

ONCE RULERS IN RUSSIA SUBSIST NOW IN SQUALOR

Pathetic Scenes are Enacted Among Refugees in Disease Infected Camps on the Dalmatian Coast

HAUGUSA, Jug-Slavina. (AP)—Friends of the late czar Nicholas, members of the upper crust of society of imperial Russia, princes, dukes, general and barons are living in squalor in camps infected with typhus and typhoid here and at Cattaro Bay, on the Dalmatian coast.

Together they constitute a group of about 1,500 of the refugees brought from the Crimea when General Wrangel's anti-Bolshevik army collapsed and have since been scattered about the Balkans.

Retain Vestige of Grandeur

Vestiges of their former imperial grandeur peep out from their ragged coats and shabby hats as they sit in the recesses of the old buildings camped their dirty, unkempt luggage. Princes, princesses and grand dukes who once reigned forth with barely managed to exist on meager allowance of food doled out to them. Their costly fur once caudate but now scant and their almost priceless show the former riches of their owners.

The Associated Press correspondent visited several hundred of the former airplane hangars where the Russians are quartered. Generals could be seen in tatters waiting their turns for rations and other small necessities in camp lines and then filling up on black bread. Their uniforms carried the insignia of imperial Russia with strings of medals across their breasts. Cosaks stood around in threepiece regalia of the old regime, wearing dilapidated astrakhan hats and tunics intended for British soldiers, while their riding boots were worn and ragged from long use.

Women in Bags

The clothing of the women consisted of robes of better days. Some wore riding boots, the last footwear left from what once had been an extensive wardrobe. Some carried in their baggage Persian rugs which had been able to save on their long pilgrimages. Once they became well enough acquainted with a visitor, they offer for sale such jewelry as they still possess, so as to tide themselves over this period of distress. Some of the women had been hearing the imperial arms.

Prince Tschankofsky, formerly the owner of several immense estates in Russia, considers himself most lucky of the refugees for he has managed to obtain a job tending bees for which he receives the equivalent of 40 cents a day. The only clothing owned by a convalescent's suit, shoes and underwear issued by the American Red Cross.

Baron von Goerstein, who says he was General Wrangel's adjutant in the Crimea campaign, has at Cattaro $2,000 worth of regimental silver which once had been an extensive wardrobe with it as the Jugoslav government refuses to admit silver without paying a large duty which the baron is not able to do. So the silver remains at the custom house.

Keeps Up Appearances

Baroness Nien Von Setzschberg insists upon keeping up appearances and wears a hat, for the American Red Cross for which she receives 50 cents a day, enabling her to rent a small room in a hotel.

Maria Demickoff, daughter of the former President of the Russian Duma, has an excellent position with the American Red Cross at 60 cents a day, as she speaks English. Her husband, formerly commandant of the czar's artillery school and wearer of 20 decorations, is an officer man in the American Red Cross at 60 cents a day. He shows real enterprise, for he is saving money and buying tools to

Theatrical Scene Director Who Earns Over $25,000 a Year

(By International News Service) There is a splendid field for women in the line of theatrical scenic director. Lillian T. Bradley more than proved it possible, for as a theatrical scenic director she earns more than $25,000 a year. English-born, she who plan and devise the settings which make the American stage so attractive to the eye. Present-day theatre goes through annual stage settings. Performances are spent on scenery and effects nowadays to provide the proper "atmosphere". Lillian T. Bradley is a scenic artist in her profession and ranks among the most famous of scenic directors in the country.

Led Forces Into Germany

Marshal Foch. General Weygand.

Widows among the refugees are fighting to save the lives of their children. Marie Schlof, daughter of one of the czar's ministers and wife of the colonel of the imperial guards who was murdered by the Bolsheviks, is making bold attempts in effort to keep up appearances and save herself and children from starvation. The American Red Cross is aiding her by giving an allowance of milk, shoes, etc., to her children.

Many of the Russians who are artists or dancers have organized an opera ballet to travel in Yugoslavia. The correspondent saw one performance and it was well done, the work of real artists. Some of the opera singers among the refugees are making a living by touring the small towns hereabouts.

Disregard Danger

None of the 1,500 refugees seemed to mind the typhus although there were two cases among them and another 200 had been brought to the hospital. American destroyers have brought to the Bosnian coast instruments and medicines as United States naval vessels in these waters almost invariably show the former riches of their owners.

