HAYS LAYS REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN PREPARATION BEFORE INVESTIGATORS

Tells Senators Party Management Welcomes Opportunity to Set Forth Effort to Popularize Giving of Small Contributions and Eliminate Possibility for Work of Sinister Influences; Charges Opponents Plan to Raise Five to Ten Million Dollar Fund

SUBMITS EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT OF COX GIVEN BY LIQUOR INTERESTS

CHICAGO, (AP)—The republican campaign for 1920 will be carried on at a total expenditure of five million dollars, according to testimony given here today before the senate committee investigating campaign funds.

Mr. Hays emphasized that the present national committee had a budget of approximately $3,000,000 and that $1,000,000 of the total expected expense through the committee's treasury would be allotted back to the states for strictly state purposes.

The testimony was in the nature of a reply to charges made by Governor Cox, democratic presidential nominee, that the republican campaign fund would total $15,000,000.

Mr. Hays denied the charges, insisting that no "big money interests" had underwritten the republican expenses.

Mr. Hays submitted to the committee a letter from George T. Carroll as "president of the New Jersey association of liquor interests."

This last point was brought out by Senator Reed of Missouri who cross-questioned the republican leader at considerable length.

Calls Liquor Men

Mr. Hays charged that in addition to the regular democratic campaign activities, that the liquor interests of the country were raising large amounts in support of the Cox candidacy.

Mr. Hays said he had been counter-charged that the democratic organization had planned a campaign fund of $10,000,000 and had "misused government instruments and functions."

Other Witnesses Ready. The republican chairman occupied the witness chair throughout the initial session of the hearing and was told to

COX AWARDED ENDORSEMENT OF LABOR LEADERS

Report of American Federation Campaign Committee Holds Ohio Governor Most Friendly to Organization Demands

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Organized labor's non-partisan political campaign committee today announced the records of the republican and democratic presidential nominees declared in a report made public Sunday that Governor Cox had shown himself most friendly to a fuller understanding of the needs of the working people.

The report, signed by Samuel Gompers, president; Matthew Wolf, vice president; and Frank Morone, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, is the first ever made on presidential candidates by a federation committee.

Taking up the senatorial record of Senator Harding, the committee declared that on 18 measures dealing with labor his score stood: Favorable, 7; unfavorable, 10; pairs unfavorable, 1.

The republican nominee's vote on labor issues during his term in the state senate of Ohio, as reported by the committee, stood: Favorable, 6; unfavorable, 0. In this connection the report said:

Chooses National Record.
Senator Harding's record in Washington affords a better opportunity for analysis of his legislative views than does his record in the Ohio senate, by reason of the fact that his term of service extended for a long period of time, during which he was called upon to consider a wider variety of measures.

Reviewing Governor Cox's record the report said that while Governor of Ohio, he had "acted upon 20 measures of interest to labor, about acting on a single one adversely to labor." As a member of the sixty-second congress, the governor was recorded as voting "favorably" to labor on two measures the only ones listed.

Admits Single Conclusion.
The committee summarized its findings in the language:

"There can be but one conclusion based upon a careful and impartial survey of the actions and declarations of the candidates for government offices, showing himself possessed of a fuller understanding of the needs of the working people, a readier response to their needs and to their proposals and a broader state of mind in his legislative discussions of the problems of the industrial world.

"In addition to his superior understanding, Governor Cox is the candidate on a platform of government action which 'marks a measure of progress not found in the republican platform,' and the plans of which 'more nearly approximate the desired extension of human rights than do the plans found in the republican platform.'

Praises Cox's Viewpoint.
"Not only in the specific utterances relating directly to questions held paramount by labor is the comparison favorable to Governor Cox. His progressive and constructive attitude is shown throughout his declaration of public questions though he slips at times into the ambiguity which unfortunately has marked a greater or lesser degree the platforms of both candidates.

"It must be exparating to the whole American public that political parties bidding for the support of the whole citizenship cannot state in definite terms what are their proposals and what are their pledges. The same exparation must be felt regarding many of the utterances of both candidates. However, the viewpoint of Governor Cox is, we find, more clearly expressed and less open to the criticism of lack of clarity.

Asks No Pledge.
"The American labor movement asks from no man or woman a pledge of political conduct. It seeks to dictate to none. Its field is limited, and properly so, to furnishing to the rank and file the information upon which it may base conclusions.

"There is no intention to depart here from that rule which binds the officers individually as well as collectively in securing the greatest good for the greatest number. It would be a sad and unforbearing remembrance of duty in this crucial hour were the facts not presented with the utmost freedom and completeness.

"With the workers of America rests the right of deciding for which candidate they shall vote. As they vote they will determine to a large degree the welfare and progress of the working people of our republic in the years just ahead."

Harding's "Favorable" Score
The senate measures on which Senator Harding was given a "favorable" rating were: Passage of immigration restriction bill and its re passage over the president's veto; war risk insurance; civil rights bill; woman suffrage; motion to increase appropriation for bureau of conciliation; and motion to amend his vote on an amendment to the retirement bill prohibiting affiliation of federal employes with organized labor.

Among his unfavorable votes the committee report included these: Motion to strike labor charter from league of nations; motion to extend federal control of railroads for two years; final passage of road bill, making strikes unlawful; Board of national increasing hours of government employes, and his senate pair on accepting the railroad bill conference report.

Henderson of Elko, and for member of the house of representatives to succeed Congressman Charles R. Evans of Goldfield, the state's lone delegate to the lower house. Three candidates, Tasker L. Odell, former governor, Rev. The successful aspirant will oppose Senator Henderson in the general election in November.

Two other democrats, Walter C. Pratt and Richard C. Stoddard, prohibition director for the Nevada district, are opposing Representative Evans for the democratic nomination. On the republican ticket, William T. McNeil, of Reno and Samuel Arentz, of Lovelock, are running for the nomination for congress.

ARGUES CHURCH MUST TAKE PART IN LABOR ISSUE

Religious Organization Execu- tive Points Out Duty to Inter- vene in Strikes and Compose Industrial Differences

NEW YORK, (AP)—The church and the pulpit were called upon to intervene in strikes and try to compose the differences between capital and labor in a "Labor Sunday message" issued today by the Rev. Wirth M. Tippy, national secretary of the executive committee of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

He declared that the church must stand for the right of labor to organize and that effective union and proper restraints, and safeguard for public welfare and that the church should not be prevented from taking this step either by reactionary employes or by "evils in the labor movement."

