AUSTRIA WAITS FOR ELECTIONS ON BIG ISSUES

Wealth Levy and Constitutional Reform Leading Questions Presented to Voters of Three Parties

VIENNA, (P)—It is now settled that elections for a new national assembly will be held the first week in October. Unless another crisis should arise, which is most unlikely, the present cabinet (that took office last week, will continue in power and carry out the non-partisan program agreed upon at its constitution.

The wealth levy and constitutional reform, on which came the deadlock that resulted in the downfall of the Honner ministry, still occupy the leading place as issues. It was agreed upon that their consideration should continue and an effort be made to reach a compromise that will permit of passage by some form of the social democrats and the Christian socialists supported by the big German party, are so far apart, however, that an acceptable compromise of a workable character is regarded as unlikely.

The social democrats are unyielding in their insistence upon a compulsory fortune contribution that shall place the burden of the taxation upon the wealthy, landed and other classes, while the conservative parties, united in this, declare that so radical a measure as that proposed shall never become law. At present all parties are playing for position in the coming campaign and attempting to throw the burden of blame for the failure of the assembly to enact any of the vital measures before it upon the other.

The socialists at first attempted to eliminate themselves entirely from the new ministry. For 10 days they held out, wishing to compel the Christian socialists and Big Germans to shoulder the government alone. The political move in this was so obvious that the latter refused the trap and the so-called working cabinet resulted. In the socialists retain the portfolio of war, giving them control of the army, while the Christian socialists have the ministry of the interior which means control of the police.

The state of politics in Austria may be judged by the importance attached to these two forces.

The Big Germans, heretofore unrepresented by a portfolio, connected to enter the temporary government and hold the ministry of justice. With elections three months away it is impossible to predict a result. The general belief, however, that neither of the dominant parties can secure a working majority. The probabilities are that the Big Germans will make some gains, in view of the imminent agitation, and again from a block that will hold the balance of power.

PROPOSE BERTHS FOR HUN TROOPS

Performances Interrupted by Five Years War Resume at Nancy

BERLIN, (P)—A practical suggestion to solve the vexed problem which to do with 100,000 men who are in compliance with a Spä undertaking, are facing discharge, is offered by the "economic union of German professional soldiers" which has worked out a scheme to distribute the men in different state-owned plants which are at the present moment lying idle. The German government is to subsidize working expenses of these plants and fix a scale of wages. The operation of the plants would constitute a novelty because they would be worked on the principle of "mutual comradeship" and the relationship of employer and workmen would be eliminated. The government would take over the main output of the plants and there would be planned extensive land settlements on state owned lands which workmen would cultivate and on which they would build their own dwellings after performing eight hours daily factory work. The promoters claim that the scheme has already secured official support on principle.

All Prussian district presidents have been summoned to meet Minister Lovings to confer on matters affecting the security police.

WOMAN SLAYER OF HUSBAND IS FREED BY LAW

French Statute of Limitations Results in Liberation of Murderer Confessing after Fifteen Years

BAZEUX, Calvados, France, (P)—Self-confessed slayer of her husband, whom she admitted having killed fifteen years ago, Madame Hueche walked away from the local court house a free woman, the police commissioner powerless under the law, to arrest and arraign her.

Madame Hueche and her husband in 1905 jointly kept the Inn of the Golden Lion on the outskirts of this town. Their marital life was unhappy, violent quarrels often breaking the monotony of long periods of sulkiness and mutual silence. Then one day Monsieur Hueche disappeared. Madame explained that he had abandoned her and eloped to America with another woman. She told the Inn six months later and left the town.

Horse Uncovers Skeleton

A vicious horse lashed out with both hoofs in the stable of the "Golden Lion" a few days ago. The kicking animal uncovered below the broken planks of his stall, a rusty old trunk. It contained the skeleton of a man.

The police, remembering the disappearance of the former landlord, got out to find Madame Hueche, whom they promptly located in Grenoble. At their invitation she returned to Bazeux.

BELGIAN MINES NEAR PRE-WAR COAL PRODUCT

Production from Mons Fields Even Greater during May than for Same Month Before World Conflict

BRUSSELS, (P)—Belgian coal mines have almost reached pre-war production. The output of the Belgian mines for the month of May, 1920, reached 90.9 per cent of the production for May, 1913, amounting to 1,737,050 tons as compared with 1,910,710 for the same period of the war.

