SINN FEIN MINE DESTROYS TRAIN BEARING TROOPS

Three Soldiers and Guard Killed and Score Injured in the Wreck on Line from Belfast to Dublin; Horses Victims

BELEFAST, (AP)—Three soldiers and a train guard were killed and some twenty soldiers and an assistant train guard were injured when a troop train carrying soldiers from Belfast to Dublin was wrecked by the explosion of Sinn Fein land mines at Aberveyle, near Dundalk, Ireland.

An official statement issued this afternoon giving the number of casualties, said that about thirty horses were killed in the wreck or had to be destroyed owing to their injuries.

Soldiers Open Fire Soldiers who saw civilians running away from the scene of the wreck fired, shooting to death two unidentified persons. Two mines were employed. Evidently they had been placed after the passage of previous troop trains. A rail also had been released.

Two Trains Pass Safely Two special trains with soldiers and horses who had participated in the reception of King George and Queen Mary on the state opening of the Union parliament, Wednesday had passed over the spot safely. The third train was wrecked at a steep embankment when the mine exploded, most of the carriages falling over the embankment. Physicians were immediately rushed to the scene.

Troops Sent to Scene Large forces of police and soldiers also were dispatched to the spot, which is in a lonely mountainous district just beyond the Ulster border. The earliest reports said that forty men had been killed and a number injured, but later reports decreased this number.

Vicious Hail Storm Causes Severe Loss in Burley Section

Cloudburst Preceded the Worst Climatic Disturbance Witnessed in Many Years

BURLEY, (Special to The News)—Estimates today indicate a varying degree of damage to crops on at least thousands of acres as a result of a heavy storm which broke in the late afternoon yesterday. A heavy rain was preceded by a windstorm which did little damage but the rain increased in intensity culminating in what is declared to have been a cloudburst. Water poured down all over this section.

Reports from reports indicate a heavy downfall although little actual damage resulted in that section. A heavy fall of hail brought the disturbance to a close. A complete checkup of actual damage has not yet been made, but reports coming in from the surrounding country the hail was the worst in years.

There was virtually no effect from the rain, the entire damage being ascribed to the hail.

In an alley near a theater where a pack of greyhounds comprised part of an act, the cat fought them all last night, but the proverbial nine lives of a feline were unavailing against ten dogs.

Chairman Norris and Senator Gough, republican, Idaho, expressed doubt that the bill could pass with a further extension of government credit attached to it.

Mr. Norris announced that Secretary Hoover would be asked to appear and that hearings would be closed Tuesday.

DE VALERA IS PRISONER OF BRITISH OVER NIGHT

Rojava Follows when Identity of Irish Republican Leader is Made known

DUBLIN, (AP)—Eamon de Valera, the Irish republican leader, was arrested Wednesday night near this city and later released today. There have been earlier denials from the Sinn Fein authorities that he had been apprehended.

It is understood, however, that de Valera was arrested either in error or through over zeal on the part of the officials concerned.

The arrest, it is understood, took place at Black Duck, County Dublin. The prisoner was detained, for the night and his identity being learned, he was released yesterday afternoon.

It is a matter of fact, it is stated here there is no intention on the part of the authorities in Ireland to arrest de Valera.

SERIOUSLY HURT WHEN CAR HITS TRAFFIC GUIDE

Harry F. Allen Dangerously Injured as Result of Collision with Intersection Marker on Shoshone Street

Suffering from a broken arm and a fracture at the base of the skull, Harry F. Allen, of the Allen Oil company, is in a critical condition at La Merced hospital as a result of an auto accident last night about midnight on the car which he was driving collided with the traffic pedestal or "silent policeman" at the intersection of Shoshone street and Sixth avenue.

Allen was returning to his home, unaccompanied, driving on the wrong way, a Dodge. Within the last day or two traffic pedestals have been set up at different Shoshone street intersections, consisting of a heavy concrete base with a short iron post about five feet in height. The grey color of these render the pedestals hard to distinguish from the pavement.

Allen struck the curb in front of the accident offered in that Mr. Allen failed to see the post.

