

LUMP IN COAL TRADE RENDERS MINER JOBLESS

Men, State Officials and Mine Operators Unite in Opinion that Fuel Famine is Threatened by Situation

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., (AP)—Unemployment of 150,000 coal miners daily in many thousands others idle much the time, is reported by officers of the United Mine Workers of America, to assert the likelihood to be of a market for coal. State officials are here in touch with the coal trade, the coal operators also, maintain there is no market for coal, adding a famine is threatened unless the behold consumers lay in their winter supply now.

Production Below Average
Indiana mines, which produce approximately 25,000,000 tons annually, estimated by officials to have not out about 10,000,000 tons for the first half of the year, with the average monthly production falling below 20,000 tons the last three months, more than half of the time lost this year is rated by the operators to have been due to the coal famine. For the entire year, the output of the state is said to be 65,000,000 tons, the average of the last four years. Hard coal production is said to be slightly higher than in the last several years.

Thousands of miners have not worked enough to be listed in the membership of the union, but the association has not been announced, although in Indiana it is known that the loss in membership at present is 13,000. The present total membership is in Michigan, where it is compared with more than 20,000 the opening of the year. Union officials say the only strike or lockout in the country is in the state of W. and the state of Washington.

Advances Buying Now
Bair Littlejohn, Indiana state mine inspector, declares the 300 mines in Indiana are working less than half in the last three months. He is not expected unless the domestic miners begin stirring the winter supply of coal now.

Improvement in the coal fields expected with the approach of fall, several operators are planning to now shafts, either to open new or make more profitable the operation of old mines. Announcement of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad that it would draw on the Indiana fields for practically all fuel for its yards east of Aberdeen, S. D., the Missouri river is expected to be a boon for the coal industry in new Indiana counties. This railroad recently acquired the Chicago, Terre Haute and Southern railroad as its competitor.

Region Members Sail to Visit Battlefields

NEW YORK, (AP)—With the flag of national commander of the American Legion flying at her masthead and more than 250 members of that organization on board, the American passenger ship George Washington sailed for Cherbourg and Bremen. The legionnaires will disembark at first port, whence they will go to the battlefields on which, for more than a year they fought valiantly against the forces of the German foe.

SIMMONS OPENS FIRE ON TARIFF VALUATION PLAN

Characterizes American Measuring Stick as Step from Embargo

WASHINGTON, (AP)—American valuation provisions of the Smoot tariff bill were characterized by Senator Simmons, democrat, North Carolina, Tuesday as only a step from an embargo during session of a committee discussion.

Doll and toy manufacturers had testified that German competition was threatening their industry when Senator Simmons broke in.

"You simply want to keep out all foreign toys," he said.
The witness, C. Ives, New York, retorted that he believed American children should be supplied only with American products.

Mr. Simmons recalled testimony earlier in the day that German dolls were sold here for $11.50 a dozen while the home-made toy was priced at $30, and retorted to republican members of the committee, demanded to know whether it was the plan to make up such differences by the American valuation and high rates. He received no answer.

VLADIVOSTOK PUTS BAN ON COMMUNISTS' VOTING

New Siberian Regime Adopts Modifications of Election Law Introduced by Kereny's Regime

VLADIVOSTOK (AP)—The Vladivostok government has adopted modifications of the election law introduced by the Kereny's government.

The stipulations include:
1. No communists are permitted to vote.

2. No persons sympathizing with communism may vote.

3. Members of the national assembly will be obliged to give a written declaration that they do not belong to the communist party and that they will not assist the communists.

4. Besides communists no anarchist and members of the "Left Social Revolutionary International party" may vote.

The liberal press organs strongly protest against these modifications, demanding that they be abolished, that the population be permitted to vote freely and that the deputies to the national assembly be given freedom of speech.

PEKING TO SHANGHAI AIR FLIGHTS TO BEGIN SOON

PEKING, (AP)—Airplane flights from Peking to Shanghai, with several stops en route, to accommodate passengers and mail traffic, have been planned to begin this month, following the successful inauguration recently of a tri-weekly air postal and passenger service between Peking and Tsinanfu in Shantung province.

