HARDING SEEKS SURGEON FROM POLITICAL CARE

President-elect Declares No Conferences in Prospect with Representatives of Mexico or Europe

ARRANGEMENT MADE FOR VISIT TO CANAL ZONE

United Fruit Company Steamer to Bear Distinguished Party from New Orleans and Back to Norfolk

NEW YORK, (AP) — President-elect Harding will sail from New Orleans November 15 for the canal zone on board a United Fruit company steamer, it was learned here today. Retaining, he will be landed at Norfolk, December 4. Arrangements have been made whereby the ship he is to take from New Orleans will remain over one day from his scheduled sailing date to accommodate Senator Harding and his party, estimated at 35 persons. The stop at Norfolk also will be by special arrangement.

ON BOARD SENATOR HARDING'S SPECIAL TRAIN, (AP) — Coming to Texas for a vacation after the trying requirements of his campaign, President-elect Harding declared today that he was determined to pursue thoughts of his coming responsibilities and to give himself over for the next two weeks to complete rest and recreation.

He told his friends that he expected to stay off the front page and to concentrate temporarily to be more than a second rate in the day-to-day column of the daily newspapers.

Plans Fishing and Golf. From the time of his arrival at Point Isabel, a small and remote village on the southern Texas coast, he was ready to plunge unreservedly into the pleasures of a real vacation. Fishing and golf are the particular vacation offerings of the place, but of the three he expected to omit hunting because it never has been among his favorite sports.

The fact that Point Isabel lies only six miles from the Mexican border, has given rise to many whisperings of possible conferences between the new president-elect and representatives of the new regime in Mexico, but those closest to Mr. Harding were inclined to throw cold water on such of speculation as have come to the attention of Mr. Harding himself said today that no such conferences were "in prospect," and that he had heard them expressed only in newspaper speculation.

The same attitude was taken by the president-elect toward published suggestions that he might begin before his inauguration, informal conversations with European governments regarding the formulation of an association of nations.

By a provision of American law, unique among the great powers of the world, he remains in private citizen for four months, forbidden by diplomatic propriety to take any hand in the direction of executive affairs.

Turns Foreigners Away.

At a time when important international problems are pending and when the powers of the old world, but with Mexico, Japan, China and other nations, this situation takes on additional interest. It is understood that several men representing themselves as truly or falsely, as the spokesmen of foreign statesmen, attempted to gain interviews with Mr. Harding at Marion even before his election. His headquarters officials said all of them were turned away.

UPHOLDS JURISDICTION OF SECRETARY OF INTERIOR

Supreme Court Rules in Case of Controversy Over Public Lands

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The right of the secretary of the interior to exercise equitable jurisdiction in deciding controversies over public lands was upheld today by the district court of Columbia court of appeals. The decision reversed the decree of the district supreme court in granting a mandamus against Secretary Payne to compel him to grant a patent to William F. Olson for coal lands in Utah.

The interior department decided that Olson was entitled only to the mineral content and that the surface of the land belonged to the state of Utah. Olson decided to accept the decision of the secretary of the interior.

FIXES DATE FOR SENATORIAL ELECTIONS THROUGH FRANCE

PARIS, (AP) — The cabinet today fixed January 9 as the date on which the senatorial elections shall be held.

GOVERNMENT ESTIMATE FOR NEXT YEAR LIKELY TO EXCEED $4,000,000,000

Democratic Cabinet Officers Prepare Recommendations for Appropriations to be Acted Upon by New Republican Administration; Naval Proposals Expected to Urge Building of Additional War Craft in Line with Secretary Daniels Ideas

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Estimates upon which congress will make appropriations for the first fiscal year of the new republican administration are now being prepared by the various government departments under the direction of democratic cabinet officers and in accord with the policies of the Wilson administration.

Sharp Change Expected. The estimates will be submitted to congress at the opening of the next session on December 6. Since the republicans have a majority in both the senate and house sharp changes are expected to be made in most of the estimates under revision plans which republican congressional leaders are expected to work out in co-operation with other leaders of the Harding administration which takes office on March 4.

The present political situation with regard to the annual appropriations is similar to that which obtained eight years ago after the first election of Woodrow Wilson, but the economic situation in the country is vastly different. Under the Taft administration republicans were in control of the executive branches of the government but the democrats had a majority in both the senate and house.

The forthcoming estimates for the war department will be based upon the requirements of an army the size of which already has been fixed by the republican congress, but the naval estimates to be submitted next month will be based on the democratic program. Secretary Daniels has repeatedly said that unless the United States became a member of the league of nations it must maintain the most powerful navy in the world.

Under the program authorized in 1916 the government now is constructing five great battle cruisers and more than two hundred of smaller vessels. The program is expected not only to include appropriations for carrying on this work, but also recommendations for additional war craft.

Estimates for all of the government departments are expected to exceed four billions of dollars, this total including amounts for refunding portions of the public debt falling due during the next fiscal year. The estimates for the present fiscal year exceeded six billion dollars, but these subsequently were reduced by something like two billion dollars.

Time is Short. Whether all of the annual supply measures will be completed at the next and final session of the sixty-sixth congress remains to be determined. President-elect Harding is expected to call a special session of the new congress soon after he takes office on March 4 and it may be that some of the appropriation bills will go over to the special session.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., (AP) — Flour prices continued their downward slide today as reached what millers said were pre-war prices. At one large mill here flour prices declined 40 cents a barrel to a new low price of $10. This quotation was for the family brand of flour in 95-pound sacks.

HOLDS UP TRIAL OF CONSPIRACY IN COAL FIELDS

Judge Anderson Continues the Case at Request of Government Claiming Defect in the Complaint

COURT STARTS HEARING ON PALMER'S ACTIVITY

Declares Intention of Determining Whether or Not "Attorney General Can Hamstring" Proceedings

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., (AP) — Attorney General Palmer's orders not to fast certain evidence in the soft coal conspiracy case against 125 operators and miners in Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and western Pennsylvania were interpreted as possibly hindering the government's case by attorneys for the government in the case, testifying today before Judge Anderson in the federal district court here.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., (AP) — At the request of the government, the conspiracy case against 125 soft coal miners and operators of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and western Pennsylvania was continued when called in the United States district court of Judge A. B. Anderson this morning.

Turns Guns on Palmer. Judge Anderson then immediately started upon his investigation of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer's conduct in the case, at one time declaring: "I'm going to find out whether the attorney general can hamstring a case in this court." Dan W. Simms, of La Fayette, Ind., who recently resigned as special assistant district attorney in the case, was the first witness called in the investigation.

