BOLSHEVIK WAR ON JAPANESE IN SIBERIAN FRONT

Concentration of Soviet Troops
in Eastern End of Country
are Regarded as Foreboding
Military Operations

HARBIN, Manchuria, (AP)—Military operations by the Russian bolsheviks against Japanese forces in Siberia are believed to be foreboding by concentrations of soviet troops in the eastern end of the country. There were 70,000 bolshevik soldiers in China recently, and more are said to be arriving at intervals.

Units are declared to be proceeding to points farther east, assembling principally in the Primorsky district and along the Maritime frontier.

While badly clothed and fed, these soldiers are reported to be well trained and under severe discipline.

Activity Credited to FEAR OF BUFFER STATE

Eighteen thousand troops have arrived at Yekhabai, Ural from Moscow. At Khabarovsk, on the Amur river, about 40,000 bolshevik troops are concentrated. These are gradually being moved south to points near the Amur and Ussuri rivers.

The official reason given by the bolsheviks for dispatching troops to Khabarovsk is that there are large supplies of grain and other foodstuffs in the area.

To increase the regular and guerrilla forces, the bolshevik authorities are said to be mobilizing the population of the Russian far east. This step would have the double purpose of increasing the military forces and of disintegrating the Russian far east.

The work of mobilization is reported to be proceeding in the movement of locomotives and cars from the Ussuri railway (connecting Khabarovsk and Nikolai), to the Amur, and from the Amur to the Ussuri.

Food supplies are being moved by rail from Vladivostok into the Trans-Amur province and attempts have been made to transport goods by river.

Views are Diverse on ROAD BUILDING PROGRAM

Governor and Joint Legislative Committee Unable to Agree on Policies

BOISE, Idaho (Special to The News)—Governor Davis and the joint committee appointed by the legislature to prepare a road building program are divided on the question of whether the program should be financed by a tax on gasoline.

The governor is insisting upon a tax on gasoline. The majority and the minority of the committee are divided on this recommendation and they have refused to sponsor a bill providing for the tax wanted by the governor.

The governor also wants to divide the automobile license tax on a 50 per cent basis between the counties and the state for road maintenance purposes.

Several members of the joint committee are opposed to a bill of this kind and have refused to support it.

Other members of the committee are demanding a direct appropriation for road maintenance purposes. This controversy is the subject of the governor's special message to the legislature.

The legislature three weeks ago asked the legislature to pass a bill providing for a tax on gasoline.

The bill, which would raise $1,000,000, of this sum he wanted the state to use $450,000 in reimbursing the counties for money advanced in 1919 and 1920 for road building purposes.

The balance, he said, should be used in keeping up the highways.

Several meetings have been held between the governor and the joint committee, but as yet no agreement has been reached.

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—President Wilson, in an address Tuesday to a delegation from the Woodrow Wilson club of Harvard university, who he received at the White House, declared he would leave efforts to the past in supporting the cause of world peace.

To the group of six Harvard students who were received in the company of Mrs. Wilson in his study, the president said that he would leave the cause of world peace to the historians of the Paris peace conference.

Declaring that if he ever devoted himself again to writing, it would be along impersonal lines, the president said he most preferred to spend the remainder of his days in advancing the cause of world peace and to that end he would give his whole strength and time.

Robert C. Stuart, Jr., who headed the delegation, told the president that the Harvard Woodrow Wilson club wished upon the anniversary of the birth of President Wilson to extend their greetings to the president.

"You, the great American, our generation," and that inspired by Wilsonian ideals, the club proposed to dedicate the ideals in which the president had given concrete expression.

Mrs. Wilson, who was standing beside the president, apparently much moved by the tribute expressed by the delegation, expressed a wish that she might make a speech, but she said she would not because she never had.

PRIMARY BILL'S FRIENDS ADOPT STUBBORN TACK

Control of Lower House of Idaho Legislature is Wrested by Insurgents from So-Called Reactionary Element

BOISE, Idaho (Special to The News).—Control of the lower house of the legislature was wrested from the so-called reactionary element by the insurgent element Monday by their tabling of the primary bill. Other bills, it is claimed, will meet a like fate.

The house insurgents are piqued because the senate has buried their direct primary bill in the basement on privileges and elections and they are determined to delay action on the measure passed in the senate until the senate in the upper house act favorably upon this favorite piece of legislation.

Attempts Use of Force.

