONFERENCE

Jews of World Gather in London for First Meeting in Seven Years

LONDON (AP)—Louis D. Brandeis, associate justice of the United States supreme court, was elected president of the International Zionist conference which convened today as the first Zionist gathering in seven years, to formulate a political program that will be urged for Palestine.

Dr. Max Nordau, of London, was chosen honorary president. Dr. Nahum Sokoloff, of Berlin, chairman, said the conference must consider the question of immigration and finance. He declared:

"Although for the many massacres in the Ukraine we have not the mercy of the angels could find palliation, the Jews don't cry for vengeance but will face the task of restoration soberly and bravely."

"Compared with these murderers," Dr. Sokoloff said, "Nobuchadnezzar was a nobleman."

"During his denunciation the audience arose solemnly as an endorsement of his views. He urged the Jews to mutual help and solidarity toward the Arab and Christian communities in Palestine."

WE ESCAPE TO GRAVITY OF WOUNDED TURK

American Relief Workers Make Way from Hadjin Thirty Minutes Before Nationalists Open Fire on City

CONSTANTINOPLE (AP)—The gratitude of Ever Bay, a nationalist machine gun commander who had been nursed back to health by Miss Mary Super of Netherth, Pa., a Red Cross nurse detailed with the American commission for relief in the Near East, made possible the escape of the relief workers from the American board mission buildings in Hadjin, 30 minutes before the nationalists turned their artillery on the structures and destroyed them on June 13.

This fact became known today with the arrival here of Miss Super and other workers from the Hadjin district.

Miss Edith Cold of Cleveland escaped with the other relief workers but remained in Caesarea in the hope of being able to give further aid to the Armenian orphans who had been under the workers care at Hadjin, while Miss Alice Clark, another of the workers, is at Samarra recovering from the exhaustion of the long trip on camel back through the mountains of Anatolia.

The relief workers maintained neutrality in the fighting which opened March 29. The Turks took charge of the American compound, fortifying between it and Hadjin in such manner that whenever the Armenians fired up on the Turks the compound was peppered with bullets.

Under daily fire the relief workers protected the orphans until June 9, when Armenian troops from Hadjin defeated the Turks and captured the orphanage. The Armenians took the orphans into Tadjin despite the protests of the Americans, who had happened to take the orphans to a safer place than Hadjin, which was short of food and ammunition and could not resist the nationalists long.

After the Armenians withdrew with the orphans the Americans were in grave danger as many of the nationalist leaders believed that the Armenians had helped the Armenian military effort.

PARASITES TO FIGHT WEEVIL

University Extension Department Imports Flies in Campaign Against Pest

Alfalfa parasites or ichneumon flies for the first time in the state were released between Eagle and Star recently as a method of control of the alfalfa weevil by Claude Wakeland, University of Idaho extension department entomologist. Alfalfa parasites will be released in the alfalfa fields near New Plymouth Monday by Mr. Wakeland and by Ralph H. Smith, University of Idaho entomologist, at Rupert.

Saturday's work was the first artificial introduction of the ichneumon flies in the state. It is believed that the introduction will control to a large extent the annual damage caused by alfalfa weevil, regarded as Idaho's most dangerous pest, and the importance of alfalfa as a rotation crop.

Flies Imported from Utah. Mr. Wakeland and Mr. Smith have recently returned from Franklin county, where they collected a large number of the alfalfa parasites for introduction in the alfalfa fields of the state. The parasites flies are controlling to a large extent the damage caused by the alfalfa weevil in six southern counties of the state where they came into Idaho from Utah, where they have been introduced by the government.

Parasites were introduced into the United States by the government from Europe in 1910. In Europe the alfalfa weevil damage is rendered practically negligible by the parasites. Since the introduction by the government in 1910 the parasites have increased rapidly.

They occur wherever alfalfa is introduced with weevil. By natural spread from Utah to Idaho six Idaho counties are now comfortably protected by the parasite flies.

