HIBERNIANS OF WORLD TO MEET

Conference of Irish Race at Paris Expected to Represent Millions

PARIS, (AP)—The World Conference of the Irish Race to be held in Paris January 21, will bring together representatives of some of the leading families of France, Spain, Italy, Russia, Austria, the Argentine and other South American countries, the ancestors of whom were Irish. These families emigrated from Ireland as early as the 18th century and became nationals of the various countries, although frequently retaining their original names.

All the Irish race organizations of the world will send delegates and President de Valera of the Irish Republic has promised to attend. An exhibition of Irish Art will form part of the meeting.

It is estimated that there are 30,000,000 persons of Irish origin scattered throughout the world.

Many Americans Going The secretariat of the conference in Paris is working hard to reach the descendants of Irish families. Several hundred Americans whose ancestors were of Irish descent will attend. While there are to be only 200 accredited delegates, several thousand persons are expected in Paris for the week's meeting.

The convention will mark the resumption of an event which until the 13th century was an important yearly feature of Irish life. The last one was held in Ireland in the 14th century.

The cultural revival of Irish Art and literature is the chief purpose of the convention. It is purely educational in character and the way is connected with the Gaelic revival movement or Irish political goals.

Reveries Gaelic Culture The reminiscence of Gaelic culture has in the opinion of those arranging the conference, received great impetus within the last 50 years, although little has been heard of this rebirth outside of Ireland.

The purpose of the aim of the conference is to inform those of Irish origin in how far this revival has gone and to interest them in encouraging and fostering Irish art, literature and drama throughout the world.

The invitations to the "Aeneas," or convention, have been sent by Mr. de Valera himself. Fourteen of the largest countries of the world have already responded and will be represented by nations of Irish ancestry.

CLAIMS MEMBERSHIP IN SCOTT'S CARAVAN

Eastman, However, Denies Anger's Statements to Iowa Newspaper

BUHL, Idaho (Special).—Clubs said to be made by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Anger, now being cared for by charity organizations in Marshalltown, Iowa, that the Anger's were members of the original Meritts Caravan out of Brooklyn for Buhl, and that they were "alighted" at Cheyenne, are denied by Joe O. Eastman, local business man who was in charge of the party on the trip west. Mr. Eastman says all of the caravan leaving Brooklyn arrived safely in Buhl.

The Angers are said to have claimed that they paid a large sum of money to a man representing himself as an agent of the caravan. Anger gave the agent's name as Charles Gault. Gault was of the Meritts caravan party reveals no knowledge either of the Angers or Quinn, although the former is said to have declared to the Times-Registerman, a Marshalltown paper, that the Anger family rode in Gault's car with the caravan from Brooklyn to Cheyenne. Anger also is said to have stated he saw his wife walk from Cheyenne to Marshalltown in an effort to return to their home, Pawtucket, R. I. Anger is also declared to have asserted that eighteen other families were "alighted" by caravan executives, along the route of the tour west.

To all of these statements Mr. Eastman enters a protest and he is supported in these contributions by members of the party. Efforts are being made by Mr. Scott and the Buhl Chamber of Commerce to clear up the affair.

PRISONERS' SUFFOCATION INVESTIGATION SUBJECT

British Commission of Inquiry Probes Deaths of 64 Moplahs in Sencloed Railway Coach

TRIPUR, India, (AP)—A testimony as to the reasons surrounding the suffocation recently of 64 Moplah prisoners while being transferred from Shorapur to Bellary in a closed railway wagon was taken by the commission of inquiry here Tuesday.

The reserve policeman in charge of the wagon told of prisoners' shouting for water during the journey, and said he refused to heed their cries because it was not customary for Moplahs to take these trips before reaching Poda-char. He said he had taken prisoners over the route in similar vans on 31 previous occasions without such attention.

The inspector for the south Indian railway testified that the mask of the wire ventilating gauge in the van had been blocked by a fresh application of paint, but that this condition was repaired only after the tragedy.

This information is contained in a report just issued by the "Trust Companies of the United States," a financial sheet edited and published by the United States Mortgage & Trust company of New York. This paper, the thirteenth annual issue of the volume, shows aggregate resources of all trust companies in the United States to be $12,252,520.13 at the close of business June 30, 1921. There were 2890 companies reporting.

