WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—A reduction of $790,330,000 in the annual tax bill of the nation will result from the changes in the 1918 revenue act embodied in the new administration tax bill, Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee, declared today, majority report filed today with the house.

Actual reductions in taxes for this fiscal year, the report continued, are estimated at approximately $200,000,000, total collections under the new bill being figured at $3,776,000,000 as against the estimated collections of $3,776,000,000 under the present law.

392 Bushels of Corn
Out of Carload Goes to Pay Freight Rate

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Freight rates on a carload of corn from a Nebraska farm to Omaha in 1914 payable by sale of 118 bushels, about the market price of 392 bushels, a W. W. Shurtliff, secretary of the Farmers National Grain Dealers association, told the interstate commerce commission today at hearings on grain freight rates.

Shurtliff said, had effected savings amounting to 5 cents a bushel in handling grain through co-operative elevators and market systems, but freight rate increases had more than wiped it out. Corn costing 50 cents a bushel to produce on a 1914 production cost basis, would pay for 45 cents in Omaha, the farmer getting about 33 cents after handling and transportation charges are paid, he said.

"It doesn't matter whether the farmer sells in the next town, the next county or at a distant market, he pays the same freight," Shurtliff said, "the price is going being always the market price less the freight charges," the witness said.

Secretary Davis Furnishes Figures to Senate in Response to Resolution

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—The estimates at this time show that 5,735,000 persons are out of employment in the United States, Secretary of Labor Davis reported to the senate today in response to a resolution calling for figures.

Mr. Davis said the estimates did not include figures as to the number of former service men out of work, as these could not be given. The total unemployed as obtained, he added, relates to the effect in the number of employees carried on payrolls last month as compared with the peak of employment in 1920.

Manufacturing and mechanical industries, including building trades, showed the highest percentage of unemployment, the estimate being 3,000,000. Other industries listed were mining, transportation, trade and clerical workers and domestic and personal service.

Calls for Open Door in Siberia and Recognition of Japanese Acquired Rights and Indemnification Claim

TOKIO, (AP)—The disposition of the Japanese government to settle the question of the evacuation of Siberia before the opening of the Pan-Asian conference at Washington, gave a special interest to the mission of Hajime Matsushima, of the foreign office, who recently went to Vladivostok to negotiate with the government at Chita.

Promises Troops Withdrawal.

In an interview on route, Mr. Matsushima was quoted as saying: "The recent decision to dispatch the eighth division to Siberia does not mean that our policy regarding evacuation has been altered, as it is the custom to replace old troops when their time has expired. The evacuation is now being commenced and all troops will be withdrawn."

The Asahi considers the essential points of the negotiations as: "First prohibition against promoting banditism in Japan and her territories."

Calls for Open Door.

"Second, the creation of Vladivostok as an open commercial port."

DE VALERA REITERATES
CLAIM FOR SEPARATION

Irish Republican Leader Tells Dail Eireann British Proposals Are Considered Unjust

WAR OR PEACE HINGES ON DECISION TO BE REACHED BY DUBLIN ASSEMBLY

DUBLIN, (AP)—In opening the Dail Eireann at its first public session here today, Eamon de Valera, the republican leader, reiterated Ireland's claim for separation from Great Britain and declared that the government of the people recognized was the ministry of the Dail Eireann, the Irish republican parliament.

He and his colleagues, De Valera said, had adopted toward England the principle laid down by Cardinal Moran of Belgium and declared that "external authority was unlawful." The Irish, he said, stood for the ideals enshrined in the American declaration of independence.

Mr. De Valera provoked laughter by describing the British attitude as that of a great nation demanding guarantees for its safety from a small one, when it should be a big nation guaranteeing safety to a small state.

Calls Proposals Unjust.

The cabinet, Mr. De Valera declared, did not think the British proposals were just.

Mr. De Valera pointed to the virtual impossibility of conditions surrounding negotiations with the British government for the position, he said, was that of a man unarmed facing a man pointing a pistol.

There were people who wanted to negotiate to save their faces, he continued, but the Sinn Fein would not negotiate to save faces, but to save, if possible, bloodshed, and for right and principle.

Schedule Private Session.

Mr. De Valera said the proposed reply to Premier Lloyd George would be considered in private session tomorrow.

All understood the seriousness of the reply, he declared, as the British government intended to make it an issue of peace or war with the Irish nation.

Mr. De Valera asserted that Ireland had at the elections virtually declared by plebiscite for a republican government, not because the people were republican doctrinaires, but because the Irish freedom and independence could not at present be realized in any other way.

Mr. De Valera said that during his talk with Mr. Lloyd George the subject of the freedom of small nations, which the British premier addressed during the war, came up and he had told Mr. Lloyd George that if he recognized the principles involved there would be no need for negotiations.

"We recognize them and will live and die for them," the republican leader exclaimed.

Suspected Slayer of the Columbian Priest and Mrs. Clifford Confront Each Other

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. (AP)—William A. Hightower, itinerant hawker, with the name of Rev. Patrick E. Heelan, claims priest, and Mrs. Dorothy Fisher Gifford, entertainer, who fits with the description of the mysterious Billy Mason, who Hightower said furnished him with a letter to the grave of the priest, confronted each other today at the Redwood City Jail. Each said they had never seen the other.

No Attempt at Concealment.

All of the missing figures are in currency, Mr. Evans said. The young man is supposed to have "taken everything in sight" when he closed his books on Saturday night, the bank's president said. The books were not tampered with in an effort to cover up the loss, the president said.

Mr. Evans said the loss was fully covered by insurance and that the bank's condition would not be affected.

Mr. Evans had been with the International Trust company as its head teller for more than three years, Mr. Evans said, having come to that institution from another bank highly recommended.

Morse was married, but had no children.

"It was a clean swindle," said the bank's president. "Morse evidently disappeared late Saturday or early Sunday. It is a shock to us all—the disappearance of the young man was as much as the money." The girl was described as five feet two or three inches in height and weighing about 110 pounds and attractive.

Morse, bank officials said, weighs about 148 pounds, is light in complexion and about five feet eleven and a half inches tall.

ANNUAL SALES TOTAL LARGE

Disposal of Old Clothes and Household Goods to Poor Reaches Big Figure

CHICAGO, (P)—Sale of old clothes and household goods to the poor by the Methodist Episcopal church runs into an annual total of $350,000. It was announced here today by the Methodist Committee on Conservation and Advancement.

This field has been entered in a large scale by the Methodists in their "Goodwill" program. They have 10 establishments in many big cities, with property held in trust of more than $1,000,000. They project 21 more plants by 1924.

These activities were reviewed for the conservation committee by Dr. David D. Forsyth, of Philadelphia, secretary of the Methodist Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. In summarizing his report, the committee said:

Low Prices Prevail
"These plants are engaged in gathering castoff clothing, shoes, furniture, books and other articles necessary to the household. These are renovated and sold in stores to the poor at ridiculous prices."

"Men and women out of employment for any reason whatever may obtain work at these plants. Their purpose is to save human beings from destitution and moral wreckage and their motto is 'not charity but a chance'. Profit is no object."

Payroll a Heavy One

"The parent plant in Boston has been in operation for twenty years. It has 75,000 hags in as many homes and does an annual business of over $200,000. It requires eight separate stores in various poor quarters of Boston."

Open Many Plants
"Other plants are at Jersey City, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Cleveland, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Milwaukee, Duluth, St. Paul, New York, San Francisco, San Diego, Lowell and Oakland. ### CROP REPORTING BUREAU TELLS OF CROPS OUTLOOK

Oats Will Produce Better Yield Than Was Predicted Last Week

The following statements of crop outlook in Idaho, other than wheat and potatoes, compiled by Julius H. Jacobson, state statistician, is issued by the crop and weather reporting department of the department of agriculture:

Oats
A crop of 8,027,000 bushels of oats is promised, which is a little less than last year's estimate, but higher than in 1920. Further reduction is certain due to the fact that 2.5 per cent of 180,500 bushels of last year's crop is still in farms.

Barley
Production is placed at 3,247,000 bushels, which is 239,000 less than last year. Carry-over from last year's crop amounts to 89,700 bushels, or 2 per cent.

Rye
The 38,000 acres of rye promise to produce 20 bushels per acre for a total of 760,000 bushels. Last year's crop was only 14 bushels per acre.

Hay
Idaho's hay crop continues to increase both in quantity and quality due to exceptionally good growing and harvesting weather in all parts of the state. Alfalfa is yielding particularly well. Time hay acreage has been reduced approximately 2 per cent but wild hay acreage has increased 5 per cent.