The initial flight to Tsinanfu, 237 miles from Peking was accomplished against a head wind in two hours, and 55 minutes.

A crew of Chinese students is in training and it is anticipated that business eventually will take over the duties of piloting the big machines. For some time to come, however, this will be done by foreign experts.

SOUTH DAKOTA OFFERS PRICE FIXING SCHEME

Senate Agricultural Committee is Asked to Consider Proposal for Putting Government in Produce Trade

PIERRE, S. D., (AP)—A plan, which its exponent claim would stabilize the prices of farm products has recently been presented to the senate agricultural committee at Washington. It has likewise passed the lower house of South Dakota legislature and been endorsed by financial and farming associations.

According to Will H. Lyon, of Sioux Falls, S. D., the plan's author, it will not only stabilize the price of farm products but will go far to stabilize the business in general, to a great extent.

Guarantees Farmers Costs.
In explaining the plan Mr. Lyon said:

"The stabilization plan would have the national government guarantee to farmers the average cost of producing staple, unperishable, crops, plus a reasonable profit, by agreeing to purchase whatever surplus remains on hand at the end of the crop year, delivered at certain central terminals and at a stipulated minimum price.

"This surplus in every staple crop except wheat and cotton, is so small that the amount of money required would be insignificant in comparison with the value of the entire crop.

"If the surplus of any crop should prove excessive, the stabilizing commission, fairly representing both producers and consumers, appointed by the president, would promptly reduce the price for the following year and increase the price of other products in which a shortage might exist and thereby induce our farmers to increase production of flax, wool and sugar which we now so largely import, at a cost of several hundred million dollars a year.

Invades World Markets.

"The government under the plan must necessarily control the export of such products and through the stabilizing commission would purchase abroad, at the world price level, any deficit required and sell to our manufacturers at not less than the guaranteed price (except that intended for export) thereby making a profit of the difference between the cost and selling price. Speculation in food products so abundant to the general public would, of course, be automatically eliminated below the guaranteed price.

"Now, when the farmer succeeds in producing a crop he does not know whether to sell for fear the price will go down, or hold for a better market. Knowing in advance the guaranteed minimum price of the various products, the farmer can use his land and ability to the best possible advantage and the rental and salable value of land will be largely stabilized. The guaranteed minimum price, of course, should not be made sufficiently high to induce speculation in farm lands or produce an excessive surplus.

"Under the stabilizing plan the farmer would receive the same price regardless of road conditions. Under the present system the highest price usually prevails when roads are bad or elevators congested and delivery is difficult or impossible. When these conditions improve the price goes down."

CHARGES AMERICANS AID BRITISH SHIP CONTROL

Senator La Follette Makes Accusations in Argument for Investigation

WASHINGTON, (AP)—An "alliance" between American and British financiers to aid British shipping interests was charged in the senate Tuesday by Senator La Follette, republican, Wisconsin. J. P. Morgan and company and associates, he said, had "combined" with British financiers, the Morgan company controlling through direct ownership, railroads which transported American products for shipment on British ships. (The British shipping interests, he said, were represented through the International Mercantile Marine company, which was "thoroughly British," although supposed to be an American corporation.

Senator La Follette spoke in behalf of his resolution for congressional inquiry. The shipping board's recent attempt to dispossess the United States Mail company of a fleet of ships was said by Senator La Follette apparently to have behind it employees of the board "with old-time British shipping affiliations."

SELF-IMPOSED EXILE IS TYPHOID CARRIER'S LOT

Henry Olsen Enters Upon Year's Confinement in Hospital Rather Than Spread Disease

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., (AP)—Henry Olsen, classed by doctors as a "typhoid carrier," has spent the years since 1912 in the United States marine hospital here and cannot yet see the end of his day of illness.

Rather than spread the disease, he voluntarily entered the hospital when he caught the typhoid from him while he worked as deckhand years ago aboard the lumber steamer Acme, plying between San Francisco and Mendocino county, California.

