Current Reports of Contemplated Drastic Action are Discarded with Official London Sides in With Paris

BERLIN, (AP)—The reparations commission has verbally notified the president of the German War burdens committee that the gold reserves under the Eufbank and other German issuing banks must be deposited before May 1, either in Cologne or Opladen as security for reparations. It was semi-officially announced today.

LONDON, (AP)—Reports of drastic action contemplated by the allies against Germany, to be taken May 1, were characterized in British official circles today as highly speculative and hypothetical.

These reports, it was pointed out, were based on the assumption that Germany might intend to pay adequate reparations or to offer a new and acceptable plan for the reparations problem, and British officials are declining as yet to occur in any such assumption.

However, should Germany not offer a solution before May 1, the British will, it is stated, consider the possibility of the Eufbank and other German issuing banks must be deposited before May 1, either in Cologne or Opladen as security for reparations. It was semi-officially announced today.

The German government, said Premier Lloyd George in the house of commons today, is still in default with regard to reparations, the trial of persons in the case of the Eufbank and other laws of war and disarmament.

The Germans, he continued, have not thus far shown any inclination to submit to any satisfactory assurance by which the trial of persons in the case of the Eufbank and other laws of war and disarmament.

PARIS CONFERENCE AT WORK ON PLAN FOR COLLECTOR

Absolute secrecy was maintained as to the decisions of the conference, as will meet frequently to frame the details of the program. It is expected to assemble them for presentation to the allies.

No call for the mobilization of these classes for any reason whatsoever had been sent out, the ministry asserted.

MEMBERSHIP CRUSADE IS LEGION PLAN

Week Beginning May 8 Will Be Devoted to Bringing in Legionnaires

During the month of May the department of Idaho, American Legion, propose to start a campaign to give the department 10,000 members. This announcement is made by Leo F. Bracker, state commander, who has been selected to handle the membership campaign.

Organization effort will be concentrated in a single general committee of 45 men, representing all the counties of the state. Max H. Gibbons, state vice commander, will head this committee which will function in Boise headquarters.

The membership campaign contemplated is a nationwide one. It is being conducted in all parts of the country, and will be held in Idaho on May 8 and will continue two weeks.

State officers of the legion have been advised by the national organization of former soldiers that state organizers should go to Idaho to work with the legion authorities in the interest of the Gem state department.

If the goal of the campaign is reached the present membership will be doubled, as there are now 5000 former service men who are regularly affiliated with the organization. This is the first time since June, 1919, when the veterans of the world war established a state department.

For Her Dress-Up Occasion

THIS season presents for the consideration of busy but fastidious mothers many ready-made frocks for little girls that will come up to their standards of good taste in choice of materials, in design and in workmanship.

To start off with, there are everyday dresses in light-colored, plain chambrays and very small-checked chambrays, that have white lawn collars and cuffs. A thin white rickrack is used to finish edges of belts or decorative bands on them, or the collars and cuffs are embellished with tiny silk or yarn flowers.

Besides these pretty cotton frocks there are blouses made of black taffeta silk with yarn stitching in bright colors for embellishment on collars, sleeves and sometimes on bodices to hems. They are very simply cut, much like the dress of colored organdy shown at the left of the two pictured above.

TEMPORARY PASTURES CARRY MORE SHEEP THAN FIELDS GRAZED YEAR AFTER YEAR

On a 30-acre field in Maryland, used by the United States Department of Agriculture to test the carrying capacity of temporary pastures for sheep, sufficient pasturage was produced to furnish an average of 605 days' grazing on each acre for a mature ewe. This is equivalent to about two sheep an acre a season of 250 days, or two and one-half sheep for a 200-day period.

Important to Keep Up Succession - In such a system as the one under trial there is not much choice of crops to be used in different months. It is chiefly necessary to make sure of having one crop ready when the preceding one is finished.

GARY DECLARES FOR REASONABLE TRADE CONTROL

Steel Corporation Chairman Tells Stockholders He Favors Industry and Regulation in Publicity Activities

NEW YORK, (AP)—Elliott H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, told the stockholders at their annual meeting today in favor of "publicity, regulation and reasonable control" of business through government agencies, as a possible "shield" of or antidote, to the labor union problem.

