The forces supporting Charles are understood to consist of three divisions, British Reserves Right.

The British government has notified the Hungarian government that the latter must take all possible steps for the expulsion of the former Emperor Charles from Hungary, it was learned this afternoon.

It is stated in well informed quarters that the British minister in Budapest is to support the "little entente" — Jugo-Slav, Czecho-Slovakia and Rumania — in any action it may take for the expulsion of the ex-ruled from Hungarian territory.

Feeling over the attempt of former Emperor Charles to regain the throne of Hungary is running high in Czecho-Slovakia, it is informed by dispatches received in British official quarters from Prague.

Hungarian Premier Confident.

An official telegram dispatched from Budapest last night states the Hungarian premier is confident that the British minister's situation is steadily improving. The Carlists have been driven back a considerable distance from the city and fresh troops are arriving on the scene. It is said they would be able to surround the former emperor and his followers.

An earlier telegram received from the British minister in Budapest stated Charles and his forces were only a few miles outside the city and that the firing of guns could be heard.

TENSION MARKS IRISH DEBATES

Sinn Fein Speakers Gloomy Following Collins' Return from Dublin

LONDON, (AP) — The negotiations between the British government and Sinn Fein Irish representatives were resumed today but there was evident a feeling that the feeling was such as to give ground for grave concern among those who are in an adjustment of the Irish controversy.

Collins Brings Message.

Michael Collins, minister of finance in the Irish Provisional government, who went to Dublin on Saturday, returned here last night. It was understood that Prime Minister Lloyd George had had long talks with Collins, who returned to the British coast, and there was a belief that Mr. Collins and some of his colleagues. It was reported he brought a communication from Eamon de Valera, and it was felt that upon this answer and the attitude taken by the British Government would depend the continuance of the negotiations.

Everywhere, except in irreconcilable differences in opinion, were said to fill on each side, a way out of the difficulty created by Mr. de Valera's (Continued on Page Five)

THIEF AFTER NARCOTICS BREAKS INTO PHARMACY

Rogerson Drug Store Burglarized for Small Bottle on Saturday Night

A small bottle of a comparatively harmless drug only was stolen, according to J. F. Ritterman, manager of the store.

The pharmacy basement is a partitioned section of the basement of the Rogerson hotel building. A door leads to the kitchen or the lobby of the hotel. The poultry netting was placed between the top of the partition between the rafters. A section of the netting immediately above the door was torn off to make ingress possible. The door was barred on the inside.

LEGAL TRICKS ENLIVEN TRIAL OF MURDER CASE STAND FIRM ON STRIKE ISSUES

Judge Walters, of Prosecution Counsel, in Voluntary Testimony, Says He is Employed by Father of Meyer; Refuses to Tell What He is Paid, But Declares He is Not Working for Contingent Fee; Attorney General Would Explain His Position

EVIDENCE FOR DEFENSE DEALS WITH INSURANCE AND MORTICIANS' CUSTOM

If the Idaho State Life Insurance company were convinced that Edward F. Meyer came to his death through natural causes the company would pay the face of the $10,000 life insurance policy held by his widow at once.

This statement was made by Edward S. Chadwick, vice-president of the company on the witness stand this afternoon.

Walters Volunteers Testimony. "I understand," said Judge Walters of content for the prosecution in the Southard case immediately upon the opening of court this morning, "that the defense proposes to inquire into my connection with this case, and I ask that I be called as a witness in order that I may make such showing."

The statement caused a general grating of necks among the spectators, the press table pried up its ears and the attorneys looked interested.

Judge Walters took the stand and asked the only flash of humor which has enlivened the trial to date made its appearance. "My name is Edward A. Walters of Twin Falls," the witness began.

"I didn't start my examination yet," objected Attorney Mills. "I will call you as a witness in order that I may make such showing," replied Judge Walters, where there was a distinct thrill in the audience and the laudatory tone of the fact as a signal for the resumption of order.

"By whom you are retained, and what fee do you receive?" asked Attorney Mills. "I am retained by Charles Meyer of Lake Elmo, Minn., father of Edward F. Meyer, whom your client is accused of poisoning."

Fee is Not Contingent. "Does your fee in this case depend upon a conviction of the defendant?" "No, sir," answered the witness. "It does not. I am paid regardless of the outcome of this trial."

"That's all," said Attorney Mills, and again the laudatory tone of the fact was interrupted by their accustomed calm. There was no cross-examination.

Newspaper Man Remains. Following the incident, newspaperman subpoenaed by the defense were granted permission to remain in court during proceedings upon agreement of counsel.

Ray Black, attorney general of Idaho, took occasion to address the court in response to a statement by Attorney Mills to the effect that the defense expected to prove through Edward S. Chadwick that the Idaho State Life Insurance company had employed counsel on the side of the prosecution in the case.

Mr. Black declared that he too intended to go on the stand, that he recalled the indignation of any connection between the fact that the Idaho State Life Insurance company and that he would request an opportunity to make his presence in the case and his entire connection with the prosecution.

In that the jury was not present in the time Judge Black ruled that such testimony would not be in order for this present.

Three Witnesses Examined. Probate Judge O. P. Davall, J. E. DeWitt, and Charles E. Clendinning, together with Judge Walters, were the only witnesses examined by the defense during the morning session. Judge Davall administered the oath to the witnesses, Edward F. Meyer, by W. J. Truchbold, and schedules of property in the Meyer estate were read into the record by the federal and the property copy of Meyer's will for $1705 signed by E. B. Perrine, two pieces of property worth $4500 each, and another piece of land at Lake Elmo, Minn., supposed to be worth $11,000. There was no cross-examination.

Mortician Under Fire. What appeared to be the beginning of an effort to impeach the testimony of J. E. DeWitt, a witness for the defense, occurred in the matter of the purchase of this phase of the defense was left open for the present. After the jury had been excused Attorney Mills made the statement that the defense would prove that an earlier charge of five dollars was made for embalming by undertaker and that the defense would prove that such charge was made in the bill for the Meyer funeral and that the body of Meyer was, in fact, embalmed although the prosecution had contended that it was not. Reiterate Warning to Federal Agency That Only Satisfactory Settlement Can Prevent Scheduled Walkouts

Indications Point to Prolonged Hearing Before Railroad Labor Board Leaving Strikers Without Leaders

CHICAGO, (AP) — The threatened railroad strike, if it takes place as scheduled, will be limited to 475,000 train service employees, switchmen and telegraphers.