General Weygand, aid to Marshal Foch during the World War, and reputed one of the greatest strategists of the age, with General Sir Henry Wilson, director of the British Staff, aided Marshal Foch in directing the allied operations of German cities.

CHINESE FILE PROTEST OVER ALIEN TONGUE ACT

MANILA, P. I. (AP)—Chinese, who do a large proportion of the business of the Philippine Islands, have made a protest through the Chinese consul general to Governor General Harrison against the bill passed by the recent session of the legislature, compelling all business concerns to keep their books in English, Spanish or one of the various dialects of the Philippines. The object of the law, according to its supporters, is to aid internal revenue officers in the collection of taxes.

Chow Kwo-han, Chinese consul general, declared that the non-enforcement of the law is justified for two reasons, namely, that it will not accomplish the purpose for which it was enacted, and that it may cause a misunderstanding between America and China, which countries, he said, are now on most friendly terms.

CHINA OUBS RATES ON SUPPLIES TO FAMING ZONES

PEKING. (AP)—Authorization of half sale on the government railways for the transportation of munitions and supplies necessary for agricultural production in the famine districts has been denied by the ministry of communications. These rates were made effective for six months from February 12.

FINISHING THE ALPINE CUT

Second Simplon Tunnel to Connect Switzerland and Italy

GENEVA. (AP)—The second Simplon tunnel under the Alps between Switzerland and Italy will be completed by the end of the year. Road traffic will be diverted through it immediately and repairs made in the first tunnel, opened 20 years ago. Both will be used sometime in 1922. The first tunnel, 12 1/2 miles long, cost $20,000,000. The new bore will cost only one-third that amount. Construction was begun before the war but work was abandoned because the workmen were nearly all mobilized. Half way through, subterranean boiling springs were uncovered and many workmen were killed.

BODY OF CARDINAL IS REMOVED TO CATHEDRAL

Funeral Guards Surround Body of Distinguished Churchman Lying in State

BALTIMORE. (AP)—The body of Cardinal Gibbons was here this morning from the bed chamber in which he died last Thursday to the cathedral, where it will lie in state until Thursday, the day of the funeral. There was no ceremony attendant on its removal from the archiepiscopal residence.

Arrived in the mass vestments of an archbishop, the body rests on a catafalque erected at the head of the center aisle immediately in front of the chancel. The cathedral within and without is draped in purple and black. Day and night until the hour of the funeral guards of twelve men, selected from the different Catholic laymen's societies, will stand beside the bier and each day from early morning until late at night a "guard of prayer" from the Daughters of Isabella, will kneel in the nave offering prayers for the repose of the soul of the honored prelate.

The six front pews had to be removed to make space for the bier and for the procession which will be passing it continuously from 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. tomorrow and Wednesday, the time the public will be admitted to view the bier.

The first ceremony of the funeral was a requiem high mass this morning for children, celebrated by the Rev. Louis L. Langens, rector of the cathedral, assisted by priests of the late cardinal's household.

PERFECTS A DIVING SUIT

Vancouver Man Has Equipment for Working Under 600 Feet of Water

YANCOUVER, B. C. (AP)—That he can dive 600 feet into the ocean and still work comfortably and easily is the contention of Frank Walters, diver and inventor of an aluminum diving suit. In a recent test he reached a depth of 306 feet, said here to be a world's record.

The suit is built of 6-8 and 1-2 metal and weighs over 300 pounds. In making his recent descent Mr. Walker added 50 pounds of lead to the soles of his shoes.

Owing to the rigidity of the suit, pressure at the depth attained was but 40 pounds to the square inch inside the suit while it reached 170 pounds on the outside.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT IS CONFERENCE THEME

Representatives of Many Institutions to Meet in Boston to Consider Important Topics

BOSTON, Mass. (AP)—Sixty-eight representatives of 38 or more colleges and technical schools of the country will participate in an intercollegiate conference on undergraduate government to be held here April 15-16. It gives promise of being the most important yet held.

The delegates, four from each institution, will include class presidents, heads of student councils, editors of college publications and the leaders of other phases of undergraduate life. Student self-government methods, athletic organization, college publications, college theatrical and student clubs and other undergraduate activities will be discussed, with special reference to student control. The conference also will consider the best means and medium for obtaining publicity for college activities now neglected or lacking entire in proportion to their importance.