Deeper Perils Ahead.
The Rev. Mr. Tippy pointed out that the nation had suffered a tremendous economic loss because of the strikes last year. He said that deeper perils lie in threatened destruction of the spirit of co-operation and good will between capital and labor. "The church watches the deepening conflict with profound concern," he said. "It cannot stand aloof. At whatever risk of becoming involved in the controversy it must go into the midst of contending forces if possible between them. It must stand for the spirit of co-operation and good will which it possesses to bring these contending groups together, and to induce them to work out permanent and effective means of co-operation."

He pointed out that there was need to devise a method by which employes and workers can get together and keep together, so as to put heart and power into their production and give full returns to both groups. "The form of labor organization is permitted and if not only strikes but labor organization itself is fought to a finish, there appears to be a danger of a further deepening of them. We shall have an autocratic management of industry on the one side and either a kind of serfdom on the other or a militant, bitter and class conscious organization of labor growing yearly more revolutionary. That is just the danger of the present hour.

Church Cannot Hold Back.
"The church cannot be hesitant here. When it has to bear every responsibility of its fellowship precludes a co-operative judgment on the part of the whole church, the pulpit must nevertheless be true to its prophetic office. The cause is holy and the church will not allow collective action by its workers. The church must stand for the right of organization and collective action and must prevent either its interests and safeguard for public welfare.

"The church cannot allow itself to be stopped from this course either by pressure from reactionary employes on the one hand or by militant evils in the labor movement on the other. It must be strong enough to attack their evils and to resist the pressure. It must urge employes, especially Christian employes, to work out democratic principles in their establishments with due time for investigation and experiment. The important matter is not just what plan is followed, but that the start is made, and that everything that is done be on the road to a definite goal—the development of democratic factory organization in which all truly co-operate, and which is for the benefit of each and all."

FREEZING KEEPS BERRIES AS MID-WINTER DELICACY

Department of Agriculture An- nounces Successful Experi- ments Result

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Fresh berries and cherries, if available, are possible, the experts of the department of agriculture announce after extensive experiments. Successful methods of storing fruits and berries in frozen condition have been shown. Berries can be frozen in the crates in which they are marketed in temperature from 10 degrees Fahrenheit to zero and below and withdrawn from cold storage when wanted. The fruit may be eaten as is, or when taken out and collapse and therefore must be used immediately. Government experts say, however, that they retain their natural flavor and in every way are comparable to the best fresh products.

REBUILDING OF MEXICO BEGINS WITH RAILWAYS

Transportation Systems, Now at One of Lowest Levels of Commercial and Industrial Activity, Must Be Restored

MEXICO, Mex., (AP)—Rehabilitation of Mexican industrial life will largely depend on the railroads which, as at one of the lowest levels of commercial and industrial activity, cannot adequately care for the country's needs, according to Mexican railroad officials and employes.

War's Effects Evident.
A trip through northern Mexico from the district about Torreon shows the traveler this apparently is true. Along the tracks thousands of tons of rails, twisted and bent, and by now rusted, lie where they sought to cut communication to hinder pursuit or harass their enemies can be seen. Ties need replacing; roadbeds are in terrible shape and must have much work done; bridges, permanent ones and temporary structures built to replace those blown up by revolutionists, must be replaced or repaired; new rolling stock must be bought in great quantities and the old repaired; motive power is lacking and the majority of locomotives are declared ready for the scrap heap.

Not only are destroyed rails seen in great quantities along the right of way but time after time in the course of a day's travel will be seen the skeletons of passenger and freight coaches burned when trains were captured or fired when trains were wrecked by dynamite or in collision.

Shippers declare freight service is exorbitant in price and uncertain in delivery to the extent of being almost useless to a shipper. Most of the country's business is said to be carried on through express shipments which add greatly to the cost. There are also a dearth of workers due to the railroad employes flocking to United States to obtain high wages.

Farm Products Held Up.
Some large concerns like the American Smelting and Refining company own cars of their own, furnishing cars, motive power and crews to transport their products. Shipments like hay and other agricultural products have not been moving in months because of revolutions, high cost of transportation and lack of rolling stock except for military purposes. The cotton growers of the Laguna district about Torreon, one of the great cotton growing sections of the world, this year are worrying about how they will move their product to tidewater for export to Europe.

The present government, it was said, realizes the necessity for improvement in the railroad situation and plans large purchases of rolling stock and other necessities but railroad officials declare these purchases will fall to be for months because the railroads of the United States from whose materials must come will need all that can be manufactured for years.

RUTH LAID UP. NEW YORK, (AP)—The New York Yankees probably will be without the services of Babe Ruth, champion home run hitter, for ten days. Ruth's right arm has become infected by an insect bite. Ruth's physician made a cut of three inches in the arm and it is believed the infection has been checked. With his arm in a sling Ruth watched the game from the bench yesterday.

GREB BEATS MILWAUKEE. GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Harry Greb of Pittsburgh and Ted Jamison of Milwaukee fought ten rounds to a draw here Saturday night in the open.

Who Is to Decide. But how about the great mass of ordinary batmen in between the Ruths and the Grebs? Who is to decide whether a pass given to a 250 hitter is intentional or accidental? The umpire, of course. But he has troubles enough and can't possibly decide all cases without serious wrangles.

Another Record for American Athlete

Richard W. Landon, of the New York A. C. and Yale University, who set a new Olympic record in winning the final of the running high jump event at London.

There are a lot of bases on balls every day. A game in which a pitcher does not give one or two is notable. Only a small percentage of those are intentional, but no living man can draw a line that will divide all cases correctly.

They tried it in the case of wild pitches which accidentally hit a batsman's bat as he dodges. That rule was discarded because it was impossible to draw a satisfactory line between accident and intent on the batsman's part.

MISKE FEARFUL OF GOING STALE SO DROPS MITTS

Champion's Challenger Suspends Boxing for a Day or Two

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., (AP)—Because of a fear of growing stale, Billy Miske, challenger for the world's heavy weight title, planned today to drop all work with the gloves for a day at least.

The challenger may be forced to suspend boxing for two or three days as a result of opening an old wound over his left eye in training yesterday. Miske suffered a slight cut when a negro sparring partner, butted him. Champion Jack Dempsey is rapidly rounding into condition. He boxed the last four rounds of his glove session in a heavy downpour of rain yesterday. Dempsey's legs are beginning to assume spindle-like proportions, and the thin roll off fat that was in evidence around his waist line when he started training has entirely disappeared.

