PROSPECTS FOR 19TH DISTRICT SEEM BRIGHTER

Increase in Building Activities and Forecast of Big Winter Wheat Crop Outstanding Developments of Month

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—Increase in building activities, particularly in southern California, and the government forecast of a big winter wheat crop of 60,000,000 bushels, the largest in the history of the twelfth federal reserve district, were the outstanding developments in the district during the past month, according to a statement made public here today by John P. Elin, San Francisco, federal reserve agent.

Building Shows Increase

"In the district generally," the statement said, "the volume of building permits was 48.3 per cent larger than in April, 1920, and their value 27.4 per cent greater. The smaller increase in the value of permits is due to decreased building costs, which are estimated to be from 8 to 50 per cent less than a year ago."

Regarding winter wheat, the statement said, "the condition in the district May 1 was slightly above the ten-year average, and predicted a total production of 66,654,000 bushels if average conditions prevail until harvest time, compared with 49,000,000 bushels for 1920. There is an abundant average of 28 per cent in California and 10 per cent in Arizona."

Lumber Industry Active

More than a seasonal improvement of activity was reported in the lumber industry. Seventy-five per cent of the mills are now operating, it was declared, compared to 40 to 50 per cent earlier in the year, and demand for nearly all grades of lumber is reported increasing. "April production of lumber," the statement declared, "was reported to be 200,000,000 feet, the district, compared with 200,000,000 feet for the preceding four weeks. April orders exceeded the April cut by 11.9 per cent."

"The present market for lumber of all kinds is the best in several years. A noticeable demand in intercontinental shipments to Atlantic seaboard ports is being reported, and western lumber is resuming competition with southern woods in the territory north of the Ohio and east of the Mississippi. Lower price levels have accompanied the increase in activity, and normal levels of production and the average wholesale price for soft wood is slightly more than 50 per cent below the 1920 level. In the west, the volume of wages of lumber workers from 25 to 40 per cent is reported."

Metal Production Lower

"The logging industry has not improved in volume with the mill industry, and the latter is expected to be correspondingly increased in activity."

ARMY DEVELOPS RIFLE TO PIERCE TANK PLATE

Organic Officer Tells Engineers of New and More Powerful Machine Gun

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., (AP)—The United States army has developed a 50-caliber machine gun capable of firing a bullet which, at 200 yards, will penetrate the one inch armor plate of battle tanks. The new gun, developed by the Ordnance department, announced Friday at the annual convention of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers at Rock Island, is a corporation for exposing the new weapon is an outgrowth of the war, he said, when fighting tanks were unarmored to resist the 30-caliber rifle of the rifles and machine guns then in use.

The 50-caliber machine gun fires a bullet weighing 800 grains, as compared to the 150 grains of the standard 30-caliber ammunition. The 50-caliber cartridges weigh one quarter of a pound each and the heat generated by their discharge is so great that the barrel must be cooled by three quarts of water for every 100 rounds fired.

The gun is modeled along the lines of the Browning machine gun developed during the war and weighs 65 pounds, exclusive of the two gallons of water in the jacket. The gun has a muzzle velocity of 2,700 feet per second, an effective range of 1,000 to seven thousand yards and an extreme range of from 8000 to 10,000 yards.

IRISH VICEROY REPORTED AGAINST BLACK AND TANS

Indications Point to Imminent Changes in Control of the Auxiliary Force

DUBLIN, (AP)—The statement is made in a London dispatch that Viscount Fitzalan (formerly Lord Feroz Tappan) the new viceroy for Ireland, obtained from the cabinet a condition of his acceptance of the viceroyalty, an undertaking that the inception of his regime would be marked by the withdrawal of the auxiliary police, called in Ireland the "Black and Tans."

In official quarters in Dublin this statement is not confirmed. But it is generally taken to point to some change in the control of the auxiliary force. Notably the force is composed of men who are supposed to be cadets for the Royal Irish constabulary, now awaiting appointment as district inspectors, and is therefore technically part of the police. But it is not controlled by the hands of the Royal Irish constabulary and has its own commander-in-chief in General Tudor. It is composed exclusively of ex-officers who served in the war, and numbers about 1500 men. It is not believed here that in present conditions it is likely to be disbanded.

