FELIX DIAZ HELD PRISONER DURING PARLEY

Refusal of Leader of Disaffected Elements in Vera Cruz to Leave Mexico Results in Four Reported Revolts

TILAPACOTAN, Mexico, (AP)—Felix Diaz, nephew of former President Porfirio Diaz and recently held prisoner of the state of Vera Cruz which recently have given government officials concern, is a virtual prisoner of General Sanchez, government representative here. He arrived at the camp of General Sanchez last evening to continue negotiations with General Sanchez relative to a settlement of his demands upon the administration. It is understood he will be taken to Vera Cruz.

Orders Exile for Diaz
Counter proposals to the demand of Diaz were telegraphed here from Mexico City and communicated by General Sanchez to Diaz. Diaz's answer was telegraphed to the capital, and at two o'clock yesterday afternoon General Sanchez sent General Vasquez to Hacienda Jolo with the presidential president de la Huerta's final decision, which included a stipulation that Diaz would leave Mexico immediately.

Diaz Refuses to Leave
At 2 o'clock Diaz replied that he would under no circumstances leave Mexico. At that four military operations were reported to have been begun. Whether General Diaz surrendered or was taken prisoner by government troops has not as yet been announced.

JALISCO BANDIT OFFERS TO FOLLOW VILLIA'S EXAMPLE
MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Pedro Zamora, the Jalisco bandit, whose forces were virtually annihilated following his raids upon two towns in that state, during which he captured several foreigners, has written to the war department asking for amnesty. He promises to follow a peaceful life in the future and to follow the example of Francisco Villa, who has settled on a farm.

In reply, the war department has ordered Zamora to present his petition to General Enrique Estrada.

NO SIGNS OF DISORDERS IN LOWER CALIFORNIA
MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Lower California is peaceful and there are no indications of further disorders there, says a message received here from General P. Elias Calles, secretary of war, who went to that territory last week. He denies there is any movement there looking to a separation of lower California from Mexico.

MEXICO FEARFUL OF ALLIED MOVE

Intimations of Treaty Covering Damages Collection Reach Capital

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Unable to accomplish his mission to the United States, that of settling all differences between this country and Mexico, Fernando Tesate Calderon, Mexican high commissioner to Washington, has resigned and plans to return to Mexico City within a week. He has notified the state department his intention and says he will be accompanied by the entire mission staff of experts who came here with him.

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Intimations that the United States, France and Great Britain have concluded a treaty against Mexico are continued in Washington dispatches to the presidential offices here. It is believed the treaty may possibly be connected with an agreement relative to the collection of damages amounting to $20,000 resulting from revolutions here.

STATE DEPARTMENT DENIES TREATY; ADMITS NEGOTIATION

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The American, British and French governments have had some correspondence regarding Mexico and the numerous claims of their citizens resulting from the recent years of revolution in Mexico, but state department officials deny that any treaty against Mexico has been negotiated. Reports that such a treaty had been entered into, originated in Berlin, and were attributed to a high official of the German government.

Great Britain and France are represented here as having been informed of the United States with regard to Mexico and officials say there is little likelihood that they will accept recognition to the new regime in Mexico in the absence of similar action by the United States. The matter of recognition still is being considered by the state department, but an immediate decision is not

Flames Sweep World S. S. Convention Hall in Capital of Japan

Building Crowded with Delegates Burns Just Before Opening Session

TOKIO, (AP)—The building in which the world's Sunday School convention here was to be held was burned just before the opening of the convention today. The building was crowded with the delegates, but the fire department expressed belief that all escaped.

Many Americans went to Tokio to attend the eighth convention of the World's Sunday School association. The convention program included more than a score of conferences on various topics with addresses in four languages by about 131 speakers. Sessions lasting ten days, concluding with a grand outdoor pageant, had been planned.

CHINESE RAIL PROBLEM SEEMS NEAR SOLUTION

Agreement for Joint Operation of Road by Russo-Asiatic Bank and Government Virtually Concluded

BEIJING, (AP)—An agreement has virtually been concluded between the Russo-Asiatic bank and the Chinese department of communications for joint operation of the joint operation of the Chinese eastern railway, the bank continuing to finance the railroad, it was stated here today. China's political control in the territory traversed by the line is recognized. The board will consist of five representatives of each party to the agreement, with a Chinese president. The agreement provides for repayment of China's original investment, with interest.

The agreement, it is explained, is provisioned in character, pending recognition of a Russian government.

JAPAN TO PROPOSE JOINT CONTROL BY POWERS
TOKIO, (AP)—Japan will propose placing the Chinese Eastern railway under joint control of the powers united in Russia, the Yomiuri says today in connection with the discussion now in progress over the question of protection of Russian interests in China.

FIRST GAME CROWD
NEW YORK, (AP)—Attendance figures showed that 23,845 persons attended the first game of the season, the receipts for which were $70,000, exclusive of war tax. This was announced by Charles H. Ebbetts, Jr., secretary of the Brooklyn club.

World News Events

BERNE, Switzerland, (AP)—Italy and Jugo-Slavia, it is reported here will open direct negotiations in Switzerland at an early date with a view to reaching a definite solution of the Adriatic question.

PARIS, (AP)—France is ready to resume the direct economic negotiations with Germany which were interrupted last March, it was stated at the foreign office today. These negotiations would have in view the reaching of a final plan for settlement of the reparations problem. The negotiations, it was explained, must be conducted within the limits of the principles outlined in the treaty of Versailles.

COPENHAGEN, (AP)—Negotiations between the Norwegian government and Maxim Litvinoff, Bolshevik agent in Scandinavia, have been definitely broken off, according to the Berlingske Tidende. M. Litvinoff, the paper adds, probably will return to Russia, as it is not likely that he will be allowed to re-enter Denmark, owing to his discourteous manner toward the Spanish minister.

WRANGLER FORCES JOIN ARMIES OF UKRAINIAN CHIEF

Junction is Effected Trapping Bolsheviks in Vicinity of Ekaterinoslav; Support is Won in Siberia

WARSAW, (AP)—The advance guard of the northern group of Polish armies pursuing the Russian soviet forces, crossed the Lohia and Niemien rivers Sunday, says an official statement.

CONSTANTINOPLE, (AP)—It is reported from Schatopol that the troops of General Wrangel's south Russian government have occupied Petrovsk and Novopetrovsk on the coast of the sea of Azov. The reports say Wrangel's forces captured 4,000 prisoners, 12 cannon and 130 machine guns.

CONSTANTINOPLE, (AP)—General Wrangel, head of the anti-Bolshevik government of south Russia, has joined the armies led by General Mamonov, the Ukrainian chief which have been operating against the soviet troops in the region of Kharkov. The junction was effected at Simeonovka, a village 25 miles southeast of Ekaterinoslav, and the Bolsheviks, who have been trapped in the vicinity, since the anti-Bolshevik forces have been approaching each other during the past fortnight were captured.

Defeated remnants of the Bolshevik army continue to surrender in large numbers without resistance, but the Bolsheviks regulars and student regiments continue their retreat.

FORMER KOLCHAK TROOPS AND SEMENOV JOIN WRANGLER
HARBIN, Manchuria, (AP)—General Lukitsky, in command of the former troops, which were led by General Kapell, commander in chief of the western armies of the old Omsk government, at the time of his death, is reported to have telegraphed General Wrangel offering his submission to the Wrangel government.

General Semenov, the anti-Bolshevik Cossack leader in Siberia has also offered his aid to General Wrangel. General Semenov's chief lieutenant, General Ignat'yev, is reported to be starting a raid on Irkutsk from Dauria, Transbaikalia, hoping to cut off the Russian soviet lines of communication from the Polish front.

PRISONER DENIES THEFT OF FIVE CARLOADS OF COAL
DENVER, Colo., (AP)—Boydman, 27 years old, was arrested here today by city police and special agents of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad charged with the theft of five carloads of coal from the Salt Lake city yards of that road last June. He denies the accusation.

SUGAR IS QUOTED AT LOWEST PRICE OF SEASON
NEW YORK, (AP)—There was another drop of half a cent a pound in refined sugar today when the Federal Sugar Refining company announced a reduction to 12 cents for fine granulated. This represents the lowest price of the season this far.

WILL YOU TAKE A CHANCE WHERE NO ELEMENT OF CHANCE EXISTS?

How much would it be worth to YOU if the population of Twin Falls should reach a mark of 20,000 within the next five years?

How much would you be willing to give IN CASH to anyone who could ENSURE and GUARANTEE such a result?

As a matter of fact, wouldn't it be worth any sum which you could reasonably raise, to know positively that within one-half of one decade, Twin Falls would be a city of 20,000 population?

THIS IS ALL THERE IS TO THE QUESTION OF A NEW RAILROAD OUTLET TO THE SOUTH.

Probably 20,000 people in five years is altogether too conservative an estimate, if the new railroad is built—AND IF IT IS NOT BUILT IT DOESN'T COST YOU A CENT BEYOND THE EFFORT EXPENDED IN WRITING YOUR NAME ON THE DOTTED LINE—YOU GET YOUR MONEY BACK.

