COUNT HUNGER ALLY AGAINST D'ANNUNZIAN

Starvation is Expected to Bring to End "State of War" Between "Regency of Quarnero" and Kingdom of Italy

PROCLAMATIONS BARRAGE ENGULFS RIVALS' CAMPS

LONDON. (AP)—Starvation is expected soon to bring to an end the "state of war" now existing between the "regency of Quarnero" at Fiume and the kingdom of Italy. The 48 hours' time limit given rival camps to leave the city expired at 6 o'clock last night, and it appears the Italian government troops have settled down to wait for hunger to defeat d'Annunzio's plan to combat the enforcement of the treaty of Rapallo. One government soldier is reported to have been killed by a bullet thrown by one of the d'Annunzio legionaries, and shots are said to have been fired at an Italian destroyer, but thus far the "war" has not been marked by any notable hostilities.

War of Words Rages

A barrage of proclamations has been hurled into the rival camps by d'Annunzio and General Cavaglio, commander of the government troops forming the cordon about Fiume. These proclamations have been unable to induce the people of Fiume to sacrifice their lives and fortunes in opposing the carrying out of the Rapallo pact. The people, however, do not seem to be very anxious to follow his advice. In spite of orders from the post-soldier forbidding anyone leaving Fiume, several hundred persons are said to have fled.

Russians Unknown Factor

The fact that some Russian troops comprise a part of General Wrangel's army have been landed in Dalmatia, thus caused apprehension in some quarters that they might be used to assist d'Annunzio from Fiume. It is asserted that the Russian troops are being used by the Russians for this purpose.

TRADE OPPORTUNITIES IN SPAIN POINTED OUT

American Commissioner Indicates Favorable Conditions in Nation

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Opportunities for trade with Spain are called to the attention of American business men in a report just made to the department of commerce by Trade Commissioner Arthur Young, dealing with the Spanish finance and trade conditions. Spain, Mr. Young said, is the only European nation with a balance of trade in its favor as a result of the war and has a surplus sufficient to pay cash for American goods.

Spain's balance of trade at the close of the year, Mr. Young said, was $722,000,000 and the condition of the entire country is prosperous. As a striking feature of the Spanish financial situation during the war, the commissioner pointed out that Spain even extended a credit of $30,000,000 to the United States.

The cost of living, Mr. Young reported, has increased less in Spain than in any other European country, and there has been practically no inflation of paper money, beyond that caused by the legitimate importation of gold. Public finance, he declared, has not been affected unfavorably by the war despite big private profits, as there has been but a ten percent increase in revenues from taxation and government expenditures have increased greatly, largely a large increase in the public debt.

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—A proclamation announcing "that the government of the United States believes the time has arrived when it may inaugurate the simple processes of its rapid withdrawal from the responsibility in connection with Dominican affairs" was issued at San Domingo today by Rear Admiral Thomas Snowden, naval governor, by direction of President Wilson.

Christmas Gift to People

The proclamation was in the nature of a Christmas gift to the Dominican people and precluded the withdrawal of American control over the affairs of the West Indian republic which began more than four years ago.

Admiral Snowden announced that a commission to represent Dominican citizens soon would be appointed with a technical adviser to be named by President Wilson to formulate amendments to the constitution, revise the laws of the republic and draft a new election law.

HARDING SEEKS TAFT'S COUNCIL

President Elect Turns to Former Chief Executive for Advice on Peace Plan

MARION, O. (AP)—President elect Harding turned to former President Taft today for counsel on the world peace problem and on practical details of organizing the next administration. The conference was arranged by Mr. Harding's request and is understood to have concerned particularly the proposal for a new international court in which the former president has been interested for many years. Mr. Taft was a supporter of the Versailles league but has taken the attitude that some different agency now must be organized to stabilize world conditions.

Expresses Encouragement

Mr. Taft spent almost the entire forenoon in conference with the president elect and issued this statement just before leaving Marion for Cincinnati.

"I am much encouraged to think that the country is working out a practical solution to the world league which while I may not be wholly satisfactory to the enthusiasts of either extreme, will satisfy those anxious to make progress and anxious to give the United States the control of the league. I should have in guiding all the nations to permanent peace so far as that is practicable."

Plastic State of Mind

Mr. Taft asserted that the president elect is in an accommodating state of mind as to details and even important provisions, if the definite objections he always has expressed to the methods and aims and obligations of a political and not a religious nature are obliterated in the new agreement.

