LABOR IS GIVEN GOMPERS PLEDGE

Leader Dedicates Service to Perpetuity of Organization Movement

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—As long as I live, no matter how placed, I shall endeavor to pursue my life's work until the end.

With this pledge of service to the perpetuity of the American labor movement, President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor addressed the delegates before the annual convention of the federation's metal trade department.

"When that end comes," added the veteran labor leader, "I shall be content to see to it that my life's work has been a success as far as it goes to the benefit of the great American labor movement."

Urges Optimism. President Gompers urged the metal trades unions to be optimistic as to the future, asserting that the present recession would not be lasting.

Organized labor, he declared, is going to hold all that it has gained and has made a successful fight against its enemies.

The American labor movement is safe," said the labor chief. "It is progressive. It is less fanatical but it is more practical."

Another resolution urged the executive council of the federation to investigate the possibility of establishing a national building material supply company. This is declared necessary as it is alleged building material suppliers have invaded the territory of the different elements and associations in trying to destroy the building trades unions.

RECALL OF SIMS URGED ON LABOR

Federation Convention Asked to Interest Itself in Admiral's Oase

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The recall of Admiral Sims from England and his honorable discharge from the United States navy by President Harding, if his remarks in London on the Irish question are found to be correctly quoted, was demanded in a resolution presented today in the annual convention of the Metal Trade Department of the American Federation of Labor.

The resolution, presented by Timothy Healy, head of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers, urged that the full force of the American Federation of Labor be asked to cooperate and assist in the repatriation of the "altruist" upon the American people, upon the honor and their intelligence by Admiral Sims."

Denby is Commended. Secretary of the Navy Denby was commended for his "straight-forward and emphatic Americanism in denouncing an explanation from Admiral Sims."

The resolution will probably be acted upon tomorrow. It is estimated that the admiral has been incorrectly quoted that he (the admiral) he indignantly recalled from his un-American aim and attack upon the intelligence and patriotism of the American people."

"President Lowell has said that in our day at school we worked for a degree, but that now we go to school for an education."

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES GROW TIRED OF STRIKE

Improvement in Situation is Marked in Italian Province of Sardinia

LONDON, (AP)—A dispatch from Rome to the Central News agency said the "white strike" of Italian government employees—that is, the strike begun last week, in which employees went to work in a non-union form of agitation for increased wages is being quieted by a moving on so far as the provinces are concerned.

In Rome the situation is less satisfactory, according to the dispatch, but agitation has increased, wages is being withheld. The postal and telegraph services are still much dislocated.

SIMS DECLARES NOTHING NEW IN LONDON SPEECH

Admiral's Reply to Secretary Denby's Inquiry, Expresses Opinion that Some Remarks were Garbled on Cable

LONDON, (AP)—The reply of Rear Admiral Sims to the request of Secretary of the Navy Denby for an explanation of his speech here Tuesday, expressed an opinion of Admiral Sims that some parts of the speech, to which objection had been taken, had been garbled. This was learned unofficially but on good authority, here today.

In his answer, which is set long, Admiral Sims declares he had said nothing in his address which he had not said before in speeches in the United States and in his book.

Avoids Direct Reference. Admiral Sims made no direct mention of Americans in connection with the Irish republican cause, today in an address at a luncheon given in his honor by the American Luncheon club.

"I avoid using any of those energetic adjectives on some occasions," he said, "but let me hope that will be unhelpfully explained away." Admiral Sims paused a moment and then added: "But I am going on doing the same thing."

This declaration brought from the 200 guests a repetition of the uproar. Some applicants for the navy and the marks of Wilson Cross, vice president of the American Chamber of Commerce in London, introducing Admiral Sims.

"He is saying again, but he says he will stand by what he has said," Mr. Cross told the assembled company. "I want to assure him that this company will stand with him—next to all full blooded, true, honest thinking Americans."

