

NAVAL HOLIDAY COMES EASY FOR GREAT BRITAIN

Real Question is Whether Japan Will Accept Position of "Permanent Inferiority", English Writer Declares

LONDON, (AP)—The American plan for a two-year naval holiday and the scrapping of all but a limited number of warships calls for much less exertion on the part of Great Britain than the United States and Japan, in the view of the naval correspondent of the Daily Mail.

Defends Upon Japan
The proposed sacrifice, he says, "would be a heavy one for Japan and the U. S. States, but comparatively trifling for Great Britain, as the latter has not yet incurred any great outlay for the new ships just ordered." "The American scheme involves no injury to British interests, for in plain fact the British navy today is third in post-war ships and ocean-going submarines, the two factors which will probably count for the most in future naval warfare. "The real question is whether Japan will be content to accept conditions which place her navy in a position of permanent inferiority."

British Takes Lead
Other correspondents point out that Great Britain has already taken the lead in the reduction of naval armaments, her progressive scrapping of warships having amounted up to more than 500 vessels, of which 200 were destroyed.

First Egyptian Inscriptions Found in Palestine are Brought to Light

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., (AP)—What archeologists say may prove one of the most important discoveries ever made in Palestine was reported by Dr. Clarence B. Fisher, head of the University of Pennsylvania's expedition to the holy land, in a letter made public today. It was a large stone tablet on which were engraved about 30 parallel lines in Egyptian hieroglyphics, unearthed at Beisan (Beth-San of the Bible), first Egyptian inscription ever found in Palestine.

NEW SHIP LINE SCHEDULED

Service Between New Orleans and Baltic Ports European Enterprise

NEW ORLEANS, La., (AP)—Establishment by European lines of steamship service between New Orleans and Baltic and Mediterranean ports was announced here today.
The East Asia company of Copenhagen and Danzig will begin service early next month, while the Societe des Affranchissements de France will begin sailings to French, Italian and Spanish ports on the Mediterranean in January.

Cheerful Meals
Air, light and sunshine are bestowers of health and cheerfulness. For this reason an effort should be made always to have meals in the brightest room, even if it means having breakfast at the back of the house and dinner at the front. It usually can be managed if the housewife will. Meals taken with an open window also make for health; a shut door should obviate draughts, and the open window lets in blessed air and light, hand in hand with happiness.

Around the Clock
"Yes, boys," continued the steep-leak, who was telling "true" and thrilling stories, "yes, I was working a clock tower one afternoon about 12 minutes to 1, when I slipped, slid down the roof and caught on the lower band of the clock. There I dangled while the town folk collected below. So I yelled to 'em, 'Say, you folks, go home to your supper. It'll be close to half an hour before I drop.'—Houston Post.

Girl Hikes Alone Across the Continent to Secure a Degree in New York City

Covering the long, long trail, by way of the railroad tracks, to her goal, New across the continent, alone, to the metropolis, the greatest city in the republican city, in order to attend Columbia, Miss Theresa Trump, of Fern, a small university, where she will study daily, Washington, has arrived in New for a doctor's degree in philosophy. The above photograph of Miss Trump typifies part of her daily routine on her walk. "We see her getting food for breakfast, a succulent trout from a key brook, then washing up at a roadside brook. She cooks her meals on a bonfire, and then, tramp, tramp, tramp, she continues along the railroad tracks to her destination."

FARMERS STUDY HUGE PROBLEMS

National Convention in Topeka Takes Up Business of Vital Importance

TOPEKA, Kan., (AP)—With the agricultural industry generally facing critical problems, the annual meeting of the National Farmers' Educational Co-operative Union of America, to be held here November 15, 16 and 17 will have before it business of unusually vital importance to its organization which now reaches into 33 states. According to officials of the union, the following represent the most important matters to be considered:

Study Market Methods
Better methods of marketing farm products, with especial reference to grain, livestock, cotton and staples. The transportation problem as it affects agriculture.
National legislation affecting farming, involving well-spread reference to strengthening the farm loan act, present credit legislation and a more adequate system of farm finance.
Approximately 300 delegates have been named to attend the meeting. They will bring reports from the various states on the activities of the union during the last year.
The activities of the Farmers' union include: Mutual insurance companies, grain elevators, cotton and tobacco warehouses, state supply houses or exchanges, terminal elevators, and warehouses, creamery, milk condensaries, jobbing associations, and livestock commission houses in Omaha, Sioux City, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Mo.

