ASSERTS SALES TAX MUST COME

Smoot Tells Senate No Valid Objection Has Been Made to the Scheme

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The sales tax was bound to come, the senate voted Tuesday by Senator Smoot, republican, Utah, author of a manufacturers sales tax plan which has been passed by congress.

Denies Real Objections. "There is no real, fundamental objection to a sales tax," the senator declared. "It is a pay as you go proposition and for that reason it is favored by manufacturers, though they may pay more in taxes than under an income and excess profits system."

Labor Secretary Sees Industrial Recovery at Hand

Davis Tells Audience at Former Home Country Will Soon Be Full of Energy

ELWOOD, Ind., (AP)—Secretary of Labor Davis declared in a speech here today that the country "had come out" after an industrial depression and would soon be filled again "with the old electric energy."

CHARGE BREACH OF IRISH TRUCE

Delegates at Peace Conference Seek Means of Avoiding Further Clashes

LONDON, (AP)—The British and Irish delegates, pending a resumption of the Irish conference tomorrow, were today considering alleged breaches of the truce in Ireland and endeavoring to devise means by which they might be avoided during the negotiations looking to a settlement of the future of Ireland.

Exact Irish Difficulty. This was the first difficulty faced by the conference, the assembly by the Dail Eireann of the functions of government in Ireland having caused much irritation here. Actual outbreaks or conflicts were regarded as less serious than the virtual existing of the British authorities by the Sinn Fein courts and police, as the report forces cannot, without breaking the truce, take any action against this policy on the part of the Sinn Fein.

Under the terms of the truce, the entire forces must not carry arms, which the British government insisted the Sinn Fein do. Eamon J. Dugan, who acted as chief British officer in Ireland, is setting for the Sinn Fein a condition that they must give up arms and accept a "reasonable disarmament."

Blair Fein Complains. The Sinn Fein, which has arrived at Dublin, is protesting against the reluctance of the proceedings in the conference, complained this morning that there had been leaks on the government side and said this was another matter which they still demand remedied.

PASSAGE N. J. (AP)—The name Trotsky is a handicap no American should be compelled to labor under, County Judge Watson said today. He permitted Trotsky to change his name to Benjamin Trawers.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Proposed remedies for the unemployment situation are to be given publicity through the nation's schools, the National Education association announced today, the campaign having been decided upon in compliance with a request from Secretary Hoover. The plan will follow largely that adopted in the food campaign of 1918, it was said.

NEW YORK, (AP)—Four ardent fans who were taking no chances of missing today's world's series contest lined up at the Polo Grounds box office at midnight and remained unshaken through the thunderstorm and showers that descended shortly after dawn. The bleachers began to fill in the early morning hours and the women's section was particularly popular. The holiday was expected to result in a new attendance record.

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP)—Greyhound couring was scheduled to be inaugurated here this afternoon with six races on the program. Dogs from Oklahoma and California were to be the principal contestants. The main tests will continue thirty days and a grandstand to accommodate 4,000 persons has been erected. The feature event was the fourth race in which "Mistion Boy," known as the "Man o' War of Dogdom" was the favorite.

HARDING GIVES AMERICAN ARMS AT CONFERENCE

Letter Expressing Hope for "Reasonable Disarmament" is Made Public as Delegates Meet to Form Policies

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The American delegates to the armament conference at their initial meeting today were understood to have discussed the feasibility of admitting the press to all final sessions of the conference and to have assumed a favorable attitude toward the proposition.

WASHINGTON, D. C. (AP)—Formulation of policies to be pursued by the American delegation at the conference on limitation of armament and for eastern and Pacific nations was today being discussed by the delegates selected by President Harding to represent the United States at their first meeting at the state department.

Underwood Arrives First. Responding to a call issued yesterday by Secretary of State Hughes, Underwood was the president as the head of the American delegation. The delegates arrived at the department at 10 o'clock. Robert Underwood was the first to arrive and Elith Root was the last. The former secretary of the press and a group of newspaper correspondents gathered to report the first formal policy of American participation in the conference, remarked: "Well, I see you are all on deck."

Pose for Photograph. The delegates after gathering in one of the larger rooms at the department, went outside the building for what was the first official photo in the United States—the taking of a group photograph. A month of careful preparation for the armament conference began today, with the first meeting here of the four delegates selected by President Harding to speak for the United States.

Specific Data at Hand. Diplomatic, military and naval data of a specific nature already had been compiled for the delegates, but the real time of fitting the same in information together and building upon it a constructive program remained to be done by the delegates themselves.

Some Hint of President Harding's hopes for the armament conference were given as the delegates were assembling by publication of a letter the president had written in reply to a prayer that he work for "universal disarmament." Absolute disarmament, Mr. Harding wrote, was "beyond hope of realization" and perhaps not very desirable, but "a very genuine proposition with some hope of accomplishment."

Similar sentiments have been expressed generally by military and naval authorities. It is understood that the first consideration of those familiar with the international situation

TO HELP WAR VETERANS ADJUST THEIR CLAIMS

"Clean-Up" Squad Will Spend Some Time in This District During November

Officials of the American Legion in Twin Falls have received information that the "clean-up squad" of the Veterans' Bureau with headquarters in Seattle, Wash., is expected to arrive in Twin Falls about November 7, and will probably remain here during the entire month of the year. The squad is organized in the Twin Falls district. Correspondence from Bayard B. Christ, assistant manager for the Idaho "Clean-up" squad in this territory will be spent in Twin Falls in an endeavor to adjust all claims of service men in that locality. Mr. Christ expects to be in this city within the next few days and make permanent plans as to office headquarters, and make arrangements for whatever details are necessary before the squad arrives.

GIVES LEGION'S POLICY ON UNEMPLOYMENT ISSUE

World War Veterans' National Organization Committee Chairman Urges Bureau Establishment. OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., (AP)—A program for post-war relief for men who served in the world war to come to the world war veterans' national organization committee chairman, urged the establishment of a bureau to coordinate the relief work of the legion of veterans. The committee on unemployment, bureau to be set in touch with employers and urge employment of war veterans in all possible open positions. Legionnaires in paying positions are asked by the committee to act as their brothers to less fortunate men and lend them money to furnish food and shelter during the periods of unemployment.