ILLINOIS MINE FIRE THREATENS 600 MEN

Trapped Miners Are Believed to Have Made Escape Through Emergency Shafts; Burning Tunnel Sealed

PERU, Illinois, (AP)—Every miner in the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul mine at Mark, near here, escaped from the fire which gutted the mine late today. This announcement was made by Superintendent James Steele, after mine officials had checked all the men who escaped from the emergency shafts. It was expected to have the fire under control by night.

PERU, Illinois, (AP)—Six hundred miners, who were trapped in the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad mine at Mark, ten miles south of here, when fire started half a mile from the shaft, shortly before noon, are all believed to have escaped via emergency shafts. The state rescue crew sealed the burning tunnel.

The fire started in a machine shop about half a mile back from the main shaft and blocked the exit of the 600 miners.

Superintendent Steele was in charge of the Gary mine, twenty miles from Mark, when it was swept by fire 12 years ago, with a loss of more than 200 lives.

SAN FRANCISCO BUILDERS HOLD TO OPEN SHOP PLAN

Exchange Announces Decision to Adhere to Its Original Decision

SAN FRANCISCO, (AP)—The Builders' Exchange of San Francisco will resume work next Monday on an "open shop" plan as previously announced despite the vote of the Building Trades council to accept a reduction of 7 1/2 per cent in wages, according to a statement today to W. H. George, vice president of the exchange and chairman of the strike committee.

The council had refused up to last night to accept the wage reduction of 7 1/2 per cent that had been made by a board of arbitration claiming that the board had exceeded its authority.

In speaking of the council's vote, George said: "It is too late. The resolution adopted by the exchange and the board will be carried out in its entirety June 13."

Two thousand union men have registered for employment with the exchange under the "open shop" plan, according to Charles W. Gompers, president of the exchange.

CHECK OF DEAD IN FLOOD ZONE IS TEDIOUS JOB

Red Cross List Shows 130 Persons Missing at Pueblo; with Unofficial Estimates of Fatalities at Around 500

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—A census of dead and property damage in the flooded areas of Colorado, instituted by the Associated Press, established the fact that it probably will be several days at least before anything like an accurate estimate of the lives lost or of damage done can be made.

The census, made by telegram sent to mayors of towns in the flooded areas, is only partially completed.

Toll in North Area. In northern Colorado it is established that four persons were drowned at Sterling, one man died of exposure at Union when a Rock Island train was wrecked last Tuesday night, and one man was drowned and another is reported missing in Denver.

In the Pueblo area, embracing the territory from the city of Pueblo along both sides of the Arkansas river to the Kansas line, the toll so far has received are as follows:

In Pueblo 47 bodies reported recovered in the city itself and ten others recovered on the St. Charles mesa. A list compiled by the Red Cross shows a number of missing reported missing in Denver.

To the east of Pueblo, Holy, close to the Kansas line, reports on lives lost and no serious damage done. Manzanito reports eight bodies recovered from the Arkansas but no lives lost in the immediate vicinity.

The mayor of Manzanito says the flood caused no damage in the town itself, but he estimates the damage to farms, crops, irrigating systems and from loss of livestock in the vicinity at least to half a million dollars.

FOUR DEAD AT LOS ANIMAS

Los Animas reports four dead but no authentic estimate of property damage has been sent out from there.

FLOOD WATERS OF PLATTE CONTINUE TO DROP LOWER

The waters of the stream were still inundated. As the water recedes the flooded area is left buried a foot deep in mud and silt. A traffic board at Denver has ordered that several carloads of lime be spread over the district as an antidote measure.

WIDOW ADMITS KNOWLEDGE OF KERBER DEATH

Ohio Publisher Killed by Two Foreigners Employed to Pose as Spirits to Frighten Him into Better Attitude

HUDSON, N. Y. (AP)—Mrs. Eva Kerber, charged with first degree murder in connection with the slaying of her husband in Lakewood, O., nearly two years ago, today confessed "giving two men to beat up her husband in order to change his harsh attitude toward her," according to Chief of Police Christensen of Lakewood. She admitted that she had intended that he be killed.

