AMERICAN TYPE TO BE FOUND IN CITY DWELLER

University's New President Traces Cause of Human Degeneracy to Failure of Social and Industrial Leaders

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—The typical American of today is city dweller. President Walter Dill Scott, of Northwestern university, told the students, alumni and visitors attending his inauguration as president of the university here today.

"We are no longer justified in ascribing the degeneracy, the causes of inefficiency and discontent in homes, schools, churches and industries," President Scott added. "The real cause is to be found in us, who are parents, teachers, ministers and managers. We have failed to develop methods of handling children, pupils, workmen and workers in keeping with the developments of the twentieth century."

Social Sciences Lag
"The social sciences have not been as completely developed as the natural sciences and as helpfully applied and consequently we have not made a similar advance in methods of training and handling men. Men and women are today not adequately trained for twentieth century civilization and they are not working together effectively and happily."

"The typical American of today is more than the descendant of vigorous passengers than of the illiterate fathers," he added. "Our convention of men, our methods of training men and our methods of handling men are all largely the traditions of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries."

"The traditional methods of handling men in America was to divide them into two classes—the bosses and the drudges—and to treat them accordingly. Most Americans were thought to be bosses. The social sciences teach that Americans of today cannot be divided into bosses and drudges; that such distinctions are contrary to the facts and that the diverse methods of handling men based on such distinctions are dangerous to the best interests of our nation."

"Our inherited methods of training and handling men fail to meet our present needs. For guidance we must understand the crowd and the mob. We must think in groups, classes and races. We must realize that in America today civilization is more potent than tradition."

In discussing Northwestern, President Scott stated that five aspects of

YEOMAN'S CONCLAVE IS WELCOMED BY GOVERNOR

Selection of Site for National Home and Hospital is Important Topic

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—What is characterized by officials as the most important gathering of the organization in two decades, opened here this morning when the sixth quadrennial convocation of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen was called to order by Supreme Foreman George N. Frink, Governor Oliver Shoup delivered an address of welcome.

One of the most important matters to come before the convocation will be the choice of a site for the new million dollar national home and hospital for members of the order. Four sites are being considered, three of them in Colorado and one in Missouri. According to Supreme Foreman Frink there probably will be developed a contest over the editorship of the official publication of the order, the Yeoman Shield. The present editor, Harry O. Evans of Des Moines, has held the post for more than 20 years without opposition but now, it is reported, a faction composed principally of younger men is backing Frank E. Baylor, secretary to the supreme foreman, for the office. Another office around which will center a lively contest, said Mr. Frink, is that of attorney for the national lodge, a post that has been held for many years by A. H. Hoffman of Des Moines.

Gotham Magistrate to Try Out Remedy for Marital Strife

Holds Right Kind of Punishment for Erring Husbands Will Solve Problem

NEW YORK, (AP)—Magistrate John Koehneborfer of this city has begun to put into effect his doctrine, recently expounded, that the right kind of punishment for erring husbands will end marital infidelity. Holding that husbands are to blame for seven-eighths of all domestic rows, the magistrate announced that instead of sending them to jail, he would assign them to any one of ten tasks they might choose. Then, the next convicted husband who was arraigned before him for abusing his wife was ordered to do common household work for seven days at the workhouse.

The choices Magistrate Koehneborfer allows his prisoners follow: "Prepare the family breakfast every morning."
"Take care of the children one hour every day."
"Buy candy and fruit for the wife and children once a week."
"Stay-home one night a week."
"Take the family out every Sunday--to church in the morning and for a walk in the afternoon."

"Allow the wife to handle the finances of the family."
"Start a savings bank account."
"Walk on himself instead of making the wife to wait on him."
"Repeat every day to his wife, at least once, his marriage vows."
"Wash the dishes every night."

Magistrate Koehneborfer said that few men recognize the daily monotony of a woman's life in keeping a house hold together on small pay. The man buys some variety every day only to get from their homes to their offices but the wives are sentenced to monotonous drudgery.

"Men who abuse their wives need waking up more than they need jail," the magistrate expounded. "The average man would be cured permanently if he could be set to the tasks to which his wife is committed and this learn how much less attractive is her day than his."

