LEAGUE COUNTS UPON TIME TO REMEDY DEFECT

Assembly Discusses Plans for Part to be Taken in Organization by Armenia and Former Russian States

CONTINUES EFFORTS TO SECURE WORKING BASIS

GENEVA. (AP)—Plans for co-operation on technical organizations of the league of nations by representatives of Armenia and former Russian states, though these states are not admitted to full membership in the league, were discussed by the assembly of the league here today.

Seeks Working Basis

The assembly also continued the work of laying a working basis for the league which would enable it to function as efficiently as possible, pending the time when it gets a clear conception of the various matters and note the practical effects of the intricate system by which the assembly and council deal with all other.

The most enthusiastic supporters of the league now are in Armenia, which is the only one of the four general principles enunciated by the committee as a working basis.

Decision was reached by the committee on relations between the assembly and council and council had agreed to apply this policy to the entire league, and in that fact let us dare to do our duty as we understand it.

World Drop Clause

The committee decided to recommend that the whole paragraph be removed from the covenant which would seem for the moment at least, beyond question, since it is impossible to tell how present arrangements are going to work out.

Work in the typhus campaign now going on in Poland and plans looking to the future of children in Europe were also discussed today.

Effects No Change

Delegate Howell of Canada, who made the report, pointed out that the elimination did not change the present situation. The report, being merely interpretative, could not change the relations between the assembly and the council.

Sir George E. Foster, of the Canadian delegation, stressed the necessity for an eloquent appeal for action against the typhus in Poland and the Near East in general.

"Let it not be said that the flood gates of sympathy are closed," he cried. "Do it not be said the small children of the world are being dulled by such imperative calls."

Would Name Collectors

Dr. Fridolf Nansen, the Norwegian delegate, said that the typhus could be effectively fought with the price of two torpedo boat destroyers. He proposed the naming of a committee to get the money.

George Foster's reminder to the assembly that much had been promised in aid of the anti-typhus campaign, but that little had been paid except by Siam and Canada produced a death-like silence among the delegates.

Wilson Asks Congress to Furnish Loan to Armenia

Text of President's Message to Congress

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Wilson's annual message to congress follows: "I have addressed myself to preparing the report which I am presenting to you by the constitution to present to you an annual report on the state of the union. I found my thought dominated by the immortal sentence of Abraham Lincoln:

"Let us have faith that right makes might, and in that faith let us dare to do our duty as we understand it."—a sentence immortal because it embodied in a form of utter simplicity and purity the essence of the American faith, the faith in which it was conceived and the faith in which it has grown to glory and power.

With that faith and the birth of a nation found not only the means for its own security but a new order would prevail throughout the affairs of mankind, an order in which right and right would prevail over might and might would be lifted out of its pride and confusion and despair. It was this faith which prevailed over the wicked forces of Germany. You will remember that the very day when the German people found themselves face to face with the menace of the world and realized that they were no longer to be treated as a people but as a means to an end, they were attempting to perpetrate, I think, the worst crime of which man is capable.

Therefore, that it is true to say that this was the faith which won the victory. The day when our gallant men went into the field and out upon the seas to make ours a victory.

Mission of Democracy

"This is the mission upon which democracy came into the world. Democracy is an assertion of the right of every man to his own life and property just as against any attempt on the part of any combination of individuals to make laws which will overburden him which the vast area of humanity among his fellows in the matter of right or privilege, and I think we all realize that the day has come when democracy is being upon its final test. The very day when the great masses among his fellows in the matter of right or privilege, and I think we all realize that the day has come when democracy is being upon its final test.

There are two ways in which the United States can assist to accomplish this end. One is to give to the example within her own borders of the will and power of democracy to make and enforce laws which are unquestionably just and which are equitably shared by all who are subject to them. The other is to secure its full right to labor and yet at the same time safeguard the integrity of property, and particularly of that property which is the basis of the operation of industry and the increase of the necessary wealth of the world.

Secondly, by standing for right and justice towards individual nations. This is the duty of a democracy in every age and under every flag.

Two Ways Open

"There are two ways in which the United States can assist to accomplish this end. One is to give to the example within her own borders of the will and power of democracy to make and enforce laws which are unquestionably just and which are equitably shared by all who are subject to them.

"I urge you to consider that the display of an immediate disposition on the part of congress to remedy any injustices or evils that may have shown themselves in our own national life will afford the most effectual relief to the oppressed citizens of the world who are playing so disastrous a part in the fortunes of the free people of more than one part of the world."

By the action of congress to remedy any injustices or evils that may have shown themselves in our own national life will afford the most effectual relief to the oppressed citizens of the world who are playing so disastrous a part in the fortunes of the free people of more than one part of the world."