Charles Maceuly and Dr. W. A. Sullivan were walking up Shoshone street behind Mr. Allen when the accident occurred. J. W. C. Deane and E. H. Stevenson were a block or so behind Maceuly and Sullivan. The impact wrecked the car, and the driver was thrown and within a few minutes these were joined by others residing near the scene of the accident. With difficulty the car was finally righted and the injured driver was taken to the hospital. Medical aid was summoned at once and upon the arrival of the ambulance Mr. Allen was taken at once to the hospital. It has been practically ascertained since the accident.

Relatives Hastily Called His nephew, Wendell Allen, and Mrs. Allen were at Boise. Otis Allen, another nephew was in Pocatello. Both were summoned at once, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Allen were the first to arrive. At six o'clock this morning, arriving in Twin Falls about 10. Oscar C. Allen, a brother, left a half an hour later, reaching Twin Falls during the morning.

Charlie Maceuly, who with Dr. Sullivan was the first to reach the overturned car, this morning gave the following account of the crash. Within five minutes after the crash, Dr. Sullivan and I were proceeding slowly up Shoshone street, talking as we walked. I did not notice the car pass nor but would probably have done so had the machine been moving at any speed. My view was very moderate pace. We were nearly opposite the bandstand in the park, on the park side of the street.

GOAL SHIPMENT IN UTAH DROPS

Fuel Famine Prospect Looms Unless Early Steps for Storage are Taken

SALT LAKE, (Special).—Coal shipments in Utah during the first five months of 1921 have shown decrease as compared with those of a similar period in 1920 of 30 per cent, according to figures compiled by the public utilities commission and announced this morning by Secretary T. E. Banning. Mr. Banning this morning advised that unless steps are taken during the summer months by the public for the storage of coal a coal famine may be precipitated for the coming fall and winter when the railroads will be taxed to the maximum in hauling agricultural products.

The total number of cars of coal which were loaded from the Carbon county coal fields of Utah during the first five months of 1920, as compared to the first five months of 1921, show the following figures: First five months of 1920, 42,377; first five months of 1921, 29,744; decrease of 1921 over 1920, 15,633.

The utilities commission advises the public to store coal during the summer months as a precautionary measure in avoiding the possibility of a coal famine. The fall movement of grain and hogs creates a heavy demand on the equipment and the roads which may assume such proportions as to take all available equipment.

The railroads operating in Utah are now well able to handle much more traffic than they are receiving and steps taken now to store coal will aid in reducing the likelihood of the roads being taxed this fall as well as tending to stabilize the conditions in the unemployment situation by providing employment.

"If there is no equipment during the coming fall and a shortage should be experienced in the unemployment situation coal would not be a question as to price but a question as to whether or not it can be obtained," he said. "It would appear wise to arrange to store one's supply of coal during the next three months or at least a portion of it. Every car of coal hauled now and placed in storage will release that car for hauling other products when they are needed."

The figures as prepared by the public utilities commission are taken to indicate that there is little or no coal being stored now.

WAR TIME PROFITEERS FLEAYED BY M'COMBER

North Dakota Senator Pays Respects to Trade "Pirates" in Talk for Bonus

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP).—War-time "profiteering pirates" were fleayed in the south-Thursday by Senator McCumber, republican, North Dakota, in an address advocating his bill for giving adjusted compensation to former service men. The measure reported favorably by the finance committee would be an act not only of gratitude but of justice, he said.

He estimated that 80 per cent of former service men would exercise their option of the five plans endorsed by the American Legion by taking the two-year certificate which, he said, would really give service men 40 per cent more than the cash option. If the other 20 per cent should take cash, Senator McCumber said the bill would not entail an annual burden upon the government of more than $200,000,000 until 1943.

In a future congress use of that in any future war industrial production and slacking will be visited with an heavy penalty as draft evasion or desertion, he demanded.

Senator McCumber said the war-time administration "started out with the determination to satisfy the demands of both organized capital and organized labor, and leave the public to foot the bill, which it has done and will continue to do in exorbitant taxes and extortionate prices for many years to come."

STEFANSSON GIVES PLAN FOR NEXT ARCTIC TRIP

Expedition's Object to Develop Resources of Northland Declares Famous Explorer

POCATELLO, Idaho, (AP).—Reports that another expedition into the Arctic regions, is being planned was given confirmation by Vilhjalmur Stefansson, famous explorer and veteran of numerous trips into the northland region, who will head the exploration and development company as president.