COURT CALLS FOR ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE ON MEYER'S DEATH

Halts Argument on Admission of Testimony on Demise of Previous Husbands and Brother-in-Law

AUDIENCE IN UNDIMINISHED NUMBERS HEARS INVOLVED TECHNICAL DEBATES

Objection by the defense to the introduction of testimony by the state touching upon the deaths of her three previous husbands and a brother-in-law was sustained, temporarily, by the court in the trial of Lydia Meyer, ex-Southard, for the killing of her fourth husband Edward F. Meyer, by poisoning.

TAKING OF TESTIMONY PROCEEDS WHEN OBJECTION IS TEMPORARILY SUSTAINED

The objection is sustained until such time as further evidence is offered to prove the substance of the crime. When this is done the question may be brought up again. This will probably be within the next few hours.

Denies Advising Mrs. Southard to Influence Doctor

C. D. Thomas Refutes Statement Alleged to Have Been Imputed to Him. That he did not at any time advise Mrs. Southard to ask Dr. Coughlin to testify for the defense in the case of her husband's death, is what C. D. Thomas, a prominent Twin Falls physician, stated today.

Dr. Thomas identified the note for $250.00 given by Meyer in payment of the first premium on the $10,000 life insurance applied for, the application for the same and the letter written in his offer making the company for a death claim blank and signed Lydia Anna Meyer.

Dr. Thomas for Dr. B. F. Mangel of Mangel Brothers' garage, from which comes Mrs. Southard's proposed to buy a Cadillac car, testified to conversations with Mrs. Meyer touching upon the transaction. Mrs. Southard bought a two-passenger car for delivery 30 days later, depositing $200. Mrs. Southard said the balance was to be paid from the sale or rental of a house in Canada or Montana, from which she expected to receive about $10,000. This was on August 26, 1920.

Quarrelled After Arrest. Mrs. V. H. Ormsby first met the defendant on May 24, 1921 in Honolulu on the occasion of her trip with her husband to assume charge of Mrs. Southard.

Mrs. Southard told Mr. Ormsby and the witness that Don McKay would be a good witness for her, as he knew about the attitude of Ormsby. McKay had over Mrs. and Mrs. Meyer's money for about three years and they figured this would be a good way to get even with him.

Mrs. Southard talked freely about her husband's trip and her husband's insurance. Mr. Ormsby told her she could hardly blame people for being suspicious under the circumstances, to which she replied "I know."

Quarrelled After Arrest. E. V. Bradshaw, engineer of Twin Falls, testified that he was familiar with the location of the river and the ranch house at Blue Lakes ranch and a map prepared by the witness was offered in evidence. The witness is understood to be the question of venue.

Southard case every such fact is disputed. The admission of such evidence, Mr. Mills declared, would mean the trial of five separate cases against the defendant.

Southard at Wife's Side. Paul Vincent Southard, husband of the defendant, has sat at his wife's side in court since the dismissal of the jury and the opening of the legal battle. The two whisper together constantly and occasionally, that the facts were admitted to be due to poison, whereas in the Legal Battle Alone. The problem, all along foreseen and prepared for by attorneys on both sides of the case, was presented through the question of the admission of testimony by V. H. Ormsby, deputy sheriff, in his custody. Mrs. Southard was returned to Idaho from Honolulu, touching upon statements made to the defendant to him as to the death of Harold C. Lewis. Mrs. Southard's third husband died at Billings, Mont., July 6, 1910.

Following the retiring of the jury, prosecuting Attorney, Stephen, made a final tender of evidence with respect to the testimony of V. H. Ormsby. (Continued on Page Two)

MYSTERY WELLS SHOTS AT WOMAN LEADER OF KLAN

Steel Jacketed Bullets and Trail of Footprints Only Clue to Would-Be Assassins of Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Several 32 caliber steel jacketed bullets and the trail of footprints that ended at the road were all county police had to start on today in their inquiry into what they characterized as an evident attempt last night to assassinate Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler, head of the woman's department of the Ku Klux Klan.

Five Shots Through Window

Five shots were fired into the bedroom window of Mrs. Tyler's home here, she reported to police headquarters, and while the window glass was smashed the bullets whizzed over her head as she leaned over the bed of her daughter, Miss Doris Tyler, who was ill. The bullets were found embedded in the walls of the room. A mysterious telephone call was received by the Atlanta (Constitution within an hour after the shooting and a man's voice said:

"I just want to say that we got Mrs. Tyler tonight and we will get Ootopol Simmons tomorrow."

W. J. Simmons, imperial wizard of the Klan, is in Washington attending hearings by the house rules committee expected to be held within a few days to recommend congressional investigation of the Klan.

SIMMONS NOT DISTURBED OVER MURDER OF KLAN

WASHINGTON, (AP)—William J. Simmons, imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, said today he had received no advice from Atlanta concerning the reported attempt last night to shoot Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler, prominent agent of the organization. Asked about the reported threat "to get Simmons tomorrow" the imperial wizard said he was not disturbed in the least.

CONGRESSMEN CALL FOR TESTIMONY OF KLANMEMBER

IOWA STUDIES UNEMPLOYMENT

Officials and Civic Organizations of State Discuss Plans for Relief

DES MOINES, Iowa, (AP)—Today is unemployment day in Iowa. In accordance with a proclamation issued by Governor Kinnear, officers of commerce, city councils and state officials, business organizations, civic clubs and welfare societies are holding meetings in all parts of the state today, discussing plans to bring about an immediate relief of the unemployment situation in Iowa.

More Than 60,000 Idle. Governor Kendall stated that more than fifty thousand persons are unemployed in Iowa at the present time. He urged that immediate efforts be made to give employment to these unfortunate individuals who he said would suffer from hardship and hunger. The welfare officers are urged to make plans to provide employment for them.

