Warsaw Reports Military Successes Against Bolsheviks on North, Center and South Battle Fronts

REDS BRING UP RESERVE FOR ATTACK ON LEMBERG

General Haller Reports Indications That Armies of Russian Working Men May Be Thrown into Fight

LONDON, (AP)—Polish troops yesterday, after hard fighting, captured the fortress of Ostrolenka, 32 miles southwest of Lomza and forced a passage of the Narwa river, the Central News correspondent today said as officially stated in the Polish capital.

WARSZAWA, (AP)—The northern Polish army is continuing to move up in the region between Sierpo and Soldan near the east Prussian border and are marching on Chorzelski, to the east of Mlawka, to cut off the retreat of the remaining soviet forces.

Some Bolsheviks Escape

Remnants of the fourth Bolshevik army, which were cut off by the Polish advance in the region of Kolo, have succeeded in cutting their way through to the eastward after a battle lasting ten hours, according to an official statement issued here. The soviet troops carried out a vigorous maneuver and succeeded in making their way out of the trap which had closed upon them, but at least accounts were surrounded by more numerous forces of the fourth Polish army.

On the central front the Poles have carried out a flanking movement to the north and have occupied Krasny, 16 miles north-west of Bialystok and Szawki, 19 miles northwest of Lomza. Occupation of these towns, with the capture of Kolo, completes the work of forming a ring around the fifth Bolshevik army. Other soviet forces have been reassembled at various places and are making repeated attacks in their attempts to break the Polish cordons.

At Lomza the Poles took 2000 prisoners and also cannon and at Bialystok 7000 prisoners and 18 guns. Among the captives is the commander of a Bolshevik division.

Beds Bring Up Reserves

Russian soviet reserves are reported being brought up on the southern front in great numbers. According to information in the hands of the Polish general Haller, reserves some distance behind the Bolshevik front north also are being brought up.

The military authorities expressed the belief today that although crushed in the north, the Bolsheviks plan to renew their offensive with Lemberg as the objective.

Sir Percy Cox Will Attempt to Restore Order in Near East

LONDON, (AP)—Sir Percy Cox, high commissioner for Mesopotamia who has been here for some time, will return there immediately and try to restore order, says the London Times. He is quoted as saying that at the earliest opportunity an Arab administration will doubtless be formed in accordance with promises made at Bagdad by the British government.

POLAND RECALLS ENVOY FOR NEWS OF MINSK MEET

Foreign Office Declares Victory Has Not Changed Attitude on Question of Ending Quarrel with Soviets

LONDON, (AP)—The Russian soviet government replied today to the note of Arthur J. Balfour, lord president of the council, concerning the soviet peace terms to Poland. The soviet government agrees to withdraw its condition that the Poles provide arms for a woman's militia of 200,000 men in Poland.

The soviet reply was received by the Russian delegation here. The Moscow government states that in withdrawing this condition it is subordinating everything else to its paramount desire to secure the establishment of peace throughout the world. The Russian delegation in London claims that this concession meets the wishes of the British and Italian governments.

WARSZAWA, (AP)—M. Dombiski, president of the Polish-Minsk peace delegation, has been called to Brest-Litovsk to confer with Polish government representatives. This step was taken because of continued interruption of communications between Warsaw and Minsk.

Mystery Envelopes Parleys

There is much speculation here concerning the outcome of the Minsk conference, some of the newspapers already hinting there will be no results chiefly because of the unwillingness of representatives assumed from the beginning.

The foreign office announced today that the Polish note did not change the attitude of Poland on the question of peace and that the Polish delegates at Minsk were seeking all means to end the quarrel with the soviets. The foreign office reiterates that Poland was not fighting the Russian nation, but only Bolshevism.

Poland May Propose Removal

The question of insisting that Russo-Polish peace negotiations be shifted from Minsk to some other city, owing to difficulties of communication, occupied various officials for several days, and the cabinet considered it throughout Wednesday. An announcement is expected within a few days.