Help yourself by helping your City and Countryside. Don't let this effort come to naught because of a lack of individual foresight in the matter of public development.

RAILROADS HAVE ALWAYS BEEN THE BIG CONTRIBUTING FACTOR IN THE GROWTH OF CITIES, AND WILL BE AGAIN.

Never let it be said that we allowed to slip through our fingers the biggest and best opportunity of the kind within the history of the County!

CHANGE DAY FOR COURT AFFAIRS BONDS ELECTION HAYWOOD GOILT

Time for Legal Publication is Found Short—Date is Made November 9

Because of inability to meet state law requirements in the matter of length of period for legal publication and public notice the city legislative body, regular session last night, issued official orders changing the date of the proposed bond election from October 29 to November 9. The change was made when it was discovered that only 29 days were available for publication under the order of a week ago. The law requires that a period of full 30 days must elapse before election.

In this connection the ordinance calling an election to vote municipal bonds to meet a deficit in the intersection paving fund, and for the purchase of a motorized fire engine, last night, 29 was repeated and a substitute ordinance making the election date November 9. The administration asks that $25,000 be voted for the intersection deficit and $20,000 for the fire apparatus.

CHICAGO, (AP)—The United States circuit court of appeals handed down a decision today upholding the conviction of William D. Haywood and 32 other I. W. W. who were found guilty and sentenced to Leavenworth for obstructing the draft law during the war.

Throws Out Two Counts
Two counts were thrown out by the appellate court, but in all others the decision of the lower court was affirmed. Haywood, former general secretary of the I. W. W. and most of the other defendants have been at liberty under bond for more than a year pending hearing of their appeal.

Haywood and fourteen other defendants were sentenced to twenty years in prison by Judge Kenneth M. Louder, and in addition were fined sums ranging from $2,000 to $35,000.

All But Three Appeal
Of 166 persons indicted for conspiracy, seven-seventeen were found guilty and all but three appealed. Some of those appealed are:

Epidemics of the disease have been reported from Tuxpan and Vera Cruz, and some deaths have occurred at Progreso, in Yucatan, further to the south. It was only recently that the malarial disease made its appearance in Tampico.

INDIANS WIN OPENER WITH THE SUPERBAS

Three to One is Score for Cleveland in Initial Encounter for the World's Flag Against Brooklyn

EBHETS FIELD, Brooklyn, N. Y. (AP)—The Cleveland champions of the American League, triumphed over the Brooklyn by a score of 3 to 1 today in the first game of the world series. The National league champions were helped before the mystifying slants of the big spibal pitcher, Clevelands. He was given sterling support by the Cleveland, especially Speaker who ranged far and near, robbing the hapless Brooklyn of scoring. His O'Neill starred at the bat with two doubles. The official attendance was 23,845. The official box score tells how Cleveland snuffed the game:

First inning, Cleveland—Evans out to first on Knechtly. Wambach flew out to Wheat, who had to come in fast and make the catch. Speaker got a hand when he came up. Speaker fanned and lost crowd guess Knappard a big cheer. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Brooklyn—Olson, flied to Wood, hitting the first ball pitched. Johnston struck out, Clevelands' spibal being too much for him. Griffith, Sewell struck out. Griffith at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second inning, Cleveland—Burns sent up a high fly, which fell behind Knechtly, who picked up the ball and threw into left field. Olson threw out to Wheat. First, Wood walked. Knappard, temporarily lost control. Sewell up. The man who took Chapman's place got Wood. Knappard tried to catch Wood. Off first, Sewell singled in right field. Wood going to third. Wood scored on O'Neill's double to left field. Sewell going to third. Mammox now warming.

Third inning, Cleveland—Evans walked on four pitched balls. Wambach, official, announced to Knechtly, Evans taking exception to Knechtly to Wheat. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth inning, Cleveland—Kilthoff struck out Gardner at first. Wood a long drive into left corner for two bases. The ball hit the bleacher fence on the bounce. Had it struck six inches higher, it would have been a home run. Sewell flied to Myers. Wood held second. Wood scored on O'Neill's two-base hit. It was O'Neill's second two-base hit in the game. Kilthoff threw out Clevelands at first. One run, two hits, no errors.

Fifth inning, Cleveland—Evans flied to Wheat. This high wind bothered the outfielders. Wambach struck out. Speaker flied out to Wood. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Sixth inning, Brooklyn—Knechtly flied to Speaker. Kilthoff sent up a high fly to Wood. Gardner tossed out Knappard at first base. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Seventh inning, Cleveland—Mammox went into the box for Brooklyn. Sewell struck out. Knappard, who had been too much for O'Neill also struck out. Clevelands fanned and the crowd cheered Mammox who retired the side by strikeout.

Eighth inning, Cleveland—Mammox

BANKERS VIEW OF THE FUTURE IS OPTIMISTIC

Speakers at Boston Session Express Confidence in True American Spirit to Avert a Panic, Sustain Institutions

BOSTON, Mass., (AP)—An optimistic view of the general industrial situation in America was expressed by Thomas E. Wilson, president of the Institute of American Bankers, at the annual session of the American Bankers Association at Boston Monday. He referred to recent declines in prices of many commodities and said the process of readjustment was "in full motion."

"The pressing necessity of the present," he said, "is to maintain a courageous and optimistic morale. The descent from the heights of abnormal production to the normal levels of years should be reached by graduation and not by perpendicular drops. No industry upon which large bodies of labor are dependent for a livelihood and upon which a considerable number of producers are dependent for a market for their raw material has a moral right to close its doors in such a line as this, merely to prevent a shrinkage in accumulated surplus or for the purpose of shifting production to other lines of artificial values for materials on hand. Catastrophe is improbable."

"There may be pessimists here and there who are apprehensive that only a panic can result from the extraordinary world conditions created by war. In my opinion, such a catastrophe is probable as long as the true American spirit continues to animate our institutions."

The report of the foreign securities committee was read by Charles W. Williams of Philadelphia in the absence of Thomas W. Lamont, chairman. It said in part: "There have been many American purchases of internal municipal and government loans of various foreign countries. It would seem advisable, in connection with such purchases, to draw the attention of the Investment Bankers' association to the necessity of taking some steps looking toward the protection of the American investor. It is a matter of common knowledge that the dissemination of more knowledge of the nature and intrinsic merit of some of these securities as well as the establishment of a safe market for the sale of forged or fraudulent securities."

Alone in Foreign Field. The report read by Mr. Williams said that American bank investments abroad have been made in Mexico and China. The field must be purged of questionable opportunities, however, it said, and recommendations were made to this end.

Because of the overthrow of the Carranza government, it was said no progress had been made in Mexican inquiries, but the committee has been unofficially advised that General Obregon desires to discuss Mexico's finances with the American group of bankers at the earliest possible moment. The committee added that it was doubtful if there could be any serious discussion until the United States recognized the new government. A committee appointed for the protection of holders of certain notes of the Imperial Russian government, reported that the state department had given it an opinion that "recognition cannot be granted by this government to any future Russian government which does not accept the foreign contractual and bonded debts of the former Russian imperial government, and of the provisional government which succeeded it."

Buying Ground for Hope. "The readiness of the investigating public of this country to purchase the obligations of foreign governments," the report adds, "signifies in the belief of your committee a very hopeful step forward in the business life of the United States. The future prosperity of this country is so closely interwoven with the rehabilitation of the European countries which have been in the past substantial customers of this country, that every reasonable effort, consistent with our domestic financial and industrial situation, should be made by the Investment Bankers' association to promote the distribution throughout this country of the obligations of the foreign countries which are clearly entitled to credit accommodation."

PLAYMATES BRING SMALL BOY TO DEATH THRESHOLD

Five Year Old Minnesota Lad Has Even Chance for Recovery from Burns Inflicted by Fellow

ST. PAUL, Minn., (AP)—Edward P. H., aged 5 years, has an even chance to recover at the city hospital, from burns, inflicted by playmates who "did not like him." Physicians this morning said the boy may pull through. Edward and other children were playing in front of his home when a quarrel arose. The elder boys seized him and held him while the younger boys lit matches on his clothes. His mother saw the deed and rushed to her son's assistance. She tore the burning clothing from the lad's body and summoned the police ambulance.

Police are searching for the other boys. Improve Your Digestion. If you have weak digestion eat sparingly of meals, let at least five hours elapse between meals, eat nothing but water. Take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. Do this and you will improve your digestion.—adv.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, (AP)—Bishop Harry S. Longley, Davenport, has been elected president of the Episcopal province of the northwest, in session here, it was announced today. Other officers chosen included Rev. E. A. Nickelson, Davenport, Minn., secretary; Rev. Thomas J. Burleson, South Dakota; Bishop Irving D. Johnson, Colorado; Bishop W. F. Faber of Montana; Dr. Albert Ryan of Duluth, Minn.; Rev. Stanley Kilbourne of Minneapolis; Rev. Thomas J. Burleson of Omaha; John S. Frame of Fargo, N. D.; P. C. Burgeel, Laramie, Wyo., and H. Drummond, Kearney, Neb., members of the synod.

