REVOLT AGAINST RUSSIAN SOVIET CALLED SERIOUS

Reports Received in Official British Circles Confirm Dispatches Telling of Anti-Bolshevik Uprisings

LONDON, (AP)—Reports received in official British circles today confirm dispatches telling of anti-Bolshevik uprisings in Russia. They state that the situation in Russia is serious. The latest official reports received, however, did not indicate that the soviet government had lost control.

OVERTHROW OF REDS IS REGARDED AS POSSIBILITY

LONDON, (AP)—Reports from Russia received this morning in Helmingford, Finland, by way of Revel, Estonia, disclose a situation "which may result shortly in the complete overthrow of soviet rule," says the Central News Helmingford correspondent.

Fighting is proceeding in many parts of Russia, with Petrograd and Moscow as the centers of the revolutionary movement, the reports add.

The fighting in Petrograd is of a general character, according to the reports, for 300,000 strikers are declared to be on strike against the soviet government. The exact number it is impossible to estimate.

"It is reliably reported," the dispatch adds, "that very many have been killed or wounded on both sides in street fighting and that there has been considerable property damage. The nationalization of Kronstadt has caused the rebels."

Reports of the revolution in Moscow are meagre, doubtless owing to the censorship. One message indicates that large numbers of former officers of the Russian army are leaving the country.

Padraig's Losses Heavy

"In the midst of the military campaign, he has been among the most colorful of the war's heroes. He has suffered heavy casualties. Combined forces of laborers and marines, of whom 100 were former soviet men, attacked the barracks, drove them through the streets to the schools and quickly overpowered the garrisons. The surviving cadets only escaped by a narrow margin.

"Stagnation fighting continues in the streets and also in the neighborhood."

It considered in senate amendments to house bills No. 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 79

FORMER TITLED RUSSIAN SLAVE NOW FOR LIVING

Warsaw Is Refuge for Many Members of Old Muscovite Aristocracy Driven from Palace to Hovel

WARSAW, (AP)—Driven from palace to hovel, some of the members of the aristocracy of old Russia now are peering out of their hovels or chopping wood here for a living.

Five thousand men and women and some of whose remaining titles are once brought them from courtiers are clustered here after having fled to Poland before the bolsheviks. In their midst is the well-known Madame Ludmila Lubloff, herself a refugee, though born a princess of one of the oldest Russian houses and the wife of the former chief governor of Warsaw.

Directs Relief Work.

This remarkable woman is conducting soup kitchens, sewing rooms and is a center for many of the unemployed by class and taking orders from her own men who once commanded the armed forces of the Russian emperor. Her staff are administrators, general governors, mayors and members of the old Petrograd court, while her husband has held high administrative duties before her secretary.

A beautiful woman, she hides the tragedy of her life under an optimism that is an example to the unhappy folk to whom she ministers. A woman of action, too, for she escaped from Petrograd with her two sons after fleeing her husband from a prison with Paul and Armand, his wife with a fictitious passport that enabled him to flee to Warsaw. Here the family was reunited.

Selling virtually all she possessed to aid her fellow-countrymen, Mme. Lubloff organized the Warsaw branch of the Russian Red Cross, which is being aided by the American organization.

Sparing not herself, Madame Lubloff has not spared the collection of refugees which included many of the former Russian nobility. In the soup kitchen and woodyard which she has established in a Russian orthodox church at Podwale, a splendid opportunity is held for the women of the old aristocracy to perform their duty.

Quarterly Chopps Wood.

In the dingy little courtyard General Oblonsky, former chief of the Russian secret, shops wood for a living with several officers of the crack Imperial Guard. The work is hard, but his reason and mood to be watched. In a small and dirty building, Prince Meschery, who was master of ceremonies at the Imperial court, peeps potpourri for his daily bread.