John W. Platten, president of the Idaho Trust Companies, commenting on trust company conditions of the country, says: "No stronger evidence of the ability of trust companies has been forthcoming during their entire history than was demonstrated during the past year in connection with their banking operations. The year ending June 30, 1921, covered by the latest returns as given in the 1921 edition of "Trust Companies of the United States," was one of tremendous record for the industry attended by reduction of bank loans, contraction of credit and rapid falling off of deposits.

RADIO PICKS UP MUSIC FROM AIR

Wireless Outfit in Hands of an Amateur Can Be Made to Yield Entertainment

CHICAGO, (P)—On long winter nights when the family gathers round the fireplace in snow-belted, snow-bound farm-houses the members need not lack entertainment, for the air is full of music, short stories and gossip, free to everyone prepared to receive it.

Thousands of amateur wireless operators, experts say, are listening nightly to grand opera, sea time stories, phonograph and band concerts, crop and weather reports and aerial gossip. Any wireless telegraph set can, without additional equipment, pick up the radio-phonograph messages and concerts.

Grand Opera Available
With the inauguration of wireless grand opera by Mary Garden, director-general of the Chicago Opera company, three hours of entertainment is furnished five nights a week.

Telephone transmitters over the stage at the Auditorium Theatre pick up the opera and transmit it over ordinary wires to the houses situated under the roof of a skyscraper several blocks away and from there is sent out broadcast to any one with the proper equipment.

The company operating the station maintains three other broadcasting plants, one at Pittsburgh, Pa. one at Newark, N. J., and one at Springfield, Mass. The program of the Pittsburgh plant is typical of the others.

Bed Time Stories
Early in the evening a bed time story read by the sending operator. The stories generally consume about 15 minutes time. Next the weather and crop reports are announced followed by a phonograph or band concert. This is the week-day schedule. On Sunday nights a specially prepared church sermon is sent.

As all the stations operate on different lengths, the amateur receivers can listen to all one after another, by turning a small dial on their receiving set.

The Chicago Opera service is the most ambitious program of all. At 7:30 o'clock, as the audience begins gathering in the Auditorium, the instruments are tested with a phonograph concert. A few minutes before 8 o'clock the "sender" announces the opera for the evening, the principal singers, the conductor, and then gives a brief synopsis of the first act, explaining the stage effects and scenery. At the end of each act a similar synopsis of the next scene is given.

Sound Carries Clear
In the first test, when Samson and Delilah was sung, amateur stations have not only heard the orchestra and singing, but the clanking of the chains as Lucien Martore, as Samson, paced his prison cell, and the strains of applause that marked each curtain call.

The sender also gives the amplifying devices were unnecessary, ordinary receivers lying on the table at the receiving points spread the music throughout the room.

POWER USERS BENEFIT BY LEGISLATIVE ACTION

Twin Falls Projects to Get $31,766.78 from Tax Rebates to Company

Out of a total sum of $31,766.78 representing tax relief allowed the Idaho Power company by the last legislature, Twin Falls county power users or irrigation purposes will benefit to the amount of $4469.51. The remainder will be distributed by the power company in the form of rebates on amounts already paid.

Other counties participating in this rebating of power payments and the amount is $1243.16. Adair $2015.16; Canyon, $3170.65; Owyhee, $2642.78; Jerome, $2590.75; Power, $2072.30; Bannock, $2531.42.

Having the amount to be rebated to power company filed with the public utilities commission a certificate containing names of all power users for irrigation purposes for these counties. This report complies with the one posed by the legislative assembly of the 1921 session. This enactment forbids the power company a rebate tax, but provided that the amount apportioned among irrigation projects using electrical energy in their operations. This statement contained the following finding, that 18,228.73 responder is annually used for pump water for land irrigation. An order is to be prepared by the utilities commission to make the foregoing rebate in favor of users. The rebates based on reductions of assessed amounts in the county of Twin Falls. The total amount of taxes due the Idaho Power company on rebates is $4,670.68, according to a compilation made by State Auditor E. C. Gleason, allowed in form of an exemption for property devoted to producing power for irrigation pumping.