This became certain today when the signal men followed the example of nine other "standard" unions and voted to remain at work. By their decision, 1,025,000 railroad employees are on record against the strike.

The Brotherhood's 10,000 members were instructed today to remain at their regular work, but to refuse assignment of any other duties which they might be asked to perform on account of vacancies caused by strikers leaving the roads. The decision was reached after several days of conferences by the executive officers. The Brotherhood has taken no strike vote.

CHICAGO, (AP) — The four big brotherhoods and the switchmen's union have reiterated their warning to the United States railroad labor board that only a "satisfactory settlement" can prevent the railroad strike called for next Sunday morning, it was learned today.

The presidents of the five unions, replying to the board's citation to appear here Wednesday, sent a joint message, reasserting the stand they took at their conference with the board last week, when they stated they had no power, to suspend or call off a strike unless a settlement in accordance with their demands was reached.

Leaders May Be Dealt. If the strike is called, however, there were indications today that the strike leaders would be dealt any direct blows. As the board has summoned the 1,400 general chairman of the five unions to come to Chicago with their general officers, a prolonged stand of the railroad executives at home without leaders.

While the board today issued a statement saying "there is great reason to hope that the strike will be averted," the strong stand of the railroad executives as set forth in their acceptance of the board's order to appear here on Wednesday, indicated a log drawn out hearing.

Brotherhoods Go It Alone. Whether the refusal of nine of the sixteen "standard" unions to support the strike has weakened the brotherhoods' position or their determination remained in doubt today. Union men pointed out that the brotherhoods' stand of the railroad executives at home support and, in fact, refused to sign any pledge to cooperate with any other organizations which might join them in the walkout.

Repeal of Railway Guarantee Is Urged Upon Congressmen

WASHINGTON, D. C., (AP) — The long smoldering movement in congress for the repeal of the railroads 6 per cent guaranty provision of the transportation act and the of the Adams law appeared in the open before the senate interstate commerce committee today when representatives of state railway commission and agricultural organizations appeared to urge such changes.

John E. Benton, solicitor of the National Association of Railway and Utility Commissioners urged cancellation of the Capper bill to restore the original jurisdiction of state railway commissions over intrastate rates and to re-

TRADE MISSION FROM JAPAN TO VISIT AMERICA

New Yorkers Plan Elaborate Reception for Oriental Delegation; Stress Desirability of Co-operation

NEW YORK, (AP)—One of the most important business adventures since the war is the way some leaders of industry in New York regard the arrival at Seattle of a party of Japanese commercial leaders who will spend 45 days in the United States, journeying from coast to coast.

The party, due next Thursday from Yokohama on the Kasushima Maru, numbers 23, headed by Dr. Takuma Dan, general manager and director of the combined Mitsui interests, and a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. His visit returns those made to Japan by three American groups within the last 18 months. Besides conferring with chambers of commerce throughout the country the delegation while in Washington will meet President Harding and his cabinet.

Gifts Given Views

Discussing the immediate results of the trip, the United States Steel Corporation said: "I believe all that is necessary to insure continuing and permanent friendship between Japan and the United States is personal and intimate acquaintance between the leading citizens of the two countries, and this will be secured by the visits of the Japanese to the United States and by the Americans to Japan. These visits are increasing and the results are already pronounced."

New Yorkers have arranged an extraordinary reception for the visitors. Industrial leaders here hope that, as a result of informal conferences, the United States and Japan will take the initiative in an international settlement of trade relations in the Far East.

Darwin J. Kingley, president of the chamber of commerce of New York City, said in this view of the visit:

"It represents the passing of the old diplomacy in favor of a frank and co-operative discussion of mutual problems by business men who after all, are the ones chiefly concerned. The spirit which has prompted this visit by the Japanese merchants will meet prompt response from American business men and the result will be the insurance of only better business relations but better political relations between Japan and the United States."

Gifts and Reciprocities

Maasano Kobayashi, chairman of the New York reception committee, explained that the mission would give visitors some information as to business methods and policy in the United States as well render more practical and effective whatever existing relations may arise in the future.

The delegation will visit Seattle, Chicago, New York, Boston, Pittsburgh, St. Louis and Washington with supplementary trips to Duluth, Gary, Fort Worth, Houston, Galveston, New Orleans and Atlanta.

(AP)—Three of the most prominent modern military and naval commanders of the world (Italy, Admiral Beatty of England, and General Jacques of Belgium—were to be the guests of President Harding today at a White House luncheon. Secretaries of state war and navy, and Alton T. Roberts, chairman of the American reception committee, completed the luncheon party.

Arriving yesterday en route to the Legion convention at Kansas City, the three noted visitors were accompanied to the White House by their wives and the continuous cheering of crowds along the streets.

Pacific Live Stock Exposition Dairy Show to Be Large

The live stock breeders of the East have been working to achieve perfection for nearly a century and they have secured remarkable results, but the pictures shown above are not animals from the East and their type would not have the skill of any breeder on earth. They have beautiful conformation, style and quality in every line, and would stand high in any dairy show in the world.

One of these animals is the Junior Holstein bull calf shown at the Pacific International last year. He came from Hollywood Farm, Hollywood, Washington, and won high honors. The other is Jersey bull calf from Iron Mine farm at Oswego, Oregon, also on show at the Pacific International. The quality of dairy animals of all breeds on the Pacific Coast is a source of perpetual surprise for the dairy breeders of other sections. Without losing type, they have size and constitution, which the dairymen love, and which any animal must have to endure.

The dairy industry of the Pacific Coast has grown steadily since its inception. This is partly an account of the favorable climate and wealth of food produced here. The possibilities for increasing the output of dairy products are almost limitless. There are markets both at home and abroad for many times the amount of cheese and butter now made. The difficulty has been largely due to the unprofitable cows. High quality of animals will do away with this.