Larger conditions in Des Moines were reported above normal for the year, although not entirely satisfactory. It is planned to push construction of the $150,000 senior high school here.

In Cedar Rapids persons in search of work are requested to register their names at the city hall. So far there have been nearly 4,000 registrations. It is said that about 1,000 unskilled men are out of work here.

Davenport. Plans Ready. A bond issue of $475,000 for street improvements and construction of public baths has been floated by the city of Davenport.

The opening of the sugar beet season at Mason, Ia. is the present time. Employment for about 800 men and practically removed for three months

GERMANY WARS ON PENCHANT FOR GAMBLING

Fever Sweeps Country at Surprising Rate Despite Hundreds of Arrests and Confiscation of Huge Sums

BERLIN, (AP)—The government is trying to halt a gambling fever which has been sweeping Germany for many months and which authorities say continues to spread at a surprising rate. Despite hundreds of arrests, the confiscation of millions of marks, sentencing of scores of persons to jail and the imposition of heavy fines.

Close upon the heels of the gambling and speculation mania which appeared among the people of all classes, came a horde of stock market manipulators, race track tools, racketeers, rogues and organizers of get-rich-quick betting associations, who, starting with small sums subscribed by working men and women, shortly thereafter laid open lucrative gambling houses.

Many Houses Raided

At least a dozen such establishments operating in Berlin, Dresden and smaller provincial towns have been raided and closed by the police.

Sums as high as 10,000,000 marks have been found in a surprising rate of police in gambling houses which apparently were catering only to the smaller gamblers. The proprietors have been held on charges of fraud, racketeering, etc., which has been unusually successful, offered the crooked gambler and promoter a chance which they promptly took advantage of and it is known millions of marks were wagered on alleged tip sheets. Some of these promoters became widely known as "informants" and made so much money for their clients that they became popular idols.

Riders Caught in Exposure

Following the breaking up of a number of the more prosperous betting clubs, the board of governors of the Grandstand race track, near Berlin, which receives the patronage of tens of thousands of persons during the week, barred three of the best known suckers for life and suspended others for alleged crooked riding, betting on other horses in races which they rode, and similar offenses.

In a final effort to curb the gambling evil the authorities have announced they will hold an assembly of the owners or proprietors of houses in which the gamblers are permitted to operate.

Russo-Italian Trade Pact Reported Signed

RIGA, (AP)—Dr. Bogdanov Pico, the Italian trade commissioner in Russia, is quoted in an interview in the Moscow Izvestia as saying that a Russo-Italian trade treaty will be signed shortly and that he believes Great Britain and Italy in concert plan to begin negotiations for an international conference, for "a more candid solution of the entire Russian question."

SCRAPPY SPIRIT PERVADES MEN OF BOTH TEAMS

Huggins Still Believes Breaks Will Come His Way—Plays Tit for Tat

NEW YORK, (AP)—The Giants and Yankees were keyed up a somnolent or so above normal today for the seventh game of the world series, tied at three games all, by the Giants' 3 to 2 victory yesterday, after a week of warfare at the Polo Grounds.

They seemed to think that tricky something called the break in the game would make its appearance this afternoon and point out the ultimate victory. Whoever wins today will be only one victory away from the throne.

While the losers must take the next two games in succession to become baseball champions of the world.

Carl Mayr will be sent against the awakened Giants today, Manager Huggins said, to be followed tomorrow by Waite Hoyt, who permitted the National League only one run in 18 innings.

Bluffin' Phil Douglas is the likely choice of McGraw. Should this big spiritual artist be put to work this afternoon, it will be the third time he has opposed Albers. They swapped the starter, last Wednesday, and the Yankees won it, 3 to 0. When they met again Sunday, the Giants won, 4 to 2. Douglas has a better roll, it was raised about by his comrades. Perhaps it will keep him from pitching. If so McGraw said he would select either the aged and slender Salge or Pat Shea, a new comer.

Shea, in his few weeks of active duty with the Giants, this past season, won five games and was beaten only twice. McGraw said he would like to give the youngster a chance in the series.

Tit for Tat Spirit.

Metropolitan fan dom believes the ramp up at the Polo Grounds will go the full nine games. Repetition, they say, has the teams over the span of a whole week showed themselves imbued with a tit for tat spirit. The Yankees took the first two, then the Giants won a pair, after which the Yanks forged one ahead only to have the Giants catch up with them yesterday by pummeling the service of Harper and Shaekey for 13 hits and eight runs.

The advantage of power in the box now belongs to the Giants. Douglas and Huggins have shown they can halt the rush of Yankees' bats. Douglas is booked to pitch today and Neft to tomorrow.

Yesterday's game was exciting, the first four innings so calm and full of thrills that what followed seemed drab, though the closing rounds produced as much of interest as the average contest.

Nobody may remember those last innings a year hence, but even the most calloused folk do not expect to stop talking about the three home runs by E. Meneel and Kuyler of the Giants and Fowster of the Yankees in less than ten minutes, the three occasions when fielders stopped terrific clients they could not catch by hurling themselves in front of the flying sphere, the long run of Chick Fowster to absorb Young's foul hard by the bleachers in the first inning, the undaunted spirit that carried the Giants to victory after the Yankees had twice gone ahead of them, and the manner in which Barnes cut out the Yankees when their bats were meretriciously swinging with the joy that Tony furnished.

Homers Are Easy.

There was a big hubbub by the rooters over the three home runs in the second inning. But the players were surprisingly calm. They did not shake hands with the home run hitters who scarcely received a nod of approval from their fellows. Styles change. Perhaps minor league players say "Babe! What's a home run. We know a fellow who shifts one every two or three days." That fellow—Babe Ruth—got in the grandstand yesterday. Meneel was just as well his substitute. Fowster hit a home run, which Babe probably couldn't have done, with his sore arm, and the substitute got several long flies for fear his position that Babe might not have reached because of his sore leg.