In the crowded rooms the meals are served to women of the aristocracy—Princess Bukoff, widow of Admiral Bukoff who was executed by the bolsheviks; Princess Duchomyay whose husband was reputedly a traitor who was sent to Petrograd and is now cashiered; the next room at 4000 Pollak, marks a month, the equivalent of 60 and Madame Lubloff, widow of the vice mayor of Petrograd who was put to death by the red revolutionists.

Colonel Kesselhoff of the Imperial Russian guards runs errands for Madame Lubloff and refugees who live here from exhaustion while waiting for their food, as attended by Mlle. Caragessoff, a former wealthy resident of Petrograd, now a nurse.

Soldiers Help Red Cross.

Working in an American Red Cross warehouse are 20 officers of the Imperial guards regiment, headed by M. Mikolajewski, a lawyer of Kiev who arrived in the Polish capital without underclothing or footwear. He said his sister had been killed this winter by the bolsheviks and that the capital of the Ukraine had become a city of the dead.

Madame Lubloff hosts a storehouse, about the size of an American house, with the paucity which is in charge of Michael Stramchenko, the son of the general of Petrograd and the captain of the bolshevik. The assistant storekeeper is Victor Borsenko who was governor of Novgorod.

BERKELEY, Cal. (AP)—University of California students are being urged by Chief of Police August Vollmer to take examinations for posts on the Berkeley police force. There are already six university students on the force—and more are wanted.

Women as well as men are wanted on the eligible lists for positions in the department, the women to do stenographic work. The police work can be performed outside of classroom hours.

"No single individual in any community has greater opportunity to be of real service than the sympathetic, intelligent and trained policeman," Chief Vollmer said in announcing examinations.

They must be able to grasp the fundamental principle of crime prevention and have the ability to cooperate with the police force agencies to curb poverty and unemployment.

"Regardless of what people have thought of the police in the past, the fact is that the policeman of the future is a combination of the physician, lawyer, diplomat, social worker, scientist and priest."

WALSH PARK WATER BILL WAITS FOR NEXT SESSION

Secretary Payne Takes Final Plunge at Measure for Utilization of Yellowstone Floods

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Uncompromising opposition to any and all attempts to utilize Yellowstone national park to irrigate the irrigation in Montana was expressed Tuesday by Secretary Payne of the interior department, who appeared before a senate committee approved before a senate committee.

When you once establish the principle that you can encroach upon national parks for any utilitarian purpose, be it power or reclamation, you have begun the destruction of the park," Mr. Payne said. "It is the beginning of the end."

Chairman McNary of the senate irrigation committee announced that the bill for the water bill would "be postponed, in view of the approaching change of the federal administration, until a new secretary of the interior has taken office and had opportunity to make a recommendation on this subject."

BARUCH AND RYAN FIND FRIEND IN WHITE HOUSE

President Wilson Takes Up Outage in Behalf of Men Charged With Hoarding During War

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Wilson today took the defense of R. M. Baruch and John D. Ryan, who have been charged by Representative Mason, republican, of Illinois, with profiting from copper while serving the government during the war.

In a letter to Representative Garrett, democrat, of Tennessee, the president said that charges against the two men had been satisfactorily answered, but that he thought a statement of the facts from him as to the fixing of the price of copper during the war was more than warranted.

The president denied flatly that either Mr. Baruch or Mr. Ryan had anything to do with the price-fixing conspiracy, which he said Judge Robert S. Lovett, formerly commissioner for the government during the war, was responsible in the initial stages.

WOMEN JURORS DEBATE CENTER

Storm of Discussion Sweeps Through London Newspapers Over Innovation

LONDON, (AP)—A storm of discussion, both commendation and condemnation, has swept through London newspapers as the result of the innovation of having women serve with men as members of juries in divorce cases.

The first mixed jury to sit in the London divorce court has been unable to agree on a verdict and been discharged after hearing the case for four days.

In the comment on the proceeding, newspaper editorials and the contributed communications of readers have discussed principally the propriety of obliging women as members of the jury to examine all the evidence submitted. In this case the counsel for one of the parties to the action announced that he had evidence to submit which he did not consider it proper to place before women jurors. The judge said he was helpless in the matter, but ultimately only the men jurors examined the evidence.