"Recovery from the disturbing and sometimes disastrous effects of the late war has been exceedingly slow. The effect of the war has been given promise only in our own fortunate country, but even with us the recovery has not been immediate. The effects of the war have not yet been eliminated. It seems to me we ought to attempt to assist that recovery and prove the indestructibility of democracy."

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Early

adoption by congress of some plan for extending the Federal European countries was predicted today at the annual convention of the American Farm Bureau federation by Gray Silver, legislative representative of the federation in Washington.

"I feel safe in saying," declared Mr. Silver, "that some plan which will extend credit to central Europe will be put into effect soon and will be a powerful factor in raising farm crop prices. The commodity financing and credit measures that we are working on will go far to preventing a recurrence of the recent disastrous slump which has cost the farmers billions of dollars. We need no constructive outside aid, more product and better distribution. We have no real surplus but as long as every one is waiting for lower prices, prices will go lower. Once there is a surplus, prices will advance to a higher, but reasonable and readjusted level. European countries need our goods as badly as we need theirs. Mr. Silver the convention heard several other speakers discuss marketing, taxation and rural export credits."

For 'Workable Budget'

One of these is to prove that a great democracy can keep house as successfully and in as business-like a fashion as any other government. It seems to me that the first step toward proving this is to supply ourselves with a systematic method of handling our estimates and expenditures and bringing them to the most economical and efficient system; namely, get out that the proposal of appropriations should be in the hands of a single body, such as a single appropriations committee in each house of the congress but also that the proposal should be brought into such cooperation with the departments of the government and with the treasury of the United States as would enable a bill passed by the last session of the congress because of a constitutional objection. The house of representatives subsequently modified the bill in order to meet the objection. In the revised form I believe that the bill, coupled with action already taken by the congress to revise its rules and procedure, is laying the foundations for an effective and efficient budget system. I earnestly hope, therefore, that one of the first steps taken by the present session of the congress will be to pass the budget bill.

Finances Improve

The national finances have shown marked improvement during the past year. The total ordinary receipts of $6,694,000,000 for the fiscal year 1920 exceeded those for 1919 by $1,542,000,000. The total ordinary expenditures decreased from $5,593,000,000 in 1919 to $4,943,000,000 in 1920. The public debt, which reached its highest point on August 31, 1919, when it was $26,000,000,000 and dropped on November 29, 1920, to $24,175,000,000. There has also been a marked decrease in holdings of government war securities by the public. The total amount of war securities as well as in the amount of bills held by the federal reserve banks secured by government war obligations. This fortunate result has relieved the bonds and left the government with a surplus of agricultural, industrial and commercial securities. The cessation of the government's borrowings except for the necessities of the war has resulted in a reduction of the public debt, but more particularly to the improvement of the government's credit standing among permanent investors. The cessation of the government's borrowings except for the necessities of the war has resulted in a reduction of the public debt, but more particularly to the improvement of the government's credit standing among permanent investors.

Democracy on Trial

Democracy, the president said, "is being put upon its final test." "The old world," he said, "is just now suffering from a wanton rejection of the principle of democracy and a substitution of the principle of autocracy asserted in the name but without the authority and sanction of the multitude. This is the time of all others when democracy should prove its purity and its spiritual power to prevail. It is the time of all others when the United States to lend in the attempt to make this spirit prevail."

Two Ways Open

"Two ways in which the United States can assist to accomplish this great objective were outlined by the president. They were: "First: By offering the example within her own borders of the will and power of democracy to make and enforce laws which are unquestionably just and which are equitably administered. "Second: By standing for right and justice as towards individual nations and as towards the world."

The president's message was transmitted by messenger, the president adhering to his decision not to address congress in person at the capital. The president's message was not read immediately in the senate, which waited until it had disposed of routine business. Secretary Eustace was among the assembly members occupying a seat on the floor. Public galleries again were filled, and several diplomats were present.

URGES GOVERNOR TO WORK FOR CUT IN FREIGHT RATE

Pocatello Chamber of Commerce Submits Evidence Pointing to Potential Loss of $5,759,000 by Farmers

In an effort to prevent an aggregate loss to farmers of Idaho estimated at $5,759,000, the traffic bureau of the Pocatello Chamber of Commerce, in the following letter, urges upon Governor Davis the desirability of use of every possible influence at his command to secure relief on freight rates on wheat and grain products and potatoes:

Hon. J. W. Davis,
Governor of Idaho,
Boise, Idaho.

