LOWER FREIGHT RATE ON GRAIN TO EAST PORTS

Shippers and Railroad Representatives Agree on Cut of 7 1-2 Cents a Hundred Pounds from Chicago to Seaboard

DISCUSS PROPOSAL FOR REDUCED DOMESTIC RATE

Territory West of Mississippi River Shares in Benefits of Reduction Slated for Middle Western Points

CHICAGO, (AP)—Freight rates on grain, grain products and main by-products from Chicago and the Central freight association territory to North Atlantic seaboard ports for export will be reduced 7 1/2 cents per hundred pounds for a period expiring December 31, as a result of conferences between shippers and railway representatives, it was announced today.

The association includes Mississippi and Ohio river points and the territory between those rivers north to the Great Lakes and east to Buffalo and Pittsburgh.

Domestic Out Discussed. The proposition of the carriers that the domestic rates on grain, grain products and grain by-products also be reduced 1 1/2 cents per hundred pounds from Chicago was discussed.

As to both the export and domestic rates the usual differentials are to govern as between New York and other North Atlantic seaboard ports. All of the reductions will affect the freight charge on shipments from points north of Chicago, also west of the Mississippi river.

The present and proposed carload rates in cents per hundred pounds from Chicago to New York follow:

BRITAIN PAVES WAY TO SHIP SPOILT GOLD HERE

London Board of Trade Upholds Bolshevik Government's Claim to Russian Reserve

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Russian spoilt gold may be shipped to the east coast of Great Britain as a result of a recent test case in the British courts, the commerce department has been advised by cable by Ambassador Harvey, it was learned today.

London board of trade now takes the ground, "that the outcome of the test case demonstrates, that no holder of Russian spoilt gold can successfully contest the soviet claim to legal ownership of the Russian gold reserve; and it is informed that the Bank of England will henceforth grant export licenses on documents of title for spoilt gold without regard to the character of the assay marks it carries."

ULSTER CABINET SESSION CALLED

Reiterates Denial of Receipt of Communication from De Valera

LONDON, (AP)—Another meeting of the Ulster cabinet has been called to discuss the Irish peace negotiations, it was announced today, although it is reiterated in Belfast that no message has been received there from Eamon de Valera.

It is added that no overtures will be entertained which diminished the powers of the northern parliament. Nevertheless the imperial government continues optimistic as to the outcome if it can get the opposing leaders together.

While the Sinn Fein leaders are maintaining silence, it is believed De Valera and his followers favor a conference in London and will support before the republican parliament a proposal for such a conference.

It is hoped in government circles here that the republican parliament will announce its willingness to open direct negotiations in London for the future government of southern Ireland, while attempting through other sources to make an arrangement with Ulster.

The Ulster cabinet meeting was called for this afternoon.

At 3,500 feet she said "Yes" and at 4,000 she held out her finger for the ring. She was wearing it when they came to earth.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., (AP)—A race with death which began five days ago at his home in Montclair, N. J., and ended here was won by nine-year-old Morris Kessler. Morris swallowed a brass tack to win the admiration of his playmates. The tack lodged deep in his lung, threatening to puncture it. The boy was rushed across the country to a hospital here on the slim chance his life might be saved. A bronchoscopic was inserted and a foreign object was removed. No anesthetic was administered and today the boy was declared perfectly well.

RUSSIAN SOVIET DENIES APPEAL FOR LINDBERG

Moscow Dispatch to Berlin Communist Organ Brands Report of Horrible Conditions as False

AMERICAN RELIEF WORKERS AWAIT PROOF OF RELEASE OF PRISONERS

BERLIN, (AP)—Germany will conduct her work in relieving famine sufferers in Russia, independently of other powers. It is officially announced here.

About 200,000 tons of grain must be available to feed the inhabitants of the districts afflicted by famine according to a wireless dispatch received here from Moscow, quoting George Chicherin, bolshevik foreign minister.

The dispatch declared the soviet government is mobilizing all public agencies for relief work, and reiterates recent denial of reports of horrible conditions in the districts stricken by crop failures. A special dispatch from Moscow to the Red Star, the communist organ here, says the soviet government has officially denied having applied to the United States, Great Britain or any other power for food relief.