Alleges Simms Deflection. The government based its plea for a continuance on the fact that not all of the defendants had been brought within the jurisdiction of the federal district court for Indiana and also on the resignation of Mr. Simms, who, following his resignation, declared his action was due to instructions from Mr. Palmer not to proceed with the case. "These instructions," Mr. Simms stated, "literally cut the heart out of the case."

Simms Denies Agreement. Mr. Simms, in testifying today in the investigation, declared that no agreement had been made with him by the attorney general or any one else either in the presence of Judge Anderson or out of it if regard to the defense to be used. He stated also that he had never met with Mr. Palmer and Judge C. B. Ames, assistant attorney general, after the indictments were returned and that both had complied with his opinion in the case.

Judge Anderson asked if Mr. Simms had been confronted with any moves by the department of justice indicating a lack of co-operation and the witness replied: "I'm going to find out whether the attorney general can hamstring a case in this court," and the examination of Mr. Simms continued.

ILLINOIS DEFENDANTS IN COAL CASE LOSE IN COURT

PEORIA, Ill., (AP) — Illinois defendants in the coal conspiracy criminal case in the United States court at Indianapolis today lost their case in the federal court in which they sought to enjoin officers of the government from enforcing the law against them at Indianapolis on the ground that section 9 of the Lever act was unconstitutional.

Judge Louis Fitzhugh this morning said in his opinion in the case of the Hillabee Coal Company, where Rice Miller and Herman C. Perry, two of the Indianapolis defendants, are arrested, holding the federal court at Indianapolis unconstitutional and that the attorney general and district attorneys are acting within their powers. He also holds that this statute aimed at all conspiracies to obstruct the free trade in coal within or without the coal industry.

MEXICAN STRIKERS WILL NOT ACCEPT ARMISTICE

Stewards and Dockworkers Reject Executive Arrangement and Call General Strike

VERA CRUZ, (AP) — Striking stewards and dock workers in this city have refused to accept the 60-day armistice agreement reached at Mexico City on Friday by representatives of the General Confederation of Labor and the Ship Owners' association, with Provisional President de la Huerta. They have issued a call for a general strike to begin tomorrow and it is said the move will be supported by a sympathetic strike by railroad men.

Orders for a general strike have been received from Mexico City. This movement was being made for a general walkout which would be nationwide in its effect. It was to begin on November 15 but the dock workers strike hastened final action.

WRANGLER STILL HOLDS KEYS TO PASSAGE FROM CRIMEA TO MAINLAND

Plant Big Guns to Protect Lines from Bolsheviki Who Also Are Concentrating Artillery

IMPENDING WINTER BRINGS TERROR TO PEOPLE OF SOUTH RUSSIAN FRONT

CONSTANTINOPLE, (AP) — South Russian anti-Bolshevik forces under command of General Baron Wrangel still safely hold Percepok and Salkova, keys to the isthmus leading from Crimea to the mainland of Russia. Military observers declare General Wrangel has many long range 10 and 12 inch guns, as well as other heavy pieces, which have been planted to protect his lines from the Bolsheviki who also are concentrating their artillery forces. Along the seven mile trench system across the isthmus General Wrangel has established elaborate barbed wire entanglements.

The impending winter is dreaded in Crimea, where two million people, with only limited food, little clothing and virtually no money, have gathered. A dollar is worth 50,000 rubles at present in Sebastopol. Nevertheless, General Wrangel hopes internal troubles in soviet Russia will work in his favor.

Armenia Passing to Bolshevik Control

CONSTANTINOPLE, (AP) — Armenia is passing under Bolshevik control, it is said in reports received here from Tiflis. Turks and Bolsheviki forces have effected a junction at Ardahan, and it is probable the city of Erivan has been occupied by Turkish troops commanded by Kazim Karabekir Pasha.

American troops are reported to be surrendering or seeking refuge in Georgia.

The Russian Bolsheviki, it is said in reports from Sebastopol are sending units from their armies now in the Crimean region to Baku and Transcaucasia.

COURT GIVES LEeway IN POSSESSION OF LIQUOR

Rules Alcoholics Required for Personal Use May Be Stored Away from Home

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP) — Liquor lawfully acquired by a person for personal use may be stored in a place other than his home under a ruling today by the supreme court.

The court's decision was on an appeal brought by a woman of New York City, from lower court decisions refusing an injunction prohibiting federal prohibition officers from seizing liquor which he had stored in a room leased to him in a residential company. The court declared congress did not intend to prohibit such storage when the liquor was lawfully acquired for a lawful purpose.

The decision was rendered by Associate Justice Clarke. The lower court in upholding the portion of the enforcement act interpreted by prohibition enforcement officials as prohibiting storage except in the home, held that congress under the police power delegated by the prohibition amendment had authority to prohibit any transportation of liquor and that in order to reduce the necessity for transportation to a minimum, it had the power to legislate as to the places where liquor might lawfully be possessed.

Justice Clarke also held that the transportation of lawfully acquired liquor from a warehouse to the home of the owner did not constitute "transportation" within the meaning of the enforcement act.

CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING ON COAST STRONG

More Than Half of Farmers in California Sell Their Products Through Own Organizations, Statistics Show

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—More than half of the farmers in California sell their products through co-operative marketing associations, and raisers of cattle and sheep, vegetable growers and apple orchardists are the only kind of agricultural producers in the state who have not combined to insure themselves a living return for their output, according to statistics being gathered by attorneys for some of these organizations.

There are about twenty-five active associations, these figures show, which control as high as 90 per cent of their particular crop in some cases, and which range in activity from meat sales agencies to organizations that pack, distribute and advertise their products and even possess lumber mills to make their own box shooks.

Big raisers have no association of their own, but a marketing association of the farm bureau of seven counties in the San Joaquin valley sold $1,447,449 worth of eggs last year for the farm bureau members.

Vegetable Growers Outside

The growers of annual crops such as vegetables who can turn their land to other uses without loss or delay are about the only ones who have not been successful in forming organizations, the statistics indicate, although bean and lima bean growers have been able to support marketing associations. Potato and tomato growers association do not exist, although heavy growers are organized in central California have accomplished the feat of combining American and Japanese farmers in one concern.

The California Fruit Growers Exchange, which marketed $50,000,000 of citrus fruits last year from the orchards of 11,000 members, handling 70 per cent of the California orange, lemon crop, is the patriarch of the associations. It not only sells the fruit but marmalade and fruit juices as well, and through a subsidiary concern secures box shooks and other packing materials.