GOPHER STUDENT BODY IS AROUSED OVER OSS' HURTS

Minnesota Varsity Folk Want Northwestern Ousted—Do-nials are Entered

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., (AP)—Armed by reports of the campus that Arnold Oss, star halfback of the University of Minnesota football team, had played his last game for the Gophers, as a result of injuries suffered in Northwestern contest last Saturday, students today were preparing to circulate petitions calling on the athletic board of control to favor relations with Northwestern university.

Authors of the petition allege unsportsmanlike tactics by the visitors and charge that Oss was intentionally injured.

Physicians refused to disclose the result of an X-ray examination of his right leg yesterday.

CHICAGO, (AP)—Charges of unsportsmanlike tactics by Northwestern football players which resulted in the injury of Arnold Oss, Minnesota halfback, in last Saturday's game were declared false by Coach McDevitt at Northwestern today.

"I most emphatically deny any intention of hurting Oss," McDevitt said. "It happened that Oss was hurt in the Northwestern game last year. This year Oss' knee was still weak but he played without a brace.

"I regret Oss' injury deeply. I want to see Oss after the game, but his friends were very unfriendly to me."

BABE RUTH QUITS GAME WITH MULTIPLE INJURIES

Home Run King Suffers from Five Different Hurts. Any One of Which Would Keep Players Out

NEW YORK, (AP)—Babe Ruth, out of the world's series because of injuries is suffering from five different hurts, any one of which probably would be sufficient to keep many players from the game. Here are Ruth's injuries: Infected upper left arm, in which surgeons have made a three-inch incision. The original injury was suffered in the Cleveland-New York series. The wound was torn open twice in the games of Sunday and Monday, and the arm is badly swollen.

Ruth's left knee, suffered in mid-summer, has never had enough rest to regain strength.

Pulled tendon, or "Charley horse," in right leg; torn loose again Monday when he reeled from first on R. Meneel's two-bagger.

Sprained wrist, caused by falling on his arm when sliding bases.

"Strawberry" or open sore on his lip caused by sliding bases and constantly reopened.

Ruth says he could stand the pain and would play had not the physicians warned that constant aggravation would spread the infection in his arm and make another and more serious operation necessary.

Brief Bits of Sport

Tit for tat up to Tuesday night.

Easteners are still pre-empting nine games to decide the ownership of the title.

Thus far the Giants have demonstrated superiority over the Yankees in the justice of games. That is admitted.

Huggins' men seem to jar their nerve in crucial periods.

While the Giants, as they go along, appear to get stronger in the nerve center.

McGraw's men won yesterday's tilt on merit, and they won all the way after the first round.

"Babe" Ruth has a "strawberry" on his lip, physicians assert.

PLAN TO SOLVE UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM WITHIN HARDING

Resolutions Adopted by National Conference Suggesting Steps for Economic Betterment Go to White House

WASHINGTON, D.C., (AP)—Resolutions adopted by the national conference on unemployment suggesting steps for the economic betterment of the country were transmitted to President Harding by Secretary Hoover, chairman of the conference.

The conference's conclusions after a survey of the nation's business and unemployment problems were expected to form a guide for the administration's future policy. As several of the conference's resolutions suggest congressional action it was thought these might be called to the attention of congress by the president.

Recommendation that Secretary Hoover select a representative committee from all various elements interested in construction, to co-ordinate community and industry efforts in the building industry, was made in the report of the committee on construction industries.

The report declared the construction problem was one for local-action and industry and requires in cooperation with such a committee.

Discussing the financing of construction, the report held that long term bank deposits and the savings account should be primarily for long term bank purposes and should not be intermingled with speculative and commercial business.

The report added that excessive financing charges for building have not been exceptional.

Materials Bill Too High. While the committee found that there had been substantial reductions in the cost of many construction materials, lower prices for some materials had not yet been brought about in keeping with the trend of wholesale prices, and in many instances relations had not yet followed the reduction of manufacturers and wholesalers. Thus, the report asserted, it is a subject to be taken up locally in each community.

On the subject of wages the committee said: "The cost of living, rentals and working conditions differ in various sections of the country. In some sections there has been no demand for construction held up. Such conditions should be dealt with fairly and frankly between employer and employee on reasonable adjustments promptly made."

Sets Minimum Wage. The report added that the employer should not, however, permit the wage of his workmen to go below a point sufficient to meet the minimum needs and to permit of the proper education of children.

BRITISH CABINET CONSIDERS ITSELF OVER UNEMPLOYMENT. LONDON, (AP)—Plans for meeting the unemployment situation in Great Britain were considered by the British cabinet; unemployment committee and government officials here said.

It had been understood that a comprehensive program had been worked out by the committee.

PERSHING ACCEPTS BID OF BRITISH GOVERNMENT. Commander of American Expeditionary Forces in Europe, Gen. "Uncle Sam" Pershing, has accepted the bid of the British government to assist in the presentation of the congressional medal of honor to the "unknown warriors" of Great Britain in Westminster Abbey. It is probable the ceremony will take place on October 17.

In transmitting his tentative acceptance through Ambassador Harvey in London, Pershing has asked Mr. Harvey to take up the matter with the British foreign office and was agreeable to the British government to the British government. The Pershing episode, which caused a brief exchange of telegrams for a day between Paris and the American Embassy in London, is regarded as closed.

General Pershing has taken the incident amably. He received Sir Milne Borthwick, British chargé d'affaires here yesterday, who explained the incident and expressed his regret in London. He communicated an official message from the British foreign office, General Pershing replied graciously, minimizing the misunderstanding.

has been with a "reasonable limitation" of future armament construction that calling down of present strength. The latter, it is pointed out, could well be considered after a building program for the future had been agreed upon.

Doligates Know Views. Secretary Harding and Senator Lodge both have had conferences with Mr. Huggins concerning the limitation on the future of arms.

