Dayton Declares Half Holiday for Notification Event while Thousands Make Way to the Scene of Program

FAIR GROUNDS, DAYTON, O., (AP)—Governor James M. Cox today received and accepted formally the democratic presidential nomination.

With Governor Cox and his running mate, Franklin D. Roosevelt, marching at the head of the parade, thousands of democracy's leaders and followers gathered at the fair grounds shrine to hear the candidate outline his campaign.

FOR LEAGUE WITH INTERPRETATIONS.

This he based on securing peace by staunch adherence to the league of nations with "interpretations" retaining its fundamental principles and not by what he declared the dishonorable republican plan for a separate peace with Germany.

On the league issue, and generally the democratic standard bearer declared he presented to the American people the choice between democratic progress and reactionary republicanism.

Prohibition was mentioned only by inference in a strong declaration for law enforcement. The governor urged amendment of the woman suffrage amendment and pledged many reforms including tax decisions and economy in government. At the eleventh hour the governor decided not to issue the insert he had planned for his acceptance address.

Reviews Cheering Crowd.

Beating flags and decked in banners, thousands of cheering demomats were reviewed by the governor prior to his address and the preliminary notification speech by Senator Robinson of Arkansas, who hailed the candidate as an "experienced and progressive minded leader" with a long record of achievements during his three terms as Ohio's governor.

A warm sun bathed the fair ground crowds, dispelling the damper of early morning rains, but brought a soggy wave of humidity which made a shirt sleeve crowd of marchers and spectators. Most of the veterans who had seen Ohio but thousands more were from other states.

FARMERS START CO-OPERATION ON HUGE SCALE

Nebraskans Form $2,000,000 Organization to Market the Grain of 40,000 Members and Eliminate Middleman

LINCOLN, Neb., (AP)—What is said to be the largest co-operative organization of farmers in the United States has just been formed here. It will market the grain of the 40,000 members of the Nebraska Farmers' union and eliminate middlemen and brokers. The organization is the National Co-operative company, with a capital authorized at $2,000,000, according to C. A. Gustafson of Lincoln, president of the state union and organizer and president of the company. The union has 1500 locals, 300 grain elevators, 50 general stores, three creameries and two flour mills, besides nearly a hundred shipping associations.

The union also has a live stock commission office in the yards of Omaha, Sioux City, St. Joseph and Denver, and a big wholesale exchange in Omaha that carries everything from farm implements to groceries to supply its retail stores.

The corporation, Mr. Gustafson said, expects soon to build or lease a big terminal elevator in Lincoln or Omaha and negotiations are in progress for seats on the Lincoln and the Omaha grain exchanges.

A regular commission business will be conducted for local companies participating, Mr. Gustafson said, and net profits will be pro-rated on the basis of business done, after the company pays a per cent dividend on its stock.

The corporation also plans to find a market for all farm products to locate and build elevators and to give technical assistance in bookkeeping and accounting methods to participating members.

PROJECT READY SETTLERS AVER

Northsiders Ask State to Accept Irrigation Scheme—Papers Preparing

That the state reclamation department is preparing to officially accept the Twin Falls North Side irrigation project as a completed institution is summary of a statement issued by the state's attorney general, Roy L. Black, Mr. Black says papers are in course of preparation for the signatures of officers authorized to sign them in acceptance of the work.

Recently the attorney general accompanied W. G. Swendsen, commissioner of reclamation to Jerome to investigate an application by settlers of the North Side project recommending that the project be officially declared a completed work, and formally accepted by the department. With respect to the visit at Jerome and the attendant meetings Mr. Black, from Boise, issues the following announcement:

"At Jerome Mr. Swendsen and myself held a meeting with the settlers of the North Side Twin Falls project with reference to turning over the project as completed according to state contract to the settlers. The settlers' organization by a unanimous vote authorized the state reclamation commissioner and the state land board to accept as fully completed the North Side project.

"This recommendation was accepted by the reclamation department and order of turning it over is now being prepared. The project was approved at one hundred seventy thousand acres, one hundred fifty thousand is now under a high state in Lincoln or Omaha.

"This is the first big project ever turned over with the consent of the settlers' organization."

