KAPPELL'S MEN SEIZE CONTROL OF VIADIVOSTOK

Troops Formerly Commanded by Anti-Bolshevik Leader in Siberia, Occupy Some of the Government Buildings

TOKYO, (AP)—Troops formerly under the command of General Kappell, anti-bolshevik leader in southeastern Siberia, occupied a part of Vladivostok yesterday morning, says a dispatch received from that city by the Kokuai News agency. Some government buildings were taken over by the troops, but Japanese forces there maintained a neutral attitude.

The arrival of the Kappell troops at Vladivostok was expected, as they captured Nikolai, near there, on May 21, and were reported to be advancing.

Invited by Non-Bolsheviks

The city is said to be entirely under the control of the Kappell troops, whose chief of staff is General Kappell. Members of the national assembly were placed under arrest, but later released.

The Vladivostok correspondent of Nishi Nihon says the Kappell soldiers numbered all millionaires, some of them realtors. He adds that the city is in consternation with Kappell troops driving through the streets in automobiles and occupying the railway station and other buildings. All shops in the town have been closed.

Neighboring Towns Taken

The towns of Radobinsk and Pokrovsk near Vladivostok, have been occupied by the Kappellists. The commander of the Japanese forces in the city is reported to have declared that Japan will not interfere in the political situation, but will not disarm the Kappell soldiers.

Pound Sterling Drops Six Cents Value Overnight

Sensational Reactions Feature Dealings in the Foreign Exchange

NEW YORK, (AP)—An overnight decline of six cents in the pound sterling to $33.12 for demand bills was the sensational feature of today's outside dealings in the foreign exchange market.

The break was attributed by local dealers to heavy selling in London chiefly for German account. The latter interests are believed to have been selling British bills and buying dollar exchange, presumably to strengthen their credit in this market.

French and Belgian rates were under constant pressure, however, losing 28 points, and goldiers of Dutch exchange dropping 62 points on very heavy offering.

Other noteworthy recessions included Italian, Swiss, Spanish and all the Scandinavian rates at declines of 20 to 30 points. German marks lost five points.

BALTIC STATES DECRY HOPE OF UNITED RUSSIA

Fall of Bolshevik Regime Would Be Followed by Long Period of Anarchy, the Neighboring People Declare

RIGA, (AP)—Even were the Russian bolshevik regime to collapse immediately, the dream of a new, united Russia is impossible of realization for dealers to come. In the opinion of political students, government officials and businessmen in the three Baltic states, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, having diplomatic missions at Moscow, all agree that the fall of the regime headed by Nikolai Lenin would be followed by a long period of anarchy.

View Generally Held

This opinion was expressed to the correspondent by Professor Elin, Estonian foreign minister, M. Schumann, under secretary for foreign affairs of the Latvian government, Dr. Kasimir Dzinis, minister-president of Lithuania, and dozens of other students who are in a position to view the Russian situation at close range like a similar class.

A. M. Marus, of New York, a Lithuanian-American at the head of the united Baltic organizations, which are promoting a Baltic alliance, recently returned from a month's investigation in Moscow. He summed up the situation by saying:

"Russians in America, Paris and elsewhere who are still considering a united Russia would be possible immediately after the fall of bolshevism are cherishing a vain dream. I was just in Moscow. It would take 150 years to restore anything like normal conditions in Russia. The Baltic states are progressing while inner Russia is deteriorating."

BUDGET BILL NOW GOES TO HARDING

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Passage of the bill establishing a federal budget system was completed today as the house adopting the conference report on the measure, which now goes to the president.

GARY DECLARES TRADE REVIVAL NEEDS HONESTY

Says Return to Satisfactory Business Conditions Delayed by Minority of Employers and Workmen

NEW YORK, (AP)—Full return to satisfactory business conditions will be slow until the minority of business men and workmen who have ignored the principle of common honesty are atoned to the necessity of sound and proper standards of conduct, according to Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation.