Mr. Edward Marshall-Hall, counsel for the other party, had even suggested before a mixed jury and that he hoped he would never have to deal with a case of such a nature again. "It is undeniable that there are many cases in which the assistance of women will be of the greatest value to the court," said Sir Edward. "But there are other cases in which, from the nature of the evidence which will have to be discussed before them, it is undesirable that they should serve."

Senator Hillebrand, democrat, Nebraska, defended the president's order. He said that of 1,110 postmaster appointed 1,012 were democrats and 907 republicans. The figures were "conclusive evidence," he said, that the postoffice department made an honest effort to take postmasterships "on the political patronage."

Its effect, he added, was to keep in office without examination postmasters whose terms had expired.

Overthrow of Government and Establishment of Soviet Regime Is Believed Object of Radical Leaders

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Mexican, German and Russian agitators, who have been conspicuous in every public demonstration held recently in this city, are under close surveillance and will be dealt with as political intriguers, said a statement issued last night by Rafael Zubagan Cuyman, secretary of commerce and industry.

SIROBIANS CALL FOR JAPAN TO LEAVE COUNTRY

Demand for Fixing of Definite Date for Evacuation of Eastern Russia is Sent to Tokyo by Far Eastern Republic

PEKING, (AP)—Demands that Japan fix a definite date for the evacuation of Siberian territory have been sent to the foreign office of Tokyo by the minister of foreign affairs of the Far Eastern Republic. It is said in a dispatch received here.

World End Interference. The note does not demand that there be no Japanese interference in that region.

Allegation was made that the Japanese were working to force the evacuation of the territory where the troops are located and that Russian cities and villages in the zone of intervention are developing in a poisonous atmosphere of robbery, murder and unspeakable crimes. It was charged that in the past have been held in Gorkovsk, near the eastern Manchurian frontier, by "criminal persons" and that passengers had been robbed, arrested and killed by the Far Eastern government at Chita had been unable to remedy the situation, owing to opposition by the Japanese military command.

See Challenge in Action. Protection and patronage was given General Semenov, anti-Bolshevik leader in eastern Siberia. It was stated in a dispatch from Moscow that this was done in a manner which suggested a challenge to the Chita government. It was stated that the present action of General Semenov "promises a new adventure in the spring" with Japanese help.

The Japanese foreign office was asked whether it would receive a mission from Chita, in view of the presence in Siberia of a Japanese diplomatic mission.

CHAMP CLARK DEATH'S VICTIM

son, that there be no interruption of congress in its closing days.

Votes Salary to Wilson. Immediately after the session after the 30-minute recess, the house adopted a resolution providing for the payment to Mrs. Clark of a year's salary, totaling about $2000.

Members of Mr. Clark's family left the funeral arrangements to congressional leaders, who expressed their sympathy in the form of letters Saturday in the hands of the capitol before sending the body to Bowling Green for burial.

A long list of representatives and senators will accompany the body to that place.

In the democratic national convention at Baltimore in 1912, Champ Clark led on 27 ballots for the nomination as candidate for president and was a close major on nine ballots, prior to the final naming of Woodrow Wilson.

The two-thirds rule of the convention also prevented Mr. Clark's nomination. The honor which his party thus paid him was the most notable of his public life. In an American political history Martin Van Buren and one other man who failed of the democratic nomination for the presidency after having received a majority of the votes in the national convention, but he enjoyed the unique distinction of being elected subsequently.

William T. Bryan's sensational attack on Mr. Clark at Baltimore, charging him with being affiliated with leaders representing "the interests," held the nation in dead-end suspense more than a week when it ended in the nomination of Wilson. Bryan's speech, declaring that Thomas F. Ryan, August Belmont and Charles F. Murphy were supporting Clark, was a bolt from the blue which made the Clark ranks waver. Clark supporters held a caucus and found that none of the three leaders mentioned were for Clark as first choice, but that the unit rule carried the New York delegation to the Clark forces.

