PROHIBITIONIST PARTY SEEKS IN VAIN FOR BRYAN

Rearranges Convention Schedule Pending Word from Nebraska that He Will Accept Nomination

PROLONGED HUNT LOCATES COMMONER GONE FISHING

Platform Committee Continues Labors with View to Drafting Declarations Acceptable to Prospective Nominee

HELENA, MONT. (AP)—William Jennings Bryan, after spending the night at Meadow Lake in Madison county, Mont., 22 miles from the nearest railroad point, went on a fishing trip this morning, according to reports received here. Mr. Bryan was expected to leave for his fishing trip this morning, but he was to have left by automobile for Bozeman. Meadow Lake is within walking distance of the town.

LINCOLN, NEB. (AP)—The prohibition party today rearranged its convention schedule pending word from William Jennings Bryan saying whether he would accept the party's nomination. All plans were being made on the assumption that Mr. Bryan would accept.

Named Over-Protest.
The convention nominated William J. Bryan for its presidential candidate over a protest made by Charles Bryan, his brother, through New York delegates. Early today no word had been received from Mr. Bryan concerning his attitude on the nomination. Scores of messages were handled by a telegraph company last night directed to Mr. Bryan at Danbury, Conn., and Mont., where his brother said he was scheduled to deliver Chautauque addresses. Reports from Crookston, Minn., however, insisted that he was there taking a brief rest after a lecture engagement.

Committee Resumes Work.
The platform committee, virtually ready last night with its tentative draft, went back into executive session to re-draft the platform so that, as the members said, "it would be something in which we could meet with Mr. Bryan's wholehearted approval." Chief among the planks being re-drafted were those dealing with the long list of nations, agriculture, protection and commerce. A plank calling for a world tribunal, but not specifically the Versailles league, was adopted by the committee. Members reserved the right to offer amendments on the convention floor, however, and indications are there will be a fight.

The agricultural plank pledged the strongest possible support to farmers and that concerning profiteering was a vigorous denunciation of speculation.

Talk Centers on Bryan.
There was little doing in the convention hall. All committees and leaders were busy outside arranging to "make Bryan for the post 24 hours has successfully eluded efforts by telegraph companies, press associations, individual newspapers and hundreds of private individuals to reach him. He has been variously reported in Bozeman, Mont.; Pony, Mont.; Devils

King and Queen of Greece to Take an Active Part in War

ATHENS, (AP)—King Alexander of Greece was aboard the cruiser Averoff during bombardment this morning of the forts on the European shore of the Sea of Marmara. Greek troops were landed by the fleet, driving out the Turks.

ALLIES TO GIVE POLES MILITARY AID IF REQUIRED

French and British Missions on Way to Warsaw with Full Authority to Pledge Whatever Help is Needed

LONDON (AP)—Further success for the Bolsheviks against the Poles in Volhynia and southward are reported in Wednesday's Soviet communiqué from Moscow, received by wireless today. The statement shows the Bolsheviks have crossed the old Galician boundary line to the southeast of Lemberg, from which town they are still, however, about 100 miles distant.

PARIS (AP)—The allies have decided to take measures preparatory to giving military aid to Poland, if that should prove necessary, it was learned today. A French mission headed by Jules J. Jusserand, French ambassador to the United States who is home on leave with General Weygand, right hand man of Marshal Foch, and M. Vignon, a close collaborator with Premier Millerand, will leave tonight for Warsaw to arrange for prompt action to the Poles.

On the same train and with the same object there will be a British mission headed by Lord Aberdeen, British ambassador at Berlin, General Radcliffe and Sir Maurice Hankey.

Have Full Authority.
These missions, it is learned, leave with full authority to say to the Poles that whatever aid is needed, whether military or financial or in the nature of supplies, will be forthcoming if the Bolsheviks persist in a design to march into distinctly Polish territory.

It is stated unofficially, but on high authority, that this means help for Poland, in the form of troops, if they are required.

Some Aid Already Given.
Already a large number of allied officers and subalterns are with the Polish army, and it is declared, will be increased according to circumstances with as many divisions of infantry, tank detachments, air forces and artillery as may be transported in the time.

SUGGESTION FOR AID OF UNITED STATES EXPECTED

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Army officers and officials of the state department who have been studying the Polish-Russian operations, expressed the opinion unofficially today that Warsaw can be saved from the Bolsheviks only if

UNION MEMBERS LIKELY TO VOTE ON WAGE AWARD

Referendum Seems Only Possible Course in Opinion of the Brotherhood Chiefs while Promising Early Decision

TENTATIVE ACCEPTANCE OF FINDINGS PROBABLE

All-Night Session Fails to Bring Agreement on Acceptance or Rejection of Board's Ruling

CHICAGO, (AP)—A decision tonight on whether the eighteen railroad unions will accept the $100,000,000 wage award was promised today by T. J. Shephard, when the brotherhood chiefs resumed their conference.

Union officials refused to comment on the reports that they would divide. Privately they said a referendum seemed the only possible course.

If a vote by all union members is ordered the award will be tentatively accepted so that the men will get the increased pay for this month and the back pay from May 1, as provided by the retroactive feature of the railway labor board's decision. A referendum will take at least thirty days.

Heads of the railroad brotherhoods this morning were divided in opinion on the course of action which should be pursued as to acceptance or rejection of the $100,000,000 wage increase granted by the railway labor board.

Telegraphers Vote Rejection.
At the close of an all-night session, at which no agreement was reached, six of the brotherhoods, in addition to the Masters, Matrons and Pilots of America, had expressed their decision as favorably to acceptance of the award in its entirety; seven favored referring the question to the unionists with recommendation that if it was accepted; two were undecided, and one, the Order of Railway Telegraphers, had decided to reject the award and was said to be preparing for a strike today.

It was pointed out that should no agreement be reached by the heads of the brotherhoods, each organization might take individual action on the award.

Board Takes Up New Case.
The railway labor board, which yesterday declined to reopen the railway wage cases at the request of the brotherhoods and expressed the opinion that it had done all possible in the case of the railroad employees, today began hearings on the application for increased pay of 70,000 employees of the American Railway Express company who were not included in the railway men's award.

"VAGABONDS" RETURN TO WORK IN DENVER YARDS
DENVER, Colo., (AP)—Railroad officials said today the entire day shift reported on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy where twenty night switchmen walked out at midnight. The "vagrants" gave no reason, but it is unofficially understood they were dissatisfied.

Harding Strikes Keynote for G. O. P. Campaign Arguments

Warren G. Harding
President of the United States

HARDING'S PLEDGE FOR RETURN TO CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT

MARION, O. (AP)—A pledge of constitutional government administered by party and not by individual and based on national rather than world ideas was given by Warren G. Harding today in accepting formally the republican nomination for the presidency.

Welcomes League Referendum.
He welcomed a popular referendum on the league of nations, advised increased production to out the high cost of living, pleaded for abolition of sectional and class conflict and declared for industrial peace "not forced but inspired by the common will."

Prohibition he gave only a passing notice, saying that despite divided opinion regarding the eighteenth amendment and the statutes enacted to make it operative, there must be an evasion in their enforcement.

He declared it his "sincere desire" that ratification of the suffrage amendment be completed to permit women to vote this fall in every state.

Commends Other Planks.
Reviewing and commending briefly many other planks of the party platform, the candidate declared for collective bargaining for farmers, representation of the disabled, "generous federal cooperation" in rebuilding the country, intelligent definition of the emergency enlargement of government aid in reclamation, a genuine expression of gratitude to veterans of the world war and maintenance of an ample navy and a "small army but the best in the world."

In his promise of "party government," Senator Harding reiterated his belief that the vice president should have a part in the affairs of the executive branch of the government and declared that there also should be a "cordial understanding and co-ordinated activities" between the executive and congress.

"No man," he said, "is big enough to run this great republic. Our first commitment is the restoration of representative popular government under the constitution, through the agency of the republican party."

Promising restoration of peace as soon as a republican congress should pass a peace declaration to a republican president for his signature, the candidate assailed the league covenant as a "small peace but the best in the world" and declared the war's sacrifices would be "in vain if we cannot reclaim a new order, with added security to civilization and peace maintained."

Senator Harding's speech of acceptance in full follows:

The message which you have formally conveyed brings to me a realization of responsibility which is not underestimated. It is a supreme task to interpret the covenant of a great political party, the activities of which are woven into the history of this republic and a very sacred undertaking to offer the faith and aspirations of the many millions who adhere to that party. The party platform has characterized the history of this republic and to expect that interpretation which voices the faith of millions who must perform specific tasks.