Among the other associations, with the number of members their volume of business last year and the proportion of the total crop they controlled are: California Raisin Company, 10,000 members, $33,000,000, 85 per cent; California Prune and Apricot Growers, Inc., 10,800 members, $22,000,000, 80 per cent; California Almond Growers, Inc., 7,500 members, $10,000,000 to $12,000,000, 75 per cent; California Almond Growers Exchange, 3,578 members, $5,000,000, 80 per cent.

The Central California Poultry Producers, Inc., who sold nine million dozen eggs last year claim to be the largest single concern in the United States handling poultry products and the second largest in the world, being surpassed only by a Danish co-operative concern.

Big Advertising Bills

Many of the organizations spend large amounts in advertising. The raisin company spent $165,000 last year, the prune and apricot growers $500,000, the walnut association $180,000, while 22 per cent of the annual citrus crop return is devoted to advertising and one per cent of the almond exchange receipts go for the same purpose.

The value of vineyards, according to the statement of the raisin company, has increased from $300 an acre in 1913 to $1,000 in 1920. The prune growers point to an advance from $500 to $750 an acre for orchards in 1917 to the 1920 price of from $2000 to $4,000 an acre. Other associations make similar claims.

In Oregon a concern called the Oregon Growers Co-operative association, doing an annual business of $900,000, operates canneries, a dried fruit packing house, an evaporator, ice, icecream, vinegar, cider and box factories.

VICTIM OF ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING IS MOURNED

Patrolman Whose Bullet Went Astray One of Most Disconsolate at Funeral of Mrs. Difuria

NEW YORK, (AP)—The funeral today of young and pretty Mrs. Dolores Difuria, was one of the handsomest that the east side has seen in a long time. And next to Frank Difuria, her war hero husband, perhaps the most disconsolate of the mourners who followed the sweetest basket here with its six snowy horses, was Patrolman Jim Kenny, by whose hand she had been accidentally killed.

Dolores—herself a Red Cross worker during the war—left her baby Saturday to go on a short errand. As she crossed the street, a bullet fired by Patrolman Kenny at a thief who had snatched a box of cigarettes, struck her down.

Agitated, the patrolman had the dying woman rushed to a hospital, but she never regained consciousness. Then to add to the blow as much as he could for Frank—and to ease his own breast—Kenny started a subscription to provide for the funeral and leave a nest egg for the motherless baby.

ENGLAND GOES SLOW ON CHAMPAGNE AND CIGARS

Public Refuses to Buy at High Prices Necessitated by Heavy Duty and Inflated Costs

LONDON, (AP)—Since Chancellor Austen Chamberlain introduced his last budget there has been a marked reduction in the retail sale of champagne and cigars in England.

Wine merchants say that during the recent months clearances from bond and importations from Cuba have practically been suspended. The public, it is stated, refuse to buy at the high prices necessitated by the heavy duty and the inflated cost of tobacco.

In 1914 a really good Havana cigar he bought at 40 shillings to 50 shillings a hundred, but today the cost is more than five pounds a hundred.

Wine merchants are a little surprised at the decline in the sale of champagne, as prices have not been substantially increased. In many cases growers have shouldered a part of the duty imposed by the budget in the hope of maintaining the English demand.

SAYS WILHELMINA MADE FORMER KAISER WELCOME

Hohenzollern's Companion in Flight to Amerongen Discloses Arrangements with Queen

THE HAGUE, (AP)—The often repeated and often denied statement that the former German Emperor William came to Holland with the pre-arranged consent of King George V. and Queen Wilhelmina is now made by one of the German officers, Lieutenant Count Detlef Moltke, who said he himself accompanied the emperor from Spa to Amerongen.

Moltke's article in the Journal of the National Bond of German soldiers, reprinted in the Dutch press, says that the Dutch consul in Brussels warned his government on the night of November 10, 1918, of William's plan and the emperor by telegraph asked permission of the queen to enter her country. On arrival in Holland William was informed that the queen had put Bentinck castle at his disposal, asserted Moltke.

FRENCH PREMIER TO STRENGTHEN TREATY'S BOND

Leagues Says Government will Seek to Maintain Alliances; Lays Stress on National Reconstruction

PARIS, (AP)—France has shown the same ardor in her work of reconstruction as she did in the war, and has successfully crossed the passage from war to peace, which is always difficult in an interview printed today by the Petit Parisien. Discussing his foreign policy, the premier declares the government will seek to maintain and strengthen its alliances, and will examine in utmost sincerity of spirit all questions arising between France and Germany.

Belief is expressed by M. Leygues that the league of nations must become a great force and a strong barrier against return of imperialism and militarism. He declares the government's program is so to enforce execution of the Versailles treaty that national re-constitution and the organization of work and production may be advanced.

Ontario Minister's Responsibility in Death of Innkeeper is Debated at Inquest

WINDSOR, Ont., (AP)—Whether Rev. J. O. L. The inquest into Trumble's death began Saturday night and adjourned early Sunday morning, was to be continued here this evening. Adjournment was taken to permit officers to search for a man named "Ed Smith" who is said to have seen the shooting and who is expected to testify whether Trumble was armed when he was killed.

Rev. Sprackling was in Chatham, Ont., today. He was spirited from the jail here early yesterday morning when officers heard rumors that an attempt at violence was being planned by certain friends of Trumble.

Feeling ran high in the border town over Sunday.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat, Also Take Glass of Salts Before Eating Breakfast

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy, the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, the tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take for generations to clean clogged kidneys and activate. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble—nail.

WAR'S HEROES ARE LINED UP ON IDAHO TEAM

Some of Huskies Who Will Meet
Utah Next Thursday, Did
Bit in France

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, (Spokane)—Armistice day, November 11, celebrated this year on the University of Idaho campus because, among other reasons, it has been set as the date of an Idaho-Idaho football game to be played in Boise, has a very definite personal significance for the men on Coach Tom Kelley's Idaho squad. Two years ago many of these warriors of football and basketball wore the gold bars of second lieutenant on the gridiron, were facing shrapnel and phosphene, machine gun bullet and mustard gas in Belgium and northern France, while others were in American camps preparing themselves for like duties.

Howard and Arnold Breshears of Caldwell, quarterback and fullback on Coach Kelley's team, met in November 11, 1918, in the front lines with the Twenty-ninth engineers and Fred Schmid of Payette, substitute tackle, knew that the peace and come home in his infantry outfit ceased to advance against the retreating boches.

The great day found George Pearson of Boise, fullback, in the front line with the One Hundred Sixty-fifth ambulance corps and it discovered Robert Keith of Lewiston, also a backfield man, serving with the gallant Second engineers of the Thirtieth fame. Herbert Glendman of Coeur d'Alene, capable tackle, celebrated the cessation of hostilities by helping the One Hundred-Forty-fifth field artillery complete its splendid record of participation in five major engagements.