DISTRICT COURT ASKED FOR NEW SOUTHWARD TRIAL

Law Interpretation Basis of Demand for Re-Hearing of the Famous Murder Case

Being claim on alleged misinterpretation of the law by the court in the case of the late high-society Lydia Meyer Southard, on murder charge, Attorney W. P. Guthrie, Jr., Mr. C. Mills and A. R. Hicks for the defense, have filed application in the district court for a new trial.

The application was filed with the clerk of the district court this morning by Mr. Mills and details in 58 legal pages of typed matter, the various allegations on which basis for a new trial is applied for.

Misinterpretation Charged.

The principal allegation, involving misinterpretation of the law alluded to admittance of evidence in cases of death other than the one at issue. The deaths alluded to are three former husbands of the late Mrs. Southard, Robert C. Dooley, William G. McElfatich and Marlan O. Lewis. The fourth death was that of Edward Dooley, a brother-in-law, in connection with permitting introduction of this testimony counsel for the defense claims the court acted when a motion for a ten-day postponement of the trial was denied. The postponement was denied in order to permit the defense to assemble testimony to counter that submitted by the state.

Mrs. Southard's attorneys contend that the state did not prove beyond reasonable doubt that Meyer did not die from a cause other than that of arsenic poisoning, and did not prove a motive for the alleged killing.

Threaten Appeal.

In case this new trial motion is denied by Judge Babcock the case will be taken to the supreme court for review, according to counsel for the defense. The defendant was specifically accused of causing the death of Edward Meyer by the administration of doses of arsenic during the fall of 1920, and within a few weeks after their marriage. Meyer was foreman at the Blue Lake manse.

GREAT GRID ELEVEN WILL MEET IN FILER ON COMING SATURDAY

Blackfoot Expected to Give Denman's Team One of Season's Hardest Fights

Although involving no championship Blackfoot-Filer football contest, scheduled to be played in the Filer rural high school field at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, is expected to result in one of the toughest gridiron battles of the year in this district. Both teams are top class, with neither team seeming to have any particular edge over the other. Blackfoot has compiled an enviable record in east and conference play this year, while Filer, charged with losing but two titles, one of these being on an alleged fluke.

The Filer high school grid contingent in this district, both teams, the west section of southern Idaho. Twin Falls is really the only team having a clean-cut victory over the Denman eleven. Although Evans team defeated the neighbor town lads 25 to 0 the contest was one of the hardest the local team has had this year, and reported in sending to the hospital one of Evans' only reliable players, Cliff Fix, captain. Fix was out of action to his team after the Filer encounter. The season's record gives both a win over "Big Filer" to the west section, and a contest on the ground of a misinterpretation of rules.

REBUZED IN FALL

Mrs. H. W. Gloubeck and Mrs. Merle H. Gloubeck, participants in the Filer-Pocatello, narrowly escaped injury last night in fall through an open coat chute at the rear of the Lavering theater. Both suffered painful bruises.

Handicapped.

"Ah wouldn't say MacFiatich canna learn the game," said Sandy cautiously to his golf partner, "but what with being both religious and tongue tied it will be difficult, ay, verra difficult."

WHEAT MARKET WEAKENS AS CROP REPORTS VARY

Mixed Estimates of Conditions Ease Rise and Fall of Quotations; Close Shows Fractional Decline

CHICAGO, (AP)—Bears in the wheat market had the advantage today during the early trading. Gains in Texas and in Southern Argentina were reported and the deliveries here on December contracts were of fair volume. Several big commission houses led the selling, although the Texas rains apparently failed to reach the banks in or west of Texas where the larger wheat acreage is located. Opening quotations, which varied from unchanged figures to 5-8c lower, with December $1.13 1/4 to 1 1/8 3/4 and May $1.17 1/4 to 1 1/8 3/4, were followed by a moderate uptick which, however, proved transient.

Later an estimate that the condition of winter wheat in Texas is only 20 to 25 per cent of normal brought about a decided fresh-up, but profit taking here and rains in Kansas caused a new setback. The close was unsettled at 1 1/8 3/4 to 1 1/8 3/4 with December $1.13 1/8 and May $1.16 3/4 to 1 1/8 3/4.

Wet weather over the corn belt gave strength to the corn market, but purchases were small. The close was nervous, 1/2c net lower to a shade advance, with May $4 1/4 to $4 1/4 to 3/8c.