Believe in Party Sponsorship.
Let us be understood clearly from the very beginning. I believe in party sponsorship in government. I believe in party government as distinguished from personal government, individual, dictacitizenship of more than a hundred nations it is impossible to reach agreement upon all questions. Parties are formed by those who reach a consensus of opinion. It was the intent of the founding fathers to give to this republic a democratic and enduring popular government, representative in form, but not only the preserving sponsors, but also the effective agencies through which hopes and aspirations and convictions and conscience may be translated into public performance.

Popular government has been an inspiration of liberty since the dawn of civilization. Republics have risen and fallen, and a transition from party to personal government has preceded every failure since the world began. Under the constitution we have the chartered way to security and perpetuity. We know it gave to us the safe path of a developing civilization which no people in the world ever rivalled. It has guaranteed the rule of intelligent, deliberate public opinion expressed through parties. Under this plan a masterful leadership becomingly manifest its influence, but a people's will still remains the supreme authority.

The American achievement under the plan of the fathers is nowhere disputed. On the contrary the American experiment has been a success.

DAY'S TRAVEL BREAKS RECORD FOR YELLOWSTONE PARK
YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo., (AP)—All records for travel in Yellowstone national park were broken yesterday when 1,333 persons and 241 private automobiles were admitted. More than 20,000 persons have visited the park this season, about 20 per cent more than during the same period last year.

FARM BUREAU FEDERATION PURPOSES NATIONALIZING MARKETING SYSTEM
CHICAGO (AP)—Plans for the marketing of grain livestock will be formulated by the American Farm Bureau Federation in a two-day conference which opens here tomorrow.

The meeting is the result of several conferences held by the middle west grain marketing group. J. R. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, called the meeting for the purpose of nationalizing the new marketing system.

"We have two or three plans to consider," Mr. Howard said, "but the main one is to organize the local grain marketing system."

making it possible for the wheat grower to have control of his grain until it reaches the manufacturer. We hope to market our grain in such a way that the grower will have a stable market rather than the 'feast and famine' system that we now have."

ENTHUSIASM RUN HIGH AS NOMINEE GIVES ATTITUDE

Notification Ceremonies Bring to Marion Most of Big Leaders of Party and Thousands of Personal Admirers

MARION, O. (AP)—The republican campaign attained full speed ahead today with the formal notification here of Warren G. Harding, the party's nominee, for the presidency. The notification ceremonies, which brought to Marion most of the big leaders of the party and many thousands of Harding enthusiasts, included an acceptance speech by Senator Harding interpreting the Chicago platform and declaring the principles on which he expects the campaign to be fought.

Others in Political Debate.
His declarations were expected to strike a keynote giving tone to the arguments of republican workers throughout the nation in the season of political debate ushered in by notification day.

The acceptance speech came at the end of a long program in which high-pitched enthusiasm ruled the day as the visiting delegates marched on the Harding residence in unbroken succession to be received by the candidate and to pay their respects in the guise of tumultuous political emotion.

At seven o'clock in the morning a noisy aggregation of Marion citizens packed the hall and the town hall off with a demonstration. To their boisterous acclaim the senator played the leading part in a flag raising, pulling the stars and stripes to the top of the water tower. McKinley flag pole sent here a few days ago from Canton.

Delegation after delegation, with bands blaring and colors flying, followed up to the Harding home to pay their respects and to pay tribute to the notification ceremony.

One of the delegations to whose coming Senator Harding looked forward with keenest anticipation was a band from California, his boyhood home.

Suffragists on Scene.
The purple, white and gold of the woman suffrage cause early made its appearance at the gathering, even but a plan of the women to picket the notification ceremonies was abandoned. During the morning the senator had an appointment to receive a delegation from the national woman's party, who wanted him to aid in securing favorable action by the Tennessee legislature on the suffrage amendment. He said he would be glad to listen to their request but would have no immediate reply to make.

Last night he saw a similar delegation from the National American Woman's Suffrage association and afterward sent a telegram to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, head of the association, declaring that if any republican members of the legislature asked his opinion he would advise that the amendment be ratified at once. The woman's party group, led by Alice Paul, declared themselves pleased at his action but decided to present their petition as they had planned.

A feature of the day was a luncheon given by Dr. C. E. Sawyer, at his farm on the outskirts of Marion, to the members of the republican national committee appointed by the Chicago convention.

Program for Day.
Will H. Hays, the national chairman, was the presiding officer at the notification, for which the city had rented its Chautauque pavilion. The program included an invocation by Bishop William P. O'Neil of the Methodist Episcopal church, the formal acceptance speech by Senator Harding of Massachusetts, Senator Harding's response to the notification by Paul M. Deering, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church there. A gleeful crowd from Columbus to the legislature in singing the Star-Spangled Banner and America.

ample has been the model of every republic which glorifies the progress of liberty and is everywhere the heaven of representative democracy which had expanded human freedom and brought through party government.

No One Man Big Enough. No man is big enough to run this great republic. There never has been one. Such domination was never intended. Tranquility, stability, dependability—all are assured in party sponsorship and we mean to renew the assurances which were reached in the centennial year.

It was not surprising that we went far afield from safe and prescribed paths amid the war anxieties. There was the unfortunate tendency before; there was the surrender of congress to the growing assumption of the executive before the world war imperilled all the practices we had learned to believe in; and in the war emergency even safeguard was sacrificed. The agency of the republican party. Our vision includes more than a chief executive, we believe in a cabinet of highest capacity, equal to the responsibilities which our system contemplates, in whose councils the vice-president, second official of the republic, shall be asked to participate. The same vision includes a cordial understanding and co-ordinated activities with a house of congress, fresh from the people, voicing the convictions which members bring from direct contact with the electorate, and cordial co-operation along with the restored functions of the senate, fit to be the greatest deliberative body of the world. Its members are the designated sentinels on the towers of constitutional government. The resumption of the senate's authority saved to this republic its independence and nationality, when autocracy misinterpreted the dream of a world experiment to be the vision of a world ideal.

To Restore Popular Rule. Our first commitment is the restoration of representative popular government, under the constitution, through the agency of the republican party. Our vision includes more than a chief executive, we believe in a cabinet of highest capacity, equal to the responsibilities which our system contemplates, in whose councils the vice-president, second official of the republic, shall be asked to participate. The same vision includes a cordial understanding and co-ordinated activities with a house of congress, fresh from the people, voicing the convictions which members bring from direct contact with the electorate, and cordial co-operation along with the restored functions of the senate, fit to be the greatest deliberative body of the world. Its members are the designated sentinels on the towers of constitutional government. The resumption of the senate's authority saved to this republic its independence and nationality, when autocracy misinterpreted the dream of a world experiment to be the vision of a world ideal.

Holds American Heritage. It is not difficult, Chairman Lodge to make ourselves clear on the question of international relations. We republicans of the senate, conscious of our solemn oaths and mindful of our constitutional obligations when we saw the structure of a world super-government taking violent form, issued a broad warning of our devotion to this republic. If the torch of constitutionalism had not been dimmed, the delayed peace of the world and the tragedy of disappointment and Europe's misunderstanding of America easily might have been avoided. The republicans of the senate halted the barbarism of independent American opinion and influence, which it was proposed to exchange for an obscure and unequal place in the merged government of the world. Our party meant to hold the heritage of American nationality unimpaired and ununsundered.

World Will Not Misconstruct. The world will not misconstruct. We do not intend to half aloot. We do not mean to shun a single responsibility of this republic to world civilization. There is no hate in the republican heart. We have no envy, no suspicion, no aversion for any people in the world. We hold to our rights, and means to defend, as we mean to sustain the rights of this nation and our citizens alike, everywhere under the shining sun. Yet there is the cord of amity and sympathy and fraternity in every resolution. There is a genuine aspiration to every American breast for tranquil friendship with all the world.

Here we believe, the unspoken sorrows, the immeasurable sacrifices, the awakened conviction, and the inspiring conscience of human kind must commit the nations of the earth to a new and better relationship. It need not be discussed now what motives plunged the world into war, it need not be inquired whether we asked the sons of this republic to defend our national rights, as I believe we did, or to purge the old world of the accumulated life of rivalry and greed, the sacrifices will be in vain if we cannot reclaim a new order, with added security to civilization and peace maintained.