SENATOR ASKS FOR SHAKE-UP IN GOVERNMENT

Frelinghuysen Advocates Reduction of Number of Employees to Pre-War Basis in Reconstructive Program

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A sweeping "reconstructive" program for the next administration, to effect a return to "constitutional government" and to place the public administration on a "businesslike and efficient" basis, was advocated in an address in the senate Thursday by Senator Frelinghuysen, republican, of New Jersey.

Senator Frelinghuysen advocated reduction to a pre-war basis of the number of government employees and abolition of the bureau of war risk insurance and transferees of its function to the pension office.

Olds Insurance Failure. Declaring that 90 per cent of the ex-service men who took out insurance policies with the government had dropped them, the senator said the government could not conduct an insurance business at a loss, and that it was "a fair conclusion that the war risk insurance bureau was a failure."

Pointing to the progress in world trade the senator declared those economic advantages could not be held "unless we repeal unwise tariff laws and rescind unwholesome physical practices."

American industry must be protected and fostered by a scientific tariff law," he said, along with a "scientific method of securing foreign trade."

For General Disarmament.

Discussing the question of the maintenance of naval forces as affecting the tax burden of all nations, the New Jersey senator declared it was impossible for this country to stand alone in the matter of disarmament and that he was in favor of proposals to Great Britain and Japan that their naval forces and ours should be equal.

"We should remedy our entire present fiscal arrangements," he said, "by taking the tax from small incomes, removing the excess profits taxes and the surtaxes, and by increasing the gain more revenue from a protective tariff and by a tax on manufacturers' sales."

Senator Frelinghuysen said the department of labor should "be reorganized and socialism eliminated."

CUBAN URGES FEDERAL RESERVE BANK SYSTEM

Financier Submits Recommendations with View to Straightening Out Financial Situation in Island

HAVANA, (AP)—Adoption by the Cuban government of as much of the United States federal reserve banking system as is legally possible has been recommended in a report presented by Jose Manuel Tarafa, a prominent Cuban financier. Senor Tarafa, who recently made an unsuccessful trip to the United States for the purpose of negotiating a Cuban loan, returned with American bankers, has submitted to the president a number of suggestions, which, he believes, will straighten out the financial situation in the island.

In case there are legal obstacles to Cuba being admitted to the United States federal reserve system, Senor Tarafa declares the United States government should be invited to cooperate with Cuba in establishing in this city a bank of emission. Another plan suggested is that invitations be extended to American banks to establish here, in agreement with the Cuban government, a bank of emission under the same regulations that govern the United States federal reserve bank.

WOMEN ARE DISPLEASED BY "HATS ON" CRUSADE

Lack of Courtesy is Seen in the Movement Launched by the Cincinnati Builders

CINCINNATI, O., (AP)—"Hats on" in elevators, even though there may be women passengers, is the slogan of the Cincinnati Building Owners and Merchants' association, which has started a crusade to that end. Whether they will win their contention that the removal of hats in crowded elevators is a menace to passengers in the city is a matter which remains to be seen. For many prominent Cincinnati women are opposed to the abolition of this old-fashioned courtesy. "The habit," said Captain W. M. McIntyre, president of the association, "was introduced by southern people traveling in the north. Originally, I understand, negroes were required to remove their hats on entering elevators and in time white men followed the example when women were on the lift. On the same principle why do not men take off their hats when traveling in a street car which also contains women passengers?"

An Captain McIntyre got the following answers from women: "I do not see any reason to discard this courtesy. Courtesy is not a gift. It is merely an exemplification of what a man or woman will endeavor to do to decide the problem for the men."

—Mrs. Kennon Dunham, president of the Cincinnati Women's club.

"Just because women have been enfranchised is not a sufficient reason to affect the innate courtesy of men which a true gentleman will show to ward a woman." —Mrs. Fenton Lawson, president of the Woman's City club.

"I do not see why now that women have been given equal voting right with men than any established custom should be sacrificed." —Miss Agnes Hilton, representative of First district of Ohio, League of Women Voters.

"I do not believe men are doing to lose their chivalry and courtesy during the recent campaign convinced me that the men are not going to lose it. The question depends upon the woman to a great extent. If she will hold this respect no matter what field of business or political activity she may enter." —Mrs. Florence Gogge Schwarz, representative of Hamilton County Republican Executive committee.