THREE AUSTRIAN PROVINCES WILL VOTE ON FUSION

Stalsburg, Styria and Upper Austria to Follow Example of Tyrol in Balloting on Proposed Union with Germany

VIENNA, (AP)—Three more provinces will initiate the Tyrol and hold sentimental referendums on the question of the fusion of Austria with Germany. Salzburg, Styria and Upper Austria have set May 29 as the tentative date for the ballot and it is believed that Carinthia also will fall into line. Vorarlberg, the westernmost of the states last summer voted practically unanimously to join Switzerland.

The almost unanimous vote for fusion in the Tyrol on April 24 was a surprise even to the most ardent of nationalists. They had estimated an 80 to 90 per cent favorable ballot and it is considered that the excess represented an element of those hard-headed mountaineers who voted simply because of the entente prohibition against the referendum.

Fusionists Gain Ground.

The movement toward a union with Germany, born almost immediately after the creation of the republic, has grown steadily and these spots of the independent referendums are the outgrowth of the failure of the effort to force the central government to defy the entente and order a nationwide referendum.

According to foreign observers who have kept a watchful eye on the agitation there is no doubt that the total vote will show heavy support for fusion. They do not share the belief professed by the opponents of the movement that if the vote actually meant action instead of a sentimental expression of opinion it would not carry. On the contrary they express the belief that it is a genuine and earnest thought and desire on the part of the mass of the people and they are motivated by three controlling things.

First is the firmly rooted conviction that Austria cannot survive politically or economically as an independent state. The economic arguments have been set before the world officially and unofficially for the past two years but the political phase of the matter was brought to a focus by the former Emperor Charles' recent attempt to ruin the throne in Hungary.

Neighbors' Threats Figure.

The threat of Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Rumania to restore to Austria an inevitable occupation of Austria along with it. They realize the utter impotence of the little ruined republic against its powerful Slav neighbors and the present political situation in central Europe does not calm their apprehensions.

As part of the stronger German state, they feel that they would be secure against any aggression and at the same time obtain advantages of a commercial nature which they cannot hope to gain independently. The belief of Austria in the rehabilitation of Germany is abiding and they wish to share it.

Behind this motive is said to lie the natural racial and language tie, coupled with the dread that Slav institutions will supplant their Germanic traditions and culture.

Propagandists Active.

Another important factor in the well organized and effective German propaganda. Directed by north German and financed by them, it has evoked the sympathy in the Tyrol vote. The Vienna opposition press openly charged that four million marks were spent on that referendum alone and that as much more may be needed will be forthcoming to keep the moving going.

Coupled with this charge is the name of Hugo Blome, the great German capitalist, whose recent business invasion of Austria ranging from purchases of newspapers in Vienna and every provincial capital through many enterprises to that of the famous Montagne corporation, one of the largest in Europe, has had first page newspaper place for months.

CALIFORNIANS ARE DECLARED FINE LOOKERS

Admirers of Golden Gate Rowing Crew Say "Eight Perfect Specimens"

PRINCETON, N. C., (AP)—Admirers of the University of California crew are training here for the race with Princeton June 4, have pronounced the men "eight perfect physical specimens." Those who have watched them work declare the prophecy made some time ago by a college professor that all the country's athletes would in a few years be produced by the west, is being fulfilled. They say no eastern college could produce men possessing the physique and general make-up of the westerners.

Those who have watched them work declare they are the best rowers they have not yet worked down to racing weight and refuse to give out statistics regarding their weight and height, but it is evident that they are considerably heavier than any eight they will meet during their stay in the east.

The Pacific coast men, are, for the most part, strapping blonds and each afternoon in their shell aparts through the water they give an exhibition of shoulder and leg muscle work that calls for the expressions of admiration and wonder from the Princeton undergraduates who gather to watch them.

