Heads of Banking Groups Comprising Consortium Make Public Accomplishments, Problems and Expectations

NEW YORK.—Heads of banking groups of the United States, Great Britain, France and Japan, which comprise the consortium for China, made public the accomplishments, problems and expectations of the consortium Wednesday in their first public utterances since opening a series of conferences here. They spoke at a luncheon declaring no specific loan to China had yet been considered, owing to the international financial situation, but saying a far reaching program to enable China to "get on its feet" was being outlined.

Sir Charles Adde, chairman of the British group, deploring the small railway mileage in China, said the consortium hopes soon to be able to complete one or two of the lines in that country, and later to provide for extension of the transportation facilities.

Thomas W. Lamont, of J. P. Morgan & Co., chairman of the consortium, spoke of it as a force to weld the five nations together in a warm friendship that will bolster China economically and bring her scattered peoples together in a great nation.

Hope that the consortium will function greatly toward establishing permanent peace and harmony in the far east was expressed by Rejzaro, Ichinomiya, of the Japanese delegation.

The carrying out of its program he characterized as a "supreme test as to whether we can cooperate wholeheartedly—to play the game with our cards on the table—to put into practice the doctrine that the well being of part of humanity is to the good of all."

GERMAN GIVEN PARDON PREFERENCES IMPRISONMENT

Deportation Warrant Makes Leavenworth Look Good to Schack

WASHINGTON.—Eckhardt Von Schack, former German vice consul at San Francisco, has been granted a parole from Leavenworth penitentiary, but is ordered to leave the prison because a deportation warrant issued Wednesday in explaining why Von Schack had not left the prison. Franz Dopp, former German consul general at San Francisco, indicted and convicted with Von Schack, left Leavenworth on parole several weeks ago.

The paroles for the two Germans were issued, Mr. Palmer said, after the Swiss minister to the United States had agreed to stand as "first friend" to them and be responsible for their acts.

Dopp, the attorney general added, had expressed a desire to return to Germany but Von Schack wished to stay in America and for that reason apparently prefers to remain in prison to escape the deportation proceedings.

SWEDES ADOPT ECONOMY

King and Queen Take Lead in Move to Improve Value of Currency

CHRISTIANA.—In order to improve the international value of the Swedish currency an economy movement has been inaugurated here. A league was formed whose members, including the king and queen, have agreed for one year to use less imported goods and cease unnecessary traveling.

GYPSIES HOLD PALM IN PICTURESQUE RUMANIA

Colorful Caravans Rove Country Coaxing Pennies from Affluence

Associated Press.

BUCHAREST.—Of the dozens of different peoples in Rumania, none is more picturesque than the Gypsies. Like their prototype in America, they rove the country in great caravans, earning stray pennies by begging, dancing, playing and telling fortunes. In the cities they sometimes earn their "bread and onions" by shining shoes, peddling lemonade or acting as porters.

The high cost of living which has drawn tight the strings of every purse has brought double hardships to these wanderers. No matter how well they play their violins, no matter what good fortune they see in the stars for those about them, they find it hard to coax pennies from the empty pockets of the war-oppressed Rumanian people. Many of them have starved to death.

Among the Gypsy women and girls are to be found some striking types of beauty. Dark of complexion and hair, with shining, long-lashed black eyes, they are a delight to look upon. They have not yet acquired the art of making cosmetics as their sisters in the United States do.

Superstition plays a large part in the life of the Gypsy. One of the many ancient customs which still survive among the women is to beat themselves frightfully if one of their children dies. They believe that the death has been caused by an evil spirit having entered the body of child as well as of mother and that if they chastise themselves the spirit will depart.

One Rumanian gypsy woman whom an American relief worker visited was apparently about to die from pneumonia. The doctor found numerous lesions all over her chest, and these had seriously aggravated her condition. On questioning her he learned that her bruises were due to a beating she had given herself because one of her eight children had died.

Costly Rainy Day.
It has been estimated that the cost of a rainy day in New York city is something like $100,000.

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE MAKES STATEMENT

In soliciting your support I want to give you a brief account of myself. I have been a resident of Buhl for the last ten years, coming here from North Yakima where I grew up. About six years ago I went into the electric business for myself, meeting with very good success up to the time that I sold my business and went into the army during which time my wife and two children remained at Buhl. Upon my return I re-established my business, and joined the Clark G. Fox post of the American Legion, of which organization I was later made post commander.

I believe sincerely in our program of justice for all and special privilege to none, and if elected, will do my utmost to see them carried out.