ELABORATE FAITH IN REPORTS OF LIBERATION

LONDON, (AP)—The American relief officials in London are placing little faith in reports that the American prisoners in Russia have been released.

"We are keeping a vigilant watch over every possible exit the Americans might take from Russia, and none save Mrs. Marguerite Harrison has as yet come through," said Walter L. Brown, president of the American relief administration.

"This leads us to believe that the Berlin report of their release must be a product of the bolshevik propaganda organization."

SUSPECT FOUL PLAY IN MASON'S DISAPPEARANCE

Idaho Falls Associates Join in Search for Missing Kiwanis Club Secretary

COLEMAN, Utah, (AP)—George A. Hildreth, president of the Idaho Falls Kiwanis club, and Dr. H. D. Jenkins, also of Idaho Falls, who arrived here today in connection with the disappearance of Harold R. Mason, secretary of the Idaho Falls Kiwanis club, expressed the belief that Mason had met with foul play and his automobile was pushed over the embankment into the Weber river to hide the crime. They said they would organize a search of the hills near the place where the auto and the car were found, and they would also inquire at hospitals in Salt Lake in the belief that Mason was struck and had wandered aimlessly.

Messiah-like organized groups are making a systematic examination of the river for the body. Mrs. Mason's parents are secretary of Council 210 to follow the search for their son.

Altha O. Mason, father, today announced he would pay a reward of $500 for the recovery of his son's body.

HOUSE LEADERS TO MAKE FIGHT FOR LOWER TAX

Treasury Secretary's Proposals for New Forms of Taxation Encounter Increasing Opposition in Congress

SAVING OF $500,000,000 IS DECLARED PRACTICAL

Mondell Says Half Billion Dollars Can Be Out from Levy Without Injury to Essential Government Needs

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Opposition to many new forms of taxation proposed by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon continued to grow today among house leaders. They planned to continue their fight to reduce the nation's tax bill by $500,000,000.

In a statement published today, however, Representative Mondell of Wyoming, the republican leader, declares that in his judgment it is entirely practical to reduce the total tax levy by $500,000,000 and still take care of the essential needs of the government.

Representative Mondell also came out flatly against any increased postage and bank check tax. The republican leader also has said he doubted either the necessity or the advisability of the automobile levy. He declared for repeal of the transportation and fuel taxes, but he favored a lessor which would higher income surtaxes and additional revenue provided through a five per cent increase in the corporation income tax.

NEW YORK JURY WEIGHS SOVIET INJURY CHARGE

Evidence Against Alleged Bolshevik Envoy, Held on Charge for Defrauding Government

NEW YORK, (AP)—Evidence against Jacques Roberto Cibrario, held under bond on charges of having defrauded the Russian soviet government out of $100,000, was laid before a grand jury by Assistant District Attorney Jimmons.

Although the warrant on which Cibrario was arrested, charged him with defrauding the soviet government of $100,000, the grand jury placed at his disposal by the bolsheviks for the purchase of moving picture machines and film, Mr. Cibrario had fraudulently obtained about $500,000.

Cibrario is alleged to have formed a company with Japanese through which he sold to himself, as bolshevik government purchasing agent, a quantity of worthless motion picture paraphernalia, which he is alleged to have shipped to Russia.

Argues Longer War Might Have Benefitted Russia and Japan

could expect a victory or even military achievements, and Japan might have learned a lesson which would have changed much of the succeeding events throughout the world.

"The Russian army would never have been able to show much grit, but her internal troubles would have increased and forced the government to grant more reforms, establishing in Japan, Japan at that moment, a militia government for which she was quite ripe, but which neither the czar nor the ruling class were yet ready to grant. What did they grant they tried to take back or nullify as the social dislocation quieted down.

"Again the continuation of the war would have brought important changes in Japan. Japan at that moment was at the end of her tether. Roosevelt, in other words, saved Japan from an economic collapse that might have called for constitutional reform in Japan also, and only the latter could be a reliable guarantee against the development of imperialism in the Pacific."

HAND OF JAPAN SEEN IN FLIGHT OF SEMENOFF

Vladivostok Government Charges Japanese Connived to Establish New Claimant to Supreme Rule in Siberia

VLADIVOSTOK, (AP)—General Semenov, whose officers recently proclaimed him Supreme Ruler of Siberia, made his mysterious "get-away" from Vladivostok by hiding on the bottom of a motor car which was secured by two unscrupulous Japanese soldiers and arms, according to a statement issued by the press bureau of the Vladivostok government.

