PARTY REAGERS TWIN FALLS

Deputy Sheriff Bert Robinson of Montello, Nevada, arrived in Twin Falls at noon today in company with three cars of Twin Falls men who made the trip to the state line. Sheriff Robinson declared that he had no warrant for any member of the party, that so far as he knew no charges of any kind had been filed against the members of the party and that Mrs. O'Hare told him that she had been treated and that the Twin Falls men behaved in the most gentlemanly way.

He will leave for his home by the evening train tonight. Mrs. O'Hare, no states, was in bed in a hotel when he left Montello.

Sheriff Sherman of Twin Falls county says there is no warrant for the arrest of any member of the party in his hands.

Kate Richards O'Hare failed to deliver her lecture last night on "Crimes and Criminals," and from best information obtainable she was not in Twin Falls at the hour set for the engagement.

According to Mrs. Friedheim, wife of H. H. Freedheim, sponsor for the woman's appearance in Twin Falls, Mrs. O'Hare was taken from the Freedheim home on Eighth avenue east about half past 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, placed in a waiting auto and, in company with three or four other persons, driven rapidly away. Her daughter who is traveling with her, was absent from the house at the time with Mrs. Friedheim and her mother of the circumstance until her return later in the afternoon.

Sheriff's Office Notified

The sheriff's office was apprised of the affair shortly after its occurrence. The entire incident was freely discussed upon the streets yesterday but little if any definite information was obtainable.

A number of telegrams were received by the Freedheim from Mrs. O'Hare this morning. It was stated in one of them it was stated that 10 of the men who arrested her were under arrest by Nevada authorities in a Nevada town and said that the governor had been

TWIN FALLS MEN ARE DECLARED IN CHARGE OF NEVADA OFFICERS

ODGEN, (AP)—Kate O'Hare, socialist lecturer who was forcibly taken from Twin Falls, Idaho, last night, was released at Montello, Nev., several hours later and at once had news of her alleged kidnapers arrested by a deputy sheriff there, according to the assistant state dispatcher of the Southern Pacific company at Odgen, who was in touch with Montello by wire.

It was said that after the Idaho men had departed Mrs. O'Hare at the railroad station with the woman set to return to Idaho, they went to a restaurant. Mrs. O'Hare sought out Deputy Sheriff Bert Robinson and complained against eleven men said to be prominent business men of Twin Falls. Two got away, it was said, but nine were placed under detention and said they would go back to Twin Falls without requisition. They were released on their way in the custody of the deputy sheriff.

Mrs. O'Hare is said to have telegraphed to Governor Davis of Idaho telling him she was on her way back to Idaho and she demanded protection.

Georges Takes Defeat Gaily; Praises Victor

RINGSIDE, JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—Georges Carpentier took his defeat gaily and praised Dempsey as a great champion. In his dressing room after the fight Carpentier, blurted out the statement:

"I staked my all to win in the second round. I hit him hard but could not drop him. I tried again in the third but a right to my neck seemed to do me. I do not know how he got through my guard in the fourth.

"America should be proud of Dempsey. He is a great champion." Georges returned immediately to Manhattan on the yacht Lone Star. He will rest for three or four days and probably will receive no visitors until Monday. His managers said they would announce their future plans tomorrow. Desampsy and Wilson both said that Dempsey's weight and power were too much for Carpentier.

Complete Text of Fatal Fourth Round Sells News Extra Edition Literally by Hundreds

News is Only Special Edition Containing Fight by Rounds from Opening of Contest up to and Including Final Period of Biggest Event in Fistic History of America

THE complete story of the big fight round by round closed up to and including the fatal fourth, with preliminary complete, was sold on the streets of Twin Falls only in an extra edition of The News which was exhausted within fifteen minutes. A further edition of 100 copies was immediately printed and these, too, went like hotcakes as soon as it became apparent that The News' edition was the only one on the streets to carry the final round of the big bout.

RINGSIDE, JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—The big fight opened at 9:30 and in popped the crowd.

The center of yellow pine, which when the sun was out, glistered like a giant bowl of brass, was soon flecked with humanity, but, unlike an ordinary arena, it filled from the rim in instead of the bottom up, for the first to arrive was the gallery god with the periscope eye who had camped all night outside the arena for the privilege of paying Promoter Ted Richards $2.50.

Women Conspicuous

Gradually, however, the wave of humanity rolled down to the ringside, as the more plastic "ticket holders" crept in, reached the stadium. Unlike the ordinary show, today's "battle of the century" had no exclusive ball holders. Hatless pates, in many cases, were replaced by coiffures that crested the heads of women who, seemingly, had espoused like boxes art had turned out in full force for today's carnival of blows.

The early comers sat down to wait.

Champion Calls Challenger Good, Game Antagonist

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—Carpentier was a good, game fellow, but I think I've got it on him," Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight boxing champion, remarked as he entered his dressing room after the fight.

The champion was as happy as a school boy and there were no marks on his face or body to show the effect of the Frenchman's punches.