Rev. F. M. Hays, Lincoln, Neb.; Rev. S. H. Hooker, Helena, Mont.; Thomas Woods, Duluth, Minn., and J. H. Gates, Davenport, S. D., were elected to the board of review.

PRO-JAPANESE BRAND CAUSES FALL OF ANFUS

Chinese Resentment of Alleged Favoritism for Island Empire Brings About Complete Collapse of Party

PEKING (AP)—The fall of the "Anfu clique," commonly identified as the pro-Japanese party of China because of the facilities with which the Japanese have concluded business in exchange for valuable concessions and privileges during the period of its predominance, is seemingly complete and irrevocable. So complete is the collapse that the party has disappeared at the moment in hiding with prices on their heads.

For five days every avenue leading from the legation quarter has been watched day and night and every passenger, Chinese or foreign, has been subjected to inspection, on the suspicion amounting to belief that those wanted are harbored in some club or several of the legations and that they will eventually try to escape from the city. Likewise all city gates are closely guarded to prevent escape of any on the prescribed list.

Notables on Proscribed List. It is customary in Peking to post in railway stations and street corners where people congregate posters with the picture of persons known to be pickpockets, sneak thieves or burglars. Now, before, however, in the memory of the oldest resident, have men who have occupied high places of authority in affairs of the nation been so placarded.

This time, however, the streets were "filled" with cuts and descriptions of a half dozen of the chief political offenders, subjects of a presidential decree, ordering their arrest on a broad charge of having been guilty of being about the military commission in July and earlier. Rewards, ranging from $10,000 to $30,000 were publicly offered for their delivery into custody. As an afterthought, the photograph of one of those placarded was removed. General Tuan Chi-k'ui, because of indignity to the uniform which he was shown to be wearing. A new picture is being sought which will present him in civilian garb. Similar measures are contemplated with respect to General Hsu Shao-chang (Little Bear) who also appears in uniform. Little Bear has the distinction of being the most pressing, wanted, to judge from the fact that his capture is the only one valued as high as $30,000. The other names and rewards for their arrest are: Tseng Yu-chun, former minister of communications, $20,000. Li Shih-shao, former minister of finance, $10,000. Cha Shen, former minister of justice, $10,000. Liang Hung-chi, chief secretary of the senate, $10,000. Tuan Chi-k'ui, erstwhile commander-in-chief of Field Marshal Tuan Chi-jui's combined armies, $10,000. Yao Chen, president of the supreme court, $10,000. Yao Kuo-chun, vice minister of communications, $10,000.

It is announced that the men sought will be given civil trials if arrested. In the meantime the authorities are taking charge of their property both real and personal to be held pending the outcome of such trial. New List in Preparation. A new list of minor offenders is reported to be in process of preparation. Including practicing all members of the Anfu club who have become distinguished in the past by their political activities. Besides a presidential decree is going forth dissolving all branches of the Anfu club wherever they exist. The local headquarters of the Anfu club have been searched and the doors sealed.

FLAMES UNDER CONTROL

Forest Fire Menacing Wisconsin Farms Is Held Back by Fighters

SOUTH MAY PAY FOR DENIAL OF VOTE TO NEGRO

Fortcoming Problem of Readjusting Basis of Representation in Congress Revives the Disfranchisement Issue

WASHINGTON, D. C., (Special).—

As a result of the census just taken congress will soon have to take up the problem of increasing the population basis of representation in the house of representatives, or of increasing the number of representatives in the house. Under the present apportionment each house member theoretically represents a population of 211,877. There are 435 house members. As it works out in practice each house member now actually represents 210,504 population.

The new census gives continental United States a population of approximately 105,000,000. If the present ratio of representation is maintained the house membership would be increased to about 500 members. It is the problem of congress to allow this increase, which would add about 65 members to the house, or to increase the ratio of population so that the number of representatives will remain the same—435. Or congress can so increase the ratio that the present number—435—can be reduced.

After the 1910 census the membership of the house was increased from 363 to 435. It is believed, from interviews with congressional leaders, that the next session will enlarge the house membership to about 500.

In all probability this will be done despite arguments of some leaders (but they are in the minority) that the house membership is now too large and unwieldy to effectively, and particularly expeditiously, transact congressional business. Opponents of a reduction in membership point to the membership of the English house of commons, which numbers more than 700 and is a model for the transaction of public business.

The principal influence, however, which will prevent any reduction in the house membership, and which will work for increased representation is the fear of every one of the states, all of which fear that a reduction in the number of their house representatives would reduce their influence, as states, in the national legislature. In so-called "doubtful states," where republicans and democrats are almost on a voting equality in numbers, both parties will resist reduction of representatives, both fearing that a rearrangement of congressional districts would disturb their possible political control.

There is only one chance that congress may reduce the number of representatives. If the republicans retain control of congress, which now seems certain, with an increased majority in house and senate, they may decide to reduce the number of house representatives from the southern states. This would be done on the ground that millions of the colored population of the southern states is disfranchised. The republicans argue that as practically all negroes are disfranchised by various devices in the south that a large percentage of the population of the sixteen southern states is not allowed to have representation in congress, and that scores of representatives from the south are not entitled to seats in the house of congress.

The fourteenth amendment to the constitution provides that when the right to vote is denied to any of the inhabitants of a state or in any way abridged, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the same proportion which the number of disfranchised citizens shall bear to the whole number of citizens of such state. This undoubtedly gives a republican congress authority to reduce representation in the house from southern states which have disfranchised the negro. The southern states now have 108 house members. This number would be reduced materially if congress sees fit to enforce the fourteenth amendment. For many years republicans in congress have threatened to reduce southern representation in the house. Disfranchisement of the negro women in the south despite the nineteenth amendment may bring the matter to a head in the next congress.

BE CALM

Calamity of manner and correctness of deportment in every circumstance was one of the strong points of Miss Emmeline Canterton, principal of the select school for young ladies.

No her surprise and anger may be imagined when one day she entered a classroom and found her pupils standing on chairs and desks and all screaming loudly.

"Young ladies," she exclaimed coldly, "what is the cause of all this disturbance?"

"O, Miss Canterton, Miss Canterton," wailed many voices in chorus, "there's a mouse in the room!"

"A mouse!" shrieked Miss Emmeline, and with one agile bound she reached the top of the cupboard and stood there, breathing heavily.

Then she faced her pupils. "For goodness sake, young ladies, let us keep our heads in this emergency!" she ordered. "Some one go at once for a policeman!"—Houston Post.

For Age Computation.

To compute the age and birth month of a person ask the person to think of his age, multiply by 10, add 25, multiply by 10, add the number of the month in which he was born, subtract 220. The first two numerals will be the person's age and the last two the month in which he was born.

BE PRETTY, TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.—adv.

BOXERS MAY HAVE PUT THE "SCRAP OF PAPER" IDEA IN NOODLE OF FORMER KAISER

Fighters Considered Most Flagrant Violators of Contracts in the World—Australian Laws are Rigid Against Agreement Jumpers who are Severely Dealt With

By WILLIAM UNMACK.

Time and again boxing promoters have complained of the refusal of boxers to carry out contracts that are signed and completed. Contracts to the average boxer mean nothing. They are not worth any more nor taken any more seriously than the "scrap of paper" that once the boxer has signed to piece and then proceeded to wreck Europe and the world in general.

Should Be Business.

Millions of dollars change hands every day purely on word of mouth of financial brokers. If one of these men was to go back on his word he would be ostracized from his line of business for life, and yet boxers think nothing of refusing to carry out a written agreement that according to law is binding and get away with it. Every boxing promoter has had this experience.

The average boxing promoter is a business man. He has to be. The promoter always lives up to his end of the contract and is prompt and generous in meeting his obligations, but the boxer as a general rule is not so inclined. The average boxer is as different to the average business man or broker as chalk is to cheese, in fact the only excuse for the boxer taking the stand he does is that he is mentally deficient and intellectually inferior to the merest dealer with.

Kangaroo Law Enforced.

"Snowy" Baker, the noted Australian promoter has often complained of the refusal of boxers to go on with their contracts and in Australia a "contract jumper" cannot get away with his idea as he does in this country. The result has been that many times Baker was forced to the recourse of the law and the contract was upheld as binding and the boxer has suffered accordingly. The result has been in so far as several American boxers were concerned they returned to this country and made all sorts of complaints against the Australian promoter which are absolutely without foundation as the boxer was himself to blame for failing to live up to his signed agreement. Jimmy Croft, Tex Rickard and many other noted American promoters have had similar experiences but they have never gone to law on the question but being put in a hole had to look round for a new man to fill in.

Cochran Quits.

Now Charlie Cochran, the English promoter is said to have had an offer of promotion due entirely to boxers refusing to live up to their contracts. Cochran has lost faith in the professional boxer as a business man and says he has promoted to the conditions of a contract while he has Carpenter under contract to him he will not necessarily promote a Dempsey-Carpenter contest though he will undoubtedly be mixed up in it some how.