CHARLES WAITS HOPEFULLY FOR RETURN TO RULE

Former Emperor of Austria-Hungary Tells Supporters in Budapest Powerful Influences Work in His Behalf

BUDAPEST, (AP)—Former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary has sent a letter to his supporters here encouraging them in the hope that he will be restored to the Austro-Hungarian throne.

"Powerful agents are at work to restore the Austro-Hungarian monarchy and thereby prevent the Austrians from joining Germany," the erstwhile monarch wrote from Prangins, Switzerland, where he is still in exile.

"Wait patiently, our trusty and well-beloved, the circumstances are favorable and with the help of God I shall return to my faithful Magyar subjects." The letter was brought by a confidant to Charles' adherents headed by Prince Louis Windischgrätz, Count Julius Andrássy and Baron Joseph Szerecsenyi. In it he warned his partisans against making alliances or conspiring with adventurers because, he wrote, he had no doubt about the ultimate victory of the legitimate principle.

"My claim," the letter continues, "is supported by the vatican and backed by the French aristocracy, the clergy and the higher military circles. I hope that the Catholic population of Croatia and Slovakia will be only too glad to return under my scepter and King Ferdinand of Rumania will not refuse some territorial concessions from me who saved his throne at the time when Rumania was occupied by the Germans."

NATCHEZ, (AP)—Tucker Gibson, known as the champion big game hunter of Texas parish, Louisiana, claims he owns a pig which he uses in the capacity of a bird dog, and asserts the pig makes perfect stands and never flinches in the face of a wild animal.

Mr. Gibson said that soon after the birth of the pig, on the death of its mother, it was adopted by a pointer dog with a litter of pups and that the pig continues to associate with its foster brothers and sisters after it became well grown. NEW SONG NOW SUNG BY THOSE DEFLATED RECS

Want to Stay On in Cincinnati They Tell Fans Once Scored as Hicks

Players of the Cincinnati Reds who became so cheery last season, because they won a world's championship, they flouted fans and critics in Redland and went around with their heads up in the air and a "were-to-good-for-this-town" attitude, are changing their tune. Now that it's proposed to trade off some of the convicted crowd, they have taken a tumble to themselves and have begun to squeal, according to Bill Phelan, who writes of their new view of things as follows:

"None of the Reds wants to leave here. Not a bit of it. They have no desire to be traded or sold to other clubs. Even the fact that a transfer is usually accompanied by a salary raise doesn't seem to affect them. They wish to stay here for at least one more season—just long enough to make up for the flop of 1920, and prove that they were the real thing in 1919. Desiring to stage a come-back, to make good with the local fans; above all, to win a world's series for Cincinnati, and to win it so that there can be no kick or question, actuates the players.

"Grah Just Loves the Town."

"I'm thoroughly domesticated here," says Helme Grah. "Like the town; have become a regular citizen; don't want to move. I want to go through next season to a pennant, and I know the crowd can do it if they forget about last summer and pull together."

Cleveland Grid Champions Start on Western Trip

East Tech High Squad Leaves for Everett to Play Title Game

CLEVELAND, O., (AP)—Coach Sam A. Williamson, and his East Tech high school football squad, 20 strong, left here today for Everett, Wash., where they will contest on New Year's day with the holders of the Pacific coast title for the national high school football honors.

All the players were reported in excellent physical condition. A work-a-day deal I seem to be in it—but I'd rather stick here. If I have the chance here!" queried Larry Kojak. "No, me, anyhow! I refused to play with Brooklyn, and then accepted terms with Cincinnati; I make this my home in the off season. I like the folks here, and I want to stick around. We can show them all some dust next season, and I want to be in on it."

"They have not sold or traded, according to all reports," remarked big Nick Allen. "All right, if I have to go—but I hope I don't. I never met a finer crowd of fellows or lived in a better town. You notice I've left the west and come here for kitch, don't you?"

"I'd like to show that I can pitch, and win games, too—win them for this ball club," declared Walter Butler. "Every time there's any talk of a deal I seem to be in it—but I'd rather stick here. If I have the chance here!"