The Gold and Blue use a stroke quite different from anything ever seen on the lake. Called the "California" stroke, it differs from the usual stroke in that they pull the water then to use a deliberate stroke, and they give the ship with an arm pull, rather than with a leg drive and pull. This stroke is an admirable one for the long distances in which the westerners are accustomed and will make them stand contenders in the three mile event of the Poughkeepsie regatta, which they will enter two weeks after their contest with the Tigers.

The latter, however, will be over a 1 1/2 mile course and the Princeton rowing authorities are confident that their own longer stroke will be more advantageous in the shorter distance.

Members of the Princeton undergraduate coaching staff will arrive from the west tomorrow to put on the finishing touches to his crew's condition and will take charge of the party which has so far been in the hands of Captain Rogers.

Couple of Punches to Make Champion of French Fighter

Descamps Tells How it will be Done; "Boom, Boom, and Jack sees Gone"

MANHASSET, N. Y., (AP)—To be manager of the world's heavyweight boxing champion has been the ambition of Francois Descamps since his first laid eyes on Georges Carpentier. Now that the expert has been within reach through one more victory he is what he himself calls "near parteeur out."

"Our Georges," says Francois, "he is one, what you call sweet fighter. He means not get see influence, set is had—par bon—and so you see we will not let 'im box wen see wonder it is cool."

"If we be most particular and avoiding is parait, den you see, on evening the 2 set see 'boom, boom, boom' he see gone."

The challenger today continued real business-like training. He arose with the sun and went to the road for a long grind.

EXPERTS UNABLE TO PICK WINNER EAST AND WEST

Broad Question is Involved in Meeting on Cambridge Athletic Field

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., (AP)—East or west, that was the broad question of destination of the championship track and field trophy of the intercollegiate A. A. A. involved today in the annual title games.

The University of California against the colleges of the east, with the westerners well prepared by qualification in the trials yesterday for an assault on the championship that has been kept in the east during the entire 35 years of the game. Whether any of the eastern colleges with forty or more athletes in some cases could match the points to exceed the aggregate of the 14 colleges who came from the other coast was a subject widely discussed.

Stanford had athletes at the stadium ready to rival the leaders, while the team was regarded as likely to finish with a high average of attainment in the final figures. It could not hope to rival the leaders, Wells, who placed in both the 220-yard hurdles and 100-yard dash yesterday, withdrew from the latter competition today.

The University of California athletes prepared to go to the stadium this afternoon angle of success. Dr. Walter Christie, the California coach, formerly mentor of Princeton and other teams in the east, said this morning that it would be no surprise if his boys carried off the honors of the meeting, yet he did not wish to claim the championship in advance.

DEMPESEY ROUNDS TO FORM RAPIDLY, REST IS ORDERED

Manager of Champion Tells His Man to Lay Off from Work for Nearly a Week

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., (AP)—Will Jack Dempsey sounding into fighting condition almost too rapidly, Jack Keenan his manager, today advised that give the title holder four days of complete rest beginning next Tuesday. This plan is in line with the training camp followed while conditioning himself for the battle with Jess Willard in Toledo two years ago.

"Dempsey could get himself ready to defend his title within six days," Keenan said today. "A lay off next week will put him on edge for the final three weeks of training."

"I want to add a little weight to him as part of the ready for the serious business of training. He will scale around the 195 mark now, and I hope he'll weigh around 200 a week from today."

Martin Burke, the New Orleans heavyweight, probably will work with Dempsey tomorrow or Monday, Burke went to New York today to purchase a headgear to protect himself.

Georges is Sweet but Women Do Get His Little Nanny

French Boxer Tries to be Nice, but "Temperament" Must Have Its Fling

MANHASSET, N. Y., (AP)—Georges Carpentier has temperament of the sort usually attributed to the ebullient and the language of martial comedy. When in the mood of the gay boulevardier the challenger is wont to stick his blonde pompadour, smile and be nice for his many feminine visitors. The women who are admitted to the camp gate entrance in various sorts of ways. For instance: "Oh, I must see him. I am a cousin of the man who took him falling last Sunday," or "My husband is at police headquarters," and "We are sisters of the lady who owns this place."

