Sister-in-Law of McCurtain Gives Version to Investigating Committee

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Miss Rebecca Walsh, sister-in-law of the Mayor McCurtain of Cork, told today to the committee of the Commission of 100 investigating conditions in Ireland the story of the killing of the mayor last March 29. She declared the mayor was shot down by royal Irish constabulary in the presence of the lord mayor's wife and two small children. Twenty raids had been made on the mayor's home previous to the killing and some show the killing. Miss Walsh declared that she was held up at the point of a pistol in her home a week before she left Cork and questioned concerning inmates of the house and on another occasion she was locked in a vermin-infested cell and galled by the police.

World News Events

Possible revision of the peace treaty with Turkey will be one of the most important subjects under discussion.

DUBLIN. (AP)—Passage of the Irish home-rule bill by the British parliament is not viewed as specially important by newspapers here. It is recognized the bill probably will not be accepted by either Ulster or the south of Ireland, and that the British government may never decide to put its provisions into operation.

VERA CRUZ. (P)—An American airplane driven by Fernando Phoal, a Mexican aviator, flew from Mexico City to Vera Cruz yesterday, the distance, 225 miles, being made in two hours and twenty minutes. BROKERAGE FIRM FAILS

NEW YORK. (AP)—Failure of the brokerage firm of Foster and Lums here was announced from the report of the stock exchange shortly after the opening today.

The firm consists of J. Huggan Foster, floor member, S. Durrell Lumsbery and W. Frazer Gibson. It has long business on the exchange for nearly 20 years.

Foster and Lumsbery are understood to have been active traders in Vanadium Steel, which was one of the stocks that led in recent heavy reactions on the market.

GERMANY WINS DELEGATES BY POVERTY PLEA

Allied Experts Agree with Teutons that Treaty Cannot Be Executed Literally and Payments Must Be in Kind

HUNDRED BILLION MARKS STILL INDEMNITY BASIS

BRUSSELS. (P)—The second financial conference adjourned at noon today until January 10. The allied experts told the German delegates there was good prospect of reaching an agreement on some of the questions that the allied experts believe indirect taxation in Germany is not high enough. The Germans being asked whether their taxes on alcohol, beer, tobacco and sugar are as high as those on the same products in France and Great Britain. Other questions concern the German financial policy relative to taxation of wealthy citizens and possible tax increases within a year or two.

Delegates have been pledged to secrecy, but there is a general impression they will recommend that their governments permit Germany to keep some of the 350,000 tons of shippings she was ordered to surrender under the Versailles treaty.

BRUSSELS. (P)—Payment by Germany of one hundred billion marks in the next several years, according to experts and delegates to the second financial conference, in session here, are working. This amount, although far below what was authorized by the treaty of Versailles, is considered by them collectible only on condition that Germany is helped along the lines suggested by the German delegates.

Recognize Necessities

Allied experts, in secret individual reports, the substance of which has come to light, recognize Germany's real necessities, and delegates generally are impressed by arguments that Germany is an insolvent debtor who must be maintained as a going concern.

PRODUCING AREAS MEET CONSUMERS' OPPOSITION

Fordney Says Bill Embodies Honest Effort to Provide Farmers Relief Against Heaviest Losses

PASSAGE OF MEASURE IS SOUGHT BEFORE HOUSE ADJOURNS TONIGHT

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—A bill to repeal the emergency tariff bill under a rule limiting debate, to three hours. Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee, announced "with high optimism" the successful passage of the bill before adjournment tonight.

There were several preliminary skirmishes, which made it apparent that early law would not figure in passage of the measure.

The alignment promised to be the producing areas of the south and west against the east and other consuming communities.

Chairman Fordney, in opening the debate, said the committee had been criticized for not including more items in the emergency bill, but that it had realized that there was no possibility of putting the bill through at this session of congress if attempts were made to include every thing wanted.

"The committee made an honest effort to provide relief for farmers and included those products which are causing them the heaviest losses," he said.

LONDON. (AP)—A serious labor riot occurred recently in Petrograd, says the Helsinki dispatch to the Central News under yesterday's date, in which many persons were killed or injured. The riot was crushed and 105 laborers were executed, the dispatch adds. ISOLATES FIUME BY BLOCKADE ON LAND AND WATER

Stronghold of Captain Gabriele d'Annunzio is Being Besieged by Italian Regulars Under Cavaglia

CONDITIONS LIKELY TO RESULT IN HOSTILITIES

UDINE, Italy. (AP)—Fiume, the straits of the Adriatic, Captain Gabriele d'Annunzio, the insurgent Italian leader, is being besieged by regular Italian forces.

