GERMAN FORCES SCORE GAIN IN FIGHT AT LEUNA

Government Troops and Security Police Surround Communist Stronghold, Taking Prisoners and Seizing Arms

BERLIN, (AP)—The government believes it has effectively broken up the insurgent communist rising in the mid-German industrial area with the capture of the main body of rioters at Leuna and Annendorf. Some 1400 communists have been arrested, and the others are reported to be fleeing, leaving their arms behind or surrendering.

BERLIN, (AP)—An important gain was made today by the government forces engaged in dealing with the communist insurrection in Germany. Many government troops and security police surrounded the nitrogen plant at Leuna, which has been a communist stronghold for the last five days and forced the insurgents to surrender. The troops took 1,000 prisoners and seized large supplies of rifles, machine guns and ammunition.

ROVERS ARE WORSTED IN CLASH WITH POLICE AT ESSEN, Germany, (AP)—

Fifteen rioters were killed and 100 arrested in a clash with the security police. The attempt to bring on a general strike in this region has so far failed.

An "exceptional status" has been proclaimed for Dortmund, Bochum, Gelsenkirchen and other points in Rhenish Prussia.

The "exceptional status" referred to presumably is similar to that which has been put into force by the German authorities in parts of central Germany after the communist disorders.

With the exception of the minor outbreak in the American bridgehead region on Monday, which was promptly and effectively dealt with by the American military police, the disorders reported in the foregoing are the first to be recorded in the Rhine area since the outbreak of the communist rising in Prussian Saxony. Whether or not these movements are connected does not yet appear.

Berlin dispatches filed late Monday night indicated no anxiety in governmental circles over the development of possible disturbances in the capital on Tuesday, an attempt by the extremists to spread the communist and other plants in a general strike being forecast. The Wilhelmstrasse was ordered closed to traffic and all the approaches to the Prussian ministry and government buildings were barricaded with barbed wire entanglements and guarded by troops.

Like reports from Central Germany were that the situation had not materially changed; the principal trouble being sporadic outbreaks at points held temporarily by the communist rising. The security police had as yet failed to control in the roundup of rioters in which these police forces were engaged.

AMERICAN VALUATION OF IMPORTS IS PROTESTED

Criticism of Proposed Plan is Received by Congressional Committees

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Protests against the legislation agreed to by republican leaders to provide for the taxation of American imports of foreign valuations are being received by members of the senate finance and house ways and means committees.

The proposed American valuation system contended that American values of merchandise differ at Boston, New York, San Francisco, New Orleans and other ports of America, and that the inevitable standards of valuation are feasible. The price differences, it is contended, are the greater in the middle of the country because of the transportation distances from the seaboard.

"Domestic regulations of the customs tariff are the result of the compromise that is some merit in the objections to the valuation legislation, but believe that its benefits would be more than any harm which would result."

President Porras asserted that non-acceptance of the White award would result in the United States withdrawing her financial aid, which recently ended hostilities with Costa Rica, and that warfare would be resumed. Deposes American Agent.

The next incident upon which the Porras administration took decided stand for a free hand in running the republic came during the last week in February, when the president, in an interview given the Associated Press, announced that he had decided to name a Panamanian to succeed Addison T. BOSTON, Mass., (AP)—The United States Smelting and Refining company Monday paid the quarterly dividend of $2 to $12.25 a share. This action restores the rate that prevailed prior to last October. No statement was made as to the reason for the reduction.

Nine Players to a Team. The sides there were composed of nine men instead of five and the rules made it one of the most interesting sports you can imagine. The referee was always blowing his whistle. If an opponent merely said "I lost" to the player who had the ball, it was a foul, and the action consisted chiefly of watching attempts to make goals from free throws. Most of those failed for lack of accuracy, and a lot of the goals which were made were in the basket, though not in the air. It was several years before they remedied that by taking the bottoms out of the "baskets."

Brief Bits of Sport

Our guess—The 1921 world pennant fight will be staged in New York with the Giants and the Yankees the contending factions.

That's merely our guess, but it is just as good as any.

Jim Smiley, saccharine sage, says: "Production in 'country' ever might be increased a whole lot often if the government would place 'th' ban on mail ticket boxes and rastlin'."

If ability to slug the ball is a good one, the New York Yankees have clinched the American league pennant already.

Twilight baseball is proposed for Boston. A Commercial league has been formed to play the national game three times a week.

The Cleveland Americans gave the Cincinnati Reds a right royal drubbing Sunday in an exhibition game. The score was 19 to 7 for Speaker. Hits were even, 16 each.

In detesting the Brooklyn National club in a Sunday baseball entertainment at Shreveport the Yankees got 17 runs to 3 for the opposition. The hits were 20 and 8.