Four deaths resulted from typhoid aboard the vessel, he became known as the "fever ship" and even refused to sign aboard her. A careful examination of the crew and ship revealed Olsen as a "typhoid carrier" and he entered the hospital in an effort to rid himself of the unenviable faculty. Doctors say he has not yet been cured. Olsen ranks as an orderly in the hospital.

INADEQUACY OF HOTELS KEEPS TOURIST FROM JAPAN

TOKYO, (AP)—Visitors to Japan are steadily decreasing in number and this is due to the inadequacy of hotel accommodations, to the extremely high price of commodities and to the intensity in some parts of the United States and in the colonies against Japan, according to Atsuko Hayashi, managing director of the Imperial hotel. Mr. Hayashi set forth his views on this matter at the annual meeting of the members of the Japan Tourist Bureau.

YOSEMITE RANGERS TO AID STRANDED MOTORISTS

Course in Training in Government Garage is Made Requisite to Holding Job in Forest Service

YOSMITE, Cal., (AP)—Forest rangers of the Yosemite National park are being given courses in automobile work so they can help repair vehicles they find stranded along the park roads. Orders recently issued by Park Superintendent Lewis provide that every first class patrolling ranger shall put in at least three weeks in the government garage here.

"The new motor school is part of our effort to make everybody's stay in Yosemite free from accident, and a pleasant memory," Chief Ranger Crowley explained recently. "Simple motor trouble is apt to happen in any automobile and the average driver knows nothing about repair work. Instead of sending 15 or 20 men for a rescue car, the nearest patrolling ranger will be able to start the motor running again or at least diagnose the trouble so that the rescue car will not be required to remedy the defect in short order."

Erection of bleachers on the east slope of the stadium will be started within the next two weeks, it is believed. To date all the earth removed has been piled on the eastern side. To provide parking for the thousands of automobiles expected here for the big game, trees on land near the stadium are being cut.

RECEIVERSHIP IS ASKED FOR OMAHA TIRE CONCERN

OMAHA, Neb., (AP)—Appointment of a receiver for the Briceton Manufacturing company, a tire manufacturing concern, incorporated in South Dakota, for $2,000,000 but with headquarters here, is asked in a stockholders' petition filed in federal court late yesterday.

The petition alleges that a site for a prospective factory was purchased here and that $350,000 worth of stock was sold in Nebraska by fiscal agents and that the factory has never been constructed. It also charges that the corporation issued $100,000 of preferred capital stock to O. A. Briceton, the company's president, without receiving any consideration.

JURY ACQUITS BALL PLAYERS ON FIRST NOTE

Indicted "Black Sox" Freed of Charge of Throwing World Series Games

CHICAGO, (AP)—The seven former Chicago White Sox players and two alleged gamblers brought to trial on the baseball scandal case today stood legally cleared of any connection with the alleged conspiracy to throw the 1919 world series to Cincinnati, a jury last night having acquitted them on the first ballot.

The verdict, freeing Buck Weaver, Happy Felsch, Chick Gandil, Joe Jackson, Claude Williams, Charles Bialberg, and Eddie Cicotte—the former players—and Carl Zerk of St. Louis and David Zetter of Des Moines, was returned shortly before midnight amidst a scene of wild cheering, whistling and yelling from 500 spectators which would have seemed more natural in the bleachers of a baseball park than in the dignified courtroom of Judge Hugo Friend.

Pandemonium Reigns. Balliffs vainly tried to establish order out of pandemonium. With chairs overturned and hats thrown in the air as the operators rushed to shake hands with the ball players, and as the players rushed to grasp the hands of the jurors, Judge Friend finally motioned to his aides to let the demonstration go on and joined in by congratulating the defendants and telling the jury it had returned a just verdict.