One of the three bills tabling in the senate was a measure increasing the salary of J. H. Mendenhall, state legislator, an alleged reactionary. A second bill, senate bill No. 158 by Featherston, also claimed as reactionary, exempting municipal and state bonds from taxation. The third measure, senate bill No. 77 by Witty, increases the pay of mayors in cities of the first class. Senate bill No. 20 was drafted by the committee on public lands.

In tabling the bill of the members of the senate who are fighting the direct primary measure the house is endeavoring to force the opposition to its pet bill into line and make certain the enactment of a new election law.

An attempt was made Saturday to table senate bill No. 20, but the vote stood 22 to 22 and the motion to table was lost. Monday the insurgents were better organized and the bill was tabled by a vote of 24 to 21 with John W. Snook, chairman of the committee on state affairs, voting with the insurgents. Snook is one of the strongest of the so-called reactionaries in the legislature. He was one of the recognized leaders of the house early in the session, but of late he has been unable to exercise control over the majority party members. In going to the insurgents Monday the chairman of the committee of state affairs confessed that the leadership of the house had been taken from him.

Split on Appropriations.

Failure of the governor and the committee on appropriations in the lower house to agree on appropriation bills is believed to have been responsible in a measure for Snook's action. Cecil Snook of Canyon county, chairman of the committee on appropriations, and Carl J. Miller of Twin Falls county, chairman of the house committee on irrigation, reservoirs and reclamation, were absent Monday and did not vote. They were sitting with the committee on appropriations which is holding hearings for the benefit of the several departments of the state government.

It is common knowledge in the legislature that the house committee on appropriations has scrapped the budgets made up by the governor. Failure of the committee to develop a strong following in the house has placed its members in a position similar to the one occupied by Snook. To put through their program this committee must have the help of the house insurgents, and to most Snook, Snook has taken the lead in sponsoring legislation desired by the state audit commission of which Senator Yeaman is the head. He had a following early in the session of sufficient strength to pass these bills.

No one expects a man who is at the head of the insurgents, D. L. Young of Ada, George H. Van de Bove of Canyon and W. Scott Hall of Oneida are taking the lead, but hidden away from view there is a master mind which is directing the fight being made by the group of progressive reactionaries.

Extra Session Talk.

There is now talk of an extra session. It is not serious yet, but if the insurgents carry through their program and members of the senate remain firm in their stand on the direct primary nothing may develop. Only nine days remain to the session in which to put through a large grab of bills and the time is too short to permit the measures to flow smoothly through both houses if a jam forms.

The house has passed its most important bills, a number of which are being held up by committees in the senate. Hall has some school legislation awaiting action in the upper house and Van de Bove's anti-alien legislation is being held up. Young has nothing of importance in either house.

The insurgents in the house include all former service men. There are six of them. All voted for, and supported the direct primary bill.

WARNS AGAINST DRIFT TOWARD CENTRALIZATION

Kansas Congressman Investigates Against Growing Powers of Federal Government

WASHINGTON, (AP).—The drift toward centralization of government with the steadily growing law on the people was denounced in the house Tuesday by Representative Campbell, republican of Kansas, who was designated to deliver the Washington birthday address.

The Kansas representative declared it would be difficult to enumerate all of the departments, bureaus and commissions created since Washington's time to exercise "hegemonistic authority and paternal guardianship over the people."

"There is no activity, business, social or domestic condition that is not the object of their supervision, their solicitude or their authority," he said.

"Over 800,000 civilian employees make up the army that everies and directs the affairs of the people and assumes guardianship over them. Government agents and inspectors go merrily on. Government control is the remedy for every ill and government regulation the source of every good. The people pay all the expenses of this complicated machinery of government, that has its agents looking over the shoulder of every business man and directing the activities of every citizen.

"This use of government is not without deplorable precedent. The disappointment and despair of the people of France growing out of the delay in the inauguration of the millenium by the activities of the government at Paris led to the French revolution."

ALLEGES BOMBS USED IN PLOTS TO INJURE JAPS

Los Angeles Fire Department
Chief Reports Frustration of Two Attempts to Burn Out
Orientals

LOS ANGELES, Cal., (AP).—Two alleged attempts to destroy, by the use of phosphorus bombs, buildings occupied by Japanese have been made here in the last two weeks, according to a report made public Tuesday by Captain E. H. Enos, of the bureau of fire prevention of the Los Angeles fire department.

The report also contains the statement that Japanese have asked the federal department of justice to investigate and have considered asking the Japanese consul here to take protective action.