Dear Sir: We recently communicated with you concerning the deplorable condition existing in our state regarding the farmers and all those who depend on them, and we submit herewith and desire to call your attention to the following facts, and urge you to do what is in your power to effect a solution through the interstate commerce commission and implore you to use the public utilities commission of the state of Idaho, and every other known means to get relief on the freight rates on wheat and grain products and potatoes.

Bulk of Wheat Remains.
We beg to submit the following evidence, which is the finding of our committee after looking into this matter very carefully. We estimate the wheat crop of Idaho for the year 1920 at 21,000,000 bushels. This is based upon government estimates together with direct information as we can obtain from those who are in a position to know. Of this, 25 per cent has been shipped out of the state to date, leaving 15,750,000 bushels still in the hands of the farmers. We also find that at least 75 per cent of our white wheat goes east of the Mississippi river where the freight rates have been increased five or six cents per bushel, which has caused the war rate on wheat, than the last increase was 40 per cent. Basing Nashville, Tenn., as an average shipping point east of the Mississippi river, being that most of the wheat goes into Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, and Kentucky the pre-war basis was 62 cents, war basis 83 cents, present basis 95 1/2 cents plus tax of 3 per cent, making a difference of about 33 cents between pre-war basis and present basis of 36 cents. We find, from a careful survey, that about 75 per cent of the wheat of the state is shipped to the west, making a total of 45 per cent of the wheat yet remaining in the state affected by this high rate.

All points east of Cheyenne covering New Mexico, Minnesota, Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, including Gulf ports, where considerable grain is exported, the pre-war rate was advanced 6 cents and the war rate was advanced 32 1/3 per cent which is the present rate. Using St. Louis as an illustration, pre-war basis 50 cents per hundred, war rate 50 cents per hundred, present in increased rate 74 cents per hundred, plus war tax, making a difference between pre-war tax and present rate of 20 cents per hundred.

Now Orleans, West, Vigo and Galveston Gulf ports, which is the rest of our wheat is moving and will move to pre-war rate 61 cent per hundred, rate during war 67 per hundred, and present rate 89 cents per hundred, plus war tax, making a difference of 28 cents per hundred, between the present rate and pre-war rate. We are confident that 33 per cent of the wheat left in the state will move against these rates, of which about 25 per cent will move to Gulf ports, taking the 31 cents differential between pre-war and present rates.

Costs Twin Falls Rate.
All wheat moving to intermediate points and Pacific coast points west of Cheyenne, Wyo., carries a 25 per cent advance, and affects same as follows: Using Los Angeles and San Francisco as a basis where practically all of our wheat shipped out of the state, we will illustrate from different points in the state, as the rate varies going to California. The rates used heretofore are based upon the following points:— they all run on the same going out except branch lines which carry a differential on all markets which equal about the same and which makes the people living on branch lines pay a still higher differential. Rates from the following points to Los Angeles and San Francisco are as follows: Pocatello: pre-war basis 45 cents per hundred; war basis 47 cents, plus tax of 64 cents, plus war tax, making a difference of 21 cents. Twin Falls: Pre-war 48 cents per hundred; war basis 54 cents, present basis 67 1/2 cents, plus war tax, making a difference of 19 1/2 cents. Fairchild: Pre-war, 52 cents per hundred, war basis 58 cents, present rate 74 1/2 cents, plus war tax, making a difference of 22 1/2 cents per hundred. We figure that 10 per cent of the remaining wheat in the state will move on these rates.

We figure that 10 per cent of the wheat in the state will be raised here and considerable of the wheat milled in the state, the flour will be shipped out into the same districts that the wheat moves to and is affected accordingly.

ingly, because the wheat is stored in transit, and milled, then the flour is shipped on the same or transferred cars; therefore, it would be unjust to the millers in the state to reduce the rate on wheat and not on flour in fact which automatically causes them to cause milling except for home consumption.

The same applies on oats, but is a minor proposition, because we do not ship out of the state over 100,000 bushels of oats for all products. However, in your state in Utah, California and Oregon manufacturing and using oats and barley as a cereal are affected in the same way as the growers of wheat. Therefore, we earnestly plead with you to present a claim in behalf of the all grain and grain products.