How Parasite Works. The parasite works on the larvae of the weevil, having its eggs in the larvae where the egg feeds, eventually destroying the larva and as a result the adult weevils do not develop.

Experimentation by Mr. Wakeland is being carried on to discover parasites that will destroy the egg of the weevil. With parasites that will destroy the egg the alfalfa weevil pest can be ultimately done away with.

TEXAS TOWN ON GUARD AGAINST RACE TROUBLE

Calm Seems Restored Following Burning of Two Negroes at One Stake

PARIS, Texas, (AP)—Paris is quiet today and danger of race strife, reports of which caused armed volunteers to patrol the streets last night after Irving and Herman Arthur, negroes, had been burned at one stake, appear to have passed. The patrols have been withdrawn and conditions are apparently normal.

Extraordinary precautions were being taken today to prevent possible race trouble as a result of the action of a mob last night in burning at one stake Irving and Herman Arthur, negroes, accused of having killed the Hodges and his son William, while at the latter's farm near here last Friday.

Armed volunteers, organized by the mayor, patrolled the streets of the negro section and it was reported that desultory firing had occurred in the outskirts of the town. Sheriff C. D. Clarkson and his two deputies were away in search of other negroes suspected of implication in the killing of the white men.

The Arthurs were captured near Valiant, Okla., Sunday night by a posse and brought to the jail here. Last night a crowd appeared suddenly, stormed the jail and took the prisoners to the fair grounds, where a stake and fuel had been prepared. The affair was over in less than an hour and a half.

According to officials the Hodges were killed during a dispute over money alleged to be due them from negro tenants.

British General Censured for Amritsar "Massacre"

General R. E. DYER

General R. E. Dyer, of the British Army, who was severely censured in the findings of the commission appointed by the British Government to investigate the causes of unrest in India and the attending disorders. The incidents investigated included the Amritsar "massacre" of April, 1919, in which more than 500 natives were killed and a thousand wounded when troops under the command of General Dyer opened fire with machine guns. The firing began when the natives were attending a meeting in a walled enclosure near Amritsar. The natives had no chance to escape, and it is alleged, the only reason more, was not killed or wounded in that the soldiers' ammunition gave out. General Dyer was censured for ordering his troops to fire without warning and also for continuing the firing. He has appealed the finding of the commission.

Charges Government of Japan with Weak Policy toward U. S.

TOKIO, (AP)—In a speech in the house of representatives today with regard to anti-Japanese movements in the United States, Representative Eustice Collins asked why the government did not insist upon the lawful rights of the Japanese instead of prohibiting the sending of picture brides to America.

Foreign Minister Uchida replied that he regarded the anti-Japanese agitation with the utmost anxiety. He added that the prohibition upon picture brides was quite inevitable. The citizens of the province of Hiroshima from which many of the emigrants to California came, have decided to send an open letter to the people of California, protesting against the suggested land laws and other anti-Japanese legislation.

gains in popular industrial and specialties ranged from 2 to almost 5 points.

Sales approximated 750,000 shares. The recent upward trend of prices in the stock market, based mainly upon the better monetary conditions was resumed at the opening of today's session. Interest continued to center in oils, metals, equipment and shipping, with further prospect of transportation shares. Foremost features embraced Mexican and Pan-American Petroleum, Texas Company, Hopley, Vanadium, Baldwin and American Locomotive, General Motors, Stromberg, United States Rubber, Macosino Preferred and United Fruit. Gains in these shares and sundry specialties ranged from large fractions to 1-1/2 points.

Oil and food shares were the sustaining features of the final hour, most other issues reacting under pressure of realizing sales. The closing was irregular.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—New strength developed in the corn market today based upon the opinion that a reaction was due after the recent sharp decline. Bulls pointed out that prices in some cases were nearly 20c under last week's top figures. Commission house buying quickly absorbed the offerings, and started a general upturn. Opening quotations, which ranged from 5-8 off to 1-1/2 advance, with September $1.50 3/4 to 1.50 1/8 and December $1.46 to 1.46 3/8, were followed by moderate gains all around.

