

BOSTON MEGGA OF MEDICOS OF UNITED STATES

Massachusetts Capital is Invaded by Physicians Attending Convention of Their National Organization

BOSTON, Mass., (AP)—Boston is the medical center of the United States today. The seventy-second annual session of the American Medical Association, the national organization of the medical profession, opened here this morning. The House of Delegates, the legislative body of the association, met at 10 a. m. and was called to order by Dr. Dwight L. Murray of Syracuse, N. Y., the speaker of the house. Dr. Alexander H. Craig of Chicago, the secretary of the association, stated in his report that the membership of the association on May 1, 1921, was 84,911.

On Board Dais
The report of the board of trustees showed that in spite of high prices and changing conditions the association is a sound financial body. The judicial council in its report recommended that the board of trustees be decreased from nine to seven members. The United States is subdivided into seven trustee districts, one to be elected from each district and to serve for seven years. The council on health and public instruction reported that during the past year definite progress had been made in the coordination of voluntary public health activities, as shown by the National Health Conference. The Health Council, made up of representatives from the ten leading national public health organizations; that the bill for the registration of births and deaths had been adopted during the past year in Iowa and West Virginia, leaving only three states—Arizona, South Dakota and Nevada—still without the measure. It called for uniform vital statistics of registration throughout the nation.

World Admit Tuberculosis
The council presented a report from the United States Public Health Service recommending that general hospitals in all parts of the country should provide separate wards or rooms for the care of tuberculous patients and that such patients should not be admitted to general hospitals at least in emergency and for temporary periods, on account of the character of the disease from which they were suffering. The council presented a report on the Social Relations of the Medical Profession recommending that the nature and transmission of communicable diseases should be taught in public schools, as is now required in five states; that teachers in the public schools be required to know something about communicable diseases and their control; that the American Medical Association should support local practitioners by supplying them with properly equipped laboratories and hospitals for the treatment of their patients.

The council also recommended that a committee be appointed to study the question of acts in medicine, to review the entire question of medicine and vaccination, and to prepare suitable material for educating the public on this subject.

To Curb Drugs
The narcotic drug committee recommended that the annual registration fee for physicians under the Harrison law be reduced from $3.00 to $1.00, and that at least as much money be expended by the government in the regulation of the use of the habit-forming drugs as is collected by the government from fees and fines under

Wellesley College Has Strong Crew This Season

The Wellesley college boat crew is ready to begin its season. The eight has been whipped into shape by frequent practice on Lake Waban and is said to be one of the strongest ever turned out by the famous girls' college. The attractive and athletic young women who comprise the crew have been trained and coached for their contents as would a male crew. The girls take their work very seriously and in their trial spins on the lake have shown plenty of speed. The photograph shows the Wellesley variety eight starting out for a trial spin. From left to right: Sibyl Wardwell,

SCANDAL CLOUD INVOLVES JAPAN

Graft Charges Against Officials Arouse Public Opinion in the Nation

TOKIO. (AP)—Several scandals in of fiscal life have aroused public opinion in Japan and has called forth severe condemnation from some of the metropolitan newspapers. The graft charges made in connection with the running of the South Manchuria railway and the alleged illegal sale of opium in Manchuria which were evaded at the last session of the Diet have now been followed by a series of sensational scandals in Tokio in connection with the sale of gas to the public, the operation of the customs at Yokohama and the building of highways and other public utilities. Officials of the Tokio Gas company have been arrested on the charge of bribing members of the Tokio city council, many of whom are facing trial for accepting bribes. Similarly, contractors are alleged to have offered bribes to officials employed, whilst at Yokohama government servants are charged with conniving in the smuggling of watches and jewelry generally.

The gas scandal has excited the public most, for the high price of gas authorized has hit the pocketbook of every household. Ichiro Tokutomi, the distinguished editor of the Kokumin Shinbun, in an editorial compared the Hara ministry to the former Tammany Hall organization of New York. He wrote: "The Hara ministry is Tammanyizing not only Tokio City but the whole of Japan. Even the colonies beyond the seas are being corrupted. Why is it that, against such glaring facts, so powerful voice of protest has yet been raised in the interests of justice?"

The unrepentable sin in a person of a different race or religion from ours is to be smarter than we are.—Ohio State Journal.

A New York garage owner whose safe had been cracked, twice improved an abraprol shell, consisting of a liberal charge of gunpowder and buckshot. He placed this in the cash box of the safe in such a manner that upon opening it the charge would detonate. Following a loud report the watchman found the charge exploded and blood on the floor. The burglar had escaped.