Potatoes in Tighter Pinch.
Potatoes—We find this commodity is affected still more than wheat, as 98 per cent of the crop is shipped out of the state to all markets, and it is difficult to find a market for the remainder of the crop. The present rate for foreign markets, and at Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa and Illinois markets, the pre-war rate on potatoes was advanced to war basis June 18, 1918, the same time as grain, and took a 25 per cent advance, while grain only took a 15 per cent advance, and was affected on the long haul. It was affected 33 1/3 per cent in the above mentioned states and 40 per cent east of the Mississippi at the last raising, making a total increase of 50 to 75 per cent war tax of 3 per cent. This figure is now at pre-war basis, plus war tax of 3 per cent. This figure out as follows, using Chicago as an illustration from main line points to the west, the pre-war rate on potatoes war basis 60 cents, present rate 92 cents, plus war tax, making a total of 95 cents per hundred, an increase of 35 cents per hundred. Using Chicago, Texas, as an illustration, the pre-war rate 60 cents per hundred, war rate 75 cents per hundred, present rate $1, plus war tax on $1.03 or 43 cents per hundred, making a total of $1.46 per hundred, or 246 cents per hundred. Our potatoes have taken a 35 cents to 50 cents per hundred, increase, an average of at least 40 cents per hundred.

We estimate there are now 7000 cars of potatoes left in the state, valued at $1,400,000. This is based on ground. Figuring 40 cents per hundred, and an average load of 40,000 pounds, this makes $160 per car, or $1,400,000 per 1000 cars, making a total loss on the wheat equal a grand average of 30 1/2 cents per hundred or $4,830,000 and grand total $5,759,000, a par loss to the farmers of this state.

Therefore you can see the grand total of loss which is facing the farmers, and being that the present price on all of their produce has been reduced to pre-war basis, and they had to pay wartime prices for raising them, based on the war-time conditions such as was never experienced in this territory for last two months when harvest was on, we think they need the assistance we are offering to them. This assistance is a matter of justice between man and man.

Voting the entire membership of the Pocatello Chamber of Commerce in support of the assistance in the farmer's behalf (which not only affects the farmer, but the entire business of the state, in fact, if something is not done at once, serious results will follow, and agriculture will be hit a terrible blow in this consideration when we consider that upon agriculture depends our present and future). We know that you will use all your power to bring about an adjustment of the above conditions. We feel that our cause is so just that the interstate commerce commission will immediately render relief, as an emergency certainly exists.

Very truly yours,
J. T. YOUNG,
Traffic Bureau,
Pocatello Chamber of Commerce.

AMERICANS OBJECT TO CENSOR IN PEACE TIME
Commercial Telegraph Companies Oppose Classes of Proposed Conventions Between Powers
WASHINGTON, (AP)—A proposed telegraph convention between the great powers drawn up by the international communications conference now in session here is understood to meet with vigorous opposition from the American telegraph companies who are said to profess to see in it the virtual extinction of the wartime powers exercised by the United States over the telegraph and a step toward eventual government control.
The American commissioners to the conference have approved the proposed convention with reservations; the exact nature of which has not been disclosed.
Particular clauses of the proposed convention to which the American commercial telegraph companies are said to take special exception and against which they are reported to plan an attack should the convention be presented to congress, include provisions which give the various governments the right of censorship in peace times.

SOVIET PROPAGANDISTS EMPLOY ANCIENT DODGE

Have Printed Matter Done in Microscopic Form Capable of Being Enlarged Photographically
AMSTERDAM, (AP)—Bolehevik propagandists, anxious to avoid discovery of the propagandist matter they are taking to America, are said to have resorted to the old war-time dodge of having their printed matter done in microscopic form, capable of being enlarged photographically.
One man, who was caught in central Europe, had in his possession a number of queer looking postage stamps upon which were printed Soviet propaganda matter. The authorities were able to enlarge this to ordinary size.
The propagandist university which has been established at Moscow is reported to be now devoting extraordinary care to literature intended for two particular classes—women and farmers.
The women are urged to join the International Women's Communist associations of which branches are to be established in America, and the latter are urged to form farmers' communes with the ultimate purpose of creating "Farmers' Red Guards."

The only two Americans who have in the past received the Nobel peace prize were Theodore Roosevelt in 1906 and Ellhu Root in 1912.

D'ANNUNZIO CALLS HALT IN CONFLICT WITH ITALY

Post-Soldier Announces Placement as Result of War Ministry's Note
TRIESTE, (AP)—The "state of war" between the regency of Quarnero at Fiume and Italy, will not proceed, said an official statement given out by the headquarters of Gabriele d'Annunzio today. It is declared this decision had been reached because D'Annunzio had received a note from the Italian ministry of war stating that General Caviglia's order, which brought about the post-soldier's declaration of a state of war with Italy, did not have the character of an ultimatum.
Members of the special commission of Italian deputies which has interviewed D'Annunzio in Fiume, left for Rome tonight. Some of the deputies said in conversation that they had hoped that an agreement could be reached.