The conference of which Massachusetts Institute of Technology will be the host, is the outgrowth of an informal discussion of student government problems held in New York last winter at the suggestion of J. C. Tolson, president of the senior class of the University of Pennsylvania.

BLUE LAWS FAIR WILL INDIANA

Effective Opposition to Extreme
"Regulatory Measure Marks
the Session

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., (AP) - Two hundred and eighty new laws resulted from the introduction of eight hundred and thirty-two bills—465 in the house and 307 in the senate, in the 1921 session of the Indiana legislature. The session, the 72nd, was marked by effective opposition to extreme regulatory measures and a proposed extension of the law month's session. A new crime, defined as "automobile handling", was covered by a statute which provides penalty of three to five years for the first offense and left to the jury for second. Use of an automobile by two or more persons to accomplish a crime or to escape from the scene of a crime constitutes automobile handling under the Indiana law.

Orison Wake Takes Time
Treatment of the crime was occupied much time in the opening days of the law month's session. A new crime, defined as "automobile handling", was covered by a statute which provides penalty of three to five years for the first offense and left to the jury for second. Use of an automobile by two or more persons to accomplish a crime or to escape from the scene of a crime constitutes automobile handling under the Indiana law.

One of the hotly contested struggles of the session centered about a motion picture censorship measure. Three were killed in the senate, one providing for censorship and regulation of motion pictures by the state board of education and another providing for appointment of a board of censorship. A measure similar to the latter was passed in the house, but killed in the senate. An amendment bill to bring the state's "blue laws" up-to-date and to leave no loopholes for movie houses was never handed down on third reading.

Measures sponsored by women's organizations did not fare well during the first time in history a woman, Mrs. Julia Nelson, of Delaware county, set as a member of the Indiana House of Representatives. A state censorship measure was for a nine-hour day for women in industry but the bill was killed in the house.

Later in the assembly were not pronounced. A state constabulary bill, opposed by labor was beaten as was an anti-picketing bill. On the other hand, full time train car laws were passed culminating a struggle which lasted for more than ten years.

Perhaps the most unusual law enacted was the indigent parent measure. It provides penalty of fine and imprisonment not to exceed six months for failure of children to support their parents or for parents in the event they are able to do so.

Each of rural fairs was dissolved in the dinner law which makes possible a national program of raising turkeys, chickens, ducks and geese, which trespass on the land of others.

SETS APART WEEK FOR STRESS ON HUMANENESS

Period Devoted to Kindness to Animals to be Observed at Instance of National-wide Association

ALBANY, N. Y., (AP)—Observance of "Humane Sunday" on April 17, bringing to a close a week devoted to kindness to animals, is urged by the American Humane Association from its headquarters in this city.

No special observance has been made by the attention of the clergy by the irregularity of church attendance, than that of humane Sunday, the society says in its announcement.

It has back of it no necessary motive, does not seek to glorify itself or local or national institutions, no matter how commendable may be their purpose or valuable their work. The friends of the bird and the animal work together to have sermons preached on the general subject of mercy and kindness, and are fundamental in their doctrines that need repeated emphasis.

The week of April 11 to 16 has been proclaimed by the association as the "Kind to Animals Week." It proposes a program, starting with Monday as "Club Day," Tuesday as "Animal Day," Wednesday as "Benefit Day," Thursday as "Red Star Day," Friday as "Beal Day," and Saturday as "Egg Day."

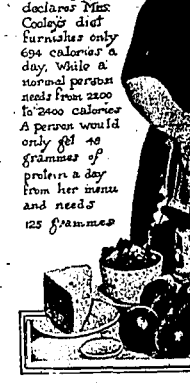

Put animals shows, public exhibits of bird houses made in bird house building contests, and planting of trees to commemorate the work of humanitarianism, are among the association's ideas for the week.

Nineteen-Cent-A-Day Diet Faulty and Monotonous, Says Food Expert

SMITH COLLEGE WOMEN AFFECT MODEST STYLES

Fashion Show Brings Out Desire on Part of Most Students for a Simpler, More Becoming Dress

SMITH COLLEGE, Mass., (AP)—The desire for more modest and more becoming clothes expressed by the sophomore class of Smith college, took shape in a fashion show held in the Students' building at which 115 young women of the college entered their favorite gowns.