Oats were firmer with corn notwithstanding large deliveries of oats on December contracts. The market started unchanged to 1/4 up, with May $3 1/2 to $3 5/8c, and held near to the initial range.

Trading in provisions was virtually flat, at a standstill, with quotations almost unchanged.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK, (AP)—Shorts continued to cover their contracts in rails and oil today. The strength of foreign exchange, further extensive investment here and rains in Kansas caused a new setback. The close was unsettled at 1 1/8 3/4 to 1 1/8 3/4 with December $1.13 1/8 and May $1.16 3/4 to 1 1/8 3/4.

Covering of short contracts in rails, oil today.

Shipping and oil-impaired a firm tone to leading shares at the opening of today's stock market. Union Pacific, Canadian Pacific, Northern Pacific, Chicago and Northwestern and Norfolk and Western preferred gains ranging from 1/2c to 3/4c. The price of Argentine, Marine averaged extended its initial fractional rise to two points and Standard Oil of New Jersey was strong with Mexican Petroleum. The latter dependent stocks made no pronounced response to overnight reports of a proposed merger. Republic Iron and Steel was the only issue of that class to register more than a nominal change. Preliminary quotations for foreign exchange showed a further break rise in German marks.

CO-OPERATIVE ROAD BUILDING

Visitors from Piler call attention to what they claim is one of the most satisfactory plans for road construction on a co-operative basis ever put into practice these parts.

Practically all road building operations now going forward are in connection with the construction of crushed lava roads. Some little gravel is also being used but this is the most part disintegrated lava rock of practically the same character as that turned out by the crushing plant.

The sum of 65 cents a yard is paid to farmers for hauling the rock to the crushing plant, the actual cost of the crushed rock being within the cost of quarrying under the old plan. Rocks, big and little, of all shapes and sizes, are hauled from the surrounding country wherever they may be found. The plan was first placed in operation in the Piler highway district on November 1 when the teams went to work hauling. The number has increased steadily, until at the present time anywhere from 50 to 60 teams are steadily employed at this work. On November 29 there were 69 farmers' teams engaged and total of a little over 456 yards of rock was dumped the plant ready for crushing. The payroll for the work now averages about $335.00 a day.

"The plan gives us exactly the road material we want," said a Piler man yesterday, "distributes $325.00 a day among the farmers and adds at least 45.00 to the value of the land in clearing of rocks such places as gar-rocks."

The method of construction employed under the present contract for road building consists of first rolling in gravel, then adding a first course of crushed crushed lava rock which is rolled in with clay or dirt. A second course rock is then rolled in with blower of dirt and whole dressed off with a final course of fine crushed rock. "While the cost of such a road is estimated to amount to around 45,000.00 a mile, it is claimed that the keep or maintenance is much less than in the case of gravel highway."

MERGING TWO HOLIDAYS

The suggestion that the United States combine Armistice day and Thanksgiving Day as one national holiday was worthy of serious consideration. The increasing number of holidays is interfering with industrial and business activities. There is probably not a civilized nation that will not call to make Armistice day a public observance for the world, marking the turning point of international history. Thanksgiving is the one holiday that is designated by proclamation of the president of the United States, and custom is observed on the last Thursday of November.

One of the arguments proffered for the proposed combining of the two holidays is that, Thanksgiving day comes so near to the Christmas holiday, and merchants find that little holiday trade may be expected until after Thanksgiving. Fixing the latter holiday for November 11 would give business the advantage of about two weeks more. That Armistice day falls near the middle of the month offers an opportunity for a change that would be welcomed by most folk, except perhaps the lazy ones, for whom all-day and half-day holidays are merely an excuse for knocking off work.

More Truth Than Poetry

ELEGY IN AN AMERICAN NUT-HATCHERY

THE landlord says we've got to move today.
The janitor has asked us for the key;
He says unless he gets it right away
They'll need three doctors to assemble me.

NOW comes a process server, trained to fight
If he receives a welcome that is cold;
They've just detached the wires, and stopped
our light;
They'll soon turn off the water, I am told.

THIS morning, when I started out to get
A quart of milk to serve the baby's need,
Six striking drivers stopped me, I regret
That I was slow to give their warnings heed.

BENEATH my left eye there's a purple shade,
This mark upon my cheekbone I shall keep;
The gaping wound upon my brow was made
By one who lulled me suddenly to sleep.