Chief Christensen made this statement today to a representative of the Associated Press on the trail that was carrying him, Mrs. Kerber and her daughter, Miss Marian McArdle, back to Cleveland.

Chief Christensen, however, denied a report that the two men had been ordered to pose as ghosts. He also stated that Mrs. Kerber had not implicated her daughter.

NEW YORK (AP)—Dan P. Kaber, wealthy Lakewood, O., publisher, met death after attacking two foreigners engaged by Mrs. Kaber to pose as spirits to frighten him into a better attitude toward her, according to a statement which the New York Evening World today says Chief of Police Christensen obtained from Mrs. Kaber here.

The newspaper quotes Chief Christensen as saying that Mrs. Kaber had engaged a woman medium for advice as to how to change her husband's attitude toward her. The publisher's surly manner after his illness was said to have occasioned the visit.

"Ghosts" Use Knives.

By advice of this medium, Mrs. Kaber was said to have employed two foreigners to appear at her husband's bedside in the night as ghosts and as she expressed it, to try and shake a little civility into him.

Aroused from his slumber, Mr. Kaber was alleged to have attacked the two men and to have been stabbed to death by them in the struggle.

According to the newspaper, Chief Christensen said Mrs. Kaber had declared that she had refused to pay the two foreigners when they reappeared after the funeral, asserting they had not fulfilled the role of ghosts as she had intended and that she would not involve herself by paying for murder. Mrs. Kaber was then said to have fled to New York to escape the foreigners without advising the Cleveland police for fear of involving herself.

Holds Up Statements.

Arthur Carey, head of the homicide bureau, when told that a Cleveland paper had announced that Mrs. Eva Katherine Kerber had confessed knowledge of the murder of her husband, reiterated that both Mr. Kaber and her daughter, Marian McArdle, who were arrested here and left today for Lakewood, Ohio, in custody of Chief of Police Christensen of that place, had made statements. In the interest of justice, he said, he must withhold any further announcement as to the character of these statements.

OHIO AUTHORITIES ARREST ADDITIONAL MURDER SUSPECTS

CLEVELAND, O. (AP)—Mrs. Eva Katherine Kaber has confessed that her husband, Dan P. Kaber, was murdered with her knowledge in their Lakewood home two years ago, and Marian McArdle, Mrs. Kaber's daughter, has confirmed much of her mother's story, the Cleveland News announced this morning on information telephoned from New York by Police Chief Christensen, of Lakewood, to County Prosecutor Stanton here early today.

The "man with the cap" now in custody here, is the man who drove the knife 24 times into Kaber's body, according to the statement attributed to Mrs. Kaber.

A woman whom Mrs. Kaber says planned the murder was arrested in her home here early today by Prosecutor Stanton and Chief of Police Frank W. Smith. The woman refused to make any statement.

According to Prosecutor Stanton's information from Chief Christensen, Mrs. Kaber said "two foreigners did the murder," and declared that a woman arrested by Cleveland officers in Sandusky, O., Wednesday morning and now held in jail here, procured the actual slayer.

The "man with the cap" was arrested here Wednesday and his companion, a cousin, who, according to the statement, sat at Kaber's head to stifle his cries, is being sought by police. Mrs. Kaber's alleged confession declares, according to Prosecutor Stanton's information that the two foreigners went to the Kabers home to "beat up" Kaber. Instead they stabbed him to death.

Mrs. Kaber and her daughter broke down and confessed, according to Stanton's articles from New York, after having questioned ceaselessly for several hours by detectives sent to their cells, during the night.

Mrs. Kaber, it was said, implicated her daughter, her aged mother, Mrs. Mary Bielek, now in jail here, all of whom are charged with murder, and the woman who was taken in custody early today.