Says Public Holds Off

Speaking today before the American Iron and Steel Institute, which he presided, Mr. Gary said the American people are not buying enough to supply themselves fully with the ordinary comforts of life, although they have the disposition and the means to do so. This, he explained, was due to the opinion of the purchasing public that there has not been complete and proper readjustment of prices.

"There is an abundance of new business," he said, "with both ability and inclination to place it, waiting for further adjustments which will put costs of living, selling prices, wage rates and other general incomes on a relative parity."

Defends Steel Prices

Present steel selling prices, Mr. Gary declared, will not permit any reduction until wages are further decreased. It would be unjust, he said, to further reduce wage rates before the costs of living are lowered.

Retail prices for many commodities are much too high, declared Mr. Gary, adding that, without justification, workers' wages have been advanced through reclassification so as to deplete them as skill men.

"I think," he continued, "there has been and still is charges and collected for certain commodities unreasonable and unfair, if not extortionate, prices. They apply to particular places and persons."

Vast Majority Fair

"The vast majority of business men and workmen are direct and fair, but there is and perhaps always will be a minority that ignore the principles of common honesty."

He urged the observance and enforcement of law be insisted upon throughout the world as a necessity to the improvement of the general situation.

The speaker asserted that one of the most hopeful signs of the times was the apparent disposition of the present administration at Washington to aid rather than obstruct the national and legitimate progress of business.

TWISTER SWEEPS IOWA COMMUNITY

One Man Killed from Tornado Hurls Motor from Road; Bride Badly Hurt

MASON CITY, Ia., (AP)—Buildings on a half dozen farms were blown away and at least one man lost his life in a tornado which late yesterday afternoon swept a path through a quarter of a mile wide between Plymouth and Manly. Wires are down and it has been impossible to learn the full extent of the damage wrought.

Frank McCall, of Tapoka, Kansas, bridge laborer, was killed instantly when the car driven by County Engineer P. H. Lyford of Worth county, was picked up by the twister and hurled fifty feet. His body was crushed. Lyford and a Mexican passenger in the car escaped with minor injuries.

Mrs. Art Dohr, bride of two weeks, probably die of injuries she suffered when the farm home on which her place was lifted up and set down in a nearby farm, but there was no loss of stock, although the barn which housed most of it was carried 30 feet and totally wrecked.

The wind missed Manchester, passing to the north.

His nearest competitor was Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, who received more than 10,000 votes.

Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein organization, was elected.

WITH DECLARES POLES FORBIT 'MORAL RIGHTS'

FRIEBURG, Baden, (AP)—Chancellor Joseph Wirth declared here yesterday that the Poles, through their recent insurrection, had forfeited their "moral right" to the plebiscite area of Upper Silesia. He declared a recent assertion by Premier Brand of France that Silesia had been "voluntarily annexed" by the Germans six centuries ago.

The Poles have no historic claim to Upper Silesia, said the chancellor, "nor can the German plebiscite majority of almost 225,000 be disregarded."

C., (AP)—Attorney General Daugherty recommended today to the supreme court that Federal Receiver Delano, in charge of the Red River oil fields, be authorized to issue original suit between Texas and Oklahoma, be instructed to stop further drilling of wells, except where required to hold leases, until the oil market recovers.

Railroads Plan Rate Cuts To Meet Water Competition

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., (AP)—Transcontinental and connecting railroads have combined in a Chicago conference to effect lower rates on export and import freight in order to meet water competition through the Panama canal. G. W. Luce, freight traffic manager for the route, Pacific coast, advised his office here in a telegram from Chicago today.

The railroads in the same conference last Tuesday decided to recommend to the Interstate Commerce commission the reduction of rates on commodities originating at Pacific, Atlantic and other overseas points. Today's decision covers freight brought into the various ports from other countries or countries to be shipped to the United States. Luce did not indicate the percentage of decrease that the lines would ask for.