There are days that Georges would be alone. Yesterday at the gymnasium he spent three strange and became angry. "Allez," he commanded. "Allez, tonne de suite," which means get out quick.

They vanished. Georges calmed and his work began.

Brief Bits of Sport

No game at Lincoln park last night rain.

The tilt has been postponed to 2 p. m. Monday.

Having won the world's championship middle title from Ed Lewis a few weeks ago it was not proposed to let anybody take the bubble from Zybyszko so early in the game as Thursday.

"Zyb" was tackled by Joe Stecher in Kansas City and the bulky Pole flopped the Nebraska in six minutes short of two hours.

Press associations carried only the meager reports of the contest, apparently having little interest in the wrestling game at present.

East and West are at it today on track and field in Cambridge, Mass. California athletes are combating the easterners and experts are thus far unable to pick the margin winner.

The Cleveland Club finally induced the management of the White Sox to waive on Louis Guisto and he was shipped back to Oakland last week. Guisto made a personal appeal to Ed Dwyer, it is said, explaining that his health would not permit him to play in the city. He never has recovered from the gasping he got in France.

It was Bernie Boland's luck, as a member of the St. Louis Browns, to make his first start against his old team mates, the Tigers. He relieved Colton in the third inning and went well until the big bludge in the eighth, when in a gathering storm the Tigers found him for four runs, which he never, were wiped out by the lightning bolt that broke up the game with startling suddenness and temporarily put a number of players to sleep.

The Cincinnati Club has sent pitcher Leo Sciffert, the Western Canada recruit, to Indianapolis, as part payment for Clint Boggus.

"Salt Lake doesn't miss Sturdy" is the way the boosters of Ted Jordanian, claim that player's class on first base for Davey Cavath's feet.

Lee Dempsey, who was split by Beattie Des Moines on an optional agreement, has been returned to the Seattle Club. The Des Moines Club will use the veteran Danny Mueller as its first baseman.

Since the Coast League schedule calls for Salt Lake to make only one trip to Los Angeles to play the Angels the two teams faced a strenuous session of double headers last week, trying to work off all the games of the series.

The Coast League clubs compromised on the matter of increasing player limit, fixing the number at 20 that may be carried between May 1 and September 15. The rule provided for 18, Salt

Shoely - Johnson Combination Full Record-Making Double-Play Against Detroit

CHICAGO, (AP)—Shoely and Johnson, two of the Salt Lake City players obtained this spring by the White Sox, pulled a snappy double play yesterday in one of the speediest base runners in baseball, Ty Cobb. There was a Tiger on first base and Cobb hit a sharp grounder toward first. Shoely picked up the ball cleanly and snapped it to Johnson on second. He returned it as Shoely jumped back to the bag in time to catch the speedy Cobb.

BOMAN SUGGESTS OLIVE TO BAILOR'S TROUSERS DISCOVERY

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—A report from Admiral Hoeman, commanding the Pacific fleet, of the finding of a pair of navy blue trousers in what appeared to be an abandoned camp near the old Mexican barracks on Guadalupé island and which, it was thought might possibly have belonged to one of the men on the naval tug Conestoga, missing since March 25, was received at the navy department today. The report said the trousers were marked "E. J. Dastorosa" but that first files failed to trace their owner to a man by that name.

The Ford Model T One Ton Truck is in reality a necessity to the wide awake retail grocer, not only for the economic solution of the delivery problem, but for the bringing of goods from the docks or stations to his place of business, and for traversing the country and bringing in produce. For these reasons the Ford One Ton Truck with its splendid manganese bronze worm-drive, heavy Ford Model T Motor, strong Vanadium steel frame, has been serving in every line of business activity, and we have yet to hear the first complaint as to rear axle trouble or motor trouble. It has the lowest purchase price on the market, and the cost for operating and maintaining is exceedingly small. In fact, the Ford One Ton Truck has become a business necessity. Leave your order with us without delay. We will give you prompt attention and assure you reasonably prompt delivery, and give you an after service that will insure your continuous operation of the Truck.