What is more remarkable still, production for the Mons coal fields, taken alone was even greater. During May this during the same month before the war, the percentage being 101.3.

Further illustrating the wonderful progress toward reconstruction which Belgium has made, Director General of telegraphs and telephones, Bousca points out that 283 central telephone offices out of 283 have been re-established and 80 per cent of the pre-war subscribers have been regained.

CALLS COVENANT MONROE POLICY NULLIFICATION

H. P. Fletcher, Former Ambassador to Mexico, Declares Democrats Seek to Set Up Visionary World Scheme

SHADE GAP, Pa., (P)—Attacking article 21 of the league of nations covenant as a betrayal rather than a safeguard of the Monroe doctrine, Henry P. Fletcher, former ambassador to Mexico in an address Friday at a county reunion, declared that the democratic party through its endorsement of the league covenant was seeking to set up "a vain, visionary and vanishing scheme of world regulation and interference based on an arbitrary disposition of the lands and peoples of the earth."

Destroys Peace Charter

"The treaty of Versailles, as signed by the president, submitted to the senate and endorsed by the democratic national convention," the former ambassador asserted, "absolutely and completely destroys the great chart and charter of peace with freedom which we venerate under the name of the Monroe doctrine."

Safeguards That Betray

"The English text of article 21 reads: "Nothing in this covenant shall be deemed to affect the validity of international engagements such as the treaties of arbitration or regional understanding like the Monroe doctrine for securing the maintenance of peace."

"A literal translation of the French text of the same article, however, reads: "International engagements, such as arbitration treaties and regional ententes like the Monroe doctrine, which assure the maintenance of peace, are not considered as incompatible with any of the dispositions of the present pact."

"But both of these explanations or reservations of the Monroe are only mollified make-believe or sugar coated lies. They do not safeguard or preserve the doctrine at all. They betray it."

Agreed With Daddy

Marjorie liked to play in the ground feed her father mixed up for his thrash. She had been scolded for this without effect. So one day her father, catching her in the act, picked her up and gave her a spanking. As he put her down he said: "Now, my young lady, that is just enough of that."

HOMES WERE NEVER BEFORE SO MUCH IN DEMAND

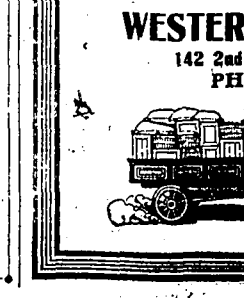

At Antwerp, Malines and Turnhout, more telephone subscribers are reported than before the war. The scarcity of materials has prevented even greater results in reconstruction. Wires were hard to obtain, the Germans having carried away most of the wiring throughout Belgium. Installations in Brussels were carried to Berlin where they were located by allied officers and two engineers have been sent to recover what materials they can identify.

The Germans carried away $400,000 worth of telephone and telegraph materials from the muscles and $12,000,000 from Belgium as a whole.

During the years the Ford Model T One Ton Truck has been on the market, we have never had one complaint of rear axle trouble. We have had no complaints of motor trouble. As the motor and the rear axle are the vital fundamentals in a motor truck, we have the right to conclude that the Ford One Ton Truck has not only met the demands of business, but has done so in a satisfactory and economic way. There is no other evidence so convincing as that which comes from long practical experience. Ford One Ton Trucks are serving along all industrial and commercial lines. You will find them everywhere. If these statements were not facts, the demand for the Ford One Ton Truck would not be as large as it is, because people are not buying trucks which do not give service. FRENCH PASSION PLAY IS OPENED

Employment in State Institutions Suggested Problem Solution

NANCY, France, (P)—France's "Passion play" rivaling that of Oberammergau, has opened its season here after five years of war's interruption. It was given, as it has been since 1904, in the Passion theater, under the direction of M. Pettit, the village priest, with his parishioners as the cast. The play, containing verse, music and tableaux have been developed and improved since the pre-war performances.

There are 16 scenes depicting the Bible incidents from the Birth to the Resurrection. The play runs from 9 a. m. to noon and from 1:30 to 5. Interruptions between the scenes are filled by tableaux representing principal events of the Old Testament bearing upon the main story.