On Speakers' List
A number of prominent agriculturists will address the meeting, including: President C. S. Barrett, Union City, Ga.; Secretary A. C. Davis, C. H. Hyde, of Oklahoma, member of "The Committee of Seventeen"; Maurice McAdiffe, Salina, Kan., president of the Kansas Farmers' union; Charles A. Lyman, Washington, D. C., secretary of the national board of farm organizations; L. M. Rhodes, Jacksonville, Fla., commissioner of markets; Fred Millard, Los Angeles, Cal., secretary of the California division.

The states in which the Farmers' union now is organized are: Washington, Oregon, California, Colorado, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, North Carolina and Virginia.

FILER DISTRICT FARMER CLAIMS "BIGGEST COLT"

PILER, Idaho. (Special).—North Musser, a Filer district rancher, has on his place what he believes to be a record colt for size at six months and 15 days old. The colt, a thoroughbred Percheron, weighs 1100 pounds. No statistics yet produce record of any other colt of any breed outbreeding the Musser animal at his age.

Why Unlikely to Go Back
How many people would be willing to acknowledge that they believe it to be a bad luck to return after leaving the house, for something they have forgotten? Some popular superstitions may be explained psychologically, and this is one of them. The psychologists agree as to the bad luck part of it, but say that the bad luck comes not so much in the going back for the article as in the forgetting of it in the first place. This shows that you do not keep your mind sufficiently upon the details of what you are doing.

Like to Write Letters
The English-speaking race is the most industrious in the world in the matter of letter writing. The Australians take first place, with 15 letters per head per year; Canada and the United Kingdom come third with 12. The German average is only 40, and Italy is a long way behind with only 11.

EINSTEIN'S THEORY MAY ASSIST MATHEMATICIAN

Scientist Describes Experiments to Determine Velocity of Light

CHICAGO, (AP)—Recent experiments by means of which it is hoped to test the accuracy of the Einstein theory, were described in a paper prepared by Professor Albert A. Michelson, of the University of Chicago, to be read today before the National Academy of Sciences.

The apparatus developed by Professor Michelson consists of a mechanism for the accurate measurement of the velocity of light, which he says he hopes to have perfected by next summer so that the exact speed may be measured within two miles per second. As to the Einstein theory, he said he did not know of any definite facts developed this summer at the Mount Wilson observatory in California, which either proved or disproved it. His experiments are not yet completed.
"The practical results obtained should the experiment prove successful would be the use of it as a substitute for the elaborate trigonometric surveys, such as determining the distance between two mountains from 50 to 100 miles apart," he said. "If we knew the velocity of light absolutely, such measurements would be a simple matter."
"More accurate light measurements would certainly aid us in gaining a more accurate knowledge of the structure of the universe. It might also be of aid to artillery officers, especially the coast artillery in the preparation of firing data."

FOCH IS GUEST OF BOSTON

GRIDIRON TITLE NOW HINGES ON OHIO-ILLINOIS

Western Conference Championship Interest Centers in the Saturday's Game

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The western conference football championship virtually hinges on the Ohio State-Illinois game next Saturday. Should Ohio State win, as expected by most of the experts, the conference championship would be shared by Ohio State and Iowa, provided Iowa beats Northwestern, as the two unbeaten conference teams. The Northwestern game is generally conceded to Iowa as an easy victory. Wisconsin still claims a chance on the title, however. It bases its claim upon the possibility of upsets for both Ohio State and Iowa and victory by Wisconsin over Chicago next Saturday.

PUNTS AND PASSES

(By FULLBACK.)

As we have said before, Monday is the day devoted to playing Friday's game over again, so here goes.

In the first place the Twin Falls team has no ability to offer, and justly so, as they were beaten by a superior team.

East High sent a team up here, that ranks with the best high school teams in the country, and rather than feel that they were disgraced, the local boys should feel that although the score shows them on the short end they played the better ball. East High didn't fumble quite so many times, and when they did it didn't hurt, but when the boys lost the oval get away from them it meant the loss of a touchdown. It seemed as though the breaks were against our boys, but as a general thing the breaks are always with the winners. This is true in all sports.