While only nine of the 18 persons indicted in the baseball investigation were defendants when the case ended, it is believed that the baseball scandal has been forever swept from the boards so far as the courts of Cook county are concerned. Bill Burns' case was dismissed in return for his evidence for the state and during the trial the cases of Ben and Louis Levi of Kokomo, Ind., were dropped. Alie Altell, Hat Chase, Fred McMullin, Backus Brown of New York, J. J. Sullivan of Boston and Ben Franklin of St. Louis still are under indictment, but it was reported at the state's attorney's office today that their cases would be allowed to lapse through the statute of limitations.

Only One Ballot. The attorneys for the prosecution to day had little to say of the case, but the defense pointed to the fact that only one ballot was taken by the jury as an absolute vindication of the defendants. The jury was not ready to return its verdict until two hours and 47 minutes after receiving the case, but most of this time was taken in signing the verdict. Each of the 12 jurors had to sign each of the nine verdicts, a separate verdict being returned for each defendant.

Today the jurors expressed surprise that the case had been allowed to drag through five weeks. While refusing to permit use of their names, in discussing the case with reporters, every juror declared that the defense would have received the same verdict had it sent the case to the jury without presenting any witnesses or making any closing arguments.

"We thought the state had presented a weak case," said one juror. "It depended entirely on Bill Burns and Burns did not make a favorable impression with any of us. We were from the time the state finished its evidence that we could not return any verdict other than not guilty."

The jurors refused to say whether, in reaching their verdict they were of the opinion that there was no attempt to throw games in the 1919 world series or whether it was based on the contention that the state had failed to prove its charges that there was intent to defraud the public and various individuals through the throwing of the series.

Players Give Plans. Of the players acquitted last night, only "Buck" Weaver, former third baseman of the Chicago White Sox, and "Sweetie" Bialberg, former shortstop, indicated an immediate intention to apply for reinstatement.

Joe Jackson, slugging outfielder, said he was through with baseball and would devote his time to a store he has opened here. "Chick" Gandil voiced a picturesque and forceful protest, and to Ben Johnson, president of the American League, "Lefty" Williams, pitcher, said he would play semi-professional ball. Eddie Cicotte, famous "cotton ball" hurler, said he had talked once in the criminal courts building and would not care to do so again, and "Happy" Felsch, center fielder, reiterated his innocence, but announced no plans.

ACQUITTED MEN CANNOT REGAIN LEAGUE PLACES

Judge Landis Says Professional Baseball Doors are Closed to Black Sox

CHICAGO, (AP)—None of the American league players who were acquitted last night of an alleged criminal conspiracy to throw the 1919 world series has any immediate prospect of being restored to organized baseball, according to a statement issued today by Judge K. M. Landis, national baseball commissioner.

"Regardless of the verdict of jury," said the statement, "no player that throws a ball game, no player that entertains proposals or promises to throw a game, no player that sits in a conference with a bunch of crooked players and gamblers where the ways and means of throwing games are discussed, and does not promptly tell his club about it will ever play professional baseball."

"Of course I do not know that any of these men will apply for reinstatement, but if they do the above are at least a few of the rules that will be enforced."

"Just keep it in mind that regardless of the verdict of juries, baseball is entirely competent to protect itself against the crooks both inside and out, side the game."

COMMERCIALISM IN BOXING GETS HARD BODY BLOW

Michigan Governor Orders Roper-Misko Contest Stopped by Commission

LANSING, Mich., (AP)—Governor Greenback Levy instructed the state boxing commission not to permit a ten-round boxing bout between Captain Bob Roper and Billy Misko, scheduled to be held at Grand Rapids, August 12. He declared he did not believe the match would meet the strict requirements of the Michigan boxing law.

"Since the war the promoters in Michigan are well as other states have turned the game into a commercial proposition, and it has developed into nothing more than a 'come on' game," the governor said.

Celebration Held When Players and Jurymen Gather

Acquitted Ball Tossers and Men who Freed Them Meet After Verdict

CHICAGO, (AP)—By chance early today the former White Sox ball players and the jurors who acquitted them last night after a trial of five weeks, met in a little Italian restaurant. Both parties joined in a celebration that lasted until sunrise.

The jurors had gone to the restaurant for a final supper together before separating to go to their homes after their long absence. The players went for the same purpose. The two parties discovered one another in adjoining dining rooms and the doors were thrown open.

