REPUBLICANS IN SENATE FAIL TO END FILIBUSTER

Senators Clash Over House Emergency Tariff Measure with Hitchcock Leading Opposition for Democrats

WOULD OPEN MARKETS TO WORLD WITHOUT BARRIER

WASHINGTON, (AP)—After prolonged and at times heated debate, the senate today sent the house emergency tariff bill to the finance committee. Whether the committee will hold hearings remains to be determined, but some members have expressed opposition to such a plan.

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Efforts of republican leaders to end today what they described as a democratic filibuster against the house emergency tariff measure were unavailing. A democratic motion to send the measure to the commerce committee instead of the finance committee was held on the table by a vote of 33 to 12.

Acting chairman McCumber of the finance committee opposed efforts of the democrats to have the bill referred to some other committee, but he told the senate that he would oppose the measure in its present form. Other republican leaders defended sections of the bill, while Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, the acting democratic leader and other democrats vigorously opposed it.

Senator Harrison, democrat, Missia said, denounced republican senators for attempting to hasten passage of what he declared was the "most iniquitous piece of legislation the country has ever seen."

Declaring the bill was "a sop" that would not assist the farmer, he said the "high protectionists" of the east would reap the benefit and the farmers would be "left in the cold."

D'ANNUNZIAN LINES FORCED TO CITY EDGE

Land and Sea Forces Arrayed Against Poet-Warrior Tighten Grip, Reducing Legionnaires to Hopeless Position

DEMONSTRATIONS MIRROR SITUATION AT CAPITAL

ROME, (AP)—It was reported from Fiume today that Gabriele D'Annunzio, the immigrant leader in that city had been killed while trying to prevent a fight between his legionnaires and regular Italian soldiers.

LONDON, (AP)—Italian government troops were believed today slowly but surely closing the iron ring around Fiume, where Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio and his little force of legionnaires were standing still.

Reports from the city have been made, but it appeared that the soldiers commanded by General Cavaglia had forced the D'Annunzian lines back into the outskirts of the city, and that the fall of the city might not be long delayed.

Land and sea forces arrayed against D'Annunzio began to move forward toward the city yesterday and advised away the grip they had taken had reduced the legionnaires in Fiume to an almost hopeless position. The land advance was made from three directions, and did not encounter any resistance.

REPRESENTATIVE OF REGIMONY HAS SMALL HOPE FOR SUCCESS

ROME, (AP)—Little hope for Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio will be able to hold Fiume against Italian regulars is entertained by Signor Odengo, local representative of the "regency of Quarenzo" who, with several bands of sympathizers has been anxiously waiting developments along the Adriatic.

"I am afraid all is lost, unfortunately, even honor," said Odengo today. "All advises point to the conclusion that we must abandon the last hope of being Italian, as the government has granted the port of Barosa, between Fiume and Susak, to Jugoslavia, under a secret understanding. The Italian government is now preparing to capture Fiume with military forces and apply the treaty by force. Captain D'Annunzio, with 4,500 men, cannot resist an attack by 20,000 unless a miracle happens, but it is a shame."

ROYAL GUARDS PUT DOWN DEMONSTRATION IN ROME

WOMAN SLAYER SUSPECT GIVES FUTURE PLANS

Clara Smith Hamon Declares She Will Devote Energies to Atoning to Her Family for Sorrow Brought Upon It

BIG SPRINGS, TEXAS. (AP)—Condemnation of her future energies to atoning to her family "for the sorrow she has brought it" and determination never again to waste another hour of life were vowed by Clara Smith, ex-cousin of Ardmore, in answer to a charge of murder in connection with the death of Jake L. Hamon.

Covers Wide Range.

In an interview with the correspondent of the Associated Press lasting nearly an hour, she spoke earnestly on religion, philosophy, poetic recitation, art, fancy work, and most earnestly of all her impressions of Mexico where she stayed three weeks before giving herself up to the first of her friends, Buck Garrett, of Ardmore, in June, Wednesday night. She adamantly avoided discussing the charge against her and mentioned Hamon's name only once in a rather casual conversation in connection with his retiring from active life.

The interview, which took place aboard the train on which she is traveling, was first granted by her since her surrender. "I have just been reading some of the many letters I have received from my dear friends," she began, "I wanted to tell you that I am a Christian. I had in Chihuahua City. They were deeply religious, though not orthodox. They mothered and fathered me as if I were a child. They brought me flowers and even toys. When I would thank they protested that there was only one benefactor and whatever they did was done by Him through them. I have learned a great deal from their lesson and experience to me, that visit to Chihuahua City.

Captivated by Mexicans.

"As I told them before I left, before I entered Mexico I hated Mexicans, but I am loving them, although I saw much of the beautiful religion I could not adopt for myself. They believe in spirits. Although I do not say that this belief is wrong, I know that I feel that I am loved by religion—for I have one of my own. I am too much afraid of myself to let myself dabble in the occult.

"When I got there again and I intend to get there again, rest—I shall teach my friends something of ventilation, cleanliness and hygiene." When asked whether she ever expected to return to her secretarial career, she replied: "I have no plans; I know only that I shall devote myself to making amends to my family for the suffering I have brought upon them. I shall never again waste even an hour of precious time left me. I do not believe people should ever retire from active work. I am always suggesting that Mr. Hamon should retire."