The letter in which President Harding outlined his hope for "reasonable limitation" was made public at the White House as expressing the executive's attitude toward the views of all those who have written him to work for complete disarmament. The letter was addressed to Miss Ella L. Froed of Brooklyn, N. In my letter of October 7, I said to you: "Reasonable Limitation."

YANKEES BUILT HIGH HOPES ON MAYNARD HOYT

Huggins Announces Selection of Men to Essay Role of "Iron Men" in Last Series of the World's Last Game

POLO GROUNDS, New York, (AP)—Carl Mayn and Walter Hoyt ran to essay the roles of last men in the world's series drama which finds the Giants and Yankees at grips for the highest honors in baseball. The two contenders today had three games each and the world's series was reduced to a three-game fray at most.

"Mays pitches today," said Miller Huggins, the Yankee leader, "and Hoyt is expected to pitch. It is necessary to give Hoyt a rest today. He has the strength and the will to do it."

Phil Douglas has a hard cold and Manager McGraw feared that there were possibilities of the Pennsylvanian pitcher being in shape he might call on Sam Sallee of Pat Shea.

Clonus who brought out a real hot line crowd of unexcused bleachers were packed to capacity at noon and the unexcused sections of the grandstand was filling rapidly. The early part of the game was a struggle and there was a nip to the line by the Yankees swept over the field. The playing surface of the inner and outer gardens were in the fine.

McGraw Feels Snappy. The Giants are going to lead the Yankees a dog's life from now on, said Manager McGraw today. He was feeling snappy over the Giant victory yesterday. Commenting on the fighting play of the Yankees, McGraw said they have won three of the last four games, after the Yankees had twice downed them at the start.

Mystery Veils Shots (Continued from Page One) "Temporary indisposition." Paul E. Kimberley of Atlanta, who handled business as supreme attorney stated that Kimberley, who was present, was suffering with nausea, but hoped to testify later in the day.

Denies Part in School Affair. Referring to published reports that several teachers in the school had refused to accept the school board, "because they were Catholics," Etheridge declared there was no truth in it.

Charges Unwarranted Interference. William Monroe Trotter of Boston, president of the National Equal Rights league, the first witness, declared the Klan was "a private unofficial organization which interferes with personal liberties of peoples, most of whom are Catholics." Such interference, he charged, was an attempt to prevent the proper exercise of government.

The method of coercion," Trotter said, "is shown by the sending of threatening letters to persons to cease doing certain things," and by use of the hooded gown. He characterized the Klan as "a real menace to the sense of personal security of millions of citizens."

Breaks Negro's Moral. The Rev. R. E. Watson, a negro preacher of Chicago, told the committee that the Klan was proving a hindrance to the progress of the negro by breaking down his morale through fear and terror.

The claim by the Klan that the negro is socially equal is unwarranted," he asserted. "Describing himself as a southerner, Rev. David Simpson Klugh, of Boston, a negro, declared the Klan should be prevented to ascertain whether the wholesale charges against it were true.

"It is physically impossible for the negro to attempt to dominate the country," Klugh said. "If he were, he would live in peace with the white."

Reputed Falco Drivindles. "The $70000 palace" of Mrs. Elizabeth Tyler of Atlanta, described yesterday by C. Anderson Wright, former mayor of Atlanta, was a $100,000 structure told on testimony of O. B. Williamson, a postoffice inspector. Mr. Williamson said investigation showed the house was purchased by Mrs. Tyler to her connection with the Klan and that no part of Ku Klux Klan money was used in the deal.

Wright, who wrote a series of articles for the Hearst newspapers, parporting to expose the Ku Klux Klan, told the committee that already he had received $2,000 from the Hearst organization. He explained again that he had violated the oath taken in joining the Klan by publishing articles about its secrets.

GRAND JURY INAUGURATES PROBE OF LORENA CLASH

Governor Places Entire Civil and Military Power of State of Texas at Investigators' Disposal. WACU, Texas, (AP)—With a notice from Governor Pat M. Neff in their hands advising that the entire civil and military power of the state was at their disposal, McLennan county officials today began a grand jury investigation of the clash at Lorena the night of October 1 when Sheriff Bob Buchanan attempted to halt a parade of Ku Klux Klansmen and which resulted in the wounding of ten men, one of whom died later.

No announcement was forthcoming early today as to what witnesses would be called before the grand jury. The governor's notice was sent to District Judge J. M. Monroe and F. B. Tivy, county attorney.

Case Calls Mother to Court Son Stays Home to Mind Baby School Officials Take Hand

John Ault Tells of Nine-Year-Old Youngster Kept from Classes by Maternal Parent who is Daily Nursing Among Those Present at Southard Murder Hearing

In the prosecution of his business as a truant and juvenile officer, John R. Ault recently had occasion to call at a home to investigate a complaint made by a mother of a grade school child. In this instance a boy of 9 years was the truant, but the principal reason for the home visit by Mr. Ault was an investigation of excuses sent by the mother to the school for the failure of her son to appear for study.

COURT CALLS

to her several marriages and the outcome of each. He stated that poison had been used in the bodies of each and also in the body of her brother in law, Edward Dooley. In each case insurance had been taken out covering the lives of all and, according to the prosecutor, he expected to show that the defendant had knowledge of this insurance, that the insurance constituted the motive of the crime and that the defendant did actually cause the death of these four men in addition to the death of her fourth husband, Meyer, through the administration of poison.

After reviewing the entire marital history of the defendant Mr. Stephan summed up his points under eight heads with respect to the right of the state to submit the testimony referred to. The points were briefly, as follows:

- 1. To establish the identity of the defendant.
2. To show guilty knowledge of the act.
3. To prove motive and reasons for the act.
4. To show guilty intention of the act.
5. To dispose of any question of accident or mistake.
6. To establish the fact that the defendant knew the poisonous nature of the drug administered.
7. To establish the act as part of a common plan to reach a given result.
8. To rebut any inference arising out of the conjugal relation of the defendant and the deceased.