Whether the acquitted players return to organized baseball is a question not yet answered, but the jurors expressed desire to see them on the diamond.

"Eddie" said one, addressing Pitcher Cicotte, "I know every man on this jury knows that the next time he sees you that you will be in the center of the diamond putting over strikes."

"And," said another, "we'll all be there cheering for you and the rest of these boys."

The party broke up with singing of "Hall, Hall, the Gang's All Here."

AS TO MIDDLEWEIGHTS

Brief Bits of Sport

Manager D. C. Graydon denies his Moose team contemplated disbanding.

"We'll be there when the season finishes, and I expect the team will be fighting for a higher up place, too," the heat of the Fraters declared today.

A Cook county (Ill.) jury has again demonstrated that when it comes to a matter of justice law is supreme.

And, judging by the demonstration following acquittal of the Black Sox, it seems that even the masses entertain perverted ideas.

Twin Falls and Buhl will play at Buhl next Sunday afternoon.

Babe Ruth in 1920 found the last two weeks of July his best section of the season for hitting homers. Between July 16 and August 1 last year he made eight.

Catcher Ed Garrity of the Washington team was sent home while the club was in Detroit. He is threatened Babe Ruth's batting average during the Yankees' trip west was nothing brag about in percentage, but the Sox got a satisfactory number of home runs and had a general good time to boot.

Clarence Halloran, former captain of the Furman college baseball team, will join the Boston Red Sox for a while.

when the team finishes its western trip. He is a pitcher and outfielder.

Charley Sils, who led the Springfield team to within a half game of first place in the first half of the Western Association season and had it going well in the second half, was released July 21. For reasons of economy, it is stated, as Sils did not play regularly and the club decided it could not afford a bench manager. Wilson White, catcher of the team, succeeds Sils.

The negotiator against Sunday baseball are in the saddle again in Philadelphia. The law permits games in public parks and open fields where no admission is charged, but some of the independent clubs have been taking up collections from spectators. The mayor of the city, on demands from the reformers, has notified the police to make arrests where it is found such collections are taken.

The original coaches of the Jacksonville club in the Florida State league threw up the sponge last week and the franchise was awarded to another set of backers who have agreed to see the thing through. Marcus Conant, president of the former organization, paid up the debts of the club and will be connected with the new combination that has agreed to finance affairs for the remainder of the season.

Pitcher Lafayette Henlon, who jumped the Regina club of the Western League last week, then decided to come back, can't get away with it. Fred deRobert Pearson of the league has ruled that Henlon having gone out must stay out and a game he pitched and won against Saskatoon after coming back has been awarded as a victory for Saskatoon. Regina was told to do without Henlon, but howled over the decision giving Saskatoon a victory it had not earned.

The greatest shock the St. Louis fans have sustained in years was not the act of George Sisler in hitting an umpire, though that was shock enough, but the suspension by Manager Branch Rickey of the Cardinals of John Lavan. The little shortstop is supposed to be a model of deportment and the fans in St. Louis couldn't figure it out and are still waiting for more information.

than that furnished, which was to the effect that Lavan stayed out later than 11:30 one night in Brooklyn.

George M. Cohan, in an interview in New York, admits that he wants to be a big league magnate, but says there is only one club he would have and that he won't get into the game until he can get that one particular club. He won't say what club it is, but it is supposed he wants the New York Giants. He was about to buy the Giants, by the way, when Charles A. Stoneham stepped in and beat him to it. Cohan evidently doesn't want the Boston Braves—if he did probably he couldn't get George W. Grant to sell them to him.

CAPTURE YOUNG ELK FOR CHELAN NATIONAL PARK

Hogquiam Men Chase Herd on Olympic Peninsula and Seize Calves when Animals Grow Wary HOQUIAM, Wash., (AP)—Two Hogquiam men, Frank Briggs and Ben Northrup, recently cut foot on down a herd of elk in the Olympic peninsula west-northwest of here, and captured three calves for shipment to the Chehalis National park in western Washington. A cougar joined the men in the chase of the herd, but the hunters were unarmed and unable to bring their sorrow to shoot this animal.