ROME. (AP)—General Cavaglia, commander of the Italian regulars surrounding Fiume, has ordered a rigorous blockade of Fiume and the islands of Veglia, Arbe and San Marco. He gave forty-eight hours to those who wish to leave the blockaded region.

MOMENTARY REPORTS OF FIGHTING EXPECTED IN LONDON

LONDON. (AP)—Italian government forces have established a close blockade of Fiume by land and sea, and it seemed possible today that fighting might be reported at any time. Not only has the city of Fiume been isolated, but the islands of Arbe, San Marco and Veglia, which recently were occupied by d'Annunzio's legions, have been blockaded.

Conditions of recognized gravity have arisen since Cavaglia d'Annunzio announced he would resist enforcement of the treaty of Rapallo. In answer to an ultimatum sent him by General Cavaglia, commander of Italian troops in Fiume, he has declared he will fight until his demands are met.

ENGINE EXPLOSION CUTS DENVER COMMUNICATION

Unique Accident Combines with Storms to Isolate Colorado's Capital City

DENVER. Colo. (AP)—Storms east of Denver and the explosion of a freight engine south of here this morning cut this city off from communication for a time today with all parts of the country, except that west of here.

Heavy snow and wind storms are reported to have wrecked all wires between North Platte, Neb., and Omaha and also many of those west of Kansas City. No wires were reported out of communication west of Denver.

Trains due here from the east are late. Railroad officials would not attempt to predict when any trains would arrive because their wires also were out of communication.

John C. Clifton, fireman, of Denver, was killed and all wires on Denver El Paso power association circuits were out of communication today when a freight engine on the Santa Fe railroad exploded near Monument, Colo.

Three K. Hartman, brakeman, and Harry Peterson, engineer, both of Denver, were seriously injured in the explosion. Ten poles were blown down, wrecking 60 telegraph and telephone wires.

Details of the accident, have not been received.

LEGION MAKES PROVISION FOR DISABLED MEN

Co-operates with Federal Government Agencies in Emergency Relief Measures for the Veterans in Arizona City

INDIANAPOLIS, (P)—Emergency measures are necessary for the relief of 500 disabled world war veterans who are at Tucson, Ariz., without the proper hospital facilities, it is announced here by national officers of the American Legion. The men are suffering from tuberculosis which is developing rapidly among veterans who were gassed.

It is the plan of the legion to co-operate with the war risk insurance bureau and the United States public health service in meeting the situation. An amusement park at Tucson will be taken over and converted into a temporary hospital. Many of the afflicted veterans failing to find shelter elsewhere are now sleeping in the park, according to reports to legion officers.

National Adjutant Lemuel Bolles has asked Bert C. Clingan, commander of the Arizona department of the legion, to organize volunteer crews of carpenters from the legion membership in that state to assist in construction work.

A corps of public health nurses and physicians and two construction engineers have been promised by the federal government. Governor Campbell of Arizona has also pledged the use of state employees for construction work.

Mr. Bolles advises afflicted veterans against going to Tucson as arrangements can be made for only those who are already there. The veterans there now are from all parts of the country and went to Tucson on their own initiative.

The legion is continuing its campaign for hospital facilities for all disabled veterans, Mr. Bolles says.

METHODISTS FIND USE FOR FRONTIER SALOON

Former Establishments of Liquor Vendors Become Churches and Parsonages

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., (P)—Frontier saloons in the west are being donated and brought by Methodist ministers to be rebuilt into churches and parsonages.

District superintendents from towns in the west made this report to the board of home missions and church extension of the Methodist Episcopal church at a meeting here. More than 20 churches and parsonages have been built from old saloons in western Wisconsin alone, it was reported. Fifteen parsonages were equipped with the oak furniture from a hotel at Medford, Wis.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS MIXED IN FUEL INQUIRY

Coal Association Head Says the Federal Authorities Shared in Big Profits

WASHINGTON, D. C., (P)—Officials of the United States government and of railroads handling coal received a part of the "extraordinary profits" taken out of part of the coal distributed to consumers last summer, George H. Cushing, managing director of the American Wholesale Coal association, charged yesterday before a senate committee investigating the coal situation.

