Decisions of Near Eastern Conference to be Held in London Mean War or Peace, Abdul Medjid Effendi Declares

INDICATES POLICIES OF HARDING TO BE FACTOR

CONSTANTINOPLE, (AP) — Hope the allied delegates would enter the Near Eastern conference to be held in London next week with a compromise spirit was expressed here Sunday by Abdul Medjid Effendi, head of the committee to the Turkish throne. Only by such an attitude of their part would it be possible to establish peace in the Near East, he said. It might be too late to insure an end to hostilities if the Turkish nationalists have made any military agreements with the Russian Bolsheviks. He indicated that Turkey was awaiting direct inter-Allied development of the Near Eastern policy of President-elect Harding.

Calls for Ottoman Peace.
"What is most needed at the Near Eastern conference in London," the crown prince declared, "has been the peace and moderation of the Turkish people. The Turkish people has been delayed too long, and perhaps it is now too late if the Turkish nationalists have made any military agreements with the Russian Bolsheviks. He indicated that Turkey was awaiting direct inter-Allied development of the Near Eastern policy of President-elect Harding.

Appeals to Harding.
There is as much anti-Turk propaganda in the United States, that I now doubt whether anything I may say will receive any attention there. I will not repeat the same thing. I will not repeat the same thing. I will not repeat the same thing.

FORMER CROWN PRINCE

PARIS, (AP) — Reversion of the Soviet treaty between the allies and Turkey is being considered by every agency at his disposal by former Prince Vahid-ed-Din, he declared in an interview given to the Paris Herald. Mr. Venizelos takes occasion to deny recent reports that his fight against any alteration of the Soviet pact is evidence that he is entirely in relation with King Constantine of Greece.

"I cannot fight offensively and openly," he says, "but I am a Greek. It makes no difference to me if my efforts coincide and are rewarded with the restoration of the empire, or if they do anything the higher interests of my country require. Those who do not understand that are poor creatures."

RAILROAD LABOR BOARD SUSPENDS CUT IN WAGE

Intervenes in Case of Erie Section Hands and Train Dispatchers

CHICAGO, (AP) — Recent reductions in the wages of maintenance of way men and changes in the working conditions of train dispatchers as announced by the Erie railroad were suspended by the federal railroad labor board today. The board announced that no change in wages or working conditions in the working conditions could become effective except by agreement between the railroad and the employees. The board has an opportunity to pass upon the case. The hearing was set for February 23.

The case was presented two days ago to representatives of the employees. The petition alleged that the road had reduced the basic wage of track workers to 20 cents an hour, the maintenance rates having been 37 to 48 1/2 cents an hour.

Train dispatchers representative charged that the road had ordered them to work seven days a week. Previously they had a six-day week.

Communist Plot Charges Extend to High Station

Two Members of French Chamber of Deputies Face Arrest, Says Report

PARIS, (AP) — The arrest of two members of the chamber of deputies who have been involved in a communist plot against the French government is imminent, according to reliable information from sources connected with the investigation into communist activities here.

The deputies alleged to be concerned were prominent in the May day riots of 1920.

The French press today is devoting much space to the plot, which it characterizes as a serious one. The newspapers declare that the document which was seized last week, that perfect cohesion exists between Moscow and the propaganda in France which is being directed from the Soviet Russian capital.

BRITISH LAUD AMERICAN ACT

Disclosure of Aid Given to India During War Gains Forth Appreciation

LONDON, (AP) — Newspapers of this city today gave considerable attention to the address of Lord Reading, viceroy of India, in his annual speech on Saturday night, during which he told of the United States opening its treasury resources to send relief to India during the war. In his editorial comments the newspapers expressed the liveliest appreciation of this action, the part of the United States, which brought credit to the United States at a time when affairs in India appeared to be critical.

"Remembrance of acts like these," says the London Times, "should enable both peoples to judge a great deal of ill-considered talk with becoming contempt."

The Telegraph says the transaction was the most eloquent of the value of American goodwill toward this country, adding: "When it comes to a pinch, even in war time, such an act of generosity is more than a mere sentiment but has been there to further it."

FLASHES FROM THE WIRE

NEW BRITAIN, B. C. (AP) — The thirty teachers in the New Westminster schools failed to appear for duty today following an announcement of the school board that there would be no further increase in salaries. A subsidy providing for an aggregate increase of $13,000 annually had been refused as insufficient by the teachers' association.