Objections by Defense
Objections entered by Homer G. Miller for the defense were based upon the following points:
1. No competent evidence has been offered showing that the crime was committed in Twin Falls county.
2. Such evidence would be irrelevant and immaterial.
3. No motive had been brought out for the commission of the alleged crime.
4. Evidence of other crimes not admissible in effort to prove the commission of the crime set forth in the indictment, existing for the purpose with the issue in this case.
5. Substantial of crime has not been proven.

Evidence of alleged crimes referred to are those of remote character. Other objections were entered briefly by counsel for the defense after which Attorney General Black began his case in chief of each hearing on the question at issue. Case after case was cited in which the courts in both this country and England had permitted the introduction of evidence under the same circumstances. The attorney general pointed out that the same set of facts obtain in all the cases to be cited by the state in the present trial.

Reasons for Evidence
'It is necessary,' declared Mr. Black, 'that the state establish the identity of the person—that the defendant committed the offense. There is no eye witness who saw her; the act compelling the crime must be established. The act might have been committed innocently, or mistakenly and not willfully, so the state must show intent and prove motive, purpose and guilty knowledge.

A LEAGUE FOR HEALTH

A few days ago the Idaho State Medical Association closed a successful meeting in Twin Falls. It was a meeting filled with the polysyllabic debates and discussions. It was not lacking in the social amenities that are wont to characterize such gatherings.

GETTING RESULTS

During the brief time it has been in operation the national conference on unemployment called by President Harding has made what is probably an unprecedented record for practical work in dealing with a great emergency.

It is Secretary Hoover's hope that this conference will have the effect of organizing the whole country on a community basis to deal with the pressing problem. That is the only way to grapple effectively with the emergency.

In the light of the many practical plans now in operation to relieve the situation the public realizes more clearly the undesirability of the sensational methods adopted by professional agitators, such as the one who staged a demonstration before the White House the other day.

CHILD HEALTH

The United States bureau of education is urging a nation-wide campaign to teach health rules to the 25,000,000 children in the country through the medium of the public schools. It is proposed to make health instruction as fundamental a part of the child's education as are reading and arithmetic.

How tremendous a task this is and how necessary may be gathered from the fact that no fewer than 15,000,000 of the 25,000,000 now in the schools throughout the country are suffering from physical defects which might be prevented or at least corrected. Three out of every five children have ailments which need attention. The fact that in many cases such ailments may be sufficiently slight to escape the notice of the casual observer does not mean that they may not end in a serious affliction; it only means that the observer ought to be less casual.

Time was when we thought a child none the worse off for having a few things the matter with it now and then. Some people even sought comfort in the belief that minor afflictions made the child stronger, rendered him immune to others which, but for present evils, might come later on.

Fortunately this belief is not so widely held as it was years ago. But it has not been an easy task to dispel this ignorance on matters of child health. That we have not altogether dispelled it is seen in the fact that 15,000,000 children today still suffer from preventable ailments. Lack of funds in the home may explain this situation in part. The figures given out by the bureau are convincing proof that much remains to be done.

More Truth Than Poetry

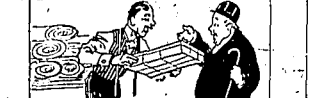

IT SOMETIMES HAPPENS

"IN just a minute I'll be down," She called when he stood at the door; His face was darkened by a frown; For he had heard that said before; He looked out sadly at his fate; By deep misgivings he was stirred; And then the strangest thing took place; A glad smile lighted up his face— By golly, she had kept her word!

"BUT C. & D.," the broker said; "It's sure to rise; I've got a tip." No Davis plunged. That night, in bed, His confidence began to slip; Next day he stood beside the checker; His face was pale, his nerves a wreck; He thought the staff at seven; And at the close he felt serene— It went to thirty-six, by Heck!

"NEXT Thursday," said the tailor when Briggs asked what day he might come in; "Your suit will be all ready then." Briggs cried a very doubtful grin. On Thursday, not but he expected; His finished suit to be in sight; He stopped to call the tailor's bluff; But got a shock, for, sure enough, The suit was done, all right, all right!

"TOMORROW, if I'm still alive, I'll hand this book!" His eyes were dim; With mousture as he took the "five"; Briggs cried a very doubtful grin. I bade a silent farewell to it; But something strange has just occurred— The strangest thing I ever knew; It seems too pleasant to be true; By golly, he has kept his word!

HE SHOULD HAVE LET IT BE KNOWN EARLIER

Town Authorities Forge Chain of Evidence Against Woman Held for Murder

WEST UNION, Ia., (AP)—James D. Cooney, county attorney, and other officials in the investigation of Mrs. Rose B. Ashbaugh, a farm, on the charge of murdering the former's husband, now are attempting to find the source of the poison which was found in the body of Ashbaugh. The source was retained by the accused pair yesterday. They are to be arraigned November 14. Caboo denies guilty knowledge of Ashbaugh's death.

CALIFORNIA DESERT TALK

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., (AP)—Imported Italian and Canadian tale, based for a large part on the 500,000,000 pounds of talcum powder the United States uses annually, is being depicted by tale from the San Bernardino county desert, sixty miles south of Palm Springs. Production of California talcum powder has reached the figure of 20,000,000 pounds annually. This desert tale mine was an outgrowth of the war, which stopped foreign importations.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken-out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eruptions that nothing has ever been found to take its place. Because of its germ destroying properties, it quickly soothes the itching, cools the irritation and heals the same night up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

RAILWAY AND UTILITIES COMMISSIONS IN SESSION

ATLANTA, Ga., (AP)—Assumption by the interstate commerce commission of control over railroad rates and charges within the states—an authority exercised by state regulatory bodies—led to enactment of the transportation act—appeared likely to cause much discussion among members of the National Association of Railway and Utility Commissioners who met here Tuesday for the annual convention of the association.

Members of the association were advised that further steps to bring a return to state regulation of state traffic would be considered.

"VV" BUILDINGS FOR BLACK MEN

Club Rooms and Dormitories Built for Colored Members in 14 Cities

CHICAGO, (AP)—Fourteen colored Y. M. C. A. have been built in as many cities during the past eight years and efforts are being made to erect several more. L. Wilbur Mercer, general secretary of the Chicago Y. M. C. A. reports. Total cost has been $1,980,000.