Pressed to furnish the names of men against whom he made the charges, Mr. Cushing at first refused, but finally agreed to do so in confidence.

Mr. Cushing said the railroad men had secured big gains by "diverting shipments over their own rails from the original destinations to other consumers."

He refused to say what government departments were concerned in his charge or what positions the officials he referred to occupied. Full information would be furnished the committee with the names, he said.

The largest profits made on coal of which he had personal knowledge, the witness said, was by certain persons who secured it from the mines at $2.50 a ton, and sold it at $10.20 a ton which with the freight rates, would have made the cost to consumers around $10 or $20 a ton.

The committee went into executive session to continue Mr. Cushing's examination.

The name of one man, formerly in a government office, and the allegation that this man secured a profit with associates of $60,000 by reason of official association, was given the senate committee by Cushing during the executive session, Chairman Culler announced later.

Several of this man's associates were also in government service, according to Cushing, Senator Culler said, and an army officer was named.

FRANCE NOTES DECLINE IN COMMODITIES PRICE

Red Wine, Sugar and Shoes Come Down While Eggs, Milk, Bread and Meat Continue High

PARIS, (P)—There has been a well-defined movement downward in the prices of a number of commodities in France since last March. Whether, like the last decline in prices, it will prove merely transitory and be followed by a reaction sending prices soaring again remains to be seen.

Coffee is one of the latest commodities to decrease in the wholesale price. The decline, however, cannot be noted at all in retail sales. Ordinary red wine now sells for 1.50 francs a litre, or about a quart. This is the "vin rouge ordinaire" which American soldiers used to buy at two francs per litre.

Sugar which sold as high as 5.50 francs a kilo now can be obtained at 3.75. The vice president of the French Grocers' union explains that the fall is due to the decrease in the price of sugar in America and the report that Cuban wholesalers are prepared to export 200,000 tons to Europe.

Sheet also went down following a marked decrease in the price of raw hides. Raw cotton, wool and silks are among the articles, price of which has dropped.

There are, however, many commodities which have not materially decreased in price, such as eggs, milk, bread and meat.

$100,000,000 FOR STATE ROAD AID. AGREED UPON

Bill Introduced by Oregon Congressman Meets with Approval of Republican Leaders

WASHINGTON, (P)—Republican leaders of the house have agreed upon an appropriation of $100,000,000 for state road aid, it became known Tuesday after an executive session of the house roads committee.

A bill introduced by Representative McArthur, republican of Oregon, now before the roads committee, would make $100,000,000 of federal funds available during the next four years, but it developed that the republican steering committee has decided that in the interest of economy the appropriation should be limited to $100,000,000 and should not cover more than a two-year period.

Kansas Industrial Court Decides Limitation of Production Under Circumstances Not Law Infraction

TOPEKA, Kan., (P)—The Kansas court of industrial relations held on Tuesday that seven Topeka millers cit-

The state is adequately supplied with flour, and market conditions over which the mills have no control have discouraged operation to full capacity of the court, found.

All mills in the state, however, will be required to make regular reports to the court as to the conditions in the industry.

MEXICO NOT TO HURRY BARGAIN ON RECOGNITION

President Obregon's Cabinet Unanimous in Opinion that Most Provision of Constitution Shall Not Be Changed

WASHINGTON, (AP)—State department today said today that Alberto J. Paul, whom the Mexican City Excelsior says is to come to Washington next month as Mexican ambassador, could not act in that capacity here, pending the recognition of the Obregon government. His position would be that of an agent of the Mexican government, but without official status so far as the American government is concerned.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Information regarded here as unofficial evidence that Mexico is in no hurry to bargain for recognition by the United States was submitted to the state department on Tuesday by the American embassy at Mexico City. The embassy reported that Rafael Campuzano Zubaran, minister of commerce and labor, had declared in an interview that the cabinet of President Obregon was unanimous in its opinion that article twenty-seven of the constitution should not be changed. This is the article relating to property rights in Mexico which has been protested by the United States and other governments as confiscatory.

Does Not Block Exports
Officials of the state department were not inclined, however, to regard the attitude of President Obregon's cabinet as definitely blocking the efforts at an agreement between the two countries. Mr. Zubaran was quoted in the newspapers in Mexico City Monday, according to the state department's information, as saying that the Mexican government would continue to maintain the principle of nationalization of the petroleum industry. It was explained here, in this connection that neither the American government nor the representatives of American interests in Mexico had ever denied the right of Mexico to maintain such principle, and had been concerned only in safeguarding titles to property obtained prior to the adoption of the constitution in 1917.