There are a great many elk in the Olympic country and the hunters, when they started, soon found a mother elk and her babies. The bucks at this time are away from the herds and high in the mountains. The men followed the herd until the calves became exhausted and hid themselves in the undergrowth to avoid detection. Three calves were captured and brought here.

Time on Stand

At the hearing of the court yesterday, E. P. Wilson, a certain former and present member of the board of trustees of School District No. 1, before Judge W. A. Babcock district court, the most important testimony has been submitted on the part of the school district by E. P. Wilson, former treasurer, and E. A. Wilson, public auditor. Many other witnesses have been on the stand, but these have been upon for information relative to the affairs of the school.

Nixon Gives Information Having opened yesterday afternoon, the hearing of the court yesterday first by counsel for the state, H. C. Mills and Turner K.
Nixon. He was followed by Auditor E. A. Wilson, who gave a complete statement of the affairs of the school district. Nixon then called the past school board to the stand to give information relative to the affairs of the school district. Nixon then called the past school board to the stand
affairs of the school district.

Nixon, on further examination, stated that while he was a member of the school district his bond was $10,000. Inquiry brought out that during his incumbency he received cash from two bond issues amounting to $310,000, in addition to the general fund for a number of years. The plaintiff's counsel should have been twice the amount of revenue handled.

Auditor Called Auditor Wilson testified as to his work while employed by the board of trustees. He gave a complete statement of the financial affairs of the school district. He stated that he spent the major portion of his time on the stand, and stated that he had been called to the stand to testify as to the affairs of the school district.

The plaintiff's counsel called the past school board to the stand, direct testimony or in cross examination. The plaintiff's counsel stated that their case would probably be completed before evening recess, but will probably not be completed before tomorrow night.

In the afternoon cases are W. W.
Clark, resigned as chairman of the board of trustees; G. W. Hico P. Clark still on the board. E.
H. Walters and Shad L. Hodgins are also on the stand.

CITY BOARD SEEKS HEATING PLANT COST
The board of trustees of the city of Twin Falls is seeking to have the cost of the heating plant for the city building determined. The board has called for a hearing on the subject for September 17.

A meeting of the Twin Falls board of trustees was held yesterday morning. The board members present were: E. P. Wilson, H. C.
Mills, Turner K. Nixon, E. A. Wilson, G. W. Hico, P. Clark, Shad L. Hodgins, E. H. Walters, and Shad L. Hodgins.

MISS FOWLER IS MADE NEAR EAST STATE HEAD

University Woman Will Take Up Work of Furthering Relief for Needy

To awaken contented and prosperous Americans from the longer and comforts of summer and arouse them to the condition of the people and suffering among destitute strangers that are threatened for the coming winter is a difficult task, but Miss Z. Pay Fowler, the former young leader of young extension work for the University of Idaho, is going to tackle the job in this district within the next week or so.

Residents all over this county will be asked to share with the homeless men, women and children of Armenia and Bible lands the east-of-shore and clothes that now lay unused and almost forgotten in their closets and attics.
As newly-appointed state director of the Near East Relief committee, chartered by congress for rescue and reconstruction work throughout western Asia, Miss Fowler is scheduled to arrive here in a few days to set machinery in motion for the local lead-binding program.

According to information just received from the state relief headquarters at Boise, Miss Fowler will seek local workers to handle the appeal in this section. In addition to the complicated half-naked thousands that the organization is endeavoring to help, Members of the Red Cross and the Women's Relief corps are co-operating in the work nearly everywhere, and followers of the Mormon faith are expected to give liberal aid.

While discarded clothing was accumulating in America's homes and attics last winter, with but little other use than for moths to feast upon this summer, starving children, whose lives they might have saved with their wealth, were doing a hideous dance of death in the ice and snow of Armenia and the Caucasus," declares Miss Fowler in explaining the purpose of her appeal.