The break between Bryan and Clark never was healed, although they met at a luncheon arranged by mutual friends a few months later and exchanged perfunctory speeches. Coolidge's election in 1920, however, after the White House and an legislative policies they worked in harmony except in one notable instance, the rejection of Panama tolls exemption, which Speaker Clark opposed unreservedly.

The failure of his candidacy at Baltimore never ceased to be the disappointment of Mr. Clark's life. He refused nomination as vice president and told the crowd he would not be preferred to remain a speaker.

His election to the speakership of the house came in the sixty-second congress, after the Wilson concession, and it was by a united democracy in recognition of the contest Mr. Clark had made against the rule of Speaker Joseph Cannon. Mr. Clark had served in every congress since and including the fifty-third in 1893 except the fifty-fourth. He was born in Anderson, Ky., on March 7, 1853. He was married three times. His first wife, Clara, died early in life. He re-married to the second Mrs. Clark. His first work was as a farm hand. He later worked in a general store and in a country newspaper.

He was educated at Kentucky university and Bethany college, and the Clinton Law School. For a short time he was president of Marshall college, and at 25, held the record of being the youngest college president in the United States. In 1872 he moved to Missouri where he took up the study and practice of law, and became prosecuting attorney in Pike county. His next stop was into the Missouri legislature where he framed the Missouri primary law, an anti-trust statute, and an Australian ballot law. He was permanent chairman of the democratic national convention at St. Louis in 1904 and headed the committee that notified Alton B. Parker of his presidential nomination.

He was first sent to the national forum in 1883. Although then regarded as "green," his strength in the house developed rapidly. When John Sharp Williams led the house for a week, Representative Clark was made minority leader by virtue of his seniority on the ways and means committee which drafted the Payne-Adlerich tariff act. His service on that committee in trying to keep duties down won him the regard of the democrats and his speech of one hour against the act was one of the notable addresses of that congress.

PACKERS' PLAN IS DISAPPROVED

Court Rejects Substitute Proposal of Swift and Company for Stock Yards Sale

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The substitute proposal of Swift and Co., and Armour and Co. for the sale of their stock yards was disapproved today by Justice Stafford in the district supreme court.

The court allowed 30 days for the taking of testimony as to the value of the companies' holdings after which they will be given an opportunity to offer their stock for sale at the price then fixed or the court will appoint trustees to take over the stock as recommended by the department of justice.

The court held that the plans proposed by two companies "seem to make easy a long period of continued ownership on the part of the defendants and in the meantime provide too feeble a control on the part of the court." Justice Stafford said the defendants were willing to sell if they could get a fair price, but they should be held only after both sides are heard.

The court decreed that a Washington Trust company be named to take over the interests of Morris and company and Wilson and company in stockyards, stockyard terminals and market receipts and their stock options. Morris and Company's plan was modified, however, so as to require that the sale be consummated within 90 days.

Losses were largely retrieved and some substantial gains were established later. Atlantic Gulf, Crucible Steel, Baltimore Locomotive, General Asphalt and prominent firms featured the recovery. The closing was steady.

CONDITIONS IN EUROPE SEND WHEAT PRICE UP

Talk of strained political relations between Uptown; Close is 1 to 1 3/4 Cents Net Higher.

CHICAGO, (AP)—Decided upturn in price of wheat resulted today from general buying based largely on talk of strained European political conditions. Besides, country offerings were light.

Wheat prices advanced sharply in the early part of the session. Prices were likely to bring about higher prices regardless of whether or not there was crop damage in the United States.

Chicago wheat prices ranged from 3-1/2 to 3-1/4 higher, with March 1.09 1/4 and May 1.58 3/4 to 1.59 1/2, were followed by something of a reaction and then by a rise higher than before.