Promoter Fitzsimmons announced today that Walter Eckersall of Chicago, had been agreed upon as the official time keeper for the Labor day matches. The question of a referee probably will not be settled before Friday or Saturday.

WILSON GIVES APPROVAL TO WAGES BOOST

Endorses Anthracite Coal Commission Majority Report Increasing Pay of Contract Miners 20 Per Cent

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Wilson today approved the majority report of the anthracite coal commission increasing the wages of contract miners 20 per cent over present rates.

Miners employed as company men are given an increase of 17 per cent and the same amount is given "consolidation miners" and miners' laborers and monthly men.

The findings, the report said, would fix a minimum rate of 52 1/2 cents per hour for the lower paid men in the anthracite industry.

Sustain Miners' Contentions

The president struck out of the report a provision fixing the terms of retroactive payments under the award which, it was outside the commission's jurisdiction. Thomas Kennedy, chairman of the miners' scale committee, had protested this feature of the award, he said.

The award to mine workers will receive about $18,000,000 in back pay under the retroactive feature and the total increase awarded to the 175,000 miners will average the commission said, "at least $85,000,000 annually."

The majority report declared that the award "affords no justification for any advance in the retail prices of coal, but on the other hand is consistent with a decline in prices."

COX PREPARES FOR NEXT "SWING AROUND CIRCLE"

Plans Reply to Harding Speech on League of Nations and G. O. P. Finance

EN ROUTE WITH GOVERNOR COX

Pittsburgh, (AP)—Governor Cox today left home to return for his "swing around the circle" in the west next month. En route from New York, the democratic presidential candidate's schedule was to bring him to Columbus, Ohio, later this afternoon.

Governor Cox's next address will be delivered tomorrow at the state fair. He will speak Thursday at Columbus to a gathering of national agricultural organizations and leave that night on his western trip, opening on September 3 at Lansing, Mich., a journey which will take him to the Pacific coast and northern and southern states, ending close at St. Louis, October 3. The last month of the campaign will be spent in the middle west, south and east.

A reply to Senator Harding's recent speech on the league of nations and further "revelations" regarding republican campaign contributions are planned by the governor in early address.

Among the guests at Ikae were nearly 3,000 persons, from Tokio, including many prominent people who were staying at villas and hotels. Some had narrow escapes, among them being Princess Higashikuni, sister of the emperor, whose husband accompanied the crown prince to France, and Prince Hirohito, that country. Baron Makino and Marquis Saionji, members of the Japanese delegation at the Versailles peace conference, also escaped in safety. Reports received here state that several persons were injured.

W. R. PRIEBE LEADING JEWELER TWIN FALLS, IDAHO MAIN OFFERS GIVEN PROMPT ATTENTION

HAYS SET OUT G. O. P. PLANS AT INQUISITION

Cox's quotations from the official bulletin of the republican national treasury, had Mr. Hays verify them from a file of the publication and then asked him how he explained the frequent use of the word "quota" as applied to various cities. Mr. Hays replied that the amount to be expected from a given state had undoubtedly been discussed by some one somewhere but that he supposed the goals set for various cities, if such goals were set, were laid out by the state organizations.

Denies Subterfuge

The witness referred to the list given out by Governor Cox as "this false quota list."

He denied positively that he had ever suggested that contributions of more than $100 from any individual be partitioned among the donor's family or clerks or other employees.

"That is a subterfuge and is to be avoided," said Mr. Hays. He said that Senator Reed questioned Mr. Hays about the inter-racial council, the American Defense society, the National Republican, a Washington newspaper and the Republican Publicity association, in which Senator Harding, prior to his nomination, was a director.

Mr. Hays said Senator Harding had resigned about the time of the convention. In answer to questions he said the republican national committee had been financing the publicity association for the past few months.

Foreign Language Field

Mr. Hays said he knew nothing about the inter-racial council, but had heard of an advertising agency which placed advertising in foreign language newspapers.

"I don't think that agency has bought up by Coleman DuPont and Francis Keplar," he said, "with the purpose of controlling the advertising in the foreign language papers."

Hays Courts Inquiry

Senator Edge, republican, protested against Senator Reed's line of questioning. "Mr. Chairman," he said, "I think it is going too far to ask the chairman to reveal his plans for the future campaign."

"I intend to ask him about every plan that involves the expenditure of so much as a nickel," Senator Reed rejoined.

"I am perfectly pleased to answer," Mr. Hays added.

Reed Introduces List

In connection with a denial by Mr. Hays that republican expenses had been underwritten by "big money interests," Senator Reed introduced photographic copies of documents signed by eastern capitalists and heads of several large corporations and pledging "moral and financial support" to a publication by William Barnes, of the Albany, New York Journal. The documents heading said: "The undersigned appreciate the necessity of restoring to power the republican party and approve the widespread distribution of militant republican propaganda under the direction of the Hon. William Barnes."

Among the signers, as read by Senator Reed, were John D. Rockefeller and John D. Rockefeller, Jr., the American Tobacco company, by Percival S. Hill, president; the Guaranty Trust company of New York, by Charles H. Sabin, president; the Beryne-White Coal company; the Hudson Coal company; the General Electric company; the Famous Players-Lasky corporation; J. Fleischmann and the William Wrigley, Jr., company.

No Connection Admitted

"That publication has no connection with the republican national committee either directly or indirectly," said

Mr. Hays. "We have no way of stopping Mr. Barnes or any other newspaper publisher from putting out a campaign year-book and do not intend to do this one or any other."

To Senator Reed's suggestion that the publication and its list of backers constituted a subterfuge, Mr. Hays said: "I know nothing of subterfuges in politics."

Cummings Takes Stand

Hoimer S. Cummings, former chairman of the democratic national committee, followed Mr. Hays on the stand.

Mr. Cummings said that, as compared to the 30,000 persons who have so contributed to the 1920 republican campaign under Mr. Hays' plan of decentralized subscriptions, 200,000 persons in 1916 gave an average of about $9 each to the democratic chest.

Few Postmasters Oppose

"How many postmasters capitulated?" a very small percentage," "How many federal employees?" "A very small percentage," "Were they solicited?" "I don't know, but I think Mr. Murray, the democratic treasurer, has figures showing the number who did contribute."

Senate investigation of republican and democratic presidential campaign expenditures started here today. The senatorial committee appointed prior to the convention reopened its inquiry by delving into the national campaign chests, both the sums already raised and the amounts which the party leaders seek.

