Third and Final Session of the Sixty-Sixth Congress Begins with Senator Harding Holding Center of Interest

GALLERIES CROWDED AS GAVELS FALL AT NOON

WASHINGTON, (P)—The third and final session of the Sixty-sixth congress began here today with President-elect Harding in his seat in the senate. The galleries here to fill early in the day and were crowded when the gavels of Vice-President Marshall and Speaker Gillette fell promptly at noon.

Senator Harding was given a round of applause as he entered the senate chamber just before noon. Speakers rose all over the galleries to obtain a better view of the president-elect, who entered from the republican cloakroom with Senator Lodge, republican leader.

Mr. Harding was surrounded immediately by a crowd of senators who shook his hand and clapped him on the back. The president-elect welcomed his admirers with a broad smile.

Senator Harding spoke briefly and the senate then adjourned without transacting any business to await a communication from President Wilson.

NEW YORK, (P)—Balked in her effort to reach her home in Tomsk, Siberia after traveling more than half the way around the world with a colony of Russian children, in charge of the American Red Cross, Bodolika Korotkina, 8 years old, left New York for San Francisco yesterday on her way to China. She will be cared for in the Orient by the American Red Cross until conditions improve and permit her return.

The little girl passed through New York last September on her way to France after being brought here with several hundred other Russian children, who were war refugees at Vladivostok.

Upon her arrival in France, an effort was made to provide her with a passage home through European Russia, but the plan was given up as unsafe and impracticable.

Appropriation Bills are to be Given Right of Way in Hope of Passing All by March and Having Decks Clear for Other Legislation in Proposed Special Session—Action on Revenue and Taxation Questions Likely to be Postponed

BILLS TO AID FARMERS AND LIMIT IMMIGRATION TO BE TAKEN UP SOON

WASHINGTON, D. C., (P)—Passage of the annual appropriation bills and preliminary work on matters to be handled by the new administration were expected to occupy much of the time for the last session of the Sixty-sixth congress which began today to continue until the inauguration of President-elect Harding on March 4.

Session today were limited to the usual formal ceremonies in the senate and house. Tomorrow the annual message from President Wilson will be received and congress then will get down to the real work of the session. Report from Secretary Houston of the annual federal appropriation estimates, aggregating several billions of dollars, was one of today's events.

Pay Tribute to Dead.

Adjournment until tomorrow out of respect for home members who have died since the closing of the last session in June and to await the president's message, was arranged to follow today's routine. This included the chaplain's prayer, roll call of membership and adoption of resolutions to notify the president and each body of today's assembling. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader, had charge of these resolutions in the senate, and Representative Mondell of Wyoming in the house. Several house members elected to fill vacancies also were sworn in.

GREEK ELECTORS DEMAND RETURN OF CONSTANTINE

LUERNE, Switzerland, (P)—Being returned to the morning received the first direct returns from the plebiscite in Greece on the question of his return to the throne. These advices, from Corfu, announced that this island had recorded itself unanimously in favor of Constantine.

ATHENS, (P)—Returns from the plebiscite held throughout Greece yesterday which was to decide whether the Greek people would recall former King Constantine in the throne made known by the death of his son, King Alexander, appeared to indicate an overwhelming majority in favor of Constantine resuming power as king.

Count Plebiscite Partial.

The vote is being counted as a matter of formality, for the plebiscite was considered farcical in this city and in the country at large. Reports for the nation generally already indicate a majority of 500,000 in favor of Constantine, and claims are made that the entire electorate of 800,000 voted for him. Definite returns from Piraeus show 13,000 in favor of Constantine and only 900 against him.

A crowd estimated at 200,000, in which there were babies, children, women, civil servants, girls, peasants, women from court circles, sailors and soldiers, gathered the night before in Constantinople, near the king's palace, and all worked themselves into a perfect frenzy, throwing confetti, and waving flags of all nations except branches and paintings and photographs of Constantine.

Women Clamor for Vote.

A large part of the crowd was composed of women, who clamored for permission to vote. As they marched along, they chanted madly: "Constantine has promised us the vote."

A demonstration was made in favor of Princess Anastasia and a handsome woman gowned in pale yellow satin appeared on the balcony above the famous Cafe de Brest. While the people applauded, she was heard to cry: "Constantine is coming back."

"Long live the dollar princess" was the answering shout.

It is planned that the liner Patria will return to Constantinople at Brida late this week.

ENGLAND TO STOP GIVING AID: FRANCE PRESENTS BILL

ATHENS, (P)—Great Britain will extend no further financial aid to Greece in case former King Constantine returns to the throne, according to a note presented the Greek government Sunday by Earl Granville, British minister in this city.

The French minister also presented a note to the government demanding the payment of outstanding loans.

Both the notes forbid the issuance by the national bank of a loan of 400,000,000 francs which was demanded under regime of former Premier Venizelos.

"We can only do what the people want," said Premier George Thalis in the course of the two communications.

"The report has received no word from Constantine. I will reply in a few days to the British and French notes."

In Baden, striking bank clerks invaded the town hall, smashed windows and mirrors, and then demolished a number of houses and hotel dining rooms.

REFERS MOOT AMENDMENT TO SUBSEQUENT SESSION

Head of Retiring Delegation Intimates Formal Notice of Withdrawal from Organization Is Forthcoming

GENEVA REGARDS ACTION OF SOUTH AMERICANS AS ERROR IN TACTICS

GENEVA, (P)—Argentine's amendment in the covenant of the league of nations, which caused the delegation of that country to leave the assembly on Saturday morning has been referred to the assembly for consideration at its next meeting, Honorable Pueyrredon, head of the Argentine mission, told the Associated Press today that his delegation would leave for Paris on Wednesday or Thursday.

"Today's decision of the assembly finally settles the question for Argentina. It will make a few calls, give several notices and leave for home the middle of the week. I was willing to consent to the postponement of all Argentine amendments except those regarding the admission of all states and the election of the four elective members of the council, but the assembly has seen fit to resort to a technicality of procedure in a matter vital to the life of the league. I am sure American public opinion is with us in this matter, and I have already received indication of this in a cablegram from Chicago."

Senior Pueyrredon intimated the withdrawal of Argentina from the assembly might be followed shortly by a formal announcement of that country's intention to retire from the league itself.

Stays Attack on Article X.

Consideration of an amendment to the covenant of the league of nations which would eliminate article X has been postponed by the assembly of the league of nations until the next meeting. This amendment, which was proposed by C. J. Doherty, a member of the Canadian delegation, has been referred to a committee, which has been instructed to submit a report when the assembly holds its next session.

The resolution of the Argentine delegation providing that all seven states which remain outside of their own will, shall be recognized as members of the league was the first item on the agenda of the assembly today.

It is possible to take up the report prepared by Rene Viviani of France and N. W. Rowell of Canada on the relations between the assembly and the council of the league.

