Occupation of Disputed Zone in the Pursuance of Secretary Hughes Award Takes Place Without Incident

PUNTA ARENAS, Costa Rica, (AP)—Occupation of the Coto region by Costa Rican troops, in pursuance to a declaration from Secretary of State Hughes upholding the region's award to Costa Rica by former chief Justice White, was carried out without interruption by the American battleship Pennsylvania, which was sent from Philadelphia on August 22, with 400 marines in case of resistance on the part of Panamanians.

Inhabitants of the region joyfully greeted the Costa Rican troops, who arrived to effect the occupation on September 5. The troops found long lines of deserted trenches, and many public buildings which had been burned by the Panamanians before evacuating the area.

CALLS UPON ALBERTA TO GUARD INDIANS HEALTH

Inspector Declares Aborigines of Near North are in Danger of Becoming Extinct Species

EDMONTON, Alberta, (AP)—Indians in the near north are in danger of becoming an extinct species, unless measures are taken by the province to safeguard them against contagious diseases, declared a report made public today following a trip through the Wabukawa district.

Dr. Ell argued regulations prohibiting overcrowding in one room tenements in which two or more families frequently are found.

He also attacked the government ration tines declaring it had done much to degrade the Indians. Many of them, he asserted, use the rations only as stakes in gambling for prunes which they use to brew "kooch."

NARROWLY ESCAPED IN BURNING GAS

Son of Senator Newberry and Five Others Under Hazardous Experience

DETROIT, Mich., (AP)—Six men, including Phelps Newberry, son of Senator Truman H. Newberry and several prominent Detroit business men narrowly escaped death last night when the 53-foot gasoline launch Kismet, owned by F. Walter Gubert, burned to the water's edge in Lake St. Clair, three miles off Grand point, a suburb. After battling for more than three hours against a heavy sea the six men in a small row boat, early today reached the Grand point clubhouse. Gubert, badly burned about the hands and with six lungs scorched by the flames, as he fought the fire about his chest, is in a hospital. He is expected to recover.

The fire was caused by backfiring of the Kismet's engine.

Others in the party included James T. Lynn and Frederick Hanson, Detroit business men, Jere H. Brooks, of Detroit, and an unidentified man who is engineer of the Kismet. Gubert is president of a Detroit manufacturing concern.

Armour and Company to Make No Reply Immediately to Workers' Proposal

CHICAGO, (AP)—No reply is to be made immediately by the packers to proposals for a new agreement to replace the wartime pact which expires September 15, it was announced by Armour and Company Thursday. Officials of the company said that a proposal from the butcher workers' union was received Wednesday, but the packers did not contemplate any action on it.

Armour and Company recently instituted an employees' plan under which they will deal with all employees in the future, it was said. Official explanation of the company said that an arbitration agreement, under which Judge Samuel Alschuler was arbiter, the company would deal with employees' representatives under the new plan. No wage reductions are contemplated at present, officials said.

FRENCH TO TRY THREE GERMANS ON WAR CHARGE

Teuton Troops Commanders in Vicinity of Nomeny in 1914 to be Summoned to Appear Before Council at Nancy

PARIS, (AP)—General von Oven, former Governor of Metz, General Blich, commanders of German troops in the neighborhood of Nomeny, France, in 1914, will be immediately asked to present themselves for trial before a war council at Nancy, on charges of committing atrocities, says the newspaper Excelsior. If they do not obey the summons, the newspaper declares, judgments will be taken against them in default.

This announcement is in line with an address made by M. Bonnevay, minister of justice, last Sunday at Nancy, during which the minister declared France would try the war criminals herself.

SCULPTOR LENDS TALENT TO MAYFLOWER MEMORIAL

Bronze Bas Relief Designed by Cyrus E. Dallin to Commemorate Famous Compact

PROVINCETOWN, Mass. (AP)—The Mayflower compact, the famous agreement signed by the Pilgrims in the cabin of their vessel, in the harbor which will be commemorated in a bronze bas relief designed by Cyrus E. Dallin which will probably be set up here about November.

Improvements in Provincetown in connection with the Pilgrim Tercentenary observance included the removal of certain buildings, new grading and the construction of a dignified approach to the Pilgrim monument on Town Hill. The result is to be a civic square and parkway east and north of Town Hill, at the east end of the hill. On Bradford street north of the Town Hill there will be a horseback approach, and its northern end has been relieved of the "bar" which has been placed there.