Not Opposing World Hopes. One may readily sense the conscience of our America. I am sure I understand the purpose of the dominant group of the senate. We were not seeking to defeat a world aspiration, we were resolved to safeguard America. We were resolved then, even as we are today, and will be tomorrow, to preserve this free and independent republic. Let those now seeking, or seeking responsibility, propose the surrender, whether with interpretations, apologies or reluctant reservations—from which our rights are to be omitted—the welcome the republic to the American people on the preservation of America, and the republican party pledges its defense of the preserved inheritance of national freedom.

ten is peace; peace that closes the gaping wounds of world war and silences the voices of international envy and distrust. Knowing as I do the disposition of the congress, I promise you formal and effective peace no quickly as a republican congress can pass its declaration for a republican executive to sign. Then we may turn to our re-adjustment at home and proceed deliberately and effectively to that hoped for world relationship, which shall satisfy both science and aspirations and still hold us free from menacing involvement.

I can hear in the call of conscience an instant voice for the largely reduced armaments throughout the world, with attending reduction of burdens upon peace loving humanity. We wish to give of American influence and example, we must give of American leadership to that invaluable accomplishment.

Must Speak Truths for America. This republic can never be unmindful of its power, and must never forget the force of its example. Possessor of might that admits no fear, America must stand foremost for the right. If the mistaken voice of America spoken in unbecoming haste led Europe, in the hour of deepest anxiety, into a military alliance which menaces peace and threatens all freedom, instead of adding to their security, then we must speak the truth for America and express our hope for the fraternalized science of nations.

We will avail nothing to discuss in detail the league covenant, which was conceived for world super-government, negotiated in misunderstanding, and intolerantly urged and demanded by its administration sponsors, who resisted every effort to safeguard America and who finally rejected when such safeguards were inserted. If the supreme blunder has left European relationships inextricably interwoven in the league compact, our sympathy for Europe only magnifies our own good fortune in resisting involvement. It is better to be the free and uninterested agent of international justice and advancing civilization, with the covenant of conscience than be shackled by a written compact which surrenders our freedom of action and gives to a military alliance the right to proclaim America's duty to the world. No surrender of rights to a world council or its military alliance, no assumed mandatory however appealing ever shall summon the sons of this republic to war. Their supreme sacrifice shall only be asked for America and its call of honor. There is a sanctity in that right we will not delegate.

Hold to Own Interpretation.

When the compact was being written, I do not know whether Europe asked or ambition insistently bestowed. It was so good to rejoice in the world's confidence in our unselfishness that I can believe our evident disinterestedness inspired Europe's wish for our association, quite as much as the selfish thought of enlisting American power and resources. self-reliant, but offering friendship to all the world.

Americanism First to Whole World. If men call for more specific details, I remind them that moral commitments are broad and all inclusive, and we are contemplating peoples in the record of humanity's advancement. From our own viewpoint the program is specifically American, and we mean to be Americans first, to all the world.

Appraising preserved nationality as the first essential to the continued progress of the republic, there is linked with it the supreme necessity of the restoration—let us say the restoration—of the constitution, and our reconstruction as an industrial nation. Here is the transcending task. It concerns our common weal at home and will decide our future eminence in the world. More than these, this republic, under constitutional liberties has given to mankind the most fortunate conditions for human activity and attainment the world has ever noted, and we are today the world's reserve force in the great contest for liberty through security, and maintained equality of opportunity and its righteous rewards.

America Must Lead. It is folly to close our eyes to outstanding facts. Humanity is restless, much of the world is in revolution, the agents of discord and destruction have wrought their tragedy in pathetic us, have lighted their torches among other peoples and hope to see America as a part of the great red conflagration. Ours is the temple of liberty. Obey the law and it is ours to call the Sons of Opportunity to its defense. America must not only save herself, but ours must be the appealing voice to sober the world.

More than all else the present day world needs understanding. There can be no peace save through composed difference, and the submission of the individual to the will and weal of the many. Any other plan means anarchy and its rule of force.

It must be understood that toll alone makes for accomplishment and advancement and righteous possession is the reward of toll, and its incentive. There is no progress except in the stimulus of competition. When competition—natural, fair, impelling competition—is suppressed, whether by law, compact or conspiracy, we halt the march of progress, silence the voice of aspiration and paralyze the will for achievement. These are but common sense truths of human development.

Chief Trouble Today. The chief trouble today is that the world war wrought the destruction of healthful competition, left our storehouses empty and there is a minimum production when our need is maximum. Maximum is minimum is the call of America. It is not a new story, because war never fails to leave depleted storehouses and always impairs the efficiency of production. War also establishes its higher standards for wages, and they abide. I wish the higher wage to abide, on one explicit condition—that the wage earner will give full return for the wage received. It is the best assurance we can have for a reduced cost of living. Mark you, I am ready to accede the highest standard of pay, but I could be blind to the responsibilities that mark this fatal hour if I did not caution the wage earners of America that mount-can lead only to industrial and economic ruin.

HARDING'S PLEDGE

I want, somehow, to appeal to the sons and daughters of the republic, to every producer in hand and brain in production, more production, honest production, patriotic production, because patriotic production is no less a defense of our best civilization than that of armed force. Profiteering is a crime of commission, under-production is a sin of omission. We must work our most and best, plus the destructive reaction will come. We must stabilize and strive for normalcy also the inevitable reaction will bring in its train sufferings, disappointments and reversals. We want to forestall such reaction, we want to hold all advanced ground, and fortify it with general good fortune.

Domestic Problems Pressing.

Let us return for a moment to the necessity for understanding, particularly that understanding which concerns ourselves at home. I decline to recognize any conflict of interest among the permanent industries. The destruction of one is the ruin of the other, the suspicion or rebellion of one unavoidably involves the other. In conflict is disaster, in understanding there is triumph. There is no issue relating to the foundation on which industry is built, because industry is bigger than any element in its modern making. But the instant call is for labor, management and capital to reach understanding.

The human element comes first, and I want the employers in industry to understand the aspirations, the conditions, the yearnings of the millions of American wage earners, and I want the wage earners to understand the problems, the anxieties, the obligations of management and capital, and all of them must understand their relationship to the people and their obligation to the republic. Out of this understanding will come the unanimous commitment to economic justice, the economic justice that social justice which is the highest essential to human happiness.

Conscience Brings Justice.

I am speaking as one who has counted the contents of the pay envelopes of the vice-president, the employer as well as the employee. No one pretends to deny the inequalities which are manifest in modern industrial life. They are less in fact than they were before organization and groups on either side revealed the inequalities and conscience has brought more justice than statutes have compelled, but the ferment of the world rouses our thoughts on the necessity of progressive action, and our generation will suffer the experiment which human chaos for our day to re-establish God's plan for the great tomorrow.

Speaking our sympathies, uttering the conscience of all the people, mindful of our right to dwell amid the good fortunes of national conscience, impelled advancement, we hold the majority of righteous government, with liberty under the law, to be our avoidance of chaos and we call upon every citizen of the republic to hold fast to that which made us what we are, and we will have orderly government safeguard the onward march to all we ought to be.

Menace of Group Appeal.

The menacing tendency of the present day is not chargeable wholly to the unethical and favored conditions caused by the war. The manifest weakness in popular government lies in the temptation to appeal to group citizenship for political advantage. There is no greater peril. The constitution contemplates no class and recognizes no group. It broadly includes all the people, with specific recognition for none, and the highest consideration for the majority is a commitment of the republicanism that that saving constitutionalism which contemplates all America as one people, and holds that government free from influence on the one hand and unmoved by intimidation on the other.

It would be the blindness of folly to ignore the activities in our own country which are aimed to destroy our economic system, to convert us to a colossal tragedy which has both destroyed all freedom and made Russia impotent. This movement is not to be halted in throttled liberties. We must not bridge the freedom of speech, the freedom of press, or the freedom of assembly, because there is no promise in repression. These liberties are as sacred as the freedom of religious belief, as inviolable as the rights of life and the pursuit of happiness. We do not hold to the right to crush creation, to stifle a menacing contempt for law, to stifle a peril to the safety of the republic or its people, when emergency calls, because security and the majesty of the law are the first essentials of liberty. He who threatens destruction of the government by force or fraud, his contempt for lawful authority ceases to be a loyal citizen and forfeits his rights to the freedom of the republic.

America's Plan.