There is no place east or west, north or south, where one interested in dairy cattle can find so many in one place and select such quality as at the Pacific International North Portland, Nov. 6-12.

VARSITY SCIENCE STAFF IS ACTIVE

Besides Conducting Regular Classes Professors Engage in Wide Research

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, Moscow, (Special)—That the research activities of the University of Idaho science staff are keeping pace with those of the larger universities is evident from a report issued by Dr. E. Woodruff, chairman of the university committee of graduate instruction and research. The report, in part, says:

"The present science staff of the university faculty published, headed, numerous minor articles, 230 valuable papers based on original investigations. These publications were contributed by 38 men, making an average of about six publications per man. At least 160 of these papers were published by our present science men after coming to Idaho. This shows that in spite of the fact that the university is for teaching is the primary function of the University—our men continue their research activities after coming to Idaho."

"An interesting fact brought out in a survey of the research situation at the university is that, with a few exceptions, the men who carry the heaviest teaching loads are also the most active investigators and the greatest producers of first-class research."

In an interview Dr. Woodruff said that it is generally known in educational circles that the individual who possesses the real scientific research "bug" usually produces valuable results in spite of all sorts of odds.

"The science men of the university," he said, "have at least 100 problems under investigation, many of which are nearing completion. Most of this investigation work is concerned with vital economic problems within the state of Idaho. Many of the men who have come here in recent years have sacrificed their important pet problems and have undertaken new problems of particular interest to this state."

"During the past few years, along with the spirit of the National Research Council, a number of apparently minor problems have been coordinated into big investigations involving, in each case, the skill of several departments of science. In general, an excellent spirit of co-operation exists among our various investigators. This highly desirable condition is stimulated by our thorough research and is directly responsible for the high caliber of many of our publications."

HILL GOES ON TRIAL FOR STEPDUGHTER'S DEATH

Colorado Jury to Determine Guilt or Innocence of Man Charged with Murder of Little Girl

BRIGHTON, Colo. (AP)—William Riley Hill, alleged slayer of his nine-year-old stepdaughter, Helen Maxine Short, whose body, weighted down with railroad iron, was found in an irrigation ditch near here July 23, last, went on trial on a charge of murder in the district court here today.

Due to the fact that evidence in the case is purely circumstantial, the state is unable to ask for the death penalty in case of conviction, according to W. L. Keady, prosecuting attorney. The district attorney admitted, however, that the state would request life imprisonment in event of conviction. Motions for a change of venue have been refused.

Hill was captured in Sioux City, Ia., by Sheriff E. A. Gormley of Adams county, several days after the child's body was discovered. He was alleged to have been seen in company with the girl the day before she was murdered. Mrs. Thomas Hill of Denver, the child's wife and mother of the defendant, is expected to prove the prosecution's star witness.

Hill will be defended by Moman P. Reilly, former attorney general of Oklahoma.

COAL TRADE IS REVERTING TO BRITISH HANDS

Export Business, During the Strike, Rapidly Slipping from Americans' Grasp

LONDON, (AP)—Britain's export coal trade, transferred to the United States a few months ago owing to the long strike of British mines, is rapidly slipping out of the hands of American buyers, according to board of trade figures.

"The rapidly with which the international coal trade is reverting to British hands is evidenced in the fact that three months ago the United States was actually exporting coal, not only to the Scandinavian countries but to England, with distinct leadership in the Mediterranean and undeveloped parts of South American markets," said Alfred P. Dennis, commercial attache of the American embassy.

Living European Market

W. Today, are practically out of the European trade and are rapidly losing our position in the Mediterranean markets. Here we had secured practically half the business with our position seriously menaced in South America, where we occupied logically a favored competitive position.

"The export coal trade is one of the fundamentals in Britain's economic position in world trade and every sacrifice is being made to win back lost ground. Production costs have come down with a run and cost is offered for export at figures approximating production cost."

Costs Still High

"On the other hand, production costs in the United States have still a wide margin for decline. Fine quality Cardiff coal can now be put on a shipboard at 30 shillings, equivalent at present exchange rates to about $5.50 per ton. At normal exchange the price would be $7.50.

It remains for us to endeavor to maintain our competitive position by bringing down our c. o. b. steamer costs while at the same time indulging the hope that the future appreciation of sterling may level the scales in our position, not only in South America but in the major continental markets."

Industry Enjoys Advantages by Reason of Employers' Acceptance of Lower Pay at Single Strike

TORONTO, (AP)—Canadian lumberjacks have moved back to pre-war wages with one stride. Lumbering concerns in Northern Ontario and Quebec are paying them $1 a day and their board and report that they will be able to operate on a larger scale than was considered possible a few months ago, says a dispatch to the Toronto Globe.

Last year skilled workmen in the lumber camps received from $60 to $70 a month and their board.

The reduced cost of production is expected to stimulate building operations which have been halted by lumber prices despite a housing shortage throughout the dominion.

For 91 a day, the lumberjacks work 10 hours in the open, frequently with the temperature 10 to 20 degrees below zero and they subsist on the plainest sort of fare.

BRUINS SCORE
111 POINTS ON JEROME TEAM

Twin Falls Gridiron Warriors
Accumulate Further Laurels in Overwhelming Defeat of North Side Players

(By FULLBACK.)
Twin Falls added more laurels to their high school when they took the football team from Jerome down the line Saturday afternoon by the overwhelming score of 111 to 0.
As the score indicated, it was Twin Falls all the way, and never at any stage of the game, did Jerome have a chance to ring the bell.
At the first place, our neighbors from across the river, were not in what could be called first class physical condition, which in a football game means a half at the end of the first quarter.
Early in the first quarter, the Jerome boys began to show signs of weakening, while on the other hand, Clint Evans' tribe were as full of pep as the end of the spring.
But let it be said, were game, to the end, and as clean a bunch of sports as we have had, with us this year.
The game was later on starting, owing to trouble, and it was 3:30 before the referee Benoit blew the opening whistle.