The boiling points of motor gasoline are the real test of its quality

IT'S the gasoline vapor that does the work in a motor. And the boiling points of gasoline determine the degree to which, and the quickness with which, it vaporizes.

The boiling point of a liquid is that temperature at which it is converted from a liquid into a vapor or gas. Of course many liquids vaporize slowly at temperatures lower than their boiling points by simple evaporation. But in the modern gasoline motor this principle is of little value, for when a motor is running at high speed the gasoline has but a small fraction of a second in which to vaporize.

Scientists know that the gravity "test" in itself is almost worthless

In testing a sample of gasoline about which nothing is known concerning the crude oil it came from and how it was refined, the gravity test is of practically no significance. Refiners do not depend on it alone, neither do scientists, and the U. S. Government specifications ignore it altogether.

The real test of gasoline quality, its efficiency as a motor fuel, is the range or chain of boiling points that it contains, for it is upon these that the quality of gasoline depends. Only by means of the distillation test can the chain of boiling points in a sample of gasoline be determined. This chain should be continuous, unbroken. In blended or mixed gasolines it is not, although they may have identically the same gravity as a sample of good product.

On a basis of the distillation test, the real indication of gasoline quality, Conoco Gasoline more than meets government specifications.

DENIES RED MEN IN AMERICA ARE VANISHING RACE

Missionaries in Conference are Told Indians are Not Decreasing in Numbers; More Than One-Third Million Here

ST. PAUL, Minn., (AP)—The American Indians are not decreasing in numbers, according to Dr. Elmer E. Higley, of Des Moines, who recently was appointed superintendent of Indian work by the Methodist Episcopal church, who is here attending the conference of American Indian missionaries.

There are more than one-third of a million Indians in the United States, added Rev. Mr. Higley, and fifty-seven distinct languages are spoken.

Soap, Sanitation and Salvation

"A survey among the Indians has just recently been made by the Conference and shows that not only the full-blooded Indians are increasing, but also the mixed bloods, with better homes, medical attention, and better care of Indian babies and with the missionaries taking the gospel of soap, sanitation and salvation, the increase of the number of Indians will continue.

Two-thirds cannot understand the American language. Thirteen per cent of the Indians are afflicted with tuberculosis, and 80,000 suffer from trachoma. Three out of every five Indian children die before the age of five years.

Lands Missionary Work

The following letter from Commissioner of Indian Affairs Charles I. Burke to the Rev. Mr. Higley was read at the conference: "The progress that has been made in the civilization of the Indians and their present development would have been impossible if it had not been for the missionaries that were the pioneers in laying the foundation for the religious and educational welfare of these people, and it is my hope that we may have the assistance and cooperation of all missionary societies in our endeavor to hasten the time when all of the Indians in the country may become respectable, self-supporting, Christian citizens."

A second conference of Indians will be held at Salem, Ore., on June 27.

POLO ANTICIPATES HISTORY'S DAWN FOR NEW WORLD

International Contests of Comparatively Recent Date but Game is Old

NEW YORK, (AP)—Although the international polo matches between the United States and England teams, which are resumed in England this week, began in 1876, the game of polo was played before Columbus discovered America.

The game was introduced in the United States in 1876, but the sport of polo, as it is known in England and elsewhere, is of much older origin. It originated in Persia and was played in China and India long before cavalry officers, garrisoned in India, brought the sport to England and made it the "sport of kings."

Largely because of the excellent training in horsemanship which polo affords, it has been fostered by government and army officials. At the close of the recent war, Sir Douglas Haig conferred upon the sport a "citation," declaring it to be the most efficient training for army officers yet devised. During and since the war, the game has been encouraged among American army officers.

According to tradition, polo had its origin in the court of a Persian king. It is said to have been invented by a court physician for the purpose of providing physical exercise for his sovereign and members of the retinue. About 600 A. D., shadowy legends have it that the Tartars who overran Asia at that period, carried the game to China. From Chinese archives, it appears that as early as 851 A. D., there was a school for the training of polo ponies. It was shortly after this period that the wanderings of the Asiatic peoples took the game to India, where it has come down to England and America.