Finally the market became overbought, and end-of-the-day efforts to take profits found support lacking. The close was unsettled 7-8 not lower to 1-8c advance, with September $1.60 3/8 to 1.60 1/2 and December $1.45 5/8 to 1.45 3/4.

Oats tended upward with corn. After opening unchanged to 5-8 higher, including September $1.18 to $1.18 3/8, the market continued to harden. Provisions were responsive to the strength of grain and hogs. Lard in particular advanced steadily.

EDUCATION FOR HEALTH AND IN INDUSTRY TOPIC

N. E. A. Convention General Sessions are Devoted to Consideration of Two Important Subjects; Other Issues Loom

SALT LAKE CITY, (AP)—Today's general sessions of the National Education association, in convention here, were devoted to industrial and health education. Emily Griffith, principal of the "opportunity school" at Denver, and R. B. von Klein Smid, president of the University of Arizona, had places on the industrial program; Miss Ann Raymond of New York and G. P. Clark, president of the state normal school at Milwaukee, Wis., were on that relating to health.

Many Issues Enlist Workers. Not even the general sessions, however, have operated to empty hotel lobbies of the groups of workers in behalf of this or that issue before the convention. The presidency, the place of the next meeting, and nearly a score of resolutions favoring widely separated topics, among others in the buzz of conferences with the much talked of scheme to re-organize on a "delegate plan".

While this new basis of organization has not been presented formally to the association, printed copies of it are being circulated and there is much discussion over it. Scraps of many conversations reaching the ear from passing groups of association members with it. Virtual campaign headquarters have been set up by those favoring or opposing it and both factions are working hard to enlist support.

Candidate Opens Headquarters. Candidates for the presidency took on a new angle late yesterday, when friends began advocating W. B. Owen, president of the Chicago Normal school, for the place. Following this, supporters of Fred M. Hunter, superintendent of schools of Oakland, Cal., were earlier in the field, opened headquarters for him.

Of the six cities seeking the next meeting of the association Des Moines, Ia., today was making the widest appeal. A systematic canvass of delegates is being made in behalf of Des Moines. Big, red, white and blue buttons bearing the legend "Des Moines Next" are appearing among a big group of pictures of Des Moines hotels is on display as an evidence of that city's ability to accommodate the visitors.

Takes Leaf from Mark Twain. How an Evansville, Ind., high school took a leaf from Mark Twain's book, and applied principles of human nature made famous in the tale of Tom Sawyer, and the White-faced Fence was described to the association last night by L. R. Benecet, superintendent of schools of Evansville. Discussing civic education, Mr. Benecet told of a system of school self government as applied to study rooms and other matters, and pointed out that the interest of students had been gained by making participation in certain privileges under the system difficult of attainment. He diverged from his set address to draw a parallel between the story and the new plan.

CHILEAN CONGRESS WILL DECIDE ELECTION RESULT

Nation Settles Down to Wait Final Determination in the Presidential Contest

SANTIAGO, Chile, (AP)—Since the first stage of the presidential election, in which Arturo Alessandri obtained a majority of electors, has passed, Chile has settled down to await the final results, which will be known later in August. Alessandri obtained 179 electors out of 354.

Congress has the power to declare vitiated and nullified any number of electors, and may restore the number obtained by either, or leave both without the required majority. In such case congress must proceed to elect a president, voting only for the two contestants in the race. Alessandri was nominated by a convention of radical and democratic parties. Barros Borgoño, his opponent was nominated by the liberal, national and liberal democratic parties, three of the moderate groups, and later received the support of conservatives. The programs of the candidates were much alike.

Refuses to Endorse the Skimp Skirts as Conservation Measure

Howard Figg, special assistant to the United States attorney general, has refused to endorse the skim skirts suggested by manufacturers as a conservation measure, according to a report from Washington. Mr. Figg decided against the suggestion after three living models dressed in knee length gowns had been presented for his inspection. The styles in women's clothes this fall will be changed as little as possible in order to permit women to get full wear out of their last year's clothes. This was decided by the National Garment Retailers' Association upon the suggestion of Mr. Figg. This photograph of Mr. Figg was made in Washington.