The text, where it is not that of the Bible, is the work of various poets and the music is taken or adapted from various composers. M. Pettit says he has utilized from all sources whatever he believed he needed to make a beautiful entertainment.

The naturalness of the players, none of whom are professionals, critics said, was heightened by the deftness and ingenuity of the staging. One of the difficult things to produce was the Crucifixion, where the movement of the principal depicting Christ on the cross during the descent, might easily be misapprehended. On a cross, the long white winding sheet is draped under the principal's arms and over the two arms of the cross. The ends of the cloth, floating like wings, add much to the effect. The chief purpose by enabling the characters to lower the apparently inert figure, supported safely as he is, by the cloth under his arms.

The play is to be given every Sunday until the middle of October.

SHIPS AMATEURS FOR TRANS-ATLANTIC TRIP

American Motorboat Publisher Follows Course of Cross-Sea Flying Planes

NEW YORK (P)—William Washburn Nutting, a motorboat publisher, of Beachhurst, L. I., who recently departed from New York in the "Typhoon" for Cowes, England; took with him a crew of amateur sailors. "Typhoon" is a new yacht built at the laboratories of Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, Bedford, Mass. It is a 45-foot craft with a beam of 14 feet and auxiliary power for use only in case of calm weather.

The crew consists of Nutting, F. W. Baldwin, the head of Dr. Bell's laboratories; Jimmie D. Brown, the chief land man and Guy Matheson, who joined the Canadian expedition force as a private and came back an acting colonel with the distinction, it is said, of winning every battle he fought within the gift of the British nation except the V. C.

The yacht will sail approximately the course taken by the Blenheim in their famous airplane voyage from Newfoundland to the British islands. This is far north where there is plenty of wind and usually plenty of sea with it. Mr. Nutting will be accompanied by two wives, in time to attend the races for the British international trophy, for which an American team of three boats has been selected to sail the regatta place starting August 10. Later the "Typhoon" will cruise about the British Isles, then down the French coast and into the Mediterranean. Before going west the crew will call on the United States via the southern course stopping at the Azores and Bermuda.

MYSTIC WOMAN IN WHITE LEADS ANTI-BOLSHEVIK

Claimant to Throne of Romanoffs Battles Russian Enemies of the Soviet

TOKIO, (P)—A mystic "Woman in White" is reported by the soviet journal, Rabotchi Golos of the Voice of Labor, to be selling the anti-Bolshevik against the soviet in Russia. The woman, who is popularly known as the White Tsarina on account of the color of her garments that she wears and her white hair, and because of her claim to the throne of the Romanoffs, first made her appearance at Kourgan. She claims to be a grandniece of Alexander I, another of the late Tsars and declares she is in possession of the miraculous icon of Ivorak held in veneration by sections of the Russian people.

In February last, it is reported she, with a band of followers, seized Chelmsk, cut off railway communication, killed several Bolsheviki commissaries and engaged and destroyed some Red regiments stationed in that region. The Central soviet is said to have offered a reward of 1,000,000 rubles for "The Woman in White," dead or alive.

BITTER FIGHT NEARING CLOSE IN ARKANSAS

Democratic Primary Election Promises to be One of Most Interesting and Hard Fought Political Contests

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., (P)—The democratic primary to be held in Arkansas tomorrow promises to be one of the most interesting and hard fought elections in the history of the state. There is a bitter contest for the United States senatorship, there are nine candidates for governor, there are contests for representative in four of the seven congressional districts, nearly all of the state officers are being fought for and in every county there are further contests for local offices. Only one candidate will be voted for in this primary and by his state the democratic nomination is virtually equivalent to election.

The struggle for the nomination for United States senator between Senator William P. Kirby and Congressman T. H. Caraway has developed into one of the most acrimonious affairs in the history of Arkansas politics. Each of the candidates has been making his criticism of the other's official record. Senator Kirby is filling out the term for which he succeeds James P. Clark originally was nominated. Senator Clark defeated Mr. Kirby in the state primary six years ago but died before the general election was held. His death occurred so shortly before the date of the general election that there was not time to hold another primary and so the democratic state committee nominated Mr. Kirby as the party candidate.

The democratic nominee for governor whoever he is, will have three opponents in the general election next November. Wallace Townsend of Little Rock is the regular republican nominee. J. H. Blount, a negro educator of Helena, is the republican nominee and the socialist have nominated Sam W. Bursley of Springdale.