When James Gordon Bennett brought mallets, jerseys and balls to this country in 1876, he and several associates gave the game its first try-out at Dickel's Riding academy, then located at Thirty-ninth street and Fifth avenue, New York. Room, the players formed the Westchester Polo club, with grounds at Fordham. When the fashionable New York set moved to Newport, R. I., in the summer of 1880, the Westchester Polo club moved there also.

The game immediately gained popularity. The Brighton Polo club was organized at Long Beach, another fashionable summer place. The late H. F. Herbert, until his death a few months ago, the president of the Polo Association of America, was one of the founders of the organization. Formation of the Buffalo Polo club followed and in 1890, seven clubs, Philadelphia Country Club, Westchester, Meadowbrook, Rockaway, Essex County, Morris county and the Country Club of Westchester formed the Polo association. Buffalo did not join until five years later.

Trophy Stimulated Interest

Action of the Westchester club in 1890 in offering a trophy for international competition greatly stimulated interest in the game. The handicap list for 1921 included players of 38 regularity clubs of the association, situated from coast to coast, with the Hawaii Polo and Barfing club of Honolulu and the Manila Polo club also active members.

Polo is now played at every station in which cavalry officers are located and the Army Polo association at Washington, D. C., has approximately 200 officers. In England, even more than in the United States is the game an established sport for army officers, as is evidenced by the fact that three members of the British team, recently announced, are army officers.

CHAMPION SHOWS "CRANKY" STREAK AND WON'T WORK

"No Training" Sign is Flung Out in Broeze at Training Camp—Kearns Billed

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., (AP)—"The 'no training' sign probably will be seen hanging up at Jack Dempsey's camp until Thursday or Friday, according to indications today, when the world's heavyweight champion will swing back into his conditioning grind. Until Dempsey takes up the full training program again, the public will be denied admittance to the camp.

Dempsey explained the mystery concerning his layoff by saying that he was so thoroughly satisfied with his condition that he thought a layoff of three or four days would do him good. He appeared to be amused at reports that the camp had been closed to the public so he could engage in secret training.

"I don't know where they get the idea of this secrecy thing," the champion said, "I don't need any training at all this week, much less secret training. I shall start in late this week and keep it up to the finish."

For a time yesterday even newspaper men were barred from the camp because Dempsey suddenly developed a "crouch." Two correspondents finally persuaded the champion to weigh in privately. He scaled exactly 196 pounds.

Manager Jack Kearns is taking Dempsey's cranky streak with a smile. "It does no good to see Dempsey set up a bit," Kearns said. "It convinces me that he is about in shape."

DEMPSEY BETTER WATCH OUT SAYS FRENCH FIGHTER

Carpentier Declares it will be All Off with Champ if He Makes Mistake

MANHASSET, N. Y., (AP)—George Carpentier, when he meets Jack Dempsey July 2, expects to land the first telling punch. In a conversation today with his friend and adviser, Captain Mallet, he said that he would drop Dempsey if the latter made one single mistake.

"The challenger," Captain Mallet said, "is not afraid and thinks that he has better than an even chance to win. If willingness, a clear eye and a steady right hand coupled with speed and endurance can win, George thinks he will be the world's champion."

"He realizes that Dempsey will be the best man he has ever met, but notwithstanding he is going is determined to do his best and if he loses he will take it like a man."

The ski club is made up of residents of the Pacific northwest who originally came from the Scandinavian countries where skiing is a popular winter sport.

Brief Bits of Sport

The result of last night's "Starlight" game dispelled the popular fancy that the Legion boys can make a walkaway of the league race.

The Banks have an all-around steady team, consistent in all departments, most especially the box, where Fix enjoys supreme and a crook dispenser.

The Legion outfit serves a more flashy style of baseball, and sure can plangle the pill. Snow, the new soldier pitcher, looks like the goods, and when he becomes acclimated should be of value to the club.

Reports from the Dempsey and Carpentier camps are so varied that one wonders sometimes if these big fellows are preparing for a mitt battle or a vaudeville act.

Contains it is a happy event was more eloquently described than from training camp of championship prize-fighters also conditioning-camps became a feature.