Gives View on Life.

Her face still slightly drawn from the strain of her recent experiences, took a new glow of animation as she leaned forward and said: "I believe that, one must grow even during old age. When people don't grow, it is their fault."

"Referring to the place of women in American life, she said: "I frequently told my Chihuahua City friends I knew I could never make a Mexican man happy; they take their wives too much for granted, and they do not believe their women should have a will of their own."

"I would much prefer to read a good book to doing this sort of thing. After this I don't know whether it is worth while after all."

"During the interview she emphasized that her name was Clara Smith Hamon and not Miss Smith as she has many times been referred to in published stories.

Praises Westerners

As the interview drew to a close, because Mrs. Hamon complained she felt tired and dizzy headed, she added: "One thing more I wanted to tell you. How good it looked to see those tall understanding westerners waiting for me at the Jurest station. They have all been so good and wonderful toward me that I can't help feeling deeply grateful. I felt like throwing myself in Mr. Garrett's arms. I had almost collapsed in my home Sheriff Orndorff of El Paso was so helpful when he said: 'There, there, don't worry; you are among friends; you are in the U. S. A. Q. These western men are wonderful.' Sheriff Garrett and Attorney Charles A. Coakley, of Ardmore, beamed. One of Mrs. Hamon's attorneys, W. P. McLean, Jr., of Fort Worth, introduced a party of his associates and passengers to her today at their request. One of them assured her they wanted her to feel that 'Mexicans were not the only ones who sympathized with her.' Mr. McLean and his associates had occasional conferences with their client.

Garrett Typical Westerner

Sheriff Garrett is a typical western peace officer of moving picture traditions, long limbed, slow spoken, and wearing the inevitable slouch hat. Only twenty-nine days of his forty-year life have been spent in the east. He is a second cousin of Sheriff Pat Garrett of Lea County, New Mexico, who killed 'Billy the Kid,' the notorious outlaw.

Sheriff Garrett celebrated his twenty-first birthday as a prisoner in Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., charged with murder.

URGES CONTROL OF PERISHABLE FOODS MARKET

Federal Trade Commission Presents to Congress Conclusions Declaring Federal Action Necessary

OPERATION OF EXPORT TRADE ACT COMMENDED

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Establishment of central markets for perishable food products in all large cities and the setting up of a federal licensing system applicable to all dealers in such food, those markets is proposed by the federal trade commission in its annual report Sunday to congress.

The commission's conclusions are based on an investigation covering many months and it declares that federal action is necessary to obtain effective regulation and to avoid unfair and wasteful practices with the consequent effect on prices. In the present system the commission says that it believes should be eliminated and it suggests that the handling of these products be surrounded by numerous regulations and restrictions such as the recording of available supplies, the dating of goods, advertising and provisions for auction marketing.

Would Eliminate Hoarding

Facilities should be made adequate, the commission says, to enable the producer to ship freely into the central markets and to effectively regulate the hoarding of his interests. The marketing system should be so governed that objectionable hoarding would be eliminated and proper co-ordination of transportation facilities should be accomplished to make deliveries certain when required.

The commission says that "the need of reforms are hardly to be expected to be accomplished by the initiative of dealers," and asserts that state and municipal authorities lack adequate power to effectively regulate the handling of the food supplies. Although co-operation of state and local authorities and railroads might accomplish the ends sought, the commission believes this plan does not hold out much hope for a satisfactory solution of the problem.

Turning to wheat products, the commission says it has found that concentration of the milling industry has progressed far enough so that "probably ten of the largest milling concerns could supply the demand of the country for flour." The commission mentions incidentally that its figures from 37 milling corporations showed that their sales had increased from $180,000,000 to $354,000,000 between 1914 and 1918 while their annual profit had grown from $5,500,000 to $20,000,000 in the same period.

Corporation Beneficial.

Reporting on the operation of the Webb-Pomerene act permitting formation of associations for export trade, the commission informs congress that this act has served as "a decided factor" in promoting the progress of the American manufacturers in foreign markets. The commission says that during the year 23 associations comprising approximately 732 concerns whose offices and plants are distributed over 43 states of the Union reported to it as operating under the export trade act.

Satisfaction Expressed.

"In reply to questionnaires sent out by the commission requesting an expression of opinion as to the actual working out of the export trade act, the replies received for the most part expressed satisfaction over results obtained under the law. It was reported that the system of collective advertising and selling makes for the elimination of much useless expense and duplication of effort. Several associations reported that their system of conducting business abroad is meeting with the hearty approval of the foreign customer."

The commission says also that the law instead of increasing the strength of the already great American industrial establishments, has enabled the smaller concerns to band together in a fashion to push fully organized export trade in a more competitive manner which they are not able to do at home. To this extent, the commission believes, the law has worked to the great advantage of the small firms.

SAYS GROWERS WILL CONTROL WHEAT IN 1921

Organization Official Predicts Early Attainment of Object to Dictate Terms on Distribution and Marketing

MEMBERSHIP OF 100,000 IN FOUR STATES CLAIMED

WICHITA, Kan., (AP)—The Wheat Growers association of America, which has been conducting a campaign to induce growers to withhold their wheat from the market until prices are higher, plans to have its members' wheat organized within the next six months that the wheat growers will be able to control the price paid for the 1921 wheat crop, according to W. H. McGreevy, secretary and treasurer.