These buildings were put up with the help of Julius Rosenwald of the city. Under a standing offer of $25,000 to ward each new one he has contributed a total of $350,000 and his offer has still a year to run and Y. M. C. A. are being built in a large number of cities.

Pauling membership in the negro associations number 22,000 and they reach nearly every Y. M. C. A. and church. The first and largest, built about 2500 men and boy members last year. It was at Mr. Rosenwald's suggestion and with his help that the plan was tried here and his gifts to other cities and the assistance was made through the Chicago Y. M. C. A.

Colored Management the Bulk. George A. Arthur, a slightly built colored man, is in charge of the Chicago colored department. Colored management in the rule through all 14 of these departments. Mr. Arthur had inside a success in business before resolved to pioneer in this field, and Mr. Messer reports he has conducted his department "with success and credit" and that there "no more loyal Y. M. C. A. in Chicago."

The budget of Mr. Arthur's department this year is $89,000 and the colored average pay of Y. M. C. A. is $1.50. Adjustment of the rural negro of the south to the industrial north is a more difficult problem than that of the immigrant according to Mr. Arthur. He believes that the colored Y. M. C. A. has been the chief factor in their communities in promoting this readjustment, because there were the only institutions that had the necessary equipment, methods on leadership already at hand.

Breaks Up Boys' Gangs

Bad gangs of young colored boys have been broken up in Chicago. Y. M. C. A. Mr. Arthur reports, by getting their members interested in swimming and other sports. It works largely on industrial lines, having 11 base ball teams organized this year, 11 near by packing houses and industrial plants. It also has formed efficiency clubs of colored men within the plants. Other cities of Y. M. C. A. are located in New York, Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Columbus, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Nashville, Cincinnati, Kansas City, Baltimore, Washington and Atlanta.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Fashioned Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair and keeps it soft and gray. You use the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home. Nowadays, by taking at any drug store for Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, you can get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't say gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes naturally dark, glossy and attractive.—Adv.

House Built of Compressed Straw

A house with walls made of compressed straw was erected in the Faubourg de la Chaussee in Montreal, France. The framework of the building and the sides are filled with blocks of tightly compressed straw, which are claimed to be as hard as concrete and just as unshrinkable. Owing to the lightness of the material, only small quantities are needed and a house of this kind can be built in a month.

Honey Mentioned in Bible

There are references to honey in the Bible, in the sacred books of the Hindus and in the Koran. In the Far East honey has been used for centuries. The framework of the building as an antiseptic. Honey was one of the materials which the Egyptians used in embalming, and others of the ancients used it as a food preservative. There was a considerable traffic in birds' eggs and eggs which in honey were shipped long journeys.

"Barbery" and Surgery

The profession of surgery was separated from that of "barbery" by an act passed during the reign of Henry VIII. By this act the barber-surgeons were forbidden to perform any surgical operations except blood letting and tooth drawing, and the surgeons were not to practice "barbery" or shaving. This continued until the time of George II. continued until the time of George II. continued until the time of George II.

FOREIGN TRADE FIGURES LOWER

Values of Imports and Exports Fall Off Materially During September

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP)—Value of imports and exports of merchandise each fell off materially during September compared with figures made public Tuesday by the department of commerce. Imports for September were $150,000,000, the lowest for any month since 1914.

Exports last month totalled $125,000,000, only five million dollars more than the lowest month this year, July, and $40,000,000 below the August record.

Imports for September were approximately two per cent below the August figure, but exports were nearly two million dollars below the exports for the same month last year.

AUSTRALIA'S COMMERCE WITH ISLANDS VANISHES

Customs Officers Refuse to "Bother" to Estimate Worth of Once Flourishing Trade

SYDNEY, New South Wales, (AP)—The decline in the value to Australia of the Pacific island trade from an estimated figure of 4,000,000 pounds annually several years ago to such an insignificant amount at present that customs officials refuse to "bother" to estimate its worth, has caused perturbation among business-men here.

During the war the re-export from Sydney of copra brought from the other islands was prohibited except on special government permission. The bulk of the trade ceased to come here and was exported directly from the plantation islands. A certain amount on plantations has been received here because of lack of shipping transportation facilities.

"Harbor Trust" (that declared copra was inflammable and must not remain on the wharves, but must be given special handling to come here and was exported directly from the plantation islands. A certain amount on plantations has been received here because of lack of shipping transportation facilities.

The British Board of Trade, the New South Wales Navigation department, and the insurance companies protested against this ruling, declaring that copra was no more inflammable than any other products.

The ruling was enforced, however, and storage in hulks or bonds necessitating immediate discharge on arrival, cargo and lighterage and additional expenses add between three and five pounds to the expense of handling the cargo. It was estimated. Much of the trade has gone to San Francisco as the result of the ruling, business-men declared.

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America.)

LYNN, MASS., BOY SCOUTS BUSY

Here are a few of the many reasons why Lynn should stand behind her boys scouts, according to those in charge of a recent financial campaign in that city.

January 12—Scouts distributed 200 posters for V. D. club.

February 14—Held "Feed the Birds" to Lynn woods, distributing grain and suet to the starving birds.

February 23, 27, 28—Scouts assisted residents of Home for Aged Women in salvaging and sorting their personal property following that disasterous fire.

February—The scouts arrested during coal shortage by delivering 100-pound quantities by sled to homes where there was illness.

Removed snow from more than 100 buried highways.

April—Contributed $23 to the fund for America's gift to France of which the average individual contribution was 3 cents.

April 23—About fifty scouts searched in the vicinity of coal wharves for missing Danish boys.

April 24—Scouts found cap on Nahant beach which was identified as belonging to one of the missing boys. This led to search by police, resulting in finding the two bodies in the harbor.

April 30—Distributed 20,000 handbills for chamber of commerce "Clean-Up Campaign."