Mr. Dallin's design, which has already been delivered to the concern that will cast it in bronze, is large for such a work, measuring 9 feet by 16. It displays the figures of Pilgrims, ten men, three women and two children, grouped about a man in the act of signing the compact, which is spread out on a large sea chest. Miles Standish in armor and Elder Brewster are two central figures. The nautical flavor of the environment is conveyed by means of a ship's lantern overhead.

COLONIAL BUCKLES AGAIN BECOME FASHION'S FAVORITE

NEW YORK, (AP)—Colonial buckles on feminine footwear have returned in style with the revival of the tongue pump, you learn from the shop talk on Fifth avenue. Mostly the mode is softer, colonial in design, the large buckles also are in demand. Jit, gum mat, and nickel finishes are preferred.

The strap pump, fashion oracles say, will still be favored by smart dressers this fall. Buttons in metallic combinations to go with this footwear include bright and "satiny" silver, and similar effects in gold.

SUPREME TEST FOR BALL MEN IN TWO GAMES

All-Stars Afforded Opportunity to Reverse Boise Decisions Sunday and Monday

For a two-game series of baseball with the All-Stars the Boise club will come to Twin Falls tomorrow evening, the first game of the series will be played Sunday afternoon in Bull, and the second on Lincoln lot, Twin Falls. Both titles will be staged in the afternoon.

Last Sunday and Monday the All-Stars played in Boise, losing both contests by 3-0 and 2-1 scores. It is reported that in each tilt had luck trailed the Magic City men who, on ability, are believed to have a considerable edge over the Capitals.

How much merit there is to the contention that it was luck that helped the Boise team defeat Orvig's men, or whether there is any merit to claims, are questions that can only be answered by ball and bat on a regular baseball field. Manager Orvig, and the men he leads expect confidence that there will be a reversal of conditions when the teams come to gether here Sunday and Monday.

Both playing outfits will present their greatest strength in the return engagement, it is said, and both teams are expected to play major league baseball on this occasion.

Manager Orvig announces that Cooper, former Bull star, will start the first game on the mound for the All-Stars, with Steele, formerly of the Northside league, held in reserve, for the second game. "Spud" Moly and "Lefty" Oliver will be on hand for emergency purposes. Harry Rice is scheduled to kickstart for Cooper.

Arrangements have been made to start the series at a time that will permit fans to reach Bull and return to Twin Falls by train on Sunday. The home contest will be started at 2:30 o'clock Monday night, in order to afford the visitor opportunity to get a good start for home that evening.

Brief Bits of Sport

The All-Stars get the supreme test Sunday and Monday.

The two-game series with Boise will be the cap when to the season's play.

The test is not alone for the ball players of the Twin Falls team but for the home fans. Monday's game will be staged at Lincoln field Monday afternoon, and will be in the nature of an experiment showing the extent of fans' faith in the home team.

Jim Savage, himself a former boxer, says both Wilson and Downey should have been thrown out of the ring after Monday's fifth round in Jersey City last Monday.

Jim says that his belief that "both men fought bravely," but neither knows how to fight.

"Tex" Rickard, who promoted the deal, says "Wilson is a disgrace to the game and should be ruled out of the ring for life."

Meanwhile the fight fan element is sore clean through, and it looks as though racing would find the evil effects of this fiasco for some time to come, anyway in the east.

Ichuya Kumagata, Japanese net champion, will be seen in his exhibition at Philadelphia yesterday. He has been ordered not to attempt further contests in the present championship sets.

Eastern baseball fans and executives are beginning to frame plans for the fall world series, but have not yet decided which will be the competing clubs.

Horse racing will command attention on the county fair course most of next week.

But there will be no bookmakers on the grounds. If there is any betting, it will be on the next matel system, a scheme which excludes the professional gambler.

Chicago-Cyclist Bob Roper, Chicago heavyweight boxer, has come to New York where he will meet Eddie O'Hare Monday night. Roper also meets Carl Morris at Tulsa, September 22.