LEAGUE DELAY AGREEABLE TO CHILEAN PRESS

Failure of Assembly to Take Action in Tacna-Arica Dispute No Disappointment—Would Wait on United States

SANTIAGO, Chile. (AP)—Chilean newspapers did not expect that the League dispute in Chile and Peru for possession of the territory of Tacna and Arica would be taken up by the league of nations assembly at its first meeting in Geneva on Monday. (The Chilean and Peruvian press requested the league of nations to revise their treaty with Chile. Bolivia wanted access to the sea and Peru wanted a recognition of the Tacna-Arica agreement; but both these requests were withdrawn early in the session, thus preventing the possibility that the league might encroach upon the Monroe Doctrine by considering those American questions in the absence of the United States.)

Newspapers Anticipate
Newspapers here expressed the belief that the league of nations would not touch any American questions until it was decided whether the United States would enter the league and under what conditions. El Diario Ilustrado said:
“What does the problem of Tacna and Arica—proposed by our northern neighbors—signify to the society of nations? It has wasted years and can wait longer without any real result to the world at large. As a matter of fact it is seen that its solution is not simple because our country asks the application of a treaty (the treaty of Ancon and Peru does not wish to ratify it)—the question would be postponed until a less pressing time in world affairs.” The newspapers expressed the opinion that it would be very difficult to attempt even “the initiation of consideration of American affairs without the concurrence of the United States.”

Demands Reservations
An interesting point not generally known in connection with Chile's preference to the league of nations is that it carried this reservation: “The government of Chile reserves the right of considering modifications or reservations to that part that relates to the nations situated to the treaty of Versailles and which have not ratified it up to the present.” The date thus referred to was November 4, 1919. This reservation would give the opportunity open for Chile to adopt reservations subsequently made by the United States.

FORWARD PASS REFORM URGED TO SAVE SPORT

Percy Haughton of Harvard Wants Urb on Aerial Transmission in Football

Percy Haughton has delivered unto the football world one of the best suggestions ever articulated.
The famous Harvard coach would reform the forward pass so that football may be severed from contact with outdoor basketball—toward which the college sport has been drifting in hurr.

If football is to be preserved as a distinctive sport something must be done to curb the almost constant use of the forward pass. If by continue to toss and catch the ball, the future generation of footballers will get their training on baseball field.

Recognizes Evil.
Haughton has recognized this evil—and so have others. But Haughton is the only football coach in America who has come forward, condemned the forward pass and suggested a remedy.
“The rule should be so changed that a blocked forward pass is anybody's ball, the same as a blocked punt,” is Haughton's suggestion.
If the rule were changed along the lines of Haughton's suggestion, the evil would be remedied instantly. It wouldn't kill the forward pass, but it would minimize its use. And that is the communication devoutly to be wished. Looking the risk of losing the ball through failure to complete the pass would curb the passers.

Counts Only a Trial.
Under the existing rules, if a forward pass is blocked the ball is brought back to the point where the play started and the team having possession of the ball is simply charged. If it is possible for an eleven to lose three blocked forward passes and still keep the ball.

But if Haughton's idea was put into force it would mean this: The very moment the piskin sailed through the air it would be anybody's ball who could get it. If a man got it in the air he would be privileged to run to the goal line. If he knicked it down and grabbed it the ball was his the same as if he blocked kick.
The great fault that has been found with football in recent years is too much forward passing. Too many teams are so apt to throw the ball that athletes almost forget the real art of end running and line smashing. In this era they don't need a youth with arms, hands and feet to win football games. All that apparently is required is one youth who can throw the ball for long distances and one or two others who can make catches.

Quick Action Demanded
If they don't change the football rules soon, there will be a lot of room on the gridiron for Ray Schalk, Steve O'Neil, Grover Alexander, Stan Coveleski, Eddie Roush and others who are gifted in tossing and likewise in receiving.
The rules committee which has football's interest at heart shouldn't lose much time in adopting the Haughton reform offer. For football's future is at stake. The game will lose its real identity if the forward passing of today is countenanced further. But if the Haughton suggestion is written into the regulations it means that football will be restored to something like the game it used to be—the “reform” forward pass tossed in to add spice.

REVERSES BASEBALL DECISION.

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The district court of appeals Monday reversed the recent judgment for $261,000 granted by the district supreme court against the major league league in favor of the Baltimore Federal league club, which claimed a violation of the anti-trust laws, by the use of the “reserve clause” in the players' contract.

CRIME CAUSES BOXING BAN IN SAN FRANCISCO

Police Suspend Fight Permits After Slaying of Peace Officers

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. (AP)—The San Francisco police commissioners last night stopped prize fighting in San Francisco. All permits for conducting fights or boxing contests were ordered suspended.

The decision of the supervisors means that in San Francisco for a long time known as a haven of boxers despite the California four-round limit law, will be a pugilistic desert for an indefinite time. Under the law no boxing contest in which professionals appear can be held without the permits which the supervisors declare they will not issue.