Twin was a little slow in getting started, but after five minutes of play, they woke up, and from then on things began to move.
Twin made 21 points in the first quarter, and 21 points in the second, for a total of 42 during the first half.
In the third quarter they made 20 more, swelling the total up to 62 to 0. It was in the last quarter that it got really busy, when they made 42 points, the final score being 111.
By this it can be seen that the team was going better in the last quarter than in the first.
And that it proves that condition is a big factor in the winning of football games.

O'Rourke and Heise starred for Jerome, while the local lads were all in the line.
Belley took high honors for the home boys, but was closely followed by Heise, Nicholson, Lyons, Houghtelin and Scott.
We could mention the whole team as stars, but space forbids.
Belley called signals, owing to Cliff Hill still being in the hospital, and he handled the team like an old-timer. Many times he had given the plays before the Jerome team was in position. He was the big ground gainer and his feet were like the wind.

Putzer, brought in from right tackle to the back-field, acted as captain, and played one of the best games ever. He was the only one who was wonderful and many a college man fails to kick the distance that our Putzer does.
Nicholson was in every play, and seems to be getting faster with each game.
Lyons, who took Putzer's place in the last quarter, showed that he is to be counted on before the season is over.
Houghtelin, 40-yard run, was easily the feature of the last part of the game. Mason was right on Houghtelin, but he was able to get the yardage Lyons got at him and made him get the ground, leaving Houghtelin's feet free.

Houghtelin played his last game of the season, and showed a marked improvement over his performance at Ellet.
The details of the game follow, and in the paper who will go over Saturday's game for fine points.
First Quarter.
Heise kicked to Belley who carried the ball back 25 yards. Hard, consistent plunger brought the ball to the 10 yard line. Heise attempted a forward pass, but Thomson, but Mason caught the ball. Jerome fumbled on the next play. Twin Falls getting the ball again. Twin fumbled, Jerome recovered the ball. Heise kicked to Belley, who made five yards; Houghtelin made 20 yards through right tackle for a touchdown. Putzer kicked goal. Score: Twin 7, Jerome 0.

Putzer kicked to O'Rourke who caught the ball between the goal posts and carried it back 20 yards. Jerome's Wilson made a 20 yard run for 25 yards, being downed on the three yard line. Houghtelin made two yards through right tackle. Putzer made the necessary yard, scoring the second touchdown. Putzer kicked goal. Score: Twin Falls, 14; Jerome, 0.

Putzer again kicked to the posts, O'Rourke getting the ball and carrying it back 20 yards when tackled by Jamison. Jerome made six yards on two line plays, but failed on forward pass, and failed to Belley, who made a beautiful 55-yard run.
Houghtelin Runs Wild.
Houghtelin then ran 30 yards around left end for a touchdown. Putzer kicked goal. Score: Twin Falls, 21; Jerome, 0.

Putzer, for the third consecutive time, kicked to the goal posts, O'Rourke bringing the ball back 15 yards, being tackled by Putzer. Huge Crowds Throng the Store in Their Effort to Buy Watches, Diamonds and Jewelry at a Third to a Half Less. Sale Resumed Tomorrow at 9 A. M. Complete Details in the Following—

THE BANKER said it couldn't be done. Said he: "You won't take in enough money to pay for the ads. Nobody's buying Jewelry these times. Nobody has any money."
But the Banker overlooked one big factor. He forgot the Ladies!
For two days Rasmussen has been turning Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry and kindred valuables into money at express speed. All records have been broken.

radio dials which tell the time by night as well as by day, can be bought for $2.85, instead of $8.00. And a third less for all the rest of the clocks in the store.
Lavalieres of solid gold set with semi-precious stones are all selling at half price. Strikingly handsome effects may be had for $2.25, instead of $4.50; and $6.50 and $7.50, instead of $13.00 and $15.00.

Indeed, so great was the demand—so great the crowds that it became necessary to lock the doors in order to prevent dangerous overcrowding. And as this is being written (at 8:30 a. m. Monday) for tonight's paper—there is another crowd (early as it is) waiting to enter the store.
Which goes to show two things: The people of Twin Falls know when to buy; and, what's more important, wise bankers to the contrary, they have money to buy with!

A DIAMOND Set Lavalier with six diamonds set in pendant form, may be bought for $48.52, instead of $100.00. A man's ring of solid gold set with a fine big diamond and valued at $650.00 is going to be sold for $315.00. A $300.00 Tiffany Cluster Ring with diamonds of unusual brilliancy, will be sold for $198.00, instead of $300.00; and every diamond in the store is marked down from a third to a half.

THE SALE continues tomorrow and every day this week. Everything is marked down. Here are specimen values from the window show:

The original price tags remain on every article. No attempt is made to create the impression that the reductions are more than they really are.
The plain — September-Morn-Truth—is enough.

Fancy gold filled rings and sterling silver rings for men and women with settings of semi-precious stones and reproductions. Dozens to choose among. Formerly up to $5.00 apiece—for fifty cents.

"COMMUNITY" Fifty Year Silver Plate can be bought for a third less. Knives and forks, hollow handled knives, are $14.85 instead of $22.50 a set. Table Spoons that were $9.00 are now $6.00 a set and so on down (and up) the line.
Tea Sets and odd pieces of fine silverware are a third and a half less.

SOLID GOLD RINGS in the newest styles, with Ruby, Sapphire, Amethyst, Emerald, Pearl and all manner of beautiful settings, up to $10.00 apiece—for $2.50—Where groups of fancy gold rings are marked $2.50, $5.00 and $7.50, in no case less than half price and in many cases less than half. Men's solid gold scarf pins, up to $5.00, are to go at $2.00 apiece.
Gold filled Bracelets in a dozen styles, worth up to $8.00, are to go at a dollar apiece.
Fancy Combs with solid gold mountings, values up to $14.00, are to be closed out at fifty cents apiece.

And Fine Watches — The most beautiful Wrist Watches ever shown are now a third less. The finest Howards, Elgins and Walthams for men are a third less. But the list is too long to print in the papers—look at the window show tonight.
Lots of folks are asking "How long the sale's going to last?"
And the answer is this: "It isn't a question of the 'Sale' at all—it's a question of having enough goods to go round!"