There are nine aspirants for the governorship. They are: Donald McLean, who is retiring from public life after two terms as governor. They are as follows: ex-Congressman J. C. Floyd of Yellville; ex-Congressman T. C. McRae of Prescott; Green Judge George R. Haynie of Prescott; John B. Biggs, representative in the state legislature; Hot Springs; Samuel Powell, Camden; Henry Stinson, former colonel, Fayetteville; Second Arkansas regiment, Frank Thomas J. Terrell, secretary of state; Magallon; Harry Walsh, Little Rock and the Rev. Frank M. Well, Hamburg.

SPEAKER BOOSTS BATTING RECORD IN WEEK'S PLAY

Sisler and Ruth, Too, Profit with War Clubs, According to Official Data

CHICAGO, (P)—Three leading bats in the American league fattened up their averages during the past week, but "Babe" Ruth, the home run champion, who is in fourth place, suffered a slump before Dick Kerr in the last game of the series between Chicago and New York. He was at bat five times, but connected for only one hit. This speaks to the Cleveland manager, who told the batters, gathered 11 hits in seven games and boosted his mark from 411 to 417, which is 15 points better than that of George Sisler, the St. Louis star, who is in fourth place, with an average of .402. Joe Jackson the slugging outfielder of the Chicago White Sox, is third, with a mark of .393, while Ruth is hitting .291. The averages are of players who have participated in fifty or more contests and include games of Wednesday.

Still a Sensation. Ruth continues to be the sensation of the league. This was evidenced again in the series just played in Chicago between the Yankees and the White Sox. For the four days a crowd officially estimated at 125,000 came to witness the games with a hope of seeing the big southpaw slugger crack the ball out of the field. Only one during the series was Ruth able to deliver on his specialty. That was on the second day when he drove the ball on a line into the right field bleachers for four bases. Claude Williams was pitching and it was the third homer Ruth had collected at his expense. This smash marked Ruth's thirty-eighth home run.

Leads in Throats. Rice of Washington is far out in front among the base stealers, showing the way with a total of 43 thefts. Other leading batters: Rice, Washington, .306; E. Collins, Chicago, .304; Meusel, New York, .354; Weaver, Chicago, .341; Hendryx, Boston, .337; Felsch, Chicago, .332; Judge, Washington, .322; Jamison, Cleveland, .322; Jacobson, St. Louis, .331; Milan, Washington, .326; Cobb, Detroit, .322. Roger Hornsby of St. Louis continues to witness the national league batting, who has played in 50 or more contests. The St. Louis star knocked out 13 hits in his last six games and boosted his average to .372. J. Smith, a teammate, who was the runner-up among the regulars last week, went into a slump and dropped to fifth place, with an average of .326, while Nicholson of Pittsburgh came along strong and now is runner-up to Hornsby, with an average of .336; Roush of Cincinnati has pulled up into third place with .327.

Star of Nationals. Hornsby is far in front in total bases, with 220, acquired on 143 hits which include 30 doubles, 13 triples and seven circuit drives. Cy Williams of Philadelphia bagged

DISCOVERY OF PIANO RECALLS OLD TRAGEDY

Visitors to Deserted California Mining Camp Uncover Instrument and Story

BRIDGEPORT, Cal. (AP)—Visitors to the now deserted mining camp of Lundy, once a popular community of Mono county, were surprised to find a square piano in one of the old buildings. Buried in dust and its wooden case a score of years ago, the instrument proved to be in good condition and its tone and members of the party proceeded upon it as if it had never known in the days when it afforded entertainment for a lively mine community.

Old-timers here associate the forgotten piano with a romance and a tragedy. As the story goes, a young girl, talented in music, came from an eastern state to visit in Lundy; and the entire camp was attracted by the wonderful melodies which she produced upon that the only piano for 200 miles around.

Only a few months later word came back to Lundy that the girl of the piano was dead, and that her husband was gone and with him a small fortune belonging to his wife.