Declaring he did not believe in socialism nor in governmental management or operation, he suggested that "the present situation of the steel industry" should be reviewed by the highest courts.

"Laws—clear, well defined, practical and not of a character which are changing these matters, might be passed, and if they should apply to all economic organizations, groups or bodies exceeding certain specified or amount of annual production and organized labor should be placed under these laws. Each should be entitled to the same protection and be subject to the same restrictions and provisions."

Test for Unionism

"Will labor unions consent to that they have heretofore objected. There would be a test. Labor union leaders have before now asked and received the consent of the government to test if they are right or wrong and if they would be just as bad if the situation were reversed. Employers generally desire only the same protection that is accorded the labor unions. The large majority of workers also would be satisfied with this standard."

Mr. Gary devoted a considerable portion of his address to labor unions and said "the natural and certain facts of labor unionism are expressed by three words: Inefficiency, high cost."

"I would not intentionally do an injustice to any labor leader, nor to a labor union," he continued, "but from a business point of view, the natural and certain facts of labor unionism are expressed by three words: Inefficiency, high cost."

"It seems to me," he said, "that the natural, if not the necessary result of the contemplated progress of labor unions, if successful, would be control of shops, then of the general classification of the business, and finally of the government."

Turning to the subject of possible reduction of working hours for members of the steel corporation, Mr. Gary said: "The officers of this corporation, the presidents of subsidiary companies and a majority of others in positions of responsibility are in favor of abolishing the 39-hour day, and for this reason and because of the public sentiment, it is our endeavor and expectation to decrease the working hours—we hope in the comparatively near future."

Resumption of Beer Making is Indicated

MILWAUKEE, Wis., (AP)—Apparently because the ruling allowing the prescription of four and seven eighths gallons of beer is about to be promulgated by the Milwaukee office of the federal revenue department has received orders from Washington get ready to supervise the manufacture of beer here by the brewers of Wisconsin, official announcement to the bar.

Real beer could be put on the market immediately for prescription sales as all the breweries making near beer have real beer on hand. In making near beer it is necessary to make real beer first and then draw the excess alcohol.

FOREIGN TRADE SHOWS DECLINE

Department of Commerce Records Indicate Diminishing Trade Balance

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—America's foreign trade last month was nearly three quarters of a billion dollars less than the same month last year, figures made public today by the department of commerce show.

Exports for the month were $384,000,000 as compared with $520,000,000 in March, 1920, and imports were $254,000,000. This left a trade balance for the month of $130,000,000, against $206,000,000 in March, 1920.

For the nine months ended March 31, 1921, exports aggregated $4,509,000,000 and imports $3,909,000,000 while for the corresponding period of last year exports totaled $6,650,000,000 and imports $7,700,000,000.

Exports of gold in March were $700,000 and imports $100,000,000 against exports of forty-seven million dollars and imports of seventeen million dollars in March a year ago.

For the nine months ended with March, gold exports were $131,000,000 and imports $409,000,000 and imports of $409,000,000 and exports of $100,000,000 for the corresponding period last year.

FEMINS TELL SYMPATHIZERS VICTORY IS NEAR

Messages from De Valera and Collins are Read to American Association for Recognition of Irish Republic

CHICAGO, (AP)—Messages from field leaders in Ireland's fight against England declaring that the Irish virtually had won were read today by Henry J. Boland, secretary to Eamon de Valera, at the first national convention of the American association for the recognition of the Irish republic.

De Valera's message said: "The terror will break long before there will be any weakening of our people. The nation has taken a new resolve and the time has arrived when we can without undue optimism safely predict that."

"Ireland is in better position now than has ever been," wrote Michael Collins. "The people are hardening in their determination. The British terror has failed and Ireland goes forward with unflinching determination to the final struggle."

Major William O'Connell, Irish-American from all sections of the country were here today for the opening of the first national convention of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic.

Leaders in the movement to gain American recognition of Ireland were on the program for the two-day assembly.

The session opened with the invocation by a representative of Archbishop Murnaghan of Chicago. Mayor Thompson welcomed the delegates. Other speakers presented today included Harry J. Boland, assistant to Eamon de Valera; Fred B. Walsh, counsel for the association; and Donald O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork. Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of the late lord mayor of Cork, who died in a British prison, was on tonight's program.