Hyman Expresses Regret.

After today's session had opened, Paul Hyman, a president, presented Senior Pueyrredon's letter to the assembly, and said he had expressed personally to the head of the Argentine mission his deep regret at the step it had taken.

Lord Robert Cecil, delegate for the Union of South Africa, then took the floor, saying: "If other delegations should be allowed to take the same step when their proposals are not accepted, it would be impossible for the league to make any progress."

"The act of one single country," Lord Robert added, "can diminish our faith in the success of the league after the great work that have been done toward the object in view. All that is needed are courage, candor and consideration for one another."

It is to be noted that virtually every delegate regards Argentina's action as an error in tactics.

After Lord Robert's address, the assembly proceeded to discuss today's agenda which had been referred to the committee.

During the discussion Mr. Doherty said that while the Canadian delegation felt that its amendment was one that might well be discussed now, as the opinion seemed to be that all amendments should be dealt with in the same manner the Canadian delegation would not insist upon immediate consideration of its proposal.

British Meet Opposition.

The report of the committee on relations between the council and assembly, presented by A. J. Balfour, of Great Britain, provoked a long debate in which Lord Robert Cecil, speaking for the delegation of the Union of

COURT UPHOLDS GOVERNMENT IN RAILROAD SUIT

Lehigh Valley Suit Decided in Favor of Government when Charges of Violation of Anti-trust Act are Sustained

WASHINGTON, (P)—The government today won its anti-trust suit against the Lehigh Valley Railroad company and affiliated corporations. The supreme court in a decision read by Associate Justice Clarke, sustained charges of monopoly and violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The court held that charges of violation of the anti-trust clause in the formation of the Lehigh Coal States company had been proven.

Orders Redistribution.

Redistribution of stock of the Lehigh Valley company, asked by the government, was ordered by the court. The government's contention that common stock ownership by officers and directors constituted restraint of trade prohibited by the Sherman act.

Justice McReynolds and Brandeis took no part in the consideration of the case. Justice McReynolds was attorney general while the case was pending.

The court dismissed the case insofar as it applied to the New York and Middle Coal Field railroad; the U. S. Marley company, the Girard Trust company of Philadelphia and the individual officers and directors of the various companies, including the late Geo. F. Buer, Daniel C. Reid, Eben B. Thon, Lewis D. Smith, E. T. Stoteford, George F. Baker and others prominent in the financial and railroad world.

FIVE BILLIONS COST ESTIMATE FACES SESSION

CONTINUING WAR COSTS REFLECTED THROUGHOUT

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Another pessimistic estimate of nearly five billions of dollars for the government's expenses during the fiscal year 1922 faced congress when it reconvened today. The exact figures as transmitted by Secretary Houston were $4,633,856,759, an increase of nearly one billion dollars over the appropriations for the current year, but $211,000,000 less than the estimates submitted a year ago.

War Costs Big Factor

Continuing war costs were directly reflected throughout the estimates, indicating that the government might be on a four billion dollar basis for some years as compared with the one billion dollar maximum preceding the war. The single item of interest on the public debt was almost the pre-war maximum at all appropriations, being $2,250,000,000. In addition, there was an estimate of $265,754,804 for the war debt sinking fund.

Itemized Estimate

The total estimates as given by Mr. Houston follow: Legislative (congress) $9,324,040. Executive (White House and government departments) $1,235,444,379. Judicial (supreme court) $1,680,215. Department of agriculture, $41,989,253.

Foreign intercourse, $11,983,848. Indian affairs, $11,000,703. Postoffice, $355,100,000. Panama canal, $16,187,252. Public works, $250,928,194. Postal service, $285,300,000. Miscellaneous, $1,514,711. Permanent annual appropriations, $1,300,776,361.

Republicans Forecast Cut

These estimates, prepared by the democratic administration, are for the operation of the government during the first fiscal year of the new republican administration. Republican leaders in the senate and house already have forecast a sharp cut in the total and within the week the house committee will begin work.

Included in the estimates for the army and navy is a total of $95,000,000 for development and maintenance of the air service in the two defense branches of the government. The navy asks for $35,000,000 and the army seeks $60,000,000.

Chief among the estimates for the navy is one of $184,000,000 to continue the 1916 three-year building program. Pay for the navy personnel exceeds it by $923,910.

The army's greatest single item is the navy personnel $215,650,830 for the pay and mileage of officers and men. Subsistence cost for the force is estimated at $64,490,995. An appropriation of $74,808,000 is proposed for the national guard.

Expenditures on public works suggested under the war department total $195,134,928 of which $48,097,805 goes to river and harbor development. For improvement and maintenance of military posts, fortifications and other works of defense the army lists $117,123,614.

Ship Board Asks $147,898,520

Included in the miscellaneous items is an estimate of $147,898,520 for the shipping board and one of $100,000,000 for the bureau of war risk insurance.

The program to be carried out by the armed soldiers, sailors and marines under the war risk act, the treasury department seeks appropriations of $432,000,000 for additional hospital and dispensary facilities and $300,000,000 for medical and hospital services. The federal board for vocational education asks $78,000,000 to carry on its work.

The treasury also asks $77,038,000 for the internal revenue department which compares with $43,038,000 spent in the current fiscal year. For prohibition enforcement $7,500,000 is asked.

For Departmental Affairs

Included in the miscellaneous expenditures are other $48,097,805 goes to various departments for the conduct of strictly departmental affairs, some of which follow:

Interest on commerce commission, $2,674,000; federal trade commission, $1,025,000; United States, employes compensation commission and compensation fund, $2,926,840; and railroad labor board $550,000.

Children in Eastern Europe Now Depend on American Food for Life

Life Line at One of the American Relief Administration Kitchens in Lodz, Poland

A million and a half Polish children are being saved from starvation by the gift of American food. Some are too weak to stand in line. They wait, sitting, for the soup and bread that mean life to them. Tens of thousands of children in Poland have tuberculosis, brought on by undernourishment and exposure. Poland is only a shade worse off than Austria and Czechoslovakia. None of them can care for their boys and girls until the harvests of next summer. If this generation of Eastern and Central Europe is to live, America must send food and funds. The work of feeding the children is under the direction of Herbert Hoover, who is chairman of the European Children's Fund, a branch of the American Relief Administration.

"BLOND ESKIMO" COMES WITH-TRADERS TO NOME

Alaskans See Member of Mysterious Tribe Discovered by Stefansson

NOME, Alaska, (AP)—Apukitawwan, a lone man member of the far northern mysterious tribe of "Blond Eskimos" the discovery of which has been credited to Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Canadian explorer, recently was brought by traders to Nome from his southern and the southern shores of Coronation gulf, located on Canada's northern rim. Nome residents thought that only in his dress did he differ from the Eskimos of this region.