As we said, there isn't any ability to offer, but there were a few flaws that may have changed the score.

Before saying the things that we did wrong let us look over the bright spots. Let us talk about the wonderful playing of Bob Baker. Never in the history of Bob's football career did he cover himself with so much glory. His playing Friday was marvelous, both on the offensive and defensive. Not once did Bob fail to tear a hole when a play went through right tackle, and not once did a man get through his side of the field. His tackling was absolutely perfect, and on two occasions he tackled his man after kicking off. This is itself stamps him as a player of excellence. Bob was under a big strain, and only those near him realized what he went through.

Some of the fans said that the game dragged, that the boys were slow in making their plays. That may be true, but there was reason, and a good one at that. Just those few who were criticizing the slowness of the game were the cause, and their incessant yelping and howling. It is impossible for a referee to give a signal and be heard, with a bunch of would-be coaches sitting in the bleachers yelling like a bunch of Ute Indians. This was very noticeable in Friday's game, and it is to be regretted that high school didn't call on those wise owls for consultation before the game so that they could keep quiet during the contest. Nothing could be done about it, but to be unable to hear signals, and to let a football game every minute detracts from the play. It's a clinch that everybody wants Twin Falls to win, so from now on let's let Clint Evans do the coaching of the team, and I am sure that Twin Falls WILL win their remaining games.

Heard several comments on Evans taking Cliff Fox out when he did, and the fans were well pleased with the move, as we need Cliff for remaining games that involve the state championship. Once more Clint Evans showed himself 100 per cent smart.

The Twin Falls boys were a bit nervous, but who wouldn't be nervous with 800 howlers every week watching every move. Personally the writer thinks that the boys did exceedingly well, and we figured that Ball Lake would make at least four touchdowns. Any time a team has a few letdowns, more can hold a 10 letter man team to two touchdowns they are entitled to a great deal of praise.

There was quite a bit of talk about East High sending up a bunch of second string men, and for the benefit of those who don't know, we will state that the team that played last Friday have practiced for this game for the last three weeks, and each evening they lined up against the other team, and it was only at the last minute that Coach Bonney decided that team to send up, so, so evenly were they matched; and that, I think that the best team was apt to beat Twin Falls.

Coach Bonney of East High knew what he was up against when he tackled with Twin Falls and defeat meant the ending of his wonderful record. It is a clinch that his feared Twin Falls more than he did Taylor, and that is why we feel that his best team came up here.

We are like Clint Evans: We feel that the best team was there and no ability to offer, but we can put in a few "ifs," and see what might have happened.

If we hadn't fumbled when we were on the five-yard line.

If "Bevo" Beers had stayed home;

If Puckett had crossed the line on his 40-yard run before being tackled;

If instead of watching Puckett race down the field, some of the boys had given him interference;

If we hadn't tried so many forward passes, and stuck to straight football; If "Speed" Newman had begun with the team this year.

When it is remembered that Ball Lake made but two touchdowns, and both of them through end runs, that the fastest man in this section had the ball, we can not help but congratulate Coach Evans and the football squad on their wonderful showing. Evans is a team that was willing and a team that kept trying all the time.

In looking over the team's playing last Friday, we find quite a few flaws, but we are going to leave it to Coach Evans to straighten them up. Of course, the average fan in the bleachers saw only the mistakes. They always do when a team loses, but when they win, the team plays perfect ball.

Evans is an old hand at coaching, and it would be a good idea to let him run the team, and instead of hammering, let's boost. If we have a suggestion to offer, see Evans before a game, and not during the game or after it has been played.

The surprise of the season came Saturday, when Wendell beat the Rupert team, 16 to 14. This clinched the championship for the playing Twin Falls for the championship of Idaho, and now we have to go to Wendell to settle that question. Earlier in the season, Twin Falls beat Wendell by the score of 133 to 0, and now it is that very team that we must defend to give us a chance at the state championship.

The Wendell game will be played at Wendell Friday, November 18.