Formulation of the new rates would put the east and west coast on an equality in regard to the shipment and receipt of foreign goods, officials of the Southern Pacific company announced for a class of commodities included in today's decision, it was stated by Luce.

ORIENTALS WIN CONTENTION IN POISONING CASE

Native Medicine Men Overcome Objections of Western Trained Physicians and Boil Bones of Man Believed Murdered

SIANGHAI, (AP)—How justice is administered in a Chinese criminal court was illustrated in an interesting fashion at the trial of a locally celebrated murder case that was held the last week in Nantoo, the most important city in a large part of the city of Shanghai.

Public Views Post-Mortem

For three days preceding the trial, Chinese thousands, lugged off by auto rickshaws, watched the progress of a post mortem at which meat and wash dishes. The post mortem was performed by Chinese physicians, several trained in American and other occidental schools and others who had received their medical education in China. It was a case of suspected poisoning, and while the western-trained physicians insisted that the stomach contents with their contents should be sent to a laboratory for analysis, the purely Chinese doctors clung to an ancient belief and declared that the question at issue could be proved by boiling the bones of the deceased in a certain manner. The Chinese doctors carried their point.

Charged with Patricide

Chang Shen Sung, the accused, was arrested while dining with their contents. It was charged that thirteen months ago at the little Chinese river village of Pootung, a mile down the Wangpoo from Shanghai, he poisoned his father, Chang Ke-yung, a wealthy rice merchant. On application of the Chinese authorities of Nantoo the prisoner was turned over to the Chinese police and a trial was held the next day.

The hearing took place in an open lot, with the court sitting beneath a mat shed, while Chinese thousands, held back by soldiers and stout bamboo stockades, looked on avidly through the hearing. In a prominent place in front of the court, huge iron kettles simmered over an open fire, in which had been placed the bones of the alleged victim as the Chinese doctors had ordered.

Court Urges Confession

The hearing was lengthy and the court took less than three recesses through the day. The procedure consisted almost wholly of questioning the accused and urging him to confess that he committed the crime. This questioning was done by the court, public officials and two Chinese procurators in turn and through the whole business the intense interrogation of the witness in matters held firmly to a denial of his guilt.

The Chinese doctors had declared that the deceased's stomach contents, including the bones, would be made evident by the presence of discoloration on the bones after the boiling process. Again and again this was borne in upon the jury, who were told that if he were guilty the bones which exposed would surely prove it.

Bones Bring Admission

It was when the court set for the fourth time that the lid was removed from the kettles and the contents were placed on a long table. Numerous dark spots were seen on many of the bony parts. One of the procurators, pointing to these marks, turned to the agitated prisoner. "Did you poison your father?" he thundered. The prisoner shrank back. "I did it, I poisoned him," he confessed.

Whooping Cough

This is a very dangerous disease, particularly to children under five years of age, but when no paregoric, codeine or other opiate is given, it may be cured by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Most people believe that it must run its course, not knowing that the time is very much shortened, and that there is little danger from the disease when this remedy is given. It has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, with pronounced success. It is safe and pleasant to take.—adv.

PAST WEEK HAS BEEN WONDERFUL FOR STATE CROPS

Weather Bureau Reporter Tells of Progress Made Even in Face of Daily Rains

Unsettled weather, with almost daily rains, prevailed during most of the week over southern Idaho. The rain fell over the entire state in the region and in some localities it was unusually heavy for the season. In the Snake and Snake valley occasional rains fell. Temperatures were seasonable or a little above in all districts. The information contained in the weekly bulletin for the United States department of agriculture, weather bureau, at Boise. The statement is issued by Clinton E. Newport, state meteorologist. Continuing the report the official reports are as follows: It was a wonderful growing week. Abundant moisture with favorable temperatures gave impetus to the growth of all vegetation. Pasture and range grasses grew luxuriantly. Alfalfa made rapid progress and farmers are looking to the first cutting of the crop. Wheat, both winter and spring, did well. Early winter wheat is heading in some of the northern counties. Sugar beets are coming along in the north. In the Snake valley all crops responded to the exceptionally favorable conditions that prevailed.