Suggestion Not Rejected
Mr. Zubaran's comment was not construed as indicative of a determination of his government to reject definitely the suggestion of Secretary of State Colby that an agreement to the United States and Mexico that would form a basis for recognition. That suggestion made to Roberto Quejira, who was named to the United States as a confidential agent of President De La Huerta and it is still believed that President Obregon, De La Huerta's successor, will accept the suggestion, although no formal reply had been made to the suggestion. Unofficial information recently received has indicated that President Obregon may wait until after next March 4, to enter into any further negotiations looking to recognition, referring to deal with the new administration in Washington.

America to Retain Lead

Informal conferences are known to have occurred from time to time between officials of the state department and the representatives of European powers regarding Mexico as reported in a Paris dispatch Tuesday and the policy adopted several years ago by Great Britain, France, and the other European nations of leaving the lead to the United States in dealing with Mexico is expected to be continued. This policy has also been adopted largely by the bankers of the different European countries and has been made the basis for the agreement which is known to exist among them that no money will be loaned to Mexico without the consent of the entire group and that no financial negotiations will take place until international political relations of Mexico are definitely established.

Representatives of France and Great Britain have from time to time made suggestions to the United States regarding the course that should be taken, but in the main they have conceded that the interests of their nations are so nearly like those of Americans that the course taken by the United States would be approved by their governments. None of the large European powers has recognized Mexico. Germany has had her minister in Mexico for four months but he has not presented his letters of credit.

Obregon Strives for Dignity

Whether President Obregon will agree finally to an agreement which will be regarded as satisfactory by this government and incidentally by those of Europe, is said to be not definitely known. It has been reported that he had declared he will make his government's attitude on the matter depend solely on account of its merit and that he will preserve a certain amount of dignity.

SON OF CABINET MEMBER AIRPLANE ACCIDENT VICTIM

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Walter R. Alexander, son of Secretary Alexander, was killed instantly Tuesday at Bolling field here by the propeller of an airplane in which he was preparing to make a flight, striking him on the head. The commerce secretary's son was a commissioned officer in the army air service during the war and had gone to the aviation field to make a flight while in training. Mr. Alexander who was 28 years old, had been connected with the shipping board and had recently returned from a trip to Europe on government business.

HOLDS FORMER ARMY FLYER GUILTY OF MURDER AND SUICIDE

LONDON, (AP)—The coroner's jury which held an inquest today into the death of Miss Sophia Taylor, a 29-year-old dancer and George Augustus Kelly, aged 30, of Omaha, Neb., returned a verdict of wilful murder and suicide against Kelly. Kelly was found dead and Miss Taylor mortally wounded Saturday morning in a residential flat in St. James street, Piccadilly. Miss Taylor died shortly afterward.

COTTON MARKET BREAKS INTO NEW LOW GROUND

NEW YORK, (AP)—The cotton market today broke into new low ground with the close with 34 1/2 cents, selling down to 34 1/8 cents under heavy southern and Wall street offerings based on weak spot markets.

NEARLY TWO MILLION IN FARM PAPER DISCOUNTED

Federal Reserve Board Head Reports on Operations of Member Banks Affecting Agriculture

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Nearly two billion dollars worth of paper based on production and sales of farm products has been discounted by federal reserve banks this year, Governor Harding, of the federal reserve board, estimated in a special report sent today to Chairman Croom of the senate agricultural committee. The amount of such reductions in 1919 was estimated at $712,066,000, Mr. Harding estimated.

Today's Markets

New York Stock Market
NEW YORK, (AP)—Trading in stocks today was again very active and uncertain of trend, representative issues making substantial recoveries while specialties continued to decline. Sales approximated 1,300,000 shares. Although prices were irregular at the outset of today's session there was little change in the main they were in line with yesterday's violent reaction. Supporting orders stabilized the better known issues, especially rails, steels, equipment and motors with resultant gains ranging from fractions to 1 1/2 points. Oils were extremely erratic. Mexican Petroleum opening at a loss of two and three-quarters but immediately rallying three and a quarter.