Unless American promoters take recourse to the laws of the country in such cases there does not seem any chance of altering the conditions. Boxers should be taught a lesson that they must carry out their obligations and they just go to do it is a matter that promoters must work out. Even the posting of deposits by boxers has not helped matters as in many cases the boxers have forfeited their coin and the only out seems to be in going to law.

ANOTHER SERIES TO GET STARTED THIS AFTERNOON

Baltimore and St. Paul Clash for Minor League Honors Today

BALTIMORE, Md., (AP)—The post season series between Baltimore and St. Paul, pennant winners in the new International League and American Association, will open here this afternoon, and the victor in five out of nine games will be rated as the best club outside the majors. Both of the contending teams were easy winners in their respective organizations and the series promises to be very evenly contested.

A commission, consisting of President Kearney, Pultz and Hickey of the Western and new International leagues, and American association, respectively, in charge of the games. The proceeds will be divided on a 60 and 40 per cent basis to winners and losers.

BASEBALL PROBE STARTED AGAIN AFTER VACATION

Grand Jury Calls Many of the Game's Notables to Testify as to Scandal

CHICAGO, (AP)—Resumption of investigation into alleged "fixing" of major league baseball games today was being second more baseball notables before the grand jury.

Manager John J. McGraw of the New York Giants, Manager "Kid" Gleason of the Chicago White Sox, and Manager Hugh Jennings of the Detroit Tigers were scheduled to appear today, and others who have already arrived to testify or are expected soon include Fitcher, Egan and Outfielder Danny Knott of McGraw's club. Dan Dubois, former Giant pitcher, was also expected to testify today. Short stop Arthur Fletcher of the Phillies, formerly with the Giants and "Tip" O'Neill, former president of the Western league, and now in the business office of the White Sox will also be witnesses soon.

Eddie Collins, second baseman and captain of the White Sox, and Ray Schalk, catcher, will be called later. As Assistant State's Attorney Replogle said, to discuss technical baseball and show how a seemingly slight error might have a deciding effect on the result of a game. They will also be asked whether they believe anyone would throw in members of their team this year. Some players have charged that their former teammates on the White Sox club, who have been indicted and suspended "fixing" games this season to insure that Cleveland would win the pennant.

Manager Gleason is expected to testify concerning alleged dishonesty among the players during the 1920 season. Reports that the season's world's series, which opens today, were "fixed," however, were declared to be untrue in a telegram sent to New York authorities yesterday by State's Attorney Hayne.

LEAGUE MOGULS "PASS UP SERIES FOR JURY QUIZZ"

Huston, Ruppert and Frazee in Chicago on Gambling In-vestigation.

CHICAGO, (AP)—Colonel T. F. Huston and Jacob Ruppert, owners of the New York American league club, and Harry Frazee, of the Boston Americans, were expected here today for a conference with Charles A. Connelley, owner of the White Sox, and other baseball officials in connection with the gambling scandal, it was learned this morning. The meeting was to be held this afternoon. The four baseball magnates represent the American league minority which, until "necesse" was declared at the league meeting last spring, opposed President Ban Johnson.

Frazee recently proposed that every club owner in the league give Connelley a player to replace the men suspended following grand jury true bills against seven White Sox players and one former member of the club on charges of bribery in connection with the 1919 world series.

PRACITICE FOR LEONARD. HARTFORD, Conn., (AP)—Benjamin Leonard, lightweight champion, scored a technical knockout over Frankie Britt of New Rochelle, Mass., here last night. Referee Mulligan stopped the bout in the fifth after the champion had clearly outlasted the New England boxer. It was scheduled to go ten rounds.

PREHNS WINS LONG TUGGLE. OSKALOOSA, Ia., (AP)—Paul Prehn, wrestling coach at Illinois university, won his match with Matty Matsuda here last night. Matsuda, who had fought with his newly invented leg split hold in 1:13 and won the second in 4:16 with a body scissors and headlock.

Captain of White Sox Congratulates Cleveland Leader on Pennant Winning

CHICAGO, (AP)—Eddie Collins, captain of the Chicago White Sox, sent a message last night to Tris Speaker, manager of the Cleveland club, congratulating him on winning the pennant. The text of the telegram follows: "Congratulations upon winning the American league pennant. I am sure you that none of the remaining members of the White Sox begrudge your club the honors you have honestly won and furthermore we are pulling for you to beat Brooklyn. Best of luck to you."

GRAND CIRCUIT RACES

LEXINGTON, Ky., (AP)—Hard-fought races featured the opening of yesterday's Grand Circuit meeting here. Harry Oliver's Rose Scott landed an easy victory in the 2-year-old division of the Kentucky futurity but the Walnut Hall cup went four heats before Bonnie Del, owned and driven by Thomas Hinds, an amateur, was declared winner.

The stable of Thomas W. Murphy won two races, for in addition to Rose Scott, Esther R., driven by Cox, landed the 2:56 pace. This event also went four heats.

Just David won the first division of the 2:15 in straight heats. Peter Manning, favorite for the Walnut Hall cup was scratched because of a slight lameness. Nelson Dillon was the pace-maker in the first heat of the 2-year-old futurity. Rose Scott took the lead at the head of the stretch and managed to stall off Haglund. The last half was trotted in 1:51.34. In the final heat Rose Scott was an easy winner. Harry Fleming sprung a surprise the first heat in the Walnut Hall cup when he took Bonola to the front and led all the way. Breaks on the part of Peter Conley spoiled his chances though he won the second and fastest heat. Bonnie Del was a handy winner of the third and fourth heats. Best times:

Two-year-old futurity 2:07 1/2.
Walnut Hall, 2:04 3/4.
2:47 pace, 2:03 1/4.
2:15 trot, 2:07 1/4.
Seven of the best 3-year-old trotters now performing on the Grand Circuit are entered to start in the $14,000 Kentucky futurity, feature of the second day's program of the Kentucky Training Horse Breeders' association meeting here this afternoon. Arion Gray is probable favorite.
Others entered are Emma Harvester, Sister Martha, Daystar, Voltaire, Taurida and Natalie the Great.

Whatever happened to Bill Ruml, deposed Bee outfielder and leading macker of the Coast league, when the magnates of the league met to consider his case last Thursday, is being kept a closely veiled deed, dark secret by Salt Lake news agencies.

Which suggests to our naturally suspicious temperament that the directors did not "whitewash" Bill as had been expected.

This suspicion finds staunch support in the fact that Ruml's name does not appear in the most recent Bee lineup.

When the St. Paul club on September 19 defeated Indianapolis and made its 1920 season victories 100 the Saints broke the American association record for games won in a single year set by Minneapolis in 1912.

It is rumored that the Indianapolis club of the American association will be a sort of tail to John McGraw's giant kite in 1921.

GERMAN SOCIALIST CALLS BOLSHIEVISM IMPOSSIBLE

Declares Teuton Workmen will Never Submit to Dictatorship of Few

BERLIN, (AP)—Only romancers and dreamers believe that the Red Army will eventually strike at Germany and seek to establish a soviet republic with the aid of which it will make war on France, declares Wilhelm Dittman, the independent socialist member of the Reichstag.

Dittman, who was one of the German delegates to the Moscow communist congress, in an article in the Prechtler turns upon bolshevism, which, he declares, is an impossible system which can exist only in Russia because of the "crass ignorance of the Russian peasants."

"German workmen," he goes on, "who are not two-legged beasts but outstanding human beings, would never submit to the dictatorship of a few." He says they have nothing in common with men who "are neither socialists nor communists and generally have only a vague understanding of politics, government and society."

"They are mostly unable to read and write," Dittman continues, "and their horizon has not gone beyond their own thresholds, as might have been the case of the German peasants of the middle ages. And these men constitute 75 per cent of the entire population of the country."

"Hindenburg and high order have idealized soviet Russia as a land where all the wrongs of the proletariat have an end. Hitherto, the exclusion of soviet Russia from western Europe has helped to crystallize and firmly establish these illusory conceptions," Dittman concludes.

HARDING HEADQUARTERS GIVES BORAH'S PLEDGE TO WORK WITH G. O. P.

Idaho Senator's Telegram to Nominee Declares His Purpose to Work in His Own Way to Secure Victory for Republican Presidential Candidate and Defeat of League Scheme; Promises "No Compromise of American Sovereignty"

MARION, O., (AP)—In answer to widely published reports that Senator Harding, a leader of the treaty irreconcilables, would quit the republican campaign, Senator Harding's headquarters here made public today a telegram in which Mr. Harding declared he would continue to work for republican success.

The message, addressed to Senator Harding, was as follows:

"In view of reports I wish you to know my speeches in future will be along same lines as at Dayton, and in the senate. I want to see you win and I want to see the league scheme defeated. In my own way I shall devote my time to the achievement of both propositions."

Senator Harding already was declared that Senator Borah's declaration in campaign speech with his approval, and he renewed his promise today that throughout the remainder of the campaign he and Mr. Borah would be found speaking in accord.