Work Held Up. In the south portion of the state most farm work was brought to a standstill by the frequent rains, but farmers are not at all discouraged. In fact all reasonable farm work is well in hand, except spraying for the cedar and locust, which is possibly a bit behind on account of wind and rain. In the northern counties farm work was little interrupted by rain and good progress was made. Corn from all the grazing districts is heading. The exceptionally fine condition of the range. Feed is abundant and range stock of all kinds are thriving. Lambing is drawing to a close in Spencer county. The percentage of increase is high and the lambs are in good condition, having suffered little or not at all from the storms of the past week.

From the Fields. Twin Falls County, Twin Falls—Cloudy and rainy greater part of week; most work at standstill; lots of potatoes yet to be planted; heavy apple bloom in years; sugar beet prospects never better; growers looking for bigger tonnage than ever before.

Oakley, Cassia County—Rains of this past week immensely beneficial to range and crops; crops are fine; prospects good; range best in years; sheep and cattle good; lambing good progress.

Idaho Falls, Blaine County—Considerable rain with moderately high temperatures made very favorable conditions for growth of vegetation; corn heading; winter wheat and alfalfa looking well.

Dietrich, Lincoln County—Warm showers the past week very beneficial to all crops; grain practically all sown and coming up to good stand; plenty of range feed and stock in fair to good condition.

Lava Hot Springs, Blaine County—Fine growing week; crops looking good; beets all planted and coming up to good stand; potato planting being rushed.

Blackfoot, Blingham County—Week rather wet; everything growing rapidly; range good; potato planting, although delayed by rains middle of the week, is well along.

Chokoma, Bonanza County—Farm work delayed by rain; seedling of spring wheat well under way; some potatoes planted; range, pastures, and range stock in good condition.

Burley, Carina County—Fine rain 15th and 16th helped all crops, especially wheat and beets; beets coming up fine; potato planting about completed.

CALIFORNIA CREW SKIPPER EXPECTS TO WALLOP TIGERS

Capt. Rogers, of Western College Souther, Confident of Beating Princeton

PRINCETON, N. J., (AP)—Captain J. M. Rogers of the University of California crew, now in training on Lake Carnegie for its race with the Princeton varsity eight, June 4, joyfully stated today that after working with the crew for a week, he had come to the conclusion that the Tiger crew was about as good as the University of Washington eight, which the Californians meet by three feet in a three-mile race this spring. He was expecting a very hard race, he said, and was confident that his boat would win. The Californians have been in Princeton more than a week and are becoming accustomed to the eastern climate. The contest will be the Blue and Gold's first attempt at short distances. This year's race was about as close as their racing style but by the time of the race they expect to have become entirely accustomed to the distance and to be prepared to give the Tigers stiff opposition.

Brief Bits of Sport

A record for hitting flies may have been made in the game between Dodgers and Giants on May 7. Twenty Dodgers were retired on fly catches.

The New York club has released Bob Grody, recruit pitcher, to Waterbury (Conn.) of the Eastern league. The Giants picked Grody of the New York lots as a bright prospect, but he failed to come through.

Dutch Ruelter in his first out against the Reds as a Brooklyn pitcher, beat his old team, The Dodgers came back and beat Babe Marquand in the next game of the series. Who's money now, Robinson or Pat Moran.

The Cincinnati Club finally induced St. Paul to let go of Dutch Ehardt, the big Chicago scrapper who had refused to join the Reds. He has been pitching for an independent team in Chicago all spring. Pat Moran thinks he has possibilities.

Commissioner Landis reinstated Junior Stanley Baumgardner on May 9 and he attempted to pitch for the Phillies the next day. The Cubs soon jumped him out of the box. Then on the ineligible list, Baumgardner was being in Pully uniform all season.