"We seek for Ireland," Mr. Boland said, "the application of those noble principles for which you fought the war. We seek your support so that the age-long struggle may be consummated in the recognition of Ireland by the United States. The struggle has resolved itself into a question of money. We will come to you again for a new loan for the republic. This convention must resolve today to recognize that when the call comes we will be prepared to supply one hun-

"An effort is being made in Ireland to create the impression that America is unresponsive to her demands. Ireland is only one rock in the right of the Irish people to determine for themselves how they shall be governed. This is all Ireland asks—and a peace with honor."

Today's Markets

WHEAT IMPORTS CAUSE SHARP BREAK IN PRICE

Net Decline of 3 1/4 to 4 1/4 Cents Results from Canadians' Invasion of Market

CHICAGO, (AP)—Fear that damage to the new crop had been done by low temperatures led to upward today's wheat prices. Yield, however, lacked volume, and with warmer weather in prospect, an increase of selling pressure soon took place. Sellers contended that crop damage would prove to be of only a minor sort. Opening prices, which ranged from 1 1/2 to 2 1/4 higher, with May $1.29 to 1.30 and July $1.09 to 1.10, were followed by a material setback and then something of a rally.

Continued importations of Canadian wheat and a break in price at Winnipeg led subsequently to a sharp decline here. The close was heavy 3 1/4 to 1 1/4 and July $1.05 to 1.05 1/2.

Corn hardened with wheat, but later was inclined to sag. After opening 3 1/2 to 7 1/8 higher, including July at 62 to 62 1/4, the market reacted to slightly below Saturday's finish.

Later in sympathy with wheat the market declined further, but liberal export sales helped to check the break. Prices closed unsettled, 5 1/8 to 1 3/8 net lower, with July 60 3/8 to 60 1/2 to 60 1/4.

Oats paralleled the action of corn starting unchanged to 5 1/8 higher, July 38 1/4 to 39 1/8, and later easing down.

Higher quotations on hogs gave some firmness to provisions.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, (AP)—Today's stock market was dull and frequently reactionary, pressure against rails and industrials extending to most other groups, including stocks and equipments. Sales approximated 375,000 shares.

Reaction to the stock exchange the week opened with irregular price changes, although gas predominated. Oil led the firmer issues, notably Mexican and California Petroleum and General Asphalt. Heavy manufacturing, General Gas, Famous Players, Baldwin Locomotive, American Smelting and Columbia Gas also were variably higher. Rails were disposed to ease moderately with conditions unchanged to 1 1/2 points lower, the low of the year. Food specialties also reacted fractionally. Early exchange rates on London improved.

Railroads of 1 to 2 points in the last hour resulted from the moderate demand for the cheaper oils at gains of 1 to 3 points. The closing was irregular.

HOW NEWSPAPERS BEHAVE
 Occasionally some persons grow curious as to why the law ordains that so many records of an official nature be regarded as public and why the news papers publish so many items of that character. The curious were answered the other day when wife No. 1 observed in the marriage license announcements in a Harrisonburg newspaper that her husband had obtained a permit to marry wife No. 2 in Pennsylvania.
 Without such publication it is probable that the man's first mate might never have learned of the crime committed against her and society and the husband would have escaped detection.

This is but one type of public service the newspaper performs. There are numerous others. Many of them seem like commonplace. Ordinarily the marriage licenses, as published, has great value interest for many persons. Occasionally, as in the instance cited, it is the means of detaching ligamy, which after all is the serious purpose of the law in making these records accessible to the public.

It is to the credit of the nation's founders that they saw it that the newspapers should not be denied permission to examine these records, which hidden could be the potential cause of much wrongdoing and injustice. It is a right that should be safeguarded at every turn quite as much by the public served as by the newspaper which serves.

NEW STATE'S CREATION SOUGHT FOR 50 YEARS

Agitation for Formation of Another Commonwealth from Counties of Northern Idaho and Eastern Washington Exists in One Form or Another for More Than Half Century

SPOKANE, Wash., (AP)—Agitation for the formation of a new state from counties of northern Idaho and eastern Washington, to be carried on for the next two years in the territory affected by a commission of Idaho citizens under authority of the last Idaho legislature, has existed in one form or another for more than half a century.