PEARL BEADS, "Richelieu", "Regent", and other famous makes are at half price. The finest $60.00 string may be bought for $30.00. The lowest priced string for 50c—in a word — two strings for the price of one.

lives, to discuss their attitude toward Wednesday's conference, was called for tomorrow.

In response to the statement that night of W. S. Stone, head of the engineers' brotherhood, blaming the labor board for the present strained situation, Chairman R. M. Barton, of the board declared he is "willing to let the public decide who is right."

"You may say for me as emphatically as you wish," he added, "whether the railroad labor board is to be blamed for anything or not, these men cannot not justify their position on that ground. They can't thus excuse their throwing the country into such a terrific industrial crisis as a general railroad strike will bring about."

Board Expresses Optimism.—The United States labor board announced today that it had great reason to hope that the strike will be averted. The formal announcement of the board warned the public to refrain from loose talk and provocative language about either side of the controversy.

"There is great reason to hope that the strike will be averted. The railroad labor board has settled 700 disputes between the railroads and their employees about a year and a half. Many of these disputes contained the possibilities of strikes or lockouts."

"The board is anxious to get the present dispute out of the way, in order that the restoration of sound business conditions may proceed."

"All good Americans should refrain from loose talk and provocative language about either side of the controversy."

TRUCE BEING ARRANGED
DECLARES VIENNA DISPATCH

LONDON, (AP)—A truce between the troops of the Hungarian government and those supporting former Emperor Charles is being arranged to prevent further bloodshed, says a Vienna dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. The Horthy administration of Hungary continued to resist the advance of Charles' forces and are declared to have captured 150 prisoners.

FLIGHT OF ROBERT HORTHY IS REPORTED TO GERMANY

BERLIN, (AP)—Admiral Horthy, the Hungarian regent, fled from Budapest when forces commanded by former Emperor Charles advanced toward that city, says a Telexon dispatch to the Vossische Zeitung. It is said he left the reins of government in the hands of a provisional directorate composed of monarchists.

RAIL STRIKE SITUATION SENDS WHEAT PRICES UP

Market Shows Material Advances with Close Unsettled at 11 6-8 to 2 1-4 Cents Net Higher

CHICAGO, (AP)—Uncertainty regarding the railroad strike outlook had tendency today to prevent any decided movement of prices in the wheat market.

Sellers were somewhat in a market at the start but this condition was later reversed, the view being more generally taken that berish factors had been discounted, enough for at least the time being.

Over the market, opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 1c lower, with December $1.05 to 1.05 1/2, and May $1.10 1/4 to 1.10 1/2.

Later the market scored a material advance owing more or less to an unexpected falling off in the visible supply of wheat.

After opening unchanged, December 40 1-2 to 40 5-8c, corn hardened a little and then underwent a slight ease.

Uncertainty of receipts contributed subsequently as a 1-1/4 influence. The close was nervous, with 1-1/8 net higher, with December 47 7-8 to 48c.

Reserves

Many corporations and business men have been able to weather the late year of strap because of reserves which they had built from previous years. Such a reserve is useless unless it can be turned to account when needed.

The Twin Falls Trap is now harvesting what will probably be the largest crop it has produced. There will be many farmers again in possession of surplus funds. Now is the time to start such a reserve.

Sinn Feiners Gloaming.
At Sinn Fein headquarters here the attitude of hopefulness which had prevailed gave way to pessimism after the return of Michael Collins from Dublin.

The Sinn Fein, it was declared, will not accept allegiance to the king, at least until the bargain is finally made. The Sinn Fein, spokesman for it declared, was prepared to meet Mr. Bennett, and George's demand for a declaration of allegiance with a detailed argument.

DE VALERA'S MESSAGE IS CALLED CHALLENGE BY PREMIER
LONDON, (AP) — Prime Minister Lloyd George, answering a question in the house of commons today regarding De Valera's message to Bennett, called the publication of Mr. De Valera's message, especially in the midst of the peace negotiations, an addition to grave challenges.

The position of the government on the question involved in that telegram has been made abundantly clear," the premier continued. "We do not propose to receive from it, and the conference cannot proceed on any other basis."

of the defendant in the death of Meyer. A similar file of correspondence in connection with the trial, valued at $5,000 was offered in evidence but objection to its admission by the state was sustained.

Question Benetic to Heirs
Following the tender of testimony as to his connection with the prosecution by Attorney General Bennett, the state stated that under the existing laws the heirs of Meyer, in this case the defendant, could not profit through criminal acts of the defendant. Judge Wilton declined to rule that the state was not the law and considerable argument ensued.

County Prosecutor Stephan called attention to the fact that the question involved in the matter of the witness on the evidence sought to be put in by the defense was not as to the actual issue or non-issue of the policy on the life of Meyer but as to whether or not the defendant had reason to believe and did believe that such policy was in fact issued.

Insurance Man's Grilled
A very fair working knowledge of the inner mysteries of a life insurance company was put to the jury through the examination of Mr. Chadwick by Attorney Milne.

Blind forms in various ways by the company were read into record today and their exact function drawn from the witness. One letter dated December 7, 1920, written by the witness to G. D. Thomas was to the effect that the policy was issued but not delivered. Another such letter was written explaining the return of the note to Mr. Thomas and asking that the blank receipts for such note be secured and returned to the company.

Describes Office Methods
Mr. Chadwick resumed the stand after the noon recess. He declared that August 29, 1920, was the date of the policy and described the method of procedure in the case of the company with respect to the issuance of policies. Objection by the state to the introduction of certain testimony by Mr. Chadwick based upon documents in his possession was temporarily sustained.

WOMAN HELD FOR TRIAL
Mrs. Clara Richardson, resident of Milner, has been ordered held to the district court for trial on charge of assault with a deadly weapon and on charge of acting as a procurer. # Shifting Money Values of Modern Nations

To the American mind, which is used to a dollar that is worth one hundred cents, the low condition of money in Europe today is amazing. Much of it is due to the printing of tremendous quantities of paper cash, coupled with huge war debts.

The Russian Soviet tried to make money orders by turning out hundreds of millions in paper. The German mark is low because Germany not only has an enormous debt but must pay an enormous bill of damages as well. French francs are low for the reason that France has a debt of $1,160 for each person in its population, and so it goes with countries after countries.