"I won just as I thought," would, the champion said. "It was a good fight and I think the judge was satisfied. They say Carpentier staggered me with a right hand punch in the third round. I never even remember being hit hard enough to shake me up."

"Perhaps he caught me off balance and it looked as though I was staggered. Perhaps I could have finished him sooner, but I was taking my chances. Carpentier is the heavyweight champion of Europe and I had my own little stake and wanted to take no chances, when I was home as soon as possible. Love and kisses." (Signed) "JACK."

RETAINS CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE WITH KNOCKOUT

Beats Down Sturdy Resistance and Drops Challenger for Count and He Springs to Feet

RINGSIDE, JERSEY CITY, N. J., (AP)—Jack Dempsey, the world's champion boxer, retained his laurels when in the first part of the fourth round he put Georges Carpentier, Europe's heavyweight champion, out with a terrific blow to the jaw. Carpentier fell forward and was counted out while lying flat on his face, and arms outstretched in the fourth round. Dempsey, the world's heavy weight champion, knocked him out a few seconds after the round opened, sending him heavily to the canvas with a short right hook to the chin. The actual time of fighting in the fourth round was one minute and sixteen seconds.

Previous to the knockout, Carpentier was floored with a left to the body and a right to the chin. Carpentier took a count of nine before springing to his feet where the grim, determined Dempsey measured him with a punch to the chin which ended the battle. Dempsey stood over the fallen French idol until the count was finished and then tenderly poked up the bleeding and dazed Frenchman and dragged him to his corner.

Round by Round

ROUND ONE

ROUND TWO

Carpentier missed with a left and clinched. Carpentier missed a right swing but beat Carpentier as they clinched. Carpentier fell through the ropes trying to avoid a punch. He flew into Dempsey when he crawled back into the ring, and landed several blows on the champion's body at the bell. Dempsey had the better of the round.

ROUND THREE

ROUND FOUR

Carpentier ducked a left hook. Dempsey backed into the ropes and hit him with a short right. Carpentier landed two uppercuts to the body. In a clinch. As they clinched Dempsey punched the invader in the body and Carpentier nearly fell down when he missed a right swing. They missed left to the head and Dempsey punished Carpentier viciously in the infighting. Dempsey landed a left and right to the head without a return. They exchanged left hooks to the chin. Carpentier's right swing was short and Dempsey clubbed him on the jaw with left hooks in the clinch. Dempsey lattered Carpentier into a corner with rights and lefts at the bell. The bell saved Carpentier from a knockout. Dempsey's round.

ROUND FIVE

Dempsey rushed Carpentier to the ropes and left to his body made him wince. Carpentier landed a right to the head and tried to hang on. Dempsey missed Carpentier with a right and brought the right up to the chin. Carpentier went down and was counted out.

IDAHO WEATHER

Harding Signs Resolution Declaring War at An End

HARTMAN, N. J., (AP)—The resolution of congress declaring war with Germany and Austria-Hungary at an Dempsey gave Carpentier an unmerciful beating. He opened up a cut under the Frenchman's eye and battered him so viciously around the head with vicious right and left until Carpentier's face was swollen and bleeding. Carpentier fought gamely back at the champion but he was outclassed. Once he was hit he knocked and half pushed through the ropes and most of the time was going away from the champion. Dempsey kept after him, driving him to the corner whenever he had an opportunity.

Final Blow

The continual bombardment of heavy blows from Dempsey's fists was rapidly weakening Carpentier. The Frenchman began to sag noticeably at the knees and after about 30 seconds of punishment, crumpled up on the floor from the vicious right to the body and left to the chin. Carpentier was not a coward but he was in a bad way. He lay curled up on his side. Referee Erle began the count as he stood alongside the prostrate Frenchman while Dempsey, just as usual, with the ropes in his ardent grin on his face, watched the rise and fall of the referee's hand. At the count of nine George rose to his knees and arose in a cowering, unbecomingly dejected, fashion. The champion was upon him again in a flash and another crushing left to the mid-section followed by a flashing right which left all of Dempsey's weight behind it. He hurled Carpentier to the floor again with a thud that could be heard many feet from the ringside. Carpentier lay on his side while the count went on and at the sound of eight he made a desperate attempt to regain his feet. He raised his body partly from the floor with his right hand but the effort was futile, and two seconds later the European champion was counted out. The time of the final round was one minute and sixteen seconds.

Only Few Seconds

Carpentier was out only for a few seconds. Manager Desampsy applied first aid as quickly as the dazed Frenchman dropped into his chair. Police immediately stepped into the ring and made a path for the champion and Carpentier to go to their dressing rooms.

When Dempsey felted home the winning punch the swelling was terrible, and packed the arena was on its feet yelling.

Speed Surprises Spectators

The sudden manner in which the main bout was staged with posthaste in the last preliminary fight of the spectators by surprise. There were cheers when the American champion was introduced but the crowd, the arena around, showed itself hostile as Carpentier was talked as champion of the Old World, idol of his country and a soldier of France. As ever and unperformed a fighter as each entered the ring, the French brawler kept his eyes

OIL MEN HAVE OWN LANGUAGE

Parlance of Petroleum Fields Almost Unintelligible to the Uninitiated.