None of the other men on Kelley's first string served actively in France, but all of them responded to the note of reville in camps on this side of the Atlantic and all of them, he said, regretted the perverse turn of army service which kept them from entering upon "The Great Adventure."

Felix Platinio, Idaho center and captain, was a lieutenant of artillery at Camp Taylor, Ky.; Grover Evans of American Falls, veteran end, and Earl Parks of Caldwell, a substitute guard, Nez Perce, sensational tackle, Neil ants of infantry; Justin Gowen of Caldwell, also a veteran at end, served as a West Point cadet; Pat Perrine of Nez Perce, sensational tackle, Neil Irving of Rupert, hard hitting halfback, Joe Whitcomb of Lewiston, also a backfield star, Frank Brown of Boise, aggressive lineman and Carl Nagel of Genesee, a powerful guard, all non-commissioned officers stripes in the S. A. T. C., and Jim Neal of Boise, regular guard, served with the marine at Mare Island. "Babe" Brown of Boise, scrappy end, and Vernon Patch of Payette, a substitute at end, both were too young to enlist, but they wore the uniform as members of Junior R. O. T. C. units.

The distant but definite blood relationship between war and football is believed to appeal to these former soldiers on Coach Kelley's squad. Those who saw their first game of the season against Washington State college declare, at any rate, that none of the A. E. F. division could have battled harder against the aquaheds than Idaho's eleven battled against its traditional gridiron rival.

GEORGIA TECH ALL FUSSED UP OVER REPORTS

Elevens May Never Meet on Grid Again Because of "Willifying Articles"

ATLANTA, Ga., (P)—Georgia Tech and Centre college may not meet on the football gridiron next year, Dr. J. B. Crenshaw, athletic director at Tech, declared today, announcing that he had sent a telegram to Prof. Frank Rainey, faculty chairman of athletics at Centre, asking whether newspaper articles criticizing the playing of the Tech team in the recent game between the two institutions "represent feelings and opinions of your college."

"If they do," Dr. Crenshaw's telegram continued, "Georgia Tech will not under any circumstances consider a game with Centre college next year."

Dr. Crenshaw said that "many articles vilifying" the Georgia Tech team had appeared in newspapers. The articles, he added, purported to come from members of the Tech team, Centre's coach and also officials of Centre college.

The two teams played here October 30, Tech winning 24 to 0.

to Decide For or Against
Re-organization

CHICAGO, (P)—Owners of the major league baseball clubs were in session here today to decide for peace or war in major league baseball, with re-organization of the national commission as the deciding factor.

Magnates of the major National league clubs and the Chicago, Boston and New York American league clubs have extended until 10 o'clock today their ultimatum to the other five American league clubs to meet with them for adoption of the Lasker plan for a new commission or "go to war."

President Johnson, of the American league, summoned all the American league clubs to meet at 9 o'clock. The St. Louis and Detroit representatives of the "loyal five" supporting Johnson did not arrive in time for a preliminary meeting yesterday.

Opposition to the Lasker plan by President Johnson and the Washington, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Detroit and St. Louis clubs, apparently is based on the belief that professional baseball should not be taken out of the control of club owners, managers and players.

The Lasker plan would give financially interested parties no more than national pastime.

Long conferences were held yesterday by both leagues. It was learned that the National league clubs and the three American clubs remained steadfast in their determination to form a 12-club league should the others reject the Lasker plan.

Firestone Cushion Truck Tires

Truck operators are rapidly finding out the advantages of the Firestone Cup Cushion Tire. Many have proved that it is more practical and economical for their needs than any other tire.

Its special shape, as shown in the cross-section, is the result of studying the action of rubber under heavy strain.

This special design, with larger volume of rubber, gives far greater resilience, while the strength and durability of solid construction is preserved.

The Firestone Cup Cushion Tire has much of the cushioning power of Pneumatics. Jolts and sudden shocks are absorbed and strain evenly distributed.

Tests have demonstrated that Firestone Cushion Tires have 300% greater efficiency in heat radiation. And it is heat, generated by friction, that raises havoc with tires. The shape of this tire prevents overheating and greatly increases mileage.

Make a practical test of Firestone Cushion Tires on your own trucks. Any Firestone Truck Tire dealer can equip you without added cost or delay. No wheel changes are necessary and no change in gear ratio. Firestone Cushion Tires fit any S. A. E. base.

If you want resiliency, plus extra long wear, and if you want the practical economy of most miles per dollar, put on Firestone Cushion Tires. Made in all sizes.

We Have Houses FOR SALE

Ostrander Lumber Company

ANNIVERSARY SALE!

Just one year ago this week, we opened our little store for business. From the very start we have been gratified with the result. We have felt that slowly and surely we have been gaining the confidence, the good will, the respect of the people of the Twin Falls tract.

In our home store we have been in business for forty-five years and during that time there has accumulated little by little a great fund of good will and respect. People read our advertising with the confidence of sworn statements. We have never fooled them. Mistakes we have made that have been costly in money, but the good will and confidence has not been destroyed. We are more jealous of this good will than the profits of this year, and next year and the next.

We like the people of Twin Falls and are happy that you like us.

IDAHO FIGHTS FOR G. O. P. IN COUNT OF VOTES

Returns to Date Give Solid Pluralities for Every Republican Candidate for State and National Office

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—Although there were 177 voting precincts yet to report results of the general election when tabulation of returns stopped, it was estimated there was not a total of more than 8,000 votes left to be tabulated, and that there was small likelihood that the official vote would cause any overthrow of results apparent on the face of the incomplete returns. These returns gave a solid plurality for every republican candidate for state and national office, indicated republican majorities in both houses of the state legislature, and showed a great number of republican county officers elected.

Probably not until the county canvassing boards have met, ten days hence, and the state canvassing board has tabulated the reports from the county boards, ten days later, will the actual total of votes cast and the pluralities of the various successful candidates be determined.

Law Regarding Canvass.

November 15 is the legal day for the county canvassing boards to meet and November 25 is the date set by law for the state board of canvassers to begin its work. This board, consisting of the governor, secretary of state, auditor, state treasurer and attorney general, has power to adjourn from time to time if the returns are not all in, but must make an inventory on the second Wednesday of December following the election, at the latest regardless of whether all returns are in. This year, this date falls on December 15, 26 days after the election.

Tabulation to Date.