Let it be said to all of America that our plan of popular government contemplates such orderly changes as the crystallized intelligence of the majority of our people think best. There can be no modification of this underlying rule, but no majority shall abridge the rights of a minority. Men have a right to question our system in fullest freedom, but they must always remember that the rights of freedom impose obligations which maintain it. Our policy is not of repression, but we must appeal today to American intelligence and patriotism, when the republic is menaced from within, just as we trust, of American patriotism when our rights were threatened from without.

We call on all America for steadiness so that we may proceed deliberately to the readjustment which concerns all the people. Our party platform fairly expresses the conscience of republicans on industrial relations. No party is indifferent to the welfare of the wage earner. To us his good fortune is of deeper concern, and we seek to make that good fortune paramount. We do not oppose but approve collective bargaining, because that is an outstanding right, but we are thoroughly insistent that it exercise must not destroy the equally sacred right, or the individual, in his necessary pursuit of livelihood. Any American has the right to seek employment, and we seek not to endanger the individual and we must discourage groups preying upon one another, and none shall be allowed to forget that government's obligations are alike to all the people.

Railway Service.

I hope we may do more than merely discourage the losses and suffering attending industrial conflict. The strike against the government is properly denied, for government service involves none of the elements of profit which relate to competitive enterprise. There is progress in the establishment of official government of issues and conditions which lead to conflict, so that quelling public sentiment may speed the adjustment, but I hope for that cord of purpose, not forced but inspired by the common will which will give a regulated public service the fullest guaranty of continuity. I am thinking of the railroads. In modern life they are the very base of all our activities and interchanges. For public protection we have enacted laws providing for a regulation of the charge for service, a limitation on the capital invested and a limitation on capital's earnings. There remains only competition of service, on which to base our hopes for an efficiency and expansion which meet our modern requirements. The railway workers ought to be the best paid and know the best working conditions in the world. Theirs is an exceptional responsibility. They are not only essential to the life and health and all productive activities of the people, but they are directly responsible for the safety of traveling millions. The government which has assumed so much authority for the public good might well stamp railway employment with the sanctity of public service and guarantee the railway employees that justice which voices the American conception of righteousness on the one hand, and assure continuity of service on the other.

Government Control Policies.

The importance of the railway rehabilitation is so obvious that reference seems needless for. We are so confident that much of the present day in efficiency and inefficiency of transportation are due to the withering hand of government operation that we emphasize now our opposition to government ownership, we want to expedite the rehabilitation, and make sure the mistake is not repeated.

It is little use to recite the story of development, exploitation, government ownership and neglect, government operation and its failures. The industry of trackage and terminal facilities, the insufficiency of equipment and the inefficiency of operation—all bear the blighting stamp of governmental incapacity during federal operation. The work of rehabilitation under the restoration of private ownership deserves our best encouragement. Billions are needed in new equipment not alone to meet the growing demand for service, but to restore the extraordinary depreciation due to the strained service of war. With restricted earnings and with speculative profits removed, railway activities have come to the realm of conservative and constructive service, and the government which impaired must play its part in restoration. Manifestly the returns must be so gauged that necessary capital may be enlisted, and we must foster as well as restrain.

Emphasizes Present Problem.

We have no more pressing problem. A state of inadequate transportation facilities is directly chargeable to the failure of governmental experiment, is losing millions to agriculture. It is hindering industry, it is menacing the American people with a fuel shortage little less than a peril. It emphasizes the present day problem and suggests the spirit of encouragement and assistance which commits all America to relieve such an emergency.

The non-compensation amid attending anxieties in our new and needed realization of the vital part transportation plays in the complexities of modern life. We are not to think of railroads, but highways from farm to market, from railway to farm, arteries of life blood to present day life the quick need to new communication and exchange, the answer of our people to the most basic of our needs. We believe in generous federal cooperation in construction, linked with assurance of maintenance that will put an end to criminal waste of public funds on the one hand and give guaranty of upmost highway on the other.

Pledges Free Canal Tolls.

Water transportation is inseparably linked with adequacy of facilities, and we favor American eminence on the seas, the practical development of inland waterways, the upbuilding and coordination of all to make them equal to and ready for every call of development and widening American commerce. I like that recommendation to thoughts of America first which pledges the Panama canal, an American creation, to the free use of American shipping. It will add to the American re-awakening.

One can not speak of industry and commerce and the transportation on which they are dependent without an earnest thought of the abnormal cost of living and the problems in its wake. It is easy to inveigh, but that avails nothing. And it is far too serious to dabble with fleeing but futile promises.

Cure More Than Ailment.

Eight years ago, in times of peace, the democratic party made it an issue, and when clothed with power that party came near to its accomplishment by destroying the peoples' capacity to buy. But that was a cure worse than the ailment. It is easy to understand the real causes, after which the patient sent help to effect his own cure. Great expansion of currency and eredit have depreciated the dollar just as expansion of currency has depreciated the coins of the world. We inflated in haste, we must deflate in deliberation. We debased the dollar in reckless finance, we must restore in honest exchange. Deflation on the one hand, the 100-cent dollar on the other ought to have begun on the day after the armistice, but plans were lacking of courage failed. The unpreparedness for peace and little less costly than unpreparedness for war.

We can promise no one remedy which will cure an ill of such wide proportions, but we do pledge that earnest and consistent attack which the party platform contemplates. We will attempt intelligent and courageous deflation and strike at government borrowing which enlarges the evil, and we will attack high cost of government with every energy and facility which at tenfold republican capacity. We promise relief which will attend the halting of waste and extravagance and the renewal of the practice of public economy, not alone because it will relieve tax burdens but because it will be an example to stimulate thrift and economy in private life. I have already alluded to the necessity for the fullness of production, and we need the fullness of services which attends the exchange of products. Let us apply the irrefutable truth, high wages and reduced cost of living are in utter contradiction unless we have the height of efficiency for wages received.

Challenges Profiteering.

In all sincerity we promise the prevention of unreasonable profits, we challenge profiteering with all the moral force and the legal powers of government and people, but it is fair, also, it is timely, to give reminder that law is not the sole corrective of our economic ills.

Let us call to all the people for thrift and economy. Frugality and sacrifice if need be for a nationwide drive against extravagance and luxury to a recommendation to simplicity of living to that prudent and normal plan of life which is the health of the republic. There has not been a recovery from the waste and abnormalities of war since the story of mankind was first written, except through work and saving, through industry and denial, while needless spending and heedless extravagance have marked every deny in the history of nations. Give the assurance of that rugged simplicity of American life which marked the first century of amazing development and this generation may underwrite a second century of surpassing accomplishment.

Founded by Farmers.

The republican party was founded by farmers, with the sensitive conscience born of their freedom and their simple lives. These founders came from the farms of the then middle west. Our party has never failed in its realization that agriculture is essential to the foundation of our very existence, and it has ever been our policy purpose and performance to protect and preserve that essential industry.

Now conditions, which attend amazing growth and extraordinary industrial development, call for a new and forward looking program. The American farmer had a hundred and twenty millions to feed in the home market and heard the cry of the world for food and answered it, though he faced an appealing task amid handicaps never encountered before.

In the rise of price levels there have come increased appraisals to his acre without adding to their value in fact, but which do add to his taxes and expenditures. His helpers have yielded to the lure of shop and city, until, almost alone, he has met and borne the burden of the only instant attempts to force down prices. It challenges both the wisdom and the justice of artificial drives on prices to recall that they were effective almost solely against his products in the hands of the producer and never effective against the same products in passing to the consumer. Contemplating the defenselessness of the individual farmer to meet the organized buyers of his products and the distributors of the things the farmer buys, I hold that farmers should not only be permitted but encouraged to join in co-operative association to fight the just measure of reward merited by the arduous toll. Let us facilitate co-operation to insure against the risks attending agriculture which the urban world so little understands, and a like co-operation to market their products as directly as possible with the consumer, in the interests of all. Upon such association and co-operation should be laid only such restrictions as will prevent arbitrary control of our food supply and the fixing of extortionate prices upon it.

Urges Farmers' Co-operation.

Our platform is an earnest pledge of renewed concern for this most essential and elemental industry, and in both appreciation and interest we pledge of active expression in law and practice. We will hail that co-operation which again will make profitable and desirable.

Solves the Barn Problem

Perhaps you need a new barn to properly protect your stock and crops. That means a building problem that we can help you solve in the best way.