The San Francisco grand jury tonight began what was announced as a detailed inquiry into the conditions under which prize fights have been held here, among related matters, alleged gangsters, including two ring professionals known all along the Pacific coast, who are under arrest charged with what the police commissioners termed “unpeaceable crimes” against women and with the slaying of three peace officers at Santa Rosa yesterday, are blamed for the stopping of boxing here, for the grand jury action and for plans set on foot in Oakland across the bay, yesterday to require all boxers appearing there to present certificates of good character.

PINK MITCHELL LEADS BRITTON A LIVELY CHASE

Milwaukee Welterweight Holds Champion to Good Draw in Ten Rounds

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Pinkey Mitchell held Jack Britton, welterweight titleholder, to a draw in a ten-round professional contest last night, according to several sporting writers. Some thought Britton had a shade. One newspaper critic gave Mitchell the better of seven of the ten rounds.

Britton weighed 144 1/2 and Mitchell 140. The titleholder had the better of the first and second rounds and in the latter nearly upset the local boxer with a glancing blow to the left side of his face, unbalancing him. The blow apparently did no damage. Mitchell appeared to hold his own in the balance of the contest, one writer giving him from the third to the sixth rounds as favorite. Another critic said there was not enough difference to call it anything but a draw. Britton played mostly for the body and Mitchell directed his blows to the head.

GADDUCK SHOWS CLASS.

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Earl Caddock of Anita, Ia., won from Charles Peters of Papillion, Neb., in two straight falls here last night. The first came at the end of 50 minutes with a half body seissors and bar arm hold, and the second fall in 20 minutes with a head seissors hold. Caddock was on top nearly all the time, Peters expending his efforts in keeping his shoulders from the mat.

GIBBONS WHIPS WIGGINS.

TOLEDO. (AP)—Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul, outpointed Church Wiggins of Indianapolis in eight rounds of their 12-round bout last night, according to the opinion of men at the ringside. The other four rounds were even. Wiggins was out about both eyes and was bleeding profusely at the end. Gibbons forced the fighting throughout. The men are light heavyweight.

CHP-M'GOERTY DRAW.

LA SALLE, Ill. (AP)—George Chip of Neweastle, Pa., and Eddie McGoerty of Oskosh, Wis., fought a ten-round draw last night, a referee giving the decision. In the preliminaries, Tom Carney of Spring Valley, Ill., knuckled out George Toler of El Paso, Texas in the first round. It was Carney's seventh straight knockout.

HOPPE CARELESS STILL HE BEATS WELKER COCHRAN

Champion Cueist Lets Rival Take Lead and Then Runs Out His String

NEW YORK. (AP)—Willie Hoppe, holder of the world's 18.2 balk billiard title, defeated Welker Cochran of San Francisco, 405 to 270, in the second game of the final round of the titular tournament here tonight. Cochran won in the afternoon from the other competitor, Jake Schneider, of San Francisco.

Hoppe went out in twenty-second inning with an unfinished run of thirty-four after Cochran had taken the lead in the previous inning for the first time by a score of 370 to 366. The champion played deliberately and was sure of stroke when confronted with a difficult mass, and in the seventeenth a run of 90, on which he tripped up on a short spread and. After missing his opening shot, Cochran steeled and put up a stubborn fight, playing pretty billiards that included well executed shots and careful safes. The score:

Hoppe—19, 101, 22, 3, 24, 0, 0, 2, 1, 0, 27, 0, 11, 0, 0, 2, 80, 6, 10, 31, 21, 34—405. Average, 18.4-22. High runs, 101, 90, 34.

Cochran—3, 41, 35, 11, 25, 0, 20, 34, 0, 1, 29, 5, 1, 0, 36, 0, 3, 32, 2, 92, 0—270. Average 16.18-22. High runs, 92, 41, 36.

Welker Cochran of San Francisco defeated Jake Schneider of San Francisco, 400 to 338, in the opening game this afternoon of the final round of the national professional 18.2 balk billiard tournament. The victory gave Cochran the right to meet Willie Hoppe, title holder, in last night's contest.

Cochran played the more consistent game, although several high runs ended through failure to get the balls out of hole. His opponent was forced frequently to resort to mass shots. Scherzer's high run of 92 was the best of the game. Score by innings:

Cochran—83, 1, 30, 0, 50, 10, 7, 81, 61, 3, 18, 10, 1, 6, 0, 0, 16, 0, 44—400. Average, 21.1-49. High runs, 88, 84, 51.
Schneider—28, 5, 0, 1, 0, 4, 5, 59, 44, 92, 7, 33, 2, 39, 0, 5, 3, 0, 2—338. Average 17.15-19. High runs, 92, 59, 41.