The project was started in 1907. For the past several years E. Shaver has been in charge of the project as a representative of the bond holders. Water for the project comes from the Snake river, and an additional supply is obtained from Jackson river.

Mr. Black and Commissioner Swendsen were at Gooding, Jerome, Halley and Arco on reclamation business. At Gooding the distribution of water in the Wood river irrigation district was discussed with a large number of water users and water masters.

COUNTERFEITING TRAILS IN PROHIBITION'S WAKE

Whiskey Makers Create Demand for Strip Label Revenue Stamp to Go Over Corks

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A new counterfeiting "industry" has followed in the wake of prohibition.

"This industry," says Chief Moran of the treasury secret service, "is the counterfeiting of the strip label revenue stamp that goes over the corks, or that used to go over the corks, or whiskey bottled in bond. Those engaged in the manufacture of whiskey are prepared to use those counterfeit stamps and we have arrested three gangs already for doing it."

At present the main problems of the secret service, however, are to check note-raising, which Chief Moran says has increased to an "alarming extent" in the last year and the forgery of government checks, which he adds "has become almost an epidemic."

Records of the secret service show, according to Mr. Moran, more arrests and investigations during the last year than for any similar preceding period.

SPECIAL FILTRATION PLAN SOFTENS WATER

Twin Falls Laundry has Modern System for Procuring Purified Flow

Through a special process of filtration and refining the Twin Falls Steam laundry management is now supplying the plant with a softened and purified water without the aid of chemicals. The water being used at the laundry, according to E. J. Murray, manager and proprietor, is absolutely free from any manner of contamination; possesses no chemical element and is as soft as fresh rainwater.

The new water filtration and softening process has just been installed at the Twin Falls Steam laundry at considerable cost, but is said to be only a part of a sweeping innovation program contemplated for the bettering of laundry system at the plant. The softening system is known as the Refinito mineral system, a plan considered by the Twin Falls municipal administration when methods of purifying and softening the city's domestic water supply was in contemplation several years ago. The Refinito plan was considered too expensive for the city and proposals looking to its installation were abandoned because of the expense entailed.

In the Refinito scheme water is forced through a mineral gravel, contained in a specially adapted and constructed filter of large dimensions. The filter contains no chemical element but purifies and softens water through the natural elements contained in the sand, which is found in but one known section of the United States, South Dakota. The capacity of the filter is 20,000 gallons daily, which is 11,000 gallons greater than the needs of the laundry at this time. The filter is cleaned daily, and in this cleaning process a system of backwash is employed.

After filtration water is said to be absolutely pure and that this softening process has just been tested and proven manager Murray urges that every person in Twin Falls visit the laundry bringing a water jug in which to carry away a table supply of the pure article.

Washed in water thus processed the life of the fabrics, it is claimed, is materially prolonged, the goods made cleaner, whiter and the texture receiving an added touch of velvet without weakening the fibre or roughening the finish. Refinito is declared by chemists to be nature's own method of purifying and softening water.

Announcement Extraordinary

Perfect Soft Water for Your Laundry Work

YOU remember the water from the cistern and the old rain barrel of grandmother's time—how soft and how clean looking it made the clothes. You can recall, too, that in this water the soap lathered more freely and cleansed with less rubbing.

Imagine now, if you will, soft water that is free from the dust and grime and odors of the roof—clean, sparkling, healthful water that is actually softer than the falling rain.

This is the Water we use to Launder Your Clothes

To give your clothes the benefits of this gentle cleansing medium, we have installed, at considerable expense, the famous REFINITO Water Softening System.

REFINITO is Nature's own water softening mineral, not a preparation to "break" the water. With the REFINITO system, all water that we use is first passed through a bed of this mineral in a large tank. Here the mineral collects and retains the hardening elements, and the water which flows on to the various departments in the laundry is velvety soft.

REFINITO soft water forms no gummy soap curd to cling to the fabric. Linens come back to you soft to the touch, sweet smelling and snowy white; colored goods beautiful in the natural richness of their colors. It helps to preserve the life and beauty of your clothes.

With this water, we launder woollens, blankets, silks, laces, delicate lingerie and all fine pieces that are washable, without damage to color or fibre.

We are proud of our water softening equipment, for we know you will be delighted with the superior work it makes possible. Come in and see this plant, and have a drink of delicious Perfect Soft Water.