TULSA, Okla., (AP)—Oil men have a language all their own, as it were, for the oil industry, like others, has a number of more or less technical terms and phrases connected with it that are not generally understood outside the oil field districts.

For instance, "shooting a well," has an entirely different meaning from that applied in river navigation to the term "shooting the rapids." In the oil country the phrase means the lowering into the well of several dozen quarts of nitroglycerine and allowing it to explode in the bottom of the well in the oil sand.

Like Artesian Wells.

Oil wells are drilled much like artesian wells. A "tree," or tall pyramidal framework, is erected over the spot where the well is to be drilled. At various stages during the sinking of the well it is braced up by steel pipe, the joints of which are screwed together, making a continuous pipe. This serves to keep out water and to keep the well from caving.

As the well is holed deeper, the size of the casing is reduced in order to keep putting it down inside of that already in place. Two or three changes or "pegs" are made, all that are usually made in reducing the size of the casing.

If no oil is found the well is termed a "dry hole." If gas is found, it is a "gas well." A producing well is named according to the number of barrels of oil it produces in 24 hours, as a 50-barrel or 500-barrel well.

As it is drilled from the ground it is called "crude oil." It is carried to the refining plants in pipe lines, iron pipes ranging all the way from 3 to 10 or 12 inches in diameter. In railway tank cars. There it goes through the refining process.

Royalties Defined.

Almost all oil men lease the land on which they drill, paying "royalties," from one-eighth to one-sixteenth of the value of the oil produced going to the owner of the land. A "location" is a piece of land on which a well is drilled. It varies from 300 to 500 feet square. Thus in a field that is closely drilled, each well will have wells on four sides of it between 300 and 500 feet apart. These are known as "offsets."

A "tank farm" is a tract of land on which are located a number of large storage tanks for oil.

"Test wells" are the first wells drilled in a territory where oil has not been found. "Wild cat" wells are those drilled in territory where geologists have not found rock formations that indicate the presence of oil. A "reserve" is an underground supply of oil, or oil sand saturated with oil. The "Mid-continent" field comprises the states of Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Montana and New Mexico.

DE VALERA IS ADVISED BY SINN FEIN FOUNDER

Irish Republican Leader Conferences with Griffith Relative to Peace Proposals

DUBLIN, (AP)—Shortly after the release from Mount Joy prison of Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein organization on Thursday, Eamonn de Valera, the Irish republican leader, went to Mr. Griffith's home in Clontarf and conferred with him. Mr. de Valera also conferred with Prof. John MacNeill, president of the Gaelic League, who was released with Mr. Griffith.

The Irish republican leaders are in general accord and will state their common views at the conference in the Mansion House here on Monday.

The attitude of the southern unionist representatives who will attend this conference is understood to be favorable to acceptance by Mr. de Valera of the invitation of the British prime minister, Mr. Lloyd George, to confer with representatives of the British government and northern Ireland in London.

Mexico Wants World's Best in Modern Hotel

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—The department of national property has asked for bids on a new hotel here to cost no less than $4,000,000 (pesos) "modern in construction and decoration and to be compared with the best in the world." The work is to be finished within two years. The site selected is on a prominent downtown corner and one of the stipulations of the contract is that the second floor of the building is to be used for exhibits of national products.

The inquiry followed the report of the American consul at Stockholm that upon the arrival of the pouches there the documents were missing.

Norway's Ship Claim Bill Goes to Senate

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—An arbitration agreement between the United States and Norway dealing with Norway's claims against this country growing out of the requisitioning of ships building here early in the war for Norwegian account was sent Friday to the senate for ratification.

The word Mexico, means mixed. It is from the French mexis, a derivative of the Latin mexico, to mix. The term was first used in this country by the early French-speaking population of the Northwest to designate persons of mixed white and Indian blood. Among the Spanish-speaking population of the Southwest, the word mexico, of the same derivation, is used, but it applies more especially to those of half white and half Indian blood.

DUTCH ADOPT OIL FIELD DEVELOPMENT MEASURES

Parliamentary Action on Bill Regulating Foreigners from Djambi Region is Completed

THE HAGUE, (AP)—The first chamber of parliament Friday, by a vote of 27 to 18, adopted the Djambi oil bill, providing for exploitation of the valuable Djambi oil fields for a period of 40 years by a combination of the Dutch Indian government and the Batavia Oil company, the latter belonging to the Shell group. The measure was adopted by the second chamber, on April 29.

Under the bill the combination exploiting the oil fields will be capitalized at ten million guilders. The capital will be divided equally, but the company will be under control of the Dutch government and the board of directors, must all be Dutchmen. The president, vice president and one other member of the board of directors will be appointed by the Dutch minister of the colonies. By adoption of the bill American interests are excluded from exploitation in the Djambi field.