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Passengers and freight rates in Nebraska must be raised to the level of interstate rates by March 22 under orders issued today by the interstate commerce commission.

LOS ANGELES, Cal. (AP) — The trial of Everett A. Hotchings, known as "Big Hutch," charged with having swindled J. B. Norris of Decatur, Ill., out of $50,000 in a fake stock deal, was continued today until March 14.

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Joshua (Josh) Byrnes, head of the cult known as the House of David, failed to appear in the juvenile court here today to answer charges of contributing to the delinquency and dependence of children.

NEW YORK, (AP) — Edward Costello, spokesman on a Long Island local railroad track that collided last night with an express train in Brooklyn in killing more than sixty persons, 15 seriously, was held today charged with felonious assault.

MAKES CHARGES OF HIGH CRIME AGAINST LANDIS

Ohio Congressman Calls for the Impachment of Federal Judge who is Supreme Dictator of Organized Baseball

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Federal Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, of Chicago, was impeached in the house of representatives today by Representative Wetly, democrat, of Ohio, who charged him with "high crimes and misdemeanors" in connection with his acceptance of the position of supreme dictator of baseball at a salary of $125,000 a year.

EARLY DISPOSITION OF CASE CALLED UNLIKELY

House Would Decide
Should the house decide to institute proceedings against Judge Landis on the basis of Mr. Wetly's charges, a formal trial before the bar of the senate would be held and a decision rendered.

Mr. Wetly did not introduce a resolution proposing impeachment as is the usual procedure in such matters. Instead he arose to "a question of high personal privilege and announced that he "impeached" the judge.

Without debate the Wetly charges, and Mr. Wetly's motion, were referred to the judiciary committee for investigation and report. There were a few scattering yells.

Proceedings Unlikely.
There is little likelihood of action by the judiciary committee on the Wetly charges at this session of congress, Chairman Volstead said.

"The fact that Mr. Wetly retires March 4 does not affect the status of the proceedings, nor does the case necessarily with the adjustment of congress," Mr. Volstead added. "No arrangement has been made for a meeting of the committee, but we probably will hear Mr. Wetly shortly and if the committee believes there is sufficient ground to go ahead it will be necessary to adopt a resolution providing therefor."

Make Five Charges
Impeachment was proposed by Mr. Wetly on the basis of five specific charges as follows:

"First: For neglecting his official duties for general official neglect not connected therewith."
"Second: For using his office as district judge of the United States to settle disputes which might come into his court as provided by the laws of the United States."
"Third: For lobbying before the legislature."

RENEWS SEARCH FOR LOST FLYER

Hope of Finding Lieutenant Pearson Alive Wanes as Efforts are Continued

ST. PAUL, Texas, (AP) — Major Louis J. Pearson, commander of aviation of Fort Bliss, took the air this morning for San Antonio, Texas, where he is to direct the search for Lieutenant Alexander Pearson, who has been lost since Thursday.

Search for the missing aviator began Friday, continued Saturday and Sunday and was resumed this morning by aviators from Fort Bliss, Del Rio, San Antonio, McAllen, Marfa and San Antonio.

Major Pearson's first move will be to organize flying expeditions to the Big Bend district, into Chihuahua and into counties further east of those searched during the last three days. It was announced at aviation headquarters.

Officers at Fort Bliss, from Brigadier General B. L. Howze, commander of Fort Bliss, to the lieutenant colonel, believe that when Lieutenant Pearson is found he will be alive. Water from his engine could have kept him alive only a day or two, and if he had found sources of some kind they believe he would have been able to get to a telephone or telegraph before now to tell headquarters of his trouble.

ALLEGED SWINDLER IN CUSTODY IS IDENTIFIED

Atlanta Police Recognize Prisoner at Chicago as One of Band of Confidence Men

CHICAGO, (AP) — One of the alleged ring leaders of a band of swindlers hunted by police for the disappearance of C. C. Duke, a banker of Chicago, four months ago, and the loss to their victims of $1,500,000, was identified today as Neal McDougal, under suspicion of having defrauded many Chicago women of valuable jewelry.

While held under the Chicago charge of swindling, McDougal was identified by Atlanta police as a member of the band of confidence men, numbering at times nearly a hundred.

Six others of the band have been arrested in Memphis, according to reports to the police here, and another in fighting extradition from Alabama. An elaborately equipped club was maintained by the band, police reports said, and the police here are waiting while plans were laid to swindle them.