WRANGLER GIVES AIMS OF MUSCOVITE CIVIL STRIFE

Declares War in Russia Would Cease Immediately if People Were Free to Follow Wishes in Forming Government

LONDON, (AP)—Fierce fighting in the Orskhov district of the Crimea, continually increasing in violence, reported in the Russian soviet official statement of Wednesday received here today by wireless.

On the Lomberg front the soviet cavalry has penetrated the Polish rear and reached the town of Stryl, the statement says. On the northern front the soviet retreat continues. The statement adds:

WRANGLER GIVES CAUSES OF CIVIL WAR IN RUSSIA

SEBASTOPOL, Crimea, (AP)—Civil war in Russia would cease immediately if the Russian people were free to organize a government according to their own wishes, General Baron Wrangler, who was recognized as head of the south Russian government by France a few days ago, declared here Sunday.

General Wrangler expressed the gratification he felt over the note sent to Italy by the United States government relative to the Russian situation and declared recognition of the south Russian government by France was the "just expression of one ally's appreciation of another's sacrifice in the common cause." He asserted his forces on all fronts are well equipped, and that of the neutral arm of the service was at last able to assist in the struggle against the Bolsheviks.

Cossacks Hate Soviet

General Wrangler, who was to leave Monday to personally direct organization of forces rallying against the Bolshevik, received the correspondent of the Associated Press at his home in this city and gave him an exclusive interview.

"Ever since the south Russian army honored me by placing itself under my command, leaders of various Cossack organizations have been urging us to send expeditions into the Caucasus and Kuban regions to assist in throwing off the tyranny of the Bolsheviks," he said. Several physicians were summoned and his condition was reported more favorable at a late hour this afternoon. Physicians advise, however, that he be moved to his home at American Falls and place himself under the care of a physician for a short time.

Congressman Burton L. French from the first district, and Addison T. Smith from the second district, received re-nomination to their positions by acclamation of the delegates from the two districts.

Amidst uproarious tumult Governor D. W. Davis and Lieutenant Governor C. G. Moore also were nominated by acclamation.

In the only other contest among candidates, Miss Ethel Redfield was re-nominated for state superintendent of public instruction, defeating Mrs. Leona Logue of Gooding.

How Gooding Won.

Statement of Twin Falls county delegates who returned today from Pocatello is to the effect that on the first ballot Gooding received 70 1-3 votes; Colonel W. V. Patch, 31; Captain A. H. Conner, 29; C. W. Deane, and Captain E. G. Davis, 4 1-3. Seventy-four votes were required to win the nomination.

On the second ballot Banook, which had cast four votes for Gooding, divided the remainder among other candidates, on the first, passed. SUFFRAGE ACT NOW EFFECTIVE

Secretary of State Announces Signing of Ratification Proclamation

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The proclamation announcing officially that the suffrage amendment to the constitution had been ratified was signed today by Secretary Colby of the State department. The document was signed at 8 o'clock this morning at Mr. Colby's home when the certificate from Governor Roberts that the Tennessee legislature had ratified the amendment was received. Secretary Colby announced his action on his arrival at his office later.

Disappoints Women's Party

The announcement disappointed a group of suffrage workers from headquarters of the National Woman's party who had gathered at the state department hoping to be present when Mr. Colby attached his signature to the proclamation. Miss Alice Paul, chairwoman of the party, was among the number.

"We are confident that the signature of Secretary Colby completes the suffrage struggle in this country," she said. "In spite of every obstacle that our opponents could put in our way, women have won the right to an equal voice in the affairs of this government. The woman's party will not relax its vigilance, however, until it is satisfied that no further attempts will be made to wrest from the women of the United States the political equality which they have won."

Colby Seeks Audience

Secretary Colby later sought word to the woman's party headquarters that he would see the suffrage leaders at his office if they desired. Word was sent back that Miss Paul was preparing to leave for New York, but that other leaders already had returned to their homes and the invitation could not be accepted.

Secretary Colby had prepared a statement regarding ratification of the suffrage amendment which he planned to read to the officials of the National Woman's party had they accepted the invitation. The women's party officials had an opportunity to make something of a ceremony out of the signing of the proclamation and went back to headquarters planning an independent publication.