Lower Prices on Nash Cars

Effective July 2

Nash prices will be reduced; effective July 2.

This conforms to our statement made last October that Nash prices would be maintained until at least July 1, 1921.

The reasons were plain. Until manufacturing costs were lower we could not cut price without cutting value, as Nash prices were not inflated.

We pointed out then that while the average rise in the price of motor cars for a four-year period had been 76 per cent the price of Nash cars had been raised but 31 per cent.

This 31 per cent included the addition of cord tires as standard equipment and many other additions and refinements which added materially to the value of Nash cars.

So we re-affirmed our fixed intention of rigidly upholding the high quality of Nash cars.

Since then every effort of the Nash organization has been centered on effecting sound manufacturing economies.

New labor-saving devices were added and production practice so perfected that every process of Nash manufacture is a model of efficiency and economy.

The savings have been substantial. And they demonstrate as nothing else could demonstrate the remarkable Nash ability to produce fine cars at the lowest possible cost.

Even while working production costs downward we were improving Nash cars still further.

Now we can announce for July 2 a greater Nash value than ever at a reduced purchase price.

At the new prices the leadership of Nash cars is even more emphatically apparent.

LINVILLE PITCHES ANOTHER NEAR-CLASSIC BATTLE AND WINS 3 TO 0 SHUT OUT

Moosemen are Victims of Strong Arm Prowess of I. D. S. Star Flinger in Seven Inning Twilight Tilt—Neither Team is Able to Hit Ball with Particular Force, Merchants Get Breaks

PLIVING a mean mitt, Don Linnville, for the second time this season, last night flung a "hot" hit game in the city Twilight league. His other near-classic performance was recorded on June 21 against the Elks; last night he worked in opposition to another scolded herd, the Moose.

Last eve's affair was an improvement over the other feature bout when Linnville served, in that it was a shut-out, while against the Elks he allowed one score.

Has Lane Wins. Linnville started with a same flipper, and was unable to work the corners to the satisfaction of the umpire, J. Whitson, for the first man up, in which Johnson who stole down. In that frame four men were at-bat, but during the next five innings the opposition was set down in order as they appeared swinging clubs. In the seventh Don showed signs of weakening and let five men come up. With Jason out to the infield Linnville walked Tyals. The latter was advanced to second on a fielder's error on Larkin and the pitcher clouted Cheboro in the state. Hysterer flung to Hughes, and that ended the first.

The I. D. S. took somewhat kindly to Francis' slants from the start, but did no counting until the second round when two scores were sent across. Selk's first man up hit a single to right and Joren fanned. On the play Selk went down and he counted when Exeter got his first blow of the year, a single over second base. Boone was frowen out but Linnville used a two-bagger into left and Exeter romped across.

The other count came in the fifth and was the result of Francis' wild spell. The Moose pitcher walked F. Kieffner. A steal followed and Astin cracked a single to the right field fence coupling Kieffner.

Brief Bits of Sport
The Chicago White Sox won one yesterday.
And in like manner so did the Salt Lake Bees.
Our hunch that there exists a bond of sympathy between the two teams, therefore, gets a further support.
Benzy Leonard says he will turn the trick against Sallor Freedman inside of 10 rounds Monday at Benton Harbor.

The Moose men were the "hitless

Francis, for the Moose, pitched a fairish sort of pitcher, but Don Linnville's sore arm set the fraters down in nifty style, thus nullifying the efforts of the larger mark.

Once in Great Falls, Montana, a Chinaman stopped a business. His presence was not liked by a certain element. One night a delegation waited on him and suggested he remove. "Mo stay!" the Chin announced. Immediately thereafter four men carried him out of the shop and a boating party across the Missouri river was conducted. It is related the boat "captured," but the only person who fell out was the Chinaman.

When the Rock Creek and Hansson town teams meet here next Monday morning it will be a deadly fray. The teams are tied for first place in an inter-village series, and the Monday game is a sort of rubber.

Rock Creek, however, claims to have held the long end of the score in both games, although Hansson lays claim to one of the other.

Has Eleven Fiances Waiting For Her.

Who are the eleven men, New York thinking, whose ardent suits have won Miss Virginia Lee's "Yes" and who expect on her return from abroad to become her husband? Undoubtedly, she delivered Miss Lee, whom Howard Chandler Christy enthused over as the "ideal Christy girl," had confessed to friends in Paris that she is afraid to return "because I've got eleven fiancés, and they'll all be waiting at the pier." But none of her friends can list the entire eleven. And perhaps their names will remain a mystery until her vessel docks. Miss Lee was born in Mexico City and educated in New Orleans. She is twenty-one years old.

Early-Day Peddler.
An important merchant of centuries ago was the man who did your buying for you. In those days there were no mail-order houses and there was such a thing as running into town to do your shopping. So there was proved a professional shopper who made it his business to buy what you needed. He was known as a packman, packer, or pake-man, and from these words the modern names resembling them have sprung.