Boston—Clarke Pittinger, a recruit is scheduled to play third base for the Red Sox on the present barnstorming trip because of an injury to Oscar Vitt who wrecked his right ankle and is on crutches.

New York—in the seven games between the Yankees and the Brooklynians during the training season the American leaguers had made 89 hits and 68 runs as compared to the Nationalists 63 hits and 28 runs.

New York—Interest in the national indoor tennis tournament centered today in the "rubber" set of the single match between R. Howard Washell, twice holder of the title, and J. L. Werner, captain of the Princeton tennis team.

St. Louis—Harvey Thorge knocked out Bill Burns of Duluth in the sixth round.

New York—Mrs. Quentin F. Felner (the former Miss Lillian Hyde) metropolitan and Florida state woman golf champion, will be a member of the party of American women who will play in the British championship tournament opening on May 30. It was announced here today. Mrs. Felner was runner up in the national title event in 1911.

Cleveland—The Cleveland Indians will have training camp at Dallas today as well conditioned as any team in the country, in the opinion of manager Tris Speaker, according to advice received here.

Philadelphia—William Reynolds, star high jumper of the Pennsylvania squad will not be able to take part in the track athletics for the remainder of the year. It was stated today. Reynolds is suffering from internal trouble as the result of typhoid fever two years ago.

Philadelphia—The Philadelphia National league baseball team broke camp today at Galveston, Tex., and started for Jacksonville, to meet the Washington Americans in two games, according to word received here.

Chicago—Long train trips and cold weather have hampered the training program of the White Sox the last two days, according to reports received here today to watch the arrival of Amos Strunk, veteran outfielder, the roster's complete.

Chicago—Three home runs, two of them by members of the Sacramento Pacific Coast league team, rewarded those who turned out at Sacramento yesterday to watch the Chicago Cubs, according to reports received here today. The Cubs won, 5 to 4.

Pittsburgh—The news came from the Plateau training camp at Hot Springs, Ark., today that Manager Gibson had signed a new catcher in the person of William Shiff, who starred with the Bridgeport team in the Eastern league last season.

Pittsburgh—Joe Lynch, bantam-weight champion, won by a shade over Young Pinchot in ten rounds.

Detroit—Carl Tremaine outpointed Jake White in ten rounds.

Chicago—Stanislaus Zyzanski and John Frank were matched for April 18 and Strangler Lewis will meet Jim London or Renato Gardoli's date, right.

Lafayette, Ind.—William H. Dietz, former Carolina football star, and former football center at Washington State, was signed as Purdue football coach.

New York—Tom Rickard received an $800,000 offer from a Nevada silver mining camp.

J. BURROUGHS' LONG LIFE ENDS

Death Overtakes Agod Naturalist on Way Home from California

TUHA, N. Y. (AP)—John Burroughs, naturalist, died of a New York Central train near Kingsville, Ohio, on his way home from California at 2 o'clock this morning. He had been sick for six weeks with an abscess on the chest and heart and with kidney complications. He was so eager to get home that the train was understood with the hope that he could survive. The end came suddenly, a few minutes after he had been asked: "How near home are we?" It's physician, Dr. Clara Harris, his granddaughter, Ursula Burroughs, and the Misses Eleanor and Harriet Burroughs, accompanied him on the journey.

In Eighty-Fourth Year

WEST YORK, Pa. (AP)—John Burroughs, famous naturalist, died of a New York Central train at Kingsville, Ohio, this morning on his way home from California. He was returning east after spending the winter in Pasadena, where he was reported to have been slightly unwell for several weeks. He was 84 years old.

Leaves Pasadena Hospital

WEST ORANGE, N. J. (AP)—Thomas A. Edison, a member of a small party of anti-trustists who accompanied John Burroughs on his annual camping trip in the last few years, expressed deep regret today over the death of the naturalist's death. "To me he always appeared to be one of the highest types yet evolved in the human race," he said in a higher stage than he ever reached.

Mills Says World Loss

ESPEN PALKO, Colo. (AP)—Ehosa A. Mills, in his home at Long's Park, when he passed the death of Mr. Burroughs, said America and the world lost one of its greatest naturalists. "He was one of the greatest and best of the anti-trustists known naturalists in America."

Oasts Aside Political Convictions in Campaign for His Friend Harding

MARION, O. (AP)—The new comptroller of currency in the Harding administration, D. H. Johnson of this city, is a life-long friend of President Harding and a well known democrat, local bankers here say.

President Harding and Mr. Crisinger have been close friends since boyhood and Mr. Crisinger took an active interest in the campaign of Mr. Harding for the presidency, both before and after his nomination last year. He is president of the Marion County association and was nominated shortly after the nomination for the entertainment of visitors to Marion during the campaign and delivered the address of welcome at the home-coming exercises when Mr. Harding returned from Washington after the nomination.