Today's Markets

New York Stock Market NEW YORK, (AP)—Pessimistic foreign news and a violent drop in sterling induced another outbreak of liquidation and short selling in the stock market today. Total sales approximated 1,850,000 shares. Rejection of the allied truce terms by the Russian soviet government caused a sharp decline in stock prices at the opening of the market today. Foreign exchange rates also reflected the situation in an acute fashion, sterling falling several cents. The improvement in local banking conditions, reflected by Saturday's clearing house statement was lost sight of in the hurried selling of stocks. In the first half hour losses ranging from 1 to 5 points were general. Baldwin, Vanadium, United Fruit, Mexican Petroleum and Pan-American were the weakest among the industrials, while Union Pacific, Louisville and Nashville, and Lackawanna led a decline in the railroads. Rumors of a change for the better in the foreign military situation caused a considerable extension of the rally in the final hour with short covering large. Liberty Bonds NEW YORK, (AP)—Closing prices today were 3 1/2's $90.82; first 4's $84.50 bid; second 4's $84.40; first 4 1/4's $85.40; second 4 1/4's $84.50; third 4 1/4's $85.50; fourth 1 1/4's $85.04; Victory 3 3/4's $95.60. Grains and Provisions. CHICAGO, (AP)—Higher prices for wheat resulted today from European war developments. Buying, however, was of only a scattered sort, and the advance was not well maintained. Extreme weakness of sterling exchange had a tendency to check bullish sentiment. Opening quotations, which ranged from 2 to 3 1/2c higher, with December $2.35 to 2.36 and March $2.39, were followed by a moderate reaction. Subsequently, armistice rumors which had a decided bearish influence on corn, depressed wheat also but to a less degree. The market closed easy at same price at Saturday's finish to be lower, with December $3.32 to $2.32 1/4 and March $2.35 1/2. Grain reports from Illinois largely counterbalanced in the corn market the bullish effect of war talk. After opening unchanged to 3 1/2c higher, including September at $1.48 1/2 to 1.49 and December $1.23 3/4 to $1.24 1/4, prices bulged all around, but then lost nearly all the advance. The market suffered a sharp break after an armistice. Prices closed unsettled 3/4 to 2 1/2c net lower, with September $1.43 7/8 to 1.44 1/8 and December $1.22 5/8 to 1.23. Oats were governed by the action of corn, starting 3/8 to 7/8c higher. September 73 1/4 to 37 1/2c; hardening, still more and then receding to below the initial figures. Strength in the hog market kept provisions steady. Demand, however, was lacking. Two great problems, he declared, will confront the next administration, our relations with the world and the pressing need of organized progress at home. Among the most pressing of our national needs, he placed "the bettering of our citizenship, the extension of teaching to over 5,000,000 of our population above the age of ten who are illiterate, the strengthening of immigration laws to exclude the physically and morally unfit, the improvement in working conditions especially in the congested districts, the extension of communications to make rural life more attractive and the further protection of women and child life in industry."

Ballou Announces Changes

Colonel C. C. Ballou, commanding the federal troops in Denver, announced today there would be a considerable increase in the method of patrolling Denver today, on account of the greatly increased car service and the larger area to be patrolled. The colonel issued the following statement:

"The plan is—briefly, the stationing of adequate bodies of troops at the principal points of danger, in as far as they can be determined and where the troops can be within easy call. Small bodies of troops, sufficiently strong to prevent any gatherings or demonstrations have been stationed at certain points." There are abundant resources for handling any emergency that might arise.

Generally Union Co-operation

"Generally there will be no guarding of individual cars today. In certain localities tram cars will be guarded by squads in automobiles. Just where this will be done depends upon the necessity of the activities based upon our knowledge of the people living in these sections. We have gathered this information from the most reliable sources and what we are not infallible we expect this method to be generally satisfactory.

"The attitude of the tramway employees insofar as I have come into contact with has been such as to make me believe that they are as eager to prevent disorder as I am myself, and as a fact I have received prompt warning of mishaps and threatened dangers from union men who were co-operating with us, in bringing about the restoration of normal conditions."

British Optimism Fades

The optimism of the British, which was manifest before the conference began yesterday, had given way today to a feeling of extreme uneasiness, and it was reported that the British premier himself was greatly disturbed over the new developments.

After a meeting lasting all morning, the premiers at 1:30 o'clock decided to adjourn for luncheon and to prolong their conference throughout the afternoon.