But why the money and securities of the new countries such as Czechoslovakia and Poland should be discounted to a value that is not so understandable. Poland whose lands have been a part of the Russian Empire for a century, has now practically no national debt. Her currency is not so overvalued. Her farmers are reaping a crop.

PUNTS AND PASSES

We have before us a copy of the Filer Record, telling us of the football game of Friday a week ago, and incidentally we find in for a good bit of "razzling." Perhaps we have it coming, as through this column we will answer our esteemed contemporary in the first town west of here.

First of all let it be said that we did not at any time try to belittle the Filer team. On the contrary, we made the remark several times that Filer was a great deal better than most of the fans give them credit for.

They claim that we gave eight reasons for the low score made by Twin Falls, so we will look over these and see what's what:
No. 1. The field was slow, being soft and soggy, and in answer we will say that it was slow, and that the Twin Falls boys were used to playing on a hard ground.
No. 2. There was much dissatisfaction with the rulings of the referee. All of you that witnessed the game will say the same thing. We don't feel that the referee did make errors on any of the plays there, but a doubt that the DID make a good many of them.

No. 3. The Twin Falls boys didn't play up to their usual standard. We think they did, but if the main reasons was that they discovered too late that Filer was a little better than they had figured on.

No. 4. Filer outwitted the locals. That was only one personal opinion, and perhaps we are wrong.
No. 5. They were looking back for when they beat Filer. Filer was saying this, but if we did, we were in the wrong.
No. 6. They took Filer too lightly. Now you have the rest of all the trouble. Twin Falls DID take Filer too lightly, and right here let it be said that Twin Falls probably beat the best team they are going to play this year when they beat Filer. Filer was a surprise to all who saw the game, and before the season is over they will hear watching.

No. 7. Filer didn't have time to train his team. This part is true as far as long training is concerned. Several times the ball was snuffed and one was in position to receive it. Lack of backboard will cause these errors, and Evans was too busy whipping the team into shape to give them the necessary "skull" practice.

Chuck Evans did run across the field but it was only after said Bluman had batted a good many times that he lost control of his feelings. In contrast to Evans running across the field during the exhibition of French Deuman coming on the field EVERY time a Filer man was laid out. We personally called the referee. If this was according to rules, and he didn't hold the line. Well, we didn't either, so let's let it go at that. Far be it from this column to knock any team or anybody. We are here in the interests of good, clean sport, and we think the Filer Record for calling our attention to some statements we made that could be taken as knock but were not intended as such.

Animals Feed of Fish.
The assertion by White of Solborne that all quadrupeds which feed on fish are amphibious is erroneous. No one would regard the dog as an amphibious animal, while as for the cat, it is well known to be the one quadruped above all others that hates even wetting its feet. Yet, how, if any quadrupeds are fonder of fish, though one that actually engages in fishing is no doubt a rarity among the feline tribe.—Exchange.

AN UNCOMPLETED OBLIGATION

Because the American Red Cross received unusual attention during the war, is no reason for believing that in these less important times it is doing no work, or work of less importance.

Last year the national Red Cross spent approximately $10,000,000 in serving disabled service men and their families in ways that are not embraced within the scope of government activities.

Statement made through the office of the Surgeon General that the number of disabled would not be known before 1925, is being demonstrated each year. The office of the Twin Falls chapter has served several hundred cases, and work is not decreasing.

ENDING EASY MONEY

One of the reforms proposed by the new national budget system, endorsed by the chairman of the house appropriations committee, would root out one of the time-honored luxuries in federal finance.

Originally urged by administrative officials in the fear that congressional failure to appropriate each year might halt the work, they have been expanded to a custom that meant the appropriation of certain sums almost without investigation, just as a matter of routine.

THE WORLD'S WHEAT OROP

Leaving Russia out of the calculation, the world's wheat crop this year is, according to government estimates, just 4,800,000 bushels less than the five-year annual production before the war began.

STREET CARS AGAIN ARE RUNNING IN DES MOINES

Motor buses would be barred from the street cars, and the street cars would be run by the city. The council was to fix a date for a referendum on the franchise. A sliding fare rate, starting at 8 cents and decreasing as earnings increase, is provided in the franchise.

centuated this year by a seeming return to normal consumption of wheat in all the countries. The enormous drain from this country during the last summer indicated the purpose to have wheat. The demand continuing, prices naturally would be bid up even though we kept the usual surplus within our borders.

It must not be hoped to reform demand all at once. It will have to be accomplished step by step.

It's all right for a man to have grit, but he shouldn't let it get into his disposition.

TAKE THE OFFENSIVE

Now that Foch is about to visit this country, we shall doubtless hear quoted many times the famous message which he sent to Joffre during the crisis of the first battle on the Marne.

And we all know how he saved the day for France by forcing the Germans to stop their advance and withdraw to a point where they could mound the breach, which Foch's little wedge made in their line.

Again we say all honor to Foch who had the courage to take the offensive and may we get some personal inspiration from that fatal phrase: "I am attacking with the center."

THE DIPLOMATIC SHOW-DOWN

By S. E. KISLER

MY sweet, my love, my dearest, When all the skies are blue, And angels seem the nearest, My fancy flies to you.

I WISH it were tomorrow, Time drags so slowly, dear; Next week I'll have to borrow To pay my board, I fear; As matters go at present, I had no chance to say; The outlook's far from pleasant— But you, dear heart, are brave!

I KNOW, however badly I feel, my plans may be upset, That you will help me glacially To meet what must be met. If I wonder if you'd give it, I'll know, if you're sweetly As always, fondly.

Her Answer: DEAR: I have read your letter; You seem a little sad; I hope you may have better Luck soon than you have had. There always, please remember, Are more fish in the sea; Forget that December 1 getscha, Steve.

THAT WOULD ACCOUNT FOR HIS THEROY

Determination. A small boy goes to the desk of the branch library and announced proudly: "I'm going to read over all the books I've ever read." Then he added, as an afterthought: "I've read three."