Plans to Dolve Deep

Spurred on by the charges of Governor James M. Cox, the democratic nominee, that the republican party is raising a $15,000,000 campaign fund and the statement by Franklin D. Roosevelt, Governor Cox's running mate, that the amount is over $10,000,000, the committee is prepared for an exhaustive investigation.

For this purpose subpoenas were issued for Will Hays, chairman of the republican national committee; George White, chairman of the democratic committee; Fred Upham and Wilbur Marsh, treasurers of the two committees; treasurers of the senatorial and congressional committees of each party; and Governor Cox himself. Any been invited to attend or send a representative. The governor so far has not answered, but has indicated that he will send information to support his charges. One senator, a member of the committee, said last week that it was possible that Governor Cox had subpoenaed if he did not come to Chicago voluntarily. Possibility of the committee going to Governor Cox so as not to interrupt his campaign itinerary, also was mentioned today.

Outlines Inquiry Scope

Outlining the scope of the inquiry in to the present campaign, Senator Kenyon, chairman, announced that the investigation not only would delve into collection of money to finance the campaign, but would seek to reveal whether promises of federal patronage were being exchanged for campaign assistance. He also promised an inquiry into the charges that federal office holders were campaigning for Governor Cox, with their expenses paid out of government funds.

At the outset of the hearing Senator Kenyon introduced the newspaper accounts of Governor Cox's speech at Pittsburgh, the committee's telegram to him and the governor's reply.

Denies Cox Influence

Senator Reed argued that the committee's duty had been earlier set as "to find every dollar" collected and expended by both national organizations. He said this course would have been followed, whether Governor Cox had made a charge or not.

Without a record vote the committee received the newspaper accounts of Governor Cox's speeches at Wheeling, W. Va., Pittsburgh and Evansville, W. Va. A shorthand account of the Pittsburgh speech was also placed in the record.

Hays Welcomes Occasion

Will Hays, chairman of the republican national committee was then called to the stand.

Mr. Hays told the senators at the outset of his testimony that the republican management welcomed "the opportunity further fully to set forth the effort of the republican national committee to popularize the giving of money for campaign purposes by getting small contributions from a great many men and women, thus forever eliminating any possible opportunity for sinister influences in connection with money in politics."

Eliminates Improper Contributions

He said this plan for raising money grew out of two primary causes: "The real desire to work a real reform in the elimination of any possible improper obligation" and because, experience in raising funds for war purposes had made popular drives "familiar activity, and it seemed possible to undertake that kind of action by a political organization."

"We particularly hoped that this activity would increase the political interest," he said.

Limits Contributions

Mr. Hays explained that the plan was proposed early in 1919 and that the purpose has been to limit the contributions to a thousand dollars for any one year from any individual, or a thousand before the nominating convention and a thousand after.

"We have all tried to adhere to that plan," he said.

Describes Organization

Mr. Hays described the organization of a general committee of ways and means.

RACE UPRISING INDICATIONS IN OKLAHOMA FADE

Authorities Report No Further Developments Following the Lynching of Negro Arrested in Attack on Still.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., (AP)—Indications of a race uprising in Oklahoma City and Logan county, reported in this paper and elsewhere here throughout the morning as the result of lynching here last night of Claude Chandler, negro, arrested in connection with the killing of two officers, 23 miles north of here early Saturday, had shown no further developments this afternoon and the opinion was expressed that no disorders would occur.

Armed Negroes Reported. Six motor cars containing armed negroes are reported to have left Edmond, about 15 miles north of here and three automobiles also containing negroes are reported to have left Arcadia, about 20 miles northeast of here, for Oklahoma City, according to messages received at the office of County Attorney Cargill here shortly before noon. It was said at the county attorney's office that Cargill was arming his deputies.

A telephone message from the city marshal at Arcadia, stating 12 negroes had stopped there for a short time and departed in the direction of Oklahoma City. The marshal said, however, that he was unable to see any weapons that he appeared to be in a friendly pursuit.

Body Hangs on Tree. The body of Claude Chandler, negro, who last night was taken from the jail here by a group of 20 masked men, was early today found hanging from a tree near Council Grove, about eight miles west of Oklahoma City, according to a telephone message to the sheriff's office here. Chandler was found hanging in jail here Saturday in connection with the shooting of two officers who attempted to raid an alleged moonshine still near Arcadia.

Mexican Government Requests Self in Behalf of American and British Subjects

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Search for American and British subjects kidnapped by Felix Zamora, a Mexican bandit, during his raid on the town of Cuauilo on August 20, has been ordered by the war department. General Rafael Buelna, commander of cavalry pursuing the bandit, continues to follow the trail, and it is declared the bandits are demoralized and in flight.

All women who were kidnapped by the Zamoras band, who, it is said, on the town of Axtlan, August 11, have been liberated, it is stated.

DENIES COMPLAINT OF CITRUS GROWER LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The interstate commerce commission today denied the complaint of the California Citrus League that rates on oranges and lemons to points in the territory between the Rocky mountains and the Atlantic seaboard, north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers were unjust and discriminatory. Charges for refrigeration, the extent that the citrus grower consented for the cost of handling, were found to be unreasonable and reparation was awarded by the commission.

Red Troops Post Guard

Some indications of the treatment in store for the Bolsheviks was seen in the action of the Belorussians when the Poles reached this city. The district was escorted by a detachment of mounted soviet troops to a residence near the center of the city, about which guards were posted with orders to allow no one to leave without a soviet escort. This correspondence was guarded. Premises found it difficult to obtain an exact view of the situation, owing to the fact that he is a prisoner, like the rest of the Polish party. A visit was made to a local official, the correspondent being accompanied by a guard, and the official stated that he intended as the correspondent had accompanied the Warsaw delegation to Minsk, he was identified with it.

"It is too bad you came with the Poles," he was told.

The Polish delegation set up a wireless plant soon after its arrival, but was forced to move it three times in an endeavor to obtain a situation from which it might communicate with Warsaw. The last location was reached Monday morning last, and prospects of sending messages to the Polish capital were good, but when an attempt was made to use the apparatus, it was found the soviet commandant had sealed it.

Poles Grow Impatient

The Poles are impatient under the confinement, while the attitude of the Belorussians toward the Poles is offensive as news of Polish victories filtered through the lines. Members of the Polish mission said Monday last that the soviet terms presented the day before were not acceptable.