"It is to prevent a repetition of what was told last winter in the digging of thousands of graves for those perished of the winter, and the people of this and all other sections of the state are called upon to contribute to the clothing collections here because of the Near East Relief work."
"It is for the family of this county to decide whether they will save the life of a child, or feast the moths with the cast-off clothes and shoes about their homes. We need all sorts of heavy, warm clothes in which there is still some wear. We need them for men, women and children."

SEEK NEW PLANTS FOR BUNCH GRASS RANGES

Over-grazing Said to Have Destroyed Native Growths in Western Territory

Overgrazing has injured or destroyed much natural bunch grass pasturage, a fact which draws attention to the radical difference in this respect between range and pasture lands. The work of cattlemen having lands under fence and, in addition, the work on the national forests has shown that the original carrying capacity of the range can be restored by a proper system of grazing, say the specialists in the United States department of agriculture. These specialists declare that the loss of the native bunch grass of the land will solve the winter range problem so far as maintaining its normal carrying capacity.

However, while outdoor men do, however, there are large possibilities in finding other grasses and legumes which, when introduced, will spread of their own accord and meet more pasture needs of the native bunch grass.
This belief is found in the lowlands of California, now composed mainly of grasses and other plants introduced from the Mediterranean region, which support at least 50 per cent of the total pasturage. These introduced plants have proved far more aggressive than the native bunch grass.

Practically all the pasture grasses of the northwestern quarter of the country, also, have been introduced there, including blue grass, white clover, red clover, timothy, Canada blue grass and many others. In the south, likewise, the most valuable pasture grasses are introduced, such as Bermuda, carpet, Bahia grasses, Japan clover and blue grass. "These grasses must be handled in Asia, where almost every condition that exists in our bunch grass range lands is duplicated," said one of the specialists in the bureau of plant industry. "Asia is very rich in grasses and legumes. It has been impossible to visit Asia without going after them, because there are no experienced attendants there."

RAILROAD BOOBS
SUBSCRIBERS ARE WELL PROTECTED

No Money Will Be Paid Railroad Company Until Southern Line is Completed

"It is confidently expected that when President George L. Davis, of the Idaho Central Railroad company, comes here from San Francisco, a visit hoping for during the coming week, he will be vested with authority to enter Twin Falls, and all districts interested, just what financial support backs the southern rail outlet project," said an officer of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce today. "This officer has been most prominently connected with activities having to do with Twin Falls support for the railroad plan, and declares he is ready to 'get back into the game,' and push the project to a successful finish."

Twin Falls some months ago, responding to demands made by soliciting committees, made a considerable contribution toward the project. The committee, however, has been protected against loss should the line fail of construction by a guarantee with the construction company which permits the holding of all subscriptions by the Idaho-Nevada Holding company until such time as the company shall have completed all of its pledges as to construction and equipment. The line, or shall have failed within the prescribed time to carry out the project. In the former instance the money will be paid over, in the latter the pledges will be returned to the donors.

In this respect the following announcement in explanation is contained in a prospectus printed and issued by the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce:

"The offer of this sum ($500,000), carries with it full protection to the general public in written contract form. Not one cent of the money is to be paid until after the railroad is completed and in operation with freight and passenger service. Another clause of the contract with the railroad company requires that the railroad be completed within 18 months after the beginning of construction. Should the road be not completed according to the terms of the contract the bonus will not be paid and the money subscribed will be returned to the donors by the board of directors of the Idaho-Nevada Holding company, whose membership, it will be remembered, is drawn from our own bankers on the town, which assures the carrying out of the contract agreements."

"The raising of the bonus is entirely in the hands of the farmers and business men of the Twin Falls country. Business men and mining interests of Idaho. Individual subscriptions from all parties who will be benefited by the railroad are necessary to secure the state and completion of this great project. A total bonus of $500,000 is promised to the builders."