DISCOVERS CENTURY OLD FOOTPRINTS IN DESERT

Imprints of Feet of Fugitives from Pele are Preserved in Hard Concrete

HILA, Island of Hawaii, T. H. (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Footprints, 100 years old, of an Hawaiian fugitive have been discovered on Pele, goddess of the active volcano of Kilauea, near here, are believed to have been discovered in the Kilauea crater, near crater. Professor T. A. Jagger, Jr., in charge of the volcano observatory. Dr. Jagger and his party was exploring a region far created from the foot of the known, modern tracks when they came upon a new track which covered the imprints of naked feet, all pointing in the same direction, all deep at the toes and light at the heels, indicating that the makers of the tracks had been running at top speed. The tracks originally had been made in volcanic ash, which is strongly impregnated with sulphurous acid, and gypsum and which when wet by rain, soon hardened to a hard concrete, all deep at the toes and light at the heels, indicating that the makers of the tracks had been running at top speed.

Hawaiian legend and history provide the other side of the story, the story which records the flight of a Roman, King of Kam. from Pele's wrath.

King had an army of three divisions against King Kamehameha, who later united all the Hawaiian islands under his sway, in the year 1790. This year also was recorded the last explosive eruption of Kilauea volcano. Hawaiian legend records the fact that some of King's warriors rolled stones into the crater, which caused the goddess of the mountain to erupt. Whatever the reason for the outbreak, Pele rose in her wrath, and with terrific explosive force, finally wiped out the second division of King's army.

The footprints furnish the key to the first division, which, seeing the destruction of their comrades in the rear fled from the locality. The third division, coming up, saw the bodies of the annihilated second and halted.

The area where the footprints were discovered is a part of the Kilauea National park, which will be dedicated this year, and steps already have been taken to enclose the tracks and protect them.

WASHINGTON'S POULTRY INDUSTRY FLOURISHING

Outgoing Shipments Total 177 Cars as Compared with Imports of 100 Cars Four Years Before

CENTRALIA, Wash. (AP)—Egg production has increased so rapidly in western Washington that there are now in the state 15,000,000 chickens and 15,000,000 hens producing 15,000,000 dozen eggs annually. That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by bringing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to your hair. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application of two of our Sage Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold. Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Weth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair. Everybody uses "Weth's Sage and Sulphur" Compound and has been benefited. It dabbles so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.—adv.

BAR TRAFFIC LEAGUE FROM RAIL HEARING

Federal Railway Labor Board Declines to Admit Organization Claiming to Represent Shipping Interests

CHICAGO, (AP)—The United States railroad labor board today declined to admit the National Industrial Traffic League to the rules case now before the board. "Hearing of the petition would not be helpful and would not be in the public interest," said the board. "The decision also argued that to admit this organization as a party consented to by the carrier would be the gates to dozens of similar bodies and perhaps prolong the hearing for a year. The league, claiming to represent the percentage of the country's shipping interests, asked to be made a party to the hearing on March 15. When H. Walter, counsel for the league, immediately filed protest with the board, declaring the board would not obtain all interested parties in full and he would terminate the rules dispute if the representatives of the paying public in traffic matters," were excluded. Mr. Walter also asked to be heard orally in argument for the league petition.

Today's Markets

WHEAT PRICE ADVANCES LACK STAYING POWERS

Speculators Are Active Sellers on Upturn Resulting from Damage Reports; Close Lower to 1-1/2 Higher

CHICAGO, (AP)—Apprehension that freezing weather has done considerable damage to the new crop led to material upturn today in the price of wheat. A leading expert, however, declared that unless the roots were injured no more harm would result than from rain and a mow over a lawn. He said new arrivals and ample growth would narrow. Opening prices, which ranged from 1-1/2 to 1-5/8 net higher, with May $1.44 to $1.45 and July $1.28 to $1.29 3/4, were succeeded by further gains and then by some reaction.

Difficultly of financing new crop business was referred to, and speculators were active sellers on the upturn. As a result most of the advances failed to hold. The close was unsettled, 1-1/2 net lower to 1 cent, with May $1.43 to $1.43 1/4 and July $1.25 to $1.25 1/4.

Corn sympathized with the wheat strength. After opening 1-1/2 to 7-8 higher, including May at 64 1/2 to 65 1/2, the market eased off a little, and then hardened again. Later the market declined in the absence of any urgent buying. The close was easy, 1-8 to 5/8 net lower with May $1.05 to $1.05 1/2 and July $1.05 to $1.05 1/2.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Conflicting developments governed the action of today's stock market. While there was a rise in the money rate and improved industrial situation. Sales amounted to 650,000 shares.