The barn shown above has been designed with great care. The practical needs of the farmer have been kept in mind as well as the necessity for economy. The result is a barn that is easy to build, is strong and substantial and provides large unobstructed storage space for hay.

Heavy beams and braces have been done away with. The mow space is large and open and the Round Roof construction gives you more room for the same amount of side wall and floor space.

The Best Size for You

We are prepared to provide you with plans and specifications to build a Round Roof barn of any size you may need. The cost of construction is more reasonable than you imagine. Come in and talk it over—we're always glad to see you.

BIOTERS WRECK POSTOFFICE AT WEST BELFAST

Soldier and Several Civilians are Wounded when Police Open Fire in Melee after a Night of Terror

BELFAST (P)—Bioting was renewed in the Falls area of West Belfast during the night of Sunday. Fighting between Sinn Féin and unionist mobs, but the situation was tense and the military with machine guns were patrolling the streets. Bioting was falling and it was hoped this would prove a deterrent to further rioting.

Casualties thus far recorded are two men and one woman killed and 30 persons treated at hospitals for serious gunshot wounds. Many wounded did not report to hospitals. Fifty-four arrests were made.

The primary cause of the trouble is believed to be the recent murder of Colonel Smyth in Cork, as many men employed at Belfast come from Balbriggan, Smyth's native town.

This morning the workers returned to the shipyards as though nothing had happened, although the trouble was started in the yards yesterday after a number of Sinn Féin employees had been attacked. The authorities believe they have the situation in hand.

Unofficial estimate places the property damage and looting done by the mob at 100,000 pounds.

ALLIES TO GIVE

adequate support is available within the next few weeks. The government was without official advice of the reported decision of the allies to send troops if necessary into Poland to check the onward movement of the Russians.

It was believed here that the allied powers probably would suggest participation by the United States. Unless an agreement can be reached to send allied troops through Germany, the most likely route for their movement is through Italy, German-Austria and Czechoslovakia. Officials here have estimated that such movement would require at least a month, whereas by routing the armies across Germany it would be possible to detain them in Poland in less than a week. Germany's agreement to such action was doubted here.

Notwithstanding the difficulties officials here foresee in the movement of troops into Poland, satisfaction was expressed at the decision of the allies. These officials professed to believe the mere announcement that aid was coming would go far toward improving the morale of the Polish government and army.

Today's Markets

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, (P)—The tendency of today's stock market was upward following early irregularity. Highest prices were made after publication of Senator Harding's acceptance speech. Sales approximated 325,000 shares.

Eliminating oil and sugar shares, the tendency of prices was variably higher at the opening of today's stock market. This was primarily due to a more cheerful feeling regarding labor conditions in their relation to the transportation situation and the comparative ease of money rates. Gains averaging a point were scored by Baldwin Locomotive, Republic Iron, National Airlines, Wells Fargo Express and several of the miscellaneous specialties.

Oils, steels, rails and motor specialties led the general rally of the last hour on urgent short covering. The closing was firm.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (P)—Reports that there was a heavy demand for corn to move wheat tended today to renew bearish sentiment as to that cereal. Besides, welcome additional rains were falling in the Canadian belt where moisture has been lacking. Continued rains that was damage by black rust had a slight bullish influence at the opening, but only of a transient sort. Initial prices, which varied from the same as yesterday's figures, to be higher, with December $2.56 1-2 to 2.57, were followed by a little further advance and then by a decided setback to $2.54 for December.

Subsequently, some developments about rust and announcement of lively export business together with likelihood that receipts of coarse grain here would be curtailed gave a decided lift to the market. The close was firm, 2- to 3 1-2c net higher, with December $2.59 1-2 and March $2.63.

Absence of aggressive buying weakened corn. After opening 1-4c off to 1 1-2c net lower, including September at $1.52 to 1.53 3-8c, the market hardened somewhat, and then sharply declined.

Later, the market advanced sharply on active buying under the leadership of a big elevator concern that was conspicuous yesterday on the buying side. The close was nervous, 1-2c to 2 1-4c net higher, with September $1.54 to 1.54 1-8 and December $1.59 1-2 to 1.59 5-8. Oats sagged with other grain. Prices started about unchanged, September 76 5-8 to 77c, and then turned down grade. Provisions ruled dull and heavy, influenced by lower quotations on hogs and grain.

"WITH ALL MY HEART I RECOMMEND IT"

Tanlac Restored My Health and Built Me Up Wonderful. Declares Mrs. Chas. Wyder.

Another splendid endorsement for Tanlac was given recently by Mrs. Charles Wyder, 362 Oregon street, Cincinnati, Ohio, who said of the medicine:

"I can recommend Tanlac with all my heart, for it restored my health and built me up wonderfully nearly a year ago and I have had no return of my old troubles since."

"For four years I had been in a badly rundown condition, suffering with pains all over my body. Gas would form in my stomach and I could not eat anything without becoming almost deathly sick afterwards. There was such a pressure of gas through my chest that I felt like I was choking. At night especially I felt like I was smothering to death and often had to get out of bed and just fight for breath. My nerves were so shattered that I would tremble all over from head to foot, many a night I couldn't sleep at all and always felt as if in the mornings as on going to bed, if not worse. I was tired and weak all the time had no energy and never felt the turning of my hands to a thing in the way of work."

"I had no desire to eat and my food seemed to do me more harm than good. I lost weight and kept getting weaker until I began taking Tanlac. It wasn't long after I began taking this medicine before I had a good appetite and I commenced to regain my lost weight and strength right along. After my troubles disappeared I found I had actually gained fifteen pounds in weight, which made me heavier than I had ever been before. My appetite is so keen that I can hardly get enough to eat and I sleep every night like a child. It has been almost a year since I took Tanlac but I am still feeling fine, and am glad to make a statement that may cause others to try this grand medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Twin Falls by City Pharmacy and by leading druggists in every city.—adv.

FRACTIOUS TEAM CAUSE OF DEATH

C. Kitching, Hansen Rancher,
Loses Life when Team
Wrecks Hay-Rake

From injuries sustained in a runaway accident yesterday afternoon Charles E. Kitching died in a local hospital last night. The accident, which was a farm case, the animals became unmanageable and ran away. After covering a distance of a quarter of a mile the team collided with an automobile, the rakes being wrecked. Mr. Kitching received a fracture of the skull as well as a number of other injuries. Included was a torn scalp extending along the lower portion of the base of the skull from one ear to the other, the scalp being lifted several inches. The top of the head, too, was severely cut. Mr. Kitching passed into unconsciousness soon after the accident and died without regaining his mental faculties. He was brought to Twin Falls in the DeWitt Red Cross ambulance and placed in the county general hospital. His death was with him up to the moment of death.

Arrangements for the funeral, which will be held in Twin Falls, are pending.

DR. H. W. SAWYER IS ACCUSED BY BOARD

Local Practitioner Charged by State Authority with Violating License Law

This afternoon Judge O. P. Duvall will render judgment in the state's case against Dr. H. W. Sawyer, who is accused by the state medical board of practicing medicine and surgery without being regularly licensed under the laws of the state of Idaho.

The action against Dr. Sawyer was filed by Clarence Darling, representing the state medical board at Boise, and results from long controversy over the physician's rights as a practitioner in medicine and surgery, and his license to issue medical prescriptions. The case was placed on preliminary hearing in the probate court yesterday afternoon, with considerable testimony introduced by both sides. E. V. Larson appeared for the defense and F. L. Stephens for the state.

Mr. Darling appeared as prosecuting witness against Dr. Sawyer who instituted the proceedings as a test case. Testimony developed the fact that Dr. Sawyer had applied for a state license to practice medicine and surgery, but the application had been declined a permit. Some time was consumed at the preliminary hearing over questions involving a specific charge, and at one time recents was taken to allow the prosecution to amend its complaint to make the charge more specific. Dr. Sawyer, through the amendment is made to defend a charge of performing a surgical operation for a fee. At the conclusion of the hearing Attorney Larson interposed a motion for dismissal of the proceedings.

INDUSTRIAL SURVEY OF TOWN INDICATES STEADY PROGRESS

Building is Booming Both in Residence and Commercial Districts, Showing Tremendous Increases in Comparison with First Half of Year 1919—Labor Situation is Stable

The chamber of commerce has just completed a survey of civic and commercial progress made in Twin Falls thus far in 1920. Compared with the first six months of 1919 business activity for the initial half of 1920 makes an extraordinary showing. Building operations, both the industrial as well as the residence departments, show an important increase this year.