The Saturday Statesman gives out a headline that Ball Lake EASILY defeated Twin Falls. If it is 14 to 0, it is a landslide, and it is an easy victory, then what in the name of heaven would you label a 42 to 0 game? This is the score of last year's Boise-Twin Falls affair, and you the Twin Falls people didn't figure that it was an easy victory. Far be it from us to start anything, but we do hope the boys will wipe out that word EASILY when they play Boise on Thanksgiving day.

Theatres

(By FIRST NIGHTER.)

Much interest attaches the forth coming season in classic drama at the Lavington theatre commencing Wednesday, November 16, with the eminent actor, John E. Keller. The repertoire will include "The Merchant of Venice" on Wednesday, and "Macbeth" on Thursday. Keller is one of the few authoritative interpreters of the nightmarish dramas that have ever been staged and is supported by a company worthy of the star, the cast including many names long prominent in the legitimate drama.

Norma Talmadge in "The Sign on the Door" is the offering at the New Orpheum for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The settings for this picture were taken at Palm Beach and New York, and the cast includes several well known people as Charles Rickman, who has appeared opposite Mrs. Talmadge in most of her successful productions. Lew Cody and Paul McAllister. It was written by Channing Pollock, and gives Mrs. Talmadge abundant opportunity for the display of her extraordinary emotional and dramatic ability. A two-part Keystone comedy completes the bill.

The Rialto theater for Monday and Tuesday has one of the biggest shows of the season. It has undertaken to give a one-hour vaudeville show, which includes the Hippodrome road show of four clever acts. Added to this, the five-reel special, "The Marriage Plot" featuring Frank Mayo, will be shown.

"One Hour Before Dawn," the picture at the Idaho for Monday and Tuesday, is one of the best mystery pictures filmed this year. If some one told you that one hour before dawn you were going to kill a man, what would you do? A Pathe News, and a clever two-part comedy round up the bill.

China to Have Large Mint

One of the largest mints in the world, with a possible daily output of 500,000 silver dollars, is to be erected at Shanghai, China, at a cost of about $2,000,000, under the direction of an American expert. When completed in about two years, it will absorb some 14 tons of silver a day in its task of establishing a standardized currency in China, where the present unit of value, the Mexican dollar, competes with as many varieties of coin as there are provinces. The Chinese steel, now used for retooling, is not a coin at all, but a makeshift plug of silver, the value of which varies in different parts of the country.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Disappointed Hope. "Hiram," said Mrs. Cornsoul, "our boy-Josh has learned to play a regular tune on his new violin." "That boy won't do nothing but waste time," said Mrs. Cornsoul, "but a regular tune?" "I was educated him for leader of a jazz orchestra."

REVOLUTION IS HAPPENING IN CALIFORNIA

Killing of Six Rebels Seems to End Trouble in Lower California

SAN DIEGO, Cal., (AP)—With Governor Epifanio E. Ybarra personally on the ground and General Rodriguez in command of the defending troops, an insipient revolution just below the border line in Lower California appears to-day to have been snuffed out by the killing of six of the rebels and the scattering of the remainder of the band of fifty men. Conditions in Lower California were reported quiet. The Mexican officials expressed confidence in the ability to suppress any disorders.

Border Remains Closed

Travel across the line into Lower California remained closed under orders of the Mexican officials. Immediately following the trouble yesterday the line was ordered closed to all except those who constituted the engagement of owners at the Tijuana race track. Travel yesterday six miles west and south of Tijuana, in San Antonio canyon, where a federal scouting detachment commanded by Colonel American came across a band of fifty revolutionists. Both sides immediately opened fire, according to the report by Colonel American, four of the rebels being killed in the engagement. Two captives were taken and executed in Tijuana upon their refusal to give information. No casualties were suffered by the federal troops. Scouting parties of federal soldiers were again in the field this morning. It is believed that the band crossed the border from the American side early yesterday, as a number of empty boxes of cartridges were found near Imperial Beach. American customs officers were maintaining a vigil along the border, and the Mexican revolutionists from crossing into Mexico.

shines forth with a peculiar radiance from his last testament. The first provision is that his debts shall be paid promptly. All the world may find an example of kept obligations. The second item makes generous provision for his wife, and then comes the direction at her death that all his slaves shall be given freedom.