WIFE'S BODY IN MORGUE IDENTIFIED BY HUSBAND

Identity of Murdered New Jersey Woman is Established by Mole on Her Back

GRANTWOOD, N. J., (AP)—The body of the young woman, found slain in the Grantwood woods yesterday, today was identified as that of Mrs. Elsie Schultz, of East 135th street, Manhattan. The identification was made by the woman's husband, Frank Schultz at a Hickenback morgue.

Schultz, who is an employee of the Interborough Rapid Transit company, immediately identified the clothing worn by the dead woman. He would not look at the body, but told the police that his wife had a mole on her back, which they found as described.

Mrs. Schultz, according to her husband, had been employed in a Manhattan department store, but had been missing from home since last Saturday night. He said she had with her $50 and wore five diamond rings and wedding ring, which were missing when the body was found.

WOULD BROADEN FEDERAL TRADE BOARD POWERS

American Bar Association Committee Urges Extension of Jurisdiction to Include Anti-Trust Law Infractions

ST. LOUIS, (AP)—Broadening of the power and improvement of the practice of the federal trade commission in order to bring about "a more satisfactory administration of justice" by it was recommended in the report of the committee on commerce, trade and consumer law, presented at the convention of the American Bar association here today.

The committee recommended that the commission be empowered to investigate all branches of anti-trust laws, and that proceedings in reference to these laws should be transferred from courts to the commission with the right to appeal from the commission to federal courts. The report also recommended that all cases falling within the anti-trust laws should be primarily instituted before the commission.

The federal trade commission, it continued, "having jurisdiction for the purpose of investigation, ought to be permitted not only to complete the investigation, but to enforce its order in conformity with its findings subject to right of appeal."

To carry out this suggestion the committee advanced amendments to the federal trade commission law, the Clayton act and "all federal anti-trust laws."

The report also urged that the commission render written opinions on "at least" every new case coming before it to establish a system of law and precedent that will enable the business of the country to know what the law is on a given point.

The committee made no recommendation on a proposed amendment to the transportation act, which would make chairmanship of the interstate commerce commission permanent instead of rotating. The report stated, however, that the committee favored such a plan.

Stressing the importance of codifying the law of sales in interstate and foreign commerce and the law of common carriers in interstate and foreign commerce, the report stated the committee favored the drafting of bills proposing to provide the necessary legislation.

DISPUTES SUPERIORITY OF BRITISH TELEPHONE

Traveler Takes Issue with Companion Made by Assistant Postmaster General

LONDON, (AP)—Announcement by Elio Pease, assistant telephone manager, that the American telephone system is now inferior to that in this country, is disputed by Sir Joseph Duveen, who divides his time equally between the country and the United States. In an interview with the Pall Mall Gazette Sir Joseph said:

"The telephone service here can only be described as rotten. If the Postmaster general does not realize the difference between the American and British services, he should send a few men to New York for a month, and tell them to note the differences, and then let it be done."

"Personally, in America, I practically spend all my day on the telephone. Here I hardly ever use it. I have neither the time nor patience. The service, like Mr. Pease's statement, is a joke."

IDAHO HAS ABUNDANT WATER SUPPLY IN UNDERGROUND FLOW

Paul S. A. Bickel, Irrigation Engineer, Tells of Immense Subterranean Rivers in This State—Could Irrigate Added Millions of Acres of Arid Lands if Proper Schemes Were Furthered

By PAUL S. A. BICKEL, Irrigation Engineer.

A great opportunity has been overlooked in the underground water on the great lava flow of the west, and other places where there is enough water to irrigate a million of acres of land.

Especially along Snake River valley almost everywhere water can be had when sinking well from one hundred to four hundred feet in depth.

On the D. E. Shoots river in Oregon and many other places this is true. Under the Twin Falls tract from Salmon Falls river to American Falls, from Malad Springs through the North Side Twin Falls tract, Minidoka tract, Lost River and along the west side of Snake River valley as far as Dubois this water is found.