Joe Bernard, Nome trader, who brought the "blond" Eskimo out, said he intended to take him to the states to show outsiders what sort of people the strange Eskimos are. The native was of stout build, with copper colored skin, straight black hair and dark brown eyes. Bernard said he was an average example of the males of the "blond" tribe.

Some members of the tribe, Bernard asserted, have reddish brown hair and light eyes. They were strictly hunters, though, however, he thinks to be described as blond. It was recalled here when Apukitawwan arrived, that Stefansson never described the tribe as "blond" and always said newspaper men in the states exaggerated his story and gave his mysterious tribe the name. Stefansson's description was similar to that of Bernard's.

JAPANESE SEE HOPE IN G. O. ADMINISTRATION

Leaders of Finance and Industry Do Not Fear Detrimental Tariff Increases

TOKYO, (AP)—The Japanese newspapers have expressed fears that the republican victory would lead to tariff increases detrimental to Japan, but these fears are not shared by several leaders of finance and industry.

Mr. Kano, vice-minister of finance, does not anticipate that the new administration will immediately revise the tariff. Not only will Japan's trade with America not suffer but after the heat and turmoil of the election campaigns the demand for Japanese goods is likely to increase, he thinks.

Mr. Arimura Sato, ex-ambassador to America, is of the opinion that the republican party has many friends among prominent officials of Japan and expects that existence of this mutual understanding will prove of no small benefit to the future.

Mr. Eijiro Ono, director of the Japan Industrial Bank, said he expected that the republican administration would deal more successfully than its predecessors with the question of post-war financial adjustments. He anticipated a revival of American commerce and industry which would bring about many opportunities for the development of Japanese trade.

Mr. Kano said, "I might rest assured that the republican victory will have good effect on trade and finance."

Discussing the possible effects of the political change on shipping Mr. Atsumi, of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha, said he was confident that whatever the new administration did the Jones' act would be void and he thought discriminatory railroad rates would disappear. This, together with American recovery would stimulate shipping and relieve ship owners to some extent from the present extreme distress.

DEMPSEY K.O'D BY BRENNAN? IT IS POSSIBLE

Such a Feat Would Be a Considerable Upset and Disturb Fistic Nature

By HARRY NEWMAN. NEW YORK (Special).—Has Bill Brennan a chance with Jack Dempsey?

Ordinarily a person who would suggest that Bill has a good chance against the champion would be pegged as a fool.

What an awful upset, what a tragedy in pugilism, so to speak, if Mr. Brennan were to knock Jack sprawling when they meet at Madison Square garden December 14, next.

We don't think that the big Chicago heavyweight has any more chance against Dempsey than a pair of deuces has in a faroer poker game.

Have you thought what such an occurrence would mean to Dempsey? Should Brennan release a knockout haymaker the blow no doubt would cost the title holder close to a million dollars.

Let us look at the situation in a cold, sober way. Brennan is a big man physically, and behind all this bravado there must be concealed his driving force.

It is not unlikely to expect that the champion would take the same kind of a dive that most of his opponents have taken of late.

Chicago Opposes Mitt Bouts Even for Legion Post

Plan to Stage Fistic Bouts in Windy City is Blocked by Authorities

CHICAGO, (AP)—Attempts to publicly stage a boxing bout in Chicago Saturday night for the first time since Joe Gans and Terry McGovern fought about 15 years ago, failed Saturday.

The bout was expected to match scheduled between Pal Morig of Memphis, Tenn., and Jimmy Kelly of Chicago under auspices of the Spanish War Veterans' association.

Chicago officials, however, refused to issue permits for the fight, and the match could not be held.

The announcement caused considerable disorder among the 3000 persons in the building but at no time did they get beyond control.

Brief Bits of Sport

Basses of the Salt Lake ball club, since they have picked up a manager, are now seeking a training place for the team next spring.

Kid Gleason has decided he will stick to the manager job with the White Sox, despite the fact that he is suspected of playing the game last year with the knowledge that most of the members of the star outfit still had played a crooked hand in the 1919 world series.

And it is averred, there is ample chance that Eddie will shift from the Sox.

Poor Jim Flynn. Once a championship contender, now a down-and-out, fighting for meal ticket purses before fraternal clubs.

The once famous Pueblo fireman who boasted ability to take all the way of punishment, was badly beaten in a four-round encounter with Ray McCormick, Briton.

The scrap took place in a coast town, Flynn proving nothing but a battering plank for the British heavyweight.

Babe Ruth writes from Cuba that next season he will bend every energy toward smashing his 1920 home record.

Very commendable, surely, but we've seen a flock of singles in a pinch that were worth more than the same number of homers with nobody on bases.

An eastern writer, speaking of the condition of the White Sox at the end of the year, suggests that Buck Weaver will be very much missed.

We might add, too, say Swede Ribberg, Claude Williams, Eddie Collins, Joe Jack and several others who have been banned from the game.

Somehow or other promoters do manage to bank the public. For instance, recently an eastern impresario of fight things signed Joe Bonds for a bout, and Joe gave a miserable exhibition.

Such matches inevitably do the boxing game serious harm.

BOAT CANCELLED. MILWAUKEE, Wis., (AP)—The ten-day boat race between Willie Jackson of New York and Lew Tendler of Philadelphia, scheduled here on December 14 has been called off, it was announced here. Jackson injured his shoulder in his recent bout with Johnny Dundee, and will be fitter for a month.

WINTER BASEBALL. SAN DIEGO, Cal., (AP)—Teams from Los Angeles, San Diego, San Pedro and San Bernardino are entered in the Southern California Winter league recently organized. Players from many leagues are with the teams.

Ask Americans to Finish the Job in Europe

By Maude A. White

The appeal of boys and girls like this Polish girl has touched American profoundly since the Armistice.

Mothers and fathers here could not bear of hungry children in Eastern and Central Europe without contrasting the lot of their own happy boys and girls with those pitifully starving in countries made ungodly by war.

Thousands of these tots who are being fed by American Relief Administration European Children's Fund kitchens today will grow up to tell their children how American food saved their lives.

These children, two and a half million of them in Poland, the Baltic States, Austria and Czechoslovakia, must be cared for through this winter, unless previous relief is to go for naught.

Herbert Hoover's European Children's Fund is caring for them, but January on the world must stop unless the American people say by popular subscription that they want it to continue.

Mr. Hoover says that $2,000,000 will finish the job.

CONFLICT IN PORTUGAL OVER GRANTING AMNESTY

Agitation For and Against Monarchists and Other Political Prisoners Aroused Sharp Discussion

LISBON, (AP)—Agitation for and against amnesty for monarchists and other political prisoners has aroused sharp discussion throughout Portugal.

The movement in favor of granting amnesty was brought more emphatically to the public notice and the other day by the announcement of Seneca Jacinto Nunes that he would withdraw from his seat in parliament until amnesty was granted to political prisoners.