Fortifications Important.
"People talk about the curtailment of warship building by Japan and the United States as a means of averting the possible clash between the two countries. While this is no doubt true, they seem to lose sight of the fact that the removal of fortifications on the Pacific Islands is an important loss in losing the chance of hostilities as the limitation of naval strength."
Suggests Agreement.
"If America decides on the independence of the Philippines, and removes the war-like defenses there, the defense of Guam, Hawaii and the Pacific coast would be useless. Since some Americans may be inclined to doubt Japan's disinterestedness, it is desirable that a special agreement should be concluded between the two countries on the matter. If this is done all chances of war between will be reduced to a minimum."

Thinness of Spider's Thread.
A scientist once compared a hair of his beard with a spider's thread under a microscope and estimated that it would take 10,000 threads to equal one hair in substance.

Hair in A Violin Bow.
The number of hairs in a violin bow was formerly from 20 to 100. In France; but now it is customary to have the hair ribbon broader, and this, therefore, requires 175 to 250 single hairs. These must be at least 20 inches long. Fourte bestow great care on the selection of bow-hair, preferring the French horse-hair. A great deal of bow-hair comes from Russian horses.

Why Ball "Bounces."
A ball bounces because it possesses a quality known as elasticity. When a ball is thrown against a floor the ball becomes flat where it strikes the floor; because of its elasticity the ball immediately returns to its natural shape and in doing so forces itself back into the air—and that's the "bounce." A basketball flies away from the just for the same reason.

Plenty of interesting incidents to be observed on Outside of Arena while Spectators Gather JERSEY CITY, N. J., (AP)—The first of the six preliminary bouts—that between Babe Herman and Joe Mottagna—was to be started at 1 o'clock, carried on daylight savings time.

Both Carpenter and Dempsey expected to be in their dressing rooms by 2 o'clock.

All Night in Line. Thomas Tushy, in cook on a Jersey City lunch wagon, gained the coveted honor of being the first in line for the $5.00 seats.

Behind him was Cornelius Noonan, 38, a retired police lieutenant. Third in line was Charles Rosenbloom, a 17-year-old crippled boy from Memphis, Tenn.

Fistic Combat Holds Center Of Interest For All France

PARIS, (AP)—Today crashing banks, wars, cabinet crises, reparations, Siloia and a multitude of other pressing public questions were ungraciously thrust to the background by Paris.

Even communist organs devoted columns to splashing of the combat, and all newspapers subordinated everything to news of the fight in a manner wholly unprecedented.

SCANDINAVIAN-AMERICAN BANK DOORS ARE CLOSED

Seattle Institution with Capital and Surplus of $1,266,638 in Hands of State Official

SEATTLE, Wash., (AP)—The Scandinavian-American bank of Seattle, with a capital and surplus of one million two hundred fifty-eight thousand, eight hundred thirty-eight dollars and deposits totalling over eleven million eight hundred thousand dollars, was closed Friday following action of the board of directors shortly after midnight.

Shrinkage of values during the last year and a half and recent abnormal deposit decreases were advanced by John T. Duke, state supervisor of banking, as reasons for the suspension.

Failure of the Scandinavian-American bank of Tacoma, Wash., recently, was believed to have been responsible to a large extent for the withdrawal of deposits.

It was learned today that Kathleen O'Hare, daughter of Kate O'Hare, left for Fossilville this morning taking her own and her mother's baggage along.

Yesterday's action came as the culmination of several weeks of growing tension of public feeling. Following the announcement of the O'Hare lecture some time ago practically every association, club and fraternal body in Twin Falls passed resolutions.

"Barking Dogs Don't Bite" On Thursday H. H. Freidheim wired Mrs. O'Hare at Yale, Oregon, that local conditions demanded the suppression of the speech and a response received the following telegram:

"I refuse to cancel meeting. I will be in Twin Falls as per schedule. Opposition merely bluff and opponents will be too cowardly to do anything but talk. Some threats here but opponents were perfectly quiet when it came to a showdown. Barking dogs do not bite.—Kate O'Hare."

Local authorities were prepared for serious trouble had an attempt been made to deliver the lecture.

SIMPLY, YET HARD TO FOLLOW

If your business falls off 60 per cent, increase your selling effort 75 per cent," it is said to have been the advice Thomas A. Edison gave to dealers in Edison output.

It is related that a country automobile dealer out in the Dakotas for two or three years kept sending to the factory, whose cars he handled, his orders all winter long.

Perhaps salesmen are born, though we observe that there are schools that train men in the principles of the call.

Edison's advice does not involve any mysterious formula. Perhaps those who regard it most seriously would have noted without his suggestion.

GLUE-APHIS CONTROL IS NOT OBTAINED BY SPRAYING SCHEMES

R. H. Smith, Entomologist, Declares Satisfactory Results Can Be Procured in Elimination of Pest by Maturing Crop Before Aphids Have Reached Darning Size

By RALPH H. SMITH, Entomologist in Control of the Clover Aphis.