NEW PROPOSAL GIVEN BRITISH COAL DIGGERS

Lloyd George Meets Operators and Employes in Separate Sessions to Present Government's Plan to End Strike

LONDON, (AP)—The prime minister, Mr. Lloyd George, again met the executive committee of the miners union in his official residence in Downing street this morning, in an effort to find a solution of the coal strike which has been in progress two months. The conference was not productive of any immediate progress toward a settlement, but the miners' representatives arranged to meet in their headquarters to discuss Mr. Lloyd George's statement.

The prime minister is reported to have told the miners' delegates that unless an agreement could be reached by the miners and the mine owners, legislation would be introduced to compel both sides to resort to arbitration.

Later Mr. Lloyd George met the mine owners. Proposals were handed to both parties for a temporary arrangement leading to a permanent scheme, the temporary proposals provide for a gradual scaling down of wages until they reach an economic level which the industry is capable of sustaining, based on the grant of 100,000,000 pounds from the exchequer and surrender by the owners of the standard profits for three months in the districts in which government assistance is required.

Government Demands Agreement.

The government grant, however, will not be given until arrangements for continuing the agreement have been arrived at between the contending parties.

With regard to a permanent scheme, it is pointed out that if the parties are unable to agree on terms for a continuous period, the matter must be decided by one of three methods:

1. A national wages board to be composed of an equal number of owners and miners shall be established under a neutral chairman.
2. A tribunal of three persons shall be established to decide the matters at issue.
3. The questions in dispute shall be referred to a single arbitration decision of a body or person selected and shall be binding on both parties for a year, thereafter, subject to three months notice by either side.

Today's Markets

WHEAT RESUMES ADVANCE

Closing Hour Rally Sends Prices from 1 1/2 to 2 3/4 Higher

CHICAGO, (AP)—Scent trading with rather nervous price fluctuations in some options marked the initial stages of the board of trade markets today. July wheat started 1/2 to 3/4 higher at $1.27 3/4 to 1.28 1/2. Bidding by professionals increased the upward tendency but selling for eastern accounts brought the price down again. Trade in May was very light. The first transactions were 1-1/4 to 1-1/2 lower at $1.05 1/2, but a few offers to buy quickly put the market at $1.07 which was around yesterday's close. Evening up traders for the double holiday and month end dominated the market.

Air isn't good enough for your ice cream —not since the discovery of the wonderful new "CARBONATING" PROCESS. Now, the AIR now has to be driven out of the ice cream—in the "Freezers"—and replaced by atmosphere which is 100 per cent pure; A HUNDRED TIMES PURER THAN AIR!

Think of it — A HUNDRED TIMES PURER THAN THE AIR YOU BREATHE! That's PURITY for you—REAL PURITY! It is the final step in giving you PERFECT ice cream. For, not only is it PURE, it actually TASTES BETTER; actually is MORE WHOLESOME; and actually KEEPS BETTER than ordinary ice cream!

Our dealers have it for you—and ONLY our dealers, for we are the ONLY ice cream makers in this city permitted to use the wonderful, new "CARBONATING" PROCESS.

APPEALED CASE TRIAL ON IN DISTRICT COURT

Wife and Babe Prominent at Grenz Inquiry in Theft-Charge

Fred Grenz, auto-mechanic and garage operator, of South Park addition, is on trial before a jury in the district court today, answering a state charge of complicity in the theft of a car. The case is taken up by the district tribunal, before Judge Babcock, on appeal from the probate court. It is specifically stated in the information filed by Frank L. Stephan, who was implicated with Clyde Wright and Edgar Bykes, as an accomplice in the theft of a Fiat fire from an automobile belonging to William W. Hall, that the theft occurred on the night of January 28, Wright and Bykes pleading guilty to the charge lodged against them. The men served terms of 30 days each in the county jail. In their testimony they are said to have implicated Grenz. On the witness stand this morning Bykes declared Grenz was his neighbor in the city. It was stated also that the Fiat was stolen on his suggestion. "Grenz said he wanted a Fiat fire, and told us where to get it," said Bykes in his testimony. Wright testified similarly earlier in the trial. Mrs. Grenz, with her six-week-old baby, is attending the trial, occupying a seat at the left of her husband, and Frank L. Stephan is prosecuting, with E. V. Larson defending the case.