"The revelation also revealed that in his next public address, which is to be delivered Thursday at Des Moines, Iowa, he expects to develop a story further his position on the league issue.

Mr. Harding would not comment today on the statement of President Wilson appealing for support of the league, but said that in his Des Moines address he would "devote some attention to the matter."

BORAH SAYS REPUBLICANS ARE TO BE DEPENDENT UPON

DANBURY, Conn., (AP)—Senator William Borah of Idaho told a large audience here last night that the republican party "as a party and regardless of the views of particular republicans, can be depended upon to maintain the untrammelled and unswerving independence of the American republic."

He promised that the republicans would "be compromised on the principle of American sovereignty."

He said that America through the republican party favors doing its part in the family of nations, but "this public conscience and not a signed compact must always determine our course in international affairs."

Harding Knows His Views

In a statement issued before the meeting began, Senator Borah commented upon the reported assertion of Senator Harding that his views and those of Senators Borah and Johnson were in accord.

"From his 18 months in the senate, Senator Harding knows my views," Senator Borah said. "If he accepts them then we are in perfect accord."

Declaring himself unequivocally opposed to any association with the nations of Europe, he said he had nothing to say in favor of proposed substitutes for the league of nations.

No Question About Position

"A league, concert, alliance, combination, co-partnership or association—it is all the same to me," he declared. "I always have opposed and always will oppose such an alliance. There can be no question of whom I am supporting for president. Cox favors going into the league while Harding has declared in favor of staying out."

He began his speech by declaring he did not propose to attack "the league of nations which President Wilson went to Europe to get, but to fight to the bitter end the one that President Wilson brought home with him."

Attacks on Four Counts

Senator Borah attacked the present league on four counts, each of which, he said, unfitted it for American participation. He declared that President Wilson's principle of the freedom of the seas has been summarily withheld from peace conference consideration because "England demanded the preservation of her naval supremacy."

Facts Refute Promise

"Since President Wilson announced there should be no more land grabbing," declared the senator, "England had 1,407,000 square miles of territory added to her possessions, including forty million people. The league would now ask us to guarantee England's retention of every part of that territory."

WINS IN WISCONSIN

SENATOR LENROOT

Senator Lenroot, of Wisconsin, the brilliant young Badger State leader, has just been renominated for the second term in the Senate. Mr. Lenroot won his campaign on the issue of the justification of his own record in voting for the Esch-Cummings Railway Organization Law and denouncing the efforts of the red radical elements to promote the half-breed Plumb Plan of federal ownership. Senator Lenroot, during his long service in the House of Representatives, was a leader of the progressive element. His election to the speakership in the 66th Congress was conceded in advance of his nomination to the Senate in the spring of 1912, when he succeeded the late Honorable Paul Hastings, Democrat.

THE GUNNING EVADER

(San and New York Herald)

The American voter is not deeply interested in the support of Candidate Cox by the Scripps papers or in the exemption from military service of the Scripps young men.

But the American voter is vitally interested in knowing the character of men who seek the Presidency of the United States; and the Scripps incident throws some light on the ethical insouciance of James M. Cox.

Two years ago, when Mr. Cox was running for Governor of Ohio, it was charged by the opposition that he had been largely responsible for the exemption of one, if not both, of the sons of the rich and influential newspaper owner, Mr. Scripps. To this charge Mr. Cox made the following reply:

"I never spoke or wrote a word to the President, the Secretary of War or to any draft board asking the exemption of Mr. Scripps. Any one in his organization or any one else."

Could anything ring more in earnest, more conclusively, than that? Is it a wonder that the statement of Mr. Cox was accepted as a complete denial of any part in the Scripps case?

Mr. Cox spoke the literal truth, so far as we are aware, when he declared that he never addressed the President, the Secretary of War or any draft board in behalf of Scripps or any one in his organization. But he did not tell the people at that time, or at any other time, that he had written on behalf of young Mr. Scripps a letter addressed to Mr. Earl Martin of the Scripps organization, a letter containing such a hearty and powerful plea for the exemption of Scripps Junior that Mr. Martin hastened to file it in Washington, where it would have most effect.

Neither the overruling of the local and district conscription boards by President Wilson after Cox's letter to Martin was filed with the War Department nor the merits of the exemptions themselves is a matter, as we have said, which highly concerns the American people just now.

But what do the people think of the wonderful evasive qualities of James M. Cox as they are reflected in that cunning denial?

Strongest issues included the independent steels, copper and some of the high priced stocks. Credit advanced 1 1/2 points and American Smelting one point, while equipments and motors made fractional gains. Trading was contracted on the prospects of higher rates for call and time loans.

Shipping and food shares ended their gains later, but in steels and affiliated issues reactions rallied in profit taking sales. The closing was irregular.

Liberty Bonds

NEW YORK, (AP)—Liberty bonds closed: 3 1/2's $92.05; first 4's $90 bid; first 4 1/4's $90.20; Victory 3 3/4's $90.50.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Shorts snatching profits brought about a swift upturn in the price of wheat today notwithstanding weakness in the market at the opening. Initial quotations, the lowest yet on the crop, were reached in a general rush of selling orders. On the other hand, the ensuing upturn was not well maintained, and it was said the British royal commission was holding off as a buyer. Opening prices, which varied from unchanged figures to 1 1/2 lower, with December $1.93 to 1.95 and March $1.90 to 1.91 1/2, were followed by a sharp ascent, and then something of a sag.

Subsequently, foreign buying caused a fresh advance, and it was said France would purchase 85,000,000 bushels from November 1 to July 1. Offerings broadened out on the rise, however, and the market collapsed. The close was unsettled, 2 1/2 to 4 cents net lower, with December $1.89 1/2 to 1.90 and March $1.88 1/4 to 1.89 1/2.

Corn paralleled the action of wheat. After opening 3-4c off to 1-2c advance, including December at 95 1/2c to 96 3/8c, prices swung gains all around, but then reacted somewhat.

Covering by shorts led to material upturns later, but the effect was only transient. Prices closed nervous, 7-8c to 1 1/2c net lower, with December 84 3/8 to 84 1/2c.

Oats like other grain advanced after a minor dip, starting unchanged to 1-4c then developing strength, a better counteracting such a hearty and powerful plea for the exemption of Scripps Junior that Mr. Martin hastened to file it in Washington, where it would have most effect.

SOUTH RAIL LINE NO PART OF O. S. L.

President Davies Refutes the Street Reports—Associa- tion Endorses Plan

The movement to construct a line of railroad from Rogers to Wells, Nev., last night received unanimous endorsement of the directors of the Twin Falls Rorochale Co-operative association. The directors were addressed by George L. Davis, president of the Idaho Central Railroad company. Mr. Davis presented his company's plans for the proposed construction.

Endorsement of the projected rail line was given in a set of resolutions adopted by the directors, who also pledged support to the railroad plan and the campaign for a bonus fund of $500,000.

E. F. Gray of Contact, Nev., representing the people of eastern Nevada, alluded to the directors of the project as "the farmers of the Twin Falls tract in disposing of their hay and other products to the consumers of Nevada." The stock raisers and business men of Nevada have already shown their strong desire to establish trade relations with the Twin Falls tract. They have subscribed nearly $50,000 towards the railroad bonus fund and are at present out with committees collecting this sum and additional money.

In his address Mr. Davis refuted the street statements that he is merely representing the Oregon Shortline Railroad company in the proposal to construct the Idaho Central rail line. He stated that there is no word of truth or foundation whatever for statements or a suspicion that he and his company are in any way connected with or have anything to do with the O. S. L.

In the testimony given by him under oath at the recent hearings before the public utilities commission of Idaho and the Nevada public service commission, Mr. Davis furnished the information that his company is entirely independent of the Oregon Short Line railroad.

GROWERS TAKING STEPS TO HANDLE GRAIN CROP

Representatives of Principal Farmers' Organizations Effect Permanent Organization

CHICAGO, (AP)—A permanent organization was effected here Monday by the committee of 17 representing principal farmers' organizations of grain-growing states and organized to develop a co-operative marketing plan to handle the grain crop of the United States. C. F. Gustafson, president of the Nebraska Farmers' Union, was elected chairman, and A. L. Middleton of the Farmers' National Grain Dealers' association, was named vice chairman.

It was announced that plans were made to employ economists to investigate features of the grain marketing problem, and sub-committees were appointed to report on co-operative marketing plans in use in this country and abroad.

Store competition operates now as always to keep prices of merchandise down to the lowest possible basis. This law of trade is considered so essential in our business life that laws are made to prevent combinations whose object is to boost prices through agreement. To purchase fully and to the advantage of the stores you must keep in close touch with store advertising.

DECLARES "VARIETY OF PRODUCTS" MEANS PROSPERITY FOR FARMER

PRINCE ALBERT, BASK.—C.M.

Hamlin, the new minister of agriculture of Saskatchewan, struck the keynote of Western Canadian agricultural development, when he said recently: "I am convinced that the prosperity of the farmer depends on a variety of products on the farm."