Following is the summary:
Building Permits
First six months 1919—Ninety-nine permits, representing structural cost of $446,950.
First six months 1920—Two hundred and fifty-eight permits representing $799,840 structural cost.

New Residences
First six months 1919—Forty-seven permits for structures costing between $1,500 to $6,000.
First six months 1920—One hundred and ten permits for structures costing from $1,500 to $6,000.

New Establishments
Three garages, one auto accessory store, three auto repair shops, one auto service station, one battery service specialty house, one auto bath establishment, two groceries, one music house, one piano house, four cafes and restaurants, one eating stand, one confectionery house, one soft drink stand, two tailor shops, one shoe repair shop, one plumbing and metal work shop, one supply company, one paint and wall paper store, one drug company, one stationery store, one hair dresser, one watchmaker.

New Industries
Following are the more important industrial concerns commencing business since January 1st, 1920, in Twin Falls:
A brick and pipe company, a bank clearing house, an auto stage line to

Bliss, two building contractors offices, a motion picture theatre company.
Industries Enlarged
Many local industrial businesses have enlarged their quarters since January 1st of this year, including:
The Dehydrating Plant, the sugar factory, one wholesale grocery company, two garages, a wholesale oil yard, the building loan association, and the building of a large storage and transfer warehouse, and enlarging a sheet metal and iron works.
Also many retail mercantiles have moved into new quarters or expanded their present locations.
An isolation hospital, two large garages, and one apartment house have been completed this year.

Public Improvements
Fifteen miles of street grading, seven miles of street paving (five miles still under construction); $50,000 curbs, sewer and bridge structures, and auto tourists park equipped.

Under Construction
A 422 foot steel bridge costing $30,500; $200,000 high school addition; $100,000 apartment house; two store and office buildings; one picture theatre; Elks temple, and two churches.
All the above figures give facts about a city of nearly 12,000 people, indicating an increase in progressive development challenging comparison to any city in the country the size of Twin Falls.

Labor Conditions
Labor conditions though uncertain during the early part of this year just as in all communities employing so many men, have settled into a stable, reliable condition in Twin Falls which has allowed full speed progress in carrying out the extensive building program of 1920.

RECTOR COMING TO VISIT FIELD

The Rev. John C. Donnell, of Newark, May Take Over the Ascension Parish

This afternoon the Rev. John C. Donnell of Newark, N. J., is scheduled to arrive in Twin Falls and on Sunday will occupy the pulpit of the Ascension Episcopal church. Plans are being made by members of the vestry for the entertainment of the clergyman during the coming week, and he may be inclined to remain for a second Sunday service.

The Rev. Mr. Donnell comes to Twin Falls on joint invitation of the vestry of Ascension church the Rt. Rev. Frank Hale, two bishops of the Idaho diocese, the purpose of the call being to give the clergyman a view of this field and its prospects and the church people an opportunity to decide whether or not the Rev. Mr. Donnell would meet requirements as a rector for the Twin Falls parish.

Ascension church has been without a minister for nearly a year and the bringing of the New Jersey minister is the first definite step taken toward filling the pulpit. The clergyman has the recommendation of prominent churchmen of the east and is believed to possess all the requirement necessary to meet local conditions. He is said never to have been in the west, but is strongly inclined toward work in a missionary field.

The Very Rev. Archdeacon Howard Stoy will come to Twin Falls Saturday to assist the visitor in making a thorough acquaintance in this parish, and he may remain for a meeting of the vestry early in the week.

CHALLENGER IS EXPECTED TO FORCE NEXT CONTEST

Triangular Course Gives Opportunity to Shamrock to Prove Advantage

SANDY HOOK, N. J., (AP)—The cup challenger Shamrock IV was towed to the States Island Shipbuilding company plant early today to be drydocked and have her underbody cleaned in preparation for the fourth race with the American defender Resolute tomorrow. The contest yesterday in which the two sloops went over the thirty-mile course in exactly the same elapsed time, has added marked interest to the contests to come.

Captain Burton, Designer Nicholson and Navigator Claude Hickman of the Shamrock were especially pleased with what they agree was a wonderfully fine race yesterday even if the challenger lost it on time allowance.
"Resolute is a fine boat," said Mr. Nicholson, "and Herreshoff has designed a craft that goes better to windward than Shamrock. On the run home before the wind yesterday the sloops raced along beam to beam as if they had been hooked together. It was a fine race even if we did lose it."

The race tomorrow will be over a triangular course ten miles to a leg, and it is this contest that Shamrock is expected to force Resolute to the limit, as the leg of the race will be reached at which point of sailing the Lipton sloop has shown to her best advantage.

HIGH PRICE PEAK

The peak of high prices for foodstuffs has been passed, according to a report just issued by the department of agriculture. This is encouraging, but as the peak was thought to have been passed several times in the recent past, only to discover that a nominal reaction was followed by a fresh advance, there will be no great and premature rejoicing.

The "level of prices paid to farmers for their principal crops," says the report, fell "about 1.7 per cent in the month of June." Less than two per cent of a reaction, although there is the promise of plenty of grain and fruit as a result of improvement in climatic and labor conditions in the great food producing states, isn't anything to boast of. It is still less encouraging when it is taken in connection with comparisons which go farther back than 30 days. The same report destroys all the joy which might be felt over any reduction in the cost of existence by saying that the index figure of such prices is still 29 per cent higher than it was a year ago and 37 per cent higher than it was two years ago.

Whatever may be the average price, it is a fact that some important articles of food are showing no signs whatever of coming down, and this is especially true of meat. In New York City there has been an increase of 12 cents a pound in the wholesale cost of the best cuts of beef in the last five weeks. Wholesalers attribute this rise to the refusal of consumers to buy any but the best cuts, and the demand for these cuts from summer resort hotels. It was explained at the packing houses the demand is so tremendous for the superior grades that the wholesalers are forced to dispose of the coarser meat at whatever prices they can get to prevent it from spoiling on their hands.

Undoubtedly a popular mania for insisting upon the very best of everything is partly responsible for high prices of foodstuffs, as of everything else.

INTERESTING DIPLOMACY

A keen observer long ago discovered that there are more ways of killing a cat than by choking it on cream. This discovery has proved of value to world diplomats, the latest illustration of which is furnished in a cablegram from London.

Early in the war England and France negotiated a joint loan for $500,000,000 in the United States. This loan matures in October next and will be paid on that date because it cannot be renewed or extended on favorable terms. Official announcement to this effect was made in the British parliament several months ago. London bankers are past masters in the business of international finance, developed during centuries of practical experience. French financiers also long since passed the stage of apprenticeship, but because of the heavy depreciation in her exchange, France finds it inconvenient to furnish $250,000,000 to pay her part of the maturing loan.

Recently French diplomats made a strong protest against the English proposal for restoring trade relations with Soviet Russia. Such restoration would involve little, if any, economic gain and might entail financial loss upon France, while it would mean much commercial gain and no loss to Great Britain. How to smother or kill French opposition was a problem.

The diplomatic financiers of London have found a solution. They have proposed, according to the cablegram referred to, that England pay, in addition to her own share of the maturing loan, $150,000,000 of France's share in consideration of the French government withdrawing its objections to restoration of trade relations with Russia. It is reported that France has agreed to this proposal and will thus be called upon to pay only $100,000,000 of her $250,000,000 obligation to American investors.

Thus England will share with her neighbors across the channel a little of the cream which she hopes to skim from the Russian trade and French opposition is painlessly removed.

HARDING'S PLEDGE

the ownership and operation of comparatively small farms intensively cultivated, and which will facilitate the caring for the products of farm and orchard without the lamentable waste under present conditions. America would look with anxiety on the discouragement of farming activity either through the government's neglect or its parasitic by socialist practices. A republican administration will be committed to renewed regard for agriculture and seek the participation of farmers incurring the ill justly complained of and aim to place the American farm where it ought to be—highly ranked in American activities and fully sharing the highest good fortunes of American life.

Pledge for Reclamation.

Becoming associated with this subject are the policies of irrigation and reclamation so essential to agricultural expansion and the continued development of the great and wonderful west. It is our purpose to continue and enlarge federal aid, not in sectional partiality, but for the good of all America. We hold to that harmony of relationship between conservation and department, which fittingly appraises our natural resources and makes them available to developing America of today and still holds to the conserving thought for the America of the tomorrow.