The returns, as they probably will stand until that time, show the following precincts: Cox, 41,709; Harding, 78,451.

Six hundred and fifty precincts: For senator: Frank R. Gooding, republican, 67,031; John F. Nugent, democrat, incumbent, 55,420.

Six hundred and fifty precincts: For governor: D. W. Davis, republican, incumbent, 64,483; F. A. Walter, democrat, 53,470; S. D. Fairchild, independent, endorsed by the Non-partisan league, 20,357.

Two hundred and seventy-five precincts: 33rd precinct in the first district, for congress: Burton P. French, republican, incumbent, 26,031; Mrs. Nell K. Irion, democrat, 11,758.

Three hundred and forty-four of 433 precincts in the first congressional district. Addition T. Smith, republican, incumbent, 41,880; W. B. Whitaker, democrat, 33,229.

For the constitutional amendment seeking to increase the number of judges on the supreme bench, only 87 precincts had reported when unofficial tabulation ceased. Those gave 670 votes in favor, 3,302 against. For, 5,531; against, 3,302.

For returns on the other four amendments on the ballot were tabulated.

Gooding's Lead Secured.

Interest in Idaho centered in the Gooding-Night fight, a renewal of that staged two years before when Gooding was returned the victor by 670 votes. In that contest, Nugent carried 21 counties and Gooding 20.

In the contest this year, Gooding led in all but in 34 counties when tabulation ceased. Payette county, complete, gave Nugent a plurality of 100. Nugent had leads larger than this figure in several of the incomplete counties, which included Boise, where 12 of 13 precincts gave him 13 more than Gooding; Bonner, where he was 245 ahead; Cankon, 31 of whose 32 precincts gave him approximately 800 votes more than Gooding; Gem, lead 222; Lewis, lead 180; and 12 of 13 of the county's 14 precincts; Minidoka, where five of the eight precincts gave him a lead of 330; Oneida, where Nugent led by eight votes on returns from three of 18 precincts; Owyhee, which gave him 125 more than Gooding on returns from 23 of 27 precincts; Valley, where of whose 11 precincts gave him a lead of 98; and Washington, where he led by 159 on returns from 13 of 15 precincts.

Davis Loses Two Counties.

For governor, Davis carried all counties except Camas and Minidoka, and these two went to Fairchild by pluralities of 13 and 180, respectively. Davis obtained from the tabulated returns a majority of 12,559, while his opponent, Walter, won 33,004.

No democratic candidate for a state office lower on the ballot than the governorship carried over one county. In the main, the republican and non-partisan voters stood to the extent of two to one or more.

Baseball Peace is in Sight, so Report Has It

CHICAGO, (AP)—Peace in organized baseball was believed in sight today when Dan Johnson, president of the American league, and his "loyal five" club owners, went into session at the same hotel where the National league owners and the three minority American league owners were meeting.

Clark Griffith, one of the "loyal five" accepted an invitation to attend the rival meeting and discuss plans for the re-organization of the national commission.

REPUBLICANS IN HOUSE 293 TO 138 DEMOCRATS

Victories for G. O. P. in Missing Districts Determine Congressional Line-up

NEW YORK (AP)—Republican victories in three congressional districts, two in the north and one in the south, the fifth Missouri eighth Minnesota and the twenty-third New York—asured with the receipt Saturday night of the last belated returns, determining the final line-up of the house of representatives after March 4 next, according to unofficial returns.

The republicans will have 293 representatives in the house to 138 democrats. The republican list includes one independent-prohibitionist and one independent-republican. The democrats represent a net gain for the republicans of 61 members and a loss to the democrats of 52. The present congress contains an equal number of miscellaneous members, four with 232 republicans and 190 democrats.

G. O. P. PLURALITY RECORD BREAKER RECORD SHOWS

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The republican plurality in the next house of congress, according to the unofficial list compiled by William Tyler Page chief clerk, will be 176, breaking all previous records. The count shows 302 republicans, 129 democrats and one independent. The count shows that party designation is selected by each member shows no independents or prohibitionists seated.

The previous record party majority in the house, according to Page said, was in the sixty-third congress, elected in 1912 when the progressive party was in the field and the democrats had a plurality of 103.

BOXERS COMING FOR MAIN BOUT ARMISTICE DAY

Young and Miskind Expected Not Later than Wednesday for Platic Battle

Tickets were today sent to Al Young of Ogden, and Abio Miskind of Salt Lake, by the committee on athletics of the League of Armistice day entertainers. The event is expected here not later than Wednesday afternoon for the Thursday tilt.

For this little Young has been keeping in trim at a gymnasium in his home town, while Miskind has been training faithfully in Salt Lake—for this and a bout he engages in tonight before the Manhattan club. He boxes under the name of a New York fighter at Hardy Downing's weekly show in Salt Lake.

The men are looked upon as the best in the class in an intermountain district, and claim the lightweight title of the section.

Prior to the main bout a series of "curtain raisers" will be held of greater or lesser duration.

PLEDGE SOLICITING STARTS FOR RAILWAY

Soliciting is to be resumed vigorously this week toward getting pledges to make up the $500,000 railroad building bonus according to Asher B. Wilson, president of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Wilson says the campaign will be pushed to completion.

To date Twin Falls has subscribed $38,000, and it is believed that during the present week the sum of $100,000 can be made up in Twin Falls city. Other districts in Idaho and Nevada have subscribed $35,000, making a total of $183,000 to date.

The following block captains have been selected to canvass the residence districts:

GAIN IS CLAIMED FOR NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE

Results of Election are Construed to Advantage of Townley's Political Organization

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—Results of last Tuesday's election are construed as "a remarkable gain for the non-partisan league" in the statement to the Associated Press today by Oliver S. Morris, director of league publicity and editor of its national publication.

"The league candidates polled more than 1,000,000 votes in 1920 in nine states," Mr. Morris said. "This is more than three times the vote of two years ago, a remarkable gain in a republican landslide year."

Although the league candidates for state offices in Minnesota were defeated by large majorities, men endorsed by the league in Wisconsin and North Dakota were elected governor, and in North Dakota the first Non-partisan United States senator was named, Mr. Morris pointed out.

"We increased our membership in the national house of representatives from four to six," Mr. Morris continued. "Although beaten for state offices in Minnesota, we just about maintained our minority in the Minnesota and Wisconsin legislatures, and retained control in North Dakota. In Montana, Idaho, Washington and Nebraska we elected several state legislators."

"On the whole we feel that the league has made wonderful progress in two years."

Today's Markets

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, (AP)—Renewed signs of trade reaction, tight money and the further collapse of foreign exchange were the outstanding factors in today's active, but depressed stock market. Sales approximated 1,300,000 shares.

