SENATE PASSES EMERGENCY BILL TO FIX TARIFF

Retains All Amendments Recommended by Finance Committee, But Rejects Those Proposed by Individuals

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP) - The senate late today passed the emergency tariff and anti-dumping bill, retaining all amendments recommended by the finance committee, but rejecting those individually proposed.

The vote was 63 to 28. The Knox amendment, containing wartime control over imports of dyestuffs, was accepted, 61 to 25.

The final day of senate debate on the emergency tariff bill opened Tuesday with an announcement by Senator Edge, republican, New Jersey, who voted against the measure at the last session, that he would vote for it "with some reservations" on Wednesday.

Senator Reed, democrat, Missouri, said the senate that while the tariff measure was described as a farmers' emergency bill, it was loaded "with amendments for the great majority of whom we commonly call trusts."

Declaring what he termed "the discrimination against Canada resulting from the bill," Mr. Reed declared it is his year's time to cut off the Canadian trade.

SHIP BOARD TO CALL ON TROOPS

Further Rioting Among Strikers at San Francisco to Be Met with Drastic Action

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP) - The shipping board will ask that federal troops take charge of the situation if there is further rioting among the dock crews here, H. H. Ely, district director of operations for the board, said today.

"I do not anticipate trouble, but if any is threatened I will ask that the Ninth corps area headquarters and the proper authorities at Washington be called into here," Ely said.

Southern Pacific Executive Continues Presentation of Carriers' Troubles; Complaints of Canal Competition

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP) - Stagnation in railroad building in the United States must be attributed to the disparity between the cost of construction and the return to the investor, J. H. Keefe, president of the Southern Pacific, today declared in testifying before the senate interstate commerce committee.

Investors' Share Small

"In 1920 only $62,354,000 went as a return to those who paid for the properties while 60 times as much went to those employed on the railroads," said Keefe. "This amounts to a question of why don't we build more railroads?"

Complaints About Canal

Answering the committee's question, Mr. Keefe testified, complained bitterly of Panama competition.

UPPER SILESIA REPORTED QUIET AFTER FIGHTING

Dispatch Says Insurgent Leader and Allied Commission Get Together on Terms for Ending Hostilities

LONDON, (AP) - It is reported that negotiations between the inter-allied commission in Upper Silesia and Adolf Korfanty, leader of the Polish insurgents in that area, resulted last evening in the cessation of hostilities.

It was agreed, according to this report, that the insurgents would occupy a line of demarcation, agreed upon and remain in the stipulated positions pending final settlement of the Upper Silesian question which is still pending in allied councils.

It is reported that a German officer who formerly held a high position in the army has taken charge of German operations in Silesia, and inter-allied officials in the area may be serious developments in the next few days.

Chita Constituent Assembly, in Appeal to American Congress, Sets Forth Claims of Comparison

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The administration's policy toward Mexico has been "very well determined," it was stated Tuesday, authoritatively, but officials are not yet ready to conclude it. The announcement that the administration's Mexican policy was well determined was not indicative of any radical change, it was stated authoritatively, nor should it be construed to forecast any recognition of the government of Mexico. Recognition of President Obregón will be accorded, it is understood, when he convulses the United States government that Americans and their interests in Mexico have continuing safeguards.

In a general way, it was indicated, the road to recognition pointed out in a letter former Secretary of State Clegg handed to Vladimir Lenin, confidential agent of Provisional President De La Huerta of Mexico, is still the road to be followed. The letter followed in character the recommendation of the report made by a senate subcommittee of which Senator Fall was chairman.

Only Semboff disturbs. —The assistant for hostilities on an island front separated from central Russia by the limitless space of Siberia, unwilling to become the base of a campaign against Russia, our people have this time taken their own course of their liberation in their own hands. Now the internal enemy is contended. The greater part of our country, cleared of foreign armies of the East, is pacified. Only in the southern part of the Maritime province the scattered bands of Semboff continue their lawless way, taking note of the illegal occupation of that territory.

LIFE INSURANCE SHOWS BIG ADVANCE FOR YEAR

Statistics Estimate Total Face Value of Policies in Force at Year's Close at $43,519,972,742

CINCINNATI, O., (AP)—Figures compiled for the Bureau of Census report for 1921 from special report by 288 insurance companies doing business in the United States, show total insurance in force at the close of the year December 31, 1920, of $43,519,972,742, a gain of $6,921,181,400 for the year 1920. Total admitted assets were $7,032,845,449. Payments on policy holders for the year of 1920 were $682,472,013. A half dozen or so small companies had not sent in a report but if all the companies' reports were included, new totals would not be affected over one per cent.