Sir Roddy of the Alston to Present Opposition to Renewal of Anglo-Japanese Treaty

SHANGHAI, (AP)—Sir Roddy of the Alston, British minister to China, has reached this city on his way to England, having been given a leave of absence. He is taking with him a petition to the British government from a score of leading Chinese commercial and industrial bodies, opposing a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty.

The document says the conditions which led to the negotiation of the treaty no longer exist, and declares the danger from us and Germany has been removed. America, it asserts, is the only power with strength sufficient to endanger peace, and "it is unthinkable that country would alter its established policy over night."

CHICAGO, (AP)—The senate committee investigating pre-convention campaign expenditures resumed its hearing here today with Jacob L. Babler, republican national committeeman from Missouri as the first witness.

Babler, who gave part of his testimony in Washington last month, is the man who distributed the Lowden campaign fund in Missouri. He opened today's session by reading a 4000-word prepared statement, itemizing his expenditures in the Lowden campaign. He received $18,154, he said, and accounted for expenditures of $16,621.

Senator Kenyon, chairman of the committee is presiding at the session, which is expected to last three or four days. The full committee, including Senators Reed, Spencer, Edge and Pomeroy is here.

William Armstrong, Chicago lawyer, presented a mass of documentary evidence, which, he said, would "prove" that the documents would show Mr. Babler had advanced pardons for criminals and prevented the gathering of evidence in cases where there were charges of defrauding the government.

Senator Kenyon said the committee would decide later whether Armstrong shall be called as a witness.

CLOVER APHIS MORE NUMEROUS THIS YEAR

State Entomologist Finds An Alarming Condition in Twin Falls District Fields

Examination yesterday of several rod clover fields about Twin Falls by Ralph H. Smith, entomologist of the experiment station of the University of Idaho showed that the clover aphid is much more numerous than it was on July 1 of last year, while the natural enemies of the aphid, such as ladybird beetles, are notably fewer in number than they were last year on the same date. Unlike the month of July should be unusually rainy or exceptionally hot, the chances are strong that the damage to the coming rod clover seed crop will be much greater than it was on July 1.

The only method now known for destroying the aphids at this time of year is to pasture the fields closely with a band of sheep. Only comparatively few farmers will be able to practice this method of control on account of the season being so far advanced and the inability to secure a sufficient number of sheep to quickly graze off the clover.

The advice of several successful clover seed growers as well as authentic records show that seed crops started as late as July 10 often produce large yields. Aside clover which was started reasonably early in the spring will mature without material damage by the aphids. During the past six weeks Mr. Smith has been engaged in experiment work in various parts of the state on the control of the alfalfa weevil. A brief report on the alfalfa weevil situation is promised later in the week.

"THOU SHALT NOT"

The oldest laws in the world have been violated uncounted billions of times. They are violated every day of every year and they will be violated similarly throughout time. They are violated so persistently by so many people everywhere that some of them, at least, might almost be said to be dead letters. They are far from that, however.

The ten commandments form the nucleus of virtually all the law, written and unwritten, that we have. They make up the moral law and have been neither weakened nor strengthened by man by incorporating them into his statutes. Is it not a curious thing that men have found it either necessary or desirable to legislate to enforce in junctions issued from heaven? He did so, of course, not with any thought of making them laws, for that already had been done as completely as it is possible to be done.

In truth, our criminal statutes, founded on the moral laws, are but enforcement acts. If men were different from what he is these latter would be unnecessary. But man isn't. A great many of him there are who simply will not obey. They have but imperfect respect for any law and none at all for some laws. They make a showing of reverence for authority, divine or human, only when it is convenient to their purposes so to do. Others are not law-breakers but they might be were they not in fear of the penalties which the laws provide for those who violate them, or they feel that if it were not against the law they would like to do some forbidden things. These are potential law-breakers. From their reaction to man-made laws we learn the indispenability of the statutes which have been enacted. These same people would be violators of the moral laws were they not restrained by conscience, which imposes its own penalties for evil-doing. From all of which we observe that no law is self-enforcing.