OVERLAND CAR PRICES MATERIALLY SMASHED

Rock bottom prices for Overland automobiles to take effect here on June 1st. This announcement was made yesterday by John E. Taylor, local distributor of Willard-Overland products, following receipt of telegraphic advices from the Willard-Overland factory at Toledo, announcing sweeping reductions to $895 on the Overland touring, and $805 on the Willard-Knight touring, other reductions in proportion.

Last September the price of the Overland was smashed from $1205 to $895. June 1st the price is again cut, this time from $895 to $805, a sweeping reduction of $200 more. The new price is $150 less than the lowest price for which this car was ever sold, and is made possible, according to John N. Willy, by the quantity sale of this popular car, which already has passed the 140,000 mark, and by the anticipation of great savings in manufacturing cost through increased velume and increased factory efficiency. The new Overland prices compared with the old are as follows: Touring, $895, formerly $985. Roadster, $695, formerly $895. Coupe, $1000, formerly $1425. Sedan, $1275, formerly $1475. John N. Willy, recently returned from a trip in which he visited more than 3000 Overland dealers, states: "The public wants to buy automobiles, but the buying public has been staid in the hope that price cuts might be made. We have decided to anticipate every possible saving from material savings and from the savings of volume production, and we are putting our prices at rock bottom June 1st. We are going the whole route right now. The price is the low price which we have long anticipated, we might say, day reach on the Overland car, and the car itself is better than ever before. It shows an average gasoline mileage of better than 25 miles to the gallon. Its tire mileage and its mileage on oil is astonishing."

NOTICE. Notice is hereby given that on May 21st, 1921, I sealed into brown gadding, left hind foot while, man roached, rear on point in which of my automobile will sell at public auction at the sale ground on Second avenue south at Saturday, June 4th, 1921 to the highest and best bidder for cash. The Willys-Knight Motor improves with use. It is amazingly free from care and cost. The gasoline mileage averages above 20 miles per gallon. Its smooth performance is a source of lasting satisfaction.

The improved Overland is rugged as ever, economical as ever. Its average of 25 miles per gallon of gasoline, its saving in tires and upkeep make it now the low-priced automobile to own and use.

MEMORIAL DAY

The United States of America as a nation, has comparatively few holidays or festive days...

The occasion is not merely one of expression of appreciation for and gratitude to the Nation's sons who fell in her defense...

Established by the Union veterans of the civil war, Memorial Day has become to be an occasion for paying tribute to the men who upheld the American flag and American ideals...

Established by the Union veterans of the civil war, Memorial Day has become to be an occasion for paying tribute to the men who upheld the American flag and American ideals...

But it is not reserved to the Nation's fighting men alone to keep green the memories of their fallen comrades. This privilege and this duty is one that belongs to and devolves upon every American...

Now and hereafter Americans must recognize the fact that the world as it is has been saved for them by these men who stood as the nation's living bulwark and fell in the nation's defense...

FARMERS AND BOARD OF TRADE REACH AGREEMENT ON NEW LAW

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE: WASHINGTON, D. C.—Joseph P. Griffin, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, unlocked the transportation blockade and started grain moving to the mills...

President Griffin told of a recent, taken by the Chicago Board of Trade to remove alleged abuses including deals in commodities and hoardedly endorsed various sections of the proposed bill.

It is constructive because it recognizes the necessity of budgeting and that to hedge there must be a broad liquid market.