Luck Averts Destruction.

Captain Enos stated that the alleged attempt to destroy the property were unsuccessful "merely as the result of lucky chance," as in each case powerfully discovered the fire and notified the fire department in time to extinguish it before material damage was done.

One building was a rooming house. On the roof according to Captain Enos a bomb was found. The other case involved a laundry where a bomb was found in the basement, he said.

Captain Enos said the bombs automatically ignited the wooden structure. The flames were extinguished with chemicals.

Many Lives Endangered.

He said there might have been serious loss of life in the case of the rooming house as a number of Japanese were asleep in the building when the bomb was discovered.

The officer said he believed arrest would be made soon, probably of three men who were reported to have threatened violence if the Japanese did not leave the district in which both buildings are located.

SENATE SUB-COMMITTEE ADDS TO NAVAL MEASURE

Proposes Appropriations to Cover Construction of Two Fast Airplane Carriers

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP).—Construction of two fast airplane carriers for the navy at a cost of $18,000,000 each would be authorized under an amendment to the naval appropriation bill adopted Tuesday by a senate naval sub-committee. Fifteen millions of dollars would be made available next year for starting work on the craft which have been recommended by naval reports.

Appropriations also were voted for the new naval bases on the Pacific coast. These include $1,500,000 for Alameda, $1,000,000 for Los Angeles, and $800,000 for San Pedro, Wash.

The sub-committee also doubled the naval aircraft procurement and left untouched the $60,000,000 appropriation for continuing work on the 1916 battle program, including 11 super-dreadnaughts and six battle cruisers.

The sub-committee is understood to be considering the question of authorizing as recommended by high naval officers a personnel of 120,000 instead of the 100,000 in the house bill.

REPUTATION

When buying, whether your purchase be the service of an individual or a company, or merchandise that is delivered to you over the counter there is no safer guide to wise buying than the reputation of the individual or the firm with whom you trade.

The manufacturer who has faith in his product will give it his guarantee. He must live up to his advertising. His reputation is at stake. And the same unwritten law binds the retail dealer.

Some merchants will announce wonderful reductions on their goods for a period of five days, ten days or two weeks—and when the advertised time has expired will continue the so-called sale for another five days, ten days, or interminably.

On February 7th I advertised that for fourteen days, starting February 11th, I would make reductions on every price in the store below any figure warranted by present or prospective wholesale costs. I announced then that my would end on February 26th—and regardless of roads, weather or anything else it is going to close on that date. My reputation is at stake. I would not mislead the public by prolonging the event.

Thousands of satisfied buyers who have attended will testify to the big values they found. The special values are still to be had here for the balance of this week, as advertised.

Please consider this my positive assurance that I will also live up to my advertised dates. It will close without fail on Saturday Night, February 26th.

Eight o'Clock Friday, Feb. 25th Begins The Big White Store's

CLOSING OUT SALE

FREE! FREE! FREE!!

To the first fifty men who attend this sale Friday morning, we will give, absolutely free, a MERCHANDISE CERTIFICATE VALUED AT ONE DOLLAR that will be taken the same as cash on any purchase made to the extent of $10 or more during the sale.

As we need the room badly, we must close out in 30 days, so are offering as a special inducement this free certificate. This means an extra saving of 10 per cent on your purchase and as only fifty will be given out we urge you to be there early.

We have always been crowded for room. When we moved into this building we thought we would be able to obtain more room, and make this the largest store in southern Idaho. This idea not seem possible, however, so we have decided to discontinue our Men's Departments and enlarge our Dry Goods and Women's Ready-to-Wear Departments, making this the finest store for women in South Idaho. As our growth in these departments has been phenomenal we find we must have the room at once if we are to continue offering that service which has built this store. And as we see no immediate prospects of securing more room, the Clothing Departments must go. And we need the room at once, so we are going to close out the Men's Departments in as short a time as possible, within 30 days if we can. I have told the boys to mark the stuff so that it will sell and to forget costs, so that we can get the remodeling started and store re-arranged for spring business. I am sure you will approve of this move and will welcome a real store catering to women's wants.

(Signed) ROBERT ROGERSON

CHANCE FOR CHANGE IN CABINET SEEMS REMOTE

President-elect Turner Attention to Other Appointments and Address

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., (AP)—With only a few formalities remaining to finally close up the election of his cabinet, President-elect Harding gave his attention today to other immediate appointments and to the preparation of his inaugural address.