Scientists Seek Blue Goose's Egg in Far Northland

McMillan Expedition to Baffinland Would Realize Hopes of Ornithologists

BOSTON, Mass., (AP)—A hunt for the egg of the blue goose will be one of the odd errands of the Donald B. McMillan expedition to Baffin Land this year if the hopes of ornithologists are realized. The adult blue goose, a variety with a grayish brown body that got its name from the blue-gray of its wing covers, is not uncommon in the United States, but its breeding haunts have been a subject of much speculation among bird lovers and its nest and eggs have never been observed.

An announcement by Dr. McMillan that on his last trip to the Arctic he had noticed fledglings of these geese aroused the interests of students of bird life, with the result that one of the scientists who will accompany the present expedition will be commissioned to be on the lookout especially for blue goose eggs in connection with his other field work.

The price that one of these eggs, hitherto unseen by civilized man, would command has not been quoted, but judging from the enthusiasm displayed in natural history societies over the subject, the goose that laid the golden egg will have nothing on the bird.

Baffin Land is believed to be the greatest breeding place of bird life in the far north. In the 150,000 square miles of interior unexplored by white men are lakes which the Eskimo describe as six days' sledge journey in length (at least 100 miles) and abounding in wild-fowl.

The McMillan expedition will leave here in July in the schooner Bowdoin, specially built for the purpose, and will spend probably seven months in a study of Baffin Land along various scientific lines.

PRUSSIAN WOMEN VOTERS LEAN TO CONSERVATISM

Compilation of Ballots at Recent Elections Indicates Small Appeal Made by Radicals

BERLIN. (AP)—The majority of Prussian women voters are conservative in their political sympathies, a compilation of the vote cast at recent elections has disclosed. As high as 69 per cent of the vote cast by the conservative parties was by women electors; the extreme radical organizations polled a woman vote of 37 per cent.

JAPANESE GIVE PLAY TO AID MISSION HOSPITAL.

Diplomatic Corps and Many Representative Natives Lend Patrimony to Benefit Performance

TOKIO. (AP)—Practically the entire diplomatic corps and a large number of representative Japanese attended a Japanese play, "The Forty-Seven Ronin," presented here for the benefit of the training school of St. Luke's International Hospital, which was founded by the American Episcopal Mission.

Viscount Eihachi Ghibuawata, in an address, said he wished to acknowledge the high services rendered to the cause of medicine in Japan by Dr. E. H. Teulier of Virginia, the director of the hospital.

The speaker referred to St. Luke's hospital as an international institution bound to promote friendly relations between the United States and Japan. "It is true," he said, "that American and Japanese relations have been subjected to fluctuations, owing to the growing complications of the international interests, but we may rest assured that the influence and work of men like Dr. Teulier will do much to remove misunderstandings and establish friendship on a firm basis."

ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS ARE OFFERED FOR SALE

Famous Collection Includes Prayer of Roman Emperor to His Guardian Angel

LONDON. (AP)—A further portion of the world famous Yates Thompson manuscripts is to be sold here at the end of June.

Fifty-eight of the collection of 160 manuscripts have already been disposed of for £130,322 and, by the time the whole collection has been sold, probably over £250,000 will have been realized.

The most interesting specimen to be sold is the smallest manuscript in the collection, dated 1530. It is in a costly little golden case decorated with white enamel and pink stones, like garter and is arranged to hang from a chain. It is the Credo or "profession" of the Emperor Charles V. of Rome.

The volume consists of 29 leaves, each one inch by one and three-quarter inches. The last five leaves contain a prayer to the emperor's guardian angel.

count for the denials of the company agents. Since starting work on the four miles mentioned the company has taken over numerous claims, including reports have it. Some of these claims have been worked to a greater or lesser degree, and all are believed to possess gold values of merit. In fact it is stated that unless the claims had shown some good symptoms the big company would not have invested in them.

Through the activities of the Elkoro Mines company the Jaridge district has been thoroughly proved as a gold-bearing area, and enthusiasts say, there is no reason known why the camp should not some day become as famous as a rival to the Constock lode at Virginia City, Nevada.