The association now has a membership of approximately 100,000 in the states of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Nebraska, according to Mr. McGreevy, who has his headquarters here. The organization will be extended, he said, to Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota.

Aims at Control

"The purpose of the National Wheat Growers association is to control the distribution and marketing of wheat through financial and selling agencies of its own selection at a price based on cost, plus a fair and reasonable profit," said secretary McGreevy.

"Not only the wheat growers of our association but the wheat growers in general are refusing to sell wheat at present prices except in cases where financial conditions force the sale. For more than thirty days we have withheld our wheat from the market until now a large number of the flour mills are idle and the local and terminal elevators are nearly empty. The wheat grower feels that he has practically accomplished what seemed at first impossible, and is now encouraged to sell wheat at a price which is fair and just and shall be paid him for his labor and money invested."

Objects to 'Strike' Term

Mr. McGreevy objected to the use of the term "wheat strike" in referring to the action of the growers.

"Our growers are not striking as is commonly meant by the term," he said. "We are still sowing and attending to the many arduous duties of the farm. We are only holding our wheat to be marketed at any time the producer may think it at a fair price."

The organization was formed about a year and a half ago in southern Kansas and northern Oklahoma. A. Slaughter of Manchester, Okla., was the originator and early promoter. According to its promoters its growth in the first six months was slow but in the last few months it has been rapid until the membership list has spread every wheat growing county in the four states organized.

Claims Fair Percentage

The four states now organized (Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas) in which a membership of 100,000 is claimed, have 220,000 wheat growers, according to Kansas board of agriculture statistics.

Forty-five per cent of growers and members of the association, according to this, Mr. McGreevy's statement is that about 40 per cent of growers in the wheat sections of the states now organized are members.

The four states produced this year 232,955,000 bushels out of the total for United States of 750,040,000 bushels.

The addition of Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota would bring the production up to 359,003,000 bushels, or slightly less than one-half that of the entire U. S.

Much Wheat is Held

The Kansas state board of agriculture recently issued a report on the wheat in farmers' hands in Kansas. It says: "This year's Kansas wheat crop amounted approximately to 145,000,000 bushels, according to a preliminary report. Growers now estimate that of the total production 53.4 per cent, or 77,466,727 bushels, is still in the farmers' hands. At about the same date last year 35.5 per cent, or 50,000,000 bushels was in possession of producers, while in 1918, 11 per cent, or 10,000,000 bushels, was reported as held by growers. "Chief among the reasons given for the unusually large amount of wheat in farmers' hands are the drastic drop in price and the car shortage. Reporters estimate that probably 47 per cent of the wheat usually would have been marketed early had cars been available, but that now wheat is being held mainly in hopes of such an upturn in price as will return a profit—an exercise of business judgment which should be as free from criticism or excoite no more comment than the action of any, a hard-earner who declines to sell his stock costing $10 for which his customer offers $5.00."

COMPETITIVE HUNT IS HARD ON 'CROP MENACE'

New Hampshire Farmers Enjoy Best Sport While Preparing Way for the Next Planting Season

SUNAPEE, N. H., (AP)—The farmers of this countryside have rid their lands and environs of a plague of animal menaces to next season's crops in a most interesting manner. Calling the spirit of competition and the joy of the hunt to their aid they organized the men of the town into two teams of hunters. The result was a week's hunt that brought down a big bag of squirrels and other small game, gave the hunters a good time and for the farmers prepared the way for the next planting.

The clean-up of the countryside was accomplished on a competitive basis that allowed so many points for such animal killed, as foxes, badgers, muskrats, skunks and rabbits each had their point values and each had many members in the aggregate bag that totalled 84,200 points at the week's close. Bill T. Gleason the fish and game warden was captain of the team that won with a count of 51,000 and under the conditions of the contest were given a dinner at which the animals killed were loaned into the pot to provide the feast.

Rabbit stew has been the piece of resistance at family tables here since.

JAPANESE PROGRAM FOR SHIP BUILDING TRIMMED

Continuing Trade Depression and Allocation of Two German Vessels Factors in Decision

TOKIO, (AP)—Owing to the continued shipping depression and to the fact that ten of the surrendered German ships have been allotted to Japan, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha has abandoned its program for the construction of 500,000 tons of new ships with the exception of about 100,000 already built or ordered. Under the program the company has already acquired fourteen freighters aggregating about 100,000 tons. Six 7,000 ton freighters have been built and will be delivered next year as well as three freighters of the 10,000 ton type and two passenger steamers. It is expected that most of the German ships will be operated by the British. Two Japanese representative of the Utah-Idaho Sugar company of Salt Lake City, Mr. Lewis said the crop of beets grown in Washington were worth about $500,000. He stated approximately $135,000 had already been paid out by his company. The growing of sugar beets is a comparatively new industry in Washington.

Brief Bits of Sport

There are all sorts of optimists in the world. Some, frantically, believe there is a bottom to the stock market.

While others, more optimistic than the aforesaid, imagine all wrestling matches are on the square.