NEW IN RUSSIA SAVING 100,000,000 RUBLES TO GETBACK TO AMERICA

Employe of Soviet Gross Confidential in Conversation with Correspondent; Says Muscovite Domain Must Be "Boiled Down"; Process May Continue 20 Years but Results Will Be Ascendancy of Two Great Peoples—Russians and Americans

TIPPLI, (By Staff Correspondent of The Associated Press)—The question appraised in the mind of all visitors to Russia is: "What can be done to reverse Russia's broken down economic and industrial situation." The writer put that query to a Russian-American Jew who had just finished his day's work as an alteration with a Red guard over the correspondent's right to occupy a seat in a train jammed to overflowing during the trip from Batsum to Tiflis.

The friendly Jew, a high official in the Soviet of Georgia, sent here from Moscow to carry out in some degree the latter's plan, sat down in the crowded car and talked about Russia from his point of view. "Russia's got to be boiled out, that's all," he explained. "The process may take 20 years but when it's finished there'll be but two great peoples on earth—Russians and the Americans. And they'll be as like as twin brothers, both rich in agriculture and in mineral wealth."

That Russia now needs in factory products, is trained engineers to put her on her feet, to help set to work her mines and whoever gets it on that job is bound to make big fortunes. "The next big immediate need of Russia is education. The Soviet is trying to do that. Every man in the Red Army is taught to read and write. But the job is a difficult one. Under the old regime, education was for the wealthy and educated few."

Reveals Perilous Needs.—This keen Russian-American told of himself and his present needs. He was earning a big salary, 100,000 rubles a month, entirely on money on the present rate of exchange and enough to keep his family going for about a day. The rest, the millions of rubles necessary for the other days, he made up by spending by 100,000 rubles a month, which he would be shot if they were known. It was either that or starvation. It was life in Batsum with malaria and a tablet of quinine, or one day, cost 20,000 rubles, or one day, cost 10,000 rubles, or one day, cost 5,000 rubles.

Up to 1910, he had been in America, had his three automobiles and a big importing agency, owned his home in New York. He had been everything in the revolution and had got out. So he was helping in the boiling out process. He's going to stick in because he can make his fortune back.

Had the old autocratic class because they tried to have everything for themselves, because there was a system that led to laziness, drunkenness and non-productiveness and finally the extinction of their class in the grand effort of ruinous revolution. All the good he could think to say for the Soviet was that it had tried hard. For one thing it had knocked out alcohol. Yes, that was one of the troubles with the old regime. So he drank, among all classes. In Georgia, where we were, there was still plenty to drink but toward Moscow drink thinned out until now was to be had. There was no money. The correspondent had been look for his pockets and his baggage—but to be caught smelling meant execution.

Another excellent institution of the Soviet was the Red Army, yet that was in a thing to be proud of. Discipline was fine. It was better than the czar's army. Now only men up to 24 were enrolled. There were five million of them and a great force of 100,000 men. "World United States Help?" Would the United States come in and help Russia? This thought was uppermost in his mind. He hoped so. He wanted to get back to America for a while. He wanted to go home together. Then he would return and do his fortune. He had taken out his first papers years ago but his business in Russia had prevented his taking out. There was one man who was from Philadelphia. Born there. So was his son.

It would take $1000 to get back to the United States, which meant 100,000 rubles. He was supposed to have, but he could never get together such a sum. Maybe he might arrange to get sent over on a commission, when Moscow would the American to accept the trade and he would be paid $5 in American money—500,000 rubles—which he had given his wife as a birthday present. Well, his wife had to make the best of things in Russia. One got used to the life in Russia. He was supposed to have a private car, but it was in the repair shop and tonight he was sleeping on the floor of the car were in. He could not find a car. He was glad to see the money. He was glad to see the money. He was glad to see the money.

NOBODY'S SAFE. The State Board of Education and Board of Regents of the University of Idaho, under the leadership of the Hon. J. H. Chappin, of the House of Representatives, have invited sealed proposals for the purchase of the buildings and grounds belonging to the State Normal School at Burley, Idaho.

Windbreaks Often Increase Crop Yields—Not Beneficial, Though, In All Respects

Whether the total effect of a windbreak is good or bad depends upon whether the benefits derived from its influence are greater or less than the injury resulting from the sapping and shading of the ground nearby. Some crops do better than others when wind is blown across them. Timothy and alfalfa are least affected. Grains which develop early in the spring, such as oats and wheat, are most affected, and corn takes an intermediate position.

Windbreak Sometimes Injurious.
The old argument that a windbreak uses more ground than it is worth continues to look up occasionally, supported mostly by farmers who have not investigated carefully. It is admitted, frankly, that the effect of windbreaks is not beneficial in every respect, and that there are ways in which it is quite plainly injurious. Every farmer knows that trees spread their roots extensively to fields seeking moisture; and they take not only the moisture but some of the nitrogen content of the soil also. Some trees are not so good as others in their way of having or not having a windbreak.

To determine the total effect, crop measurements were made by forestry experts in Michigan, Kansas, Iowa, and Minnesota. Average, rather than exceptional conditions were used, the object being to discover the effect of those factors which are continuous and affect every annual crop growth. Those measurements convinced officials of the forest service of the United States government that windbreaks in the crop lands in fields of small grain, in the protected zone, is sufficient to offset fully the effects of shading and sapping.

When wheat field protected by a dense windbreak the gain amounted to about 10 bushels an acre where the protection was most complete, and gradually became less as the distance from the windbreak increased. The total gain was about equal to the amount of grain that could have been grown on the shaded ground near the trees. The season in which the measurements were taken was not one of high winds, nor did it lack moisture. It appeared, therefore, that in a windy year the gain for the field would much more than balance the loss.

In another instance, on the south of an acre and honey locust trees, the crop benefited very materially from the accumulation of snow in the lee, and the observation of this moisture. Here cultivation was possible within four feet of the trunks of the trees, so that the increased yield of the field, amounting to about 14 bushels an acre at the highest point, was practically free gain. The total gain for the whole field amounted to the yield of a strip of ground as long as the windbreak, and three times as wide as its height. Dr. had the windbreak was 20 feet high occupied a strip of ground 60 feet wide, the gain in the field crop would have paid the rental on this ground.