Sales of wheat to come to Chicago from Kansas City tended subsequently to ease prices somewhat. Prices closed unsettled, 1 to 1 3/4 net higher, with March 1.07 3/4 to 1.08 and May 1.53 1/4 to 1.54 1/2.

Corn quotations advanced with the action of wheat. After opening 1 1/4 to 7/8 higher, including May at 69 7/8 to 70 3/8, the market sagged a little, but later scored fresh gain.

Top prices failed to hold: The finish was steady, 3/4 to 1/2 net higher, with May 70 3/8 to 70 1/2.

On a whole, a result of the bulge in other cereals, starting 1 1/4 to 1/2 net higher, May 45 1/4 to 45 3/8, and hardening still more.

Building sales on the part of holders had a bullish effect on provisions.

Lahoma A drama of the early days in Oklahoma

Character portraits and descriptions for Lahoma: Lahoma (the prairie rose who knew no friends but the outlaw and the oymic), Will Compton (reared and educated in the east; his cowboy life had lost its charm), Bill Atkins (the big-hearted oymic, who lived alone and passed the greater part of his life keeping one step ahead of civilization), Brick Willock (an outlaw whose spirit craved adventure, not crime; they called him "Groat Heart").

THESE PEOPLE KNEW THE WEST

With simple sincerity they unfold to you the human drama that flowered in the pioneer days of Oklahoma.

You will gasp at the prairie schooner caught in the swirling sweep of a blinding storm.

You will thrill at the immense open spaces, the beauty and wondrous charm of primal nature.

A powerful play of the frontier land where danger walked hand in hand with romance.

And in that land of daring and romance he raised "Lahoma" as his daughter. And you will laugh a bit with the Rose of the Rancho, the Lonesome Cowboy, the Oymic, the Outlaw and the Bohomer.

OBVIOUSLY GOOD

Formation of a central organization or sort of clearing house for correlation of the efforts of the several civic societies of Twin Falls is an undertaking of such obvious desirability...

But much better late than never, a movement to this end has been launched and during the next fortnight the various civic and fraternal organizations and women's clubs of the community will be asked to affiliate with such an organization.

It is to be hoped that they will be so sure that it is working for the betterment of Twin Falls missing when the roll is called in the meeting at which the proposed organization is to be formed.

Whatever is for the benefit of Twin Falls is the proper sphere of this project and its program may be purely constructive. Twin Falls has now a number of societies each working more or less alone toward the attainment of objects that are the proper concern of the community as a whole.

Its breadth of scope, contemplating the inclusion of representatives of every element making up Twin Falls population, civic, fraternal and industrial, is perhaps the principal source of strength of the proposed organization and constitutes its chief claim for favorable consideration.

Through it, as through no other single agency, the thought of the community with respect to any civic problem may be crystallized and the united support of Twin Falls population be given to any undertaking that would command general approval.

RELIEF IN SIGHT

Leading bankers and business men of the United States who have been accused of fearing that they might be secured by having selfish motives in showing a hesitancy about advocating a revision of the revenue laws in a way that would relieve industry and business of some of its burdens, see hope of a better deal with the advent of the Harding administration.

Only persons who fail to give the subject intelligent thought can subscribe to a system of taxation that places a handicap upon the business interests of the nation, through a method that is as complicated in its operations as it is unjust in its applications.

The professed purpose of the lawmakers in enacting the present tax measure was to make those taxable able to bear the burden pay the taxes. The declaration sounded good to many people who are now learning that the excess profits tax and the income surtax, while yielding large revenues, defeat the very purpose for which they were intended. The profits taxes have been pretended and passed on to the consumer who were supposed to be the principal beneficiaries.

Business has been stagnated and industrial enterprises have languished because when with money have had little inducement to use it for expansion.