The competition was limited to gowns for afternoon and evening occasions but many girls came with dresses that were held to be more nearly appropriate for street wear and were ruled out. A prize was offered, by Dr. H. H. Hildreth, of Boston.

The student competitors were given the names of the gowns they had entered for the prize, walking across the stage before a numerous and critical audience, and turning this way and that on a low platform for better display, then sat.

GERMAN IMMIGRANTS ARE FLOCKING TO ARGENTINA

Four Hundred Tentons Arrive in Buenos Aires on First German Vessel to Port Since War

BUENOS AIRES, (AP)—Four hundred German immigrants came to Argentina a few days ago to meet their former ship on board the first passenger vessel flying the German flag which entered this harbor since the beginning of the war.

Most of them were wanting prompt employment to provide them with a livelihood. The same vessel landed about 300 German immigrants in Brazil and a smaller number in Uruguay. It is understood that this was the first of several steamships which are to bring contingents of German immigrants to these shores.

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure and Eat Less Meat

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally. Keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous matter called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of forcing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first warning of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and use before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to rapid action, thus ridding the blood of these irritants.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the seed of grapes and lemon juice, combined with Hilla and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.—adv.

WASHINGTON ENDEAVORS TO BRING BACK SOCKEYE

State Department of Fisheries Pursues Effort to Induce Salmo to Return to Puget Sound

OLYMPIA, Wash., (AP)—Efforts to induce sockeye salmon to come back to Puget Sound again in large numbers are to be made by the Washington state department of fisheries. For years the sockeye formed a big part of the annual catch of Washington fishermen but since 1915 the runs have been very small.

Every four years the sockeye run in large numbers. In 1915 a record run was reported, but in that year many of the fish went overboard by landing in Hell Gate canyon from reaching their natural spawning grounds in the Fraser River of British Columbia. The fish, it was said, were caused by construction work on a Canadian railroad. Since 1915 the runs have been disappointing.

Plans are now being made to establish on the Fraser river hatcheries operated jointly by the state of Washington and the government of British Columbia. If British Columbia does not care to help in the move, it is proposed to develop sockeye hatcheries along the southern Washington coast and endeavor to build up a sockeye run in Washington waters exclusively. The state legislature has set aside $100,000 for the work.

Years ago the run of the Columbia river salmon was developed through cooperation of Washington and Oregon and experts are certain the sockeye can be restored.

Another plan of the department to aid fishermen is to hatch eggs of the Alaska red salmon in the state as a means of providing ample catches for fishermen in the so-called "lean" years when the fish do not run.

Faulty arrangements in some countries only for salmon are considered beautiful but they are poor countries even for fat women.—Exchange

RAILWAY LABOR BOARD REJECTS WAGES APPEALS

Dismisses Petitions for Higher Pay Filed Last Fall by Fifteen Unions Against Sixty-Seven "Short Lines"

CHICAGO, (P)—The United States railroad labor board today dismissed appeals for increased wages filed with it last fall by 15 railway labor unions against 67 "short lines" throughout the country.

The appeals which accepted for their own terms of the $400,000,000 award of last July will not be privileged to go back to the old scale, unless today's action, however, the announcement of the board saying: "This decision shall not be considered as affecting any wage increase made in effect nor any agreement regarding wages between any of the carriers and their employees."

Only 4000 Affected. Approximately 4000 employees on 67 railroads are affected by the board's decision. All the roads are short lines in some cases operating for only a few miles.

Representatives of 15 employees' organizations are naming the 67 roads affected. In a few cases, employees belonging to all 15 unions are involved on the same road, but in the larger part of the roads only a few classes of employees come under the decision for the reason that the board's decision affects only those in whose behalf a dispute was brought to the board.

Rails Electric Lines Out. Disputes were originally certified to the board on the part of employees belonging to one or more of the fifteen unions on 103 railroads. In most of these roads, however, were electric lines and the board ruled these lines out. Twenty-six other lines adopted the same rule, while in others the trunk line, held down in what is known as Decision No. 2, the wage award by the United States railroad labor board of July 25, 1920, was those represented by the Association of Railway Executives.

Following the application of Decision No. 2, employees on roads not affected began to file disputes with the board and the whole matter was taken up in a hearing known as the short line hearing on October 16, 1920. The hearing continued 14 days over a period of nearly a month. The board's decision is not parties to the present rules and working conditions hearings and in event they do not accept the board's decision, they may appeal to the board on rules for short lines will also be necessary.