FOR no more home brew; I've had my turn.
Last week they gave my wife a nasty scare;
Two men ripped up the place, with much concern,
Our stuff was harmless, but they didn't care.

THIS boat of liberty, in this sad hour
Is but an empty sound; no dusky slave
Was ever more completely shorn of power
Than is the offspring of the free and brave.

THE listening Senate yields to their command
Who name our needs and limit our supplies;
And if we grieve about it we are panned
As kind to pitch our tents 'neath other skies.

PERHAPS, O lamb forgetfulness a prey,
You think you still have freedom, of a Brother, it's time to toast that thought away
And cast a longing, lingering look behind.

Jackie Coogan, the little youngster who carried a niche in the hearts of all picture fans who saw him in "The the New Orpheum for the next three said that he has even greater work in this film than he did in the Chaplin

Jackie is seen as an all-around Ameri-

Sharkskin "Shoe Leather." Recent tests of sharkskin uppers for shoes by the United States bureau of standards were made in a way both ingenious and practical. Pairs were made to order, with one upper of kid and the other upper of shark leather, and these were worn by employees of the bureau. It was found that the shark leather wore better and longer than the kid. It has the special advantage of being waterproof.

Sharkskin is a material that is yield leather of high quality, suitable for many purposes and attractive for traveling bags, brief cases, desk sets and the like. When the value of the

SHANTUNG ISSUE DEVELOPS FROM GERMAN CLAIMS

Origin and History of the Outstanding Controversy in Far Eastern Situation is Reviewed

WASHINGTON, D. C. (Special).
What is the "Shantung question" after all, and what part do Kiaochow and Jedgao play in it?
This question is answered in a bulletin issued from the Washington, D. C., adaptors of the National Geographic Society as follows:
"The Shantung question" had its roots when Germany, eager to complete its other European nations which were becoming more and more imperial in the Far East, determined to have a port and naval base of her own on the shores of northeast China.
It is definite when in 1897 two German missionaries were killed in Kiaochow, most densely populated and economically and settlement-ly one of the most important of the provinces. By way of indentifying herself for the loss of her natives, Germany forced China to grant her a 99 year lease on an area of 44,000 acres and including the port on the coast of Shantung at the range of Kiaochow Bay, and to transfer a zone 33 miles wide skirting the coast line and including the entire region. On the leased plot the Germans built a typical German town, Yokohama.

equaling the distance between Washington and Baltimore.
When this most stubborn of Far Eastern questions first emerged, with Germany and China as the chief parties concerned, it seemed to be only a "Kiaochow question." But the Kiaochow
"fish" rapidly developed into the indefinite but looming Shantung "oil" when Germany's economic designs were understood; and the later amendments to the treaty made the problem still broader. For the agreement included concessions to build railroads outside the leased and neutral areas, in Shantung proper, and coupled with the railroad concessions was the right to exploit mines in zones twenty miles wide traversed by the railroads.

tung, was opened in 1904. When in 1911

Britain's interests by taking the town send troops to make the attack a certified affair, but were disengaged.

When Japan had stormed the town and laid siege to the Germans, the Chinese considered the matter merely a "Kiaochow question," but it rapidly grew into a "Shantung question" again when secret treaties were disclosed which Japan had obtained more than a year before the peace conference engagements of Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy to support Japan's

FARMERS FIGHT RODENT PLAGUE WITH AQUA PURA

Inundation Resorted To In Effort to Destroy Force of Mice Invasion

Flooding of infested lands is one of the effective means of combatting the rodent plague in the Twin Falls district, according to R. E. Howard, county farm agent. Water is probably more effective than the use of poison, Mr. Howard says.

Flood Fight On.
That farmers generally, especially in the infested district, have resorted to inundation methods in an effort to rid their premises of field mice, which in the past fortnight have done considerable damage to clover and alfalfa, as well as to fruit bushes and trees, was made known at a meeting held at Castleford, Farm Bureau Agent Howard attended the meeting and furnished details of great enthusiasm over the effects of water and poison in fighting the plague.

"Some of the farmers followed up their inundation process with investigations of results and found these eminently gratifying," Mr. Howard remarks. "The farmers dug into nests and found from six to a dozen dead young mice. This only indicates part of the extent of good results for the farmers, as it does not take into account the thousands of dead mice floating about in the water. The flooding scheme is effective and should be generally employed wherever it is possible."