Sugar Beets
The 50,000 acres of sugar beets growing in the state promise a yield of 10.18 tons per acre or a round total of 514,370 tons. Last year the yield per acre was only 8.23 tons and the total production 404,078 tons.

Apples
Prospects for the U. S. apple crop on August 1st were somewhat better than on July 1st due mainly to improvement in weather in all parts of the state. Conditions in eastern states, however, have shown little improvement and early estimates of a very short crop still hold good. On August 1st the nation's commercial apple crop was estimated at 12,327,000 barrels, which is 3,027,000 barrels greater than the July estimate, but 14,945,000 barrels less than the 1920 crop. The earliest movement in hauling farm products is marked. This year's crop amounts to only 60 per cent of the five year average crop, 1915 to 1919.

In the face of this situation Idaho is sitting back with a crop of 3,585,000 bushels which is only a little less than the 3,631,000 bushel crop of last year. The 1920 crop was 3,631,000 bushels, which will approximate 3,200 cars. The condition of the crop on the first of the month was 80 per cent of normal, having improved five points since July 1st.

HAUL GREAT TONNAGE OVER COUNTRY ROADS

The necessity of keeping country roads in good condition is shown by a report recently compiled by the bureau of markets and crop estimates, United States department of agriculture, showing the extent to which they are used in hauling farm products to market.

According to the report, which shows the tonnage of 11 products hauled on country roads, giving the yearly average for the period from 1915 to 1919, there were 27 tons of these 11 crops hauled for every 100 acres of land. The average tonnage of the 11 crops hauled on country roads each year for the period mentioned amounted to 80,500,000 tons. The 11 crops referred to in the report are corn wheat, oats, barley, flax, flaxseed, cotton (including seed), tobacco, potatoes and cultivated hay.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY GIVEN UNUSUAL PRINT

Episcopal Minister at Moscow Presents Book 258 Years "Off the Press"

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, (P)—A book which it is thought cannot be duplicated in this country but for which there has been a great rush of would-be readers, has been given to the University of Idaho by the Rev. H. H. Mitchell, rector of Mark's Episcopal church here.

"While I was a chaplain in the British army," says Mitchell, "we put in a little shop in the Jewish quarter. I paid for it the magnificent sum of 300 reis, which is about 25 cents."

"Tiger," which the title page gives as the place of publication, was the old Latin name for Zurich.

"The Latin version of the text in that of the Vulgate and the Greek is the translation of Theodor Beza. I presume there is not another copy of the book in the United States."

The testament is a well-preserved volume in stout leather covers. Greek and Latin versions are presented in parallel columns in a clear, legible type. "Novum Testamentum Graeco-Latinum," the abbreviated title, is stamped on the outside back cover in uneven alignment, each letter apparently having been used as an individual die.

The Latin title says "Novum Testamentum Domini nostri Jesu Christi, Graeco-Latinum, Theodoro Beza interprete. Editio nova et accurata. Tiguri Typographo Bodmeriano MDCLXIII."

Beza was a professor in Geneva and, says the biographer and administrative successor of Calvin.

CO-OPERATIVE CLINICS ARE URGED BY AUTHORITY

Dentistry at Lower Prices for Benefit of Poor Declared Principle of the Profession

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (P)—The problem of giving good dentistry to working men at lower prices is one of the great questions confronting the profession, Dr. Henry L. Banzhaf of Milwaukee told the National Dental association here today.

"The advanced co-operative clinics is a solution. The average American workmanman should be able to buy honest dentistry at a reasonable fee," Dr. Banzhaf said.

"Better dentistry at lower fees can only be accomplished when a group of dentists, each a specialist in his field, comes together in a centrally located co-operative dental clinic."

"Each dentist must operate in his chosen field only, thus increasing his efficiency 40 per cent, because he does only the work he is best qualified to do."

Dr. Banzhaf said the Milwaukee industrial clinic was proving a success. This does work for industrial establishments with which it has agreements.

ELECTRICS DIM THE HOPES OF MERCANTILE BALL BUNCH IN RACE FOR TWILIGHT FLAG

I. D. S. Sends Weakened Team Against Sparkers and Lose Tilt 8 to 1 in Contest That's Shortened by Impending Night—Browne is Hit Hard, while Kregel goes Well

PRESENT hopes, ambitions and aspirations, entertained by a certain baseball playing contingent, were upon the electrician, the symbolic, typographic combination "I. D. S.", lost lustre to a considerable extent in a gloaming encounter last eve against the Sparkers. The I. D. S. finished on the short side of a count 8 to 1.

The lustre of the mercantile players is further dimmed in the fact that the team still has two games to play, and it is expected each will be a hard one. Next Friday the contingent meets the Elks—contenders with the store folk for second place. "Pat" Patton, who is selector for the fraternities, is settling about lining up the best combination he can find to meet the braves of the shop, while it seems almost hopeless for the I. D. S. to expect to be able to send forth a much stronger combination than that which entered the last against the Sparkers last night. Oliver, the I. D. S. lockman on whom has depended largely the hopes of the team, is away on a summer junket, and will likely not be back in time to play.

An Unpleasant Vista

Then, too, the I. D. S. has a game scheduled against the banks as a sort of tailpiece to the season, and also has one protested game to play off with the Legion.

The last nocturnal engagement played on Lincoln lot was a real hot-tailed just, being called at the end of the first half of the sixth on account of impending darkness. The sun was just setting on the steep of the horizon first light shafts when Umpire Goldwater stepped the slaughter that for five rounds had been the revel of Electric's supporters, and the muffled drumbeat of the Merchants. The umpire took it for granted, apparently, that hope for the I. D. S. had been since fled and there was no further use to continue the demonstration. Then, too, a thrown ball had shortly before whizzed past the pitcher's classic brow, suggesting that in the further darkening moments somebody might get hurt. Anyhow, calling the matter off seemed the logical thing, and proved eminently satisfactory to the contending parties.

Browne Hard Hit

"Mordant" Browne clambered up the sloping sides of the pitcher's turret to fling the pull for the Merchants and he proved a merry mark for the artillery on the opposing side. Browne was smitten tip and thigh by all the batters on the other side except one, and he might have negotiated at least one blow had the fray continued. Eleven blows, which with other things of a more or less misdemeanor type, gave the Sparkers their eight tallies three of these coming as a greeting to "Mordant" in the opener, one in the second, two in each of the third and fourth. No scoring was done in the fifth, snappy fielding in which "Sil" Kieffner thrust a mighty paw, proving the prophylactic measure that killed off hope in this round.

The Merchants were helpless for three rounds against "Sil" Kieffner's plate and it wasn't altogether his fault that the lone score for the I. D. S. was counted in the fourth. Sil Kieffner, first up, was safe at first as Webster pulled an error. The runner went to second on a balk and, after Purdy had skied to center the shortstopper raced home on a hot one by Squires, sitting in during an emergency caused by failure of D. Linville to appear for participation in the affair. Brown reached second on an outfield bubble but he died where he landed, Kregel fanning both the following bloopers.

Everything for QUALITY —nothing for show

THAT'S OUR IDEA in making
CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigarette aftertaste.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Conoco gasoline is the most satisfactory

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

THERE are almost as many grades of gasoline as there are of tires and of automobiles. Naturally every motorist is anxious to obtain the greatest amount of satisfaction from the operation of his or her motor car. The matter of gasoline quality is of the utmost importance in this connection.

The effectiveness of any gasoline depends upon its range of volatility. The reason for the superiority of Conoco gasoline is that this range is represented by a uniform, continuous chain of low, medium and high boiling points that insure, respectively, easy-starting, quick acceleration and high power.

Blends and mixtures of gasoline usually contain a range but it is invariably broken up into distinct groups. This results in different cases in an excess of low boiling points affording quick starting but low power; or in an excess of high boiling points giving the "mixture" high power but making it sluggish in starting and productive of carbon troubles.

The gravity "test" has long since been discredited by authorities on petroleum refining as an indication of gasoline quality.

"Gravity" no test of gasoline quality

Boiling points determine the several properties of gasoline that govern its efficiency as a motor fuel. It is a well-known fact among petroleum refiners that two samples of good gasoline, both satisfactory in every respect with the same range of boiling points but refined from different "grades" will vary as much as 5° or 6° in gravity. How then can the gravity "test" be a reliable indication of quality?

Conoco Gasoline has a uniform range of boiling points that insure satisfactory results whenever you may buy it. On a basis of the distillation test, as described in the Bureau of Mines specifications, it more than meets government requirements.

SUSPECTS IN SEEK TO SOLVE CRIME MYSTERY

Former Husband of Mrs. Oberchain, Charged with Arthur C. Burch as Slayer of Kennedy, Outlines Plans

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Both prosecution and defense in the case of Arthur C. Burch and Mrs. Madeline Oberchain, indicted for the alleged murder of J. Bolton Kennedy, were today, they announced, endeavoring to clear up unsolved problems.