After going 21 games without striking out Elmer Stephenson of the Cleveland Indians was fanned by Jim Shaw in the game of May 10 in the second inning.

The Chicago White Sox have returned Joe Morris (Bennett) to the Tulsa Western league club. Manager Gleason then made up his mind Joe would not do.

The St. Louis Browns have released Pitcher Nick Collup to the Louisville club. Pitcher George Boehler will go to the Tulsa club. The Browns will dispose of another pitcher and then be down to the player limit of 25 men.

They poke a good deal of fun at Branch Rickey's idea of giving black-banned players a baseball, but it seems that Tex Speaker uses some sort of system like that for coaching his Indians on defense plays—and Speaker is rated a pretty smart manager.

The St. Louis Browns got but three hits in the game with the Athletics on May 11. Williams got two of them in two times at bat and scored the only run of the game. The Athletics got but four off Shocker and Dykes got two of these.

Red flags were hoisted above several buildings, but when the radicals attempted to force their way into the churches, the populace resisted so strongly that the radicals withdrew. RAIL OFFICIAL MAKES FREIGHT RATES DEFENSE

Santa Fe Vice-President Says Existing Tariffs Do Not Show Unreasonable Relation of Delivered Goods Price

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The freight rate does not show any unreasonable relation to the delivered price of goods and it cannot be shown that in any of the territories it is preventing the re-shipment of industrial operations or otherwise prohibiting movement, Edward Chambers, vice-president of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe declared today before the senate interstate commerce committee in its investigation of the railroad situation.

"Fluctuations in the price of bituminous coal during the past two or three years," Mr. Chambers said, "have ranged greater than the entire freight rate."

Out Does Not Stimulate

Readjustment downward of freight rates on lumber from the Pacific coast, he said, has not resulted in a stimulation of traffic and existing rates on coal and grain have not reduced shipments of those commodities.

"The rates are increased by the interstate commerce commission on lumber from the Pacific coast territory to Chicago and the west," he explained, "were recently readjusted to fit competitive commercial conditions. In the Mississippi river from 80c per hundred to 75c, and to Kansas City and Omaha from 75c to 60 1/2c. The rate to St. Paul and Minneapolis remaining unchanged at 65 1/2c. From the producing territory intermediate to the Pacific coast, the relationships which had been shown out of line by the percentage increase were restored. This adjustment is reasonably satisfactory to the interested shippers, and lumber is moving under the rates to the extent the markets will take."

Shippers Disappointed

The reports received indicate the Pacific coast lumber shippers are rather disappointed in the effect the reduced rates had upon the movement. It is no better now than it was before the rates were reduced. The southern and gulf lumber shippers advise of a slight improvement in the demand, but generally the conditions in the common markets are the same in respect to the southern and gulf lumber as prevail on the Pacific coast lumber.

"We have almost completed the readjustment of the grain and grain products rates at the different primary markets and at the gulf and Atlantic ports for export. In this readjustment some reductions had to be made."

WHEAT PRICE HOLDS OWN

Word of Break in Foreign Exchange Offsets Other Factors

CHICAGO, (AP)—Although as a result of general rallies, the wheat market today underwent a moderate decline, prices later receded a quick advance. As a result of a break in the price of wheat with eastern connections had much to do with the sudden reversal. Besides, strength shown by the corn market acted as a handicap on the wheat bears. Opening prices, which ranged from 3-4 to 2c lower, with May $1.00 and July $1.20 to 1-2c, were followed by a rise to well above yesterday's finish.

Subsequently, word of a violent break in foreign exchange turned the wheat market downward, more than offsetting news that France had authorized unrestricted importation of wheat and that President Harding was about to sign the emergency tariff bill. Prices closed nervous at the same as yesterday's finish to 1-1/4c lower, May $1.00 3/4 to $1.07 and July $1.27 1/4 to $1.27 3/4.