The uncertainty of returns of the clearing house and federal reserve banks after the close of last week's business and another violent decline in foreign exchange provoked further selling. The general list at the opening of today's stock market. The losses of 7 to almost 3 points were established in the initial dealings by oils, equipments, copper, sugar, tobacco and motor and their specialties, rails also weakening. Rates on London broke 2 1/2 under last week's minimum quotation and remittances, to France, Italy and Belgium continued to decline in the absence of even nominal support. The closing was weak.

Liberty Bonds

NEW YORK, (AP)—Liberty bonds closed: 3 1/2's $94.82; first 4's $89.30; third 4's $87.60; first 4 1/4's $90.28; second 4 1/4's $87.60; third 4 1/4's $89.28; fourth 4 1/4's $87.60; Victory 3 3/4's $96.24; Victory 4 3/4's $96.30.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—Sharp new setbacks in the price of wheat today accompanied demoralizing reports of foreign exchange. Liberal receipts were reported at Kansas City and Omaha. Notice was also taken of forecasts that lake navigation from Canada to United States ports would be open for a month or more yet. Initial prices, which ranged from 1 to 4 1/4 lower, with December $1.88 to 1.89 and March $1.83 to 1.84, were followed by material further declines, and then something of a reaction.

Reports from the southwest told of heavy notices of consignment from the country, notwithstanding efforts for a holding party by the part of producers. The close was unsettled 3 3/4 to 6 net lower, with December $1.84 1/4 to 1.84 1/2 and March $1.82 to 1.83 1/4.

Evening up to prepare for the government report gave comparative firmness to corn. After opening 3 3/4 to 1c lower, with December 80 1/2 to 80 3/4, the market rallied in some cases to above Saturday's finish.

The December delivery continued to reflect scantiness of receipts. Prices closed firm. 1 1/2 to 5 1/2 net higher, with December 81 3/4 to 81 1/2 c.

Oats were governed by the action of corn, settling unchanged to 1 1/2 c. lower. May 57 1/2 to 57 1/4 c., and then scoring slight general gains.

Lower quotations on hogs weakened provisions. Trade was light.

OUMBERSOME ELECTION METHOD

The method of electing members of the senate of the United States by legislatures of the states has been superseded by the direct method, authorized by adoption of the seventeenth amendment a few years ago. The next amendment should be one providing for direct choice of president and vice-president by the electorate.

Under the present system of choosing president and vice-president, the voters indicate by their ballots choice of party, but they have no legal assurance that the electors whose names appear on the ballot will vote for the candidates of their choice.

Whatever obligation rests upon the electors receiving a plurality of votes in any state is moral only. There is nothing in the constitution making it mandatory that they shall support the candidates on the ticket upon which the electors were chosen.

It is true that little confusion has arisen from this ability of any elector to vote against the candidate of his party, although in a number of cases the electoral vote of a state has been divided, and in a close contest in the electoral college a few electors might defeat the will of the plurality party by voting contrary to expectations.

A candidate for president may receive a plurality of the votes of the people, yet fail to obtain a plurality in the electoral college, which would seem to be contrary to the principle that a majority should be accepted as expressing the will of the nation. Under the direct ballot, the plurality of voters would determine the choice.

The constitution of the United States provides for the federal system—the expression of the will of the people through their representatives. That is seen in the selection of members to congress and to the state legislatures, who represent specified districts of the nation. The selection of senators by popular vote was a step from the federal system toward a democracy, where the voters make direct choice. The same method, if applied to the presidency, would still further depart from the federal system and make the will of the plurality effective at all times.

NOT SO SHOCKING

The method reported to be practiced in a Chicago school for setting unprovoked aggressions among the male pupils may seem especially shocking to some mothers. According to the information given out the boys, principals in the quarrel, adjourn to the basement and there with the principal of the school as referee settle the matter in a fistfight. That boys should be encouraged to fight, moreover that it should be officially sanctioned, may cause some to feel a shudder of horror at contemplation of the whitherward of our drift. Yet it is a fact known to some fathers, and some mothers too, doubtless, that there is nothing more highly reformative to a boy with bullying propensities than to get a thorough licking at the hands of a boy that he bullies. When Johnny comes home from school in a rather badly battered condition the who parent is not too violently inquisitive about what happened. The parent should feel that if Johnny was in the wrong he got about what he deserved and, if the other boy was the aggressor, from the evidence presented the latter must have known that he was in a fight. The boy of many instincts will not be hurt by having to fight to prevent imposition, while if inclined to be overbearing he will be less so if he knows that his arrogance means that he must fight to maintain it.

While it may seem somewhat of a descent from dignity for a school principal to preside over a fight, does not the presence of that functionary guarantee that the "mill" will be fair and that the outcome will best serve the purpose for which it was designed? Under such supervision the one that most deserves the licking should stand a reasonable chance of being the loser. Besides, kicking in the ribs, gouging at the eyes and pulling hair would be barred by the rules, probably. We have no idea that the plan will be adopted generally, but it may not be as debasing as some might be inclined to think. The boy who is willing to fight for his rights and his honor is not so likely to have to fight. The boy who fears to fight is the one in whom it should be encouraged for his own protection and we can see how the Chicago plan might work to the advantage of such boys. And it might also operate to curb the desire of those too willing to fight by proving to them early in their careers that they have gone astray in their ambitions to become John L. Bullwaps. In fact the Chicago idea is not so shocking after all.

MORE DRASTIC DRY LAW FOR WASHINGTON ASKED

Federal Prohibition Director Takes the Lead in Campaign for Legislative Action

TACOMA, Wash., (AP)—The next state legislature, which convenes in January, will be asked to enact a more drastic prohibition law despite the fact that the federal statutes are designed to make all states bone dry. Donald A. McDonald, federal prohibition director for this state, has taken the initiative in this movement. He has announced that the legislature will be requested to pass a law that will send to jail every person convicted of liquor selling. Mr. McDonald has enlisted the aid of George D. Conger of Seattle, secretary of the state Anti-Saloon league, and Fred Shoemaker, commissioner of public safety here, in the movement.

As British Columbia voted wet, a stringent law is needed in Washington, Mr. McDonald said. "I know one bootlegger in the state who has cleared at least $50,000 in the past two years. He was convicted and fined $200. I want a stiff jail sentence for first offences against the liquor laws."

Mr. McDonald said that 50 roads cross the line from British Columbia into Washington, and the problem of stopping liquor sales with British Columbia again wet will be much more difficult than in the past.