Began in 1861

As early as January, 1861, a memorial to Congress, asking for the territory of the "Great Wall," from parts of the territory east of the Cascade mountains, was brought up in the Washington territorial legislature. Just one year later the legislature, in compliance with petitions signed by the people, considered a bill to submit to the people of the territory for their approval and in the constitutional convention which met three years later two representatives of northern Idaho, although the congressional act was adopted at the close of the next election, congress refused to create the new state.

Near Success in 1886

The nearest that advocates of "the wall" territory have been in 1886, when the act was adopted by the people when only the lack of presidential approval prevented it. The Idaho territorial legislature, in 1884, had memorialized congress for the territory of the northern counties to Washington, and in the following election both political parties in both Washington and Idaho declared for such annexation.

A bill was adopted by the territorial legislature, but the territorial legislature, in 1884, had memorialized congress for the territory of the northern counties to Washington, and in the following election both political parties in both Washington and Idaho declared for such annexation.

Other Bills Proposed

Other bills introduced in the session of congress, but which failed of passage, provided for division of the Idaho "panhandle" between Washington and Montana, by annexing that part of the territory of the north latitude, included in the five present northernmost counties of the state, to the latter territory.

The present agitation provides for separation of the ten northern counties of Washington and a part of eastern Washington and their admission to the Union as the state of Lincoln. A memorial was adopted by the territorial legislature in the last session of the Washington legislature but failed of passage.

Places Up in Washington

Meanwhile, in the Washington territorial legislature, the agitation flared up on occasion. In 1893 the legislature adopted a memorial to congress for the territory of the northern counties of Idaho, created by formation of the territory of Montana, be returned to Washington. This memorial rectified the geographical barriers between the territory of Idaho and the capital, and declared that "the commercial, social and political interests of

SLAVE TRADE IN MOROCCO STILL IS FLOURISHING

Investigation of Moors' Pleading to Sell Spanish Boy Brings to Light Description of Modern Slave Markets

MELILLA, Morocco (By the Associated Press)—Slavery and trading in slaves still flourish in the unoccupied parts of Morocco, the Spaniards and Spanish slaves of Morocco. There have been stories that some of the slaves are white people, but these reports are untrue. The Moors are of the color of the Moors.

Thanks to the turbulent Moors of the Rif coast to sell into slavery a Spanish sailor boy, Francisco Salva, under his father, with whom he had been working and captured, and a ransom of 4,000 pesetas, led the Associated Press correspondent to make an inquiry into the question of the existence of captured white people in northern Africa.

Prosperity Raises Prices

The result of his inquiry shows that the slaves are sold in a market which people being sold into slavery have been very rare, but there are also markets for the sale and purchase of colored people in the districts in which direct or indirect slave markets exist. The traffic varies according to the economic situation of the tribesmen, who, when they are in funds, do not hesitate to give high prices for slaves to be used as servants. Slaves purchased because personal property of the family into which they are bought and sold are sold at a price of 1,000 to 2,000 pesetas, or 10 to 20 dollars.

May Give Slave Wife

A slave-owner may give his slave wife from among his other slaves bought in the same way, and the child of the same owner unless his agreement with the purchaser is to the contrary. The price paid for slaves varies according to the sex, age and condition, but in general slaves, beauty calls for the highest prices, between 100 and 150 pesetas (about $20 to $30) for a young girl, and 50 to 75 for a boy of 15 years of age.

GREEKS BEARING GIFTS

"I UNDERSTAND that this is your birthday," said Traphagen, cordially, and having brought up a few cigars as a token of affection and good will. I hope you'll live to be a hundred and enjoy the best of health."

"I don't want to live to be a hundred," growled Rumbolow. "When a man has to live in such a community as this, where his neighbors are always framing up plots and conspiracies against him, he comes to the conclusion that the sooner he gets out of the better it will be."

"You can take your cigars home and feed them to your cow. If you would give that beast enough to eat, she wouldn't be forever breaking into my back yard and eating the vegetables in the clothe-line. The other day, I spent several hours cleaning up a lot of my old neckties. I went over them with gasoline and made them as good as new, and then hung them on the line to dry. Four or five came down and they every blamed one of them for the ties were gone when I went out for them, and I could see her tracks along under the clothe-line. If you want to make her feel comfortable, you ought to give her some of your collar buttons and a few stickpins. Those neckties must feel lonesome down in her old sheet from down there."