Ralph E. Oberchain, Chicago attorney, former husband of the accused woman and her attorney of record, declared it was proposed not only to establish the innocence of the accused but to "solve the mystery of the crime and find out who did the shooting."

He said he was satisfied of the innocence of Burch as well as of that of his wife.

Mrs. Oberchain, who had previously talked freely with interviewers, early today declared she would refer all questions to "my attorney, Mr. Oberchain."

The Rev. Wm. Burch, father of Arthur Burch, who was indicted from Evanston, Ill., announced he expected to stay here only a week, making arrangements for his son's defense.

Pawnbroker May Have Clue

At the district attorney's office it was said the pawnbroker who was arrested by the day would probably be an attempt by E. A. Rosenbach, pawnshop proprietor, to identify Burch as the man who had been seen at the shooting on five days before the shooting of Kennedy on August 2. Rosenbach testified a gun shot whistled up on the street at San Francisco, and he was seen by the police, but failed to recognize photographs of Burch as the purchaser.

JOYS WILL TESTIFY AGAINST COMPANION

Earnings Lads Brought from the Penitentiary for Caverdine Hearing

Ernie and Raymond Jennings, connected auto thieves, will be asked to testify in the case of Russell Caverdine, a similar friend of the law. Caverdine has been held in the county jail about a week, but has been released because of statements and to have been made by a Jennings boys which involved him. Caverdine, who is only 18 years of age, is today in the penitentiary for a hearing for preliminary hearing before Judge O. P. Duval. The Jennings boys were brought from the state penitentiary by Deputy Sheriff Bea J. van yesterday to testify in this case.

The car, which Caverdine is said to have had in stealing, belonged to E. Penman of Twin Falls, and was taken out this year from the care of the Presbyterian church. Mr. Penman was attending services in the church. Ernie and Raymond Jennings were arrested for selling and were released on bail. He at temporary liberty they feloniously took another machine and were heard while passing through the city being brought back here the individuals to both the and the Penman car theft, implicating Caverdine the latter offense.

Juvenile Drivers to be Restrained by Resort to Law

Police Instructed to Make Arrests in Case of Further Violations

I have noticed a great many automobiles on the street of Twin Falls in the last two months; I rather imagine the police should be instructed to take action to stop this violation of the law. One member of the board of city officers at this executive meeting last night. The statement started considerable discussion of many violations of ordinance and of criminal statutes of county and state laws, among driving on country roads.

"A fright the way they drive the city limits," averred Mayor W. W. McConner, and both Mayor and his colleagues, Alderman J. Krenkel, concurred.

He was driving at a reasonable pace when the other evening and a woman came along. I just happened and saw a dark speck fade away as I looked around. My wife to about six inches, and I late to even now when I would have not if I had not pulled clear out to read to let him by," the mayor said.

The councilors added a word of condemnation of drivers on the streets, and then the board went to discuss the original proposition—that of juvenile drivers is

LEONARD WAY CONFIRMS RATE REDUCTION REPORT

Traffic Expert Advises C. A. Robinson of Decline Orders in Rail Charges

Leonard Way, formerly traffic expert with the state public utility commission, and recently engaged as secretary and rate expert with the Southern Idaho Traffic association, this morning wired President C. A. Robinson of that association, confirming a report of a recent announcement of an order reducing rates on certain shipments affecting the Twin Falls district.

Mr. Way, who is attending a rate hearing in Washington, D. C., in a telegram in substance the rate on live stock is fixed at 80 per cent of the present rate where the maximum exceeds 40 cents except live stock, hares and game and question is being presented this week.

The rate expert will return to Boise following the Washington hearing, and will advise the Twin Falls rate change of the traffic association's affairs on September 6.

DE VALEBA REITERATES CLAIM

he today in the first open session in its history, to consider the British government's Irish peace terms. There were 130 members present, including Mr. De Valera, who was elected to admit of their attending the session. A great audience crowded the gallery floor on Eamon de Valera led the members into the chamber. Mayor was with him in the chamber, and then the oath was administered to all the members en masse.

John T. Kelly was re-elected speaker of the parliament, but he declined the office, and Prof. John McNeill was chosen.

"After the formalities had been concluded and Mr. De Valera, as head of the Irish republican governing body, had addressed the assembly, the parliament adjourned."

Promises to Revisit Parlays

Mr. De Valera in his address said he would tomorrow give an account of the negotiations with Mr. Lloyd George, the British prime minister, after which he would return to Belfast. Dublin was not decorated today and in place of the display of the military at Belfast, only traffic policemen were in sight.

Crowds Stamp in Dais

The crowds stood about the Mansion House for hours in a downpour of rain. Most members of the Dail Eireann were unknown to the throng which reserved the house for the day. De Valera was recognized leader. Admission to the hall was by ticket.

The audience which assembled at the Mansion House for the meeting of the Dail Eireann crowded seats in the gallery and on the floor of the chamber around the square space in front of the dais, in which the 130 members who had accepted invitations to participate occupied the battered arm chairs and sofas. Over the dais was the coat of arms of the O'Neill, the clan of the present lord mayor—a red hand on a shield with a swimming fish beneath.

Walsh on Scene

It was 11:15 o'clock when Mr. De Valera led the members into the chamber. He was accompanied by the ministers of the republican cabinet, by Lord Mayor O'Neill and by P. W. Walsh, his American legal adviser. The two latter took their seats in the right and left of the chairman, respectively. Cheers were given for the republican leader and others for Mr. Walsh, when he was recognized.

A short prayer was said by Father O'Flanagan in Gaelic, followed by the swearing in of the members, who took the oath as a body by holding up their hands. The first member to sign the roll was Michael Collins, commander-in-chief of the republican army, who had been elected from Armagh, in D. C. The other invited members from Ulster were absent: Mr. De Valera, who was elected a member from both County Down and County Cavan, signed as a member from the latter county.

Orator for McConner

The calling of the names of Sir James Craig, Ulster premier, and other Orangemen elected to the house of commons was received with laughter, while the Sinn Féin members cheered. A special oration was recorded John J. McConner, the recently released prisoner, over whose exception from the first release order a hitch in the negotiations at one time threatened.

John T. Kelly, the Sinn Féin minister to Paris, who will be the temporary chairman, and Dr. Patrick McGarrigan, just back from America, were among the few members who wore the conventional morning coats. There were many women in the audience, but there was lacking such a display of elaborate costumes as was witnessed at the opening of the Belfast parliament.

A few members of the clergy were seated, including some members of the religious order in their habits.

Other notable figures were Mrs. Pearce, mother of the late Patrick J. Pearce of Wigan, England, expected in Dublin after the 1910 rebellion; Mrs. O'Callaghan, wife of the murdered mayor of Limerick, and John MacDonagh, a herald of nationalistic who had joined the Sinn Féin.

Fighters Are Applauded

An outstanding feature of the session was the special applause for the fighting men, Michael Collins, commander of the republican army, Richard Mulcahy, the chief of staff, and Charles Burgess, the minister of defense, were cheered more heartily than Eamon de Valera himself.

BUTCHERS LOOK TOWHITE HOUSE

Appeal to President is Proposed if Employers Reject Working Agreement

OMAHA, Neb., (AP)—An appeal to President Harding to appoint an arbitrator to help adjust difficulties between butchers in Washington, D. C., was made today, if a plan for a national working agreement being drafted by officials and delegates of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of America in Washington, D. C., is not acceptable to the pickers. C. J. Hayes, the union's international president, told newspapermen today.

Mr. Hayes made this statement at the conclusion of this evening's conference of delegates and international officers of the union meeting here to formulate a plan to negotiate an agreement with the pickers to take effect when the present national agreement expires next September 15.

SEEK INSANE BLIND MAN AS MURDERER OF WOMAN

EL PASO, Texas, (AP)—Eamon Ramirez, a blind man, 20 years old, was arrested and charged with murder when deputy sheriffs found him sleeping in a shed this morning. He was a mile from the house in which Mrs. O'Connell Ramirez, 32, was murdered, and her children, Corrado Ramirez, Jr., 4, Ophelia, 7, and Pamela, 8, while they were asleep, last night in their little country home five miles from El Paso.

"Yes, I killed them," was Ramirez' statement, according to Deputy Sheriffs James Adams and J. C. Staines, who took him to the R. E. Brooker, "I want to stab them. I wanted to kill them all. It would be better for them."

Blood was on Ramirez' face and hands. A two by four scantling about two feet long was near him, the officers said.