Although no official announcements were made, it was declared in a reliable quarter that the premiers had failed to reach an agreement on the character

GOOD STREETS

Good streets are an asset to any town and bespeak the progressive character of its citizens. Twin Falls will not be behind in this respect when the paving now under contract is finished. A total mileage of 15.14 miles will be paved and if the paving of the proposed district now under contemplation is carried through Twin Falls will have 21.57 miles of paving—practically all the streets within its natural bounds will be surfaced. A good advertisement for our little city.

THE AGE OF NEW THINGS

The mail is to be carried through the air, by fast going planes, and the news from home will come before the mail-age is dry on the envelope. Right of way men are mapping out the routes, landing places are being selected, and the world will witness a revolution in quick transportation facilities.

Solomon was pretty well convinced that there could not be anything new under the sun. He assured his subjects that so far as he could see, by the aid of prophetic glasses, there was not a new thing under the sun.

Inventions are announced with rapidity that almost take the breath away. Scientists are finding new sources of food; inventors are discovering new modes of travel and machines for saving labor.

THE LOVE OF ADVENTURE

News dispatches tell of the arrival of Roald Amundsen, Norwegian explorer, in Nome, Alaska, where hundreds of telegrams from all parts of the world were waiting for him.

Love of adventure clings to every person having red blood in his veins. It was love of adventure that sent the first navigators across the unknown waters to America.

There are many theories about the supposed north country, with its unexplored regions, unexploited resources and undeveloped territory. Then, there is a lingering curiosity about the people who may be living in that frozen land.

TRADING WITH THE FOE

Although we are technically still at war with Germany, the United States finds time to do quite a little business with that country on the side. Analysis of our foreign commerce for the fiscal year ended June 30 shows that the value of our imports from Germany for the period amounted to $45,985,975.

MORE TROUBLE IN MEXICO

Such developments as those that have occurred during the last few days in Mexico leave one no alternative but to take a cynical attitude toward affairs in that unfortunate country.

Contest of Lower California is recruiting an army to resist 'invasion' of its state by the Federal forces. Kaleidoscopic changes in Mexican affairs are bewildering. How strange that on one side of an imaginary line law and order and respect for authority prevail, while on the other lawlessness and revolution are always rampant.

BATHER LIKE PATERNALISM

The Federal Reserve bank has issued its warning against the financing of automobiles that are used for pleasure. The distinction between an automobile used for pleasure and one used for business is rather hard to define.

But regardless of the practicability of enforcing the advice of the Federal Reserve bank, the Tennessee is unable to register its full approval of such a precedent. If automobile paper is bad or dangerous for the banks to handle, then by all means the banks should be warned against such credits.

But we are not so clear as to the province of the Federal bank to pass on the business or the pleasure of the American people. It smacks too much of paternalism. Admitting the duty of the Federal Reserve banks to discourage any dangerous inflation of bank credits is one thing; that this duty could be performed and should be performed by a general application of the powers of the reserve board, and not by singling out certain commodities or industries for special attention, is another.

It is the public duty of the individual banker to foster and protect the worthy enterprises of his community, but even this is not a legal duty, but one that every banker must observe at his own peril, and the gain or the loss of public patronage is the measure of his success or failure.

My daughter, in company with another girl, went to the grocery store to get some grapes. The other girl asked for nickel's worth, and when the grocer handed them to her my little girl asked for a cent's worth.

The Congressional Library. Under its great gilded dome the Congressional Library preserves for public use and reference and for posterity nearly five million items, including 2,710,000 printed books and pamphlets, 165,000 maps, 400,000 etchings, engravings, photographs, etc., 850,000 pieces of music and hundreds of thousands of manuscripts.

Irish Republic Nurse Seeks U. S. Citizenship

A unique situation was presented to Supreme Court Justice John M. Thomas last New York evening, when Miss Kathleen McMalon, an Irish nursemaid, filed her second application for United States citizenship. Miss McMalon came to the country during 1912 from County Clare, Ireland and insists that she is a citizen of the Irish Republic and does not recognize King George of England as her sovereign.

Inherits a Million but Sticks to $30 a Month Job

David Nicoll Cant. David Nicoll Cant, thirty-seven years old and a bachelor, who, despite the fact that he has just received word that he shares in the $2,000,000 estate left by his father in Scotland, continues at his job as hired man on a farm near Boylston, Mass.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

THE OSTRICH'S STORY.