Synthetic Supply Gone.
Mr. Howard told of distributing all the available synthetic to the farmers at the Castleford meeting. He is expecting a cargo of large supply immediately. Thus far the bureau has distributed more than 100 ounces of the deadly drug to district farmers. Thirty-five men attended last night's meeting.

IDAHO STATE ORCHARDS WORTH MANY MILLIONS

State Plant Bureau Expert Previews Commission with Startling Facts

Value of fruit lands in Idaho is placed at $13,215,700 by W. W. Wickes, director of the state bureau of plant industry in a statement to the benefit of the interstate commerce commission. Wickes shows that in all, there are 32,248 acres of land in this state devoted to large variety orchards. The statement was part of the exhibits presented in the transcontinental rate hearing, held on Monday in Idaho. According to the statistics the acreage is distributed as follows: Apples, 20,709; peaches, 3082; cherries, 70; peaches, 481; apricot, 50; peaches, 100. The large variety orchard yield of apples from these orchards has been 12,481,000 bushels, selling for $10,079,950. Prune yield was 5156 carloads, selling for $4,029,200. Peaches, 650,000 bushels in the aggregate, selling at an average price of $2.30 per bushel.

BOY SCOUT CAMP UNDER WAY

The big scout camp at the Interstate park in New York and New Jersey is opened again for the season. It is expected that approximately 2000 boys will be the daily count in this enormous camp.

There will be a nine weeks' camping season which will probably accommodate more than 6000 boys. One of the most interesting features of the camp will be the museum in charge of "The Boy Scout" type who will exhibit at the Museum, nature study work of the entire camp. A friend of the movement has contributed a thousand dollars to further the nature instruction in order to "coax, hike or transport bodily" the best available scientific material. The boys privileged to participate in this huge and happy camp, whose law is scout law and whose program is the scout program, will have a never-to-be-forgotten experience.

TEACH ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION

Governor Grosbeck of Michigan recently recommended that every child in Detroit should be taught how to teach artificial respiration. "Boy Scouts, who were already expert in the Schaefer methods and others who were given thorough special instruction were in turn, placed in charge of classes in artificial respiration held in the different schools of the city."

GET FIVE ACRES FOR PRESENT.

A troop in East Auburn, Cal., has recently been made the happy recipients of five acres tract of land. The boys are building log cabins, one for each patrol and an extra large cabin big enough to hold a hundred scouts. There is a fine spring on the land and the troop is planning to utilize its water supply by building a large bathing camp. They aren't slung with their blessings either. They have issued an invitation to any scouts who want to come, up and enjoy their camp.

MARINES PUZZLE NEW YORK

Queer Uniforms on Brazilian "Leathernecks" perplex Experts of the Metropolis.

Something which even the war didn't familiarize the observant American public or at least the people of New York city, was the Brazilian marine. Despite all the varied types of uniforms seen about Times square and notwithstanding the fact that there were many "sharks" able to tell immediately just what the uniform stood for, the recent appearance of the marines of the Brazilian battleship Minas Geraes at the New York navy yard was a setback to many experts.

The Brazilian marine—and there are only a few of them, inasmuch as Brazil has but one large battleship—is dressed in a most unique uniform. It is a combination of chauffeur's leggings, a Scotch Highlander's bonnet with the streamers, and a blouse of red, fashioned like that of a mounted policeman and black trousers. The summer dress used aboard the battleship is the same style, but in white drill cloth.

Even the dwellers about Sands street and Flushing avenue, who have seen the dress of every navy in the world, were rather perplexed, dark hued men, who rarely left the navy yard, but could be seen inside the gates. Occasionally one would walk around the yard a bit, but they were not seen out and along the streets frequently. They finally discovered that these were the "leathernecks" of Brazil.—New York Sun.

GREELEY'S HOME STATE WANTS MEN FROM WEST

New Hampshire Launches Campaign to Induce Eastward Movement

CONCORD, N. H., (AP)—Horses Greeley said "Go West young man." Horace Greeley was a native of New Hampshire. Now New Hampshire is calling out to the middle west, "Come East." In Ohio last month the New Hampshire board of publicity started a campaign designed to persuade Ohioans to immigrate to this state and do their farming on the hills from which many of Ohio's ancestors departed in response to the great editor's advice.