HAYS SET OUT G. O. P. PLANS

means, acting under the treasurer, to carry the work into each state and of a state ways and means committee with a man as state chairman and a woman as vice chairman, then to endeavor to get a county chairman of ways and means and a woman vice chairman, and then by such processes of organization as the localities might adopt, organize just as in a Red Cross or Liberty Loan campaign.

In Light of Publicity

"The greatest publicity has been given to the movement," he explained, because "upon the acquainting of the party public of the purpose depended the political interest."

"As the effort progressed," the witness said, "tentative quotas were fixed by the treasurer, made up of tentatives and rather as a goal—always high, of course, for the particular state to drive for, and changing constantly." Mr. Hays went into detail as to the method of organizing the states and the committee of state chairmen, with both the senatorial and congressional campaign committees of the party to the end that there would be but one non-existing organization.

Serves Double Purpose

"In that connection," he said, "it was understood between the national committee and state chairmen that the collecting organization of the national committee would help raise the money for them, guaranteeing to them the amounts which they thought would be necessary for the congressional and senatorial campaigns."

Where Money Goes

"The campaign budget or estimate was worked out beginning, as of July 1, of a total amount which would be needed for the actual campaign, and this was $3,079,037.20," he said. Of this total $255,100 was appropriated to the special campaign headquarters. Expenses were set at $750,824 for Washington, New York, Boston, Chicago, Deaver and San Francisco, and rents for all headquarters were estimated at $45,640.

For publicity $1,248,500 was appropriated and for miscellaneous objects, such as bureaus of clubs, shipping departments and distribution, freight, express, all traveling and other expenses incident to raising of money, $689,920 was set aside.

"It is my opinion that about this amount will be necessary for the national committee to spend," said Mr. Hays.

Gives Unity of Effort

"This does not, of course, include collections for states where there is a mutual agreement that collecting for state and national committee should be done jointly. While it makes the total amount that passes through the national committee treasury greater than is spent by the national committee it is desirable, both in the saving of time and labor, and less bother to the one who is solicited."

"It is my opinion that the total amount which had been, and will be financed by the national committee, including organizations for the use of all state committees in their state elections will approximate a million dollars. This is no part of the national committee's fund."

Mr. Hays then charged that the democratic organization had planned to raise from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000 to finance its presidential campaign. He called attention, in that connection, to the New York World of Sunday, August 23, 1920, respecting the raising of a democratic national executive committee, at Atlantic City. He said this account quoted W. D. Jamieson of the democratic national committee as selling of plans to finance the 1920 campaign by a campaign fund of from five to ten million dollars. Mr. Jamieson was formerly democratic congressman from Iowa and was associated with Lee C. Marsh in the financial end of the 1916 campaign.

Democrats Also Collecting

"Also we were advised of the continuing activities of the committee in their 1918 soliciting machinery," said Mr. Hays. "With very large offices in the Bond building at Washington and with several hundred employes, which money raising apparatus, which cost in itself several hundred thousand dollars."

Use Taxpayers Money

"We were advised of the alleged misuse of governmental instruments and functions by the democratic organization for political purposes by sending out thousands of tons of propaganda by the democratic administration during the paper shortage, while limiting the use of money by the same party, a large part of it was democratic political propaganda, all paid for by taxpayers money; and were informed, too, that the democratic committee even reported that they had drawn money from these banks government funds were deposited, wiring such bankers that they had already drawn such drafts."

Gives Definite Figures

Turning to the condition of the republican fund, the democratic organization was nominated, Mr. Hays said that when a new set of books was opened June 14 "the national committee had on hand $296,821.27, which was turned over by the committee, and we owed $100,000." "Since the 1920 convention there has been raised by the national committee for its term the $618,013.54 up to August 26, 1920," he said. "During this period there has been raised by the states where we have a joint working arrangement, for their own use, $215,125.31 and we owe $468,000. This amount has been borrowed in order to anticipate expenditures." "From June 14 to August 26, 1920, the national committee has expended $843,009.50. Deficit on August 26, "This leaves a deficit of $28,374.03 on August 26. However, we have uncollected pledge cards amounting to $291,665.33, all due between now and October 1. The treasurer has these pledge cards. These pledges come from every state and are from 2304 persons, with an average contribution of $126.57 per person. Of these 2304 pledges, none is for less than $10, except two which are for $5000 each.

"During this period from June 14, 1920, to August 26, 1920, there were 12,389 men and women contributors to both the national committee and to state committees through the joint collecting organization, an average of $82.11. Of these none has been over the thousand dollar rule except eight, which would give a total of $13,500—an average of $1687.50. The highest of these was $2500.

Calls Cox Charges False

Governor Cox has publicly charged: "That certain interests were handed out to buy the presidency, and that millions had been contributed to the republican party with sinister intent." That statement is false.

"That there is a deliberate plot that has been carried out by the American in connection with the presidency of the United States." That statement is also false.

"That others are writing large checks in the name of dummy corporations into office and there are industrial controversies, they can have the bayonet to enforce their will. That statement is also false.

"That millions have been contributed through a corrupt source in furtherance of a republican conspiracy to buy an underdog on the presidency; the republican fund, not a campaign fund, and will not be less than $15,000,000." That statement is also false.

"That a quota fixing assessment is being made by certain citizens amounting to over $8,000,000 was adopted at a meeting at which Mr. Upham and I were present. That charge is also false. No such quotas were ever adopted at any meeting nor at any other time or place.

"He had made statements charging a 'shush fund' for corrupt purposes 'to be used in the name of dummy corporations to be used to corrupt the electorate. These statements are also false.

No Favors Intimated

"Have you heard of any promises or agreements with any one whereby they will receive any favor in event of republican victory?" Mr. Reed asked of Mr. Hays.

"We seem to be getting into a discussion of hearsay evidence again," Senator Kuyvenort interjected. "May I ask, Mr. Hays, whether you have heard of the democratic party making any promises to any one?"

"Well, there is the statement about the British ambassador contributing to Mr. Cox's campaign, and I have heard of a lot of rumors by irresponsible persons which I have taken no particular stock in."

When Mr. Hays started to read his newspaper clippings, Senator Reed observed that the committee had started to travel and he pointed out that they make a file of newspapers of moral value to the committee than the official stenographer's record.

Oppose Subpoena for Cox

"Do I understand that you think Governor Cox ought to be subpoenaed?" Senator Reed asked of Mr. Hays. "If you are going to try this case on the newspapers say, let us go ahead that way," replied Senator Reed. He added that "under present circumstances he did not think it wise to call either Governor Cox or Senator Harding."