The statement continued: "The presence of the armed Japanese guard preceding Semenov's flight from Vladivostok is in itself evidence of the assistance of the Japanese government in his escape by those officers who are supposed to be Japanese, without the consent or knowledge of the Japanese command. Being asked about the attitude of the Japanese government with regard to Semenov's flight, Captain Fukuda, a member of the Japanese military mission, said that the Japanese command advised the Ataman to flee in his escape by those officers who are supposed to be Japanese, without the consent or knowledge of the Japanese command. Being asked about the attitude of the Japanese government with regard to Semenov's flight, Captain Fukuda, a member of the Japanese military mission, said that the Japanese command advised the Ataman to flee in his escape by those officers who are supposed to be Japanese, without the consent or knowledge of the Japanese command.

Japanese Investigating

If the rumors prove to be true, the guilty officers will be tried by a court and punished."

SPAIN'S ANTI-DRY LAW THREATS CAUSE WORRY

Traders of Iceland and Finland Manifest Grave Concern Over Prospects

COPENHAGEN, (AP)—Spain's anti-prohibition attitude is causing economic anxiety in more than one "dry" or partly dry country. Threats of tariff pressure, trade boycotts and other steps in behalf of the manufacture and sale of Spanish wines are having their effect, notably in Iceland and Finland. Norway alone seems impervious to foreign "wet" attacks.

The Icelanders are worried, according to the Politiken, by the decision of Spain to increase customs duties on Icelandic fish unless the prohibition law is altered to allow the importation and consumption of Spanish wines below 20 per cent of alcohol.

MORLEY SETS BACK MERCHANTS WITH ONE HIT AND WITHOUT A SCORE IN DECIDING PROTEST

Legion and I. D. S. Play Over Disputed Contest of June 1 and Soldier Leads Take Well-Earned Decision Three to Nothing—Oliver Gives the Service Men Hard Struggle but is Overcome

LAYING OFF a protested game the Legion club of the Twilight league last night in one of the closest tilts of the month.

Morley hit a fly ball at third and the next two batters fanned in succession. Thereafter the I. D. S. men never seriously threatened to score except in the third inning, when Oliver was nipped and attempted to reach the plate.

NORTHLIFFE IS OPTIMISTIC OVER HARDING'S PLAN

Distinguished British Publisher Tells Vancouver Audience the Time is Ripe for Nations to Lay Down Arms

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) - Mr delegates to the forthcoming disarmament conference in Washington "truly and constantly represent the desires of their nations and an agreement will be reached and an era of peace and prosperity will be opened in the Pacific that will be unequalled in the history of the world."

President Harding and Secretary Hughes, Lord Northcliffe said, have a "very clear understanding of the momentous character of the gathering at Washington."

Statements made Wednesday in the house of commons as to the replacing of four obsolete battle cruisers by new vessels of the new class today do not essentially alter this fact, he asserted, as Britain has at present only one big ship partly embodying the lessons of the new class.

World Needs Reapportion. Continuing Lord Northcliffe said in part: "The world is sick and needs time to recover from the tremendous shock it has received. What are known as racial questions are also pressing upon us for while the economic and industrial position is not normal, millions of men and women who, during the war, attained a higher standard of living are anxious not to thrust back into pre-war conditions."

"There is at the same time a reaction from the high idealism that animated the allies and their associates during the war. People are feeling a little disheartened, they are wondering whether human affairs will ever be settled, by anything except force, whether good will, reason and common sense will ever regulate the intercourse of nations. At such a moment comes President Harding's call for a conference."

Failure Would Be Disaster. "I cannot conceive of any greater disaster than the failure of that conference to achieve the ends for which it will meet."

Many Plants Tested for Making Silage—Cows Relish Some but Refuse Others

A series of experimental feeding tests conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture at its Beltsville, Md., livestock farm, revealed some interesting information as to the effect of silage upon the palatability of various plants found on a farm or range.