Fraternals and assessment companies are not included nor is the business of the war risk business. The United States Census Bureau believes the above figures are the first accurate totals to be announced on the business of 1920.

Airplanes Will Bring Diamonds from Congo

LONDON, (AP)—Aerial transport of diamonds is contemplated in the Belgian Congo by a mining company in which American interests are largely represented, according to African news received here. The mines concerned are at Djoko-Panda, in the Kasai province. At present the journey by boat along the Kasai and Congo rivers between Kinshasa and Kinshasa, a distance of 600 miles, occupies 35 to 40 days. By the use of airplanes, it is expected to accomplish the trip in about two days. The present output of diamonds from the Kasai field is reported to be 200,000 carats a year. Exploitation of the fields began in 1908.

PLACATION BIG TASK FOR REDS

Bolsheviks Essay Difficult Role in Appeasing Both the City Workers and Peasants.

WHEELING, W. Va., (AP)—Recent speeches of bolshevik leaders in Russia and the utterance of the Bolshevik press have indicated a double purpose—to appease both peasants and city workers, whose interests are very different. This two-sided attitude is maintained, it is said, to conciliate the peasants, who form the vast majority in Russia, even at the cost of sacrificing some communist principles, and at the same time of persuading the town workers that the adoption of a conservative land policy like the granting of concessions to foreigners, is a clever bit of tactical maneuvering.

Nikolai Lening, the bolshevik premier, addressing a meeting of railway workers at Moscow the other day, said that the bolsheviks were the workers, whom he characterized as an uncertain factor that might swing in favor of capitalism or of the proletarian revolution. "The peasants helped the revolution," he declared, "but now they are tired and have swung around to a pro-municipal politics bourgeoisie. They might even favor capitalism."

This "last battle" with the peasants is in reality a battle of compromise. It is a campaign to win over some communist principles, and to make their wants known to its sympathizers. "You must know, peasants," it writes, "that if you will not support soviet rule, tomorrow the roused white generals will reappear. Only the czar can replace the bolshevik. You must divide for yourselves whether you want him or not."

Meanwhile the peasants are filled with relief at the substitution of a new tax for the odious requisition and the introduction of free commerce.

SECRETARY OF INTERIOR MAY COME TO POCATELLO

Hope is Held that Cabinet Member Will Attend Reclamation Convention

POCATELLO, Idaho (Special to The News)—Because of the necessity of leading authorities on reclamation in Washington, D. C., and elsewhere reviewing their schedules it is announced that the big reclamation convention, under the auspices of the Idaho Reclamation association, will be held here early in June instead of during this month, as previously announced from Boise where a meeting of President S. E. Brady and directors was recently held. Senator Gooding has taken up the matter with the secretary of the Interior and there is every hope held out that the secretary will be present at the convention.

Heads of the reclamation service and representatives of congress are expected to be present to listen to the needs of Idaho and to carry back the message of Idaho people as expressed at the convention. This will be the largest and most productive reclamation gathering in the history of the state and its effectiveness will be marked and instantaneous. Official and public interest in the convention is increasing each day. The public realizes the necessity of having its desires laid before congress in concrete and representative form, and public sentiment naturally influences official bodies, such as county commissioners.

TURKS STILL PRESERVE QUALITY OF COURTESY

Contrast Between Manners of East and West in Constantinople is Striking

CONSTANTINOPLE, (AP)—The contrast between the manners of the Turk and the people of the western nations who mingle on the streets of this ancient capital is striking. Courtesy to a stranger is a quality still preserved from the ruins of the Ottoman empire. "Courtesy is about all we have left and we still try to hold on to that," said Abdul Majid Effendi, but presumptive to the throne, who is himself a model of quiet kindness and distinguished manners.

The official and wealthy Turk retains still a certain grand manner which would have belonged to another age in western Europe or the United States. He carries himself with dignity, though not with modesty. Deep is the contrast between him and the soldiers and civilians of some of the allied nations brought here by the allied occupation of Constantinople or seeking refuge or adventure. These tramp up and down the streets sometimes sober, sometimes drunk, depending on the time of night, obligingly fighting, swearing, hawking, as it suits their humor.