Mr. Hays finally offered three newspaper clippings reporting an alleged democratic charge that $10,000,000 without putting them in the record and suggested that Clarence B. Miller, secretary of the republican national committee, who he said, had investigated the reports, be subpoenaed. The committee agreed.

More Democratic Propaganda

A letter from the comptroller of the currency dated July 30 and sent to the banks of the country was offered by Mr. Hays as evidence of what he called "democratic propaganda through misuse of official sources." He quoted from it a sentence to the effect that "in view of the failure of the senate to ratify the peace treaty there being nothing in the situation to excite patriotism" in the business situation.

Calls for Smoot

A statement from Mr. Hays that such of his information as to 1919 democratic activities came from a speech in the senate by Senator Smoot led to a motion by Senator Reed that the Utah senator be subpoenaed. The committee took the proposal under consideration.

Mr. Hays' charge as to drafts drawn on government depositories was based, he told Senator Reed, upon information from George W. Bean, of Tampa, Fla., republican national committeeman at that state. He said a banker gave Mr. Bean the information but he could not give the identity of this banker.

Offers Liquor Man's Letter

Mr. Hays then offered the original letter of George P. Carroll, president of the New Jersey federation of liquor interests. The letter said the association had "set out to do its part in the election of James M. Cox." It said the Cox nomination was "a big victory for our interests" and said the Ohio governor could "be relied upon to support an amendment to the Volstead act" which would permit the sale of light wines and beers.

"Money was made had if we are to maintain the necessary propaganda," read Mr. Hays from the letter which was addressed to "Gabin Bros." The witness submitted this letter and "what purported to be an original receipt" for $25 signed by L. N. Heller of Newark, N. J., as treasurer of the association.

Obtained from Freilighuysen

Senator Reed brought out that Mr. Hays got the letter from Senator Freilighuysen, of New Jersey.

A FOREGONE CONCLUSION

Running true to form, Samuel Gompers and some of his associates among leaders of the American Federation of Labor, have finally announced "after comparing the public records of the Democratic and Republican presidential nominees" that Governor Cox had "shown himself possessed of a fuller understanding of the needs of the working people."

There is no question but that this declaration might have been highly efficacious in the impending campaign were it not for the commonly known fact that Gompers every four years rings up his Democratic after posing as an "independent" during the interval between presidential campaigns. So accurately, however, has American public opinion been able to forecast this declaration that it is extremely doubtful whether either Governor Cox's candidacy will benefit or that of Senator Harding suffer as a result of it.

CROSS PURPOSES

Declaration of Candidate Cox that agricultural production must be increased or "America will be importing foodstuffs within a short time" is hardly the sort of advice that will be welcomed by farmers of the Twin Falls country at least who have something like three million bushels of wheat on hand without a market because of lack of cars to move it, and who, for the most part, must sell at once in order to meet bills incurred to pay high prices for help and high prices for machinery.

Candidate Cox would do much better to take up the fight of Representative Burton L. French of Idaho, and the Republicans to secure adoption of the Federal Reserve board of a policy which would permit banks to rediscount wheat paper at the end of ninety days and six and nine months in certain definite amounts thus permitting wheat produced in the country to pass from the wheat growers to the consumer in the shortest possible time and without being held up for long intervals by indifference who expect to enjoy and take advantage of economic conditions in six months and a year from now.

It is to be feared that Candidate Cox's interest in the farmer's welfare is a superficial one, and that his argument for increased production is in the nature of camouflage for impurities of foreign products bound to result from continuation of the Democratic trade policy, rather than from any deep-seated wish for agriculture's well-being or of real appreciation of its needs.

SAVE THE EAGLE

Only prompt federal action will save the American eagle from extermination by bounty hunters.

More than eight thousand eagles have been slaughtered along the coastal region and river valleys of Alaska since the Alaskan bounty law went into operation on April 30, 1917. The law provides for the payment of 50 cents for each bald or "American" eagle killed.

In order to swell their gains, it is declared, bounty hunters are no longer limiting themselves to Alaskan territory but are reaching out into the British provinces adjoining Alaska in search of the rapidly-disappearing eagle. It is even possible that by this time more than one-half—perhaps more than three-fourths—of the entire species has been sacrificed and that within the next year or so there will be very few American eagles remaining alive with the exception of the scattered few to be seen, caged for life like manafactors, in the zoological parks.

The bald eagle never has been an abundant species. Estimates of its numbers are said to have been greatly exaggerated. Up to the year 1917 the only territory where the bald eagle thrived was along the coastal region and large river valleys of Alaska. Here the American eagle built its nest and, multiplied exceedingly for a bird of its size. Advocates of the Alaskan bounty law declared that the American eagle was destructive and that its numbers must be kept down. The war of extermination followed and has been kept up ever since.

The general indifference to the fate of the great bird of splendid tradition is due, beyond doubt, to the common lack of information regarding its threatened extinction. The crusade for the bird's protection should enlist the enthusiasm and sincere effort of bird lovers and bird scientists throughout the country, of our scientific and patriotic societies and of the public press. It is only by the prompt passage of a federal law protecting the American eagle that our national bird can be saved from total extinction.

DEATHS OF CZAR AND FAMILY ARE SUBSTANTIATED

Accounts of Two Independent Investigators Published in London Dispel All Possible Doubts about Assassination

LONDON, (AP)—All possible doubts that former Emperor Nicholas of Russia and his family were assassinated in the basement of their prison house at Ekaterinburg on the night of July 16, 1918, according to the accounts of two independent investigators which are published here. One is written by the London Times and was printed by the former metropolitan newspaper. Robert Allan, another appears in the magazine Nineteenth Century and After and is from the pen of Captain Francis McCullagh of the British army. Both spent several weeks at Ekaterinburg, and talked with natives and soldiers who witnessed the affair through the windows of the ill-fated house. Both writers agree on the important details of the story.

The victims of the massacre, they say, numbered 11, being the former emperor, his wife, son and four daughters, Dr. Botkin and three servants. The assassination was arranged by Yurovski the jailer in charge of the deposed royal family, and was carried out by 12 soldiers. The Times account says these men were let out of their cells. McCullagh declares they were Hungarians who had been placed on duty instead of a Russian guard because the Bolsheviks feared a Russian could not be trusted for the work.