EL PASO, Texas, (AP)—The sheriff's office today is looking for an aged insane blind man who is believed to have killed Mrs. Corrado Ramirez, 32, with a hammer or some blunt instrument, and perhaps fatally injured her four-year-old son, Corrado Ramirez, Jr., and her two daughters, Ophelia, 7, and Pamela, 8, while they were asleep last night in their little country home five miles from El Paso.

"A blind man did it," said Panning, at the hospital where he was taken together with her brother and sister, "I saw him feeling around and saw him strike Ramirez."

The mother was sleeping with her 15-month-old baby. The dead was not hurt. Another child, a boy 3 years old and Mrs. Ramirez's sister, Guadalupe Guevara, 34, also escaped injury.

The blind man who was taken to the hospital was a white man, and he was the intruder in the house.

"I awoke and saw him leaning over my sister, then in the darkness I saw him strike Corrado and Ophelia and Pamela," she said.

Mrs. Ramirez and her children and sister were alone in the house. Her husband went to Tulare, N. M., yesterday to hunt for work.

City officers also are looking through out the county for the blind man. At the sheriff's office it was said the home of a blind man who was never seen in the county since he had been located but that the blind man had not been home since yesterday afternoon.

WHEAT SUFFERS DECLINE

Net Loss of 2 to 3 Cents Eaten at the Close of Day's Trading

CHICAGO, (AP)—Downfalls in the price of wheat resulted today from weakness in the New York stock market. Apparent absence of any important export buying counted also as a bearish factor. Trade as a whole lacked volume, and values were easily influenced. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 1-2c higher, with September at $2.4 1/4 to 1/2 and December at $2.35 3/4 to 1/2, were followed by a general setback to pull below yesterday's finish.

Subsequently weakness of corn and oats brought about a general selling pressure on wheat, despite late gossip that export business in wheat totaled 2,000,000 bushels. The close was nervous, 2 to 3c net lower, with September at $2.2 1/2 to 1/2 and December at $2.12 1/2 to 1/2.

"Corn was easy with wheat. After being unchanged to 1/8 to 1-1/2c higher, including September at $2.34 to 7/8 to 1/2, the market underwent a sag all day."

Later, the market fell to new low record prices for the 1921 crop. The close was heavy, 1 1/2 to 1 7/8c net lower, with September at $2.14 to 3/8 to 1/2.

Oats descended to the lowest price level which September delivery has touched since 1912. Big stalks in light lots at the market, but no important sales opened 1 1/8 to 1/8 to 1/4c up, September 74 to 75c, and then suffered material declines.

Lower quotations on hogs pulled down provisions.

New York Stock Market
NEW YORK, (AP)—The stock market was in process of further liquidation today. Numerous speculative issues extended recent losses by one to four points. Sales approximated 400,000 shares.

Professional selling of speculative issues was actively resumed at the opening of today's stock market. Shares which accelerated the recent reaction were again weakened, notably oils, rubbers, tobacco and the less active equities.

Mexican Petroleum, United States Rubber, first preferred; United Retail Stores, Sears Roebuck and International Harvester lost 1 to 2 points, the latter making a new low point for the year. General Electric, Industrial Alcohol and Continental Can extended yesterday's losses. Among rails the only noteworthy feature was a one point decline in Louisville and Nashville.

Foreign exchange showed further unsettlement on the greater weakness of marks, which were quoted at 105 to 106.

More extensive offerings of oils, shipwrecks and equipments, as featured by Mexican Petroleum, United Fruit and General Electric caused further reactions later. The closing was weak.

Raw sugar futures were quiet and a shade lower under continuing liquidation, prompted by the weakness of the spot market.

The market for refined was unchanged at $4.85 to $4.95 for fine granulated and with white Cuba in light and heavy grades. There was a little more activity in refined futures and prices were generally

SOLONS REFUSE TO CALL MR. MCDOO

Testimony of Former Railway
Director General Not Wanted by Committee

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The senate interstate commerce committee refused today to call William G. McDoog, former director general of railroads, to give "expert testimony" on the administration's railroad funding bill.

The motion to call Mr. McDoog, introduced by Senator Pittman, Democrat, Nevada, and was defeated 7 to 3. Senators Pittman, Stanley, Democrat, Kentucky, and La Follette, republican, Wisconsin, supporting it.

The vote of 6 to 4, the committee closed the hearing and proceeded with consideration of the bill. Senator La Follette voted with the Democrats to have additional witnesses.

COMMISSIONS INVOLVED IN MCKINLEY'S ACTION

Twin Falls Man Brings Suit Against Javan Company to Recover $9,662.50

Claiming that he sold for the defendant company stock to the face value of $97,000 for which he received the sum of $24,250 in cash, which amount he delivered to the company and for which service he has received no payment whatsoever, Harry McKinley yesterday filed suit against the Javan Mines company for commission on these sales, the claim being for $9,662.50.

This action grows out of the deals which for the past two years have attracted attention to the Contact mining field. Blaine Hanks who held the claims now the property of the Javan company, employed McKinley to organize the company and to sell the stock. McKinley placed a block of stock with friends, which he declared to be the stock of the Javan company. With this amount in hand the promoters are declared to have been enabled to form the corporation and place stock in the treasury with which to finance the operation. McKinley is said to have operated until this treasury stock be sold. McKinley, according to allegations, was asked to sell the treasury stock, enough of it to provide funds for operations. He undertook this work, sold the stock, according to the complaint, filed yesterday, and claims that he was not paid anything for his services.

Because of the prominence of the Javan property in the Contact field, the case is attracting more than usual attention. Larson and Larson are attorneys for plaintiff.

COUNTY CLUB LEADERS PLAN TEAM TRAINING

A. L. O'Reilly and Miss Graybill Will Give Exhibitions

A. L. O'Reilly, county club leader, and his assistant, Miss Mary Graybill, will go to Kimberly this afternoon to conduct the training of the demonstration canning and cooking teams in preparation for the county fair. Later in the afternoon they will go to Excelsior, where a similar class will be conducted, to be followed by a social evening to which the parents of the participants are invited. Miss O'Reilly and Miss Graybill were with the Shannock club this morning, four miles south of Twin Falls. Last evening was spent with the Orchard cooking team, Mrs. E. E. Corry, leader. Tomorrow morning is to be devoted to Curry, the afternoon to both the cooking and canning clubs of Piler, and in the evening to the cooking club at Poplar Hill.

A change was inaugurated in the annual festival plan this year. Instead of holding the affair in a central location with all clubs expected to come there on the given date, the plan of having a festival for each community separately has been tried with most satisfactory results, according to the report of the event at Excelsior this evening is the annual party for that club and will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kaut.

MEASUREMENTS

Ministry report on the measure was favorable by some leaders.

Meanwhile the committee was to pass on the bill as amended, as a result of the action yesterday of the conference conference which was held to try, to postpone report of the excess profits tax and higher income surtax until next January 1, and to put off until the conference the proposed increase in the corporation income tax. After the conference majority members of the ways and means committee decided to reduce the amount of the corporation income tax from 15 percent to 12 1/2 percent, and to cut in half the proposed manufacturers tax of 15 cents a gallon on cereal beverages.

Best Estimate Made
The changes made in the original draft were estimated by some republicans to increase by $200,000,000 the three billion dollar estimated yield.

"Bottomry Bond"
A bottomry bond is a legal instrument known to people along the seaboard, being an agreement between the owners of a boat and those from whom money is borrowed, pledging the ship or its cargo or both as security, the term arising from the use of the word bottom, which is taken to include the entire ship.

Lutz made four attempts, casting the lead 392 feet, 402 feet 433 feet and 440 feet. The photo shows Lutz and Ruth smiling in their novel test.

SCHOOL DISTRICT VOTERS OF BOUL AGAIN REPUDIATE OUTSTANDING OBLIGATIONS

At Second Election Held This Summer Proposal to Order Additional Levy to Discharge Debts and Carry On Schools Is Rejected by Majority of 35—Board to Try Issue Again

Showing an increased sentiment toward voting an added levy to meet the financial requirements of school district No. 3, Boul voters yesterday rejected 553 ballots for the levy as against 330 against. The levy lacked 25 of carrying the law's requirements while a two-thirds majority for any proposal of this nature.

In a similar election, held on June 12, voters of district No. 3, gave 391 ballots for the levy and 510 against, the issue losing by 10 votes.

Yesterday's ballot was the heaviest cast at any such election in the Boul district, according to recordal figures, the total being 823, as against 601 in June.

Bull Full of Fight
Speaking to The News with respect to yesterday's election result J. M. Shank, chairman of the school board of Boul district No. 3, stated that while all the members of the board are disappointed, along with practically all of the township, they are not totally discouraged and will continue the fight to the bitter end.