ROMANIA ACCEPTS REVAL AS PEACE PARLEY'S SEAT

Vienna Dispatch Confirms Rumors of Impending Negotiations

VIENNA, (AP) — The Rumanian government, according to a dispatch from Bucharest Sunday, has accepted Reval, in the Baltic, as the seat of the peace negotiations between Rumania and Soviet Russia.

Reports that Soviet Russia and Rumania were about to begin peace negotiations were current in London last week. A wireless dispatch from Moscow, dated Sunday, said that the Soviet government was sending delegates to Riga for preparation of a program for peace negotiations.

The outstanding differences between the Moscow and Bucharest governments are chiefly over the question of Bessarabia, which has been for a long period in Rumanian possession and has been generally recognized as Rumanian territory.

Polish Foreign Minister Comrades Negotiations in Paris

PARIS, (AP) — Prime Sapiéha, Polish foreign minister, left Paris for London last night. He was in this city with other Polish officials for the purpose of negotiating a commercial agreement between Poland and France, and during his stay later military matters were discussed. Paris had requested to go to Rome and later to Bucharest. The prime minister declared Rumania and Poland were negotiating a treaty.

PLEA FOR UNITY IS EXPECTED IN HARDING THEME

Forecasts Indicate Inaugural Address will be Brief and will Appeal for Confidence in Nation's Business Stability

BIG APPOINTMENT LIST MAKES CLAIMS ON TIME

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) — A plea that the nation forget the animosities of partisanship of the after-war period and put its shoulder unflinchingly to the work of reconstruction is expected to form the keynote of Warren O. Harding's message when he comes into the presidency probably in April.

Although the inaugural address still is far from complete, it was learned today that considerable had been done on it, and that the subjects it is to cover virtually have been selected. It is understood it will be brief.

One of the outstanding features is expected to be an appeal for confidence in the nation's business stability, linked with assurance that the administration will keep away from meddling methods in the relations with the business world.

Detailed statement of a taxation policy, however, is to be reserved until congress has been called into special session probably in April.

Three Pledges Indicated.
It is believed Mr. Harding's address will touch very briefly on the question of an international peace association, and will tenderly pledge the incoming administration to use its best effort to secure a peace agreement compatible with American aspirations.

There is expected also to be a word of friendship for Mexico and the rest of Latin America.

For the present Mr. Harding is developing little more than the skeleton of the document, and most of the real work of putting his ideas into language probably will not be done until he has been sworn in. A heavy statement that during the next few days and by Saturday will have heard the advice of several cabinet members.

Charles Evans Hughes, generally understood to be the prospective secretary of state.

Lament on Loss.
Among those who had appointments today was Thomas W. Lamont, a partner in the Morgan banking house, who helped frame the financial sections of the treaty of Versailles.

SCANDINAVIAN-AMERICAN BANK CLOSES ITS DOORS

North Dakota Examiner Says Inability to Satisfy Liabilities Causes Failure

BISMARCK, N. D. (AP) — Inability to satisfy its liabilities to the Bank of North Dakota caused the closing today of the Scandinavian-American bank, a committee of the house of the North Dakota legislature of a recent audit of the Bank of North Dakota.

O. E. Loftis, state bank examiner, had not made an official statement of the reason for closing the bank this morning, but the same of the institution had been mentioned frequently in the investigation by a committee of the house of the North Dakota legislature of a recent audit of the Bank of North Dakota.

In October, 1919, the Scandinavian-American bank was ordered closed by the state banking board, but was reopened after a short time. The supreme court ruled that the bank was solvent.

Emergency Tariff Measure Regains Privileged Status

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP) — Pushed rapidly recently during the past week in favor of appropriation measures, the Emergency tariff bill today regained its privileged status as the first business before the senate on re-opening. Proponents of the measure were expected to press for its final action by Wednesday.

The amendment offered by Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, to the sugar schedule, which was under fire when debate on the tariff measure was suspended last week, was the starting point for the debate today. Senator Smoot had introduced his amendment to the schedule as drawn by the finance committee on the ground that while it would not increase the price of sugar, it would not be so burdensome to the consuming public as the original provision.

GERMANY FACES HEAVY LOSSES OF STURDY SONS

Students of Economic Subjects
Assert that at Least Five Million Germans are Preparing to Leave Fatherland

BESLIN, (P)—Students of economic subjects assert that at least 5,000,000 Germans are preparing to leave the Fatherland for the United States, Mexico and South American states as soon as they are able to raise passage money, or admission in the case of the United States.