Stefansson, who lectured in Pocatello last night on a Chautauque circuit said, "The object of the company will be to further develop the resources of the Arctic land, which most people consider a hopeless waste, on a commercial basis. These resources were first brought to light by my previous expeditions and the commercial possibilities of the Arctic are many. The last expedition for adventure and exploration has been made, the next will be placed on a purely commercial basis, designed the same as the expeditions of Hulton and the other explorers of olden days, but on a larger scale."

CHARGES CHINESE TRADE IN SLAVE GIRLS IN U. S.

Los Angeles Minister Makes a Startling Assertion at Dos Molinos Convales

DES MOINES, Ia., (AP).—That Chinese slave girl traffic is "going on right under the noses of our city officials" was the statement made by Dr. Charles R. Shepherd of Los Angeles, California, general missionary among the Orientals, at the Northern Baptist convention in this city today.

"I know from personal experience and not from hearsay, that this is a fact," he declared, citing the instance of a Chinese girl 10 years old in San Francisco for $2700.

In speaking of the tongs of the country, Dr. Shepherd said, "These tongs are not only a result to the churches of America, they are an insult to the great Masonic order. Over the gateway of one of the bloodiest and most powerful fighting tongs in America, is a sign 'Big King Tong, Pay Masons.' It masquerades as a Masonic lodge, while it is made up of those who engage in the traffic in Chinese girls, who labor to frustrate our laws, who plan bloody murder, and pay professional assassins to carry out their plots."

The Chinese, as a whole, make citizenry, however, Dr. Shepherd maintained. The better class among them own their own homes, participate in community affairs, and throw themselves into all great national movements, he said.

HAWAII LOOKS FORWARD TO MILITARY INCREASE

Strength of Island Garrison Now Placed at 15,000 is Expected to be Boosted to 25,000

HONOLULU, T. H., (AP).—More than 15,000 officers and men of the United States army complete the present garrison in Hawaii, according to recent semi-official tables completed here. That this total will be brought to approximately 25,000 is the confident expectation in well informed circles.

The last important unit to arrive was the Fifty-fifth artillery, with its equipment of heavy motorized guns. These troops came during May and are quartered at Fort Kamehameha near Pearl harbor, the navy's great base in the islands.

Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets
"Chamberlain's Tablets have been used by my husband and myself off and on for the past five years. When my husband goes away from home he always takes a bottle of them along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull and played out, I take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets and they fix me up fine." writes Mrs. Newell, Yreaville, Minn. N. Y. LABOR SESSION DEMANDS PROBE OF STRIKE RIOT

Calls Upon Harding for Investigation to Fix Responsibility for 'Issuing of Guns' and Death of Car Workers

DENVER, Colo., (AP)—The convention of the American Federation of Labor today called upon President Harding to investigate the strike riot at the Standard Steel Car company, Hammond, Ind., in September, 1919, and fix the responsibility for the 'issuing of guns' and the death of four steel car workers.

The resolution charged that the workers were shot down with riot guns furnished by the United States government.

Access Government Agents. All organized labor in the United States was requested to unite to 'ascertain the actual facts in relation to the use of these barbarous weapons, and to fix the responsibility upon such individual officers, servants or representatives of the government who shall be found personally responsible for this great outrage against legal and natural right.'

Enactment of legislation by congress providing 'strict federal control of the production and distribution of natural resources now privately held and 'artificially developed,' was demanded by the convention.

The executive officers were instructed to 'exercise every legitimate means to prevent the enactment of legislation at once for such federal control through publicity or otherwise.'

Steps Taken for Election. The convention voted to make the election of officers a special order of business for 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The secretary of war and the secretary of the navy and civil service commission were called upon by resolution to immediately discharge from the government service all alien employees who fail to qualify for citizenship.

Electronizing on the floor of the convention during the morning session today again threatened to interrupt the proceedings and President Samuel Compton had considerable trouble to keep order to the committee's report.

Compensations Warning. He issued a warning from the platform to federation organizers that they must not interfere with the election of officers.

'No organizer has a right or a privilege,' he said, 'to expose the candidacy of any applicant to office in violation of the American Federation of Labor to whom it may concern, I say, take no notice.'