Although overnight advances, especially as to industrial conditions, were more reassuring, lending shares were under persistent pressure in the early part of today's stock market. Money, oil, steel, equipments and tobacco were the objects of renewed short selling. Steel, American Locomotive, American Wire and Consolidated textile were lower by large fractions to 1/2 points. Motor specialties, particularly the rubber tire division, also eased, and copper and sugar reflected a lack of support. Changes among railroads were nominal. Exchange on London was slightly higher.

American Telephone increased its gain to almost 8 points later. Advances elsewhere were fairly well maintained, investment rails showing in the red. The closing was strong.

LAUCK ARGUES MANAGEMENT IS PROBLEM ROOT

Labor Organizations Consulting Economist Denies National Agreements at Bottom of the Transportation Issue

CHICAGO, (AP)—The root of the railroad problem is not national agreements, but the inadequate management declared W. Jett Lauck, consulting economist of labor organizations, in beginning presentation of his views before the United States railroad labor board today.

“Observance being, if railroad management is changed by reasonable efficiency and had available for its use proper capital or credit, labor costs would have shown a radical decline under national agreements,” Mr. Lauck declared. “Savings in operating expenses of at least one billion dollars annually would be realized. We have constructed the fact by reports prepared by reputable railroad engineers and experts.”

“We seek to establish these facts:—“We seek to establish national agreements or uniform rates of pay and working conditions in conformity with national agreements in the transportation industry and in accordance with the best public policy, as shown by the awards of boards of arbitration and the acts and recommendations of other official agencies during the pre-war period.

Work Well Elsewhere.
“In other leading industries of this country collective bargaining on a national scale and national agreements as to working conditions and relations have been found to be the best means of stabilizing conditions, promoting industrial peace, and accelerating production.”

“That in Great Britain these facts have become so clearly recognized that national agreements are encouraged by the Federated Trades Union as a whole, and that employers are making them compulsory upon all employers and employees in a given industry.”

“That the former railway national agreement is being extended to make them compulsory upon all employers and employees in a given industry.”

Plays Employers' Game.
“We shall further show that the regularity of the railroads are the same which have been used in all past years to prevent the establishment of human standards in industry, and demonstrate that the railroads are not conscientiously and deliberately taking advantage of a temporary industrial depression to destroy human standards and practice of the leading industrial nations of the world.”

COPPER MINES SUSPEND AS BUSINESS FALLS OFF

Discontinuance of Operations in Four Big Properties is An- nounced

NEW YORK, (AP)—Mining properties of the Utah Copper, Ray Consolidated, Chino Copper and Nevada Copper companies have completely discontinued operations owing to conditions in the copper market, it was announced here today by Charles Haydon, of Hayden, Stone and company, who is financial adviser to all four concerns.

Large stocks of unsoft copper and small consumptive demand both in this country and abroad were given as reasons for the shut-down.
“A continuation of production,” said a statement by Mr. Haydon, “which cannot be sold at the cost of production would only lead to later demoralization, a detriment to shareholders and ultimately a much greater pecuniary loss to employees.”
It is the belief of the managements that rescheduling of commercial industry in this country and abroad will not require a very long period of shutdown. Industrial developments will have to be watched to determine when it will be appropriate to reopen these properties.

WILKINSON FIX EYES ON PROSPECTS IN UTAH

Approximately 7,000,000 Acres of Government Lands in the State are Covered

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, (AP)—Approximately seven million acres of government lands in Utah thus far have been covered by applications for oil prospecting permits. These applications number about 2000, while not more than 300 have been granted. The greater portion of the 5,000,000 acres withdrawn by the government in 1911 as naval oil reserves have been filed upon, while the additional acreage represents what also is considered promising oil territory. The lands involved extend, with some interruptions from the Wyoming-Utah line at the north to the Arizona line at the south and form a strip of about 20 miles wide on the eastern side of the state. At the beginning of the activity the principal point was what is known as the Ram Rafael well, lying principally in Emery county and extending southward in Wayne county. This structure, which is approximately 20 miles in length, is declared by geologists to be the largest structure thus far discovered in the world.

The Grand Chalk structure, also immense, and located in Garfield county, next experienced a rush of applications, and this was followed by the Emery-Brownsfield structure in the extreme southeastern section of the state. The latest district to receive attention is the Neopola anticline in the eastern portions of Emery and Wayne counties, and which is said to be almost as large a structure as the Ram Rafael well.

In practically all of the districts mentioned oil was developed to a minor extent at shallow depths from 15 to 200 feet. Practically all of the larger oil producing concerns of the country are represented by applications for leases, but thus far only one, the Shell Oil company, has started drilling operations. This company has three rigs at work on holdings in Emery, Wayne and Garfield counties.