Without a penalty clause attached, a criminal statute is worthless. You know even the commandments are not without their promise of terrible punishment for those who go counter to them. The fundamental moral laws have enforcement acts written into them. And deep in the hearts of all people having faith in things divine or in things human, there is conviction that these laws should be obeyed, however those same people may transgress them. Has it occurred to you that with possibly one exception there never has been a serious proposition to modify any of the moral laws by statutory act? The human conscience rebels against anything like that.

There is rather a widespread tendency to excuse a "white lie" as harmless. But the prohibition is against lying, which quite properly is held to mean any kind of untruth. It is the law. That particular one is left very largely to the individual conscience for its enforcement, though there are statutes providing severe punishment for lying under certain circumstances.

Thou shalt not steal. In the thousands of years since it was ordered for the guidance and protection of humans never has one person suggested that the statute reinforcing the moral law be altered to permit mild thieving, pocket picking or secret pilfering, say, while keeping the inhibition against burglary or highway robbery. Nobody would have the temerity to propose the legalization of 2.75 per cent of stealing. And for the simple reason that the laws that make stealing a crime, but the moral and the human, are universally recognized as prohibition laws, and they condemn even the smallest degree of dishonest acquisition of things. To that extent we have universal respect for these laws. We cannot expect anything more in the present state of development of the human conscience.

Lawbreakers there will be always. The great majority of the people will respect the laws and the authority charged with their enforcement. That much will be insisted upon. Man-made laws we may repeal if such a course appeals to the judgment of the people who, ultimately, are the lawmakers. There can be no compromising with law. Any form of compromise with law is nullification. We think there is nothing more firmly established than that in the minds of the vast majority of Americans today. The signs pointing that way are ubiquitous.

First Institution of Its Kind in Far East Begins Class Sessions

MANILA, P. I., (AP)—A school of journalism, the first in the far east, has been established at the University of the Philippines in Manila, and the classes began work today.

Admission to the school of journalism is limited to third and fourth year students who have shown marked ability in the use of English. The course is open to both men and women. A class of about fifty registered at the opening of the journalistic course.

GOLD SMUGGLERS BROUGHT TO HALT BY AUTHORITIES

Officials at Bangkok Call in Divers to Latest Seizure Before Search is Completed

BANGKOK, (AP)—Several important seizures of British and American gold have recently been made here. The money was found secreted on ships and included amounts of $2,000, 3,000 and $7,000.

The business of smuggling has proved enormously profitable for some time but it is believed that the authorities have at last got the upper hand.

In this latest seizure the officials had to call in divers before their search of a vessel could be completed.

A big water tank was discovered on the side of which was a number of shovels with 10 bags of gold on them. The bags were brought to the surface and were found to contain 13,687 Queen Victoria sovereigns and 6023 American eagles.

Had the gold been smuggled through there would have been a profit of about 10,000 pounds.

AMALGAMATION OF RADICALS IS CONVENTION AIM

Representative of Committee of 48 Discusses Plans for the Launching of Third Party at Chicago

CHICAGO, (AP)—Amalgamation of radical labor organization, world war veterans and liberals behind a single presidential ticket and platform will be sought here at the time of the convention this month of the national labor party and of the committee of 48, it is reported by S. I. Rybins of the committee of 48.

The plan is for each organization to continue its existing but all unite in a common presidential campaign for a radical candidate standing on a radical platform.

The organization which effort is being made to build up includes the labor party of the United States, National Nonpartisan league, Single Tax party, Committee of 48, Triple Alliance of the Northwest, People's League of Missouri, World War Veterans and National Public Ownership league.

"The plan is to bring all of the radical organizations possible into a big organized liberal movement," said one of the promoters. "In program all have points of similarity."