The chances that changes will be made now in the cabinet personnel is considered remote.

There have been published reports that Herbert Hoover might decline the secretary of commerce place, but they manifestly are not credited by Mr. Harding and his advisers.

Another selection understood to have been decided on is that of George B. Christian, Jr., to be secretary to the president. Mr. Christian has been Mr. Harding's private secretary since entering the senate six years ago. He is 47 years old and has been a neighbor of the Harding's in Marion for years.

HOOPER MAINTAINS SILENCE

OF CHAIRMAN FIVE-YEAR TERM
NEW YORK, (AP)—Herbert Hoover today declined to make known his attitude toward the invitation by President-elect Harding to become the next secretary of commerce, tendered to him last night by telephone from St. Augustine. It was indicated at his office that he would have no statement to make for at least twenty-four hours.

Today's Markets

GRAIN PRICES DECLINE AFTER INITIAL ADVANCE

Various Reports on Farm Reserves are Reflected in Trading; Close is Easy, 1-4 to 3-4 Cents Lower

CHICAGO, (AP)—Strength developed in the wheat market today owing more or less to word that Greece had bought 1,300,000 bushels over the holiday. Gossip that farm deliveries would decrease in February tended also to encourage bullish sentiment. It was said that assesting this would be past, and that field work would be occupying the attention of farmers. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 3-4 higher, with March $1.72 1-4 to 1.75 1-2 and May $1.62 to 1.65 1-2, were followed by moderate gains all around, and then something of a reaction.

Later the market sagged. Predictions were current that on account of decreased consumption farm reserves would be larger than expected. The close was easy, 1-4 to 3-4 cent lower, with March $1.71 1-4 to 1.71 1-2 and May $1.61 1-2.

Corn rose with wheat. After opening a 1-2 to 1-4 lower, including May at 71 3-8 to 71 5-8, the market scored an upturn for all deliveries.

The market subsequently weakened because of assertions that the farm reserve March 1 would be the largest on record. Prices closed steady, 1-8 to 3-8 to 1-2 not lower, with May 71 1-4 to 71 3-8.

New York Stock Market
NEW YORK, (AP)—Trading in today's dull stock market was almost entirely professional. Investment issues were comparatively steady, but speculative stocks yielded to further pressure. Sales approximated 400,000 shares.

Interest in the stock market at the hesitant opening of today's session centered around Atlantic Gulf and West India, the most conspicuous feature of recent operations. The first transaction of about 500 shares at 49, an extreme recovery of 4 1-2 points from Monday's closing price. Other shippings were firm as were also some of the oils, bitumens and rubbers. Metal and food shares reacted fractionally with steel and equipments. The only noteworthy feature among specialties was a 3-4 point decline in Sears-Roebuck. Wisconsin Central at an advance of 8 points featured the rally.

Ships later covered their contracts in equipments, steel and oils, but shippings and specialties, particularly United Fruit and Sears-Roebuck registered further losses. The closing was irregular.

Sugar
NEW YORK, (AP)—There was no sales

of raw sugar early today and prices were nominal at 4 5-8 cents for Cuba's cut and freight, equal to $5.54 for castor sugar.

Practically all refiners have withdrawn from the market owing to the uncertain situation in raw sugar. No change in quotations was reported with list prices at $7.50 for fine granulated. Sugar futures were easier under liquidation although the volume of business was light. Prices at midday were 6 to 15 points lower.

ONLY ONE ADVANCE

It will be interesting to note the progress of the work of gathering the $150,000 teachers' relief fund. The fund is intended to be used to help the teachers who have been out of work since the closing of the schools last year.

It ever a collection were attempted under circumstances such as these, the success of any financial project is doubtful. It is not, however, the purpose of the fund to collect money from the public.

If it were for a project of unquestioned desirability, and the removal of the Albion Normal, or even the continuance of the Albion Normal, is not an undertaking of unquestionable desirability.

Removal of the Albion Normal school
by Hurley does not contemplate the actual removal of the buildings. It means that the buildings must be unoccupied or converted to another use. It is not unlikely that beneficial use might be made of the buildings. They might very well afford accommodation for a junior college. But it is a serious question whether the Albion Normal should be discontinued in order to re-establish it with all of its unfavorable features.

Why not discontinue the Albion Normal and combine its functions with those of another institution already established and maintained at the expense of the state?