"Next follow devices of funds to aid education of poor orphaned children, and for the endowment of a 'University' in a central part of the United States." Another specific bequest goes along to Liberty Hall, near Washington and Lee university, at Lexington, Va. A list of debtors are forgiven their debts. To each of five nephews he gave one of his swords with "An injunction not to unleash them for the purpose of shielding blood except it be for self-defense or in defense of their country and its rights, and in the latter case to keep them unslighted and prefer falling with them in their hands to the relinquishment thereof." There is no selection of words clearest more eloquently to express the full duty and obligation of a good citizen to his country. Let us be thankful that the spirit of that nation has been borne in the nation he founded and animates it even to this day.

"An 'eternity of good citizenship and patriotic surrender' this last will and testament has been an inspiration many times to me. I commend its thoughtful reading to whoever would emulate his example. Indeed, as we are gathered here, representatives of a grateful and reverent nation, to recognize the consummation of a more public beneficence inspired by him, I can think of nothing more appropriate than to urge the study of the farewell address and the last will and testament, as complements of each other. Neither of them can be fully appreciated without the other. The farewell address was the final adjuration of the soldier, the statesman, the founder. The will and testament was the last word of the Christian citizen, the loving husband, the devoted kinsman—and the reverent man of business.

"I am prone to believe they contain a chart by which the captains and pilots of a world in distress, seeking freedom from battering storms and raging unknown deeps, might well by the course of civilization itself.

Memorial and Shrine

"Within a brief century and a half, the American people under Washington's inspiration created a great nation, added to the dominion of liberty and of opportunity, and, we may hope, afforded a helpful example to the world. It is a not a small accomplishment without heavy sacrifices. At fearful cost we had to wipe out an ambiguity in the constitution and re-establish union where disunion threatened. In a conflict well nigh as wide as the world, we were called to draw the sword for humanity and the relief of oppression. Very recently we have passed to speak tribute to those who sacrificed in that struggle for civilization's preservation. We cannot too often or too earnestly repeat that tribute, and we consecrate this memorial as a memorial and a shrine, in remembrance to all the future of the services and sacrifices of our heroes of this world."

SQUAD'S TIME BUSILY OCCUPIED WHILE HERE

Aids to Former Soldiers Find Plenty to Do in Twin Falls; Gone to Flier

During the stay of the "Clean-Up" squad in Twin Falls, 175 claims of former service men were inspected. The squad left today for Flier to remain until November 17. Inspecting similar claims.

Each day of the day the squad attended to a larger daily average of inspections in Twin Falls than is usual, according to official statements. The work was pushed hard with little respite during last week's stay. Important among the cases considered last Saturday were two requiring hospitalization. In those instances the claimants were ordered to the public health section in Boise. The patients will enter the hospital as soon as business affairs are settled here.

To those claimants who are unable to appear before the squad members prior to conclusion of the schedule in this district instructions are issued to take their cases before Red Cross officials for consideration.

RAILROAD FUND IS INADEQUATE

The latter continues:

To bind myself to make the survey in 30 days would be asking of me an impossible task, as a complete location will require a longer period. Our plans for an engineering corps to go into the field on October 1 were unannounced; also arrangements had been made for a representative of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce to accompany the writer to Twin Falls and make a study of the situation. The various cities there explaining the great advantages of the San Francisco market, but the raising of the house caused us to have reached the point where we could accomplish what was desired by such a concerted action, and inasmuch as it has been reported that the survey was made with the understanding that the entire amount was to be only $300,000 instead of $500,000, it would seem to the writer that this also had a retarding influence.

Our arrangements now still on, as above stated, and as soon as an opportunity comes and my health permits (which is all the time improving) we can carry out these plans. The holding company was organized for the purpose of safeguarding the honor of the citizens of Nevada and Idaho, as well as safeguarding the same for the writer and your honorable body are held responsible to do this and hold in trust all moneys and notes which have been subscribed to date, and the amounts which will hereafter be subscribed, and there will be ways and means devised to raise the balance of the fund.

Those who state that the writer cannot finance this deal do not know what they are talking about, or are enemies of the entire project. Negotiations are now under way with one of the most substantial and contracting firms in the United States for the construction of the railroad, and as soon as possible a visit will be made to that region over the proposed route by one of its engineers.