Use Barrels for Small Silos. During the last summer and fall about 150 different plants and combinations of plants were packed in barrels in the same manner that ensilage is placed in a silo. The purpose was to study the effect of the silo fermentation upon the fiber, and other features of the plants. It was thought possible that silage would overcome some objectionable qualities of certain plants, in addition to breaking down the fiber of those which were too woody for stock food.

The various lots of silage were taken to Beltsville to test the palatability of cattle feed. The tests were conducted in the course of about 12 hours, and the same was true of rye, which cattle seldom touch in the field. Canada thistle, and castor bean plants without seed, were eaten quite readily. Jack bean vines and pods were eaten rather reluctantly. The cows ate silage Australian salt bush, but not the native plant. Silage of onion tops were fed to four cows, two at a time and two refused them. Buck wheat also provided a choice morsel. Cabbages, which in their natural state are eaten avidly by cattle, were almost wholly untouched when silaged, the product being in many respects similar to suerkraut but without the salt. Giant rye grass was not touched. The cattle were not compelled to eat any of the silage products to satisfy hunger, as they were fed them between silage and they had the regular portions of grain. The tests were not entirely conclusive, especially as the quantities were so small that the animals did not have an opportunity to get accustomed to unfamiliar flavors.

Tests May Be Continued. The department may make more extensive tests another season on some of the materials, as there was no opportunity with barrel lots to gain any knowledge as to the feed and milk producing value of the feeds.

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE IN LONDON APPROACHES END

One Power Standard of Empire with Dominions Defending Themselves—Believed to be Favored

LONDON, (Canadian Press)—The conclusion of the imperial conference will conclude today. It is believed a policy of non-interference was decided on regarding appointment by dominions of cabinet ministers to consult with the premier. A one power standard for the empire, with the dominions undertaking the defense of their territories was understood to have been favored.

Australia contended for direct wireless communication with England but it was believed the decision was for Great Britain to complete stations under her control, with Australia, South Africa, India, New Zealand and Canada co-operating in the chain.

Today's Markets

WHEAT PRICE GOES LOWER

Closing Quotations in Chicago Fit Show 2 1/2 to 3 1/4 Net Decline

CHICAGO, (AP)—New setbacks in the price of wheat were witnessed today, with heavy trading that was vital supply to the market would show an increase of three to four million bushels. Besides, gossip was current that spring wheat growing would sell heavily direct from the threshers. On the break in price, however, signs of considerable export buying developed. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 3-4 lower, with September at $1.20 3/4 to $1.21 1/4 and December at $1.24 to 1/4, were followed by a general drop all around and then something of a rally.

The effect of broader export demand was largely offset by contentions that the present movement of wheat to market was limited only by railroad ability to furnish cars. The close was heavy, 3 1/4 to 3 1/2 net lower, with September $1.18 1/4 to $1.18 3/4 and December $1.21 3/4 to $1.22.

Corn went lower with wheat. After opening a shade off to 1-8 up, including September at 55, the market underwent a general sag. September delivery touched the low of August 1-4 and 2-9. The closing was weak at 1 1/8 to 1 1/2 net decline, with September 55 1/8 to 55 3/4.

MURTAUGH LAND OWNERS TO VOTE

Proposition to Bond District will be Tested by Ballot on Monday Next.

Next Monday settlers of the Milner Low Lift Irrigation district will vote on the proposition to bond the district for $400,000. This is the sum estimated as necessary to take over the present system to complete it, and to acquire title to certain decreed water rights.

On March 30, 1919, the Murtaugh canal system was incorporated with B. J. Moorman, Edgar Moorman and R. J. Day named as directors, for the purpose of using the flood waters of the Snake river on a strip of land lying above and parallel to the high line canal of the Twin Falls. South Side system.

Irrigate by Pumping.

This body of land is about 24 miles long and from a quarter of a mile to four miles in width, and extends from Milner to Murtaugh lake. To irrigate it under the present plan requires a lift of 37 feet which is accomplished by pumping. This pump is located on the south side of the Milner lake, and was installed by the Murtaugh canal system. Should the bonds carry, it is the plan to add at least one more pumping unit and to complete the system of canals already started. Aside from this improvement the new organization will be able to carry out a contract to purchase from the Long Island Irrigation company which operates the Idaho Falls country, a decreed water right to 5000 inch of the natural flow of the Snake river. This will give to this new section the same water right that the Twin Falls project has, or that even exceeds it.