Many of these have been imprisoned for scarcely two years.

Senator Nunes has been elected a member of the senate ever since the proclamation of the republic in Portugal, and his republicanism is considered unimpeachable.

The Senate reports that the political exiles in France and Spain are preparing to present to the Portuguese legations in those countries proposals promising that they will never again promote or participate in political or subversive movements in Portugal and that they considered such actions harmful to the national interest.

WAR PRISONERS HELD BY RUSSIANS ON WAY HOME

Shanghai Bore Former Captives Being Taken from Vladivostok to the Port of Triest

SHANGHAI, (AP)—Approximately 5000 former German, Austrian and Hungarian soldiers, who were taken prisoners on the eastern front when Russia fell, are actively engaged in the war and who now are being sent back to their homes, passed through the port of Shanghai in the months of September and October.

Those former captives who are captives were being transported from Vladivostok to the port of Triest on three vessels.

The work of repatriation is being directed in Siberia by an American war repatriation committee, representing the American Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A. and allied agencies.

Agents of this committee who came to Shanghai with the purpose of chartering ships for the purpose of transporting them for the work in hand said that in September about 20,000 men, who had been held as war prisoners were still in Siberia and were being brought to Vladivostok to be sent home.

CHINESE BUILD BIGGEST BOAT FOR U. S. SHIP BOARD

SHANGHAI, (AP)—The colossal, the second of two 11,500 ton cargo carriers, that the United States shipping board has built in China—the biggest ships ever built in a Chinese shipyard—will leave on its maiden voyage as the work of making the ship ready for sea, following its launching in August was near completion in September.

The Mandarin was the first of the four boats of the contract to take the water, and the Cathay and the Oriental are now under construction.

TAHITIANS FAITHFUL TO THEIR AGE OLD CUSTOM

Boyal Rotarians Carry Bodies of Dead Kings and Chiefs from Christian Graves into Hills

PAPEETE, Tahiti, (AP)—Recent returns of Tahiti, faithful to their age old customs, have, according to native rumors, carried the bodies of their dead kings and chiefs from their Christian graves in the Tahiti lowlands back into the hills to the secret caves where their ancestors had been buried in accordance with old traditions.

Before the missionaries came, bodies of kings and chiefs and powerful warriors were embalmed, wound in plaited mats and hidden in caves.

Since the missionaries arrived, there has been a small graveyard in the district Arue where the kings and queens have been given Christian burials.

But the rumor is that a small clan of royal retainers, on dark nights, have taken the bodies far back into the hills to rest forever with their ancestors.

PETE, HERE'S WORD FROM THE WOODS!

Certainly slipped on not tipping you that Mr. Bacon invited me to join his shooting party up here.

Arrived at his Northeast Carry camp at sunset yesterday. And a riot started before we squared up to the venison steak! Listen, old bull pup—my tale's short!

Bleak Nixon, chief guide, while unpacking, made the terrible discovery that all the Camel cigarette supplies had been swiped in transit!

Never heard such a howl as the whole outfit set up! Nixon swore in Indian-plus-Caucus! Just wouldn't be pacified! Bleak's been rooting for Camels since November, 1915.

Says there never was such smoothness, or refreshing flavor, or mild body in a cigarette as Camels provide! (Pete, Bleak is O. K. on that). While the row was on what does Nixon do but hop into his canoe and disappear into the depths of the dark, dank night!

About three this morning there was a roar such as no man ever heard in the wild woods! It was Nixon yelling like a double-decked bull moose!

That bird had crossed the lake, picked up a trail and beat it to a little way-back store where he got the boss out of bed and made him come across with all the Camels he had.

The storekeeper kicked like a handful of acres—but, Bleak always gets what he goes after! It's the nerve, old tooth! And, now we're all filled with the milk of human kindness and Camel contentment! We'll get game!

Peter, think of digging up a bunch of Camels in the depth of Maine's densest woods! And, that's the way it is all over the U. S. A. I You're never out of luck when you smoke Camels! Peter, old hub, I've spoken—as the cook puts it!

HARDING TELLS SENATE OF HOPE OF COOPERATION

President-elect Speaks to Colleagues in Response to Ovation; Avoids Detailed Questions of Policy

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A day of cooperation and friendly relations between the White House and congress was forecast by President-elect Harding in a short address from the floor of the senate.

Though disclaiming any desire to criticize the present administration, Mr. Harding declared it one of the ambitions of his four years as chief executive to insure better team work between the two branches of the government.

The speech which did not touch on detailed questions of policy, was delivered by the president-elect in response to an ovation that greeted him when he went to the senate chamber in his capacity as a senator and answered to the opening roll call of the new session.

Senator Harding rose to speak after Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the republican leader, had called attention formally, to his presence and asked that he be recognized by the senate.

"I am pleased at this greeting by fellow members of the senate," said Mr. Harding.

"No member of this body could be more reluctant to leave it. I may say to this senate that I came here with very high respect for this body, and I am leaving it with greater respect than that with which I came.

If one could direct his own political fortunes to his liking, I should have preferred my membership here to any office a citizen may hold in this republic or elsewhere in the world.

Co-operation Not Surrender "I like the freedom, the association, the patriotic sense of responsibility which abides here. I am conscious of the great place which congress holds under our constitution, and particularly sensitive to the obligations of the senate.

When my responsibilities began in the executive capacity I shall be as mindful of the senate's responsibilities as I have been zealous of them as a member, but I mean, at the same time, to be just as insistent upon the responsibilities of the executive. Our governmental good fortune does not lie in any surrender at either end of the avenue, but in the co-ordination and co-operation which will bring to us the great and truly representative popular government.

"This brings me to the thought particularly in mind. Something has begun to stir about the senatorial oligarchy. Of course, everyone here knows that to be a bit of high imaginative and harmless fiction. But I do recognize how essential is the help of the senate in the making of a successful administration.

Asks Opposition Support "I want to express today the wish of a colleague for the confidence and the co-operation of the members of this body in the four years which begin next March 4. I do not mean to beg a request to this side of the aisle. One cannot promise agreement in all things with an opposite party which is sometimes insistently wrong, but we may find common ground in the spirit of service, and I hope for that agreeable and courteous and oft-times helpful relationship with the opposite side which has added to the delights of fellow service during the past six years.

"We are facing no easy task. We have our full part in the readjustment of human affairs, after the world tumult. We have our tasks at home, we have our part in the inevitable work of the civilized world.

Would Not Waste Time "With propriety I cannot venture upon any suggestions now, even though I am speaking as a member of this body. Three months of the present administration remain, and we will have house and senate join cordially in making them fruitful rather than wasted months. There is so much to be done, and we have so much to be done, that I should like unanimous recognition that there are no party-ends to serve, but precious days are calling for service to our common country.