In closing, the writer wishes to state he has expended more time and money on this project than any other during his experience of a lifetime, and the delay cannot all be attributed to him, as the raising of the bonus, due to financial conditions and other seeming obstacles, have all had their retarding influence. The writer will get the least compensation out of this project of any one interested, and I trust you gentlemen, who are so vitally interested, will aid him in bringing this project to a successful conclusion.

Machine That Harvests Rice

Rice has to be harvested by hand. It is thought to be work which would always have to be done by human labor, but a machine has been invented which moves through the deep mud and gathers the grain. It is capable of performing many of the duties of the ordinary tractor.

Flowers Found New Homes

It is not generally known that the belladonna lily was procured from South America in 1833, while the Guernsey lily was brought from Japan and was first cultivated at the beginning of the Seventeenth century in the garden of an Englishman in Paris. This plant is said to have derived its name from the following episode: A ship, laden with bulbs, was wrecked off the coast of Guernsey. A number of the bulbs were cast upon the shore and took root in the soil, where they grew rapidly.

Friction Match First Used in 1827

The friction match, said to be the invention of John Walker, an English druggist, was introduced in the year 1827. Walker's match consisted of a wooden splint or stick or cardboard coated with sulphur and tipped with a mixture of chlorate of potash, sulphide of antimony and powdered gunpowder. The match was ignited by being drawn through a piece of bent sandpaper.

Today's Markets

WHEAT MARKET TUMBLES —AFTER INITIAL UPRUSH

CHICAGO, (AP)—Wheat prices turned upward today in the early dealings after a hesitating start. Initial declines were absorbed to a lack of aggressive buying. Later, however, eastern interests took $7.45 ball bids with considerable force, and a general advance ensued, helped by prospects of a falling off in the United States visible supply. Total, continued drought southwest and a blizzard in Winnipeg. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 3-4 lower, with December $1.08 1/2 to $1.09 3/4, and May $1.12 5/8 to $1.13 1/4, were followed by material gains all around.

Heavy profit taking and reports that foreign buyers were tending to be more hard winter grain at equal to Chicago December led subsequently to a sharp tumble in prices here. The close was weak 3 1/4 to 3 7/8 net lower, with December $1.05 5/8 to $1.06 3/4 and May $1.09 1/2 to $1.09 5/8.

Scarcities of rural offerings to arrive had a bullish effect on corn. After opening unchanged to 3-4 higher, hard winter grain at equal to Chicago December led subsequently to a sharp tumble in prices here. The close was weak 3 1/4 to 3 7/8 net lower, with December $1.05 5/8 to $1.06 3/4 and May $1.09 1/2 to $1.09 5/8.

Although the seaboard was after opening unchanged to 3-4 higher, hard winter grain at equal to Chicago December led subsequently to a sharp tumble in prices here. The close was weak 3 1/4 to 3 7/8 net lower, with December $1.05 5/8 to $1.06 3/4 and May $1.09 1/2 to $1.09 5/8.

Outs landed with other grain, starting a slide off to 1-5c up, May $7 5/8, and then becoming firmer. Provisions were easy owing chiefly to a setback in hog values.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, (AP)—Shorts used the United States government's disbursement proposals as a basis for attacking the general stock list today. Steels and allied issues were lower by 50 to 100 points. Sales approximated 850,000 shares.

Shares of companies whose operations may suffer curtailment—should the disarmament proposals of the United States government be carried out, were moderately heavy at the opening of today's stock market. Bethlehem Steel fell 1 1/2 points, Crucible Steel 1 1/4 and United States Steel 1 1/2 point. Other stocks the market was fairly strong, especially for oils and equipments. Standard Oil of New Jersey added 1 1/2 points to last week's steady advance, and most of the other oils, domestic and foreign, Mexican Petroleum, excepted, were higher by fractions to one point. Prices dropped irregularly later, however, as pressure against the steel and oils became more general.

Industrial, rail and specialties were at lowest prices of many days in the final hour, although call money rates eased to 4 per cent. The closing was weak. Government bonds and other domestic bonds were irregularly lower.

The next meeting of the Salmon Social club will be held with Mrs. Owen on November 17. This club has taken an intermission of a month during the busy time of harvest, and resumed its meetings but recently when the full membership assembled at the home of Mrs. William F. Mikow. At this meeting plans were made for the Christmas celebration which is to feature the season's work of the club. The hostesses named by Mrs. Grant Angle, served a delightful luncheon.