"I have a story," said Olive Ostrich, "for all who care to hear it." All the animals about said they would love to hear the story, so Olive Ostrich sat down in her yard in the snow, chewed a little and smiled her very foolish smile.

Olive Ostrich Grinned.

leash by a little girl and were made to look like a team of horses. Olive Ostrich grinned and then said, "But that wasn't the story I meant to tell you. I meant to remember this one. Of course I'm not very bright, and while I hear the children who come to the zoo talking I can't remember all I hear, or if I remember it I forget what is the thing that is important I meant to tell."

"Let me see," there was once a dog named Mugsy, a nice chow dog. What did he do that was famous? Something I'm quite sure, but now, come to think of it, I've forgotten it."

"Then," said one of the other animals, "if you can't think of it if you've forgotten it, that is you haven't thought of it yet?"

"Right," you are right, my dear friends," said Olive Ostrich. "I was just about to think of it when I found I had forgotten it. I meant to think of it and then couldn't."

"Let's see, perhaps this is it. I heard some children talking the other day of two cats who belonged in a children's hospital. The cats weren't ill—you understand that I hope."

"Don't worry about our under-estimating," said one of the other animals. "Try to remember what was the story you had to tell us."

"Dear me, I am very stupid. Very stupid."

"You were speaking of two cats who belonged in a children's hospital," suggested one of the other animals.

"Yes, yes, thanks for reminding me," said the ostrich. "My memory isn't usually as bad as this. I'm just feeling more stupid today than usual. In fact there is nothing wrong with my memory, oh no, I'm just plain stupid."

"Well, these two cats belonged to the matron of the hospital. She was devoted to them. She used to run the elevator up and down. The cats would never walk up or down the stairs. They would get in the elevator and sit there all suited up until time to go down—that is until she came and took them down, and if they wanted to go upstairs to another floor and she started to go down they would make little sounds to show what they meant. Wasn't that cunning? They didn't care to walk. They had been spoiled by the elevator in the building. Wasn't they the lazy things though?"

The KITCHEN CABINET

"Hope and courage and sympathy and trust are great producers, and they are great factors in a man's doing his duty, as well as his having the joy of achievement."

FOOD FOR THE FAMILY.

In these days of high-priced eggs the following cake will be most happily received: Eggless Chocolate Cake—Grate two squares of chocolate and melt it in half cupful of milk in another half cupful of milk dissolved in one teaspoonful of soda.

Mix together one cupful of sugar and a tablespoonful of softened shortening; add a teaspoonful of vanilla and one-half of a teaspoonful of salt, mix all together and add 1 1/2 cupfuls of flour then beat in the hot milk in which the chocolate has been dissolved and bake in a loaf pan fifty minutes in a moderate oven.

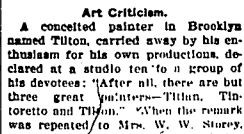

Maple Rolls—Make a baking powder biscuit mixture as usual; roll in an oblong one-half inch thick. Brush with melted butter and spread with maple sugar grated. Dampen the outer edges and roll up firmly. Cut in slices one-half inch thick, place in a well-greased pan and bake in a hot oven twenty to twenty-five minutes. Chopped nuts may be added with the sugar if desired.

Graham Griddle Cakes—Take two cupfuls of Graham flour, half a cupful of white flour, two tablespoonfuls of corn meal, two teaspoonfuls of sugar, three-fourths of a teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of cream of tartar, one-half teaspoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of melted fat and 2 1/2 cupfuls of milk. Mix the fat (parettines) then stir in the melted fat and the milk. Beat well and fry on a hot griddle.

Cabbage With Milk—Cook cabbage as usual in hot water, drain and add a few crackers finely crumbed and milk with a little butter for richness. Season with salt and pepper and serve after the milk has become thoroughly heated.

Raisin Gruel—Take a dozen large choice raisins, seed them and place in a double boiler with a pint of boiling water and cook for an hour. Strain the water and return it to the boiler, thicken with a teaspoonful of cornstarch mixed in a tablespoonful of cold milk, stir white adding and cook ten minutes. Add salt and sugar. When cool add a half cupful of milk as serve.

Art Criticism. A conceited painter in Brooklyn named Tilton, carried away by his enthusiasm for his own productions, declared at a studio ten to a group of his devotees: "After all, there are but three great painters—Titian, Titoretto and Tilton."