One of the innovations which the new administration is expected to sponsor is the plan for tax revision is to levy a sales tax, which can be easily calculated and paid without imposing more than a reasonable share of tax burdens on buyers. This tax would take the place of the excess profits

One May Be Suited or Not

YOUR choice for spring may fall upon a suit—or upon a one-piece frock or a coat dress that lures you away from your old allegiance to skirt and coat. Each is as smart as the other for street wear, an ingeniously designed and so well tailored. It is almost necessary to issue a questionnaire in order to know which is which, for in general outlines they are much alike. There are almost no severely plain models and the demand for decoration has brought out a great deal that is novel and handsome.

In the picture above, both a suit and a coat dress are reproduced, the suit at the left depending on its novel decoration more than anything else to distinguish it. It is made of a dark blue tulle and has a plain skirt fluted into a plain band about the bottom. This band is studded with jet cabochons. The straight coat is a little drawn in at the waist line by a cord and finishes at the bottom by a band corresponding with that on the skirt. Flaring sleeves and standing collar are notes in the spring modes which this coat repeats and they are both combined with other colors which baffle their good work by dotting the front with bright points.

The dress at the right is built on chemise lines, of cloth, combined with satin in a contrasting color. Four pointed panels accent its unbroken lines with the satin glimpsed along their edges. The waist makes an ample vestee and narrow collar, crossed at the front, and appears again in underpasses, stable through slashes in the forehead. This touch on the sleeves is something new.

HARDING GIVEN WARM SENDOFF

Neighbors in Marion and Nearby Towns Bid President-elect Goodbye

MARION, O., (AP)—President-elect Harding's neighbors in Marion and nearby towns bade him good-bye in the park of the presidential today in a formal farewell that brought him to the famous start porch one of his largest gatherings.

Marion schools and business houses closed their doors for two hours to observe the occasion and as the final front porch meeting began, church bells and factory whistles mingled their voices in a sonorous melody of good-will.

As part of the farewell ceremony, the city presented to the president-elect and his wife a silver plaque which bore the inscription "God's blessing to you."

The program arranged for the farewell ceremony began shortly before noon and was a simple one. After the presentation of the plaque a reception hall was held.

For his text in the acceptance address, Dr. Thomas H. McCauley, pastor of Presbyterian-elect Harding's church, took the inscription of the plaque: "O Warren Gamaliel Harding and his wife, Florence Kling Harding, from the people of Marion in testimony of affection and gratitude for loyal friendship and service to the public welfare, and devotion to the highest conception of American citizenship. God's blessing to you."

The president-elect's response was brief, expressing thanks and saying that he was glad to be in the work ahead of him.

HAD LITTLE USE FOR BOOKS

Friend of Grover Cleveland Brought That He Practiced Law "Exclusively by Ear."

Grover Cleveland had a friend in his early days as a lawyer, and the friend was also a lawyer, although a lazy one. Whenever it became necessary for him to use a decision bearing upon any case he borrowed Cleveland's office and casually went over the desk to appreciate the fact and read and re-read it.

One day the friend came in on his usual errand and Mr. Cleveland heard the accustomed preliminaries to the pumping process, he told him plainly that the font of information was closed, but told Cleveland to him: "There are my books and you are quite welcome to read them. You can read your own cases." The friend, who was an excellent man, retorted quickly: "See here, Grover Cleveland, I want you to understand that I don't read law. I practice law. I want to see your and your books can go to thunder."

With an Unbroken String of Victories Meters Go Into Finals This Week

Next Friday and Saturday the annual district basketball tournament will be played in the high school gym. The floor is being touched up with new paint lines and will be in good shape for the meet.

Though the Meters have taken on all comers and have been victorious throughout the season the tournament op in by no means safe as yet. They are keeping in fine fettle for the grand and final series expected to be met through with the type of fight that wins.

The strongest contenders for the cup will probably be Rupert, Burley, Alhion, Gooding and Twin Falls. If the schedule runs as it has in previous tournaments there will be elimination contests Friday afternoon and evening and Saturday morning, the championship match coming off Saturday afternoon.

Brief Bits of Sport

A Salt Lake sports writer calls Harry Fazio, owner of the Boston Red Sox, the "stump petrol" of baseball.