Satisfactory results have not been obtained in attempts to control the clover aphis by spraying clover fields with insecticidal poisons. Failure to control the pest has been habitually concealed themselves under the leaf stipules and close under the blossoms where it is practically impossible to reach them with a spray. This control was obtained by spraying fields in which the plants were rather short and the foliage was not dense, but under average field conditions and with the present perfection of field spraying machinery, spraying is not considered dependable.

First Crop for Seed.

In connection with the control experiments, portions of several fields of red clover were not clipped but instead the first growth was left to mature during the middle or latter part of July before the aphids had become abundant enough to do serious injury to the crop. From the standpoint of controlling the aphis, this practice is a good one but from the standpoint of clover seed production, the second growth has usually given higher yields than the first. The aphids have been decidedly damaged by the aphids. However, we have found that a small percentage of seed growers prefer to use the first crop for seed and claim to get just as good yields as are obtained when the second growth is used for seed. Following mild winters and in all cases where June, it would be unwise to allow the first growth to make seed.

Alkaline Clover.

Serious injury to alkaline clover may be avoided in most years by handling the crop in such manner as to bring it to maturity about the middle of July before the aphids have become numerous. If the aphids appear in early spring as they did in 1916 and as they may be expected the following year, mild winter, special measures will have to be used in order to prevent damage. Closely grazing with sheep or clipping fields during June have proved means of eradication. Most growers do not consider it advisable under usual circumstances to clip or to graze back alkalis—that is, they may be separated at the following points: May or June before it had come into full bloom. A yield of 7-12 bushels of seed per acre, which is the best yield to aim for in the Twin Falls county for 1918 was produced on a field that was closely grazed with sheep up to June 25. The average yield of alkali in the county for this year was less than two bushels per acre.

Observations have shown unmistakably that the alkaline fields which suffer most heavily from clover aphids are those having a rank dense growth. Such fields afford optimum conditions for the rapid multiplication of the aphids. Extended study of this matter indicates quite clearly that if the stand of alkali is good, the most satisfactory results in seed production as well as in the control of the clover aphis are obtained by keeping the plants to a moderate or even fairly short growth.

Winter Grazing.

In order to prevent the aphids from living through the winter on clover plants, many fields have been closely grazed with sheep during the winter and early winter. A careful comparison of grazed fields shows that winter grazing greatly reduced the probability of aphids living over winter. It has been found, however, that the treatment only delays the appearance of the infestation the following year and that the aphis are equally bad with the spring crop of red clover which usually come into maturity during August.

For example, fields which were not grazed in experimental tests did not

The Savior in Profane History.

Among the historical references to Jesus Christ which are undisputed it is that made by Tacitus, the Roman historian, who on speaking of the Christian, said, "The originator of that name had been executed in the reign of Tiberius by order of the administrator, Pontius Pilate." This may be found in the Annals of Tacitus. Reference to Christ is also made in the "Antiquities of Josephus," a Jewish historian, who was contemporary with Christ but this is not mentioned as a savior to be a forger.

BANKER ORDERED TO SERVE PENAL TERM IN PRISON

D. Pollock Sentenced by Judge Babcock to Indeterminate Jail Period

A. D. Pollock, former vice president of the Bank of Hansen, was this morning sentenced to serve a term of from 10 to 20 years in the state penitentiary.

Sentence was pronounced by Judge E. A. Babcock in the district court. W. P. Guthrie, counsel for Pollock, proposed a motion for arrest of execution of judgment claiming the court's jurisdiction to the jury were erroneous. The motion was denied.

Pollock was ordered remanded to the custody of the county sheriff, F. R. Harrison, pending the making of arrangements for his removal to the penitentiary.

The former banker was tried during the present week and found guilty of embezzlement of $100,000 bank money through false book entries. The case is the second of similar nature brought against Pollock and tried in the district court. The first action charges embezzlement, and involved something over $100,000.

It is expected that Pollock will be taken to Boise early next week, unless further action looking to a new trial is taken by his counsel.

WIND RETURNS FROM LONG AUTO JOURNEY

to Nabraska Home is Excellent in Corn State

C. E. Lind and family have just returned from an extended trip to the IA home at Newman Grove, Neb. The car was made by automobile, the motor registering 2880 miles on the way with a gasoline consumption averaging 10 miles to the gallon.

Mr. Lind reports the roads in very good condition, especially the Idaho state road to the boundary with Utah. The Liberator highway was followed from Evanston, Wyo.

Mr. Lind reports trip conditions in Nebraska excellent. All small grain in the Platte valley being harvested and making good yields. E. W. Higgins, an old schoolmate of Mr. Lind, accompanied the party home. Mr. Higgins son drove his mercantile bus and also Newman Grove, Neb., last fall and may decide to locate in Idaho.

Aiken Advertiser Twin Falls While Attending Funeral

Twin Falls Booster Adds His Note to Make Doleful Ceremonies Interesting

Many are the means of advertising, and few ways are new. But it is refreshing to find a new one. Some time resident of Twin Falls to find a new means of announcing in a note communitally the advantages of the Twin Falls city and community.