Liberty Bonds
NEW YORK, (AP)—Liberty bonds closed: 3 1/2's $89.72; first 4's $84.30; bid; second 4's $83.20; first 4 1/2's $84.32; second 4 1/2's $83.64; third 4 1/2's $83.30; fourth 4 1/2's $84.08; Victory 3 3/4's $94.98; Liberty 4 3/4's $94.94.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, (AP)—New downturns in the price took place today owing chiefly to weakness of the New York stock market. Opening wheat prices, which ranged from 1 1/2 to 2 1/4 lower with March $1.60 to 1.61 and May $1.58 3/4 to 1.57, were followed by a decided further setback. Butlers which took place later were ascribed to profits taking by shorts and were more or less transient in character. The market closed nervous, 1-2 to 1 1/4 net lower, with March $1.60 3/4 to 1.61 and May $1.57 1/4 to 1.57 1/2. Corn after opening unchanged to 1 1/8 lower including May at 73 3/4 to 74 continued to recede. Notice that a large manufacturer of corn products would close its plant until after the holidays had a beneficial effect later. The close was unsettled, 7 1/2 to 1 1/2 net lower with May 73 3/4 to 73 3/8. Oats started 3 1/2 to 1 3/8 off, May 46 to 48 1/4 and then angling still more.

Higher quotations on hogs gave some strength to provisions.

CUSTOM RULES WILSON'S PLAN IN INAUGURATION

Retiring President Will Accompany Successor from White House to Capital and Back, Again to Executive Home for Lunch

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—President Wilson plans to accompany President-elect Harding from the White House to the capitol on March 4 and back again to the White House for luncheon as is the custom when a new chief executive is inaugurated. Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the president, said today that Mr. Wilson had outlined to him yesterday his plans with regard to inauguration day.

Will Receive Harding

Mr. Harding will call at the White House just before noon and will be received by the retiring executive. They will then ride down Pennsylvania avenue to the capitol, where the president-elect will take the oath of office and deliver his inaugural address.

The new and retiring president will lead the usual parade to the capitol from the White House, where Mr. Wilson will entertain Mr. Harding at luncheon. Immediately afterward, President Wilson will retire to his new home on 8 street to take up his life as a private citizen after eight years in the White House.

The continued steady improvement in the president's health, according to Secretary Tumulty, will make contemplated visit of the president with President-elect Harding to the capitol possible even in the event of the most inclement weather.

In High Spirits

Mr. Tumulty said today that when he visited the president yesterday he found him in better spirits than at any time since he was taken ill more than a year ago.

The president, Mr. Tumulty said, stated that he was not greatly interested in the writing of memoirs for an autobiography as it was a form of literature which had never greatly appealed to him. It has been generally understood that when Mr. Wilson retires from office he will take up the preparation of a history of the world war.

AUTHORITIES DECLARE LID ON TIGHT IN AGUA PRIETA

DOUGLAS, Ariz. (AP)—A report last night that gambling concessions were to be reported in Agua Prieta, Sonora, Mexico, just opposite this city, was denied by federal and municipal officials in the Mexican city today. Roulette wheels, poker tables, dice pits and chuck-a-luck tables were confiscated several months ago.

OBJECTS TO GLOVES

RHODEDAN, Wyo. (AP)—Royal County of Sheridan was last night awarded a decision over Jimmy Stewart of New York when Stewart refused to continue the fight after the fourth round of a scheduled ten round bout on the ground that six-ounce gloves had been furnished instead of five-ounce gloves. The referee gave the match to Conley, declaring Stewart had forfeited. Promoters of the match said five-ounce gloves were provided and that both fighters had agreed to use six-ounce gloves before the fight started. Both the boxers are welterweights.

BAST TO PLAY WEST

EVERETT, Wash. (AP)—Everett high school, regarded as western preparatory school football champions, will play the Cleveland Technical team at Everett, New Year's Day. The Cleveland team claims the eastern championship.

GERMANY WINS DELEGATES

The extent to which strict fulfillment of the Versailles treaty may be waived, however, depends upon the allied governments, before which recommendations have been made by the various delegates.

Virtually none of the delegates believes the treaty can be executed literally and allied experts agree with the Germans that reparations must be paid chiefly in kind. Some cash, however, will be demanded after a year or two, if not immediately.

Seek Common Accord

Today's meeting was really in preparation for the recess which will be taken until January 1. Allied delegates planned to meet apart this afternoon for the purpose of exchanging views and reaching a common accord which will be reflected in reports to the governments.

PREMIER SAYS LEAGUE MUST INCLUDE AMERICA

Lloyd-George Declares Real Progress Depends on All Nations Joining

LONDON, (AP)—David Lloyd George, the prime minister, presiding at a luncheon given today in the house of commons for the British and Dominion delegates to the recent league of nations assembly in Geneva, declared the league would never achieve real progress until all the nations were represented.