You remember what Barnum said though.

Bunko Ponzi has five years to serve in the federal prison, but there will be a new crop when he comes out, eh?

Because Eddie Shannon of Portland outfought Charlie White in eight rounds Portland folks are playing a hunch that Eddie is the logical opponent for Champion Benny Leonard.

That is because White gave the champion a run for the money at Benton Harbor last July 5. But then Benny was in bum condition for the go.

Eddie Mead, manager of Bantam-weight Champion Joey Lynch, says he will not take his man to England as the U. S. A. is big enough territory for the present.

Besides the sea might make Joey sick, or something.

Salt Lake fans are in a peculiarly happy frame of mind just now. They have been advised of a trade whereby Buddy Siglin goes to the Bees in exchange for Marty Krug.

Siglin played the keystone bag for the Bees three years ago under Walt McCredie and went to Portland when McCredie took that club. Siglin is rated the premier second baseman in the country as a fielder, but is weak with the willow. Krug, who has played second for the Bees for the past two years, is a good man but has managerial desires, and has not been in a happy frame of mind since he was not appointed to succeed Eddie Herr and Ernie Johnson.

That trade looks like a mighty good one for both clubs.

Dennis O'Keefe of Chicago, and Pinkey Mitchell of Milwaukee, are scheduled to do some mitt staying in Milwaukee on New Year's day.

The difference between managing ball teams from the bench and upon the field will be tried out thoroughly next year in the Pacific Coast league. There are four bench managers and four playing skippers lined up for that circuit in 1921.

The supreme court of San Francisco says Bamler, Muggert and Borton only morally violated the law when they conspired to throw games in 1919.

Therefore the grand jury's indictment, which seems to have been based upon a question or moral integrity rather than a law's interpretation, stands for naught and the players indicted are free to play where they choose.

So, you see, there's still a lot of difference between law and justice.

In addition the court says no real crime was committed when the players failed to play their best so that the other club might win a pennant.

Therefore a moral obligation to the club that pays a player is in no way binding, in the sight of the law, which is a bum law.

William Harrison Dempsey's manager says his man isn't afraid of any fighter in the world.

And after looking over the fatist stock at hand we see no good reason why he should be.

DEAR PETEY:

Get you a house and lot you'd stay in W-S a month if you ever got to know folks here like I have. Between business and Reynolds factories and a bully time—well my date book has been bubbling over! And, I'm still running into facts that would stagger even your imagination, old football, with all your kick!

Pete, take it straight from government figures direct to you, that every work day in the week R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. buys from our "Uncle Sam" enough revenue stamps to pay for a duplicate of the handsome new Winston-Salem post office building! Ever hear of such a thing?

And, if you want to get an eyefull of an army of more than 15,000 people, be down in the Reynolds factory district when the whistles blow! Never saw such a cigarette firing-up time in my life!

Peter, everytime you light a Camel in the future, call back on what I've slipped you about Camels—absolutely, the greatest cigarette at any price—for quality, for refreshing flavor, for mellow mild body, for freedom from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or odor! It's worth the busiest smoker's time to compare Camels with any cigarette in the world! Camels are simply a revelation! You know that.

I'll open my eyes in Atlanta tomorrow! In the meantime here's a wad of best wishes I have in stock!

HOUSTON PUTS BONUS COST AT $2,300,000,000

Secretary of Treasury Argues Inability of National Treasury to Meet Demand for Grants to Service Men

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Passengers of the soldiers' bonus bill would cost the government approximately $2,300,000,000, Secretary Houston estimated today before the senate finance committee considering the soldiers' aid measure.

The treasury secretary declared enactment of the bill meant an added burden in the way of taxes, reiterating a statement made before the committee last week that the treasury ought not to be called upon to assume any additional burdens.

Items Estimated
Assuming that all of the men would select one of the four optional plans, Mr. Houston estimated that the cost of each of the plans as follows:
Adjusted service pay $1,342,000,000.
Insurance provisions $1,534,000,000.
Vocational training aid $1,889,000,000.
Farm and home development $1,889,000,000,000.

As the plans were optional, the secretary said the choice of the men would not be confined to any one of them and allowing for the various selections he arrives at his total estimated cost of $3,300,000,000.

"Against a Wall"
The treasury secretary professed to be "against a wall" as to methods of obtaining revenue to meet the outlay that would be required if the bill were enacted.
Dr. T. S. Adams, treasury economist and tax expert, gave a comprehensive resume of the tax situation. He declared the treasury was daily seeing new evidence of a further drying up of revenue sources.
In addition to the difficulties confronting the treasury, Dr. Adams declared the internal revenue bureau faced another problem in keeping experts on the job. He said the men who were capable didn't stay long.

Smoot Voices Suggestion
Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, said "the real danger is that those men get training in the revenue bureau then go out and help big firms evade tax payments."
Dr. Adams said that might be true to some extent, but that he knew "of one man who left the bureau a year ago whose resignation cost the government millions of dollars in uncollected taxes for he was an executive with an expert knowledge of the work."

Senator Smoot said all difficulties could be avoided if a revenue law which "the average man can understand" would be passed by congress.

The committee adjourned without setting a date for further hearings.