In an effort to obtain more information bearing upon the subject of richness of the district the company some six weeks ago employed Oscar H. Hervey, of the firm of Thibault, Hervey & White, consulting engineers of San Francisco, to make a thorough investigation of prospects throughout the Jaridge district, especially in the immediate vicinity of their own operating properties and in claims not working. It is said that Mr. Hervey visited a number of properties not controlled by the Elkoro company, and that he has an extensive report on his findings to the employing concern. What this report contained is not a matter of public record, but mining property owners in the Jaridge zone are walking with a certain anxiety some move by the company, which it is believed, will be an index of the engineer's findings. None believe that the report could contain any word other than one of an optimistic and glowing character, and they confidently believe the statement of the report will lead to greater activity on the part of the Elkoro company immediately.

PUEBLO COUNTS FLOOD TOLL

ported to stop and turn back all those except persons having official business to the city. Acting as a line of officers and officials of the Red Cross, hundreds of persons have come into Pueblo and have volunteered for relief work.

New Flood Rumor Baseless.

A report originating on the south side of Pueblo last night that the Arkansas river was about to break through at Swallows and a new flood might be expected in Pueblo was proved groundless early today.

The Associated Press correspondent accompanied Colorado rangers in an automobile trip through Flooded Main street over the new concrete bridge into south Pueblo and traced the report to the wireless of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company.

Rangers Report Improvement.

Water had receded from the lower part of Main street, leaving only mud which was about a foot thick. The rangers said that the condition of the river looked better than at any time since early yesterday afternoon.

Strange Sights Reported.

Dawn was breaking over the city on the trip back from the south side and showed strange sights on this flood-swept thoroughfare. A baby buggy was left standing by itself in the center of the bridge, away from any obstruction.

Train Service at Handicapped.

With the exception of a relief train over the Colorado Southern from Trinidad yesterday there has been no resumption of train service into the city and officials here are uncertain as to when movement of trains might be expected.

Hermit Believed Drowned.

Reports received here today from Lake Charles, 15 miles south, told of the probable drowning of a hermit who lived in a cave near that place. He had lived in the cave for years, which were on the high bank of the St. Charles river.

South Side Counts Losses.

The south side of Pueblo, isolated from the remainder of the city by flood waters, early today was taking stock of its losses and anxiously awaiting restoration of communication with the city proper that the full extent of the disaster Pueblo has suffered may be realized.

Identifies Some Victims.

There was no official estimate this morning of the number of casualties or the property loss in this part of the town. Through the efforts of a south side undertaking establishment, a number of bodies were identified. The list included:

- Borothy Metz, 217 1/2 South Main street, Pueblo; T. Hall, Pullman porter, Denver; Doris Secher, 328 1/2 North Union street, Pueblo; Frank Evans, Pueblo; John Fareros, Bennett avenue, Pueblo; C. Hames and Henry Miller, Pueblo.

Neighboring Towns Safe.

Florence and Canon City, fears for the safety of which had been expressed by officials on this side, early today were reported unharmed. At Fort Lupton, Colo., however, flood waters destroyed the storage cellar of the cement company and put the light plant out of commission.

Problem of caring for refugees on the south side of town became a serious one yesterday.

Homes, schools and churches were used to house the refugees and a soup line was established, while luncheon were served in the high school building.

"Don't know exactly, going to take a day off tomorrow."

When the election returns came in last November with the enormous pluralities recorded it might have been assumed that everybody eligible to vote had cast a ballot on election day.

Galdwell News - We don't know how other people feel about it, but we are getting decidedly tired of the up lifting. The ideal of a third of the life of one of the main business of life is to keep a constant tab upon our fellows to see that they live up to our standards.

Legislature Asked to Erect Stronger Barriers Against Offending Combinations; Jail Sentence Urged

There is a real artificial river, hundreds of miles long, haid made of the best material, water light, no snags or rocks or other imperfections.

"You're a happy man for one in so much trouble," said the stranger.

"All the way in that wagon?" "Yes, sir."

MURTAUGH
MURTAUGH - A moral lesson was given in the auditorium Wednesday afternoon under the direction of Mrs. M. B. Bell of Twin Falls.

For violations of state anti-trust laws a minimum sentence of six months and a fine of $1000 to $5000 is proposed legislation.

Along with these recommendations for lowering the cost of construction, the committee is expected to ask the legislature to raise the original places for bond carriers.

Sarah gave the Irish family a good supply of cookies and jerked venison before she had them gone by.

"This boy is sick," she said to Samson, who came and helped him off his horse.

"Come all the way from Vermont?" "Yes, sir."

THE WAR CRIMINAL TRIALS
A correspondent who witnessed the first trials of the war criminals at Leipzig characterizes the proceedings as a farce.