A majority of the would-be emigrants have expressed a preference to go to South America.

Claim Rest Glasses Law

Officials of several states have displayed considerable uneasiness over the class of men who are now emigrating or preparing to emigrate. The head of the government immigration office said:

"The most able-bodied, enterprising, stalwart sons of Germany are leaving. The very poor, the communists, the radicals, the Bolsheviks, generally are remaining with us. It is the family of some substance which is moving out."

One cause of this emigration is considered to be the war taxes and, particularly, the income tax, which virtually prohibits the salaried man from leaving something for the money he needs. These men generally no longer patronize the banks. They are hoarding a little bit of money each month, against the day they will be able to leave.

The split of the general agreement among political economists that Germany is overworked and that unless radical readjustments are made within one year the nation will be able to support only 50 per cent of the present population, suggestions have been made that the government take immediate steps to regulate the number and quality of the emigrants. With this in view a new law is being drafted.

Urges Reclamation Plans.

It is argued that this tide of emigration could be turned back by giving Germany to good purpose. Germany's arid lands, if irrigated or drained, would be capable of supporting 10,000,000 additional persons. It is said that the government has been urged to make these lands available to the numbers now flocking into the cities.

Fear Impaired Mother.

Others fear the exodus will result in an impaired German "culture" and suggest the advisability of state aid for the intellectuals who have been hardest hit by economic conditions.

Under the present German law an emigrant is permitted to take out with him 30,000 marks, tax-free.

ENGINEERING COUNCIL TO INVESTIGATE WASTE

Weakness in Country's Production System to be Sought
Out by Experts

SYRACUSE, N. Y., (P)—Appointment of a committee of noted engineers and technologists to formulate plans for curtailing waste in industry was included in the opening business today of the convention of the American Engineering Council.

Herbert Hoover, president, said the committee would be directed to make a national survey of waste. Nearly 100,000 engineers of the country will be called upon to assist in the survey.

By studying the nation as a single industrial organism, they will attempt to locate, he added, weaknesses in the country's production system.

It was announced that a preliminary survey already has been under way. The different elements making up production waste such as labor conflict, decrease in individual productivity, lack of co-ordination and other sources of industrial failure will be brought under the close scrutiny of the organized engineers. Their aim will be to solve pressing economic problems.

Included in the committee personnel are Dr. Ira N. Hollis, president of Worcester Polytechnic Institute and Robert Linton of Bolls, Mo.

POLITICAL PLACES NOT FOR RAILWAY EMPLOYEES

Men in Service of Canadian National Lines Must Not Accept Nominations, President Rules

TORONTO, Ont., (P)—Employees of the Canadian National railways, the government system, will not be permitted to continue in the service and accept nominations from any political party, either federal or provincial, according to a ruling by D. B. Hanna, president, made public today.

This decision followed consideration by the president and directors on a report submitted by a board of consultants in the case of three employees who accepted nominations and were discharged. An exception President Hanna said, had been granted in the case of these men, who will be reinstated.

Russian Wall's Plea May Win Him Right to Become American

The eloquent plea in both French and Russian to enter this big land may win the right to become an American for Alexander Kwartov, fourteen year old Russian stowaway. Alexander reached this country after many thrilling adventures. His mother and father were killed by Bolsheviks in Moscow. He made his way to Odessa and then joined a squad of French aviators who took him to Constantinople. There he was befriended by an American naval officer, and then was born the longing to become an American. He stowed away on a steamer and on his arrival in New York was turned over to the authorities at Ellis Island. His plea to remain here has resulted in several requests by New Yorkers to adopt the youth.

Alaskan Dogs Will Bridge Railway Gap

KETCHIKAN, Alaska (P)—Fast running sled dogs will be used as a spring to pull mail and passenger sleds over the eighty-four mile trail between the ends of steel on the government railroad being built between Seward and Fairbanks, according to word received here. Several of the teams will be carried by Leonard Sopola, noted "musher" who several times won the Nome All-Alaska sweepstakes dog race.

Call Dog Best Hand on Poultry Ranch

PETALUMA, Cal., (P)—Work of sheep dogs on the ranges has been equaled here by a "chicken dog" named "Dash" owned by a Petaluma chicken rancher. According to its owner, it is the "hand" on the ranch. It returns stray chickens to the pens and carries eggs, and has been trained to fetch chickens by turning them on their backs and grasping them harmlessly with its mouth under their wings. Dash is an Alsatian.