Various Scales in Effect. Various scales of wages have been in effect on the 67 roads. Some carriers paid the standard scale established by the United States railroad administration. Others paid approximately the same rates as those paid on the trunk lines in the same territory.

The labor organizations include practically all those from operating to common labor. The railroads concerned are mostly in the east. The western roads include: Arizona and New Mexico railway; Butte, Anaconda and Pacific railway; Fort Smith and Western railway; Fort Smith, Bullard and Rock Island railway; Gainesville Midland railway; Houston and Brazos Valley railway; Memphis, Dallas and Gulf railway; Northeast Oklahoma railway; Pacific Coast railway; St. Louis and Hannibal railway; Spokane International railway; Texas City Terminal company; Virginia and Truckee railway; Wood River branch railway; Yakima railway.

HOW HALIFAX, VICTIM OF DEVASTATING WAR-TIME EXPLOSION, HAS SUCCESSFULLY SOLVED ITS GREAT HOUSING PROBLEM

Three years ago Halifax, "Canada's Northern Gateway," was dealt the most devastating blow suffered by any city outside the United States. Today Halifax is a bigger, better and more beautiful city than it was before the TNT blast because its great housing problem has been solved successfully and because the new is even better than the old. As a wounded war veteran Halifax received a bonus of about $20,000,000 from Canada, Great Britain and the United States for war work and a committee with full power to deal with the subject was appointed. Fully 5,000 people were comfortably housed in temporary barracks resembling a war-time camp, 8,000 homes were repaired and 1,000 homes accommodating 6,000 people have been built by the commission which has practically finished its titanic task. In one new group of 322 dwellings built of hygro-ton or concrete blocks, there are 37 buildings containing four dwellings each and the remainder consist from two to six families. Each new house is built and in the rear is a service lane. Each building has all modern improvements and is exceedingly attractive.

Budgeter Man's Hairy Action Costs a Substantial Resistance

WINDYBENT, (P)—Stephen Nemeth, clerk, working away on the little fish and game commission in Chicago, went to America years ago and is now in Chicago. When months later, there came from Chicago simply a large photograph, Stephen Nemeth, disappointed and angry, threw his brother's picture in the fire the next day there came a letter. It read: "My dear Stephen: If you will carefully divide in two the photo I sent you yesterday you will find a $500 bill concealed between the two sheets. Enjoy it in good health and don't forget your loving brother, GEORGE."

OUTLOOK FAVORS SPRING

LAMB CROP IN MONTANA - GREAT FALLS, Mont., (P)—The outlook for the spring lamb crop is good in the Musselshell district of the Jefferson forest of Montana according to J. D. Buchanan, ranger in charge of that district. More than 1,000,000 lambs are pastured in that region. The majority of the sheepmen, Mr. Buchanan says, are so heavily indebted this year as they were a year ago, and for that reason they will be able to care for their flocks. Consequently no lambs have been suffered by either sheep or cattle during the winter from predatory animals. The range is in excellent condition and the stock is in better shape than for a number of years. At least 85 per cent of last year's hay crop is still in the fields undried.

GAIN IN VALUE

(Continued from Page One) court today sustained California courts in a decision growing out of the condemnation by the government of lands on North Island, in San Diego bay, for a naval aviation site. The Conrado Land company, owners of the land, had taken, on a verdict for $5,000,000 with interest from the date of award. The government took an appeal on the ground that the jury awarded too much for the property in that to be paid for, when title to such land was clearly in the state, or the federal government.

WYOMING'S CLAIM TO OIL LANDS IS SUSTAINED

WASHINGTON, (P)—claim of Wyoming to 50 acres of oil lands was upheld today by the supreme court. The suit was filed against the government. The lands were acquired for the support of schools on admission of Wyoming to the union and all quantities were relinquished later, causing the interior department to reject the list of state selections. DAMAGE REPORTS CAUSE WHEAT PRICE ADVANCES

Visible Supply Said to be Lowest in 30 Years; Market Olopes Unsettled. 1-54 to 1-54 1/4 Higher.