At the farm of former governor of Illinois, Frank O. Lowden, her son-in-law, she installed a complete small home with little cook stove and tables complete, where her granddaughters were taught to do their home work.
Among her activities as a patron of art, was the employment of men occasionally to wash the black off Chicago school-children's statues.

It was a miscellaneous shower and many beautiful and useful gifts were received. Guesting games were enjoyed during the evening. The guests were given favorite recipes for the bride. Delicious refreshments were served from a table decorated in the colors and emblems of the Easter season. About forty friends were present to extend congratulations.

News for Tomorrow

Not all of the pretty things were sold before Easter. There's a world of freshness in the assortments that will be here for those who will go a shopping tomorrow.

--more blouses $4.95

—The blouse racks will be refilled again tomorrow—and they will need to be—for the selling of the past week had depleted the stocks.

—for tomorrow there will be twenty-five fresh garments. Newer models again—silken fabrics—bead trimmed—hand embroidered—a wonderful lot at $4.95.

--fifty suits

—it's a queer thing about ready-to-wear garments. One season will be filled with demands for coats—while the next may be just as strong for suits.

—what is it, do you suppose, that leads or directs this trend of fashion?

—we confess we do not know.

—the thing, however, that we are sure of is this —this season is a season of suits.

—the thing that we have been striving hard to do is to keep a supply on hand.

—for tomorrow there will be three groups of the smartest suits we've seen—priced like this:

$27.50—$35.00—$49.50

--twenty-five new coats

—There's a decided “sport” air in the style and the swing of these coats that are so smart and that are selling at such very reasonable prices.

—last year, as you know, one could scarcely find a good looking spring coat for less than $45. This season you can have the best of them at that price.

—for those who come shopping tomorrow, there will be twenty-five smart new coats.

—coats of bolivia—of polo cloth and other popular fabrics. Won't you come for a look at this special assortment at $29.50.

--silk dresses

—you know; after all there is nothing quite like a good looking silk dress.

—a frock of taffeta that one can slip on of an afternoon — for wear at home — for wear at theater—or even on the street.

—and now there is so little cost to really good silk dresses that every woman should be able to afford one—at least.

—for tomorrow there will be dresses here of all silk taffeta. All of the really good shades will be included. Three quick selling groups—

$14.95—$19.50—$29.50

---popular fur chokers

We have just received invoice of a shipment of about 40 fur chokers. This will be welcome news for the ladies who have been waiting for just such an opportunity. These chokers are so good looking that most girls are wearing them quite all of the time. And there are so many good ones that can be had for so little money.

Chokers are being worn on those days when the coat is too heavy—on the days when some protection is needed for the neck.

They have been bought on the present low market. $5.95 and up.

SERVICE MEN TO FORE

Decision of veterans of the world war to take an active part in the forthcoming municipal election, culminating in the entrance of a ticket made up entirely of former service men running on a platform declaring for inauguration of the managerial form of city government in Twin Falls, presents a situation that is interesting and significant from any one of several points of view.

From the standpoint of the public generally, the situation offers exceptional advertising possibilities. The fact that the service men have acted in sufficient to attract at least state-wide attention, while the election of such a ticket would bring to Twin Falls a more prominent position in the news of the day than has ever been the province heretofore.

The practical politician will be quick to discern and appreciate the strategic possibilities of the service men's claim, and to place a proper valuation on the obstacles that would beset the waging of an opposition campaign. None better than he will understand the embarrassment of the position of a candidate who would undertake to deny the claim to government asserted by the men whom he had lately called upon to protect the government with their lives.

Declaration for the managerial form of government at this juncture would seem to appear alike to the practical politician and the citizen who is concerned simply for the best interests of the municipality. Opponents of this proposal might well be advised to find, if they can, an instance where the managerial plan has been abandoned after once being adopted. It seems unlikely that such a search would be wholly successful.

OPINIONS

Wallace Press-Times: It is perfectly surprising the number of people who are so keen to reform the faults of others, as they see them, forgetting to keep their own share clean of spots in the white, or their yards looking decrepit in the summer time.

New White Bloom, Named After Mrs. Harding, Displayed at Flower Show

government take on the question of forming official trade relations with Great Britain is the fact that it is directly opposed to that taken by Great Britain and that it comes so near to being identical with the view of the British announcement as to make the contrast all the sharper. This divergence of policy between the two governments is welcome and is encouraging because its effect should be to promote a better feeling in this country toward Great Britain and to establish a more solid foundation for future cordial and close relationships than has been known in the recent past. For just as ardently there has been an underlying suspicion or dread throughout the country that in many vital respects Great Britain and the United States was only serving as the tail to the British kite. There is a certain latent antagonism or jealousy in the country toward Great Britain in the first place, and it has not been difficult to play upon that sentiment and to largely increase it by mounting aggressive propaganda that have figured so largely in politics and polemics. The short way, perhaps the only way, to dispense that sentiment and to attack it at its source and remove every cause for ill-will or friction. For each country to form its own policy, practice its own course and stand on its own bottom, each according to its respective traditions, interests and responsibilities, is the safer and the better way. It is the only way to remove trouble and danger. The widespread manifestations of ill-will that have developed since the war contain a lesson that is worth attention and study. It can afford to disregard or to misread. The independent action taken by the federal government in its treatment of the former German Empire affords there a value, we must believe, far above any possible consideration affected by the immediate question presented.