PROFESSIONALS OF PRIZE RING LOSE IN FAVOR

Promoter Rickard Says Day of Big Purse and High-Priced Seats is Past

NEW YORK, (AP)—New material must be found, if boxing is to remain popular, Promoter Tex Rickard, declared today, adding that the day of the mammoth purse and high-priced seats is passing.

Provision must be made for replacement material," he asserted. "I am convinced that the public is tired of seeing the same boxes competing time and again."

With this idea in mind, Rickard is planning to increase the number of amateur bouts to be staged at Madison Square Garden this winter and he hopes to develop one or more prospective candidates in each weight class with championship possibilities.

New and ambitious challenges for titles are needed to liven up the sport," Rickard said.

Although the average champion fails to realize it, the day of the mammoth purse and the super-priced seat in boxing is past. The public has not the money to spend that if had two years ago, and prices in sport must fall as in other lines of luxury and necessities.

"The boxing commission of New York state has taken a view stand in requiring the boxes to appear upon a percentage basis in place of flat guarantees. I shall, of course, make all future bouts on this basis and wherever possible, put on popular price-slows."

"I have no particular star bouts in mind at present but hope to use Carpenter, Deupuy, Willard, Tom Gilbons and others during the next 12 months. If reasonable financial terms can be reached, I have received a letter from Willard stating that he has started training but will require at least six months of work before he makes his attempt to regain the heavyweight title. That probably means that he will not box in a championship match before next summer."

maximum of efficiency with a minimum of effort. He struck out three men on nine-pitched balls. It was in the fourth inning of the first game with Philadelphia. First Leberreuan, then Williams and finally Kennedy—the heaviest hitters of the Philly team—came up to bat and went away again after successive strikes. Each was sent back on a called third strike, all eyes hark.

HAWTHORNE'S HOME TO BE COMMUNITY CENTER

Citizens and Summer Residents for Corporation to Preserve Landmark at Sebago Lake

SOUTH CASCO, Maine, (AP)—The house on the shores of Sebago Lake here in which Nathaniel Hawthorne lived as a boy and where he made his home when he was attending Bowdoin college, is to be preserved as a community house. Citizens and summer residents have just formed a corporation for the purpose.

Robert Manning of Saco, Mass., who owned thousands of acres of land about Sebago lake, built the house in 1814 for his sister, who was Hawthorne's mother. Mrs. Hawthorne had lost her husband at sea and lived at Hawthorne in retirement. Hawthorne was ten years old when he came to the new house with his mother, and this continued to be his home until after his graduation from Bowdoin college in 1825, when he returned to Salem.

The building was occupied as a boarding house for a long time after the Hawthornes left it. Seventy years ago it was built over into a church for which purpose it has since been used. It is a big square structure of the colonial style of architecture.

At the request of his uncle, the boy Hawthorne kept a diary while he lived here, and these volumes are now in the possession of Rev. William C. Norris of Williamstown, Conn., who is vice-president of the new corporation. They will be donated to the community house.

YUCATAN EDITORS SEEK PROTECTION FROM REDS

Appeal to President Obregon for Release of Teams Intervening to Prevent Serious Situation

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Disquieting reports of "unavoidable" conditions in the state of Yucatan continue to arrive here and further sanguinary clashes between radicals and conservative are feared.

A second committee of Yucatan journalists has arrived here to present a memorial to President Obregon asking that guarantees be given and that federal forces be suggested immediately in order to prevent a situation which is described as serious from becoming more threatening.

Members of the committee were quoted in the newspapers here as saying that a virtual state of anarchy prevails in Yucatan and that the only guarantee of protection is a good revolver and an ability to use it.

The editors of three conservative newspapers in Merida, the state capital, have been the object of many attacks by the Socialists. No serious have been the threats that the newspaper offices are under constant guard.

GRADUATES OF 1921 WILL SEEK HIGH DEGREES

Many Local High School Students to Start Collegiate Work Immediately

Students of the graduating class of 1921 will represent Twin Falls high school in numerous colleges and universities all over the country during the coming scholastic year. A gratifying number of last year's graduates plan to extend their studies to include university work.

By far the greatest number of those who intend to go away to school expect to receive letters in favor of their own state university at Moscow. In past years the local high school has sent a goodly number of students to the state institution but the group which will enter this fall is expected to mark a record in numbers.