Stamboul, the Turkish quarter, becomes sedate place at nightfall; while Pera, the European quarter, drops its daylight garb of trooping throngs and reckless drivers and becomes a city of immense capacity for evil. Gambling dens, cafes and dance halls open and soldiers from the fronts come and declare they won't go home until morning.

RAILROAD LABOR BOARD CONSIDERS WAGE DECISION

CHICAGO, (AP)—Employees of the El Paso and Southwestern railroad bargaining rail, lumber, scrap and doing other common labor around storehouses were granted an 8 1/2-cent increase by the July, 1920, wage board, the railroad labor board ruled in a decision handed down today. The employees had demanded for a 12-cent increase as awarded to store room employees. The board decided, however, that common labor, under supervision of foremen, should not be classed as store room employees.

CHURCH CONGRESS HEARS DEBATE ON LIBERALISM

Opposing Views on Indulgences Upon Grounds are Urged by Ministers at Springfield

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., (AP)—Indulgences of credit as a basis of Christian unity is misapprehension of the very nature of Christianity, the Rev. O. F. Jordan, pastor of the Evanston, Ill., Christian church told the annual congress of disciples of Christ here Tuesday. He said to keep church unchanged was to violate the very law of life. While the church of New Testament times had no creed, yet according to St. Paul's account, of the early church at Corinth it was a corrupt church. The Rev. Mr. Jordan took the liberal point of view in a disquisition designed to develop both the conservative and liberal views.

Holding the other view, the Rev. J. B. Brice, of Westport, Ky., told the congress today that "if the church is a human institution men may change it in any way and at any time to suit their national temperament, but if it is a divine institution, then hands off."

HERO OF NOTABLE AIR RAIDS IS FOUND DEAD

Body of Captain Paton McGivray, with Bullet Through Head, is Discovered in Boston Garage

BOSTON, Mass., (AP)—Captain Paton McGivray, hero of several notable bombing raids, as an American flyer with the Italian forces in the world war, was found dead in the rear of a garage in the Back Bay district Tuesday. He had been shot over the eye. An automatic pistol lay near by. Medical Examiner Leary said the circumstances indicated suicide.

The body bore only the forehead wound, although at least two shots were fired. This fact, together with the unusual condition of the ground nearby, led to a more thorough investigation than usual. Captain McGivray, who was born in Berkeley, Cal., 34 years ago, and who had been decorated with the Italian cross for bravery entered the commercial aviation field in New England after the war.

His venture was said to have resulted in financial losses. His health was impaired and he went to the woods for a rest.

McGivray also wore the golden crown and wings, an Italian decoration conferred upon the members of the first group of American aviators to reach the Italian front. He was graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1916. He was a member of a flying circus that gave exhibitions at Cleveland and other cities after the war.

Leaves Penitentiary after Serving Nine Years for Dynamiting Iron Works

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., (AP)—W. J. McNamara was released from the state penitentiary Tuesday after serving a term of nine years and five months for the dynamiting of the Llewellyn Iron Works in Los Angeles, in 1910. He was sentenced to serve fifteen years, but earned the maximum reduction of sentence by good conduct.

Draws 15 Years Sentence.
John J. McNamara, former secretary of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, was sentenced to 15 years imprisonment in San Quentin penitentiary for the Los Angeles superior court, Dec. 5, 1911, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of having conspired to dynamite the plant of the Llewellyn Iron Works in this city. The plea was made while he was on trial on a charge of having conspired to dynamite the building of the Los Angeles Times building, October 1, 1910.

James J. McNamara, brother of John, who was being tried jointly with the latter, pleaded guilty to murder and was sentenced to life imprisonment. The state alleged the McNamaras conspired with others to blow up the Times building, and that the plot was carried out by James McNamara planting a dynamite bomb in the rear of the structure. Twenty employees of the Times were killed in the destruction of the building.

Times Offends Strikers.
It was alleged the motive for the crime was that the Times had taken the side of the Llewellyn Iron Works during a strike of structural iron workers there, and that the accused were also concerned in an attempt to blow up the Llewellyn plant.

The McNamaras were arrested in the east after Orrie E. McManigal, an alleged accomplice, made a confession. McManigal was the principal witness at the trial, which came to a dramatic end when the accused men offered to make pleas of guilty if assured they would escape death penalty.