SELF-STYLED JEHOVAH FACES CHARGES IN JUVENILE COURT

DENVER, Colo., (AP)—A petition charging Joshua Joyce, alleged self-styled Jehovah of the Tabernacle of David, with contributing money to the dependency of minor children and another charging a woman member of his flock with neglecting her children were filed in the juvenile court here today as an outgrowth of charges made Friday by Chief of Police Hamilton Armstrong against Joyce.

Edmond C. Young filed a petition asking that Clyde and Winona Crosby, minors, be declared dependent and charging Joyce with contributing to their dependency. The petition alleged that as a result of the parents following the teachings of Joyce the children have been deprived of food, shelter and clothing.

Dancer's $100,000 Jewels and Gowns Held by Officials

Miss Lenora Hughes, American dancer of note, who recently returned from Europe, had quite an experience with customs officials. Miss Hughes, who is here on a visit and expects to return to Europe shortly, arrived with a wardrobe of jewels and gowns valued at $100,000. But, as she says, "the ignorance of the officers" deprived her of the pleasure of taking them ashore. She failed to declare her jewels and clothing, and those were taken in charge by customs officials, who permitted her to take away some of her things in a small handbag. She said she had been advised by fellow passengers not to pay duty on her belongings as she intended to take them right back to Europe with her.

JOHNSON POINTS PATH TO PEACE

California Senator Says Prevention of War is Within the Grasp of Powers

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A disarmament bill by the five great powers would be "the one great step" toward prevention of "all future wars," Senator Johnson, republican, California, declared in the senate today, commenting on an editorial on the subject appearing in a New York paper.

"We must all agree," he said, "that if there is a real desire among the powers of the earth to prevent war, they can prevent it by disarmament, and, if the five great nations of the earth, who constituted the peace alliance and associated powers in the world war, were to meet together and decide upon disarmament, we would have taken the one great step that could be taken toward the promotion of peace and the prevention of all future wars."

Senator Johnson said he would commend to some of those outside of the senate "who have hysterically endeavored to direct our course during the past couple of years in a new super-warfare, or, in a desire to embark us in European controversies, quarrels and broils and war, disarmament of the nations of the earth for prevention of wars in the future."

A "Brief" Honeymoon.
Lord Reading is nothing if not original. His honeymoon was quite unorthodox. He told his friends that, after being called to the bar, he was to be married and spend his honeymoon in Spain. That sounded extravagant for a budding barrister, probably not overburdened with pocket money. But he was businesslike even then, and it was found later that certain firm of solicitors had given him as a wedding present a commission to take evidence in Madrid. So he took his wife with him and combined business and pleasure.—Exchange.

The Blighted Child.
There is nothing that quite so quickly and so definitely marks a man or a woman as being ill-bred as ill-will. Being rude, ungracious, impolite, inconsiderate, bad-mannered, is evidence of the grossest ignorance and worse—evidence of utter contempt of mankind. The unwell can do and ought to be the happiness and comfort of people many times, but in the end they themselves are the real victims.—Billett Partner.

Little Run-in With His Better Half at the Breakfast Table, However, Showed Him the Road to Victory.

Old Man Sykes has become enamored of the idea that he enters mind over matter and thinks that a man's happiness or misery in the world is determined by his mental outlook. Sykes rates happiness from the mere fact of telling himself that everything is all right whether it is or not.

"We are all, of course, wretchedly having a little run-around here on earth between the cradle and the grave, and we are sure to meet with some unhappiness. Knowing this, and that no matter what happens in the meantime, we shall all make the same earthy finish, one might as well be good nurtured about it and get all the joy out of life as one can."

But one morning the coffee was a bit off and Sykes remarked upon it pleasantly; Mrs. Sykes let him have the whole coffee pot in the week. Her stomach has been suffering lately, and she was in no mood for humor. And the regrettable part of the whole business was that Sykes let go of himself and swore fluently. Mind stepped out for a few minutes and matter reasserted itself. It was an awful fall! But it taught Sykes a lesson.

He sees now that he can do nothing with the mind-over-matter theory unless he leads Mrs. Sykes along the same path, and it is hard to argue with her when her stomach is not working right. She often comes to breakfast feeling that she could bite a spike in two if she had and that Sykes' stomach has been another help lately.

New York Stock Market
NEW YORK, (AP)—Shipments, oil and independent stocks were raised again by the shorts in today's dull stock market, but the transportation division realized pressure. Sales approximated 600,000 shares.

Biologic Steel was again the most unstable feature, opening with a gain of 2 1/2 points, but promptly forgetting all but a fraction. Related issues in steel and equipment groups, as well as oil, sugars and utilities were moderately lower. Bally, shipping, motor and autos showed a firm advance today. Active issues became more irregular within the first half hour.

SPAIN DEAF TO FRENCH DEMAND IN TARIFF WAR

Controversy Causing Prejudice to Trade Among Several Nations Holds Attention of Commercial Men

MADRID, (AP)—The tariff war between Spain and France is occupying the attention of commercial men here, as it is causing considerable prejudice to trade, not only that of the two countries concerned but also of other nations. The negotiations, which have been in progress for some time, show France and Spain at a standstill, displaying a firm standpoint in former refusing to reduce the duties on Spanish wines unless the latter consent to abolish the increased duties recently imposed on more than 100 articles coming from France. This Spain hesitates to do as the reduction would also have to be granted to the other nations entitled to consideration under the most favored nation clause.