BAD BACON DISCLOSURE ARGENTINE SENSATION

Origin of Putrid Foodstuff Sent as Gift to Vienna Traced to America

BUENOS AIRES, (P)—The food has in which comprised of 1,000,000 tons of putrid and stinking from Argentina in Vienna, shipped to the streets of the city of Hamburg, originated in the United States, it is asserted in a dispatch to the news from Hamburg, Monday.

The Austrian consul general at Hamburg has confirmed the reports to the best condition of the bacon, according to the correspondent who contacted him. The correspondent who contacted him, however, personally investigated the matter and found evidence of attempts to whitewash the facts with lies, but that the work "New York," was easily distinguishable.

The revelations concerning the bad condition portions of the food shipment are continuing the sensation of the hour in Argentina. Thus far, the government officials have not been quoted in any comment on the subject, although it is understood a rigid investigation is in progress.

CHESS COMES EASY TO HIM

Youthful Prodigy Declares There is Nothing Wonderful About His Mastery of Game.

Chess is the easiest game in the world to me. During the long days of the war my friends used to play all the time and I used to find it I did not understand what the chessmen were for, and wondered why father would sit for hours and gaze at the board with his thumb on his nose. One day when I did not want to go out and play I watched him play his game. I became interested. I hovered my father so with questions that he chafed me now and then. He was very patient with his friend. I waited eagerly for him to get through. He played a practice game with me, and I understood every move after that. The next game we played, I beat my father, who is a very good chess player.

There is nothing wonderful about my way of playing the game. My secretary, Mr. Asberg, says that chess is easy for me. I have been born with good brain, and that explains it that way. They say that his ancestors or some spirits have given this power to him because so much game has been played in his family a long time to develop. When I play chess I can plan my moves six or seven moves ahead, and most players can only go three moves ahead of the game. I can't help it, I have been born that way. I like to play with poor players. At West Point, where I beat 10 gnars and drew one, there were only nine good players; the others had no business trying to play me at all.

I have played lots of players in chess. During the war I beat the German governor at Warsaw, and he was a very big man. I beat the Russian champion, and also drew with Griffin in a blindfold game in London. I have not played Lasker yet, but one of the 21 best in Paris says he drew a game with Lasker, and another said he beat Capablanca. In America, my hardest game so far has been with Colonel Ferguson, sixty-two years old, at West Point—Samuel Iversen-walk in Leslie's.

SEE SUICIDE NATIONAL PERIL

Influential Japanese Newspapers Exalt Christian Idea as to the Sacredness of Life.

Suicide, which has always been prevalent in Japan, is, according to the Japanese press, even more rampant than in other countries. The Land of the Rising Sun, says the Osaka Mainichi in a recent issue. The Osaka Mainichi, which sees perils in the nation in the prevalence of suicide, and which is an ardent supporter of the Christian view that self-sacrifice is an evil, instead of being merely an apology for failure, is a cry. Many suicides in Japan are due to the fact that the Japanese have "two attitudes" to life—two attitudes, and also to the tradition of fatal duty which they inherited.

The Osaka Mainichi says further: "Death is not the outside result of a person's responsibility... and the notion that those who commit suicide have the kindest sense of responsibility is wrong. Suicide is the only solution of a man's responsibility. One of the strong points of the Christian people is their conviction that to kill one's self is as criminal as to kill others."

Remarkable Photographic Feat

Careless among a number of remarkable scenes in a three-room non-toxic-pipe recently taken of an old street mill in operation. It is one that actually was the basis of a piece of metal in an open-hearth furnace heated to 3,000 degrees Fahrenheit. The photographic feat is successfully registering this action in detail on the film is particularly interesting because the subject is such that a human eye can not see upon magnification. Furthermore, the extreme heat of the furnace has not even injured the safety of the camera, with its charge of celluloid ribbon, and while the exposure was made, two men stood ready to bring the operator to a cooler place if anything happened.

Potato Flour Mixed With Wheat.