Brief Bits of Sport

Box fights Friday night.

Matchmaker Harry McKinley promises action and merit for the entire bill.

No attempt has been made to bring in professionals. McKinley entertaining a hunch that Twin Falls has some worthy examples of boxing prowess.

We'd recommend a post-season game between the Twin Falls Bruins and the Tish Varsity team. The former hasn't lost a game this year and the latter hasn't won one.

Migawshi!

THE OHIO BOXING COMMISSION HAS STEPPED DOWN HARD ON THE HABIT OF SCRAPPERS WEIGHING IT AT PRIVATE TRAINING JOINTS. THE “COMMISSION” IN- SISTS THAT THE SCALING HEREFTER SHALL BE OPEN AND ABOVE BOARD.

For doing a trick like that Carl Tremaine and Pat Moore, bantamweights, are to be officially investigated.

Earl Caddock the other night engaged in his first grapple bout of the syndicate season. The former heavy weight champion flopped a fellow name Earl Hill in 316 time twice.

But who is Hill!

Damon Runyan, reporting the recent Lynch-Sharkey bout, says Sharkey fought the gamest battle in the history of the modern ring.

In the fourteenth round he stayed with Lynch when he was so arm-weary that he could scarcely raise his wits to defend himself.

Sharkey outweighed his master five pounds.

William Harrison Dempsey and Jack Kearns, his manager, announce they will leave New York for California immediately after the Gothen scrap with Hill Brennan on December 14.

Harry H. Frazee wants only $1,000.00 for the Red Sox.

Tommy Burns has been spending some time at somebody's expense, looking for material to make a champion heavyweight fighter out of.

Tommy has located a chap named Tiny Snapton, who stands 6 feet 4 1/2 inches in his socks and weighs, striped, 210.

But size doesn't always spell successful fighter.

Battling Levinsky announces he has been signed for a 20-round battle with Bombardier Wells in London on January 14.

Even though Joe Lynch did give him the worst beating of his career Jack Sharkey is sticking to the ring. He is matched to meet Joe Burman, of Chicago, in Philadelphia December 20.

Receipts over current expenditures can be realized and should be applied to the floating debt. All branches of the government should cooperate to see that this program is realized.

For Direct Appropriation. I cannot over-emphasize the necessity of economy in government appropriations and expenditures and the avoidance by the congress of practices which take money from the treasury by indefinite or revolving fund appropriations.

This strikingly illustrates the importance of making direct and specific appropriations. The relation between the current receipts and current expenditures of the government during the present fiscal year as well as during the last half of the last fiscal year, has been disturbed by the extraordinary burdens thrown upon the treasury by the transportation act, in connection with the return of the railroads to private control. Over $600,000,000 has already been paid to the railroads under this act—$350,000,000 during the present fiscal year.

Tax Revision Needed. Closely connected with this, it seems to me, is the necessity for an immediate consideration of the revision of our tax laws. Simplifying the income and profits taxes has become an immediate necessity. These taxes performed an indispensable service during the war. The need for their simplification, however, is very apparent in order to save the taxpayer inconvenience and expense and in order to make his liability more certain and definite.

Debts to Service Men. It is my privilege to draw to the attention of congress for very sympathetic consideration the problem of providing adequate facilities for the care and treatment of former members of the military and naval forces who are sick or disabled as the result of their participation in the war.

It is my privilege to draw to the attention of congress for very sympathetic consideration the problem of providing adequate facilities for the care and treatment of former members of the military and naval forces who are sick or disabled as the result of their participation in the war. These heroes can never be paid in money for the service they patriotically rendered the nation. Their reward will lie rather in the realization of the fact that they vindicated the rights of their country and aided in safeguarding civilization. The nation's gratitude must be effectively rendered to them by the most ample provision for their medical care and treatment as well as for their vocational training and placement.

Renews Former Advice. Permit me to emphasize once more the need for action on certain matters upon which I dwelt at some length in my message to the second session of the sixty-sixth congress. The necessity, for example, of encouraging the manufacture of synthetic and related chemicals; the importance of doing everything possible to promote agricultural production along economic lines, to improve agricultural marketing and to make rural life more attractive and healthful; the need for a law regulating cold storage in such a way as to limit the time during which goods may be kept in storage, to prevent the method of disposing of them if kept beyond the permitted period, and requiring goods released from storage in all cases to bear the date of their receipt.

In brief, the immediate legislative need of the time is the removal of all obstacles to the realization of the best conditions of employment and the strengthening of all instrumentalities by which difficulties are to be met and removed and justice dealt out, whether by law or by some form of mediation and conciliation. I do not feel it to be my privilege at present to suggest the detailed and particular methods by which these objects may be attained, but I have faith that the members of your several committees will discover the way and the method.