Especially on the Twin Falls North Side tract where about 5000 second feet of water is flowing (under the land) which finds its way through the Blue lakes, Thousand Springs and many other springs along Snake river, enough water to irrigate 400,000 acres of land.

This water goes to waste but some time in the future a good portion of this will be used for irrigation and power. Probably one-third of this amount will be used on land between Jerome and Bliss and perhaps farther along.

The reason that only part can be used, say one-half, is because the winter water flowing just the same as in summer cannot be stored but can be used for power where it drops into the canyon.

Enough of an underground survey has been made to ascertain that a large amount can be developed by driving a tunnel to the flow to tap the under ground waters.

With a tunnel three miles long to tap the flow and several miles to collect the water it is reasonable to state that a large amount of water may be developed in a manner much the same as has been done by the farmers in the Hagerman valley.

The water seems to flow westerly in underground lakes in the porous lava generally between or at the base of the upper flow and the earth or clay formation between the flows where undoubtedly the water was flowing in streams similar to the way the scullies are at the present time, flowing where the canals are running.

Perhaps too the lava was irrigated. The new flow of lava ran and spread over these streams and the hot molten lava coming in contact with the water made a porous through which now the water flows, it seeps up and flows on again. These lauds were at one time inhabited by animals, remains of which have been uncovered. At the intake of the South Side canal during construction we uncovered one of these which had bones five feet long and teeth six to eight inches in diameter.

Others have been found along Snake river. After we go west of Bliss in the Clover Creek the wells do not show the same as above and sand stone is encountered; also petrified trees and fossils are frequently found and the matter when struck by the fire rises in some places to the surface and produces an artesian flow which is generally warm and some times hot.

Warm springs are frequent from Clover creek to Mountain Home and along the south side of the valley near the base of the foothills from Oakley

HELENA, Mont., (AP)—Additional returns from Tuesday's primary and a recheck of figures from 1922 completed precincts of the 1922 in Montana, fall to show any difference in the relative positions of republican and democratic candidates for congress or governor.

In the second district M. McCusker, the Non-partisan league candidate, was leading J. T. Carroll by more than 2000 votes.

MARION, O., (AP)—The views of leading European statesmen regarding the present status of the league of nations, were conveyed to Senator Harding today by Myron R. Herrick, former American ambassador to France, who has just returned from a trip abroad.

Mr. Herrick said the position of the republican party was fully understood abroad and that there was no apprehension as to the results of an American foreign policy under direction of a republican administration.

The nominee would not comment on Governor Cox's charges of an excessive republican campaign fund. He also declined to discuss the statement by Aaron S. Watkins, prohibition candidate, attacking his prohibition record.

Cubs to Do Bit

The Chicago Cubs are to do their bit for Senator Harding's front porch campaign by coming to Marion on September 2 to play a free exhibition game with an aggregation of local semi-professional ball players.

The engagement was made today as a result of a chance remark by the senator that one of the big handicaps of the front porch was his inability to see baseball.

A. D. Lasker, two of the chief owners of the Cubs and both connected with the publicity end of the Harding campaign, arranged for the trip and offered to tour the local eye Cub but they might pick for the game.

Tyler and O'Farrell have been selected.

Hardings Are Fans

Both the senator and Mrs. Harding are fans and they have promised to do their share to make the occasion a real letter day on the American flag. The candidate will catch the first ball.

Most of today Senator Harding spent in consultation with various party leaders on campaign policies. Among those who accompanied him was former Senator George Sutherland of Utah. It was understood that the league issue was the principal subject of discussion. Mr. Sutherland is president of the American Bar association.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

By Mary Graham Donner

THE TIMBER WOLF.

"My name," said the Timber Wolf, "is Tim and I am the son of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Timber Wolf. I will tell my story if anyone would like to hear it."

The other animals nearby in the zoo politely said they would love to hear his story.