ENGLISH COAL MONOPOLY IS THREATENED

Danger of Under-Estimating American Competition in the Markets Formerly Controlled by British Pointed Out

NEWCASTLE-ON-TYNE, (P)—America is threatening the British coal monopoly of Europe. W. J. Noble, chairman of the Tyne improvement commission, in the course of a recent speech, drew attention to new competition from the United States and Australia.

Recently he saw in Scandinavia, he said, vast stacks of coal from America and saw a contract concluded for 200,000 tons of coal from Australia. He has learned also he said, that last year the United States exported nearly 21,000,000 tons of coal to Europe and South America, compared with 1,500,000 the year before the war.

There was a real danger of under-estimating the American coal competition in markets which were once virtually the monopoly of this country, he declared, and gave the following figures to illustrate his remarks:

Shipments to Europe:

- From United Kingdom: 1913, 58,458,000; 1919, 27,468,000.
- From United States: 1913, 476,000; 1919, 12,713,000.

Shipments to Mediterranean:

- From United Kingdom: 1913, 20,400,000; 1919, 7,370,000; from United States: 1913, 429,000; 1919, 5,840,000.

Shipments to South America:

- From United Kingdom: 1913, 6,803,000; 1919, 103,000.
- From United States: 1913, 445,000; 1919, 2,316,000.

Increased production was necessary to regain trade, said Mr. Noble, and with the recent advance in the United States in the price of coal and the government embargo he believed there was an opportunity to do it.

OIL PIPE LINES COMMON CARRIERS IN LOUISIANA

Standard Oil Company Loses Fight of Long Standing Against Independent Producers

NEW ORLEANS, (P)—Oil pipe lines in Louisiana today became common carriers under provisions of a law enacted by the recent general assembly. The lines now come under the supervision and regulation of the state railroad commission.

The bill passed concluded a fight of long standing between the Standard Oil company of Louisiana and the independent oil producers of North Louisiana. The independents claimed that the nature of the business conducted by the Standard proved the corporation's lines to be common carriers, while the Standard contended its lines were private property.

The term "common carriers" as defined in the law includes persons, firms or corporations engaged in the transportation of crude petroleum for hire or which may be legally held to be such from the nature of their business. It is provided that there shall be no discrimination against the owners or shippers of oil.

Today's Sporting News

WINS $123,450; NOW ENTERED IN SARATOGA RACES

'Man o' War' Cracks of This Year's Turf, Goes to Sea-son's Classic

Man o' War now to Saratoga the winner of $123,450, and hereinafter now making us to how much the great colt will yet pile up before his turf career ends.

At the Springs he is expected to start in the Travers, which last year was worth a trifle less than $10,000, and in the Saratoga cup, the value of which was a little more than $5000 in 1919. If he should win both races his earnings would then be in the neighborhood of $138,000, and there would still be ahead of him the Realization and the Autumn gold cup at Belmont park, with the possibility of another engagement or two at the autumn meetings in Maryland and Kentucky. The Realization is worth about $20,000 and the weight for age race should net $10,000 or $7,000 more, so that the purse set for Man o' War to wind up his campaign with $165,000 or more to his credit if he can hold his form and continue to smother his competitors at all.

The largest winning ever credited to an American race horse were $103,550 won by Domino in his three campaigns at 2, 3 and 4 years of age. A succession of unusually rich stakes for 2-year-olds in 1893 enabled him to earn nearly $180,000 in his first campaign. When he retired at the end of his 4-year-old campaign he had started in 25 races, of which he won 18 and made a dead heat in another. In all his races he never met a runner that could beat him at even mile, and at one distance up to one mile and he never won a race at a greater distance than one mile.

As a race horse Man o' War has already made a record which exceeds Domino's from almost every point of view and had he been entered in the Latonia championship, worth close to $50,000, and the Kentucky derby, worth about $25,000, he had been signed by the 3-year-old campaign might have exceeded those of Domino's whole career.

Ed Maier Says Case is Word of One Man Against Another—Fears Club Suit

LOS ANGELES, (P)—W. H. McCarthy of San Francisco, president of the Pacific Coast Baseball league will arrive in Los Angeles Sunday morning to complete his investigation of the case of "Babe" Borton, Vernon first baseman, according to a telegram received from him late today by Ed. Maier, Vernon owner.