REPUBLICANS IN SENATE

elashed today over the home-emergency tariff bill. Characterizing the measure as an embargo bill and a "shocking proposition" to restrict American commerce, Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, acting democratic floor leader, proposed that the bill, instead of being referred to a tariff committee, be sent to the commerce committee. He charged that the republicans proposed to "rush" through the measure practically without consideration.

McComber Gives Views Acting Chairman McComber of the finance committee, Senator Smoot, of Utah, and other republican leaders, denied that the legislation contemplated embargo. Senator McComber promised "fair and adequate consideration" of the bill next month and stated that in its present form he would not support it "under any consideration."

Senator Hitchcock said the bill's purpose is to erect tariff barriers and not to raise revenues, said the acting democratic leader. "At this time of all others the country ought not to raise tariff barriers against any nation in the world. We are a creditor nation and must have a market for our surplus. What we need above all else is to do business with other nations, not to raise tariff barriers to prevent other nations from paying part of their debts with their products."

Shows Margin Small Senator McComber, contending that the bill did not propose an embargo on wheat, said that its actual protection against Canada, which when the preference in exchange was considered, was but 3-1/2 cents a bushel. "This idea of protecting the wheat grower by a tariff," Senator Hitchcock replied, "is like giving a man a snare or a confidence—a gold brick game. What the American wheat grower wants is credit and wide and unfettered trade. He is not going to be snared by this gold brick that is offered him."

Senator Hitchcock said Canada was one of America's best customers, buying twice as much as it sold in the United States. Senator McComber replied that nearly the entire Canadian wheat surplus was coming to this country "at the same time when we are trying to find a market for ours."

Revenue Bill Says Smoot Senator Smoot declared the measure was a revenue one "pure and simple." The proposed tariff of 15 cents a pound on wool, he said, would not bar wool imports.

Senator Harrison, democrat, interrupted with questions bringing out that the wool rates were higher than those of the Egyptian article. Senator Smoot said he questioned whether Senator Hitchcock was acting "in good faith" in moving reference of the bill to the commerce committee.

Sheep Industry in Ruins Senator Smoot said there were 20,000,000 pounds of wool en route to America. "There won't be an American sheep shorn for two or three years unless this enormous import is checked," he declared. "No measure can save half of the sheep men; they're ruined to day."

Parliamentary obstruction was renewed by Senator Harrison, who declared that he would "include anything in the bill which will defeat it."

Mrs. Bosse fled from Odessa in the face of the Bolshevik advance, taking her children with her. After many hardships she reached the United States and is now staying with friends in Philadelphia. She is a daughter of General Adrian Petroff, who supervised the building of a Russian battleship in Philadelphia some years ago. She does not know whether or not her husband is still alive, not having heard from him in six months.

Woman of 115 Years Asphyxiated; Lives

CHICAGO, (AP)—Mrs. Sarah Quinn, 115 years old, was revived and feeling as well as usual today after nearly being asphyxiated in her home yesterday. It is believed she absent-mindedly blew out the gas stove flame. She was found unconscious and an hour later when she recovered in a hospital insisted upon returning home and "doing the dishes."

Mrs. Quinn came to Chicago in a covered wagon in 1840. She said she expected to live to be 150. She does her own housework.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

By Mary Graham Doner

MR. DOWNY WOODPECKER.

Offering Them.

"Gossip," said Mr. Downy Woodpecker, "is wrong. Yes, Mrs. Downy, it is wrong. More than that, it is unfair. More than that, it is untrue. More than that, it is unkind."

"Omniscious," said Mrs. Downy, "it is a great deal to be more than all those things you've mentioned. But," she said, "with a sweet smile upon her beak, 'I understand what you mean. Our family has been gossiping about. Alas! how often I've heard people say that we're like our cousin, the Sapeucker, because we bore into the tree, so folks think, for sap. If they'd only come and look at our tongues they'd see how wrong this is. They'd see that our beaked tongues would never do for that."

"But do you suppose they bother? Not a bit of it. They cling to the old, old story. And they don't care about being set right. Why, it's a surprise to me that folks don't come around and say, 'Hey, there, Mrs. Downy, let's have a look at your tongue to see if all this talk is gossip or not.'"

"That is what I should think they say, so they would make sure whether their stories were true or not. 'I've known so many people and creatures who have repeated what they've heard without bothering to find out in the first place whether it was true or not. 'That's such a mistake. 'So much trouble can be caused that way."

"But I must tell you how much I think of the lady who lives in that white house yonder. She doesn't gossip. She doesn't complain. But she does say how nice things are. 'You know there are some people who like to say how nice things are, and others who really hate to admit that something is all right. They would rather complain and wish that had something else or that things were different."

"That I cannot understand. 'Now the lady in the white house is getting ready for some visitors. She is picking flowers so as to make their rooms look bright and say, for she says they come from the city, where there are no flowers, or rather I should say, gardens with flowers. 'And I've heard her say, 'Look at the little woodpeckers, having such a good time. She has put out bread crumbs and suet and a little pan of water and is offering them to any bird visitors who may come to call on her."