Fighter's Physical Condition is Fine; Mustn't Train Hard

Carpenter's Manager Announces His Man is Fit for the July 2 Contest

MANHASSSET, N. Y. (AP)—George Carpenter's physical condition is such now that it would be foolish for him to train too hard, Francesco Descampi, his manager, said today. This statement, he said, did not mean that the challenger was not working, but Descampi here out the fact that most of the real hard work was being done in private.

Manager Descampi's knowledge of the English language does not permit him, he declared, to express his opinion of a number of writers, who have criticized the challenger while watching him sit work. "Georges' boss became enraged last week when some ringleader spectators said certain things that fell on Georges' ears, and he decided to protect him in the future."

Brief Bits of Sport

The Salt Lake Bees appear to be better players abroad than on the domestic front.

They've taken two in a row from the Sacramento Coyotes.

Sam Smiley, neighborhood sage, says: "That music 'gal street laundry' machine air a mighty good thing for 't' streets, but it do raise 't' door 'w' a pason's Panama pants."

As we view it there's something in both the big camps of the two elubion fighters.

The question is, who will be able to make the hill on July 2.

A United States senator the other day showed he did not care for all the court judgments in the country when he openly declared William Harrison (Jack) Dempsey to be a "hun."

This senator must have had a peek at the police record of Salt Lake.

Tonight on Lincoln field the Moose club of the Twilight league will entertain the Elks in a seven-round tilt with ball and bat.

Thus far each of these teams has won one game and lost one. Who has right by virtue of proficient prowess for second place in the league standings, and runner up to the leading players, will be decided by tonight's contest.

Jack McAvulffe, former lightweight boxing champion of the world, says he "snuck" up on Georges-Carpenter when the latter was doing his regular "private" training stunt the other day.

You know Carpenter performs in public only for the audience and gives neat little exhibitions which prove nothing except that "Carp" hasn't the class.

But it is in closed season when nobody but trainers and Descampi, manager, are present that the Frenchman is said to "do his darndest."

It was when Georges was in one of these periods that McAvulffe did his famous "snuck." He reports having seen the challenger show some regular-fighting stuff, and a lot of boxing proficiency not heretofore believed of him.

Aw, well, star chamber training sessions are not the big league stunt to be staged on July 2 in Jersey City.

What we'd like to have some expert on psychology tell us is what good is a "human fly" for this weary world?

Boston-Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, will meet Harry Greb of Pittsburgh in a 10-round no-decision bout at Pittsburgh, June 25.

Jersey City, N. J.—Johnny Buff, American flyweight champion, knocked out Harry Marshall, of England, in the third round of a scheduled 12-round bout.

Columbus, O.—Muelin Burke, New Orleans heavyweight, knocked out Joe Downey, Columbus, last night, in the eleventh round of their scheduled 12 round bout.

CHAMPS EXCLUDED

PARIS (AP) — The draw today for the women's international-golf championship to begin at Fontainebleau June 14, excludes the possibility of a meeting between Miss Aloza Stirling, of Atlanta the American woman champion, and Miss Cecil Leitch, holder of the British women's title, before the finals of the tournament. The field includes twenty-one English, eight American and eight French entries.

STRICKEN AREA GETS AID FROM SALVATIONISTS

Western District Sends $2,000 Emergency Money to Aid Pueblo Victims

Captain J. P. Purdy, of the local Salvation Army corps, has been advised by Col. J. W. Cousins, of the Army in Seattle, has remitted the sum of $2,000 to Brigadier Meriwether, of the Booth organization in Denver, to be applied to work for the relief of flood-stricken victims.

The money was sent forward immediately upon advice that a large fund would be required to meet emergencies of relief in and about Pueblo. It is expected that it will be made up in the district comprising Washington, Oregon and Idaho. Captain Purdy suggests that any person desiring to contribute to this fund apply to the following telegram from Brigadier Meriwether that Col. Cousins sent forward the $2,000 contribution:

"Col. Davis with 30 officers first to do relief work in Pueblo struck Sunday. Impossible to estimate loss of life. Some say 2,000. Our men officers seeking food. Women feeding homeless. Two hundreds of families, crowded in clothing and bedding purchased. Still raining heavily. Conditions desperate."