Commission Must Act.

If the proposition to issue the bonds is voted affirmatively, the whole matter must then be submitted to the state bond commission. This commission was created by the legislature for the purpose of passing upon the issuance of bonds to be offered for investment. If the proposition appears to be sound, and the legislature, in addition, to be feasible and meritorious, the bonds will issue in accordance with its findings, or they may order such changes as may appear to the legislature in the plan, to safeguard both the irrigation company and the investors who purchase the bonds. This commission is composed of the attorney general of the state, the commissioner of reclamation and the commissioner of finance.

10,000 Acres for Wading.

Should the bond carry, and the commission approves this proposition as it now stands, it will mean the addition to the irrigated area in this county of approximately 10,000 acres, it is stated by officials of the outgoing company, at a cost of $40 per acre for the water. The land is practically all filled upon by homesteaders who have been waiting this consummation for several years. There is still another equally large tract locally known as the Hansen-Butte district, that is as certified, can be watered in the same manner but requires a greater lift. These areas are generally conceded to have finer and deeper soil even than many parts of the Twin Falls South Side section, and many plans have been considered and worked tentatively out for their reclamation, but not put into practical service. It is asserted that there will be water available at the American Falls dam for all of this land if it can be placed there at a cost for maintenance that is not prohibitive.

SAN FRANCISCO BUILDING WITHOUT HELP OF UNIONS

Conditions Reported Unchanged in Fight for American Plan Continuation

SAN FRANCISCO, (P)—Conditions unchanged in the building industry was the report here today both of the Builders Exchange and the rank and file committee of the building trade unions here growing out of the latter's call for a general strike two nights ago.

Several hundred jobs were proceeding and several thousand men working, it was asserted by the builders' exchange secretary, who declared that the call of a general strike merely changed the status from a lockout to a strike with no effect on the operations.

The only work in which men proceeded, he said, was in plastering, bricklaying, the setting and metal laboring. Sufficient men to carry on operations in all other lines were available, he said. Some architects and contractors are working in the buildings in their fight for continuation of work on the American plan.

"We have called out all the union men and we do not believe any union men are working," said a member of the rank and file committee of the union.

CANADA WANTS IMMIGRANTS

The welfare of the United States demands that we place restrictions on immigration. The vast number of foreigners already here must be assimilated, the economic situation must become more favorable, before we can let aliens flock into the country as they did before the war...

It is with satisfaction that one notes another way for these unhappy Europeans to escape from their unfortunate native countries and begin life anew with a fair chance of prospering, and certainly with an excellent prospect of improving the lot of their children.

An official of the Canadian Pacific Railway, recognized as an authority on immigration and colonization, asserts that our ban on immigration will be a blessing to our northern neighbor, as she is in much the same position as the United States at the beginning of the nineteenth century...

There is an opportunity there for worthy aliens refused admission into the United States to escape disappointment and at the same time to contribute to the development of a comparatively new country. The chances of their making a success of their venture probably are better in Canada than they would be in the United States.

OPINIONS REPRINTED

Pontello Tribune.—The enactment of an import-tariff bill will supplement the restriction of immigration. There is little use protesting the American workman from the competition of immigrant labor if we are to leave our ports open to the products of foreign labor...

More Truth Than Poetry

"We're gettin' back to normalcy" by S. K. EISER... "It seems like good old times to me to read the news today. They're tellin' us the griffin's done, but, more important still, a fight is on in Washington about the tariff bill."

"It takes me back again to read how Congressman McGraw has found that others took the lead and slipped a jaker through. The 'interests' have sent their men to try to pull the strings. The jockeyin' is on again; Congressman 'hikes and might."

"I feared a while we never might get back to normal ways. But, with an old style tariff fight, it seems like other days. And anglophones and glee; We'll all be shoutin' glad hurrahs in nineteen twenty-two."

"They've been indign' governors. They're diggin' scandals out; There's war and rumors of more wars—Throw up your hat and shout! The profitters may make us pay. The 'interests' have sent their men. But normalcy is on the way; We may be happy yet."

OR, BOY! What a shock the censors at the beaches would have if the women suddenly were to go bathing in their party clothes.

WOULDN'T GO TO EXTREMES "When I get married," she said, "I want to spend my honeymoon in an airplane."