GRIZZLIES ARE READY TO MEET FOE FROM BUHL

Coach Clint Evans Has His High School Grid Squad in Shape for Friday

The Bruins are working every day in anticipation of the Buhl game next Friday and advance notice can be given to the west enders right now that they had better watch out.

Coach Evans men are a hundred percent better now than they were when they played in the Filer game in teamwork and ability. Great stress has been laid on the passing and punting end and the improvement is readily observable. On the scrumming the locals show all their accustomed fight and pep, and there some when it is needed.

If Coach Barry's Buhl men come up to form as they usually do, a game will result which make football history in Twin Falls.

The Bruins' lineup at the start will probably be the same as opened in the Filer game, with Denton at center, Putzier and Irwin at guard, Bailey and McAtee tackles, and Epler and Taylor for ends on the line. The backfield will probably consist of Newman, quarterback; Pix and Hertz, halves, and Phipps at full.

ATELL ASKED TO APPEAR AT BALL INQUIRY

Former Boxing Champ's Testimony is Much Desired by Grand Jury

CHICAGO, (P)—Assistant State's Attorney Hartley Replege, has sent telegram to "Abe" Attell, former featherweight champion requesting him to appear before the special grand jury. Another telegram was sent to John J. McGraw requesting his aid in finding Attell and obtaining his testimony.

A third message was sent to "Sport" Sullivan of Boston, against whom a true bill was voted by the grand jury, stating that if he wished to testify when the investigation was resumed, his appearance would be welcomed.

FANS' GREETING FOR UMPIRE IS CUSHION SHOWER

St. Paul Crowd at Inter-League Champ Game Demonstrates Displeasure

ST. PAUL, Minn., (P)—Baltimore's International league champions yesterday dined St. Paul, title winners in the American association, 6 to 5 in their minor league championship series, demonstrations by fans in protest against decisions marking the contest.

With the three victories registered by Baltimore on their home field, against one win by the Saints, the Orioles now need only one more victory to give them the minor league title. The next contest will be played here Friday.

The Saints used four pitchers, starting their ace, Charles He who was succeeded by Williams in the seventh. Griner replaced Williams in the next inning and he in turn was succeeded by Foster after the Orioles had charged Griner with using the enemy ball. He only went the entire distance for Baltimore, winning his third game in this series.

Singles by Laury and Holden, and Boon's error gave Baltimore its first two runs in the third; Bishop's and Egan's singles and Laffer's double that means misjudged, added another in the sixth; a walk, Bentley's single and Boley's double counted two more in the seventh and Maisel's single, Griner's wild pitch, Laury's single and an infield out brought in the Orioles' final run in the eighth.

The Saints got their first run in the fourth on Hargraves' walk, Bapp's single and Rapp's force out by Berghammer at second. The locals staged a rally in the seventh that brought in four runs on four hits, including Miller's home run with one on.

Umpire Stockdale's decision on Laury at first in the eighth, calling him safe, met with disfavor from the fans who hurled cushions at the umpire. After the game policemen and Jim Murray, an Association umpire escorted Stockdale from the field while fans showered them with cushions. No one was injured.

MAN O'WAR CHALLENGED.

CINCINNATI, (P)—Matt Winn, general manager of the Kentucky Jockey club, today wired Sam Riddle, and William Sharpe Kilmer, an offer of $50,000 for a race between Man O'War and Exterminator, the distance to be one and one-half miles.

Champion Racing Colt is Retired from the Track

Man o'War's Owner Decides His Great Turf Horse Has Earned Pension

It had been suggested that the colt be entered in the Ascot gold cup race in England next year but Riddle was quoted last night as saying this would not be possible. This would not be advisable, he said, advising that Man O'War would not become acclimated in less than a year.

The season closed at Keenelworth yesterday, the thoroughbred stables shipping to Cuba and the south.

Brief Bits of Sport

Coach H. W. Barry of the Buhl football eleven, said Coach Evans of the Twin Falls eleven, spied on him last Friday and tried to "steal his stuff."

Coach Evans says Coach Barry flatters himself and announces, for the benefit of said Buhl grid coach, that the Twin Falls school representative was in Buhl to see what stuff the Buhl sport team presented.

Migawash but these here athletic mentors are querulous fellows.

Charlie Ebbetts, mogul of the Dodgers, dickered with a band for the series in Brooklyn and could not come to terms. So he dispensed with music entirely and thereby engendered the wrath of the musicians.

The Toledo club of the American association is reported to have sold Sam Hyatt, first baseman, to the Vernon club of the Coast league.

Looks like a deal to help the Tigers win the flag and then let Hyatt go back to the Toledo club next season.

Paul Robbie, boss of the Superbas, said the Indians and his team were evenly matched after the first game, which Cleveland won.