CHICAGO, (P)—Cold weather put some strength into the wheat market. No damage reports were received, however, and upturns in prices failed to last. Trading, which began today in the July delivery was of only small volume, with initial quotations 122 to 125, about as generally expected. The market for a whole closed 1 1/4 to 1 1/4 higher, March $1.54 and May $1.41 to 1.45 1/2, but soon sagged to slightly below Saturday's finish.

Later analyses indicating that considerable damage may have been done by unreasonable low temperatures had a bullish effect and so too did announcement that the visible supply total was the smallest in more than thirty years. The close was unsettled 1 3/4 to 1 1/4 net higher, with March $1.57 and May $1.43 to 1.43 1/2.

Corn paralleled the action of wheat. After opening unchanged to 5-6 higher, including May at 64 to 64 1/4, the market receded all around to a moderate extent.

May touched the lowest price yet for the present crop, but analysis of receipts together with colder weather helped give a little firmness to the market later. The close was steady, 1 1/4 to 5-6 net higher, with May 61 1/8 to 61 1-4.

Qats were governed by the course of other cereals, starting 1-4 to 5-6 up, May 70 1/8 and then undergoing something of a setback.

Lower quotations on bulk and undergarment provisions.

Approves Use of Gas in Penalty by Death

CARBON CITY, Nev. (AP)—A bill providing for the use of lethal gas in executing the death penalty in Nevada was signed here today by Governor Boyle.

Signing of the bill abolishes other forms of capital punishment in the state. Heretofore condemned men had the choice between hanging or shooting.

Nevada is believed to be the first state to adopt gas as a means for capital punishment.

Under the new law the death warrant must designate a week within which the execution must take place, no more than sixty days after the date of the judgment.

The law calls for a suitable cell for inflicting the penalty where gas is used and further that the warden, a competent physician and six other citizens must witness the execution.

The bill gives no details concerning the cell, but sponsors for the bill said it was understood that it was intended that it should be air tight, fitted with windows of thick glass and equipped with valves to admit air.

It was planned that when the condemned man should be asleep the air would be closed and the admittance of gas, be opened, life being taken without the prisoner's awakening.

REQUIREMENTS FOR SEED LOAN ARE OUTLINED

Meeting to Hold in Hollister to Assist Drought Stricken Farmers

No land owner whose property is included in the district under water rights of the Twin Falls Canal company and no minor person who owns land may take advantage of the terms of the federal seed loan arrangements. This condition was made very plain by farm bureau executive addressing a meeting of farmers held at Hollister on Saturday night.

The Hollister meeting was called by the Twin Falls county farm bureau officers for the purpose of discussing with needy and eligible farmers the terms of the federal seed relief program. It was the county agent who presided at the meeting in charge. Addressing the meeting, Mr. Powers made the following brief explanation:

The Regulations

"The regulations of the federal department of agriculture provide that the funds be distributed through the farm bureaus in the various states and counties and that committees be delegated to investigate as to whether or not the government would be justified in making the loan.

No one is eligible to receive a loan in this county except farm bureau officers who is a minor or whose land is not under new Salmon tract segregation, that is, no one should be encouraged to take chances on making a crop unless he has opportunity to irrigate his fields. The reason that no one under Twin Falls Canal company water rights is eligible is that fund was appropriated for drought-stricken areas and statistics show very conclusively that at no time during the last year was there any surplus storage of water under this company's system."

Committee Appointed

Following the introductory remarks farm committees were selected as follows: Hollister, Fredrick, Fredrick and W. M. Hines; Amsterdam, Beryl Kunkle and Ed Paatoo; Hollister, W. H. Craven and J. W. Kouton; Bessey, Thomas Anderson and Fredrick; and Bessey, Fredrick and Fredrick.

To these committees persons residing in the communities they represent are to make formal application on blanks that will be provided for the relief they need. A general meeting will be held in all committee headquarters on Tuesday at 3 o'clock for the filing of applications.

J. C. Wheeler, chairman of the committee appointed by the executive board of the farm bureau, was present at Saturday's meeting and assisted Mr. Powers in outlining requirements.

Kiwanians Will Hold Special Festivities April 20 when Certificate Comes

The Kiwanis club of Twin Falls will receive its charter on Wednesday evening April 21, at a banquet of Kiwanis members and members of the local organization, according to report of the club's executive committee announced today. The organization was organized for the first time of the room lately hosted for the club in the Hogson hotel.