Decreased offerings from the country had a bullish effect on corn. In addition, rains promised to delay arrivals. After opening unchanged to 3-8c higher, including July at 52 1/2 to 53 1/2c, the market scored decided gains all around.

Big shipping sales of late were a factor in preventing any sharp retreat. The close was steady, 3-4 to 7-8c to 1-1/2c net higher, with July 64 5-8 to 64 5-8@3-4c.

Stalls hardened with other cereals, starting unchanged to 1-2c lower, July 40 1/2 to 40 3/4c and then making a material upturn.

Lower quotations on hogs weakened provisions.

New York Stock Market
 NEW YORK, (AP)—Shorts extended their commitments in the stock market today, basing their operations on the further absence of support, the continued firmness of money and unfavorable industrial conditions. Sales approximated 650,000 shares.

Dealings were dull with irregular price changes at opening of today's stock market. Attendance of members on the floor of the exchange was unusually light in anticipation of the impending protracted recess. Bulls and sells were the firm features, especially Chicago and Northwesters. St. Paul preferred Mexican and Pan-American Petroleum, General Asphalt and American Linseed, Motor, Tobacco, Sugar and Leather issues were lower by fractions to 1 cent. Preliminary exchange quotations on London indicated a further retreat. Brokers looked for continuance of yesterday's high money rate.

Lower quotations were established in the final hour, the 7 1/2 per cent call money rate precipitating further sell-off.

Rotting Superintendent, Hal G. Blue, Reviews Achievements of Past Seven Years

Reviewing the history of Twin Falls city schools in the past seven years, a period during which he has served as administering superintendent of education, Hal G. Blue, who retires this year, addressing the 1021 graduating class last night, related some interesting detail dealing with the schools, their development and standards of achievement. He congratulated the young men and women who have passed out of the schools upon advancement in educational matters, and paid tribute to the faculties that have been factors in bringing about the success of the Twin Falls educational institutions, adding a word of praise for the members of school boards, past and present.

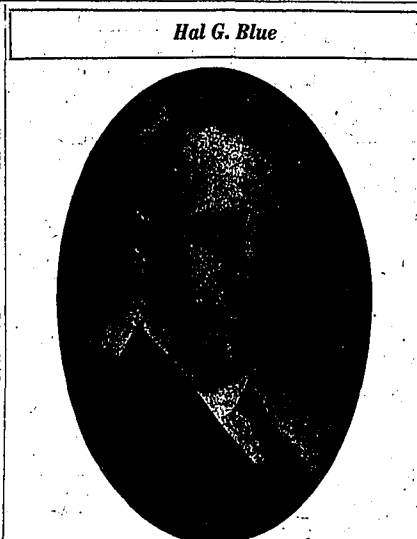

Mr. Blue's address formed an important part of the graduating program held at Lavering theater when 1021 students were presented with diplomas showing their high school work completed. In a way it was a farewell word to the students and to the people. In part, Mr. Blue spoke as follows:

"I think I may be pardoned if I take a bit of your time this evening to review in a brief way the past seven years. These seven years have passed all too quickly. As I look back over them tonight, it seems hardly possible that so short a time could have wrought such wonderful changes in our schools. What a factor of growth and change is involved in an enrollment of 1800 children seven years ago and enrollment of 3200 boys and girls today! What an element of development and expansion is involved in a teaching force seven years ago of 65 teachers and a monthly salary of $110 teachers! The Twin Falls schools have grown in a most wonderful and splendid way. With all modesty, I believe that our schools are better organized and administered, embody high standards of achievement and purpose. The young men and women who have passed out of our schools are taking their places in a most worthy way in the large universities of the west. The superintendent of schools, by virtue of his position, is the chief leader of the country. His leadership involving his judgments and his opinions is in the forefront in the trend to higher levels of educational growth and development. This is true not only with the community and the school board and the teachers behind his leadership, the superintendent can play a great and fundamental part in the growth of worthy achievement respecting the schools of the community. It has been so with my superior tendency during these last happy and eventful seven years.