Today's Markets

WHEAT PRICES UNCHANGED

Closing Quotations Unchanged at Exactly Same Figures as Yesterday

CHICAGO, (AP)—Wheat prices took a new upward swing today owing to continued unfavorable crop advices from the northwest. Heat and drought were unabated, and there were advices that black rust situation in South Dakota had become serious in several counties, with head stem infection at hand.

On the ensuing advance, however, selling pressure increased. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1-4 to 1-4 1/2 higher, with July $1.31 1-4 to 1-32 and September $1.24 1-4 to 1-24 3-4, were followed by moderate further gains and then something of a reaction.

Subsequently, weakness in the New York stock market and in foreign exchange counted against the bulls. Closing prices were unsettled, at exactly the same figures as yesterday, July $1.30 3-4 to 1-31 and September $1.23 3-4 to 1-24.

Corn was firmer with wheat. After opening 1-4 off to a like advance, including September at 63 1-2 to 63 5-8c, then sagged a little, but soon hardened all around.

Liberal arrivals together with slowness of domestic and foreign demand had a depressing effect later. The close was weak, 5-8 to 3-4c net lower, with September 62 3-4c.

Oats reflected the action of other cereals, starting unchanged to a shade higher, and later scoring slight general gains.

Higher quotations on hogs helped to lift provisions.

New York Stock Market. NEW YORK, (AP)—Trading in stocks today was dull and unusually contracted. Short covering among speculative favorites caused rallies of 1 to 3 points.

Sales approximated 60,000 shares. Short covering in the popular oil, steel, motor and chemical imparted a degree of strength to the general list at the opening of today's stock market.

Mexican Petroleum, General Asphalt, Crucible Steel, Studebaker, Allied Chemical and American Agricultural Chemical preferred scored early gains of one to almost three points.

American Tobacco, Sumatra Tobacco and Pullman were firm. Equipments and motors were lower, however, United States Rubber reacting two points to a new low. Ironvess was shown by Bethlehem Steel, Baldwin Locomotive, American Sugar and American International.

High prices were made by oil, rail and fuel specialties in the latter final hour, but Mercantile Marine preferred was under further pressure. The closing was firm.

TEMPERATURES OF PAST WEEK BELOW NORMAL

Growth of Crops was Retarded by Low Moisture—Some Frosts Reported

Temperatures as an average for the state last week were slightly below normal, with light frosts reported in several localities, says Clinton E. Norquist, meteorologist.

At Twin Falls, in a weekly summary of weather and crop conditions. The report is as follows:

In a few sections the week was quite warm but over the greater portion of the state temperatures ranged considerably below normal. Frost occurred in several localities, but no damage resulted. Light showers fell in some districts but in the main the rainfall was too light to do much good. Cold drying winds prevailed much of the time and rapidly depleted the soil moisture.

There was considerable frost in the state and some areas were for the most part adequate.

Growth Conditions.

Although growing conditions were possibly not entirely favorable yet all crops continued to make satisfactory progress. Wheat in all stages of growth but is everywhere reported in excellent condition. In the earliest districts the crop is ripening and harvest has begun. In the main the conditions are encouraging. Thinning has been completed in all but the latest districts and cultivation is the order of the day. Potatoes are doing well. Some growing ahead of normal.

Warmer weather, especially warmer nights, to put it at its best. Early cherries are being harvested. The crop is light, having been severely damaged by frosts in late April, but the quality of the fruit is fine. Pastures, meadows and ranges continue in excellent condition. Range feed is abundant and all classes are thriving. Apples and prunes are growing fast. Aphids are in evidence in some orchards and there is a rather heavy drop of prunes in others, but the prospects are good for an abundance of fruit.

Cloudy weather and frequent light showers retarded hayting to some extent in the Boise-Payette valley. There was not enough rain to damage hay but there has been some damage to alfalfa. In late April, but the quality of the fruit is fine. Pastures, meadows and ranges continue in excellent condition. Range feed is abundant and all classes are thriving. Apples and prunes are growing fast. Aphids are in evidence in some orchards and there is a rather heavy drop of prunes in others, but the prospects are good for an abundance of fruit.

ambulance from the McClure residence. There was no evidence of life at first but later he began to show signs of returning consciousness.

The car which Mr. Allen was driving was taken to the Lind garage. Top and windshield are completely demolished, front end mangled and left hand cap mashed. Both fenders are badly bent. The steering post is apparently unharmed but the steering gear and mechanism are destroyed.