A fifty-fifty mixture of wheat flour from the United States and potato flour of domestic make has been ordered by the Netherlands government to be mixed with the other flour used down the price of bread. Unless something is done to keep down the price of imported wheat it will soon be out of the reach of the populace, says the Chicago Journal. The Netherlands used a great deal during the war for the purpose of piecing out the wheat flour supply, and it was not generally acceptable to the people, but points to wheat that is not so good as the soft criticism, and it is anticipated will prove more palatable.

No Respector of Persons.

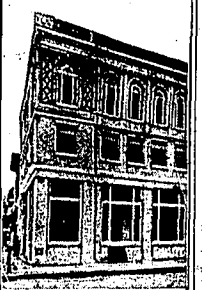

Law enforcement is no respecter of persons, as a young woman stepmother in the office of Charles J. Gibson, federal prohibition director, can testify. This young woman ordered some wine of her from her druggist. The druggist considered the order and her record on previous orders. "Young woman," he said, "I cannot sell you any wine or poison." "You are using too much wine," she said, "and you are not the prohibition director to write me a prescription on some of your people." The druggist said "No."

VETERANS' WAR MEMORIAL

Fighting Men of Three Wars Identified With Home Erected in Hoquiam, Washington.

With the recent completion of the American Veterans' building, a war memorial to fighting men of all American wars, the city of Hoquiam, Wash., has added to its architectural attractions a well-constructed and artistic edifice. The erection of the home was made possible by the activities of members of the American Legion, United Spanish War Veterans and Grand Army of the Republic.

LEGION MEMBERS AID POLICE

Former Service Men in Various Cities Lead Assistance in Combating Crime Wave.

In conformity with the stand for law and order which the American Legion takes, thousands of Legionnaires are assisting the police in combating the crime wave, which has menaced life and property in larger cities all over the country, according to reports received at Legion national headquarters.

New York department headquarters promptly offered to put 6000 veterans at the disposal of the police, with the cry of murder and robbery was at its height, while during the Christmas season a number of Legion members aided in eliminating holdups in the shopping district by serving as guards in large retail stores and wholesale houses.

Five hundred St. Louis Legionnaires assisted the police in patrolling the city streets and rounding up suspicious characters. At St. Paul, Minn., the services of Legion members were volunteered in the formation of a series of network patrols.

Legion leaders explained that their organization in volunteering the services of its members for maintaining law and order did not imply that the police were inefficient, but that there was recognition that an abnormal situation existed under which the Legion was pledged to act if it wished to live up to the principles of its constitution.

IS LEADER IN AMERICANISM

Philip R. Bangs of Grand Forks, N. D., Also Vice Commander of His State Department.

One of the leaders in Americanism in the Northwest is Philip R. Bangs of Grand Forks, N. D., who was elected vice commander of the North Dakota State Department of the American Legion.

As a doughty and a scout in the intelligence section of the Third Fifth division, Mr. Bangs served overseas. He was wounded by shell fire in the right shoulder during the Vietnam-Sue offensive.

Mr. Bangs was adjutant of the Legion post at Grand Forks, state chairman of the American Legion, and a member of the national Americanism commission of the Legion. A graduate of the law department of the University of North Dakota, Mr. Bangs is now engaged in the practice of law in Grand Forks.

Proposed Oregon Law

KANSAS MEN CHOOSE FLOYD

Arkansas City Man Selected as Chairman of State Americanization Committee.

Kansas members of the American Legion have selected as chairman of their state Americanization committee John R. Floyd of Arkansas City, a prominent insurance man and third vice president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Floyd was commissioned first lieutenant of the second officers' training camp at Fort Sheridan. He served at Camp Grant, Mil. Jefferson Barracks, Mo., and Camp Dodge, Ia., with the Eighty-sixth division and at various times as insurance, signal, ordnance and athletic officer and as judge advocate.

In 1918, Mr. Floyd was appointed district manager for a war risk insurance company with headquarters at Arkansas City and in the year following his discharge from the service won the largest number of applications ever written in the state in one year by his company, and ranked fifth in the United States. He has served in various offices in Arkansas City post and as a member at large of the Legion state executive committee.

"You've both been pretty good adventurers. You're both been ready to go on and you've made mistakes and have in the long run been glad of them. You've both shown you can't go on and you're both glad you're out. You're both glad you're out. You're both glad you're out. You're both glad you're out."

WHEN TO WEAR THE UNIFORM

Former Service Men Inclined to Be Too Modest in Appearing in Army Togs.

Former service men are too modest to appear in uniform on special occasions, according to a letter from a member of the American Legion.

"American boys brought with them some variations of viewpoint on the wearing of the uniform at ceremonies and celebrations, and, inasmuch as in the future we must confront the problem of both officers and enlisted men, the question should be settled now, one way or the other. I am in favor of the subject and am willing to do as the 'bunch' does."