UTAH SETS RECORD FOR POPULATION INCREASE

Census Figures Show Bee Hive State Makes Largest Percentage of Growth of Any State

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Utah, forty-first state in population, ten years ago and the 1920 population of which was announced today by the census bureau as 129,446, has shown the largest percentage of growth of any state thus far announced in the fourth census. Its rate of growth, 20.4 per cent, was almost as large as that for the decennial ending with 1910, when its numerical increase was exceeded in that decade. In the last ten years its increase was 76,095, while ten years ago it showed an increase of 36,002. The state now has almost forty times the population it had when organized as a territory in 1850, and its increase in the last ten years is more than six times the population at that time.

PREDICTS NEW WARS SODIUM IN MIDDLE EUROPE

Former President of Slovakian Republic Says Germany will Break Up into Small States; Czechs and Poles to War

BUDAPEST, (AP)—Central Europe and Germany will surely be war and political storm centers soon, in the opinion of Viktor Dvorak, who was president of the Slovakian republic for a period of a few weeks previous to the annexation of Slovakia by the Czechs in November, 1918. Slovaks in the United States invited him to visit them this summer.

"I have just completed a tour of all Europe," said Mr. Dvorak, "and these storms are in the air. Germany will break up into the small states of a hundred years ago. The 3,000,000 Germans now held by the Czechs will join the Saxons, while the Austrians will join the Bavarians, perhaps."

Hungary to Aid Poles "There will be a war between the Poles and the Czechs, as the latter have an understanding with the Moscow government. In this war Hungary will help the Poles, in order to get back Slovakia, once her province. Should the Russians have difficulties with the Czechs in a military way, and perhaps would not if they could."

"The point that troubles the Hungarians most is the possible attitude of the Poles should the latter have an understanding with the Moscow government. In this war Hungary will help the Poles, in order to get back Slovakia, once her province. Should the Russians have difficulties with the Czechs in a military way, and perhaps would not if they could."

"So a new war will inevitably come out of the homelessness and hatred and poverty in Slovakia the Czechs have tried to rule by arms; but the locally engaged soldiers are fleeing to the east. Communism has been declared by the Bolsheviks in Austria to overthrow the peasants who used each year to go to the plains of Hungary to till the soil and gather the harvests are not now allowed to cross the frontiers. So they must starve this winter. Already they have but two pounds of bread per month. Czech speculators and carpet-baggers are cutting down the magnificent forests."

"Should disorders break out there, it is possible that Hungarian soldiers lately mobilized at Miskolc will cross over and then the Czechs will be driven out."

AMERICAN EMIGRATION TO DOMINION DECLINES

Canadian Reports Show 3,000 Less Immigrants from United States This Year Than Last

OTTAWA, Ont. (AP)—Although the total immigration into Canada for the six months' period ended June 30 showed an increase of more than 17,000 over the corresponding period of 1919, the number of those from the United States was 3000 less than last year. During the first half of 1920, 68,857 persons were admitted to the dominion on immigrant status, an increase of 17,667 over 1919 figures. Of these 337,261 came from the British Isles, as compared to 16,801 last year. From the United States there were 25,183, while in the first half of 1919 there were 28,023. Other countries this year contributed 44,113.

He saw active service in the World War as a lieutenant in the American artillery and won his promotion to the rank of major.

LEGION GATHERS UP INFORMATION ON MISSING MEN

Veterans Organization Endeavors to Mitigate Distressing Phase of Aftermath of War; 2000 Personal Mysteries

NEW YORK, (AP)—The American Legion is making an effort to mitigate a distressing phase of the aftermath of the war, the 2000 personal mysteries of the great struggle of men who are classified in army and navy lists as "missing in action," "killed in battle" and "presumably dead." The work has been rewarded with some success, it is announced. In several instances the Legion Weekly has obtained for a mother more and clearer details of how her service son died, or put a life in touch with the comrades of her husband, "missing in action."

Publicity Brings Results.

Requests of relatives and friends of soldiers, sailors, marines and military nurses about whose fate little is known are being sent to newspapers throughout the country for publication. Results of this publicity are carefully tabulated at offices here. All "buddies," officers, doctors, nurses or welfare workers, who may know something of the person of whom information is sought, are invited to communicate with the friends or relatives. Each week a long list of "mysteries" are published in the Legion's organ and frequently a number of names of men and women who served in the war, but who failed to reach home, is sent to the newspapers. The current result list of the Legion contains the following instances where desired information was furnished:

Details Last Hours. Mrs. Catherine Holbeck, of Allentown, Pa., asked for information concerning the circumstances surrounding the death of her son, Sergeant Joseph Holbeck of Company C, 10th machine gun battalion 28th division, who died in a French hospital. The mother received a letter from Dr. Joseph Lister of New York who attended the dying soldier, giving details of his last hours.

Mrs. Lola Mason of Melroe, Ga., asked for information that would throw some light on the disappearance of her son, F. Mason, Jr., corporal, 83rd company, Sixth marines. The soldier wrote his mother that he would be home for Christmas 1918 but did not appear and nothing further was heard of him. Mrs. Mason reported that she received two letters, one from the son himself saying that he had recovered from a long illness.

Many Touching Appeals.

Many curious and touching appeals are received. A mother wants to know if her son, who died in a field hospital, said anything on his death bed. Another parent whose son was gassed, captured and afterward died, desires information from his comrades as to what kind of gas was used and how it affected him. Information is sought of an army nurse who was last heard of en route to France two years ago. A distressed family seeks word from the "buddies" of its soldier who was last seen walking a battlefield wounded.

TO START DRILL FOR HOT WATER

Stevens Company Plans to Tap Subterranean Flow Near Twin Falls

Under the direction of U. G. Stevens started by the Stevens Oil, Gas and Water company of Tulsa, Okla., a well is being drilled to get an artesian flow of either hot or cold water, gas or oil. The drilling will be close to Twin Falls, on a site already selected for operations.

The Stevens company was formed here several weeks ago and has just been granted a charter to proceed with work of development of underground flows and deposits. The initial experiment will be to sink about three miles south of Twin Falls on land to which the company holds lease rights.

The company seeks, first of all a flow of hot water which, it expects, it planned to pipe into Twin Falls for commercial purposes both as a heating proposition and for domestic use. Then, too, the company hopes to find a channel of one of the artesian flows, near spring flows to provide the city and community with an auxiliary to the present water supply. Gas and oil, of course, is sought, and the belief of the company is that there are deposits in the region where they have obtained leases.

U. G. Stevens, of the Stevens company, is a man of wide experience in oil and gas drilling, and it is his opinion that the section of the country staked by his concern for operations is ideal for the finding of commercial quantities of all and gas.