Early this afternoon there was no particular change in Mr. Allen's condition but physicians in attendance appeared to think that the patient's condition was improving. An operation may be resorted to later in the day. Up to 3 o'clock Mr. Allen's condition was such as to render this inadvisable except as a last resort.

This afternoon Dr. Coughlin, in consultation with Dr. Stewart of Boise by phone and the latter may be called to Twin Falls to assist in the care.

THE COAL SITUATION

Word from the coal mining districts is that coal shipments for the past few weeks have fallen off heavily as compared with the shipments of the corresponding period last year. The inference is that consumers quit buying as soon as moderation in the weather permitted and that they are averse to replenishing their bins until driven to it by the return of winter.

Inevitably, if everybody quits buying and neglects to lay in during the summer months some of the coal that will be required for the winter, there is going to be a congestion in traffic which will make for another coal famine.

The probable reason for falling off in the consumer's demand is the possibility of cheaper coal later on. This might result from belief that freight rates on coal are going to be reduced, so that a considerable saving may be effected by buying later. Before adopting this view, however, the prudent consumer will endeavor to, by means of facts, and ought to make inquiry from those in position to know whether or not there is any likelihood of such a reduction. Perhaps there is just now, no one in position to know better what the future holds in this regard than Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce. Mr. Hoover's opinion has been asked, and this is what he has to say:

"I have no information that leads me to believe there will be any reduction of coal rates this season." The probabilities are that Mr. Hoover knows whereof he speaks. At least his judgment is to be taken into consideration by the consumer in choosing as between a possible saving of a few dollars on the one hand and the probable facing of a situation where no coal at all is to be had when it is needed next winter.

If there is a shortage of sugar for canning this summer, please the blame on the proximity of Wisconsin's coast to the earth. The bankers who loaned Cuban growers money to hold their crop had nothing to do with it.

Marriage license clerks who are "stumped" for an explanation for a falling off in the number of June brides probably never thought that it might be due to a falling off in the number of June bridegrooms.

One half the world wonders how the other half gets away with it.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism? Do you know that nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles or chronic rheumatism, neither of which require any special treatment. The pain may be relieved by applying Chamberlain's Liniment, which makes sleep and rest possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism.—adv.

A Man for the Ages A Story of the Builders of Democracy By Irving Bacheller

CHAPTER XIII

Wherein the Route of the Underground Railroad is Surveyed and Samson and Harry Spend a Night in the Home of Henry Brimstead and His Surprising Revelations, Confidentially Disclosed.

Early in the autumn of that year the Reverend Elijah Lovejoy of Alton had spent a night with the Traylor on his way to the North. "Sitting by the fireside he had told many a vivid tale of the cruelties of slavery. "I would not have you think that all slaveholders are wicked and heartless," he said. "They are like other men the world over. Some are kind and indulgent. If all men were like their slavery could be tolerated. But in the North as well as in the South, if not made so by nature, they are made so by drink. To give them the power of life and death over human beings, which they seem to have in parts of the South, is a crime against God and civilization."

"I agree with you," said Samson. "I know that you would," the minister went on. "They have already had some help from you but we need more. I take it as a duty which God has laid upon me to help every fugitive that reaches my door. You can help the good work of mercy and grace. If you hear three taps upon your window after dark or the foot of an owl in your dooryard you will know what it means. Fix some place on your farm where these poor people who are seeking the freedom which God wills for all His children, may find rest and refreshment and security until they have strength to go on."

Within a week after the visit of Mr. Lovejoy, Samson and Harry built a hollow haystack about half-way from the house to the barn. The stack had a comfortable room inside of it about eight feet by seven and some six feet in height. Its entrance was an opening near the bottom of the stack well screened by the pendant hay. But no fugitive came to occupy it that winter. Soon after the new year of 1850 Samson and Harry moved in the Kelso to Tazewell county. Mr. Kelso had received an appointment as land agent and was to be stationed at the little settlement of Hopedale near the home of John Peaseley.