Carpentier said he will get in the first telling punch, and Dempsey's folk say the Frenchman will not last three rounds.

Of course one never can tell, but the last statement seems to have more truth than poetic substance in it, regardless of who gets in the first lick.

Commissioner Landis went east to help honor a hero like Eddie Grant. While there the New York National's bill before him a plan for reinstatement of Hero Benny Knutt.

Down in the Appalachian league a pitcher named Joe Moody is going big for Kingsport. He recently twirled a one-hit game and struck out 16 batters.

Cal Weinger, after trying it for a month, has resigned as an umpire in the Central league. Harry McLain of Ana Arber, who has made quite a reputation as an official in college games, was named to succeed Weinger.

Because of added duties with the Atlanta Southern league club Charles W. Chase has resigned as executive secretary of the Georgia State league and William O. Wells, secretary of the league in 1920, is again on the job.

Mineral Wells, dropped out of the West Texas league, took over the Graham franchise in the Texas-Oklahoma league. Geographically it is better located in the T-O circuit and the brand of ball is not much different.

Roy Patterson, who manages the Wapleton team of the Dakota league, can still fool them. He pitched a game against Huron the other day, allowing but three hits and not a run. Dick Kerr's young brother opposed him and was baited freely.

Terra Alta, W. Va.—Bob Martin,

Word of her intention was received in a letter by the United States Lawn Tennis association. It is understood that Miss Mary K. Hower, another California player and also a former title holder, will accompany the champion.

Chicago—John Lynch, national weight champion, will meet Joe Burnam, of East Chicago, Ind., on the night of June 23, it was announced here today. Lynch is scheduled to meet Pete Herman, former title holder, in a 15-round bout in Brooklyn, July 25.

New York—Tom Campbell, star middle distance runner of Yale university, will enter the national A. U. championship at Pasadena, Cal., July 2, it was announced here today.

Minneapolis—Requests of Dr. H. F. Williams, football coach, that classes at the University of Minnesota begin at 8 a. m. during the fall quarter, instead of at 8:30 a. m., have been honored by the administration committee of the school senate. The purpose is to give football players more daylight practice.

FARMERS JOIN TO KEEP OPEN HIRING OFFICE

Many Agriculturists Sign Petition for Continuation of Employment Department

That the farmers are very loyal to their labor department and are anxious that it be continued is evidenced by the many prominent farmers who have signed the petition to the county commissioners to continue the appropriation for the Bureau...

The board of directors of the farm bureau some time ago decided that the new office of the farm bureau in the Woods building were not convenient for labor, nor farmers, because they are crowded, upstairs, and away from the corners where the lawyers, the laborers room and loaf. So, they went before the county commissioners asking that their usual appropriation be made...

Many farm bureau meetings have been held over the county and at none of them has there been shown any feeling but that the labor bureau should be continued. If any effort had been made to cut it down, many hundreds more could have been added.

The following is a list of names of the ten members of the board of directors of the farm bureau who signed the petition. The other members were not necessarily against it, but have not been seen.

Employment Increases

The largest increase in employment in any city was reported from Denver, with a jump of 22.4 per cent. The largest decrease was in Portland, Oregon, with 23.4 per cent. The reports for May show that 1423 firms, usually employing more than 500 each, located in the twelve principal industrial centers of the United States, employed 1,373,538 workers on May 31, as against 1,369,749 on April 30, a net decrease for the month of 7211, or .5 per cent. The net decrease in these same establishments since January 31 has been 54,590, or 3.3 per cent. Thirty-two cities showed increases in the number employed, and thirty-three cities there were decreases.

Today's Markets

WHEAT PRICE DECLINES

Quotations at Market Close Are 1 3/4 to 4 3/4 Cents Net Lower

CHICAGO, (AP)—Favorable weather for harvesting had a beneficial effect on the wheat market, and so far, all reports of increased country offerings. Misgivings about the outcome of voting on proposed anti-legislation at Springfield, Ill., seemed also to make prices weaker. Houses with eastern connections led the selling. Initial figures, which ranged from 1 1/2 to 2 1/2c lower, with July $1.17 1/2 to 1.38 and September $1.12 1/2 to 1.30, were followed by decided setbacks all around.