After his club won the following two tilts Robbie told the world there was no comparison and that his own jets comprised the greatest playing aggregation in the wide world.

When Robbie left Cleveland Tuesday evening he said naught.

Hube Marquard tied the count with Fred Merkle for being on a losing club in a world series.

But the rub has a bit of edge on Fred for he not only got on the losing team, but failed to get even his bit of the loser's end of the purse.

Miller Huguenin is lashing himself for not picking up Shortstop Sewell when he had a chance this summer. The Pelican management offered Sewell to the Yankees for a mere pittance, but "Bug" did not need him.

Tibro's talk that the Yankees have offered the Browns $200,000 for George Siner.

Georgia Carpenter appears to be all that his press agent and various boosters have claimed for him.

The Frenchman certainly laid his mitts on Battling Levinsky, acknowledged light heavyweight champion of the United States, and a hard nut for anybody to crack.

One eastern baseball writer suggests that every gambler who made money on the Red-White Sox series in 1916 be made to restore the ill-gotten gains.

And, by the same token, the White Sox who profited through the same medium should be compelled to pay back all the money and what they received from the world series games.

VENEZUELA CULTIVATES RELATIONS WITH JAPAN

South American Envoy at Tokio Confident of Success of Mission

Associated Press.

TOKIO.—Diplomatic relations between the republic of Venezuela and the empire of Japan may be established in the very near future, it is the mission of H. Ferrer Dupuy, an extraordinary envoy from Venezuela in Tokio, is successful. Mr. Dupuy has, for several days past, been negotiating with the Japanese foreign office to that end and feels sure of the ultimate success of his mission.

"Venezuela seeks more customers for her products," said Mr. Dupuy. "Her bankers and business men feel that more customers will make sounder business. Her products, iron, gold, copper, tobacco, long fiber cotton, sugar, cocoa, coffee, oil and frozen meats, will doubtless some of them to be saleable in Japan, in return. Venezuela can buy rice, wheat, toys, porcelain and other goods from this country."

The newly subsidized steamship lines which Japan is today promoting to improve and encourage Japanese shipping probably will call at La Guayana, the principal seaport of Venezuela.

COMMISSION TO BLOCK USE

opment of the national forests and the national parks.

Payne Opposes Development

Mr. McFarland's announcement of the policy of the water power commission relative to national parks was supplemented by Secretary Payne who in a letter read to the convention expressed the belief that the people of the United States would insist that the national parks "be permanently preserved free from every form of commercialism."

"No other country has such wonderful national parks as the United States," Mr. Payne declared in his letter. "To persons who know these parks and are in the habit of considering the value to health, recreation and pleasure, it would seem that all our people would insist that they should be permanently preserved from every form of commercialism."

The argument of utility should not be entertained, and indeed can never be answered by the plain statement that the water that is sought for reclamation and power purposes may be utilized in no way after it leaves the park boundaries.

Rakes Irrigators Argument.

"In the case of the proposition to dam the Yellowstone river at the mouth of Yellowstone lake, it is strikingly true because the volume of water at the mouth of the lake is less than half of the volume of the water outside the park and the only argument I have heard in favor of placing the dam within the park is that it will be cheaper, an argument which should not for a moment be entertained."

Figures of Ballot.

The official figures of the ballot taken by the voters to decide upon acceptance or rejection of the basic lines of production offered by the owners, beyond which an increase of wages would be granted, was given out today as follows:

For acceptance 181,425.

Against acceptance 635,098.

This made a majority against acceptance of 453,673.

It was decided to send the result of the ballot and the conference's decision to Premier Lloyd George.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO IN TWIN FALLS

Taken all random from the News files this date is year 1909

The seats for the new temporary school buildings arrived today and are now being installed. They will all be in place and ready for the opening of the schools on Monday, October 13. To date 406 pupils have been enrolled and it is expected that not less than 500 pupils will be in attendance before the end of the present month.

George F. Sprague of Twin Falls and Miss Anna R. Hoberman of Amherst, Va., were married in the latter city on Oct. 11. They will reside at the Hotel Portine until their own home is completed.

John E. Hayes, the well known civil engineer, has announced his intention of returning to Twin Falls shortly to remain. Mr. Hayes has been in Burley since early spring.

Mr. E. Barber, the well known Boise attorney, visited in Twin Falls on Wednesday with his brother O. H. Barber, editor of the Times. It was Mr. Barber's first visit to this city and he was astonished with its progress.

Mrs. Truman O. Boyd returned on Tuesday from the east where she had visited for several weeks. She was delighted to get home, after all said Mrs. Boyd, there is no place like Twin Falls.