GREENSBORO, Ga., (P)—Georgia believes it has probably the largest apple tree in the United States. It measures eight feet in circumference at its base, is very tall and has a spread of limbs measuring 48 feet. W. J. Bryan, who recently celebrated his 80th birthday, planted the tree 35 years ago in Greene county and it is still bearing a crop of luscious apples annually.

PETITGOAT GOVERNMENT PROVES ITS CAPABILITY

Woman Mayor of Washington Town is Re-elected with All Famine City Council

TAOUMA, Wash., (P)—Langley, a town of 35 on Whidbey Island, near here, has a city administration composed entirely of women. Miss Helen Coo, who was elected mayor a year ago, to fill out an unexpired term, has been re-elected for a regular term and all new council members are women.

"When I was first elected," Miss Coo said recently, "one man said 'petit-goat government will soon peter out' and another asserted 'you cannot expect to sell property in a town run by women.' That attitude on the part of a few has vanished."

Miss Coo was formerly a school teacher. The men of the town have been a great help in her administration, she declared.

FIGHT IS FORECAST ON STORAGE OF WATER BILL

Contest Due Soon in House is Likely to Involve Twin Falls District

BOISE (Special to The News)—The committee on irrigation, reservoirs and reclamation in the house is preparing to return a report on house bill No. 116 which permits water users to store their flow in reservoirs.

This bill is expected to result in a fight between the water users in the upper Snake river valley and those of the Twin Falls districts, since the claim is made that the farmers in the Twin Falls country would be compelled to draw on their storage water much earlier than usual if the bill is enacted into law.

The irrigation season in the upper Snake river country is later than in the Twin Falls district. If the water users in the upper country lose their decreed rights in the early spring months the farmers in the Twin Falls country will have but little water from the natural flow of the Snake and they must draw upon their stored water at Jackson Lake, Carl J. Miller of Twin Falls county said Friday.

Miller hit the bill in the committee on irrigation, reservoirs and reclamation, but he will be compelled to report it out within a day or two.

Those voting for the Derr resolution were Bettelheim, Butler, Derr, Hall, Hall, Irwin, Lu, Montgomery, Peck and Young.

Hadley's 400,000 hotel still stands, with much of the furniture just as the guests left it. The town's board streets are collapsing and many of the buildings have been torn down.

Hadley was a copper mining town and a fall in the price of copper caused the nearby mines to close.

Boon Harvest in Northwestern Forests Will Provide Many Jobs

VANCOUVER, B. C., (P)—Reis has been in the forests of British Columbia will provide a large number of men with permanent employment, according to E. S. Oliver, a Vancouver chemist. Preserving two bars of resin weighing 145 pounds at a local laboratory recently, a citizen, not knowing it was of marketable value was surprised to find it worth $7.25 for it. He said he did not know it was a tree he had felled and he at once hurried off to attend to the rest of the tree.

FORMER SALOONKEEPER AT AUTOMOBILE SCHOOL

Founder of Famous Bank Exchange Bar in San Francisco Takes Up New Occupation

SAN FRANCISCO, (P)—Dunstan Nicol, for half of a century owner of the old Bank Exchange saloon here, known probably everywhere for its place punches, is not living on memories of before prohibition days. At 70 years of age he has started a course at the automobile school of the Young Men's Christian Association.

"Place punches," as Nicol's place was known to thousands, had a bar and a tiled floor which tradition said came around Cape Horn many years ago. It was a resort of the gentle and the wild and because Nicol would permit no rowdism, it became a privileged house where women might drink at the bar. Nightly scores from fashionable residence districts and uptown raves went downtown to the Bank Exchange for the famed drink.

The Bank Exchange was opened in the fifteenth century. In the seventeenth century, a lonely and penniless boy, arrived from Scotland and soon after took over the place. Then came the Place punch. Nicol says he cannot remember when he invented the drink.

Always the recipe for the punch has been a secret Nicol has kept. He alone knows what went into it besides Place brandy from Peru. "Mr. Volstead cannot take the secret from me," Nicol declared recently.

Prohibition came, the Bank Exchange closed and Nicol and his wife took a trip back to Scotland, but did not remain there long. "Even there prohibition is on its way," he asserted on returning. "It is a changed world."