SECRETARIES OF NAVY AND WAR GREET FORCES

Baker and Daniels Send Last Christmas Messages to Men in Service

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Secretaries Baker and Daniels sent today to the men of the army and navy, respectively, the last Christmas messages they will write as the heads of the military establishments. Mr. Daniels' greeting was addressed "To the Navy Family" and said:

"Christmas greetings and appreciation of the splendid service which the navy has rendered in the year that is closed and in the work we do in its past contribution to real Americanism is an earnest evidence of its future service in preserving the peace of the world." Mr. Baker's message was as follows: "The secretary of war greets the officers and men of the army and wishes them not only a happy Christmas, but a New Year filled with peace and progress. The traditions of valor and sacrifice established by the army in the world war are a common pride and inspiration to all the people of the country. The new army inherits these traditions, and it seeks not only to be worthy of them but to carry them itself both for the country's defense should emergency call and usefulness to the country in time of peace."

"We all have an interest in the welfare of each soldier and sailor and wish each one of them prosperity and happiness."

LENINE PINS HOPES ON ELECTRIFICATION PLAN

Bolshevik Premier Evolves a Scheme to Restore Russian Economic Life

LONDON, (AP)—A wireless dispatch received here from Moscow says that Nikolai Lenine, the bolshevik premier, addressing the all-Russian congress of Soviets, dealt in detail with measures for the economic restoration of the country. He declared that the restoration of transportation and of agricultural and industrial production was possible if the government's program for electrification was realized.

"An electrification plan," said Lenine, "has been elaborated, the financial cost of which is estimated at 1,500,000,000 gold rubles. We must provide the cost of electrification by concessions to foreign capital and exports of timber." The dispatch quotes the Moscow newspaper as saying that the soviet government has resolved to abolish the right to private ownership of books. All existing libraries will be approved by the states, and in the future it will be illegal for private individuals to own books.

The kiddies were "borrowed" for the evening and each girl provided a little gift for her child. It's a wise miss who knows how to look a bashful lover. "Pinto" had the right idea! Fresh from the wild and woolly west she hit high society like a tornado—Oh, Lady!—she sure jazzed things up a heap. And when she fell in love with a bashful Romeo did she coyly arch her eyebrows and wait for him to pop the question? She did not! She went after him with a wicked lookin' 45—colled larin' around his hard-boiled neck—and wadded him into a proposition. See Mabel Normand as "Pinto," the rollicking, frolicking, two-gun whirlwind. Talk about fun! Why there's tons of joy jammed into every foot of "Pinto." Mabel Normand's latest. You'll laugh yourself into hysterics when you see irresistible Mabel as the wild and woolly western whirlwind stampee a crowd of monacled Montys and long-nosed Lizzies—stages a real wild west show that winds up in a carnival of gun-play—and puts the finishing touches to her social triumph by rapping a social Romeo and making a fiancéalized caveman out of him Gem theater today and tomorrow.

PLANS ARE LAID FOR THOROUGH YULETIDE COMMEMORATION HERE

Church, Society and Commercial Institutions to Celebrate the One Most Prominent Day of the Christian Year—Business Will Suspend while Sacred Services Mark the Day

Tomorrow, Christmas day, will be celebrated as a festival occasion in Twin Falls. The usual Yuletide plans have been made by individual family, church and organization for the proper celebration of the day, with services of more or less extraordinary importance.

As far as commercial circles are involved there will be no business transacted, except such as is of a most cursory or routine order. Factories, banks, stores and offices generally will observe a closed day, heads of all enterprises and the help giving the time over to the celebration of Christmas in one way or another.

General conditions, climatic and otherwise, all abound in the Christmas season spirit and appearance. Even the weathermen has done a fair job, toward making the period extraordinarily reasonable in appearance, the entire countryside being clad in virgin white snow, with a promise of more snow for tonight and tomorrow.

Some of the churches have planned services appropriate to the occasion, masses being scheduled for St. Edward's Catholic, and Holy Communion at the Church of the Resurrection, Episcopal. At the courthouse, the Knights Templar will conduct the usual Christmas observances of that order during the morning, with special festive services.

City, county state and federal offices will be closed all day, with the exception of the postoffice, which will provide a period of comfort for those luckless ones who failed to get their Christmas packages today. The general delivery window will be open from noon to 1 o'clock p. m., and there will also be a city carrier delivery during the day. At the courthouse and the municipal hall no business of any sort will be transacted.

There will be no issue of The News, the entire force from the "old man" to the "devil" taking a day off for a celebration.