Subsequently, reports of black rust in the South Dakota market somewhat. It was said also that exporters were exchanging July for cash. The close, nevertheless, was heavy, 1 3/4 to 4 3/4c net lower, with July $1.15 1/4 to 1.35 1/2 and September $1.12 1/2 to 1.30 1/2.

Corn gave way with wheat. After starting 3/8 to 1/4 to 1/3-3/4c lower, including July at $1.02 to 1.04 1/4, the market continued to descend.

Reports that the crop and so on were excellent emphasized the downward tendency later. Prices closed weak, 1/4 to 1/8 to 1/4c net lower, with July $2.64.

Science, He's For It

"Yes, doctor," agreed baby John William, after a careful adjustment of his goldrimmed spectacles, "my opinion in the matter coincides perfectly with your own." And then, after a deliberate peep through the microscope. "The old days of haphazard bringing up of children should indeed be relegated to a dim and dismal past. Science—that's the cry of our present day and age. And in the name of the Babies' Mutual Aid and Benevolent Association of Chicago, I want to say I'm strong for it." NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, (AP)—Oils, motors and miscellaneous specialties represented the constructive side of today's stock market but secondary rails, rubbers and fuel issues were among the reactionary stocks. Gains approximated 750,000 shares.

The trend of yesterday at the opening of today's stock market suggested an extension of yesterday's rally, a number of traders showing gains of 1 to 1 1/2 points. This was immediately followed, however, by a resumption in large volume of the recent selling movement in rails, oils and equipments. Northern Pacific reversed its initial gain of one point with an abrupt decline of 2 points and Great Northern lost 2 3/4. Mercantile Petroleum fell 2 points, Baldwin Locomotive 1 5/8, Pure Oil 1 1/2 and General Asphalt one. Steels, motors, sugars, tobaccos and textiles also reacted.

Strength of investment rails and the weakness of junior transportations and equipments, notably "Boo" and Pullman were among the conflicting features of the final hour. The closing was irregular.

RECORD WHEAT CROP PROMISED FOR THE STATE

Combination Spring and Winter Yields Expected to Exceed Any Other Season

Idaho's combined winter and spring wheat crop indicated a possible prospect for June 1 of 25,725,000 bushels or 133,000 bushels more than the 1920 crop, which was the largest on record. This is due to winter wheat having a condition 6 per cent higher than a year ago and the spring wheat condition being 3 per cent higher than June 1 last year.

According to official reports compiled by John H. Jacobson, state crop official:

Improvement Shown

The winter wheat outlook improved from 8,900,000 bushels last month to 9,370,000 bushels June 1. Condition 10 per cent over the 1920 crop and prospects are greatly improved over previous years.

No Change

There have been seeded 650,000 acres of spring wheat, which equals that of last year. Earliest stands have been secured and a condition of 98 per cent of normal forecasts a crop of 10,500,000 bushels. Last year's harvest was 10,000,000 bushels.

Acres Planted

An area of 184,000 acres was seeded to oats, or a decrease of 3 per cent from last year. A high condition of 97 per cent of normal indicated a crop of 7,800,000 bushels, comparing with 7,529,000 bushels in 1920.

Less Barley

There were only 86,700 acres seeded to barley this year, against 91,800 acres last year. The promise is for a 3,163,000 bushel crop based on a condition of 90 per cent of normal.

Big Hay Crop

Warm weather and generous rains throughout the state caused rapid growth. A crop of 3,225,000 tons is forecast from a condition of 98 per cent. Although average shows a decrease of 10 per cent from last year, the hay acreage remains the same. The condition of both crops is high.

Year's Forecast

	Average	Production
All wheat	1,017,000	25,725,000

Oats	184,000	7,800,000

Social Notes

Members of the Episcopal church met at the Parish hall last evening when the Rev. Charles Glenn Birdge gave an account of the convention recently held at Boise, telling briefly of the work of the church under the organization of nation-wide campaign and of the splendid and helpful talks given at the sessions at the convocation. The Twin Falls parish had the largest number of delegates present at the convocation. During the social hour last evening refreshments were served and the Rev. Birdge issued an invitation to the guild to spend Thursday afternoon at her home on Blue Lake boulevard and all members who are interested are most near the drinking fountain in the city park at 2 o'clock on that afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur J. Peavey entertained the members of the club at a dinner at her home on Seventh avenue north. It was a staid party and there were many clever impersonations. Dancing was also a feature of the evening and refreshments were served to the 25 members present.