Ohio was chosen as the first objective because, the board says, "it is the heart of the four middle western states whose soil is fully occupied and which annually send forth settlers to unoccupied lands to their north and west and because its farm population is of the highest order." The campaign machinery was provided by the New Hampshire State Grange, which was stimulated by prizes donated by former Governor Roland H. Spaulding. The board of publicity, which aims to restore abandoned farms to their former productivity, is headed by Major Frank Knox, editor of the Manchester Union.

Mothercraft.
"Mothercraft, a movement for better preparation of girls for motherhood, has within the last few years made remarkable progress in this and other countries," writes Marion Chase Baker, in the Survey. "Starting in Massachusetts as a definite standardized course of study for girls and young women, it has in one form or another been adopted in most of the states, in the dominion of Canada under the auspices of the Victorian Order of Nurses, and to some extent in several other foreign countries. State and national branches of the Federated Women's clubs have taken the initiative in promoting mothercraft. It has also had support from parent-teacher associations, Red Cross workers, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Americanization centers and playground associations."

What made the automobile practicable?

There can be no question that gasoline preceded the automobile and made its present universal use possible.

Internal combustion engines have been made to run with other kinds of fuel—alcohol, benzol, coal and natural gas, kerosene, etc. But gasoline, because of its greater effectiveness and economy compared with all other known motor fuels, has been responsible in a large measure for the tremendous growth of the entire automotive industry.

For over a decade The Continental Oil Company has been serving a great territory consisting of the six intermountain states. Its task has been a big one and has called for much strenuous effort and the development of a large organization.

Volume production, particularly in the petroleum industry, and efficient distribution make possible a lower selling price for each commodity made than would be practicable for a legion of small producers. And this applies not only to petroleum products but to every necessity of modern life, from matches to steel rails.

The various storage stations of The Continental Oil Company, its many fleets of delivery trucks and wagons, its up-to-date service stations, the uniformly high quality of its products—all these are evidences of the efficient way in which this company is handling the big job that it has undertaken. ECONOMICS FOR ROADS CLAIMED FOR NEW RULES

Revised Working Regulations Issued by Federal Board Paves Way for Savings of Fifty Million Dollars a Year

CHICAGO, (AP)—Economics in operation and increased efficiency, estimated to reach $50,000,000 a year, in operation of the "open shop" on all American railroads were forecast last night in the promulgation of revised working rules governing railroad shop employees by the United States railroad labor board.

The new rules become effective today and the jurisdiction over approximately 400,000 men immediately, although a still larger number will be affected when the normal traffic conditions are restored.

Supporting National Agreement—Far-reaching changes in the rules, which supplant the national agreement made during federal control, were designed to afford a basis for permanent stability in the national shops of the country and were declared by members of the labor board to be the most important work yet done by the board and of much greater significance than any decision in the past, even including wage scale adjustments.

Large economies are expected to result from revision of the classification rules, which were made more elastic, and hereafter will permit members of certain crafts to do minor jobs previously done by members of other crafts. Staggered hours attached to the labor board estimated that economies in operation, increased efficiency and larger output, would approximate $50,000,000 a year.

Give Minorities Voice—Provision for the representation of minorities who have no grievances is another important item of the new rules. Under the national agreement, negotiation for employees was placed almost wholly in the hands of labor organizations, with the result that the railroads and many industrial and civic institutions declared that the agreement forced a closed union shop on the roads. "Non-union" was found to be impracticable to attempt to bring grievances before the board and as the rules worked out, union officials handled the cases, taking their precedents from the national agreement stipulations in which union officials acted for the employees in drawing up the agreement under federal control.

Established by the new rules, "a statement by both members said, "will, in fact, be more theoretical than practical at the present time, since a large majority of the railroad shops are unorganized and existing unions are unorganized by the board and by the Transportation Act as representative of the majority."

"Most of the older working rules, sanctioned by the experience of years, are preserved in full effect. Many of the more rigid rules, however, were considerably relaxed in favor of the roads, although the recognized rights of the men are fully protected and the principle of collective bargaining and union recognition is retained, as contemplated by the transportation."