Among those who signify their intention of going west are Louisa Hackman, Florence Smith, Mae Alford, Elna Mentch, Annabelle McCaster, Pauline Thomas, Paul Blier, Olive Shelby and Leonard Hill. The University of Washington at Seattle is next in favor with graduates, Jacob Irwin, hero of last year's football season; Phynoe McAtee and Elbert Howard going there including (L. S. C.) Newman of local grid fame has already gone to the University of California. Among the more distant travelers are Charles Hart who will enter a school in Washington, D. C. preparatory to entering Annapolis Naval academy; Edward Babcock who left Monday for the University of Illinois, and Gladys Nuggly who will go to a school of education in Chicago.

Students going to Moscow will probably leave in a group about the 17th of this month while those who will attend the University of Washington will probably leave a little later.

VETERAN REVIEWS LIFE OF CAPTAIN HAZZARD

Obituary Sketch Brings to Light Heroic Exploits of Noted Idaho Man

The following obituary sketch, prepared by Captain C. L. Longley at the request of relatives, was read in connection with funeral services held Thursday for Captain R. E. Hazzard whose death occurred on Saturday last at Seattle:

War Brings Opportunity.
Russel "Rall" Hazzard was born in Scott county, Indiana, January 7, 1860, and came to Seattle, Wash., September 3, 1921, at the age of 55 years, 7 months and 28 days, being survived by an immediate family consisting of a wife, two daughters, mother, two brothers and a sister.

At the age of 15 his residence was changed from Indiana to Washington, where the succeeding years found him a graduate civil engineer in the employ of one of the great railway systems. It was, however, upon the advent of the Spanish-American war that opportunity knocked for Captain Hazzard.

Enlisting at his outbreak he was at once commissioned captain in a Washington volunteer regiment. And no record more distinguished for gallant or meritorious conduct and achievement was twice wounded, being shot through both legs—a wound almost exactly identical with one sustained by his father during the Civil war. He served at different times upon the personal staff of Generals Wheaton, Henry and Funston.

Declines Medal of Honor.
He recruited, trained and commanded a battalion of natives—Macedonians—before the capture of Agulhados, Captain Hazzard selected the man from this force, arranged the complex details, and as chief under Funston, secured one of the most daring and thrilling episodes in military annals. Later he was awarded a medal of honor, but declined to accept it. Distinguished service was also rendered by the captain in China during the Boxer rebellion; and he had in his possession congratulatory and commendatory letters from men of his nation both in the army and out, including Theodore Roosevelt.

As a result of the record thus made Captain Hazzard was commissioned in the regular army from which he was retired in August, 1908. Most of the time since his residence has been in Idaho, where his professional ability connected him with the state highway department, which he helped to organize and to which he gave a number of years service.

In Nation's Service.
It was, however, in the service of his country and during actual warfare that his resources were called out and his real life record made. He specialized his appreciation of that fact by writing and above his name on the opportunity: "If you ever have to bury me, put on the old uniform." So it is to Captain Hazzard, late of the United States army, to whom we are saying, "Hail and Farewell!"

"Close his eyes, his work is done,
What to him is friend or foe man,
Rise of Moon or set of Sun,
Hand of man or kiss of woman!
Lay him low, lay him low,
Under the clover or under the snow,
What cares he, he cannot know."
"Wrap him in his country's flag,
The drum and the fife the volley;
What to him are all our wars,
What but death hemoeking folly,
Lay him low, lay him low,
Under the clover or under the snow.
"Leave him to God's watching eye,
Trust him to the hand that made him,
Mortal love weeps help him,
And above his grave to him him!
Lay him low, lay him low,
Under the clover or under the snow;
What cares he, he cannot know,
Lay him low!"

Analysis of crop production forecasts made public on Thursday by the Department of Agriculture on the basis of a nation-wide census on September 1 must come as a stimulant and sturdy support to optimism over the immediate future of the Twin Falls country.

In the case of the nation's potato crop production, on September 1 was estimated at 323,000,000 bushels as compared with the estimate on August 1 of 310,000,000 bushels and the five year average production of 335,000,000 bushels.

But if the effect of the issuance of the Department's estimates is uncertain in their relation to the potato market, there can be no question as to their support of an upward tendency on the part of the wheat and apples markets.