At a meeting of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce which was held in the old school house on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 7, the following officers were elected: President, H. T. West; vice president, A. D. McKinlay; treasurer, Frank D. Kimball; board of directors, H. T. West, A. D. McKinlay, F. D. Kimball, J. H. Angel, J. H. Dwy, Robert Brown, James McMillan, P. H. Smith, J. W. Vandergriff. Aside from the election of officers no business was transacted. In an informal way the members discussed the work of the association. An initiation fee of $1 is required of each member and the annual dues are the same amount payable in advance.

Skilful Navigators.

The world has never produced greater navigators than the early Polynesians, who in their big outrigger canoes traversed the Pacific north and south, east and west. Without map or compass, they pushed north to the equator and south to the ice pack. The white explorers came in the tracks of their canoes.

Today's Markets

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, (AP)—Traders shifted to the long account in the stock market today, hoping their more hopeful views on the absence of threatened money disturbances. Sales approximated 5,000,000 shares.

Steels, equipments, oils, coppers and tinabases were the prominent features at the dull and irregular opening of today's stock market, rails representing the weaker shares. Republic Steel, Baldwin Locomotive, Mexican Petroleum, American Smelting, Goodrich and Tobacco Products made gains extending from substantial fractions to 1 1/2 points. Nickel Plate one of yesterday's strongest features, lost 1/2 point and St. Paul reacted a large fraction. Exchange on London and Continental Europe eased slightly.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—General buying, partly on seaboard accounts, turned the wheat market upward today after a period of depression at the opening. Initial declines were ascribed to hearsay news taken of the government report on farm business. On the other hand, signs indicated that a fair amount of export business was in progress. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 1 3/4 lower, with December $2.08 1/2 to $2.09 1/2 and March $2.11 1/2 to $2.12, were followed by a moderate setback all around, and then by an ascent to well above yesterday's finish.

Later the market weakened decidedly as a result of heavy selling attributed to a prominent western trader, who was said to have been long. The close was nervous, 1 1/2 to 2 1/2c net lower, with December $2.07 3/4 to $2.09 and March $2.03 1/2 to $2.04 3/4.

In corn there was persistent buying by strong commission houses. A late opening unchanged to 1/2c lower, with December 86 1/2 to 87 7/8c, the market scored slight gains.

Aggressive selling supposed to be for a few New York shipments ultimately to a decline. The close was nervous, 3/8c net lower to 2 1/2c advance, with December at 86 3/4c to 87 7/8c.

Oats hardened with other grains, starting a slide to 1-1/4 to 3/8c off, December 59 to 59 1/4c, and then making a sharp advance.

Provisions were strengthened by forecasts that the warehouse statement December 1 would show a big decrease in stocks of lard and meats.

PASSING SHOW OF WILSONIANISM

It will be with a sigh of genuine relief that the vast majority of the American people will witness the inauguration of a new president on March 4 next. They have tired of the task of criticizing the present executive and yet it is a task that they cannot avoid. As long as our ideal continues to be "government of the people, by the people, for the people," so long it will be the popular duty to know what the elected heads of government are doing and pass judgment on their work, whether it be good or bad.

Passing judgment on Mr. Wilson long ago ceased to be an agreeable duty, but it is a duty that remains while he retains his august office. Moreover, he challenges judgment of his conduct by his decision to take an active part in the campaign to elect his successor. Had he refrained from obtruding his personality from the contest, it might have been possible to refrain in turn from pointing out to the voter the almost daily new evidence of the unreliability of his methods and the perversity of his judgment.

Take, for example, his refusal to obey the law of June 5, 1920, known as the Jones law, under which it is his duty to notify all foreign governments that the United States elects to abrogate and terminate all treaties restricting the right of this government to impose discriminatory duties and tonnage tolls. His sole excuse for violating the law which he has sworn to execute like all other laws of the United States is that "President Hayes once voted a law ordering him to abrogate treaties."

His inability to see that President Hayes' act bore no resemblance whatever to his own is astounding. When the bill to which he referred came before President Hayes, and he voted it, it failed to become a law and Mr. Hayes therefore did not incur a constitutional obligation to enforce it. When the Jones bill came before Mr. Wilson he made it a law by signing it, and in refusing now to obey his own and his oath and execute it he is setting an example to anarchists.