Dr. Luis Maria Drago, Patron for the Unannounced of Drago Doctor, Died at Home in Buenos Aires

BUENOS AIRES, (AP)—Dr. Luis Maria Drago, noted jurist and author of the Drago doctrine, died yesterday. He had been ill for a considerable time and death was expected.

The Drago doctrine was drawn up on the occasion of the simultaneous appearance of the coast of Venezuela of an Italian, a German and an English warship, each to collect a private debt owed by the nation to individuals in their respective countries. Although in no way concerned in the hostile demonstration, Dr. Drago formulated his doctrine, setting forth that the collection of private loans by military means implied a potential occupation of territory and was therefore at variance with the spirit of the American policy.

DECREASED OAB SUPPLY

Were reviving business to make a sudden demand for a great number of freight cars, the railroads would find themselves in a perplexing situation, according to figures given by the Harvey Age, which has been looking into conditions. It finds that the roads have 134,000 less cars fit for service than they had a year ago and 295,000 less than in 1918. The natural growth of business would require an annual increase in cars, or at least in carrying capacity. There is surplus equipment now, but there would be a car shortage long before business could be said to have reached normal proportions. If the roads should be unable to supply the cars when asked the effect would be about the same on those who denied as though they had no use for cars. One refused the facilities of doing business is no better off than another who has no business.

BYNG'S APPOINTMENT

There is peculiar appropriateness in the offering of the governor generalship of Canada to Lord Byng, as reported. Before taking charge of the Third British army he was commander of the Canadian forces. He led the Canadian troops in their great achievements at Vimy ridge, where they were proud to win the sobriquet of "Byng's boys."
 —But Canada's chief cause for gratitude to Lord Byng is not the more spectacular victories with which his name is associated as a leader of her soldiers, but his services in training her troops and to play their efficient part in the winning of the war. Byng as general was noted as the greatest disciplinarian in the British army. It was said that he made his men polish the backs of their buttocks and the nails of their boots. He made the new arrival parade morning, noon and night. Maj. Eric Fisher Wood has told us in his "Notebook of an Intelligence Officer" that "The Canadian troops when they first went to Europe were ineffective and vulnerable because they did not sufficiently appreciate the value of rigid and punctilious discipline. They did not lack courage or discipline, but courage or initiative, to have military value, must be coordinated by strict discipline." Byng gave them this discipline.

 As the seventh son of the Earl of Stratford and now a lord in his own right, Lord Byng is an aristocrat whom even the most extreme democrat can admire, for he has made his own way by his energy and consummate talent ever since, as a young man, he chose the army for his career. He, people of Canada will receive him as one of their own, who has been a comrade-in-arms with their sons, and who will do his utmost to advance the welfare of the Dominion.

they are allowed to run over the whole field. The manner, however, in which the hogging-off is done must depend in a great measure upon the location of the farm, fencing, labor, water and other factors that must be considered, but it has been demonstrated beyond the possibility of a doubt that up to the extent that the pigs do their own harvesting, the cost of producing the meat is reduced about one-half.

HOGGING OFF VARIOUS CROPS MONEY-MAKING PLAN FOR FARMER—PIGS DO THE HARVESTING

By "FARMER" SMITH

It is a well recognized principle of manufacturing that to reduce the cost of production and at the same time maintain the quality of the product, means direct increase in net profits. The wide variation found on different farms in the production of pork indicates that if the methods followed by the man who produces pork at the least cost were in general practice, the actual cost would be reduced more than one-third.
 Careful investigation on many different farms shows that the average cost of harvesting a crop equals the cost of growing it ready to harvest. It has been demonstrated by numerous experiments that the pig can do the harvesting of various crops without wanting any food material. It follows logically therefore that up to the extent that the pig can do its own harvesting there is a saving of 50 per cent on the cost of each pound of meat produced from an acre of ground where the pig does the harvesting.
 It is seldom practicable to produce pork at the least cost by having the pig harvest all of its feed, but to the extent that the pig can do the harvesting satisfactorily, it is desirable, profitable to let the pig do it. Pasture grass to the extent of one-half the daily feed is probably one of the cheapest classes of pork-making material. Next in this comes any of the cereal crops—such as rye, wheat, barley, oats, peas or corn, to be hogged-off.