Williams, United States commissioner of internal revenue in Washington, to the San Francisco Chronicle in response to a query regarding the statement that home manufacture of dry wines to the extent of 200 gallons would be permitted by the department of internal revenue.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—State department and White House officials refused Saturday to discuss reports from Paris published in this country that Myron T. Herrick, formerly American ambassador to France had been chosen as an intermediary in negotiations with President-elect Harding regarding Mr. Harding's proposal for an association of nations.

Officials at the state department would not say whether the French government formally had communicated to the present administration its desires to discuss this or other matters with the new administration in advance of its inauguration, nor would they say whether there was precedent for such a request.

They also refused to say whether they had information that Mr. Harding was to be asked by the French government delegation to send a personal representative to the forthcoming meeting of the assembly of the league of nations.

The meeting finally was adjourned while Premier Witos, Foreign Minister Sapieha and other government officials watched silently.

ORIENTAL DISTURBANCES DELAY PROFESSOR'S TRIP

Pittkin Calls Off Engagements to Deliver Series of Lectures in Far East on Journalism

MANILA, P. I., (AP)—Prof. Walter B. Pittkin of the school of Journalism of Columbia university, who was expected to deliver a series of lectures in the Far East on Journalism, has written an official of the University of the Philippines where he was to lecture next month, that he has postponed his visit for at least a year on account of the disturbed conditions in China.

It is his letter that Pittkin says: "It is with genuine regret that I must inform you that my trip to the Philippines has been postponed another year. It was my intention to spend considerable time in China, but the unrest in that country has made my itinerary there quite impossible, and I do not wish to go out into the Orient until I can visit the interior of China."

Shorty runs into Teebo!
Snapper

Dear PETEY:

Checked up our old dormitory pal "Snapper" Teebo this morning waiting on an appointment down Peachtree St. "Snapper" wanted to know a bookfold about my visit to the Camel factories. "Tell us old apple seed," says "Snapper," "you're on the inside!" "Snapper" still has that mighty annoying way of saying, "But that doesn't surprise me."

Anyhow—when I explained about the millions of Camels R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. made daily what does the old bird sputter but: "Why, Shorty, they'd have to make that many to supply the demand! Camels have the quality smokers want! And, they have the most wonderful mellow mild body and the most refreshing flavor ever created in a cigarette! Of course they make Camels by millions; of course they buy enough revenue stamps from Uncle Sam every day to build a duplicate of the Winston-Salem post office! Why not? Smokers everywhere will have Camels!"

But, "Snapper" finally got to spilling some real nobby Camel selling stuff! "Shorty," says he, "I want to put it on record that in all the times I've pulled Camels out of my pocket to supply somebody's shortage I've heard enough good things said about 'em to fill a volume! 'That's my brand'; 'Camels are a wonderful cigarette'. 'Like getting money from home', etc."

"And, Shorty, what's the answer? Why—Camels blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos meets the universal taste! And that's the 'hole' story, old golf ball!"

Pete, you pet photograph, did you ever hear a better record?

Sincerely,

Shorty

SEVENTY-FOUR CATTLE HERDS LOSE CREDITS

Department of Agriculture Tells of Ravages Wrought by Tuberculosis

Since the beginning of the work about three years ago, the United States department of agriculture has removed 74 herds of cattle from the list accredited as being free from tuberculosis. The presence of one or more reactors was the cause for removal. The number of herds taken off the list is small compared with the total number of accredited herds which now exceeds 4000. The federal bureau of animal industry makes it plain that the list includes the names of only those persons who keep tuberculosis out of their herds.

Reactors Found in Most Cases.
In most cases where reactors were found among cattle which had passed the requisite number of official tests, infection was traced to carelessness. Either the accredited animals had been permitted to run in pastures with infected cattle or else animals of doubtful health had been brought on the premises and stabled with the others. This is in violation of the agreement with the owner signs when applying to have his herd tested. In one instance a breeder with an accredited herd purchased an entire herd whose history he knew little about. About half of the animals reacted to the tuberculin test when it was applied. But instead of segregating for a time those which did not react, he immediately added them to his officially accredited herd. This was one of the herds taken from the list following the discovery of several reactors.

Must Keep Herds Free.
"The breeders must realize," a bureau official declared, "that if they let their chances, tuberculosis is likely to gain a foothold again and if it does the herd cannot stay on the list." In only five instances out of the 74 "discredited" herds the presence of one reactor could not be explained. This is considered a small number in proportion to the nationwide extent of the work. Where only one reactor is found in an accredited herd it is likely that herd to get back on the list again within six months if a retest at that time shows the herd to be clean. When several reactors are found it takes several years to get a herd back on the list. In all cases reactors must have been removed.

There is increasing evidence also that cattle which, though not reactors, are "suspicious" should be looked upon as a constant source of danger. Frequently the disease is so far advanced that it is difficult for the owner to respond to the test yet are more dangerous to the herd than some reactors. Suspicious animals cannot be officially accredited and breeders who are familiar with the situation sometimes permit them to be slaughtered rather than jeopardize the health of other animals.

Guarding Animals at Shows.
"Another important precaution in tuberculosis eradication work," the bureau official added, "is the showing of cattle at fairs and exhibitions. Owners of accredited herds are now demanding that all cattle be kept in separate barns so that they will not have to mingle with untested cattle. Some fair associations have gone so far as to require a tuberculosis certificate for all cattle shown. Another risk—and it is a serious one—is to buy cattle from herds you know nothing about. Even when such animals are tested and are found to be free from tuberculosis, they may have passed the test not entirely free from latent infection, especially when the original herd may have been half diseased. It is much safer to purchase cattle from a breeder who is known to have healthy stock."

HORSE TRAINER DEAD.

A Six Cylinder Parable

By the
BUSINESS MANAGER

New York Standard Press

HERE once was an Automobile Dealer who used all the Six Cylinders in good time, now they are running on Six and Giving her a lot of Extra Gas. When others are Dropping Out they are going Strong. Here's what they say:

Going down hill I use all Six Cylinders.

When we start the Upgrade we absolutely beat the West of our Six Cylinders.

A lot of pessimists say we are in for a business depression this Winter. Those who Discharge their Best Salesmen doubtless will find business slow. But think—how much better it would be for everyone to keep On His Toes and when business shows Signs of Slowing Down, step on the Gas, keep Hitting on All Six—and take the Hill on High!

SOON TO ADJUST PROJECT STATUS

Salmon River District Settlers Accept Report Looking to Settlement

An undertaking promising settlement of all matters in controversy between the bond holders and holders of water contracts under the Salmon River Irrigation project was launched Saturday at a meeting in Hollister of more than 200 contract holders with R. E. Shepherd, manager for Twin Falls North Side project, and Murray Brookman, representing the bond holders.