Mr. Lloyd George said he looked forward hopefully to the United States coming into the league. This, he asserted, was essential.

There could be no real peace, declared the prime minister, until competition in armaments ceased, and the future disarmament was possible for all nations must be in the league, for all must march together.

Mr. Lloyd George said he was glad to know that all were doing something. He asserted that if the Geneva assembly had existed in August, 1914, the war would have been impossible. He was sure there would be no obstacle to Germany's admission to the league if she manifested an intention to fulfill her obligations.

The league has almost done much, the premier asserted. For one thing it had raised the status of labor throughout the world. The labor movement was doing great things, he said.

The league's most conspicuous work probably was the establishment, the premier declared, of the international court of justice which would have a very determining effect on international justice in the future.

No league of nations, however, could possibly be regarded as complete until all the United States was included, Mr. Lloyd George declared.

There was no use laboring for the association of nations and for the establishment of peace, the prime minister declared, and on the other hand creating great armaments in order to force other nations into a competition which had more to do starting the late war than almost any other force.

Mr. Lloyd George said the nations could not take the risk of disarmament until every nation was included. It could be done only by agreement. Disarmament, he declared, was not a thing which could be done secretly and behind closed doors. It must be done in such a way that every one knew, so that the agreement, once arrived at, would be respected.

Mr. Lloyd George said all nations must reach a common agreement not to start against disastrous rivals in armaments, which must inevitably end in a clash. Certain amendments, he asserted, would be necessary before the league became a really effective exponent of international opinion.

GETTING CLOSER TO CONSUMERS
 Before business had reached the present perfection of system, the farmers would haul their produce to town and sell either to consumers, direct, or to grocers, who would take a small profit in passing the goods on to their patrons.
 This method has been almost generally abandoned for the more complex, and also more expensive, one of having several persons take profits between the time the farmer sells his produce and its arrival in the home of the consumer. In many cases these profits are shown to be out of proportion for the service rendered.
 It is admitted, of course, that few farmers can afford to take the time required to dispose of their stocks direct to consumers, so they prefer to sell to the jobber who visits the farm and buys an entire crop, or to the grocer, who becomes the distributor to the public.
 The complaint of both farmer and consumer is that the middlemen are taking more than a fair profit in the transaction, and there is an insistent demand that brokers and others who do not actually handle the farm products be eliminated from any participation in the business.
 The senate and house have passed a measure that would permit farmers to sell under the co-operative plan without incurring the penalties of the Sherman anti-trust law, and it is likely that it will soon become a law. Growers could market their produce in bulk through a farm agency and sell to grocers direct, or to consumers in quantity.
 If such a plan should succeed in eliminating interests which are taking unearned profits from the distribution of food products, it will have served well both the grower and consumer, who are equal sufferers under the present system of moving food from the producer to the home table.

A FIELD FOR REFORMERS
 This is a great season for reformers. With myriad devices to make the world utopian, a multitude of aspiring organizations are projecting themselves into the foreground. They are directed and supported by men of many types; practical and impractical, sensible and fanatical, sincere and insincere. They propose various programs: stricter motion picture censorship, Sunday blue laws, prohibition of tobacco, and a constitutional amendment declaring this to be a Christian country.
 In most cases the agitators probably believe what they propose is an important contribution to the public welfare. The difficulty lies in making the multitude see it that way. To gain this end, certain sums totalling millions of dollars are being raised, by which the people are to be "educated." The reformers have a hard row to hoe. At a time when the average man is conscious of a number of pressing needs that cry out for relief he is not likely to respond enthusiastically to the attempt to make him believe that other things are more important.

 It is too bad that the reformers do not pool their strength behind the things that the people need, instead of behind things which they are not sure they want. Among the things the people need, and for which the reformers could fight with a clear conscience, are:
 More and better homes in the cities.
 More and better schools in the country districts.
 Lower federal taxes by spending less on war machines and some other government departments.
 Conservation of resources, particularly our forests.
 These tasks are quite enough to challenge the ablest reform organizations in the nation. With better schools and homes, lower taxes, and protection of our inherent wealth, the people would be far happier and better satisfied with themselves and their lot.
 A happy people will not go far wrong.
 They might be able, even, to dispense with a reformer's chalk line.