Apparently the pitching services of Ralph Strode are lost to the Salt Lake Bees for ever, or at least for this year.

The steatized twirler has joined a California outlaw club, and is already reported wearing that outfit's clothes.

Champion Ed Lewis, wrestler, is picking a lot of easy marks in one another section of the country almost nightly. Last week he fought Dick Davickour, Hassan Ali and Max Orlando on different nights. But the easy marks make an easy road to easy money for Lewis.

Frank Juncy, who spoils his name officially Gully, is negotiating with the Postville club of Ohio to sign for his release. The management says it will cost the twirler $2000.

Juncy last year jumped the Portland club and joined an outlaw outfit, but must be satisfied by the National board before he can make plans for buying his release.

Maria Pietras, grappling sage, has broken out again. The huge Italian has hurled another challenge at Strangler Lewis, champion, and offers to take the champ on any day the latter wants.

Also Pietras says he will let Lewis clamp his deadened hand on him and promise not to start wrestling until the hold is clamped firm enough to satisfy the champion.

In addition Pietras says he will donate his share of the gate receipts to charity just to get a match with the leading star of the national wrestling.

Just for that somebody ought to match that pail.

Since Willie Jackson trounced Johnny Dundee so neatly and artistically in their other night, Twin Falls are looking to new comers for a fight with Henry Leonard.

Well, it should prove an interesting affair, anyway, and even though Willie will lose it will be experience for him, and maybe he needs more of that before he is eligible to take a crown.

Willie Hoppe says he is in no way at fault because he and Foreman have not been brought together in a billiard championship match. Willie says Foreman won't put up sufficient for fight to make the match an object.

"He can have a match any time he agrees to reasonable conditions and pays his money binding the match," says Bill Champlin, who has been named some of the conditions, and they are not altogether to the liking of the Belgian.

For instance, Willie says 1000 points and Foreman says 500.

Weather Change Seen in Slump of Temperature

A SLUMPING temperature, together with a decided lowering of the mercury today against that of the past two days, supports conclusions put forth by the authorized weather maker that snow is probably tomorrow.

The same authority, however, pledges fair weather for tonight in the south portion of the state, which embraces the Twin Falls district.

According to Poor Richard, of aluminum fame, there are 33 frost-free days scattered throughout the 12 months of the regular calendar, but this is not one of them, and neither is tomorrow.

The top temperature yesterday was same as that of the day prior, while at night the mercury slumped down to 20, or nine degrees lower than Monday night.

Twin Falls Societies Will Co-ordinate Efforts for Civic Betterment

Effort of Twin Falls societies directed toward betterment of the city and solution of civic problems would be coordinated under provisions of a plan for formation of a central civic organization which was discussed at a meeting last night of representatives of several civic and fraternal organizations and women's clubs.

Local Organization Section. Indorsement of the proposal was expressed by those in attendance, but no definite steps were taken toward perfecting the proposed organization and the meeting adjourned to reconvene on Tuesday evening, March 15, at which time it was expected a sufficient number of societies would have decided to affiliate with the proposed central body to warrant its launching.

Mr. "Protest" presided as chairman of the meeting last night, and Mr. H. W. Houck was called upon to explain the plan of organization. The proposal was submitted on the basis of advantage resulting to the community through unification of civic effort and crystallization of civic organization which was discussed at a meeting last night of representatives of several civic and fraternal organizations and women's clubs.

Demand More Light. "Some time ago," Mrs. Houck said, "we deflected in an election a proposal that would have given us a park which we need very much, very largely from a feeling among the voters that they were voting in the dark. Discussion of the proposal through the agency of a central civic organization might have been attended by different results. At least it would have dispelled popular misapprehension of the issue presented."

A number of undertakings toward which the effort of unified civic effort might be directed were suggested by Mrs. Clumbeck, among them being possibility of making arrangements for seasonal gratuitous use of children's "s" swimming pool built here soon by private interests.