Mrs. O. P. Duvall will present her vocal pupils in recital at the parlors of the First Presbyterian church on Thursday evening, June 16, at 8:15. All persons interested are invited.

An ice cream social will be given by the altar society of St. Edwards church Wednesday evening on Father Bemis St. Keyser's lawn, beginning at 5 o'clock. Sandwiches and salad will also be served.

The Westminster Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. D. F. Sweet, 727 Shoshone north, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. and Mr. Leonard Smith were hosts at a seven o'clock dinner at the Hotel Hodgson last evening. The table was set in the form of a square with the guests seated round the table in the hollow square in the center stood a tall pedestal holding a basket of rose, pink and white peonies, and at each corner of the square a smaller pedestal was placed holding smaller baskets of peonies. Leading from the tall basket were four streamers of green tulle which were held in place on the table by silver chandeliers containing rose and pink candles, the handles of the small baskets were tied with bows of the great tulle, and cup in the same shades were placed at each corner. Following dinner the guests motored to the Reed apartments where dancing was enjoyed in the amusement room.

BANKERS GIVE SOLDIER MEN CAUSE FOR WORRY IN 9 TO 7 BALL GAME

Legion's New Pitcher Slugged into Comotose Condition in Near-Fatal Fifth by Rampaging Money Counters—Moreley Takes the Hill and Stops the Carnage—Zinke Clouts Another Homer

THE BANKERS last night hopped onto the fifth inning server at the fifth inning and nearly snatched the game away from the Legionnaires. The final count was 9 to 7, for the soldiers, but to win the latter had to hit.

The Legion pitched Snow as a new twirler in their bats, and he went along nicely all the way to the fifth. Up to that frenzied stanza the young man had gone along in swimming style allowing only a couple of blows. The runs counted, one each in the second and third, while the fourth passed without incident.

Three reounding whacks, and various other fell things occurred in the fifth, couple of the smashes being worth two bases. As the haze of bat lifted five runs were traced in the dust of the base lines, and it was deemed at that point, to relieve Mr. Snow of further responsibility on the hillcock. "Spud" Moreley finished the affair with considerable glorification for himself. No scores were made after Snow retired. Zinke, Moreley and Watson shared for the soldiers with the stick, while Landville and Rush carried off honors for the Bankers.

South's Restraint Action Against Gas-trolf Directors in District Court

In the district court this morning Judge W. A. Babcock situated an injunction of an injunction case instituted by R. C. Smith, a Castletown farmer, against Independent School district, No. 3. This is a final hearing on the injunction, application entered by Smith to prevent the district from leasing bonds amounting to $60,000. The bonds were recently voted to raise a fund for the erection of a school building at Castletown. H. C. Mills is attorney for the plaintiff and J. H. Bothwell for the defendant.

Following this hearing, the Pollock re-hearing, on a forged charge, will be heard in the district court. At the conclusion of the latter case Mrs. Ann Elias Meyer Southard, alleged murderer, will be given a preliminary hearing.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?

Do you know that nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any internal treatment. The pain may be relieved by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, which makes sleep and rest possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism.

PROSPECT FOR APPLE OUTPUT EQUAL TO 1920

Statistician Tells of Promising Outlook in Twin Falls and Other Districts

An apple crop 95 per cent of normal amounting to 3,407,000 bushels is the outlook for Idaho, based on conditions prevailing June 1. This is practically the same as last year's crop. It is estimated that the entire movement will total approximately 2900 cars. In 1920 some 3100 cars of apples were loaded in the state. The crop is particularly promising in Adams, Washington and Twin Falls counties, while Payette county, which has 13 per cent of the total state acreage, reports a condition of 89 per cent of normal. Many orchards in Gem county will have to be thinned. Twin Falls county will have a bumper crop, says Julius H.