SALVATION ARMY WILL PROVIDE 287 DINNERS

Charity Organization Makes Extensive Plans to Extend Christmas Cheer

Yesterday officers of the Salvation Army, and aides, began packing the Christmas dinner baskets. This afternoon and tomorrow morning these baskets will be delivered where they are most needed.

"The News" "White Stocking" has been a potent factor in gathering together a tremendous amount of such things as are designed to, and do delight the heart of the child. Scores of stockings filled with fruits, nuts and toys have been gleaned from all quarters of the city, in be presented to children whose guardians have found it beyond their means to provide these good things that mean so much to a child especially at this period of the year. The stockings will be delivered to the Salvation Army and on the night of December 29 will be distributed by Santa Claus at a Christmas tree festival held in parish hall.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT... The most beautiful thing about the vital thing we call the Christmas spirit is that it may be as abundant in a period of privation as in an era of prosperity.

Because Twin Falls and the Twin Falls country may have felt the cramp of reconstruction depression in common with the rest of the world, so that the trinkets with which the Christmas spirit deals may not be as numerous nor as lavish as they have been in seasons past...

If there are circumstances that seem to cloud and mar your Christmas, forget it. Because at Christmas, if at any time, it is right and proper that every day cares should be cast aside for the day. Find someone, preferably a child, whose Christmas will be made brighter through your efforts...

THE ABUSED BACHELOR

Who is it that always delights the mothers by chucking their youngsters under the chin, and who never fails to have some peppermints in his pockets? Why, the bachelor friend of the family, of course. Yet you never hear his praises sung. There is a Mother's Day, and a Father's Day, but there is no day for unwed uncles, natural or acquired.

Every bachelor is a potential uncle to every kid. Every bachelor responds when Johnny trots out his shiny new pig bank. When Daddy can't find a penny for sister, the old bach who happens to be there sticks his hand in his pocket, remarks that he believes he has a little chicken-fee, and presents Sis with a big nickel-invariably.

Married folks are entirely too fond of running down the bachelor. Maybe the poor fellow does occasionally need a button, and perhaps he's not just as careful as his friends' wives think he should be. But goodness knows we all have faults. If you think a man never amounts to anything until he gets married, just consider some of the notable bachelors of history.

Michel Angelo, the artist, was unmarried, as was Voltaire, the philosopher. Then there were Rabelais, Chopin, Beethoven, Charles Lamb, Pope, Henry James and Swinburne. Add Petrarch, Kitchener, Cecil Rhodes and President Buchanan to the list, and you'll agree that the bachelors have a little Hall of Fame all their own.

CHRISTMAS IS HERE

Amid the boisterous joys that trail along with Santa Claus, the gifts, the sweets, the many glad surprises and the delightful laughter of the children, it is good to know that all this festivity has not been idle. There has been a kindly meaning in it all.

Not many mothers and fathers are there who have not reminded their increasingly hilarious flock time and again that it is more blessed to give than to receive. Which is not the crow's foot of gladness with which the youngster seizes his much-to-be-prized toy that reveals him to his parents. And those anxious ones are always on the alert to see what kind of man or woman is in the making in their home.

Neither is it the little, modest, sidelong glance that stole to sister's face, the wistful eyes that timidly sought Daddy's for a second, while the recipient of the childish gift tore open the tissue and tinsel and disclosed the loving present that lay there.

The thrill that came to sister or to father at that moment did not compare to the tingling glow that welled up from the heart of the giver. This is the joy of Christmas. It is not new. Since Jesus walked in Galilee the world has known it. It is more blessed to give than to receive.

"Pro Bono Publico"

A statement by the committee of governors, contained in Harrisburg, Pa., during the first part of this month is recommended as worthy to be hung in the office of every banker, manufacturer and merchant. But it is also worthy to be brought to and kept in the attention of many others, who are not bankers, manufacturers and merchants, but who perhaps do not even have offices with that idea in mind. The News prints the statement herewith, so that none whom its message may affect can plead ignorance of it, and so that even he who runs...

Let every individual do all he can to help and encourage his neighbor. Let there be a complete mobilization of the financial and spiritual assets of every community. Neither God nor the government ought to be asked to help those who do not first make every effort possible to help themselves. There ought, however, to be a united effort by every community to keep any good man from being destroyed because he cannot immediately meet his obligations. Under existing conditions, it would be the acme of inhumanity and of unkindness to force any debtor into bankruptcy if by the most liberal indulgence he could ultimately pay his debt. Business failures do more than the wreck business; they oftentimes destroy men.