Late in the afternoon Harry and Samson left the Kelso and their effects at a small frame house in the little village of Hopedale. The men had no sooner begun to unload than its inhabitants came to welcome the newcomers and help them in the work of getting settled. When the goods were deposited in the dooryard Samson and Harry drove to John Peaseley's farm. Mr. Peaseley recognized the big, broad-shouldered Vermonter at the first look. "Do I remember you?" he said. "Well, I guess I do. So does my wife door. Let me take hold of that right hand of yours again. Yes, sir. It's the same old iron hand. Merry Ann!" he called as his wife came out of the door. "Here's the big man from Vermontes who joined the north stars."

"I see it is," she answered. "Ain't ye comin' in?" "If you try to pass this place I'll have ye look-up," said Peaseley. "There's plenty of food in the house an' stable." "Look here—that's downright softish," said his wife. "If we tried to keep you here Henry Brimstead would never forgive us. He talks about you morning noon and night. Any one would think that you was the Samson that slew the Phillittines." "How is Henry?" Samson asked. "He married my sister and they're about as happy as they can be this side the river Jordan," she went on. "They've got one of the best farms in Tazewell county and they're goin' to be rich."

"Yes, sir; I didn't think of that," said Peaseley. "Henry and his wife would holler if we didn't take you over there. It's only a quarter of a mile. I'll show ye the way and we'll all come over this evening and have a talkin' bee."

Samson was pleased and astonished by the look of Brimstead and his home and his family and the account of his success. The man from the sand flats was clearly shrewd, save for a black moustache, and neatly dressed and his face glowed with health and high spirits. A handsome brown-eyed man of seventeen came galloping up the road on her pony and stopped near them. "Annabel, do you remember this man?" Brimstead asked.

"The girl looked at Samson. "He is the man who helped us out of Free valley," said the girl. "Would you mind if I kissed you?" "I would be sorry if you didn't," said Samson. "Here's my boy, Harry Needles. You wouldn't dare kiss him, I guess."

"I would be sorry, too, if you didn't," Harry laughed as he took her hand. "You afraid you'll have to stay sorry?" said Annabel, turning red with embarrassment. "I never saw you before."

"Better late than never," Samson assured her. "You don't often see a better fellow."

The girl laughed with a subtle look of agreement in her eyes. Then came up from the barn the ragged little lad of No Santa Claus Land—now a sturdy, bright-eyed, handsome boy of twelve.

The horses were put out and all went in to supper. After supper Brimstead showed models of a mowing machine with a cut bar six feet long, and a plow which would turn two furrows.

"That's what we need on these prairies," said Samson. "Something that'll turn 'em over and out the crop quicker."

"Say, I'll tell ye," said Brimstead as if about to disclose a secret. "These great stretches of smooth, rich land just existingly run the spurs into you and keep your brain galloping. Mine is goin' night and day. The prairies are a new thing and you've got to tackle 'em in a new way. I tell you the mowing and planting and mowing and tending and threshing is all going to be done by machinery and horses. The wheel will be the foundation of the new era."

"You're right," said Samson. "How are you getting along?" "Rather slow," Samson answered. "It's hard to get our stuff to market down in the Sangamon country. Our river isn't navigable yet. We hope that Abe Lincoln, who has just been elected to the legislature, will be able to get it widened and straightened and cleaned up so it'll be of some use to us down there."

"I've heard of him. They call him Honest Abe, don't they?" "Yes; and he is honest if a man ever was."

"Is he going to marry the Rutledge girl?" was the query of Mrs. Brimstead.

DEMPSEY ENJOYS DAY OF REST ON NATAL OCCASION

Twenty-Sixth Birthday Provides Champion Chance for Kenzo

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., (P)—Jack Dempsey today is celebrating his twenty-sixth birthday by taking a 24-hour lay-off from all training activities. The camp was closed to the public for the day.

Dempsey received a hundred or more telegrams from admirers and relatives, extending birthday greetings and wishing him good luck in his defense of the championship against Georges Carpentier at Jersey City, July 2. He looked eagerly forward to a message he expected from his mother in Baltimore. Dempsey is in such splendid condition that Manager Jack Kearns has decided that he will not require the services of Kid Norfolk, negro light heavy weight, and others who were expected to be in camp for the final week of training.

The full training program will be resumed tomorrow and the champion also will box Sunday with his present sparring partner.

The title holder will do his last work with the gloves Tuesday and Wednesday, according to the schedule laid out by Manager Kearns today. Dempsey will take his final exercise on Thursday to loosen up his muscles, but on Friday will remain in seclusion at his camp until the time for his departure for Jersey City.