The federal government's relation to the developing development is too important to admit of ample discussion today. Alaska, alone is rich in resources beyond all imagination and only clearer thinking, through the times of transportation and a governmental policy that both safeguards and encourages development, to speed it to a foremost position as a commonwealth, engaged in citizenship and rich in materialized resources.

High Points on Other Issues.

These things I can only mention. Within becoming limits one cannot say more. Indeed, for the present many questions of vast importance must be hastily passed, reserving a fuller discussion to enable occasion as the campaign advances.

I believe the budget system will effect a necessary, helpful reformation and reveal business methods to government.

I believe federal departments should be made more businesslike and send back to productive effort thousands of federal employees, who are either duplicating work or not essential at all.

I believe in the protective tariff policy and know we will be calling for its saving Americanism again.

I believe in a great merchant marine and in making this republic the leading maritime nation of the world.

I believe in a navy ample to protect it and able to assure us dependable defense.

I believe in a small army, but the best in the world, with a mindfulness for preparedness which will avoid the unattainable cost of our previous neglect.

I believe in our eminence in trade abroad, which the government should aid in expanding, both in revealing markets and speeding cargoes.

I believe in establishing standards for immigration which are concerned with the future citizenship of the republic not with mere manpower in industry.

I believe that every man who does the garb of American citizenship and walks in the light of American opportunity, must become American in heart and soul.

I believe in holding fast to every forward step in unshackling child labor and elevating conditions of woman's employment.

I believe the federal government should stamp out lynching and remove that stain from the fair name of America.

I believe the federal government should give its effective aid in solving the problem of ample and becoming housing of its citizenship.

I believe this government should make its liberty and victory bonds worth all that its patriotic citizens paid in purchasing them.

I believe the tax burdens imposed for the war emergency must be revised to the needs of peace, and in the interest of equity in distribution of the burden.

I believe the negro citizens of America should be guaranteed the enjoyment of all their rights, that they have earned the full measure of citizenship bestowed, that their sacrifices in blood on the battlefields of the republic have entitled them to all of freedom and opportunity, all of sympathy and aid, that the American spirit of fairness and justice demands.

For Understanding with Mexico.

I believe there is an easy and open path to righteous relationship with Mexico. It has seemed to me that our undeveloped, uncertain and infirm policy has made us a culpable party to the governmental misadventures in that land. Our relations ought to be both friendly and sympathetic; we would like to acclaim a stable government there, and offer a neighborly hand in pointing the way to greater progress. It will be simple to have a plain and neighborly understanding, merely an understanding about respecting our borders, about protecting the lives and possessions of American citizens lawfully within the Mexican dominions. There must be that understanding also that there can be no recognition and then the understanding must be faithfully kept.

Many of these declarations deserve a fuller expression, with some suggestions of plans to emphasize the faith. Such expression will follow in due time, I promise you.

I believe in law enforcement. If elected I mean to be a constitutional president, and it is impossible to ignore the constitution, unthinkable to evade the law, when our every commitment is to orderly government. People ever will differ about the wisdom of the enactment of a law—there is divided opinion respecting the eighteenth amendment and the laws enacted to make it operative—but there can be no difference of opinion about honest law enforcement.

Neither government nor party can afford to cheat the American people. The laws of congress must harmonize with the constitution, else they soon are adjudged to be void; congress enacts the laws, and the executive branch of government is charged with enforcement. We cannot nullify because of divided opinion, we cannot popularize ordered government with contempt for law enforcement. Modification or repeal in the right of a free people, whenever the deliberate and intelligent public sentiment commands, but perversion and evasion mark the paths to the failure of government itself.

Obligation to War Servants.

Though not in a partisan sense, I must speak of the services of the men and women who rallied to the colors of the republic in the world war. America realizes and appreciates the services rendered, the sacrifices made and the sufferings endured. There shall be no distinction between those who knew the perils and glories of the battle front or the dangers of a sea, and those who were compelled to serve behind the lines, or those who constituted the great reserve of a grand army which awaited the call in camps at home.

All were brave, all were sacrificing, all were sharers of those ideals which sent our boys—thrice-armed to war. Worthy sons and daughters, these, fit successors to those who christened our banners in the immortal beginning, worthy sons of those who saved the union and nationally when civil war wiped the ambiguity from the constitution, ready sons of those who drew the sword for humanity's sake, the first time in the world, in 1915.

The four million defenders on land and sea were worthy of the best traditions of a people never war-like in peace and never pacifists in war. They commanded our pride, they have our gratitude, which must have genuine expression. It is not only a duty, it is a privilege to see that the sacrifices made shall be required, and that those still suffering from disabilities and disabilities shall be abundantly aided and restored to the highest capabilities of citizenship and its enjoyment.

For Woman Suffrage.

The womanhood of America, always its glory, its inspiration and the patent, uplifting force in its social and spiritual development, is about to be enfranchised. Insofar as congress can go, the fact is already accomplished. By my edict, by my recorded vote, by personal conviction I am committed to this measure of justice. It is my earnest hope, my sincere desire that the one needed state vote be quickly recorded in the affirmation of the right of equal suffrage and that the vote of every citizen shall be cast and counted in the approaching election.

Let us not share the apprehensions of any men and women as to the danger of this momentous extension of the franchise. Women have never been without influence in our political life. Enfranchisement will bring to the polls the votes of citizens who have been torn upon our soil, or who have sought in faith and assurance the freedom and opportunities of our land. It will bring the women educated in our schools, trained in our customs and habits of thought, and sharers of our problems. It will bring the alert mind, the awakened conscience, the sure intuition, the abhorrence of tyranny or oppression, the wide and tender sympathy that distinguish the women of America. Surely there can be no danger there.

And to the great number of noble women who have opposed inconspicuously this tremendous change in the ancient relation of the sexes as applied to government. I venture to plead that they will accept the full responsibility of enlarged citizenship and give to the best in the republic their suffrage and support.

Ideal for America.

Much has been said of late about world ideals, but I prefer to think out the ideal for America. I like to think

The Strength of Organization
IN THE BRIEF span of forty years scientific advancement has brought the telephone from a crude experiment to one of the most nearly perfect of all mechanical devices. Engineering has mastered countless problems involved in the distribution of service. Construction has carried the telephone into the most remote corners of the country. Operative skill has combined the efforts of executives, scientists, engineers and commercial management. Together with vision and foresight these are the powers which, united, have made possible the accomplishments of the Bell System.
Nothing less than the finest loyalty, the most untiring devotion, the recognition of the great importance of their task, a fixed determination to serve faithfully, nothing less than this unified strength which has been so wonderfully displayed by the men and women engaged in the business of rendering telephone service could have carried the system through the great strain which began with the war and which has not yet passed.
Seldom, if ever, has public service required so long and so severe a test of a business organization. And never has an employee body responded with more hearty, united and loyal support. And they are still carrying on.

DUFFY BEATS ROBINSON.

OAKLAND, Cal., (P)—Jimmy Duffy, Oakland lightweight, won a decision over Willie Robinson of San Francisco in a four round bout here last night.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES

KALAMAZOO, Mich., (P)—Peter Colby, son of Peter the Great, repeated his victories here at North Randall and Toledo yesterday when he won the $3000 Paper Mills purse for 2:08.4. The time, 2:04.3-4, 2:06 1-2, 2:05 3-4, was a record for the stake. It was a brilliant contest in which the Valencian mount again demonstrated his superiority over the best aged trotters out this year.

The Cox stable now tops the racing summary. Murphy drove Day Star for Walter Cox today and won the 3-year-old trot in 2:07 1-4; 2:08 3-4. The last half of the first mile was trotted in 1:02 1-2.

Murphy piloted Jane Volo to victory in the 3-year-old trot and "Pop" Geers won the 2:11 pace with Prosser. Racing conditions were ideal and over 6000 people saw the contest.

BLACK ORACLE SPEAKS.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., (P)—In his first public statement upon his return to the good old United States, Jack Johnson, former world's champion pugilist, reiterated that he "laid down to Jess Willard at Havana," said he had no money, was broke and was sorry and declared he could "lick any man in the world today."

Brief Bits of Sport

It's a cinch Jack Johnson would not have come over to surrender if he had been making the money he claimed in Tin Juana.

Well, sir, the Shumrock lost that one yesterday all right. It was a good race, and the question now is "did the best beat win?"