Gambling on ball games and other charges have been made against Borton by McCarthy, who has said the Tiger player must name persons involved in any alleged "crap" game before he can receive a trial by league directors. Borton has declined to give names or to say anything except that it is his "own business" and that he is confident of vindication.

Maier announced he would appeal to McCarthy to give Borton another chance. He also declared he would not release Borton on the allegations so far made against him.

"McCarthy is a fine square fellow," said Maier, "and I am with him in his fight against gambling on baseball. But I have no evidence against Borton. If I released him he would have the right to sue me."

"After all, in the matter of Ralph Stroud, Salt Lake pitcher, saying Borton offered him $300 to throw a game, I'm a case of Stroud's word against Borton's."

SOLONS CALLED IN TENNESSEE

Governor Roberts Convenes the Legislature to Act on Suffrage Amendment

NASHVILLE, Tenn., (AP)—The formal call for the special session of the state legislature to begin Monday and to consider among other things ratification of the federal suffrage amendment was issued today by Governor Roberts.

The first item mentioned in the extra session call is action on the suffrage amendment. The next in action to fix the legal status of women. The third item is to prescribe the qualifications of women for suffrage, including imposition of poll tax and to provide for their registration.

Should the legislature act favorably on the amendment, Tennessee would become the thirty-sixth state to ratify and the constitutional change would become effective in time for the women of the country to vote in the presidential election in November.

Conflicting claims as to the ultimate action of the state assembly are made by suffrage and anti-suffrage leaders who have been active nearly a month. Proponents of ratification contended that they had gained in the special election, August 5 at which three members of the senate and ten members of the house were elected.

RAILROADS WOULD HONOR RETURN TICKET COUPONS

Commission to Decide Soon on Status of the Carriers' Proposal

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Announcement was made today at the interstate commerce commission that the railroads had proposed that return ticket coupons purchased prior to August 26, the effective date of the new passenger fare engorgement, be honored. The commission has the proposal under consideration and is expected to approve it.

The question of the status of mileage books and commutation tickets purchased prior to August 26 also is being considered by the commission and a decision probably will be made within a few days.

Replying to an inquiry by Commissioner Betts of Arizona, regarding the use of return tickets after the effective date of the new passenger fares, John E. Benton, chief of the Association of Railway Commissioners telegraphed today that the interstate commerce commission still thought that the use of the coupon tickets was permitted with the exception of return Pullman tickets.

PAPER SUITS SOON TO MAKE DEBUT IN AMERICA

Indications Point to Great Popularity of the "Ersatz" Clothing

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Paper suits much in vogue in Germany and Austria soon will make their appearance in the United States and if inquiries to the department of commerce can be taken as an indication of the probable demand they may become even more popular in the lower-the-living standard than was the lovely overall in a short time ago.

Cable orders for samples of the suits have been dispatched by department of commerce, it was announced today and when the samples arrive they will be displayed not only in Washington, but also in the department's district and cooperative offices located in important cities of the country.

Explaining its orders for the samples, the department issued this statement: "This action was taken because of the wide interest created by the publication of a recent dispatch from England that a large quantity of such suits were on display in English stores."

"The bureau of domestic and foreign commerce has received many inquiries from interested parties in the United States as a result of the publicity given the report. A good number of the inquiries were under the impression that the bureau had a supply on hand. Several orders from three to ten. One man asked for fifty. Practically all stated the size desired. It is understood that the suits are supposed to retail at about 40 cents each."

Today's Markets

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, (AP)—Resumé of conditions in the business world by the Federal trade review disclosing a process of readjustment introduced a spirit of caution into the dealing on the stock exchange today. Renewed liquidation of low priced stocks was resumed, especially in the steel, paper and machinery groups. Bear pressure was exerted against a varied list of industrial stocks including the steels, motors, shippings, equipments, papers and copers which sustained losses of 1 to 2 points. High priced railroad shares held up well. The more reassuring foreign news was without much effect on exchange quotations, sterling yielding while some of the other remittances were higher. The closing was easy. The total sales approximated 225,000 shares.