POSSIBILITIES FOR GOOD

A step in the right direction is indicated in the call for a meeting of citizens of Twin Falls and of independent School District No. 1 for the purpose of effecting an organization "to assist the officials of the city, school and highway districts to make proper tax levies, conserve revenue, and encourage prompt completion of all needed improvements."

There can be no question as to the desirability of furthering the purpose stated to its utmost possibilities. This can be done through the proposed organization. Failure could result only through deviation from its announced purpose or from lack of support. Success of the organization, which would benefit immensely to the well being of the body politic and its citizens, will come through common effort to a common end.

It would be unwise to say that his judgment is not good enough to avoid any serious mistakes in choosing the members of his official family.

The incoming president should be enabled to feel that he has gathered about him a group of men whose advice will be of the greatest value to him—men who have been selected because of confidence in their qualifications for the tasks before them, not because any particular interests desired that they should sit in the cabinet.

LANGDON'S SLAYER HELD
NOT GUILTY OF MURDER

Court Martial Acquits Japanese
Sentry who Shot and Killed American

TOKIO, (AP)—A finding of not guilty
was rendered by the court-martial which tried Tashigawa Ogasawara, the sentry who shot Lieutenant Langdon
of the U. S. S. Albatross at Vladivostok last month. It was officially announced by the war department Tuesday. The trial was on the charge of accidental murder.

The judgment in the case explains
that the accused was serving as guard at the headquarters of the eleventh division and that at 4 o'clock in the morning of January 8 he assumed the duty of sentry in front of the main entrance to the headquarters. All the electric lights in the streets were out and everything was quiet and in obscure darkness.

At 4:10 o'clock, the judgment continues, the sentry's attention was attracted by a flashlight, and he made out a pedestrian approaching on the other side of the street, lighting his way with a pocket lamp.

At that time, "the document goes on," several wires, including those used by the Japanese troops had been found broken and hanging down in such a way that they might easily be touched by a passerby. Naturally, the accused suspected that the pedestrian might interfere with the wires.

As he passed the place where the wires were, the pedestrian's lamp came into his line of vision. The sentry's suspicion was aroused. He left his post and challenged three times in Russian, but the man continued as if he had heard nothing.

He pursued the man as far as the crowway, challenged twice, and the man stopped. The sentry asked in Russian whether the pedestrian was a Russian or an American. The man answered that the sentry did not understand.

As the sentry of the man indicated nothing helpful to identification at first glance, the sentry, in the hope of getting a better look, seized the pocket lamp.

ASTRONOMIST LOCATES
EARTHQUAKE EPICENTER

Dodgers from Records from Many Points that Gigantic Tremor Centers About Chinese City

LONDON, (AP)—Records of the great earthquake which shook many parts of the earth's surface on December 15 and 16, show that the epicenter or the point on the earth's surface directly above the focus or origin of the tremor, was at longitude 106 degrees, five minutes east, and latitude 35 degrees, five minutes north. This would be close to the Chinese city Peking, in the province of Kan-Su. Dr. Herbert Hall Turner, professor of astronomy, at Oxford university, collected, according to the London Times, records from Sydney, Colombo, the Khadi Islands,
Calcutta, Helan, Egypt and Sookatoon,
Canada, and arrived at a definite location for the center of the world-wide disturbance.

Reports from the Chinese inland mission, it is said, state that towns 100 miles east of the earthquake were badly shaken.

STATE SENATE PASSES

Indefinite postponement offered by Thomas of Bligh, being voted down, but developments in connection with the controversy breaking out in the upper house at that time resulted in consigning to the morgue by way of the indefinite postponement the several pieces of proposed legislation that have made considerable demands on the attention of the session. Among the measures disposed of were bills providing for increase in salaries of mayors of cities of the first class; appropriation of $400,000 for the state tuberculosis sanatorium at Paria; extension of state aid to dependent mothers; creation of a state park at Priest Lake; and establishment of county unit school districts.