"Boul cannot permit a stigma such as this to forever blot her escutcheon and her citizens are going against the barrier again in a desperate effort to get out of the stain. We have met with a new reverse, but we are not defeated," said Judge Shank. In making this statement he referred to avowed intention on part of the school board trustees to call another district election for the purpose of again testing out sentiment toward the necessary levy. This election will be held about August 29, it is expected.

EDITOR'S NOTE: FIGURES IN MYSTERIOUS SUICIDE

Chicago Police Seek Letter and Unidentified Man in Effort to Explain Tragedy

CHICAGO, (AP)—A search for a letter from the editor of a North Dakota periodical and for an unidentified man was begun by the police today in an effort to explain the suicide of Mrs. Mary De Brito, 28, an advertising writer for a large department store.

At the young woman's rooming house, was located the letter, which she wrote a letter to Governor Frazier of North Dakota, declaring a North Dakota magazine, which had advertised her and features as publisher, was in certain cases should be suppressed. A letter from the governor's secretary acknowledged receipt of her communication and stated it had been referred to the editor. The magazine was not published. Mrs. De Brito was informed of the editor and she appeared much agitated. On Saturday a strange man requesting himself as an insurance man, made inquiries at her lodgings. Later that day the same man, it is believed, called at her office and was said to have threatened her.

Mrs. De Brito was found dead last night in a bathtub with a gas hose in her mouth.

The young woman, when 16 years old, was married to Claude De Brito, said to be a wealthy Brazilian, but a separation occurred. At one time she was awarded a prize as Chicago's most beautiful Irish girl.

No Excitement There.
It is contrary to the traditions of the British house of commons for either cards or billiards to be played within its precincts. Members who require indoor recreations are expected to content themselves with chess or draughts.—Brooklyn Eagle.

SCHOOL BOARD PLACE PASSED UP BY CLARK

Trustee, Elected Year Ago, Explains He No Longer Cares for Position

Explaining that he had no desire to continue further as a member of the board of trustees of Independent School district No. 3, D. F. Clark last night tendered his resignation as a member of that board. The resignation was accepted by vote of the board. No appointment will be made to fill this vacancy as there will be no regular meetings of the school board before the election on September 6, when a person would be elected.

Mr. Clark was elected a member of the board one year ago to serve a three-year term. At the coming election ballots will be marked showing a need for election of trustee to fill this vacancy.

In addition to receiving Mr. Clark's resignation the board last night considered 80 applications for jobs as school wagon drivers for the year about to start. There are only 32 positions to be filled. A list of drivers is to be compiled within the present week. The remainder of the session was devoted to matters of routine nature.

The Age of Glass.
Nothing seems to be known of the origin of its manufacture, but the ancient Egyptians were expert at the art, and are known to have produced it as early as 2000 B. C. Britain did not become distinguished for glass-making until the beginning of the sixteenth century.

Attention, Potato Growers!

With the present price for potatoes you cannot afford to waste your crop, and if there is any potato digger that will place all of the potatoes on top of the ground, in plain sight for the pickers, and besides not cut or injure them, it is the PUGH. The big flat wheel in front will break all the clods, mash down the vines, which permits an easy passage over the chains, as well as allowing the digger to be run at an even depth, which insures you against cut potatoes, besides making even draft and avoiding lever operation.

Our best recommendation is to ask any man that has used one.

Be sure and look this machine over before you place your order elsewhere, it will save you both time and money.

We also have a good supply of picking baskets and twine.

THE RED MAN'S EXAMPLE

A picturesque aboriginal ceremony enacted on the shore of Pentagay Bay, Ontario, a few days ago exemplified the peace which is the heart's desire of mankind. Chiefs of the remnants of the once powerful Huron and Iroquois tribes met in a spirit of friendship for the first time in 271 years, smoked the pipe of peace, buried the hatchet and set off together on a hunt symbolic of their purpose henceforth to pursue the business of life in concord.

The feud that had lasted three centuries, all but three decades, began when the Iroquois braves vanquished the Huron warriors and drove that Indian tribe from their ancestral domain in what is now Ontario. Hurons and Iroquois have been bitter foes ever since; at least, so tradition has it. Like so many other hereditary enemies the world around, it had been for long a futile thing and ally. But there it was, there it might have remained, as other cankers planted in human hearts ages ago and nourished by one generation after another to no respectable purpose whatever, some day to lead its possessors to take the warpath. Somebody thought the tercentenary celebration of the coming of Champlain to Ontario an appropriate occasion for bringing the hereditary foes together. In keeping with twentieth century concepts and ideals, the chiefs of the Iroquois and Hurons were reasonable. So the meeting was arranged. The red chiefs came in full regalia. The central feature of the primitive meeting was a birch bark tepee in the shadow of which the peace was made.

"Now we can kill 'mosee together," suggested the Huron to the Iroquois. Which may be construed to mean working in harmony for the welfare of their fellow. Precisely this is what the peoples of the earth wish to do—work in concord to the common benefit. It can be done if the chiefs of nations whose skin is not red, but who too often are red, will follow the example set by simple Indians, at Pentagay Bay.

COST OF REVENUE-COLLECTING

A resident of Brooklyn has been notified by the commissioner of internal revenue that an audit of his income tax return for the calendar year 1918 reveals an underpayment of one cent. As provided by law, the commissioner warns the taxpayer that "to avoid penalty and interest" the one cent must be paid by a specified date.

This reads like a joke. It is, on the contrary, a serious procedure, unavoidable if the law is administered justly. The fact that the amount involved is the smallest possible to collect in our currency is of no significance, save as it exhibits the extreme care taken by the bureau of internal revenue to see that no single cent justly due Uncle Sam is withheld, either guilefully or ignorantly. It is an instructive incident, the lesson of which should not be lost on congress, which even now is wrestling with the problem of taxation.

Not infrequently argument is made favorable to some proposed form of taxation that "it would be easy and inexpensive to collect." Other propositions are rejected on the ground that it would cost too much to collect the revenue that might be derived from them. Some $5,000,000 individuals and corporations make income reports and the expense of collecting the taxes they pay is more than $27,000,000. The auditing of accounts must account for the greater part of this expenditure. And yet the bureau is three years behind in the auditing of returns.

Gathering in the federal revenue is apt to cost more rather than less unless congress finds sources of income that will yield without the necessity of a great force of checkers. It is no simple matter to devise a revenue system that will operate with a part of automatic honesty. But the simpler the system the better. It costs about 50 cents to collect every $100 of revenue. That this is too much may be deduced from the value of the underpayment of one cent by the Brooklyn man.

A PLEA FOR THE EAGLE

There is merit in the proposal of T. Albert Pearson, president of the National Association of Audubon Societies, that the killing of bald eagles in Alaska be stopped until careful investigation has disclosed whether the birds deserve death. Alaska is the last remaining place owned by the United States where the bald eagle, symbol of American independence, is to be found in large numbers, and there is some likelihood that it will be exterminated unless the warfare now being waged against the bird is ended. On the ground that as a predatory creature it destroys animal life which would be of value to mankind the territorial government is paying a bounty for each eagle killed, and Mr. Pearson says he has authentic information that bounties have been paid already on 15,000.

New scientific investigation has shown that birds and mammals supposed to be injurious sometimes do more good than harm and that it is a mistake to exterminate them, as they play an important part in maintaining the equilibrium of nature, and when the balance is disturbed mischief results. Thus it has been found in certain localities that after the extermination of hawks and owls, rats and mice increased rapidly and did more damage than the birds, which held their numbers down but which, because they occasionally attacked chickens and game, were considered a nuisance. It is averred in places in the West that since the coyotes disappeared prairie dogs, on which they used to prey, have multiplied so rapidly that they have become more of a pest than the little wolves were.

The only fair way to determine the good and bad qualities of a wild creature is by careful study of the habits of a large number of specimens. The bald eagle, as Mr. Pearson says, is entitled to its day in court. The bounty, encouraging men to exterminate this great American bird, should be withdrawn until examination of the evidence has determined accurately its economic status.

PROPHETIES ARE RISKY

Mrs. Marguerite E. Harrison, a Baltimore newspaperwoman, recently released from imprisonment in Russia, is exploiting her experiences as a political prophet. What advantage her position as a prisoner of the soviet government gave her as an observer of events throughout the country is somewhat puzzling. None the less, Mrs. Harrison is telling all about Russian conditions, knowledge of which must have come to her as it comes to Americans at home—at second hand.

Her chief observation is that whether relief is extended to Russia's 10,000,000 starving, or whether food is withheld, the soviet form of government will remain. The effect, either way, in her opinion, will be the same. If the world with food to spare refuse to rescue the perishing, that, she says, will solidify the Russian people, irrespective of political views. And if the hungry are fed the soviet will have their hands strengthened in that way.