"Well," said the Timber Wolf, "when my mother and father came to the zoo I hadn't arrived. The next year I came with two other little babies. No sooner had we arrived and our mother was loving us and telling us what beautiful babies we were than a great big rat came along to the next yard and went after one of the neighbor's children—Mrs. Thomas Timber Wolf's young son."

"Well, the wolves just said they weren't going to have that, and my poor mother was dreadfully frightened. Here, you see, she had three little babies and of course she loved them. Naturally she didn't want to have her babies eaten up or killed by rats. I don't believe any mother would."

The others all nodded their heads as though to agree with Tim.

"Well, the next night a great old rat came in our yard and my mother was the bravest thing in the world. She fought that old rat and though two of us were bitten she killed him."

"Wasn't that brave of her? She feared nothing, nothing at all, when the lives of her babies were at stake. And when I say that I mean when the lives of her babies were in great, great danger."

"I was too young to know much of what happened, except that the bite I received was very painful and I remember I cried—I think I did—and my little brother who had been bitten cried too. Mother had to leave us alone when she was having that fight with the rat."

"But afterwards did she lie down and rest? Did she lie down when she had won the great victory over the brutal rat?"

"No, she came to us and comforted us and whispered sweet wolf speeches into our ears to make us happy and to make the bites we had received seem less.

"When I was three months old I killed three rats in a day. Well, wasn't my mother proud of me! And I was so glad I could do it. For by that time every wolf in the whole zoo was up in arms against the rats who would sneak in on such a sly, deceitful way and try to attack the babies of the mother wolves."

"Yes, every wolf was against these rats, and every wolf did all that was within his or her power to destroy all the rats who came around."

"Sometimes we had hard battles with them—but we're improving all the time. Yes, we really are. We're getting to be strong and the rats are becoming fewer and fewer."

"Mother wolves are not so afraid

now. The rats are frightened at last. And it is right they should be. The idea of their coming after baby wolves. They seem to be especially fond of baby wolves, but we've taught them a lesson. And we haven't just worked for ourselves, we've worked for all other wolves. We've just gone right into the work so that all the wolves would be safe.

"How the keepers have admired us! But I think it is only right, and only right especially that we should not only think of ourselves but that we should think of all the wolves in the zoo."

"That is what you have all been doing!" asked another animal.

"It is," said Tim. "And because we've been brave, and because we've done our best for every other wolf and for the zoo people by getting rid of the rats that sneak in, as I said before, we're admired."

"It is also to be admired, but most of all is the fact that the little babies who come to the zoo from now on won't have such a dangerous, dreadful time, for the wolves have taught the rats a good lesson."

"They won't be bitten as I was bitten. We've gotten rid of the rats and every one is glad."

"But the ones who are more glad than any others are the Mother Wolves as you can all understand."

"Fine, fine," said the other animals.

DEMOCRACY SOLD OUT

Nomination by the Idaho Democratic State Convention at Idaho Falls of W. P. Whitaker for Representative in Congress from the Second district, and of Ross W. Bates for Attorney General, can be susceptible of but one interpretation.

It is a plain bid for the support of that political element which two years ago largely dispossessed the Idaho Democrats of their political organization.

It means that there are certain elements in the democratic party which are ready and willing to place their conceptions of what may result in personal advantage before the plain interests of the party as a whole, and will not hesitate to drive the party organization on the rocks in pursuit of their own selfish ends.

Even the casual observer will experience no difficulty in placing the responsibility for this action on the part of the Idaho Falls convention when it is known who was the person who held absolute control over the convention and who was its unanimous choice for re-nomination for United States Senator.

John P. Nugent, and he alone, perhaps, could have prevented the nominations in question, and to him must be ascribed the responsibility for placing on the Democratic ticket the names of Whitaker and Bates, who were regularly nominated respectively for Representative in Congress and for Attorney General at a convention of Non-partisan League members and representatives of certain labor organizations held in Nampa on August 4, and whose nominations were filed on Tuesday last in the office of the Secretary of State by representatives of the Townley organization in Idaho.