Spring wheat prospects have declined 3,000,000 bushels since August 1, as a result of heat and drought, the September 1 estimate standing at 310,000,000 bushels as against 213,000,000 bushels on August 1, and as compared with an average production over the five year period preceding last year, standing at 358,900,000 bushels.

Estimated apple production is lowered by 2,000,000 bushels for the month, the total of the crop figured at 107,000,000 bushels on September 1, constituting a decline of 137,000,000 bushels from last year's production of 244,000,000 bushels and of 740,000,000 bushels from the ten year average of 183,000,000 bushels.

Plainly there is a lesser supply of wheat and of apples than there was last year, while there is no indication of any diminishing demand. On a market where the laws of supply and demand operate as freely as in the case this year, there is every reason to believe that the producer of these crops will receive commensurately higher prices for his product.

Certainly there is no encouragement for the croaker in the Department's figures, but there is every reason for increasing optimism over the prospect at hand for the basic industry of the Twin Falls country.

Once the people objected to British ships bringing tea. Now the government objects to them landing "tea."

If you forget where the talkative barber left off, it is possible to find out many times by feeling.

Another little matter that hasn't been settled is that of addition time for the new geography.

Hereof of promise cases suggest that lots of times a warm heart is a sign of cold feet.

Wait until cider apples begin to drop off the trees. Things will be picking up.

FILER: Mr. and Mrs. Hay Taylor of Rockland, Idaho, were weekend guests here by Mr. Taylor's relatives. Their small daughter, Edith, will enter school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sealy and family returned the last of the week from a trip to the Yellowstone National park.

OPINIONS REPRINTED

Philadelphia Inquirer: "Confession is good for the soul. The student of the Miner Expedition in England now admits that the great strike was a serious mistake. He says that the economic power which the war gave to industry is diminished in power. He discovers that allowing the mines to be flooded is even now causing hardship to the men. He declares that the extreme demands of the strikers and their proclamation of bolshevik doctrines alienated public sympathy. None will doubt the truth of these conclusions. They were obvious to the great general public from the beginning. It may be doubted, indeed, if the bulk of the men themselves sympathized with the rule of ruin policy of their leaders. Now that they clearly see the results, it may be permitted to hope that the lesson has sunk deep in their minds. There is no magic by which labor can eat its cake and have it. The strike as a means of securing its interests has been distinctly overworked. A reaction was bound to come sooner or later."

Dubuque (Ia.) Times Journal: "Director Forbes of the veterans' bureau is right in directing his subordinates to give the veteran the benefit of the doubt in cases that are not conclusively proven. Heretofore it has been the practice to contrive every doubt against the claimant and wear him out by delay. It is quite likely that in many cases the government will be imposed upon, but the frauds will be detected and corrected. Every veteran owes it to himself and his honest comrades as well as to the government to report any case of fraud that may come to his attention. That duty is particularly binding since the government has adopted the policy of giving the claimant the benefit of a doubt, in the first instance. And, moreover, when fraud is shown, veterans must uphold the government in imposing proper punishment upon the guilty. Only thus can the government be justified in its policy."

National Republican: Just as the anti-protection press in the United States had raised a loud chorus of lamentation about the danger that in case America should return to the protective policy other industrial nations would reap the benefit in great, the British parliament slapped a high protective tariff on imports without any regard to what the United States government might or might not do in the matter of tariff schedules. This is what we call beastly team work.

More Truth Than Poetry

DISHES

By S. E. KISER: I read the title of dishes. As I pass the great hotel, And I think of the blighted wheat, And I think of the blighted wheat, And I think of the blighted wheat...

DISHES: If they never had been invented How different things would be. Oils who are discontented Might warble, from sorrow free; Men who are selfish and avaricious And nagged by their cheerless mates May trace their uncessing sadness To saucers and cups and plates.

DISHES: Look at the girls who are dancing, Their legs and their shoulders bare; The bald heads who watch them prancing Know dishes have brought them there. Spinners who might have married While still they were charming fret; Dreading dishes, they tarried, And are victims of vain regret.

DISHES: Have caused contentation Where happiness might have reigned; Women defy convention, Unwilling to be restrained; And men who have worthy wives For peaceful and quiet lives Are often, because of dishes, Afraid of their fretful wives.