Mrs. Harrison may be right or she may be completely wrong. Prophecies on Russia at present are risky. The soviet leaders have already made some fundamental changes in policy, and may be forced by the hard logic of events to institute further reformations in original plans. What might be worst consideration is that the feeding of 10,000,000 starving people, whose food has been destroyed by a drought of unprecedented severity and extent, might be allowed to proceed without the interjection of political feudisms. Drouth and famines have overwhelmed other countries, and may again in the future.

OPINIONS REPRINTED

DEFECTIVE EYESIGHT OF PUPILS

The New York city board of health bulletin discloses that the question of light receives too little consideration in many of the schools. A study room of one of the New York city high schools has practically no daylight and a number of schools are lighted inadequately by gas, thus encouraging the development of myopia and a long list of nervous cases by eye-strain.

The sight conservation clinic, however, have obtained good results by the proper fitting of glasses to children with defective eyesight. Out of 132 ungraded or mentally defective children in New York city schools, for whom glasses were procured, 34 were found to be normal mentally after the eyestrain was relieved, and more than 55 per cent showed marked mental improvement. In a group of 400 "habitual left back" children in one of the large metropolitan schools, more than 100 of the children were found to have decided refractive errors. Glasses were procured for 100, and in less than three months improvement was noted. Out of the 100, more than 60 passed the regular school examination, in fact, many of them skipped classes, one boy passing five grades on the examination.

These are startling statistics. Too few people realize the great handicap which might be to the progress of the child. The first signs of eye trouble should receive immediate attention; without good vision a child becomes irritable and falls behind in his school work. It is perhaps equally surprising that a child's defective eyesight is not noticed more quickly by its parents. They are the ones who should first notice the weakness and who should take the proper steps to have it remedied. And it should always be remembered that proper lighting in the home and in the school is not only one of the safest safeguards against eye weakness in children but in adults.—The Kaickerbocker Press, Albany, N. Y.

VALUE OF EXPORTABLE SURPLUS OF FARM PRODUCTS INCREASES

In Past 16 Years Domestic Consumption Keeps Ahead of Production of Agricultural Stuff—War Stimulated Farmers to Nearly One-Third Greater Than in Previous Years

A diminishing fraction of farm products is available for export after satisfying the needs and demands of the people in this country during the 16 years before the world war. Domestic consumption of agricultural products was increasing faster, than agricultural production.

Exports fell off One-Third. From the point of view of value of agricultural exports and production, if the ratio between the two be regarded as 100 in the average for the years 1898-1902, the ratio fell to 64.3 in 1903-1907 and to 65.5 in 1908-1912. This export fraction lost more than one-third in a period of time that must appear to be brief when compared with such a large relative loss.

Farmers, however, had great power of production in reserve. The war came on and more of their products were needed. The ratio of value of agricultural exports to production was down to 65.5 compared with 100 not many years before. During the war and to 1919, and the ratio fell to 64.3. The farmers were not only producing for a huge population of 100,000,000 and more that had increased by 11 per cent since

OHIO RAILWAY SHOPMEN TO RESIST "OPEN SHOP"

Workmen at Marion Veto to Work On by Under Union Rules for Railway Service Company

MARION, O., (AP)—Workmen at a meeting of the shop craft last night said the men voted to work only under union rules for the Railway Service company, which yesterday was to open a new Erie railroad shop here. The service company announced yesterday it would operate the shops similar to other manufacturing plants, which ran on the "open shop" plan.

T. A. Clawson, president of the local machinists' union, said the Erie had brought in 150 men a week ago when the company discontinued overtime pay provided by union rules, but that the outsiders had been prepared to leave town. No violence would be tolerated, he said.

MEXICO CITY, Mexico, (AP)—A decree decreasing the export tax on henequen, or sisal hemp, from six cents per ton to two cents for each 2.20 pounds of sisal hemp, the newspapers say, went into effect today. It is believed that the decrease will do much to revive the industry in the state of Yucatan.

LATINS FAVOR THE AIRPLANE

South America Wild Oats Flying, According to Opera Singer Just Returned From Tour.

South America has caught the aerial fever hand, according to Madame Grace Florde, just returned from a grand opera circuit of the Latin-American republics.

"In Lima, where I sang in the palace as a concert arranged by President Leguia, I learned the rich young men of Peru all fly out airplanes in which they daily fly out and back from the capital city to their haciendas," she said. "The President's son told me he shortly intended to send an expedition to the United States, crossing Ecuador, the Panama canal, the Central American republics and Mexico. Events like the opera and bull fights, and even offerings of the shops, are advertised by doggers dropped from flying machines."

Madame Florde is the first woman to fly over Lima. She went up with Captain Moore, an American, who is the head of the Curtiss Flying school there.

The sister continent Brazil comes thence to the art of flying and in the town of Santos Dumont, the pioneer aviator. In a few weeks Fred Lewisohn, New York banker, who owns extensive plantation properties in the upper mountain ranges beyond Beaufort, in the republic of Colombia, expects to lead an expedition in a several thousand mile flight over the Andes. This aerial excursion will start from Panama and use a plane equipped for nine passengers. Engineers, photographers and writers will be in the party.

PART OF BUILDING STANDING

Famous Colonnade Row, in New York, Erected in 1838, Has Not Entirely Disappeared.

On the menu card of a restaurant in New York City is printed: "With in these walls were sheltered Dickens, Bryant, Washington Irving, a President of the United States (John Tyler) and many other distinguished patrons." The statement is not exaggerated. Part of Colonnade row, a beautiful structure, erected nearly a century ago, still stands, and Joseph Conte's restaurant occupies the greater part of it.

Colonnade row and the building occupied for years by the Author's League of America, at Seventeenth and Irving place, are all that remain of Washington Irving's residence in Manhattan, for long ago passed the house on William street where he was born, and the house near the Battery, where he lived immediately after his return in 1832 from seventeen years of wandering in Europe.

Colonnade row, originally known as La Grange terrace, was built in 1838. The buildings earned their sobriquet on account of their plain, practical, but extremely neat attractive, that adorn the structure.

Paulding, Halleck, Cooper and other writers of the period frequented the place. Poe was too poor to be in the then fashionable neighborhood. John Tyler lived at 430 Lafayette street, in "the row," and events attending his wedding took place there.—New York Sun.

Prospects of Medical Study in China. Recent reports state that in all China there are found to be fewer than 2,000 physicians. What a small proportion of the population of 400,000,000 Chinese people can receive scientific treatment in case of illness or injury. In an effort to do this, a small number of students looking toward medicine, a survey has recently been made of the middle schools of China. In 153 of the institutions reporting, there are 30,000 students, and of these 1,150 are students who were planning to study medicine. Since this is only about 20 per cent of all middle schools, the total number who may enter on the study of medicine will be considerably larger.

New Rembrandt Found. An ancient Rembrandt, the authenticity of which is vouched for by several well-known experts, has been discovered in a little town in the Harz. The picture, which is said to have been painted in the year 1630 or 1631, is executed in oil on canvas. It is a portrait of a young woman, who is wearing a white dress with a high collar and a white veil. The subject is an old man of distinguished appearance. The picture is still in its original placowd frame overhauled with care. It is believed by one expert to have been specially made according to Rembrandt's instructions.—Berlin Correspondence of London Times.

LEW TENDLER IS ONLY BOXED POSSESSING ANY HOPE THAT HE CAN UPSET CHAMPION BEN

Philadelphia Lightweight Soon to Have Chance to Battle Best of All the Little Men for the Title of the Rank—Leonard Confident He Can Retain His Scepter

By RAY PEARSON.

Another world's championship tilt (they are becoming quite common these warm summer days) is on the cards for the near future. This time Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion, will be called upon to defend his title against the only boy in the lightweight ranks who is conceded a chance to dethrone him. That boy is Lew Tandler of Philadelphia.

"For no less than two years prominent and small, in all sections of the country have been trying to 'hook' this match, because Leonard as a fighter was going along invariably knocking over the boys who were sent against him, while Tandler, who is one of those 'saw paw' battlers, was not doing up a competitive crowd in material way.

Nathur Knows Defeat.

In this time neither has suffered a trimming. The worst that happened to Tandler was a tough and rather even quarrel with Saylor Friedman of Chicago. Early in that contest Tandler broke his right thumb and damaged a finger on his left hand.

No excuses were offered by Tandler for his showing against the sailor, but the fact that he was out of the game for nearly four months after that contest is plenty of evidence that his thumb was injured. During his lay off Tandler submitted to a couple of operations, having the damaged finger saved off at the first joint, while a large piece of splintered bone was removed from his right thumb.