Popular suspicions amounting practically to conviction that the nominations of Whitaker and Bates by the Democratic convention resulted from a trade negotiated at the instance and with the approval of the Democratic nominee for Senator can be dispelled only by two circumstances.

In the first place the proper officials of the Townley organization in Idaho must take immediate steps to declare vacant the place on its ticket heretofore held by Whitaker and proceed at once to fill the vacancy.

And in the second place, H. F. Sannubels, Non-partisan League candidate for United States Senator, must continue an active campaign for his own election up to and including the day of the general elections in November.

Without the development of these two circumstances it will be plain beyond peradventure of a doubt that certain factors in the Democratic organization not only have made a most substantial bid for support of the Townley organization adherents, but that they have actually bartered and sold out to the element in Idaho that owes its first allegiance to the North Dakota dictatorship.

GUARDING AGAINST EPIDEMICS

If people generally were aware of the measures being taken for their protection there would be no fears concerning an epidemic of typhus or the plague because of the discovery of a few cases here and there at southern ports. This is the reassuring statement made by the acting surgeon general of the United States public health service.

In this connection it is encouraging to remember that through the efforts of the United States public health service the plague has been totally eliminated in Porto Rico. The disease was brought under control in New Orleans by an intensive campaign against the rats. Since June 1 there have been no

KNOW WHAT KORITE IS? HERE'S SCIENTIST WHO FOUND IT

ELECTRICALLY DRIVEN SHOE MACHINES

If the man who makes two billions of pairs grow where one billion confers a blessing on humanity, how about the man, in these expensive times, who reverses the proposition by making one pair of shoes give the wear that two pairs did before? Fred A. Howard, chemist and scientist, who has been affiliated with the Massachusetts shoe industry for more than a half century, is the man who bears this unusual distinction, in the belief of shoe manufacturers who have examined his chemical formulas to increase the wearing power of shoe leather, and sixteen of whom have just arranged to use some of his processes.

FRED HOWARD

Howard has wrought marvels with leather. His father and grandfather were shoe manufacturers. His final achievement, which it is said will cut the nation's shoe bill in half comes after thirty-five years of hard work as a leather chemist. Yet he says he has only begun. He is shy and avoids being interviewed.

little New Englander has been devoted to research. He has a library containing more than ten thousand sets of clippings on chemical research. His records of personal chemical experiments number several hundred thousand. His latest invention is Korite which sounds like a new kind of explosive but is not. It is a chemical agent produced after thirty-five years of research to double the wearing power of shoe leather and render it permanently water proof and pliable. It is said to be revolutionary in principle, and in practical application. "I think it is a worth while work," Mr. Howard says. "Children are apt to catch cold in slippy sloppy weather if their shoes leak, and a shoe bill is a big item to those who have families these days. The chemist who devotes his attention whole heartedly to leather has a real life work before him." Mr. Howard once made the statement that the workings of the universe, its every chemical and natural phase, can be discovered in a single fibre of leather.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell when You Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By making at any drug store for "Wynth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair. A well known down town druggist says everybody uses Wynth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning your gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—adv.

Mahogany. Sir William Henslow introduced mahogany into England in 1587.—He had used the timber to repair one of his ships. While the wood found many admirers at that time, it did not become of commercial value until 150 years later. Different varieties of mahogany are found in Africa, Japan, United States, Philippine Islands, India and Australia.

IN PLANNING A CAMPAIGN, does an advertiser guess at the quality of the art work?
Does he guess whether the copy to be used is a true representation of his goods?
Does he guess at the charges of the photo-engraver and electrotyper?
Then why guess the circulation of the publications to be used, how that circulation is obtained, where the papers go, how many paid for, how many given away and how many subscribers in arrears?
These points are vital to the success of the campaign.
It is not necessary to guess. Any publication that is worthy of the advertiser's consideration will give him complete data verified by the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

CHILD WELFARE CLINIC STARTS

Red Cross Conducts Series of Physical Education Meetings in Parish Hall

Today a child welfare clinic is being held in Parish Hall, under the direction of Twin Falls county chapter, American Red Cross, Mrs. J. P. Myers, E. S. McFarland and H. M. Leeson, professional assistance and advice. Miss Rosetta McGrail, Red Cross and county nurse, is actively directing operations.