ALUMINUM TO REPLACE WOOD

Increased Production of the Metal Will Relieve Drain Upon the Country's Vanishing Forests.

"One of the greatest consumers of wood is the shipping box. For this purpose no fewer than 6,000,000 cords were used last year. Viewed from an economy of deep-sea superlatives, but the property worked its evil upon the tree owners. The loss of their crews made a real thing of it."

When one considers that aluminum constitutes more than 7 per cent of the entire crust of the earth, it seems absurd that there should be a lack of it for any and all purposes worthy of mankind.

Canada Admits Hindoo Woman.

The first Hindoo woman who ever entered Vancouver or British Columbia, Canada, to make the province their home, arrived recently on the Empress of Japan. There are thousands of Hindoo living in the province, engaged in working in the woods or in making sawmills. Some of them have made much money. For a long time the government refused admission to Hindoo women, but recently this ban was lifted. The first arrival was the first woman to take advantage of it. Her husband went to India from Vancouver three years ago to pay a visit to his home. He had made money and intended to remain in India, but when the ban was lifted, he decided to return where opportunities were greater. He brought his wife and twelve-year-old son. The father intends to send the boy to the public schools of Vancouver.

IOWA POULTRY FLOCKS MUST PAY THEIR WAY

Gulling System is Banned to In Effort to Build Up Standards

In one Iowa county during one month recently 62 demonstrations in the killing of home poultry flocks were held, in which 1833 birds were slaughtered and 4,000 eggs were destroyed. The owner $322 for feed. A total of $12500 was realized from the sale of these non-producing birds.

The Iowa county has decided that their flocks are mostly mongrel, that the housing is poor, and that 90 per cent of them are infected with tuberculosis. Now they are calling out the inferior flocks and the mongrel layers as the result of information gained from the county extension workers. Farm people are showing a growing interest in better in the farm home poultry flock, says the United States department of agriculture.

REFUSED TO TAKE CHANCES

Fortune Teller's Prediction Caused Crews of Two Vessels to Desert the Boats at Quebec.

From time immemorial superstitions of sailors, with few exceptions, have naturally been associated with things of the sea, notably the belief which marks departure from port on Friday as a certain omen of bad luck. Dr. Elmer Dyer has been fully vindicated for the wind he calms, the presence of a priest on board ship, all these deluded with actual elements of sea life that played a great part among such legends. The Flying Dutchman legend was also born of the sea; likewise the ghastly crew coming from the wreck of a sunken ship to haunt the crew of the vessel which caused their loss.

A more amazing variety of superstition was revealed the other day by the antics of the crews of two American tug boats who deserted the boats at Quebec. Before these two boats left Detroit bound for New York a fortune teller predicted "the doom" of one of the boats before it finished its voyage. The prophecy so worked on the imaginations of the crews of the two tug boats that they struck on reaching Quebec. Old salts might scoff at such a prophecy as this as being of the fresh-water brand and not worthy to be credited in the annals of sea superstitions, but the prophecy worked its evil upon the tug owners. The loss of their crews made a real thing of it."

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale
 BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

OTHER ADVENTURES.

"The boy and the girl, who were going in search of the adventures met a great many boys and girls at one time."

"Who are you? All of you?" asked the boy.

"And who are you?" asked the others.

"I'm an adventurer," said the boy. "And I'm his companion," said the girl. "We're both on our way to the House of Secrets."

"What's going to go there our adventures?" said the others. "We're off for adventures."

"Let's all go together," said the boy. "Let's," they all agreed.

"Well, I know which of these crossroads to take," said the boy. "For I was shown which was the House of Secrets."

"We did not see the same," said the girl. "Let's all go together," said the boy. "Let's," they all agreed.

"That is," added one, "there are ravines and steep banks where the dirt and you will fall down together if you're not careful. And even if you're careful it will be the same. And there is a creek a little distance below where many trees have fallen, and you have to climb over the great trunks of the trees if you want to go on."

"This other road is much smoother," said the girl. "It looks as if more people had traveled upon it."