Mr. Aiken has just returned from a lengthy trip over the state. On this tour he found a lot of unfavorable "bunk" being spread concerning this city. He has returned to correct some false impressions.

In a small northern town Mr. Aiken attended a funeral. It was an old-fashioned sort of ceremony in which the deceased was viewed for a couple of days to allow the relatives and friends to do their best to do a good job of preparing the body for burial. It was a very interesting and profitable experience.

Mr. Aiken felt the embarrassment of the situation and he arose to relieve it. "I don't know the deceased, but I will do you something about 'Twin Falls,'" he announced. As at the funeral a eulogy was given.

VERDICT FOR DEFENDANT. The jury's verdict in the A. P. Bartlett case was that the defendant, Bartlett, was not guilty of the charge of assault and battery. The verdict was rendered after a short trial in the district court yesterday. The jury was in favor of the defendant. The verdict was rendered after a short trial in the district court yesterday. The jury was in favor of the defendant.

CHAUNTAUQUA CONCLUDES WITH MUSICAL FESTIVAL

Liaurance's Orchestra Brings Week of Rare Entertainment to Fitting Close

When the Chauntauqua director promised the patrons at his big amusement tent an unusual treat in the entertainments by the Liaurance Little Symphony Orchestra for the last day of the course of fine entertainment, it was accepted with the half apathy due to a week almost over-filled with good things. But that atmosphere was instantly dissipated when the curtain was drawn and the audience faced the sweetest and most charming set of songs that has been heard here since has ever seen. "Get" is the correct word for they are six in number, and had they given a most mediocre performance, the audience would have been satisfied, so modest and pleasing was the personality of each. Everyone seems to agree with the comment made by one appreciative young man in an enthusiastic manner, "Where else does the guy get that eye-popping stuff? There ain't anything 'fancy' about them!" However they demonstrated in every selection that they were talented and well trained musicians, and both the solo and ensemble work was a repeated delight to their fortunate hearers. The songs by Mrs. Hughes made her an instant favorite, and the range of her selections proved her an artist of far more than ordinary ability. Piano solos by Harold Lewis evoked great applause, and proved that the audience knew what it liked and was getting it.

In closing the Chauntauqua week, Mrs. Georgia Letts announced that the work which has been so successfully inaugurated will be continued for the summer months under the direction of Miss Dygert and Miss Letts of the public library force. There will be a story and play hour every Friday morning at nine o'clock in the park, and the co-operation of parents and neighbors was had in the building of a variety of sets of other simple playground equipment.

Superintendent Purlee, whose work here the past week has evoked the warmest commendation, spoke approvingly of the efforts of the local committee in making possible the very successful work just closed. He particularly mentioned Mr. James Fitzgerald, who has been in charge of the work, and the effort without stint.

He made appropriate acknowledgments for the courtesy of the park board and the assistance of the library force for the tent, and for the consideration of the authorities that postponed the usual band concert, that the lecture series that evening might not be interrupted by a word of praise from the director, as it has many times through the week from the patrons, to whose comfort and pleasure they have contributed in many a measure.

With respect to the attitude of the Twin Falls toward the Chauntauqua Director Purlee spoke in loudest praise. The Chauntauqua has received more in Twin Falls than through the press than in any place I have directed," he said. "I thank The News most cordially for its editorial assistance. Every article appearing in the columns of The News concerning the Chauntauqua, and its programs has been duly clipped and forwarded to the Portland bureau for the files."

Contracts for the 1922 Chauntauqua have been signed.

PREPARE STAGE FOR GREAT JULY 4TH PROGRAM

Carpenters Now Have Charge of Plans—Committee Provides Fine Program

The last word has been spoken and the last publicity chapter written for the Twin Falls July 4th celebration. The committee in charge announces that preparations complete and from this time on to Monday forenoon "stage hands" will be in charge.

Reviewing the program of the day the layman finds little to be desired in way of entertainment festival. Sports, of course, will have a dominating place in the day's doings, but there will be ample things of other sorts to fill the day, with enjoyment for the masses.

Today is one of structural activity with large forces employed over the entire town area setting up devices to be used in the general plan. The construction for the expected big crowd, booths and stands of all sorts are springing up in all places, and by Monday morning the principal downtown streets should look like a hastily constructed camp in a lumber district.

Open at 10

The holiday program is scheduled to open promptly at 10 o'clock Monday morning with a band concert. That evening will be the getway signal and from that moment to midnight the day will be filled to repletion with "some thing doing."

Today windows are being decorated with streamers in the competition proposed by the Independence Day committee. Signs are being flung out in the breeze, while the usual strings of pennants are being stretched across the main business avenues in token of the day's event to come. On the opposite side workmen are erecting a solid lumber structure upon which boxing and wrestling bouts will be engaged in during the early portion of the evening. This structure is to be set up at a strategic place in the city, and will be a fine vantage point for all who care to watch the performers.