Speculation was uncertain and business light at the opening of the stock market today. Variations were fractional for the most part. The bullish impulse which was so marked yesterday in special stocks was lacking, but on the other hand, the bear pressure was slight. Bethlehem, Republic, Granite, Mexican Petroleum and Utah Copper were lower while Reading, Baltimore and Ohio, American International, Baldwin and Cotton Oil advanced. New York, Chicago and St. Louis which rumor says is to be taken over by Delaware and Lackawanna, opened 18 points higher at 53, while Lackawanna improved 8 1-2 to 245.

Liberty Bonds

NEW YORK, (AP)—Closing prices today were: 3 1-2's $90.25; first 4's $85.40 bid; second 4's $84.68; first 4

Grains and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Rains in Illinois and other states overnight caused a sharp break in wheat prices at the opening of the market today. At the start initial quotations were off 1 1-2 to 5 1-2 with December $2.31 to 2.32 and March $2.33. There was little rallying power displayed.

Wheat fluctuated rapidly within a fair range, there being some buying of futures credited to northwestern account. Country offerings to arrive were steady to 20c higher, the best situation being the main-influence. The close was nervous with prices 2 1-2 to 2 3-4 lower, with December $2.33 1-2 to 2.33 and March $2.37 1-2.

Corn followed the course of wheat, opening prices ranging from 1 3-4 to 3 3-8c net lower with September $1.14 to 1.15 and December $1.24 to 1.25. The trade opinion active on the way down when liquidation set under way. Fair support developed from shorts and commission houses which caused a rally. Corn rallied sharply toward the close under a local trader, who was a big seller yesterday, was credited with free buying, especially the September option. The close was weak, however, with prices half to 3 8-8c under yesterday's figures. September $1.40 1-2 to 1.40 3-8 and December $1.25 3-4 to 1.25 1-8.

Oats declined in sympathy with other grains, starting 1 1-2 to 1 3-8c lower, when liquidation set under way. Fair bids soon became a factor in checking the decline.

EASTERN REPRESENTATIVES: George B. Davis, Inc., 171 Madison Ave., New York, A. R. Keator, 1411 Hartford Building, Chicago.

In the midst of the rack of present day politics in Idaho one fact stands out with startling clearness and that is that among the field of contenders of the senatorial nomination, no single candidate has any particular lead over any other candidate, and no one aspirant has gained any particular strength for some time past.

The condition is not a healthy one. If it continues it will result in the selection of a man who cannot possibly be said to represent more than a very small part of the sentiment of the public as a whole, and who will have, to a greater or less extent, to contend with forces set up as a result of his choice which will add materially to the difficulties of his election.

The main task before the Republicans of Idaho today is to elect a Republican to the United States Senate. Incidental to this task comes the selection of a candidate, and it is imperative that the candidate selected shall be that man best qualified to win the election. It is not at all necessary that this man be chosen from the ranks of the present field of contenders. In many respects it would be better if he were not. No single man in the race today represents a united Republican party, and without a united Republican party after the convention, no man can hope to be elected.

There is no earthly reason why those delegates selected to choose a candidate for the senatorial race at Coocatoloo, would not step aside from the path and choose someone whose name has not even been considered, politically speaking, for the position of United States Senator. Their first duty is to choose a man who can win, and if it seems to the Convention and to the public at large that some man other than the entire list of open candidates, is better qualified and better calculated to bring success to the party and credit to the state as a whole, by all means let him be chosen.

This is practical politics and public compromise none.

The News would suggest the name of Federal Judge Frank S. Dietrich as the choice of the Republican convention. Judge Dietrich, so far as is known, is not in any sense a candidate for the United States Senate. There is no means of knowing if he would even be willing to permit his name to be placed before the convention. But it is a fact that such a man would be eminently qualified for the duties of the position, and in the interests of the public good, it is a question if any man has a right to refuse such service.

Probably there are other men equally as capable of performing the duties of the office as is Judge Dietrich, and a choice of any one of these would probably be attended with results just as generally satisfactory to Idaho and her people. This, in a sense, remains to be seen. Certain it is that the glare of the spotlight over a period of many years has not served to bring out many imperfections in the case of this particular man, and the fact that, while occupying a position of public trust he has not seen fit to actively engage in politics, should spell much in the way of public recommendation.