As a basis of settlement the Whiffnir project designating the lands to be retained within an area of about 30,000 within the project for which patent will be asked, was adopted by the practically unanimous vote.

To Work Out Agreement

The meeting also selected a committee composed of James B. Bolwell, attorney for the Salmon River Irrigation project, T. K. Heston and John W. Graham to cooperate with Mr. Shepherd in working out provisions of an agreement supplemental to the water contract under which all payments of both principal and interest on water contracts will be credited on the contract price of $40 an acre for water rights, in consideration for which the bondholders will waive all interest accrued from April 1, 1911, and date, and settlers will waive all claims for any damage from insufficiency of water supply. No payments of principal of water contracts will be collectable until the expiration of five years under the proposed agreement, and interest payments only will be collected by the bondholders up to that time.

To Reimburse Settlers

Shepherd and Brookman undertook to reach a settlement with holders of contracts covering approximately 21,000 acres excluded from the project by the Whiffnir report, by reimbursement of money actually expended for contracts and improvements by the excluded contract holders.

Assurance is given that patents will be issued by the federal government to the lands retained within the project upon completion of the proposed settlement.

A recent decision of the United States court of appeals at San Francisco holds that there can be no lien for construction costs and that no patent can be issued until lands under the irrigation project are settled and claimed. The secretary of the interior, under this decision, is to be the judge of the completion of reclamation and also of what lands shall be patented.

Shepherd last spring made a similar settlement as between the bondholders and water contract holders of the Idaho Irrigation company project, and Brookman is in charge of working out of the plan there.

IRVING N. KELSEY IS SHOT; FATHER-IN-LAW SURRENDERS

J. P. Wiedenman Delivers Himself to Justice after Sunday's Shooting at Van Buren Street Home in which Garage Man is Killed—Prisoner Accuses Dead Man in Statement to Reporter

"I went into the room where Kelsey sat to speak to him about some village reports he had circulated concerning myself and my daughter and when I looked at him I could not control myself."

This statement, with others all in the nature of confession of a crime committed yesterday afternoon, when Irving N. Kelsey was shot and killed by J. P. Wiedenman, father-in-law, was made by Wiedenman to a News reporter in the county jail this morning. The statements were made in the presence of Deputy Sheriff Robert F. Redmon.

A coroner's jury, impaneled for an inquest held at the county jail this morning, found a verdict which, while not directly attaching responsibility to Wiedenman, finds that the "deceased came to his death by means of gunshot wounds inflicted by a gun believed held in the hands of Mr. Peter Wiedenman."

Jury Reports

The report of the jury, in full, reads:

In the matter of the inquest upon the body of Irving N. Kelsey, we the jury, in the above entitled inquest, being duly impaneled and sworn according to law, find that the name of the deceased was Irving N. Kelsey, of the age of 43; that he came to his death on the 7th day of November, 1920, in Twin Falls county, state of Idaho. The jury finds that the deceased came to his death by means of gunshot wounds inflicted by a gun believed held in the hands of Mr. Peter Wiedenman. To all of which we certify by this our inquisition in writing.

Witnesses Testify

The following witnesses called were: Gladys Kelsey, Elbert Kelsey, daughter and son of the deceased; Dr. H. W. Clouche, who attended Kelsey after the shooting; Mrs. Louis J. Quigley, neighbor and sister-in-law of Kelsey; a neighbor, and Miss Louise Wiedenman, daughter of the accused. Mrs. Kelsey is prostrated over the affair and was unable to testify. All of these witnesses testified that cordial relations had existed between Wiedenman and his son-in-law. The presence of the revolver in the house, witnesses averred, was unknown.

Wiedenman Speaks

In admitting the killing of yesterday Wiedenman told the News representative that various persons about Twin Falls had informed him that Kelsey had made vilifying statements concerning Wiedenman and Kelsey's wife, who is Wiedenman's eldest daughter. He said that after hearing the statements repeated several times he arrived at the conclusion it was time to defend himself and his daughter. With this in mind on Thursday or Friday of last week he purchased a 38-caliber double action revolver at a local sporting goods store. This weapon he admitted using in the attack against his son-in-law yesterday.

Wiedenman displayed ample signs of bitter remorse when interviewed this morning, but insists the act was in defense of the character of both himself and daughter.

Story of Tragedy

The tragedy was enacted shortly after 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Wiedenman surrendering himself voluntarily to the authorities immediately afterwards. Wiedenman has made his home with the Kelseys some time. According to neighbors intimately acquainted with affairs connected with yesterday's tragic deed, Wiedenman, soon after lunch, came out of his bedroom and passed through the kitchen to the living room where Kelsey was seated reading a newspaper. It is stated the elder man ordered his daughter and her two children, a boy and girl, aged respectively 12 and 13 from the house. One of the children is said to have warned the members of the household that "grandpa has got a gun." Mrs. Kelsey, in panic, hastened the children toward the front door, in the effort to escape, while Kelsey started toward Wiedenman, as if to remonstrate with him and attempt to frustrate any designs he might have in mind.

Before Kelsey was able to reach the aged man two shots were fired in quick succession, one ball taking effect in Kelsey's neck, the other immediately below the heart.

Wiedenman Surrenders

Immediately after the shooting Wiedenman, it is said, ran out of the house and over the back fence, to the sheriff's office, where he delivered himself to Mrs. A. N. Sprague, wife of the sheriff, Police Officer W. A. Aust, after Wiedenman appeared and took charge of the man.

Search of Wiedenman Revealed the pistol in his hip pocket while in one of the coat pockets was a note, scribbled almost unrecognizably, but containing a sentence which authorities are said to have taken as an intimation that Wiedenman had been brooding over some supposed wrong and had decided to kill him one. It is said the note contained one statement to the effect that "I've got to kill him."

Wiedenman, who has always worked at laboring pursuits, has been in failing health some time. It is alleged, and the greater part of the past fortnight has been confined to the home.

Irvin N. Kelsey has been employed some time at the "Motel" building as a floorman, and bore the reputation of being reliable and industrious in all of his undertakings. He was at one time employed in the city fire department. Mrs. Kelsey, it is alleged, denied that there had ever been any trouble between her father and her husband.

The report is based on a statement from the observer at Moran, Wyoming, who reports a total stage of 181,940 acre feet of water in the storage reservoir. This is 151,270 acre feet more than at the end of October, 1919, when the total stage was 20,670 acre feet.