Tribute to Teachers.
"I want to pay tribute to the Twin Falls teacher. She is an outstanding factor in the splendid achievements that have come to our schools. Her type with respect both to fine personal qualities and to effective teaching power has lent distinction to the Twin Falls schools. I challenge any community in America in host of a higher type of teacher. Extraordinary of purpose, devotion to high duty, and unflinching loyalty to the fine traditions of the teaching profession—these are the characteristics which make the distinctive way of the Twin Falls teacher. And, then, too, I want to pay tribute to those men with whom I have worked during the greater part of these seven years in the most intimate and helpful way. Mr. Nixon, Mr. Bryant and Mr. Clark were on the school board when I began my service and through their thoughtful and wise administration, Mr. Parish served considerably more than half my service and Mr. Blue has worked with me through a little less than half my administration. Without the vision that always guided these men in their work for the schools of the community, we could not have accomplished so much. With their faith and their trust in their belief in the ultimate purposes of a public school system, we could not have gone so far on our march to high achievement. Without the support of these men to follow the leadership of their superintendent, progress would have been impossible. To these men, I pay a just tribute.

To the People.
"And last of all, I want to pay a tribute to you—the community. And not only to the community as a whole, but to those fine institutions that have life in the community. The community has been so kind and so generous and so helpful. As I stand here tonight and survey the seven years that are ready to close, I somehow feel that there has come to this community a fine consciousness of things that are fundamental and enduring in the matter of educational opportunity for boys and girls. This community is a rich—I mean in the fine and spiritual qualities that lend beauty and wholesomeness to community life. What a wonderful place it is in which to live and work! What fine traditions are slowly taking root in the life texture of this community! What high idealism finds expression here in all sorts of worthy community endeavors! I pay tribute to this community so rich in the worthwhile things of life—so fortunate in its high type of citizenship.
"Of all the annual affairs that travel the circle of community life, none is so wholesome and uplifting as an occasion of this kind. It is here that one catches a glimpse of the community's ultimate goal. It is here that one touches in such a fine way the soul of the community. And if one has ears properly tuned, one can hear the heart throbs of the community in an occasion of this sort. We see and feel here

'PEGGY' JOYCE'S NAME IN TWIN FALLS COURT

Famous Much-Married Actress was Divorced Here by Archibald in 1914

That "Peggy" Joyce, actress, was defendant in a divorce action in Twin Falls in the year 1914 is a fact demonstrated by records of the Twin Falls district court. Decree of divorce was signed by Judge Charles G. Stockinger, then presiding jurist, and was made in favor of E. A. Archibald. This information came to light when yesterday W. O. Chapman, member of the law firm, Bothwell & Chapman, was called upon to provide a lawyer in Chicago facts concerning the Archibald divorce suit. The inquiry was made by Weymouth Kirkland, Mrs. Joyce's attorney in the J. Stanley Joyce divorce suit, on trial in Chicago at this time.

The records here show that the actress was married to Archibald, a traveling salesman, in Denver during the year 1910 in Salt Lake. She left him in Denver two years later and he obtained a divorce on the ground of desertion. He made headquarters at the Hotel Rogers while establishing the necessary two year's residence in this state. The decree was granted on default. Information relating to this divorce has also been placed in the hands of Mr. Joyce's attorneys by Walters & Hodgins.

RICKENBACKER COMES TO HALT

Postoffice Department Refuses American Ace Use of Plane From Omaha

OMAHA, Neb., (AP)—Eddie Rickenbacker, American ace, arrived here at 11:53 a. m., from Cheyenne, Wyo., in an air mailplane. Whether Rickenbacker will continue his flight to Washington from California depends upon the question of securing an airplane. The postoffice department declined to permit him to use an air mail plane from here. Later Rickenbacker decided to proceed to Chicago by air mail and attempt to get an army plane there. Travelling as a passenger, Rickenbacker left for Chicago at 1:13 p. m. in an air mail service plane piloted by W. C. Henson.