"But, oh, I do wish folks would see that our tongues are different from the way they must think them to be in order to tell the gossip story which some of them do tell. 'To be sure we don't stick out our tongues ruddy, but we would show by the way we bore into trees which have live wood for the delicious milky drinks to be found inside, or in dead wood for little white bugs, that we aren't haphazard snappers. They'd see if they only look."

"Ah, yes," said Mr. Downy. "Just as I say, gossip is wrong." He was perched on the side of a tree, making a great deal of racket. And Mrs. Downy was on the other side of the tree. He wore a handsome suit, so Mrs. Downy thought, of black and white, with a very dashing red patch of feathers at the back of his head. Mrs. Downy's dress was much the same in color, but she wore a dainty white and red feathers, because she wanted her Downy mate to be the more stylish of the two.

"I love you," said Mr. Downy. "I like a sociable life. I enjoy making a nice dinner for you and drumming for love," he added softly. Mrs. Downy put her head on one side, shyly.

"We're not like the quarrelsome sparrows," said Mrs. Downy. "Let's sing a song and give a band concert or a drum concert to tell folks we like company."

So Mr. and Mrs. Downy began beating their drums on the bark of the tree and many of their family joined them. Mr. Downy led the band, singing gaily:

I beat a drum, and so do we all, And you're the bark of a tree, And if you come around some day I'll rob-a-dub-dub for thee.

Incendiary Bullets.

The incendiary bullets used during the war, mostly fired from machine guns carried by airplanes, were in effect miniature high explosive shells. Those supplied to our armies (millions of them were made at the Frankfurt arsenal) were of brass, hollowed out to hold a composition of which the principal ingredient was barium nitrate. To set this off, each bullet had a priming charge of magnesium and red lead.

An ordinary rifle bullet, of course, is solid. The incendiary bullet is of wholly different construction, though of the same caliber, being meant to carry flame. Its discharge sets fire to the explosive stuff contained in it.—Kansas City Star.

New Grade of Rubber.

Chrysl, a new high grade rubber, is vulcanized without difficulty. It is produced by the Chrysothamnus, or rabbit bush, a genus of shrubs yielding in different species from 133 to 233 per cent, and in one individual plant as high as 337. Of Chrysothamnus nauseosus, the chief species, 22 varieties are known, 12 of them containing chrysl. The plants are large shrubs, maturing in six or eight years, with an average weight of four to six pounds, and abound in many parts of North America. The rubber occurring in the roots and not as a latex concentrates near the soil line.

CROPS, GOODS AND MONEY

Certainly there is no cause for levity in the estimate of the department of agriculture that this year's crops are worth five billions of dollars less than last year's.

The crop was larger than the 1919 crop, except, of course, in wheat. But altogether there were more tons and bushels of the fruit of the soil produced.

But so does everything else. Manufactured goods are undergoing a tremendous decline, perhaps another five billions. There are still goods enough for our consumption and our foreign trade.

The capital invested in farming and the other businesses of the country has suffered, of course. That means just this: that there are fewer dollar marks gained, not less wealth. It means that the 1921 dollars will be worth more than 30 cents in terms of pre-war currency.

The financial ship rocked too far to one side in 1920. It's careening the other way now. Pretty soon 'twill right itself.

"THE UPPER HAND"

In his address before the Buffalo Chamber of the American Institute of Banking, Mr. Elliott C. McDougall, President of the Marine Trust company, of Buffalo, said that for some years back there had been the upper hand, and that now the employer had the upper hand.

It is precisely this doctrine which Mr. McDougall preaches, so his unfortunate philosophy may be readily pardoned. "Unless the employer," he said, "shows more foresight and moderation than did labor, he will cut labor to lower wages than he will be fair, just as labor when it had the upper hand forced higher wages on the employer."

That wage reductions are inevitable is as certain as that a certain amount of unemployment is unavoidable. He is a courageous man who would predict how long this period of readjustment will continue.

This is a time for re-adjustment of relations between employer and employed which should enable the industries of the country to resume full speed under sane and more wholesome conditions.

CENTRAL WEST FAVORS WOMEN AS OFFICIALS

Oklahoma with Congresswoman, Kansas, Texas, Missouri and Michigan Take Lead in Suffrage Question

NEW VOTERS ENTER MANY PUBLIC SERVICE FIELDS

CHICAGO, (AP) — Oklahoma with a congresswoman in the sixty-seventh congress, Kansas and Texas with women as state superintendents of public instruction, Missouri with nine county treasurers out of thirty-seven elected to county offices and Michigan possessing two women sheriffs, take the leading places of distinction on the suffrage question in a central west as the result of the recent nation-wide election.

Women have entered nearly every field of public service, from juror and member of the jury to the national house of representatives and following last month's election, Miss Alice Robertson of Muskogee, Okla., was elected a successful restaurant proprietor, and, incidentally an opponent of woman suffrage, will take her seat as the second woman ever sent to the national congress.