"I cannot resist the temptation of my regret that my association in the floor and in committee rooms is ending to day. Let me express the hope to one and all that, though there comes a change in officials, the spirit which will not interrupt our co-operation nor deprive us of the personal fellowship which I have found to be a great compensation for the sacrifices of conscientious public service."

election, none of the new senators or representatives taking their seats until after March 4. The senate will convene at the first regular session of the present congress. Committees were organized, except for a few vacancies and enlargement of the house appropriations committee from 35 members under the new house rule centralizing all appropriation bills in the committee.

Repeal Legislation Pending. The senate's unfinished business, the repeal of the tariff, with projected discussion in prospect, included the Keaton-Kendrick bills to regulate the meat packers and other adjuncts of the public bill was expected to be the vehicle for numerous speeches and other debate by senators on political events, domestic and foreign, and many other subjects. The bills also had many bills waiting on its calendar.

Although all pending bills die when congress adjourns in March, little legislation has been passed in the present session by leaders. The appropriation bills, originating in the house, were to be given right of way, in the hope of passing all by March and having the senate ready for its legislative session in the proposed special session of the new congress next April. Many new bills and resolutions were ready for introduction, however.

Wilson's Policy Puzzles. With general expectation that wishes of President-elect Harding and other republican leaders would prevail regarding legislative action during the present session, an immediate move regarding American international relations was contemplated by republican leaders. There was much speculation today among returning members of congress whether President Wilson would return the treaty of Versailles to the senate.

Treaties before the senate foreign relations committee, without prospect of early action, were the Polish treaty, the League of Nations, the American Protocol for protection of France and the treaty with Columbia. The Austrian treaty has not yet been submitted by President Wilson.

Recent tariff taxation questions are to be given early consideration of senate and house leaders and committees, but general sentiment appears to be for the repeal of the tariff. Preliminary work on bills to revise tariff and internal revenue probably will be started during the present session.

Bills to aid agriculturists, limit immigration and make a congressional reapportionment are among those to be considered by the senate. The census committee already has begun work on a tentative reapportionment bill and the house immigration committee on a measure to restrict immigration.

Investigation Figures. Continuation of several old and the launching of several new congressional investigations also are planned. The senate committee investigating housing conditions and the house committee inquiring into shipping board affairs are to be continued, according to present plans. The senate committee, headed by Senator Underhill, which has been investigating political campaign contributions and activities, is expected to file its report soon. The senate privileges and ethics committee's inquiry into the Newberry-Pord senatorial election contest, in Michigan also is pending, but is not expected to have concluded until after dissolution of Senator Newberry's appeal to the supreme court from his conviction of violating the election laws.

Hundreds of nominations, including many recess appointments, are to be sent to the senate, some by President Wilson, but republican leaders declare privately that there is little chance of confirmation of many of the appointments. Officers nominated will hold over and function, but with the virtual certainty prospect having successors appointed by the new republican president and confirmed by the next senate.

The session which began today was the third of the Sixty-sixth congress. The first, the special session convened May 19 and adjourned Nov. 19, 1919, and the second, which began December 1, adjourned last June 5 before the national political conventions.

30ISE IS MENTIONED IN LEGION'S DENUNCIATION

World War Veterans' Organization Condemns Agitation Against Locations of Hospitals

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Denunciation of agitation for various localities against locations of hospitals for ex-service men, particularly tuberculosis sanitariums, was made Saturday night by the American Legion's national legislative committee. The Legion from "the national commander on down to the lowliest buck privater in the ranks is going to bat" against "mercenary middlemen whose patriotism died when the hands quit playing," the statement said.

"In Boise, Idaho, is a hospital of at least 200 beds which the public health service has leased," it continued. "Powerful local influences object to the treatment of tuberculosis there and prefer a removal station inland. These have come to a pretty pass when horses are to be taken care of in preference to disabled American soldiers."

The committee said it had been advised that 450 "tubercular ex-service men at Tucson, Arizona, were destitute and without shelter."

REFERS MOOT AMENDMENT (Continued from Page One) South Africa, came into conflict for the first time in a full session of the senate with the British delegation.

Lord Robert objected to the limitation upon the competence of the assembly, recommended by the committee. He said this would prevent the assembly from considering such important questions as disarmament and man dates. The South African delegation was unable to accept the report without modification, he declared.

Lord Robert offered an amendment declaring that either the council or the assembly would have the right to examine any question within the jurisdiction of the league. This was adopted and the report as amended was then approved by the assembly.

PRELATE SEEKS TO BRING ABOUT PEACE IN IRELAND

Bishop of Perth, Australia, is Chief Intermediary Working in Conformity with Plans of British Premier

DUBLIN, (AP)—Determined efforts to bring about an early peace in Ireland are being made here. Conversations have been in progress for a week, and hope was expressed last night by some of those engaged in the negotiations that within another week a tangible basis of settlement might be reached.

Works with Premier. The chief intermediary at work is the Rev. Patrick Joseph Clune, bishop of Perth, Australia, who is understood to have been selected by Premier Lloyd George to sound out Sinn Fein sentiment, and prepare, if possible, the ground on which a foundation for the peace talks can be laid.

Monsignor Clune, who is a native of County Clare, and arrived in Ireland last August, and has made a number of trips back and forth to England. He is stated to be associated with Premier yesterday that negotiations still were progressing, but that it was too soon to make any positive prediction relative to their success. He declared, however, he cherished great hopes and expressed confidence a truce could be arranged before Christmas. He is exercising full powers of mediation and arbitration to achieve this end.

To Meet Greenwood. Monsignor Clune planned to have a final interview today with Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, who made a special week-end trip to the island in connection with the peace movement. The Australian prelate expects to go to London tonight or tomorrow to report on the result of his work to Premier Lloyd George. Every facility to carry out his mission has been given him by the government, he said, and he was so free from espionage that he has talked not only with Arthur Griffith and other republican nationalist leaders, but with men in the active element of the Sinn Fein movement on whom the government is trying its utmost to lay its hands.

Arranges Preliminaries. "It is too early to make public what has thus far been done," the prelate said. "Whether my efforts bear fruit is for London to determine, for it is there peace must be made, and not in Ireland. My work has been merely to try to arrange the preliminary conditions which will know, perhaps within a week, as to whether it has been successful."

TIMES SEES BREAK IN BRITISH SINN FEIN RELATIONS. LONDON, (AP)—Unofficial relations between members of the British ministry and Sinn Fein leaders have been entirely interrupted, says the London Times, commenting on rumors of peace negotiations in Ireland.

"An eminent Irish writer," says the Times, recently furnished Premier Lloyd George with information that had been contained in official reports, but the arrest of Arthur Griffith, which was made without the knowledge or consent of the cabinet, if it did not actually interrupt exchanges or views.