Under the stimulus of this idea, western Canada gradually is emerging from a past of bonanza wheat into a present of diversified farming. Dairying has shown remarkable growth. This is due not only to governmental educational campaigns but to the establishment of creameries in scores of towns by co-operative farmers' societies with government financial aid. These creameries furnish ready markets for the farmers of every district.

While this increased interest is apparent all over western Canada, yet it is developing with the greatest rapidity in the portions of the prairie provinces which are being most rapidly settled. That is the area contiguous to the transcontinental railway of the Canadian National railways. It is well-watered, slightly rolling region with here and there a cluster of small towns and a great national park which is naturally adapted to diversified farming.

There is scarcely a farmer in this stretch of territory who does not keep at least a few cows and market milk and butter.

ORDINANCE NO. 318

An Ordinance providing for the holding of a special election in the City of Twin Falls for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors of the taxpayers thereof, the question of the issuance of municipal coupon bonds of said city in the total amount of $95,000.00 for the following purposes, to-wit:

$75,000.00 to provide for the costs and the expense of curbing and paving of the public streets at intersection of streets in local improvement districts No. 34, 35 and 37.

$20,000.00 to provide for the purchase and payment of necessary apparatus and equipment for the fire department of said City of Twin Falls;

And to provide for the collection of an annual tax upon all of the taxable property in the City of Twin Falls, sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds as it falls due, and to create a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof, within twenty years after the date of the issuance of the same, as they become due.

Be It Ordained by the Mayor and Council of the City of Twin Falls, Idaho, as follows:

Section 1. A special election of the qualified electors who are taxpayers of the City of Twin Falls, Idaho, shall be held on the 9th day of November, 1920, for the purpose of submitting to the said electors separate questions of the issuance by said City of its municipal coupon bonds in the denomination of $1,000.00 as near as practicable, payable within twenty years from date of issuance, redeemable at the pleasure of said city at any time after the expiration of ten years, bearing interest at the rate not to exceed six per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually, in the aggregate not to exceed the sum of $95,000.00 as hereinafter set out, so far as may be authorized, to provide for the levying and collecting of an annual tax upon all taxable property in the said City of Twin Falls sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds as it falls due, and to create and constitute a sinking fund for the payment at any time after ten years from the date thereof, of the principal of said bonds as they respectively become due, for the following purposes, to-wit:

First. Municipal coupon bonds to the amount of $75,000.00 to be designated "Municipal Coupon Paving Bonds of the City of Twin Falls," to provide for building and constructing drains, grade crossings, curbs, sidewalks, sewers, and crosswalks, and other improving streets, and the intersections of streets in said city.

Second. Municipal Coupon Bonds to the amount of $20,000.00 to be designated "Municipal Coupon Fire Department Bonds," to provide funds for the payment of necessary motor apparatus, and equipment for the fire department of the said City of Twin Falls. Said bonds or any of them, if authorized by the vote of the qualified electors who are taxpayers of the City of Twin Falls, shall be payable twenty years from their date of issuance, but shall be redeemable at the pleasure of said City at any time after the expiration of ten years from the date of said issuance, and each bond shall be redeemed in the order of its number.

Said bonds or any of them, if authorized by the vote of the qualified electors who are taxpayers of the City of Twin Falls, shall be payable twenty years from their date of issuance, but shall be redeemable at the pleasure of said City at any time after the expiration of ten years from the date of said issuance, and each bond shall be redeemed in the order of its number. Said bonds shall bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum, said interest to be payable semi-annually, and shall in all respects comply with the statutes of the State of Idaho in such cases made and provided.

Section 2. In order to provide for the payment of interest on said bonds as are authorized to be issued at the election herein provided for, and to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof at maturity, a direct tax in addition to all other taxes shall be annually levied and collected on all the taxable property in the said City of Twin Falls, sufficient to meet the interest on such bonds as shall be issued and outstanding from time to time, promptly as they mature, and also sufficient to establish and maintain a sinking fund which shall be sufficient to pay all bonds called in after ten years and before maturity thereof, and also to promptly meet the payment of all bonds outstanding at their maturity.

The City Clerk is hereby directed and authorized to give at least thirty days' notice of the time of said special election by publication in the Twin Falls News, a weekly newspaper published in said City of Twin Falls, and having a general circulation therein, and said election shall be conducted in accordance with the Ordinances of said City.

MISGUIDED IDEALISM BACKS
REACTIONARY MACHINE

The case against Article Ten of the League of Nations covenant, about which much is to be heard during the continuing political campaign, has not, perhaps, been stated more clearly than by George Wharton Pepper, an eminent lawyer and vice president of the League for the Preservation of American Independence.

Here is the text of Article Ten:
"The members of the League undertake to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the League. In case of any such aggression or in case of any threat or danger of such aggression
the Council shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled."

And here is what Mr. Pepper has to say about Article Ten:

Article X proposes to preserve forever all international boundary lines and relationships as they existed in 1919. If a national movement, described as an external aggression, tends to disturb the status fixed at Versailles it is branded as unlawful, without regard to its merits or justness.

The United States as a League member would be bound to oppose every such movement, either in the way advised by the League council or in such other equally effective way.
To send troops abroad or to help starve a friendly nation is bad enough, but it is worse to do it merely to preserve an international arrangement already proved to be unworkable and unwise. To attain world peace by thus perpetuating
the causes of war is the impossible task which Mr. Wilson has imposed on his party. Misguided idealism is relied upon for the most reactionary machine ever set up for world control.

Candidate Cox has only one conception of international policy. It is to use the League as a dumping ground for problems which he cannot solve. He and his party are like puzzled people at a meeting whose only recourse is to resolve that all difficulties be referred to a committee and then adjourn.

God grant that America may not longer be left at the mercy of the single-track mind.
It is not at all unlikely that in Mr.
Pepper's statements, a great deal of opposition to the covenant has found a most capable spokesman. The charge voiced by Mr. Pepper that in the covenant "misguided idealism is relied upon to oil the most reactionary machine ever set up for world control, and his arguments in support of this contention, at least, are deserving of the careful consideration of every American citizen who purports to cast an intelligent vote on this question at the coming election.

THE FRIENDS OF NEW INDUSTRIES

Announcement a few days ago by an authority that 800 rare chemicals, for the supply of which we had depended on Germany prior to the war, are now produced in this country shows one of the effects forced on this nation by the interruption of commerce. Our chemists were driven to research and the result shows that we paid tribute to Germany for that which we could have produced ourselves long before the war had we set ourselves to the task. Thus we have the chemicals and the money, too, in contrast with former conditions
where we got the goods, but Germany got the money.

While this condition as regards the chemical supply is not due to a prohibitive tariff, it has been brought about in the same way. The stoppage of commerce with Germany acted as a prohibitive tariff on all German-made goods. We could have reached the same result years sooner had we legislated
in a way to encourage our chemists to develop our own sources of supply. We permitted Germany to retain a mon-

Agriculture and the New Day

The following article, issued by the American Farm Bureau Federation, is designed to cover in a broad and comprehensive manner, our present day agricultural problems and their relation to the general welfare of the nation. It is not written from a political point of view, nor is it the aim to seek favors for any group or class. It was prepared after a very extensive review of existing conditions and is intended to bring about a better understanding and a closer co-operation between the farmer and the industrial worker.

Last installment.

MODERN FARM MACHINERY

Power farming will solve the matter of more intensive tillage and the more extensive agricultural operations necessary to the support of the country.
We must look to power farming machinery for the solution of the farm labor shortage.

Aside from the actual utility of modern power farming equipment, the psychological effect on the farmer's own and hired man is of inestimable value.
Many have left the farm because they hated the interminable maddening round of milking cows, cleaning stables, currying horses and other work which must be done regularly on farms but which they came to regard as drudgery.

Source of Resentment.
Such a feeling of resentment is always intensified when a boy sees the modern milking machine and efficient tractor-drawn tillage tools on the farm of neighbors who have had the vision to see that such investments are profitable. This feeling is even more pronounced when a boy finds that those up-to-date neighbors who venture to buy better machinery, pure bred livestock, fertilizers, etc., are more prosperous than his own father, who declares that such heavy investments are fumbly and ruinous.

To the boy, the whole aspect of farm life is changed when he runs a good tractor and sees three farrows of corn behind him instead of one in front of him. He feels the power under him.
At the end of the day he has accomplished as much work as he formerly did in a week. There is a thrill of the machine that goes through his veins and he loves it. He sees the work being done and realizes he will have time to go fishing or to the ball game—things that his parents have never thought were possible.

Let the atmosphere of the power farm predominate in other lines as well as the tractor. Let the engine pump the water, run the feed grinder, turn the grinding stone, saw the wood, and a hundred other things that were, formerly the bane of the boy's existence.
Apply the same power idea to the household. If the girl finds the drudgery of the washing, churning and sweeping taken away, the house has more charms than had hitherto seemed possible.

Too much stress cannot be placed upon the necessity of improving farm life from the standpoint of the women and girls.