It will be planned to erect immediately a standard derrick rising 80 feet high for the first drilling. The derrick alone is to cost 25,000, and the further plan is to expend at least $100,000 on the first well. Should a commercial flow of hot water be encountered a natorium will be erected on the spot, and a recreation ground established at the site. The hole is 24 inches in diameter, and is expected to yield an abundant flow of water.

METHODIST MINISTER STARTLES PEOPLE WITH HIS RESIGNATION

The Rev. A. G. Bennett and the Rev. E. L. White, of Great Falls, Montana, Mutually Agree to an Exchange of Pulpits—Announcement Officially Promulgated from Local Pulpit on Sunday

The Rev. A. G. Bennett, of the First Methodist church of Twin Falls, yesterday started his congregation with the announcement that he had received and had accepted a call to the First Methodist church of Great Falls, Mont. Dr. Bennett further announced that arrangements have been made, satisfactory to the bishops of both of the northern Montana and the Idaho conference, for the transfer of Dr. E. L. White, to Twin Falls from Great Falls.

THE REV. A. G. BENNETT

Methodist minister who will leave in a fortnight for Great Falls, Mont., to take charge of First Methodist pastorate. Designation transferred and congregation at Sunday morning service.

This exchange of ministers, negotiations for which have been in contemplation some weeks, have proven entirely satisfactory to the boards of both churches and the transfers, according to arrangement, will take place almost immediately.

Leading Strong Pastor

With the transfer of Dr. Bennett, Twin Falls loses one of the strongest of church pastors this city has ever entertained. He came to Twin Falls in September, 1919, and has been an upbuilding force in the church from that start. He readily makes friends, and has that unique qualification that retains them. As a minister and pulpit speaker he has proven his worth during the past year, and in his last sermon, given outside of the church he has won a high place among business men and the laity alike. He will preach his last official sermon in the local pulpit on Sunday, and following that will go immediately to the new field.

The Rev. Dr. Bennett was born and reared in Wisconsin and was educated at Wisconsin university and Garrett Biblical institute in Chicago. He served in the ministry in Kansas and has held important pastorates in Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma besides that in Twin Falls. Some of his notable work was done as city manager at large salary but he declined the proposal in favor of the ministry. He belongs to all the Masonic bodies, being both a Templar and a 32 degree mason. He is also an Odd Fellow and belongs to the M. W. A.

Dr. Bennett served with the soldiers as volunteer chaplain at Camp Funston for a year and in camp was said to be the outstanding religious influence of that great area.

In the Methodist ministry he served three years at Humboldt, Ill., five years in York, Neb., five years in Salina, Kan., and has also been in charge at Wichita, Kan., and Guthrie, Okla., where his shining eminent success, both as a pastor and a man among men. In addition he has served with success on the Chautauque lecture platform.

On coming to Twin Falls the minister has initiated church building improvements amounting in cost to some $20,000, including purchase of a parsonage, remodeling the interior of the church and making contract for a new Austin pipe organ, which is to be installed soon.

The clergyman comes of a family of preachers, a journalist and in his youth he learned the printing trade. He also edited a newspaper in Illinois, and to this day maintains a keen interest in the newspaper business. He made his way through college through his earnings with the type-caster, and the reporter's pad.

Dr. Bennett has a family of four boys three of whom, Willard, Robert and George, are in the service with an company him to Great Falls, Merrill, the oldest son, is employed in the First National bank, and will remain here. Mrs. Bennett is a minister's daughter and has been a church member since a Methodist parsonage.

An Experienced Man

Great Falls, Mont., offers for Dr. Bennett, a more extensive field of activities but it is not so much as the pastor of a flock as a builder of the church and a man who takes the work in a new state. The city to which he is called boasts about 32,000 population. It is the seat of Cascade county, and stands on the east bank of the Missouri river. The town itself was mapped out, and established 35 years ago by Paris Gibson, who at the age of 92 is still an active business man that place and ardent in the things that are going on in the city and in the place. The First Methodist church building, with a splendid parsonage, stands on the corner of one of the best corners in the city. But this church structure itself is to be torn down and replaced with a modern house of worship to be erected at an estimated cost of $150,000, and it is to erect this building that the Rev. Dr. Bennett will go to the Montana city. Great Falls is the seat of the district superintendent, who at present is the Rev. J. H. Martin, whom the Rev. Mr. White succeeded as pastor of the First Methodist church of the city. The city also has a deaconess hospital, and the district itself also supports and maintains other important Methodist institutions.

Good Man Coming

The Rev. E. L. White, D. D., who is to leave Dr. Bennett's office at the First Methodist church pastorate here, is now serving his seventeenth consecutive year as head of the First Methodist church of Great Falls. His success and popularity as a pastor is attested by the fact that the Great Falls congregation has appealed to the past six general conventions of the northern Montana conference for the return of the minister. So urgent have these petitions been that in each instance the bishop has acquiesced, although a marked deviation from church canon and custom. While in the city a young man who has had wide experience, as a pastor of Methodist churches, he has the reputation of being an able executive, is a pulpit speaker of commanding address and presence, and is a man who retains friendships through an affability and ability to "mix" with all degrees and classes. As a speaker, both in the pulpit and on the lecture platform, he is stirring and convincing, and although making no pretense at oratorical or dramatic ability his words carry "punch" and conviction.

Dr. White, it is expected, will be here immediately and will take some little time to making the acquaintance of his parastore and his new people.

Four culprits were arraigned in the municipal court this morning; two for traffic law violations and two for fighting. The latter were Ernest and G. H. Bates, paid fines of $25 each, while Martin Barnes and Henry J. Prough, speeders, were fined $2.50 each. Testimony in the Crest-Bates scrap brought out the fact that the two had existed between the town some time, and they fought to settle the grudge Saturday night. The combat started at a dance in the Lavinger pavilion, but the complaints were removed from the place and finished the affair in the alley.

Her old home was in southern Illinois, where she was long known as a member of one of the pioneer families of that section. Near to Frost Saturday Night but Wind Saves

ALTHOUGH yesterday's top temperature was not more than comfortable it was not compared with what this district got tucked in to on Saturday. That day the best on the hill was 65 degrees, while yesterday was 13 degrees higher than that mark, or 78.

Interest, however, centered more in the low marks of the two periods, rather than in the high, for it appeared as though killing frost was due. But a breeze sprang from the southland Saturday night and shooed Jack and his ice touch away. At that the temperature reached 37 degrees. Tonight the district is promised fair, but cooler weather, with Tuesday fair and farmer.