All Curled Up.

Nature's Laws Must Be Obeyed. I do not believe that God, or nature, as a matter of metaphysical formulas can or will make good in a miraculous way for the inevitable results of our transgressions of the natural laws that govern our being.

IDAHO AWAKE; UTAH ASLEEP

Beehive State Slept while Gem State Entertained Congressmen and Profited

While crediting Idaho with being sufficiently sharp to seize the opportunity offered for further reclamation in this state Utah is charged with being unawake to its chances in this direction by Earl H. Woolley, a Salt Lake hydraulic engineer.

Mr. Woolley recently spent some time in Idaho, and was present at a function in Idaho Falls when the congressional appropriation committee passed through this section on an investigation of irrigation projects in operation and in contemplation. The Salt Lake engineer, in fact, all Utah, to arouse themselves or Idaho stands a good chance of "grabbing off" more than its share of the $250,000,000 proposed in the western reclamation bill for work in this state.

Mr. Woolley, who is connected with the water resources branch of the geological survey, upon his return to Salt Lake after visiting Idaho, in a statement to one of the papers in the Utah capital, with respect to the visit in Idaho of the appropriations committee, said: "The committee was undoubtedly impressed with the magnitude of irrigation works in Idaho. Members of the committee had no conception of what has already been accomplished or what the future possibilities are. They were astounded and said they would go back to Washington with new ideas about the west. They all but promised they would do what they could to see that the reclamation bill goes through as it lies."

Idaho will profit greatly if the money is provided for future work but Utah has been asleep at the switch Idaho has far outstripped this state in water power development and has laid the foundation for far greater development. The committee had not even been invited to see Utah where some of the most wonderful irrigation undertakings in the world exist. The committee visited the main projects in Idaho, chief of which was the proposed American Falls reservoir, which is planned to impound 3,000,000 acre feet of water. There are 1,400,000 acres below American Falls susceptible of irrigation, and there is more land than water. The committee looked at other projects and it is certain that through this visit the west has gained powerful friends in congress.

SPORTS

The 'Duke of Toledo' has won every big race in which his colors were represented, including the Grand Prix de St. Sebastian, the Grand Prix de Beville, the Grand Prix de l'Espresso, the steeplechase at Barcelona, the Aranjuz Derby (for the third year in succession), and others. Four of his horses, French, Cryptic (bought at Newmarket last December), Thais and Le Bourget (a cast-off from the St. Albans stable) have remained unbeaten since the opening of the season.

The 'Duke of Toledo' leads the list of winning owners in Spain this year. He has twenty-four horses in training, twelve of which—two-year-olds bred at the royal stud or bought at Doncaster last year—have yet to appear in public. All the duke's winners on the flat this year have been ridden by Lucien A. L'Yve and those over jumps by Ricardo. All are trained by M. A. de Noutier, who also manages the royal stud at Haranai, where stands that good horse Antivar,—"Racing Form."

Bolsheviks Ask Surrender of General Wrangle

Great Britain has been notified by the Russian Soviet Government of the latter's willingness to negotiate for peace with the Allied Powers, according to a dispatch from London. As a preliminary, the Soviet Government demands the surrender of General Wrangle, anti-Bolshevik commander in the south, under a personal safety guarantee. The peace conference may be held in London, according to the dispatch.

Thought

Men never thought as they once did, when they were more than ruin, more even than death. Thought is pervasive and revolutionary, destructive and terrible; thought is meretricious to privilege, established institutions, and comfortable habits; thought is anarchic and lawless; different to authority, careless of the well-versed wisdom of the ages. Thought looks into the air of heaven and is not afraid.—Bertrand Russell.

Milk From Coconut

Along the Orange river natives have an ingenious way of producing "milk." After cutting the top from a coconut they place it over ashes so that the warmth may cause the fat and water contained in the husk to be absorbed by the milk; this changes the milk's quantity and gives it a palatable taste.

Well to Forget Sorrows

Some people heed up their sorrows as a miser hoards gold and whenever they have a little leisure, they take them out and count them over as the miser counts up his treasure. The fuller your coffers are of remembered sorrows the poorer you are. Throw them away. Refuse to recall them when you can help it.—Exchange.