Mother's Life as Drudge

If the mother's life is filled with drudgery it is not to be expected that the daughter will care to return to the country after she has attended school in the city and seen the modern life. Or if she does return and marries the farmer boy the chances are that she will, sooner or later, influence him to give up agriculture and move to town.
Make the farm sufficiently attractive to keep the girls contented and speak of dye production until we had to develop our own.

We in the early days of the war realized keenly our folly in neglecting the promotion of our own interests by making our own interests within our nation
as nearly self-contained as possible.
Many of the difficulties were remedied
by American invention and discovery but it is now necessary to hold on to what we gained. We may easily destroy new industries by carelessness
now. When the international commerce is fully restored Germany will make an attempt to regain her position as a manufacturer of chemicals and dyes,
and she will not be scrupulous about her methods.

To protect our own and thwart her unfair designs is no minor reason for the election of a Republican president and a Republican congress. The Republican party alone has stood for American industry against the world, and in the reconstruction it is more than ever important that American industries should be in the hands of their friends.

there will be no need to worry about the level.

After all is done and said, the children on the farm are the farmer's best crop.

Practical democracy recognizes that all men are not created equal but it aims to create a condition whereby all may have an equal opportunity for development through hard work and effort.

Education is the very lifeblood of democracy, and ignorance is its worst enemy. Generally speaking, the standard of rural schools is much lower than that maintained in the cities.

It is estimated that in the country
the educational expenditure per child is only $18 as opposed to $35 in the city.
In other words, the expenditure per country child is only about one-third of the amount spent for the education of the city child.

When we consider that the average class in the city school is from forty to fifty pupils, whereas in the rural school the average class is only ten or twelve pupils, it is apparent that even if this small sum a larger percentage is absorbed by overhead.

There is a natural tendency on the part of a parent to make his home where the educational advantages are greatest.

Good Schools Essential

Good schools are just as essential for the farm laborer and his family as for the farmer himself, and if the farm helps know that they can have the advantages of proper educational facilities for their children it means a lot to them when hiring out.

Our criticism of the country school is that the teachers and many of the text-books are more interested in problems of the city than in problems of rural life.

The rural school should be headed by a man who is thoroughly in sympathy with agriculture. The rural school has a broad field of usefulness in the matter of building up the social as well as the educational side of farm life. The rural teacher should be carefully chosen and should be treated as one of the community.

School teaching is not least a bankless job. A community cannot expect to secure and retain the right kind of teacher unless it offers wholehearted co-operation, attractive environment, a few modern conveniences and a reasonable remuneration.

The importance and dignity of farming as a profession, requiring the best of brains and skill, should be repeatedly emphasized in the school.
But on the other hand, rural education should not be so limited in its scope that the boy who attends the rural community school will be forced to take up agriculture as a life work.

Consider Both Sides

Both sides of the subject should be considered. Country schools must offer opportunities for education equal to that provided in the city. The city bred youth must be taught to respect the farmer and to understand the importance of agriculture.

City schools should give more attention to rural problems.
The farmer boy must be trained to see through the superficial veneer of city life and at the same time profit by anything that he may learn from the city.

There should be no barrier between the country and the city. The door should swing wide. There should be freedom of intercourse and a thorough understanding between city and country.

There are, of course, exceptions to the conditions of poorly maintained rural schools. Many country schools are models of efficiency, which shows that it is possible to bring about an improvement in this direction.

The attention of the American workman should be directed to such communities and a movement be set on

IMMIGRATION

As a factor in the solution of the farm labor situation, the immigration problem should not be overlooked. Until a few weeks ago immigration to this country had been steadily overtopped by emigration, and it is now practically at a standstill.

Since the signing of the armistice it is estimated that over 200,000 foreign-born workmen have returned to their native lands. The immigration authorities estimate that 1,125,000 will leave this country when passport conditions permit. It is also estimated that only 300,000 immigrants will come into America during 1920, which is only one-fourth of the normal rate.

Immigration laws should be considered from the standpoint of country as well as the city.

When a man cannot talk English, it does not necessarily follow that he is an anarchist or something worse. The tongue that a man speaks determines neither his character nor usefulness.

We should encourage the admission of all desirable aliens, predicated their admission upon fundamental attributes of character and industry. Any legislation intended to prohibit all immigration for various periods up to four years will be most seriously destructive of all industry in this country, and particularly of agriculture.

One of the grave problems in the handling of newly arrived immigrants is their tendency to colonize and remain in the over-crowded tenement sections of our big cities. This has increased the difficulty of Americanization. It has been wisely argued that newly arrived immigrants should be brought to the farm lands and given the opportunity to live in neighborly contact with Americans. In this way they would quickly learn the language and customs of our country and at the same time, perform a useful service.

Roman history prior to 509 B. C. is based almost entirely on tradition.

Early Anglo-Saxons had a regular trade with the continent in Irish slaves.

Figures in the Moon.
Some keenly discerning people see a woman alongside the man in the moon and account for her presence there by her charming on Sunday while the "old gentleman" chopped the wood. A pretty eastern fancy is that the figure in the moon is that of Ima, who weaves the clouds into white cloth and who sent her husband back to earth by the rainbow ridge in order that death might not detain her heavenly home.

Grip.
Grip usually starts just the same as a cold with a watery discharge from the nose. You are much more likely to contract the grip when you have a cold.
For that reason when grip is prevalent
you should go to bed as soon as you feel that you are taking cold and stay in bed until fully recovered, which should not be long if on take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Three days in bed now is better than three weeks later on—adv.

CONCLUSION

An cities increase proportionately in population, the farmer's position grows more and more important. Food will be the biggest factor in world economies for many years to come.

We cannot rehabilitate the devastated fields of Europe in two or five years. Even so energetic a people as we Americans could not get the southern states back to normal production until ten years following the civil war.

We are facing the dawn of a new era in agriculture—farming has been cast into a profession requiring the best brains and skill.

The farmer will no longer be looked upon in a different light from the city worker. The barrier between city and farm life will be wiped out—the doors will be swung wide open.

The future security of American agriculture lies in the direction of making farming more attractive to the young, and while the development of a more satisfying rural society must depend largely on the activity of the country people themselves, nevertheless the cities may render a distinct service in the work of improving the social conditions of the country.

In order for the interests of the farmer to be properly and permanently protected, a coalition between agriculture and other interests of the nation.

The late war brought home quite forcibly the fact that all industries and individuals are dependent upon one another.

A well-balanced civilization cannot be obtained nor can we arrive at a basic national policy until we get a closer understanding, and co-operation between city and country.

The attitude of the city worker, however, should not be that of the "slummers." The country man rightfully respects any dictatorial attitude. By the very nature of things, country workers are an entirely different proposition than urban life. The aim of any country life movement should be in the direction of popularizing farming, making rural civilization, effective and as satisfying as other civilization.

Lastly

Whatever may be the course and outcome of the period of reconstruction, agriculture must remain the greatest basic industry in the world. But before agriculture can come into its own, before the foundations of our country can be properly strengthened, before the attractions of rural life can be improved—the farmer must receive a reward commensurate with his effort and responsibility.

JAPANESE AUTHORITIES DISTRUST CHRISTIANS

Suspect Places of Worship in Korea Harbor Political Conspirators

SEOUL, Korea, (P)—The semi-official Seoul Press prints an interview with a police department official asserting that some Korean places of Christian worship were still used as resorts by Korean political conspirators. The official declared that, in the result of recent arrests, the authorities will be obliged to keep an eye on Christian churches and chapel buildings.

An official statement says the decision in the outgrowth of the arrest of Dr. Yi Wonik, a Korean medical practitioner and 11 other Koreans on the charge of secreting seditious literature from Shanghai in the compound of the Chungkyo chapel at Doyoung, which is in charge of Rev. Mr. Ordine, an American missionary of the Methodist church south. Subsequently, it is charged, Yi Wonik took refuge in the chapel at Insan, which is in charge of Rev. Mr. Clark, of the North Presbyterian mission, and concealed in the compound of the chapel over 1000 copies of the Independence Journal.

There are no charges against American missionaries but the police apparently wish to have it known that Christian property in Korea will be subjected to surveillance henceforth.

LITHUANIAN PACT SHOWS WORLD LEAGUE FUTILITY

Pledge to Permit Bolshevik Use Territory to Attack the Poles Comes to Light

WASHINGTON, (P)—The absurdity of the democratic claim that the League of Nations ever had any real hope of settling the quarrel between Lithuania and Poland was further illustrated last Tuesday, says a Washington special dispatch to The Sun and New York Herald, when it was known that Lithuania had pledged herself to allow the Russian Bolsheviks to use her territory as a base from which to operate against the Poles.

The pledge of Lithuania is contained in a formal treaty of peace with the Bolsheviks, a copy of which was obtained here from a semi-official source. It was sent to Washington by government agents.

Such a treaty, Washington officials admitted, would make a settlement of Polish-Lithuanian difficulties by the league or any other means of arbitration clearly impossible as long as the Poles and Bolsheviks were at war. Even should Lithuania agree to abide by the award of arbitrators, she is bound by this treaty to let the Bolsheviks, if they so desire, use her territory to attack Poland, which is an act of war against Poland.