Communication also was read stating that arrangements would be made for accommodation of Utah and Idaho delegates attending the Columbus convention to travel together from Ogden in a special car.

The club voted to participate as an intervenor in the suit brought by the chamber of commerce against the Oregon Short Line railway company to secure improvements in the station here and along the right-of-way from Mitchell to Twin Falls.

The banquet will be held on Wednesday afternoon next before the state public utilities commission. Various civic organizations of Twin Falls have been requested to participate as intervenors.

A plea for more generous consideration for the dairy industry in the Twin Falls county was made by H. J. Younger of the Sterling Dairy Products company, who was the principal speaker of the occasion. Mr. Younger declared that keeping of ten or twelve cows on each eighty-acre farm would bring into the district an annual revenue of $3,000,000 or $4,000,000. He estimated the number of cows kept in the county at approximately 4,800 and for each fifty acres of land, and the value of their product at about $500,000.

Salmon Reservoir Water Supply is on the Increase

Indicating a rise of 3.1 feet for the past week with a gain in storage water of 5655 acre feet, a reading of the gauge at the Salmon river reservoir this morning showed the water level 2 1/2 miles above the floor of the outlet tunnel and a total of 47,800 acre feet in ponded.

The gauge reading shows the water level 5 of an inch higher than the high mark of last year which was reached on May 1, and indications are considered favorable for a run-off for 1921 that will be better than for several years past and possibly as good as was in 1917, when the record was reached.

INABILITY TO SAVE IS DAMPEN ON IMMIGRATION

Many English and French Laborers Would Come to America if They Could

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Great numbers of the laboring classes of both England and France want to emigrate to the United States, but are finding it impossible to do so through inability to save enough money and also because of the adverse monetary exchange. This condition was reported by the secretary of labor by Rowland B. Mahony, who was sent to Europe by the White House administration to attend the sessions of the International Commission on Immigration and Emigration, and whose resolution was reported last week by President Harding.

Low wages are preventing many Englishmen from coming to this country. The report adds, while in France, the present rate of exchange on the franc is an almost insurmountable barrier to immigration. There was said to be a widespread sigh of captivity in England for better times, but rather a lack of optimism among the poorer classes of France. In both countries, however, the laboring class were said to be getting plenty of wholesome food.

This condition was reported by the secretary of labor by Rowland B. Mahony, who was sent to Europe by the White House administration to attend the sessions of the International Commission on Immigration and Emigration, and whose resolution was reported last week by President Harding.

Low wages are preventing many Englishmen from coming to this country. The report adds, while in France, the present rate of exchange on the franc is an almost insurmountable barrier to immigration. There was said to be a widespread sigh of captivity in England for better times, but rather a lack of optimism among the poorer classes of France. In both countries, however, the laboring class were said to be getting plenty of wholesome food.

DIVIDEND IS PASSED BY BIG MAIL ORDER HOUSE

CHICAGO, (AP)— Sears-Roebuck and Company, through its board of directors, today passed the usual quarterly dividend, on its common stock. The company attributed the action to stock prices.

The AMERICAN LEGION

IN BEHALF OF DISABLED MEN: Bentley Post at Cincinnati Regarded as Model for Systematic Program for Work: Robert E. Bentley Post of the American Legion at Cincinnati, O., has attracted national attention because of his activities in behalf of sick and disabled veterans of the World War...

The work has been assigned to four committees: for hospitalization and compensation, hospital entertainment, sick members and employment. The hospitalization and compensation committee takes care of all cases in which ex-service men seek to obtain their rights from the government...

The Women's Auxiliary of the post has assumed a large share of the work. This organization has a subscription list of hospital work with a general plan for each hospital.

At the general hospital a complete dinner is set once a month. Cigarettes, fruit, nut cakes, are provided weekly at all hospitals. At Rock Hill the men were supplied with blankets and victrolas, a motion picture projector, knitting machines, pulgans, sweaters, caps, socks and other comforts.

For the benefit of those men who are unable to do so, the Auxiliary conducts a shop in the post club rooms where disabled men are employed in the manufacture of wicker, bead and mat work. The articles are marketed by the women of the post, proceeds are turned over to the veterans.

All caskets of ex-service men passing through Cincinnati have been decorated by the Legion women. Families of Cincinnati men who are in the service are visited and sympathetically attended.