Hardly less penetrating a light upon his curious mental processes is that which is thrown by his sweeping contradiction of Senator Spencer of Missouri in reference to the Rumanian matter. Mr. Spencer has made the statement in public that Mr. Wilson has promised military aid to Rumania in the event of an invasion of that country. First Tammany, and now the president himself, contradicts Spencer in language equivalent to accusing him of being a deliberate and malicious liar. Yet the senator's statement was based on documentary evidence. He cites the published stenographic reports of the peace conference at its eighth plenary session at Versailles, where it is recorded that the president said to Premier Briarbanu of Rumania: "You must not forget that it is for me that is the final guaranty of the public peace." The president then added: "If the world is again troubled, the United States will send to this side of the ocean their army and their fleet."

Did Mr. Wilson, or did he not, utter these words, attributed to him by his expert stenographers? And if he did has he any right to characterize Mr. Spencer as a liar?

A third question which seems pertinent in such a connection is this: How much are the opinions of Mr. Wilson as to the meaning and intent and effect of the League of Nations covenant worth, and how much inclination should there be among intelligent and patriotic American citizens henceforth to accept his guidance?

Yet this is the man whose chimerical theories Governor Cox has pledged himself to carry on if he is elected president of the United States. That alone is sufficient to make his election impossible. The American people are done with Wilsonianism and a candidate making a campaign on a platform pledged to the continuance of it is holding on to a forlorn hope.

HOPE IN RUSSIA'S PLIGHT

Europe almost generally and America in particular are agreed that the only hope of permanent peace in Europe lies in the overthrow of the soviet government of Russia. The government has proved its incapacity to care for its own people, and it has given ample demonstration of its hostility toward the forms of government in other nations.

Recent dispatches from Russia and adjoining countries would seem to indicate that the Bolshevik government is growing in had repute with the masses of Russians, who are said to be facing the winter with dread, for hunger and privation are certain to exact a terrible toll of lives.

The only thing that can keep Russia from wearing Poland out by sheer force of numbers is the probability that the Russian people are so heart sick of the war and the condition into which Bolshevism has plunged them, that they will rebel against carrying on a conflict that causes them still greater suffering.

There must be a limit to the extent to which any people will permit their leaders to carry them into the depths of national misery and economic chaos, and it may be that this limit is very near to being reached by the Russian people. The readiness with which many Russian soldiers surrender may be the indication of a national sick-

CONTEST FOR MILLIONS REVEALS IDIOSYNCRACY

Legal Battle for Request of Millionaire Recluse Opens in Salem

Associated Press.

SALEM, Mass., Oct. 14.—The legal battle for the millions of Edward F. Scurlis, the recluse millionaire of Methuen and New York, who died recently, was opened in the probate court here Monday. It was indicated the attempt by Victor Albert Scurlis, a Boston artist who was a nephew of the testator, would be based on a contention that the aged millionaire was not fit physically or mentally at the time the will was drawn to understand or to make such an intricate instrument as that offered for probate.

By this will, Arthur T. Walker, of New York, a clerk, was made residuary legatee of the estate which is estimated at between $50,000,000 and $50,000,000 and the nephew was left $250,000. Victor Albert Scurlis has already forfeited this legacy, as it was stipulated in the will that should he contest the instrument the legacy would go to the University of California.

Sherman Whipple, of Boston, counsel for the nephew, told the court that the will was part of a cunningly designed plan. He said ultimate friends were excluded from the Scurlis home within two days of the making of this instrument on the ground that he was too ill to see anybody.

"Mr. Scurlis was a recluse," he added. "He was especially shy with women and was what might be called a woman hater. He spoke disrespect-

British Novelist Tells Forging Soviet He and Others Working with Communists

LONDON, (AP)—H. G. Wells, the British novelist, who is visiting Russia is reported in a Moscow dispatch to the Daily Herald, organ of labor, as saying in a speech before the Petro soviet on October 7 that he, with others sharing his opinions, was working for the same ideal as the communists. This ideal he is declared to have asserted, was the creation of a "universal realm of social equity, serving every citizen according to his needs." "My government," he is reported to have said, "has caused, and is still causing destruction and misery in our country, but the welcome you have given shows that, with understanding your immense hardships, you understand our difficulties. Russia and Great Britain, despite mistakes, on both sides, can still have and understand each other and will work together for the benefit of humanity and for the new world which is being born amidst darkness and calamities. The British people desire peace with Russia and will not cease fighting until that peace comes."

"Such a proclamation by me in this state," said the governor, "would be construed by the opponents of the league as political. It would engen-

Being Beautiful

"Many women prefer being beautiful to being smart."
 —Painless Parker.

But beautiful women and handsome men are smart enough to know that good teeth are the biggest part of good looks. It is hard to love anybody whose teeth are discolored or decayed. Your teeth ought to last as long as you do. The reason they don't is because you sidestep the dentist and fail to exercise the toothbrush. A little attention to the teeth saves a lot of pain. When you think of TEETH, think of PARKER.