Lithuania, to be sure, would have the choice of living up to her treaty or obeying the league, but there is no doubt which course would be chosen, since the Bolsheviks would attack Lithuania for breaking her treaty, while the League of Nations would be powerless to take military action against her. In view of the existence of this Soviet-Lithuanian treaty, it is puzzling how the announcement that the league had settled the dispute between Poland and Lithuania came to be made and recorded in this country as a general league victory. Officials of the league in all probability knew of the treaty and also knew their efforts would be fruitless because of it. That such an impression may have been allowed to go out with the thought that it would be used for league propaganda in America is not outside the bounds of probability.

BOND COMPANY WILL BE HELD

City Garbage Contractors Accused of Failure to Comply with Agreement

Pending for the nonce in its right consideration of the domestic butchers and their relation to the meat inspection law, members of the city board of legislators, at a regular session held last night, gave contemplative thought to the municipal garbage contractors, their agreement with the administration and their bond. Something is going to stir in this direction, it is believed.

Firm Changes Personnel.

The city garbage contract, at the beginning of the present municipal fiscal year, was granted to Harry Dietrich and George Hoffman. Before the contract was properly held to function in the matter of refuse removal a change was made in the personnel of the firm Hoffman retiring. The contract was taken over by the firm of Dietrich & Patton, which concern is supposed to function in the capacity of garbage collecting agency.

Mayor Complains.

According to Mayor W. H. Eldridge, who last night lodged a strenuous complaint against the contractors, an agreement was entered into by the regular contracting concern with another person by the terms of which agreement all kitchen refuse was to be handled by the third party, while the contractors themselves were to remove the ashes and the like.

Mayor Eldridge explained to his colleagues that the regular refuse collector has done his work with a reasonable degree of punctuality, neatness and dispatch, but the remaining portion of the contract has been permitted to languish.

The garbage contracting concern is under bond by the U. S. Fidelity & Guarantee company in the sum of $3000 for the faithful and specific performance of the contract, which requires removal of all garbage four times per month, or once per week during the period from May 1 to November 1, and twice monthly, during the remainder of the year.

Today the agency through which the bond was provided is to be officially advised that the terms of the contract have not been complied with and, unless a decided and drastic improvement is inaugurated by the contractors immediately the work will be undertaken by the city, or by another contractor employed by the city, and the cost and alleged prior damage assessed against the bonding company.

CATERERS ARE WARNED BY CITY LEGISLATORS

Cafe and Boarding House Operators Must Serve None but Inspected Meats

Twin Falls city restauranters are warned that if they do not submit their meat to the city health department and receive the stamp of approval of the authorized meat inspector.

This warning comes from the municipal health department, which is a regular agency of the city, and is a warning that if the caterers do not submit their meat to the city health department and receive the stamp of approval of the authorized meat inspector, they will be liable to a fine of $500.00 for each violation. The health department is a regular agency of the city, and is a warning that if the caterers do not submit their meat to the city health department and receive the stamp of approval of the authorized meat inspector, they will be liable to a fine of $500.00 for each violation.

The city ordinance is specific upon this point and is said to bring within its pale even boarding houses. All meats thus served must have passed through the process of veterinary inspection before it is offered for public food. A heavy penalty is provided in case of violation. Mayor Eldridge, at last night's gathering of the city council, declared the terms of the law would be invoked in such cases.

Final Estimate for Paving Work Reaches $836,879

Warren Construction Company Completes 1920 Street Surfacing Program

Upon a showing that all paving contracts have been completed in Twin Falls, and that there now remains only a small portion of patching and curb repairing to be accomplished, the city council last night accepted engineer's final estimate of the work amounting to $836,879.00 in favor of the Warren Construction Company. Bonds in the sum of $6000, submitted by A. J. Hill, of the construction company, guarantee the specific performance of repair work, were accepted.

With the presentation of the final estimates Engineer Hoffeltz explained that the Warren Construction, on its own responsibility and at its own expense, had laid heavy standard bit little paving along Blue Lakes boulevard. The company substituted the heavier type of surfacing in view of the known fact that the avenue would be subject to extraordinary traffic at all times. The contract called for light standard bit paving.

The estimates were prepared by W. L. Hoffeltz, special paving engineer, and cover final operations in connection with the 1920 street, avenue and alley surfacing program.

CITY PLANS ADOPTION OF NEW TRAFFIC LAWS—MANY CHANGES

Regulations That Will Dovetail with Those to Be Used on Country Highways Proposed by Municipal Government — Using Streets as Permanent Garages Will Not Be Tolerated

Traffic laws that will meet both city and county requirements are being considered by the city administration for early adoption. The new regulations have been compiled by W. L. Johnson, chief engineer of the Twin Falls highway district, and are so planned as to dovetail with the city and the county traffic laws that conform.

One of the primary features of the proposed law contemplates the use of groundings for the regulation of all motor vehicles for all headlights, and each car must be equipped with a red tail light. This latter also applies to farm rigs driven on country roads at night. Lights must not shed a glow higher than the headlights themselves, which are not to be higher than 42 inches from the ground. Parking of cars, parading and car races are prohibited on Main avenue, and a movement is on foot to abolish, also, center parking in favor of the angle system at curbs. Garage and auto repair shop owners will not be allowed to use streets or alleys for parking or repair work, and to leave an auto engine running while parked in the street.

GROUNDS ARE READY AND PROGRAM PREPARED FOR HOLDING GREATEST OF COMMUNITY OUTDOOR SOIREEES

American Legion Committees are Fixed for the Harvest Home Festival to be Inaugurated on Thursday Morning—Additional Features are Coming Up Daily

Tents, exhibits and materials for the American Legion Harvest Home Festival today are being placed on the grounds in the Twin Falls city park in readiness for the celebration to be staged here Thursday.

Already 20 army tents are set on their frames and a half dozen larger tents for shows and amusements are being erected.

A merry-go-round is being placed on the grounds and all committees are at work getting together materials for the celebration.

In preparation for the spectacular night parade, arrangements have been made with a Salt Lake costume house and a special representative of that concern is bringing to Twin Falls a large number of costumes and costumes which will be used in the parade and carnival.

Additional entertainment and concessions are being added to the program daily. Bert Nowle of the concessions committee, is arranging a half-dozen booths which include Kewpie dolls and Sen-Side Bells, candy, coffee, Eskimo dolls and the famous "Wampus Cat." The day's festivities are to be opened at 10:30 a. m. with a band concert followed by a free open air show to be put on by local school students. At 11 o'clock all shows, amusements and concessions will be opened. Beginning at 2 o'clock in the afternoon the first event in a program of athletic stunts and contests will be called. All tent attractions will remain open during the afternoon. Auction sale of articles will begin at 4:30 o'clock.

Spirit of Legion
The spirit of the American Legion pervading the entire affair is to be exemplified in striking manner at 5:30 o'clock when the annual veterans will "stand retreat," a military ceremony which is an invariable daily performance in all American military camps or posts, during which the men stand at attention while the flag is being lowered and the band plays "The Star Spangled Banner."

From 7:30 o'clock on the carnival tide is to flow without restraint. All that has been planned is to be formed and at its conclusion there is to be a fireworks display, with carnival, open air dancing and performances of all the shows.

Veterans Interested
Members of the Legion are manifesting high degree of interest in the festival on which they are counting for completion of their community building fund. The following letter has been sent out to each member of the Twin Falls post:

"Comrade: It is now up to us. Every business place in town is closing to help us make our festival day a success. Get your uniform out and have it on and be on hand at the city park at night 8 o'clock, Thursday, October 7. 'The success of this month is the success of our home. Let's get it. If you are not on a committee, get on and help out. If you have a buddy who has not joined the Legion, get him on, as this home will be for all of us."

"This day depends entirely upon what each of us do."
"Let's celebrate."
"Headquarters at the bandstand."

ALLEGED BURGLARS HELD UNDER BONDS

Skidmore and Tipton are Said to Have Confessed to Robbing Houses

Following a confession, said to have been made first to Deputy Sheriff R. F. Redmon, and then to County Prosecutor Frank L. Stephan and to Probate Judge O. P. Duvall, Bert Skidmore and McKinley Tipton this morning entered pleas of guilty in a charge of burglary. They were arraigned in the probate court and were ordered held to the district court for trial. Bonds of $500 have not been provided for release from custody.

Skidmore and Tipton were arrested Saturday following the burglary of a homesteader's home eight miles south of Twin Falls. They are said to have robbed the place and then set fire to it. They are also said to have admitted the burglary of a hotel residence four miles south of Twin Falls one night last week. They were run down by Deputy Sheriff Robert F. Redmon, who located considerable of the loot from both robbers' homes in a shack on Third street south, between Fourth and Fifth avenues.

ADMITS GUILT
James Samuel Hair was arraigned in the probate court this morning on a charge of petty larceny. He admitted having taken a blanket from the Pacific hotel. He was released on promise to return in the week to pay the costs of the action, amounting to $3.49.