Alaska National Executive Committee Member Points With Prides to American Organization: Harold F. Davies, member of the National Executive Committee of the American Legion for Alaska, says that the American Legion is the greatest organization in the United States and looks up to the American Legion with the argument that "any organization is only as good as the people who make it up..."

As a member of the artillery park unit of the First Army, Mr. Davies served in France. After his discharge from the army he returned to Alaska and entered the practice of law at Juneau. He is a charter member of the Alaska National Executive Committee of the American Legion...

Seattle Has Veterans' Hotel: "Seattle has a three-story structure with accommodations for 1000 unemployed ex-service men, the result of the activities of Seattle Post No. 18 of the American Legion. It is a committee of prominent citizens who have been working for the past year to build a permanent home for the unemployed ex-service men of the department of Alaska, as well as a national councilman."

TIMELY HINTS BY SETTLIFE

Illinois State Adjutant Offers Eleven Commandments Which He Has Found Useful: Eleven commandments in "Reverse Order" have been found useful by William C. Settlife, state adjutant of the American Legion in Illinois, in building up the Legion's program for that state. They are as follows:

1. Don't attend meetings if it rains. You'll get your feet wet, and you are not in the physical condition you were at the commencement, or at least...

4. Never accept an office in the post. Most offices have duties connected with them, and it is much easier to criticize the way the other fellow is trying to handle the job.

7. During discussion of a motion picture, after they should have voted it, keep still. After it has passed, don't say anything why they should have voted it.

11. Remember, you are no duty or obligation to a sick or disabled veteran on your personal comfort comes first.

DOCTOR IS DEPT. COMMANDER: Ira L. Parsons, M. D., is Leader of the Mississippi Department of the American Legion. Dr. Ira L. Parsons, commander of the Mississippi department of the American Legion, is a graduate of the University of Mississippi...

Piece from Enemy's Lines: Captured German 77 Now Adorns the Public Square in Marshfield, Wisconsin. It's a harmless piece of junk now, but it formerly spoke with considerable degree of authority. This captured German 77 is now permanently retired, on the public square in Marshfield, Wis. It was placed there by members of William Adams Marshfield (Will's) Public Square.

Cared for Many Orphans: Sixty-two French war orphans were cared for during the period of one year by the adoption fund raised by the American Legion. The total amount contributed by Legion posts in many parts of the country and individuals for 1920 was $4500.

Chickens Wearing Out: Little Ferns was visiting his head parents in the country and, seeing a quantity of feathers scattered over the yard, said: "Grandpa, you ought to do something to keep your chickens from wearing out."

Patched Up: "What a time I do have," said the snowball. "I have been here and have been fixed up again." "The same is true of me," said the second snowball. "I've been waiting for school to be over." "I should say not," said the second snowball. "I've been fixed up again."

PRIESTS COMPLAIN AT EXCLUSION FROM VOTE

Buddhist Enter Protest when Japanese Diet Elects Universal Man Suffrage

TOKIO. (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Rejection of universal suffrage by the Japanese diet has been followed by a meeting of the Buddhist priests of Japan to protest their exclusion from the vote. They objected vigorously when a government member of the diet told them it was a great mistake to meddle with suffrage.

Turning up their robes, some of the priests rushed to the platform demanding the resignation of the speaker, Representative Matsumoto. In response the incident several Japanese newspapers declared that Mr. Matsumoto was not only dragged from the platform but was "beaten up" as well.

The 120,000 priests of Japan are awakening politically and the nation should take heed of their cry for political freedom. Naohiko Seki, a member of the Kokumintai opposition in the diet, declared:

The meeting adopted resolutions that the priests desired to fulfill their responsibility as stewards of the people and criticized the government policy that in accomplishing their work in life the effective election law should be amended to give the right of voting.

Easter Weather Runs Contrary to Prediction

NOTWITHSTANDING official guesses to the contrary yesterday's weather hereabouts was well-nigh perfect for Easter prognostications sent out from Washington, D. C., pressed the worst sort of conditions, but the signs all failed.

In fact the maximum temperature yesterday was four degrees higher than on Saturday, being 50 against 46. It is true that the mercury laid into a zone of danger for budding trees and shooting shrubs, but the sturdy folks had a good day's work that. Low on Saturday night was 21 while 20 was the bottom for last night.

Better weather is on the way, according to diurnal predictions, which indicate fair and warmer for tonight and Tuesday.