"Discussions that had been going on have not involved any question of the handling of the government's plan, the issue being an amendment of that measure in a direction of fiscal and financial autonomy, provided that after a truce was arranged the majority of the Irish electorate in the six counties of Ulster should indicate readiness to accept the measure thus amended."

"Though one phase of the negotiations may have broken down, the government is still exploring such avenues toward peace as may still be open. It is clear influences inimical to any Irish settlement are seeking deliberately to obstruct the government's plan. It has been suggested Premier Lloyd George has acted behind the backs of his colleagues, and that any dealing with leaders of the popular movement in Ireland will incur strong disapproval from one section of the coalition cabinet."

THE CANDY BOX

(These recipes are of tried and proven value and should be clipped daily for permanent preservation by readers. Suitable recipes and formulas for your favorite confections may appear any day. Watch for it.)

FONDANT

2 pounds of granulated sugar; 1/2 cupful of water; 1-4 teaspoonful of cream of tartar.

Formula. Stir the ingredients over a slow fire until the sugar is dissolved. Wipe the sides of the pan down with a damp cloth. Continue to cook until the mixture forms a soft ball when tested in cold water.

Remove from the fire and pour quickly over a large, chilled platter. Do not scrape the pan or allow the candy to drip from it into the platter. Let it stand until nearly cool before striking it, with a wooden spoon. Work it to the center of the platter, and when it becomes stiff it should be kneaded with the hands until it is very smooth. Let it stand a few hours and then pack it down in a bowl, covered with a damp cloth. Should it turn out grainy it can be reworked. This fondant will keep for a long time and can be used in many ways and colored to suit.

WHY COAL MUST BE CASH

The freight on a ton of coal costs more than the coal and the freight is spot cash.

The margin of profit is so small that if it is necessary to send a collector the dealer loses money on the transaction.

The dealer wants to keep the price down to the lowest level consistent with a fair profit. To do this, he must eliminate every unnecessary expense.

He is forced to eliminate interest—bookkeeping expenses—and collection expense and that is why coal must be paid for on delivery.

There is not a dealer in the city, but who would gladly extend credit accommodations if there was a big enough margin, like in other lines, to justify the extra expense that credit entails, but this is out of the question as it would make the cost of coal prohibitive.

This pay-on-delivery rule applies to everybody alike. There is no exception. It makes no difference what a man is worth. It is not a question of a person's ability to pay. It is simply a question of the dealer keeping his expenses down so that he can keep the price down and it is just as easy to pay the driver as it is a collector.

A GREAT AID TO PROGRESS

No other product of man's genius has proved generally beneficial in so many different ways as has the automobile. It is a utility of the highest value, a convenience the importance of which cannot be overestimated.

Somebody complained the other day that so much is spent for luxuries charitable enterprises are starved, specifying among the "luxuries" automobiles for the purchase of which the United States is credited with paying $2,000,000,000 a year.

The automobile has waked up the country as nothing else has. It is responsible for more public improvements for the common benefit than anything else. The gradually emerging good roads system of this land is to be credited to it.

SHORTAGE OF POSTAL WORKERS

The shortage of postal workers disclosed in the United States civil service commission's announcement of the weekly examinations to fill vacancies is attributable to the low salaries paid. There is hope, however, that the sympathy which the public has for these hard-working employes of the government will lead to further improvement in their pay.

Compelled to face every sort of weather, burdened at the holiday seasons and on special occasions like political campaigns, when material is sent through the mails in such large quantity, by heavy packs, the letter carriers have no easy task. The people realize that they are entitled to more generous salaries than are now paid.

HAITIAN RULER ESCHEWS POMP FOR INTERVIEW

President Dartigueave Treats American Newspaper Men to Good Five Cent Cigars and Brings Copy Paper

PORT AU PRINCE, (AP)—The president of the republic of Haiti, Philip Dartigueave, sat for nearly two hours in the reception room of his palace the other day and discussed with the American newspaper correspondents the troubles and hopes of his people.

Toward the end he became extremely emphatic and bitter in denunciation of some of the American officials with whom, as president, he must deal.

(In that interview the president said the American civil administration in Haiti was "more oppressive than the military," criticized the acts of the American minister, Bailly Blanchard, and John McHenry, the financial adviser, and said no serious measure had been proposed with a view to placing Haiti's finances on a truly solid basis.

Speaks for Publication. The president was speaking directly for publication. After each sentence he hesitated while the palace interpreter translated from French into English, and he hesitated again until his words had been put down. A lieutenant colonel of marines, attached to the army of occupation, now trying to lead Haiti into better paths, sat beside him all out.

The room was as bare as the parlor of a boarding house in some big industrial center. A cypress table of the president was the single wall decoration. Two pieces of furniture that might serve as hat racks stood against the wall, and ranged around green rows of ordinary wicker were probably a dozen chairs precisely like those found in the dining rooms of hundreds of humble American homes.

Nothing to suggest the honored idea that a palace of a president is filled with priceless things. They are making handsome rosewood fixtures in France for the palace, not yet completed, but as it stands today it is bare to a degree.

No Mistress of Palace. The mit on the president's back was in keeping with his living surroundings. It would not bring $20 anywhere in the United States. Dartigueave is a bachelor, around 55 years of age. He and his brother, the secretary of the interior, live alone. There is no mistress of the palace.

After the interview had drifted along slowly for upward of an hour the marine officer, with whom the president is on most intimate and friendly terms, broke in to ask if he might not smoke. Instantly the president, gracious and smiling, was on his feet, and stepping briskly out of the room, returned quickly with a box of cigars. The big, white, wrapped President Marcellin had declared he was anxious to see come back into fashion—good 5-cent cigars.

Characteristic Incident. Interviewing a president often is a hard boiled proposition, but not so in Haiti. One incident illustrates Dartigueave's lack of pomp. A reporter, scratching willy, called for copy paper, and before a fellow worker could give all, the president of Haiti again on his feet and from the cabinet room nearby. You can't beat that for presidential hospitality.

When the interview ended the president phoned his visitors through the palace, which soon will be stage for social happenings. There are great reception halls and promenades and bath rooms bigger than the place in which the average American sleeps. The palace was planned as a palace, but it requires a wide stretch of imagination to figure it out as one. But it suits Dartigueave, a man of simple tastes, who says his one dream is of the day that some time will come when his people can manage their own affairs in peace and contentment.

Dreaming of the Wind. To dream of the wind blowing signifies opposition and illness. If it blows your hat away, it's a sign you will want to go away because of a shortcoming of yours. To dream of hearing the wind blow foretells illness of someone very close to you. If you are caught in a storm of wind, you will have some harrowing experience very soon. To dream of seeing a windmill is a sign you will have a loss—Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Only Apteryx in England is No More—Wingless Bird is Believed Nearly Extinct.