The farmer who will arrange such a system of cropping as will enable him to hog off the various crops at the right season, can very materially lessen the cost of pork production. The best permanent hog pasture is a combination of grasses and clover, including alfalfa. Alfalfa alone is not a satisfactory or economic hog pasture. Winter rye will furnish the earliest satisfactory feed for a season, and if there is no permanent grass and clover pasture, then the rye should be supplemented by seeding early on well prepared ground, a mixture of spring grains seeded very heavily, say 100 lbs. per acre. This may include spring wheat, spring rye, barley, oats and three or four pounds of sorghum, kafir, milo maize or federetin. If the pasture is divided into about four separate lots, so that the pigs may be changed to a new plot each week, which will give each plot three weeks' rest to one week's pasturing, the same area of land will carry satisfactorily twice the number of pigs.

The earliest annual crop with which to supplement the pasture is peas and oats. To grow the peas and oats to the best advantage, manure the ground in the fall, and also, mixing the manure well with the surface soil. The ground may be fall plowed, or plowed as early in the spring as it is dry enough to crumble from the mould board. Disc or pack with a Campbell sub-surface packer, and drill in the peas three-and-one-half to four inches deep, one hundred pounds per acre; then one week after seed forty pounds of oats per acre half as deep as the peas.

Enough peas and oats should be seeded to take care of the pigs until the winter, wheat is in the dough. If the winter wheat is then supplemented by an equal area of spring wheat, they can ordinarily be kept on the wheat for four or five weeks.

March farrowed pigs that have had a light grain ration each day, in addition to the pasture, will be in condition to make very rapid gains and will, in fact, make more pounds of meat per acre from each acre of wheat hogged-off at this time of year than they would be able to do from the same amount of wheat harvested, rolled and fed in the most approved manner. When the wheat has become fully ripened and hardened, they could still be allowed to get a part of their daily food from the ripe wheat, but if this is supplemented with green corn, the gain will be much more rapid than it would from the wheat alone, and the earlier varieties of corn will be in the roasting ear stage by the time the wheat has begun to harden.

Where land is high priced and the labor is available, the corn may be cut and fed in the best field or pasture lot, but it will be found that until the corn is well hardened, the pigs will make more meat from each acre of corn, if fed to them stalks and all or allowed to hog it down, than they will from the same area of corn harvested and fed dry.

Barley allowed to stand in the field without harvesting, will produce more pounds of pork per acre during the fall and winter if the pigs do their own harvesting, than will the same amount of barley threshed, rolled and fed in the house or feed lot.

Ordinarily it will be found advantageous to give the pigs every evening a light feed of some other kind of feed than that which is being hogged-off, for it is a well recognized fact that other things being equal, the greater the variety in the ration the better will be the results from each pound of feed fed. If in hogging-off any kind of crop, portable fence is used and only so much of the area uncovered as a time as the pigs can clean up in three or four days, there will be less waste and better gains from the same area than where

GRAY SEEKING INFORMATION ON RAIL LINE

Contact Man Wants to Know if Twin Falls Is Still Supporting Wells Road

Continuance and success of the movement to construct a line of railroad from Ilogerton to Wells, Nev., depends solely upon Twin Falls and southern Idaho in general. Without support from the communities in these districts the enterprise is doomed to failure.