The clinic will continue three days and was originally planned to be held in the high school auditorium. On account of the upset condition of that school building, due to construction and renovation operations the auditorium is not in condition for public gatherings and Parish hall was substituted. Similar educational gatherings were held last week in Filer, Kimberly and Hooters.

The child welfare committee consisting of Mesdames B. E. Morse, G. D. Aiken and E. L. Warren and some local nurses assumed charge of these clinics with the county nurse Miss McGrail directing.

Concerning the clinics the committee explains:

"The practical feature of these clinics was the examination of the physical condition of the children who were presented, with explanations and recommendations in each particular case that would, of course, make for the benefit and instruction of the present."

"Possible ailments were classified, one specialist examining the teeth, another the eye, ear, nose and throat, and another the torso, the chest and the limbs. Each of these clinics was well supported and attended locally and much interest manifested, parents paying eager attention which manifest appreciation of the opportunity."

"The last of the present series of clinics will be held next week in Twin Falls city as above mentioned where children may be brought for examination if desired, it being understood that everything in connection with this work is free."

"When children are to be brought and one special appointment is made, a note should be brought for each child."

ASSAULT CHARGE AGAINST FARMER

Samuel Broom of Murtaugh Accused of Shooting at William Lewis, Neighbor

Two charges stand on the records of the present against Samuel Broom, a Murtaugh district farmer. One is misdemeanor and the other a felony. Broom is in jail awaiting the arrival of a bond for $500 for later appearance.

According to the court authorities Broom several days ago threatened to do William Lewis, a farmer neighbor, bodily injury. This charge constitutes the first count. Later Lewis charged Broom with having shot at him with a rifle. This is the felony charge.

Broom and Lewis appear to have been at loggerheads for some time over land rental. Early this morning Broom arrested and placed under bonds to keep the peace. Before service was obtained Broom called the sheriff's office from Milner and alleged that Lewis had pulled a revolver on him. Immediately after this call the sheriff's department was notified by Lewis that Broom had shot at him with a rifle. Broom was ordered to come to Twin Falls and report to the authorities. This he did yesterday and was lodged in jail. This morning he was arraigned on charge of assault with a deadly weapon. He denied the guilt and was remanded to the custody of the sheriff until such time as a proper bond for appearance is executed.

SUES CASUALTY COMPANY

Acting for R. Goldberg, E. V. Larson, attorney, has filed a petition in the district court for judgment against the Aetna Casualty & Surety company and Richard M. White. The amount involved is $2025 and is based upon alleged failure to perform the terms of a contract for the erection of dwelling houses at Murtaugh.

DETWEILER ARRESTED

D. F. Detweiler, president of the Twin Falls Times, was arrested this morning on charge of exceeding the speed limit while driving an automobile through Twin Falls. Arrangements were made for appearance for hearing next Monday in the police court. Mr. Detweiler was on the way to a fishing camp.

SPECIAL COACH FOR STUDENTS

University Students from Twin Falls Will Eliminate Changes at Junctions

For the accommodation of Twin Falls students enrolling at the University of Idaho plans have been made for providing special traveling arrangements. The plan for the complete schedule between Twin Falls and Moscow. A Pullman sleeper is to be placed at the disposal of students going to the university from this place.

The plan for procuring a Pullman coach as a special accommodation feature was initiated by George D. Aiken, who has taken charge of the guarantee. The coach will accommodate 25 persons and already its reservations have been pledged.

This service will eliminate all changes at junction connections thus giving users of the car a straight through run from Twin Falls. By taking the regular train with the ordinary accommodations provided, changes must be made at Minidoka, Nampa, Idaho, and Colfax, Wash.

It is the plan to have the coach set out here early Saturday, September 11, and will leave that evening arriving at Moscow on September 12. The schedule has proved so popular with local students, and by the week-end all reservations are expected to be taken.