"Such a union for this year's presidential campaign has been under consideration for a number of months. The Committee of 48 and the national labor party have been among the chief factors in the proposition. The organizations have not gotten together as yet. The question will come before the national conventions here the second week in July of the committee of 48, labor party and single tax party."

The Committee of 48 is taking a mail referendum of the membership on several questions, including possible presidential candidates. Senator Robert LaFollette is leading in the poll. Others who have received votes are Frank P. Walsh, Governor Lynn B. Frazier of North Dakota and Senator Walsh of Massachusetts.

EDWARD'S SECOND SON IS "INDUSTRIAL PRINCE"

Keen Interest in Economic Questions and Popularity with Wage Earners Win Subroquet

LONDON, (AP)—Prince Albert, who has become Duke of York, Baron Killarney, and Earl of Inverness, as second son of the king, who possessed the title as King Edward's second son, is known as "The Industrial Prince" because of his keen interest in economic questions, his belief that he is no member of the idle rich but a genuine worker, and the popularity he has won with wage-earners with whom he frequently and comfortably converses.

The prince is described as "a typical, amiable, likeable, practical Englishman, who has no brilliant but knows the job of being prince is no sinecure." His passion is for lawn tennis and squash rackets, and his chief indoor amusement is dancing. Recently he was created a wing commander in the Royal Air Force in which he won his wings as a pilot.

Prince Albert makes no pretense to oratory "but always says something to the point—and his speeches are not without for him."

MONTENEGRO MAKES PLEA FOR FRENCH SYMPATHY

Former King Quotes Belgrade Newspaper in Painting Dark Picture

PARIS, (AP)—The ministry of foreign affairs of Montenegro maintained in Paris by Nicholas, formerly king of that country, has issued an official communique, quoting the newspaper Republique of Belgrade concerning the Serbian occupation of Montenegro. The article says:

"The people of Montenegro are naked and have no shoes. They are too weak to work and earn a living because a majority of the population has had little to eat for the last eight months or more. Many infants are dying and the children in many cases have been unable to go to school because of weakness. This economic misery which is indescribable is aggravated by the regime of the authorities of occupation, maintained by force and corruption. The oppressors, sent by the government of Belgrade, excite the people to anger, they kill them. Those who are not killed are thrown into prison."

Kitty Gordon

Miss Kitty Gordon, musical comedy star and vaudeville headliner, who shot and seriously wounded Joseph Albert Hack, a member of an acrobatic trio on the stage at the Palace Music Hall in Chicago. The shooting was entirely accidental, according to the police. The revolver was owned by Jack Wilson, star of another act, who has been playing on the same bills with Miss Gordon. At the close of Wilson's act, according to the story from Chicago, Miss Gordon comes on the stage in a farcical curtain scene, and with Miss Vera Borasford, Miss Gordon's daughter, and Jack Griffith, Mr. Wilson's partner, engage in a movie farce. In it Miss Gordon fires a pistol at Griffith. The act has been going on this way for two months, it is said. Blank cartridges have always been used in the act, and it is a mystery to all concerned how a loaded cartridge was placed in the gun. Hack was shot while standing in the wings waiting for his turn to go on. His condition is said to be serious.

PRESIDENT OF BRAZIL FLAYS ALIEN AGITATOR

Pessoa Urges Congress to Arm Government with Laws of Defense

RIO DE JANEIRO, (AP)—President Pessoa in a message to the national congress has just denounced alien radical agitators who during the past few months "attempted to promote industrial strikes for their own ends and to destroy the existing social order." Police investigations showed, he said, that the principal agents of these strikes were aliens and that they counseled inhuman and barbarous means, such as the use of bombs, to gain their ends. The president urged that congress should arm the government with laws of defense against these elements. He recommended that the project now before congress regulating the entry of aliens into national territory be promptly passed into law, also the bill relating to anarchist crimes.