May Be Wanted Elsewhere.

Two other alleged accomplices were arrested and received prison sentences in California. Thirty-nine other persons who had been associated with the McNamaras in Indiana, were convicted of conspiring to transport dynamite in the federal court at Indianapolis. These cases followed statements by McManigal to the effect that there had been a country-wide dynamiting of bridges and other structures, on which non-union workers had been employed.

Remaining indictments against John McNamara in Los Angeles have been outlawed, but it was said here he might possibly have to face charges in Indianapolis upon his release.

Brief Bits of Sport

This afternoon Clint Evans and his merry baseball men are having what sort of stuff the Filer high school nine is made of.

"Course, one never can tell what will happen any time, but chances are the Filerites will tote home the short end of the score.

On Friday of this week Evans will take his men to Bull for a return game.

Chicago sports paragraphers admit Ed Glasgow would have a pretty fair ball club if he had a pitching staff.

The same writers seem to have a hunch that the Ball Lake infield, sold to Comiskey last winter will get going soon with the warbirds.

Just as present Shingley is hitting among the pitchers, at a 208 gain, while Mulligan third baseman, has hit 200. Ernie Johnson is the best of the trio, having compiled a season's mark of 241.

Our guess is that Comiskey will never dare look another league's homerun clouter in the face. Neither Sholeyn, batting leader of the Pacific league, and Yegon, pace-maker of the West end league last year, are finding the ball a-tall this spring.

Claude Williams, one of the Ball Wreaths of the White Sox club, is said to be getting away with an industrial ball team under an assumed name.

ORDERS JUDGE LINDSEY TO PAY OR GO TO JAIL

Denver District Attorney Asks When Court Professes His Inability

DENVER, Colo., (AP)—A writ of execution to compel Judge Ben B. Lindsey to pay a $500 fine assessed against him in the West Side criminal court here five years ago was issued by the county sheriff by District Attorney Phillip H. Vanecko's office Tuesday. The district attorney issued the writ following a ruling made Monday by Judge Warren A. Leggett in which the latter declared he considered his jurisdiction in the case was null and he would leave it in the hands of District Attorney Vanecko.

Judge Leggett and the district attorney admit there is no legal means by which Judge Lindsey may be forced to pay the fine, owing to the fact that Judge John Percy, when ordering sentence against Judge Lindsey in 1916, neglected to provide for enforcement of a jail sentence. The fine was imposed when Judge Lindsey refused to testify as to what a boy ward of his court had told him about a murder.

Judge Lindsey has no property upon which a judgment may be levied, and District Attorney Vanecko said today that his salary as judge of the juvenile court could not be attached. Judge Lindsey declined to say what action he would take.

A famous tire—and a famous tread. Acknowledged among motorists and dealers alike as the world's foremost example of Cord tire building. Always delivering the same repeated economy, the safer tire, and season after season.

How you can measure tire value in 1921

OFTEN it's surprising the number of different tire views that come out in a chance talk at the curb or in the leisure of a friend's garage.

Almost every day you come across the man human enough to believe he can outguess the cut-price tag on "job-lots," "discontinued lines" and "surplus stocks."

His opposite is the hardpan car owner who sticks year in and year out to a standard brand as the only rational economy.

Many will remember the scarcity of U. S. Tires last year.

A hardship at the time, but a benefit now. There are no U. S. Tires to be worked off—no accumulations—no forced selling of any U. S. brand—no shipping of tires from one part of the country to another to "find a market."

There are 92 U. S. Factory Branches. Each one gets its share of U. S. Tires. There is a broad, constant, even distribution of U. S. Tires always going on from these Branches to the dealer.

Buy a U. S. Tire anywhere—in a community of 500 people or even less—and you get a fresh, live tire of current production—with all the original service and mileage the factory put into it.

The owner of a medium or light-weight car stands on equal ground with every other car owner.

Any United States Tire is a universal full money's worth—backed up with a leadership policy of equal quality, buying convenience and price for everybody.

THE "FIRE" HORSES

The question of what is to be done with the horses which have been displaced by motorized equipment for the Twin Falls fire department seems likely, as it should very properly, to make a trenchant appeal to the humanitarian instincts of Twin Falls citizenship.