Asks Armenian Loan. In response to what I believe to be the impulse of sympathy and opinion throughout the United States, I earnestly suggest that the congress authorize the treasury of the United States to make to the struggling government of Armenia such a loan as was made to several of the allied governments during the war; and I would also suggest that it would be desirable to provide in the legislation itself that the expenditure of the money thus loaned should be under the supervision of a commission, or at least a commissioner from the United States, in order that revolutionary tendencies within Armenia itself might not be afforded by the loan a further tempting opportunity.

Wanted Men in Philippines. Allow me to call your attention to the fact that the people of the Philippine islands have succeeded in maintaining a stable government, since the last action of the congress in their behalf, and have thus fulfilled the condition set by the congress as precedent to a consideration of granting independence to the island. If respectfully submitted that this condition precedent having been fulfilled, it is our liberty and our duty to keep our promise to the people of those islands by granting them the independence which they so honorably covet.

Confession of Faith. I have not so much laid before you a series of recommendations, gentlemen, as sought to utter a confession of faith of the faith in which I was bred and which I have never permitted to stand by itself in my last fighting day. I believe this to be the faith of America, the faith of the future, and of all the victories which await national action in the days to come whether in America or elsewhere.

NO TIME FOR LABOR QUARREL

The public will not be inclined to look with patience on the talk about stinging a finish fight between organized labor and the employers' organizations over the "closed" and "open" shop.

The charges and counter charges that capital is trying to crush organized labor and that labor is trying to nationalize industry are not convincing to the masses of the people...

It is plain to persons who give even casual attention to the economic laws involved in present industrial conditions that there can be no decided reductions in the costs of building and public improvements...

Here is a problem that may well engage the attention of both employer and employee—agreements upon wages that will permit the fullest possible operation of industrial plants...

The readjustment of industrial policies seems of vastly more importance to the public now that the settlement of the controversy of whether industries shall be operated as "closed" or "open" shops.

PANAMA CANAL PAYS

In the last fiscal year the Panama Canal earned $2,387,599 more than the cost of operation. This amount stands as a profit for the period, though it cannot properly be regarded as such since it allows nothing for interest on investment, depreciation and other charges...

In the history of the canal and the excess of earnings has reduced the operating deficit for the six years of its life to $2,231,001. All of which warrants Brigadier General Chester Harding, governor of the Panama Canal zone, is predicting that within a reasonable period of normal world conditions it will earn an actual profit on its cost.

A business like people will not be satisfied with results until the canal has been made self-sustaining. In the meantime, however, it is gratifying that the wisdom of the enterprise is being increasingly demonstrated.

But as its use increases and revenues mount there will be necessity for great investment to keep auxiliary service at balance with demands. Some of these also will yield profits, so that America will not be out of pocket on account of them.

JOBS INSURANCE IN BRITAIN AIDS EIGHT MILLIONS

Workers Earning Not More than 250 Pounds a Year are Automatically Protected Against Unemployment

LONDON, (AP)—Eight millions of British workers become automatically insured against unemployment under the unemployment insurance act of 1920 which has just come into operation.

This new act extends compulsory insurance against unemployment to practically all persons in receipt of remuneration not exceeding 250 pounds a year. After a "waiting period" of three days of unemployment, beneficiaries become entitled to 15 shillings per week for men, 12 shillings for women, seven and one-half shillings for boys under 16, and six shillings for girls under 16.

To qualify for benefit an insured person must not quit his job without good cause and must not have been discharged for misconduct or have gone on strike. There must also be no refusal of a suitable job offered, and should a dispute arise on the question of "suitability," the insured person may appeal to a court of referees. Not more than 15 weeks' benefit may be drawn in any one insurance year. Employers are free to set up insurance schemes of their own giving equal or greater advantages. The state rate of contribution to such special schemes or contracts will not exceed 30 percent of the amount paid to the general scheme, as it is taken for granted that in industries with insurance systems their own rate of unemployment will be lower than in other trades.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of brown, glossy hair can only be had by drawing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Four hair is your charm. It makes or mends the cut. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold. Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get the famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called 'Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound.' This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair. Everybody uses 'Wych's Sage and Sulphur.' Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.—adv.

The Greatest Gift OF ALL!

Like Love's benediction comes the spirit of Christ—of all—the gift of giving. Throughout the ages it has lasted, deep in the hearts of men, bringing forever its joy and happiness.

It is best expressed by the most enduring of man-made gifts, those of the jeweler's handicraft, beautiful gifts that last.