The committee in charge has provided for a number of rest rooms for the celebration committee. It is desired so that their hospitality will be available to the throng no matter how far the fringe of the crowd straggles.

Yielding to insistent requests by the celebration committee, M. H. O'Neal, Mayor, has consented to give an official patriotic recitation during the day. This feature will follow immediately after the evening band concert and just prior to the address of the day by Col. L. V. Patch.

The Program

The following schedule of entertainment has been provided:

Band concert 10 a. m.

Championship ball game, Hansen against Rock Creek 10:30 (free).

Free picture show, Lavington theatre, all day.

Hockey races on Shoshone street near city park, 11 a. m.

Studebaker Cars Exhibited in Process of Construction in Big Factory

One of the most interesting industrial stories in film ever shown in Twin Falls is that of the Lavington this afternoon and evening at the great factory where the Studebaker Special Six is transformed from white hot metal sheets by piece into the finished product, ready to take the road.

The film is shown by John A. Barrett, local agent of Studebaker cars, and is designed to educate one of the most interesting pictures ever shown on a Twin Falls screen. Outside towns where it has been shown report a heavy attendance and much favorable comment.

There is no admission charge.

Social Notes

Wind is Fresh and Blows Brisk Over Community

THE weatherman either slipped himself or somebody slipped something on him. Yesterday's report, governing last night's and today's weather indicated fair conditions.

When the populace arose this morning the weather had been unfair for some time.

A wind of high gear velocity hit the community early this a. m., and kept up the gale indefinitely. It was a cold breeze, too.

But across the prognosticator has another offer of tomorrow will be fair and warmer.

The high mark yesterday was 77, with low 40 last night. No rain.

Miss Leo B. Chase entertained at a one o'clock luncheon Friday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Corwin, who is spending the summer here. A general social time followed. Those present were Mrs. C. B. Smith, Mrs. H. J. Young, Mrs. C. S. Kaufman, Mrs. Mary V. Norton, Mrs. Karl Sizer and Mrs. James A. Walker.

Mrs. L. C. Clus was hostess to the Wednesday Bridge club yesterday. Ten members were present and Mrs. C. H. Burton won the club favor.

The Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion will hold their regular monthly meeting Thursday, July 7, in the form of a picnic supper at 7 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Fred Lester on Blue Lakes Boulevard. The Auxiliary will entertain as guests members of the American Legion and their families. The ladies request that all who have cars meet at the park at 6:30 to help convey the crowd to Mrs. Lester's home. Members who have been invited and wish to attend will please call Mrs. L. Friedman, telephone 536M.

Mrs. Herman Rexroat entertained on Kimbrough in honor of the seventh birthday of her daughter Margaret. The time was merrily spent with games after which Mrs. Rexroat, assisted by her daughter Gertrude, Mrs. Ada Jensen and Miss Mary Lehmann, served delicious refreshments, the white birthday cake with the seven candles being a feature of the celebration. Those present were Bobby and Linda Kyle, Albert Partridge, Mattie Threlkeld, Una Lehmann, Nova Gish, Ruth and Ada Brown, Nellie Montgomery, Myrtle and Lorraine Jensen, Helen Joan Alexander, Richard and Margaret Rexroat.

Mrs. F. F. Varney accompanied by her children and a few others of her neighborhood motored to Blue Lakes on Thursday where they spent the day picnicking and wandering about the many lovely nooks and crannies at that delightful spot. Those who made the trip were Norma Leuz, Dorothy Paulin, Emily Pount, Anna Louise Gillette, Helen and Richard Varney.

Members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church numbering about 30 enjoyed a hayrack ride to Shoshone Falls last evening. Upon arriving at the falls they descended the long flight of stairs and built a bonfire on the shore of the river where they indulged in "hot" beverages, "sandwiches and other goodies."

Friday afternoon eight of the War Mothers met with Mrs. L. Friedman at her home on Second Avenue east to sew on the quilt which the organization is making to be disposed of for their memorial fund. Combined with the sewing a pleasant social time was spent and light refreshments were served. The same number of ladies also met with Mrs. A. S. Marilyn for the same purpose, spending a pleasant and profitable afternoon, closing with the serving of refreshments.

Local Brevities

Comes from Jarbridge—Bert Smith is in the city from Jarbridge.

Visitors from Filer—Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Dan's of Filer were visitors in Twin Falls yesterday.

Motor to Twin—Mrs. Beinnard Steffer of Rock Creek motored to Twin Falls for a brief visit yesterday.

Looking After Business—R. E. Shepherd was in Twin Falls yesterday. Mr. Jerome attending to business affairs.

Home from Trip—Roy Spargur has returned from the east, where he spent the past three weeks on business and vacationing.

Return from California—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ostrander and son Eugene returned Friday evening from an automobile trip to California.

Going to Nevada—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Finke expect to leave Sunday morning for Sun Valley, New, where they will spend the holiday.

Beach Is Visitor—C. C. Beach, president of the Idaho Department store arrived yesterday from headquarters at