Tandler's hands are strong again, and as he is youthful, he is at his best for his supreme test next Friday.

Recent Favored Match.

Just how happened to get the big chance, is interesting. Lew Tandler was planning to put this match on Labor day in the big Jersey City arena, in which Dempsey and Carpentier fought, but Tex Rickard, who is the first that he couldn't give this about the necessary attention. This gave Herman Taylor, the Philadelphia promoter, who has plenty of time, the opportunity to snatch it, and when Taylor grabs for a thing he usually comes away with it.

With this in respect Taylor remembers Rickard.

Herma didn't find it easy to sign Leonard and Tandler, because both demanded a huge pull at the box office. When Taylor was making a deal with the main time, which was acceptable and didn't let it get away. That's the reason these two lightweights are going to battle in the Philadelphia central league baseball park next Friday.

With what has been happening to champions in recent weeks, the fellows who are beginning to wonder if Rickard is due for an upset. Benjamin, of course, will enter the ring favorite over Tandler, but not letting one's head decide battles, as has been often demonstrated in recent years.

The most recent happenings we refer to were the upsets of Benjamen by Joe Lynch, by Pete Herman, and the embarrassing that Middleweight Champion Johnny Wilson suffered in the encounter with Harry Downey at Cleveland, which ended in one of those disgraced fums.

Scheduled for a Knockout.

The fact that Leonard and Tandler are billed to settle the issue in eight rounds, gives promise of a world of action in this limited tilt. Both are prepared to punch, for that is the long suit of each. It is Tandler's big chance—a chance he won't be grabbed if he is thought to be scheduled for a loser's end. Talking with Tandler a little more than a month ago—just before the match was clinched—he said:

"I'm ready for Leonard any time now and my work when we meet will mean everything to me. It will be necessary for me to put on the fight (the title) and I'm going right out to land a knockout. There won't be any of this stalling in my work. I've simply got to fight this way, because I'm a 'saw paw' battler, I'm practically through as a card.

"If I upset him, and I think I have a mighty good chance, I'll be on top of the lightweights and that's where I aim to be after the fight."

Leonard's Cocky.

The cocky Leonard never enters a battle looking for defeat. He's the personification of confidence. As far back as a year ago, when promoters were making an effort to match him with Tandler, I talked with Benny about such a contest.

the champion jealously, a smile playing over his face. "Have you ever noticed that I'm so easily knocked out by the way these other fellows put me out with their wilts? Of course I know that there's something different about these 'saw paws', but I'll figure it out all right and in plenty of time."

"If I have to do any quivering, I won't be at the job very long. A fighter's a fighter, right or left handed, and the champion will go right along and show who he is to the champion."

"Wait and see," says Benny. "Have you ever figured a way to beat a 'saw paw'?" we asked. "I've been told by some of these scrappers who have battled 'em, that the best way is to take a tight job on the bugle, make the 'saw paw' battle with his left, and then take and 'saw paw' with the right for a K. O. while he is off balance. Is there anything to that dope?"

Benny smiled prettily, but wouldn't answer that question. The only thing he said was: "Well, just wait until the time comes for me to mix with Lew Tandler, and you'll see what you shall see."

Brief Bits of Sport

Boys against Elks tomorrow night.

Pitcher Krueger fanned 10 Mer chants in six rounds last night.

He also issued two talks. Also he hit three men during the tilt.

Nine men luffed for the Sparkers in the first inning, three getting hits and three others passes.

Highland beat out a hunt in the initial frame. Three errors helped Electric's scoring in this round.

"Click" Slick was put down and out when one of Krueger's wild shots caught him on the bean in the third inning.

"Dave" Davenport, who was expected to pitch for Bush against Oregon's Stars, is playing with the Caver, Wyo, club.

Speaking of the battling spark pulled off on Paris field Sunday Oregon says that is what his men should have been doing all through the series.

On Thursday night, Jerome, a club that last Sunday won the pennant of the North Idaho league of which it is a member, will come across the Snake river for a bout with the local best.

Then Oregon will take his merry men to Kimberly for a just with that team. The Kimberly club recently took a fall out of Bush, and on this first support a North Idaho league of which it is a member, will come across the Snake river for a bout with the local best.

Johnny Wilson and Bryan Downey middleweights, have been matched to scrap 10 for the crown on Labor day.

The battle is to decide who is best man, and incidentally to determine whether Downey is king or pretender. The men will weigh in at 160 pounds at 12 o'clock on the morning of the scrap.

Downey recently upset Johnny, but in the same week he also won how it was done, and the crown sits uneasily on the head of the Cleveland star now. If Bryan can repeat he will be hailed as one of the best of the middleweight division.

Causes of Appendicitis

When the bowels are constipated, the lower or large intestines become packed with refuse matter, that is made up largely of gums. These gums enter the vermiform appendix and set up inflammation, which is commonly known as appendicitis. Take Chamberlain's Colic, when needed and keep your bowels regular and you have little to fear from appendicitis.

DAY OF THE SAIL NOT OVER

Many Years Likely to Elapse Before Steam is Without Rival on the High Seas.

Is the day of sail over? A few years ago many people would have answered that question in the affirmative. Square-riggers, there is no doubt, are decreasing in numbers; but recent years have witnessed a remarkable revival in the building of sailing craft. Most of the new sailing vessels are fitted with internal combustion engines for use in calm or contrary winds, the sails being brought into use in favorable weather. And the sailing ship of the future will most probably be the fore-and-aft type familiar for many years on both coasts of the American continent, especially in the lumber trade.

They have a stark, austere beauty of their own, with their four or five tall masts, their great sails, and their usual curved sheer and low freeboard. They are considered remarkably handy vessels—especially adapted to sailing close-hauled, and are peculiarly to the wind as possible. And since sail must always remain the cheapest form of propulsion, it would seem likely that—especially since the coming of the internal combustion engine—sailing ships will continue to be built for the purpose of commerce with the threatened disappearance of the sailing ship from the seas will never come to pass.

APPEALED TO HIGHER COURT

Decree From Judge Cupid Enjoined German Engineer to Laugh at Government Regulations.

If a government refuses a passport there is a higher authority that may be appealed to in certain cases, as demonstrated by the recent experience of a German engineer. This authority, in the person of Dan Cupid himself.

The German engineer was preparing to marry and the wedding day was set, the Paris Journal des Debates states. At the last moment it was discovered that the bride-to-be had not obtained a passport, and as she lived in a neighboring country there was no possible way for her to get into Germany at the hour appointed for the ceremony.

Rather than postpone the happy event, however, the couple decided to postpone the wedding. They set the wedding party rather at the front and the marriage service was read while the bridegroom stood on German soil and the bride on the other side of the line. When the ceremony was over the groom reached out his hand and drew his bride over the line into Germany and drove away in a waiting coach.

Those authorities were impatient, for the lady was now a German citizen by marriage, and as such had no need of a passport.

Last Sunday Dinner by Mitzke.

Changing cars in midseason ended as disastrously for a real estate dealer as changing horses in midstream. The dealer has ridden for several years in a car of rather ancient vintage. Recently he bought a new car of the same make.

Saturday night he drove his new car to the city market. He parked it beside an old car. He bought a bushel of apples, a big roast and a week's supply of vegetables.

The old car had been driven over 100,000 miles. It was a force of habit, his friends say in explaining the consequences. He placed his purchases in the old car. Then he returned to the stall to add further to his supply. On returning he discovered his mistake. The old car had been driven over 100,000 miles. A 400-Pound Shark on a Rod.

James A. Thomson of Auckland writes: "In February, along with three friends, I had four weeks sea fishing in the Bay of Islands. We caught a number of good kingfish up to 60 pounds, besides whaupus up to 30 pounds, and landed one big Mink shark, which piece of luck fell to my rod. He was a great fighter, 4 feet 6 inches long, and weighing a little over 400 pounds. Unlike the brown and other sharks, he comes right out of the water when hooked and jumps sometimes twice his own length perpendicularly—a great fighter."—Correspondence of the Field.

REGISTRY OF PARK GALLERS HAS PURPOSE

Authorities Able to Advise the Tourist of the Home Condition

Speaking of the value of the careful registration of the guests at the tour let park, Custodian J. W. Leedom says: "There are many circumstances under which the registration might be conceived to be of much value. Last Saturday, for instance, the chief of police received a telegram asking him to locate William Brown of Redmond, Washington, who was believed to be traveling in Idaho by automobile. There was serious illness at his home. The message was brought to me and we found by inspecting the records that Brown had left that morning for Boise. We located him there that night."