BISON HERD IS SHOWING GAINS

Surviving Remnant of Vanishing Species Flourishes at Yellowstone

YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo. (AP).—Convincing evidence that the wild buffalo of Yellowstone National park, the last surviving remnant of the great herds which once ranged the western plains, are on the increase, instead of dying out, as was feared, has been obtained in the discovery of a new group in the southeast portion of the park. About 15 animals were observed, evidently a part of the old herd, which it is thought grew so large that some of its members were forced to break away and seek new pasturage.

Definite information has been obtained that the remnant of the herd are now more than 100 of the wild buffalo in the park. Formerly there were only about half that number.

When discovered, the herd was within five miles of one of the largest hotels in the park and a snapshot was obtained of one of the animals, a fine bull, probably the first photograph ever taken of a wild buffalo.

Ordinarily the wild buffalo never are seen by tourists and only rarely by park authorities, even by the rangers who patrol the most remote sections. The appearance of the new herd close to the main lines of travel was before the season opened and the animals apparently had been lured down from the mountain pastures by the abundance of spring grass on the lower levels. They disappeared into untraveled country as soon as automobiles became frequent along the highways.

Forty-eight calves have been added this year to the tame buffalo herd of the park, which now has a population of 500. Part of the tame herd has been placed in corrals at Mammoth Hot Springs for the benefit of visitors.

Speeders, who carry out their law-breaking schemes on the paved streets of newly improved areas, however! The voice of the municipal administration is sufficient to meet the city as to be rigidly enforced.

At last night's council session the question of checking the growing speeding nuisance was one of the principal topics for discussion. The council promptly was submitted of violations of the speed law along avenues where paving has recently been completed. The condition has passed beyond bounds of reason, and has become a menace, it is related.

That one traffic officer, even though mounted on the wings of a high-speed motorcycle, is insufficient to meet the increasing demand for law enforcement, and to aid the officers in this enforcement the chief executive of the town has been authorized to select such citizens as he believes will work faithfully with the other officers in aiding in bringing about a safe condition of traffic affairs in the residence district.

At the W. H. Edridge will, therefore, secretly name plain clothes men to keep tabs on the districts where violations are rampant, taking license numbers and make of car if possible, to make report to the city officers in case of speeding or operation of cars without closed mufflers. This plan, it is believed, will have the desired effect.

ALLEGED BATTERY
CASE BEING TRIED

S. A. Sieberkrohn was placed on trial in the probate court this morning to answer a charge of battery preferred by the district prosecutor, Frank L. Stepien. The action was taken against Mrs. Lillie Reeves, living on the south side near Rock creek.

Testimony introduced this morning by Mrs. Reeves was to the effect that Sieberkrohn appeared at the Reeves home last Saturday afternoon in pursuit of business as a "spectacle salesman." Mrs. Reeves declared in court that Sieberkrohn, who is about 35 years of age, became unduly familiar while carrying out physical examinations. The case being continued this afternoon after further recess awaiting the arrival of witnesses for the defense.

Hearing the testimony is a jury composed of J. B. Paget, O. D. Allyn, D. E. Rogan, W. Delin, H. O. Milner and L. F. Morse.

Deaths

Mrs. Louise J. Wallington, wife of E. W. Wallington, died at the family residence two miles west of Twin Falls, Wednesday morning at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Wallington spent the month of March in the sanitarium at Hot Lake, Ark., seeking relief from growing ailments, but found it only temporary. She leaves a husband and two sons, Arthur of Pocatello, and Harleigh of Eden. Christian Science services will be held at the cemetery at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

MASHERS AT CROSSING OF CREEK
ANNOY WOMEN—ESCORT EMPLOYEDCity Council is Told of Annoying Attentions
Paid by Irresponsible to Ladies whose Business Compels Them to Use Sequestered Bridge over Rock Stream—Prompt Action is Taken

Complaint lodged with members of the city council against the law-breaking actions of certain irresponsible persons toward women who have been compelled to find their way by various means across Rock creek on Shoshone street, has led to an order for the stationing of an authorized male escort at the trail. This escort will take charge of all women who desire to make the crossing by the bank trail and the swing bridge over the stream. The plan will be in vogue until the new bridge is completed.