There are five of these dumb servitors of the municipality. The youngest is said to be seven years old while the three veterans of the force serving as the motive power for the engine are said to have reached the age of about eighteen years.

Sentiment naturally recoils from the suggestion that these dumb servitors of the public now should be sold and passed for better or worse into other ownership and control.

Suggestion has been made that the horses be "pensioned" and put out to pasture for the rest of their days, and a former member of the city council has offered to take care of them in this manner.

Leviathan Tribune: Farmers as a class can probably do much for themselves by giving support to the movement for a cooperative marketing plan already started, provided the organization they join is not run by politicians and bosses who are chiefly interested in dividing fat salaries with large payers for themselves but the individual farmer has only one method of playing safe.

THE FOUNDATION OF WATER.

It is related that those who build on sand soon witness a collapse. Yet some of the world's greatest structures are built on sand! And if sand, how about water?

There was never a time in the history of this state when there was so much popular interest in this subject of water-reclamation.

It is, therefore, of the highest importance that we adopt means to formulate concrete expression that will receive attention because of its popular aspects. The only way to do it is through organized effort. We have in this state reclamation association, the child of the late Major Fred R. Best, which already has done much to aid in this vitally important work.

Every board of county commissioners, every commercial club, every irrigation association, in short every community, should be represented at this convention so that a full and fair voice may be expressed.

OPINIONS

Salt Lake Tribune: From all appearances, a building boom is being needed at this time. Not only because of the acute shortage of homes, but for the purpose of giving employment to thousands and of equalizing taxes by further cutting the cost of living.

Minneapolis Tribune: Europe has been in fearful travail before and held itself off the rocks of chaos. It survived the Dark Ages and the Thirty Years' war and the Napoleonic stress and it came forth from each of these with a firmer grasp of the Christian emblem and a clearer view of the eternal grandeur of the Nazarene philosophy.

S Spokane Spokesman-Review: Yap was erroneously assigned to Japan and without notice to America, which is one of the heirs of German rights and therefore entitled to be one of the assignees.

Salt Lake Tribune: Wilson was needed to lead, but he had the good sense to advise preparation on the sea. Harding is extremely practical and of course wants a navy strong enough for purposes of protection.

Leviathan Tribune: Farmers as a class can probably do much for themselves by giving support to the movement for a cooperative marketing plan already started, provided the organization they join is not run by politicians and bosses who are chiefly interested in dividing fat salaries with large payers for themselves but the individual farmer has only one method of playing safe.

Salt Lake Tribune: The seeking of profits rather than the rendering of service has been the cause of misdirected and unproductive water-reclamation in the future will and must turn into useful channels if it is not to perish as so profitable.

Leaders of "Omotokyo" Advocating War with America, Put Under Arrest

KYOTO, Japan, (AP)—Leaders of the radical, "Omotokyo" cult have been placed under arrest, with many of their principal followers, following a police raid on the headquarters of the organization at Aiyue, near here.

Police officials who conducted the raid broke into a secret temple in which scores of people were wrapped in papers. Subterranean passages were found leading to the residence of Watanabe Heguchi, adopted son of the founder of the cult.

Doguchi recently bought two Osaka newspapers and evicted them to the teaching of Omotokyo precepts. The spread of this belief among all classes in the empire has been regarded as a national menace on account of its sensational teachings.

Now! a Better, Purer Ice Cream. It Is Carbonated. Here is the most startling story ever written about ice cream. It is the story of the discovery of a new method for making SUPER-PURE ice cream while doubling its flavor and quality.

What Is Carbonated Ice Cream? By PROF. W. PAUL HEATH. (Inventor of the Heathmade method of manufacturing Carbonated Ice Cream) MY SPHERE in scientific invention has been the preservation of purity in food products.

Famous Scientist Praises Carbonated Ice Cream. Professor R. M. Washburn, of the University of Minnesota, America's leading authority on milk products, says: "Repeated tests of carbonated ice cream show clearly that carbonating will bring out the flavor and increase the tastiness of the product, and that the presence of this gas destroys bacteria and prevents it or bacteria from growing."

Makes Ice Cream More Delicious. The result is carbonated ice cream. You can say it is one hundred times purer than ordinary ice cream, you can say it is one thousand times purer. The figures make no difference because it is infinitely more pure. Carbonating removes the last trace of danger in ice cream. I do not say that other ice cream is dangerous, but it might be, and you can't afford to risk even that chance of danger.