The total extinction in England of the kiwi (or apteryx) has become a reality. The London Daily Mail announces the death of the Regent's park zoo's only specimen. The species is nearly extinct in New Zealand now, but the British Zoological society has written to the New Zealand government asking if just one more kiwi can be spared from the island sanctuary. Zoologists will mourn the loss of the dwarf wingless ostrich more than the zoo visitors, for not only is it a native ever seen in the world there more than nine years. The keeper would turn out this queerest of birds every now and then, but the long-billed bundle of apathy and sleepiness scrambled back into its box as soon as released.

England is responsible for the virtual extinction of this rare bird. British ships brought rats to New Zealand, so weasels were sent to exterminate the rats. When they had nearly wiped out the kiwi, the New Zealand government found a ratless island and conserved it to the point here. But the problem of saving an ill bird that puts all its eggs into one shell, so to speak, was a difficult one. The kiwi laid one egg a season, nearly as big as itself. Exceptional mothers would lay two eggs and then find it almost impossible to hatch both, as the ends would project out beyond their feathers as they sat on them.

QUALITY SEEDS GROWN IN IDAHO

Winings at Chicago Show Support Department Contentment of Excellence

"That Idaho took eight places, including two firsts and two seconds, in small seed competitions against the world at the International Hay and Grain Show at Chicago, lends point to the statement frequently made by this office that Idaho leads the nation in production of high quality seeds," said C. B. Ahlson, assistant field agronomist of the university extension division, and deputy state seed commissioner.

"Idaho seeds excel both in color and viability and are eagerly sought by the seed trade throughout the country."

"These winings also added additional significance to the approaching Idaho seed show, to be held in Nampa, January 10 to 14, which is expected, will be the largest seed show ever held west of the Mississippi."

"Walter Weaver, who won second on white spring wheat at Chicago, is a lad barely 12 years of age, who enrolled in a wheat club at Ellers last year, in the farm bureau junior club work, and obtained 200 pounds of pure Dicklow seed from Carl D. Irwin. He won first in the open competition at the Twin Falls county fair, and then at Boise and won first at the state fair, in open competition with 91 Idaho seed growers."

"Dicklow wheat, which brought these honors to Idaho, is the favorite southern Idaho variety on irrigated lands. Credit for its premier position belongs more to Mr. Irwin, who took third place at Chicago, than to any other one man in a considerable period of years. Mr. Irwin, on his farm at Kimberly, has been hand selecting each year enough seeds to plant an acre seed plot, and has bred up this variety until the yield averages 40 bushels to the acre more than the wheat ordinarily grown on South Idaho farms. It has been distributed throughout Twin Falls county, where it was estimated to have cost $100,000 the value of last year's yield; and it has been distributed quite generally throughout the irrigated sections of southern Idaho and has been sold in carload lots in Kansas, Idaho, Washington, and in sections of Utah."

"Idaho's Grimm alfalfa is known and sought throughout the middle west and east. A representative of state farm bureaus of several western and eastern states makes periodical visits to Idaho to buy this and other seeds. Alfalfa of this variety survives hard winters which freeze out less hardy varieties. One of the best alfalfas raised by the Idaho Seed Growers' Association has set itself to protect Idaho's Grimm seed from misrepresentation and adulteration."

"The Parkey Bell prize, taken by a Fairfield farmer, brings new recognition to Camas county, a newly-developing, dry-land seed section."

ASHTON-CRESS GO HEADS BILL COMING FRIDAY

Lightweight Mitt Artists to Stage Windup Six Round Bout for Club

On Friday night of this week the Twin Falls Athletic club will stage a series of boxing bouts between local mid-weighters. The program is scheduled to provide 26 rounds, including the battles being from four to eight stanzas. Every participant is a local resident with a banking for success. The program will be held in Lawrence theater.

The main bout will be between Lloyd Ashton and Bill Cress, a brace of ambitious lightweighters. Cress recently defeated a local youth but was disqualified for hitting his nose when the latter was down. Cress weighs 123 and Ashton 135 pounds. They will go from six to eight rounds.

Local Averitt and Slim Floyd, 125 and 120 pounds, respectively, will go from 4 to 6 rounds while John Kirkman and I. J. Dougherty, 135 pounders; and Vernon Wiltman and Harry Hoffman, 129 pounders, are billed for four round battles. Tickets will go on sale at Macaulay's Thursday morning.

Elliott Slimp preached a stirring sermon on the subject, "How Shall We Escape If We Neglect to Great a Salvation?" The night will be a service for men, the men having charge of the music. The Rev. # SLOW IS PROGRESS OF RAMSEYER TRIAL

Examination Drags when Counsel Engages in Forensic Clashes

Slow progress is being made with the trial of the H. F. Ramseyer murder case at the International Hay and Grain Show at Chicago, Monday, the opening of the re-hearing Saturday only four witnesses have been examined. The fifth, Kildrey Abel, was on stand at noon, his examination having occupied all morning.

The state has called an even 40 witnesses for testimony, in the J. R. Alch killing case, and at the present rate of progress the case will drag nine days longer.

The trial is marked by constant clashes between the opposing counsel, lawyers for the defense deprecating their main attention to the possible impeachment of state witnesses. Haranguing witnesses is frequent in the conduct of examination, with counsel at grips most of the time on questions of law procedure.

Kildrey Abel, son of the man, shot last April by Ramseyer, today was placed on the stand to testify as to the causes that led to the shooting. On cross-examination by Attorney Turner K. Hackman witness was subjected to a rigid memory test in review of the testimony he gave at the preliminary examination. He failed to recall much of the testimony attributed to him at that hearing, this fact prolonging his tenure of the witness chair.

On Sunday, Hilma Abel, another son of the dead man, was on stand in connection with his father and Ramseyer at the canal headgate where the tragedy occurred. He testified that Ramseyer was named.

Dr. F. A. Dwight, physician of Ellers, who attended Abel after the shooting, testified as to the nature of the wound, the point of the missile's entrance and the extent of the injury, and of subsequent death on May 3. Judge F. A. Walters is assisting the prosecution.

WATER DISTRICTS GIVEN ENDORSEMENT

Murtagh Land Owners Almost Unanimously Favor Reclamation Plan

An advanced step toward reclamation of a tract of approximately 50,000 acres situated above the irrigation system of the Twin Falls Canal company, known as the Murtagh tract, was taken Saturday when resident landholders endorsed by vote of 78 to 2 the proposition submitted to election for the formation of the Murtagh irrigation district.

At the same time district directors were elected as follows: District No. 1, Frank Somen; district No. 2, James H. Hennen; district No. 3, D. B. Billo. Mr. Somen was unopposed in the election and received a total of 71 votes. Mr. Barnes defeated T. T. Rutledge, 59, and Mr. Billo was elected over Ray Kemp, 57 to 24.