E. F. Gray, a mining man of Connet and who was one of the originators of the latest scheme involving building a stretch of rail to connect Twin Falls with the Western Pacific and the Southern Pacific railroads at Wells made the foregoing statement to The News this morning. Mr. Gray explained that the Nevada people interested and affected by the railroad line has more than made good its part of the plan in financial guarantee, and is now looking to Twin Falls and this section for the necessary cash.

The southern railroad extension movement was started last year. Twin Falls took up the proposal with zeal and gathered in some money for the construction would be started. George Davis, president of the Idaho Central Railroad company, established headquarters in Twin Falls for the purpose of assisting in the raising of the necessary cash guarantee. Interest in the project waned about holiday time, and never again took impetus. At this juncture the Nevada people require the appearance of a dead issue, according to Mr. Gray.

The plan of the Idaho Central Railroad company was to provide a home guarantee from Idaho and Nevada communities amounting to $500,000. Elko county, Nevada, was to guarantee the sum of $150,000. Twin Falls district and southern Idaho generally to make up the rest. Elko county representative of the project appealed to the Nevada legislature for right to bond the county for the raising of the money to be applied on the fund plan. The legislature granted this authority, and Mr. Gray says the county stands ready to go through with the agreement to bond the county and the personal and corporate pledges. This will make the total subscription of Elko county $465,000 instead of the supposed $150,000, thus reducing the liability of Idaho the amount of the excess.

Twin Falls, and surrounding section, was given a quota of $200,000. The $150,000 has been pledged. It is believed that the balance of $50,000 would be contributed by the Twin Falls and southern Idaho communities.

Mr. Gray came to Twin Falls late yesterday afternoon for the purpose of getting an index of sentiment from the people of this district toward the rail proposal.

CROPS GROWFAST, BUT HAIL DOES TREMENDOUS DAMAGE IN THE SOUTHWESTERN COUNTIES

Weekly Summary Shows an Excellent Condition of Growing Grains and Beets Throughout the Farming Areas — Storms Bring Disastrous Results in Many Districts

The week was quite warm, temperatures being generally above normal in all sections of the state. The highest temperatures so far this season prevailed at the close of the week, especially in the northern districts. In a weekly summary of crop conditions. Sunshine was abundant. Fairly copious rains fell in many localities of the eastern counties and good rains fell also in some parts of the Panhandle where there had been a considerable deficiency in precipitation for the past month. In the southwestern counties only a few light local showers occurred. Thunderstorms attended by hail, mostly light, are reported in a few localities but only minor damage resulted. Rising temperatures and unintermittent sunshine caused rapid melting of snow. The higher slopes and streams are rising again. Irrigation water is plentiful in every district.

Abundant Moisture
 Warm weather, abundant moisture, and long hours of bright sunshine combined to give lent growing weather. The warm weather has resulted in highly favorable conditions by making rapid growth. Pastures, meadows, and ranges are in remarkable condition and with resultant feed so abundant that all classes of livestock are laying on flesh in fine shape. All the cereals are thriving; corn is coming up nicely to a good stand; potatoes are growing fast; sugar beets in all districts are in excellent condition; gardens are making good progress; commercial fruits are in good shape and growing rapidly; long strawberries are being marketed from several of the early valleys. Apples have a wonderfully favorable season for all crops. The frequent rains have put dry farm crops in excellent condition and prospects were never better.

In most sections of the state farm work went ahead without interruption. Harvesting of the first cutting of alfalfa was completed in the Lewiston valley. A good crop of hay was secured in first class condition. Haying is beginning in the Boise-Payette valley. This is at least a few days earlier than usual, but the favorable season has brought the crop on rapidly. A heavy yield of fine hay is promised. Spring seeding and planting have been completed in all the leading valleys. Wheat crops are in fine shape under way only in the higher valleys.

From the Fields
 Montpelier, Bear Lake County—Lots of rain and not much sunshine; no need for irrigation yet; grain and alfalfa are looking fine.