The Altar society of St. Edward's church met at the home of Mrs. M. R. Benson on Ninth avenue north Thursday afternoon with 25 members in attendance. Devotional services were conducted by Mrs. L. E. Ballard, and in the absence of the leader for the afternoon, the chapters from the study book were read. The assembly heard a discussion by Mrs. J. A. Johnson of the report of the Women's Synodical society. W. Zenas Smith sang beautifully, and the hostesses for the social hour were the Mesdames Harry Smith, A. D. Stafford, C. R. Scott and D. P. Sweet.

Mrs. Mary Miller, state secretary of the women's auxiliary, and the Rev. John Oberholzer, from Tacoma, Wash., supervisor of religious education for the Episcopal church in the state of Washington, spoke before the members of the Episcopal guild at Parish hall on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Miller gave an inspiring talk along the line of opportunity for service offered by the women's auxiliary in church and hospital. The Rev. Oberholzer stressed the need of increased and careful religious education for the young to remain Christian. The speaker stated that at present between 55 per cent and 60 per cent of the adults of the country had no church affiliations. A social hour followed during which Mrs. C. F. Green, Mrs. Worth, Mrs. Philip Thomas served tea. Mrs. T. M. Robertson and Mrs. Trentoway presiding at the tea table. About 30 members were present.

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America)

SCOUT IDEALS

I am interested in the boy scout movement because I believe in boys. I have five boys of my own. The boys of today will be the men of tomorrow. The problems of tomorrow will be solved, not by our boys, writes John D. Rockefeller, Jr. in Boys' Life.

A well-trained, industrious, high-minded son is the greatest heritage any father can leave. Yet we fathers are often putting business, politics, social work, almost anything else, first and giving our boys only the leavings of time.

I believe the boy scout movement is a great and powerful influence in helping boys to come into their own. This it does by holding up the ideals and inspiring boys to attain to them. You can lead boys, but you cannot drive them.

What are the ideals that the boy scout movement holds up to the boys? They are found in the scout oath and scout law.

"On my honor," The boy of honor is trustworthy. He speaks and acts the truth, and is always to be relied upon. He is also loyal and stands by his friends.

The boy of honor is chivalrous, courteous to women and girls; he shows reverence for things that are sacred and holy. He is likewise a good sportsman, taking his part in sport for sport's sake; just as good a loser as he is a winner.

"On my honor, I will do my best." How the world needs those who will do their best, and who do not seek to see how little work they can do in a day, but how much service they can render. No restriction in the output of industry, but thrift in consuming the rewards of industry in their motto.

I believe profoundly in a definition of success which I heard many years ago. It is this: "Success consists in doing the common things of life uncommonly well." That is real success. It is within the reach of anyone who is willing to do his best.

"On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country." What countless illustrations of a high sense of duty the late war has given us!

"On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the scout law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight." The desire to keep fit for the supreme moment of conflict when it came helped many a soldier boy in the late war resist temptations which otherwise would have pressed him sorely. Physical fitness induces to bravery. Fit mentally means cheerfulness. Fit morally means clean mind, free from impure thoughts and desires, which is essential to clean living.

In somewhat rough but forceful language, which might be paraphrased as follows, did a father give advice to his son who was just leaving home for college: "So live that when you can take any blank line in the eye and tell him where to go."

To you, scoutmasters and leaders of this great movement, let me say that it is not so much what you say that influences the boys of your troops as what you are and do.

The power of example, whether for good or evil, cannot be overestimated. If your life is not what it should be, unless you are prepared to so change it as to make it a worthy example to your boys, it were far better for you to quit scouting.

And you, boys, will never know until you have become men what an influence for good you may have on the men who are your leaders. May you help them as they are seeking to help you, to be always true to the scout oath and scout law.

SCOUTS' ENTERTAIN SHUT-OUT

Following the Good Turn rule of their organization, some boy scouts in Montana recently performed their play, "A Strenuous Afternoon."

WHAT SCOUTS ARE DOING

Some Harrisburg boy scouts are making a canoe trip to Sunbury, Pa. This it does by holding up the ideals and inspiring boys to attain to them. You can lead boys, but you cannot drive them.