LEAVES WRECKED PLANE AT CHEYENNE LANDING FIELD

CHEYENNE, Wyo., (AP)—Eddie Rickenbacker, American ace, in the world war, resumed his transcontinental flight from this city at six o'clock this morning, as a passenger in a mail plane piloted by C. V. Pickett. At Omaha Rickenbacker intends to take command of the ship and drive to Washington arriving there in time for the banquet Saturday night. Before taking off this morning, Rickenbacker inspected the machine he wrecked last night. Examination of the ground where he landed gave evidence of a good landing made near the center of the field. After touching the ground his ship ran about eight hundred feet before it smashed into a gully wrecking his landing gear.

Officials declared today that the flaring "T" placed for guidance at the end of the field was improperly located, causing Rickenbacker to land his ship tail to the wind.

THE SLACKERS LISTS
The News today is publishing all of the lists so far made available by military authorities, of the names of men who were, according to public draft records for Idaho, classified and reported by the draft authorities as deserters from the military service during the world war. The lists are complete now only for eight Idaho counties.

The News does not vouch for the accuracy of these lists. It publishes them exactly as they are submitted by the military authorities, but it is not impossible, of course, that some names may be wrongly applied, since draft boards and military authorities are not more infallible than other humans.

In full appreciation of these facts, the News is prompted to assist in giving publicity to these lists by two considerations. The News is in hearty sympathy with the policy of proscribing those persons who, in full appreciation of the emergency, shirked and failed to fulfill their duty to the nation under whose protection they lived and prospered.

Furthermore, the News inclines to the opinion that whatever injustice may have been done by inclusion in these lists of the names of men who are classified as slackers and deserters through misapprehension and error, can best be corrected by presentation of the records as they stand so that the actual facts may be brought to light and the stain removed from names that are entitled to credit and honor.

The News will also have an opportunity to assist in presenting the facts where injustice may have been done in this manner.

Bull Republican: There are sure to be hard times in any business, and agriculture is no exception. But the real business men are not yet unwilling to use who both looks ahead and prepares ahead. He is the one we depend upon to prevent a calamity, and there are still many of his kind left. So we may safely predict that present conditions will not last long. Brighter days are just ahead. The man who attacks to the job now is the man who will cash in when the improvement comes.

Philadelphia Public Ledger: The report of the grain marketing committee of the American Farm Bureau Federation has been made and adopted. There is nothing radical, bolshevistic or dangerous about it. It strikes, or at least strikes a terrible blow to grain exchange and to speculation. The farmer insists that he should have more than thirty-four cents of the consumer's dollar and that, the exchange and the millmen must take less. This is the sanest and most ambitious effort that the farmer has made for himself.

National Republican: The American people will go the limit in the effort to end war as a relic of barbarism. But they fully realize that the danger of war will be increased, rather than diminished, by disarming the one great power in the world that is organized for peace, while other nations, organized for war, and prepared for war, are increasing their armaments. This is demonstrated by proceedings at the peace conference, and by the continuous war program of bolshevistic Russia since the peace conference; to give the million men who take arms, who would overrun his country while other nations are armed or arming is lacking either in love of country or in common sense.

Evils of Constipation
Perhaps the most serious of the diseases caused by constipation is appendicitis. If you would avoid this dangerous disease keep your bowels regular. For this purpose Chamberlain's Tablets are excellent, easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.—adv.

Lumbago
This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. F. J. Dann, Brookport, N. Y., writes: "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it I was flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."

First Chisel was bronze. The chisel was a perfect tool 2,600 years ago, though made of bronze, and therefore somewhat less efficient for cutting.

How to Succeed.
Orlison Sweet Shonken, well known as an apostle of the cult of optimism, cheerfulness and business efficiency, gives the following formula for success: "Exactly in proportion to the degree in which you increase your self confidence by the affirmation of what you are determined to be and to do, your ability will increase."