 Burley, Cassia County—Rain interfered with farm work first part of week; all crops in excellent condition; potatoes coming up well; beets, perfect stand.
 Dietrich, Lincoln County—Work warm, plenty of rain; irrigation discontinued at present; seeding practically completed; some damage by hail on the 25th.

Hamman, Gooding County—Some rain, and cloudy weather; all crops made good growth; ground saturated with moisture; spring wheat looking especially well.

MOOSE LODGE OPPOSES O'HARE LECTURE HERE

Members of Fraternal Organization Protest against Opening of Radical

At a regular session of the local Moose lodge, held last night in Moose hall, resolutions in protest against the proposal to bring Kate Richards O'Hare to Twin Falls for an address, or lecture, were presented and adopted.

In the resolutions guarantees support to other organizations pledged to resolutions of a similar character.

It is understood that the local Pythian lodge on Wednesday evening, regular lodge session, adopted a similar protest policy against the appearance of the woman in this city.

The Moose resolutions read: "Whereas Certain plans have been formulated by certain individuals looking to the bringing of one Kate Richards O'Hare, an avowed radical, to Twin Falls for the purpose of delivering a lecture or address.

And, whereas, the conduct and expressions of said Kate Richards O'Hare on the occasion of a former visit to this city and subsequent threats in other parts of the country were violent in the extreme, and such as finally led to her ultimate prosecution and conviction under the espionage act for obstructing the government in its conduct of the war;

Be It Resolved, That this Lodge, No. 612, L. O. O. M., voice its earnest protest against her coming to this city; and,

Be It Further Resolved, That this Lodge give full and hearty support to other organizations pledged to resolutions of like character to the end that such resolutions be made fully effective."

ALLEGED NAVY DESERTER ARRESTED IN TWIN FALLS

Reynolds Cox, Said to be Absent Without Leave from Ship, Held Here

Reynolds Cox, a local youth, was arrested here yesterday by Marinegregory Policeman Ray Brown and is being held here pending arrival of army representatives, or federal officers, to take charge of him.

The young man has been released to the custody of his father for the present by arrangement with Chief of Police John M. Beck.

Young Cox is alleged to be a deserter from the U. S. R. Hoelk stationed at Philadelphia on December 16 last year at New York the terms of enlistment to expire on December 15, 1922. The records also charge that Cox deserted his ship at Philadelphia May 21. To the police authorities the alleged deserter claimed he had left the coast expecting to make his way to San Francisco where he intended "joining up" with another ship's crew in the naval service.

He reached Twin Falls yesterday wearing civilian clothes, it is said.

Philadelphia naval authorities have been advised of the arrest here. A reward of $50 was offered for his apprehension.

CIVIC BODIES PREPARE FOR SUPREMACY CONTEST

Rotarians and Kiwanites Will Decide Moot Question on Bull Field

A fight to the death is promised between the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, both in combat next Tuesday at Lincoln field.

In fact the affair is being described as a "mortal combat," with each side "shedding its steel" to a keen edge for the deadly duels.

"Just where the 'steel' is to be whittled comes in it is not made plain by the official published for the fill, but it is insisted that there will be 'scalping' enough and to spare when the pugnacious warriors of the Bull Field engage in the tournaement.

Each side is playing a "star chamber" game, with the public excluded from the deliberations. No person is permitted to know just how good (or bad) the form of the competing players is at present, and no person, outside of the sacred circles, knows what the battling order will be, or what the battle array will be either.

The contest between these rival civic bodies is proposed for a dual purpose. First it is to decide athletic supremacy of the clubs, and second, it is to serve as a kind for the Boy Scouts of America to test in establishing a permanent summer camp for the patients of the boys' order. The boys themselves started out this morning with a slogan: "I will win."

The group disposing of the greatest number of admissions will be presented with a silk flag.

Remodeling of the structure, it is expected, will be started without delay, so that the place may be occupied at the opening of the school year, about September 4.