When he concluded his four hours of testimony it was with the clear understanding that Congressmen should change the bill so that it would neither tear down existing marketing machinery nor destroy hedging facilities by eliminating existing regulations.

changes necessary to maintain a fair market and still abolish that sponsors of that and their bills have termed abuses of the marketing system.

It is not our intention to tear down existing machinery, nor to destroy the futures market, said Mr. Tinsler, "and the bill will be amended to avoid such danger."

Mr. Griffin declared in defending his position that 200,000,000 bushels of wheat are carried today by speculators, "who perform the greatest economic service in the commercial world."

Other witnesses included farmers, co-operative elevator men, millers and country dealers, all of whom urged preservation of the futures market.

Discussing contracts, he said the Chicago board had no objection to changing delivery regulations. Questions affecting grades could be worked out, he said.

President Charles E. Wright of the Omaha Grain Exchange testified that he had not been for the Chicago Board of Trade 100 per cent of the middle wheat - cars would still be on the farms.

THE NEWS' SUNDAY SERMONETTE

By CHARLES GLENN BAIRD, M. A. Rector, Church of the Ascension, Episcopal

CONTENTMENT: "Philippians 4:11. I have learned, in whatever state I am, therewith to be content."

These were not the words of a prosopopoeic man, living in the midst of worldly comfort, addressed to the great masses of people who, less fortunate than himself, it was not the utterance of a man of high estate, looking down patronizingly on his brother man, it was an imperative as his troubles and difficulties were more imaginary than real.

It was the counsel of Paul the Apostle, ever since his conversion to Christianity, had endured many trials and sacrifices, in order that he might preach the gospel of Jesus.

St. Paul was formerly enjoying what we might call the ordinary comforts of life. After the manner of Jewish boys, he learned a trade, and followed the work of a laborer as well as he was able through life.

He was a man of superior intellect, was venerated in the law, and was highly respected in Jerusalem and in Rome. He was a deeply religious man, and was intensely and unreservedly patriotic.

He was a member of the Jewish ecclesiastical court, called the Sanhedrin, and it was while in the custody of this court that he was taken to the Christians, at that time outlawed, in order to bring them back to Jerusalem.

On this journey Saul, as he was then called, saw the great light in the way that struck conviction to his heart and changed his whole attitude toward the Christian faith.

Thereafter he himself confessed that he had endured every affliction for the sake of the Master, he was scourged and repudiated, persecuted, and imprisoned, ridiculed. He endured all these things, and was finally shipwrecked, put into prison, and finally was crucified.

He was a man of superior intellect, was venerated in the law, and was highly respected in Jerusalem and in Rome. He was a deeply religious man, and was intensely and unreservedly patriotic.

fections and lusts, and did not depend on these things for our satisfactions. We must turn our backs on the world's theory of happiness.

In place of the hardness of discontent, Christ would give us the softening solace of His love; in place of covetousness, unselfishness and generosity; in place of murmuring, the peace and joy of fellow service.

TOIL AND TROUBLE: "I MUST admit that life in the eyes of a man is not so much a matter of the winter time," confessed the wild man of the woods.

"And then come painful recollections which not only recollect me to my cave in the woods, but also to the fact that I am the most fortunate of men. The thing we call comfort is a delusion. The more modern man is the greater the delusion it becomes. The poet says, 'In happy homes we see the light of firesides gleaming warm and bright, and the description is alluring; but have you ever been responsible for one of those dreary glowing firesides and bright? If so, you know it costs more than it's worth.'"

"My wife was an admirable woman in every respect, and I never weary of extolling her splendid qualities of heart and mind, but she was a crank on a number of points. One of these was that she would stand for anything that looked like disorder, and this characteristic of hers caused me much misery."

"We had an old-fashioned heating stove which burned a chunk of wood, and it might have been possible to be comfortable by it in wintry weather, had my wife been of a more liberal mind. When it became apparent to the most casual observer that the stove was a nuisance, I was obliged to have a large box behind the stove, and all it with wood. But my beloved Arabella said she'd be everlastingly keelhaunched and kermurkummed before she'd have an old woodstove in the sitting room. She exhorted her energy and intellect, she said, making our sitting room a credit to the family, and she wasn't going to have any old boxes kicking around."