SURVIVOR TELLS DETAILED STORY OF IRISH AMBUSH

Sinn Feiners Hiding Behind
Rocks, Fire on Black and Tans as Their Motor Car is Ditched; Wounded-Shot

LONDON (AP)—The first detailed account of the killing of 17 Auxiliary Cadets of the Royal Irish Constabulary by a party of Sinn Fein men, Dublin, on November 23 has just been obtained from the sole survivor of the ambush party, Mr. Lister, H. P. Ford, The Irishman who has recovered from his wounds in a London military hospital. All previous accounts of the affair have been based on deductions in the absence of reports from the eye-witnesses.

Lets for Dead
Lieutenant Ford suffered a bullet wound in the head and was clubbed with the butt of a rifle and left for dead.

He says that the two motor cars carrying the cadets were attacked as they were passing between rocky outcrops on either side of a narrow road. The cars ran into a ditch which had been prepared for them. Many of those in the first car were wounded by the first fire from forces concealed behind high rocks.

Those in the second car came up and fought until the last man fell wounded. Ford was lying wounded on the ground. Then a large number of attackers from both sides rushed into the road. They were the uniform of British soldiers and handled us all very roughly, not excepting the dead. After knocking us about they called on us all to stand up.

Wounded Shot Down
"Two of the party were able to get to their feet and were immediately shot down at close range by the 'shiners'. One of the cadets near me groaned and turned over. One of the 'shiners' plunged a bayonet into his back. I muttered something and he turned to me and after cursing me said I would be his next man. I could see the others going through the clothing of the cadets, who were being brutally treated. One of the 'shiners' tried to pull a girl from my arms but failed. The next thing I remember was when one of them rolled me over roughly, to me, I suppose, whether I was dead."

The ambushers had retired to their positions and occasionally fired a few shots.

Smith-Towner Educational Bill;
Kings Opponents

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Opposition by Roman Catholic organizations to the Smith-Towner educational bill was said by Senator Rife Smith, democrat, of Georgia, in the senate today to be based on "an utter ignorance of the measure."

"This was true," he said, of the charge that "the measure was directed against the religion of Jesus Christ."

"If a parent wished to send his child to a Catholic parochial school he could do so. That right is not denied," the senator said.

Senator King, democrat, of Utah, said he found himself in complete sympathy with the opposition of Catholic church organizations to "a bill which would further cripple the states of the union, and destroy their capacity for self-government."

Miss Telford Laid to Rest

The voice of love has awakened one among New York's sixty-six victims of the sleeping sickness now causing apprehension among medical men. Subsequent knowledge of the business of her wedding day, physicians say, may have aided in breaking the month-long sleep of Miss Telford Leeman when she heard the sound of her father's voice, she said, as he sat by the bedside: "I know she will recover before the day for our wedding." The wedding was set for January 25 and Miss Leeman awakened on the 29th.

ONLY MAJOR CLUBS TO HAVE NEW MANAGERS

Numerous Changes in Pilgrims
Have Been Made in Big Leagues This Year

NEW YORK, (AP)—Seven of the 16 clubs in the major leagues, three in the National and four in the American, will take the field for the 1921 campaign under the leadership of new managers. The opening of nearly every baseball season finds one or two new managers, but it is a long time since there has been such a general shakedown among the field generals of the major leagues only.

With all the changes of leaders that have been made from year to year there are two managers who stand out prominently in the history of baseball because of their long service with their respective clubs—Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics and John J. McGraw of the New York Giants. Mack has led the Athletics since they entered the American league in 1901 and has won six pennants and three world's championships. McGraw became manager of the Giants in 1902, and has won six pennants with his team's championship only once.

Odds to Lead
One of the most notable changes among the managers for the coming season is the appointment of Ty Cobb to lead the Detroit Tigers. The latter quit the Tigers after 14 years, during which he won three pennants, to become assistant manager of the Philadelphia Athletics. Cobb will be the highest paid active player in the game, each drawing salaries both as players and managers. In addition, Cobb is said to have received an income as a Cleveland club for winning the first pennant and world's championship for the city.

Another change of managers that ended a long career of leadership on the diamond was that of the Washington club, Clark Griffith, who has become principal owner of the club, turned over the managerial duties to his able lieutenant, George McFarlane, for many years' assistant of the team. Griffith managed the Washington club for nine years and previous to that had served as manager of the Chicago White Sox, the New York Yankees and the Cincinnati club. Griffith now will devote all his time to the executive business of the club of which he is president. McFarlane began his major league career with Washington in 1904 and played shortstop until a year or two ago.