Organized Drives in Southwest Successful in Exterminating Destructive Rodent Pests

Rabbits, rats and prairie dogs have been destructive pests in Texas and Oklahoma. The county agents of the United States department of agriculture and the state agricultural colleges have done good work in helping to drive them out. Crop Insurance shows the more credit obtainable as a result of a general rabbit campaign in Caldwell county, Texas.

County Agent Takes a Hand

In Brown county, Texas, the county agent was told that jack rabbits could not be penned successfully in brushy areas. The commission of Scalloway and Brownboro in the same county the feature of the day the drive was held by the big dinner spread by the Indians for the farmers. The farmers organized squads and contributed another 2,000 rabbits to the total of 7,000 contained killed in Caldwell county.

Prairie dogs were the problem in Alfalfa county, Oklahoma.

Prairie dogs were the problem in Alfalfa county, Oklahoma. By means of a poisoning demonstration on two farms in this county it was estimated that over 95 per cent of the prairie dogs were killed.

Very often a desire for extermination of one pest is accomplished in connection with a drive on another; thus in Wilson county, Texas, a big rat and rabbit drive was conducted through co-operative efforts on the part of the farmers, who were organized by the county agent.

Artists' Model Sues for Loss of Her Wig

NEW YORK. (AP)—Miss Althea Bloom, a model, won a $125 wig when her bobbed hair began to fall out. She was a guest on a yacht trip up the Hudson and her host's pet terrier covered up the wig when she took it off in her cabin. Result, a suit in municipal court. Miss Bloom recovered for $50.

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spare men, who live on a slender diet. Be careful as he will, however a man part stills are occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation and will eat a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and investigate his stomach. When this is done, there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.—Ad.

LIGHT FROSTS VISITED MANY STATE SECTIONS

Tender Plant Life Injured by Initial Visitation of Frost-Season

The fore part of last week was generally warm and dry with clear skies and abundant sunshine, but the latter part was characterized by an increase in cloudiness, followed by rain in scattered localities and much cooler weather with light to heavy frosts in exposed places on Sunday and Monday mornings, says Clinton E. Norquist, state meteorologist. The state summary of weather and crop conditions throughout the state.

Continuing, Mr. Norquist announces that the weather is mainly favorable for maturing crops. The frosts changing tender garden and truck crops only a little in the lower districts but in the higher mountain valleys tender vegetation was killed. The state crop is now sufficiently matured to be safe from serious damage by frosts of the heavy to be experienced at this season.

Field Notes: Twin Falls, Twin Falls County—Quite a bit of cloudy weather and frequent showers during the week checked thrashing; apples, prunes and peaches doing fine and ripening rapidly. Light frost Sunday morning. Hayrann, Gooding County—Wheat and oats harvesting in advancing way steadily into the higher and later sections of the state; thrashing is making good headway in a few localities full plowing is under way and the heavy soil is in fine condition for this work; corn is ripening nicely and silo filling is going slowly under way. Picking and packing prunes is fairly well started; a plentiful crop of peaches of the finest quality is being marketed from the warmer slopes of the Snake River valley. Local melons are plentiful and of the highest quality. Apples are growing fast and begin to show some color.

Field Notes: Richfield, Lincoln County—Thrashing well under way in all parts of the county; last of second cutting alfalfa being put up; potato crop ripening on nicely.

Okahly, Cassia County—Frost morning of the 4th damaged garden, cucumbers and other tender garden stuff. Harvesting nearly over; thrashing under way, but grain not yielding as well as expected; light yields due mostly to lodging of grain in many fields and the prevalence of rust; third crop of alfalfa, beets and potatoes generally good; range and stock good; 50 bushels of lumber shipped.

Richfield, Lincoln County—Fine weather until Saturday when there was a hard, cold wind followed by light frost which damaged gardens and melons. Harvest completed with a fairly good crop reported; home grown melons now on market; alfalfa seed crop in good condition.

Reserves

Many corporations and business men have been able to weather the late year of strain because of reserves which they had built from previous years. Such a reserve is useless unless it can be turned to account when needed.

The Twin Falls Tract is now harvesting what will probably be the largest crop it has produced. There will be many farmers again in possession of surplus funds. Now is the time to start such a reserve.

A savings account is the place to put this money for it will be at your service when needed.