Jacobson, state agricultural statistician of the crop reporting service, in a preliminary summary of the general condition within the boundaries of the Gem state. Mr. Jacobson continues: "If the June drop is not excessive the crop in Nez Perce county may run 120 per cent of normal. The outlook is excellent in Latah county, but in Kootenai county, the crop is a bit spotted. The United States crop is 107,028,900 bushels compared with 240,442,900 bushels harvested in 1920. The prune crop promises to be the largest ever raised in Idaho. A year ago, a condition of 53 per cent of normal was reported and the final crop movement amounted to 1207 cars. This year the condition is 82 per cent of normal and a carload movement of 1450 cars is considered conservative. Apples have 38 per cent of the prune acreage and the condition there is 84 per cent of normal.

Peaches promise a crop of 84,000 bushels, which is only four times greater than last year. The condition is 53 per cent of normal, while a year ago it was only 25 per cent. A full crop is expected in Adams county which has 12 per cent of the state acreage. The largest acreage occurs in Gem county but the condition is only 13 per cent of normal. Peas show only 75 per cent of a crop, forecasting 69,000 bushels, compared with 83,000 bushels, harvested in 1920. Cherries promise only 64 per cent of a crop. Sweet varieties were hit hard by spring frosts but sour varieties survived better. Nez Perce county has only half a normal crop but in Latah, Kootenai and Twin Falls counties, the prospect is much better. The above estimates are made before the "June drop" which always affects later estimates. They are based on particularly comprehensive reports of 85 of the best informed men in the ten important fruit counties. A special report on prospects in other states will be prepared as soon as data are available.

Only the Best Tropical Suits for Men Are Good Enough

"Palm Beach" suits can be had at various prices, some of them seemingly very low prices, and somehow there are men to wear them.

Probably these men have yet to learn that tropical suits to look well, the materials have to be the best of their kind and the tailoring fine to a particular degree. Tropical suits of an inferior kind will neither fit, nor serve, nor wear.

The quickest and most convincing way for any man to see the difference between the tropical suits that give men a maximum of service and cool comfort without spoiling his line and the tropical suits that keep men cool and make them look ridiculous is to come in here and see the finest tropical suits made and then see any other supposedly "cheaper" one.

For tropical suits that fit and serve and hold their good lines our prices could not regularly be lower.

Palm Beach Suits, $20, $22.50 and $25.

PRESIDENT HARDING SEES

With the principle of disarmament most people are in sympathy... The practical goal, however, that disarmament is its common meaning...

President Harding, who subscribes to the principle which just now is commanding the enthusiastic support of so many, sees this clearly...

Grossly material advocates of preparation there may be, but in those none of this condemned quality...

The President will join heartily in efforts to limit the armaments of nations, but he is too wise to believe that success in this direction will far forward establishing that condition of peace which is so much desired.

FOODS FOR THE CHILDREN.

For dessert grapefruit is placed in place of nuts or even in salads makes a desirable substitute that will not hurt children.

But our best authorities upon dietetics start for children tell us that cereals should never be sugared, but use dates, figs, prunes and such dried fruits, cooked with the cereal...

Cornstarch pudding made with eggs and milk with a little sugar to sweeten, served with cream and sugar, with cubes of jelly for a garnish...

Cocoa made extract of milk will often be taken when milk will be refused. Bread puddings made with eggs, milk, a few dates, figs or raisins and served with cream.

Pain sponge cake unadorned. It is made with a white sauce made of cream or milk, thickened or not. The more one can add to milk in flour and butter, the more the food value is increased.

Graham crackers buttered and put together as sandwiches. Graham crackers dotted with marshmallows and baked until they puff makes a safe confection or one that takes the place of candy.

Deserts suitable for growing children never include pastry of any kind with a white sauce made of cream, fruit, fresh and cooked, with cereals, tapioca, with fruit, gelatin dishes, ice cream, water ices and other simple combinations are permissible.

Sometimes the most wholesome of foods disagree; each child should be studied as a special problem and matches from day to day... which retards growth leaves a mark which may not appear until later life.