HERMIT INVOKES DEATH TO CHEAT LAWS MINIONS

Arrest Begins, Branding in Lake, Turns Out on Times and White House Estate

MARHOMET, Ill., (AP)—Harry Davis, 50 years old, who lived in a cave and had been a hermit for 10 years, committed suicide yesterday afternoon when pursued by a sheriff, posse seeking to arrest him on a charge of thievery. He shot himself in the breast as he stood high deep in a small lake as the posse beat the brush about the shore.

After being accused of murder 10 years ago, Davis drew himself from his fellow men. He remained the shores of the forgotten white House estate. Last Monday night a store at Lodge was robbed. The sheriff started out to arrest the hermit. The latter fled from his cave into the timber. In the cave was found a bed of leaves, a section of a log used as a chair and a few cooking utensils in addition to canned goods and other articles which the sheriff declared were stolen.

Presidents Who Served Two Terms

The first president to serve eight years was Jefferson, who was followed in turn by Madison and Monroe; eight years each. "Uncle Sam" John Quincy Adams, who had one term only. He was followed by Jackson with two full terms, ending in 1837. Then came a break of 40 years, until 1877, before President Grant retired after eight years' occupancy of the White House. Cleveland served eight years, 1885-93 and 1893-97, but his two terms were interrupted by that of Benjamin Harrison, 1889-93.

WOMEN PROBING POLITICAL ILLS

National Organization Outlines Pertinent Topics for Investigation

CHICAGO, (AP)—Why men do not vote, what is wrong with the ballot and how politics handles electoral machinery—these are some of the problems that women voters have set to look into here Dec. 1 to 3. At this time the National League of Women Voters will hold its first institute on efficiency in government in Chicago.

Purpose is Educational

"Its purpose," explains Miss Belle Sherwin of Cleveland, who is in charge, "is an expansion of the political education for women begun in our citizenship schools. We started with a study of government, the constitution and the laws, and are going forward to consider much more carefully what political parties are doing with the institutions we are studying."

"If the league is a university, for adult political education, I might say its citizenship schools present the freshman course and this institute is a second year's course."

Two Principle Questions

"It has before it," she said, "two questions: What will make government more truly representative and what will make its operations more efficient in political units of every size?"

"This institute will cover only the first question. It will devote itself therefore to a study of the local voting system."

"We are not planning a debate, but a school with one speaker at each session."

"Women" whom the institute is held, Miss Sherwin said, are especially those who are "able to take back and set up" a method of presenting these fundamental things about participating in government to women who were primarily interested in becoming voters."

ENGINEERS WILL MEET IN RUPERT JAN. 9 TO 14

State Chapter Sends Out Call to 300 Members to Attend Annual Conclave

Idaho chapter, American Association of Engineers, will hold its annual meeting in Rupert in January, according to word received by local members of the association in the past few days. The dates of the meeting are January 9 to 14.

Last year the annual convention of engineers was held in Nampa in connection with the meeting of the Idaho Seed Growers' association, Idaho Dairy council and the State Fair bureau, as well as various agricultural associations of the state.

The January conclave is to be divorced from all these bodies, but will be conducted jointly with that of the Idaho Irrigation congress and the Idaho Society of Architects.

The Idaho chapter of the American Association of Engineers is composed of some 300 members, all leading engineers of the state in various lines of engineering endeavor, and is a branch of a national institution which has more than 20,000 members. The engineers of Idaho are grouped into local clubs wherever possible. Clubs have already been formed in Boise, Pocatello, Lewiston, Burley, Twin Falls and American Falls. The president of the state association is L. H. Cooke of Nampa with E. E. Moberly of Pocatello, vice president, E. F. Ayres of American Falls, secretary, T. W. Halliday of Rupert is in charge of arrangements for the coming year's conclave.

The Huguenots

Huguenots was the name applied by the Roman Catholics to the Protestants of France during the religious struggles of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. The term is of doubtful origin. Some authorities say it is corrupted through Ignacia Ignota, from the German Edigenosen, confederates; while according to others, the word is a diminutive of Hugo, Bugen, Hugh, a patron saint of Tours.

Sense Qualities

Instead of there being only five senses as we usually think, there are probably as many as 16. Four distinct senses, for example, are found in the skin. These are heat, cold, pain and pressure. What we usually call touch is a combination of these sense qualities.