To raise the amount of money required it has been found by the holding company that amounts averaging $250 are on the farm lands of the Twin Falls tract will provide the fund required from Idaho. This amount is a small investment when the increase in advantages for obtaining the new perpetual main-line service in all future years is considered. The plan is to make the principal part of the contract made by the Idaho-Nevada Holding company with the Idaho Central Railroad company will be found elsewhere in this booklet. It was drawn by a practiced railroad man, well known local lawyers, Twin Falls engineers and bankers from every town on the tract.
They believe they have drawn an instrument which assures to the people all the benefits that are possible. Its provisions are liberal; the public is favored and not the Idaho Central railroad company."

ASSESSORS CALLED TO MEET
County Auditor S. C. Shaw has received an invitation to attend an annual conference of county assessors of the state to be held in Boise on August 8. The invitation was sent from the office of the state auditor and calls for attendance at a meeting for the adjustment of matters pertaining to assessments for taxation purposes.
The auditor will stay several days, and will be in the city during the work of assessing property will be given a thorough sitting.

PROBATE JUDGE FAVORS
SUPERVISED PLAYGROUNDS

O. P. Duvall Says Vacations Without Restraint Induce Delinquencies

In discussing the movement for a supervised public playground for Twin falls, the chairman of the committee from the Kiwanis club, Judge O. P.
Duvall today said:

"The greatest interest in the proposition is inherent because of the direct relationship it bears to the problem of juvenile delinquency. During vacation there is a normal increase of 40 per cent in the juvenile cases that come before the probate court. In every instance they are directly traceable to lack of legitimate work and play.
While sitting in Salt Lake recently, I was deeply interested in the children's activities at Liberty park. It is adequately equipped with all sorts of devices for play, a swimming pool for large and a wading pool for the smaller children. Twice a week there is a free showing of carefully censored moving pictures. The one I saw was a Boy Scout film and I am sure there were 1000 children in the enthusiastically approving audience. The playground is sturdy and attractive, and it is constant use by great numbers of children. They bring their lunches and stay for hours. There is, of course, adequate supervision. I found the arrangements in Los Angeles, in San Francisco, in Santa Barbara, and I am told, in all the smaller places in the southwest."

"The report of the National Welfare committee at the Elks' convention, particularly stressed the need of public playgrounds and urged the subordinate judges to get behind any movement looking to that end."

"I have already sent out numerous letters to various parts of the country that should put us in possession of valuable data on the subject."

DUHL GIVES SUPPORT TO TRAFFIC SOCIETY

West End People Favor Organization Designed to Reduce Freight Rates

That people of Bull city and district are unanimously favorable to participation in the activities of the Southern Idaho Traffic association, is word brought here by John W. Graham, another supporter of the movement from Twin Falls who attended an organization meeting in Bull last night. "We found the people of Bull in a most cooperative mood, and more than willing to enter the organization and push its projects both with moral and financial support," said John M. Maxwell, who returned here by John W. Graham and the organizing committee from Twin Falls encountered no opposition for the project designed to bring about equalized freight tariffs for this district.
The meeting was well attended and generous subscriptions were made to the fund quota allotted to Bull and district of $2000. A committee was chosen to continue the organization process and carry a note gathering of subscriptions, until the required amount is obtained.
Tonight the Twin Falls party of organizers will go to Jerome to conduct an organization meeting in which will be included with Jerome the towns of Hazelton, Eden and Wandell.

A similarly enthusiastic organization meeting was held in Hansen, a good start being made toward subscribing the quota of $750 set against this place for operation on the project.
Adler B. Wilson, president of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce today received word from Hansen indicating that practically the entire $750 had been pledged.

Those going from Twin Falls to conduct the organization meeting were:
C. E. Munson, H. E. Powers, Donald McLean, and Johnson and others.

NOTICE
Firms and individuals who have erected advertising signs on the Idaho Pacific State highway are hereby notified that on completion of the paving, which is now being constructed, all such signs must be removed. The work in Twin Falls Highway district will be completed about August 15, 1921, and the work in Filer district will be completed about September 1, 1921.
After the above dates no signs will be permitted within the limits of the right-of-way except the standard cautionary and directory signs furnished and erected by the State Bureau of Highways.