"Place their discharge the majority of both officers and enlisted men have shown more than a little hesitancy in putting the uniform back on for special occasions. The true spirit of the Legion is not manifest in any parade when the majority of the members appear in civilian clothes and a handful march in uniform. On such occasions the uniformed man is in an embarrassing position, and he yowls: 'Never again!'"

PUT ON PAVING, POST SHOW

Fred W. Dralle, Casper, Wyo., Succesfully Served as General Manager of "Stampee."

Fred W. Dralle of Casper, Wyo., chairman of the state executive committee of the American Legion, gained national recognition for his home-town post of the Legion, as general manager of the "Stampee" which cost $20,000 to stage and which added $3,000 to the post's treasury.

Mr. Dralle taught school at Butte, Mont., and was superintendent of schools at Houndeville, Mont. He served for a term as chief and recorder of Musselshell county, Mont., and is now an officer in the Standard Refinery of Casper.

Although he was 80 years old when the Standard Refinery entered the "Stampee" contest, he was stationed at Camp Hancock, Ga.

VERY FEW WILL BE DROPPED

Legionnaires Are Rushing to Pay 1921 Post Dues; Many New Members Being Added.

The 1920 post dues of the American Legion, according to reports reaching national headquarters appear to be in the busiest weeks of the year as regards work.

The rush of Legionnaires to get in their 1921 post dues within the time limit set with the penalty of being dropped from membership, if delinquent after that date, piled necessary clerical and other detail work onto the shoulders of post adjutants in the Legion and will be more than offset by the thousands of new members already obtained in the membership drives of various organizations.

To judge by the returns thus far available, the list of men to be dropped from membership for non-payment of their 1921 post dues within the specified time will be only a small fraction of the Legion and will be more than offset by the thousands of new members already obtained in the membership drives of various organizations.

"I feel so much better," said the girl. "How do I feel? I will try to behave better. I am so on this trip."

"Of course you are," said the boy. "I might have done the same thing if I hadn't had food. And you didn't stop your complaint because you said I would have some food."

"They were alluring by the roadside now. It's all wrong to accuse my self by saying I forgot. It was selfish of me. That's what it was," said the boy.

"They alligned a delicious meal later as they sat by the roadside, for the courier's knapsack was filled with goodies."

"Dear Lord," prayed five-year-old Bettie, one evening before retiring, "please make a good little girl out of me, and if at first you don't succeed, try, try, try again."

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

BY MARY GRAHAM BOWEN

GIRL'S UNSELFISHNESS.

The courier whose name was Co-operation and the boy and the girl associated their side on the way to the main road which led to the house of Secular.

"The boy and the girl were having adventures and a good deal later on they hoped to reach the house."

"You see," said the courier, "they were now with where are several more roads along which you have to travel and a number of hills to be climbed before you come to the house of Secular."

"You've both been pretty good adventurers. You're both been ready to go on and you've made mistakes and have in the long run been glad of them. You've both shown you can't go on and you're both glad you're out. You're both glad you're out. You're both glad you're out."

"I can't take you there all the way for you've both got to get out of the way. Even if this is easy it wouldn't be fun to always ride through life or along roads. Sometimes it's nice to walk. In fact if you're going to have adventures you can't hurry too much. It's impossible. But this little tin won't hurt you."

"As he spoke he noticed that the girl's head had dropped on her shoulder."

"Quick," he said to the boy. "Hop off and go to the spring beyond yonder birch tree. There get some water in the large albat which is always there. Make a drink of it."

He jumped off the horse with the boy and lifted the girl down gently as the boy rushed off, for the water.

"Oh dear," the boy thought excitedly to himself as he stumbled hurriedly to the spring. "I was just happy when something happens to worry and trouble us again." He dipped up some water and hurried back.

The girl lay on the ground. "Poor soomer of the water over her," the courier said to the boy. The boy did so.

The girl opened her eyes slowly. "I'm so hungry," she said in a weak voice.

"That's it," said the boy. "How thoughtful of me. She hasn't had anything to eat since yesterday. I had my breakfast with you and I forgot the post. I didn't have time to eat after breakfast. Oh, will you ever forgive me?"

"I know you had forgotten," said the girl.

"And," said the boy, "I was thoughtless too." said Co-operation. "I've got a few things to lend myself too. None of us are perfect. No matter if we do manage to get somewhere and get on and help others we will have lots to learn. But here I'm talking when she should have some food."

He pulled off his knapsack and gave the girl an orange from it. Then he said, "I'll have some more for you."

"We'll all have a big meal shortly," he said. "Perhaps it would be better, so long as you're so faint, to eat but a little at this time."

"I feel so much better," said the girl. "How do I feel? I will try to behave better. I am so on this trip."

"Of course you are," said the boy. "I might have done the same thing if I hadn't had food. And you didn't stop your complaint because you said I would have some food."