What! All of it? "Oh, well, we might come down for meals."

SWEET CLOVER SEED AND BREAD MAY FLOWER FOUR AND BREAD FIRMING DEPARTMENT FINDS

Results of an experiment with sweet clover seed in which actually made by the United States department of agriculture show that the three varieties of clover all have the same effect on the grain, the effect being that the aroma when only faintly present in the wheat, is not noticeable in the bread and only slightly so, if at all, in the flour. Bread made from flour containing clover seed gave off a strong aroma in baking and in the samples in which more than 0.5 per cent of the seed had been mixed, a disagreeable taste was noticed.

Pasteurization Keeps Fruit Juice Sweet Under Method Advised by Department

Sweet cider or grape juice can be preserved in a sweet condition indefinitely by the directions furnished by specialists in the bureau of plant industry, United States department of agriculture. As rapidly as the juices are pressed from the fruit placed them in clean vessels of glass, wood, or tin, and seal them have previously been thoroughly sterilized.

When the juice is placed in storage in the United States method will gradually permit the juice to accumulate in the bottom and on the sides of the jar. In the course of two or three months at ordinary temperature the settling of sediment will complete the sealing by cutting the cork off smoothly and pouring hot paraffin over it.

Native Sons of California to Unveil Stone on the Historic Spot... Joseph G. Cannon is buried, "Uncle Sam" is nominated at Guilford, May 1, 1846. These were cared for by the people of Guilford, North Carolina, and the battle ground is now a national monument."

When the bowels are constipated, the lower bowels or large intestines become packed with feces matter, and is made up largely of gases. These gases enter the vermiform appendix and set up inflammation, which is called acute appendicitis. Take Chamberlain's Tablets when needed and your bowels regular and you have little to fear from appendicitis.

EASTERN GIRLS ARE HIKING IN NUMBERS ACROSS CONTINENT

NEW YORK, (AP)—The roaming complex, sometimes called the wanderlust, has become epidemic among eastern girls. No one of them are trampaling across the continent this summer, gathering an occasional "hike" from kindly automobile tourists, and walking the continent from year to year. So-called sensible shoes, knaki trousers, and the like will work when the purlo becomes emancipated characteristic most of them.

METHODISTS SPEND MORE THAN $70,000,000 IN YEAR

Survey Shows Disbursements of More Than $24,000,000 for Ministerial Support

CHICAGO, (AP)—The total ministerial support of the Methodist Episcopal church for 1920 was $24,000,000, according to a survey made public today by Dr. C. M. Barton of the division of appropriations of the Methodist Committee on Conservation and Advance. Of this amount, pastor's salaries, including house rent, were $3,914,941; salaries of laymen, $1,303,231; bishop's salaries, $14,000; and for conference claimants or for preachers' expenses, $1,600,400.

Whiteaway as a Fire-Proofing... Tests made of the fire-resisting paints have demonstrated that these are fully effective for small amounts of wood. Ordinarily calcimine or whitewash is proved in tests to be as fire-resistant as any paint covering tried. It is cheap and convenient to use. Although it will not prevent the burning of wood exposed continuously to a high heat, a good coat of calcimine on wood will decrease the damage of a high temperature. It is used on cigarrettes, stoves, and similar small sources of fire. Calcimine is, of course, more effective for inside than for outside use.

Raven a Symbolic Bird

Like most of his tribe, the raven is omnivorous. His diet varies from worms to man's refuse. When his nest is built beneath some overhanging rock you can often discover its position by the signs of rabbit manure laid in the same area as the top of the cliff. In New York there find a raven's nest in a hole in a wall. Earliest New England Dwellings

It is generally thought that the first kind of dwelling built by the early settlers in New England were log cabins, but as a matter of fact, these pioneers often felt obliged to erect a shelter before they took the time to erect anything so durable and elaborate as a weather-tight cabin. Like the primitive people of southern Europe, the Indians of Mexico, they made their dwellings of mud. But often they merely dug a shallow shelter such as the arched in France did during the war.

Reed and Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller.

Oil and Literature

We venture to say that the struggle for iron and oil will produce such a romance as has never been heard of. It is the story of the search for oil in California, the story of the search for oil in Alaska, the story of the search for oil in the Arctic, the story of the search for oil in the Antarctic.