There can be no question of the ability and all round fitness of Judge Dietrich and very little room for doubt but what such a man as a representative of Idaho in the United States Senate would bring to the position a degree of dignity and general usefulness which would be a credit to the State.

OHIO'S PLACE IN THE SUN Although there is disagreement, due to difference of judgment, as to who it will be, Ohio, the birthplace of six presidents and the home of another when elected, will have another son elevated to the highest office in the gift of the people.

There is a good reason for the prominence of Ohio men in politics. The state, while Republican the greater part of the last 50 years, has never been overwhelmingly so. This has made it necessary to consider what Ohio would do and that entailed picking candidates who would have strength in that commonwealth. Naturally a son of the state would stand the best show in such a contest. Fortunately, too, Ohio developed men. Candidates were forced to run on their merits.

COX SETS FORTH CLAIMS OF DEMOCRACY TO POWER

Democratic Presidential Nominee, in Speech of Acceptance, Militantly Champions League of Nations as Proposed by Wilson with Reservations Insuring Good Faith and Understanding Only; Bitterly Flays Political Opponents

DAYTON, O., (AP)—Peace for America and the world by this nation's entrance into the league of nations with a reservation which distinguishes its vital principle was proclaimed today by Governor James M. Cox, the democratic presidential standard bearer, as his paramount policy.

Champions League Cause. In his address here accepting the democratic nomination Governor Cox minutely championed the league as proposed by President Wilson, with interpretations insuring good faith and understanding, and denounced what he termed the ill-considered proposal from Senator Harding, in his republican position, for "a separate peace with Germany."

League or no league, the democratic nominee declared at the issue between the two parties—"the supreme issue of the century," he said. "The question is," Governor Cox declared, "whether we shall or shall not join in this practical and humane movement. President Wilson entered the league in our name. Senator Harding, as the republican candidate for the presidency proposes in plain words that we remain out of it. As the democratic candidate I favor going in."

Ratification First Duty. "The first duty of the new administration will be ratification of the treaty," Governor Cox said, predicting the success of the league. He called for election of a senate with the requisite majority for ratification. Governor Cox said the "interpretation" should state "our interpretation of the covenant as a matter of good faith to our associates and as a precaution against any misunderstanding in the future."

Assailing the Lodge Reservations as enemies of the league, Governor Cox suggested two specific "interpretations" as outlined several months ago in a newspaper article. One declared "America's continuance in the league shall depend upon the league's use only as an agency for world peace; the other stated the understanding that this nation could not only within the constitution, declare unalterable by any treaty.

The door to other "interpretations" was left open by Governor Cox, but he said that the democratic platform plank against the "interpretations" regarding anything that disturbs the vital principle of the league.

Leaves No Room for Doubt. No room for doubt was left as to the governor's position on the league as the pre-conditions for ratification. As on other subjects, he stated his position squarely.

"We are in a time which calls for straight thinking, straight talking and straight acting," he said. "It is no time for wobbling."

In position, the league question led the candidate's address and to it he devoted 1000 words of the 100,000 odd total. The prohibition amendment and Volstead law were not specified in the address, but Governor Cox promised emphatically strict law enforcement. "The constitution," he said, "in its broadness and limitation given to and placed upon the law making body. The legislative branch of government is subjected to the rule of the majority. The public official who fails to enforce the law is an enemy both to the constitution and to the American principle of majority rule. It would seem unnecessary for any candidate for the presidency to say that he does NOT intend to violate his oath of office. Any one who is false to that oath is more unworthy than the law violator himself.

have anything to do with either of us." "This plan would not only be a piece of glaring chicanery, but plain, unadulterated dishonesty as well," he said, inveighing against any scheme with our associated powers. "This act would either be regarded as an act of madness or attempted international bossism," he added. Demounces Profiteering. Discussing domestic questions, Governor Cox denounced profiteering in length and promised that profiteers should "suffer the penalty of the criminal law." Fair returns for both capital and labor were advocated, the nominee also approving development of both "into large units," "without injury to the public interest." "Collective bargaining by labor through its own representatives was approved by the governor, who added: "We should not by law abridge a man's right to labor or quit his employment. However, neither labor nor capital should take action that would put in jeopardy the public good." "We need a definite and precise statement of policy as to what business men and workmen may do by combination and collective action. The law is now so ambiguous that it almost turns upon the predeclared will of the judiciary. The rules of business should be made more certain so that on a stable basis men may move in confidence. Disputes between capital and labor are inevitable, Governor Cox said, and public opinion settles prolonged strikes. Declaring that "public opinion should determine in America," he said the laborer should be in an important position, protect lives and property and, possibly, at times, inquire into facts of a tie-up. "But facts and not conclusions," he said, "should be submitted."