Newspaper correspondents plan to give Dempsey a surprise party at his camp tonight. Teddy Hayes, the champion's trainer, had a cake baked for him with 26 candles on it. The newspaper correspondents will also have a parade the champion during the day.

Brief Bits of Sport

Carpentier and his camp folks are seeing good signs in what others generally regard as bad omens.

The signs and symbols may be cheering to the challenger but they are not likely to affect the betting odds in his favor.

Tonight the Moose and Legion ball clubs will lock horns, or whatever it is, in Lincoln lot.

The Moose outfit is said to have been materially strengthened in the past fortnight and is expected to give the former service men a hard battle.

There are many flaic upstarts but none of the upstarts to Dempsey's crown room able to give Tommy Glubons a real battle.

Thomas the other night slammed Big Willie Meehan for a goal in a single round at Cleveland.

Reports of the encounter indicate that six blows only were struck during the entire fracas. These were divided 60-50 between the fighters. Thomas landed three clouts on Willie's facial expression and Willie landed three times on his back on the resined canvas.

Jack McCallife, former lightweight champion, says "There ain't no fighter in the world who can take Dempsey's measure."

That's a lot of territory to cover, sure enough.

The following item, from the Sporting News, baseball's only authoritative and official publication, should be of interest and elucidation for the many News sports readers:

YORK CITY, Pa.—A. N. The rule making the ball dead when it "accidentally hit the batter's bat" was recommended by the major leagues, leaving the old rule in force. Under the old rule on account is taken of accidents and the play is whatever it happens to be.

Philadelphia—One of the largest events in the history of the sport is predicted for the intercollegiate tennis tournament which begins at the Morris Oriskany club, June 27. Among the teams entered are Johns Hopkins University of Texas, University of California, University of Wisconsin and Yale. Harvard, Princeton and Pennsylvania are expected to enter.

London—King George will present the international polo cup to the American team which on Wednesday was victorious over the British defenders of the trophy at Buckingham palace on Monday.

San Francisco—John Morgan, said to have once held the American threecushion billiard title, was reported critically ill at a local hospital today. Morgan came to San Francisco several years ago from St. Louis, his former home.

"A MAN FOR THE AGES"

"I don't think so," Samson answered, a little surprised at her knowledge of the attachment. "He's as humbly as Sam Hill and dresses rough and ain't real dandy with the girls. Some fellows are kind of fussed in with his looks and awkwardness."

"The boys around here are all fenced in," said Annabel. "There's nobody here of my age but Lanky Peters, who looks like a fish, and a red-headed Irish boy with a wooden leg."

The Peasleys arrived at the men and women spent a delightful hour traveling without wetness over the long trail to beloved caresses and the days of their youth. Every day's and thousands were going east on that trail, each to find his pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow of memory.

Before they went to bed that night Brimstead paid his debt to Samson, with interest, and very confidentially.

It was a long, wearisome ride back to the land of plenty, over frozen ground, with barely an inch of snow upon it under a dark sky, with a chilly wind blowing.

"After all, it's home," said Samson, when late in the evening they saw the lighted windows of the cabin ahead. When they had put out their horses and come in by the glowing fire, Samson lifted Sarah in his arms again and kissed her.

"I'm kind o' silly, mother, but I can't help it—you look so temptin'!" said Samson.

The Hopes of the Soul.

In olden times it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely upset as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach, and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.—adv.

CITY DEFENDS WRIGHT $10,000 DAMAGE ACTION

Case Growing Out of Accident Occurring on November 7, 1918, on Trial

Trial of the damage action brought by heirs of Mrs. Dell Wright against the city of Twin Falls, is being conducted in the district court today.

The action, in which the municipal corporation is sued for $10,000 damages, grew out of a fatal accident in which Mrs. Dell Wright was the victim on November 7, 1918, during the local celebration attendant upon reports of the signing of the armistice.

The complaint recites that on the date in question Mrs. Wright watched certain proceedings connected with the celebration from a point near the edge of the suburb at the corner of Main avenue north and Second street as she stood near and west of the main thoroughfare that had been barricaded by a rope stretched across the street.

Those named as plaintiffs in the complaint are: Ames Wright, Maud Peck, Ruth Wright, and John Wright. For the latter, Ames Wright is named guardian.