Boy scouts of Concord, N. H., are making a unique educational trip to Washington. They will make stops at New York and Philadelphia, and when in Washington will have an interview with the President, who is also the president of the Boy Scouts of America.

New England Place Names

An interesting set of New England place names is drawn from the Bible. In these names, quite as much as in those brought from the home land, the early settlers expressed their deepest selves. Hebron, Gilead, Lebanon, Canaan, Bethlehem, Sharon, Mt. Carmel, Goshen, and Jerusalem are found in Connecticut alone. The names of three women in the parish register of one of these churches are Silence, Silence, and Mindwell. Clearly, these people had never read, or at least believed, Shakespeare's "What's in a name?"

Thought Cardinal Undernourished, Cardinal Manning was extremely thin and emaciated. He was visiting a convent in Liverpool when an Irishwoman was cooking. She was presented to the cardinal, and, after receiving his blessing, she looked up at him, and said: "May the lord preserve your eminence, and oh, may God forgive your cook!"

NEGLECT CHARGE PLACED AGAINST MOTHER OF SIX

Mrs. D. L. Earl said to Have Put Children to Bed While
She Went to Dance

Investigation is to be conducted tomorrow by the district attorney, Frank L. Stephens and John R. Auld, juvenile officer, in the probable court, of a complaint lodged against Mrs. D. L. Earl, who is accused by Mr. Auld of neglect of her children. Mrs. Earl resides at 284 Jackson street.

Found on Street

According to Mr. Auld five small children of Mrs. Earl were picked up on Shawano street north of 11 o'clock Saturday night by Mrs. and Mr. W. A. Flower. They are said to have explained that they were seeking their mother and an older sister who had left them at home on Saturday evening. The children were taken in charge and delivered to the care of prosecuting Attorney Stephens, who took them to his office where Mr. Auld made search for the mother. It is related Mrs. Earl and the 11-year-old daughter were found in a dance hall.

Lad Belates Story

During the course of inquiry made by Mr. Stephens while the children were held in his care an older lad is said to have related that soon after the mother and older sister had left the house the children became frightened at being without guardian and crowd, decreed and walked down town in search of the absent ones. The oldest of the children of children is about 8 years old, the youngest 18 months. Mr. Auld stated that he has had some trouble with Mrs. Earl on other occasions, this growing out of alleged failure of the mother to keep her children of proper care in school.

Mrs. Earl has been cited to appear before Judge O. P. Duvall tomorrow.

SLAUGHTER ADMITS MURDER OF McCULLOM, SENTENCED

Former Not Guilty Plea Withdrawn; Defendant Gets Indefinite Term

In the district court this morning W. L. Slagle, appearing before Judge T. Bailey Lee, withdrew a former plea of not guilty to charge of murdering George H. McCullom, and admitted the state's charge. He asked for immediate sentence and was ordered to be confined to the state penitentiary for a period of from 10 years to life.

Slagle a year ago shot and killed McCullom in a Shoshone street rooming house where the man, with others, had gone to engage in a gambling game. On arraignment testimony showed that Slagle entered the room with a pistol in his hand, and immediately shot McCullom who was nearest the door. Slagle claimed his victim attempted to hold him up.

On motion of counsel for the defense, to which the prosecuting attorney offered no objection, the case of the State against W. L. Slagle was continued for jury work and judge Lee ordered an open venire to be issued to the coroner for serving process. This venire was ordered reported on this afternoon.

WOULD RE-OPEN CRUSHER PLANT TO MAKE WORK

Road Bureau Makes Appeal to District Board to Give Unemployed Jobs

That relief may be afforded at least some of the unemployed men in Twin Falls a delegation representing the roads bureau of the Twin Falls Chamber of Commerce later on Saturday presented the highway district trustees a petition urging the opening of the district crusher plant for operating in providing material for road work now under contract. The matter has been taken under advisement and a decision will be announced on Wednesday.

Reasons Are Stated

The appeal grows out of belief that the gravel could be employed with results equally as satisfactory and probably as cheaply as that taken from a Cassin county gravel bed. The board recently awarded a contract for construction of a gravel highway seven and a half miles in length, the gravel to be procured from Burley. The district engineer is now preparing final plans of road to be submitted to the board on Wednesday.