Duffy with Red Sox
Hugh Duffy, famous as an outfielder and batter several years ago, will lead the Boston Red Sox as the successor of Edward D. Murphy. The latter managed the Red Sox three years, winning a pennant and a world's championship, is now business manager of the New York Yankees.

Lee Fohl, a former manager of the Cleveland team, will lead the St. Louis Browns in succession to Jimmy Hargan, who has signed as coach of the Red Sox.

Changes of managers in the National league involve the Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia clubs. George Griffiths gave up the management of the Boston Braves after eight years in becoming president and manager of the Rochester club of the New International league. It is a coincidence that Griffiths, who had been an assistant manager of the Braves for Fred Mitchell, who was his chief assistant and coach when the Braves made their remarkable showing in 1914. Mitchell has been manager of the Chicago Cubs for the last four years and piloted his club to the National league pennant in 1918.

He will be succeeded by Johnny Evers, whose appointment has been approved generally by the Chicago fans. Evers gained all his fame on the diamond while playing with the Cubs, having joined the team in 1902. He became the regular second baseman the next year and continued in that position to the end of the 1913 season. In the latter season he succeeded Frank Chance as manager and lasted one year. Evers was granted his unconditional release, and signed with Boston, becoming captain of the team and a big factor in the Braves' success of 1914. After Evers' year as manager he has been in the line of the veteran umpire, Roger Brubaker and Doc Tucker each served a year and then came the four-year tenure of Fred Mitchell.

The Philadelphia Nationals will be managed next season by Bill Donovan, who has been the third most successful manager in the National league. Pat Moran was released. Moran was succeeded by Jack Connolly, who gave way in mid-season of the 1919 campaign and was succeeded by Gus Grubbs. The latter continued throughout the last year and next season will be with the Pacific Coast league. Donovan was one of the best pitchers in the history of the National league, having been the pitcher of the team's winning games of the Detroit Tigers. He was a former first baseman, having played for the Yankees and last year played the Jersey City team of the New International league.

Efforts were started by treasury department officials to collect income tax on the $5000 shortly after Jackson was alleged to have made his confession, Mr. Price said.

Jackson claims the money was received as a gift.

It is expected a decision will be given soon by treasury officials.

Georges Carpentier's mentors fixed the terms for a bout with Frank Moran at such an impossible match that Carpentier has been called off by the Pittsburghers.

With a reserve body build, Ira Dorn played Cliff Lewis of Idaho, in 31 minutes in a midweight wrestling match at Midvale last Thursday night. The second fall followed in 11 minutes, Dorn using a headlock. Dorn was on the aggressive throughout, and Lewis was unable to do anything with the ball Lake phenom—Deseret News, Salt Lake.

Strangler Lewis appears to have changed his mind about quitting the use of the headlock. He used the deadly clutch on Hassan—the "Terror."

Ty Cobb says there will be no long training period for his Detroit Tigers this spring. He expects to condition his men in about three weeks of preliminary rattling.

And if the club doesn't show the goods from the start Tiger Fans will be on Ty's neck.

Cobb himself has always been opposed to spring training junkies, and in the past decade did not participate in any of them to any great extent.

Willard Robinson, manager of the Dodgers, is tired of the perennial loss suffered by "Dutch" Brothers, twister obtained from the Reds in exchange for Margum.

Robinson says he will not monkey with the ramblous outplay and is offering him in trade for an infielder, catcher or some other article that will be of some value to the club.

Paul Richards, Kansas state trap-shooting champion, defeated "Kip" Elliott, of Des Moines, holder of the national double title, in a championship contest at Kansas City Saturday. Elliott won the championship at the Grand American tourney last year.

Joe Moore of New York capped the international sailing championship on Saturday at Lake Placid, New York. "Cotton" Desautels, who recently won the title, was second.

Miller Stan Baumgartner, who jumped the Phillies a couple of years ago, will rejoin the team, it is stated. Where is that rule-busting jumper, anyway?

Jimmy Ring has signed his contract with the Phillies and seems well enough satisfied. But Ring and Nease is still grumbling a little on the transfer from Cincinnati.

Miller Higgins had to go in as a fielder from San Francisco to pay a debt to Vernon, yet he has on his list: Fred Fawcett, Ward, McCall, Peckham, Pipp and a few others.