Application for permission to organize the district, so that plans could be made for lifting water from the Mill river reservoir, was recently presented to the board of county commissioners and permission granted. Hearing on the application brought out considerable opposition. In general the scheme was considered feasible.

MANY CASES FILED IN DISTRICT COURT

The following cases have been filed in the district court since Saturday noon:

B. B. Hutchings against Charles Dunn, on two promissory notes aggregating $440; by the Devereux Mortgage company against Mary E. Miller and Elliott A. Miller; judgment for $968.33 growing out of a promissory note; T. G. Mays against J. A. Munson, judgment for $100 alleged to be due on debt.

Notice of appeal to the supreme court has been given in the case of Thomas M. Robertson against the First National bank and H. S. Corning; and in the case of H. S. Corning against the First National bank of Twin Falls and Thomas M. Robertson. The actions involve possession of stock in the Twin Falls Hotel company. The district court recently decided against Robertson in both instances.

Motion for a new trial of the J. K. Wain alleged fraud case, has been filed in the district court. Wain was recently found guilty of obtaining money by fraud and forgery.

INSANITY HEARING.

This afternoon in the probate court an insanity hearing is being conducted in the case of H. S. Corning, directed to examine Paul Jones, a young man against whom his paternal parent has preferred charges. The father, in an information filed last week, alleged that the young man is mentally incompetent.

CHARITY THEME OF ELKS SPEECH

Annual Memorial Exercises are Marked by Short but Heart-Stirring Address

Heroic achievements may not leave a lasting trace upon the memory of time, but deeds of pure benevolence, charity and generosity by man to man can never be erased from memory.

The sentiment, expressed by T. Bailey Lee of Burley at memorial exercises conducted yesterday afternoon, prefaced address dedicated to departed members of Twin Falls lodge No. 182, B. P. O. E. which abounded throughout with similar thought expressive of the basic principle accredited to the great fraternal order.

Bespoken the charity of the organization the speaker quoted a line from the ritual of the lodge: "The faults of our brothers we write upon the sands, Their virtues upon the tablets of love and memory."

Charity Lives Forever.

The orator of the occasion did not speak at extraordinary length, in fact the speech was, for the most of those attending the annual exercises, all too short. He demonstrated a well defined ability, however, to say much in few words, generally relying upon apt epithets rather than lengthy passages. He spoke briefly upon the deeds men have wrought that mark the heroism inherited after death, comparing the achievements of such men as Benjamin Franklin, whose gift to man was declared to be of an immortalizing nature, with Julius Caesar, who in his deeds live only in history, and he said, are remembered only as personal achievements.

The law of man should be the law of kindness, the speaker declared, charging that men today are not taking the time to cultivate each other. He gloried the law of the survival of the fittest as the law of the bruter, declaring that the only just law between man and man is the law of kindness and the religion of love. He deplored the education of brains that built up the material structures, but only to tear down through deploration in the workshop the mind and soul of workers.

"Man never needed the sustaining charity and benevolence of his fellow men more than now," the speaker averred directing to the apparent loss of brother love in the mighty cataclysm of blood and tears through which the world has just passed, and from which the whole of the human race is now reaping a harvest of bitterness. In a prophetic moment the orator declared that universal charity and generosity will some day be the ruling influence, when war will be more, and the material reward is sorry recompense or encouragement for high practices and noble deeds. The speaker closed with his address with an urgent word in remembrance of the men who have passed that place unknown from whose bourne no traveler returns. To forget is to die, to remember is to live.

HAVE PASSED ON.

Calling of the annual roll shows the following members to have departed this life: The past year: George M. Dow, T. A. Harrison, L. M. Dow, Chester C. Baird, H. H. Goldsworthy, William Travers, G. F. Baker.

Officers of the Elks' lodge, most of whom participated in yesterday's sorrow ceremony, are: O. P. Duvall, exalted ruler; H. R. Grant, esteemed leading knight; Paul R. Taber, esteemed loyal knight; Herbert Leatough, esteemed lecturing knight; Herman Deins, secretary; H. L. Maxwell, treasurer; H. J. Benoit, squire; J. W. C. Deake, tiler; J. L. Dilworth, chaplain; C. L. Bowen, inner guard.

The ritual customary on these occasions was observed by the lodge, all officers being in their respective stations. The whole of the ceremony was presided over by Exalted Ruler O. P. Duvall. Music of an appropriate nature was provided by the regular Presbyterian church quartet, with Miss Gladys Orr at the organ. Carl H. Ott, director of chorus music at the high school, gave an organ recital. The quartet is composed of Mrs. O. P. Duvall, soprano; Mrs. W. Zenas Smith, contralto; Clarence Beatty, tenor; Eng. Olson, basso.

The services drew one of the most notably large attendances in the history of the local Elks' lodge. The vast auditorium of the church was filled. The meeting throughout, both as to ritualistic work, addresses and music supplied was extraordinarily inspiring.

BABCOCK SUSTAINED BY SUPREME COURT

In Case of Crom and Others Against Canal Company Lower Court Upheld

An official copy of the decision of the supreme court in the cases of J. A. Crom and others vs. John Frahm and others, and T. P. Warner and others vs. John Frahm and others, has just been received in Twin Falls.

The supreme court in these cases has sustained in a certain act of the assembly of 1917. The stockholders requested the directors to take some action to test the legality of that law and all amendments to the article of incorporation and bylaws, but the directors, under advice of counsel, took the position that it was not proper for the directors to take any action in the matter. The result of this was that Mr. Crom and other stockholders employed counsel to bring an action to test the validity of the act of the assembly and the action of Dr. White and his associates in attempting to enforce that act, and made the Canal company a defendant. Mr. Warner and others did likewise, by bringing an action of a different character, but for the same purpose, also making the Canal company a defendant.

Turner K. Hackman was employed as attorney on behalf of Mr. Crom and others and Mr. Warner and others. In the trial of these two cases in the district court, Judge Babcock decided the cases in favor of the plaintiffs, Crom and Warner, by holding that the notice of the meeting was insufficient and that the act of the assembly which was brought into question did not authorize such action as was taken at the special meeting. The supreme court, however, has now reversed that decision and has rendered its decision in favor of Crom et al and Warner et al by holding that the act of the assembly is unconstitutional, null and void and that the action taken by the Canal company under said law is void, according to the supreme tribunal's decision.

Messrs. Wolfe and Martin intervened in the case on behalf of Frahm et al and J. R. Bothwell represented the Canal company. Judge Bothwell, on behalf of the Canal company, moved to dismiss the cases in the supreme court. This motion was resisted on behalf of Crom and Warner upon the ground that the stockholders of the Canal company were entitled to a decision of this question on its merits. The court in passing on this phase of the question, decided that as Crom had executed a $1000 injunction bond to pay costs, damages and counsel fees if the injunction was dissolved, that the case should not be dismissed but passed upon on its merits.