Flays Opposition. His opposition—candidate, platform, leaders and congressional record—were flayed by Governor Cox in searching terms throughout his long address. A "senatorial oligarchy," led by Senators Lodge, Penrose and Smoot, Governor Cox charged, selected Senator Harding to lead the republicans and fastened "into the party platform the creed of bitterness and hate and the vacillating policy that possesses it." "The republican stand generally, as scored by the governor as reactionary and, on the league question, he said the party's candidate was bent to the exclusion of the policy of Senator Johnson of California. The republican congress, the governor asserted, failed to pass a constructive law to reduce war taxes.

Millions in campaign funds have been gathered for "the reactionary cause," the governor charged deploring election of a new administration "under corrupt auspices" and demanding publicity for "the plain truth" regarding all contributions and disbursements. The democrats, he added, would not attempt "to compete by dollars." He vowed the party would "cunning devices backed by unlimited prodigious expenditures" "to confuse and lure."

Claims Freedom from Promises. Governor Cox said he took up the democratic banner "a free man, unfettered by promises." "We want a change," he said, "from the old world of yesterday where international intrigues made people mere pawns on the chessboard of war. We want a change from the old industrial world where the man who toiled was assured of a full dinner pail as his only lot and portion. We stand at the forks of the road. One leads to higher citizenship, a freer expression of the individual and a fuller life for all. The other leads to reaction, the rule of the few over the many and the restriction of the average man's chances to grow upward. But I have an abiding faith that the pitfalls will be avoided and the right road chosen.

"The leaders opposed to democracy promise to put the country back to normal. This can only mean the so-called normal of former reactionary administrations."

"Our view is toward the sunrise of tomorrow. The opposition stands in the skyline of the setting sun, looking backward, at the old days of reaction."

Pays Tribute to Wilson. A graceful tribute to President Wilson was paid by Governor Cox when, scolding the republican platform for absence of "a line that breathes confidence of pride" in the nation's war achievements, he said that while soldiers fell in the trenches Mr. Wilson "was broken in the enormous labor of his office."

The republican proposal for a separate peace, Governor Cox declared, would be "the most discouraging event in civilization since the Russians made their separate peace with Germany." Citing difficulties in the plan, Governor Cox said that if accomplished "no nation in good standing would in lieu of excess profits taxes, "a small tax, probably of one or 1 1/2 per cent, on the total business of every going concern." He also urged "making the holders of hidden wealth pay their share of taxes with those whose property is in sight." Advocating reform of federal agencies and activities, including establishment of a budget system, the governor said the government could be run on $5,000,000,000 annually including sinking fund and national debt interest. Disarmament provisions of the League of Nations, he added, constitute "an appealing fundamental" and its loss a surety of armament burdens.

Commands Reserve Act. The federal reserve act was commended as length as the greatest factor in America's war efforts next to personal sacrifices of the people. The law is a democratic achievement, he said, enacted "against the protests of the bitter republican stand-pattens." In its development he recommended establishing foreign banks in trade centers and urged Americans to guard the hands of those who have never been their friends.

Repeat of war laws restricting freedom of speech and assembly and liberty of the press was advocated, together with Americanization of alien residents and extension of education work "without encroachment by the federal government on local control."

Agricultural subjects formed another extensive feature of the candidate's speech, many expedients for agricultural development being advocated, including reduction of tenantry, increased production, cooperative selling as well as purchasing for farmers, establishment of municipal markets and "modern state rural school codes," and increased acreage by irrigation development. He also declared for government regulation of coal storage and a time limit on storage products.

Advocating more home owners, Governor Cox said that under democratic government the house of the country had been widely affluenced. Praising American youth for its war service, Governor Cox declared that the nation owes a debt to those who died and their dependents and to the wounded, who should be trained and rehabilitated. Also, he said, "we must realize that considerable compensation is due officers" "who lost much by their break in their material hopes and aspirations."