May 1—Distributed 16,222 miniature American flags for the Lynn Loyalty league.

May 30—More than 100 scouts assisted the G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans in decorating graves at Lynn cemeteries.

May 31—Three hundred scouts in Memorial day parade assisted veterans by placing chairs at curbsides and serving water.

TO MAKE SWIMMING SAFE.

"The old swimming hole" is all right if you know all about it, but every year many lives are lost because people attempt to swim in unguarded lakes or rivers with dangerous holes. Out in Shelbyville, Ind., a boy scout lost his life in one of these treacherous gravel holes and the tragedy awoke the public to the dangers in its own midst. The Rotary club immediately came to the front and enlisted the willing co-operation of the boy scouts in clearing and permanently marking all the danger points in the vicinity of the town. The scouts made the signs and the Rotarians sold them under the slogan of "Buy a sign and save a boy's life." Wires and all signs were placed over these treacherous holes by the scouts and trash and damage were also cleared out.

How about your town? Any need of this kind of safety-first work? If so, your scouts will be glad to help. Good advice or prevention of which we have all heard so often is still remarkably worth while as a substitute for the pound of cure, which is, sometimes, as it was in Shelbyville, a sad business.

BOY SCOUTS POLICE AIDES.

Thirty-six boy scouts have been formally sworn in as members of the Essex town (N. J.) park commission scout police, an organization formed to act as auxiliary to the county police force in protecting the parks. A picked group of these boys will act as leaders and will receive direct instruction from Chief Glibbery of the park police. They will wear metal badges, combining the insignia of the boy scouts with that of the park police.

Only Source of Happiness.

The man who has so little knowledge of human nature as to seek happiness by changing anything but his own disposition, will waste his life in fruitless efforts, and multiply the griefs which he proposes to remove.—Colton.

All Must Stand Together.

Once we have lost our all and are working together for the good of all; that each of us finds his prosperity and salvation in the advancement of all, then the whole business, as well as each individual, takes a distinct step forward.—Joseph H. Appel.

SPORTS

The Yankees got from the fans when he whiffed three times in his last game, called something else.

Jim Flynn, former fighting fireman of Tuleo, is now police officer in Denver.

Tonight in Salt Lake Ira Dern is grapple a "Terrible Turk," for the world's middleweight title.

How they got that "world's title" was for Dern is a puzzle. He's a good wrestler, but there are others, and the title has never been conceded to the Salt Lake.

As a matter of truth the title is held by Henry Meyers of Chicago, whose most formidable opponents just now are Pete Brown of Paris, Henry Ringer of Europe, Walter Miller of Minneapolis, and Ted Tily of Spokane.

Dern has beaten Mike Yekel, former champion, but beyond that has not met any of the really first class men in his division.

Ray Collins, once a star pitcher in the American league, is getting his name in the box scores again. Collins has been pitching this fall for an independent team at Birmingham, N. H., and showing a lot of the old class.

After first declining the honor, President William H. McAdoo of the Executive Court long reconsidered and accepted the proposal of Commissioner Landis that he act as vice commissioner in charge of the Chicago city series.

The Winston-Salem club of the Piedmont league announces that Charles A. Clancy has been signed to continue as manager of the team in 1922, and expects to spend much of the winter picking up new talent for the season ahead.

Two pitchers, hard boiled and through many a mill, hooked up in the first game of the playoff series between Norfolk and Portsmouth for the officials' lot of the Virginia league. Jack Warhop pitched his Norfolk team to victory, while Slat Ledbetter was on the losing end with Portsmouth.

Columbia and Spartanburg played their final game of the Sally league in 50 minutes, a remarkable performance considering there was a lot of hitting on both sides and a total of 17 runs made. The pitchers laid the ball over and the batters generally hit the first one.

WOULD UNITE ENGINEERS TO WORK FOR WORLD PEACE

NEW YORK, (AP)—Plans for a world federation of engineers, designed primarily to work for international peace, were formally launched last night at a dinner arranged by the Federated American Engineering societies.

The dinner was in honor of a mission of fifteen engineers who have just returned after conferring the John Fritz medal for distinction in science upon Sir Robert Hadfield of London and Eugene Schmelzer of Paris.

CITY OVER-SUBSCRIBES TO FUND FOR RAILROAD OUTLET BUILDING

Town Sets Pace for Districts and Communities to Follow in Enterprise Designed to Build Up the Southern Section of Idaho - Volunteer Offerings Coming In Steadily

To date Twin Falls city has subscribed to the rail outlet construction bonds fund the total sum of $100,018. The odd figures are that much over the quota subscribed against the city as its portion to the requested $500,000, which is $100,000.

It was demonstrated that Twin Falls is far ahead of other cities in its share toward another salient enterprise designed for the upbuilding of the territory to the east, west and to the south from the main line.

On the present drive the city has pledged $30,233.44. On the initial campaign in 1920 the sum subscribed was $107,500. Today's city subscription is $107,500. To the north, south and district tributary to this city has pledged $15,009.50.

Locally each day's returns are noteworthy chiefly for the number of voluntary offerings to the bonus fund. Recently Charles Barber sent in a check representing his subscription. The check was $100.00, from T. Thomas, and attached to it was the explanation that the donor has "chained you for two days and finally decided to mail it up to noon today a check of yesterday's canvass in the Kimberly and Hansen districts revealed subscriptions amounting to $7,000, with canvassers still to be heard from.

Speaking in this connection Harry McKelvie, chairman of the publicity committee, made the following statement for the record: "The most important item that the farmer wants to study in connection with the building of this railroad are the checks received for bonds. Namely, the interesting thing is the amount of the district and the money that will be spent in the construction work of the road, this in particular will not only relieve the country's stringency now very apparent, will give impetus to all of the surplus labor but will make a market immediately for horses and other farm products.

Table listing names and amounts for the railroad fund, including Mrs. Hortense Forrester (100.00), Miss H. Taylor (100.00), Walter Smith (100.00), etc.