Finda Reimbursement

"Some visitors seem to regret being asked to register, assuming that it is some way reflects upon their integrity. I have had to do much explaining to make them understand that we take this step for their own accommodation. We have registered more cars during the last few days than are traveling through local points than at any time during the season. There is an appreciable falling off in the volume of travel during the last week. From July 11, when registration began to August 11, inclusive, there was a total of 370 cars accommodated at the park."

The record, kept by Custodian Leedom, is a very comprehensive one, including the name, home address and next stop of each traveler, the license number, motor number, number of persons in the party, name of the car, and a space for miscellaneous remarks.

Index of Travel

Those who have registered since August 12, with address and next stop are: R. C. Hunter, Yuma, Wash.; B. J. Miller, Howell, Mich.; J. J. Foster, San Francisco, Calif.; E. H. Hoobler, Lebanon, Neb.; B. J. Jensen, Tacoma, Wash.; Caldwell, Ralph, Idaho; B. J. Williams, Nampa, Idaho; W. J. Williams, Redmond, Wash.; Boise.

August 12—Thomas G. Mays, Blackfoot, Idaho.

August 13—G. W. Rytland, Boise; Hugh Smith, Gore, Kan.; right; J. H. Millard, Jarbidge, Nev.; J. B. Benson, Gapula, Okla.; George H. Oberlin, Fairchild, P. H. Gritman, Pendleton, Ore.; Salt Lake.

August 15—Hodge Matheson, Canby, Idaho; H. C. Crisp, Colville, Wash.; J. G. Bailey, Arbutus, Cal.; Boise; Nellie Low, Dayton, Wash.; Boise; P. F. Myers, Twin Falls; M. B. Howell, Kansas City, Mo.; Twin Falls; J. J. Manly, Boise; W. B. Brinkman, West-Amerasia Park; W. B. Brim, Burley, Idaho.

BUTCHERS DO NOT GET REDUCTION OF TARIFF

Fees as Required by City Ordinance Must Be Paid in Fall, Council Avers

Twin Falls abattoir men must pay fees from the enactment of the last city most inspection law at rates prescribed by that law. Official announcement of this finding is to be served upon all meat men by the city clerk without delay.

Stand of this nature was taken at last night's meeting of the official abattoir board, and was the net result of a discussion of some length. Recently butchers operating slaughterhouses appealed to the directors of municipal affairs for a reduction in fees set by an ordinance passed during the term of the past administration board. The butchers claimed the fees are excessive and out of proportion. They presented a number of complaints along this line, and urged the need of lower rates for inspection all along the line.

PUBLIC DERIVES BENEFIT FROM HOTEL SANITATION DEPARTMENT; CITY ASKED TO STAND EXPENSE

Water Charge for Operation of Basement Accommodations Should Be a Municipal Burden, Manager of Hotel Perrine Avers—Administration Looks with Some Favor on Recommendations—Meeting is Short

Light business of a material character attended last night's session of the city council. In fact, as far as real administrative activity was concerned the program was short, with discussions of various municipal matters held by the board members to give reasonable length to the session.

Two items only of general public interest came forward for official consideration, those relating to the city library and to water meter taxation in certain public places. In the latter case W. B. Amshary, manager of the Hotel Perrine, presented facts which seemed to place with the waterworks department responsibility for supplying water employed in the operation of a sanitation department in the hotel, which it was shown, had become a public accommodation rather than a private benefit. The department under consideration is maintained in the basement of the hotel in question, and according to the manager is used far more by the people of the city than by the hotel or its regular patronage.

Water Metering

Recently the hotel, with other business institutions of Twin Falls, was put on a water metering system. The new system of raising water used and charging therefor went into effect on June 1. Up to that time the charge made on that rate basis against the hotel, verily began, ran from $45 to $55 per month. In the month of June the charge was $106.50, and in July $99.50.

"We believe the meter system to be the correct method of measuring water, and we believe that all institutions should be made to pay for all the water it uses, but we do not think the hotel should be compelled to pay for water used in the operation of a sanitation department that has become a decided public benefit," Manager Amshary told the city administrator.

As a solution of this problem Mr. Amshary suggested that a separate meter be installed to measure the water used in the sanitation department of the hotel, the city to make rebate of this amount of charge resulting from the measurement. Manager Amshary explained that the water used in the sanitation department is not for the benefit of the hotel, but for the benefit of the public.

Help for Library

W. E. Nixon, library board treasurer appeared with a request for a warrant for $2000 to meet current obligations and expenses of the city library. The warrant was ordered drawn. A few bills were audited and claims allowed. The committee designated to look after the requests of petitioners for sidewalk and other privileges along the west side of Blue Lake boulevard south, reported some progress for endeavors in the past week. The city itself will have to assume responsibility for the construction of about 50 feet of street walk.

WATER GASE ON TRIAL

Judge C. P. Duval of the probate court, this morning opened a hearing of the state's action against Van Toy Low, a Buhl district farmer, who is accused of illegal diversion of ditch water to his own use. The rancher was arrested last week on complaint sworn to by John Irons of the Twin Falls Canal company, who alleges that Low had modified with his own machinery the water flow. This Low denied on examination. He has a farm of 80 acres.

MILK PERMITS ISSUED

Acting upon recommendation made by the meat and dairy inspector, the city council has ordered issuance of milk vending permits in favor of O. E. Carlson and O. J. Barlow.

LICENSED TO WED

A marriage license has been issued by the county clerk to George L. Newbold and Edna L. Sibley, of Upton, and to Lydia Leona Robinson, of Upton, Utah.

The label license will meet in the park, Wednesday, August 17, at 2:30 P. M. All members were urged to attend.—adv.

LARGER LIBRARY ROOM IS NEEDED

City Council Hears of Proposal to Erect More Commodious Structure

"Possibility that a large building will soon be erected to accommodate the city public library looms bright. The building will be constructed by owners of property at present unoccupied by buildings of any sort."

This information was presented to the members of the city administrative board by Treasurer W. E. Nixon, of the city library board, who stated that he had been informed of one owner who would construct such a building as the library requires if a lease covering some years, and binding upon any other city building could be procured.

Broader Accommodations

If the proposal propounded by Treasurer Nixon carries through there will be at the disposal of the public library in the course of a few months a one-story structure 50 by 100 feet building, equipped with lights, water and a heating plant.

The building at present occupied by the library, situated on Shoshone street north, is 25 by 90 feet, and has no heating plant. The owners, according to Mr. Nixon, have notified the library board that beginning September 1, when the lease expires, the rental will be $100 per month exclusive of heating and lighting. Mr. Nixon expressed the belief that the new building plan will be a more economical plan, besides providing much more space for the purposes of the library.

Growing Institution

"The public library of this city has grown into an institution of considerable magnitude, and we are compelled to seek more commodious quarters. The present structure is not ample for our needs, and we must seek new quarters before long," Treasurer Nixon explained to the council. He stated that the library now has a circulation of more than 5,000 per month, with each month showing an increase. "Our present quarters are so crowded and cramped, and the prospect that the building will be worse as time goes on, that the issue of a larger building is thrust upon us," Mr. Nixon stated.

ACCIDENT INJURIES BRING ABOUT DEATH

Lawrence McNichols, Hurt Under Wheels of Car, Yields to Grim Reaper

Lawrence McNichols, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McNichols, died shortly after 2 o'clock this morning at the family home at 232 Second avenue south, following injuries received yesterday morning when he was run over by a car driven by John Lullgren, residing at the Pacific hotel.

The boy was crossing Second avenue south in front of the Idaho Automobile Supply company, and in stepping out of the way of a truck, inconspicuously placed himself in the path of the approaching car. He was hurled at once to the office of physicians, where his injuries were pronounced slight.

He lay comatose at the time of a pain in the abdomen and seemed unable to stand erect, but it was believed that the symptoms were due to nervous reaction and that rest and skill would afford relief.

The symptoms noted did not decrease, but were accentuated, and when vomiting began, another physician was summoned, but death resulted from the new attack. It is believed that he had suffered an internal rupture.

The funeral will be held at St. Edward's church tomorrow morning at 9 a. m. Members of the Sunday school class of which the deceased was a member, will act as pallbearers. They are requested to meet this evening at the McNichols home. Burial will be in Twin Falls cemetery. The body is at the Grossman mortuary chapel today.

Mrs. E. W. Davis, formerly of Canby, and now of California, and Mrs. O. H. Shaw and Mr. H. Shaw are arriving in Twin Falls this afternoon. They are the guests of Mrs. W. H. Edridge, former city mayor. Neither representative would make public the name of the property owner who has made the building proposal, but it was stated that the scheme is bona fide and can be carried out if all the details are approved by the council.