Liberal indulgence and renewal should be granted by the manufacturers to the jobbers, by the jobbers to the merchants, by the merchants to the individuals. It is no time for a creditor to seize his debtor by the throat and say: "Pay me what thou owest."

To those timely admonitions there can possibly be honest objection on either moral or material grounds. This does not mean that we should attempt to hold up prices or otherwise interfere with economic laws. It means that those who have the power in any community should try to prevent business failures. Well managed communities tax themselves and spend money to keep up a fire department to prevent fire losses and a health department to prevent epidemics and disease. Why should it not be equally loyal and prudent to unite in an understanding and proceed upon a policy to prevent unnecessary business losses?—Hosmer News.

BUILDING OF SWIMMING POOL IS GOAL SET FOR NEW YEAR

Final and Determined Effort to Be Made to Bring Sum Already Subscribed Up to Needed Figure to Put Project into Execution

To date the sum of $15,700.00 has been collected or pledged by the people of this section for the building of a community swimming pool for the benefit of the public at large. The checks, cash and pledges are in the possession of the Twin Falls News and in the early months of the new year a final and determined effort will be made to bring the present sum up to the needed figure to put the project into execution.

Last fall, within a period of some thing like six weeks, $15,700.00 was pledged to the News for the specific purpose of providing some sort of place where boys might learn to swim and their fathers and brothers enjoy the privilege of a plunge with them. For years ago a project has been discussed wherever men were gathered together. For years all men have agreed upon the desirability of such a project. To crystallize this sentiment and to actually build such a swimming pool will be one of the tasks to which The News now commits itself for the year of 1921.

In order that all may understand the precise status of the movement and as a means of holding and also creating new interest in the plan, The News offers hereafter the complete list of date of all moneys in its possession either in cash or pledges:

Merry Christmas, and all that sort of thing, dostcherknow!

Of course you will have to be merry without the "hoopah."

Sort of thought there must be some thing wrong with Joe Stechgr.

We well remember how Johnny Wilson remarked likewise after he had, by a fluke, won the middleweight championship from Mike O'Dowd.

Johnny hasn't had a match of half way importance since he got the decision over the St. Paul scrapper.

Pete Herman has started for England to battle Jimmy Wilde, and if we mistake not Pete is due for another of the same.

Announcement is made that E. F. Seor, manager of Al Somers, coast light heavyweight boxer, has purchased the franchise of the Gato City Athletic club, and will run regular shows this winter.

At least Clara Smith is assured of a Christmas dinner.

There's a lot of talk abroad that Jim Thorpe has been signed by Kid Glenson for the White Sox outfield.

If this proves true the Sox will be assured of one slugging to take the place of the departed Jackson and Felch.

Ain't no such animal.

Jack Britton, welterweight champion, is to start soon on a weariful expedition. He will cross the Atlantic to meet his old antagonist of the ring, Ted Lewis, in a London ring.

'Praps Ted thinks the English rules of the ring will so completely mystify Jack that he will be enabled to wrest the crown from the Yankee boxer this time.

You know that is the way Freddie Welch got the title from Jimmy Britt.

John R. Bowers, a 14-year-old lad of McKeanport, died the other day from bloodpoisoning resulting from a bruise on the shin. The hurt was received in a basketball contest.

Montana has a new boxing law which permits 15-pound bouts in any place in the state except under proper legal supervision.

SAYS BRITISH ATTEMPT TO LOWER FLAG OF U. S.

Woman Gives Version of Attack on Irish Home to Quins Committee

WASHINGTON, (AP)—An attempt by British soldiers to tear down an American flag from her father's home in Queenstown, Ireland, where she was staying last August, was described Thursday by Mrs. Michael Mohan, of Corona, Long Island, before the committee of the Committee of One Hundred investigating conditions in Ireland.

Mrs. Mohan said she had put up the flag as a protection against raids and that when a party of soldiers saw it, one of them shouted, "Tear down that flag, you Irish!" and another "Go to hell!" The soldiers then, she said, smashed windows in a fruitless attempt to climb up to the flag.

The witness asked the commission that when she reported the incident to the American Consul McAndrews at Queenstown she was informed that "the English hate Americans as much as they do Irish" and that the consul would not be permitted to cable a report to America as the telegram would be censored.