The corn crops showed more consistent and marked benefits from protection than any others. In the region concerned the summer winds are almost wholly from the south, so that the only effective row and belts, extended in an east-west direction. The effect on corn was very marked for a short distance on the south side of such windbreaks, and for a much greater distance on the north side. Fields of young corn showed much better growth in the area protected and warmed by the windbreak.

Extent of Tree Belt.
The effect was visible early in the season, which was rather cool. Height measurements on one field showed the plants to be four and one-half feet high in the first 15 rows next to the windbreak while beyond this protected zone the height was only two and one-half feet. This luxuriant growth was still in evidence at the end of the season, and not only produced more fodder, but bigger and heavier ears. The field showed a production of 50 bushels to the acre in the protected area, and only 44 bushels in the exposed area. The net gain, including the area shaded by the trees, was equivalent to the yield of a strip twice as wide as the height of the trees, which were 35 feet high. The increased yield paid, then, for a strip 70 feet wide. The windbreak happened to be wider than that but that was not meant to afford the same amount of protection. With ordinary field crops the farmer may count on a benefit from windbreak protection which will compensate for the loss of the area used by the trees. Under middle west conditions —Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Dakota, Nebraska, and Kansas, with whose winds does not exceed two or three times its height will more than pay for itself, regardless of the timber it may produce.

PUBLIC TAKING NO CHANGES IN ROAD BUILDING

Capitalist "Holds Sack" Until Southern Outlet is Operating. Committee Says

DAILY BULLETIN table with columns for Twin Falls City, Twin Falls Section, Kimberly, Hamma, Filer, Clover, Oatfield, Salmon, Elko County, Still out, and Total.

(By Publicity Committee)

When a man wishes to sell a farm, a house, or a mill, he lists it with a real estate agent. The farm, the mill, or the house is sold, a few papers signed, the agent is paid his commission and everything is satisfactory all around.

A man desires to have a store constructed for him by a man with capital to invest. The merchant must first show the capitalist that there is a good and sufficient need for his proposed store building then put up a bond that he will rent it when constructed. The building is finished and in time both the merchant and the capitalist make money from their transaction.

A rancher wants to borrow money to purchase a few blooded horses, cows or pigs. First of all, he must have shown his ability to handle the money, to make it a success. If he has, he obtains the necessary capital, buys his stock, makes a greater success with them, pays the banker the interest and principal and is satisfactory.

We believe we could refer these statements to any newspaper and have them verified. Now then: Southern Idaho wants an outlet for its products to the Pacific coast and the Orient. We have waited 15 years for some capital to go "crazy," or somewhat equally against all rules of good business, and construct this railroad for us. We are willing to put up a bond to have a store building constructed for us, to put up a bond to pay the banker interest, to buy our stock, then why should we not be willing to pay the banker his commission for disposing of the securities to the capitalist to help him obtain capital to construct this railroad?

The money man is taking all the chances of the road being a financial success. It's his money that is being used for 20 years without return. And, he's the man who will have to fight to get our business and hold it off.

When all else is said, these facts remain. We are not asking any changes, our notes are not due until we repeat "and" this railroad is finished. Until that time arrives, possibly in eighteen months or more, our bond is not due. If the road is not constructed they are absolutely worthless to anybody, even the maker of them. Besides when these notes are payable we shall have the road built and our notes get in no other way. No country that we know of is as over and have been for 15 years, has ever had a more legitimate proposition offered to the railroad and are as follows:

LYNX STALKS HUNTERS BUT MEETS DEATH

O. M. Gates Kills "Cat" That Follows Hunters Through Nevada Basin

O. M. Gates shot no deer while on a hunting trip through the Shoshone Basin last week, but he brought back a trophy he prizes more highly than any trophy or antlered monarch of the hills or waste.

This souvenir of the trip is a lynx, full grown and adorned with a pelt in the height of furry glory. Mr. Gates shot a bullet through the great cat's heart as it stalked the hunting party in the hills on the Nevada side of the basin last Friday. The snayer will have his trophy mounted.

The lynx, which is a member of its kind, measuring three feet eleven inches, was detected by Mr. Gates as it furiously watched Gates and A. B. Shrock from a covert place in the brush. A slight rustle attracted attention of the hunters, but immediately Gates and Shrock started for a quiet investigation of the cause of the stalking and came up with the lynx. After some minutes had elapsed in the survey of the surroundings, Mr. Gates, suspicious of an appearance in the brush close by, aimed the rifle and sent a missile at the suspicious spot, expecting either by the concussion or the whistle of the bullet to set up some action in the brush.

Nothing resulted, and after desisting a little more time to a quiet investigation of the party started to move away. Mr. Gates, still suspicious, maintained a watch over the spot he had shot at and was rewarded by the sighting of the cat of the grey head of a large animal. He shot again and this time saw his quarry leap into the air with a bullet through its heart.

Spencer Denies Responsibility For Car Crash

Fred A. Spencer, former street commissioner, who is alleged to have struck a municipal car driven by Policeman Ray Brown last Friday night, says he is innocent of the accident. Mr. Spencer says Brown struck his car. Brown admits that he did not see Spencer's machine until the collision occurred, according to Magistrate Paul R. Taber.

CRACKSMEN OPEN ROGERSON BANK - VAULT, GET $50.00

Hard Work for Small Reward is Portion of Salmon District Robbers

Smashing off the combination turn with a heavy sledge, cracksmen opened the vault of the Bank of Rogerson, some time last night. They procured about $50 in cash, scattered valuable private and bank papers over the floor and made their escape.

Report of the bank break was made to Sheriff E. B. Sherman by officials of the railroad in addition early today. Chief Deputy Jim J. Brown, with Photographer James W. Whiting, left immediately to conduct an investigation of conditions and take film impressions of finger and handprints. The investigators returned this afternoon with some more or less tangible evidence in the way of clues. The money stolen was received at the bank late Saturday afternoon after the time lock had been turned on the strong lock. No papers of value are missing, as far as an inventor's and bank officials are concerned. Criminal authorities are operating on the theory that the Rogerson cracksmen are the same who have worked in Hazelton and Jerome lately.