COUPLED CASES OF CHARITY EFFORT CAUSING EXPENSE AND ANNOYANCE

Dr. G. H. Caldwell Explains Necessity of Coordinated Action in Dispensing Relief to Needy in Order to Prevent Overlapping of Work and Needless Expenditure of Funds

Details of a plan for consolidation of the various relief and charity organizations of Twin Falls are being worked out with a view to getting rid of all duplication of effort and all expense of every kind not actually warranted by conditions. Two groups of representatives of the various local bodies have been held. The plan as far as it has gone is described by Dr. George H. Caldwell, temporary chairman of the committee. In the following written statement: "There appears to have been some misunderstanding as to the purpose of the various organizations in Twin Falls doing relief work, held at the Red Cross headquarters in an attempt to develop some plan whereby the work might be coordinated and overlapping of effort avoided wherever possible. Plan Explained. "The secretary of the local Red Cross chapter was asked to send a notice of this meeting to all the organizations as far as possible and to say, though this work was entirely voluntary on her part. In many instances she was not able to learn the name of the party having charge of the work but she attempted to reach all organizations through some one connected with each. There was a very gratifying response to this call and the plan was worked out at this meeting but not fully matured. It was hoped to get a more complete representation at a second meeting which was called for a later date. At this second meeting, it was decided to have the information headquarters located with the Salvation Army as they already had a plan of record keeping in effect and can be reached by telephone at any time or night for the purpose of reporting cases in need of assistance or for getting information in regard to those making application. It was also decided to have a committee appointed for the purpose of overseeing the relief work and that organization, if it is in coordinating the work of the various organizations. One Recording Place. Captain J. F. Purdy of the Salvation Army will keep a record of all cases applying for and receiving relief and this record will be available to all relief workers so that they may know what has been done in any individual case and that organization, if it is in charge of the relief work in that particular case. In addition, each relief worker is asked to report to headquarters all cases to which relief is being given by his organization, the name and address, number in family, etc., and which records may be secured from the other organizations. In this way it will be possible to keep in touch with the work that is being done and to avoid overlapping and duplication. The committee authorized at this meeting will have charge of the money but will act solely in an advisory capacity and referring individual cases to the particular organization or organizations which seem to be best fitted to handle such. Any individual or representative of any relief organization learning of a person or family that is in need is requested to get in touch with some member of this committee or with headquarters at the Salvation Army so that the case may be investigated and reported, and arrangements made for some organization to take care of the needs. This committee is composed of H. B. Grant, Capt. Purdy, Blain George Hammond, H. A. Jackson, Mrs. Edwards, secretary of the Red Cross, Mrs. E. M. Wolfe and Mrs. Elizabeth Hibbard. "I trust this clears up all misunderstandings that may have arisen and that every one in Twin Falls and vicinity will co-operate with this newly formed organization."

ELMWOOD YOUTH, 22 DAYS, NO DOCTOR CALLED UP TO ATTEND—CASE DIAGNOSED AS VIRULENT SCARLET FEVER BY OFFICIAL

Dr. McGinnis and John R. Ault Follow Inadvertent Clue and Uncover Case of Alleged Extraordinary Neglect of Boy Patient—Parents Entertain Sentiment Against Medical Practice—Schools Closed

Following a case inadvertently dropped in a casual conversation Dr. C. C. McGinnis, county physician, and John R. Ault, county juvenile officer, yesterday afternoon uncovered a case of the most extreme illness and alleged willful lack of medical and hospital care ever coming to the attention of the county health and juvenile authorities. According to both Dr. McGinnis and Mr. Ault the case was that of a 12-year-old boy, said to be suffering from a virulent form of scarlet fever in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McGinnis at Elmwood. The boy is the son of the Nicumans. Officers say the parents admit that though the boy was stricken with fever on February 22 and they have made no effort to seek relief through regular medical channels, and that they have taken no precaution against spreading the disease. Mr. Ault says members of the family have held daily communication with outsiders, and he declares a neighbor child was visiting in the Nicum home when the illness arrived yesterday. Mr. Ault also avers that the parents, when questioned as to failure to provide medical attention, declared that their religion was against the practice of medicine, and that they would "pray the disease out of the son." The boy had a temperature of 104.4-2 when officers called yesterday. A girl of the family, aged about 10 years, is said to have been attending school regularly since the brother was brought home. The school was ordered closed yesterday for a thorough fumigation. The Nicumans have been put in the quarantine and orders have been issued by the McGinnis for providing the sick child with proper nourishment and regular baths. The case has been placed in the hands of the county physician, who is negotiating criminal charges against the parents. In connection with the work of treating a normal condition of health in certain communities where contagious and communicable diseases have been reported Dr. McGinnis has ordered the Berger school closed until further notice. Two cases of actual smallpox have been found in the schools, with four others showing suspicious symptoms. Dr. McGinnis made another trip to Berger for investigation of the cases today. Five Ricks school pupils were taken out of the school on Monday because of the appearance of a rash which the health authorities desire to diagnose.