Complainants declare that certain irresponsible foreign laborers have recently made a practice of meeting women whose business compelled them to use the swing bridge low down in the canyon for the purpose of harassing them by remark and act. It is for the protection of these pedestrians that the official escort is to be assigned a place at the bridge. This action was taken at last night's session of the city council.

The city engineer has been ordered to prepare an assessment roll covering contemplated construction of sidewalks and curbs. Upon the basis of cost total a contract for construction will be called for.

In anticipation of a more or less extensive paving program, the city administration has authorized the purchase of a carload of water main pipe for the water works department.

Members of the council spent considerable time discussing the question of employing a city physician. Nothing of a definite character was arrived at. There was considerable discussion, too, concerning the need of alley sprinkling. The council came to the conclusion that general sprinkling of alleys is an unnecessary expense. These thoroughfares, however, will be sprinkled in cases where they are near streets and avenues are closed during paving operations.

Stocks have been put in shape for the first sale which started at 10 o'clock this morning.

For the opening of the sale there was a great rush of patrons, and during the entire day business has been maintained at peak capacity. Demand for damaged goods was particularly strong, and the store was crowded with people. The sale was held in the afternoon and evening, and the store was crowded with people.

ELECTORS WILL
PICK DELEGATESPrimaries to Determine Nominees for County Office and Conventions

Election of delegates to the county conventions of both the republican and democratic parties as well as nomination of candidates on either ticket for county offices, is to be accomplished at the primary elections to be held in Twin Falls county, as elsewhere throughout Idaho under provisions of the new election law, on Tuesday, August 3.

Filing of nominations for delegates to the county conventions, as shown by records of the county recorder's office, indicate in many precincts the entrance of sufficient number of candidates at least to add zest to the race. Indications are that the county committee members are representative of personal desire to take a hand in the operation of political processes rather than expression of purpose to further one or another issue or political fortune that may come up for determination.

Separate Primaries

Separate primary elections will be held simultaneously in each precinct by both the republican and democratic parties. The polling places, which are to be designated by the county committee, are to be open on the day of the election between the hours of 1 p. m. and 7 p. m. Volunteer judges and clerks of election in many instances are to serve. No provision is made under the new law for compensation of election officials by either state or county governments.

At the republican primary elections a total of 121 delegates to the county convention will be elected and at the democratic a total of 89. Electors in each precinct will vote on their own candidates for delegates and precinct officers, such as political party and constable, but will have to vote in the election of delegates or precinct officers of other precincts.

Basis of Representation

The basis of precinct representation in the county conventions is established by the constitution, each party's vote in each precinct in the election two years ago.

County Conventions' Work

Claims of candidates for county of office, including the state legislative elections, will be settled in the primary elections and will not come before the county conventions. It will be the business of the county conventions (1) to elect delegates to the state conventions and (2) to elect members to represent the county in the personnel of the state committees of either party. Hereafter the state committee for either party has been elected by the county conventions.

County conventions will be held simultaneously on August 17.

State conventions of either party will be held at the same time on August 24, the republican delegates convening in Pocatello, and the democrats in Idaho Falls. State conventions will nominate candidates for senator and representatives in congress and state officers.

Other Candidates May Enter

Expiration of the statutory time for filing of nominations for any office voted upon at the primary election does not prevent entrance of other candidates. Other candidate's names may be written on the ballot.

Following are the candidates announced for delegates to the county conventions of either party as shown by the county recorder's records:

No Noticeable
Change Ordered
in the Weather

MORE of the same, is the prediction of weather for the next 24 hours. You can guess what it is to be. Yesterday the mercury climbed to a pretty high mark. Being 84, but took a hard tumble during the night, getting down to a level 11 degrees lower than that for the extreme point of the nocturnal period.

There is no promise of precipitation given in the day's report, the general program mapping out a continuance of the warm spell.