John C. Clarke, who said he was an Erie railroad policeman, said he was at the house in Queenstown mentioned by Mrs. Mohan, and was forced half a dozen times to hold up his hands while the American flag was smashed in the place. No arms or ammunition had been found in the house, he said.

Clarke, who said he went to Ireland to give his young son into the care of relatives, declared he saw a member of the black and tan near Cork tear rings from a woman's ears and take other jewelry.

The hearings were adjourned today until January 12.

ORATORIO SONG FEAST TONIGHT

Community Singers Will Give "Messiah" in Parish Hall Beginning at 10:15

The final rehearsal of "The Messiah," to be given by a community chorus in Parish hall tonight, was held last night and gave every promise of ringing success for the actual rendition. All soloists are in rare form for their parts, and the choruses went along with vigor and snap. At the conclusion of the practice Conductor Harry Baratt announced absolute satisfaction with the preparation, and stated the company is quite ready for tonight's festival.

The prelude will start promptly at 10:15 o'clock tonight with Miss Mary Hampton at the organ, and Miss Emma Smith at the piano. From that time to the ultimate conclusion there will be no delays, except such as are necessary for rest and announcements. The recital is timed to close on the stroke of midnight with the Hallelujah chorus.

The chorus is composed of some of the best vocal musicians in this community, and includes such soloists as Mrs. O. P. Duvall, Miss Sara Thomas, Mrs. W. H. Dwight, Mrs. T. J. Woods, Miss Martha Andrews, Mrs. F. S. Bell, D. A. Salmon, James S. Hall, Nelson Hayward, all of whom have important parts to take in this great oratorio. No set admission fee will be charged, but to defray such expenses as has been incurred in preparation of the festival, purchase of music, rent of hall, engaging of seating equipment, installation of a stable illumination for silver, and similar necessary expense, a silver collection will be asked of the audience.

CHILD'S ARM SQUEEZED BY ROLLS OF WRINGER

Small Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Albert Suffers Painful Injury

Ethelyn, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Albert, residing in the Colonial apartments, received serious injuries to an arm yesterday. The child was with her mother in the laundry where an electric wringer was being operated. She tried to put an article between the rollers which caught the fingers and drew in arm to the point where the mechanism before Mrs. Albert was able to throw the machine out of gear. The fingers were severely squeezed and many of the arm ligaments were torn. An X-ray examination reveals no broken bones.

ASKS ADJUSTMENT

Asking a rebate on a bill for an drinking services, Nelson Hayward, administrator for the estate of Charles E. Carpenter, has instituted an action in the probate court against P. J. Grossman & Company. The amount involved is $459.

SUNDAY SERVICE TO BE GIVEN TO MUSIC

Presbyterian Choir Prepares a Program of Extraordinary Merit

Under the direction of Mrs. O. P. Duvall another musical service will be conducted by the choir of the Presbyterian church next Sunday night. The service is the second of the sort given by this quartet choir this season, and gives promise of being as eminent a success as the first, given a month ago.

The program consists of four anthems by the quartet and three organ numbers, while Miss Gladys Orr at the console. The service opens with Handel's "Largo," as a prelude, and is followed immediately by Buck's "Lent Kinilly Light," one of the most charmingly well harmonized sacred numbers by this eminent composer. "Silent Sea," by Neidlinger, a semi-secular selection, is almost equal to the Buck number in harmonic excellence, and takes the second place on the vocal section of the program. Miss Orr will give Beethoven's "Adagio" as an offertory selection, following this with Wistenhof's "The Answer." C. N. Beatty, tenor, will be soloist in the rendition of Ward's "The Lord Is Gracious." The school of festival music closes with "Praise the Lord," by Rindberger.

ZAHN IS SUED.

Jack Craig has brought suit in the district court against W. F. Zahn an Elizabeth Zahn for judgment amounting to $461.35, alleged to be due on a promissory note.

White Christmas Seems Quite Well Assured Just Now

If the weather man's hunch is right Christmas will sure be white.

The prediction is for more snow tonight and Saturday, which latter is Christmas day. And every indication points to a successful issue for the goose, as the wind drives keenly from a notably snow-bringing direction.

Top temperature yesterday was 33 with 20 last night. Precipitation amounted to .02 inch.