Missouri Elects Most

Missouri showed the greatest liking for women office-holders although they are not eligible for state offices. Nine counties elected women treasurers, three selected women as public administrators and one a recorder of deeds. Ten women were elected to office in Michigan, including one state senator, but perhaps the most unique selections were those of Mrs. Estella K. Smith and Mrs. Janet M. Bates, both of whom succeeded their husbands as sheriff. Mrs. Gates takes an active part in church and club work of Honor, county seat of Benzonia county, and has three children and six grandchildren. Mrs. Johnson, who is 65 years old, says she is confident she can arrest any "bad man" who violates the law in her jurisdiction. Mrs. Bates will appoint her husband a deputy and aid in caring for the prisoners of the county jail, will also look after their three children.

Miss Alice Sampson, for ten years clerk in the county drain commissioner's office at Hillsdale, Mich., bravely defended her employer for the position in the November election. She will be Mrs. Eva M. Hamilton, the first woman to sit in the Michigan state senate, is 40 years old and a former school teacher. She is from Grand Rapids, where she is known as "The Mother of City Markets," having conceived, and persuaded the city council to adopt a plan by which farmers sell their produce direct to consumers. Three county treasurers, two registrars of deeds and one county clerk elected in Michigan in November are also women.

Other Oklahoma Winners. Oklahoma has three women distinctly prominent positions while she was about it. Aside from sending Miss Robertson to congress, a state senator, Mrs. Lamar Loney, and a state representative, Mrs. Lena B. McColgin, were selected by the Oklahoma voters. Mrs. Loney, a widow and mother of five children, held the county clerkship of Greer county for four years and in addition managed a 160-acre farm, educated her children and succeeded in defeating her male opponent in the senatorial race by more than a two to one majority. Greer county also decided to have women as county clerk, county assessor, county clerk and county treasurer. Mrs. L. Colgin, who comes from Roger Mills county, has gained a reputation as a capable business woman as a result of association with her husband in telephone line operations.

Miss Annie Webb Blanton, was re-elected state superintendent of public instruction in Texas. Tobacco Fighter Returned. Kansas also re-elected a woman as state superintendent of public instruction. Miss Lorraine Ellinger of Webster county, Mo., has several degrees and was admitted to the Kansas bar. Miss

Poland a Land of Woe, Says San Francisco Woman

But recently returned after a year in devastated Poland, Mrs. W. Palmer Fuller, Jr., of San Francisco, wife of the director of the American relief in Poland, tells of the frightful conditions in that country. During her stay Mrs. Fuller was inspector of the city of Warsaw and its environs for the relief committee. She also directed the feeding of almost 200,000 half-starved Polish kiddies.

Woolster is the author of a number of text books and attracted considerable attention by her anti-tobacco campaign in which she advocated dismissal of many men instructors who used tobacco in any form.

Four women legislators, all elected to the lower house, will sit in the Kansas legislature. Mrs. Minnie Grinstead of Seward county was re-elected; the others are serving their first term. They are:

Miss Nellie Cline of Larned, elected from Pawnee county on the democratic ticket although the county went republican by over 1000 plurality. She is a lawyer's wife, her father having been admitted to the bar in 1912. Mrs. Minnie Minnie of Wellington, wife of a locomotive engineer, says she just into seeking to win defeat proposed compulsory military training. She lost a brother in the war. Mrs. Ida M. Walker of Norton, was formerly president of the Kansas Educationists' club, and has been a leader in state and local civic movements.

WINS OVER NINE MEN

Miss Florence E. Allen, with nine candidates opposing her, was elected to common pleas judge of Cuyahoga county, Ohio. She is 70 years old and has been a newspaper woman, law student and assistant county prosecutor since 1909. Miss Allen was admitted to the Ohio bar in 1914 and has practiced in Cleveland since then. Mrs. A. N. Norton, 35, was elected probate judge of Lake county, Ohio, after serving as deputy clerk for seven years. Mrs. Norton defeated Homer Harper, prosecuting attorney for Lake county, by 2500 plurality for the office. Mrs. Mary K. Daver, was elected prosecuting attorney for Hocking county, Ohio. The first woman to sit in the Indiana house of representatives will be Mrs. Julia D. Nelson of Muncie. She was elected in 1919. Mrs. Nelson is the wife of a Muncie newspaper man.

IMMUNITY IS CARRIED BY INFLUENZA ATTACK

Public Health Service Makes Public Conclusions Reached After Intensive Study of Malady

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Influenza attacks carry with them "a definite immunity to subsequent attacks, lasting several years," according to conclusions reached by the public health service after intensive study in the homes where the disease was epidemic in 1918-19.

Surgeon General Cummings of the health service, pointed out, however, that there was no way of definitely foretelling "whether this winter will witness any recurrence of influenza in epidemic form." He added that it was "unfortunate" that the public was "so little moved" by the "daily occurrence of preventable death."

"Of the one and one-quarter million deaths occurring in the United States annually at least 100,000 could easily have been prevented by the application of available medical knowledge," he said.

CARBUO SUFFERS FROM SUDDEN ATTACK OF PLEURISY

NEW YORK, (AP)—The condition of Enrico Caruso, tenor, who was stricken on Christmas day with an attack of pleurisy, was unchanged early today, it was reported by the management of the hotel where he is confined. Complete rest was prescribed by his five physicians, who said that barring complications the singer will be able to return to the stage within two weeks.