Sterling, the Ice Cream Supreme, Is Carbonated. For cream we have made the purest ice cream mixture and brains could produce. When the Heathmade Carbonated method of making ice cream was offered to us we realized that it would add ONE HUNDRED PER CENT purity and safety to our ice cream.

Committees to Decide Final Disposition of Money Given to Memorial Project

There is in the hands of M. Q. Mitchell, superintendent-elect of the city school, a check for $610 delivered by O. D. Thomas as a refund of an amount paid by high school students two years ago toward the fund for construction of an addition to Memorial park at Shoshone falls. The check, when countersigned by C. N. Hearty, will be diverted to a channel yet to be determined.

Students of the high school originally subscribed $764.67 to the Shoshone Falls Memorial park, an institution proposed as a standing monument to all those who went from this section to fight in the world war. Of this amount about 18 per cent has been employed in conducting the organization work, together with carrying on certain preliminary matters connected with the school.

O. D. Thomas was one of the prime movers and a leading spirit in the fund campaign. C. N. Hearty was treasurer and holder of the fund.

In the culture of the park project, executives of the local post, American Legion, opened a proposal for the construction of a Service Men's Memorial building and support this scheme by contributing to the park plan for the diverting of their subscriptions to the building scheme. In many instances this was done, but the high school board was held without final orders until the past week, when Mr. Mitchell called for the refund on orders from the district board, the first plan being to revert the amount due to the school.

In the past few days, however, circumstances have arisen which have made it advisable to call a joint meeting of a committee from the school board and the American Legion. At this meeting definite determination will be arrived at for the final disposition of the money.

EDMANUELL IDAHO WAS INSANE AT TIME OF KILLING G. S. ACKERMAN

District Court Jury Has Case but 30 Minutes Before Rendering Verdict of Not Guilty to Charge of Murdering Iowa Salesman—Practically All Testimony Supports Insanity Theory

Edmanuel Ihara, alias Francisco Sanchez, on trial in the district court for the murder of George S. Ackerman, was this afternoon found not guilty by a jury summoned to hear testimony in the case. On the evidence submitted the jury found that Ihara was not and was not at the time of the killing insane and not responsible for his acts. The jury had the case 30 minutes when the verdict was returned.

Defendant on Sunday afternoon, March 15, at the residence of Arkerman, a traveling salesman in the city with a butcher knife, the blade of the weapon penetrating the brain. The victim of this attack died in a local hospital the following morning. The case went to the jury just before the noon recess after a trial lasting four hours yesterday.

The first witness called was the court reporter, who testified that he was present at the prosecution and the defense. The next witness was the doctor who attended to show Ihara anything but a mental derelict. In fact, both Dr. W. P. Pike and Dr. C. D. Weaver under oath testified that they had found the man to be insane. Dr. Weaver was the last witness called and told of having been a part of an examination to investigate the possibility of a verdict of insanity. Both experts declared that in their opinion no doubt existed that Ihara is mentally irresponsible.

Tell of Experiences
Other witnesses told of the erratic character and actions of the defendant, one witness, Porfirio Baquez, proprietor of a rooming house where Ihara lodged, declaring that even in the year before he had noted such behavior in that he was a dangerous character when suffering from certain varieties of the mind. He said he had asked the judge to have Ihara committed to the asylum. Sheriff E. R. Sherman stated, out of court, that no such request had ever been made of him, and that no such records were set down in his office.

Rambling Statements
On the stand himself Ihara, addressed by an interpreter, J. W. Hickens, of the Amalgamated sugar plant, answered questions in an erratic manner. He said he had been in Idaho for some time and was working both in this country and where in his native land, as enemies were withholding his fortune from him. He stated he had been a soldier in Mexico but had never been in battle nor had he worn a uniform. Some of his answers seemed to substantiate the statements of Mrs. Pike and Weaver that the defendant is paranoic, and it passed off fixed delusions that he is constantly pursued by persons who desire to kill him.

The jury hearing the case was composed of E. R. Larned, W. E. Fomwalt, A. G. Ellis, J. Walter Miller, Robert Dorf, J. F. Carr, D. C. Walker, C. W. McMillan, Frank W. McCormick, Walter Musgrave, George Lincoln, E. A. Phelps.