Defends Mexican Policy. The Mexican situation, the governor stated, has been "trying our patience for years," but now begins to show signs of improvement. "Not the least of the things that have contributed to it," he continued, "is a realization by the people of that country that we have neither just for their domain nor disposition to disturb their sovereign rights."

On the railroad question, Governor Cox absented giving a through test to private ownership" under government regulation, the latter now being accepted, he said. Financial credit for the roads, he stated, should be provided. Decreasing of government operation of the carriers was declared as "unfair" and "insincere."

Pledges Tax enactment. A pledge for "heavy" and immediate reduction of federal taxation was made by the nominee who said that, with economy, $2,000,000,000 could be looped off. He advocated repeal of "annoying consumption taxes," and said incomes of wage earners, agricultural products, and salaries, professional and small business men should be "sharply modified." He suggested,

Short Shift for Agitators. Conviction of children by prevention of child labor, adequate pay for government employes, short shift for anaerobic agitators and development of waterway transportation were other affirmative policies the governor announced. "I accept the nomination of our party," he said in conclusion, "obedient to the Divine Sovereign of all peoples, and hopeful that by trust in Him the way will be shown for helpful service."

Brief Bits of Sport

Marty Krug, Red Keystoner who recently jumped the club, has returned and will be back in the fold next week.

Harl Maggett, however, declares in unequivocal terms he will take his case into the courts.

Which recalls the instance of Leo Magee who did likewise and the only persons profiting from said legal proceedings were Magee's lawyers.

Frank Pennely, a famous shortstop three decades past, died suddenly at his home in Fall River, Mass., the other day.

Pennely played with the original Cincinnati Reds and the Philadelphia club.

After Babe Ruth had that accident with his automobile Colonel Ripperd and Miller Huggins had a conference, and they went out and asked Babe to please walk hereafter.

But the accident doesn't appear to have impaired for the moment his batting eye. Yesterday he battered Dugas of Detroit for a brace of circuit clouts.

At that Ruth is making the 1921 home run record road awfully rocky for himself.

Looks like there is a big cleaning of players coming for the best of the next year. Every minor who has displayed himself half talent this year is being picked up for tryouts.

Friends of Ray Lane, featherweight boxer of Boise, have addressed a petition to the state boxing commission requesting the little man's reinstatement.

Rose recently refused to fight Art Brugger of Salt Lake after he had sized up the house. He was on a percentage basis.

Ben Dickie Kerr went in against the West Sox yesterday after Claude Williams had apparently lost himself and the atom stopped the enemy in their tracks, the White Sox winning 4 to 3.

Because Mike O'Dowd refused to fight Battling Oates when the latter wanted his own special man to referee the bout, fans of Portland have dubbed the former champion a "run out" fighter.

Bribery charges are all false, says Hal Chase, but whether Hal can prove that is another question.

WINNIPEG MAN REPORTS GAIN

All His Troubles Were Overcome and He Feels Fine Since Taking Tanlac

"I have gained twenty-five pounds by taking Tanlac and never felt better," said E. J. Coleman, a law painter and decorator, of 195 Michigan Ave., Winnipeg, Man.

"About a year ago I had double pneumonia," said Mr. Coleman, "and it took me a week to get on my feet. I went to work by myself and my stomach was such bad shape I could hardly eat enough to keep a bird alive. My nerves were so shattered I almost collapsed when a friend one day unexpectedly slapped me on the back. It was out of the question for me to sleep at night. I was even afraid to be alone in the dark and had to have someone in the room with me all day. My doctor went out of order that I had a pain across my back nearly all the time, and I lost so much weight I actually looked like a frame.

"I had taken so much medicine without getting better that I was discouraged and when my folks brought me a bottle of Tanlac I didn't want to take it; but finally I tried it and much to my surprise, I began to improve right away. Now I am on my fourth bottle and am so well I can do as hard a day's work as any man. I eat heartily of anything I want and never have the slightest pain or trouble of any sort whatever now. As long as I live I'll never be able to praise Tanlac enough for what it has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Twin Falls by City Pharmacy; in Hansen by B. J. Bellwood and by the leading druggists of every city.—adv.