"Don't you remember," said the boy, "how we came to the crossroads before and how we chose the smoother of the two roads rather than the bumpy one?"

"Then we met the witch and she told us that the bumpy one was the one we should have taken. We took the smooth one and it didn't lead anywhere at all. She called it the Road of Complacency."

"She told us we couldn't always dodge the bumps if we wanted to find the House of Secrets. She seemed to think bumps were really quite important."

"I think," said the girl, "that they puzzle us by doing the same thing being done by us and the opposite of what they think we will do."

"Now they think we will take the bad road because before we should have done that. We'll take the good one, fool them and be right!"

"That's what the boy," "You told me that this other one was right. He

AMERICA MAKES THE STYLES

Dictatorship of Women's Apparel Said to Include Every Country in the World.

American dictatorship of women's styles has grown until it includes every country in the world where women study the fashion books according to the fashionable dressmakers in London and Paris. It is the American women who say what they want, and the world wears it—whether it be the world or not.

According to Elizabeth Phelps, one of London's leading fashionable dressmakers, this American preponderance of styles began shortly before the war, but has shown decided development to the last few years. It was felt first in Paris, and what Paris liked London also adopted—and like London.

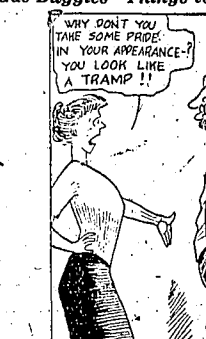

Nominally, Paris is still the style center of Europe. American influence is not generally acknowledged. Fashion experts abroad dislike to admit the full scope of power which the Yankess have over the clothing output. But they admit to not in secret that European women are dressing according to New York, instead of Paris.

SPORTS

Probably not if the Frenchman tries to do it with the 'Bull' Laker. St. Georges is an astute guy and he may prefer to play a stand-off game, similar to that played by Corbett in that memorable affray against Sullivan in the southeast nearly two and a half decades ago.

It may interest our dear readers to know that Tommy Burns (Noah Burn so) has been matched to box a limited number of rounds with Joe Beckett in London.

Tommy should be able to go a fair pace for the 'limited' number of rounds, but if sturdy Joe has any fine acumen at all he will let Thomas do all the fighting during the early periods and then while in and finish the job for himself.

Tom Dera and August Sapp are scheduled to do a return bout in Salt Lake tomorrow night. The paid grappled some weeks ago and Dera was returned the winner.

Sapp has always claimed that the victory was a fluke, and has challenged Dera to repeat the job.

Philadelphia—M. R. de Lolliv, coach of the French relay team, which arrived here Saturday to compete in the University of Pennsylvania relay carnival, said the fighting during the early periods and then while in and finish the job for himself.

Detroit—Several inches of snow blanketing the playing field indicated none of the games with Cleveland here this week would be played.

Chicago—Players who fail to report within ten days of the opening of the baseball season are suspended. Judge Landis ruled.

Philadelphia—Frank Leonis, Olympic champion quarter mile hurdler, will compete at the second annual American Legion athletic day at Franklin field June 9, it was announced today.

Havana—The twelfth game of the Laker-Capetana International chess match ended in a draw last night.

AMONG NEW GINGHAM FROCKS

Frocks for Spring and Summer Are Delicately Trimmed With Wool Embroidery.

Some of the most dressmakers are making gingham frocks for spring and summer trimmed with wool embroidery. Especially attractive are those with hems run of brown-and-white checks has a straight gathered skirt with a series of three tucks run to brown wool stitches about a half inch in length.

Then there are charming little gingham dresses made with wool embroidered flowers or fruit. However, there is always real wisdom in making gingham frocks so that they may be easily washed and ironed and this woolen embroidery does not recommend itself on this score.

The substances usually used for setting colors are salt, vinegar, alum or sugar of lead. The last-mentioned is a poison, so it is better not to use it. To set the color on any material, dissolve in a gallon of water one-half cupful of strong vinegar, two cupfuls of salt or one tablespoonful of alum. Mix thoroughly and let the material soak in this overnight. Dry before it is admitted to clear water.

In selecting the material for gingham frocks it is always worth while to pay the price required to get the best quality.