Appears a bit doubtful for Tommy's tub was pulling along nicely at the finish, and forced her rival to depend upon time allowance.

One of this fall's flat classics will be staged by Champion Benny Leonard and Richie Mitchell of Milwaukee.

Where this great quarrel will be staged is still undetermined, but the prime essential, matching the men, has been pulled.

Sim Smiley, sagebrush sage, says: "The fellow who howls loudest for 'rain' more money by tax on his 'drift' than one who don't pay none himself."

Tommy Burns says he only fought Joe Beck because if the Britisher was endowed with stuff to meet America's best.

Tommy didn't need to go to all that trouble. He might have been tipped him off to the true dope about the English champion.

Recently somebody declared "horse racing has come into its own."

So to jaddio, it has. Up in Canada the same old bunch has taken control of the "sport of kings" with the result that one horse has been seized as a "ringer."

That's just the trouble with horse racing, wrestling and some baseball.

Salt Lake troopers will soon be playing polo, it is expected. Polo ponies are to be furnished the new cavalry troop in Salt Lake, according to a telegram from the war department.

HARDING'S PLEDGE

there is something more than the patriotism and practical wisdom of the founding fathers. tion, but there is the satisfying knowledge that we hold orderly processes for making our government reflect the heart and mind of the republic. One is not only a fortunate people, but a very common-sensical people, with vision high but their feet on the earth, with belief in themselves and faith in God. Whether enemies threaten from without or menaces arise from within, there is some indefinable voice saying "Have confidence in the republic! America will go on!"

Firm Temple of Liberty.

Here is a temple of liberty no storms may shake. Here are the altars of freedom, the pedestal of the republic. It is American incense, American in its building, it shall be American in its fulfillment. Sectional one, we are all American now and we mean to be all American to all the world.

Mr. Chairman, members of the committee, my countrymen, all: I would not be my natural self if I did not utter my consciousness of my limited ability to meet your call expectation, or to realize the aspirations within my own breast, but I will gladly give all that is in me, of all heart, soul and mind, and abiding love of country, to service in this common cause. Mind only pray to the Omnipotent God that I may be as worthy in service as I know myself to be faithful in thought and purpose. One cannot give more. Mind of the vast responsibilities I must be frankly humble, but I have that confidence in the consideration in support of all true Americans which asks me to stand forth. With an unshakable faith and in a hopeful spirit, with a hymn of service in my heart, I pledge fidelity to our country and to God and accept the nomination of the republican party for the presidency of the United States.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. When over her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well known down town druggist says everybody uses Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

MADDENED HORSE HITS CAR, RIDER MAY LOSE LIFE

Owen Owens has Fractured Skull Result of Accident on Country Road Highway

Alighting with great force upon his head after being thrown from a horse Owen Owens is reported today at the point of death. Owens fell on a rock road, sustaining a fractured skull. He is at the county general hospital.

The accident, it is reported, resulted from a horse race in which Owen and his brother, Robert, together with several companions, engaged on the public highway while riding toward Shoshone Falls last night. It is reported the horse ridden by the accident victim became unmanageable and dashed into an approaching automobile the rider being precipitated over the top of the car, striking his head upon the rocks of the highway. He was hastily brought to Twin Falls for treatment, but has been unconscious ever since the accident. Attendants say his condition is very grave.

According to Robert Owens, no blame attaches to the driver or occupants of the automobile. He credits the chauffeur, who is said to be Herbert Johnson, a truck operator of Twin Falls, with making extraordinary efforts to avoid a collision, and also credits the party of four, occupying the car with doing all possible to aid the injured youth. A woman in the car sustained severe injuries on the face, one cut on the nose requiring several stitches.

The horse ridden by Owen Owens is said to have got beyond control during the race and crashed into the automobile while going at almost full speed. The fracture is located at the base of the skull below the right ear. Besides the three boys there were in the party Dick Hankins, a farm worker, and Willard Swartley, a rancher, aged 23.

Product of Dairy Barred from City by Official Ukase

Authorities Avert that Cleveland Product Not Handled Conforming to Law

William Cleveland, dairymen, has been barred from introducing the product of his place for consumption in Twin Falls. Notice to this effect was officially served on the dairymen by City Clerk W. A. Minnick and Milk Inspector W. H. Hoag last evening. The Cleveland product is barred, according to statements made by Inspector Hoag, until the dairy premises are placed in a condition of sanitation and cleanliness as meets the approval of city authorities in charge of the pure food department. Inspector Hoag declares Mr. Cleveland has received repeated oral warnings and injunctions, but has not, it is said, followed instructions.

At the present time, Mr. Hoag says, Mr. Cleveland is distributing 64 gallons of milk in Twin Falls. The inspector charges that the Cleveland premises are unsanitary and that the method of handling the milk and food products of the dairy does not conform to rule laid down by the city administration in its milk law. Mr. Cleveland, it is stated, has threatened to bring action against the city.

PEOPLE WILL DECIDE ON CHANGE OF TIME

Chamber of Commerce Calls a Meeting Friday to Discuss Moort Question

A meeting of the public is called for Friday at 5 p. m. in the chamber of commerce rooms to decide upon the matter of changing local time to Mountain time.

All persons interested in encouraging or objecting to this change are invited to present their claims at this meeting which will be in charge of the civic bureau of the chamber of commerce. Petitions have been handed to the chamber of commerce containing the signatures of several hundred people, requesting the change.

If no legal technicalities arise, and the public sentiment continues to favor this change, action will probably be taken to set a date within the next few days on which time all clocks, excepting railroad and Western Union, will be moved ahead one hour.

ANNOUNCEMENT
Dr. G. E. Baker announces the re-opening of his dental office in the Idaho Department Store building. Dr. G. E. Baker, formerly of Chicago, will handle the practice until Dr. Baker is able to use the same injured in an automobile accident several weeks ago.—adv.

SUES FORMER EMPLOYER

In the district court Paul B. Brewer has filed an action against the Idaho Department store claiming judgment for $1953.71, said to be the amount due on a broken employment contract. Plaintiff alleges that on March 31 he entered a term of employment which by stipulation in writing was to cover a period of one year at $2400 for the 12 months. He points out that he was discharged on June 14 without reason and seeks pay for the remainder of the year, with interest and costs of action. T. K. Hackman is attorney in charge.

IMPERSONATOR COMING

Thomas Elmore Lucy, poet-entertainer and impersonator, author of "Sammy" and various other caustic publications will appear at the high school auditorium Saturday evening. Mr. Lucy comes from the Federated Lyceum Bureau and his appearance in Twin Falls is under the auspices of the Epworth League of the Methodist church.

FUNERALS

The body of Morse Hardenbrook, brother of Mrs. G. B. Lanitz, will remain in Twin Falls Friday afternoon. Funeral services will be conducted at the Christian church Saturday afternoon, the Rev. W. A. Moore, in charge. Burial will be in Twin Falls cemetery with P. J. Grossman directing.

Simoon Gambols as Weatherman Calmly Snoozes

HUMAN folks are prone to err, otherwise they'd be flapping immaculate pinions and twanging golden lyres in celestial realms.

And the weatherman has some human instincts just as have more common folks. P'ntinence the boss of the Boise bureau misued out on a simoon, or something like one, that passed in the night. Apparently, it wasn't properly scheduled, but it came, anyway, and was followed by cooler weather. The latter has been discovered by the chieftain who predicts: "Fair and cooler tonight, and Friday."

The high point of yesterday's temperature was 93 degrees, low during the night, 62.

BALL GAME SUNDAY

Arrangements have been completed for a game of baseball to be played on the local lot next Sunday afternoon. The opposing team will be Wendell, leader of the Wood River Valley league and the Twin Falls Independents. "Speed" Oliver will pitch for Twin Falls.

ELKS' DANCE

ROOF GARDEN FILER

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 23

Excellent music. Enjoy the cool breeze and a jolly time. All Elks and their families invited.

Consistent Merchandising

In the replacing of our depleted stocks we do not desire to buy Spring nor Summer merchandise. When Fall comes we want every piece to be the very newest that fashion has to offer. However, there are yet two months before Fall merchandise will arrive and it has been a question just what we can offer to you at attractive prices.

We have discovered that because of many cancellations jobbers are offering merchants, who can buy in quantity lots, some excellent bargains in all kinds of merchandise. We are going to take over a number of these job lots and sell them to you at a very close margin. Be on the lookout for them.