"Neither would she permit me to pile a reserve supply of wood in the kitchen, as she considered the kitchen should be as orderly and neat as the parlor, and there was no more striking evidence of bad housekeeping than piles of wood here and there."

"You may ask why I didn't put my foot down and assert my authority as the family, but when a man has been married a few years he gets tired of putting his foot down, since it never accomplishes anything. He is willing to make any sacrifice for the sake of bilmy peace."

"This woman, my estimable wife would follow my track to the back door, with her hands in the air, in a gesture of despair, saying, 'I had left a trail of bark and silvers and other refuse, and if I had the first instincts of a gentleman I'd clean up the mess I had made. Can you see my marrowsome? I'll clean up, and by the time I've cleaned up the stove to rest, the fire will be low again, and I'd have to scold, and the howling-tempest-once more. It was this sort of thing that drove me, a homeless wanderer, from the busy haunts.'"

Phonograph as a Burglar Alarm: A practical phonograph has been attached upon a track to the back door and at night after hours should any intruder succeed in opening the door the phonograph is set into action and by means of a specially made record it calls loudly for help to catch the thief.

GEOLOGISTS IN ANNUAL QUEST FOR BIG GAME

Expert Hunters of Prehistoric Animal Life Use Picks and Shovels; Center Activities on Bad Lands of Nebraska

AGATE, Neb., (AP)—The annual big game hunt of trained geologists and paleontologists of the world is now on way at the Agate Springs ranch, near here. Instead of using high powered rifles to bag their game, these expert hunters of rhinoceroses, mastodons, mammoths and deer use a pick and shovel. The animals sought are not live ones, but are the bones of prehistoric earth travelers of a million or so years ago. The Agate Springs ranch, owned by Captain James H. Cook, extends along the Niobrara river for ten miles in Sioux county and is about 25 miles southeast of Harrison. On it is located what is said to be the greatest prehistoric bone quarry in the world.

Seek Ancestral Hog
Since its discovery 30 years ago persons interested in the study of fossils remains have been making explorations. During the coming season, the American museum of New York will have the United States National museum, Smithsonian institution, under the direction of J. W. Gidley and others. The American museum will have the greatest prehistoric bone quarry in the world.

In prehistoric times, the place now called Agate Springs ranch is believed by some to have been a water hole, similar to the modern African water holes where at limestone heads of animals gathered to drink. Other scientists believe the place to have been once a lake and that carcasses drifted to this spot and their bones dropped. Captain Harold L. Cook, son of the owner of the ranch and consulting engineer, says it seems more probable that the bone bed is the result of a great eddy in a cave along the shore line of an immense river. The carcasses of various herds and individuals are believed to have been picked up by the moving water and lodged in the cover. Thus, he believes would account for the partial segregation of types as well as the miscellaneous mixture of animals found in the quarries.

Leader of Insurgents in Upper Silesia

Herewith is one of the first photographs to reach this country of General Korfanty, leader of the Polish insurgents in Upper Silesia. is the largest animal's bones to be found in this region. It is about the size of an elephant. The most common fossil mammal in the bad lands of Nebraska is the Oredon—an herbivorous animal about the size of the carmel and deer and a half to a couple of ten skulls of the Oredon have been found frequently in a space no larger than the floor of an ordinary room.

America Home of Rhinoceros.
It has been discovered here by scientists that America is the home of the rhinoceros, the camel, as well as that of the horse and many other animals now to be found only in foreign countries or not at all. Mr. Cook says that Nebraska is the home of the rhinoceros and their wanderings led them into other parts of the world. At Agate their bones and skulls occur in layers. He says they became extinct in Nebraska at the close of pliocene—half a million years ago.

The fossils collected from the bone beds at Agate Springs ranch are entirely unexciting. Only a few of these, however, attract general attention, such as mastodons, oredon, rhinoceros, horses, hogs, bovine, mammoths, mammoths, camels, deer and caracaras.
